

Syllabus

Course Code: HIST 236      Title: 20th Century American Diplomatic History Since 1900

Institute: Business and Social Science

Department: History

Course Description: Since World War II, more significant change has taken place in the United States international affairs than in all of its previous history. The students will investigate a selection of those events for opportunities to gain new insights and information to perform historical research. The accelerated vents since 1950 have involved the United States in hot wars in Korea, Vietnam, Granada, Panama and Kuwait, in epoch making alliances in NATO and elsewhere as well in diplomatic maneuvering in the Middle East, Latin America and Africa
