Minor in Hebraic Studies

Minor: 12 credits

The Hebraic Studies minor requires the successful completion of four HEBR literature and/or culture courses on the 200-level or above, taught in English or in Hebrew. Two Hebrew language courses on 300-level or above may be used toward the minor requirement in lieu of two literature or culture courses.

Minor in Hebrew

The Hebrew minor requires the successful completion of 12 credits at the 200-level or above. Courses counted toward the Hebrew minor must be either language courses or have Hebrew as their language of instruction.

Minor in History

Students majoring in disciplines other than history may elect a minor in history. The history minor consists of 12 credits. The minor in History is flexible and thus it can provide depth to a variety of majors; students can tailor the minor to suit best their individual interests.

Requirements:

1. Four history courses of 3 credits each (or 12 credits total) taken for a letter grade (C or better. Courses taken for a grade of Credit/No Credit will not count toward the minor.)
2. Courses must be distributed in at least two geographic fields, i.e. at least one course (3 credits) must be taken in a geographic area different from the other three. (Currently, the geographic areas are defined as U.S., European and World/Non-Western.)
3. At least two courses (6 credits) must be at the 300-level or above. Internships do not count toward completion of the minor, although students completing the minor may elect to include an internship as an additional course. Independent studies (tutorials) and HIST300 are available only to History Majors and, thus, do not count toward the minor.
4. At least two of the courses (or 6 credits) must be taken in the History Department at Hunter College. Courses taken in other disciplines will not count toward the minor unless cross-listed and taken under the appropriate HIST course code. Transfer courses must beapproved by the History Undergraduate Advisor.

There are no prerequisites for the minor, although certain courses may have their own prerequisites.

Declaring a Minor in History:

Students are advised to declare their minor by the beginning of the upper junior semester, but must do it prior to their final semester (that of graduation). Declaration requires a planning session with the History Undergraduate Advisor and completion of the Major/Minor Declaration Form (to be obtained from the OASIS).

Minor in Legal Studies

The Legal Studies minor is an interdisciplinary course of study that allows students to examine the role and development of law from different perspectives within a liberal arts curriculum. Legal studies students will be introduced to the study of judicial opinions, theories of law and legal interpretation, the structure and role of legal institutions, and the operation of law in history and everyday life.

Law is a central feature of political, social, and economic life. The legal studies minor will prepare students embarking on careers in government, business, or the non-profit sector to think broadly and critically about the nature of law. It will also be extremely helpful for any students planning to pursue graduate study focusing on law or legal institutions, in a wide variety of disciplines. The legal studies program places an emphasis on developing students’ communication skills, interdisciplinary scholarship and a commitment to connect undergraduate education to advanced career opportunities. The core of the legal studies minor, though, is a commitment to the study of law within the liberal arts tradition.

While there are many ways for students to prepare successfully for law school, an advantage of the legal studies minor is its ability to help the college identify students planning to apply to law school, to ensure that these students receive guidance on the application process as early as possible, and to give them a solid foundation when they enter law school.

Program Requirements

15-credit minor

Students are required to complete at least one course from within each of the three categories below. Students can take no more than three courses from one department.
No more than two courses from the student's major can be applied toward the Legal Studies minor. Courses used to fulfill the Legal Studies minor may be used to meet any other degree requirements, including the political science major. Students should be aware that courses listed for this minor may have prerequisites within their home departments.

Topics TBA. Recent courses have looked at globalization, social movements and civil society, energy policy, women and economic development, international migration. Depending on topic, may meet PD/A, B, or C.
prereq: perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.
ANTHC 35100 - Language in Culture and Society

GER 3/B
Sociolinguistics; ethnography of communication; languages and dialects; face-to-face interaction; bilingualism in social and political life; language, ideology and identity.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 35400 - Grammatical Analysis and Theory

GER 3/B
Methods of syntax and morphology in work with diverse languages; syntactic theories and their development relative to universals, semantics, pragmatics, discourse.
prereq: ANTHC 15100 or equiv.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 40100 - Seminars in Selected Topics

Topics TBA.

Minor in Mathematics

A minor in mathematics consists of a minimum of 12 credits selected from the following courses offered by the Department:

- MATH courses numbered 15000 or above (with the exception of MATH 26100)
- STAT 31100
- STAT 31200

Mathematics minors are required to take all necessary prerequisites. Students should consult the catalog to determine prerequisites necessary for them to enroll in courses that count toward the minor.

It is recommended that prospective mathematics minors consult with an undergraduate mathematics adviser concerning course selection.

Minor in Media Studies

The Minor in Media Studies consists of five courses for a total of 15 credits. At least one 200-level course and at least one 300-level course are required. The other three courses can be at any level. Course prerequisites must be satisfied. Internships and independent studies do not count towards the minor.

Minor in Music

The music minor consists of 15 credits in music: MUSTH 10100; MUSHL 10100 or MUSHL 10700; one course with an MUSHL prefix at the 200-level; and 6 credits of music electives, 3 of which must be at the 200-level or higher. Prospective minors who have already mastered the material taught in the required 100-level courses (MUSTH 10100 and/or MUSHL 10100 or 10700) may be exempted from these courses by passing the same entrance examination that is required of prospective music majors (see Music 25-Credit Major (BA)). Music minors must substitute more advanced courses in any area of music study, which may include private lessons and ensembles, for the courses from which they are exempt. PLEASE NOTE: Music minors who wish to take private lessons for credit (MUSPF 40100) must first pass both the performance audition and music theory portions of the entrance examination.

Minor in Philosophy Standard and PPS Concentration

The philosophy minor requires 12 credits at the 200-level and above with no fewer than 3 credits at the 300-level. Exceptions: PHILO 17100 may count toward the minor at the 200-level. PHILO 20300 and PHILO 20400 shall not count.

Students seeking to minor in the Philosophy, Politics, Society (PPS) concentration must select from the approved list of philosophy courses (i.e., non-philosophy courses may not be applied).

A student must pass a minor in philosophy with a minimum GPA of 3.00.

Prerequisite to the minor: one of 6 introductory philosophy courses:

PHILO 10100
PHILO 10300
PHILO 10400
PHILO 10600
PHILO 20300
PHILO 20400 and
ENGL 12000

Note: When constructing a philosophy minor in either the standard or the PPS concentration, a student should always consult with a philosophy department adviser beforehand.

See Philosophy - BA for suggested tracks in the Standard Concentration

Minor in Physical Anthropology

The Physical Anthropology Minor introduces students to the study of human evolution, including human variation, paleontology, genetics, and primatology. The Minor consists of a minimum of 12 credits. These must include ANTHP 101 Human Evolution (4 Cr). The remaining credits can be filled by any AN-P courses. Also, one (and only one) non-ANTHP course from the following list may count towards the minor. In order to graduate with a Physical Anthropology Minor, students must earn a C grade or better in all the courses counted towards the minor.

Required course for the Minor:

ANTHP 10100 - Human Evolution
GER 2/E
The study of human origins and adaptation, through an understanding of evolutionary mechanisms, genetics, comparative primate biology, the fossil record, and modern human variation.
6 hrs (3 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab) 4 cr.

8 or more credits from any of the following courses:

Note: Only one non-ANTHP may be used for the Physical Anthropology Minor.

ANTHP 10200 - Human Variation
GER 2/E
Description and analysis of biological variation in living human populations. Both genetic and phenotypic variation will be examined. Lab experiments and demonstrations.
6 hrs (3 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab) 4 cr.

ANTHP 30100 - Human Fossil Record
GER 3/B PD/C
The hominid fossil record of Africa, Asia and Europe. Human evolution as evidenced in fossil record.
prereq: ANTHP 10100, 10200, or equiv.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHP 30200 - Human Genetics
Analysis of distribution of contemporary human populations and microevolutionary processes that underlie human variability prereq: ANTHP 10100, 10200, or BIOL 10200
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHP 31000 - Primate Ecology and Behavior
GER 3/B
Examination of ecological factors responsible for the distribution and behavior of living primate species.
prereq: ANTHP 10100 or 10200 or BIOL 10000 or 10200
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHP 31100 - Primate Evolution
GER 3/B
Evolution of primate behavior and morphology; interdependence of ecology, behavior and morphology.
prereq: ANTHP 10100 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHP 31200 - Primate Evolutionary Genetics
Examines evolutionary relationships, social behavior, natural selection, disease, population history, demography, medicine and genomics. This course draws on readings from the primary literature.
prereq: ANTHP 10100 or ANTHP 10200 or BIOL 10200
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHP 31600 - Human Evolutionary Adaptations

GER 3/B
Studies adaptive significance of distinctive biological features of human species, including brain size, secondary sexual characteristics, sparse body hair and use of complex language.
prereq: ANTHP 10100 or 10200 or BIOL 10000 or 10200
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHP 40100 - Seminars in Selected Topics

Course provides in-depth study of specific topics in field of physical anthropology.
prereq: prereq; depends on topic
3 hrs 3 cr.

Non ANTHP Courses:

ANTHC 12600 - Introduction to Prehistoric Archaeology

GER 2/B
Human social and cultural evolution from the earliest humans to the rise of the first civilizations.
3 hrs 3 cr.

BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I

GER 2/E PD/C or D
The chemical basis of life; basic structure and function of pro- and eucaryotic cells; bioenergetics; Mendelian and molecular genetics; development and mechanisms of control of gene expression at all levels; population genetics and evolution.
Material Fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equivalent
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

BIOL 12000 - Anatomy and Physiology I

Cell structure and function; histology; nervous, muscular and skeletal systems; integument. Required for admission to the nursing program.
Not accepted for credit toward the biology major.
prereq: CHEM 10000, 10100 coreq: CHEM 12000, 12100
6 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab) 4.5 cr.
fall only

GEOL 10100 - Fundamentals of Geology
GER 2/E
Describes the earth and the forces that shape it. Topics of discussion will be the formation of the earth, plate tectonics, earth materials and geologic time. The goals of the course include introducing students to geology, "systems thinking", the methods of scientific inquiry. Lab: study of minerals, rocks, maps. Field trips may be required; transportation fee.
6 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab) 4.5 cr.
Offered fall and spring.

PSYCH 16000 - Evolution and Behavior

GER 2/B
Aggression, sleep, learning, communication, emotion, motivation and social behavior in human and other species; underlying mechanisms, development, evolutionary history.
prereq: PSYC 10000
3 hrs 3 cr.

Minor in Physics

A minor in Physics consists of a minimum of 12 credits of PHYS courses, including two courses numbered above 200 or one course numbered above 300. Students who wish to enroll in the Physics Minor must have completed:

- MATH 15000
- and-
- MATH 15500.

The prerequisites for the 300-level courses include MATH 25000 and/or MATH 25400.

Minor in Political Science

Students minoring in political science must complete 12 credits in political science. No more than three credits can be at the 100-level. No more than three credits in independent study (POLSC 29001-29003) can be used to satisfy the minor. Internship credits may not be applied toward the minor.

The minor in Political Science is designed to provide students with solid grounding in political science and to encourage them to develop depth in the discipline in an area that will complement their major or develop expertise in an area of particular interest to them.

The minor in Political Science allows students considerable flexibility in designing a minor that will best serve their academic goals. Students may, for instance, wish to focus on courses dealing with European politics and foreign policy to complement a major in a European language and culture. Students may concentrate their courses in one field of political science, or spread them across several fields. Students may consult an advisor in the Department of Political Science about their goals as they choose courses to satisfy the minor.

Minor in Psychology

The minor in psychology is designed to expose students to a variety of content areas in the field of psychology and to provide the student with the ability to evaluate psychology research as a consumer. To declare a psychology minor, the student must have completed any 100-level psychology course with a minimum grade of C and a required mathematics course with a minimum grade of C or CR. The mathematics requirement may be satisfied by STAT 11300 or MATH...
12500 or by an appropriate score on the mathematics placement test. The minor in Psychology consists of 15 credits in Psychology, as follows: PSYCH 10000 and any other 3 cr. PSYC course; PSYCH 21500; and any 2 200-level PSYC courses below PSYCH 24800. The total number of credits to fulfill all minor requirements, including credits for all prerequisites, is 18: 15 credits in PSYC course and 3 credits in STAT 11300 or MATH 12500.

Minor in Religion

The Minor in Religion consists of four courses for a total of 12 credits.

- The following two courses are required:

  - REL 11000 - Nature of Religion (W)
  - REL 11100 - Approaches to Religion (W)

- Also required for the Minor in Religion:

  a) one course to be chosen from those listed under the category “Religious Traditions”; and

  b) one course from the category “Issues in Religion” reflecting a theme central to the religious tradition in which the student has chosen to focus, to be selected in consultation with a Religion Program adviser.

At least one course presented in satisfaction of the minor must be a 300-level course.

Minor in Russian Language and Minor in Russian Literature and Culture

The Program will encourage students to take the Russian minor. The minor consists of minimum of 12 credits. Students wishing to minor in Russian should either pass a proficiency test or take the language sequence of RUSS 10100 — RUSS 10200; RUSS 20100 — RUSS 20200. Courses taken toward the Russian minor could follow two tracks:

Track I: Russian Language Minor

Prerequisite: RUSS 20200 or equivalent. Students are expected to take: RUSS 30100 & RUSS 30200; RUSS 31700 or RUSS 31800 or RUSS 31900; plus one literature course taught in Russian.

Track II: Russian Literature and Culture Minor

Prerequisite: RUSS 20200 or equivalent. Students are expected to take: RUSS 30100 & RUSS 30200 and two literature or culture courses conducted either in Russian or in English. Literature courses may be substituted for language courses in the Literature and Culture Minor with permission by the head of the program.

Minor in Sociology

The minor in Sociology requires four courses with 12 credits which students have to pass with a GPA of at least 2.0. Students minoring in Sociology must take SOC 10100 - Introduction to Sociology, the prerequisite for all other sociology courses, SOC 22100 - Classical Sociological Theory and two additional courses selected from those offered on a regular basis. It is recommended but not required that one sociology course on the 300 or higher level be included.

Minor in Spanish
The Spanish minor consists of 15 credits of courses that are taught entirely in Spanish and combines language, civilization, and literature.

• The prerequisite for a Spanish minor consists of either

SPAN 20200 - Intermediate Spanish II

Language lab mandatory.
Spanish for English speakers.
prereq: SPAN 20100 or three yrs high school Spanish
3 hrs 3 cr.

-or-

SPAN 20800 - Advanced Spanish for Native Speakers

prereq: SPAN 20700 or perm dept.
3 hrs 3 cr.

or equivalent proficiency

Minor in Spanish Cultures and Literatures

The following courses are required for a minor in Spanish Cultures and Literatures:

Two language courses (6 credits) above the SPAN 20200 (non-heritage speakers) or SPAN 20800 (heritage speakers) level, at least one of which must be a 300-level course. Recommended courses are:

SPAN 21100 - Spanish Grammar and Composition

Not recommended for fluent speakers of Spanish. Study of grammatical and syntactical patterns. Practice in reading, writing and speaking Spanish.
prereq: SPAN 20200 or 20300
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 22100 - Spanish for Oral Communication

Not for fluent Spanish speakers.
prereq: SPAN 20200 or equiv. and perm adviser
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 27000 - Spanish Composition for Spanish Speaking Students prereq: SPAN 20800 or perm adviser
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 31100 - The Structure of Modern Spanish

prereq: SPAN 21100 or permission of departmental adviser
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 31200 - Advanced Spanish Writing

Applying morphosyntactical patterns through intensive composition. Exploration of various writing forms. Required of all Spanish majors.
prereq: SPAN 31100 or equiv.
3 hrs 3 cr.

One civilization course (3 credits) chosen from

SPAN 33500 - Spanish Civilization

GER 3/A PD/D
prereq: SPAN 20800, 21100 or dept. perm
3 hrs 3 cr.

-or-

SPAN 33600 - Latin American Civilization

GER 3/A
Geographical, historical, political, literary, artistic and economic evolution of Latin American nations. Given in Spanish.
prereq: SPAN 20800, 21100 or dept. perm
3 hrs 3 cr.

Two literature courses (6 credits) on Spanish or Latin American literature. Recommended courses include:

SPAN 27500 - Readings in Modern Spanish Literature

PD/D
Representative writers: Unamuno, Lorca, Cela.
prereq: SPAN 20200, 20300, 20800, 21100 or four yrs high school Spanish or dept. perm
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 27600 - Readings in Modern Spanish- American Literature
Representative writers: Borges, Neruda, Cortazar, Garcia Mirquez.

prereq: SPAN 20200, 20300, 20800 21100 or four yrs high school Spanish or dept. perm.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Alternately, students may take 300-level Spanish and Latin American literature courses from the following list by special permission of adviser:

SPAN 34300 - Spanish Literature of the Middle Ages

GER 3/A PD/D

After exploring Al Andalus’ poetry, prose and philosophy written by Muslim and Jewish authors; the Castilian epic Poema de Mio Cid, the beginning of the Christian cult of Virgin Mary (Milagros de Nuestra Señora), the origins of the short stories (Libro de Conde Lucanor), and the elegy will be studied. Special attention will be given to the position of women since the 12th Century, especially in Libro de buen amor.

prereq: SPAN 34100
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 34500 - Spanish Drama of the Golden Age

GER 3/A PD/D

Theatre of 16th and 17th centuries, Lope de Vega and Calderon.

prereq: SPAN 34100
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 34600 - Cervantes

GER 3/A PD/D

Don Quijote.

prereq: SPAN 34100
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 34900 - Spanish Prose of the Golden Age

GER 3/A PD/D

Principal themes and genres of prose production in Spain in the 16th and 17th centuries, with emphasis on such authors as Rojas, Santa Teresa, Cervantes, Zayas and Quevedo.

prereq: SPAN 34100
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 35000 - Spanish Poetry of the Golden Age

GER 3/A PD/D

Principal forms and issues of poetic composition in Spain in the 16th and 17th centuries, with emphasis on major poets such as Garcilaso, Fray Luis, San Juan de la uz, Lope, Quevedo and Góngora.

prereq: SPAN 34100
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 35300 - Spanish Neoclassicism and Romanticism

GER 3/A PD/D

Representative works of Neoclassical and Romantic periods, including costumbrismo.
SPAN 35500 - Spanish Literature from Realism to World War I

GER 3/A PD/D
From Realism and Naturalism through the Generation of 1898 and Modernism.

prereq: SPAN 34100
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 35700 - Early 20th Century Spanish Literature

GER 3/A PD/D
Presentation of the major writers and works of the first 40 years of 20th century Spanish literature.

prereq: SPAN 34100
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 35800 - Post-Civil War Spanish Literature

GER 3/A PD/D
Major trends and writers since the Spanish Civil War, with particular attention to the social, cultural and political context.

prereq: SPAN 34100
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 36000 - Spanish-American Literature of the Colonial Period

GER 3/A
Masterpieces from the 16th to the late 18th centuries; from the age of exploration to the period of independence.

prereq: SPAN 34100
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 36200 - Spanish-American Romanticism, Realism and Naturalism

GER 3/A
Representative works of 19th century Spanish-American literature.

prereq: SPAN 34100
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 36400 - Spanish-American Modernism and Post-modernism

GER 3/A
Modernist and post-modernist authors.

prereq: SPAN 34100
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 36500 - Survey of Spanish-American Teatro
GER 3/A
Survey of major trends in Spanish-American dramatic literature from colonial days to the present, with emphasis on the second half of the 20th century.
prereq: SPAN 34100
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 36600 - Contemporary Latin American Poetry
GER 3/A
Major trends, such as Vanguardia, Brazilian Modernismo, Caribbean poetry, Anti-Poetry, Exteriorismo and popular poetry.
prereq: SPAN 34100
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 36700 - Latin American Essay
GER 3/A
Exploration of the essay as an aesthetic form and its role in the social and cultural struggles that have marked Latin-American history.
prereq: SPAN 34100
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 36800 - Contemporary Latin American Narrative
GER 3/A
Major trends, such as the Indianist novel, Mexican Revolution, social and psychological realism, novel of the 'boom', novel of the dictator.
prereq: SPAN 34100
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 37000 - Special Topics in Spanish Literature
GER 3/A PD/D
May be repeated with different topic.
prereq: SPAN 34100; permission of adviser.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Note:
Students may use transfer credits and credits from the Hunter programs in Spain and Argentina up to a maximum of 6 credits. At least 9 credits of the minor must be completed in residence at Hunter.

Minor in Statistics
A minor in statistics consists of at least 12 credits selected from STAT courses offered by the Department. Statistics minors are required to take all necessary prerequisites. Students should consult the catalog to determine prerequisites necessary for them to enroll in courses that count toward the minor. It is recommended that prospective statistics minors consult with an undergraduate statistics adviser concerning course selection.
Minor in Theatre

A Minor in Theatre requires a minimum of 12 credits in the Department of Theatre at the 200-level or higher of which at least 3 credits must be at the 300-level (these are usually at least 3 credits). Minors are required to take all necessary prerequisites for these courses. Minors have access to all courses offered by the Department of Theatre. Minors are encouraged to participate in departmental and student productions. Interested students must meet with the undergraduate advisor in the Department of Theatre to declare a minor and to define their course of study.

Minor in Women and Gender Studies

The Minor in Women and Gender Studies requires students to take 12 credits: Introduction to Gender and Sexuality Studies (WGS 10000), Classics in Feminist Thought (WGS 20100), Transnational Feminisms (WGS 24400) and one elective course from one of the six areas of concentration.

WGS 10000 - Introduction to Gender and Sexuality Studies, must be completed before WGS 20100 - Classics in Feminist Thought (W) and WGS 24400 - Transnational Feminisms.

Other Degrees

List of Approved Courses for GER Core Stage 1: Academic Foundations

Stage 1A English Composition: 3 credits

This requirement introduces expository writing and academic discourse. Through reading, writing and rewriting, students learn to generate, explore and refine their own ideas, analyze and evaluate intellectual arguments, take positions and support them persuasively and write with sound grammar, varied sentence structure, logic and coherence.

ENGL 12000 - Expository Writing

GER 1/A
Required of all students unless exempt; trains students to analyze, develop and evaluate ideas and to express themselves clearly and effectively. Introduction to documented research.
prereq: successful completion of developmental courses, if required
3 hrs + conf 3 cr.

Stage 1B Quantitative Reasoning: 3 credits

The goal of this requirement is to develop competence in mathematical and quantitative reasoning, including the use of numerical and graphical data in making judgments on personal, professional and public issues. Students who place out of MATH 125 are exempt from this requirement.
CSCI 12100 - Computers and Money: Quantitative Reasoning in Context

GER 1/B
Quantitative reasoning tackled from a computer based perspective and focusing on practical financial topics—stocks, gambling, inflation, diversification, taxes, hedging, saving, real estate, retirement and others. Students take a hands-on, spreadsheet-based approach to understanding issues of money and personal finance.

This course cannot be counted towards the CSCI major.

prereq: none
3 hrs 3 cr.

ECO 22100 - Economic Statistics

GER 1/B
Probability and statistics in the context of economics, business and public policy; data analysis, probability distributions, and hypothesis testing.

prereq: MATH 12500 or exemption from the course
3 hrs 3 cr.

MATH 10000 - Basic Structures of Mathematics

GER 1/B
Not open to students who have received credit for any math or stat course that satisfies the GER 1/B requirement. Not recommended for students majoring in mathematics, statistics, computer science, or natural sciences. Symbolic logic, sets, number systems, relations and operations and topics in probability and statistics. This course is a terminal course and does not serve as a prerequisite to any other course in the department

prereq: CUNY Math Proficiency
3 hrs 3 cr.

MATH 10200 - Mathematics and Everyday Life

GER 1/B
Students will learn how to model real world problems with mathematics, and learn techniques for solving them. Topics include personal finance, statistical reasoning, probability, exponential growth, and voting theory.

prereq: CUNY Math Proficiency
3 hours 3 credits

MATH 10400 - Mathematics for Elementary Education I

GER 1/B
Fundamental and relevant mathematics as recommended by the NCTM for prospective elementary school teachers, including problem solving, sets, logic, numeration, computation, integers and number theory. Required of students planning to teach in elementary schools. Not open to other students.

prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 10100 or appropriate score on the placement exam
3 hrs 3 cr.

MATH 10500 - Mathematics for Elementary Education II

GER 1/B
Continuation of MATH 10400. Continuation of the content of the mathematics recommended by the NCTM for prospective elementary school teachers, including probability, statistics, plane and transformational geometry, congruence and similarity.

MATH 11000 - Topics in the Mathematical Sciences

GER 1/B
Not open to students who have completed MATH 10500, 16000 or 26000. Intended for liberal arts or social science students. Applications of topics selected from algebra, analysis, computer science, geometry, probability and statistics.

prereq: college-level mathematics or statistics course.

3 hrs 3 cr.

MATH 11100 - Matrices, Vectors and Linear Programming

GER 1/B
Not open to students who have completed MATH 16000 or 26000. Recommended for accounting students; not recommended for students majoring in mathematics or statistics. Introduction to matrices and vectors, systems of linear equations and linear programming with applications.

prereq: MATH 10100 or appropriate score on placement exam

3 hrs 3 cr.

MATH 12500 - Precalculus

GER 1/B
Functions and their graphs: polynomial, rational, exponential, logarithmic and trigonometric functions; conic sections; topics in trigonometry; graphical and analytical solutions to systems of equations and inequalities. Not credited to students who have completed MATH 15000 or its equivalent.

prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 10100 or appropriate score on placement exam

4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

GER 1/B
Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.

prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.

4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 15500 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

GER 1/B
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions, integration techniques, infinite sequences and series, improper integrals, polar coordinates.

prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 15000

4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 16000 - Matrix Algebra

GER 1/B
Systems of linear equations, matrices, determinants, introduction to vector spaces and linear transformations, applications.
prereq: MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 11000 - Selected Topics in Elementary Probability and Statistics as Applied to Popular Science and Current Events

GER 1/B
Topics to be studied in any given term will be announced prior to registration. This course does not serve as a prerequisite for any other mathematics or statistics course. This course is a topics course that serves as an introduction to selected topics in probability and statistics with applications to the real world.
prereq: CUNY Math Proficiency
3 hrs 3 cr

STAT 11300 - Elementary Probability and Statistics

GER 1/B
Not open to students who have completed STAT 21300 or PSYCH 24800. Not credited for majors in statistics or mathematics unless minor is elementary education. An introduction to applied statistics and statistical computing. Hands-on data analysis. Graphical inference. The five number summary, box plots, scatterplots, normal probability plots. Elementary probability. Statistical estimation and hypothesis testing. Linear regression. Students are expected to analyze real data sets and write reports. Students who have taken calculus or place into calculus by the placement exam should take STAT 21300 instead of STAT 11300.
prereq: A grade of C or better in MATH 10100 or appropriate score on placement exam
prereq or coreq: ENGL 12000
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 21200 - Discrete Probability

GER 1/B
Combinations, permutations, discrete probability. Characteristics of probability distributions. Model building. Additional topics like sampling, random walks or game theory will be introduced from time to time.
prereq: MATH 12500 or STAT 11300 or appropriate score on placement exam.
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 21300 - Introduction to Applied Statistics

GER 1/B
Familiarity with the Windows computing environment encouraged. Sampling, estimation, tests of hypotheses, including one- and two-sample tests, two- and three-way tables for nominal and ordinal data, linear regression, analysis of variance through two-way with interaction, appropriate statistical software.
prereq: MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Stage 1C US History: 3 credits

This requirement introduces portions of the history of the United States covering periods of time sufficiently long to reveal the historical dynamic and bring understanding of the historical contexts that have created our social and political institutions. It emphasizes the importance of the historical perspective and method, an understanding of how, where and why change has occurred over time and an awareness that the world we live in has been influenced by the past.

HIST 15100 - The United States from the Colonial Era to the Civil War (W)

GER 1/C or 2/B
American political, social and cultural history from the time of the European settlements to the Civil War.
Courses at the 300-level and above not offered to freshmen.
prereq or coreq: ENGL 12000
3 hrs 3 cr.

Japanese

JPN 25100 - Japanese Culture Before 1600

GER 2C PD/A
Covering many facets of Japanese culture, this course will focus on the various periods of Japanese history (Jomon, Yayoi, Kofun, and Heian – to name a few) and uncover how many aspects of Japanese culture were shaped. From the influence from nearby countries – most notably China – to its isolationist periods, its mythology, the evolution of its art, the deep-seated love of nature shared by many Japanese, and the co-existence of multiple belief systems, Japan is a truly unique country whose culture continues to gain in popularity within the United States. Taught entirely in English.

While this is a two-part course, Japanese Culture Before 1600 (JPN 25100) will not act as a prerequisite for Japanese Culture Since 1600 (JPN 25200).

prereq: ENGL 120
3 hrs 3 cr

JPN 25200 - Japanese Culture Since 1600

GER 2C PD/A

This course will focus on Japanese culture after roughly 1600. During this time, Japan was largely isolated from the rest of the world, but specific events led to a mixture of vastly different cultures – that of the Japanese and the Western world, which led to many changes within Japan. Additional major topics include the impact of both World Wars, contemporary Japanese lifestyle, and the various holidays and traditions that are celebrated today. Art, literature, and social reform will also play important roles throughout the semester.

prereq: ENGL 12000
3 hours 3 credits

JPN 26100 - Special Topics in Japanese Culture

Religious reasons for determining good and evil; religious sources for ethical decisions.
prereq: ENGL 12000
3 hrs 3 cr.

REL 20900 - Religion and Human Rights (W)

GER 2C
It has been contended that religious beliefs about the natural and moral order, as well those concerning human nature, lie at the foundation of the idea of human rights. Some histories of human rights even begin with a survey of the teachings of various major religious traditions. And, as the idea of, and movements for, international human rights swept the globe in the latter parts of the 20th century, scholars and religious thinkers examined and assessed the confluence of the world’s religious systems of thought, conscience, and belief with the norms and standards of the human rights project. Yet, even as religious thinkers and leaders contribute significantly to human rights movements around the world, some human rights norms—for example, those prohibiting gender- or religion-based discrimination, prohibitions on certain forms of punishment—seem to conflict head on with the strictures of various religions. This course will examine these various intersections.
prereq: ENGL 12000
3 hrs 3 cr.

REL 21100 - The Sacred Sky: Astrology in World Religions (W)

GER 2C
Astrology is a belief system that exists cross-culturally because the sky is an omnipresent cultural resource, and while different civilizations have varied beliefs about the meaning of celestial activity, those beliefs share a common thread: the sky is sacred, and celestial activity is an expression of that sacrality. The names of the planets and the stars, as well as their myths and stories may differ from tradition to tradition, but ancient astronomers of every culture studied celestial motion, detected patterns, understood those patterns to be cyclical, and believed they formed the basis of an orderly and precise cosmology.
prereq: ENGL 12000
3 hrs 3 cr.

REL 25100 - Asian Religions (W)

GER 2/C PD/A
Study of Hinduism, Buddhism, Jainism, Taoism and Confucianism.

GER 2/D PD/D
Fundamental concepts of film and discussion of major critical systems. Screening of relevant films.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Humanities Interdisciplinary

Macaulay Honors College

MHC 10000 - MHC Seminar 1, The Arts in New York City (W)

Fulfills GER 2D. Visual and Performing Arts: Media, Art, Dance, Film, Music, Theatre prereq: Open to Macaulay Honors College students only
3 hours 3 credits

Music

MUSHL 10100 - Introduction to Music

GER 2/D PD/D
For non-majors. Selected compositions primarily from the European tradition studied with aim to develop perceptive listening.
3 hrs 3 cr.

MUSHL 10700 - The World of Music

GER 2/D PD/A
For non-majors. Introduction to music from a spectrum of world cultures, including Africa, Asia, and the Caribbean.
3 hrs 3 cr.

MUSTH 10100 - Music Theory Fundamentals

GER 2/D
For non-majors. Introduction to music theory, sight singing, and ear training.
3 hrs 3 cr.
Theatre

THEA 10100 - Introduction to Theatre

GER 2/D
Study of elements of theatre arts acting, directing, playwriting, design from standpoints of both viewer and participant.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Stage 2E Natural Science: 7 credits

The goal of this requirement is to introduce students to the concepts and ways of thinking of the natural sciences. The sciences have intrinsic intellectual value, pursuing basic questions about the workings of the universe and the world around us. Students should be conversant with the rapid pace of scientific advances and able to make informed decisions about scientific matters in the public domain.

Note: Two courses are required, one of which must include a laboratory component.

Laboratory Courses:

Anthropology

ANTHP 10100 - Human Evolution

GER 2/E
The study of human origins and adaptation, through an understanding of evolutionary mechanisms, genetics, comparative primate biology, the fossil record, and modern human variation.
6 hrs (3 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab) 4 cr.

ANTHP 10200 - Human Variation

GER 2/E
Description and analysis of biological variation in living human populations. Both genetic and phenotypic variation will be examined. Lab experiments and demonstrations.
6 hrs (3 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab) 4 cr.
offered every sem.

Biological Science

BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I

GER 2/E PD/C or D
The chemical basis of life; basic structure and function of pro- and eucaryotic cells; bioenergetics; Mendelian and molecular genetics; development and mechanisms of control of gene expression at all levels; population genetics and evolution.
Material Fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equivalent
BIOL 10200 - Principles of Biology II

GER 2/E PD/C or D
Taxonomy; homeostasis; internal transport and gas exchange in plants and animals; plant hormones; osmoregulation; mechanisms of action in the muscular, nervous and neuroendocrine systems; the senses, behavior; ecology.

Material fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.

prereq: BIOL 10000 or perm instr, MATH 10100 or equiv.

BIOL 12500 - Human Biology

GER 2/E with lab
An introductory lecture/laboratory course for non-biology majors. BIOL 12500 explores the biology that underlies current health and disease topics (including diabetes, cancer, heart disease, sexually transmitted diseases, and nutrition). Using this topics approach, the course provides a survey of human anatomy and physiological function, along with the biological principles of genetics and cellular interactions that comprise our current understanding of the human organism. Laboratory exercises will introduce students to a scientific approach in studying human disease and physiology.

BIOL 15000 - CSI: HUNTER (Forensic Biology)

GER 2/E with lab
An introductory laboratory course for non-biology majors. This lecture/laboratory course will cover the techniques used by forensic scientists to analyze a crime scene, and the biological concepts behind them. Through the topics that are covered, students will learn how biological evidence like fingerprints, hair, blood, and DNA are collected, analyzed, and presented as evidence to solve crimes.

Required for this course is a 10 minutes PowerPoint presentation in groups in four students. In order to prepare for the presentation, a two page outline from each student is expected. In addition, a group assignment of less than 5 pages long will be assigned as preparation of the presentation. This assignment helps students prepare for a “crime scene” that will be designed by the group using the topics and materials provided in class. Further research for this project is encouraged using library materials or the WWW to provide supplemental information, ideas and images.

The laboratory component of the course requires that students record their data, observations, and answer discussion questions (in a short answer format). The completion of their laboratory manual will constitute part of the laboratory grade.

BIOL 16000 - Honors Principles of Biology II

GER 2/E PD/C or D
Physiological systems and their regulation: internal transport, hormones and gas exchange in plants and animals; osmoregulation; motility; nervous, neuroendocrine, immunological and sensory systems; behavior, reproduction and ecology. Students will read reviews of current research in addition to the required text. Guest speakers and class presentations. Enrollment limited. Core credit awarded only if BIOL 10000 and 16000 are both completed. PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 16000.

prereq: grade of B or better in BIOL 10000 or perm instr, MATH 10100 or equiv.

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.

spring only

Chemistry

(Core credit only if both lecture and the corresponding lab are completed)

CHEM 10000 - Essentials of General Chemistry Lecture

GER 2/E

Essential facts, laws, and theories of general chemistry.

Note: Core credit awarded only if CHEM 10000 and CHEM 10100 are completed. Primarily for nursing, nutrition and food science and community health education students.

4 hrs (3 lec, 1 rec) 3 cr.

CHEM 10100 - Essentials of General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E

Experiments designed to illustrate fundamental laws and techniques of general chemistry.

Primarily for nursing, nutrition and food science and community health education students.

prereq or coreq: CHEM 10000

3 hrs 1.5 cr.

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E

In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.

Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.

5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E

In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.

Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair

5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10500 - General Chemistry Laboratory II

GER 2/E

Laboratory experiments illustrating and applying theory of solutions to qualitative analysis.

Offered for transfer students who have completed only one semester of General Chemistry Laboratory.

prereq: One semester of General Chemistry Laboratory, prereq or coreq: CHEM 10400

3 hrs 1.5 cr.
CHEM 10600 - General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate the fundamental laws of chemistry. The course is equivalent one year of general chemistry laboratory.

Credit not given for CHEM 10600 and CHEM 10300 or CHEM 10500. Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200
coreq: CHEM 10400
6 hrs 3 cr.

CHEM 11100 - Chemical Principles

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to chemical principles including measurement, stoichiometric calculations, inorganic nomenclature, gas laws, equilibrium, acids, bases and buffers. Emphasis is placed on problem-solving, oral presentations, and collaborative work. Laboratory and coursework emphasize analysis and evaluation of data.

Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equiv, MATH 12600
9 hrs (4 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab, 2 hrs workshop) 5.5
offered fall

CHEM 11200 - Thermodynamics and Solution Chemistry

GER 2/E
The study of quantum theory, atomic structure, periodic properties of the elements, kinetics, electrochemistry, and thermodynamics.

Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 11100
9 hrs (4 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab, 2 hrs workshop) 5.5
offered spring

CHEM 12000 - Essentials of Organic Chemistry Lecture

GER 2/E
Course presents essential facts, laws and theories of organic chemistry.

Core credit awarded only if CHEM 12000 and CHEM 12100 are completed. Primarily for nursing, nutrition and food science and community health education students.
prereq: CHEM 10000
4 hrs (3 lec, 1 rec) 3 cr.

CHEM 12100 - Essentials of Organic Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate fundamental laws and techniques of organic chemistry.

Core credit awarded only if CHEM 12000 and CHEM 12100 are completed. Primarily for nursing, nutrition and food science and community health students.
prereq: CHEM 10100 prereq or coreq: CHEM 12000
3 hrs (3 lab) 1.5 cr.

Geography
PGEOG 13000 - Weather and Climate

GER 2/E
Offers a basic understanding of how weather systems form, why certain regions have particular types of weather patterns, and what is known about climatic fluctuations across the globe. This includes an understanding of the basic physical principals that determine: how hot or cold a particular location is; how seasonal cycles vary in different parts of the world; and the types and amounts of precipitation. Students learn to analyze several types of weather maps and acquire a basic understanding of central issues related to global climate change, one of the most significant environmental issues of our time.

Material Fee: $5
5 hrs (3 lec, 2 lab) 4 cr.
Offered in the Fall and Spring

Geology

GEOL 10100 - Fundamentals of Geology

GER 2/E
Describes the earth and the forces that shape it. Topics of discussion will be the formation of the earth, plate tectonics, earth materials and geologic time. The goals of the course include introducing students to geology, “systems thinking”, the methods of scientific inquiry. Lab: study of minerals, rocks, maps. Field trips may be required; transportation fee.

6 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab) 4.5 cr.
Offered fall and spring.

GEOL 10200 - Plate Tectonics and the Earth's Evolution

GER 2/E
The second course in geology offered to non-geology majors. It is designed to familiarize students with the main concepts used in deciphering and interpreting earth’s evolution from the spatial and temporal perspective. Topics to be covered include: geologic time; geological principles; earth materials as recorders of past geologic processes; depositional environments and sedimentary rock record; igneous and metamorphic geologic environments and their rock records; evolution of the solar system; plate tectonics and life on earth; origin of the universe; life on earth and the fossil record; Precambrian, Paleozoic, Mesozoic, and Cenozoic life, history and tectonics. Field trips may be required; transportation fee.

prereq: GEOL 10100
5 hrs (3 lec, 2 lab) 4 cr.
Offered fall.

GEOL 23100 - Principles of Geomorphology

GER 2/E or 3/B
Investigates the geologic forces that shape the surface of the Earth. In the laboratory students will learn to analyze features of the landscape and deduce the processes that produced them. Students will use traditional laboratories as well as Google Earth to learn about a variety of surficial processes.

prereq: PGEO 13000 or GEOL 10100
4 hrs (2 lec, 2 lab) 3 cr.

Physics and Astronomy

ASTRO 10100 - Basic Concepts of Astronomy with Laboratory Exercises
GER 2/E with lab
An introductory, one-semester astronomy course designed for non-science majors. Topics include: basic observational features of the night sky, and their explanations; Kepler’s laws of planetary motion; Newton’s laws of motion and gravitation. Properties of light, and how it reveals the nature of its source. Origin, properties, and evolution of our solar system. The origin and evolution of stars, including giants, dwarfs, supernovae, neutron stars, and black holes. Structure of The Milky Way and other type of galaxies. Cosmology, Hubble's Law and the expanding universe, from the Big Bang to the present; future scenarios.

The lab consists of traditional hardware experiments and virtual online experiments.

Students taking this course will be required to submit online and hard-copy laboratory reports.

5 hrs 4 cr.

ASTRO 10700 - Laboratory Exercises in Astronomy

GER 2/E
Classroom and online experimental laboratory exercises in astronomy to observe the major features of the night sky, demonstrate the physical basis of astronomical instruments, and experiment with astronomical phenomena. Only offered to students who have previously taken ASTRO 100 which is no longer offered [ASTRO 100 + ASTRO 107 are replaced by ASTRO 10100].

prereq or coreq: ASTRO 10000
2 hrs 1 cr.

(together with ASTRO 10000 or equivalent)

PHYS 10100 - Study of Selected Phenomena and Basic Concepts of Physics

GER 2/E
Introductory one-semester physics course designed for non-science majors and others requiring a one-semester terminal course.

6 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab) 4 cr.

PHYS 11000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
First semester of two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.

prereq: MATH 12500; pre-calculus or equiv. By math dept. exam.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.

PHYS 11100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
For physics and other science majors. First semester of a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.

prereq or coreq: coreq (with perm dept.): MATH 15000
8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.

PHYS 12000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics
GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11000, a two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.

PreReq: PHYS 11000 or 11100

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.

PHYS 12100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics

GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11100, a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.

PreReq: PHYS 11000 or 11100

PreReq or Coreq: (with perm dept.): MATH 15500

8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.

Non-Laboratory Courses:

Computer Science

CSCI 12000 - Introduction to Computers

GER 2/E
Intended for non-majors. Basic concepts of computer technology. Principles of hardware operation, software and networking. Roles of computers in society, including ethical and legal issues.

This course cannot be counted towards the CSCI major

PreReq: none

3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 12700 - Introduction to Computer Science

GER 2/E
A technical introduction to computer science. Organization of hardware, software, information and an introduction to programming. This course is meant for: potential computer science majors who may not be prepared for CSCI 135; science majors who need some basic computer knowledge; and non-CSCI majors who want a more rigorous introduction to the field than CSCI 120 provides.

May not be used toward the CSCI major or minor.

PreReq or Coreq: MATH 12100, 12500 or 15000

3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 13300 - Programming for Everyone

GER 2/E
A comprehensive practical course in programming that concentrates on producing working software for games, simulations, animations, data manipulations, interacting with the Internet, graphical user interfaces and many other application areas. No programming experience is necessary. This course is required for Computer Science minors. This course does not count toward the computer science major.

3 hrs 3 cr.

Geography
GEOL 18000 - Introduction to Oceanography

Dynamic processes are responsible for the ocean’s influence on our environment and life cycles on earth. The course introduces students to the broad field of oceanography and specifically identifies areas which are of concern on both local and global scales. The origins of the oceans and life as it exists in today’s ocean will be covered. Lectures will include the sub-disciplines of biological, chemical, physical, and geological oceanography and concepts that relate to continental margins, ocean basins, sediments and seafloor spreading. Emphasis will be given to the interaction between the circulation of the atmosphere and ocean surface currents, deep ocean circulation, waves and tides. The coastal zone as a fragile environment will be highlighted in connection with dynamic physical and biological processes. No lab component.

3 hrs 3 cr.
Offered fall and spring.

Geology

GEOL 10500 - Introduction to Environmental Geoscience

Introduction to environmental geoscience focusing on aspects of global change and the interrelationship of earth systems. Review of the evolution of the earth from its origins to potential future developments; environmental problems and issues.

prereq: ENGL 12000

3 hrs 3 cr.

School of Public Health

COMHE 32800 - Public Health Biology

Introduction to population biology and ecological principles underlying public health and the relationship of biology to public health. Offers a basic understanding of the biological basis of core public health issues including infectious diseases, vaccines, genetic illnesses, neoplastic processes and environmental illnesses.

prereq: acceptance to the COMHE major or permission of the instructor

3 hrs 3 cr.

List of Approved Courses for GER Core Stage 3: Focused Exposure

Stage 3A Humanities or Visual and Performing Arts: 3 credits

Africana and Puerto Rican/Latino Studies

AFPRL 32000 - African-Caribbean Culture (W)

GER 3/A PD/A or B
prereq: AFPRL 20900 or 21000 or 22200
3 hrs 3 cr.

AFPRL 32200 - African World View: Philosophy and Symbolic Thought (W)

GER 3/A PD/A
Examination of African religious systems, metaphysical conceptions and philosophy.
prereq: AFPRL 22200 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.
offered every other sem.

AFPRL 32300 - Islam and Christianity in Africa (W)

GER 3/A
Examination of relationship of Islam and Christianity to primary African religion and their political role in African history.
prereq: AFPRL 201 or 202 or 222 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

REL 32600 - Religious Meanings of the Qurʾān (W)

GER 3A

This course introduces students to the study of the Qurʾān based on the traditional Islamic “sciences of the Qurʾān” (‘Ulūm al-Qurʾān). Using an introductory text on the Qurʾānic sciences, the course will introduce the traditional areas of concern in the Qurʾānic sciences: the revelation, transmission, form, language and style, hermeneutics, and principles and types of exegesis. The course will continue by introducing students to representative examples of the types of material referred to in the textbook. This material is chosen on the basis of (1) interest, (2) accessibility (especially the availability of English translations) and (3) the ability to give students some exposure to the variety of styles and approaches to the material available in the literature, introducing the students to representative examples of the types of material referred to in the introductory text. This material provides students with illustrative exposure to both classical and modern Muslim approaches to the Qurʾān and its exegesis.

Women and Gender Studies

WGS 20100 - Classics in Feminist Thought (W)

GER 3/A or B PD/C

The course covers the historical debates within the ‘women’s movement’ in the United States by examining some of the ‘classical’ texts by Mary Wollstonecraft, John Adams, and Sojourner Truth. The course also covers the political and intellectual contribution by women of color to the discipline by reading Gloria Anzuldua, bell hooks, Audre Lorde, Patricia Williams, Kimberley Crenshaw among others. ‘Foundational’ texts by Gayle Rubin, Judith Butler, and Adrienne Rich offer a deeper understanding of queer theory’s influence to the discipline. Even as the course reads ‘classic’ texts of the discipline, we will critically examine the formation of a cannon.

WGS 20100 - Classics in Feminist Thought (W)

GER 3/A or B PD/C
The course covers the historical debates within the ‘women’s movement’ in the United States by examining some of the ‘classical’ texts by Mary Wollstonecraft, John Adams, and Sojourner Truth. The course also covers the political and intellectual contribution by women of color to the discipline by reading Gloria Anzuldua, bell hooks, Audre Lorde, Patricia Williams, Kimberley Crenshaw among others. ‘Foundational’ texts by Gayle Rubin, Judith Butler, and Adrienne Rich offer a deeper understanding of queer theory’s influence to the discipline. Even as the course reads ‘classic’ texts of the discipline, we will critically examine the formation of a cannon.

Japanese Division

JPN 25100 - Japanese Culture Before 1600

GER 2C PD/A
Covering many facets of Japanese culture, this course will focus on the various periods of Japanese history (Jomon, Yayoi, Kofun, and Heian – to name a few) and uncover how many aspects of Japanese culture were shaped. From the influence from nearby countries – most notably China – to its isolationist periods, its mythology, the evolution of its art, the deep-seated love of nature shared by many Japanese, and the co-existence of multiple belief systems, Japan is a truly unique country whose culture continues to gain in popularity within the United States. Taught entirely in English.

While this is a two-part course, Japanese Culture Before 1600 (JPN 25100) will not act as a prerequisite for Japanese Culture Since 1600 (JPN 25200).
 prereq: ENGL 120
3 hrs 3 cr

JPN 25200 - Japanese Culture Since 1600

GER 2C PD/A
This course will focus on Japanese culture after roughly 1600. During this time, Japan was largely isolated from the rest of the world, but specific events led to a mixture of vastly different cultures – that of the Japanese and the Western world, which led to many changes within Japan. Additional major topics include the impact of both World Wars, contemporary Japanese lifestyle, and the various holidays and traditions that are celebrated today. Art, literature, and social reform will also play important roles throughout the semester.

The General Education Requirements

Introduction

All undergraduate students who matriculated at Hunter College in fall 2001 and later must fulfill the General Education Requirement (GER), a set of competencies, knowledge areas and perspectives that Hunter College considers essential to the intellectual development of its undergraduates. Students are strongly urged to complete most of the GER before going into their major and minor. Without the necessary background found in the GER, you may find yourself at a disadvantage in your major courses. However, students in highly structured programs, such as the sciences, mathematics, foreign languages and BFA, BMus and BS degree should begin their major and minor courses and their Core requirements concurrently.

The General Education Requirement is composed of the Core Requirement, consisting of designated courses at various academic levels and three graduation requirements: the Writing Requirement, the Foreign Language Requirement and the Pluralism and Diversity Requirement. Transfer students who have earned an AA/AS degree from a CUNY college and who matriculated in fall 2003 and after are exempt from the Core requirements of the GER, but must fulfill the three graduation requirements of Writing, Pluralism and Diversity and Foreign Language. Transfer students who have earned an AA/AS degree from a CUNY college and who matriculated between fall 2001 and summer 2003 are exempt from the Core Requirement and the Writing Requirement. Evaluated transfer credits sometimes can be used to fulfill the GER requirements. All transfer students should carefully check their evaluated courses against the GER. Students transferring from a CUNY school without an AA or AS degree should seek an adviser to help determine which courses they may use to satisfy Core requirements. For overlaps and restrictions on these different requirements and their relation to major and minor requirements, see the section below on Regulations for Core Requirement.

Summary

The Core Requirement, composed of designated courses, is divided into three sequential Stages: 1-Academic Foundations; 2-Broad Exposure; and 3-Focused Exposure.

Stage 1 – Academic Foundations (Students should complete this stage within their first 30 credits.) The Academic Foundations Stage includes courses in mathematics, composition and history that provide students with the analytic, interpretive, communication and historical competencies and perspectives critical to academic success.

Stage 2 – Broad Exposure (Students should complete this stage within their first 45 credits.) The Broad Exposure Stage continues with courses in the social sciences, humanities, arts and natural sciences to introduce students to a broad range of disciplinary perspectives and areas of knowledge.

Stage 3 – Focused Exposure (Students should complete this stage within their first 60 credits.) This Stage requires students to select advanced courses outside their major (students with more than one major should see the Regulations for Core Requirement, below).

The Focused Exposure Stage includes courses in areas that the student has selected to study in greater depth, in the expectation that more advanced students should do more analysis and research.

Graduation Requirements:

Comprise the Writing Requirement, the Foreign Language Requirement and the Pluralism and Diversity Requirement.

1. Writing Requirement The Writing Requirement ensures that all students have significant writing experiences. It is recommended that students fulfill the Writing Requirement early in their academic career in order to prepare effectively for advanced coursework. Courses that can be taken to fulfill the Writing Requirement carry the designation “W” in this catalog. The maximum number of writing intensive, W-designated courses a student must take is 3 (see the section below on Writing Requirement). All W courses must be taken at Hunter. The W-designated courses (or specific sections thereof) are indicated in the Schedule of Classes each semester.

   Note: Not all sections of a course are necessarily offered with significant writing. To satisfy the Writing Requirement a section designated as W in the "Schedule of Classes" must be taken.

2. Foreign Language Requirement The goal of this requirement is to provide facility in a language other than English and to enable students to access non-English literatures. In learning a foreign language and studying its literature and cultures, students acquire new perspectives on how people think, view the world, express themselves and communicate with one another. Language learning expands one’s ability to create and discover new meaning in one’s own language and culture. An awareness of contrasting cultural concepts sensitizes students to the differences between their own culture and others — increasingly important, as the communities of the world have become so interconnected and interdependent. This is a graduation requirement. The requirement of four semesters of language courses or an equivalent combination of college and high school courses is fulfilled only if all four semesters are completed in the same language.
All BA, BFA and BMus students must fulfill a graduation requirement of intermediate (fourth semester) foreign language proficiency. It is recommended that students begin the first two semesters of foreign language proficiency within their first 30 credits at Hunter. Although intermediate foreign language proficiency is required only by the time a student graduates, gaps in language instruction are very undesirable and it is strongly recommended that students complete all their foreign language requirements in consecutive semesters. Students in BS programs should check the requirements for their specific program. Students who change from a BS to a BA program must meet the foreign language requirement for the BA degree.

3. Pluralism and Diversity Requirement This requirement is composed of designated courses in four groups (A, B, C, D). A course can satisfy only one of these four groups, though it may also satisfy a requirement in the Core and in the minor and major.

The General Education Requirement is composed of a Core Requirement and Graduation Requirements in: Writing, Foreign Language, and Pluralism & Diversity. Any number of courses from a major or minor may be used to satisfy the Pluralism and Diversity Requirement and the Writing Requirement.

Note: The list of courses satisfying the requirements is often updated. For the most recent list, please check the Registrar’s Web site at: http://registrar.hunter.cuny.edu

Regulations for Core Requirement:

1. A course may be used to satisfy only one Core Requirement.

2. No more than two courses per department or program may be applied to satisfy Core requirements. Exceptions to this are courses in Stage 1: Academic Foundations.*

3. All courses satisfying Core, Stage 2 Groups A through D must be from different departments or programs.*

4. Students may apply up to two courses from their major to satisfy Stage 1 and Stage 2 of the Core; only one of these is permitted to fulfill a Stage 1 requirement, and only one a Stage 2 requirement.

   Note: Students who have declared two or more majors can use up to two courses from one of those majors to satisfy Stage 1 and Stage 2 of the Core. Only one of these is permitted to fulfill a Stage 1 requirement, and only one a Stage 2 requirement. Courses from minors and any additional majors can be used without limit to satisfy Stages 1, 2, and 3 of the Core.

5. *All CUNY Macaulay Honors College (MHC) courses designated for the Core Requirement may be applied toward the Core Requirement.

Core Requirement

Stage 1: Academic Foundations

List of Approved Courses for GER Core Stage 1: Academic Foundations

This Stage involves basic academic skills needed for success in the liberal arts and sciences. Accordingly students should complete this Stage as early as possible, preferably within their first 30 credits at Hunter. Exemption may be granted on the basis of placement exams or other criteria as determined by the Hunter College Senate. Such exemptions do not yield credit unless they are based on the successful completion of college courses.

A 3  English Composition
This requirement introduces expository writing and academic discourse. Through reading, writing, and rewriting, students learn to generate, explore, and refine their own ideas, analyze and evaluate intellectual arguments, take positions and support them persuasively, and write with sound grammar, varied sentence structure, logic, and coherence.

B 3  Quantitative Reasoning
The goal of this requirement is to develop competence in mathematical and quantitative reasoning, including the use of numerical and graphical data in making judgments on personal, professional, and public issues. Students who place out of MATH 125 are exempt from this requirement.

C 3  US History
This requirement introduces portions of the history of the United States covering periods of time sufficiently long to reveal the historical dynamic and bring understanding of the historical contexts that have created our social and political institutions. It emphasizes the importance of the historical perspective and method, an understanding of how, where, and why change has occurred over time, and an awareness that the world we live in has been influenced by the past.

Stage 2: Broad Exposure

List of Approved Courses for GER Core Stage 2: Broad Exposure

These courses should be completed within a student’s first three semesters (full-time) or 45 credits (part-time) at Hunter.

</thead>
</table>
| A     | 3       | Survey of Literature Written in English
This requirement is meant to increase students’ understanding and appreciation of literature written in English. Courses emphasize close readings of representative texts chosen to familiarize student with various authors, periods, and genres - fiction, drama, and poetry - and to provide a firm foundation for further literary study. Written assignments include quizzes, papers, and a midterm and final exam. |
| B     | 6       | Social Science: People and their Societies
The goal of this requirement is to introduce students to the understanding of individual and collective human behavior. Students should be aware of the geographic, political, social, economic, historical, and psychological effects on the human environment. By studying human relations and the human experience students should learn the methodologies as well as the nature, scope, and limits of specific disciplines in the social sciences. |
| C     | 3       | Humanities: Cultures and Ideas: Literature, Philosophy, Classics
This requirement is meant to introduce students to the human intellectual heritage, the wisdom, and the vision expected of well-educated members of the global human community. The study of texts, thoughts, cultures, and human values should nourish the mind and the spirit, inspiring an enduring love of learning. The humanities are strongly linked to other fields of higher education and are vital to the health of society.

Visual and Performing Arts: Media, Art, Dance, Film, Music, Theater
This requirement is meant to introduce students to significant works of the creative imagination, familiarize them with a medium of creative expression, and enable them to actively participate in individual aesthetic and creative experiences. Through critical analysis, research, and direct involvement in creative work in a particular medium, students should develop an appreciation of the interrelations of intellectual and emotional responses to the arts and letters.

Natural Science: Two courses are required, one of which must include a laboratory component. These may be in the same discipline.
The goal of this requirement is to introduce students to the concepts and ways of thinking of the natural sciences. The sciences have intrinsic intellectual value, pursuing basic questions about the workings of the universe and the world around us. Students should be conversant with the rapid pace of scientific advances and able to make informed decisions about scientific matters in the public domain.

Stage 3: Focused Exposure

List of Approved Courses for GER Core Stage 3: Focused Exposure

These courses are intended to give students the opportunity to study selected subjects outside their major department or program in greater depth than in Stage 2. Usually, these courses will be beyond the 100 level. Accordingly, it is strongly recommended that students take a first course in the same discipline. A student must take one course from Group A and one course from Group B in Stage 3.

Graduation Requirements

Writing Requirement

List of Approved Courses for the GER Writing Requirement

Students matriculating with fewer than 31 credits must take three courses in significant writing — “W” designated courses — at Hunter College. Transfer students matriculating with 31 to 59 credits must take at least two “W” designated courses at Hunter College. Transfer students matriculating with 60 to 90 credits must take at least one “W” designated course at Hunter College. (ENGL 120 does not count as “W” designated course.)

Note: Specific sections of courses containing significant writing are listed with a W designation in the Schedule of Classes. Please note that not all sections of a course are necessarily offered with significant writing. To satisfy the Writing Requirement a section designated as W must be taken.

Foreign Language Requirement

List of Courses for the GER Foreign Language Requirement

Hunter College currently offers the following programs to meet the foreign language requirement:

Chinese (CHIN), French (FREN), German (GRMN), Greek (GRK), Hebrew (HEBR), Italian (ITAL), Japanese (JPN), Latin (LAT), Polish (POL), Russian (RUSS), Spanish (SPAN), Swahili (SWA), Ukrainian (UKR), Yoruba (YOR).

Course of Study:

All students must demonstrate foreign language proficiency at the 12-credit level or its equivalent. In each language a required course sequence (12 credits) is offered: Elementary I and II (2 three-credit courses or 1 six-credit intensive course) and Intermediate I and II (2 three-credit courses or 1 six-credit intensive course). The Elementary three-credit courses are usually numbered 101 and 102 and the Intermediate three-credit courses are usually 201 and 202 (except that the Spanish for Native Speakers sequence is SPAN 105, 106, 207, and 208; intermediate Greek is GRK 110 and GRK 202 or 203; intermediate Latin is LAT 110 and LAT 201, 202, 203, or 204). The intensive six-credit courses are usually numbered 103 and 203 (except for: CHIN 107 and 207; GRK 107; and LAT 107). Intensive courses are not offered in all languages. The first semester of a four-course sequence will not be credited without successful completion of the second semester.

Exemption: Students may be exempted from part or all of the foreign language requirement by virtue of:

1. Successful completion of high school courses. Each year of language study completed in high school is equivalent to one semester (3 cr) of the same language in college. The requirement of 4 semesters of language courses or an equivalent combination of college and high school courses is fulfilled only if all 4 semesters are completed in the same language. Students who have completed 4 years of one foreign language in high school should apply for an exemption with the Coordinator of Academic Appeals; an official high school transcript is required. Students who have passed a language Advanced Placement Test of the College Board with a grade of 5, 4, or 3 should contact the Office of Admissions.

2. Passing at least one advanced college foreign language or literature course that has a 4th semester level prerequisite in that language.

3. Competency demonstrated through proficiency examinations. To arrange for an examination contact the appropriate department office; if the language in question is not taught at Hunter College contact the dean of the School of Arts & Sciences.

4. Presentation of foreign secondary school documentation. Students who have graduated from a high school outside the United States in which the language of instruction was other than English may be exempted from the foreign language requirement upon presentation of a high school or secondary (equivalent) transcript.

5. Presentation of foreign university documentation. Students who present appropriate evidence that they have completed one or more semesters of full-time study at a college or university outside of the United States in which the language of instruction was other than English may be exempted from the foreign language requirement.
requirement. Native speakers of English who participated in a study-abroad program or a program specifically designed for foreigners may be exempted from the foreign language requirement if they provide sufficient evidence of their proficiency in the foreign language.

Note: an exemption from a language requirement does not yield any credit unless the exemption is based on successful completion of college courses.

Placement: Students may begin a foreign language at Hunter College. Students who are not exempt from the foreign language requirement as described above should choose their language course as follows:

1. Students who have satisfactorily completed 3 years of study of one language in high school or have completed the college equivalent of the 3rd level in a foreign language sequence should take the 4th course in the required sequence.

2. Students who have satisfactorily completed 2 years of study of one language in high school or have completed the college equivalent of the second level in a foreign language sequence should take the 3rd and 4th courses in the required sequence.

3. Students who have satisfactorily completed 1 year of study of a language in high school or have completed the college equivalent of the 1st level in a foreign language sequence should take the 2nd, 3rd and 4th courses in the required sequence.

4. Students who are beginning the study of a foreign language should take all 12 credits of a course sequence.

Pluralism And Diversity Requirement

List of Approved Courses for the GER Pluralism and Diversity Requirement

The growing interdependence of the world’s political, economic, and cultural relations, along with the increasingly diverse character of the American citizenry in general and the students of Hunter College in particular, make it imperative that Hunter undergraduates be exposed to a wide range of intellectual traditions, perspectives, and concerns arising from all corners of the globe. The emergence of sizable bodies of scholarship in recent decades reflecting that intellectual array makes it important for Hunter to present them as an integral part of the education of its undergraduates.

Accordingly, all students, including transfer students, who entered Hunter College in the fall 1993 semester or later are required to complete 12 credits in designated courses that address issues of pluralism and diversity before graduating from Hunter College. Students choose three credits from each of the four groups below. Work done at other colleges may be counted towards the pluralism and diversity requirement. When a student is given course equivalence for a course that counts towards pluralism and diversity, that student will also be deemed to have met the corresponding pluralism and diversity requirement except that, BIOL 100/102 and BIOL 100/160, students must see the department to receive pluralism and diversity credit. All courses used to satisfy Pluralism and Diversity requirements may simultaneously meet a student’s Core Requirement or the courses necessary for a major or minor area of study.

Note: While some courses may be listed in more than one group of the requirement, students will be able to apply such course to only one of the four areas.

* Groups designated by letters A, B, C, and D substitute for Groups originally called 1, 2, 3, and 4, respectively.

Note: SOC 101 has been withdrawn from Group A. This change has gone into effect for all students entering Hunter in fall 2001.

Catalog Home

Welcome to Hunter College's Online Catalog

Hunter College, located in the Upper East Side neighborhood of New York City and easily reached by public transportation, now releases its undergraduate catalog annually online to permit changes in programs and courses to reach you more swiftly. The online catalog makes the information more accessible at the same time reducing our impact on the environment.

Hunter offers a myriad of academic offerings in our School of Arts and Sciences, School of Education, Hunter Bellevue School of Nursing, CUNY School of Public Health and School of Health Sciences. Our goal is to provide you, the student, with the most accurate and up-to-date information. The catalog should be used as a guide in planning your course of study in order to meet your degree requirements and graduate in a timely fashion. We hope you find this information useful and good luck at Hunter!
School of Arts and Sciences

About the School of Arts and Sciences

Hunter College's School of Arts and Sciences provides its students with opportunities to pursue a meaningful and challenging undergraduate and graduate education in the arts, humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences. Students from diverse backgrounds study with distinguished and dedicated faculty in the classroom, in the laboratory, in the studio, and in the field. The School promotes outstanding teaching and up-to-date research, and actively supports both as key components of strong major programs. Through its course offerings and its advising resources, including pre-professional advising in business, health, and law, the School of Arts and Sciences works to advance student success across the entire college.

The School consists of over 460 full-time faculty in 23 departments and nine interdisciplinary programs, and serves approximately 15,000 undergraduate and 1,000 graduate students. Members of the faculty of the School of Arts and Sciences continually develop new courses of study that reflect their wide range of interests and expertise. In addition to vibrant majors in disciplines such as art, English, psychology, and chemistry, the School is home to interdisciplinary programs in Archaeology, Asian American Studies, Bioinformatics, English Language Arts, Women and Gender Studies, Comparative Literature, Jewish Studies, Religion, Urban Studies, Latin American and Caribbean Studies, and supports programs in Human Rights and Public Policy.

About the Department

The Department of Africana and Puerto Rican/Latino Studies is comprised of Africana and Puerto Rican/Latino sequences. It offers an inter-disciplinary course of study combining humanities and social sciences approaches in the School of Arts and Sciences. The curriculum is devoted to the history and cultures of these two heritages. The Africana sequence focuses on the experiences of African people on the continent and those in the diaspora. The Puerto Rican/Latino sequence addresses issues related to Puerto Ricans, Dominicans and Cubans in the Islands as well as the experiences of Latinos in the U.S. Where applicable, the similarities and common experiences of the sequences are emphasized.
Because of the department’s emphasis on intellectual, analytical and research development, the student with a background in Africana and Puerto Rican/Latino Studies is well prepared to enter the job market or to pursue graduate or professional study. Education, law, journalism, social work, urban planning, public health, medicine, nursing, business, politics, international affairs and government are some of the fields in which students can utilize a background in Africana and Puerto Rican/Latino Studies. Generally, occupations in the public sector, central cities and urban institutions, as well as jobs involving intergroup and intercultural relations, also benefit from such a background.

Program of Study

Given the interdisciplinary organization of the department, students may elect to concentrate their program of study in the Africana sequence, Puerto Rican/Latino sequence or a combination of both with courses from social sciences and humanities offered by the department.

Major

The major consists of 30 credits. Courses to be taken are as follows:

6 credits from among

AFPRL 20100 - African History from Human Origins to 1600 CE
GER 2/B PD/A
African history from ancient times with emphasis on endogenous African development of civilizations and complex economic, technological and cultural systems over time.
3 hrs 3 cr.

AFPRL 20200 - African History Since 1600 CE

GER 2/B PD/A
Main currents of African history from 1600 CE to present
3 hrs 3 cr.

AFPRL 20300 - African American History I

GER 2/B PD/B
Survey of historical experiences of African people in U.S. from 16th century to end of Civil War.
3 hrs 3 cr.

AFPRL 20400 - African American History II

GER 2/B PD/B
Survey of historical experiences of African people in U.S. from 16th century to end of Civil War.
3 hrs 3 cr.

AFPRL 20900 - Introduction to Caribbean History to 1900

GER 2/B PD/A
Introduction to the major themes in Caribbean history to 1900.
prereq: ENGL 12000
3 hrs 3 cr.

AFPRL 21000 - Introduction to Caribbean History: 1900 - Present

GER 2/B PD/A
Introduction to the major themes in Caribbean history after 1900.
prereq: ENGL 12000
3 hrs 3 cr.

AFPRL 24100 - Puerto Rican History to 1897

GER 2/B PD/A
An examination of Taino society, Spanish colonialism, slave economy and the development of nationhood in the 19th century.
3 hrs 3 cr.

AFPRL 24200 - Puerto Rican History Since 1898

GER 2/B PD/A
Sociohistorical, political and economic analysis of Puerto Rico dating from the U.S. invasion to the present.
3 hrs 3 cr.
3 credits from

AFPRL 28100 - Fieldwork in African American/Latino Communities

Fieldwork involvement and sociopolitical analysis of a community organization in the Black and/or Puerto Rican/Latino communities.

Course open to Majors and Minors Only

3 hrs 3 cr. each

21 credits

- Of which at least 12 must be taken at the 300 and/or 400 level. At least 3 credits must be taken in Puerto Rican/Latino studies if the student’s concentration is in Africana studies and vice versa.

Minor in Africana and Puerto Rican/Latino Studies

The Department of Africana & Puerto Rican/Latino Studies offers a 12-credit minor that requires students to successfully complete two 100/200 level courses and two 300/400 level courses.

Honors

The honors research course, AFPRL 49900, is open to AFPRL upper seniors who have a 3.5 GPA in the major with a 3.0 GPA overall and have completed at least 24 credits including three AFPRL 300/400 level courses. In order to receive an honors endorsement, a student must receive a final grade of at least B+. Students who do not meet the requirement for an honors endorsement but have passed the course, will receive three credits without honors. The research theme changes every academic year. The project is supervised by one full-time AFPRL faculty member but is read and graded by the supervisor and two additional AFPRL full-time faculty members.

Minor in Africana & Puerto Rican/Latino Studies

The Minor concentration consists of 12 credits chosen from Africana and Puerto Rican/Latino sequence courses as follows: 2 at the 100/200 and 2 at the 300/400 levels.

The Africana & Puerto Rican/Latino Studies Minor

The Minor concentration consists of 12 credits chosen from Africana and Puerto Rican/Latino sequence courses as follows: 2 at the 100/200 and 2 at the 300/400 levels.

Anthropology

About the Department
Anthropology is the study of past and present peoples. Among the social sciences, anthropology is distinguished by its comparative approach to peoples and cultures. As a major in a liberal arts curriculum, it provides students with basic and advanced training in all four branches of the discipline: cultural anthropology (ethnology), archaeology, biological anthropology and anthropological linguistics. Major and minor programs are designed to prepare students for postgraduate activities, which include graduate studies, research and policy-related work. Students are also prepared for careers in teaching, social work and employment in museums, government and industry, both domestic and overseas. Many use anthropology as a prelaw or premedical degree. Hunter College also offers a master of arts degree in anthropology; a doctoral degree in anthropology is offered by The City University of New York, of which Hunter is a senior college member.

Anthropology - BA

Major

The anthropology major is designed to give students an overview of the discipline, as well as training in all four fields of the subject (archaeology, cultural anthropology and ethnology, anthropological linguistics and biological anthropology). The anthropology major consists of 25 credits [see table below]. To declare a major in anthropology, the student must have completed at least one course in anthropology with a C grade or better. In order to graduate with a major in anthropology, students must earn a C grade or better in all required courses and electives counted toward the major (effective for students declaring the major after September 1, 2007

Note: While ANTHC 10100 is a prerequisite for many courses in cultural anthropology, including some of the required courses, it is not itself included in the courses required for the major.

Major Requirements
Biological Anthropology: Human Evolution or Human Variation (4 cr.)

ANTHP 10100 - Human Evolution

GER 2/E
The study of human origins and adaptation, through an understanding of evolutionary mechanisms, genetics, comparative primate biology, the fossil record, and modern human variation.

6 hrs (3 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab) 4 cr.

offered every sem.

-or-

ANTHP 10200 - Human Variation

GER 2/E
Description and analysis of biological variation in living human populations. Both genetic and phenotypic variation will be examined. Lab experiments and demonstrations.

6 hrs (3 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab) 4 cr.

Linguistics: Intro to Linguistics (3 cr.)

ANTHC 15100 - Introduction to Linguistics

GER 2/B
Structure and analysis of human languages; language history; language in society, culture and mind; language universals.

3 hrs 3 cr.

Archaeology: Intro to Prehistoric Archaeology (3 cr.)

ANTHC 12600 - Introduction to Prehistoric Archaeology

GER 2/B
Human social and cultural evolution from the earliest humans to the rise of the first civilizations.

3 hrs 3 cr.

Research Design (3 cr.)

ANTHC 31400 - Research Design in Anthropology

GER 3/B
Introduction to basic principles of research design employed in anthropology.

prereq: ANTHC 10100

3 hrs 3 cr.

History of Anthropological Theory (3 cr.)
ANTHC 31800 - History of Anthropological Theory

GER 3/B PD/D
Changing approaches to the study of society and culture. Political and historical context of the development of theory, the link between theory and method and the impact of theory on policy.
prereq: ANTHC 10100 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Elective courses (9 cr.)

(selected from above fields)

Total credits 25

Minor in Anthropology

There are two new rules about the minor. First, the minor department controls the minor. Second, the minor is no longer a degree requirement.

General Anthropology

The Anthropology Minor provides students an overview of the discipline through survey courses in each of the four primary subfields of anthropology. It is designed to help students appreciate the significance of, and relations between, language, biology, and culture, for human beings past and present. The minor consists of four courses for a total of 13 credits. In order to graduate with an Anthropology Minor, students must earn a C grade or better in all the courses counted towards the minor.

The minor includes the following three required courses:

ANTHC 10100 - Introduction to Cultural Anthropology

GER 2/B PD/A
Comparative and historical examination of the human condition through a focus on diverse responses to universal problems, such as making a living, resolving conflict, organizing family/kin relations and finding meaning in the world.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 12600 - Introduction to Prehistoric Archaeology

GER 2/B
Human social and cultural evolution from the earliest humans to the rise of the first civilizations.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 15100 - Introduction to Linguistics

GER 2/B
Structure and analysis of human languages; language history; language in society, culture and mind; language Universals.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Plus one additional course selected from the following two options:

ANTHP 10100 - Human Evolution

GER 2/E
The study of human origins and adaptation, through an understanding of evolutionary mechanisms, genetics, comparative primate biology, the fossil record, and modern human variation.
6 hrs (3 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab) 4 cr.

ANTHP 10200 - Human Variation

GER 2/E
Description and analysis of biological variation in living human populations. Both genetic and phenotypic variation will be examined. Lab experiments and demonstrations.
6 hrs (3 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab) 4 cr.
offered every sem.

Minor in Linguistic Anthropology

The Linguistic Anthropology Minor introduces students to the comparative and interdisciplinary study of language as a cultural resource and speaking as a cultural practice. In its study of the ways in which language and culture are interrelated, linguistic anthropology often draws from linguistics, sociology, psychology, philosophy, communication studies, as well as education, semiotics, and ethnic and literary studies. The Minor consists of a minimum of 12 credits from any of the following courses, or other courses with approval of the departmental undergraduate adviser. In order to graduate with a Linguistic Anthropology Minor, students must earn a C grade or better in all the courses counted towards the minor.

ANTHC 15100 - Introduction to Linguistics

GER 2/B
Structure and analysis of human languages; language history; language in society, culture and mind; language universals.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 35100 - Language in Culture and Society

GER 3/B
Sociolinguistics; ethnography of communication; languages and dialects; face-to-face interaction; bilingualism in social and political life; language, ideology and identity.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 40100 - Seminars in Selected Topics

Topics TBA.

Minor in Anthropological Archaeology
The Anthropological Archaeology Minor introduces students to the study of past human societies and cultural diversity from an anthropological perspective. The minor consists of a minimum of 12 credits from the courses listed below, or other courses with the approval of the departmental undergraduate advisor. Only one non-ANTHC course from the following list may count towards the minor. In order to graduate with an Anthropological Archaeology Minor, students must earn a C grade or better in all the courses counted towards the minor.

ANTHC courses:

ANTHC 12600 - Introduction to Prehistoric Archaeology

GER 2/B
Human social and cultural evolution from the earliest humans to the rise of the first civilizations.
3 hrs 3 cr.
offered every sem.

ANTHC 12700 - Introduction to Archaeological Techniques

Strategies of data collection; determination of age of deposits, environmental reconstruction, examination of artifacts.
prereq: ANTHC 12600 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 34600 - Analytic Methods in Archaeology

GER 3/B
Theory and methods of analysis of materials recovered from archaeological excavations and surveys.
prereq: ANTHC 12600 or perm instr.
5 hrs (3 hrs lec, 2 lab) 4 cr.

Non-ANTHC courses

ANTHP 10100 - Human Evolution

GER 2/E
The study of human origins and adaptation, through an understanding of evolutionary mechanisms, genetics, comparative primate biology, the fossil record, and modern human variation.
6 hrs (3 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab) 4 cr.
offered every sem.

CLA 20400 - Introduction to Classical, Near Eastern, and Egyptian Archaeology (W)

GER 2/C
Introduction to ancient archaeology, including Greece and Rome, Mesopotamia, Egypt, Anatolia, and the Levant.
prereq: ENGL 12000
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOG 10100 - People and Their Environment
GER 2/B
A broad overview of subjects and ideas in geography, possibly the most internally diverse of the social sciences. Covers the geographical aspects of topics including weather and climate, landforms, religions, food, cities, economics, culture, politics and much more. While students will be expected to understand the basics of each of the topics covered, the overarching emphasis will be on understanding the relationships among them. As such, the course builds from one topic to the next, ultimately stressing the sheer geographical complexity and wonder of modern life. Contemporary economic, political and social patterns and problems are discussed.

3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOL 10100 - Fundamentals of Geology

GER 2/E
Describes the earth and the forces that shape it. Topics of discussion will be the formation of the earth, plate tectonics, earth materials and geologic time. The goals of the course include introducing students to geology, "systems thinking", the methods of scientific inquiry. Lab: study of minerals, rocks, maps. Field trips may be required; transportation fee. 6 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab) 4.5 cr.
Offered fall and spring.

Minor in Cultural Anthropology or Ethnology

The Cultural Anthropology Minor introduces students to the study of contemporary human cultures through a focus on cross-cultural similarities and differences in such areas as kinship, politics, economics, religion, sexuality, gender, and artistic production. The minor consists of a minimum of 12 credits from the courses listed below, as well as others that may be approved by the departmental undergraduate adviser. In order to graduate with a Cultural Anthropology Minor, students must earn a C grade or better in all the courses counted towards the minor.

ANTHC 10100 - Introduction to Cultural Anthropology

GER 2/B PD/A
Comparative and historical examination of the human condition through a focus on diverse responses to universal problems, such as making a living, resolving conflict, organizing family/kin relations and finding meaning in the world. 3 hrs 3 cr.
offered every sem.

ANTHC 21500 - The Anthropology of Black America (W)

GER 3/B PD/B
Examines anthropological knowledge about Black America and the various socio-political contexts in which this body of scholarship has been produced. Focuses on the politics of knowledge production on Black culture. 3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 27500 - Reading Ethnographies (W)

GER 3/B
Examines the most significant mode of writing within cultural anthropology: the ethnography. Students explore interpretive, theoretical and political issues in the representation of cultures through close reading and analysis of ethnographic texts.

prereq: ANTHC 10100 or perm instr. prereq or coreq: ENGL 12000
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 30100 - Gender in Anthropological Perspective

GER 3/B PD/C
Men and women in different societies, division of labor, socialization, stratification, political activism and gender construction.
cross-listed WGSC 30100
prereq: ANTHC 10100 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 30900 - Countryside and City: Comparative Perspectives

Rural-urban connections and the transformations that affect rural areas and peoples in diverse parts of the world.

prereq: ANTHC 10100 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 31000 - Politics and Power in Anthropological Perspective

GER 3/B PD/A
Leadership, conflict, inequality, decision-making and law in different societies; interaction of local politics with state and global institutions.
prereq: ANTHC 10100 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 31800 - History of Anthropological Theory

GER 3/B PD/D
Changing approaches to the study of society and culture. Political and historical context of the development of theory, the link between theory and method and the impact of theory on policy.
prereq: ANTHC 10100 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 32000 - Problems in Anthropology

GER 3/B
Topics TBA. Recent courses have looked at globalization, social movements and civil society, energy policy, women and economic development, international migration. Depending on topic, may meet PD/A, B, or C.
prereq: perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.
offered every sem.

ANTHC 32200 - Family and Household in Anthropology and History

GER 3/B PD/C
Examines variations in household structure and family relations across cultures and over time, focusing on the relationship between domestic arrangements and other aspects of society.
prereq or coreq: ANTHC 10100
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 35100 - Language in Culture and Society

GER 3/B
Sociolinguistics; ethnography of communication; languages and dialects; face-to-face interaction; bilingualism in social and political life; language, ideology and identity.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 40000 - Honors Projects

prereq: perm chair
offered every sem.

Minor in Physical Anthropology

The Physical Anthropology Minor introduces students to the study of human evolution, including human variation, paleontology, genetics, and primatology. The Minor consists of a minimum of 12 credits. These must include ANTHP 10100 - Human Evolution (4 Cr). The remaining credits can be filled by any ANTHP courses. Also, one (and only one) non-ANTHP course from the following list may count towards the minor. In order to graduate with a Physical Anthropology Minor, students must earn a C grade or better in all the courses counted towards the minor.

Required course for the minor

ANTHP 10100 - Human Evolution

GER 2/E
The study of human origins and adaptation, through an understanding of evolutionary mechanisms, genetics, comparative primate biology, the fossil record, and modern human variation.
6 hrs (3 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab) 4 cr.
offered every sem.

8 or more credits from any of the following courses (only one non-ANTHP course may be used for the Physical Anthropology Minor):

ANTHP 10200 - Human Variation

GER 2/E
Description and analysis of biological variation in living human populations. Both genetic and phenotypic variation will be examined. Lab experiments and demonstrations.
6 hrs (3 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab) 4 cr.

ANTHP 30100 - Human Fossil Record

GER 3/B PD/C
The hominid fossil record of Africa, Asia and Europe. Human evolution as evidenced in fossil record.
prereq: ANTHP 10100, 10200, or equiv.
3 hrs 3 cr.
ANTHP 30200 - Human Genetics

Analysis of distribution of contemporary human populations and microevolutionary processes that underlie human variability.

*prereq: ANTHP 10100, 10200, or BIOL 10200

3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHP 31000 - Primate Ecology and Behavior

GER 3/B
Examination of ecological factors responsible for the distribution and behavior of living primate species.

*prereq: ANTHP 10100 or 10200 or BIOL 10000 or 10200

3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHP 31100 - Primate Evolution

GER 3/B
Evolution of primate behavior and morphology; interdependence of ecology, behavior and morphology.

*prereq: ANTHP 10100 or perm instr.

3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHP 31200 - Primate Evolutionary Genetics

Examines evolutionary relationships, social behavior, natural selection, disease, population history, demography, medicine and genomics. This course draws on readings from the primary literature.

*prereq: ANTHP 10100 or ANTHP 10200 or BIOL 10200

3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHP 31600 - Human Evolutionary Adaptations

GER 3/B
Studies adaptive significance of distinctive biological features of human species, including brain size, secondary sexual characteristics, sparse body hair and use of complex language.

*prereq: ANTHP 10100 or 10200 or BIOL 10000 or 10200

3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHP 40100 - Seminars in Selected Topics

Course provides in-depth study of specific topics in field of physical anthropology.

*prereq: prereq; depends on topic

3 hrs 3 cr.

Non-ANTHP courses

ANTHC 12600 - Introduction to Prehistoric Archaeology

GER 2/B
Human social and cultural evolution from the earliest humans to the rise of the first civilizations.

3 hrs 3 cr.

BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I

GER 2/E PD/C or D
The chemical basis of life; basic structure and function of pro- and eucaryotic cells; bioenergetics; Mendelian and molecular genetics; development and mechanisms of control of gene expression at all levels; population genetics and evolution.

Material Fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.

prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equivalent
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

BIOL 12000 - Anatomy and Physiology I

Cell structure and function; histology; nervous, muscular and skeletal systems; integument. Required for admission to the nursing program.

Not accepted for credit toward the biology major.

prereq: CHEM 10000, 10100
coreq: CHEM 12000, 12100
6 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab) 4.5 cr.
fall only

GEOL 10100 - Fundamentals of Geology

GER 2/E
Describes the earth and the forces that shape it. Topics of discussion will be the formation of the earth, plate tectonics, earth materials and geologic time. The goals of the course include introducing students to geology, "systems thinking", the methods of scientific inquiry. Lab: study of minerals, rocks, maps. Field trips may be required; transportation fee.

6 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab) 4.5 cr.
Offered fall and spring.

PSYCH 16000 - Evolution and Behavior

GER 2/B
Aggression, sleep, learning, communication, emotion, motivation and social behavior in human and other species; underlying mechanisms, development, evolutionary history.

prereq: PSYC 10000
3 hrs 3 cr.

Honors Work

Honors work is possible in each of the major branches of anthropology. The emphasis is on independent student research under the supervision of a faculty member. In order to graduate with departmental honors in anthropology, a student must: (1) have taken at least 2 credits of ANTHC 40000; (2) have a GPA in the major of not less than 3.5 and a cumulative GPA of not less than 2.8 at the time of graduation; and (3) complete a departmental honors form available from the departmental undergraduate adviser.

AN-C 400 Honors Project
(available to students in each of the four fields of anthropology) Open to qualified juniors and seniors every semester. Research under supervision of a faculty member. From 2 to 3 credits per semester, depending on the nature of the student’s work. May be taken for 1, 2, or 3 semesters for a maximum of 6 credits. To apply, students must (1) present a research plan prepared in conjunction with a faculty member; (2) have this plan approved by the undergraduate adviser and the department chair; and (3) obtain approval prior to preregistration.

The COR Program

The departments of psychology, anthropology and sociology jointly offer a program called COR (Career Opportunities in Research and Education). This interdisciplinary research training program for talented minority juniors and seniors is funded by the National Institute of Mental Health. Participants receive a monthly stipend and tuition and fee remission; they take a special curriculum and get individualized research training in a variety of areas under the supervision of a faculty mentor. The program has several levels of participation and all minority students — especially freshmen and sophomores — intending to pursue a research related career in the participating disciplines are urged to register with the program. Additional details and descriptive literature are available from the COR program manager, 532 Hunter North, (212) 772-4562.

Interdepartmental Fields

Students who want to do work in anthropology as part of an interdepartmental field, such as Africana and Puerto Rican/Latino studies, Latin American and Caribbean studies, religion, urban affairs and planning, or women and gender studies, should refer to descriptions under the department or field of their interest.

Anthropology - BA/MA

A special feature of the Hunter Anthropology Department is the innovative BA/MA program, designed to permit a small number of highly motivated students to begin graduate study before completing their undergraduate degrees. The program allows students to pursue the MA degree as part of the undergraduate curriculum by substituting graduate courses for electives in their degree programs. Participants fulfill all the requirements for the BA and MA degrees in anthropology. The total number of credits taken by the student is 130. At least 30 must be graduate credits (the same number of course credits required of a student admitted as a matriculated graduate student with a BA in hand). Graduate courses may fulfill undergraduate major requirements with the exception of ANTHP 10100 and ANTHP 10200. Applicants to the BA/MA program must have a minimum GPA of 3.25 and a minimum of 3.5 in their anthropology courses. Students must apply to the program early in their academic careers, usually before beginning the junior year.

Minor in Anthropological Archaeology

The Anthropological Archaeology Minor introduces students to the study of past human societies and cultural diversity from an anthropological perspective. The minor consists of a minimum of 12 credits from the courses listed below, or other courses with the approval of the departmental undergraduate advisor. Only one non-AN-C course from the following list may count towards the minor. In order to graduate with an Anthropological Archaeology Minor, students must earn a C grade or better in all the courses counted towards the minor.

Courses for the Minor

ANTHC 12600 - Introduction to Prehistoric Archaeology
GER 2/B
Human social and cultural evolution from the earliest humans to the rise of the first civilizations.
3 hrs 3 cr.
offered every sem.

ANTHC 12700 - Introduction to Archaeological Techniques

Strategies of data collection; determination of age of deposits, environmental reconstruction, examination of artifacts.
prereq: ANTHC 12600 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 22600 - Archaeology of Africa

GER 3/B PD/A
Prehistory; origins, adaptations, cultural evolution of early hominids; origins of agriculture, early complex societies.
prereq: ANTHC 12600 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 23200 - Archaeology of South America and the Caribbean

GER 3/B
Sociocultural development from early hunter-gatherers to first pre-Hispanic states and empires.
prereq: ANTHC 12600 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 32000 - Problems in Anthropology

GER 3/B
Topics TBA. Recent courses have looked at globalization, social movements and civil society, energy policy, women and economic development, international migration. Depending on topic, may meet PD/A, B, or C.
prereq: perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.
offered every sem.

ANTHC 32600 - Rise of Old and New World Civilizations

GER 3/B
Theoretical and empirical examination of development of urbanism and state, in the Old and New Worlds.
prereq: ANTHC 12600 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 32700 - Prehistoric Cultural Ecology

GER 3/B
Survey of selected problems in human evolution and adaptation from an ecological perspective.
prereq: ANTHC 12600 or perm instr
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 34600 - Analytic Methods in Archaeology
GER 3/B
Theory and methods of analysis of materials recovered from archaeological excavations and surveys.
prereq: ANTHC 12600 or perm instr.
5 hrs (3 hrs lec, 2 lab) 4 cr.

ANTHC 42600 - Seminar in Archaeological Field Methods
Introduction to field methods and techniques in survey and excavation; involves weekend fieldwork on nearby sites. Depending on topic, may meet PD/B or D.
prereq: ANTHC 12600 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Non ANTHC Courses:

ANTHP 10100 - Human Evolution
GER 2/E
The study of human origins and adaptation, through an understanding of evolutionary mechanisms, genetics, comparative primate biology, the fossil record, and modern human variation.
6 hrs (3 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab) 4 cr.
offered every sem.

CLA 20400 - Introduction to Classical, Near Eastern, and Egyptian Archaeology (W)
GER 2/C
Introduction to ancient archaeology, including Greece and Rome, Mesopotamia, Egypt, Anatolia, and the Levant.

GEOL 10100 - Fundamentals of Geology
GER 2/E
Describes the earth and the forces that shape it. Topics of discussion will be the formation of the earth, plate tectonics, earth materials and geologic time. The goals of the course include introducing students to geology, "systems thinking",
Minor in Anthropology

The Anthropology Minor provides students an overview of the discipline through survey courses in each of the four primary subfields of anthropology. It is designed to help students appreciate the significance of, and relations between, language, biology, and culture, for human beings past and present. The minor consists of four courses for a total of 13 credits. In order to graduate with an Anthropology Minor, students must earn a C grade or better in all the courses counted towards the minor.

The minor includes the following three required courses:

ANTHC 10100 - Introduction to Cultural Anthropology

GER 2/B PD/A
Comparative and historical examination of the human condition through a focus on diverse responses to universal problems, such as making a living, resolving conflict, organizing family/kin relations and finding meaning in the world.
3 hrs 3 cr.
offered every sem.

ANTHC 12600 - Introduction to Prehistoric Archaeology

GER 2/B
Human social and cultural evolution from the earliest humans to the rise of the first civilizations.
3 hrs 3 cr.
offered every sem.

ANTHC 15100 - Introduction to Linguistics

GER 2/B
Structure and analysis of human languages; language history; language in society, culture and mind; language universals.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Plus one additional course selected from the following two options:

ANTHP 10100 - Human Evolution

GER 2/E
The study of human origins and adaptation, through an understanding of evolutionary mechanisms, genetics, comparative primate biology, the fossil record, and modern human variation.
6 hrs (3 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab) 4 cr.
offered every sem.

-or-

ANTHP 10200 - Human Variation
GER 2/E
Description and analysis of biological variation in living human populations. Both genetic and phenotypic variation will be examined. Lab experiments and demonstrations.

6 hrs (3 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab) 4 cr.
offered every sem.

Minor in Cultural Anthropology

The Cultural Anthropology Minor introduces students to the study of contemporary human cultures through a focus on cross-cultural similarities and differences in such areas as kinship, politics, economics, religion, sexuality, gender, and artistic production. The minor consists of a minimum of 12 credits from the courses listed below, as well as others that may be approved by the departmental undergraduate advisor. In order to graduate with a Cultural Anthropology Minor, students must earn a C grade or better in all the courses counted towards the minor.

Courses (12 cr.):

ANTHC 10100 - Introduction to Cultural Anthropology

GER 2/B PD/A
Comparative and historical examination of the human condition through a focus on diverse responses to universal problems, such as making a living, resolving conflict, organizing family/kin relations and finding meaning in the world.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 20100 - The Middle East: Societies and Cultures

GER 3/B PD/A
Peasant, nomadic and urban society; kinship, ethnic, religious and ecological diversity; colonialism and modernization.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 21400 - The Caribbean: Societies and Cultures

GER 3/B PD/A
Indigenous peoples, colonization and slavery; minorities, race relations; family life, religion and economy.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 21500 - The Anthropology of Black America (W)

GER 3/B PD/B
Examines anthropological knowledge about Black America and the various socio-political contexts in which this body of scholarship has been produced. Focuses on the politics of knowledge production on Black culture.
prereq: ENGL 12000
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 27500 - Reading Ethnographies (W)

GER 3/B
Examines the most significant mode of writing within cultural anthropology: the ethnography. Students explore interpretive, theoretical and political issues in the representation of cultures through close reading and analysis of ethnographic texts.

prereq: ANTHC 10100 or perm instr. prereq or coreq: ENGL 12000
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 30100 - Gender in Anthropological Perspective

GER 3/B PD/C
Men and women in different societies, division of labor, socialization, stratification, political activism and gender construction.
cross-listed WGSC 30100
prereq: ANTHC 10100 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 30700 - Anthropology of Religion

GER 3/B PD/A
Emphasis on non-Western societies; theories of religion, magic; functions and symbolic meaning.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 30900 - Countryside and City: Comparative Perspectives

Rural-urban connections and the transformations that affect rural areas and peoples in diverse parts of the world.

prereq: ANTHC 10100 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 31000 - Politics and Power in Anthropological Perspective

GER 3/B PD/A
Leadership, conflict, inequality, decision-making and law in different societies; interaction of local politics with state and global institutions.
prereq: ANTHC 10100 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 31100 - Anthropology of Art

GER 3/B
Symbolic forms of human behavior; paleolithic cave art, tribal art, ethnomusicology.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 31200 - Anthropological Approaches to Sexuality

GER 3/B PD/C
Documents the social construction of human sexuality through an examination of sexual variation cross-culturally and over recent history, including the development of sexually defined communities and identities within contemporary societies.
prereq: ANTHC 10100
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 31500 - Applied Anthropology
GER 3/B
Practical applications of theory and methods to contemporary social problems; community development; inter-cultural relations.

prereq: ANTHC 10100 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 31800 - History of Anthropological Theory

GER 3/B PD/D
Changing approaches to the study of society and culture. Political and historical context of the development of theory, the link between theory and method and the impact of theory on policy.

prereq: ANTHC 10100 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 32000 - Problems in Anthropology

GER 3/B
Topics TBA. Recent courses have looked at globalization, social movements and civil society, energy policy, women and economic development, international migration. Depending on topic, may meet PD/A, B, or C.

prereq: perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.
offered every sem.

ANTHC 32200 - Family and Household in Anthropology and History

GER 3/B PD/C
Examines variations in household structure and family relations across cultures and over time, focusing on the relationship between domestic arrangements and other aspects of society.

prereq or coreq: ANTHC 10100
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 32500 - Special Projects and Independent Research in Anthropology

GER 3/B

prereq: perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.
offered every sem.

ANTHC 35100 - Language in Culture and Society

GER 3/B
Sociolinguistics; ethnography of communication; languages and dialects; face-to-face interaction; bilingualism in social and political life; language, ideology and identity.

3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 40000 - Honors Projects

prereq: perm chair
offered every sem.
ANTHC 40100 - Seminars in Selected Topics

Topics TBA.

Minor in Linguistic Anthropology

The Linguistic Anthropology Minor introduces students to the comparative and interdisciplinary study of language as a cultural resource and speaking as a cultural practice. In its study of the ways in which language and culture are interrelated, linguistic anthropology often draws from linguistics, sociology, psychology, philosophy, communication studies, as well as education, semiotics, and ethnic and literary studies.

Minor in Linguistic Anthropology

The Minor consists of a minimum of 12 credits from any of the following courses, or other courses with approval of the departmental undergraduate advisor. In order to graduate with a Linguistic Anthropology Minor, students must earn a C grade or better in all the courses counted towards the minor.

Choose from courses below:

ANTHC 15100 - Introduction to Linguistics

GER 2/B
Structure and analysis of human languages; language history; language in society, culture and mind; language universals.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 32000 - Problems in Anthropology

GER 3/B
Topics TBA. Recent courses have looked at globalization, social movements and civil society, energy policy, women and economic development, international migration. Depending on topic, may meet PD/A, B, or C.
prereq: perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.
offered every sem.

ANTHC 35100 - Language in Culture and Society

GER 3/B
Sociolinguistics; ethnography of communication; languages and dialects; face-to-face interaction; bilingualism in social and political life; language, ideology and identity.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 35400 - Grammatical Analysis and Theory

GER 3/B
Methods of syntax and morphology in work with diverse languages; syntactic theories and their development relative to universals, semantics, pragmatics, discourse.
ANTHC 15100 or equiv.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHC 40100 - Seminars in Selected Topics

Topics TBA.

Minor in Physical Anthropology

The Physical Anthropology Minor introduces students to the study of human evolution, including human variation, paleontology, genetics, and primatology. The Minor consists of a minimum of 12 credits. These must include ANTHP 101 Human Evolution (4 Cr). The remaining credits can be filled by any AN-P courses. Also, one (and only one) non-ANTHP course from the following list may count towards the minor. In order to graduate with a Physical Anthropology Minor, students must earn a C grade or better in all the courses counted towards the minor.

Required course for the Minor:

ANTHP 10100 - Human Evolution

GER 2/E
The study of human origins and adaptation, through an understanding of evolutionary mechanisms, genetics, comparative primate biology, the fossil record, and modern human variation.
6 hrs (3 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab) 4 cr.
offered every sem.

8 or more credits from any of the following courses:

Note: Only one non-ANTHP may be used for the Physical Anthropology Minor.

ANTHP 10200 - Human Variation

GER 2/E
Description and analysis of biological variation in living human populations. Both genetic and phenotypic variation will be examined. Lab experiments and demonstrations.
6 hrs (3 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab) 4 cr.
offered every sem.

ANTHP 30100 - Human Fossil Record

GER 3/B PD/C
The hominid fossil record of Africa, Asia and Europe. Human evolution as evidenced in fossil record.
prereq: ANTHP 10100, 10200, or equiv.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHP 30200 - Human Genetics

Analysis of distribution of contemporary human populations and microevolutionary processes that underlie human variability
ANTHP 10100, 10200, or BIOL 10200
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHP 31000 - Primate Ecology and Behavior

GER 3/B
Examination of ecological factors responsible for the distribution and behavior of living primate species.
prereq: ANTHP 10100 or 10200 or BIOL 10000 or 10200
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHP 31100 - Primate Evolution

GER 3/B
Evolution of primate behavior and morphology; interdependence of ecology, behavior and morphology.
prereq: ANTHP 10100 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHP 31200 - Primate Evolutionary Genetics

Examines evolutionary relationships, social behavior, natural selection, disease, population history, demography, medicine and genomics. This course draws on readings from the primary literature.
prereq: ANTHP 10100 or ANTHP 10200 or BIOL 10200
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHP 31600 - Human Evolutionary Adaptations

GER 3/B
Studies adaptive significance of distinctive biological features of human species, including brain size, secondary sexual characteristics, sparse body hair and use of complex language.
prereq: ANTHP 10100 or 10200 or BIOL 10000 or 10200
3 hrs 3 cr.

ANTHP 40100 - Seminars in Selected Topics

Course provides in-depth study of specific topics in field of physical anthropology.
prereq: prereq; depends on topic
3 hrs 3 cr.

Non ANTHP Courses:

ANTHC 12600 - Introduction to Prehistoric Archaeology

GER 2/B
Human social and cultural evolution from the earliest humans to the rise of the first civilizations.
3 hrs 3 cr.
offered every sem.

BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I
GER 2/E PD/C or D
The chemical basis of life; basic structure and function of pro- and eucaryotic cells; bioenergetics; Mendelian and molecular genetics; development and mechanisms of control of gene expression at all levels; population genetics and evolution.
Material Fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equivalent
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

BIOL 12000 - Anatomy and Physiology I
Cell structure and function; histology; nervous, muscular and skeletal systems; integument. Required for admission to the nursing program.
Not accepted for credit toward the biology major.
prereq: CHEM 10000, 10100 coreq: CHEM 12000, 12100
6 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab) 4.5 cr.
fall only

GEOL 10100 - Fundamentals of Geology
GER 2/E
Describes the earth and the forces that shape it. Topics of discussion will be the formation of the earth, plate tectonics, earth materials and geologic time. The goals of the course include introducing students to geology, "systems thinking", the methods of scientific inquiry. Lab: study of minerals, rocks, maps. Field trips may be required; transportation fee.
6 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab) 4.5 cr.
Offered fall and spring.

PSYCH 16000 - Evolution and Behavior
GER 2/B
Aggression, sleep, learning, communication, emotion, motivation and social behavior in human and other species; underlying mechanisms, development, evolutionary history.
prereq: PSYC 10000
3 hrs 3 cr.

Art
About the Department
The Department of Art offers a wide variety of courses for majors and non-majors. In studio art, two academic degrees are offered: the BA and the BFA. In art history, we offer a BA degree. Art history is the study of works of art and architectural monuments in their cultural environment. Students learn first to develop their powers of critical visual analysis. Then, by concentrated study of certain significant periods in the history of Western and non-Western art, they learn to relate the forms of art to contemporary historical, political, economic, religious, social and cultural phenomena.

The department’s broad range of studio courses begins with Introduction to Study of Visual Experience (ARTLA 10100) followed by Beginning Drawing (ARTCR 22100), which are prerequisites for all studio courses. In the beginning classes, the student learns the basic principles in various media; the advanced courses emphasize individual exploration.

HEGIS Code: 1002 (Studio Art); 1003 (Art History)

Art History

The Department of Art offers introductory, intermediate and advanced courses in art history. The major consists of 30 credits. No more than 15 credits transferred from another institution may be applied to the major.

The 30-Credit Art History Major BA is intended for students interested in a liberal arts education in the humanities or students planning to continue their art history studies in a graduate program. A broad range of courses from different fields, rather than specialization in one area, is encouraged. In order to declare a major in art history, students must have taken ARTH 11100 (or ARTH 121 or 122). Majors who have completed 3 credits in art history beyond ARTH 11100 are eligible to take the required seminar, Research Methods of Art History ARTH 30000, to be programmed in consultation with an art history adviser.

Majors planning graduate study in art history should discuss, with an art history adviser, the requirements for graduate admission, including graduate language requirements; this should be done during an early semester.

A minor may be taken in a related field such as studio art, classics, philosophy, history, or another department with the permission of the adviser. The minor department must approve the minor courses.

Program prerequisite
ARTH 11100 - Introduction to History of Art

GER 2/D PD/D
Changing forms and subjects of art in several periods of Western civilization, including ancient Greece and Rome, Middle Ages in Western Europe, Renaissance, baroque, modern, American; also Islamic and African art.
3 hrs 3 cr. cr
(Survey courses do not count toward art history major credits)

One course in each of four distribution areas 12 cr.

Note: Distributions can be met via 200-, 300- or 400- level courses.

Distribution areas
(If in doubt, consult with an adviser)

1) Ancient and Medieval (including Egyptian, Greek, Roman)
2) Renaissance and Baroque (including Colonial Latin American)
3) Modern: 18th, 19th, 20th, and 21st century (including Modern Latin American)
4) Islamic and Asian (including Indian, Chinese and Japanese)

Research Methods 3 cr.

ARTH 30000 - Research Methods of Art History Seminar (W)

GER 3/A
Training in fundamental methods of learning and writing about works of art through visual analysis and art-historical research, focusing on a particular area in art history, and culminating in a substantial academic research paper.

prereq: ARTH 11100 and one 200-level art history course
3 hrs 3 cr.
(Prerequisite: at least one art history course above the 100-level)

At least one Advanced Studies Seminar (400-level) 3 cr.

(Prerequisite: ARTH 300 Research Methods) 3 cr.

ARTLA 3 cr.
ARTLA 10100 - Introduction to Study of Visual Experience

Introduction to conceiving and formulating ideas for visual experience. Students work in 3 different areas in day session, 2 in evening session.

Material Fee: $25

6 hrs 3 cr. + 3 cr. hrs open studio

3 additional courses 9 cr.

3 additional courses, at any level, from any of the department offerings

Total 30 cr.

Note:

only grades of C and above can be counted toward the Art History major

Minor in Art History

A minor in art history for majors in other departments is also available consisting of 12 credits as follows: ARTH 11100 Introduction to the History of Art, followed by 9 credits selected from the other department offerings. No more than 6 credits transferred from another institution may be applied to the minor.

Honors

Art History Major students wishing to graduate with honors must consult an adviser to make an official application. Application forms are in the Art Office, Room 11054 Hunter North. Major credits must have been completed with a 3.7 grade point average, and the cumulative grade point average, from courses taken only at Hunter, must be at least 3.0. Students must submit a research paper written for Research Methods of Art History ARTH 30000 or an Advanced Studies Seminar ARTH 41000 special topics through ARTH 48000 special topics, with instructor’s comments, edits, and grade, to the department's Undergraduate Art History Committee on Honors. The paper must have received a minimum grade of A-. Papers written for other art history courses may be considered if they conform to the requirements for an Advanced Studies Seminar; consult with an adviser.

Minor in Art History

The Art History minor requires students to take 12 credits in Art History as follows: ARTH 11100 - Introduction to History of Art, followed by 9 credits selected from the other department offerings. No more than 6 credits transferred from another institution may be applied to the minor.

Studio Art - BA

- Studio Art 24-Credit Major (BA)
- Studio Art 42-Credit Major (BA)

Electives
All courses, unless otherwise specified, are open to qualified students majoring in other areas.

Honors

Students wishing to graduate with honors must consult an adviser to make an official application. Application forms are in the Art Office, Room 11054 Hunter North. Major credits must have been completed with a 3.5 grade point average and the cumulative grade point average, from courses taken only at Hunter, must be at least 3.0. Student must submit 35mm slides of an advanced studio project or independent study course.

ARTCR 36000 - Special Projects

Advanced students only. Advanced projects are announced prior to registration each term. Recent examples of Special Projects courses: Color Photo; Advanced Photo Darkroom Process; Collage and Assemblage; Color as Communication; Computer Graphics; Projects in Clay; Advanced Watercolor Painting; Experiment: Photography and Graphics; Site-Specific Painting; Projects in 2-D., Digital Art, Advanced Digital Art, Video for Artists, Installation Art, Sculpture: Methods & Materials, Advanced 2-D studio Seminar, Politics & Painting, Unconventional Approaches: Drawing, 2-D, 3-D, 4-D Seminar, Advanced Painting Tech. & Concepts

Graduate Study

The Department of Art offers a number of courses, listed in the Graduate Catalog, that may be credited toward the degree of master of arts. Qualified students in the senior year may be admitted to these courses with the approval of the graduate art history adviser.

Studio Art - BFA

This degree is open to the student who wants to complete work in studio art beyond the 42-credit major and particularly the student who intends to pursue a career as a professional artist and attend graduate school. Students follow the regular GER for the BA degree. Departmental approval of the 61-credit BFA concentration is required. Students who have successfully completed 90 credits may apply to the BFA program, pending an interview with the BFA adviser. Students are required to maintain a GPA of 3.0 in this program. Required courses are as follows:

Year 1 - 6 cr

ARTLA 10100 - Introduction to Study of Visual Experience

Introduction to conceiving and formulating ideas for visual experience. Students work in 3 different areas in day session, 2 in evening session.

Material Fee: $25

6 hrs 3 cr. + 3 cr. hrs open studio
ARTCR 22100 - Drawing

Basic principles in various media and subjects. Eye/hand coordination, perceptual acuity, spatial organization; interpretation of directly observed subjects.
Material Fee: $50
prereq: ARTC 10100 prereq or coreq: ARTC 10100 and 22100 are prerequisites to all studio courses.
4 hrs 3 cr. + 5 hrs open studio

ARTH 11100 - Introduction to History of Art

GER 2/D PD/D
Changing forms and subjects of art in several periods of Western civilization, including ancient Greece and Rome, Middle Ages in Western Europe, Renaissance, baroque, modern, American; also Islamic and African art.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Year 2- 12 cr.

four of the following six courses or 3 of the following 6 courses plus one 300-level course:

ARTCR 22500 - Graphic Arts Workshop

Techniques of woodcut, intaglio, lithography, silkscreen and related media.
Material Fee: $60
prereq: ARTC 10100 and 22100 prereq or coreq: ARTC 10100 and 22100 are prerequisites to all studio courses.
4 hrs 3 cr. + 5 hrs open studio

ARTCR 23500 - Painting

Basic principles of painting. Studio practice using varied paint media, varied paint surfaces, paper and canvas.
Material Fee: $75
prereq: ARTC 10100 and 22100 prereq or coreq: ARTC 10100 and 22100 are prerequisites to all studio courses.
4 hrs 3 cr. + 5 hrs open studio

ARTCR 25100 - Sculpture

Basic principles of sculpture. Studio practice in varied materials.
Material Fee: $65
prereq or coreq: ARTC 10100 and 22100 are prerequisites to all studio courses.
4 hrs 3 cr. + 5 hrs open studio

ARTCR 25700 - Ceramics

Introduction to pottery and ceramic sculpture, including hand forming, throwing on the wheel, glazing and kiln operation.
Material Fee: $85
prereq or coreq: ARTC 10100 and 22100 are prerequisites to all studio courses.
4 hrs 3 cr. + 5 hrs open studio

ARTCR 27100 - Principles of Photography
Black and white photography as creative medium; camera and its functions; exposure and film development, contact printing and enlarging.

Material Fee: $75

prereq or coreq: ARTC 10100 and 22100 are prerequisites to all studio courses.

3 hrs 3 cr. + 6 hrs open studio

ARTCR 29000 - Combined Media

An introduction to basic technologies, methods and ideas that result in ways of making art that mix and combine media. The course will emphasize the production of moving images, sounds, performance as well as still images and objects.

4 hrs + 5 hrs open studio 3 cr.

Year 3

At least one area of concentration with two 300-level courses repeated in any one of the following: 6 cr

ARTCR 32200 - Advanced Drawing

Material Fee: $50

prereq: ARTC 22100 prereq or coreq: May be repeated once. ARTC 10100 and 22100 are prerequisites to all studio courses.

4 hrs 3 cr. + 5 hrs open studio

ARTCR 32600 - Advanced Graphic Arts Workshop

Advanced study of one or more graphic art methods. Individual exploration emphasized.

Material Fee: $60

prereq: ARTC 22500 prereq or coreq: May be repeated once. ARTC 10100 and 22100 are prerequisites to all studio courses.

4 hrs 2 cr. + 5 hrs open studio

ARTCR 33600 - Advanced Painting

Continued experience in painting with possible concentration upon one medium and theme. Individual exploration emphasized.

Material Fee: $75

prereq: ARTC 23500 prereq or coreq: May be repeated once. ARTC 10100 and 22100 are prerequisites to all studio courses.

4 hrs 3 cr. + 5 hrs open studio

ARTCR 35200 - Advanced Sculpture

Continued experience in sculpture with possible concentration in one material. Individual exploration emphasized.

Material Fee: $65

prereq: ARTC 25100 prereq or coreq: May be repeated once. ARTC 10100 and 22100 are prerequisites to all studio courses.
ARTCR 35700 - Advanced Ceramics

Continued experimentation in form, surface and techniques. Individual exploration emphasized.

Material Fee: $85

prereq: ARTC 25700 prereq or coreq: May be repeated once. ARTC 10100 and 22100 are prerequisites to all studio courses.

3 hrs 3 cr. + 5 hrs open studio

ARTCR 37200 - Advanced Photography

Techniques and aesthetics of black and white photography; self-expression and exploration; classroom critiques.

Material Fee: $75

prereq: ARTC 27100 prereq or coreq: May be repeated once. ARTC 10100 and 22100 are prerequisites to all studio courses.

3 hrs 3 cr. + 6 hrs open studio

ARTCR 39000 - Combined Media

Continued experience in combined media with possible concentration in one approach and/or method. Individual exploration will be emphasized. May be repeated once (i.e., taken twice).

4 hrs + 5 hrs open studio 3 cr.

Additional studio art requirements: 6 cr

- Courses chosen from all other 200- and 300-level studio art courses. Special-topic advanced studio courses will also be offered each semester for advanced art students; however they do not count toward the major concentration.

Art history requirements: 15 cr

To be completed by the end of year three.

ARTH 11100 - Introduction to History of Art

GER 2/D PD/D

Changing forms and subjects of art in several periods of Western civilization, including ancient Greece and Rome, Middle Ages in Western Europe, Renaissance, baroque, modern, American; also Islamic and African art.

3 hrs 3 cr. cr

ARTH 24900 - Twentieth-Century Art I (W)

GER 3/A PD/D

Western art to World War II.

ARTH 11100 is the prerequisite for all advanced art history courses and may be used toward the General Education requirement for humanities and the arts (GER: Stage 2, Group D) by all students except those accepted into the 61-credit BFA program. It may not be credited toward art history major requirements.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ARTH 25000 - Twentieth-Century Art II (W)

GER 3/A PD/D
Western art from World War II to approximately 1980.
prereq: ARTH 11100 is the prerequisite for all advanced art history courses and may be used toward the General Education requirement for humanities and the arts (GER: Stage 2, Group D) by all students except those accepted into the 61-credit BFA program. It may not be credited toward art history major requirements.
3 hrs 3 cr.

- and six to nine additional credits chosen from 200- and 300-level courses.

ARTH 25100 - Contemporary Art (W)

GER 3/A
Significant international artists and art works of the past twenty years, as well as recent developments in art theory and criticism.
ARTH 11100 is the prerequisite for all advanced art history courses and may be used toward the General Education requirement for humanities and the arts (GER: Stage 2, Group D) by all students except those accepted into the 61-credit BFA program. It may not be credited toward art history major requirements.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Year 4- 16 cr.

ARTCR 40500 - Art and Current Ideas II

Lecture and discussion; a non-studio course. Topics of concern in art today as brought forth by current exhibitions. Scheduled trips to galleries and museums. Reading assignments, papers and oral reports focus on issues relative to the exhibitions.
ARTH 10100 and 22100 are prerequisites to all studio courses.
prereq: BFA students or perm dept.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ARTCR 45900 - Professional Experience in Art I

BFA majors, seniors only. Not credited toward BA degree. Advanced projects may include activities outside the college, as well as within the department.
Material Fee: $50
prereq or coreq: ARTC 10100 and 22100 are prerequisites to all studio courses.
3 hrs + 15 hrs open studio 6.5 cr.

ARTCR 46000 - Professional Experience in Art II

Continuation of ARTC 45900.
Material Fee: $50
prereq or coreq: ARTC 10100 and 22100 are prerequisites to all studio courses.
3 hrs + 15 hrs open studio 6.5 cr.
Honors

Students wishing to graduate with honors must consult an adviser to make an official application. Application forms are in the Art Office, Room 11054 Hunter North. Major credits must have been completed with a 3.5 grade point average and the cumulative grade point average, from courses taken only at Hunter, must be at least 3.0. Student must submit 35mm slides of an advanced studio project or independent study course.

ARTCR 36000 - Special Projects

Advanced students only. Advanced projects are announced prior to registration each term. Recent examples of Special Projects courses: Color Photo; Advanced Photo Darkroom Process; Collage and Assemblage; Color as Communication; Computer Graphics; Projects in Clay; Advanced Watercolor Painting; Experiment: Photography and Graphics; Site-Specific Painting; Projects in 2-D., Digital Art, Advanced Digital Art, Video for Artists, Installation Art, Sculpture: Methods & Materials, Advanced 2-D studio Seminar, Politics & Painting, Unconventional Approaches: Drawing, 2-D, 3-D, 4-D Seminar, Advanced Painting Tech. & Concepts

Material Fee: $50
prereq: See department
3 hrs 3 cr. + 5 hrs open studio

ARTCR 40200 - Independent Study in Studio Art

ARTC 10100 and 22100 are prerequisites to all studio courses.
prereq: perm instr.
1-3 hrs 1-3 cr. per semester

Graduate Study

The Department of Art offers a number of courses, listed in the Graduate Catalog, that may be credited toward the degree of master of arts. Qualified students in the senior year may be admitted to these courses with the approval of the graduate art history adviser.

Studio Art 24-Credit Major (BA)

Return to Programs and Courses in Art

The standard major is available to the student interested in a liberal arts education. It consists of eight courses in the major subject, normally one 3-credit course per semester and begins with ARTLA 10100, upon completion continues with ARTCR 22100, followed by an additional 18 credits selected from 200- and 300-level ARTCR courses. The department recommends that the optional minor associated with the 24-credit studio major consist of 12 credits in art history. No courses can be repeated.

Honors

Students wishing to graduate with honors must consult an adviser to make an official application. Application forms are in the Art Office, Room 11054 Hunter North. Major credits must have been completed with a 3.5 grade point average and the cumulative grade point average, from courses taken only at Hunter, must be at least 3.0. Student must submit 35mm slides of an advanced studio project or independent study course.

Studio Art 42-Credit Major (BA)
An intensive major is available for the student who prefers a greater concentration in studio art and particularly for the student who plans to do graduate study in art. It consists of ARTLA 10100 and ARTCR 22100, with a concentration of 9 credits in one study area (e.g., painting, sculpture, drawing, graphics, ceramics, photography, combined media) and 18 credits of other studio art courses to be determined in consultation with a departmental adviser (a total of 30 credits of studio art). Nine credits of study in art history are required. (It is recommended that students declare their major within 41 credits.)

Students should consult with a department adviser for guidance in the selection of 200-level courses. The plan for the area of concentration should be submitted to an adviser for tentative approval at the beginning of the junior year and for final approval in the lower senior term.

Please note: A maximum of 30 credits in studio art may be applied toward the BA degree.

Prerequisite sequence

ARTLA 10100 - Introduction to Study of Visual Experience

Introduction to conceiving and formulating ideas for visual experience. Students work in 3 different areas in day session, 2 in evening session.

*Material Fee: $25

6 hrs 3 cr. + 3 cr. hrs open studio

ARTCR 22100 - Drawing

Basic principles in various media and subjects. Eye/hand coordination, perceptual acuity, spatial organization; interpretation of directly observed subjects.

*Material Fee: $50

prereq: ARTC 10100 prerequisite or coreq: ARTC 10100 and 22100 are prerequisites to all studio courses.

4 hrs 3 cr. + 5 hrs open studio

Creative art

3 courses in one study area
(e.g., painting, sculpture, drawing, graphics, ceramics, photography or combined media.) 9 cr.

6 other studio courses, to be determined in consultation with adviser (Note: ARTLA 36018 may be substituted for ARTCR course with permission of the adviser) 18 cr.

Art History

3 courses of ARTH 9 cr.

Honors

Students wishing to graduate with honors must consult an adviser to make an official application. Application forms are in the Art Office, Room 11054 Hunter North. Major credits must have been completed with a 3.5 grade point average.
and the cumulative grade point average, from courses taken only at Hunter, must be at least 3.0. Student must submit 35mm slides of an advanced studio project or independent study course.

Asian American Studies

About the Program

The Asian American Studies Program (AASP) was established on the initiative of students and faculty in 1993. An interdisciplinary program, the AASP offers a range of courses on the history, contemporary experiences and contributions of Asian immigrants to the Americas, with close attention paid to how Asian immigrants are an integral part of the history of the United States, redefining American culture and reconstituting American society.

The AASP benefits from its location in a global city with unmatched cultural and intellectual resources and diverse and dynamic Asian populations, and contributes to the growing scholarship in the vital field of Asian American studies while also serving as a resource for New York City’s Asian American communities and community-based organizations. Faculty and students are ideally positioned to become actively involved in a field at the forefront of contemporary research and scholarship and to contribute to the growth and development of local and national Asian American communities.

The program draws its faculty and course offerings from traditional disciplines such as history, sociology, anthropology, political science, education and literature, as well as interdisciplinary fields such as American ethnic studies, women and gender studies, postcolonial studies, international human rights, and policy studies. The AASP grounds its curriculum in the firm belief that a rigorous approach to Asian American studies necessitates an alliance of these areas and methods of study.

Asian American Studies Faculty
Minor in Asian American Studies

The interdisciplinary Asian American Studies Minor provides students with focused competence in the histories and contemporary experiences of diverse Asian diasporic communities, including but not limited to those of North America.

A Minor consists of a minimum of 12 credits and can be made up of any courses offered by—or cross-listed with—the Asian American Studies Program, excluding ASIAN 360.02 (East Asia to 1600) and ASIAN 360.03 (China since 1800). No more than 6 Minor credits may be transferred from another institution.

Biological Sciences

About the Department

The Department of Biological Sciences at Hunter College stresses excellence in both teaching and research. Fully equipped research laboratories are supported by major federal grants and students are strongly encouraged to become involved in laboratory research. State-of-the-art flow cytometry and bioimaging facilities are housed within the department. They have been created and are funded by federal grants, New York State and the Center for Gene Structure and Function. The Center consists of faculty from the departments of Biological Sciences, Chemistry, Physics, Psychology and Anthropology working in the areas of biomolecular structure and function.

The core curriculum in biological sciences prepares students for admission to both graduate and medical schools and for careers in the biological sciences, including teaching and the growing industry of biotechnology. The curriculum emphasizes cell biology, molecular biology, developmental biology, genetics and neurobiology as the foundation for future careers in fields related to the biological sciences.

Career Planning

Graduate Study The department offers a master of arts in the biological sciences and courses taken in the MA program can later be credited toward the PhD upon acceptance into the CUNY doctoral program in biology. Interested students should obtain the Hunter College graduate catalog and contact the biology master’s program adviser. Laboratory research under faculty supervision (see undergraduate research, below) is extremely valuable for gaining admission to graduate schools. Students planning to apply to graduate school should consult with their adviser as early in their college career as possible.

Professional Schools Students who plan to apply to schools of medicine, dentistry or veterinary medicine should consult with their adviser and see the preprofessional adviser in Room 812 Hunter East.

Preparation for Teaching In cooperation with the School of Education, the Department of Biological Sciences offers opportunities for students to prepare for a teaching career in elementary and secondary schools. Major I in biology satisfies the requirements for New York State certification of at least 30 credits for teachers in adolescent education, grades 7-12. Major II in biology satisfies the requirements for New York State certification for teachers in childhood education, grades 1-6. See the School of Education section of this catalog and consult with an adviser in the School of Education for additional information and requirements.

Preparation for Biotechnology Students interested in careers in the rapidly growing field of biotechnology should select Major I and consult with their adviser as early as possible. Advanced courses taken as electives should include BIOL 41000 and those special topics courses (BIOL 47000-BIOL 47100) that are most relevant to biotechnology. Qualified students are also encouraged to pursue the BA/MA Program in Biotechnology. Interested biology majors who have completed BIOL 300 should contact Dr. Patricia Rockwell as early as possible.

Biological Sciences - BA

The Department of Biological Sciences offers two major programs. Major I is for students who intend to prepare for graduate study, medicine, dentistry, secondary school teaching, biotechnology and industry. Major II is for students preparing to teach in elementary schools. Students planning to pursue Major I are strongly encouraged to declare their major as soon as possible after completing one semester of Principles of Biology.

Declared majors are assigned a permanent faculty adviser who will assist in individual curriculum planning. Students are required to meet with their adviser at least once each semester throughout their undergraduate career to discuss their program and progress.

• Biological Sciences Major I
• Biological Sciences Major II

CR/NC Policy

Only a letter grade (A, B, C, D, including + or -) will be accepted by the department in the required science and mathematics courses for the biology Major I and Major II.
Minor in Biological Sciences

The minor in Biological Sciences gives students a basic understanding of biology from the molecular and cellular to the organismal and population level. This includes both theoretical aspects presented in lecture as well as practical aspects presented in lab. Flexibility is built into the minor to allow students to select courses corresponding to their interests. In order to minor in Biological Sciences a student must pass four courses resulting in a minor GPA of 2.0 or higher. All students who want a Minor in Biological Sciences must take:

- BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I and BIOL 10200 - Principles of Biology II or BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I and BIOL 16000 - Honors Principles of Biology II or the equivalent
- two additional courses in Biological Sciences, one of which must be at the 200 level or higher

Number of Credits: A minimum of 12 credits. Transfer credits may be applied. At least 2 courses must be taken at Hunter College.

Opportunities for Undergraduates in Biological Sciences

Undergraduate Research Students who wish to undertake a research project under the supervision of a faculty member must first obtain written permission from that faculty member and then register for BIOL 48000 – BIOL 48300. Research opportunities for undergraduates at Hunter are available in cell and molecular biology, developmental biology, neuroscience, cancer biology, AIDS, microbiology and a variety of other contemporary areas. In some cases students may be permitted to work at one of the several neighboring research institutions. Synopses of faculty research interests can be obtained in the department office or from the Department of Biological Sciences Web site (http://sonhouse.hunter.cuny.edu/). In addition, there are summer research opportunities available at Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory and Woods Hole Research Center through the Howard Hughes Medical Institute. Please note that, to qualify for departmental honors at graduation, there is a research requirement.

Honors Work

In order to qualify for departmental honors, students must have a departmental GPA of at least 3.5 and an overall GPA of at least 2.8. They must also satisfy a research requirement consisting of either:

(a) at least 2 credits of

BIOL 48000 - Introduction to Experimental Biology

GER 3/B
Laboratory research under guidance of faculty member. Work at another institution may be permitted in some cases, under auspices of a faculty member. Written report required upon completion of research. A minimum of 2 credits satisfies the research requirement for graduation with departmental honors.

prereq: BIOL 10000 and 10200, BIOL 20000 or 20200 (or the equiv), written perm instr. prior to reg.
hrs TBA 1-2 cr. per sem.

BIOL 48100 - Introduction to Experimental Biology

GER 3/B
Laboratory research under guidance of faculty member. Work at another institution may be permitted in some cases, under auspices of a faculty member. Written report required upon completion of research. A minimum of 2 credits satisfies the research requirement for graduation with departmental honors.
prereq: BIOL 10000 and 10200, BIOL 20000 or 20200 (or the equiv), written perm instr. prior to reg.
TBA 1-2 credits per semester

BIOL 48200 - Introduction to Experimental biology

GER 3/B
Laboratory research under guidance of faculty member. Work at another institution may be permitted in some cases, under auspices of a faculty member. Written report required upon completion of research. A minimum of 2 credits satisfies the research requirement for graduation with departmental honors.
prereq: BIOL 10000 and 10200, BIOL 20000 or 20200 (or the equiv), written perm instr. prior to reg.
TBA 1-2 credits per semester

BIOL 48300 - Introduction to Experimental Biology

GER 3/B
Laboratory research under guidance of faculty member. Work at another institution may be permitted in some cases, under auspices of a faculty member. Written report required upon completion of research. A minimum of 2 credits satisfies the research requirement for graduation with departmental honors.
prereq: BIOL 10000 and 10200, BIOL 20000 or 20200 (or the equiv), written perm instr. prior to reg.
hours TBA 1-2 cr. per sem.

or (b) at least one course chosen from among

BIOL 37500 - Molecular Systematics

GER 3/B
An overview of the various methods and kinds of data used in systematics, the study of organism diversity and biological relationships. Emphasis is on modern molecular and genetic approaches to identification of individual species and strains and full phylogenetic analyses of suites of species to determine their evolutionary history. The knowledge base is provided for experimental investigation of questions of current interest in phylogeny and population biology.
prereq: BIOL 30000 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

BIOL 39000 - Laboratory in Cell Structure

GER 3/B
Applications of light and confocal microscopy, using fluorescence and multidimensional imaging to study cell structures. Lab projects involve immunofluorescence: fixation methods and immunocytochemistry. Illumination methods including multi-channel 3D rendering, image processing and visualization software.

prereq or coreq: BIOL 30000 or BIOL 20200 and perm instr.
7 hrs (2 lecture, 5 lab) 4.5 cr.
fall only

BIOL 41000 - Workshop in Biotechnology

GER 3/B
A series of laboratory-intensive experimental projects, each lasting one week or more, which introduce current research techniques and include individual participation in planning and preparation of experiments. The focus is on a broad biotechnology topic such as the isolation, cloning and expression of a gene, utilizing the techniques of molecular prereq: BIOL 20000, 20200, perm instr.
This course satisfies the research requirement for graduation with departmental honors and is a component of the interdisciplinary BS/MA (MLS/Biol) program in biotechnology.

30 hrs/week for 4 weeks 4 cr.

Additional Information

The research requirement includes a written report resulting from work in any of these courses.

BA/MA Program in Biological Sciences and Adolescent Education: Biology

This is an accelerated program leading to a BA in Biological Sciences and an MA in Adolescent Education: Biology. Undergraduates admitted to the program start graduate courses during their senior year and will be able to complete the MA degree one year after they complete the requirements for the BA degree. Interested students should contact a Biology Department adviser early in their undergraduate career.

Biological Sciences Major I

Return to: Biological Sciences-BA

Major I in Biological Sciences has the following Concentrations:

- Basic (shown below)

  Three other concentrations that are slightly more rigorous than the basic Major I. Interested students should speak with a biology adviser as soon as possible to plan their courses accordingly.

- Behavioral Neurobiology
- Bioinformatics
- Biophysics

28-credit concentration in biology at the 200-level and higher

This plan consists of a 28-credit concentration in biology at the 200-level and higher, the prerequisite for which is introductory biology (BIOL 10000, BIOL 10200). The biology concentration consists of an 18-credit core — BIOL 200, 202, 300, 302 — and 10 credits of electives. Together, introductory biology and the concentration (37 cr) satisfy the major requirement for certification as a teacher of biology in grades 7-12. See Adolescent Biology, Grades 7-12-BA.

18-credit core

BIOL 20000 - Cell Biology I: Microorganisms
GER 3/B
Structure and function of procaryotic cells and viruses; cultivation, growth, evolution, metabolism and genetics of microorganisms. Laboratories include light microscopy techniques, cultivation, growth, metabolism and genetics of microorganisms and viruses.
Material fee: $10
prereq: BIOL 10000 and 10200 or equiv; CHEM 10200, 10300, 10400, 10500 or equiv. coreq: CHEM 22200, 22300 or perm instr. (for Major II students, chem are CHEM 10000, 10100; coreqs are 12000, 12100)
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

BIOL 20200 - Cell Biology II: Eucaryotic Systems

GER 3/B
Structure and function of eucaryotic cells and organelles; membrane systems, cell cycle, cell division, signaling, cytoskeletal systems, motility; specialized cells; modern research tools and approaches. Laboratories include plant and animal cell culture; studies of cell division, the cytoskeleton, motility; light and electron microscopic methods; fluorescence labeling; protein electrophoresis, immunoblotting and immunolocalization.
Material Fee: $10
prereq: BIOL 20000
coreq: CHEM 22400 or perm instr.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
spring only

BIOL 30000 - Biological Chemistry

GER 3/B
Molecular aspects of cellular function; properties of biomolecules, their biosynthesis and breakdown; structure and function of proteins and enzymes, metabolites, membranes and nucleic acids; cellular mechanisms of energy transduction; integration and control of cell metabolism. Experiments cover a variety of modern techniques in molecular biology.
Material Fee: $10
prereq: BIOL 20200, CHEM 22200, 22300 coreq: CHEM 22400
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

BIOL 30200 - Molecular Genetics

GER 3/B
A comparison of viral, procaryotic and eukaryotic systems; review of classical Mendelian principles; bacterial DNA replication, transcription and their control; mechanisms of gene mutation, repair, recombination and transposition; applications of recombinant DNA technology; organization of nucleic acid into chromosomes; control of gene expression, the cell cycle and cell development in eucaryotes.
Material Fee: $10
prereq: BIOL 30000
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
spring only

Electives (10 cr)

Students may select the remainder of their credits toward Major I from advanced courses in the biological sciences. At least one course must be at the 300 level, in addition to BIOL 300 and 302.
Special-topics

At least one special-topics course must also be taken (various topics offered each semester)

BIOL 47000 - Special Topics in Biology

GER 3/B
Specific area of contemporary interest in biology. Topics change from term to term. An oral presentation and a written paper are required.

*prereq: BIOL 30000
2 hrs (lec) 2 cr. per sem.*

BIOL 47100 - Special Topics in Biology

GER 3/B
Specific area of contemporary interest in biology. Topics change from term to term. An oral presentation and a written paper are required.

*prereq: BIOL 300
3 hrs (lec) 3 cr. per sem.*

Interdisciplinary interests

Students with strong interdisciplinary interests may select the following, after approval by their adviser

- Advanced course offerings in other departments or

SCI 30200 - Ethical Conduct in the Natural and Physical Sciences

GER 3/B
Case studies of ethical issues in scientific research and education, including fraud, misrepresentation and negligence in scientific reporting. Term paper required.

*prereq: 2 yrs lab science (BIOL 10000, 10200; CHEM 10200, 10300, 10400, 10500; PHYS 11000, 12000; or equiv.)
prereq or coreq: lab research experience in natural or physical sciences
2 hrs 2 cr.*

Additional science and math requirements for Major I:

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.

*Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.*

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.
Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

CHEM 10600 - General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate the fundamental laws of chemistry. The course is equivalent one year of general chemistry laboratory.

Credit not given for CHEM 10600 and CHEM 10300 or CHEM 10500. Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq: CHEM 10200
coreq: CHEM 10400
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 22200 - Organic Chemistry Lecture I

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.

prereq: CHEM 10400
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

CHEM 22300 - Organic Chemistry Laboratory I

GER 3/B
Various organic syntheses, Distillation, distillation, extraction, chromatography, qualitative analysis, spectroscopy.

prereq: CHEM 10500
prereq or coreq: CHEM 22200
5 hrs 2.5 cr.

CHEM 22400 - Organic Chemistry Lecture II

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.

prereq: prereq for CHEM 22400: CHEM 22200
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

PHYS 11000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
First semester of two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.

prereq: MATH 12500: pre-calculus or equiv. By math dept. exam.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.

PHYS 12000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics
GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11000, a two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.

_prereq: PHYS 11000 or 11100
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.

or

PHYS 11100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
For physics and other science majors. First semester of a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.

_prereq or coreq: coreq (with perm dept.): MATH 15000
8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.

PHYS 12100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics

GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11100, a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.

_prereq: PHYS 11000 or 11100
_prereq or coreq: (with perm dept.): MATH 15500
8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.

MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

GER 1/B
Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.

_prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 15500 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

GER 1/B
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions, integration techniques, infinite sequences and series, improper integrals, polar coordinates.

_prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 15000
4 hrs 4 cr.

STAT 21300 - Introduction to Applied Statistics

GER 1/B

_prereq: MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
3 hrs 3 cr.

prereq: BIOL 10000 and 10200 or equiv; CHEM 10200, 10300, 10400, 10500 or equiv. coreq: CHEM 22200, 22300 or perm instr. (for Major II students, chem are CHEM 10000, 10100; coreqs are 12000, 12100)
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.

CHEM 22200 - Organic Chemistry Lecture I

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.
prereq: CHEM 10400
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

CHEM 22300 - Organic Chemistry Laboratory I

GER 3/B
Various organic syntheses, Distillation, distillation, extraction, chromatography, qualitative analysis, spectroscopy.

prereq: CHEM 10500
prereq or coreq: CHEM 22200
5 hrs 2.5 cr.

MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

GER 1/B
Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
4 hrs 4 cr.

Spring
BIOL 20200 - Cell Biology II: Eucaryotic Systems

GER 3/B
Structure and function of eucaryotic cells and organelles; membrane systems, cell cycle, cell division, signaling, cytoskeletal systems, motility; specialized cells; modern research tools and approaches. Laboratories include plant and animal cell culture; studies of cell division, the cytoskeleton, motility; light and electron microscopic methods; fluorescence labeling; protein electrophoresis, immunoblotting and immunolocalization.

Material Fee: $10

prereq: BIOL 20000 coreq: CHEM 22400 or perm instr.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
spring only

CHEM 22400 - Organic Chemistry Lecture II

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.

prereq: prereq for CHEM 22400: CHEM 22200
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

MATH 15500 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

GER 1/B
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions, integration techniques, infinite sequences and series, improper integrals, polar coordinates.

prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 15000
4 hrs 4 cr.

STAT 21300 - Introduction to Applied Statistics

GER 1/B

prereq: MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Year 3

Fall

BIOL 30000 - Biological Chemistry

GER 3/B
Molecular aspects of cellular function; properties of biomolecules, their biosynthesis and breakdown; structure and function of proteins and enzymes, metabolites, membranes and nucleic acids; cellular mechanisms of energy transduction; integration and control of cell metabolism. Experiments cover a variety of modern techniques in molecular biology.

Material Fee: $10

prereq: BIOL 20200, CHEM 22200, 22300 coreq: CHEM 22400
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

PHYS 11000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound
GER 2/E
First semester of two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.
prereq: MATH 12500; pre-calculus or equiv. By math dept. exam.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.

PHYS 11100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound
GER 2/E
For physics and other science majors. First semester of a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.
prereq or coreq: coreq (with perm dept.): MATH 15000
8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.
  • BIOL electives (300 level)

Spring

BIOL 30200 - Molecular Genetics
GER 3/B
A comparison of viral, procaryotic and eukaryotic systems; review of classical Mendelian principles; bacterial DNA replication, transcription and their control; mechanisms of gene mutation, repair, recombination and transposition; applications of recombinant DNA technology; organization of nucleic acid into chromosomes; control of gene expression, the cell cycle and cell development in eucaryotes.
Material Fee: $10
prereq: BIOL 30000
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
spring only

PHYS 12000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics
GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11000, a two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.
prereq: PHYS 11000 or 11100
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.

PHYS 12100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics
GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11100, a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.
prereq: PHYS 11000 or 11100
prereq or coreq: (with perm dept.): MATH 15500
8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.
Year 4

Fall

- BIOL electives (300 & 400 level)

Spring

- BIOL electives (300 and 400 level)

Note(s)

*We recommend that math, physics and chemistry courses be completed as early as the student’s schedule allows. Note that CHEM 22400 must be taken prior to or corequisite with BIOL 30000; otherwise, instructor permission is required. Students who are behind in the chemistry sequence are urged to take advantage of the summer session, during which these chemistry courses are usually offered.

Biological Sciences Major II

For Students Planning to teach in Childhood Education, Grades 1–6

This plan consists of 26 credits in biological science, 12 credits in additional science and 6 credits in math. Major II satisfies the major requirements for certification as a teacher for grades 1-6.

This major requires 30 credits of education courses and should thus be initiated as early as possible.

Childhood education (grades 1-6) is a collateral major. See the School of Education section of this catalog for requirements.

Required Biology Courses

- BIOL 10000, BIOL 10200  (9 credits)
- Courses approved by adviser selected from the 200 or 300 level  (17 credits)

Additional Math and Science Requirements for Major II
CHEM 10000 - Essentials of General Chemistry Lecture

GER 2/E
Essential facts, laws, and theories of general chemistry.
Note: Core credit awarded only if CHEM 10000 and CHEM 10100 are completed. Primarily for nursing, nutrition and food science and community health education students.
4 hrs (3 lec, 1 rec) 3 cr.

CHEM 10100 - Essentials of General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate fundamental laws and techniques of general chemistry.
Primarily for nursing, nutrition and food science and community health students.
prereq or coreq: CHEM 10000
3 hrs 1.5 cr.

CHEM 12000 - Essentials of Organic Chemistry Lecture

GER 2/E
Course presents essential facts, laws and theories of organic chemistry.
Core credit awarded only if CHEM 12000 and CHEM 12100 are completed. Primarily for nursing, nutrition and food science and community health education students.
prereq: CHEM 10000
4 hrs (3 lec, 1 rec) 3 cr.

CHEM 12100 - Essentials of Organic Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate fundamental laws and techniques of organic chemistry.
Core credit awarded only if CHEM 12000 and CHEM 12100 are completed. Primarily for nursing, nutrition and food science and community health students.
prereq: CHEM 10100 prereq or coreq: CHEM 12000
3 hrs (3 lab) 1.5 cr.

PHYS 10100 - Study of Selected Phenomena and Basic Concepts of Physics

GER 2/E
Introductory one-semester physics course designed for non-science majors and others requiring a one-semester terminal course.
6 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab) 4 cr.

PHYS 11000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
First semester of two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.
prereq: MATH 12500; pre-calculus or equiv. By math dept. exam.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.
PHYS 12000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics

GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11000, a two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.
prereq: PHYS 11000 or 11100
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.

MATH 10400 - Mathematics for Elementary Education I

GER 1/B
Fundamental and relevant mathematics as recommended by the NCTM for prospective elementary school teachers, including problem solving, sets, logic, numeration, computation, integers and number theory. Required of students planning to teach in elementary schools. Not open to other students.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 10100 or appropriate score on the placement exam
3 hrs 3 cr.

MATH 10500 - Mathematics for Elementary Education II

GER 1/B
Continuation of MATH 10400. Continuation of the content of the mathematics recommended by the NCTM for prospective elementary school teachers, including probability, statistics, plane and transformational geometry, congruence and similarity.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 10400
3 hrs 3 cr.

Curriculum Guide for Major II

Year 1

Fall

BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I

GER 2/E PD/C or D
The chemical basis of life; basic structure and function of pro- and eucaryotic cells; bioenergetics; Mendelian and molecular genetics; development and mechanisms of control of gene expression at all levels; population genetics and evolution.
Material Fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equivalent
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

CHEM 10000 - Essentials of General Chemistry Lecture

GER 2/E
Essential facts, laws, and theories of general chemistry.
Note: Core credit awarded only if CHEM 10000 and CHEM 10100 are completed. Primarily for nursing, nutrition and food science and community health education students.

4 hrs (3 lec, 1 rec) 3 cr.

CHEM 10100 - Essentials of General Chemistry Laboratory

Primarily for nursing, nutrition and food science and community health students.
prereq or coreq: CHEM 10000
3 hrs 1.5 cr.

Spring

BIOL 10200 - Principles of Biology II

GER 2/E PD/C or D
Taxonomy; homeostasis; internal transport and gas exchange in plants and animals; plant hormones; osmoregulation; mechanisms of action in the muscular, nervous and neuroendocrine systems; the senses, behavior; ecology.
Material fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
prereq: BIOL 10000 or perm instr, MATH 10100 or equiv.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
spring only

CHEM 12000 - Essentials of Organic Chemistry Lecture

GER 2/E
Course presents essential facts, laws and theories of organic chemistry.
Core credit awarded only if CHEM 12000 and CHEM 12100 are completed. Primarily for nursing, nutrition and food science and community health education students.
prereq: CHEM 10000

Biological Sciences with Specialization in Biotechnology - Accelerated BA/MA

In this five-year program, qualified biology majors begin graduate work as seniors and receive the MA one year after completing BA requirements. Students are provided with theoretical knowledge and skills in molecular biology and a foundation for application of these skills in careers in the biotechnology and pharmaceutical industries, academic research, or public health. Successful completion of the biotechnology workshop (BIOL 41000/610), an essential program component, entitles students to a summer internship in an industrial or private research laboratory. Interested biology majors should contact a departmental adviser as early as possible.

Biological Sciences/Environmental and Occupational Health Sciences - Accelerated BA/MS

This is an accelerated program leading to a BA in biology and an MS in environmental and occupational health sciences in five years. Biology majors admitted to the program start graduate work in their senior year. Interested students should contact a departmental adviser early in their undergraduate studies, as well as the office of the director of the Environmental and Occupational Health Sciences Program at the Brookdale Campus. The program provides biology majors with a career option in public health.

Biological Sciences: Concentration in Behavioral Neurobiology

Return to: Biological Sciences Major I

The concentration in Behavioral Neurobiology within the Department of Biological Sciences, one of the options for Major I, has the following required courses and schedule.

Required Courses

BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I

GER 2/E PD/C or D
The chemical basis of life; basic structure and function of pro- and eucaryotic cells; bioenergetics; Mendelian and molecular genetics; development and mechanisms of control of gene expression at all levels; population genetics and evolution.
Material Fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equivalent
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

BIOL 10200 - Principles of Biology II
GER 2/E PD/C or D
Taxonomy; homeostasis; internal transport and gas exchange in plants and animals; plant hormones; osmoregulation; mechanisms of action in the muscular, nervous and neuroendocrine systems; the senses, behavior; ecology.

Material fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.

prereq: BIOL 10000 or perm instr, MATH 10100 or equiv.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
spring only

BIOL 20000 - Cell Biology I: Microorganisms

GER 3/B
Structure and function of procaryotic cells and viruses; cultivation, growth, evolution, metabolism and genetics of microorganisms. Laboratories include light microscopy techniques, cultivation, growth, metabolism and genetics of microorganisms and viruses.

Material fee: $10

prereq: BIOL 10000 and 10200 or equiv; CHEM 10200, 10300, 10400, 10500 or equiv. coreq: CHEM 22200, 22300 or perm instr. (for Major II students, chem are CHEM 10000, 10100; coreqs are 12000, 12100)
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

BIOL 20200 - Cell Biology II: Eucaryotic Systems

GER 3/B
Structure and function of eucaryotic cells and organelles; membrane systems, cell cycle, cell division, signaling, cytoskeletal systems, motility; specialized cells; modern research tools and approaches. Laboratories include plant and animal cell culture; studies of cell division, the cytoskeleton, motility; light and electron microscopic methods; fluorescence labeling; protein electrophoresis, immunoblotting and immunolocalization.

Material Fee: $10

prereq: BIOL 20000 coreq: CHEM 22400 or perm instr.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
spring only

BIOL 30000 - Biological Chemistry

GER 3/B
Molecular aspects of cellular function; properties of biomolecules, their biosynthesis and breakdown; structure and function of proteins and enzymes, metabolites, membranes and nucleic acids; cellular mechanisms of energy transduction; integration and control of cell metabolism. Experiments cover a variety of modern techniques in molecular biology.

Material Fee: $10

prereq: BIOL 20200, CHEM 22200, 22300 coreq: CHEM 22400
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

BIOL 30200 - Molecular Genetics

GER 3/B
A comparison of viral, procaryotic and eukaryotic systems; review of classical Mendelian principles; bacterial DNA replication, transcription and their control; mechanisms of gene mutation, repair, recombination and transposition; applications of recombinant DNA technology; organization of nucleic acid into chromosomes; control of gene expression, the cell cycle and cell development in eucaryotes.

Material Fee: $10

prereq: BIOL 30000

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
spring only

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E

In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.

Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.

5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E

In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.

Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair

5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10600 - General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E

Experiments designed to illustrate the fundamental laws of chemistry. The course is equivalent one year of general chemistry laboratory.

Credit not given for CHEM 10600 and CHEM 10300 or CHEM 10500. Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq: CHEM 10200

coreq: CHEM 10400

6 hrs 3 cr.

CHEM 22200 - Organic Chemistry Lecture I

GER 3/B

Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.

prereq: CHEM 10400

5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

CHEM 22400 - Organic Chemistry Lecture II

GER 3/B

Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.

prereq: prereq for CHEM 22400: CHEM 22200

5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

GER 1/B

Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
4 hrs 4 cr.

PHYS 11000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
First semester of two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.
prereq: MATH 12500; pre-calculus or equiv. By math dept. exam.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.

PHYS 12000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics

GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11000, a two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.
prereq: PHYS 11000 or 11100
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.

PSYCH 10000 - Introduction to Psychology

GER 2/B
An introduction to the problems, methods and concepts of psychology, covering a range of topics which characterize the discipline, including history, methodology and professional ethics, biological foundations, perception, motivation and emotion, learning, memory and thinking, individual differences, intelligence, personality, behavior disorders and their treatment, group processes.
3 hrs 3 cr.

PSYCH 24800 - Statistical Methods in Psychological Research

GER 3/B
Open to declared majors only. Analysis and interpretation of quantified data. Descriptive and inferential statistics applied to psychological research.

PSYC 24800 and 24900 or 25000, one semester of an acceptable science sequence, ENGL 12000 and declaration of a psychology major are the minimum prerequisite for all courses above PSYCH 25000. (Students falling under the previous curriculum need not fulfill the science prerequisite.)

prereq: PSYCH 10000 and any other 3 cr PSYCH course, MATH 12500 or STAT 11300 with a C or or appropriate score on math placement exam
coreq: Writing Intensive prereq or coreq: ENGL 12000
4 hrs 4 cr.

PSYCH 25000 - Experimental Psychology: General

GER 3/B
Open to declared majors only. Research and general experimental techniques in study of behavior. Introduction to the principles of research methodology and experimental techniques. Required research reports involve a variety of laboratory exercises related to the study of basic behavioral processes. (Students may take either PSYC 24900 or 25000, but not both.)
PSYCH 24800 and 24900 or 25000, one semester of an acceptable science sequence, ENGL 12000 and declaration of a psychology major are the minimum prerequisite for all courses above PSYCH 25000. (Students falling under the previous curriculum need not fulfill the science prerequisite.)

prereq: ENGL 12000 with a minimum grade of C; one sem. acceptable lab science sequence with a passing grade; PSYCH 24800 with a minimum grade of C

coreq: Writing Intensive

6 hrs (2 lec, 4 lab) 4 cr.

BIOL 47000 - Special Topics in Biology

GER 3/B

Specific area of contemporary interest in biology. Topics change from term to term. An oral presentation and a written paper are required.

prereq: BIOL 30000

2 hrs (lec) 2 cr. per sem.

---

BIOL 47100 - Special Topics in Biology

GER 3/B

Specific area of contemporary interest in biology. Topics change from term to term. An oral presentation and a written paper are required.

prereq: BIOL 300

3 hrs (lec) 3 cr. per sem.

---

Electives

8 credits, 6 of which must be PSYCH

---

PSYCH 30000 - Physiological Psychology (B)

GER 3/B

Neural and endocrine mechanisms involved in learning, emotion, perception and other psychological processes.

prereq: ENGL 12000. PSYCH 24900 or 25000

3 hrs 3 cr.

PSYCH 30100 - Sensation and Perception (B; C)

GER 3/B

Open to declared majors only. Methods, theories and empirical data relating to stimulus detection, encoding and perception as a function of variables including current stimuli and past history.

prereq: ENGL 12000. PSYCH 24900 or 25000

3 hrs 3 cr.
PSYCH 30900 - Sex and Behavior (B; D/S)

GER 3/B PD/C
Research and attitudes about sex-related behavior in human and nonhuman animals emphasizing evolutionary and neuroendoinological processes and social-psychological processes; male-female differences and similarities, therapeutic strategy in sex-behavior pathology and sexual behavior and the law.

PSYCH 24800 and 24900 or 25000, one semester of an acceptable science sequence, ENGL 12000 and declaration of a psychology major are the minimum prerequisite for all courses above PSYCH 25000. (Students falling under the previous curriculum need not fulfill the science prerequisite.)

prereq: ENGL 12000. PSYCH 24900 or 25000
3 hrs 3 cr.

PSYCH 32700 - Motivation (B; C)

GER 3/B
The problem of how behavior is initiated, maintained, directed and terminated. Human and non-human research evaluated.

PSYCH 24800 and 24900 or 25000, one semester of an acceptable science sequence, ENGL 12000 and declaration of a psychology major are the minimum prerequisite for all courses above PSYCH 25000. (Students falling under the previous curriculum need not fulfill the science prerequisite.)

prereq: ENGL 12000. PSYCH 24900 or 25000
3 hrs 3 cr.

PSYCH 36900 - Drugs and Behavior (B)

GER 3/B
Neurochemical substrate of brain functioning; historical context and social ramifications of drug use.

prereq: ENGL 12000, PSYCH 24900 or 25000, PSYCH 30000 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

BIOL 37000 - Physiology of the Nervous System

GER 3/B
A comprehensive introduction to neuroscience. Topics include how nerve cells (neurons) transmit electrical impulses, how neurons communicate with each other through synapses and how nerve pathways and networks determine many functions of the brain. The last portion of the course shall explore how developing neurons seek out targets and establish synapses.

prereq: BIOL 30000 or perm instr.
4 hrs (lec) 4 cr.
spring only

BIOL 37600 - Endocrinology

GER 3/B
Cellular organization of the endocrine system; molecular mechanisms of hormone action; hormonal physiology of metabolism and reproduction; integration of endocrine responses by the central nervous system.
prereq: BIOL 20200 or perm instr.
3 hrs (lec) 3 cr.
spring only

BIOL 38000 - Molecular Neurobiology

GER 3/B
Molecular components and molecular mechanisms involved in the cell biology of neurons and glia, neuronal signaling, neuronal development, learning, memory and diseases of the nervous system.
prereq: BIOL 30000 or perm instr.
3 lec hrs 3 cr.
fall alternate years

Total: 76 Credits

Schedule

A typical timetable for graduation is presented below.

Fall (Year 1) 11.5 credits

BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I

GER 2/E PD/C or D
The chemical basis of life; basic structure and function of pro- and eucaryotic cells; bioenergetics; Mendelian and molecular genetics; development and mechanisms of control of gene expression at all levels; population genetics and evolution.
Material Fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equivalent
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.
Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

GER 1/B
Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
4 hrs 4 cr.
Spring (Year 1) 13.5 credits

BIOL 10200 - Principles of Biology II

GER 2/E PD/C or D
Taxonomy; homeostasis; internal transport and gas exchange in plants and animals; plant hormones; osmoregulation; mechanisms of action in the muscular, nervous and neuroendocrine systems; the senses, behavior; ecology.
Material fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
prereq: BIOL 10000 or perm instr, MATH 10100 or equiv.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
spring only

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.
Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10600 - General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate the fundamental laws of chemistry. The course is equivalent one year of general chemistry laboratory.
Credit not given for CHEM 10600 and CHEM 10300 or CHEM 10500. Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200
coreq: CHEM 10400
6 hrs 3 cr.

PSYCH 10000 - Introduction to Psychology

GER 2/B
An introduction to the problems, methods and concepts of psychology, covering a range of topics which characterize the discipline, including history, methodology and professional ethics, biological foundations, perception, motivation and emotion, learning, memory and thinking, individual differences, intelligence, personality, behavior disorders and their treatment, group processes.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Fall (Year 2) 12 credits

BIOL 20000 - Cell Biology I: Microorganisms

GER 3/B
Structure and function of procaryotic cells and viruses; cultivation, growth, evolution, metabolism and genetics of microorganisms. Laboratories include light microscopy techniques, cultivation, growth, metabolism and genetics of microorganisms and viruses.
PHYS 11000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
First semester of two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.
prereq: MATH 12500; pre-calculus or equiv. By math dept. exam.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.

CHEM 22200 - Organic Chemistry Lecture I

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.
prereq: CHEM 10400
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

Spring (Year 2) 12 credits

CHEM 22400 - Organic Chemistry Lecture II

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.
prereq: prereq for CHEM 22400: CHEM 22200
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

PHYS 12000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics

GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11000, a two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.
prereq: PHYS 11000 or 11100
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.

BIOL 20200 - Cell Biology II: Eucaryotic Systems

GER 3/B
Structure and function of eucaryotic cells and organelles; membrane systems, cell cycle, cell division, signaling, cytoskeletal systems, motility; specialized cells; modern research tools and approaches. Laboratories include plant and animal cell culture; studies of cell division, the cytoskeleton, motility; light and electron microscopic methods; fluorescence labeling; protein electrophoresis, immunoblotting and immunolocalization.
Material Fee: $10
prereq: BIOL 20000 coreq: CHEM 22400 or perm instr.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
spring only
Fall (Year 3) 8.5 credits

BIOL 30000 - Biological Chemistry

GER 3/B
Molecular aspects of cellular function; properties of biomolecules, their biosynthesis and breakdown; structure and function of proteins and enzymes, metabolites, membranes and nucleic acids; cellular mechanisms of energy transduction; integration and control of cell metabolism. Experiments cover a variety of modern techniques in molecular biology.

Material Fee: $10

prereq: BIOL 20200, CHEM 22200, 22300
coreq: CHEM 22400

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.

fall only

PSYCH 24800 - Statistical Methods in Psychological Research

GER 3/B
Open to declared majors only. Analysis and interpretation of quantified data. Descriptive and inferential statistics applied to psychological research.

PSYC 24800 and 24900 or 25000, one semester of an acceptable science sequence, ENGL 12000 and declaration of a psychology major are the minimum prerequisite for all courses above PSYCH 25000. (Students falling under the previous curriculum need not fulfill the science prerequisite.)

prereq: PSYCH 10000 and any other 3 cr PSYCH course, MATH 12500 or STAT 11300 with a C or or appropriate score on math placement exam
coreq: Writing Intensive prereq or coreq: ENGL 12000

4 hrs 4 cr.

Spring (Year 3) 10.5 credits

BIOL 30200 - Molecular Genetics

GER 3/B
A comparison of viral, procaryotic and eukaryotic systems; review of classical Mendelian principles; bacterial DNA replication, transcription and their control; mechanisms of gene mutation, repair, recombination and transposition; applications of recombinant DNA technology; organization of nucleic acid into chromosomes; control of gene expression, the cell cycle and cell development in eucaryotes.

Material Fee: $10

prereq: BIOL 30000

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.

spring only

PSYCH 25000 - Experimental Psychology: General

GER 3/B
Open to declared majors only. Research and general experimental techniques in study of behavior. Introduction to the principles of research methodology and experimental techniques. Required research reports involve a variety of laboratory exercises related to the study of basic behavioral processes. (Students may take either PSYC 24900 or 25000, but not both.)
PSYCH 24800 and 24900 or 25000, one semester of an acceptable science sequence, ENGL 12000 and declaration of a psychology major are the minimum prerequisite for all courses above PSYCH 25000. (Students falling under the previous curriculum need not fulfill the science prerequisite.)

prereq: ENGL 12000 with a minimum grade of C; one sem. acceptable lab science sequence with a passing grade; PSYCH 24800 with a minimum grade of C prereq or coreq: Writing Intensive
6 hrs (2 lec, 4 lab) 4 cr.

PSYCH 30000 - Physiological Psychology (B)

GER 3/B
Neural and endocrine mechanisms involved in learning, emotion, perception and other psychological processes. PSYCH 24800 and 24900 or 25000, one semester of an acceptable science sequence, ENGL 12000 and declaration of a psychology major are the minimum prerequisite for all courses above PSYCH 25000. (Students falling under the previous curriculum need not fulfill the science prerequisite.)

prereq: ENGL 12000. PSYCH 24900 or 25000
3 hrs 3 cr.

Fall (Year 4) 6 credits

BIOL 37600 - Endocrinology

GER 3/B
Cellular organization of the endocrine system; molecular mechanisms of hormone action; hormonal physiology of metabolism and reproduction; integration of endocrine responses by the central nervous system.

prereq: BIOL 20200 or perm instr.
3 hrs (lec) 3 cr.
spring only

PSYCH 36900 - Drugs and Behavior (B)

GER 3/B
Neurochemical substrate of brain functioning; historical context and social ramifications of drug use.

prereq: ENGL 12000, PSYCH 24900 or 25000, PSYCH 30000 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Spring (Year 4) 2 credits

BIOL 47000 - Special Topics in Biology

GER 3/B
Specific area of contemporary interest in biology. Topics change from term to term. An oral presentation and a written paper are required.

prereq: BIOL 30000
2 hrs (lec) 2 cr. per sem.

Biological Sciences: Concentration in Bioinformatics

Return to: Biological Sciences Major I
The requirements and schedule for the Concentration in Bioinformatics, one of the options in Biological Sciences Major I, are as follows:

Required Courses

BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I

GER 2/E PD/C or D
The chemical basis of life; basic structure and function of pro- and eucaryotic cells; bioenergetics; Mendelian and molecular genetics; development and mechanisms of control of gene expression at all levels; population genetics and evolution.
Material Fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equivalent
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

BIOL 10200 - Principles of Biology II

GER 2/E PD/C or D
Taxonomy; homeostasis; internal transport and gas exchange in plants and animals; plant hormones; osmoregulation; mechanisms of action in the muscular, nervous and neuroendocrine systems; the senses, behavior; ecology.
Material fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
prereq: BIOL 100 or perm instr, MATH 10100 or equiv.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
spring only

BIOL 20000 - Cell Biology I: Microorganisms

GER 3/B
Structure and function of procaryotic cells and viruses; cultivation, growth, evolution, metabolism and genetics of microorganisms. Laboratories include light microscopy techniques, cultivation, growth, metabolism and genetics of microorganisms and viruses.
Material fee: $10
prereq: BIOL 10000 and 10200 or equiv; CHEM 10200, 10300, 10400, 10500 or equiv. coreq: CHEM 22200, 22300 or perm instr. (for Major II students, chem are CHEM 10000, 10100; coreqs are 12000, 12100)
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

BIOL 20200 - Cell Biology II: Eucaryotic Systems

GER 3/B
Structure and function of eucaryotic cells and organelles; membrane systems, cell cycle, cell division, signaling, cytoskeletal systems, motility; specialized cells; modern research tools and approaches. Laboratories include plant and animal cell culture; studies of cell division, the cytoskeleton, motility; light and electron mioscopic methods; fluorescence labeling; protein electrophoresis, immunoblotting and immunolocalization.
Material Fee: $10
prereq: BIOL 20000 coreq: CHEM 22400 or perm instr.
BIOL 30000 - Biological Chemistry

prereq: BIOL 30000
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
spring only

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.
Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.
Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10600 - General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate the fundamental laws of chemistry. The course is equivalent one year of general chemistry laboratory.
Credit not given for CHEM 10600 and CHEM 10300 or CHEM 10500. Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq: CHEM 10200
coreq: CHEM 10400
6 hrs 3 cr.

CHEM 22200 - Organic Chemistry Lecture I

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.
prereq: CHEM 10400
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

CHEM 22400 - Organic Chemistry Lecture II

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.
prereq: prerequisite for CHEM 22400: CHEM 22200
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

GER 1/B
Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 15500 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

GER 1/B
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions, integration techniques, infinite sequences and series, improper integrals, polar coordinates.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 15000
4 hrs 4 cr.

STAT 21200 - Discrete Probability

GER 1/B
Combinations, permutations, discrete probability. Characteristics of probability distributions. Model building. Additional topics like sampling, random walks or game theory will be introduced from time to time.

prereq: MATH 12500 or STAT 11300 or appropriate score on placement exam.
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 21300 - Introduction to Applied Statistics

GER 1/B

prereq: MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
3 hrs 3 cr.
PHYS 11000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
First semester of two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.
prereq: MATH 12500; pre-calculus or equiv. By math dept. exam.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.

PHYS 11100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
For physics and other science majors. First semester of a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.
prereq or coreq: coreq (with perm dept.): MATH 15000
8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.

PHYS 12000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics

GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11000, a two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.
prereq: PHYS 11000 or 11100
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.

PHYS 12100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics

GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 1100, a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.
prereq: PHYS 11000 or 11100
prereq or coreq: (with perm dept.): MATH 15500
8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.

Electives (10 credits)

ANTHP 30200 - Human Genetics

Analysis of distribution of contemporary human populations and microevolutionary processes that underlie human variability
prereq: ANTHP 10100, 10200, or BIOL 10200
3 hrs 3 cr.

CHEM 38800 - Topics of Current Interest in Chemistry

GER 3/B
Offered subject to adequate student interest and enrollment. Taught by specialists from department faculty. The specific topic will be listed in the schedule of classes for a given semester.
prereq or coreq: CHEM 35200 and CHEM 35600 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

BIOL 42500 - Computational Molecular Biology

GER 3/B
An introduction to the interdisciplinary field of computational molecular biology. Students are taught the scope and methods of in silico biology, i.e., the application of computational and statistical methods to solving problems in molecular biology. Topics will include homology searching, sequence alignment, molecular phylogenetics, comparative genomics, analysis of gene expression, and predication of macromolecular structures. The course will be taught using a mixed format of lectures and hands-on workshops in a UNIX computer laboratory setting. Knowledge and skills in molecular biology, UNIX programming, and statistics are essential for success in this core course required for bioinformatics-concentration students from all majors.

prereq: BIOL 30000 or BIOL 30200 or CHEM 37600; STAT 21300; CSCI 13200 or CSCI 23500 or UNIX proficiency permitted by instructor.

BIOL 47100 - Special Topics in Biology

GER 3/B
Specific area of contemporary interest in biology. Topics change from term to term. An oral presentation and a written paper are required.
prereq: BIOL 300
3 hrs (lec) 3 cr. per sem.

Total Credits (72 to 74 credits)

Schedule

A typical timetable for graduation is presented below.

Fall (Year 1) 11.5 credits

BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I

GER 2/E PD/C or D
The chemical basis of life; basic structure and function of pro- and eucaryotic cells; bioenergetics; Mendelian and molecular genetics; development and mechanisms of control of gene expression at all levels; population genetics and evolution.
Material Fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equivalent
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I
GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.
Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

GER 1/B
Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
4 hrs 4 cr.

Spring (Year 1) 14.5 credits

BIOL 10200 - Principles of Biology II

GER 2/E PD/C or D
Taxonomy; homeostasis; internal transport and gas exchange in plants and animals; plant hormones; osmoregulation; mechanisms of action in the muscular, nervous and neuroendocrine systems; the senses, behavior; ecology.
Material fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
prereq: BIOL 10000 or perm instr, MATH 10100 or equiv.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.
Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10600 - General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate the fundamental laws of chemistry. The course is equivalent one year of general chemistry laboratory.
Credit not given for CHEM 10600 and CHEM 10300 or CHEM 10500. Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200
coreq: CHEM 10400
6 hrs 3 cr.

MATH 15500 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

GER 1/B
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions, integration techniques, infinite sequences and series, improper integrals, polar coordinates.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 15000
4 hrs 4 cr.

Fall (Year 2) 12 credits

BIOL 20000 - Cell Biology I: Microorganisms

GER 3/B
Structure and function of procaryotic cells and viruses; cultivation, growth, evolution, metabolism and genetics of microorganisms. Laboratories include light microscopy techniques, cultivation, growth, metabolism and genetics of microorganisms and viruses.

Material fee: $10

prereq: BIOL 10000 and 10200 or equiv; CHEM 10200, 10300, 10400, 10500 or equiv. coreq: CHEM 22200, 22300 or perm instr. (for Major II students, chem are CHEM 10000, 10100; coreqs are 12000, 12100)

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.

CHEM 22200 - Organic Chemistry Lecture I

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.

prereq: CHEM 10400

5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

PHYS 11000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
First semester of two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.

prereq: MATH 12500; pre-calculus or equiv. By math dept. exam.

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.

Spring (Year 2) 7.5 credits

CHEM 22400 - Organic Chemistry Lecture II

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.

prereq: prereq for CHEM 22400: CHEM 22200

5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

PHYS 12000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics

GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11000, a two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.

prereq: PHYS 11000 or 11100

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.
Fall (Year 3) 10.5 credits

BIOL 30000 - Biological Chemistry

GER 3/B
Molecular aspects of cellular function; properties of biomolecules, their biosynthesis and breakdown; structure and function of proteins and enzymes, metabolites, membranes and nucleic acids; cellular mechanisms of energy transduction; integration and control of cell metabolism. Experiments cover a variety of modern techniques in molecular biology.
Material Fee: $10
prereq: BIOL 20200, CHEM 22200, 22300 coreq: CHEM 22400
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

CSCI 13200 - Practical UNIX and Programming, with Lab

GER 2/E
An introduction to computer programming and the UNIX operating system using Perl. Conceptual overview of the UNIX operating system and programming environment, a practical introduction to shell programming, and the use of UNIX filters and utilities. A pragmatic course with an emphasis on skills acquisition.
This course cannot be counted towards the CSCI major.
prereq: none
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 21200 - Discrete Probability

GER 1/B
Combinations, permutations, discrete probability. Characteristics of probability distributions. Model building. Additional topics like sampling, random walks or game theory will be introduced from time to time.
prereq: MATH 12500 or STAT 11300 or appropriate score on placement exam.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Spring (Year 3) 6 credits

CSCI 23200 - Relational Databases and SQL Programming, with Lab

GER 3/B
An introduction to elementary database concepts and SQL, the standard language for communicating with most database systems. A pragmatic course with an emphasis on skills acquisition; students will learn how to get things done quickly and easily in a database environment.
Required for computer science minors; open to computer science majors, but may not be used toward the computer science major.
prereq: CSCI 12700 or CSCI 13200
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 21300 - Introduction to Applied Statistics

GER 1/B
Familiarity with the Windows computing environment encouraged. Sampling, estimation, tests of hypotheses, including one- and two-sample tests, two- and three-way tables for nominal and ordinal data, linear regression, analysis of variance through two-way with interaction, appropriate statistical software.

prereq: MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Fall (Year 4) 5 credits

- BIOL 3XX

BIOL 47100 - Special Topics in Biology

GER 3/B
Specific area of contemporary interest in biology. Topics change from term to term. An oral presentation and a written paper are required.
prereq: BIOL 300
3 hrs (lec) 3 cr. per sem.

Spring (Year 4) 5 credits

ANTHP 30200 - Human Genetics

Analysis of distribution of contemporary human populations and microevolutionary processes that underlie human variability
prereq: ANTHP 10100, 10200, or BIOL 10200
3 hrs 3 cr.

BIOL 47100 - Special Topics in Biology

GER 3/B
Specific area of contemporary interest in biology. Topics change from term to term. An oral presentation and a written paper are required.
prereq: BIOL 300
3 hrs (lec) 3 cr. per sem.

Biological Sciences: Concentration in Biophysics

Return to: Biological Sciences Major I

The requirements and timetable for graduation for the Concentration in Biophysics, one of the options in the Biological Sciences Major I, are as follows:

Required Courses

BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I

GER 2/E PD/C or D
The chemical basis of life; basic structure and function of pro- and eucaryotic cells; bioenergetics; Mendelian and molecular genetics; development and mechanisms of control of gene expression at all levels; population genetics and evolution.

Material Fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.

prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equivalent

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.

fall only

BIOL 10200 - Principles of Biology II

GER 2/E PD/C or D

Taxonomy; homeostasis; internal transport and gas exchange in plants and animals; plant hormones; osmoregulation; mechanisms of action in the muscular, nervous and neuroendocrine systems; the senses, behavior; ecology.

Material fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.

prereq: BIOL 10000 or perm instr, MATH 10100 or equiv.

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.

spring only

BIOL 20000 - Cell Biology I: Microorganisms

GER 3/B

Structure and function of procaryotic cells and viruses; cultivation, growth, evolution, metabolism and genetics of microorganisms. Laboratories include light microscopy techniques, cultivation, growth, metabolism and genetics of microorganisms and viruses.

Material fee: $10

prereq: BIOL 10000 and 10200 or equiv; CHEM 10200, 10300, 10400, 10500 or equiv. coreq: CHEM 22200, 22300 or perm instr. (for Major II students, chem are CHEM 10000, 10100; coreqs are 12000, 12100)

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.

BIOL 20200 - Cell Biology II: Eucaryotic Systems

GER 3/B

Structure and function of eucaryotic cells and organelles; membrane systems, cell cycle, cell division, signaling, cytoskeletal systems, motility; specialized cells; modern research tools and approaches. Laboratories include plant and animal cell culture; studies of cell division, the cytoskeleton, motility; light and electron microscopic methods; fluorescence labeling; protein electrophoresis, immunoblotting and immunolocalization.

Material Fee: $10

prereq: BIOL 20000 coreq: CHEM 22400 or perm instr.

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.

spring only

BIOL 30000 - Biological Chemistry

GER 3/B

Molecular aspects of cellular function; properties of biomolecules, their biosynthesis and breakdown; structure and function of proteins and enzymes, metabolites, membranes and nucleic acids; cellular mechanisms of energy transduction; integration and control of cell metabolism. Experiments cover a variety of modern techniques in molecular biology.

Material Fee: $10
prereq: BIOL 20200, CHEM 22200, 22300  coreq: CHEM 22400
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

BIOL 30200 - Molecular Genetics

GER 3/B
A comparison of viral, procaryotic and eukaryotic systems; review of classical Mendelian principles; bacterial DNA replication, transcription and their control; mechanisms of gene mutation, repair, recombination and transposition; applications of recombinant DNA technology; organization of nucleic acid into chromosomes; control of gene expression, the cell cycle and cell development in eucaryotes.
Material Fee: $10
prereq: BIOL 30000
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
spring only

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.
Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.
Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10600 - General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate the fundamental laws of chemistry. The course is equivalent one year of general chemistry laboratory.
Credit not given for CHEM 10600 and CHEM 10300 or CHEM 10500. Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200
6 hrs 3 cr.

CHEM 22200 - Organic Chemistry Lecture I

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.
prereq: CHEM 10400
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

CHEM 22400 - Organic Chemistry Lecture II
GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.
prereq: prereq for CHEM 22400: CHEM 22200
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

GER 1/B
Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 15500 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

GER 1/B
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions, integration techniques, infinite sequences and series, improper integrals, polar coordinates.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 15000
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 25000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry III

GER 3/B
Vector geometry, dot and cross products, partial derivatives, matrices, determinants, Jacobians, multiple integration.
prereq: MATH 15500
4 hrs 4 cr.

PHYS 11100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
For physics and other science majors. First semester of a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.
prereq or coreq: coreq (with perm dept.): MATH 15000
8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.

PHYS 12100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics

GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11100, a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.
prereq: PHYS 11000 or 11100
prereq or coreq: (with perm dept.): MATH 15500
8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.

PHYS 33000 - Atomic and Nuclear Physics

Examines experimental evidence and develops modern view of structure of atom and nucleus. prereq: PHYS 12000 or 12100 prereq or coreq: MATH 25000
4 hrs 4 cr.
PHYS 33600 - Thermodynamics and Statistical Mechanics

Study of fundamental ideas of heat, reversibility, and entropy. Introduction to statistical nature of some physical laws.
*prereq: PHYS 12000 or 12100; MATH 25000
4 hrs 4 cr.

PHYS 42000 - Introduction to Biophysics

A comprehensive introduction to the interface between physics and biology and the application of the techniques of physics to understanding biological systems, focusing on developing an understanding of the thermodynamics of living systems, on the physical kinematics of macromolecules and other biological structures and on the theory of physical techniques that are used in the study of biological systems.
*prereq or coreq: PHYS 33000, PHYS 33600, BIOL 30000, CHEM 37600.
4 hrs 4 cr.

Electives (any 2)

BIOL 39000 - Laboratory in Cell Structure

GER 3/B
Applications of light and confocal microscopy, using fluorescence and multidimensional imaging to study cell structures. Lab projects involve immunofluorescence: fixation methods and immunocytochemistry. Illumination methods including multi-channel 3D rendering, image processing and visualization software.
*prereq or coreq: BIOL 30000 or BIOL 20200 and perm instr.
7 hrs (2 lecture, 5 lab) 4.5 cr.
fall only

BIOL 47000 - Special Topics in Biology

GER 3/B
Specific area of contemporary interest in biology. Topics change from term to term. An oral presentation and a written paper are required.
*prereq: BIOL 30000
2 hrs (lec) 2 cr. per sem.

MATH 25400 - Ordinary Differential Equations

GER 3/B
First-order equations, second-order linear equations and linear systems, power series solutions, transform and numerical methods, introduction to qualitative theory.
*prereq: MATH 25000
3 hrs 3 cr.

Total Credits (77.5 to 79.5 credits)

Schedule

A typical timetable for graduation is presented below.
Fall (Year 1) 11.5 credits

BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I

GER 2/E PD/C or D
The chemical basis of life; basic structure and function of pro- and eucaryotic cells; bioenergetics; Mendelian and molecular genetics; development and mechanisms of control of gene expression at all levels; population genetics and evolution.
*Material Fee: $5

*PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
*prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equivalent
*7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
*fall only

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.
*Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
*prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.
*5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

GER 1/B
Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.
*prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
*4 hrs 4 cr.

Spring (Year 1) 14.5 credits

BIOL 10200 - Principles of Biology II

GER 2/E PD/C or D
Taxonomy; homeostasis; internal transport and gas exchange in plants and animals; plant hormones; osmoregulation; mechanisms of action in the muscular, nervous and neuroendocrine systems; the senses, behavior; ecology.
*Material fee: $5

*PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
*prereq: BIOL 10000 or perm instr, MATH 10100 or equiv.
*7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
*spring only

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.
*Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10600 - General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate the fundamental laws of chemistry. The course is equivalent one year of general chemistry laboratory.
*Credit not given for CHEM 10600 and CHEM 10300 or CHEM 10500. Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200
coreq: CHEM 10400
6 hrs 3 cr.

MATH 15500 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

GER 1/B
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions, integration techniques, infinite sequences and series, improper integrals, polar coordinates.
*prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 15000
4 hrs 4 cr.

Fall (Year 2) 13 credits

BIOL 20000 - Cell Biology I: Microorganisms

GER 3/B
Structure and function of procaryotic cells and viruses; cultivation, growth, evolution, metabolism and genetics of microorganisms. Laboratories include light microscopy techniques, cultivation, growth, metabolism and genetics of microorganisms and viruses.
*Material fee: $10
prereq: BIOL 10000 and 10200 or equiv; CHEM 10200, 10300, 10400, 10500 or equiv. coreq: CHEM 22200, 22300 or perm instr. (for Major II students, chem are CHEM 10000, 10100; coreqs are 12000, 12100)
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

CHEM 22200 - Organic Chemistry Lecture I

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.
*prereq: CHEM 10400
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

PHYS 11100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
For physics and other science majors. First semester of a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.
*prereq or coreq: coreq (with perm dept.): MATH 15000
8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.
Spring (Year 2) 12.5 credits

CHEM 22400 - Organic Chemistry Lecture II

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.
*prereq: prereq for CHEM 22400: CHEM 22200
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

MATH 25000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry III

GER 3/B
Vector geometry, dot and cross products, partial derivatives, matrices, determinants, Jacobians, multiple integration.
*prereq: MATH 15500
4 hrs 4 cr.

PHYS 12100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics

Medical Laboratory Sciences with Specialization in Biotechnology - Accelerated BS/MA

See the Medical Laboratory Sciences section.

Minor in Biological Sciences

The minor in Biological Sciences gives students a basic understanding of biology from the molecular and cellular to the organismal and population level. This includes both theoretical aspects presented in lecture as well as practical aspects presented in lab. Flexibility is built into the minor to allow students to select courses corresponding to their interests. In order to minor in Biological Sciences a student must pass four courses resulting in a minor GPA of 2.0 or higher. All students who want a Minor in Biological Sciences must take:

- BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I and BIOL 10200 - Principles of Biology II or BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I and BIOL 16000 - Honors Principles of Biology II or the equivalent
- two additional courses in Biological Sciences, one of which must be at the 200 level or higher

Number of Credits: A minimum of 12 credits. Transfer credits may be applied. At least 2 courses must be taken at Hunter College.

Chemistry

About the Department

The Department of Chemistry offers courses to prepare the science major for professional work and further study in chemistry and other fields of pure and applied science. Courses for the non-science major are designed to present those essentials of chemical fact and theory which will contribute to the student’s understanding of present-day scientific knowledge.

Chemistry - BA

Major

There are two chemistry majors: Major I, a 43-credit concentration in addition to an 11-credit general chemistry core, is designed to prepare the students with intensive training for professional research and graduate study. Major II consists of three options: Option 1 for students interested in the chemical industry; Option 2 (the biochemistry option) for students interested in the pharmaceutical industry, medicine, dentistry, veterinary medicine or physical therapy; Option 3 (bioinformatics option) for students interested in graduate studies in biochemistry and bioinformatics as well as pharmaceutical and biotechnology industry. Major II includes a minimum concentration of 28 credits (option 1), 26 credits (option 2), and 20.5 credits (option 3) in 200-level and above chemistry courses, in addition to an 11-credit general chemistry core. Options 1-3 are all appropriate for students pursuing teacher education programs.

Students considering a chemistry major should consult the departmental adviser during their first semester to plan the proper sequence of courses, and they are urged to consult with the adviser at least once each succeeding semester. A year of General Chemistry and the accompanying General Chemistry Laboratory are prerequisites for admission to both Major I and Major II.

- Chemistry Major I
- Chemistry Major II

Minor in Chemistry

A minor in Chemistry consists of a pre-requisite year of General Chemistry with laboratory (CHEM 10200 through CHEM 10600 or equivalent, 9 credits), and a minimum of 14 credits of coursework. Note that MATH 12500 is a co-requisite to General Chemistry. The minimum of 14 credits include the following required courses below. In addition, students will be required to take at least 5.5 credits of electives selected from Chemistry offerings numbered 200 or above, excluding CHEM 29101.

Prerequisite year of General Chemistry (note that MATH 12500 is a prerequisite to General Chemistry)

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E

In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.

Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.

5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II
GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.
Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10500 - General Chemistry Laboratory II

GER 2/E
Laboratory experiments illustrating and applying theory of solutions to qualitative analysis.
Offered for transfer students who have completed only one semester of General Chemistry Laboratory.
prereq: One semester of General Chemistry Laboratory, prereq or coreq: CHEM 10400
3 hrs 1.5 cr.

CHEM 10600 - General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate the fundamental laws of chemistry. The course is equivalent one year of general chemistry laboratory.
Credit not given for CHEM 10600 and CHEM 10300 or CHEM 10500. Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200
coreq: CHEM 10400
6 hrs 3 cr.

and a minimum of 14 credits of coursework which include the following required courses:

CHEM 22200 - Organic Chemistry Lecture I

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.
prereq: CHEM 10400
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

CHEM 22300 - Organic Chemistry Laboratory I

GER 3/B
Various organic syntheses, Distillation, distillation, extraction, chromatography, qualitative analysis, spectroscopy.
*prereq: CHEM 10500
prereq or coreq: CHEM 22200
5 hrs 2.5 cr.*

CHEM 22400 - Organic Chemistry Lecture II

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.
*prereq: prereq for CHEM 22400: CHEM 22200
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.*

In addition, students will be required to take at least 5.5 credits of electives selected from Chemistry offerings numbered 200 or above, excluding
CHEM 29101 - Chemical Investigations

GER 3/B
Original chemical investigations under supervision of faculty member. Written report required. Enrollment for maximum of two semesters.

prereq: CHEM 22400, perm chair
4 hrs 1 cr.

Honors Work

Opportunity for an individual research experience is provided by an honors course

CHEM 49101 - Introduction to Research

GER 3/B
Open to Jr/Sr only. Similar to CHEM 29101. Written report required. Fulfills requirement for departmental honors course.

prereq: CHEM 22400, 35400, 34900, perm chair
4 hrs 1 cr.

CHEM 49102 - Introduction to Research

GER 3/B
Open to Jr/Sr only. Similar to CHEM 29102. Written report required. Fulfills requirement for departmental honors course.

prereq: CHEM 22400, 35400, 34900, perm chair
8 hrs 2 cr.

Electives

Advanced lecture courses in special areas of chemistry, and lab courses providing training in inorganic and organic chemistry and in research techniques, are offered as electives for Major I and are open to students enrolled in Major II who have fulfilled the course prerequisites.

Graduate Study

Qualified chemistry majors may be admitted to 700-level courses in the graduate program. Permission of the department is required.

Preparation for Teaching

In cooperation with the School of Education, the Department of Chemistry provides opportunities for students to prepare for careers in teaching at the elementary and secondary level in the area of chemistry. Chemistry Major II, Option 1 (37 credits) and Option 2 (35 credits) both satisfy the requirements for New York State certification for teachers of chemistry in Childhood Education (Grades 1-6) and Adolescent Education (Grades 7-12). See Childhood Education (QUEST) Grades 1-6 - BA and Adolescent Chemistry, Grades 7-12 - BA. For students pursuing certification Chemistry teachers at the secondary level, the 26-credit adolescent education sequence is appropriate. Students who want to qualify for New York City licensing and New York State certification for teaching in secondary schools should consult the School of Education section of this catalog for additional requirements.

Chemistry Major I

Return to Program and Courses in Chemistry

General Chemistry Core:

One year of General Chemistry Lecture and Laboratory.

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.
Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.
Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10600 - General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate the fundamental laws of chemistry. The course is equivalent one year of general chemistry laboratory.
Credit not given for CHEM 10600 and CHEM 10300 or CHEM 10500. Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200
coreq: CHEM 10400
6 hrs 3 cr.

-Chemical Principles-

CHEM 11100 - Chemical Principles

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to chemical principles including measurement, stoichiometric calculations, inorganic nomenclature, gas laws, equilibrium, acids, bases and buffers. Emphasis is placed on problem-solving, oral presentations, and collaborative work. Laboratory and coursework emphasize analysis and evaluation of data.
Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equiv, MATH 12600
9 hrs (4 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab, 2 hrs workshop) 5.5
offered fall
CHEM 11200 - Thermodynamics and Solution Chemistry

GER 2/E
The study of quantum theory, atomic structure, periodic properties of the elements, kinetics, electrochemistry, and thermodynamics.
Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 11100
9 hrs (4 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab, 2 hrs workshop) 5.5
offered spring

The major consists of a minimum of 43 credits

The requirements for this major consist of a minimum of 43 credits in chemistry. This major is recommended for students preparing for admission to graduate school or for careers in chemical research. It will also be useful to students seeking a position in the chemical or allied industries, as it is accredited by the Committee on Professional Training of the American Chemical Society.

CHEM 22200 - Organic Chemistry Lecture I

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.
prereq: CHEM 10400
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

CHEM 22300 - Organic Chemistry Laboratory I

GER 3/B
Various organic syntheses, Distillation, distillation, extraction, chromatography, qualitative analysis, spectroscopy.

prereq: CHEM 10500
prereq or coreq: CHEM 22200
5 hrs 2.5 cr.

CHEM 22400 - Organic Chemistry Lecture II

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.
prereq: prereq for CHEM 22400: CHEM 22200
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

CHEM 22500 - Organic Chemistry Laboratory II

GER 3/B
Continuation of CHEM 22300.

prereq: CHEM 22200, 22300
prereq or coreq: CHEM 22400
5 hrs 2.5 cr

CHEM 24900 - Quantitative Analysis
GER 3/B
A set of laboratory experiments, performed by individual students, covering important areas of quantitative analysis such as pH and metal ion titrations, spectroscopic analysis including gas chromatography, electronic absorption, and fluorescence.

prereq: CHEM 10400, 10500
5 hrs (4 lab, 1 rec) 3 cr.

CHEM 34900 - Instrumental Analysis

GER 3/B
Principles of modern instrumental techniques; emphasis on spectroscopic and electrometric methods.

prereq: CHEM 35400 or 35600 with 35500
8 hrs (2 lec, 6 lab) 5 cr

CHEM 35200 - Physical Chemistry I

GER 3/B
Ideal and real gases. Laws of thermodynamics with applications to properties of solutions and phase equilibria in general.

prereq: CHEM 24900, MATH 15500, PHYS 12100
3 hrs 3 cr.
offered fall

CHEM 35400 - Physical Chemistry II - F

GER 3/B
Selected topics from statistical thermodynamics, electrochemistry, kinetic theory and rate processes.

prereq: CHEM 35200, MATH 25000
3 hrs 3 cr.
offered fall
-or-

CHEM 35600 - Physical Chemistry II - S

GER 3/B
Selected topics from quantum chemistry, molecular structure, and spectroscopy.

prereq: PHYS 12100, CHEM 24900, MATH 15500
3 hrs 3 cr.
offered spring
-with-

CHEM 35500 - Physical Chemistry Laboratory I

GER 3/B
Laboratory course involving experiments based on topics covered in CHEM 35200 on chemical systems.
CHEM 35700 - Physical Chemistry Laboratory II

GER 3/B
Laboratory course involving experiments based on topics covered in CHEM 35600 on chemical systems.

prereq: CHEM 24900 or perm chair
prereq or coreq: CHEM 35600
3 hrs 1.5 cr.
offered fall

CHEM 36600 - Inorganic Chemistry

GER 3/B
Treatment of structure, bonding and reactivity of inorganic compounds.

prereq: CHEM 35200
3 hrs 3 cr.

CHEM 37600 - Biochemistry I

GER 3/B
Chemical aspects of protein structure and function, fundamentals of bioenergetics, biochemical mechanisms of gene replication and expression.

prereq: CHEM 22400
4 hrs (3 lec, 1 rec) 3 cr.
offered fall

CHEM 39000 - Current Laboratory Methods in Chemistry

GER 3/B
Offered subject to adequate student interest and enrollment. Taught by specialists from department faculty. The specific topic will be listed in the schedule of classes for a given semester.

prereq or coreq: CHEM 35700 or perm instr.
4 hrs 2 cr.

One further laboratory course must be chosen from (research), (honors research) or the following

CHEM 29102 - Chemical Investigations

GER 3/B
Original chemical investigations under supervision of faculty member. Written report required. Enrollment for maximum of two semesters.

prereq: CHEM 22400, perm chair
8 hrs 2 cr.

-or-

CHEM 49102 - Introduction to Research

GER 3/B
Open to Jr/Sr only. Similar to CHEM 29102. Written report required. Fulfills requirement for departmental honors course.

prereq: CHEM 22400, 35400, 34900, perm chair
8 hrs 2 cr.

-or-

CHEM 37800 - Biochemistry Laboratory

GER 3/B
A set of laboratory experiments, performed by individual students, covering important areas of biochemistry such as protein analysis, enzyme purification, enzymatic assays, recombinant DNA and the polymerase chain reaction.

prereq: CHEM 22300 and CHEM 37600 or CHEM 64000
5 hrs (4 lab, 1 rec) 3 cr.

In addition, one additional lecture course must be chosen from among the following:

CHEM 32200 - Organic Chemistry Lecture III

GER 3/B
Selected topics such as advanced synthesis, reaction mechanisms, MO theory, natural products, NMR spectroscopy.

prereq: CHEM 22400, perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

CHEM 35400 - Physical Chemistry II - F

GER 3/B
Selected topics from statistical thermodynamics, electrochemistry, kinetic theory and rate processes.

prereq: CHEM 35200, MATH 25000
3 hrs 3 cr.
offered fall

CHEM 35600 - Physical Chemistry II - S
GER 3/B
Selected topics from quantum chemistry, molecular structure, and spectroscopy.

prereq: PHYS 12100, CHEM 24900, MATH 15500
3 hrs 3 cr.
offered spring

CHEM 37700 - Biochemistry II

GER 3/B
Biosynthesis of lipids, amino acids, carbohydrates. Muscle contraction, hormones, immune response, DNA sequencing.

prereq: CHEM 37600 or BIOL 30000 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.
offered spring

Also acceptable for completion of Major I are

PHYS 33000 - Atomic and Nuclear Physics

Examines experimental evidence and develops modern view of structure of atom and nucleus. prereq: PHYS 12000 or 12100 prereq or coreq: MATH 25000
4 hrs 4 cr.
-or-

PHILO 36200 - Theory of Knowledge (W)

GER 3/A
Study of origin, structure, methods and foundations of human knowledge.
prereq: Two courses in philosophy, at least one of which is at the 200 level.
3 hrs 3 cr.
-or-

PHILO 37900 - Philosophy of Science (W)

GER 3/B
Study of foundations of knowledge in natural and social sciences.
prereq: Two courses in philosophy, at least one of which is at the 200 level.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Additional Information

Students should be aware, however, that if either of the philosophy courses is used to complete the Major I requirements, the major will not be eligible for accreditation by the American Chemical Society.

One year of physics, and four semesters of mathematics, are also required for this major
PHYS 11100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
For physics and other science majors. First semester of a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.
prereq or coreq: coreq (with perm dept.): MATH 15000
8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.

PHYS 12100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics

GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11100, a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.
prereq: PHYS 11000 or 11100
prereq or coreq: (with perm dept.): MATH 15500
8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.

MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

GER 1/B
Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 15500 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

GER 1/B
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions, integration techniques, infinite sequences and series, improper integrals, polar coordinates.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 15000
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 25000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry III

GER 3/B
Vector geometry, dot and cross products, partial derivatives, matrices, determinants, Jacobians, multiple integration.
prereq: MATH 15500
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 25400 - Ordinary Differential Equations

GER 3/B
First-order equations, second-order linear equations and linear systems, power series solutions, transform and numerical methods, introduction to qualitative theory.
prereq: MATH 25000
3 hrs 3 cr.

-or-

MATH 26000 - Linear Algebra
GER 3/B
Vector spaces, linear transformations, canonical forms, inner product spaces, bilinear forms, applications.

prereq: MATH 15600 prereq or coreq: MATH 25000
4 hrs 4 cr.

Additional Information

CHEM 24900, MATH 15000 and MATH 15500 , and PHYS 12100 are prerequisites for CHEM 35200 and should be completed by the end of the sophomore year.

Major I is required of all students who wish to be considered for certification by the American Chemical Society upon graduation. It is recommended for all students intending to enter the profession of chemistry through either graduate study or employment in industry or government. Students who can attend only in the evenings should consult the department adviser regarding the feasibility of completing Chemistry Major I.

Chemistry Major II

Return to Programs and Courses in Chemistry

General Chemistry Core:

One year of General Chemistry Lecture and Laboratory

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.

Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.

Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10600 - General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate the fundamental laws of chemistry. The course is equivalent one year of general chemistry laboratory.

Credit not given for CHEM 10600 and CHEM 10300 or CHEM 10500. Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq: CHEM 10200
coreq: CHEM 10400
6 hrs 3 cr.

or its equivalent
CHEM 11100 - Chemical Principles

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to chemical principles including measurement, stoichiometric calculations, inorganic nomenclature, gas laws, equilibrium, acids, bases and buffers. Emphasis is placed on problem-solving, oral presentations, and collaborative work. Laboratory and coursework emphasize analysis and evaluation of data.

Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equiv, MATH 12600

9 hrs (4 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab, 2 hrs workshop) 5.5

offered fall

CHEM 11200 - Thermodynamics and Solution Chemistry

GER 2/E
The study of quantum theory, atomic structure, periodic properties of the elements, kinetics, electrochemistry, and thermodynamics.

Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq: CHEM 11100

9 hrs (4 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab, 2 hrs workshop) 5.5

offered spring

Option 1:

For students interested in a career in the chemical industry. It consists of a minimum of 28 credits in chemistry above the introductory level and an 11-credit general chemistry core for a minimum total of 39 credits of chemistry. One year of physics and three semesters of calculus are also required.

Required chemistry courses:

CHEM 22200 - Organic Chemistry Lecture I

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.

prereq: CHEM 10400

5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

CHEM 22300 - Organic Chemistry Laboratory I

GER 3/B
Various organic syntheses, Distillation, distillation, extraction, chromatography, qualitative analysis, spectroscopy.

prereq: CHEM 10500

prereq or coreq: CHEM 22200

5 hrs 2.5 cr.

CHEM 22400 - Organic Chemistry Lecture II
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.

CHEM 22500 - Organic Chemistry Laboratory II

Continuation of CHEM 22300.

CHEM 24900 - Quantitative Analysis

A set of laboratory experiments, performed by individual students, covering important areas of quantitative analysis such as pH and metal ion titrations, spectroscopic analysis including gas chromatography, electronic absorption, and fluorescence.

CHEM 35200 - Physical Chemistry I

Ideal and real gases. Laws of thermodynamics with applications to properties of solutions and phase equilibria in general.

CHEM 35400 - Physical Chemistry II - F

Selected topics from statistical thermodynamics, electrochemistry, kinetic theory and rate processes.

CHEM 35600 - Physical Chemistry II - S

Selected topics from quantum chemistry, molecular structure, and spectroscopy.
CHEM 35500 - Physical Chemistry Laboratory I

GER 3/B
Laboratory course involving experiments based on topics covered in CHEM 35200 on chemical systems.

prereq: CHEM 24900
prereq or coreq: CHEM 35200
3 hrs 1.5 cr.
offered fall

CHEM 35700 - Physical Chemistry Laboratory II

GER 3/B
Laboratory course involving experiments based on topics covered in CHEM 35600 on chemical systems.

prereq: CHEM 24900 or perm chair
prereq or coreq: CHEM 35600
3 hrs 1.5 cr.
offered spring

Required elective course:

- Any chemistry course at the 300 level or above excluding CHEM 49101.

Required allied courses:

MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

GER 1/B
Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 15500 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

GER 1/B
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions, integration techniques, infinite sequences and series, improper integrals, polar coordinates.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 15000
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 25000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry III

GER 3/B
Vector geometry, dot and cross products, partial derivatives, matrices, determinants, Jacobians, multiple integration.
prereq: MATH 15500
4 hrs 4 cr.
PHYS 11100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
For physics and other science majors. First semester of a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.

prereq or coreq: coreq (with perm dept.): MATH 15000
8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.

PHYS 12100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics

GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11100, a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.

prereq: PHYS 11000 or 11100
prereq or coreq: (with perm dept.): MATH 15500
8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.

Option 2 (Biochemistry option):

For students preparing for admission to medical, dental, veterinary schools or physical therapy programs, or for students interested in a career in the pharmaceutical industry. It consists of a minimum of 26 credits above the introductory level and an 11-credit general chemistry core for a minimum total of 37 credits of chemistry. One year of physics, one year of biology and one year of calculus are also required.

Required chemistry courses:

CHEM 22200 - Organic Chemistry Lecture I

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.

prereq: CHEM 10400
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

CHEM 22300 - Organic Chemistry Laboratory I

GER 3/B
Various organic syntheses, Distillation, distillation, extraction, chromatography, qualitative analysis, spectroscopy.

prereq: CHEM 10500
prereq or coreq: CHEM 22200
5 hrs 2.5 cr.

CHEM 22400 - Organic Chemistry Lecture II

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.

prereq: prereq for CHEM 22400: CHEM 22200
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.
CHEM 22500 - Organic Chemistry Laboratory II

GER 3/B
Continuation of CHEM 22300.

*prereq: CHEM 22200, 22300
*prereq or coreq: CHEM 22400
5 hrs 2.5 cr

CHEM 35000 - Biophysical Chemistry

GER 3/B
Essential physical chemical principles as applied to biological problems. Emphasis on kinetics, thermodynamics, and equilibria.

*prereq: CHEM 22400, BIOL 10200, MATH 15000
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr
offered fall

CHEM 37600 - Biochemistry I

GER 3/B
Chemical aspects of protein structure and function, fundamentals of bioenergetics, biochemical mechanisms of gene replication and expression.

*prereq: CHEM 22400
4 hrs (3 lec, 1 rec) 3 cr.
offered fall

CHEM 37800 - Biochemistry Laboratory

GER 3/B
A set of laboratory experiments, performed by individual students, covering important areas of biochemistry such as protein analysis, enzyme purification, enzymatic assays, recombinant DNA and the polymerase chain reaction.

*prereq: CHEM 22300 and CHEM 37600 or CHEM 64000
5 hrs (4 lab, 1 rec) 3 cr.

Required elective course:

- Any chemistry course at the 200-level or above (excluding CHEM 29101 and CHEM 29500)

-or-

BIOL 20000 - Cell Biology I: Microorganisms

GER 3/B
Structure and function of procaryotic cells and viruses; cultivation, growth, evolution, metabolism and genetics of microorganisms. Laboratories include light microscopy techniques, cultivation, growth, metabolism and genetics of microorganisms and viruses.

*Material fee: $10
prereq: BIOL 10000 and 10200 or equiv; CHEM 10200, 10300, 10400, 10500 or equiv. coreq: CHEM 22200, 22300 or perm instr. (for Major II students, chem are CHEM 10000, 10100; coreqs are 12000, 12100)

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

-or-

BIOL 20200 - Cell Biology II: Eucaryotic Systems

GER 3/B
Structure and function of eucaryotic cells and organelles; membrane systems, cell cycle, cell division, signaling, cytoskeletal systems, motility; specialized cells; modern research tools and approaches. Laboratories include plant and animal cell culture; studies of cell division, the cytoskeleton, motility; light and electron microscopic methods; fluorescence labeling; protein electrophoresis, immunoblotting and immunolocalization.

Material Fee: $10

prereq: BIOL 20000 coreq: CHEM 22400 or perm instr.

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
spring only

Required allied courses:

BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I

GER 2/E PD/C or D
The chemical basis of life; basic structure and function of pro- and eucaryotic cells; bioenergetics; Mendelian and molecular genetics; development and mechanisms of control of gene expression at all levels; population genetics and evolution.

Material Fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.

prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equivalent

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

BIOL 10200 - Principles of Biology II

GER 2/E PD/C or D
Taxonomy; homeostasis; internal transport and gas exchange in plants and animals; plant hormones; osmoregulation; mechanisms of action in the muscular, nervous and neuroendocrine systems; the senses, behavior; ecology.

Material fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.

prereq: BIOL 10000 or perm instr, MATH 10100 or equiv.

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
spring only

MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

GER 1/B
Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.

prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.

4 hrs 4 cr.
MATH 15500 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

GER 1/B
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions, integration techniques, infinite sequences and series, improper integrals, polar coordinates.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 15000
4 hrs 4 cr.

PHYS 11000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
First semester of two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.
prereq: MATH 12500; pre-calculus or equiv. By math dept. exam.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.

PHYS 12000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics

GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11000, a two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.
prereq: PHYS 11000 or 11100
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.

Option 3 (Bioinformatics option):

For students interested in graduate studies in biochemistry and bioinformatics as well as the pharmaceutical and biotechnology industry. In order to enroll in this Option, students must earn an average grade of B- or above in CHEM 10400, CHEM 22200, BIOL 10000, and MATH 15000. In addition, no more than one C grade is allowed in these four courses to declare Option 3. This option consists of a minimum of 20.5 credits above the introductory level and an 11-credit general chemistry core for a minimum total of 32 credits of chemistry. Three semesters of biology, one year of physics, one year of computer science, one year of calculus, and one semester of statistics are also required.

Required chemistry courses:

CHEM 22200 - Organic Chemistry Lecture I

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.
prereq: CHEM 10400
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

CHEM 22500 - Organic Chemistry Laboratory II

GER 3/B
Continuation of CHEM 22300.

prereq: CHEM 22200, 22300
prereq or coreq: CHEM 22400
5 hrs 2.5 cr

CHEM 35000 - Biophysical Chemistry

GER 3/B
Essential physical chemical principles as applied to biological problems. Emphasis on kinetics, thermodynamics, and equilibria.

prereq: CHEM 22400, BIOL 10200, MATH 15000
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr

MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

GER 1/B
Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 15500 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

GER 1/B
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions, integration techniques, infinite sequences and series, improper integrals, polar coordinates.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 15000
4 hrs 4 cr.

PHYS 11000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
First semester of two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.
prereq: MATH 12500; pre-calculus or equiv. By math dept. exam.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.

PHYS 12000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics

GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11000, a two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.
prereq: PHYS 11000 or 11100
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.

CSCI 13200 - Practical UNIX and Programming, with Lab

GER 2/E
An introduction to computer programming and the UNIX operating system using Perl. Conceptual overview of the UNIX operating system and programming environment, a practical introduction to shell programming, and the use of UNIX filters and utilities. A pragmatic course with an emphasis on skills acquisition.
This course cannot be counted towards the CSCI major.
prereq: none
3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 23200 - Relational Databases and SQL Programming, with Lab
GER 3/B
An introduction to elementary database concepts and SQL, the standard language for communicating with most database systems. A pragmatic course with an emphasis on skills acquisition; students will learn how to get things done quickly and easily in a database environment.

Required for computer science minors; open to computer science majors, but may not be used toward the computer science major.

prereq: CSCI 12700 or CSCI 13200
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 21300 - Introduction to Applied Statistics

GER 1/B

prereq: MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Chemistry/Adolescent Education: Chemistry - BA/MA

An accelerated program leading to a BA in Chemistry and an MA in Adolescent Education: Chemistry. Undergraduates admitted to the program start graduate courses during their senior year and will be able to complete the MA degree one year after they complete the requirements for the BA degree. Students interested in the program should speak to a chemistry department adviser during their sophomore year to review the curriculum path for the five-year program. A minimum of 138 credits is required for the dual degree.

Minor in Chemistry

A minor in Chemistry consists of a pre-requisite year of General Chemistry with laboratory (CHEM 10200 through CHEM 10600 or equivalent, 9 credits), and a minimum of 14 credits of coursework. Note that MATH 12500 is a co-requisite to General Chemistry. The minimum of 14 credits include the following required courses below. In addition, students will be required to take at least 5.5 credits of electives selected from Chemistry offerings numbered 200 or above, excluding CHEM 29101.

Required courses for the Minor

CHEM 22200 - Organic Chemistry Lecture I

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.

prereq: CHEM 10400

5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

CHEM 22300 - Organic Chemistry Laboratory I

GER 3/B
Various organic syntheses, Distillation, distillation, extraction, chromatography, qualitative analysis, spectroscopy.
CHEM 22400 - Organic Chemistry Lecture II

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.

prereq: Chem 22200
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

Classical and Oriental Studies

About the Department

The Department of Classical and Oriental Studies offers Programs in: Arabic, Chinese Language and Literature, Classics, Hebrew, Japanese, and Russian and Slavic Studies.

Arabic Language, Literature, and Culture

A Program in the Department of Classical and Oriental Studies

Here at Hunter we teach Arabic as the living language used on a daily basis by more than two hundred million people, from Morocco in the west of the Arab world to Oman in the east. We focus on both formal — usually referred to as Modern Standard Arabic (MSA) or Fusha — and informal Arabic. We do this via a communicative approach. In other words, instead of focusing on the translation of written texts, as Arabic has traditionally been taught, we teach our students how to read, speak, write and aurally comprehend the different registers of the language. We offer a 6-course sequence of language courses and a growing number of culture courses taught in English. Four semesters of Arabic or the equivalent fulfills the language requirement of Hunter. We also offer two minors: Arabic and Arabic Studies.

Chinese Language and Literature

A Program in the Department of Classical and Oriental Studies

The Chinese Division of the Department of Classical and Oriental Studies offers language courses in Modern Chinese (Mandarin) and Classical Chinese as well as courses taught in English on traditional and modern Chinese literature and culture. The program, which offers a major and minor, focuses on language acquisition and literacy development to help students attain professional language proficiency. It also introduces students to the civilization of China. Students are encouraged to take interdisciplinary courses in Chinese art, economics, history, political science and religion to develop a deeper understanding of past and present China. The program prepares students for further studies in graduate school and professional careers in international trade, education, government service, diplomacy, private business, journalism and related fields.

Classics

A Program in the Department of Classical and Oriental Studies

The civilizations of ancient Greece and Rome have had a profound influence on the development of our own culture. The various expressions of human experience that are revealed through our literature and art, in our political and social institutions, and even in our language, all show the impact of the legacy of the classical world.

The Classics program in the Department of Classical and Oriental Studies offers a full range of studies in the worlds of ancient Greece, Rome, and the Mediterranean, from a single course in myth or etymology to majors in Greek, Latin, classical archaeology, or classical studies. Students who want to know about the classical world without learning its languages can choose from a variety of courses in civilization, literature in translation, myth and religion, and archaeology. In addition, the division participates in Hunter’s interdepartmental programs in religion, comparative literature, archaeology, and women and gender studies.

Careers in research, government and education use skills developed in classical studies, and a major in classics provides an excellent foundation for many professional programs such as law. In addition, specialized careers—such as college and high school teaching, museum work, and archival research—are open to professional classicists and archaeologists.

A Program in the Department of Classical and Oriental Studies

The Hebrew Program in the Department of Classical and Oriental Studies offers a program of Hebrew language, literature and culture spanning the ancient through the modern periods. This program is designed to develop language skills, cultivate a critical appreciation of Hebraic and Judaic literature and thought and promote an understanding of Jewish cultural tradition against the background of world civilization. These courses may be applied to satisfy foreign language and other components of the General Education Requirement as well as to fulfill major and minor concentrations.

This curriculum also meets the special needs of students majoring in other disciplines for courses dealing with the Hebraic or Judaic elements and influences on European culture. The wide variety of course offerings, covering the entire range of Hebraic and Judaic culture from early Biblical times to modern Israel, enables students to concentrate their attention on one major period, to aim for an overall proficiency or to strive for both objectives simultaneously.

Russian and Slavic Studies

A Program in the Department of Classical and Oriental Studies

The Russian and Slavic Studies Program in the Department of Classical and Oriental Studies offers a rich curriculum designed for students who seek competence in spoken and written Russian and a solid background in and knowledge of Russian literature and culture. The Program also offers courses in two related Slavic languages, Polish and Ukrainian.

Courses in the Program are recommended to students from other disciplines who want to master the Russian language as a research tool or who seek to learn about Russian literature in translation. The important contributions being made by Russian scholars in chemistry, biology, mathematics and other related fields make the study of Russian especially valuable to science majors.

Russian majors find employment in U.S. governmental agencies, the United Nations, broadcasting, banking, international commerce, education, library services and other fields.

Hebrew - BA

Return to: Classical and Oriental Studies

Placement and Exemption Students with background in the language should consult the head of the Hebrew Division for proper placement or for language exemption.

Majors

The major consists of 24 credits from courses beyond HEBR 101-102. In general, a Hebrew major is required to achieve proficiency in Biblical and/or modern Hebrew literature by successfully completing a minimum of four courses at the 300 level in Hebrew. Courses in Hebraic studies conducted in English may be applied toward partial fulfillment of the Hebrew major provided they are part of a coherent program approved by the head of the division.

Qualified students interested in a more intensive program in the field of Hebraic or Judaic studies, particularly those preparing for graduate work in such specialized areas as Semitic languages and civilizations, Jewish history, Biblical studies and archaeology, medieval or modern Hebrew literature, Near Eastern studies or religious studies, should consult a division adviser regarding additional courses and supportive studies in related fields.

Preparation for Teaching in Grades 7-12

In cooperation with the School of Education, the Program in Hebrew provides opportunities for students to prepare for a career in teaching Hebrew in grades 7-12. Students preparing to teach Hebrew must complete a 33-credit major option for teaching that includes the 24-credit sequence taken by non-teaching majors, HEBR 39900, and 6 additional credits in Hebrew language and literature at the 300 or 400 level. Students interested in teaching Hebrew in New York schools should take the 23-credit pedagogical sequence for grades 7-12. This sequence may count toward the course requirements for New York State Certification, but will not by itself be sufficient for certification. Students interested in a teaching career should consult with the School of Education.

Minor

Two minors are offered, one in Hebrew, the other in Hebraic Studies.

Hebrew Minor

The Hebrew minor requires the successful completion of 12 credits at the 200-level or above. Courses counted toward the Hebrew minor must be either language courses or have Hebrew as their language of instruction.

Hebraic Studies Minor
The Hebraic Studies minor requires the successful completion of four HEBR literature and/or culture courses on the 200-level or above, taught in English or in Hebrew. Two Hebrew language courses other than Elementary and Intermediate Hebrew—e.g., Biblical Hebrew, Advanced Hebrew—may be used toward the minor requirement in lieu of two literature or culture courses.

JPN 25100 - Japanese Culture Before 1600

GER 2C PD/A

Covering many facets of Japanese culture, this course will focus on the various periods of Japanese history (Jomon, Yayoi, Kofun, and Heian – to name a few) and uncover how many aspects of Japanese culture were shaped. From the influence from nearby countries – most notably China – to its isolationist periods, its mythology, the evolution of its art, the deep-seated love of nature shared by many Japanese, and the co-existence of multiple belief systems, Japan is a truly unique country whose culture continues to gain in popularity within the United States. Taught entirely in English.

While this is a two-part course, Japanese Culture Before 1600 (JPN 25100) will not act as a prerequisite for Japanese Culture Since 1600 (JPN 25200).

`prereq: ENGL 120
3 hrs 3 cr`

JPN 25200 - Japanese Culture Since 1600

GER 2C PD/A

This course will focus on Japanese culture after roughly 1600. During this time, Japan was largely isolated from the rest of the world, but specific events led to a mixture of vastly different cultures – that of the Japanese and the Western world, which led to many changes within Japan. Additional major topics include the impact of both World Wars, contemporary Japanese lifestyle, and the various holidays and traditions that are celebrated today. Art, literature, and social reform will also play important roles throughout the semester.

Russian - BA

Return to: Classical and Oriental Studies

Major

The Russian major consists of no fewer than 24 credits chosen among courses in the language beyond RUSS 10100 and RUSS 10200.

I. Russian language sequence: for students who want to acquire native fluency in spoken and written Russian and a thorough knowledge of Russian literature.

II. Russian language and culture sequence: for students whose interests lie in the arts rather than in language. With the permission of the division head, a limited number of courses in translation may be applied to the major sequence.

III. Concentration in Russian and East Central European Studies (RECE): This new concentration within the Russian program draws on a variety of disciplines in combination with courses from the Division of Russian and Slavic Studies. Requirements for RECE include Russian or Slavic language proficiency or a pre- or corequisite of 6 credits in Russian or Slavic language at the 20200 (intermediate) level or above and 18 credits distributed as follows: Russian or East Central European history (3 cr.); RECE area political science (3 cr.); Russian or East Central European literature, culture or arts (3 cr.); and three additional 200- or 300-level courses chosen from two of the following categories: anthropology, economics, geography, history, political science and literature, culture or arts. Students should select courses in consultation with their RECE adviser. In addition to their 18-to 24-credit concentration, students are strongly urged to choose 12 minor credits from disciplines related to RECE.

Electives

All courses offered by the Russian Division are open to qualified students for elective credit.

Preparation for teaching in Grades 7-12

In cooperation with the School of Education, the program in Russian provides opportunities for students to prepare for a career in teaching Russian in grades 7-12. Students preparing to teach Russian must complete a 33-credit major option for teaching that includes the 24-credit sequence taken by non-teaching majors plus 9 additional credits: RUSS 39900 and 6 additional credits in Russian language and literature at the 300 or 400 level. Students interested in teaching Russian in New York Schools should take the 23-credit pedagogical sequence for grades 7-12. This sequence may count toward the course requirements for New York State Certification, but will not by itself be sufficient for certification. Students interested in a teaching career should consult with the School of Education.

3 hrs 3 cr.

Comparative Literature

About Comparative Literature

The major in comparative literature is designed for students who are interested in a broad view of literature and in the diversity of literary cultures. The study of comparative literature considers literary movements and genres, as well as techniques and recurring themes in world literature.

The study of comparative literature prepares students for careers in teaching, interpreting, and translating, as well as those professions that recognize the importance of a broad humanistic education, including law and medicine.

Comparative Literature - BA

Major Requirements

All majors take a core course in methodology, but the remaining classes in a student’s program are arranged with the coordinator in an effort to work out a balance between two different bodies of literature, two different literary periods, and two different genres. In addition to comparative literature courses in prose fiction, drama, myth and folklore, literary movements, and literature and the arts, majors may also elect appropriate classes from other literature departments, as well as from such disciplines as history, philosophy, art and anthropology, with the approval of the coordinator. Upon becoming a major, a student will, in consultation with the coordinator, choose one member of the comparative literature committee as an adviser and plan an individualized program. All majors are required to review their programs with their adviser once a semester.

The comparative literature major consists of 30 credits distributed as follows:

A. Concentration in at least two periods and in two genres.

B. At least 9 credits in COMP-prefixed courses, beginning with the following

(all of these courses will be taught in English)

COMPL 30100 - Seminar: Approaches to Comparative Literature
Study of selected major works to demonstrate scope and various approaches of comparative literature. Focus on conscious imitation, treatment of similar themes, use of well-defined genres and conventions as well as of concepts from history of ideas. Emphasis on close reading of texts and development of critical vocabulary.

Required of all majors in comparative literature.
3 hrs 3 cr.

C. 21 credits in literature courses distributed so that at least 12 credits are courses studied in the original language (be it a foreign language, if the student is proficient in that language, or English). Courses at the 300 level are strongly preferred, although exceptions may be granted by the adviser.

Minor for Students Majoring in Comparative Literature

A 12 credit minor is required. Students will be advised by their Comparative Literature faculty mentor to choose a discipline that will complement and enrich their major field of study.

Minor in Comparative Literature for Students Majoring in Other Programs

If this minor is recommended by the major department, students may consult a Comparative Literature adviser who will help them select suitable courses.

Honors

Students are eligible for departmental honors if their GPA in the major is no less than 3.5. The student must also take at least 3 credits (but no more than 6 credits) in honors courses offered by the program and approved by the adviser. The offerings of the Comparative Literature Program are determined by the needs of students in the program and the faculty available. For specific information, consult the coordinator.

Prerequisite

ENGL 22000 - Introduction to Writing about Literature (W)

GER 2/A
Analytical writing and close reading in British and American fiction, drama, poetry, and literary criticism, with an emphasis on further development of critical writing and research skills. Students gain a deeper understanding and appreciation of literature as well as more extensive experience with academic writing.

prereq: ENGL 12000
3 hrs + one additional conference hour 3 cr.

Computer Science

About the Department

The Department of Computer Science provides students with outstanding preparation both for employment as computer professionals and for graduate study. Students use a broad spectrum of programming languages and machine architectures and are expected to construct creative solutions to challenging problems in a variety of contexts. In addition, students are educated in the mathematics of computer science — the theoretical foundations that support current technology and will guide its future development. Students may work with faculty who engage in research, publish books and articles in highly respected journals and receive grants to pursue significant research. The department takes an active interest in students’ goals and provides extensive advising and guidance.

Computer Science - BA

- Computer Science with Concentration in Bioinformatics - BA

Major

The computer science major consists of 39 credits in CSCI courses and a collateral 14 credits in MATH/STAT courses.

Preliminary Course

Before being permitted to enter computer science as a major, a student must complete the following two courses each with a grade of C or better. Students planning to pursue a computer science major are strongly encouraged to declare their major as soon as possible after completing CSCI 13500 and CSCI 13600 and to seek help from a faculty adviser for assistance with individual curriculum planning.
CSCI 13500 - Software Analysis and Design I

This first course for prospective computer science majors and minors concentrates on problem-solving techniques using a high-level programming language. The course includes a brief overview of computer systems.

prereq: CSCI 12700 or equivalent
coreq: CSCI 13600

3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 13600 - Supervised Programming Lab

Students work in small teams to complete weekly programming assignments under the supervision of an instructor. Assignments are at the level of material covered in CSCI 135 and CSCI 127 though this is not a recitation or review section for either course. Emphasis is on solving problems in a cooperative programming environment.

May not be counted towards the computer science major.

2 hrs 1 cr.

Required Courses

All computer science majors (except those following requirements for the Computer Science with Concentration in Bioinformatics - BA) must complete successfully the following courses with a grade of C or better:

CSCI 15000 - Discrete Structures

Mathematical background required for computer science. Sets, relations, cardinality, propositional calculus, discrete functions, truth tables, induction, combinatorics.

prereq: MATH 12500, 15000 or 15500

3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 16000 - Computer Architecture I

GER 3/B
Boolean algebra, data representation, combinational circuits and minimization, sequential circuits.

prereq: CSCI 12700, CSCI 15000

3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 23500 - Software Analysis and Design II

GER 3/B
Representation of information in computers, including process and data abstraction techniques. Topics covered include static and dynamic storage methods, lists, stacks, queues, binary trees, recursion, analysis of simple algorithms and some searching and sorting algorithms.

prereq: CSCI 13500, 15000; MATH 15000

3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 26000 - Computer Architecture II
GER 3/B

Organization of computer systems and design of system elements, including ALU, memories and interfaces. Some assembly language programming.

prereq: CSCI 13500, 16000 or 24500; MATH 15000
3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 26500 - Computer Theory I

GER 3/B
Recursion, regular sets, regular expressions, finite automata, context-free grammars, pushdown automata.

prereq: CSCI 16000 or 14500; MATH 15000
3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 33500 - Software Analysis and Design III

GER 3/B
The design and analysis of various types of algorithms, including searching, sorting, graph and tree algorithms. Problem-solving techniques. Worst and average case behavior analysis and optimality. Polynomial time complexity classes and theory, including NP-completeness.

prereq: CSCI 23500, MATH 15500
3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 34000 - Operating Systems

GER 3/B
Definition of functions and components of operating systems. Survey of contemporary multiprocessing/multiprogramming systems. Exploration of systems programs: their design, internal structure and implementation.

prereq: CSCI 23500, 26000 or 24500; MATH 15500, STAT 11300 or 21300
3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 36000 - Computer Architecture III

GER 3/B
High performance computer architectures, including massively parallel SIMD and MIMD machines and distributed architectures.

prereq: CSCI 26000 or 24500; MATH 15500
3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 49900 - Advanced Applications: A Capstone for Majors

A chance for computer science majors to test their mettle on major projects. Working in small groups they will implement systems that involve at least two platforms running programs written in at least three languages.

prereq: All non-elective courses in Computer Science required for graduation or permission of instructor.
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I
GER 1/B
Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 15500 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

GER 1/B
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions, integration techniques, infinite sequences and series, improper integrals, polar coordinates.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 15000
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 16000 - Matrix Algebra

GER 1/B
Systems of linear equations, matrices, determinants, introduction to vector spaces and linear transformations, applications.
prereq: MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 21300 - Introduction to Applied Statistics

GER 1/B
prereq: MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Electives

Students who declared their major in spring 2009 or before

Students who declared their major in or before spring 2009 are held bound by this rule: In addition to the preliminary and required courses, each major must complete 15 hours of elective credits from CSCI courses higher than 200-level with a grade of C or better. At least 12 elective credits must be in classes other than CSCI 39100 CSCI 39200 and CSCI 39300. With departmental permission, certain appropriate upper-level electives from other academic departments may be substituted. They are not required to take CSCI 49900, but may choose is as an elective.

Students who declared their major after Spring 2009

Students who declared their major after spring 2009 take a minimum of 11 (rather than 15) elective credit hours and are required to successfully complete CSCI 49900, after having successfully completed all other required courses for the major.

Recommended course sequence for entering freshmen without credit for pre-calculus and without prior computer programming experience:
Term 1

MATH 12500 - Precalculus

GER 1/B
Functions and their graphs: polynomial, rational, exponential, logarithmic and trigonometric functions; conic sections; topics in trigonometry; graphical and analytical solutions to systems of equations and inequalities. Not credited to students who have completed MATH 15000 or its equivalent.

prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 10100 or appropriate score on placement exam

4 hrs 4 cr.

CSCI 12700 - Introduction to Computer Science

GER 2/E
A technical introduction to computer science. Organization of hardware, software, information and an introduction to programming. This course is meant for: potential computer science majors who may not be prepared for CSCI 135; science majors who need some basic computer knowledge; and non-CSCI majors who want a more rigorous introduction to the field than CSCI 120 provides.

May not be used toward the CSCI major or minor.

prereq or coreq: MATH 12100, 12500 or 15000

3 hrs 3 cr.

Term 2

CSCI 13500 - Software Analysis and Design I

This first course for prospective computer science majors and minors concentrates on problem-solving techniques using a high-level programming language. The course includes a brief overview of computer systems.

prereq: CSCI 12700 or equivalent coreq: CSCI 13600

2 hrs 1 cr.

CSCI 15000 - Discrete Structures

Mathematical background required for computer science. Sets, relations, cardinality, propositional calculus, discrete functions, truth tables, induction, combinatorics.

prereq: MATH 12500, 15000 or 15500

3 hrs 3 cr.

Term 3
CSCI 16000 - Computer Architecture I

GER 3/B
Boolean algebra, data representation, combinational circuits and minimization, sequential circuits.

prereq: CSCI 12700, CSCI 15000
3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 15000 - Discrete Structures

Mathematical background required for computer science. Sets, relations, cardinality, propositional calculus, discrete functions, truth tables, induction, combinatorics.

prereq: MATH 12500, 15000 or 15500
3 hrs 3 cr.

Term 4

CSCI 23500 - Software Analysis and Design II

GER 3/B
Representation of information in computers, including process and data abstraction techniques. Topics covered include static and dynamic storage methods, lists, stacks, queues, binary trees, recursion, analysis of simple algorithms and some searching and sorting algorithms.

prereq: CSCI 13500, 15000; MATH 15000
3 hrs 3 cr.

MATH 15500 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

GER 1/B
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions, integration techniques, infinite sequences and series, improper integrals, polar coordinates.

prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 15000
4 hrs 4 cr.

Term 5

CSCI 26000 - Computer Architecture II

GER 3/B
Organization of computer systems and design of system elements, including ALU, memories and interfaces. Some assembly language programming.

CSCI 23500 - Software Analysis and Design II
GER 3/B
Representation of information in computers, including process and data abstraction techniques. Topics covered include static and dynamic storage methods, lists, stacks, queues, binary trees, recursion, analysis of simple algorithms and some searching and sorting algorithms.

prereq: CSCI 13500, 15000; MATH 15000
3 hrs 3 cr.

MATH 15500 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

GER 1/B
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions, integration techniques, infinite sequences and series, improper integrals, polar coordinates.

prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 15000
4 hrs 4 cr.

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.

Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

Term 5

CSCI 33500 - Software Analysis and Design III

GER 3/B
The design and analysis of various types of algorithms, including searching, sorting, graph and tree algorithms. Problem-solving techniques. Worst and average case behavior analysis and optimality. Polynomial time complexity classes and theory, including NP-completeness.

prereq: CSCI 23500, MATH 15500
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 21300 - Introduction to Applied Statistics

GER 1/B

prereq: MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
3 hrs 3 cr.

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.

Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.
CHEM 10600 - General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate the fundamental laws of chemistry. The course is equivalent one year of general chemistry laboratory.
Credit not given for CHEM 10600 and CHEM 10300 or CHEM 10500. Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200
coreq: CHEM 10400
6 hrs 3 cr.

Term 6

CSCI 34000 - Operating Systems

GER 3/B
Definition of functions and components of operating systems. Survey of contemporary multiprocessing/multiprogramming systems. Exploration of systems programs: their design, internal structure and implementation.
prereq: CSCI 23500, 26000 or 24500; MATH 15500, STAT 11300 or 21300
3 hrs 3 cr.

MATH 16000 - Matrix Algebra

GER 1/B
Systems of linear equations, matrices, determinants, introduction to vector spaces and linear transformations, applications.
prereq: MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam
3 hrs 3 cr.

CHEM 22200 - Organic Chemistry Lecture I

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.
prereq: CHEM 10400
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

Term 7

CSCI 43500 - Database Management

GER 3/B
Hierarchical and network databases; theory of relational databases; normalization theory; query languages.
prereq: CSCI 33500
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 31900 - Bayesian Statistical Inference in the Sciences

GER 3/B
Fundamental principles and techniques of probability, statistical inference and data analysis, as pertains to the sciences, especially bioinformatics. Random variables and their distributions. Central limit theorem. Conditional probability, prereq: MATH 15500; at least one of STAT 21200, STAT 21300 or STAT 21400 (or permission of instructor).

Prerequisites waived for students who have passed STAT 311.
Familiarity with matrix algebra (at the level of MATH 160) and with the Windows computing environment are encouraged.

3 hrs 3 cr

BIOL 30000 - Biological Chemistry

GER 3/B
Molecular aspects of cellular function; properties of biomolecules, their biosynthesis and breakdown; structure and function of proteins and enzymes, metabolites, membranes and nucleic acids; cellular mechanisms of energy transduction; integration and control of cell metabolism. Experiments cover a variety of modern techniques in molecular biology.
Material Fee: $10
prereq: BIOL 20200, CHEM 22200, 22300 coreq: CHEM 22400
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

Term 8

Minor in Computer Science

A minor in Computer Science consists of 13-14 credits of coursework. These credits include the following required courses – note that MATH 12500 is a prerequisite course to CSCI 12700 however MATH 125 does not count towards the Computer Science Minor:

CSCI 12700 - Introduction to Computer Science

GER 2/E
A technical introduction to computer science. Organization of hardware, software, information and an introduction to programming. This course is meant for: potential computer science majors who may not be prepared for CSCI 135; science majors who need some basic computer knowledge; and non-CSCI majors who want a more rigorous introduction to the field than CSCI 120 provides.
May not be used toward the CSCI major or minor.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12100, 12500 or 15000
3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 13300 - Programming for Everyone

GER 2/E
A comprehensive practical course in programming that concentrates on producing working software for games, simulations, animations, data manipulations, interacting with the Internet, graphical user interfaces and many other application areas. No programming experience is necessary. This course is required for Computer Science minors. This course does not count toward the computer science major.

3 hrs 3 cr.
CSCI 23200 - Relational Databases and SQL Programming, with Lab

GER 3/B
An introduction to elementary database concepts and SQL, the standard language for communicating with most database systems. A pragmatic course with an emphasis on skills acquisition; students will learn how to get things done quickly and easily in a database environment.

Required for computer science minors; open to computer science majors, but may not be used toward the computer science major.

prereq: CSCI 12700 or CSCI 13200

3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 23300 - Programming Projects Seminar for Minors

This course will serve as a capstone for the minor, affording students the opportunity to write reasonably large and complex programs. Students will be expected to draw topics for these programs from their majors or other areas of interest. This course does not count toward the computer science major.

prereq or coreq: CSCI 13300 and 23200 and a declared Computer Science Minor.

2 hrs. 1 credit

In addition, students will be required to take at least one 3 credit elective selected from Computer Science offerings numbered 13500 or above. Although minors may take any Computer Science course numbered 135 or above, courses that require only one or more of the above courses as prerequisites include:

CSCI 13500 - Software Analysis and Design I

This first course for prospective computer science majors and minors concentrates on problem-solving techniques using a high-level programming language. The course includes a brief overview of computer systems.

prereq: CSCI 12700 or equivalent coreq: CSCI 13600

3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 13600 - Supervised Programming Lab

Students work in small teams to complete weekly programming assignments under the supervision of an instructor. Assignments are at the level of material covered in CSCI 135 and CSCI 127 though this is not a recitation or review section for either course. Emphasis is on solving problems in a cooperative programming environment.

May not be counted toward the computer science major.

coreq: CSCI 13500

2 hrs 1 cr.

CSCI 15000 - Discrete Structures

Mathematical background required for computer science. Sets, relations, cardinality, propositional calculus, discrete functions, truth tables, induction, combinatorics.

prereq: MATH 12500, 15000 or 15500

3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 16000 - Computer Architecture I

GER 3/B
Boolean algebra, data representation, combinational circuits and minimization, sequential circuits.
prereq: CSCI 12700, CSCI 15000
3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 26700 - Microprocessors and Embedded Systems
GER 3/B
Students will assemble and program a small single board computer to control, or simulate control of, some device.

prereq: CSCI 13300 or 26000
3 hrs 3 cr.

Note
All prerequisites must be fulfilled for any CSCI course. The only exception is a written waiver from the instructor.

Prospective minors should be aware that this course of study usually requires a minimum of four semesters to complete.

Please note

Computer science majors cannot choose computer science for their minor.

Minors for Computer Science Majors

Hunter College no longer requires students to take a minor field of study in conjunction with their major. Nevertheless, because of the broad spectrum of interests among computer science majors at Hunter, students interested in pursuing a minor field of study may wish to combine a minor with the computer science major in is such fields as mathematics, geography, economics, film and media.

Mathematics - BA

Geography - BA

Economics - BA

Film - BA

Media Studies - BA

Consult an adviser in the department of the minor you wish to pursue for further information.

Honors

To graduate from Hunter College with honors in computer science, a student must have at least a 2.7 GPA overall and a 3.5 GPA or better in computer science/math and a grade of A in one of the CSCI 49300 series of courses.

Additional Information

The “one repeat” rule is in effect for all courses to be used toward the major, from CSCI 13500 through the 400-level courses. This means that if a student fails a CSCI major course once (failure = D, F, NC, WU), that student will have only one more chance to pass the course. In addition, the Computer Science Department will not accept a CR grade in any of the preliminary or required courses for the major (CSCI 13500, CSCI 15000, CSCI 16000, CSCI 23500, CSCI 26000, CSCI 26500, CSCI 33500, CSCI 34000, CSCI 36000). Any student wishing to declare computer science as a major who has received a grade of CR in any of the CSCI courses listed above, must ask the instructor of that course to change the CR grade to the appropriate letter grade. This must be done before the declaration of major form can be authorized.

Please note: A grade of “D” is not considered a passing grade by this department for any of the computer science or math courses required for the major.

Computer Science with Concentration in Bioinformatics - BA

Return to Programs and Courses in Computer Science

This course of study will provide computer science majors with a fundamental understanding of the most important aspects of quantitative and computational biology, including a solid background in biology, chemistry, mathematics, statistics, and computer science, with an emphasis on quantitative reasoning. Students opting to concentrate in bioinformatics are not required to take CSCI 26000, CSCI 26500, and CSCI 36000, but are strongly encouraged to take CSCI 26500. Instead of 15 hours of 300-level and 400-level elective credits, the following requirements must be met:

Preliminary Courses

A student may declare a concentration in bioinformatics upon successful completion of CSCI 13500 - Software Analysis and Design I when declaring computer science as a major field of study.

Required Courses

Students must obtain a grade of C or better in the following courses:

Computer science component 24 credits

CSCI 13500 - Software Analysis and Design I

This first course for prospective computer science majors and minors concentrates on problem-solving techniques using a high-level programming language. The course includes a brief overview of computer systems.

prereq: CSCI 12700 or equivalent coreq: CSCI 13600

3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 15000 - Discrete Structures

Mathematical background required for computer science. Sets, relations, cardinality, propositional calculus, discrete functions, truth tables, induction, combinatorics.

prereq: MATH 12500, 15000 or 15500

3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 23500 - Software Analysis and Design II
GER 3/B
Representation of information in computers, including process and data abstraction techniques. Topics covered include static and dynamic storage methods, lists, stacks, queues, binary trees, recursion, analysis of simple algorithms and some searching and sorting algorithms.

prereq: CSCI 13500, 15000; MATH 15000
3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 26000 - Computer Architecture II

GER 3/B
Organization of computer systems and design of system elements, including ALU, memories and interfaces. Some assembly language programming.

prereq: CSCI 13500, 16000 or 24500; MATH 15000
3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 33500 - Software Analysis and Design III

GER 3/B
The design and analysis of various types of algorithms, including searching, sorting, graph and tree algorithms. Problem-solving techniques. Worst and average case behavior analysis and optimality. Polynomial time complexity classes and theory, including NP-completeness.

prereq: CSCI 23500, MATH 15500
3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 34000 - Operating Systems

GER 3/B
Definition of functions and components of operating systems. Survey of contemporary multiprocessing/multiprogramming systems. Exploration of systems programs: their design, internal structure and implementation.

prereq: CSCI 23500, 26000 or 24500; MATH 15500, STAT 11300 or 21300
3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 43500 - Database Management

GER 3/B
Hierarchical and network databases; theory of relational databases; normalization theory; query languages.

prereq: CSCI 33500
3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 49366 - UNIX System Programming

GER 3/B
An introduction to the key components of the UNIX application programming interface, including files, processes, terminal control, signals, interprocess communication, the ncurses library, and multi-threading. Includes basic of the internal structure of the UNIX operating system, and selected user-level utilities and commands for efficient programming and working in UNIX.

prereq or coreq: CSCI 23500, 34000
3 hours 3 credits

Math and statistics component 17 credits
MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

GER 1/B
Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.

prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.

4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 15500 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

GER 1/B
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions, integration techniques, infinite sequences and series, improper integrals, polar coordinates.

prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 15000

4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 16000 - Matrix Algebra

GER 1/B
Systems of linear equations, matrices, determinants, introduction to vector spaces and linear transformations, applications.

prereq: MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam

3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 21300 - Introduction to Applied Statistics

GER 1/B

prereq: MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.

3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 31900 - Bayesian Statistical Inference in the Sciences

GER 3/B

prereq: MATH 15500; at least one of STAT 21200, STAT 21300 or STAT 21400 (or permission of instructor).

Prerequisites waived for students who have passed STAT 311.

Familiarity with matrix algebra (at the level of MATH 160) and with the Windows computing environment are encouraged.

3 hrs 3 cr

Biology component 12 credits

BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I
The chemical basis of life; basic structure and function of pro- and eucaryotic cells; bioenergetics; Mendelian and molecular genetics; development and mechanisms of control of gene expression at all levels; population genetics and evolution.

Material Fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.

prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equivalent

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.

fall only

BIOL 30000 - Biological Chemistry

GER 3/B

Molecular aspects of cellular function; properties of biomolecules, their biosynthesis and breakdown; structure and function of proteins and enzymes, metabolites, membranes and nucleic acids; cellular mechanisms of energy transduction; integration and control of cell metabolism. Experiments cover a variety of modern techniques in molecular biology.

Material Fee: $10

prereq: BIOL 20200, CHEM 22200, 22300 coreq: CHEM 22400

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.

fall only

- or -

BIOL 30200 - Molecular Genetics

GER 3/B

A comparison of viral, procaryotic and eukaryotic systems; review of classical Mendelian principles; bacterial DNA replication, transcription and their control; mechanisms of gene mutation, repair, recombination and transposition; applications of recombinant DNA technology; organization of nucleic acid into chromosomes; control of gene expression, the cell cycle and cell development in eucaryotes.

Material Fee: $10

prereq: BIOL 30000

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.

spring only

BIOL 42500 - Computational Molecular Biology

GER 3/B

An introduction to the interdisciplinary field of computational molecular biology. Students are taught the scope and methods of in silico biology, i.e., the application of computational and statistical methods to solving problems in molecular biology. Topics will include homology searching, sequence alignment, molecular phylogenetics, comparative genomics, analysis of gene expression, and predication of macromolecular structures. The course will be taught using a mixed format of lectures and hands-on workshops in a UNIX computer laboratory setting. Knowledge and skills in molecular biology, UNIX programming, and statistics are essential for success in this core course required for bioinformatics-concentration students from all majors.

prereq: BIOL 30000 or BIOL 30200 or CHEM 37600; STAT 21300; CSCI 13200 or CSCI 23500 or UNIX proficiency permitted by instructor.
Chemistry component 12 credits

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.
Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.
Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10600 - General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate the fundamental laws of chemistry. The course is equivalent one year of general chemistry laboratory.
Credit not given for CHEM 10600 and CHEM 10300 or CHEM 10500. Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200
coreq: CHEM 10400
6 hrs 3 cr.

CHEM 22200 - Organic Chemistry Lecture I

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.
prereq: CHEM 10400
5- 6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

Total Credits 65

Additional Information

Prerequisites for certain courses are waived for students opting for this concentration: BIOL 20200 and CHEM 22300 are waived for BIOL 30000; BIOL 30000 is waived for BIOL 30200; and CSCI 16000 is waived for CSCI 26000 and CSCI 34000.

Recommended course sequence for students in the bioinformatics concentration:

Term 1
CSCI 12700 - Introduction to Computer Science

GER 2/E
A technical introduction to computer science. Organization of hardware, software, information and an introduction to programming. This course is meant for: potential computer science majors who may not be prepared for CSCI 135; science majors who need some basic computer knowledge; and non-CSCI majors who want a more rigorous introduction to the field than CSCI 120 provides.
May not be used toward the CSCI major or minor.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12100, 12500 or 15000
3 hrs 3 cr.

MATH 12500 - Precalculus

GER 1/B
Functions and their graphs: polynomial, rational, exponential, logarithmic and trigonometric functions; conic sections; topics in trigonometry; graphical and analytical solutions to systems of equations and inequalities. Not credited to students who have completed MATH 15000 or its equivalent.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 10100 or appropriate score on placement exam
4 hrs 4 cr.

Term 2

CSCI 13500 - Software Analysis and Design I

Minor in Computer Science

A minor in Computer Science consists of 13-14 credits of coursework. These credits include the following required courses – note that MATH 12500 is a prerequisite course to CSCI 12700 however MATH 125 does not count towards the Computer Science Minor:

- CSCI 12700 - Introduction to Computer Science (3 credits, 3 hours)
- CSCI 13300 - Programming for Everyone (3 credits, 3 hours)
- CSCI 23200 - Relational Databases and SQL Programming, with Lab (3 credits, 3 hours)
- CSCI 23300 - Programming Projects Seminar for Minors (1 credit, 2 hours)

In addition, students will be required to take at least one 3 credit elective selected from Computer Science offerings numbered 135 or above. Although you may take any Computer Science course numbered 135 or above, courses that require only one or more of the above courses as prerequisites include:

- CSCI 13500 - Software Analysis and Design I (3 credits, 3 hours) and CSCI 13600 - Supervised Programming Lab (1 credit, 2 hours)
- CSCI 15000 - Discrete Structures (3 credits, 3 hours)
- CSCI 26700 - Microprocessors and Embedded Systems (3 credits, 3 hours)
- CSCI 16000 - Computer Architecture I (3 credits, 3 hours)
Dance

About the Program

The Hunter College Dance Program offers an opportunity to pursue a BA degree in dance within the context of a strong liberal arts education. From a campus in the heart of New York City, the dance major or minor student has the unique opportunity of interfacing with many professional dance companies, choreographers and critics who live and work in New York. The modern dance-based curriculum provides the student with opportunities to pursue careers in performance, choreography, teaching, arts administration and production. The curriculum is enriched by community outreach performances, repertory classes with New York-based choreographers, specialty workshops, dance clubs, international performances, internships and New York State teaching certification. In addition, Hunter Dance hosts “Sharing the Legacy,” an ongoing series of conferences, forums and concerts devoted to experiencing dance masterworks of the twentieth century.

The Dance Program offers a broad based curriculum with an emphasis on modern dance, including three major areas of study:

I. Technique (modern, ballet, traditional, folk);
II. Creative theory and performance (improvisation, composition, production, repertory, lecture/demonstration touring company);
III. Theoretical and scientific aspects of dance (musicianship for dancers, dance history, theory and practice of teaching, anatomy and kinesiology, movement re-education).

Course Listings

All required classes are not offered every semester. Annual meetings with dance advisers are essential for both majors and minors in order to assure that required coursework will be completed in time for graduation.

Dance - BA

The following 34-credit curriculum is required of all majors.

DAN 15100 - Folk Forms of Dance I

Development of basic dance skills necessary for participation in international folk dances. Students are exposed to dance and music of world cultures.
Open to dance majors and minors only.
3 hrs 1 cr.

DAN 21000 - Contemporary Dance Technique I

GER 3/A
Analytical and physical study of basic concepts of dance: space, time, dynamics and design. Intermediate development of movement skills and vocabulary as required by professional demands. May be taken 2 times for credit with permission of the department.
prereq: DAN 10100, perm dept., placement class
3 hrs 2 cr.

DAN 21300 - Basic Musicianship for Dancers

GER 3/A
Basic music theory in relation to dance. Development of auditory and kinesthetic understanding of melody, rhythm and harmony through movement. Open only to Dance majors and minors.
All required classes are not offered every semester. Annual meetings with dance advisers are essential for both majors and minors in order to assure that required coursework will be completed in time for graduation.
prereq: DAN 21000
3 hrs 2 cr.

DAN 22000 - Contemporary Dance Technique II

GER 3/A
Development of expanded movement vocabulary and increased facility; understanding dance as means of communication; ordering of movement to produce controlled performance. May be taken two times for credit with permission of the department.
prereq: DAN 21000, perm dept, or placement class
3 hrs 2 cr.

DAN 22100 - Improvisation as a Creative Process I

GER 3/A
Introduction to basic skills of structured improvisation; use of these skills by individual students to explore their creative movement potential.

All required classes are not offered every semester. Annual meetings with dance advisers are essential for both majors and minors in order to assure that required coursework will be completed in time for graduation.

prereq or coreq: DAN 21000 or perm dept.
3 hrs 2 cr.

DAN 23200 - 20th-Century Dance History

GER 2/D PD/D
Readings, lectures, films, discussions of 20th century ballet, modern, social and popular theatre dance forms; analysis of individual styles and cultural trends.

All required classes are not offered every semester. Annual meetings with dance advisers are essential for both majors and minors in order to assure that required coursework will be completed in time for graduation.
3 hrs 3 cr.

DAN 24500 - Ballet I

GER 3/A
Intermediate level study of stylistic demands and vocabulary of ballet and introduction to ballet traditions. May be taken two times for credit with permission of the department.

prereq: DAN 14500, perm dept, or placement class
3 hrs 2 cr.

DAN 31000 - Contemporary Dance Technique III

GER 3/A

Major

(34 credits)

A placement audition is required of all incoming majors. All dance majors are required to be registered in at least one technique class every semester they are in attendance at Hunter. Performance, choreography and technical production requirements are to be fulfilled prior to graduation. These requirements include:

1. Performance in at least two (2) concerts.
2. Choreography of at least two (2) works:
   a. solo performed in open composition.
   b. group work developed during fall and spring semesters and performed in formal concert.
3. Production crew work in two (2) formal concerts.

Note: All required classes are not offered every semester. Annual meetings with dance advisers are essential for both majors and minors in order to assure that required coursework will be completed in time for graduation.

Policy on advancement through the technique curriculum

All dance students should be aware that completion of a dance technique course for a passing grade does not automatically guarantee acceptance into the next level of technique. For example, if you pass the Fundamentals of Contemporary Dance course, you may not necessarily be admitted to Contemporary Dance Technique I.

Your instructor will, at the end of the current course, advise you to either repeat the course for credit or to move on to the next level. (You can take technique courses twice for credit, and it is also possible to audit thereafter.) It is neither safe nor constructive to place yourself in a class that is not appropriate for your skill level. The quality of your dance education is of utmost importance to us — this policy is designed to maintain the highest standards of learning and achievement.

All dance majors are required to register for at least one technique course every semester they are enrolled at Hunter College.

Economics

About the Department

One way to define the scope of economics is to say that it is the social science that deals with how best to use scarce resources to satisfy unlimited human needs and wants. While economists do not claim to have the answer to what humans should want, they do have something to say about how to get it. Economics is more about how to think than what to think.

Economics students become problem solvers. They learn to analyze a situation, figure out what is important and determine what can be abstracted away. The economics curriculum stresses the development of general problem-solving skills: finding, gathering and interpreting information; predicting the consequences of decisions; evaluating alternative courses of action; and analyzing the management of resources in both the public and private sectors. At the same time, economics students learn about the institutions and rules that shape daily life — the monetary system, the stock and bond markets and the regulatory system that mandates warning labels on cigarette packs and seat belts in automobiles.

Many professional economists enter government at the federal, state, or local level, either in research or policy-making positions. Some are employed by businesses, financial institutions, labor unions, trade associations and consulting firms. Still others are involved in teaching and research in colleges and universities. While an undergraduate major in economics does not lead directly to professional accreditation, it provides students with a point of view and a set of skills that will be useful in almost any path taken after the completion of the major. A major in economics is especially valuable for those who plan careers in finance, management, law, journalism, or public policy.

Accountants specialize in measuring, reporting and interpreting the financial aspects of business, governments and institutional activities. Accounting provides the information necessary to determine and evaluate both present and projected economic activities of organizations. Professional accountants develop and apply their skills in auditing, taxation, management policy, information systems, computer operations and many other areas.

Nearly half of all accounting graduates are employed by public accounting firms. The remainder join private firms, engage in research and consulting, practice in the government sector, or continue their education on the graduate level.

Accounting - BS

The degree of bachelor of science (accounting) offered at Hunter College fulfills educational requirements for the CPA examination in New York State. Candidates pursuing licensure in New York State will need to complete 150 college credits including ECO 490 (Accounting and Auditing Research). An appropriate masters degree, while not required, is another path to licensure. For information on the MS in Accounting at Hunter College, see the Hunter College Graduate Catalog.

All students contemplating a career in accounting should request an interview with the accounting program adviser during the lower freshman term. To assure completion of the BS (accounting) degree within four years, a full-time student should begin the accounting major sequence in the upper freshman term, if possible, and no later than the lower sophomore term, by registering for ECO 27100.

Please note: The prefix for accounting courses, now ECO, will be changed to ACC effective summer 2013. The summer 2013 schedule of classes www.hunter.cuny.edu/onestop/registration/searchable-schedule-of-classes reflects this change. The new 2013-14 catalog, available in summer 2013 will show the ACC prefix for accounting courses.

Major

The Department of Economics offers a major of BS in accounting, requiring a minimum of 31 credits of accounting and an additional 33 credits of professional studies. Details are outlined below.

Grade Options

Students enrolled in the BS (accounting) curriculum may not use CR/NC grades for the 31 accounting credits in the accounting major.

General Education Requirement

Students working for a BS (accounting) degree must complete the General Education Requirement (see General Education Requirement section) except that:

A. The Stage 1, Group B Quantitative Reasoning Requirement must be met by MATH 15000. This should be done within the first 75 credits of college work. For students already at or beyond this point when they become majors, the course should be taken within the first 12 credits following declaration of the major.

B. The foreign language requirement is modified, so that:
1. Students who present three or more years of one foreign language are excused from taking additional foreign language courses;

2. Students who present two years of one foreign language must take two additional courses of advanced-level work in the same language or, if they do not want to go on with that language in college, they must take four courses in another foreign language at the college level;

3. Students who present fewer than two years of one foreign language must take four courses in that or any other foreign language at the college level. (Students must file with the Department of Economics a high school transcript or other evidence of completion of the requisite number of years.)

C. In Stage 2, Group B, 3 of the 6 required credits must be in ECO 20100. (ECO 20000, which must be taken as part of the professional studies requirement, cannot be used to fulfill the Stage 2, Group B requirement for accounting majors.)

D. Electives. Any remaining credits needed to complete the 120 credits required for the BS (accounting) degree must be in liberal arts electives.

Minor in Accounting

Minor in Accounting

Interdepartmental Fields

Students may take courses in economics as part of an interdepartmental program of study in Latin American and Caribbean studies, environmental studies (geography), women’s and gender studies and Jewish studies. Listings in each area discuss recommended courses.

Internships

Students may receive one credit for internships in government agencies, private firms, and not-for-profit institutions. The position must provide opportunities for learning about some area of economics, accounting, or business. The course may be taken no more than twice. Credits may not be applied towards the economics or accounting major. Internships will be graded on a CR/NC basis. Note that it is the responsibility of the student, not the Department, to identify internship opportunities.

Honors
Students with a 3.5 GPA in a major offered by the department and an overall 2.8 GPA at the beginning of their upper senior semester may apply for departmental honors at that time. Completion of the following and submission of an honors paper are required. Honors papers are written under faculty supervision and must be approved by a second reader as well. GPA levels must be maintained for the award of departmental honors.

ECO 49900 - Honors Project

Jr/Sr only. Supervised individual research and directed reading. Honors essay.
prereq: For accounting majors: ECO 32100 and 37200; For economics majors: ECO 30000, 30100 and 32100. A 3.5 GPA required in the major offered by the department and permission of the chair.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Economics - Accelerated BA/MA

The Department of Economics offers promising students the opportunity to complete both the BA and MA degrees within 120 credits, 30 of which must be at the graduate level.

Students who wish to declare the BA/MA major must have a 3.0 average in Economics and in the cumulative index.

A minimum grade of B in the following, or their equivalents

ECO 30000 - Intermediate Microeconomics

GER 3/B
Households and firms as maximizing agents; implications for equilibrium in perfectly and imperfectly competitive markets; general equilibrium; welfare.

Additional Information

An undergraduate major in economics is normally required. Thomas Hunter Honors Program students may be admitted without declaring an undergraduate economics major, provided that the above courses are completed. To apply, see the graduate adviser.

Honors

Students with a 3.5 GPA in a major offered by the department and an overall 2.8 GPA at the beginning of their upper senior semester may apply for departmental honors at that time. Completion of the following and submission of an honors paper are required. Honors papers are written under faculty supervision and must be approved by a second reader as well. GPA levels must be maintained for the award of departmental honors.

Note: Students enrolled in the BA/MA program may substitute enrollment in ECO 798 and an MA thesis for ECO 49900 and the Honors paper.

ECO 49900 - Honors Project

Economics - BA

Majors

The Department of Economics offers two majors: the Economics - BA, requiring a minimum of 24 credits and the Accounting - BS, requiring a minimum of 30 credits of accounting and an additional 33 credits of professional studies. In addition, for motivated students, the department offers the opportunity to complete both the BA and MA degrees within 30 credits.

Economics - Accelerated BA/MA

Grade Options

The department strongly urges economics majors who plan to go on to graduate or professional school to choose letter grades rather than CR/NC.

Major

Students majoring in economics must take:

A. Courses Preliminary to the Economics Major

ECO 20000 - Principles of Microeconomics
May be taken prior to or concurrently with ECO 20100. Determination of prices and quantities of goods and services, including labor and other resources; competitive and imperfect markets; public policy implications.

prereq: MATH 10100 or exemption from the course
3 hrs 3 cr.

ECO 20100 - Principles of Macroeconomics

May be taken prior to or concurrently with ECO 20000. Economic growth; fluctuations in the aggregate economy; inflation; monetary and fiscal policy.

prereq: MATH 10100 or exemption from the course
3 hrs 3 cr.

These courses must be completed with a grade of C, CR, or better to serve as prerequisites for courses credited to the major.

Additional Information

Although required, neither ECO 20000 nor ECO 20100 are counted as part of the 24 credits in the major. While it is preferable to start with ECO 20000, students may begin the study of economics with either ECO 20000 or ECO 20100. If they wish a one-semester survey before embarking on the principles courses, they may take ECO 10000, but this is not required. If taken, ECO 10000 cannot be substituted for either ECO 20000 or 20100 or credited toward the major.

B. Core of the Economics Major

ECO 22100 - Economic Statistics

Probability and statistics in the context of economics, business and public policy; data analysis, probability distributions, and hypothesis testing.

prereq: MATH 12500 or exemption from the course
3 hrs 3 cr.

ECO 30000 - Intermediate Microeconomics

Households and firms as maximizing agents; implications for equilibrium in perfectly and imperfectly competitive markets; general equilibrium; welfare.

prereq: ECO 20000, 20100, MATH 15000
3 hrs 3 cr.

ECO 30100 - Intermediate Macroeconomics

Growth, employment and prices in the short and long run; monetary and fiscal policy.

prereq: ECO 20000, 20100, MATH 15000
3 hrs 3 cr.

ECO 32100 - 321 Introduction to Econometrics
GER 3/B
Linear and non-linear regression models in economics; statistical methods for estimation and inference.
 prereq: ECO 22100, MATH 15000
3 hrs 3 cr.

C. Allied Required Course

MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

GER 1/B
Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.
 prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 15000 and ECO 22100 must be completed with a grade of C, CR or better to be accepted for credit towards the major and to serve as prerequisites for other courses in the major.

Additional Information

Majors are advised to complete MATH 15000 and ECO 22100 within their first 75 credits of college work and ECO 30000 or ECO 30100 within their first 90 credits. For students already at or beyond these points when they become majors, such courses should be taken within the first 12 credits following declaration of the major. The department may waive the requirement of any of the above or other courses upon satisfactory proof of course equivalency. Courses waived through substitution or examination do not provide course credit nor do they count toward the major.

D. Elective courses

The remaining 12 credits needed to complete the 24-credit major shall be satisfied by other economics courses offered by the department. No courses in accounting or business law may be credited toward the economics major. No more than 3 credits may be at the 100-level (note: ECO 10000 cannot be counted.)

Minor in Economics

The economics minor consists of a minimum of 12 credits, including

ECO 20000 - Principles of Microeconomics

GER 2/B
May be taken prior to or concurrently with ECO 20100. Determination of prices and quantities of goods and services, including labor and other resources; competitive and imperfect markets; public policy implications.
 prereq: MATH 10100 or exemption from the course
3 hrs 3 cr.

ECO 20100 - Principles of Macroeconomics

GER 2/B
May be taken prior to or concurrently with ECO 20000. Economic growth; fluctuations in the aggregate economy; inflation; monetary and fiscal policy.
 prereq: MATH 10100 or exemption from the course
3 hrs 3 cr.
and two other courses in economics. Accounting and business law courses do not count towards the economics minor.

Interdepartmental Fields

Students may take courses in economics as part of an interdepartmental program of study in Latin American and Caribbean studies, environmental studies (geography), women’s and gender studies and Jewish social studies. Listings in each area discuss recommended courses.

Internships

Students may receive one credit for internships in government agencies, private firms, and not-for-profit institutions. The position must provide opportunities for learning about some area of economics, accounting, or business. The course may be taken no more than twice. Credits may not be applied towards the economics or accounting major. Internships will be graded on a CR/NC basis. Note that it is the responsibility of the student, not the Department, to identify internship opportunities.

Honors

Students with a 3.5 GPA in a major offered by the department and an overall 2.8 GPA at the beginning of their upper senior semester may apply for departmental honors at that time. Completion of the following and submission of an honors paper are required. Honors papers are written under faculty supervision and must be approved by a second reader as well. GPA levels must be maintained for the award of departmental honors.

ECO 49900 - Honors Project

Jr/Sr only. Supervised individual research and directed reading. Honors essay.
prereq: For accounting majors: ECO 32100 and 37200; For economics majors: ECO 30000, 30100 and 32100. A 3.5 GPA required in the major offered by the department and permission of the chair
3 hrs 3 cr.

Public Policy

Economics majors may find both the minor and the Certificate Program in Public Policy of particular interest.

Minor in Accounting

A minor in accounting is available. These courses may be used for CPLicensure in New York State, but represent only 15 of the 69 credits required.

The Minor will consist of 15 credits with the following required courses:

ECO 27100 - Accounting I

Basic accounting concepts; preparation of financial statements. Emphasis on income determination and financial position.

prereq: upper freshman standing
3 hrs 3 cr.

ECO 27200 - Accounting II

Accounting concepts applied to partnerships and corporations; funds statements; financial statement analysis.

prereq: ECO 27100

Minor in Economics

The economics minor consists of a minimum of 12 credits, including ECO 20000 - Principles of Microeconomics, ECO 20100 - Principles of Macroeconomics and two other courses in economics. Accounting and business law courses do not count towards the economics minor.

English

About the Department

The English Department offers students a variety of courses in the study of literature, literary theory, composition, rhetoric, linguistics and creative writing. The Department is interdisciplinary in its offerings, with a diverse faculty whose areas of research and approaches to teaching offer Hunter students a wide spectrum of historical, post-modern, theoretical, textual, and socio-cultural approaches to literary study, rhetoric and composition, linguistics and language, and creative writing. The department encourages disciplined, original thinking and writing while its small classes promote learning through stimulating discussions.

Introductory and intermediate courses present a wide range of literary forms, periods and genres. Students who major in English choose one of four concentrations: Literatures, Language and Criticism; Creative Writing; Adolescent Education (a concentration designed for prospective high school teachers), or English Language Arts. Qualified students may enroll in honors seminars and tutorials. The English Department participates in Hunter’s interdisciplinary programs in Asian American Studies, Comparative Literature, Women’s and Gender Studies, and Religion. The English major provides a foundation for careers in writing, teaching, journalism, publishing, law, business, or any other career that depends on the ability to read analytically and write effectively.
ENGL 22000 - Introduction to Writing about Literature (W) is a prerequisite to all literature courses numbered above 22000 in the English Department. Students who plan to major in English should take no more than 6 credits past ENGL 22000 before declaring the major.

Prerequisite for all 300- and 400-level writing courses (except ENGL 30100 ) is ENGL 30000 - Introduction to Creative Writing. Students must pass this course with a minimum grade of B to major in creative writing.

Concentration in English: Preparation for Secondary School Teaching (30 cr)

Return to Programs and Courses in English

The Concentration in English: Preparation for Secondary School Teaching is designed to prepare students to teach English in grades 7-12 by providing a foundation in British, American, and Multi-Ethnic literatures, as well as writing and language studies. Students choosing this concentration take 18 credits of required literature courses, 6 credits of required writing courses, a 3-credit language course, and one elective chosen from among 300- and 400-level courses offered by the Department. When taken together with the requirements for the secondary education sequence of the School of Education, (see Adolescent English, Grades 7-12 - BA) this program meets initial certification requirements for New York State and New York City public schools. Students interested in the Education sequence must apply to the School of Education for admission. Students who do not wish to pursue certification need not take the Secondary Education sequence. Eligible English: Preparation for Secondary School Teaching majors may pursue English Departmental Honors by taking ENGL 49400 - Honors Seminar: Special Studies.

Note: The English Department strongly recommends that students take at least one modern or contemporary literature course.

Concentration in Linguistics and Rhetoric

Return to Programs and Courses in English

The concentration in Linguistics and Rhetoric is designed to provide students with a comprehensive course of study in the structures, uses, and ideologies of discourse in various types of texts, genres, and domains: from everyday talk to persuasive writing. Students will gain a complex understanding of spoken and written discourse by comparing a wide range of philosophical underpinnings, theoretical perspectives, and methodological approaches. This concentration is particularly suited for students who are interested in graduate study in Linguistics, Rhetoric, Applied Linguistics, and Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL).

Required Courses (27 cr.)

ENGL 33100 - The Structure of Modern English

Exploration of the acquisition, structure, and use of modern English and its regional and social variations.

prereq: ENGL 22000
3 hrs 3 cr.

Two additional courses in linguistics chosen from the following: 6 cr

ENGL 33000 - Sociolinguistics
This course introduces the study of language use in society in relation to class, gender, ethnicity, race, and age. The nature of language and language rights including pidgins, creoles, and dialects are examined. Critical discourse theory is introduced as part of the analysis of the relationship of language and education, social mobility and power.

ENGL 33200 - History of the English Language (W)

The diversity and spread of English across the globe. The effects of language contact on English.

prereq: ENGL 22000

3 hrs 3 cr.

ENGL 33300 - Topics in Language and Linguistics

GER 3/A

Exploration of language or linguistic systems in relation to their social and cultural contexts. Topics vary from semester to semester. May be repeated for credit with a different topic. Satisfies linguistics but not literature requirements.

prereq: ENGL 22000

3 hrs 3 cr.

ENGL 34600 - Discourse Analysis

Discourse analysis has been informed by several academic disciplines, including anthropology, linguistics, philosophy, literary theory, and sociology. Since there are many ways to define and analyze discourse, there exist multiple, and often conflicting, approaches to the study of language use. This course is an introduction to various methods of discourse analysis, which will be explored through critical reading and discussion, and through hands-on application of these methods on actual discourse data.

prereq: ENGL 22000

3 hrs 3 cr.

ENGL 34700 - Language and Ethnicity

GER Pluralism & Diversity Group B

This course explores the relationship between language and ethnicity with a primary focus on the United States. It examines how language is used in the construction of ethnic identities, and how ideologies about ethnicity influence the ways in which people use language. It is centered on class discussion of social scientific research that closely analyzes how ethnicity is performed in discursive interaction. The course investigates language use in relation to African American, Native American, U.S. Latino/a, Asian American, and European American identities, and covers topics, such as codeswitching, crossing, mocking, passing, interethnic communication, and language prejudice.

prereq: ENGL 22000

3 hrs 3 cr.

ENGL 34800 - English Across the World

This course will examine the spread of English across the world in terms of two major processes: linguistic imperialism, or the imposition of the language from a colonial center on a colonized periphery, and macroacquisition, or the adoption and adaptation of English by speech communities themselves. The main geographical focus will be the former colonial territories of Britain and the United States in Asia and Africa. Class discussions will be guided by two texts that present opposing views of the historical processes in question and will be further illuminated by students’ own research on individual countries.
ENGL 30100 - Theory and Practice of Expository Writing

GER 3/A
Composition in variety of nonfiction prose forms and study of rhetorical theories.

prereq: ENGL 22000
3 hrs 3 cr.

Concentration in Literatures, Language and Criticism (30 cr)

Return to Programs and Courses in English

Majors who plan to concentrate in Literatures, Language and Criticism take four required courses and three courses in a specialized area of study. The Department recommends that students take the four required courses early in their major studies, preferably soon after they have declared the major. The Literatures, Language and Criticism concentration is designed to provide students with exposure to a range of literary texts and traditions, as well as to a specific area of study in which to focus. The first two areas of study reflect particular national literatures, but the remaining four are designed with broader approaches to literary study in mind. With prior approval, a student may also work with an advisor to design her own area of study.

This concentration consists of three parts:

Required Courses (12 credits)

The following four courses are required for all students in this concentration:

ENGL 33800 - Survey of British Literature I: Early Texts To the Eighteenth Century

A survey of British Literature from its earliest manifestations to the eighteenth century, encompassing a range of authors and genres in their cultural, social, and historical contexts.

*prereq: ENGL 22000
3 hrs 3 cr.*

ENGL 39500 - Survey of American Literature: Origins to the Civil War (W)

GER 3/A
A survey of American literature up to the Civil War, encompassing a range of authors and genres in their cultural, social, and historical contexts.

*prereq: ENGL 22000
3 hrs 3 cr.*

ENGL 30600 - Literary Theory (W)

GER 3/A
Major theories of literature, with emphasis on contemporary trends.

*prereq: ENGL 22000
3 hrs 3 cr.*
ENGL 32000 - Multi-Ethnic American Literature (W)

GER 3/A PD/B
Study of American writers of diverse backgrounds, which may include, Asian, African, Latino, Jewish, and Native American, in their historical and cultural contexts.
*prereq: ENGL 22000
3 hrs 3 cr.*

Required Area of Study (9 cr.)

Students in this concentration must take three additional courses in one of the areas below. Particularly motivated students may also obtain prior approval from an advisor to design an area of their own choosing (e.g. literature by genre or by historical period, literary theory, cultural studies).

1. British and/or Irish Literatures
2. American Literatures, including African American, Asian American, Latino, and Native American
3. Transnational and/or Postcolonial Studies
4. Gender and Sexuality Studies
5. Race, Ethnicity, and/or Class Studies
6. Linguistics, Language, and/or Rhetoric

Electives (9 cr.)

The remaining three courses in the major are electives, chosen by the student.

English - BA

Major

The English Department offers students four concentrations: Literatures, Language and Criticism; Creative Writing; English Language Arts; and Preparation for Secondary School Teaching. Thirty credits (10 classes) in 300- and 400-level courses are required for each concentration. Up to 6 credits in the major sequence may be taken for CR/NC.

Concentration in Literatures, Language and Criticism (30 cr)
Concentration in Creative Writing (30 cr)
Concentration in English Language Arts

Concentration in English: Preparation for Secondary School Teaching (30 cr)
Concentration in Linguistics and Rhetoric

Literatures, Language and Criticism Concentration

Majors who plan to concentrate in Concentration in Literatures, Language and Criticism (30 cr) take four required courses, and three courses in a specialized area of study. The department recommends that students take the four required courses early in their major studies, preferably soon after they have declared the major. The Literatures, Language and Criticism concentration is designed to provide students with exposure to a range of literary texts and traditions, as well as to a specific area of study in which to focus. The first two areas of study reflect particular national literatures, but the remaining four are designed with broader approaches to literary study in mind. With prior approval, a student may also work with an adviser to design her own area of study.

Creative Writing Concentration

The Concentration in Creative Writing (30 cr) is designed to provide students with an informed appreciation of the depth and breadth of literature written in English, as well as the opportunity to develop their own interests and skills in creative writing. Students concentrating in Creative Writing take four required courses in literature, and at least four creative writing workshops. The four literature requirements are: 1) ENGL 338; 2) ENGL 395, 396, or 397; 3) ENGL 318, 320, 321, 324, 325, or 327; and 4) ENGL 306, 331, 332, or 340. The first workshop for ALL students is the 3-genre workshop ENGL 300: Introduction to Creative Writing, which must be passed with a grade of B or higher in order to qualify for this concentration. After successfully completing ENGL 300, students are required to take a minimum of three additional workshops, beginning with the level-I workshop in the genre(s) in which they are interested: ENGL 308, 311, or 314. Students are required to take at least one level-II workshop (ENGL 309, 313, or 316) after completing the level-I workshop in that genre. Students may also take one of the Special topics genre workshops (ENGL 484) after completing both 300-level workshops in that genre. The remaining two courses for the major are electives and may be chosen from any of the department’s 300- or 400-level courses, including, if the student is eligible, one of the Honors Seminars (ENGL 494). In special cases, full-time faculty may find it appropriate to supervise a student who is interested in taking on an individual creative project; this option is listed in the catalogue, and in semester-by-semester class postings, as ENGL 485: Independent Tutorial Study. Successful completion of such a course may also, if arranged beforehand, qualify as an Honors course.

English Language Arts Concentration

The Concentration in English Language Arts is designed to provide students with experience in the study of literature, language, rhetoric, and writing. While it is designed and intended primarily for prospective elementary school teachers, the concentration is open to all students. Students take four required literature courses, two required courses in language and/or rhetoric, and two required courses in writing. The remaining two courses are electives and may be chosen from among the following: any of the English department’s 300- or 400-level literature courses, including, if the student is eligible, one of the Honors seminars (ENGL 494); any of the 300-level Creative Writing workshops for which the student has met the prerequisite(s); any 300- or 400-level courses in linguistics or literatures taught in English in other departments for which the student meets that department’s prerequisite(s); and selected Theatre courses (160, 161, 321, 376, 377, 378) for which the student meets that department’s prerequisite(s). The English department strongly recommends that students choose at least one Language, Writing, or Modern/Contemporary Literature elective course.

Concentration in Preparation for Secondary School Teaching
The Concentration in English: Preparation for Secondary School Teaching (30 cr) is designed to prepare students to teach English in grades 7-12 by providing a foundation in British, American, and Multi-Ethnic literatures, as well as writing and language studies. Students choosing this concentration take 18 credits of required literature courses, 6 credits of required writing courses, a 3-credit language course, and one elective chosen from among 300- and 400-level courses offered by the Department. When taken together with the requirements for the Secondary Education minor of the School of Education, this program meets initial certification requirements for New York State and New York City public schools. Students interested in the Education minor must apply to the School of Education for admission. Students who do not wish to pursue certification need not take the Secondary Education minor. Eligible English: Preparation for Secondary School Teaching majors may pursue English Departmental Honors by taking ENGL 49400 - Honors Seminar: Special Studies.

Concentration in Linguistics and Rhetoric

The Concentration in Linguistics and Rhetoric is designed to provide students with a comprehensive course of study in the structures, uses, and ideologies of discourse in various types of texts, genres, and domains: from everyday talk to persuasive writing. Students will gain a complex understanding of spoken and written discourse by comparing a wide range of philosophical underpinnings, theoretical perspectives, and methodological approaches. This concentration is particularly suited for students who are interested in graduate study in Linguistics, Rhetoric, Applied Linguistics, and Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL).

Note: The English Department strongly recommends that students take at least one modern or contemporary literature course.

Honors

In order to qualify for departmental honors, students must take the Honors Seminar (ENGL 49400) and write an honors essay. The essay is normally written in relation to the Honors Seminar and under the supervision of the professor teaching the seminar. To take the Honors Seminar, students must first complete at least 24 credits of 300- and/or 400-level English classes with a GPA of at least 3.5 in those courses and an overall GPA of at least 2.8. Of these credits, 21 (or in exceptional cases, 18) must be taken at Hunter. The Honors Seminar requirement is in addition to the specified required courses in the student’s concentration. Students interested in pursuing departmental honors should consult an undergraduate adviser. Please see the college rules on Academic Honors for more information in Academic Programs and Policies.

ENGL 49400 - Honors Seminar: Special Studies

GER 3/A PD/C
Topics in British and American literature and linguistics. May be taken a second time in another subject. Some topics satisfy PD requirements; check the schedule of classes and with the undergraduate adviser.
1 sem 3 cr.

Note(s)

The Honors Seminar requirement is in addition to the specified courses in the student’s major concentration. Students interested in departmental honors should consult the undergraduate adviser.

Minor in English

The English Department offers a 12-credit minor that provides students with an opportunity to pursue interests in literature, language, rhetoric, composition, and creative writing at the intermediate and advanced levels. Students may declare the Minor only after completing ENGL 22000 - Introduction to Writing about Literature (W), the prerequisite for all English courses above the 220 level. Students minoring in English may choose four courses (12 cr.) from among 200- and 300-level literature, language, rhetoric, or writing offerings, with a minimum of two 300-level courses necessary to satisfy the Minor requirements. Students who wish to take Creative Writing workshops in any of the three genres offered (Fiction, Poetry, and Creative Non-Fiction) must first pass ENGL 30000 - Introduction to Creative Writing, with a minimum grade of B.

Note:

NOTE: English 22000 does not count towards fulfillment of the Minor. ENGL 21800 - Advanced Expository Writing, may be used towards fulfillment of the Minor requirements, but ENGL 20100 - Intermediate Expository Writing Using Small-Group Methods, may not. English minors may not take 400-level courses.

Minor in English

The English Department offers a 12-credit minor that provides students with an opportunity to pursue interests in literature, language, rhetoric, composition, and creative writing at the intermediate and advanced levels. The prerequisite to declare a minor is ENGL 22000 - Introduction to Writing about Literature (W). Students minoring in English may choose four courses (12 cr.) from among 200- and 300-level literature, language, or writing offerings, with a minimum of two 300-level courses necessary to satisfy the Minor requirements. Students who wish to take Creative Writing workshops in any of the three genres offered (Fiction, Poetry, and Creative Non-Fiction) must first pass ENGL 30000 - Introduction to Creative Writing, with a minimum grade of B.

NOTE: No course below English 22000 counts towards fulfillment of the Minor except ENGL 21800 - Advanced Expository Writing. English minors may not take 400-level courses.

Film and Media Studies

About the Department

The Hunter College Department of Film and Media Studies offers three degree programs in the production and critical analysis of film and media. We offer two undergraduate degrees-one in Film and one in Media Studies-and a graduate MFA Degree in Integrated Media Arts. Students are encouraged to develop a creative voice that is socially aware and engaged and can find expression across a range of contemporary media technologies.

Our curriculum is founded on the integration of theory and practice. Leading scholars in history, aesthetics, media policy, critical theory and alternative and international practices provide students with a broad base in analytical thinking. Courses deal with subjects such as the history and aesthetics of film, video, television and new media; genre studies; the history, production and distribution of print and broadcast news; media representations of race, class and gender; and the intricate relationships among the mass media, popular culture and society.

The department’s production courses encourage students to work creatively in a variety of existing and emerging media forms. Courses include narrative film production (including screenwriting and directing), documentary production, television production, journalism and emerging media (including web design and programming, interactive storytelling and game design). The department is distinguished by award-winning faculty who are active in their respective fields.

In addition to classroom activities, students earn general elective credits through internships in New York City’s vibrant media industries. Host institutions include film, television, radio, video and record companies; newspaper, magazine and book publishers; public relations and advertising agencies; museums and other non-profit organizations; and telecommunications and emerging media organizations.
Through its courses and extracurricular activities, the Hunter College Department of Film and Media Studies is injecting new creative voices into the public sphere by educating a diverse community of creative minds.

Film - BA

Major in Film (30 cr)
30 credits, combined total: 12 credits analytical, 12 credits production and 6 credits electives from analytical and/or production courses.

Students must receive a grade of B or better in FILM 10100 to declare a major in film. The major must be declared in person with an undergraduate film adviser (call (212) 772-4949 to schedule). The student must bring his or her transcript, and, where relevant, transcripts from other colleges attended, when meeting with the undergraduate film adviser to declare a film major. Students majoring in film must also take FILMP 16000/MEDP 16000 which is prerequisite for all film production courses. FILM 10100 and FILMP 16000/MEDP 16000 do not count towards the major. A maximum of 6 credits in MEDIA courses at the 200 or 300 level may be applied toward the major in film.
Students must meet any prerequisites for these courses. Courses at the 100 level, independent study, and internship courses do not count toward the major. Students must see a program adviser to plan choice and sequence of courses.

(36 cr)

Students must receive a grade of B or better in MEDIA 18000 to declare a major in Media Studies. The major must be declared in person with an undergraduate media studies adviser (call (212) 772-4949 to schedule).

Students will be able to do a

Media Studies BA: General Media Studies Major

but may choose one of the concentrations in the major. These concentrations are

- Media Studies BA: Concentration in Media Analysis and Criticism
- Media Studies BA: Concentration in Documentary and Television Production
- Media Studies BA: Concentration in Journalism
- Media Studies BA: Emerging Media

However, these concentrations are optional; as long as they satisfy the General Media Studies Major requirements, students may combine courses from different concentrations.

Students majoring in Media Studies must take the following introductory courses. These courses count toward the major.

MEDIA 18000
FILMP 15000/MEDP 15000
FILMP 16000/MEDP 16000
A maximum of 6 credits in FILM or FILMP courses at the 200- or 300-level may be applied toward the major in media studies. Students must meet any prerequisites for these courses. Courses in Independent Study, Honors Project, and Internship do not count toward the major. Students must consult a program adviser to plan choice and sequence of courses.

Double Majors

Students may choose to complete a major in the Department of Film and Media Studies and a second major in another department. A student cannot declare a double major in film and media studies. Because of the intensive nature of the production courses in both Film and Media Studies, it is strongly recommended that all students take no more than two production courses per semester.

Minor in Media Studies

The Minor in Media Studies consists of five courses for a total of 15 credits. At least one 200-level course and at least one 300-level course are required. The other three courses can be at any level. Course prerequisites must be satisfied. Internships and independent studies do not count towards the minor. Courses may be taken as either MEDIA or MEDP.

Honors

To qualify for departmental honors in Film or Media Studies, a student must have a 3.5 grade point average in major courses and a 3.0 grade point average overall. The student must also either complete an Honors Project FILM 40200 or MEDIA 40200, approved by the Department Policy and Curriculum Committee, with a grade of A; or a 400-level production or analytical seminar course with a grade of A. See the department for more information.

Media Studies BA: Concentration in Documentary and Television Production

Return to Media Studies - BA

This concentration is intended to give students foundational knowledge in the theory and practice of linear non-fiction video and related digital media skills. prereq: MEDIA 18000
3 hrs 3 cr.

MEDIA 32700 - Representations of Race and Ethnicity in U.S. Media

GER 3/A PD/B
A historical look at changes and continuities in the social construction of a selected race or ethnicity in movies; advertising, including political campaigns; journalism; and other forms of American popular culture.
prereq: MEDIA 18000
4 hrs 3 cr.

MEDIA 33200 - Myths and Images in the Media

GER 3/A
Study of film and media as decisive vehicles of myth, imagery and aesthetics in an advanced industrial society.
prereq: MEDIA 18000
3 hrs 3 cr.

MEDIA 33300 - Typecasting

GER 3/A
A history of the relationship between stereotyping as a social, cultural and psychological language and the rise of modern society.
MEDIA 18000 is a prerequisite for all 200-, 300-, and 400-level MEDIA and MEDP courses.
prereq: MEDIA 180 and either MEDIA 327 or MEDIA 384 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

MEDIA 37400 - Media, Sports, and Society

GER 3/A
Examination of the relationship between media and sports and their impact on society. Workings of the present-day sports-television-advertising complex, textual analysis of television sports productions.
MEDIA 38400 - Women and Media

GER 3/A PD/C
Examination, from historical and formal perspective, of ways in which women have been represented by mass media in America since mid-19th century. Exploration of how feminists for 100 years have challenged these images and posed alternative modes of cultural representation and production.

cross-listed WGSA 38400 (W)

prereq: MEDIA 18000

3 hrs 3 cr.

MEDIA 39700 - Cult TV and its Audiences

GER 3/A
This course explores the historical and cross-cultural development of “cult” television, from cancelled programs whose narratives are kept alive by fan audiences, to the mainstreaming of cult audience behavior for high-rated programs today.

prereq: MEDIA 27100

3 hrs 3 cr.

2. Media Technologies, Industries, and Policies (6 credits from the following)

MEDIA 26000 - Internet and Society

GER 3/A
The Impact of the Internet on American and global society.

prereq: MEDIA 18000 or permission of instr.

3 hrs 3 cr.

MEDIA 36500 - Digital Copyright

GER 3/A
An introduction to the legal, economic and social principles at stake in the debate over copyright and digital technologies. The semester begins with an introduction to the basics of copyright law, the legal system, and legal research. Students then review some of the specifics of the digital copyright debate, including topics such as peer-to-peer trading, digital rights management, and third party liability for information service providers.

prereq: MEDIA 18000

3 hrs 3 cr.

MEDIA 37400 - Media, Sports, and Society

GER 3/A
Examination of the relationship between media and sports and their impact on society. Workings of the present-day sports-television-advertising complex, textual analysis of television sports productions.
MEDIA 38000 - History of Broadcasting

GER 3/A
Broadcasting's roots in industrialization and influence on modern society.

MEDIA 38300 - Popular Music and the Music Industry

GER 3/A
Exploration of social and cultural significance of popular music; history, structure, and economics of music industry. Particular emphasis on popular music from fifties to present.

MEDIA 39200 - Communications, Technology and Change

GER 3/A
Examination of media technologies, their development and their impact on quality and organization of human life.

MEDIA 39400 - Mass Communications and the Law

GER 3/A
Relationship of mass media to significant constitutional problems.

MEDIA 39600 - International Communications

GER 3/A
Examination and analysis of policy issues raised by structures, flows, and contents of international communications. Areas covered include print and TV news flows, transnational culture industries, telecommunications and the Internet. MEDIA 18000 is a prerequisite for all 200-, 300-, and 400-level MEDIA and MEDP courses.

3. News, Politics, and Propaganda (6 credits from the following)

MEDIA 21000 - Journalism and Society

GER 3A
This course focuses on industry issues and service to the public good. It is partly designed for students interested in careers in journalism, who can benefit from greater sophistication about the news industry. The course explores the way news is gathered and written, the way news organizations are structured and financed, and the way they relate to other forms of political and entertainment communication. It examines the ways that the news industry describes itself and its problems and surveys journalistic practice in different media, e.g. print, the Internet, etc. Many of the readings will be drawn from the news industry trade press as well as from cultural studies and media sociology. Students will be asked to address journalism as citizens, weighing the role of journalism in our democracy.

prereq: MEDIA 18000
3 hrs 3 cr.

MEDIA 31300 - The Culture of Publicity

GER 3/A
An in-depth historical understanding of public relations, social image-management, and opinion engineering in the U.S. MEDIA 18000 is a prerequisite for all 200-, 300-, and 400-level MEDIA and MEDP courses.

prereq: MEDIA 18000
3 hrs 3 cr.

MEDIA 37300 - Journalism as Literature

GER 3/A
An examination of the relationships between journalism and literature, including literary journalism, the journalistic prose of major imaginative writers, and the stylistic characteristics of hard news reporting.

prereq: MEDIA 18000
3 hrs 3 cr.

MEDIA 37500 - Media and Politics

GER 3/A
The impact of the electronic media on American politics.

prereq: MEDIA 18000
3 hrs 3 cr.

MEDIA 38000 - History of Broadcasting

GER 3/A
Broadcasting’s roots in industrialization and influence on modern society.

prereq: MEDIA 18000
3 hrs 3 cr.

MEDIA 38100 - Propaganda and the Mass Media

GER 3/A
Study of mass media (broadcast, film, print) as forms for propaganda.

prereq: MEDIA 18000
3 hrs 3 cr.

MEDIA 39000 - Broadcast Journalism
GER 3/A
Structure and operations of radio and television news in relation to social, political and economic institutions.
prereq: MEDIA 18000
3 hrs 3 cr.

MEDIA 39100 - History of Print Journalism

GER 3/A
Development of newspapers and magazines as social force.
prereq: MEDIA 18000
3 hrs 3 cr.

C. Elective Analytical or Production Courses at the 200-level or higher (6 cr.)

Media Studies BA: Emerging Media

Return to Media Studies - BA

The Emerging Media concentration gives students foundational knowledge in the theory and practice of digital media as a creative and investigative form of production. Students in this concentration may specialize in one of three advanced areas: Web Production, Interactive Media Production, and 3D Imaging Production. The curriculum interweaves technical instruction with aesthetic, communicative and cultural production and research to help a student establish a cohesive portfolio in new media.

A. Introductory Courses (9 cr.)

MEDIA 18000 - Introduction to Media Studies

GER 2/C
Social, political, and economic factors that determine and shape products of media organizations.
3 hrs 3 cr.

MEDP 15000 - Media and Film in a Digital Age

The first part of a 2-semester sequence that introduces students to the theoretical and practical fundamentals of film, video and digital media production in a lecture/lab format.
cross-listed FILMP 150
prereq: MEDIA 18000 or FILM 10100
4 hrs 3 cr.

MEDP 16000 - Media & Film in a Digital Age II

Second part of a 2-semester sequence that introduces students to the theoretical and practical fundamentals of film, video and digital media production in a lecture/lab format.
cross-listed FILMP 16000
prereq: MEDP/FILMP 15000
4 hrs 3 cr.
B. Required Production Courses (12 cr. within one track)

1. Web Production Track

MEDP 25000 - Digital Design and Usability

This course introduces students to the fundamentals of 2D design and interaction design for digital media. The class approaches the subject from a creative and conceptual perspective. Students choose which digital production tools are most effective to address specific creative design problems.

prereq: FILMP 15000/MEDP 15000 and FILMP 16000/MEDP 16000

3 hrs. 3 cr.

MEDP 28500 - Web Production I

An exploration of the production of Internet distributed media, primarily words and images distributed as Web pages, using HTML and image manipulation software.

prereq: MEDP/FILMP 15000

coreq: MEDP/FILMP 16000 (or MEDIA/FILM 16100)

3 hrs 3 cr.

MEDP 33100 - Web Production II

An exploration of the production of Internet-distributed media, especially animation, sound, and video, using GIF Animation, Flash, and sound tools.

prereq: MEDP 28500

3 hrs 3 cr.

2. Interactive Production Track

MEDP 25000 - Digital Design and Usability

This course introduces students to the fundamentals of 2D design and interaction design for digital media. The class approaches the subject from a creative and conceptual perspective. Students choose which digital production tools are most effective to address specific creative design problems.

prereq: FILMP 15000/MEDP 15000 and FILMP 16000/MEDP 16000

3 hrs. 3 cr.

Choose one course from the following:

MEDP 26000 - Introduction to 2D Animation

This hands-on class is an introduction to animation using 2D digital tools. Historical precursors to digital animation including experimental and animated film as well as contemporary animation will be screened. Class time will consist of screenings, in-class demonstration, production and critique.

prereq: MEDIA 18000, MEDP 15000, MEDP 16000

4 hrs. 3 cr.
MEDP 28100 - Portable Video Production

Elements of single-camera video production. Lectures and studio practicum

Material Fee: $20

prereq: MEDP/FILMP 15000

coreq: MEDP/FILMP 16000 (or MEDIA/FILM 15100)

3 hrs 3 cr.

MEDP 28500 - Web Production I

An exploration of the production of Internet distributed media, primarily words and images distributed as Web pages, using HTML and image manipulation software.

prereq: MEDP/FILMP 15000

coreq: MEDP/FILMP 16000 (or MEDIA/FILM 16100)

3 hrs 3 cr.

MEDP 34900 - Introduction to Physical Computing

This hands-on class is an introduction to electronics, circuit building and the programming of microcontrollers for the production of interactive creative works that may include installation and art objects.

prereq: MEDP 150, MEDP 160

MEDP 39900 - Special Topics in Advanced Media Production

Taught periodically, with topic listed in Schedule of Classes.

prereq: MEDIA 18000, others variable

3 hrs 3 cr.

3. Animation Track (two 200-level courses, two 300-level courses)

MEDP 26000 - Introduction to 2D Animation

This hands-on class is an introduction to animation using 2D digital tools. Historical precursors to digital animation including experimental and animated film as well as contemporary animation will be screened. Class time will consist of screenings, in-class demonstration, production and critique.

prereq: MEDIA 18000, MEDP 15000, MEDP 16000

4 hrs 3 cr.

Choose one of the following:

MEDP 25000 - Digital Design and Usability

This course introduces students to the fundamentals of 2D design and interaction design for digital media. The class approaches the subject from a creative and conceptual perspective. Students choose which digital production tools are most effective to address specific creative design problems.
MEDP 28100 - Portable Video Production

Elements of single-camera video production. Lectures and studio practicum

Material Fee: $20

prereq: MEDP/FILMP 15000

coreq: MEDP/FILMP 16000 (or MEDIA/FILM 15100)

3 hrs 3 cr.

MEDP 36000 - 3D Animation and Modeling

This hands-on production course will examine essential concepts and practices that form the basis of 3D animation. While this course primarily focuses on the use of 3D animation for linear video output, we will also explore the possibilities of this digital framework for other media and expressive forms, such as print, graphic novels, film making, and net-based art.

prereq: MEDP 15000, MEDP 16000, MEDIA 18000, MEDP 25000, MEDP 28500

3 hrs 3 cr.

Choose one of the following:

MEDP 36500 - 3D Virtual Environments

This course is an introduction to skills and creative approaches for the development of computer-generated 3D interactive virtual environments. Students will develop 3D virtual environments using standard 3D game design techniques and technologies. This class approaches the subject from both a technical and creative perspective. It gives students an introduction to the tools and techniques used to design 3D computer games and how those processes may be applied to create artistically focused work.

prereq: MEDP 36000

3 hrs 3 cr.

MEDP 39900 - Special Topics in Advanced Media Production

Taught periodically, with topic listed in Schedule of Classes.

prereq: MEDIA 18000, others variable

3 hrs 3 cr.

C. Elective Production Courses (6 cr.)

These may be any regular 200- or 300-level MEDP courses. Any regular 200- or 300-level FILMP course counts toward this requirement as well, though students may only count up to 6 credits total of FILM or FILMP classes toward the major.
D. Elective Analytical Courses (9 cr.)

Three analytical courses may be chosen from any analytical offering, however it is strongly recommended that students consider analytical courses in relation to their area of production.

E. Total (36 cr.)

Media Studies BA: General Media Studies Major

A. Required Introductory Courses (9 cr.)

MEDIA 18000 - Introduction to Media Studies

GER 2/C
Social, political, and economic factors that determine and shape products of media organizations.
3 hrs 3 cr.

MEDP 15000 - Media and Film in a Digital Age

The first part of a 2-semester sequence that introduces students to the theoretical and practical fundamentals of film, video and digital media production in a lecture/lab format.
cross-listed FILMP 150
prereq: MEDIA 18000 or FILM 10100
4 hrs 3 cr.

MEDP 16000 - Media & Film in a Digital Age II

Second part of a 2-semester sequence that introduces students to the theoretical and practical fundamentals of film, video and digital media production in a lecture/lab format.
cross-listed FILMP 16000
prereq: MEDP/FILMP 15000
4 hrs 3 cr.

B. Required Analytical Courses (9 cr.)

Students must take at least 9 credits of analytical courses. Any 200- and 300-level MEDIA courses may be used to meet this requirement. Any 200- or 300-level FILM course counts toward this requirement as well, though students may only count up to 6 credits total of FILM or FILMP classes toward the major. MEDP and FILMP courses do not count toward the analytical requirement.

C. Elective Analytical or Production Courses (18 cr.)
Students must take an additional 18 credits of analytical and/or production courses. These may be any 200- or 300-level MEDIA or MEDP courses. Any 200- or 300-level FILM or FILMP course counts toward this requirement as well, though students may only count up to 6 credits total of FILM or FILMP classes toward the major.

Minor in Film

Students who wish to minor in Film must complete a total of 15 credits in addition to Film 101, which is a prerequisite for all Film courses.

1. Prior to declaring a Film Minor, students must take FILM 10100.
2. Film Minors must then enroll in either FILM 21100 - Film History I: 1895-1942; 3 cr.) or FILM 21200 - Film History II: Since 1942; 3 cr. FILM 10100 is the prerequisite for both courses.
3. Once Film Minors complete this film history requirement, they must take two classes from the 200-level (6 crs. total) and two classes from the 300-level (6 crs. total). No film production classes (designated FILMP) are available to Film Minors, with the exception of Screenwriting I (FILMP 27600 - Screen Writing I - The Short (W)) and FILMP 37700 - Screen Writing II The Feature (W)). Film Minors must satisfy all other course prerequisites.

Minor in Media Studies

The Minor in Media Studies consists of five courses for a total of 15 credits. At least one 200-level course and at least one 300-level course are required. The other three courses can be at any level. Course prerequisites must be satisfied. Internships and independent studies do not count towards the minor.

Geography

About the Department

The department offers concentrations in urban geography; population/immigration/ethnicity; geographic information science; sustainability; earth systems science; environmental policy; and social studies and environmental education. Courses in all of these fields are valuable parts of a general liberal education, developing an awareness of earth phenomena and the role these play in people’s lives. Through integration of content knowledge, applied skills, and internships, our graduates are prepared for both graduate study and immediate employment in the public, private, and non-profit sectors.

Undergraduates can major in geography, environmental studies, or select options within the geography major that prepare them for temporary certification in New York State to teach social studies at grades K-12; and they may minor in geography, environmental studies or geology. The interdisciplinary major in environmental studies allows students to focus on environmental policy and management or earth systems science. Students may also complete a Five-Year BA/MA Program in Environmental Studies and Adolescent Education: Earth Science (Grade 7-12). This accelerated program is designed for highly qualified environmental studies majors who, by their sophomore year, decide to pursue a career in teaching earth science. In addition to comprehensive programs in residence, the department offers field courses in geography and environmental science in Hawaii, Argentina and the Catskill Mountains.
Revisions in the curricula within the Department of Geography that are currently under way may involve modifications in various requirements. Please consult with the department office for up-to-date information and requirements.

Environmental Earth Science Concentration

Return to: Return to Programs and Courses in Geography

Required courses - 22 credits (including Capstone)

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.
Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.
Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10600 - General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate the fundamental laws of chemistry. The course is equivalent one year of general chemistry laboratory.
Credit not given for CHEM 10600 and CHEM 10300 or CHEM 10500. Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200
coreq: CHEM 10400
6 hrs 3 cr.

GEOG 22600 - Environmental Conservation: Resource Management

GER 2/B
Introduces students to environmental studies with a focus on policy and management of resources. The course will examine issues pertaining to sustaining our resource base (biodiversity, food, soil, water and energy), a review of factors influencing sustainable use, and how humans have impacted these key elements of the natural system.

3 hrs 3 cr.

PGEOG 25000 - Earth System Science I

GER 3/B
In this course students learn to think of Earth as a system of several components that interact with each other, sometimes in very complicated ways. The components of the Earth system that will be considered include the atmosphere, the hydrosphere, the lithosphere, and the biosphere. While each of these components can, and should, be studied in more detail in separate courses, here the focus is on interactions between them.
prereq: at least one 100-level science course or perm instr. prereq or coreq: GEOL 10100 or PGEOG 13000 or GEOG 22600 or perm instr.
4 hrs 3.5 cr.

PGEOG 25100 - Earth System Science II

GER 3/B
The second part of a two-course sequence, students continue the objectives of PGEOG 25000, and learn about our planet as a system of interacting components, including the atmosphere, hydrosphere, lithosphere, and biosphere. This course focuses primarily on the biosphere, paleoclimates, and the Arctic climate system.
prereq: PGEO 25000 or perm instr.
4 hrs 3.5 cr.

Required Capstone Course - 3 credits

PGEOG 49000 - Honors in Environmental Studies
Open to upper Jr/Sr environmental studies majors only. Individual research to be carried out under faculty guidance. Results may be embodied in an honors essay or equivalent.

prereq: perm dept.
-or-

PGEOG 49800 - Internship in Environmental Studies

Open to qualified environmental studies majors and minors, upper Jr/Sr only. Opportunities for working in positions of responsibility in professional institutions for academic credit. See environmental studies faculty adviser.

1-4 cr.

Electives - 18 credits

A minimum of 18 credits from the list below. 12 credits must be taken at the 300-level or higher. Electives are not counted towards the minor requirements.

Note: It is strongly recommended that students take STAT 11300 - Elementary Probability and Statistics.

GEOL 20500 - Environmental Geology

GER 3/B
As human populations continue to grow, resource depletion and hazards will become more severe. Many decisions concerning the use of resources, such as water, soil, minerals, energy and space to live, will determine our standard of living and the quality of the environment. Scientific knowledge, combined with human values, will dictate these decisions. This course examines not only the way geological processes operate and impact society, but also how the earth system responds to human activity. The difficult problems associated with extracting enormous quantities of resources needed to sustain modern societies will be discussed. The course will also address ways humans can minimize the risks associated with hazardous earth processes. Quantitative analysis of selected topics will be introduced to provide a deeper understanding of the complexity of today’s environmental issues.

prereq: GEOL 10100
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOL 28000 - Marine Geology

GER 3/B
Marine Geology is the study of the seafloor. This course attempts to answer the questions “what?”, “where?”, “when?” and more importantly “how?” in order to better understand the processes that shape the ocean basins and determine the structure and composition of the oceanic crust. The main patterns of sediment distribution in the ocean basins and how sediments preserve a record of past climatic and sea-level changes will be explored. In addition, the role of fluids in ocean sediments and the oceanic crust will be examined. The seafloor sediments will be studied with a focus on their role in marine biogeochemical cycles.

prereq: GEOL 10200 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.
Fall

GEOL 38000 - Advanced Oceanography: Chemistry and Physics of the Oceans

GER 3/B
The oceans play a significant role in how the climate system responds to anthropogenic perturbations. To understand past, present and future climate, students need to know and understand the world ocean.

Oceanography is multidisciplinary. It offers an opportunity to review and to apply many of the concepts taught in the major traditional disciplines of physics, chemistry, biology and mathematics. This course will offer an in-depth tour of the complex study of oceanography and an introduction to quantitative methods in oceanography using Matlab. This science-based course requires students to learn and understand, and be willing to work with, physical and quantitative concepts. Students must be prepared to learn the basics of computer scripting/programming syntax and logic, one of the major skills to be acquired in this course.

prereq: one sem CHEM or PHYS, MATH 15000 or equiv.
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOL 38300 - Special Topics in Geology and Oceanography

GER 3/B
Intensive courses in various aspects of geology or oceanography. Topics to be announced.

prereq: 200-level course of which special topic is logical outgrowth; perm instr.
1-4 hrs (lec or lec/lab) 1-3 cr.

GTECH 20100 - Introduction to Geographic Methods

Introduces the means by which geographers analyze the world to better understand geography and geographical processes. It offers an introduction to various methods for interpreting and analyzing spatial data including, cartography, GIS, remote sensing, spatial statistics and survey research.

Material Fee: $15

prereq: GEOG 10100 or GEOG 15000 and MATH 10100 or equiv or perm instr.
6 hrs (2 lec, 4 lab) 4 cr.

Offered fall and spring.

GTECH 32100 - Remote Sensing of the Environment

Focuses on use of satellite images to study the environment and the physical processes involved in remote sensing to better understand the nature and properties of electromagnetic radiation and how it interacts with the atmosphere and the Earth’s surface and a wide variety of satellite sensors. These sensors make measurements in the optical, thermal and microwave electromagnetic spectrums and are used to study issues related to global environmental science and natural resource management. The course includes heavy lab components which will include practical assignments, field exercises, computer-based analysis of remotely-sensed images and the use of image processing software (ENVI) to analyze satellite images. Field measurements will be made in Central Park to facilitate better understanding satellite measurements.

Material Fee: $15

prereq: GTEC 32000 or perm instr.
4 hrs (2 lec, 2 lab) 3 cr.

GTECH 36100 - Geographic Information Science I

Covers the GIS production process from data modeling and acquisition to editing, analysis, and cartographic output. GTECH 710 addresses students from both geography and other disciplines. Lecture examples, as well as hands-on exercises cover a range of application areas. The course is divided into two equally important parts: lectures, which introduce the theory of GIScience, and lab exercises, which help students with many aspects of the software. The lectures discuss concepts, data, tools, and major aspects to assignments. The laboratory sessions introduce the geospatial data and software tools needed for accomplishing the assignments. They will start at a very basic level, requiring little more than elementary experience with the Windows operating system.

Material Fee: $15
PGEOG 31300 - Biogeography

GER 3/B

Provides an understanding of the geographic distribution and temporal variability of biological diversity over the face of the Earth and the biotic and abiotic factors and processes underlying these patterns and dynamics. Completion of PGEOG 25000/25100 and GTECH 37300 prior to enrollment is strongly recommended.

PGEOG 33200 - Introduction to Hydrology

GER 3/B

Designed to provide the basic understanding of how water on the Earth moves, distributes, circulates and interacts with the environment. Focus will be on hydrological processes including precipitation, evapotranspiration (evaporation and transpiration), soil water, ground water, and runoff, which form the complete water cycle at global, regional and watershed scales. The course will also cover some topics on how water responds to environmental changes and strategies of integrated water resources.

PGEOG 33500 - Urban and Metropolitan Coasts

GER 3/B

A systematic study of the natural and anthropogenic processes on urban coastal environments. Special emphasis on the coastline of the NY metropolitan area, with examples from coastal cities worldwide.

PGEOG 36100 - Global Climatic Change

GER 3/B

Open to Jr/Sr only. An intensive introduction to the study of climate change with emphasis on modern climate change, anthropogenic forcing and measured and predicted consequences of this forcing. Students will develop an understanding of natural climate forcing, natural variability and feedbacks in the climate system while concurrently studying the Earth’s climate history, and modern climate change.

PGEOG 36300 - Environmental Hazards

GER 3/B

The course, in response to actual and potential hazards, either natural or anthropogenic in origin, will investigate the processes that link fundamental social development to environmental processes that are influenced by human activities.
Natural hazards, in many cases, augment the environmental fragility of our society and the consideration of environmental hazards needs to be incorporated into management of climate variability, storms, droughts, floods, earthquakes, etc. An aim is to seek preventive measures and find solutions to act on environmental hazards on national and international levels.

prereq: P GEO 13000 or equiv. prereq or coreq: P GEOG 13000 or equiv.

3 hrs 3 cr.

P GEOG 38300 - Special Topics in Environmental Studies

GER 3/B
Open to Jr/Sr only. Topics to be announced.

prereq: GEOL 10500, GEOG 22600 or PGEOG 13000, one course of which special topic is logical outgrowth; perm instr.

1-4 hrs (lec or lec/lab) 1-3 cr.

Total credits 40

Environmental Management and Policy Concentration

Return to Programs and Courses in Geography

Required courses - 22 credits (including Capstone)

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.

Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.

5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.

Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair

CHEM 10600 - General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate the fundamental laws of chemistry. The course is equivalent one year of general chemistry laboratory.

Credit not given for CHEM 10600 and CHEM 10300 or CHEM 10500. Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

*prereq: CHEM 10200
coreq: CHEM 10400*

6 hrs 3 cr.
GEOG 22600 - Environmental Conservation: Resource Management

GER 2/B
Introduces students to environmental studies with a focus on policy and management of resources. The course will examine issues pertaining to sustaining our resource base (biodiversity, food, soil, water and energy), a review of factors influencing sustainable use, and how humans have impacted these key elements of the natural system.

3 hrs 3 cr.

PGEOG 25000 - Earth System Science I

GER 3/B
In this course students learn to think of Earth as a system of several components that interact with each other, sometimes in very complicated ways. The components of the Earth system that will be considered include the atmosphere, the hydrosphere, the lithosphere, and the biosphere. While each of these components can, and should, be studied in more detail in separate courses, here the focus is on interactions between them.

prereq: at least one 100-level science course or perm instr. prereq or coreq: GEOL 10100 or PGEOG 13000 or GEOG 22600 or perm instr.
4 hrs 3.5 cr.

PGEOG 25100 - Earth System Science II

GER 3/B
The second part of a two-course sequence, students continue the objectives of PGEOG 25000, and learn about our planet as a system of interacting components, including the atmosphere, hydrosphere, lithosphere, and biosphere. This course focuses primarily on the biosphere, paleoclimates, and the Arctic climate system.

prereq: PGEO 25000 or perm instr.
4 hrs 3.5 cr.

Required Capstone Course - 3 credits

PGEOG 49000 - Honors in Environmental Studies

Open to upper Jr/Sr environmental studies majors only. Individual research to be carried out under faculty guidance. Results may be embodied in an honors essay or equivalent.

prereq: perm dept.

-or-

PGEOG 49800 - Internship in Environmental Studies

Open to qualified environmental studies majors and minors, upper Jr/Sr only. Opportunities for working in positions of responsibility in professional institutions for academic credit. See environmental studies faculty adviser.
1-4 cr.

Electives - 18 credits

A minimum of 18 credits from the list of courses below. 12 credits must be taken at the 300-level or higher. Elective are not counted towards the minor requirements. Courses not listed may be included in a student’s concentration with permission of the ES adviser.
Note: It is strongly recommended that students take STAT 11300 Probability and Statistics.

COMHE 32500 - Environmental Public Health

Impact of environmental problems associated with urbanization, e.g., water quality, air and noise pollution, waste disposal and radiation hazards.

prereq: acceptance to the COMHE major, or permission of the instructor

3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOG 24100 - Population Geography

GER 3/B PD/B or C

Course will explore several critical issues such as the relationship between population growth and development; immigration and internal migration; how age, race and gender affect other demographic processes; and how and why these processes vary around the world. Additionally, students will examine the “mechanics” of computing population growth and change as well as different ways to visually display measures of population. Offered fall and spring.

prereq: GEOG 10100 or GEOG 15000 or perm instr.

3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOG 32800 - Urban Environmental Problems: Evaluations and Solutions

GER 3/B

Open to Jr/Sr only. The special environmental problems of urban and metropolitan areas will be studied, including water supplies, waste management, environmental impact and waterfront use. Natural physical processes, methodologies and techniques will be reviewed and applied to decision making. Transportation fee for field work may be required.

prereq: GEOG 101 or GEOG 150 or URBS 101 and Jr/Sr standing

3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOG 33500 - International Pollution Issues

GER 3/B

A study of international trans-boundary pollution and the science, source terms, transport pathways and international impacts of contamination events. The regional focus will change yearly pending current global environmental events.

prereq: GEOG 101 or GEOL 101 or PGEO 130 or perm instr.

3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOG 34100 - Urban Geography

GER 3/B

Open to Jr/Sr only. Spatial analysis of functions of metropolitan areas. Social and economic characteristics of cities and suburbs. Land use and transportation patterns.

prereq: GEOG 101 or GEOG 150 or perm instr, Jr/Sr only

3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOG 37000 - Geography of Sustainable Development in Developing Countries

GER 3/B PD/A

Reviews the theories and approaches of international development. Themes include development theory, availability and distribution of resources, population growth, food production, water supply and forestry. The course will also highlight the development and environmental problems that challenge the achievement of sustainable development such as population growth, food and world economic crises, increasing number of the poor and climate change. The course will provide students with theory, methods, problems and analysis of factors that influence sustainable development in developing countries.

prereq: one of the following: GEOG 10100, 15000, 27000, 27100, 27500, 27700 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOG 37100 - Rural Water Supply in Developing Regions

GER 3/B PD/A
Covers concepts, methods and analysis of rural water utilization and related problems and challenges in developing countries. It will discuss water management and quality and their relationship with sanitation and hygiene education. The course will also discuss methods of providing drinking water in a sustainable manner.

prereq: GEOG 10100, 15000, 27000, 27100, 27500, 27700 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOL 20500 - Environmental Geology

GER 3/B
As human populations continue to grow, resource depletion and hazards will become more severe. Many decisions concerning the use of resources, such as water, soil, minerals, energy and space to live, will determine our standard of living and the quality of the environment. Scientific knowledge, combined with human values, will dictate these decisions. This course examines not only the way geological processes operate and impact society, but also how the earth system responds to human activity. The difficult problems associated with extracting enormous quantities of resources needed to sustain modern societies will be discussed. The course will also address ways humans can minimize the risks associated with hazardous earth processes. Quantitative analysis of selected topics will be introduced to provide a deeper understanding of the complexity of today’s environmental issues.

prereq: GEOL 10100
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOL 33400 - Coastal Geomorphology

GER 3/B
A study of the basic processes shaping the coast and the resulting form; surficial morphology and internal geometry of such forms as cliffs, dunes, beaches and near shore bars. Map exercise and a one-day field trip.

prereq: GEOL 23100 or PGEO 23100 or equiv. or perm dept.
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOL 38300 - Special Topics in Geology and Oceanography

GER 3/B
Intensive courses in various aspects of geology or oceanography. Topics to be announced.

prereq: 200-level course of which special topic is logical outgrowth; perm instr.
1-4 hrs (lec or lec/lab) 1-3 cr.

GTECH 32100 - Remote Sensing of the Environment

Focuses on use of satellite images to study the environment and the physical processes involved in remote sensing to better understand the nature and properties of electromagnetic radiation and how it interacts with the atmosphere and the Earth’s surface and a wide variety of satellite sensors. These sensors make measurements in the optical, thermal and microwave electromagnetic spectrums and are used to study issues related to global environmental science and natural resource management. The course includes heavy lab components which will include practical assignments, field exercises, computer-based analysis of remotely-sensed images and the use of image processing software (ENVI) to analyze satellite images. Field measurements will be made in Central Park to facilitate better understanding satellite measurements.

Material Fee: $15

prereq: GTEC 32000 or perm instr.

4 hrs (2 lec, 2 lab) 3 cr.

GTECH 38500 - GIS Applications

Selected topics in GIS applications to human and physical geographic problems. See department for topics offered. May be repeated for credit as topics change.

Material Fee: $15

prereq: GTEC 20100 or equiv.

3 hrs 3 cr.

PGEOG 31300 - Biogeography

GER 3/B

Provides an understanding of the geographic distribution and temporal variability of biological diversity over the face of the Earth and the biotic and abiotic factors and processes underlying these patterns and dynamics. Completion of PGEOG 25000/25100 and GTECH 37300 prior to enrollment is strongly recommended.

prereq: PGEOG 13000, GEOG 10100 or BIOL 10000/10200

3 hrs 3 cr.

PGEOG 33500 - Urban and Metropolitan Coasts

GER 3/B

A systematic study of the natural and anthropogenic processes on urban coastal environments. Special emphasis on the coastline of the NY metropolitan area, with examples from coastal cities worldwide.

prereq or coreq: Prereq: GEOL 10100 or GEOG 10100

3 hrs 3 cr.

PGEOG 36100 - Global Climatic Change

GER 3/B

Open to Jr/Sr only. An intensive introduction to the study of climate change with emphasis on modern climate change, anthropogenic forcing and measured and predicted consequences of this forcing. Students will develop an understanding of natural climate forcing, natural variability and feedbacks in the climate system while concurrently studying the Earth’s climate history, and modern climate change.

prereq: PGEO 13000 or GEOL 10100 or 10500

3 hrs 3 cr.

PGEOG 36300 - Environmental Hazards

GER 3/B
The course, in response to actual and potential hazards, either natural or anthropogenic in origin, will investigate the processes that link fundamental social development to environmental processes that are influenced by human activities. Natural hazards, in many cases, augment the environmental fragility of our society and the consideration of environmental hazards needs to be incorporated into management of climate variability, storms, droughts, floods, earthquakes, etc. An aim is to seek preventive measures and find solutions to act on environmental hazards on national and international levels.

*prereq: PGE 0 13000 or equiv. *prereq or *coreq: PGE 0 0 13000 or equiv.

3 hrs 3 cr.

PGE 0 0 38300 - Special Topics in Environmental Studies

GER 3/B
Open to Jr/Sr only. Topics to be announced.
*prereq: GEOL 10500, GEOG 22600 or PGE 0 0 13000, one course of which special topic is logical outgrowth; perm instr.
1-4 hrs (lec or lec/lab) 1-3 cr.

POLSC 24400 - Energy and Environmental Politics and Public Policy (W)

GER 3/B
Examination of political processes and public policies shaping energy production and consumption in the U.S. with comparative reference to other countries. Emphasis on political, economic, social, environmental and foreign policy aspects.
*prereq: ENGL 12000 or its equivalent
3 hrs 3 cr.

SOC 36100 - Development and Modernization (W)

GER 3/B PD/A
Examinations of models of social change with a special focus on developing countries.
*prereq: SOC 10100
3 hrs 3 cr.

URBS 31000 - Methods of Urban Research and Policy Analysis

GER 3/B
Survey of research skills necessary for analysis of contemporary urban issues. Includes review of data sources, methods of forecasting, use of computer, and methods of information presentation.
*prereq: URBS 10200 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

URBS 40100 - Managing Urban Physical Environment

GER 3/B
Advanced study of the physical structure of cities which includes an analysis of zoning, land use, transportation, and the location of housing. The role of public and private agencies at local, state, and national levels in the planning and management of the physical environment is also considered.

*prereq: URBS 20100 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.
Total credits 40

Note(s):

*Graduate course. See 2006-2009 graduate catalog. Available to upper seniors or with instructor permission. Students who wish to take a 700-level course to satisfy the major must obtain permission from both the environmental studies adviser and the offering department.

Environmental Studies - BA

The major offers two concentrations which are organized to promote an intensive understanding of contemporary physical science, specifically earth system science as it relates to environmental issues, and an intensive understanding of a system-based approach to the dynamic nature of human-environmental interactions particularly as manifest in contemporary politics and economics. The concentrations are Environmental Earth Science and Environmental Management and Policy. It is suggested that students select a concentration as they enter the major with the understanding that the choice is not final at this stage and students can switch concentrations as they advance in the program. To aid in this process, the curriculum offers a common core of required courses, as well as sufficient overlap within the required elective courses. It is strongly recommended that students considering this major meet with the adviser to discuss their interests and program of studies as courses may be added or deleted as the college’s and department’s offerings change. One or more courses not listed below may be included in a student’s concentration with the advice and consent of the adviser.

A. Environmental Earth Science Concentration
B. Environmental Management and Policy Concentration

Internships

Students can receive from one to four credits for internships in government agencies, consumer and activist groups, business and industry and media organizations involved in energy issues (e.g., Council on the Environment of NYC, Energy Task Force, NY State Assembly, Sierra Club, International EartheCare Center, NY State Department of Energy, Brooklyn Union Gas, NYC Department of Environmental Protection and the American Museum of Natural History).

Minor in Environmental Studies

A minor in environmental studies consists of a minimum of 12 credits as follows

one course selected from

PGEOG 13000 - Weather and Climate

GER 2/E

Offers a basic understanding of how weather systems form, why certain regions have particular types of weather patterns, and what is known about climatic fluctuations across the globe. This includes an understanding of the basic physical principals that determine: how hot or cold a particular location is; how seasonal cycles vary in different parts of the world; and the types and amounts of precipitation. Students learn to analyze several types of weather maps and acquire a basic understanding of central issues related to global climate change, one of the most significant environmental issues of our time.

Material Fee: $5
GEOL 10100 - Fundamentals of Geology

GER 2/E
Describes the earth and the forces that shape it. Topics of discussion will be the formation of the earth, plate tectonics, earth materials and geologic time. The goals of the course include introducing students to geology, "systems thinking", the methods of scientific inquiry. Lab: study of minerals, rocks, maps. Field trips may be required; transportation fee.

GEOL 10500 - Introduction to Environmental Geoscience

GER 2E non-lab
Introduction to environmental geoscience focusing on aspects of global change and the interrelationship of earth systems. Review of the evolution of the earth from its origins to potential future developments; environmental problems and issues.

prereq: ENGL 12000

3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOL 18000 - Introduction to Oceanography

GER 2/E
Dynamic processes are responsible for the ocean’s influence on our environment and life cycles on earth. The course introduces students to the broad field of oceanography and specifically identifies areas which are of concern on both local and global scales. The origins of the oceans and life as it exists in today’s ocean will be covered. Lectures will include the sub-disciplines of biological, chemical, physical, and geological oceanography and concepts that relate to continental margins, ocean basins, sediments and seafloor spreading. Emphasis will be given to the interaction between the circulation of the atmosphere and ocean surface currents, deep ocean circulation, waves and tides. The coastal zone as a fragile environment will be highlighted in connection with dynamic physical and biological processes. No lab component.

3 hrs 3 cr.

Offered fall and spring.

and at least one course (minimum of 3 credits) selected from

PGEOG 25000 - Earth System Science I

GER 3/B
In this course students learn to think of Earth as a system of several components that interact with each other, sometimes in very complicated ways. The components of the Earth system that will be considered include the atmosphere, the hydrosphere, the lithosphere, and the biosphere. While each of these components can, and should, be studied in more detail in separate courses, here the focus is on interactions between them.

4 hrs 3.5 cr.

PGEOG 25100 - Earth System Science II
GER 3/B
The second part of a two-course sequence, students continue the objectives of PGEOG 25000, and learn about our planet as a system of interacting components, including the atmosphere, hydrosphere, lithosphere, and biosphere. This course focuses primarily on the biosphere, paleoclimates, and the Arctic climate system.
prereq: PGEO 25000 or perm instr.
4 hrs 3.5 cr.

GEOG 22600 - Environmental Conservation: Resource Management

GER 2/B
Introduces students to environmental studies with a focus on policy and management of resources. The course will examine issues pertaining to sustaining our resource base (biodiversity, food, soil, water and energy), a review of factors influencing sustainable use, and how humans have impacted these key elements of the natural system.
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOL 28000 - Marine Geology

GER 3/B
Marine Geology is the study of the seafloor. This course attempts to answer the questions “what?”, “where?”, “when?” and more importantly “how?” in order to better understand the processes that shape the ocean basins and determine the structure and composition of the oceanic crust. The main patterns of sediment distribution in the ocean basins and how sediments preserve a record of past climatic and sea-level changes will be explored. In addition, the role of fluids in ocean sediments and the oceanic crust will be examined. The seafloor sediments will be studied with a focus on their role in marine biogeochemical cycles.
prereq: GEOL 10200 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.
Fall

GTECH 20100 - Introduction to Geographic Methods

Introduces the means by which geographers analyze the world to better understand geography and geographical processes. It offers an introduction to various methods for interpreting and analyzing spatial data including, cartography, GIS, remote sensing, spatial statistics and survey research.

Material Fee: $15
prereq: GEOG 10100 or GEOG 15000 and MATH 10100 or equiv or perm instr.
6 hrs (2 lec, 4 lab) 4 cr.
Offered fall and spring.

and

• at least one course (minimum of 3 credits) from the 300-level approved electives listed in the college catalog under either the environmental studies program’s Concentration A Environmental Earth Science Concentration or Concentration B Environmental Management and Policy Concentration).

Minor in Geology

A minor in geology consists of 12 credits selected from GEOL prefix courses
PGEOG 23100 - Physical Geography II: Principles of Geomorphology

See GEOL 23100

PGEOG 33400 - Coastal Geomorphology See GEOL 33400

See GEOL 33400

GTECH 35000 - Field Topographic Surveying

Field use of surveying equipment. Notebook and computer data collection relating to horizontal and vertical location on the landscape, including the use of global positioning systems. Field record-keeping and preliminary analysis of results. Fee for transportation, accommodations and food allowance required.

prereq: GTEC 20100, perm instr.
90 hrs of field/lab work (1 day lab, 10 days field) 3 cr.
Offered summer intersession (check with dept. in April).

Additional Information

If after taking a number of geology courses at Hunter, a student wishes to concentrate in geology, it is recommended that the student transfer to a unit of CUNY offering a geology major or take courses on permit at other CUNY units as elective credits.

Preparation for Graduate Work in Teaching Earth Science

For students planning to pursue an MA degree for teachers of earth science, grades 7-12, it is recommended that they complete the following undergraduate work: a baccalaureate degree with a grade point average of 2.8 or better in their science courses and in their overall undergraduate work; a major of at least 30 credits in arts and sciences.

At least 21 credits in

- geology,
- physical geography,
- earth science or environmental science, including geographic techniques;
- general education core in the liberal arts and sciences that includes
  - 6 credits in English,
  - 6 credits in mathematics/technology,
  - 6 credits in social studies (to include at least one course in U.S. history or geography),
  - 6 credits in the arts and
  - 6 credits in a language other than English.

It is recommended, but not required, that the criteria above be satisfied using

- electives selected from GEOL, PGEOG and GTECH courses;
- a minor in geology;
• GER core requirement laboratory science chosen from o chemistry,
  o physics or o biology and
• GER core requirement non-laboratory science chosen from o astronomy,
  o oceanography,
  o statistics or mathematics.

For further information on the education requirements, students should see an adviser in the School of Education.

Honors Work and Individual Study

To graduate with departmental honors, a major in the geography or environmental studies program must be admitted to

GEOG 49000 - Honors in Geography

Upper Jr/Sr geography majors only. Individual research to be carried on under faculty guidance. Results must be embodied in an honors essay or equivalent.

prereq: perm dept.

1 sem 3 cr.

Fieldwork

Several courses offer students an opportunity to study geography, geology and environmental situations in the field.
They are usually offered during intersession periods, summer session or on weekends (consult Schedule of Classes).
In addition to the regular field courses, special-topic field courses are offered periodically and fieldwork is conducted in connection with a number of the other courses.
The department participates in the Study Abroad Program.
It offers a field geography of selected world regions course (check with adviser for current location).
An additional fee for transportation, lodging and food allowance is attached to these courses, depending on the focus of the course and its itinerary.

Graduate Study
Graduate-level courses may be taken for credit toward the bachelor’s degree by highly qualified seniors. Written permission must be obtained from the undergraduate and graduate advisers.

Intern Program

Internship provides opportunities for qualified majors and minors in both geography and environmental studies to work in positions of responsibility in professional institutions while earning from 1 to 4 academic credits. See a departmental adviser for details.

GEOG 49800 - Internship

Open to qualified geography majors and minors, upper Jr/Sr only. Opportunities for working in positions of responsibility in professional institutions for academic credit. See undergraduate adviser.

Five-Year BA/MA Program in Environmental Studies and Adolescent Education: Earth Science (Grade 7-12)

return to Geography

Students who major in Environmental Studies may also want to complete a sequence of courses that will enable them to pursue a career teaching earth science in grades 7-12. The BA/MA program in Environmental Studies and Adolescent Education: Earth Science is designed to prepare prospective teachers to serve as high-quality educators for adolescents in urban schools.

This is an accelerated program leading to a BA in Environmental Studies and an MA in Adolescent Education: Earth Science. The program is designed for highly qualified Environmental Studies majors who, during their sophomore year, decide to pursue a career in secondary school teaching. This program will ensure that these students receive all of their pedagogical and disciplinary training before entering the classroom to teach. Students who complete the 134 credit program will have satisfied the coursework requirements for teacher certification. The 18 elective credits required for the Environmental Studies degree must emphasize atmospheric systems, earth systems, water systems, or geological systems.

For students in this BA/MA program, the 18 credit elective portion of the Environmental Earth Science Concentration major must include GEOL 102, PGEOG 130, ASTRO 100/107 or, after spring 2011, ASTRO 101, and a minimum of 9 undergraduate credits selection from 200- and 300-level GEOL, PGEOG, and GTECH courses (with the exception of GTECH 201), and the independent study, honors, and internship courses in each of these series.

Students interested in this program should speak to an adviser in the Department of Geography during their sophomore year to review the curriculum path for the five-year program. And students should also speak to an adviser in the School of Education as soon as possible.
Admission to the School of Education is not automatic with admission to Hunter College. There is a separate admission process that involves a paper application, a writing sample, and an interview.

Required Courses

ASTRO 10100 - Basic Concepts of Astronomy with Laboratory Exercises

GER 2/E with lab

An introductory, one-semester astronomy course designed for non-science majors. Topics include: basic observational features of the night sky, and their explanations; Kepler’s laws of planetary motion; Newton's laws of motion and gravitation. Properties of light, and how it reveals the nature of its source. Origin, properties, and evolution of our solar system. The origin and evolution of stars, including giants, dwarfs, supernovae, neutron stars, and black holes. Structure of The Milky Way and other type of galaxies. Cosmology, Hubble's Law and the expanding universe, from the Big Bang to the present; future scenarios.

The lab consists of traditional hardware experiments and virtual online experiments.

Students taking this course will be required to submit online and hard-copy laboratory reports.

5 hrs 4 cr.

-or-

ASTRO 10700 - Laboratory Exercises in Astronomy

GER 2/E

Classroom and online experimental laboratory exercises in astronomy to observe the major features of the night sky, demonstrate the physical basis of astronomical instruments, and experiment with astronomical phenomena. Only offered to students who have previously taken ASTRO 100 which is no longer offered [ASTRO 100 + ASTRO 107 are replaced by ASTRO 10100].

prereq or coreq: ASTRO 10000

2 hrs 1 cr.

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E

In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.

Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.

5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

and

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E

In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.

Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair

5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10600 - General Chemistry Laboratory
GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate the fundamental laws of chemistry. The course is equivalent one year of general chemistry laboratory.
Credit not given for CHEM 10600 and CHEM 10300 or CHEM 10500. Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200
coreq: CHEM 10400
6 hrs 3 cr.

BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I
GER 2/E PD/C or D
The chemical basis of life; basic structure and function of pro- and eucaryotic cells; bioenergetics; Mendelian and molecular genetics; development and mechanisms of control of gene expression at all levels; population genetics and evolution.
Material Fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equivalent
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

BIOL 10200 - Principles of Biology II
GER 2/E PD/C or D
Taxonomy; homeostasis; internal transport and gas exchange in plants and animals; plant hormones; osmoregulation; mechanisms of action in the muscular, nervous and neuroendocrine systems; the senses, behavior; ecology.
Material fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
prereq: BIOL 10000 or perm instr, MATH 10100 or equiv.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
spring only

GEOG 22600 - Environmental Conservation: Resource Management
GER 2/B
Introduces students to environmental studies with a focus on policy and management of resources. The course will examine issues pertaining to sustaining our resource base (biodiversity, food, soil, water and energy), a review of factors influencing sustainable use, and how humans have impacted these key elements of the natural system.
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOL 18000 - Introduction to Oceanography
GER 2/E
Dynamic processes are responsible for the ocean’s influence on our environment and life cycles on earth. The course introduces students to the broad field of oceanography and specifically identifies areas which are of concern on both local and global scales. The origins of the oceans and life as it exists in today's ocean will be covered. Lectures will include the sub-disciplines of biological, chemical, physical, and geological oceanography and concepts that relate to continental margins, ocean basins, sediments and seafloor spreading. Emphasis will be given to the interaction between the circulation of the atmosphere and ocean surface currents, deep ocean circulation, waves and tides. The coastal zone as a fragile environment will be highlighted in connection with dynamic physical and biological processes. No lab component.

3 hrs 3 cr.
Offered fall and spring.

GEOL 10100 - Fundamentals of Geology

GER 2/E
Describes the earth and the forces that shape it. Topics of discussion will be the formation of the earth, plate tectonics, earth materials and geologic time. The goals of the course include introducing students to geology, "systems thinking", the methods of scientific inquiry. Lab: study of minerals, rocks, maps. Field trips may be required; transportation fee.

6 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab) 4.5 cr.
Offered fall and spring.

GEOL 10200 - Plate Tectonics and the Earth's Evolution

GER 2/E
The second course in geology offered to non-geology majors. It is designed to familiarize students with the main concepts used in deciphering and interpreting earth’s evolution from the spatial and temporal perspective. Topics to be covered include: geologic time; geological principles; earth materials as recorders of past geologic processes; depositional environments and sedimentary rock record; igneous and metamorphic geologic environments and their rock records; evolution of the solar system; plate tectonics and life on earth; origin of the universe; life on earth and the fossil record; Precambrian, Paleozoic, Mesozoic, and Cenozoic life, history and tectonics. Field trips may be required; transportation fee.

prereq: GEOL 10100
5 hrs (3 lec, 2 lab) 4 cr.
Offered fall.

GEOL 20500 - Environmental Geology

GER 3/B
As human populations continue to grow, resource depletion and hazards will become more severe. Many decisions concerning the use of resources, such as water, soil, minerals, energy and space to live, will determine our standard of living and the quality of the environment. Scientific knowledge, combined with human values, will dictate these decisions. This course examines not only the way geological processes operate and impact society, but also how the earth system responds to human activity. The difficult problems associated with extracting enormous quantities of resources needed to sustain modern societies will be discussed. The course will also address ways humans can minimize the risks associated with hazardous earth processes. Quantitative analysis of selected topics will be introduced to provide a deeper understanding of the complexity of today’s environmental issues.

prereq: GEOL 10100
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOL 28000 - Marine Geology

GER 3/B
Marine Geology is the study of the seafloor. This course attempts to answer the questions “what?”, “where?”, “when?” and more importantly “how?” in order to better understand the processes that shape the ocean basins and determine the structure and composition of the oceanic crust. The main patterns of sediment distribution in the ocean basins and how sediments preserve a record of past climatic and sea-level changes will be explored. In addition, the role of fluids in ocean sediments and the oceanic crust will be examined. The seafloor sediments will be studied with a focus on their role in marine biogeochemical cycles.

prereq: GEOL 10200 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.
Fall

MATH 12500 - Precalculus

GER 1/B
Functions and their graphs: polynomial, rational, exponential, logarithmic and trigonometric functions; conic sections; topics in trigonometry; graphical and analytical solutions to systems of equations and inequalities. Not credited to students who have completed MATH 15000 or its equivalent.

prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 10100 or appropriate score on placement exam
4 hrs 4 cr.

PGEOG 13000 - Weather and Climate

GER 2/E
Offers a basic understanding of how weather systems form, why certain regions have particular types of weather patterns, and what is known about climatic fluctuations across the globe. This includes an understanding of the basic physical principals that determine: how hot or cold a particular location is; how seasonal cycles vary in different parts of the world; and the types and amounts of precipitation. Students learn to analyze several types of weather maps and acquire a basic understanding of central issues related to global climate change, one of the most significant environmental issues of our time.

Material Fee: $ 5
5 hrs (3 lec, 2 lab) 4 cr.
Offered in the Fall and Spring

PGEOG 25000 - Earth System Science I

GER 3/B
In this course students learn to think of Earth as a system of several components that interact with each other, sometimes in very complicated ways. The components of the Earth system that will be considered include the atmosphere, the hydrosphere, the lithosphere, and the biosphere. While each of these components can, and should, be studied in more detail in separate courses, here the focus is on interactions between them.

prereq: at least one 100-level science course or perm instr. prereq or coreq: GEOL 10100 or PGEOG 13000 or GEOG 22600 or perm instr.
4 hrs 3.5 cr.

PGEOG 25100 - Earth System Science II

GER 3/B
The second part of a two-course sequence, students continue the objectives of PGEOG 25000, and learn about our planet as a system of interacting components, including the atmosphere, hydrosphere, lithosphere, and biosphere. This course focuses primarily on the biosphere, paleoclimates, and the Arctic climate system.

prereq: PGEO 25000 or perm instr.
4 hrs 3.5 cr.

PGEOG 49000 - Honors in Environmental Studies
Open to upper Jr/Sr environmental studies majors only. Individual research to be carried out under faculty guidance. Results may be embodied in an honors essay or equivalent.

\textit{prereq: perm dept.}

- or -

\textbf{PGEOG 49800 - Internship in Environmental Studies}

Open to qualified environmental studies majors and minors, upper Jr/Sr only. Opportunities for working in positions of responsibility in professional institutions for academic credit. See environmental studies faculty adviser.

\textit{1-4 cr.}

- Major Electives 6-8 credits
- Graduate Courses (see graduate catalog)

\section*{Geography - BA}

Students who expect to do graduate work in geography are advised to take courses in statistics and/or computer science. We suggest, but do not require, that those planning to continue to the doctoral level fulfill the GER Foreign Language Requirement with the language of the area of regional specialization.

\section*{Major in Geography (30 cr)}

\textbf{PGEOG 13000 - Weather and Climate}

\textit{GER 2/E}

Offers a basic understanding of how weather systems form, why certain regions have particular types of weather patterns, and what is known about climatic fluctuations across the globe. 5 hrs (3 lec, 2 lab) 4 cr.
Offered in the Fall and Spring

GTECH 20100 - Introduction to Geographic Methods

Introduces the means by which geographers analyze the world to better understand geography and geographical processes. It offers an introduction to various methods for interpreting and analyzing spatial data including, cartography, GIS, remote sensing, spatial statistics and survey research.

Material Fee: $15
prereq: GEOG 10100 or GEOG 15000 and MATH 10100 or equiv or perm instr.

6 hrs (2 lec, 4 lab) 4 cr.
Offered fall and spring.

GEOG 22100 - Economic Geography

GER 2/B
An introduction to the sub-discipline of economic geography, which will include an exploration of the history of both economics and geography, and a rigorous global approach to the subjects. Students will come to understand the history of the development of economic thought, leading up to, and transformed, by today’s crisis, as well as the particularly geographical nature of economic phenomena and processes, and the immense contributions geographers have made to the understanding of economics. Course focus is on the dominant form of global economic activity today, which is capitalistic, and the way this economic structure plays out through different geographies at different historical moments in time.
Not open to freshmen
prereq: GEOG 10100 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.
Offered fall and spring

- One regional geography course (3 cr)

Additional Information

A minimum of 15 additional credits consisting of 0-6 credits selected from 200-level courses with a PGEOG, GTECH, GEOG or GEOL prefix; and a minimum of 9 credits selected from 300-level courses with a PGEOG, GTECH or GEOG prefix (except GEOG 39100, GEOG 39200 and GEOG 39300 and PGEOG 39100 PGEOG 39200 and PGEOG 39300 ) or LACS 33000.

It is recommended, but not required, that geography majors use the following to satisfy a portion of the General Education Requirement.

Note that GEOG 10100 is a prerequisite to GEOG 22100, but does not count toward the major.

GEOL 10100 - Fundamentals of Geology

GER 2/E
Describes the earth and the forces that shape it. Topics of discussion will be the formation of the earth, plate tectonics, earth materials and geologic time. STAT 11300 - Elementary Probability and Statistics

GER 1/B
Not open to students who have completed STAT 21300 or PSYCH 24800. Not credited for majors in statistics or mathematics unless minor is elementary education. An introduction to applied statistics and statistical computing. Hands-on data analysis. Graphical inference. The five number summary, box plots, scatterplots, normal probability plots. Elementary probability. Statistical estimation and hypothesis testing. Linear regression. Students are expected to analyze real data sets and write reports. Students who have taken calculus or place into calculus by the placement exam should take STAT 21300 instead of STAT 11300.

prereq: A grade of C or better in MATH 10100 or appropriate score on placement exam
prereq or coreq: ENGL 12000
3 hrs 3 cr.

-or-

STAT 21300 - Introduction to Applied Statistics

GER 1/B

prereq: MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Minors for Geography Majors

A minor course of study is no longer required at Hunter College. However, geography majors can elect to minor in any field of their choice. It is recommended, but not required, that the chosen field be related to the student’s principal interest(s) in geography, and that the student consult with the Geography Undergraduate Adviser prior to selection of a minor course of study.

Minor in Geography

A minor in geography consists of a minimum of 12 credits chosen from undergraduate courses that have a GEOG, PGEOG or GTECH prefix. Prerequisites may apply. Thoughtful selection of courses may result in a minor program of study that will enhance the student’s major. It is recommended that prospective geography minors consult with the geography undergraduate adviser concerning course selection.

Minor in Geology

A minor in geology consists of a minimum of 12 credits selected from courses with a GEOL prefix, or PGEOG 23100, or PGEOG 33400, or GTECH 35000. Prerequisites may apply. It is recommended that prospective geology minors consult with an undergraduate adviser from the Department of Geography.

Minor in Environmental Studies

A minor consists of a minimum of 12 credits as follows:

- one course selected from PGEOG 13000, GEOL 10100, GEOL 10500, GEOL 18000; and
- at least one course (minimum of 3 credits) selected from PGEOG 25000, PGEOG 25100*, GEOG 22600, GEOL 28000, or GTECH 20100; and
- at least one course (minimum of 3 credits) from the 300-level approved electives listed in the college catalog under either the environmental studies program’s Concentration A (Environmental Earth Science) or Concentration B (Environmental Management and Policy).

*PGEOG 25000 is a prerequisite for PGEOG 25100

Options in Social Studies Education within the Geography Major

The Department of Geography and the School of Education provide opportunities for students to prepare for a career in teaching social studies in grades 1-6 (Childhood Education) or in grades 7-12 (Adolescent Education).

1. Option in Social Studies within the Geography Major for Childhood Education Teachers

2. Option in Social Studies within the Geography Major for Adolescent Education Teachers

Honors Work and Individual Study

To graduate with departmental honors, a major in the geography or environmental studies program must be admitted to the following and have a 3.0 cumulative GPA and a 3.5 GPA in the major.

GEOG 49000 - Honors in Geography

Upper Jr/Sr geography majors only. Individual research to be carried on under faculty guidance. Results must be embodied in an honors essay or equivalent.

prereq: perm dept.

1 sem 3 cr.

PGEOG 49000 - Honors in Environmental Studies

Open to upper Jr/Sr environmental studies majors only. Individual research to be carried out under faculty guidance. Results may be embodied in an honors essay or equivalent.

prereq: perm dept.

The following courses
Also offer students the opportunity of undertaking individual research in geography, geology or environmental studies.

GEOG 39100 - Individual Study in Geography

Individual studies and readings, with lab or fieldwork where appropriate, carried out under faculty guidance.

prereq: 2 sem of geography, perm dept.

1-3 cr

GEOG 39200 - Individual Study in Geography

Individual studies and readings, with lab or fieldwork where appropriate, carried out under faculty guidance.

Fieldwork

Several courses offer students an opportunity to study geography, geology and environmental situations in the field. They are usually offered during intersession periods, summer session or on weekends (consult Schedule of Classes). In addition to the regular field courses, special-topic field courses are offered periodically and fieldwork is conducted in connection with a number of the other courses. The department participates in the Education Abroad Program. It offers a field geography of selected world regions course (check with adviser for current location). An additional fee for transportation, lodging and food allowance is attached to these courses, depending on the focus of the course and its itinerary.

Graduate Study

Graduate-level courses may be taken for credit toward the bachelor’s degree by highly qualified seniors. Written permission must be obtained from the undergraduate and graduate advisers.

Intern Program

Internship provides opportunities for qualified majors and minors in both geography and environmental studies to work in positions of responsibility in professional institutions while earning from 1 to 4 academic credits. See a departmental adviser for details.

GEOG 49800 - Internship

Open to qualified geography majors and minors, upper Jr/Sr only. Opportunities for working in positions of responsibility in professional institutions for academic credit. See undergraduate adviser.

1-4 cr.

PGEOG 49800 - Internship in Environmental Studies

Open to qualified environmental studies majors and minors, upper Jr/Sr only. Opportunities for working in positions of responsibility in professional institutions for academic credit. See environmental studies faculty adviser.

1-4 cr.

Minor in Environmental Studies

A minor in environmental studies consists of a minimum of 12 credits as follows:

- one course selected from PGEOG 13000 , GEOL 10100 , GEOL 10500 , GEOL 18000 ; and
- at least one course (minimum of 3 credits) selected from PGEOG 25000 , PGEOG 25100 *, GEOG 22600 , GEOL 28000 , or GTECH 20100 ; and
• at least one course (minimum of 3 credits) from the 300-level approved electives listed in the college catalog under either the environmental studies program’s Concentration A (Environmental Earth Science) or Concentration B (Environmental Management and Policy).

*PGeoG 25000 is a prerequisite for PGeoG 25100

Minor in Geography

A minor in geography consists of a minimum of 12 credits chosen from undergraduate courses that have a GEOG, PGeoG or GTEC prefix. Prerequisites may apply. Thoughtful selection of courses may result in a minor program of study that will enhance the student’s major. It is recommended that prospective geography minors consult with the geography undergraduate adviser concerning course selection.

Minor in Geology

A minor in geology consists of a minimum of 12 credits selected from courses with a GEOL prefix, or PGeoG 23100, or PGeoG 33400, or GTECH 35000. Prerequisites may apply. It is recommended that prospective geology minors consult with an undergraduate adviser from the Department of Geography.

Option in Social Studies within the Geography Major for Adolescent Education Teachers

Return to: Geography - BA

In cooperation with the School of Education, the Department of Geography provides opportunities for students to prepare for a career in teaching social studies in grades 7 – 12. In addition to mandatory course work provided by the School of Education, interested students must complete the course of study outlined below. At least 18 credits of these courses or equivalents must be satisfactorily completed (grade of C or better) before the student enrolls in the social studies methods courses. Refer to the catalog section specific to programs in the School of Education.

Transfer students who enter Hunter College with more than 90 credits or who will exceed 90 credits in completing the prerequisites for this option in the Geography major, cannot apply for the Adolescent Education program of the School of Education. They may still complete this option within the Geography major but must complete a Master of Arts degree in Adolescent Education before certification as a New York State teacher. While New York State recognizes the regular major in Geography for certification in Childhood Education, students interested in becoming certified as Social Studies-Adolescent Education teachers in New York State must complete this interdisciplinary course of study.

Prerequisites for the Major 9 credits

HIST 15100 - The United States from the Colonial Era to the Civil War (W)

GER 1/C or 2/B
American political, social and cultural history from the time of the European settlements to the Civil War.
Courses at the 300-level and above not offered to freshmen.
prereq or coreq: ENGL 12000
3 hrs 3 cr.

HIST 15200 - The United States from the Civil War Era to the Present (W)
GER 1/C or 2/B
American political, social and cultural history from the Civil War to the present.
Courses at the 300-level and above not offered to freshmen.
prereq or coreq: ENGL 12000
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOG 15000 - World Regional Geography

GER 2/B PD/A or D
A survey of the world’s major regions. Geographic concepts and principles are used to study the physical, economic, social and political conditions and problems in the culturally diverse world. Spatial expression of culture; specialized behavior patterns; adaptations and way of life in distinct environments. Regional interdependence; implications for development.
prereq: ENGL 12000
3 hrs 3 cr.
Offered fall and spring

Requirements for the Major 36 credits

ECO 10000 - Introduction to Economics

GER 2/B
Introduction to economic principles, issues, and policy. Recommended for students who want a broad, one-semester overview.
Not open to students who have taken or are currently enrolled in ECO 20000 or 20100 or their equivalents. Cannot be credited towards the Economics major.
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOG 24100 - Population Geography

GER 3/B PD/B or C
Course will explore several critical issues such as the relationship between population growth and development; immigration and internal migration; how age, race and gender affect other demographic processes; and how and why these processes vary around the world. Additionally, students will examine the “mechanics” of computing population growth and change as well as different ways to visually display measures of population. Offered fall and spring.
prereq: GEOG 10100 or GEOG 15000 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOG 25100 - Geography of the United States and Canada

GER 2/B
Seeks to familiarize students with the regional geography of the United States and Canada. More specifically, the goals are to acquaint students with the dynamic nature of human and physical features that characterize the study area; the ways in which human and natural phenomena interact to create unique place characteristics and sub-regions; the key environmental issues that characterize the study area and its constituent parts; major trends that are affecting the geography of the two countries; and the locations of principal features. The course begins with general overview material, and then examines the various sub-regions of the study area in much greater detail, focusing on key characteristics and environmental challenges.
prereq: GEOG 10100 or GEOG 15000 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.
HIST 11100 - World History to 1500

GER 2/B PD/A
The rise of civilizations; technological and intellectual breakthroughs; classical cultures and empires; interregional connections; the spread of civilization across the globe.
_Courses at the 300-level and above not offered to freshmen._
3 hrs 3 cr.

HIST 11200 - World History from 1500 to the Present

GER 2/B
The transition from relatively isolated individual cultures to an interrelated global network; the impact of the democratic and scientific revolutions; the development of nationalism and internationalism among the nations of the world.
_Courses at the 300-level and above not offered to freshmen._
3 hrs 3 cr.

1. Required courses (18 cr.)

POLSC 11000 - American Government: A Historical Introduction (W)

GER 1/C or 2/B
Overview of the American political system from a historical perspective, with emphasis on the Constitution and its enduring influence, development of party systems and citizen participation and evolving role of Congress, presidency and courts. Not open to students who have taken POLSC 11100.
_prereq or coreq: ENGL 12000 or its equivalent_
3 hrs 3 cr.

ECO 10000 - Introduction to Economics

GER 2/B
Introduction to economic principles, issues, and policy. Recommended for students who want a broad, one-semester overview.
_Not open to students who have taken or are currently enrolled in ECO 20000 or 20100 or their equivalents. Cannot be credited towards the Economics major._
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOG 24100 - Population Geography

GER 3/B PD/B or C
Course will explore several critical issues such as the relationship between population growth and development; immigration and internal migration; how age, race and gender affect other demographic processes; and how and why these processes vary around the world. Additionally, students will examine the “mechanics” of computing population growth and change as well as different ways to visually display measures of population. Offered fall and spring.

The transition from relatively isolated individual cultures to an interrelated global network; the impact of the democratic and scientific revolutions; the development of nationalism and internationalism among the nations of the world.
Courses at the 300-level and above not offered to freshmen.
3 hrs 3 cr.

2. One 3-credit course in cultural anthropology (ANTHC) or Sociology (3 cr)

- One 3-credit course in cultural anthropology (ANTHC) or Sociology (SOC) selected with approval of the Geography Undergraduate Adviser.

3. Elective Courses in History (6 credits)

- Any two 3-credit 300-level courses in history with approval of the Geography Undergraduate Adviser.

4. Elective Courses in Geography (9 credits, at least 6 credits at the 300-level)

GEOG 27000 - Regional Geography of Mexico, Central America and the Caribbean

GER 3/B PD/A
Analysis of relationship of natural environment to economic, social and political life of Mexico, Central America and West Indies.
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOG 27100 - Regional Geography of South America
GER 3/B PD/A
Analysis of relationship of natural environment to economic, social and political life of South America.
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOG 27500 - Regional Geography of Sub-Saharan Africa
GER 3/B PD/A
Analysis of the relationship of natural environment to economic, social and political life of Africa south of Sahara.
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOG 27700 - Regional Geography of East Asia
GER 3/B PD/A
Analysis of East Asia's potentials in terms of natural resources, population, industry and agriculture, with emphasis on China.
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOG 27800 - Regional Geography of Russia and Central Asia
GER 3/B PD/A or D
Analysis of the relationship of the natural environment to economic, social and political life of Russia, the former Soviet republics of Central Asia and Mongolia.
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOG 32800 - Urban Environmental Problems: Evaluations and Solutions
GER 3/B
Open to Jr/Sr only. The special environmental problems of urban and metropolitan areas will be studied, including water supplies, waste management, environmental impact and waterfront use. Natural physical processes, methodologies and techniques will be reviewed and applied to decision making. Transportation fee for field work may be required.
_prereq: GEOG 101 or GEOG 150 or URBS 101 and Jr/Sr standing
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOG 34100 - Urban Geography

German

About the Department

The German department offers courses in the language, literature, and cultures of the German-speaking countries to help students reach high levels of linguistic and cultural proficiency and excel in the field of German studies.

The language and literature curriculum is designed to guide students in a professional, research-based manner from their current levels in the language through well defined stages of proficiency in speaking, reading, writing, and comprehension so that they will reach college-level literacy in German.

Students who complete the elementary and intermediate course sequence (language requirement) can expect to reach a real ability to function in standard situations in a German-speaking environment and to have a solid base for the further study of German.

Students who complete advanced language, literature, and culture courses will gain an understanding and appreciation of German literature and civilization, past and present, will comprehend spoken and written German to a level that they can understand major works of German prose, drama, and poetry and will be well on their way towards the linguistic and cultural capacity for intellectual discourse in written and spoken German.

In teaching and scholarship, faculty serve as mediators between the American and German-language cultures. They have a broad firsthand knowledge of German cultural texts, traditions, issues and trends so that they can support students with diverse interests relating to the German language and cultures and thus help Hunter students in all their endeavors pertaining to things German.

The German Department also offers courses in German literature in English translation for students who have no knowledge of the German language. These courses cannot be applied to the foreign language requirement, nor to the regular German major.

Foreign Language Requirement

1. Students who begin German as a new language will fulfill the foreign language requirement by taking 12 credits in the elementary/intermediate language sequence: GERMN 10100-GERMN 10200 (or GERMN 10300), GERMN 20100-GERMN 20200 (or GERMN 20300).

2. Students who enter with one or more years of high school German must take all the credits they need so that they can pass GERMN 20200 (or GERMN 20300).

3. Students who enter with four years of high school German may be exempted from the foreign language requirement (see the General Education Requirement section of this catalog).

Placement
Students who have some knowledge of German should consult with one of the departmental advisers or the chair for placement in a class that is appropriate for them.

The German Department sponsors a summer study abroad program in Kassel, Germany, for students at all levels.

Exchange Program with Pädagogische Hochschule Karlsruhe, Germany

The German Department has a semester-long or year-long exchange program with the Pädagogische Hochschule Karlsruhe www.ph-karlsruhe.de/index.php. The department will help students seek financial support. Please consult the department for details.

International Examinations

The German Department is a testing site for the “Goethe Zertifikate” B1, B2 and C1. These examinations are given world-wide by the Goethe Institute www.goethe.de/lrn/prj/pba/bes/enindex.htm, the cultural arm of the German government.

Minor in German

Prerequisites for the minor

GERMN 10100 - Elementary German I

Not credited without GRMN 102. Practice in 4 basic skills of speaking, reading, writing and comprehending German. For beginners.

3 hrs 3 cr.

and

GERMN 10200 - Elementary German II
Continued practice in speaking, reading, writing and comprehending German.

\textit{prereq: GERMN 10100 or equiv.}

3 hrs 3 cr.

12 credits in language and/or literature taught at the 300-level or higher:

GERMN 30100 to 35900

GERMN 38100 to 44400

Students who begin their study of German in college may count

GERMN 20100 - Intermediate German I

Practice in comprehending and communicating in German at the intermediate level. Review of basic structures and study of advanced grammar topics.

\textit{prereq: GERMN 10200 or equiv.}

3 hrs 3 cr.

and

GERMN 20200 - Intermediate German II

Grammar review and composition. Reading and discussion of selected literary texts.

\textit{prereq: GERMN 20100 or equiv.}

3 hrs 3 cr.

-or-

GERMN 20300 - Intensive Intermediate German

Covers material of GERMN 201 and 202 in one semester.

\textit{prereq: GERMN 10200, 10300 or equiv.}

6 hrs 6 cr.

towards the minor and will need to take at least two courses at the 300-level

Health Careers Preparation

About the Program

The Post-Baccalaureate Certificate Program in Health Careers Preparation is designed to provide students interested in careers in medicine, veterinary medicine, dentistry, podiatry, and optometry with the opportunity to complete the undergraduate-level pre-health professional curriculum at Hunter College and obtain a Certificate in Health Careers Preparation. Prospective students typically fall into one of two categories:
• Students with fewer than 15 credits in undergraduate science who have demonstrated interest in a health profession are considered for the Preparatory Track.
• Students with existing science background who are in need of further science preparation or improvement of science performance (due to low grades or credits more than 10 years old) are considered for the Enrichment Track.

Once accepted, all students in the certificate program must complete a minimum of 38 credits in science courses at Hunter College. Through regular advising provided by Hunter College's Pre-Health Office, a specific sequence of required courses will be tailored to each student's academic background and professional program needs.

Post-Baccalaureate Certificate Program in Health Careers Preparation

Return to: Health Careers Preparation

The Post-Baccalaureate Certificate in Health Careers Preparation Program is designed for students who wish to enter a professional program in medicine, dentistry, optometry, podiatry or veterinary medicine but whose undergraduate education does not meet the requirements for these programs. Students interested in entering programs in nursing, nutrition, physical therapy, pharmacy or physician assistant studies are not eligible for the Post-Baccalaureate Certificate Program.

Admission Criteria

We encourage prospective students who meet the admission criteria to apply to our certificate program. All applicants must:
• Hold a baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution with a minimum overall GPA of 3.00 (students with undergraduate degrees in progress are not eligible to apply).
• Apply for admission to City University of New York (CUNY), Hunter College.
• Submit a completed Post-Baccalaureate Certificate Program supplemental application.
• Demonstrate their commitment to a career in the health professions through paid or volunteer experience.

Application Procedures

Admission to the program is limited to the fall semester. Application to the program is a two-step process. Applicants must refer to the CUNY Application Portal (https://portal.cuny.edu/id/cuny/documents/informationpage/006373.htm) to apply for admission using an undergraduate application to CUNY, Hunter College. All students in the Post-Baccalaureate Certificate Program must apply as transfer students. The 4-digit code for Hunter's Post-Baccalaureate Certificate Program is 0339, and this must be selected in order for the student to be considered for the program. All students must submit their official transcripts directly to CUNY through the CUNY Application Portal. High school transcripts are NOT required. For the second step of the process, prospective students must also submit a supplemental application directly to the Pre-Health Advising Office at Hunter College. The supplemental application is completed electronically and is available on the Pre-Health website in mid-fall.

The Admissions Committee may also request an interview and/or letters of recommendation from applicants sometime after the supplemental application has been submitted. For detailed, step-by-step instructions for completing the application procedures, please refer to the Prospective Post-Baccalaureate Student section of the Pre-Health Website at http://www.hunter.cuny.edu/prehealth/prospective-post-baccalaureate-students/information-for-prospective-post-baccalaureate-students

Deadlines

Both CUNY and supplemental applications must be received (by CUNY and the Hunter College Pre-Health Office) by December 1 of each year to be considered for admission to the Program in the fall. Applications received after December 1 will not be considered.

Program Requirements

To complete the Program, all Post-Baccalaureate Certificate students starting in fall 2010 and after must:

• Complete one year of college-level English. This requirement can be fulfilled by undergraduate transfer credit and/or by taking courses at Hunter College.
• Complete one year of college-level mathematics beyond pre-calculus. This requirement can also be fulfilled by undergraduate transfer credit and/or by taking courses at Hunter. There are two ways to fulfill this requirement at Hunter:
  1. MATH 15000 (calculus) and MATH 15500 (calculus II)
  2. MATH 15000 (calculus) and STAT 21300 (STAT 113 does not fulfill this requirement)
• Complete 38 credits in science (biology, chemistry or physics) at Hunter College.
• Maintain a 3.3 GPA for every semester in the program with no individual course grade below B-.
• Provide 56 hours of service to the Hunter College Community during their time in the program. Tutoring in science courses, mentoring undergraduate students, and assisting with activities sponsored by the Pre-Health Advising Office are examples of activities that fulfill the service commitment requirements.
• Obtain a committee letter from the Pre-Health Advisory Committee at Hunter College.
Courses and Requirements

The exact titles and sequence of courses for Post-Baccalaureate students depend on their individual academic needs and availability of courses at Hunter College each semester. Students typically take 9–12 credits of mathematics/science per semester but individual students' course loads can vary depending on their schedules of extracurricular activities and other factors.

In addition to the mathematics and English requirements stated above, typical course work for pre-health students includes the following:

- One year of general biology with lab: BIOL 10000 and BIOL 10200 (4.5 credits each, including lab) offered in fall and spring semesters, respectively.
- One year of general chemistry with lab: CHEM 10200 and CHEM 10400 (lecture, 3 credits each) and CHEM 10600 (lab, 3 credits). CHEM 10400, which serves as a pre-requisite to CHEM 10600 may be taken concurrently to satisfy requirements.
- One year of Organic Chemistry lectures: CHEM 22200 and CHEM 22400 (4 credits each); and one year of Organic Chemistry labs: CHEM 22300 and CHEM 22500 (2.5 credits each).
- One year of general physics with lab: PHYS 11100 and PHYS 12000 (4.5 credits each, including lab).

Additional Courses

Students may use classes from the following list of upper division biology and chemistry courses to fulfill the requirements for the program:

Courses

BIOL 30000 - Biological Chemistry

GER 3/B
Molecular aspects of cellular function; properties of biomolecules, their biosynthesis and breakdown; structure and function of proteins and enzymes, metabolites, membranes and nucleic acids; cellular mechanisms of energy transduction; integration and control of cell metabolism. Experiments cover a variety of modern techniques in molecular biology.

Material Fee: $10

prereq: BIOL 20200, CHEM 22200, 22300 coreq: CHEM 22400

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.

fall only

BIOL 30200 - Molecular Genetics

GER 3/B
A comparison of viral, procaryotic and eukaryotic systems; review of classical Mendelian principles; bacterial DNA replication, transcription and their control; mechanisms of gene mutation, repair, recombination and transposition; applications of recombinant DNA technology; organization of nucleic acid into chromosomes; control of gene expression, the cell cycle and cell development in eucaryotes.

Material Fee: $10

prereq: BIOL 30000

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.

spring only
BIOL 30600 - Developmental Biology

GER 3/B
Major topics include molecular and cellular mechanisms of early embryonic development in amphibians, mammals and model organisms such as Drosophila, as well as the related subjects of vertebrate organ system development, biology of stem cells and animal cloning. Emphasis is placed on seminal and current research in cell-cell communication, signal transduction and differential gene regulation in developmental processes.

prereq: BIOL 30000
3 hrs (lec) 3 cr.
fall only

BIOL 35000 - The Biology of Cancer

GER 3/B
When a normal cell becomes a cancer cell there are genetic changes that occur that alter the biology of the cell such that it behaves independent of its neighbors. This course will investigate the altered biology of cancer cells that lead to uncontrolled proliferation and cancer. Topics include: cell culture, the cell cycle, hormones, receptors, intracellular signal transduction, oncogenes, tumor suppressor genes, apoptosis, metastasis, and the etiology of human cancer.

prereq: BIOL 20000, 30000, or perm instr.
3 hrs (lec) 3 cr.
spring alternate years

BIOL 36000 - Cellular and Molecular Immunology

GER 3/B
Study of the immune system from a molecular perspective. Molecular genetics of antibody and T cell receptor diversity, hematopoiesis and lymphocyte development, humoral and cellular immunity, histocompatibility.

prereq or coreq: BIOL 30000, perm instr.
4 hrs (3 lec, 1 disc) 3.5 cr.
fall only

BIOL 37000 - Physiology of the Nervous System

GER 3/B
A comprehensive introduction to neuroscience. Topics include how nerve cells (neurons) transmit electrical impulses, how neurons communicate with each other through synapses and how nerve pathways and networks determine many functions of the brain. The last portion of the course shall explore how developing neurons seek out targets and establish synapses.

prereq: BIOL 30000 or perm instr.
4 hrs (lec) 4 cr.
spring only

BIOL 37500 - Molecular Systematics

GER 3/B
An overview of the various methods and kinds of data used in systematics, the study of organism diversity and biological relationships. Emphasis is on modern molecular and genetic approaches to identification of individual species and strains and full phylogenetic analyses of suites of species to determine their evolutionary history. The knowledge base is provided for experimental investigation of questions of current interest in phylogeny and population biology.
prereq: BIOL 30000 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

BIOL 37600 - Endocrinology

GER 3/B
Cellular organization of the endocrine system; molecular mechanisms of hormone action; hormonal physiology of metabolism and reproduction; integration of endocrine responses by the central nervous system.
prereq: BIOL 20200 or perm instr.
3 hrs (lec) 3 cr.
spring only

BIOL 38000 - Molecular Neurobiology

GER 3/B
Molecular components and molecular mechanisms involved in the cell biology of neurons and glia, neuronal signaling, neuronal development, learning, memory and diseases of the nervous system.
prereq: BIOL 30000 or perm instr.
3 lec hrs 3 cr.
fall alternate years

CHEM 37600 - Biochemistry I

GER 3/B
Chemical aspects of protein structure and function, fundamentals of bioenergetics, biochemical mechanisms of gene replication and expression.

prereq: CHEM 22400
4 hrs (3 lec, 1 rec) 3 cr.
offered fall

CHEM 37700 - Biochemistry II

GER 3/B
Biosynthesis of lipids, amino acids, carbohydrates. Muscle contraction, hormones, immune response, DNA sequencing.

prereq: CHEM 37600 or BIOL 30000 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.
offered spring

CHEM 37800 - Biochemistry Laboratory

GER 3/B
A set of laboratory experiments, performed by individual students, covering important areas of biochemistry such as protein analysis, enzyme purification, enzymatic assays, recombinant DNA and the polymerase chain reaction.

prereq: CHEM 22300 and CHEM 37600 or CHEM 64000
5 hrs (4 lab, 1 rec) 3 cr.

List of Minimum Pre-Health Course Requirements (with prerequisites)
One year of English (6 credits)

MATH 12500 - Precalculus

GER 1/B
Functions and their graphs: polynomial, rational, exponential, logarithmic and trigonometric functions; conic sections; topics in trigonometry; graphical and analytical solutions to systems of equations and inequalities. Not credited to students who have completed MATH 15000 or its equivalent.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 10100 or appropriate score on placement exam

4 hrs 4 cr.
(Placement testing and transfer credit will determine if you need this course or if you need to take another math course prior to pre-calculus)

One year of mathematics beyond precalculus, for example:

MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

GER 1/B
Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.

4 hrs 4 cr.

-or-

MATH 15500 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

GER 1/B
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions, integration techniques, infinite sequences and series, improper integrals, polar coordinates.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 15000

4 hrs 4 cr.

-or-

STAT 21300 - Introduction to Applied Statistics

GER 1/B
prereq: MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.

3 hrs 3 cr.

BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I

GER 2/E PD/C or D
The chemical basis of life; basic structure and function of pro- and eucaryotic cells; bioenergetics; Mendelian and molecular genetics; development and mechanisms of control of gene expression at all levels; population genetics and evolution.
Material Fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equivalent
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

BIOL 10200 - Principles of Biology II

GER 2/E PD/C or D
Taxonomy; homeostasis; internal transport and gas exchange in plants and animals; plant hormones; osmoregulation; mechanisms of action in the muscular, nervous and neuroendocrine systems; the senses, behavior; ecology.
Material fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
prereq: BIOL 10000 or perm instr, MATH 10100 or equiv.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
spring only

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.
Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.
Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10600 - General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate the fundamental laws of chemistry. The course is equivalent one year of general chemistry laboratory.
Credit not given for CHEM 10600 and CHEM 10300 or CHEM 10500. Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200
coreq: CHEM 10400
6 hrs 3 cr.

CHEM 22200 - Organic Chemistry Lecture I

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.
prereq: CHEM 10400
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

CHEM 22300 - Organic Chemistry Laboratory I

GER 3/B
Various organic syntheses, Distillation, distillation, extraction, chromatography, qualitative analysis, spectroscopy.

prereq: CHEM 10500
prereq or coreq: CHEM 22200
5 hrs 2.5 cr.

CHEM 22400 - Organic Chemistry Lecture II

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.

prereq: prereq for CHEM 22400: CHEM 22200
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

CHEM 22500 - Organic Chemistry Laboratory II

GER 3/B
Continuation of CHEM 22300.

prereq: CHEM 22200, 22300
prereq or coreq: CHEM 22400
5 hrs 2.5 cr.

PHYS 11000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
First semester of two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.

prereq: MATH 12500; pre-calculus or equiv. By math dept. exam.

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.

PHYS 12000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics

GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11000, a two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.

prereq: PHYS 11000 or 11100
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.

Note

Please refer to the Pre-Health Office website and publications for information regarding the specific coursework and extracurricular activities required by the individual health professional schools.

Time to Completion
Students must complete all of the required courses within 36 months in order to receive the certificate. A typical post-baccalaureate student completes the minimum coursework required to take standardized tests such as the MCAT or DAT within two years. However, many students go on to take additional upper division courses recommended by many health professional schools during the third (application) year. Decisions about professional school admissions are usually made one year after applications are submitted so most students apply to these schools after completing their second year in the Post-Baccalaureate Certificate Program, with the intention of matriculating a year later.

History

About the Department

History is the record of human experience. Its study is a first step in learning about ourselves and our society — about economics and politics, psychology and sociology, mathematics and science, the arts and the humanities. For students whose undergraduate major is history, career opportunities are numerous and varied. Medical, law and other professional schools favor applicants with history majors because of their broad background and research skills. Moreover, while teaching has long been a popular goal for history majors, positions in government (local, state and national), in publishing and advertising, in communications and in business also await those students whose human perspective and intellectual discipline have been developed in history classes. Beyond the purely practical consideration of a profession, the study of history is exciting in its own right.

History - BA

Major
BA: 30 credits

• A minimum of 6 credits of HIST-designated courses with a grade of C or better are required before the declaration of major

• A maximum of 9 credits in 100-level courses may be taken.

• A minimum of 18 credits in advanced-level courses distributed as follows:

  o 6 credits in 200-level courses (not including HIST 29000)
  o 12 credits in 300-level courses (including HIST 30000)

• History Practicum

HIST 29000 - History Practicum (W)

A seminar-style course intended to introduce students to the practice of historical research and writing. Students will be given a directed “hands-on” experience in conducting historical research and in the writing of research papers in measured, progressively challenging assignments. The course will prepare students to successfully engage in more self-directed, substantial and independent historical research projects in the future.

prereq: ENGL 12000; 6 cr in history and permission of the department

3 hrs. 3 cr.

A minimum grade of C is required to receive credit for HIST 29000

• Historical Research or Historical Research Honors

HIST 30000 - Historical Research (W)

 GER 3/B
 Independent research related to a prior upper-level course already completed under the supervising instructor. The research will result in an extensive paper.

Courses at the 300-level and above not offered to freshmen.

prereq: HIST 29000 and departmental permission

3 hrs 3 cr.

-or-
HIST 40000 - Historical Research [H]

GER 3/B
The origins of history writing and the modern historical profession; modes of historical research; the evaluation of historical evidence; the historical and social uses of history. Recommended for all history majors. Required of students who wish to graduate with honors in history.

Courses at the 300-level and above not offered to freshmen.

prereq: not open to students who have completed fewer than 80 credits

3 hrs 3 cr.

A minimum grade of C is required to receive credit for HIST 30000/HIST 40000

Within the requirements for the major students must complete a minimum of 6 credits in each of the following geographic fields:

- United States history
- European history (includes Russian and the U.S.S.R.)
- World/Non-Western (Asia, Africa, Middle East)/Latin American history.

If there are questions about the applicability of a course for a particular requirement please consult with the History Department adviser. Appropriate HIST 29000 and HIST 30000/HIST 40000 sections may count toward one or another of these fields, see department for more information.

No less than half the courses taken for the major (15 credits) must be taken at Hunter College. Courses taken for CR/NC may not be applied to the major.

It is strongly recommended that history majors consult with an undergraduate adviser prior to their last semester to review progress toward fullfilment of the requirements for the major.

Minor

Students majoring in disciplines other than history may elect a minor in history. The history minor consists of 12 credits. The minor in History is flexible and thus it can provide depth to a variety of majors; students can tailor the minor to suit best their individual interests.

Requirements:

1. Four history courses of 3 credits each (or 12 credits total) taken for a letter grade (C or better. Courses taken for a grade of Credit/No Credit will not count toward the minor.)
2. Courses must be distributed in at least two geographic fields, i.e. at least one course (3 credits) must be taken in a geographic area different from the other three. (Currently, the geographic areas are defined as U.S., European and World/Non-Western.)
3. At least two courses (6 credits) must be at the 300-level or above. Internships do not count toward completion of the minor, although students completing the minor may elect to include an internship as an additional course. Independent studies (tutorials) and HIST300 are available only to History Majors and, thus, do not count toward the minor.
4. At least two of the courses (or 6 credits) must be taken in the History Department at Hunter College. Courses taken in other disciplines will not count toward the minor unless cross-listed and taken under the appropriate HIST course code. Transfer courses must beapproved by the History Undergraduate Advisor. There are no prerequisites for the minor, although certain courses may have their own prerequisites.

Declaring a Minor in History:
Students are advised to declare their minor by the beginning of the upper junior semester, but must do it prior to their final semester (that of graduation). Declaration requires a planning session with the History Undergraduate Advisor and completion of the Major/Minor Declaration Form (to be obtained from the OASIS).

Preparation for Teaching

Childhood Education (grades 1-6)

In cooperation with the School of Education, the Department of History provides opportunities for history majors to prepare for a career in childhood education. Students complete the 30-credit History major with the childhood education sequence as a collateral major.

Adolescent Education

Students who wish to prepare for a career in teaching social studies in grades 7-12 may take a 33-credit history major with an additional 9 credits of prerequisites History for Adolescent Education (Social Studies) In addition, students take the 23-credit adolescent education sequence.

Honors in History

Students will be eligible for honors in history upon completion of the requirements for the major with a 3.5 GPA and a 3.0 cumulative GPA at the time of graduation. To be eligible to graduate with honors in history, students can take HIST 40000 - Historical Research [H] or 3 to 6 credits in seminar, tutorial or problems courses or graduate courses with special permission, with a grade of B or better. Eligible students should apply for honors at the time they file for graduation. Applications are available from the department.

HIST 40000 - Historical Research [H]

GER 3/B
The origins of history writing and the modern historical profession; modes of historical research; the evaluation of historical evidence; the historical and social uses of history. Recommended for all history majors. Required of students who wish to graduate with honors in history.
Prereq: not open to students who have completed fewer than 80 credits
3 hrs 3 cr.

HIST 48300 - Problems in U.S. History (Honors) (W)

GER 3/B
Courses at the 300-level and above not offered to freshmen.
Prereq: perm chair prereq or coreq: ENGL 12000
3 hrs 3 cr.

HIST 48400 - Problems in European History (Honors) (W)

GER 3/B
Courses at the 300-level and above not offered to freshmen.
HIST 48500 - Problems in Non-Western History (Honors) (W)

GER 3/B
Courses at the 300-level and above not offered to freshmen.

HIST 49300 - Individual Tutorial Research Project

GER 3/B
Research paper under individual supervision of faculty member.

Graduate Study

Qualified students in their junior and senior years may be admitted to graduate courses with the approval of the department chair.

History for Adolescent Education (Social Studies)

Return to: History - BA

Prerequisites (9 credits)

HIST 15100 - The United States from the Colonial Era to the Civil War (W)

GER 1/C or 2/B
American political, social and cultural history from the time of the European settlements to the Civil War.

HIST 15200 - The United States from the Civil War Era to the Present (W)

GER 1/C or 2/B
American political, social and cultural history from the Civil War to the present.

GEOG 10100 - People and Their Environment

GER 2/B
A broad overview of subjects and ideas in geography, possibly the most internally diverse of the social sciences. Covers the geographical aspects of topics including weather and climate, landforms, religions, food, cities, economics, culture, politics and much more. While students will be expected to understand the basics of each of the topics covered, the overarching emphasis will be on understanding the relationships among them. As such, the course builds from one topic to the next, ultimately stressing the sheer geographical complexity and wonder of modern life.

Contemporary economic, political and social patterns and problems are discussed.

3 hrs 3 cr.
offered fall and spring.

Major (33 credits)

Geography (6 credits)

GEOG 25100 - Geography of the United States and Canada

GER 2/B
Seeks to familiarize students with the regional geography of the United States and Canada. More specifically, the goals are to acquaint students with the dynamic nature of human and physical features that characterize the study area; the ways in which human and natural phenomena interact to create unique place characteristics and sub-regions; the key environmental issues that characterize the study area and its constituent parts; major trends that are affecting the geography of the two countries; and the locations of principal features. The course begins with general overview material, and then examines the various sub-regions of the study area in much greater detail, focusing on key characteristics and environmental challenges prereq: GEOG 10100 or GEOG 15000 or perm instr.

3 hrs 3 cr.

Major (33 credits)

Geography (6 credits)

One course selected from the following

GEOG 27000 - Regional Geography of Mexico, Central America and the Caribbean

GER 3/B PD/A
Analysis of relationship of natural environment to economic, social and political life of Mexico, Central America and West Indies.
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOG 27100 - Regional Geography of South America

GER 3/B PD/A
Analysis of relationship of natural environment to economic, social and political life of South America.
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOG 27200 - Regional Geography of Europe

GER 3/B PD/D
Analysis of relationship of natural environment to economic, social and political life of modern Europe.
3 hrs 3 credits
GEOG 27400 - Regional Geography of the Middle East and North Africa

GER 3/B PD/A

Minor in History
Students majoring in disciplines other than history may elect a minor in history. The history minor consists of 12 credits. The minor in History is flexible and thus it can provide depth to a variety of majors; students can tailor the minor to suit best their individual interests.

Requirements:

1. Four history courses of 3 credits each (or 12 credits total) taken for a letter grade (C or better. Courses taken for a grade of Credit/No Credit will not count toward the minor.)
2. Courses must be distributed in at least two geographic fields, i.e. at least one course (3 credits) must be taken in a geographic area different from the other three. (Currently, the geographic areas are defined as U.S., European and World/Non-Western.)
3. At least two courses (6 credits) must be at the 300-level or above. Internships do not count toward completion of the minor, although students completing the minor may elect to include an internship as an additional course. Independent studies (tutorials) and HIST300 are available only to History Majors and, thus, do not count toward the minor.
4. At least two of the courses (or 6 credits) must be taken in the History Department at Hunter College. Courses taken in other disciplines will not count toward the minor unless cross-listed and taken under the appropriate HIST course code. Transfer courses must be approved by the History Undergraduate Advisor.

There are no prerequisites for the minor, although certain courses may have their own prerequisites.

Declaring a Minor in History:

Students are advised to declare their minor by the beginning of the upper junior semester, but must do it prior to their final semester (that of graduation). Declaration requires a planning session with the History Undergraduate Advisor and completion of the Major/Minor Declaration Form (to be obtained from the OASIS).

Human Rights

About the Program

The Human Rights Program examines the theory and practice of human rights, combining academic training with hands-on experience. By exploring the philosophical foundations and legal framework of human rights, as well as addressing current political, social and economic realities, the program seeks to give students the tools necessary to engage intelligently with contemporary human rights problems. Among the thorny issues students may examine are indigenous peoples’ rights to natural resources, the limits of freedom of expression, the problem of corporate complicity in rights violations, the legitimacy of humanitarian intervention, and the problem of enforceability (both of economic, social, and cultural rights, and of civil and political rights).

An interdisciplinary program, the Human Rights Program offers courses in political science, anthropology, sociology and history, among other fields of study. Students may follow either of two academic tracks: a 15-credit minor in human rights, or 24-credit certificate. A key element of both tracks is the human rights internship, which gives students direct experience with the researchers, advocates, lawyers and analysts who make up the human rights movement.

Both the minor and certificate in human rights are good preparation for a career in government, at a nongovernmental organization, or in a regional or international agency. Many students may choose to go on to law school, journalism school or a graduate program. Whatever their career choice, their knowledge of human rights will make them more thoughtful and informed citizens.

Minor in Human Rights

15-credit minor in Human Rights:

Students in majors such as Anthropology, History, Political Science, Sociology, Urban Affairs and Planning, etc. could select Human Rights as a minor. The minor consists of the following courses:

- Introduction to Human Rights (HR 20000)
- Internship in Human Rights (HR 25000)
- 3 Cognate courses
  - Cognate courses draw on traditional disciplinary perspectives to examine claims about, e.g., the universal nature of human rights, their historical origins, social and cultural contexts that affect the understanding and status of human rights, and the relation of human rights to political conflicts and the presence or absence of economic well-being.

Certificate in Human Rights

The 24-credit Certificate in Human Rights consists of 4 core human rights courses—a 3-credit introductory course, a 3-credit internship, a 3-credit internship seminar and a 3-credit capstone seminar—plus 4 cognate courses. Students should work with the Human Rights Program adviser to put together an intellectually meaningful set of cognate courses.

To be accepted into the Certificate program, a student must have at least a 3.0 GPA.

Latin American and Caribbean Studies

About the Program

Latin American and Caribbean Studies is an interdisciplinary program that offers students the opportunity to learn about the history, culture, politics, society, and political economy of the region and its relations with the United States. The LACS program has been able to develop an innovative outreach program with Afro-Latino and Caribbean non-governmental organizations (NGOs) in New York City and throughout the Latin American and Caribbean region. In collaboration with the Hunter College Study Abroad Office, the program offers a January semester abroad program with Universidade Salvador-UNIFACS in Bahia, Brazil. The course is taught in English and is titled “Reconstructing a Racial Identity.”

Programs and Courses

Programs and Courses in Latin American & Caribbean Studies

Administration and Faculty
Latin American and Caribbean Studies - BA

The specialization in Latin American and Caribbean Studies as a major leading to a BA degree consists of 24 credits. The core courses for the major are drawn from the social sciences, humanities, and arts. Students select courses for the major in consultation with the program’s director or with a member of the Latin American and Caribbean Studies Faculty Advisory Committee.

The interdisciplinary specialization of the major will serve graduates well, whether they choose to seek employment in public or private organizations, pursue professional degrees, or go on to a graduate degree in the social sciences or humanities.

Language Requirement

Latin American and Caribbean Studies majors are required to demonstrate a reading knowledge of Spanish, Portuguese, or French, fulfilled at least one semester before graduation from the college.

Course Requirements for the Major

LACS students are required to take either LACS 33000 (a field course for students to study or intern in the region or intern in an institution in the New York area) or LACS 43400 (a course that comprises preparation of a major original research paper to be developed in close association with a mentor from the Latin American and Caribbean Studies Faculty Advisory Committee). ENGL 12000 is a prerequisite for program courses.

LACS 33000 - Latin America and the Caribbean Field Course/Internship

A field course for students to study in the region or who are interning in an institution either in the New York area or in the region. Major research paper based on field or internship experience.

3 cr.
LACS 43400 - Seminar in Latin American and Caribbean Studies

Open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have completed at least 18 credits in LACS or have instructor permission. Interdisciplinary reading, research, and discussion of selected topics involving cultural, economic, political, and social problems. Research paper required. May be repeated for a maximum of 6 edits.

3 cr.

Departmental Honors

LACS majors with a GPA above 3.5 are eligible to receive the Lily Mage Award.

CR/NC Policy

No CR/NC grades will be accepted in courses to meet LACS major requirements.

Teaching

In addition to its distinguished regular Hunter faculty, LACS offers students courses by excellent adjunct faculty such as Dr. Marta Moreno Vega, Director of the Caribbean Cultural Center, producer of the documentary film When the Spirits Dance Mambo, as well as invited specialists on Latin American and Caribbean theatre, Haitian and Dominican literature and the political economy of the Caribbean and Latin America.

Mentoring

Faculty mentoring is very important to the LACS Program. Majors should maintain regular contact with their mentors/advisers.

Study Abroad

Study abroad is encouraged for LACS majors. Apart from the new Bahia, Brazil course, LACS students have studied in Hunter’s programs in Arequipa and Cuzco, Peru and Mar del Plata, Argentina.

prereq: AFPRL 20400 or 20900 or 21000 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

AFPRL 32000 - African-Caribbean Culture (W)
GER 3/A PD/A or B
prereq: AFPRL 20900 or 21000 or 22200
3 hrs 3 cr.

AFPRL 33700 - Caribbean Women Writers (W)
GER 3/A
A study of some of the major preoccupations of Caribbean fiction, such as history, migration/travel, creolization, memory and language, from the perspectives of selected women writers, paying close attention to the historical, intellectual and cultural contexts that stimulated the production of these works.
cross-listed WGSA 33700 (W)
prereq: AFPRL 23600 or 23700 or ENGL 22000 or WGS 10000
3 hrs 3 cr.

AFPRL 35600 - Latino Literature in English (W)
GER 3/A PD/B
Latino writing in English in the U.S.; analysis of cultural, linguistic and ideological factors as found in the work of such authors as Sandra Cisneros (Chicana), Pedro Pietri (Puerto Rican) and Oscar Hijuelos (Cuban-American).
3 hrs 3 cr.
AFPRL 38700 - Puerto Rican/Latino Politics in the United States (W)

GER 3/B PD/B
An analysis of the political participation and leadership of Puerto Ricans and other Latinos in the United States.
prereq: either AFPRL 10200, 24200 or 24400 or perm. Instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

AFPRL 39000 - Research Topics in Africana and Puerto Rican/Latino Studies (W)

GER 3/A or B
Topics change according to instructor.
Open to Jr/Sr only.
3 hrs 3 cr.

AFPRL 42800 - Selected Topics in Africana and Puerto Rican/Latino Studies: Social Science

GER 3/B PD/B
Topics change according to instructor.
Pluralism and diversity requirements are dependent on the topic course.
prereq: perm dept.
3 hrs 3 cr.

AFPRL 44500 - Caribbean Short Story in Spanish: Readings and Theories

GER 3/A
A critical study of the short story genre in the Hispanic Caribbean viewed in conjunction with contemporary literary theory.
prereq or coreq: SPAN 20800
3 hrs 3 cr.

Anthropology

ANTHC 40100 - Seminars in Selected Topics

Topics TBA.

Economics

ECO 33000 - Economic Development

GER 3/B PD/A
Critical variables explaining the diversity of growth and economic and development outcomes across developing countries. Theories, case studies, measurement and policies.
prereq: ECO 20000
3 hrs 3 cr.

Geography
GEOG 27000 - Regional Geography of Mexico, Central America and the Caribbean

GER 3/B PD/A
Analysis of relationship of natural environment to economic, social and political life of Mexico, Central America and West Indies.
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOG 27100 - Regional Geography of South America

GER 3/B PD/A
Analysis of relationship of natural environment to economic, social and political life of South America.
3 hrs 3 cr.

History

HIST 27100 - Early History of Latin America

History and cultures of Amerindian groups in Central and South America and the Caribbean; encounter and multiple interactions of European and African cultures with indigenous societies; development of Iberian colonial systems and cultures within the Americas.
Courses at the 300-level and above not offered to freshmen.
3 hrs 3 cr.

HIST 34122 - Latin American Political Economy

GER 3/B
courses at the 300-level and above not open to freshmen
3 hrs 3 cr.

HIST 34139 - African Influences in the Americas

GER 3/B
Courses at the 300-level and above not open to freshmen
3 hrs 3 cr.

Music

MUSHL 24000 - Music of the Caribbean and Latin America (W)

GER 3/A PD/A
Origin and development of Caribbean and Latin American musical styles and their impact on the United States and other parts of the world.
prereq: ENGL 12000; one of the following:MUSHL 10100, 10700, 20500, MUSTH 101, or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

MUSHL 22100 - Black Music in the Americas (W)

GER 3/A PD/B
The origins, history, and evolutionary progression of Black music in the Americas; shared musical practices and resources in the multicultural matrix of the United States in particular and the hemisphere in general.
prereq: ENGL 12000; one of the following: MUSHL 10100, 10700, 20500, MUSTH 10100, or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Political Science

POLSC 25300 - Government and Politics in Latin America (W)

GER 3/B PD/A
Ideology, revolution, authoritarianism, democracy, institutions, class structure, distribution of wealth and power, political and economic development.
cross-listed LACS 43405
prereq: ENGL 12000 or its equivalent
3 hrs 3 cr.

POLSC 26200 - Government and Politics in Central America (W)

GER 3/B PD/A
Political institutions, ideology, class and ethnic structure, economic development, distribution of wealth and power, foreign influences and revolutionary and evolutionary roads to modernization.
cross-listed LACS 43429
prereq or coreq: ENGL 12000 or its equivalent
3 hrs 3 cr.

POLSC 27100 - International Politics in the Americas (W)

GER 3/B PD/A
Dynamics of US relations with Latin American countries from the colonial era through the Cold War to the present, and of relations of Latin American countries with each other and with extra-hemispheric nations.
cross-listed LACS 43432
prereq: ENGL 12000 or its equivalent
3 hrs 3 cr.

POLSC 28100 - Drugs, Politics and Public Policy (W)

GER 3/B
Examination of public policies addressing drug use and abuse in the United States and other countries with emphasis on political and cultural determinants, economic and market factors, constitutional implications and United States foreign policy.
prereq: ENGL 12000
3 hrs 3 cr.

Romance Languages - Spanish

SPAN 26400 - Contemporary Spanish Literature in Translation

Cela, Lorca, Unamuno, Ortega y Gasset.
Taught in English. This course is designed for students who want to become acquainted with Spanish culture. Cannot be credited toward the major and are not recommended for the minor.
prereq: ENGL 12000
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 27600 - Readings in Modern Spanish- American Literature
Representative writers: Borges, Neruda, Cortazar, Garcia Mriquez.
prereq: SPAN 20200, 20300, 20800 21100 or four yrs high school Spanish or dept. perm.
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 33600 - Latin American Civilization
GER 3/A
Geographical, historical, political, literary, artistic and economic evolution of Latin American nations. Given in Spanish.
prereq: SPAN 20800, 21100 or dept. perm
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 34100 - Introduction to Hispanic Literature I
GER 3/A PD/D
Prerequisite or corequisite to most courses in major sequence. Basic interpretive and research skills for Spanish majors and other qualified students through study of key works of Spanish and Spanish-American authors.
prereq or coreq: SPAN 31100 or dept. perm
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 34200 - Introduction to Hispanic Literature II
GER 3/A PD/D
prereq: SPAN 34100 coreq: SPAN 31200
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 36400 - Spanish-American Modernism and Post-modernism
GER 3/A
Modernist and post-modernist authors.
prereq: SPAN 34100
3 hrs 3 cr.

SPAN 49100 - Honors Course in Spanish: Special Studies in Contemporary Latin American Literature
Open to Jr/Sr only. Group meetings, conferences, oral and written reports.
prereq: major GPA of 3.2, cum GPA of 2.8; perm adviser
3 hrs 3 cr.

Sociology

SOC 30700 - Migration
GER 3/B PD/B
Economic, demographic, political and cultural factors influencing migration and the consequences of migration.
prereq: SOC 10100
3 hrs 3 cr.

SOC 31800 - Sociology of Human Rights in Latin America

GER 3/B
Types of societies in which human rights are respected or violated with special emphasis on Latin American regimes in the last two decades. Human rights and diversity the rights of women and minorities. Movements to protect human rights. The emphasis is on actual social conditions which foster or impede the observance and protection of human rights.
prereq: SOC 10100
3 hrs 3 cr.

SOC 32502 - Sociology of Human Rights: Violation and Protection

GER 3/B
prereq: SOC 10100, perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

SOC 32506 - Latin American Societies

GER 3/B
prereq: SOC 10100, perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

SOC 32519 - Economic Development and Social Inequality in Latin America

GER 3/B
prereq: SOC 10100, perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

SOC 36100 - Development and Modernization (W)

GER 3/B PD/A
Examinations of models of social change with a special focus on developing countries.
prereq: SOC 10100
3 hrs 3 cr.

Women and Gender Studies

WGSA 33700 - Caribbean Women Writers (W)

GER 3/A
A study of some of the major preoccupations of Caribbean fiction, such as history, migration/travel, colonialization, memory and language, from the perspectives of selected women writers, paying close attention to the historical, intellectual and cultural contexts that stimulated the production of these works.
cross-listed AFPRL 33700

3 hrs 3 cr.

WGS 20005 - Dominican and Haitian Literature and Culture
3 hrs 3 cr.

Mathematics and Statistics

About the Department

The Department of Mathematics and Statistics offers majors in mathematics and statistics that prepare students for careers in business, government, research, and teaching. Students considering such majors should consult an adviser during their first or second semester to plan the proper sequence of courses and should continue to consult the adviser at least once each semester. Minors in mathematics and statistics are also offered.

Credit and Course Exemption The department offers credit or course exemption based on standard examinations such as AP. Inquiries should be made at the department office.

Mathematics Proficiency and Placement

All students entering Hunter College must demonstrate proficiency in the basic skills through their scores on the first two parts of the COMPASS mathematics exam. Exemptions from these two parts are given for SATs, ACT, NY Regents, and for certain other entrance categories. The remaining parts of the COMPASS exam further assess a student’s preparedness for certain courses in mathematics, statistics, and other disciplines at the college. Students may enroll in these courses only if their scores on this entire placement exam are at appropriate levels or they have taken college courses in the required mathematics. Students who need to place into courses by examination and have not taken the remaining parts of the COMPASS mathematics exam are advised to schedule the test with the Testing Center, Room 150 Hunter North, 772-4868, http://admissions.hunter.cuny.edu/Testing.htm well in advance of registration. Subsequent placement into all mathematics and statistics courses is determined by the student’s score on the remaining parts of this exam. New students entering the college take this test in its entirety when they take the other placement exams in reading and writing. Students should notice the mathematics and statistics prerequisites that are indicated in the descriptions of courses and majors so they can effectively plan their studies.

Programs and Courses

In planning their schedules, prospective majors should note that some advanced required courses are offered only once each year and several advanced elective courses are offered only once every other year. A rotation schedule for course offerings is available in the departmental office and on the departmental web site http://math.hunter.cuny.edu.

Prerequisites: Because of the nature of mathematics, the department recommends that students refrain from enrolling in any course that carries prerequisites unless these prerequisites have been completed with a grade of C or better.

Administration and Faculty

Department Office:
Mathematics - BA

Major

The mathematics major introduces students to the fundamental areas of mathematics and provides some degree of specialization in one or more areas. It trains students in the analytic thinking characteristic of pure and applied mathematics and provides familiarity with rigorous methods of mathematical proof. In addition to the traditional major in mathematics, described below, the department also offers a number of specialized undergraduate tracks for students interested in pursuing careers in bioinformatics or in preparing for teaching: the concentration in Quantitative Biology, the concentration in Preparation for Adolescent Education (grades 7-12), and the concentration in Preparation for Childhood Education (grades 1-6).

To enter the traditional mathematics major, the student should have completed one year of calculus (MATH 15000 and MATH 15500, or the equivalent). The major consists of at least 33 credits of coursework: 24 credits of core curriculum courses taken by all mathematics majors except those enrolled in the Concentration in Preparation for Childhood Education (grades 1-6) and at least 9 credits of advanced elective courses, chosen by students according to their career plans.

Students interested in pursuing mathematics at the advanced graduate level are urged to participate in the BA/MA program in Mathematics. The BA/MA program in Preparation for Adolescent Education leads to professional certification in adolescent education (grades 7-12) in mathematics. Certification may also be received by completing the BA degree with a mathematics major and then completing the graduate Teacher Education Program (TEP) in Mathematics or the graduate Urban Teacher Residency in Mathematics.

- Mathematics Concentration in Preparation for Adolescent Education (Grades 7-12)
- Mathematics Major with a Concentration in Quantitative Biology
- Mathematics Concentration in Preparation for Childhood Education (Grades 1-6)
Major Core Curriculum (24 cr)

MATH 15600 - Introduction to Mathematical Proof Workshop

Techniques of proof will be introduced, among them the direct and indirect methods of proof, epsilon-delta arguments and induction. These will be applied to theorems in number theory, set theory and in differential and integral calculus.

In planning their schedules, prospective majors should note that some advanced required courses are offered only once each year and several advanced elective courses are offered only once every other year. A rotation schedule for course offerings is available in the department office and on the departmental web site.

prereq: MATH 15000. Because of the nature of mathematics, the department recommends that students refrain from enrolling in any course that carries prerequisites unless these prerequisites have been completed with a grade of C or better. prereq or coreq: MATH 15500

2 hrs 1 cr.

MATH 25000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry III

GER 3/B

Vector geometry, dot and cross products, partial derivatives, matrices, determinants, Jacobians, multiple integration.

prereq: MATH 15500

4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 25400 - Ordinary Differential Equations

GER 3/B

First-order equations, second-order linear equations and linear systems, power series solutions, transform and numerical methods, introduction to qualitative theory.

prereq: MATH 25000

3 hrs 3 cr.

MATH 25500 - Vector Analysis

GER 3/B

Line and surface integrals, Green's Theorem, divergence theorem, Stokes' Theorem, generalized coordinates.

prereq: MATH 25000

3 hrs 3 cr.

MATH 26000 - Linear Algebra

GER 3/B

Vector spaces, linear transformations, canonical forms, inner product spaces, bilinear forms, applications.

prereq: MATH 15600 prereq or coreq: MATH 25000

4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 31100 - Abstract Algebra I

GER 3/B

Introduction to the theory of groups and rings.

prereq: MATH 26000

3 hrs 3 cr.
MATH 35100 - Mathematical Analysis I

GER 3/B
Rigorous treatment of foundations of calculus, including topology of real line and higher dimensional spaces. Basic results on continuous functions.

prereq: MATH 25000, 26000
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 21300 - Introduction to Applied Statistics

GER 1/B

prereq: MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
3 hrs 3 cr.

- or -

STAT 31100 - Probability Theory

GER 3/B
Combinatorics, distribution theory for discrete and continuous random variables, central limit theorems.

prereq: MATH 25000.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Elective Courses

The student must complete three 3-credit approved elective courses. The elective courses must be chosen from the 300- or 400-level courses in mathematics or statistics listed by the department. Factors affecting the choice of courses will include the student’s career goals (preparation for graduate study; education; careers in business, government service or industry), the student’s other major, where applicable, and the availability of courses due to the course rotation schedule. A 300-level course may be replaced by a graduate level course approved by a departmental adviser.

Symbolic Computation Proficiency Requirement

As a requirement for graduation with a BA in Mathematics, students must demonstrate entry level proficiency in symbolic computation. The requirement can be met in any of the following ways:

a) passing any of

MATH 12600 - Precalculus Technology Laboratory

Students are introduced to MATHEMATICA as a tool for exploring qualitative features of functions and solving pre-calculus problems: simplifying algebraic expressions, solving equations, plotting functions and curves, finding and approximating zeros and solving systems of equations. MATH 12600 cannot be taken for credit after a student has passed MATH 15000. Students who have passed MATH 15000 should register for MATH 15400 to satisfy the symbolic proficiency requirement.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 10100 or appropriate score on placement exam prereq or coreq: MATH 12500
2 hrs 1 cr.

MATH 15100 - Calculus I with Symbolic Computation

Combines MATH 15000 (Calculus I) with MATH 15400. Some previous experience with computers is desirable but not required
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam
6 hrs 5 cr.

MATH 15400 - An Introduction to Symbolic Computation

Laboratory introduction to machine-aided computation with an emphasis on examples related to calculus. Students use a symbolic computation package to investigate and solve problems numerically, analytically and graphically. The same package is used to create reports of their results. Some previous experience with computers is desirable but not required.
prereq: MATH 15000
2 hrs 1 hr.

MATH 38500 - Numerical Methods I

GER 3/B
Accuracy and precision, convergence, iterative and direct methods. Topics selected from: solution of polynomial equations and linear systems of equations, curve fitting and function approximation, interpolation, differentiation and integration, differential equations.
prereq: MATH 25000 and MATH 26000 or permission of the instructor
3 hrs 3 cr.

b) passing a departmental exam in a computer algebra system (currently we use MATHEMATICA or the equivalent)

Honors

A student majoring in mathematics or statistics may become a candidate for departmental honors by successfully completing MATH 490, by presenting a major GPA of at least 3.6 and by achieving a satisfactory rating on a comprehensive examination.

MATH 49000 - Honors Seminar

GER 3/B
prereq: MATH 31100, 35100, perm dept.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Minor in Mathematics

A minor in mathematics consists of a minimum of 12 credits selected from the following courses offered by the Department:

- MATH courses numbered 15000 or above (with the exception of MATH 26100)
Mathematics minors are required to take all necessary prerequisites. Students should consult the catalog to determine prerequisites necessary for them to enroll in courses that count toward the minor.

It is recommended that prospective mathematics minors consult with an undergraduate mathematics adviser concerning course selection.

Mathematics Concentration in Preparation for Adolescent Education (Grades 7-12)

Provisional certification for teaching mathematics in grades 7-12 may be obtained by:

- Completing the BA with a traditional mathematics major, and
- Completing the adolescent education sequence as prescribed by the School of Education.

Students following this concentration in the mathematics major should consult a departmental adviser as to which advanced elective courses are recommended to complete 33 or more credits in the major.

Mathematics Concentration in Preparation for Childhood Education (Grades 1-6)

This concentration constitutes a mathematics major for QUEST students. QUEST students majoring in mathematics are not exempt from the MATH 10400/MATH 10500 requirement. To enter this major, the student should have completed one semester of calculus (MATH 15000 or the equivalent). The specified collateral major is childhood education. This mathematics major consists of at least 32 credits of coursework: 20 credits of major core curriculum courses and at least 12 additional credits, as described below.

Major Core Curriculum (20 credits)

MATH 15400 - An Introduction to Symbolic Computation

Laboratory introduction to machine-aided computation with an emphasis on examples related to calculus. Students use a symbolic computation package to investigate and solve problems numerically, analytically and graphically. The same package is used to create reports of their results. Some previous experience with computers is desirable but not required.

2 hrs 1 hr.*

MATH 15500 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

GER 1/B
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions, integration techniques, infinite sequences and series, improper integrals, polar coordinates.
MATH 15600 - Introduction to Mathematical Proof Workshop

Techniques of proof will be introduced, among them the direct and indirect methods of proof, epsilon-delta arguments and induction. These will be applied to theorems in number theory, set theory and in differential and integral calculus.

prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 15000

4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 15600 - Introduction to Mathematical Proof Workshop

In planning their schedules, prospective majors should note that some advanced required courses are offered only once each year and several advanced elective courses are offered only once every other year. A rotation schedule for course offerings is available in the department office and on the departmental web site.

prereq: MATH 15000. Because of the nature of mathematics, the department recommends that students refrain from enrolling in any course that carries prerequisites unless these prerequisites have been completed with a grade of C or better.

prereq or coreq: MATH 15500

2 hrs 1 cr.

MATH 16000 - Matrix Algebra

GER 1/B

Systems of linear equations, matrices, determinants, introduction to vector spaces and linear transformations, applications.

prereq: MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam

3 hrs 3 cr.

MATH 25000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry III

GER 3/B

Vector geometry, dot and cross products, partial derivatives, matrices, determinants, Jacobians, multiple integration.

prereq: MATH 15500

4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 26000 - Linear Algebra

GER 3/B

Vector spaces, linear transformations, canonical forms, inner product spaces, bilinear forms, applications.

prereq: MATH 15600 prereq or coreq: MATH 25000

4 hrs 4 cr.

STAT 21200 - Discrete Probability

GER 1/B

prereq: MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.

3 hrs 3 cr.

Additional Required Courses (at least 12 credits)

STAT 21300 - Introduction to Applied Statistics

GER 1/B

prereq: MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.

3 hrs 3 cr.
GER 1/B
Combinations, permutations, discrete probability. Characteristics of probability distributions. Model building. Additional topics like sampling, random walks or game theory will be introduced from time to time.

prereq: MATH 12500 or STAT 11300 or appropriate score on placement exam.
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 22000 - Statistical Analysis in Forensics

GER 3/B
A second course in probability and statistics and the evaluation of evidence in the forensic sciences.
prereq: STAT 21200 and either STAT 21300 or 11300 by permission of instructor. One of the above, i.e., STAT 21200 or STAT 21300 or STAT 11300 by permission of instructor may be taken as a coreq.
3 hrs 3 cr.
• Two additional courses approved by a departmental adviser

Mathematics Major with a Concentration in Quantitative Biology

Return to Programs and Courses in Mathematics & Statistics
This program is for students intending to pursue research careers in biomedical sciences. It provides students with a working knowledge of computing and biological sciences for bioengineering careers in bioinformatics, the pharmaceutical industry, and the biotechnology industry. In order to enroll in the quantitative biology concentration within the mathematics major, students must obtain an average of B- or better in the following courses:

STAT 21300
CHEM 10400 CHEM 10500 (or the equivalent)
CHEM 22200
BIOL 10000

In addition, no more than one (1) of these four courses may be passed with a grade of C.

Requirements for the Math Major that also apply to bioinformatics

Entry Requirements

MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

GER 1/B
Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 15500 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

GER 1/B
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions, integration techniques, infinite sequences and series, improper integrals, polar coordinates.

prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 15000

prereq: MATH 25000, 26000
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 21300 - Introduction to Applied Statistics

GER 1/B
prereq: MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 31100 - Probability Theory

GER 3/B
Combinatorics, distribution theory for discrete and continuous random variables, central limit theorems.
prereq: MATH 25000.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Additional Required Courses

STAT 31900 - Bayesian Statistical Inference in the Sciences

GER 3/B
prereq: MATH 15500; at least one of STAT 21200, STAT 21300 or STAT 21400 (or permission of instructor).
Prerequisites waived for students who have passed STAT 311.
Familiarity with matrix algebra (at the level of MATH 160) and with the Windows computing environment are encouraged.
3 hrs 3 cr

CSCI 13200 - Practical UNIX and Programming, with Lab

GER 2/E
An introduction to computer programming and the UNIX operating system using Perl. Conceptual overview of the UNIX operating system and programming environment, a practical introduction to shell programming, and the use of UNIX filters and utilities. A pragmatic course with an emphasis on skills acquisition.
This course cannot be counted towards the CSCI major.
prereq: none
3 hrs 3 cr.
CSCI 23200 - Relational Databases and SQL Programming, with Lab

GER 3/B
An introduction to elementary database concepts and SQL, the standard language for communicating with most database systems. A pragmatic course with an emphasis on skills acquisition; students will learn how to get things done quickly and easily in a database environment.

Required for computer science minors; open to computer science majors, but may not be used toward the computer science major.

prereq: CSCI 12700 or CSCI 13200
3 hrs 3 cr.

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.

Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.

Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10500 - General Chemistry Laboratory II

GER 2/E
Laboratory experiments illustrating and applying theory of solutions to qualitative analysis.

Offered for transfer students who have completed only one semester of General Chemistry Laboratory.

prereq: One semester of General Chemistry Laboratory, prereq or coreq: CHEM 10400
3 hrs 1.5 cr.

CHEM 22200 - Organic Chemistry Lecture I

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.

prereq: CHEM 10400
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

BIOL 30000 - Biological Chemistry

GER 3/B
Molecular aspects of cellular function; properties of biomolecules, their biosynthesis and breakdown; structure and function of proteins and enzymes, metabolites, membranes and nucleic acids; cellular mechanisms of energy transduction; integration and control of cell metabolism. Experiments cover a variety of modern techniques in molecular biology.

Material Fee: $10

prereq: BIOL 20200, CHEM 22200, 22300 coreq: CHEM 22400
BIOL 42500 - Computational Molecular Biology

GER 3/B
An introduction to the interdisciplinary field of computational molecular biology. Students are taught the scope and methods of in silico biology, i.e., the application of computational and statistical methods to solving problems in molecular biology. Topics will include homology searching, sequence alignment, molecular phylogenetics, comparative genomics, analysis of gene expression, and predication of macromolecular structures. The course will be taught using a mixed format of lectures and hands-on workshops in a UNIX computer laboratory setting. Knowledge and skills in molecular biology, UNIX programming, and statistics are essential for success in this core course required for bioinformatics-concentration students from all majors.

prereq: BIOL 30000 or BIOL 30200 or CHEM 37600; STAT 21300; CSCI 13200 or CSCI 23500 or UNIX proficiency permitted by instructor.

Mathematics or Statistics and Applied Mathematics - BA/MA

The BA/MA program offers promising students the opportunity to complete both the bachelor's and master's requirements with a minimum of 120 credits. Requirements are the same as those for a major in the department, plus 30 credits at the graduate level. Interested students should contact the graduate adviser for further information regarding eligibility and curriculum requirements.

Track 1: BA/MA Program in Mathematics

Students complete the BA with a traditional mathematics major, with 30 additional credits at the graduate level in pure mathematics approved by the departmental graduate adviser.

Track 2: BA/MA Program in Statistics and Applied Mathematics

Students complete the BA with a traditional major in statistics or mathematics, with 30 additional credits at the graduate level in applied mathematics, statistics, and computer science, approved by the departmental graduate adviser.

Mathematics Preparation for Adolescent Education (Grades 7-12) - BA/MA

Students interested in secondary school teaching may pursue a combined BA/MA program in teaching. This program requires a minimum of 141 credits.

Admission Requirements for the BA/MA in Teaching

- Completion of at least 45 credits with a GPA of 2.8.
- Completion of at least 10 credits in mathematics, including a year of calculus (MATH 15000 and MATH 15500, or the equivalent), with an average of 2.7 in these major courses.
- Admission to the School of Education.

Degree Requirements for the BA/MA in Teaching
The BA/MA program in the teaching of mathematics includes 47–48 credits in mathematics (in addition to the year of calculus described above) and 23 credits in teacher education courses, some of them taken at the undergraduate level and some at the graduate level. The required courses are:

- The 33 credits required for the BA in Mathematics OR the 32 credits required for the BA in Statistics.

- The following 15 graduate credits: MATH 62000, 63000, 63300, 63500, and STAT 61200 *or 61400.

*Although students are required to take either STAT 61200 or STAT 61400, they are encouraged to take both courses.

Also required is passing a comprehensive examination in mathematics consisting of three parts covering the material in MATH 620, 630, and 633. Students may sit for the comprehensive examination only after having taken all three courses. Students who fail any part of the examination need only retake that part of the examination. A student can take any part of the comprehensive exam in mathematics twice; after that, a committee formed by the Mathematics/Statistics Chairperson and consisting of members from the Department of Mathematics and Statistics and the Department of Curriculum and Teaching will decide if the student can take the examination a third and final time.

The student should consult the School of Education section of the graduate catalog for the sequence of teacher education courses.

Minor in Mathematics

A minor in mathematics consists of a minimum of 12 credits selected from the following courses offered by the Department:

- MATH courses numbered 15000 or above (with the exception of MATH 26100)
- STAT 31100
- STAT 31200

Mathematics minors are required to take all necessary prerequisites. Students should consult the catalog to determine prerequisites necessary for them to enroll in courses that count toward the minor.

It is recommended that prospective mathematics minors consult with an undergraduate mathematics adviser concerning course selection.

Minor in Statistics

A minor in statistics consists of at least 12 credits selected from STAT courses offered by the Department. Statistics minors are required to take all necessary prerequisites. Students should consult the catalog to determine prerequisites necessary for them to enroll in courses that count toward the minor. It is recommended that prospective statistics minors consult with an undergraduate statistics adviser concerning course selection.

Statistics - BA

The study of statistics provides the student with analytical tools that may find application in various fields within the sciences and social sciences. Bioinformatics is a rapidly developing area open to students in statistics with a working knowledge of computing and biological sciences. Actuarial science is one area open to students in statistics who also have backgrounds in such subjects as computer science, mathematics and economics. The BA/MA in Statistics and Applied Mathematics offered by the department provides enrichment for undergraduate statistics majors.

To enter the major the student must have completed MATH 15000 and MATH 15500. Normally, the statistics major consists of 32 credits as follows: 29 credits of core curriculum courses and any additional 3-credit statistics, mathematics, or computer science course approved by the statistics adviser. Modifications are permitted with the consent of the statistics adviser. For example, a student may elect to replace STAT 21200 with a more advanced course. With permission of the adviser, a student may take graduate courses in statistics and applied mathematics. Students interested in bioinformatics take the additional courses listed in the concentration in quantitative biology.

Major

Major Core Curriculum (29 cr)

MATH 25000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry III

GER 3/B
Vector geometry, dot and cross products, partial derivatives, matrices, determinants, Jacobians, multiple integration.

prereq: MATH 15500
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 25400 - Ordinary Differential Equations

GER 3/B
First-order equations, second-order linear equations and linear systems, power series solutions, transform and numerical methods, introduction to qualitative theory.

prereq: MATH 25000
3 hrs 3 cr.

or

MATH 35400 - Dynamical Systems and Chaos

GER 3/B
Linear flows, qualitative theory of low-dimensional nonlinear systems, introduction to chaos in discrete one-dimensional dynamical systems.

prereq: MATH 25000, 26000
3 hrs 3 cr.

MATH 26000 - Linear Algebra

GER 3/B
Vector spaces, linear transformations, canonical forms, inner product spaces, bilinear forms, applications.

prereq: MATH 15600 prereq or coreq: MATH 25000
4 hrs 4 cr.

STAT 21200 - Discrete Probability

GER 1/B
Combinations, permutations, discrete probability. Characteristics of probability distributions. Model building. Additional topics like sampling, random walks or game theory will be introduced from time to time.

prereq: MATH 12500 or STAT 11300 or appropriate score on placement exam.
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 21300 - Introduction to Applied Statistics
GER 1/B

prereq: MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 21400 - Data Analysis Using Statistical Software

GER 3/B
Familiarity with the Windows computing environment encouraged. Analysis of variance, simple and multiple regression, nonparametric statistics, statistical model building prereq: STAT 21300 or MATH 12500 and STAT 11300 with grade of C or better in each course.
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 31100 - Probability Theory

GER 3/B
Combinatorics, distribution theory for discrete and continuous random variables, central limit theorems.
prereq: MATH 25000.
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 31200 - Stochastic Processes

GER 3/B
Discrete and continuous stochastic processes including Markov chains, birth processes, queues and Brownian motion.
prereq: STAT 31100
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 31300 - Introduction to Mathematical Statistics

GER 3/B
Estimation, hypothesis testing, confidence limits for normal, binomial, Poisson and exponential random variables.
prereq: STAT 31100
3 hrs 3 cr.

Statistics Minor

A minor in statistics consists of at least 12 credits selected from STAT courses offered by the department. Statistics minors are required to take all necessary prerequisites. Students should consult the catalog to determine prerequisites necessary for them to enroll in courses that count toward the minor. It is recommended that prospective statistics minors consult with an undergraduate adviser concerning course selection.

Actuarial Sequence

A student interested in actuarial work should take the following courses. Students are also encouraged to take courses in accounting, economics and computer science. For information concerning examinations and prizes given to undergraduates by the Society of Actuaries, consult the departmental adviser.
MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

GER 1/B
Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 15500 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

GER 1/B
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions, integration techniques, infinite sequences and series, improper integrals, polar coordinates.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 15000
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 25000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry III

GER 3/B
Vector geometry, dot and cross products, partial derivatives, matrices, determinants, Jacobians, multiple integration.
prereq: MATH 15500
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 26000 - Linear Algebra

GER 3/B
Vector spaces, linear transformations, canonical forms, inner product spaces, bilinear forms, applications.
prereq: MATH 15600 prereq or coreq: MATH 25000
4 hrs 4 cr.

STAT 31100 - Probability Theory

GER 3/B
Combinatorics, distribution theory for discrete and continuous random variables, central limit theorems.
prereq: MATH 25000.
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 31300 - Introduction to Mathematical Statistics

GER 3/B
Estimation, hypothesis testing, confidence limits for normal, binomial, Poisson and exponential random variables.
prereq: STAT 31100
3 hrs 3 cr.

Concentration

- Statistics Major with a Concentration in Quantitative Biology

Honors
A student majoring in mathematics or statistics may become a candidate for departmental honors by successfully completing MATH 49000, by presenting a major GPA of at least 3.6 and by achieving a satisfactory rating on a comprehensive examination.

Statistics Major with a Concentration in Quantitative Biology

For students intending to pursue research careers in biomedical sciences. It provides students with a working knowledge of computing and biological sciences for bioengineering careers in bioinformatics, the pharmaceutical industry, and the biotechnology industry.

Students interested in this concentration in the statistics major should consult the adviser. Information at http://www.hunter.cuny.edu/qubi/statistics-majors

For this concentration, the student must complete the entry requirement for the statistics major (MATH 15000 and MATH 15500). This major consists of the following core curriculum and additional required courses:

Major Core Curriculum (29 credits)

MATH 25000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry III

GER 3/B
Vector geometry, dot and cross products, partial derivatives, matrices, determinants, Jacobians, multiple integration.
prereq: MATH 15500
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 25400 - Ordinary Differential Equations

GER 3/B
First-order equations, second-order linear equations and linear systems, power series solutions, transform and numerical methods, introduction to qualitative theory.
prereq: MATH 25000
3 hrs 3 cr.

or

MATH 35400 - Dynamical Systems and Chaos

GER 3/B
Linear flows, qualitative theory of low-dimensional nonlinear systems, introduction to chaos in discrete one-dimensional dynamical systems.
prereq: MATH 25000, 26000
3 hrs 3 cr.

MATH 26000 - Linear Algebra

GER 3/B
Vector spaces, linear transformations, canonical forms, inner product spaces, bilinear forms, applications.
prereq: MATH 15600 prereq or coreq: MATH 25000
4 hrs 4 cr.

STAT 21200 - Discrete Probability
GER 1/B
Combinations, permutations, discrete probability. Characteristics of probability distributions. Model building. Additional topics like sampling, random walks or game theory will be introduced from time to time.

prereq: MATH 12500 or STAT 11300 or appropriate score on placement exam.
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 21300 - Introduction to Applied Statistics

GER 1/B
Familiarity with the Windows computing environment encouraged. Sampling, estimation, tests of hypotheses, including one-and two-sample tests, two- and three-way tables for nominal and ordinal data, linear regression, analysis of variance through two-way with interaction, appropriate statistical software.

prereq: MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.

STAT 21400 - Data Analysis Using Statistical Software

GER 3/B
Familiarity with the Windows computing environment encouraged. Analysis of variance, simple and multiple regression, nonparametric statistics, statistical model building

prereq: STAT 21300 or MATH 12500 and STAT 11300 with grade of C or better in each course.
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 31100 - Probability Theory

GER 3/B
Combinatorics, distribution theory for discrete and continuous random variables, central limit theorems.

prereq: MATH 25000.
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 31200 - Stochastic Processes

GER 3/B
Discrete and continuous stochastic processes including Markov chains, birth processes, queues and Brownian motion.

prereq: STAT 31100
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 31300 - Introduction to Mathematical Statistics

GER 3/B
Estimation, hypothesis testing, confidence limits for normal, binomial, Poisson and exponential random variables.

prereq: STAT 31100
3 hrs 3 cr.

Additional Required Courses (30 credits)

CSCI 13200 - Practical UNIX and Programming, with Lab
GER 2/E
An introduction to computer programming and the UNIX operating system using Perl. Conceptual overview of the UNIX operating system and programming environment, a practical introduction to shell programming, and the use of UNIX filters and utilities. A pragmatic course with an emphasis on skills acquisition.

This course cannot be counted towards the CSCI major.

prereq: none

3 hrs 3 cr.

CSCI 23200 - Relational Databases and SQL Programming, with Lab

GER 3/B
An introduction to elementary database concepts and SQL, the standard language for communicating with most database systems. A pragmatic course with an emphasis on skills acquisition; students will learn how to get things done quickly and easily in a database environment.

Required for computer science minors; open to computer science majors, but may not be used toward the computer science major.

prereq: CSCI 12700 or CSCI 13200

3 hrs 3 cr.

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.

Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.

5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.

Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair

5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10600 - General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate the fundamental laws of chemistry. The course is equivalent one year of general chemistry laboratory.

Credit not given for CHEM 10600 and CHEM 10300 or CHEM 10500. Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq: CHEM 10200

coreq: CHEM 10400

6 hrs 3 cr.

(or equivalent)

CHEM 22200 - Organic Chemistry Lecture I

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.
prereq: CHEM 10400
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I

GER 2/E PD/C or D
The chemical basis of life; basic structure and function of pro- and eucaryotic cells; bioenergetics; Mendelian and molecular genetics; development and mechanisms of control of gene expression at all levels; population genetics and evolution.
Material Fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.

prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equivalent
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

BIOL 30000 - Biological Chemistry

GER 3/B
Molecular aspects of cellular function; properties of biomolecules, their biosynthesis and breakdown; structure and function of proteins and enzymes, metabolites, membranes and nucleic acids; cellular mechanisms of energy transduction; integration and control of cell metabolism. Experiments cover a variety of modern techniques in molecular biology.
Material Fee: $10

prereq: BIOL 20200, CHEM 22200, 22300 coreq: CHEM 22400
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only
or

BIOL 30200 - Molecular Genetics

GER 3/B
A comparison of viral, procaryotic and eukaryotic systems; review of classical Mendelian principles; bacterial DNA replication, transcription and their control; mechanisms of gene mutation, repair, recombination and transposition; applications of recombinant DNA technology; organization of nucleic acid into chromosomes; control of gene expression, the cell cycle and cell development in eucaryotes.
Material Fee: $10

prereq: BIOL 30000
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
spring only

BIOL 42500 - Computational Molecular Biology

GER 3/B
An introduction to the interdisciplinary field of computational molecular biology. Students are taught the scope and methods of in silico biology, i.e., the application of computational and statistical methods to solving problems in molecular biology. Topics will include homology searching, sequence alignment, molecular phylogenetics, comparative genomics, analysis of gene expression, and prediction of macromolecular structures. The course will be taught using a mixed format of lectures and hands-on workshops in a UNIX computer laboratory setting.
Knowledge and skills in molecular biology, UNIX programming, and statistics are essential for success in this core course required for bioinformatics-concentration students from all majors.
prereq: BIOL 30000 or BIOL 30200 or CHEM 37600; STAT 21300; CSCI 13200 or CSCI 23500 or UNIX proficiency permitted by instructor.

Music

About the Department

The Department of Music offers a wide variety of courses and degree programs tailored to the needs of students with different personal and professional objectives. Course offerings include a large selection of topics for both majors and non-majors covering many areas of music performance, theory, history, and literature. The BA degree can be completed evenings or days. In addition, the department sponsors numerous extracurricular events, including concerts, lectures, and master classes.

Private lessons in instruments and voice are provided to all performance majors and many other music majors by a distinguished roster of performance teachers. Financial aid is available to qualified performance majors and other majors who need to study with private teachers not on the staff.

Graduates of the department are active in classical and popular performance fields as singers, instrumentalists, and conductors. Concentration in music theory and composition can lead to career opportunities in orchestrating, choral or commercial arranging, film scoring, and music composing in contemporary and popular idioms. Concentration in music history paves the way for career opportunities in college teaching and musical scholarship, including such work as music journalism and criticism; lecturing; writing program and music-liner notes; editing, translating, and cataloging musical materials; and serving as a consultant to concert societies, opera houses, and publishers. Graduates of the BA/MA Degree in Education program are qualified to teach in the public elementary and high schools of New York State.

Graduate Study

Seniors of high academic standing who are recommended by the department may be permitted to take graduate courses for undergraduate credit. Seniors within 9 credits of graduation may apply to the Admissions Office for permission to take graduate courses creditable toward the MA degree.

Chair:
Minor in Music

The music minor consists of 15 credits in music: MUSTH 10100; MUSHL 10100 or MUSHL 10700; one course with an MUSHL prefix at the 200-level; and 6 credits of music electives, 3 of which must be at the 200-level or higher. Prospective minors who have already mastered the material taught in the required 100-level courses (MUSTH 10100 and/or MUSHL 10100 or 10700) may be exempted from these courses by passing the same entrance examination that is required of prospective music majors (see Music 25-Credit Major (BA)). Music minors must substitute more advanced courses in any area of music study, which may include private lessons and ensembles, for the courses from which they are exempt. PLEASE NOTE: Music minors who wish to take private lessons for credit (MUSPF 40100) must first pass both the performance audition and music theory portions of the entrance examination.

Music - BA/MA

4-Year Dual BA/MA Degree

The department offers unusually gifted students the opportunity to obtain a master’s degree in four years with a minimum of 120 credits. Requirements are the same as those for the 42-credit BA plus those for the MA in music (30 credits at the graduate level; see graduate catalog). Students may be admitted to this program only after they have completed at least 60 credits of college work, including at least 29 credits in music (three semesters of music history, four semesters of music theory, and four semesters of musicianship). At least 12 credits (including six in music) must have been taken at Hunter College, and students must have a cumulative GPA of at least 3.5 with no grade of less than B in any music course. At that time, they must fulfill all requirements for entry into the MA program except completion of the BA degree. The graduate adviser must be consulted about the MA requirements.

Music - BMus

60-Credit Major

This degree is designed for students planning to pursue careers as professional performers of music or as teachers of music performance. It provides intensive instruction in the student’s instrument or voice; solid training in music history and theory; and a broad, liberal arts education. Admission to this program is conditional on passing an audition (preferably before the student enters college) demonstrating a high level of skill in performance. Requirements are:
Music history:

MUSHL 20100 - Introduction to Music Research

Techniques of research and writing about music. Sources of information (reference books, monographs, periodicals, scores, recordings, Internet resources); types of writing (theoretical, historical, ethnomusicological, critical); writing issues specific to music.

*coreq: MUSHL 20500 prereq or coreq: ENGL 12000
1 hr 1 cr.*

offered fall

MUSHL 20500 - Music History I

PD/D
For music majors. Survey of the history of music in the European tradition to 1600.

prereq: elementary knowledge of music history and literature, demonstrated by dept. exam coreq: MUSHL 20100 prereq or coreq: MUSTH 22000, 23000, ENGL 12000, perm dept.

3 hrs 3 cr.

offered fall

MUSHL 20600 - Music History II (W)

PD/D
For music majors. Continuation of MUSHL 20500. Survey of the history of music in the European tradition from 1600 to 1800.

*prereq: MUSHL 20100, 20500, ENGL 12000 prereq or coreq: MUSTH 22100, 23100
3 hrs 3 cr.*

offered spring

MUSHL 30500 - Music History III (W)

PD/D
Continuation of MUSHL 20600. Survey of the history of music in the European tradition from 1800 to the present.

*prereq: MUSHL 20600, MUSTH 22100, 23100
3 hrs 3 cr.*

- Music 25-Credit Major (BA)
- Music 42-Credit Major (BA)
- Music - BMus

Major Programs

The Department of Music offers three undergraduate and two BA/MA major programs to fit individual interests and requirements. Students must take three examinations before declaring a music major:

1. Music notation, rudimentary theory, and basic musicianship skills. This examination is prerequisite to MUSTH 22000 (Music Theory I).

   Students who do not pass it must take MUSTH 10100 (Music Theory Fundamentals) or learn the material on their own, then repeat the examination.

2. Elementary music history and literature. This examination is prerequisite to MUSHL 20500 (Music History I). Students who do not pass it must take MUSHL 10100 (Introduction to Music) or learn the material on their own, then repeat the examination.

3. Performance audition on an instrument or voice. This examination is prerequisite to MUSPF 40100 (Private Instruction in Instrument or Voice). Students whose performance skills fall below New York State School Music Association (NYSSMA) level 2, equivalent to about one year of study, must take MUSPF 21100-MUSPF 21200 (Voice I-II), MUSPF 21300-MUSPF 21400 (Piano III), or private lessons at their own expense (without credit), then repeat the examination. Students with no experience in performance may defer the audition until the end of their first semester of study.

Prospective majors should consult the Music Department’s undergraduate adviser as soon as possible to discuss these examinations and any prerequisite courses they may need before beginning the major.

Piano Proficiency Requirement

All music majors must demonstrate elementary proficiency at the piano. Students should plan to fulfill this requirement during their first year of study. A passing grade on the piano proficiency examination is a prerequisite for the third semester of study in music theory (MUSTH 32000). Students entering Hunter with limited keyboard background may take MUSPF 21300-MUSPF 21400 (Piano I and II) for elective credit or private lessons in piano at their own expense. The Music Department office has a list of recommended piano teachers.

Minor in Music

The music minor consists of 15 credits in music:

MUSTH 10100 - Music Theory Fundamentals

GER 2/D
For non-majors. Introduction to music theory, sight singing, and ear training.
3 hrs 3 cr.

MUSHL 10100 - Introduction to Music

GER 2/D PD/D
For non-majors. Selected compositions primarily from the European tradition studied with aim to develop perceptive listening.
3 hrs 3 cr.

-or-

MUSHL 10700 - The World of Music

GER 2/D PD/A
For non-majors. Introduction to music from a spectrum of world cultures, including Africa, Asia, and the Caribbean.
3 hrs 3 cr.

- one course with an MUSHL prefix at the 200-level; and 6 credits of music electives, 3 of which must be at the 200-level or higher.

Prospective minors who have already mastered the material taught in the required 100-level courses MUSTH 10100 and/or MUSHL 10100 or MUSHL 10700) may be exempted from these courses by passing the same entrance examination that is required of prospective music majors (see above). Music minors may substitute more advanced courses in any area of music study, including private lessons (subject to availability) and ensembles, for the courses from which they are exempt. PLEASE NOTE: Music minors who wish to take private lessons for credit (MUSPF 40100) must first pass both the performance audition and music theory portions of the entrance examination.

Grading Policies

Students must have grades of C or better in all prerequisite courses in order to take courses that are required for the major. The grade of CR may not be elected in major courses. In accordance with Hunter College policy, a course may not be taken more than twice without permission of the department.

Honors

To qualify for departmental honors in music, a student must have a 3.5 grade point average in major courses and complete an honors project, taken under the following course number. The project, which must be approved in advance by the Policy Committee, may be a research paper on a historical, theoretical, or other topic; an original composition; or a recital. All projects should demonstrate an advanced level, a broad scope, and a high quality, and must be done under the supervision of a faculty member of the Music Department.

MUSTH 49100 - Honors Project

Upper Jr/Sr only. Individual project of large scope in music history, theory, composition, or performance.
prereq: minimum music GPA of 3.5, perm undergrad adviser
1 sem 3 cr.

MUSTH 49200 - Honors Project

prereq: MUSTH 49100
1 sem 3 cr.

Graduate Study

Seniors of high academic standing who are recommended by the department may be permitted to take graduate courses for undergraduate credit. Seniors within 9 credits of graduation may apply to the Admissions Office for permission to take graduate courses creditable toward the MA degree.

Music/Music Teacher Education Pre-K-12 - BA/MA

Major Programs

The Department of Music offers three undergraduate and two BA/MA major programs to fit individual interests and requirements. Students must take three examinations before declaring a music major:

1. Music notation, rudimentary theory, and basic aural skills. This examination is prerequisite to MUSTH 22000 (Music Theory I).

   Students who do not pass it must take MUSTH 10100 (Basic Musicianship) or learn the material on their own, then repeat the examination.
2. Elementary music history and literature. This examination is prerequisite to MUSHL 20500 (Music History I). Students who do not pass it must take MUSHL 10100 (Introduction to Music) or learn the material on their own, then repeat the examination.

3. Performance audition on an instrument or voice. This examination is prerequisite to MUSPF 40100 (Private Instruction in Instrument or Voice). Students whose performance skills fall below New York State School Music Association (NYSSMA) level 2, equivalent to about one year of study, must take MUSPF 21100-MUSPF 21200 (Voice I-II), MUSPF 21300-MUSPF 21400 (Piano III), or private lessons at their own expense (without credit), then repeat the examination. Students with no experience in performance may defer the audition until the end of their first semester of study.

Prospective majors should consult the Music Department’s undergraduate adviser as soon as possible to discuss these examinations and any prerequisite courses they may need before beginning the major.

Piano Proficiency Requirement

All music majors must demonstrate elementary proficiency at the piano. Students should plan to fulfill this requirement during their first year of study. A passing grade on the piano proficiency examination is a prerequisite for the second year of study in music theory (MUSTH 32000 and MUSTH 32100). Students entering Hunter with limited keyboard background may take MUSPF 21300-MUSPF 21400 (Piano I and II) for elective credit or private lessons in piano at their own expense. The Music Department office has a list of recommended piano teachers.

5- to 6-Year Dual BA/MA Degree in Teacher Education

Exceptionally qualified students may obtain a master’s degree in teacher education in 5-6 years with a minimum of 140 credits. Requirements are the same as those for the 42-credit BA plus requirements for the MA degree in music teacher education (see graduate catalog). Students may be admitted to this program only after they have completed at least 60 credits of college work, including at least 29 credits in music (three semesters of music history, four semesters of music theory, and four semesters of musicianship). At least 12 credits (including six in music) must have been taken at Hunter College, and students must have a cumulative GPA of at least 3.5 with no grade of less than B in any music course. They must have passed the Music Department’s piano proficiency examination and an audition-interview demonstrating reasonable mastery of an instrument or voice. In addition, they must either have passed the LAST (Liberal Arts and Sciences Test) or fulfilled the following requirements of the School of Education:

- a. Completion of developmental courses;
- b. Grade of B or better in ENGL 12000 or a 200-level English course;
- c. Application, on-site essay, and interview with the School of Education;
- d. Proof of negative result on TB test;
- e. Maximum of 6 credits taken with CR/NC grades, or else calculation of those grades as C/F for computation of grade-point average.

Admission requires the consent of both the Music Department and the School of Education. See the School of Education section of both the undergraduate and graduate catalogs for more information.

Minor

For 25-credit music majors, the minor consists of 12 credits in a field of study leading to a BA degree and approved by the Music Department adviser. Double-majors and students in other music major programs are exempt from the minor requirement. Minor courses can be used without limit to satisfy stages 1, 2, and 3 of the GER.
Minor for non-Majors

For students minoring in music, the requirements are determined by the student’s major department. See your major adviser. The Music Department recommends the following courses. Because 300-level courses are intended primarily for music majors and have extensive prerequisites, students whose major departments require a 300-level course in the minor may, with permission of their adviser, substitute a 200-level course in the music minor.

MUSTH 10100 - Music Theory Fundamentals

GER 2/D
For non-majors. Introduction to music theory, sight singing, and ear training.
3 hrs 3 cr.

- One course with an MU-H prefix at the 200-level
- 1-3 credits of music electives

Grading Policy
Students must have grades of C or better in all prerequisite courses in order to take courses that are required for the major. The grade of CR may not be elected in major courses. In accordance with Hunter College policy, a course may not be taken more than twice without permission of the department.

Honors

To qualify for departmental honors in music, a student must have a 3.5 grade point average in major courses and complete an honors project, taken under the following course number. The project, which must be approved in advance by the Policy Committee, may be a research paper on a historical, theoretical, or other topic; an original composition; or a recital. Philosophy

About the Department

Philosophy studies the most fundamental questions that human beings ask — about individual and social action, the possibility and limits of knowledge, the truth and justification of beliefs, human nature and freedom, the existence of God and the operations of nature. Philosophy approaches these questions in a systematic way and philosophers have worked out more or less comprehensive theories to answer them (or show why they cannot be answered). The courses offered by the Philosophy Department are designed to introduce students to the main problems that philosophers study and to the main ideas of such profound and influential thinkers as Socrates, Plato, Aristotle, Augustine, Aquinas, Descartes, Hume and Kant.

Philosophy is one of the most important subjects a student can study because it develops the ability to reason clearly and critically, to write thoughtfully, to use intelligence and logic to deal with problems all too often ruled by emotion and prejudice. Philosophy also helps one develop intellectual flexibility and learn to appreciate ideas and beliefs other than those of one’s own time, place, class or group. Since it develops these intellectual abilities and habits, the study of philosophy, either in individual courses or as a major or minor, is excellent preparation for any profession or occupation.

Students of philosophy pursue careers in law, business, medicine, government and the arts. Some go on to study philosophy at the graduate level with the aim either of teaching philosophy or of obtaining an advanced degree to further their career objectives.

Course Listings
The department especially encourages students majoring in or interested in philosophy, both with fewer than 6 credits toward the major in philosophy, to consult with a departmental adviser about courses and their prerequisites at this stage of their academic stay at Hunter.

3 hrs 3 cr.

POLSC 31600 - Political Theory of Human Rights (W)

GER 3/B
A critical analysis of the intersection of academic and practical discourse of human rights with the central concerns of political theory, particularly as it engages relationships between ethics and power as well as theory and practice.
prereq: ENGL 12000 or its equivalent; one course in political theory or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

SOC 22100 - Classical Sociological Theory

GER 3/B PD/D
Classical theorists and their contributions.
prereq: SOC 10100
3 hrs 3 cr.

SOC 22300 - Current Sociological Theory

GER 3/B
Significance of concepts and nature of evidence applied to leading theories. Theory construction.
prereq: SOC 10100, SOC 22100, major
3 hrs 3 cr.

Elective courses recommended for students with particular interests

Elective credits should be carefully chosen to focus students’ programs on their present interests and future needs. The following courses are recommended for students with particular interests.

Graduate study in philosophy

PHILO 17100 - Introduction to Symbolic Logic

Sentential logic, including the truth-functional connectives, truth tables, symbolizations, consistency trees. Predicate logic, including quantificational symbolizations and consistency trees for quantifiers.
3 hrs 3 cr.

PHILO 24400 - Moral Philosophy (W)

GER 3/A
Study of selected problems in philosophical ethics and moral psychology.
prereq: ENGL 12000 and one previous course in philosophy.

GER 3/B PD/D
Classical theorists and their contributions.

prereq: SOC 10100

3 hrs 3 cr.

SOC 22300 - Current Sociological Theory

GER 3/B
Significance of concepts and nature of evidence applied to leading theories. Theory construction.

prereq: SOC 10100, SOC 22100, major

3 hrs 3 cr.

Note:

Certain new, ad hoc, or independent study courses may be taken in partial satisfaction of requirements listed above, if they are approved by the Philosophy, Politics and Society major concentration adviser.

Minors in Philosophy

Students may declare an optional minor in Philosophy (the Standard concentration) or a minor in the Philosophy, Politics, Society concentration. In either case a minor in philosophy is comprised of 12 credits at the 200-level or above, including no fewer than 3 credits at the 300-level. Exceptions: PHILO 17100 may count toward the minor at the 200-level; and PHILO 20300 and PHILO 20400 shall not count. PHILO 20300 and 20400 are excluded from counting toward the minor, because they are, albeit advanced, introductory courses. A student must pass a minor in philosophy with a minimum GPA of 3.00.

When constructing a philosophy minor in either the standard or the PPS concentration, a student should always consult with a philosophy department advisor beforehand.

The Standard Minor

Students should follow their interests in choosing the courses taken to satisfy the minor. Usually this will involve choosing courses related to the student’s major. Ideally the minor will allow the student to study the philosophical issues associated with a field or period of history in increasing depth. Some suggested tracks are listed below:

Logic and Mathematics

four of

PHILO 17100 - Introduction to Symbolic Logic

3 hrs 3 cr.

PHILO 26200 - Philosophy of Religion (W)

GER 3/A
Philosophical examination of some religious questions and beliefs.
prereq: one course in philosophy or religion (see statement under Program Prerequisites)
3 hrs 3 cr.

PHILO 36000 - Metaphysics (W)

GER 3/A
Study of major metaphysical views, such as materialism, idealism, nominalism and realism. The major question is:
What is reality and how may it be known?
prereq: Two courses in philosophy, at least one of which is at the 200 level.
3 hrs 3 cr.

PHILO 38000 - Plato (W)

GER 3/A
Close study of major Platonic dialogues.
prereq: Two courses in philosophy, at least one of which is at the 200 level.
4 hrs 4 cr.

PHILO 38200 - Major Figure in Medieval Philosophy (W)

GER 3/A
A study of the works and legacy of one of the major philosophers of the Middle Ages such as Augustine, Averroes, Maimonides, or Aquinas. The course may be repeated as different figures are offered.
prereq: Two courses in philosophy, at least one of which is at the 200 level.

PHILO 38500 - Plotinus (W)

GER 3/A
A study of the background, writings and legacy of Plotinus.
prereq: Two courses in philosophy, at least one of which is at the 200 level.
3 hrs 3 cr.

PHILO 38700 - Nietzsche (W)

GER 3/A
Study of Nietzsche's major writings.
prereq: Two courses in philosophy, at least one of which is at the 200 level.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Minor in Philosophy, Politics and Society (PPS)

A student must take, as a prerequisite to the minor, PHILO 10600. This course does not count toward the PPS minor.

The PPS minor consists in taking 4 courses or 12 credits from the philosophy courses listed in the PPS major. Non-philosophy courses counting toward the PPS major concentration may not count toward the minor in philosophy.

Major Adviser

The Philosophy Department offers extensive advising services to majors, including: guidance for course selection and sequencing and devising a course of study; tracking progress and compliance with college, CUNY, and state regulations; career advice; planning for graduate and professional school applications; and information about special opportunities for philosophy students. Minors may also make use of these services.

Mentoring
Philosophy majors are encouraged to establish a relationship with a faculty mentor of their choice. This relationship can be distinct from the departmental advising relationship.

Honors

To be eligible for graduation with departmental honors in philosophy, a major must have at least a 3.50 GPA in philosophy, at least a 3.0 overall GPA. The student must register for the 3- or 6-credit PHILO 49400, which is taken in addition to and is not part of the 30 credits for the major. The student must write a substantial paper under the direction of a full-time faculty member. To receive departmental honors the completed paper must be submitted to a three-member committee who will judge whether it merits departmental honors. This committee will consist of the director of the student's Honors Tutorial and two other full-time philosophy faculty members appointed by the director.

PHILO 49400 - Honors Tutorial in Philosophy

Open to Jr/Sr only. Students must present a proposal for an individual project to be completed under faculty supervision. Successful completion is one requirement for departmental honors at graduation.

prereq: 3.0 cum GPA and 3.50 major GPA; philosophy majors only, minor with perm instr; two 300-level PHIL courses, one of which may be taken concurrently; perm dept.

3 or 6 cr.

Independent Study

Students may engage in independent study under the supervision of a member of the Philosophy department by receiving permission to take the following.

PHILO 49200 - Independent Study in Philosophy

Independent study of philosophical works under faculty supervision.

prereq: one PHILO course at 300-level, perm instr. (see Program Prerequisites)

1-6 cr.

Physics and Astronomy

About the Department

Physics is the study of the basic interactions that govern the behavior of the universe as we know it. As such, a knowledge of physics is necessary for the proper understanding of any science, and, of course, it is an exciting field of study in its own right.

The department offers comprehensive training in physics that can lead to a teaching position in grades 7-12; industrial, institutional and government work; and graduate study. The major includes lecture courses, laboratory courses, and a chance for qualified students to participate in research with faculty members.

Physics for Non-Physics Majors

A minimum of one year of physics is recommended for all majors in sciences and health sciences.
Medical and dental schools also require one year of physics. Students requiring one year of physics may take either the PHYS 11000-PHYS 12000 sequence (9 cr) or the PHYS 11100-PHYS 12100 sequence (11 cr). Although both sequences cover the same topics, PHYS 11100-PHYS 12100 utilizes elementary calculus and meets for one additional lecture hour each week. It is recommended for science students and those premed students who satisfy the mathematics pre- or corequisite. PHYS 101 (4 cr) should be taken only by those who want a one semester terminal course in physics; it does not satisfy pre-professional requirements. Students should take no more than one first-semester course (PHYS 10100, PHYS 11000, PHYS 11100) and no more than one second-semester course (PHYS 12000, PHYS 12100) since they may receive credit for no more than one course from each group.

Physical Sciences Learning Center
B122 Main Library HE, (212) 396-6458, (212) 650-3707, (212) 650-3986

The Physical Sciences Learning Center provides individual tutoring, on a walk-in basis, for students enrolled in physics, chemistry and organic chemistry courses. Workshops and group tutoring sessions are also offered for selected topics. State-of-the-art computers with Internet service and appropriate programs are readily accessible. A library containing a variety of physical science textbooks and problem solutions is available. The Learning Center encourages students to learn and work with their peers.

The Physical Sciences Learning Center is open Mondays through Fridays during the day and evening. At the beginning of each semester, the specific hours and tutoring schedules are posted.

Science Courses

Mathematics

MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

GER 1/B
Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 15500 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

GER 1/B
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions, integration techniques, infinite sequences and series, improper integrals, polar coordinates.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 15000
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 25000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry III

GER 3/B
Vector geometry, dot and cross products, partial derivatives, matrices, determinants, Jacobians, multiple integration.
prereq: MATH 15500
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 25400 - Ordinary Differential Equations

GER 3/B
First-order equations, second-order linear equations and linear systems, power series solutions, transform and numerical methods, introduction to qualitative theory.
prereq: MATH 25000
3 hrs 3 cr.

Chemistry

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.
Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II
GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.
Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10600 - General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate the fundamental laws of chemistry. The course is equivalent one year of general chemistry laboratory.
Credit not given for CHEM 10600 and CHEM 10300 or CHEM 10500. Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200
coreq: CHEM 10400
6 hrs 3 cr.

Physics

PHYS 11100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
For physics and other science majors. First semester of a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.
prereq or coreq: coreq (with perm dept.): MATH 15000
8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.

PHYS 12100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics

GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11100, a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.
prereq: PHYS 11000 or 11100
prereq or coreq: (with perm dept.): MATH 15500
8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.

PHYS 33000 - Atomic and Nuclear Physics

Examines experimental evidence and develops modern view of structure of atom and nucleus.
prereq: PHYS 12000 or 12100 prereq or coreq: MATH 25000
4 hrs 4 cr.

PHYS 36000 - Atomic and Nuclear Physics for Engineers

PHYS 33500 - Intermediate Mechanics

Study of laws of motion and coordinate systems; introduction to powerful analytical techniques.
prereq: PHYS 12000 or 12100 prereq or coreq: MATH 25000
4 hrs 4 cr.
PHYS 36500 - Analytical Mechanics

Technical Drawing

Other Courses

ECO 20000 - Principles of Microeconomics

GER 2/B
May be taken prior to or concurrently with ECO 20100. Determination of prices and quantities of goods and services, including labor and other resources; competitive and imperfect markets; public policy implications.
prereq: MATH 10100 or exemption from the course
3 hrs 3 cr.

ECO 20100 - Principles of Macroeconomics

GER 2/B
May be taken prior to or concurrently with ECO 20000. Economic growth; fluctuations in the aggregate economy; inflation; monetary and fiscal policy.
prereq: MATH 10100 or exemption from the course
3 hrs 3 cr.

Civil Engineering

Science Courses

Mathematics

MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I
GER 1/B
Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 15500 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

GER 1/B
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions, integration techniques, infinite sequences and series, improper integrals, polar coordinates.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 15000
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 25000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry III

GER 3/B
Vector geometry, dot and cross products, partial derivatives, matrices, determinants, Jacobians, multiple integration.
prereq: MATH 15500
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 25400 - Ordinary Differential Equations

GER 3/B
First-order equations, second-order linear equations and linear systems, power series solutions, transform and numerical methods, introduction to qualitative theory.
prereq: MATH 25000
3 hrs 3 cr.

Chemistry

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.
Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.
Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10600 - General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate the fundamental laws of chemistry. The course is equivalent one year of general chemistry laboratory.
Credit not given for CHEM 10600 and CHEM 10300 or CHEM 10500. Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200
coreq: CHEM 10400
6 hrs 3 cr.

Geology

GEOL 10100 - Fundamentals of Geology

GER 2/E
Describes the earth and the forces that shape it. Topics of discussion will be the formation of the earth, plate tectonics, earth materials and geologic time. The goals of the course include introducing students to geology, "systems thinking", the methods of scientific inquiry. Lab: study of minerals, rocks, maps. Field trips may be required; transportation fee.
6 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab) 4.5 cr.
Offered fall and spring.

Physics

PHYS 11100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
For physics and other science majors. First semester of a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.
prereq or coreq: coreq (with perm dept.): MATH 15000
8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.

PHYS 12100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics

GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11100, a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.
prereq: PHYS 11000 or 11100
prereq or coreq: (with perm dept.): MATH 15500
8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.

PHYS 33000 - Atomic and Nuclear Physics

Examines experimental evidence and develops modern view of structure of atom and nucleus. prereq: PHYS 12000 or 12100 prereq or coreq: MATH 25000
4 hrs 4 cr.

PHYS 36000 - Atomic and Nuclear Physics for Engineers

Technical Drawing

Other Courses
English

ENGL 12000 - Expository Writing

GER 1/A
Required of all students unless exempt; trains students to analyze, develop and evaluate ideas and to express themselves clearly and effectively. Introduction to documented research.
prereq: successful completion of developmental courses, if required 3 hrs + conf 3 cr.

Humanities and Social Sciences

- 3-4 courses 9-12

Economics

ECO 20000 - Principles of Microeconomics

GER 2/B
May be taken prior to or concurrently with ECO 20100. Determination of prices and quantities of goods and services, including labor and other resources; competitive and imperfect markets; public policy implications.

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.
Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

Physics

PHYS 11100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
For physics and other science majors. First semester of a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.
prereq or coreq: coreq (with perm dept.): MATH 15000
8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.

PHYS 12100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics

GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11100, a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.
prereq: PHYS 11000 or 11100
prereq or coreq: (with perm dept.): MATH 15500
8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.
PHYS 33000 - Atomic and Nuclear Physics

Examines experimental evidence and develops modern view of structure of atom and nucleus. prereq: PHYS 12000 or 12100 prereq or coreq: MATH 25000
4 hrs 4 cr.

PHYS 36000 - Atomic and Nuclear Physics for Engineers

PHYS 33500 - Intermediate Mechanics

Study of laws of motion and coordinate systems; introduction to powerful analytical techniques.
prereq: PHYS 12000 or 12100 prereq or coreq: MATH 25000
4 hrs 4 cr.

PHYS 36500 - Analytical Mechanics

Minor in Physics

A minor in Physics consists of a minimum of 12 credits of PHYS courses, including two courses numbered above 200 or one course numbered above 300. Students who wish to enroll in the Physics Minor must have completed:

- MATH 15000
- MATH 15500
- MATH 25000
- MATH 25400

The prerequisites for the 300-level courses include MATH 25000 and/or MATH 25400.

Physics - BA

Major
One of the following 3 options (concentrations) may be taken.

- Physics Option 1
- Physics Option 2
- Physics Option 3

Graduate Study

The Department of Physics and Astronomy offers a number of advanced courses, listed in the graduate catalog, which give credit toward the degree of master of arts. Qualified undergraduate students may be admitted to these courses with the approval of the department chair.

Minor in Physics

A minor in Physics consists of a minimum of 12 credits of PHYS courses, including two courses numbered above 200 or one course numbered above 300.

Students who wish to enroll in the Physics Minor must have completed MATH 15000 and MATH 15500. The prerequisites for the 300-level courses include MATH 25000 and/or MATH 25400.

Honors Work

The opportunity for students to do individual research (experimental or theoretical) is offered in courses

PHYS 45300 - Introduction to Research

Independent theoretical or experimental research or independent study of approved topic.

prereq: PHYS 33000, 33400, 33500, and 42700 or perm chair

1-3 cr.

PHYS 45400 - Introduction to Research

Independent theoretical or experimental research or independent study of approved topic.

prereq: PHYS 45300 or perm chair

1 to 3 cr.

Articulation Agreements

Articulation Agreement for Queensborough AAS Degree in Laser Technology

An articulation agreement is in place for AAS graduates from Queensborough Community College with a degree in Laser Technology. Consult the physics department for further information.

Articulation Agreement with New York City College of Technology
An agreement is in place for students from New York City College of Technology (CUNY) who successfully complete an associate degree in science in Liberal Arts (LAS) with at least a 2.0 overall grade-point average to be accepted into the Hunter College BA program in Physics. Consult the physics and astronomy department for further information.

Physics - BA/MA

This special program for a limited number of well qualified students leads to a bachelor of arts and a master of arts degree. Students are offered the opportunity to quickly reach a level where they are competitive for admission into any doctoral program in physics. The program requires 124-126 credits (including the 30 credits required for a physics major BA degree and 30 credits from the graduate curriculum). Because this program requires a large number of physics courses, many of which have other physics courses as prerequisites, students in this program should begin taking physics courses in their first or second semester. Students should consult with the department chair, undergraduate adviser or graduate adviser for details as early as possible.

Physics Option 1

Return to Programs and Courses in Physics & Astronomy

For students in the BA/MA program, students intending to teach grades 7-12, and students intending to enter the medical profession. The requirements consist of 8 credits of introductory physics courses

PHYS 11100 and PHYS 12000 preferred and a 22-credit concentration in physics courses at the 200 level and higher:

PHYS 22100
PHYS 22200
PHYS 33000
PHYS 33400
PHYS 23000
PHYS 23500
PHYS 33500

Additionally, 15-24 credits of allied courses (mathematics and chemistry) are also required. Together, the introductory physics and the Option 1 concentration (30 credit total) satisfy the major requirement for initial certification as a teacher of physics in grades 7-12. Option 1, together with the MA (see the Accelerated BA/MA Program in Physics), is recommended for students planning to pursue a PhD in physics.

Preparation for Teaching

The Option 1 major in physics satisfies the requirements for NY State initial certification of at least 30 credits for teachers in adolescent education: physics (grades 7-12). Students planning to become physics teachers at the secondary level should take the 23-credit sequence in secondary education.
Students preparing to teach physics are advised to include the following courses or their equivalents in their undergraduate program:

MATH 25400 - Ordinary Differential Equations

GER 3/B
First-order equations, second-order linear equations and linear systems, power series solutions, transform and numerical methods, introduction to qualitative theory.

*prereq: MATH 25000
3 hrs 3 cr.*

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.

Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

*prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.*

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.

Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

*prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.*

CHEM 10600 - General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate the fundamental laws of chemistry. The course is equivalent one year of general chemistry laboratory.

Credit not given for CHEM 10600 and CHEM 10300 or CHEM 10500. Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

*prereq: CHEM 10200
coreq: CHEM 10400
6 hrs 3 cr.*

ASTRO 10100 - Basic Concepts of Astronomy with Laboratory Exercises

GER 2/E with lab
An introductory, one-semester astronomy course designed for non-science majors. Topics include: basic observational features of the night sky, and their explanations; Kepler's laws of planetary motion; Newton's laws of motion and gravitation. Properties of light, and how it reveals the nature of its source. Origin, properties, and evolution of our solar system. The origin and evolution of stars, including giants, dwarfs, supernovae, neutron stars, and black holes. Structure of The Milky Way and other type of galaxies. Cosmology, Hubble's Law and the expanding universe, from the Big Bang to the present; future scenarios.

The lab consists of traditional hardware experiments and virtual online experiments.

Students taking this course will be required to submit online and hard-copy laboratory reports.
GEOL 10100 - Fundamentals of Geology

GER 2/E
Describes the earth and the forces that shape it. Topics of discussion will be the formation of the earth, plate tectonics, earth materials and geologic time. The goals of the course include introducing students to geology, “systems thinking”, the methods of scientific inquiry. Lab: study of minerals, rocks, maps. Field trips may be required; transportation fee. 6 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab) 4.5 cr.
Offered fall and spring.

BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I

GER 2/E PD/C or D
The chemical basis of life; basic structure and function of pro- and eucaryotic cells; bioenergetics; Mendelian and molecular genetics; development and mechanisms of control of gene expression at all levels; population genetics and evolution.
Material Fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equivalent
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

Physics Option 2

Return to Programs and Courses in Physics & Astronomy

(Biophysics concentration) is recommended for students planning to pursue graduate studies and industrial R&D in biological related areas in physics, chemistry, bioengineering, and material sciences. This concentration is designed to allow the students to gain a solid foundation in physics and biology, together with a specially-designed course in biophysics which demonstrates the disciplinary interface between the two. The concentration requirements consist of courses in physics (26 cr), mathematics (12 cr), chemistry (15 cr) and biology (18 cr) and 8 credits of electives (at least 4 must be in physics).

Courses in Physics (26 credits)

PHYS 11100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
For physics and other science majors. First semester of a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.
prereq or coreq: coreq (with perm dept.): MATH 15000
8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.

PHYS 12100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics
GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11000, a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.

prereq: PHYS 11000 or 11100
prereq or coreq: (with perm dept.): MATH 15500
8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.

PHYS 33000 - Atomic and Nuclear Physics

Examines experimental evidence and develops modern view of structure of atom and nucleus.

prereq: PHYS 12000 or 12100 prereq or coreq: MATH 25000
4 hrs 4 cr.

PHYS 33400 - Intermediate Electricity and Magnetism

Electrostatics, currents, magnetism, and introduction to electromagnetic theory of light.

prereq: PHYS 12000 or 12100 prereq or coreq: MATH 25000
4 hrs 4 cr.

PHYS 33600 - Thermodynamics and Statistical Mechanics

Study of fundamental ideas of heat, reversibility, and entropy. Introduction to statistical nature of some physical laws.

prereq: PHYS 12000 or 12100; MATH 25000
4 hrs 4 cr.

PHYS 42000 - Introduction to Biophysics

A comprehensive introduction to the interface between physics and biology and the application of the techniques of physics to understanding biological systems, focusing on developing an understanding of the thermodynamics of living systems, on the physical kinematics of macromolecules and other biological structures and on the theory of physical techniques that are used in the study of biological systems.

prereq or coreq: PHYS 33000, PHYS 33600, BIOL 30000, CHEM 37600.
4 hrs 4 cr.

Mathematics (12 cr)

MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

GER 1/B
Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.

prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 15500 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

GER 1/B
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions, integration techniques, infinite sequences and series, improper integrals, polar coordinates.

prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 15000
4 hrs 4 cr.
MATH 25000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry III

GER 3/B
Vector geometry, dot and cross products, partial derivatives, matrices, determinants, Jacobians, multiple integration.
prereq: MATH 15500
4 hrs 4 cr.

Chemistry (15 cr)

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.
Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.
Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10600 - General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate the fundamental laws of chemistry. The course is equivalent one year of general chemistry laboratory.
Credit not given for CHEM 10600 and CHEM 10300 or CHEM 10500. Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200
coreq: CHEM 10400
6 hrs 3 cr.

CHEM 22200 - Organic Chemistry Lecture I

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.
prereq: CHEM 10400
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

CHEM 22400 - Organic Chemistry Lecture II

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.
prereq: prereq for CHEM 22400: CHEM 22200
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.
Biology (18 cr)

BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I

GER 2/E PD/C or D
The chemical basis of life; basic structure and function of pro- and eucaryotic cells; bioenergetics; Mendelian and molecular genetics; development and mechanisms of control of gene expression at all levels; population genetics and evolution.
Material Fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equivalent
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

BIOL 10200 - Principles of Biology II

GER 2/E PD/C or D
Taxonomy; homeostasis; internal transport and gas exchange in plants and animals; plant hormones; osmoregulation; mechanisms of action in the muscular, nervous and neuroendocrine systems; the senses, behavior; ecology.
Material fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
prereq: BIOL 10000 or perm instr, MATH 10100 or equiv.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
spring only

BIOL 20000 - Cell Biology I: Microorganisms

GER 3/B
Structure and function of procaryotic cells and viruses; cultivation, growth, evolution, metabolism and genetics of microorganisms. Laboratories include light microscopy techniques, cultivation, growth, metabolism and genetics of microorganisms and viruses.
Material fee: $10
prereq: BIOL 10000 and 10200 or equiv; CHEM 10200, 10300, 10400, 10500 or equiv. coreq: CHEM 22200, 22300 or perm instr. (for Major II students, chem are CHEM 10000, 10100; coreqs are 12000, 12100)
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

BIOL 30000 - Biological Chemistry

GER 3/B
Molecular aspects of cellular function; properties of biomolecules, their biosynthesis and breakdown; structure and function of proteins and enzymes, metabolites, membranes and nucleic acids; cellular mechanisms of energy transduction; integration and control of cell metabolism. Experiments cover a variety of modern techniques in molecular biology.
Material Fee: $10
prereq: BIOL 20200, CHEM 22200, 22300 coreq: CHEM 22400
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only
and 8 cr of electives

At least 4 credits must be in physics

Physics Option 3

Return to Programs and Courses in Physics & Astronomy

(Laser and fiber optics concentration) is recommended for those interested in a career in the telecommunications industry, as it includes a foundation in lasers and fiber optics.

Eight (8) credits of introductory physics are required

Recommended

PHYS 11100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
For physics and other science majors. First semester of a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.

*prereq or coreq: coreq (with perm dept.): MATH 15000
8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.*

PHYS 12100 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics

GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11100, a two-semester introductory physics course using calculus.

*prereq: PHYS 11000 or 11100
prereq or coreq: (with perm dept.): MATH 15500
8 hrs (4 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 5.5 cr.*

May be taken instead

PHYS 11000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
First semester of two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.

*prereq: MATH 12500; pre-calculus or equiv. By math dept. exam.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.*

PHYS 12000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics

GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11000, a two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.
prereq: PHYS 11000 or 11100
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.

No more than 8 credits toward the major can be obtained from these courses. It is recommended that the following be taken, if the PHYS 110-120 sequence is taken instead of the PHYS 111-121 sequence.

PHYS 19000 - Tutorial in Mathematical Physics

Applications of differential and integral calculus to selected topics chosen from the major subfields of physics. Completion of this course and its prerequisites is equivalent to completion of the calculus-based general physics sequence, PHYS 11100 and 12100.

prereq: MATH 15500, PHYS 12000
3 hrs (2 lec, 1 rec) 2 cr.

(15 cr) are required in addition to one year of high school chemistry or college chemistry

MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

GER 1/B
Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 15500 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II

GER 1/B
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions, integration techniques, infinite sequences and series, improper integrals, polar coordinates.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 15000
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 25000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry III

GER 3/B
Vector geometry, dot and cross products, partial derivatives, matrices, determinants, Jacobians, multiple integration.
prereq: MATH 15500
4 hrs 4 cr.

MATH 25400 - Ordinary Differential Equations

GER 3/B
First-order equations, second-order linear equations and linear systems, power series solutions, transform and numerical methods, introduction to qualitative theory.
prereq: MATH 25000
3 hrs 3 cr.

All four courses of the sequence are required
No more than 4 credits of the sequence PHYS 231-234 may be used toward the major.

PHYS 23100 - Fundamentals of Laser and Fiber Optics

GER 3/B
Topics in optics related to lasers and optical fiber and devices for modulating and directing signals from such devices. Geometrical optics with emphasis on ray tracing. Matrix methods in optics. Lenses thick and thin, mirrors, prisms and other passive optical elements and systems. Propagation of light in materials. Dispersion and its effects. Special topics in geometric and wave optics. Laboratory complements classwork.

prereq: PHYS 12000 or 12100 or equiv; MATH 12500

5 hrs 4 cr.

PHYS 23200 - Laser and Electro-Optics Technology

GER 3/B
Wave optics, interference, coherence, polarization, birefringence, diffraction, gratings in two and three dimensions, power and energy measurements, basics of laser safety, ultra-fast pulse technology measurements, basics of laser safety, ultra-fast pulse technologies, electro-optics and acoustooptics switches, optical materials, non-linear optics. Laboratory complements classwork.

prereq: PHYS 23100

7 hrs 5 cr.

PHYS 23300 - Laser Electro-Optics Devices, Measurements and Applications

GER 3/B
Laser as a device, principle of operation, cavity modes and their control (tuning elements, Q switching, mode-locking) and detection, laser design, types of lasers, includes discussion of laser types for medical, ranging and tracking, material processing, pollution monitoring, and optical memory applications, semiconductor laser. Laboratory complements classwork.

prereq: PHYS 23100

6 hrs 4 cr.

PHYS 23400 - Fiber Optics Devices, Measurements, and Applications

GER 3/B

prereq: PHYS 23100

6 hrs 4 cr.

Political Science

About the Department

Political science deals with the political, social, economic, and cultural arrangements through which people govern their lives. It attempts to interpret the past, explain the present, and often dares to draw images of the future. As a discipline, political science bridges several fields: the evolution of political thought and debates about contested political ideas today; comparing different types of political systems and how they meet familiar political challenges; the use of power and influence by states and other actors to achieve their goals cooperatively or competitively with important consequences for the security, prosperity and well-being of societies around the world; and the relationship, past and present, between the American people and their governing institutions.

Students will find courses on:

a) the ideas of great thinkers from Plato to the present;
b) forms of popular political participation and engagement;
c) the causes of war and peace;
d) democratic and authoritarian political systems;
e) international political economy;
f) women and politics;
g) American institutions ranging from the presidency to the courts;
h) International and U.S. constitutional law;
i) important areas of public policy such as immigration;
j) and the political systems of countries in Latin America, Europe, Asia, Africa, and the Middle East.

Political science explores large and vital questions about democracy, justice, peace, participation, power, leadership, security, development, human rights, and more.

A large number of political science majors choose some branch of public service upon completing their bachelor’s degrees, often building upon internship experiences they have had as Hunter students. Graduates have pursued careers in government within the United States and some go into teaching. Others enter business. Some work in journalism.
Still others enter politics or go on to law school or graduate training.

Political science, therefore, prepares students for a variety of career opportunities as well as for a lifetime of active citizenship.

Minor in Legal Studies

The Legal Studies minor is an interdisciplinary course of study that allows students to examine the role and development of law from different perspectives within a liberal arts curriculum. Legal studies students will be introduced to the study of judicial opinions, theories of law and legal interpretation, the structure and role of legal institutions, and the operation of law in history and everyday life.

Law is a central feature of political, social, and economic life. The legal studies minor will prepare students embarking on careers in government, business, or the non-profit sector to think broadly and critically about the nature of law. It will also be extremely helpful for any students planning to pursue graduate study focusing on law or legal institutions, in a wide variety of disciplines. The legal studies program places an emphasis on developing students’ communication skills, interdisciplinary scholarship and a commitment to connect undergraduate education to advanced career opportunities. The core of the legal studies minor, though, is a commitment to the study of law within the liberal arts tradition.

While there are many ways for students to prepare successfully for law school, an advantage of the legal studies minor is its ability to help the college identify students planning to apply to law school, to ensure that these students receive guidance on the application process as early as possible, and to give them a solid foundation when they enter law school.

Program Requirements

15-credit minor

Students are required to complete at least one course from within each of the three categories below. Students can take no more than three courses from one department.

No more than two courses from the student’s major can be applied toward the Legal Studies minor. Courses used to fulfill the Legal Studies minor may be used to meet any other degree requirements, including the political science major. Students should be aware that courses listed for this minor may have prerequisites within their home departments.

Foundations of Legal Studies

These courses teach students foundational knowledge and skills that are important for thinking and writing clearly about law.

PHILO 10300 - Introduction to Logic and Critical Thinking

GER 2/C
Recognizing arguments; traditional logic including concepts, propositions, categorical, hypothetical and disjunctive syllogisms; argument structure, natural language argumentation, fallacies.
3 hrs 3 cr.
offered each semester
PHILO 10600 - Philosophy, Politics and Society

GER 2/C PD/D
Introduction to social and political philosophy.
3 hrs 3 cr.
offered each semester

POLSC 11000 - American Government: A Historical Introduction (W)

GER 1/C or 2/B
Overview of the American political system from a historical perspective, with emphasis on the Constitution and its enduring influence, development of party systems and citizen participation and evolving role of Congress, presidency and courts. Not open to students who have taken POLSC 11100.
prereq or coreq: ENGL 12000 or its equivalent
3 hrs 3 cr.

Legal Institutions and Legal Processes

These courses emphasize the “law on the ground.” They tend to present a more external analysis of the role and operation of legal institutions, actors, and norms.

POLSC 21900 - Women and the Law (W)

GER 3/B PD/C
Overview of how local, state and federal laws treat people on the basis of sex.
cross-listed WGSP 21900
prereq: ENGL 12000 or its equivalent
3 hrs 3 cr.

POLSC 23800 - The American Legal System (W)

GER 3/B
Civil and criminal law, common law and equity, substantive and procedural law. Emphasis on federal and New York law.
prereq: ENGL 12000 or its equivalent
3 hrs 3 cr.

POLSC 24000 - The American Judiciary (W)

GER 3/B
The Supreme Court and other federal courts as part of policy-making process in American government.
prereq: ENGL 12000 or its equivalent
3 hrs 3 cr.

POLSC 31000 - Comparative Legal Systems (W)

GER 3/B
Comparative study of major legal traditions of the modern world, including common law, civil law, Soviet, Islamic, Chinese, tribal and hybrid systems.
prereq: POLSC 11000, 23800 or 34000 or 34100 or 34300 or 37500 or any course in comparative politics subfield, or PERM INSTR; ENGL 12000 OR ITS EQUIVALENT
3 HRS 3 CR.

POLSC 37500 - INTERNATIONAL LAW (W)

GER 3/B
Case studies on nature, sources, practices and efficacy of international law, principles and rules.
Prereq: ENGL 12000 OR ITS EQUIVALENT
3 HRS 3 CR.

ASIAN 39002 - ASIAN AMERICAN CIVIL RIGHTS AND THE LAW

PD/B
Critical examination of major immigration and civil rights laws and Supreme Court cases that have affected Asian Americans.
3 HRS 3 CR.

MEDIA 39400 - MASS COMMUNICATIONS AND THE LAW

GER 3/A
Relationship of mass media to significant constitutional problems.
Prereq: MEDIA 18000
3 HRS 3 CR.

HIST 36400 - AMERICAN CONSTITUTIONAL HISTORY, 1783 TO 1900

GER 3/B PD/D
Development of constitutional thought from the framing of the Articles of Confederation to 1900.
Courses at the 300-level and above not offered to freshmen.
3 HRS 3 CR.

SOC 31900 - CRIMINOLOGY

GER 3/B
Criminal behavior, arrest, and punishment. Problems of definition, administration of criminal justice.
Prereq: SOC 10100
3 HRS 3 CR.

SOC 32000 - LAW, SOCIETY AND CIVIL RIGHTS

GER 3/B
Examines from a sociological perspective the concept of law, and legal institutions and their relationship to society and culture, concentrating on the struggle for civil rights in America.
Prereq: SOC 10100
3 HRS 3 CR.

THE THEORY AND PRACTICE OF LEGAL INTERPRETATION
These courses emphasize the “law on the books,” the way relative insiders, like legal theorists and judges, talk about the content of law. Courses in this category introduce students to judicial opinions as well as normative theories about the way law should be interpreted.

POLSC 34000 - Constitutional Law: Organizing the Government (W)

GER 3/B
Constitutional problems and Supreme Court decisions. Federalism, judicial review, separation of powers, foreign policy.
prereq: POLSC 11000 or 11100 or 23800
3 hrs 3 cr.

POLSC 34100 - Constitutional Law: Civil Rights (W)

GER 3/B
Constitutional problems and Supreme Court decisions regarding race and sex discrimination.
prereq: POLSC 11000 or 11100 or 23800
3 hrs 3 cr.

POLSC 34200 - Constitutional Law: The First Amendment (W)

GER 3/B
Constitutional problems and Supreme Court decisions regarding freedom of speech, press (media), religion and assembly.
prereq: POLSC 11000 or 11100 or 23800
3 hrs 3 cr.

ECO 37000 - Law and Economics

GER 3/B
Analytical tools of microeconomics are used to examine various aspects of the law, including property, contracts, torts, liability, and criminal and family law.
prereq: ECO 20000
3 hrs 3 cr.

PHILO 25200 - Problems of Law and Morality

GER 3/B
Philosophy of law and the relation of legal to ethical issues.
prereq: ENGL 12000 and one previous course in philosophy.
3 hrs 3 cr.

PHILO 34600 - Justice in Contemporary Society (W)

GER 3/B
A study of concepts of justice developed in the 20th century and their relevance to problems of contemporary society, such as social welfare, property rights and democratic government.
3 hrs 3 cr
Minor in Political Science

Students minoring in political science must complete 12 credits in political science. No more than three credits can be at the 100-level. No more than three credits in independent study (POLSC 29001-29003) can be used to satisfy the minor. Internship credits may not be applied toward the minor.

The minor in Political Science is designed to provide students with solid grounding in political science and to encourage them to develop depth in the discipline in an area that will complement their major or develop expertise in an area of particular interest to them.

The minor in Political Science allows students considerable flexibility in designing a minor that will best serve their academic goals. Students may, for instance, wish to focus on courses dealing with European politics and foreign policy to complement a major in a European language and culture. Students may concentrate their courses in one field of political science, or spread them across several fields. Students may consult an advisor in the Department of Political Science about their goals as they choose courses to satisfy the minor.

Political Science - BA

Major

30 cr for students declaring after September 1, 2009

Majors are required to take at least one course in each of the four following subfields of the discipline: American government, political theory, comparative politics and international relations. Students may distribute their remaining courses in the major as they see fit. However, students contemplating graduate work are encouraged to specialize appropriately in consultation with the department’s faculty members. One political science course used to satisfy Stage 1 (Like POLSC 11000) and one political science course used to satisfy Stage 2 (like POLSC 20000) of the Core Requirement of the GER may also be used to satisfy the major requirement. Majors may not use a political science course to satisfy Stage 3, unless they have a double-major.

For students declaring after September 1, 2009, no more than two introductory (100-level) courses can be applied toward the major. Majors must complete at least three courses at the 300-level or above in any subfield.

No more than 6 credits in internship, independent study, and/or experiential courses (such as Model United Nations) may be used to satisfy the 30 credits in the major. Also, such credits may not be used to satisfy the distribution requirements in the four fields. Courses taken for Credit/No Credit may not be applied toward the major.

Minor in Political Science

Students minoring in political science must complete 12 credits in political science. No more than three credits can be at the 100-level. No more than three credits in independent study can be used to satisfy the minor. Internship credits may not be applied toward the minor.

The minor in Political Science is designed to provide students with solid grounding in political science and to encourage them to develop depth in the discipline in an area that will complement their major or develop expertise in an area of particular interest to them. To complete a minor in Political Science, students must complete 12 credits in Political Science with no more than 3 credits at the 100 level. Students may apply up to 3 credits of independent study in Political Science POLSC 29001-29003); however, internship credit may not be applied to the minor.
The minor in Political Science offers students considerable flexibility in designing a minor that will best serve their academic goals. Students may, for instance, wish to focus on courses dealing with European politics and foreign policy to complement a major in a European language and culture. Other students may wish to emphasize courses in international and public law in preparation for law school. Students may concentrate their courses in one field of political science, or spread them across several fields. Students may consult an advisor in the Department of Political Science about their goals as they choose courses to satisfy the minor.

Interdepartmental Fields

Political Science department faculty are actively involved in many interdisciplinary programs at Hunter College. Students who want to do work in political science as part of the following interdepartmental programs should refer to the appropriate programs in this catalog.

- Minor in Asian American Studies,
- Human Rights,
- Jewish Studies - BA,
- Latin American and Caribbean Studies - BA,
- Public Policy,
- Women and Gender Studies - BA

Honors

To complete the requirements for departmental honors in Political Science at graduation, students must have at least 30 credits in Political Science and be eligible for graduation in the semester that they formally complete department honors. At least 21 of these credits (or in exceptional cases, 18) must be taken in the Political Science Department at Hunter College. In the case of transfer students, the student’s faculty supervisor must recommend an exception to this policy; however, in no case should a student who has taken fewer than 15 credits in academic coursework (excluding internships or other experiential education courses) in political science at Hunter College be recommended for departmental honors.

In addition, students must 1) have a GPA in the major of not less than 3.5; 2) have completed at least two credits (but not more than 6) in coursework specifically designated for honors (POLSC 492xx); 3) work on the thesis with one Supervisor who must be a full-time political science faculty member.

The thesis should be a major paper of approximately 25 pages in length that reflects serious scholarship in an honors course. Students should enroll in POLSC 49202-49203 under the supervision of a faculty member with whom the student has done prior coursework and who has agreed to supervise the student’s honors project. Students seeking to graduate with departmental honors should begin to plan the sequence of honors work at least two semesters in advance of their expected graduation date.

Approval for Honors will come from the Supervisor. Once students have received the approval of the Sponsor, the thesis can be submitted for departmental honors. Successful completion of departmental honors includes a formal presentation of the thesis to the Honors Committee. Final papers must be deposited in the department office.

Pi Sigma Alpha
Students interested in joining this honor society should consult with Professor Leonard Feldman, 1702 Hunter West, (212)396-6246, lfeldman@hunter.cuny.edu.

Writing Corequisite and Prerequisites

Introductory, intermediate and advanced political science courses require significant expository writing and ENGL 12000 as a co- or prerequisite. To assure that students are ready for these courses, they should be enrolled in ENGL 12000 (or its equivalent) or have successfully completed the course. For all 100-level courses, ENGL 12000 (or its equivalent) is a prerequisite or co-requisite; for all 200-level, 300-level and 400-level courses, ENGL 12000 (or its equivalent) is a prerequisite.

Seminar/Internship Program in New York Government

This university-wide program is designed to bridge the gap between academic study and the practical world of government. Each year approximately 300 students are selected as CUNY interns. Hunter College students participate by enrolling in POLSC 22200/22300. Interns spend eight to ten hours a week in agencies, political offices or community groups working on administrative or research assignments related to urban affairs and services.

They attend a weekly classroom seminar at Hunter and monthly meetings of the entire program at the CUNY Graduate School. Prominent government officials, political leaders, community representatives and academic experts participate in both the weekly and monthly meetings. Students are advised to have taken prior coursework in American politics and to have at least a 3.0 GPA prior to being admitted to this program. For further information, consult the Department of Political Science.

Other Internships

Students may wish to consider internships in any field of political science, and receive credit through POLSC 29801-29806. The department does not offer internship credits to students in their first semester at Hunter College or to students who have never taken a political science course at Hunter. Up to 6 credits in internship work (POLSC 29801-29806) may be used to satisfy requirements for the major. As a general rule, a student who takes POLSC 29801-29806 must be supervised by a full-time faculty member with whom the student has done prior coursework and who has agreed to supervise the student’s internship. Additional internship credits may be used as electives toward graduation.

Preparation for Graduate Study

Many political science majors go on to graduate study. Students considering graduate work should consult members of the political science faculty.

Awards and Prizes

The Political Science Department confers recognition on its outstanding graduates through prizes and awards. The Katherine Duffy Prize and The Edgar Dawson Prize are presented annually to graduating political science majors.

Scholarships
The Political Science Department may award the Joan Pincus Scholarship to students majoring in political science who have achieved at least sophomore status, have an excellent academic record and have demonstrated financial need. For additional information, see the department chair or a departmental adviser.

Psychology

About the Department

Psychology is concerned with all aspects of the study of behavioral, developmental and cognitive processes and employs a broad spectrum of approaches, from the social to the biological, to understand them. The Hunter College psychology program reflects the diversity of psychology as a science and a profession. Course offerings range from clinical, social and developmental psychology to experimental psychology, ethology, biopsychology and behavioral neuroscience.

Although Psychology is a large department, students have personal contact with faculty members through an extensive advisement system, involvement in departmental activities and committees, supervised field placement and participation in research laboratories under the guidance of faculty mentors as part of our independent study, honors, BP-ENDURE, MARC (Minority Access to Research Careers), MIDARP (Minority Institutional Drug Abuse Research Development Program) & MBRS (Minority Biomedical Research Support) programs.

A broad range of applied and research opportunities are available within the department in developmental psychology, social psychology, human adjustment, animal behavior, physiological psychology and abnormal psychology. Departmental affiliations with mental health and community organizations make it possible for students to integrate their academic studies of personality, abnormal and child psychology with supervised practical experience by means of field placements and opportunities for applied research.

The faculty and facilities of the CUNY doctoral program in Biopsychology and Behavioral Neuroscience and master’s program in General Psychology or in Animal Behavior and Conservation are integral parts of the Hunter College psychology program. These programs provide course concentrations in a number of different areas within psychology and offer undergraduate students research and other opportunities to interact with graduate students. Qualified students in their last semester may be admitted to graduate courses with the approval of the instructor and the department’s graduate adviser.

The psychology major, as part of the bachelor’s degree program, prepares the student for many career possibilities in psychology, education, social and welfare services, health services and industry and fulfills the course requirements for entering most psychology graduate programs. A background in psychology combined with special training in other disciplines within the college may be especially useful in preparing for careers in human resources, medicine, law, nursing, speech pathology, social work, special education, counseling and music, art and dance therapy.

Our undergraduate and graduate advisers provide students with additional guidance and information regarding career opportunities and graduate study.

Programs and Courses

Programs and Courses in Psychology

Administration and Faculty

Department Office:
Minor in Psychology

The minor in psychology is designed to expose students to a variety of content areas in the field of psychology and to provide the student with the ability to evaluate psychology research as a consumer. To declare a psychology minor, the student must have completed any 100-level psychology course with a minimum grade of C and a required mathematics course with a minimum grade of C or CR. The mathematics requirement may be satisfied by STAT 11300 or MATH 12500 or by an appropriate score on the mathematics placement test. The minor in Psychology consists of 15 credits in Psychology, as follows: PSYCH 10000 and any other 3 cr. PSYC course; PSYCH 21500 and any 2 200-level PSYC courses below PSYCH 24800. The total number of credits to fulfill all minor requirements, including credits for all prerequisites, is 18: 15 credits in PSYC course and 3 credits in STAT 11300 or MATH 12500.

Psychology - BA

Special Programs

Field Placement Program

Offered for one semester (PSYCH 30600) or as a 2-semester sequence, Psychological Services I and II (PSYCH 30600 and PSYCH 30700) give enrolled students practical supervised career experience one day per week in an approved mental health or community service setting in conjunction with a class that meets once each week. Students may also gain field experience in conjunction with academic work through Independent Study (PSYCH 20100) with a faculty sponsor. Permission of the instructor is required for these courses and students should start making arrangements by the preceding term before they plan to take the course (e.g., midspring for the fall term). The undergraduate adviser can inform students of the instructor who will be teaching PSYCH 30600 and PSYCH 30700, for which field placement referrals are made by the instructor. Students wishing to take PSYCH 20100 in conjunction with a field experience should meet with the college internship coordinator (by appointment in Career Development, Room 805 Hunter East) and with prospective faculty sponsors.

The COR Program (Career Opportunities in Research and Education)
The departments of psychology, anthropology and sociology jointly offer a program called COR (Career Opportunities in Research and Education). This interdisciplinary research training program for academically talented minority juniors and seniors is funded by the National Institute of Mental Health. Participants receive a monthly stipend and are granted tuition and fee remission. Students take a special curriculum and get individualized research training in a variety of areas under the supervision of a faculty mentor. The program has several levels of participation and underrepresented minority students, especially sophomores, intending to pursue a research-related career in the participating disciplines are urged to apply to the program. Additional details and descriptive literature are available from the COR program director, Professor Regina Miranda regina.miranda@hunter.cuny.edu, (212) 772-4809, or Judith Diaz-Minaya, program manager (uddiaz@hunter.cuny.edu, (212) 772-4562).

The MIDARP Program (Minority Institutional Drug Abuse Research Development Program)

The overall goal of MIDARP is to develop the capacity of Hunter College to support drug abuse research through the following objectives: (1) provide underrepresented minority faculty with drug abuse research knowledge and skill development through the conduct of research projects and other professional development activities, (2) encourage underrepresented minority students to pursue drug abuse research careers by providing them with educational enrichment and research experiences; and (3) strengthen the underlying institutional infrastructure needed to support drug abuse research. Undergraduate students supported by MIDARP are highly qualified students from underrepresented populations. They must be interested in pursuing careers in drug abuse research and in working in the laboratory of a MIDARP investigator.

Exemptions

A student may be exempt from PSYCH 10000 by earning a score of 4 or 5 on the Advanced Placement Test taken in conjunction with a high school course in psychology or by passing the CLEP examination (College Level Education Program). Exemption from Child Psychology (PSYCH 21000) may be earned by a passing grade on the CLEP examination in Developmental Psychology. CLEP examinations are given at various testing centers. Interested students can obtain information and application forms at http://www.collegeboard.com or by contacting the Office of Student Services. A passing grade on either CLEP examination provides 3 credits. Information on exemption from the mathematics course requirement and on test administration is available from the Testing Center, North 150 (http://admissions.hunter.cuny.edu/Testing.htm).

The Psychology Major

Preparation

The psychology major is designed to provide students with training in both the evaluation and the generation of research data. For this reason, the core sequence of Psychological Statistics and Experimental Psychology is central to the program and is a prerequisite for all upper-level psychology courses. Performance in the Psychological Statistics/Experimental Psychology sequence will be greatly facilitated by proper preparation in mathematics and laboratory science and the development of excellent writing skills.

PSYCH 24800 - Statistical Methods in Psychological Research

GER 3/B
Open to declared majors only. Analysis and interpretation of quantified data. Descriptive and inferential statistics applied to psychological research.

PSYC 24800 and 24900 or 25000, one semester of an acceptable science sequence, ENGL 12000 and declaration of a psychology major are the minimum prerequisite for all courses above PSYCH 25000. (Students falling under the previous curriculum need not fulfill the science prerequisite.)

prereq: PSYCH 10000 and any other 3 cr PSYCH course, MATH 12500 or STAT 11300 with a C or or appropriate score on math placement exam
coreq: Writing Intensive prereq or coreq: ENGL 12000
4 hrs 4 cr.

PSYCH 24900 - Experimental Psychology: Social

GER 3/B
Introduction to the principles of research methodology and experimental techniques. Required research reports involve laboratory and field exercises concerned with a variety of social psychological phenomena. (Students may take either PSYC 249 or 250, but not both.)

PSYCH 24800 and 24900 or 25000, one semester of an acceptable science sequence, ENGL 12000 and declaration of a psychology major are the minimum prerequisite for all courses above PSYCH 25000. (Students falling under the previous curriculum need not fulfill the science prerequisite.)

prereq: ENGL 12000 with a minimum grade of C; one sem. acceptable lab science sequence with a passing grade;
PSYC 24800 with a minimum grade of C prereq or coreq: Writing Intensive
6 hrs (2 lec, 4 lab) 4 cr.

PSYCH 25000 - Experimental Psychology: General

GER 3/B
Open to declared majors only. Research and general experimental techniques in study of behavior. Introduction to the principles of research methodology and experimental techniques. Required research reports involve a variety of laboratory exercises related to the study of basic behavioral processes. (Students may take either PSYC 24900 or 25000, but not both.)

PSYCH 24800 and 24900 or 25000, one semester of an acceptable science sequence, ENGL 12000 and declaration of a psychology major are the minimum prerequisite for all courses above PSYCH 25000. (Students falling under the previous curriculum need not fulfill the science prerequisite.)

prereq: ENGL 12000 with a minimum grade of C; one sem. acceptable lab science sequence with a passing grade;
PSYC 24800 with a minimum grade of C prereq or coreq: Writing Intensive
6 hrs (2 lec, 4 lab) 4 cr.

Course of Study

Completion of ENGL 12000 prior to declaration of the major in psychology is strongly recommended. ENGL 12000 is a pre or co-requisite for all 200-level classes below 24900. For any classes numbered 24900 and above, ENGL 12000 is a prerequisite. Students whose career goals include professional work in psychology, social work, or counseling should take the following courses, as appropriate. Note that each may be used only once to satisfy major requirements.

PSYCH 20100 - Independent Study in Psychology

May be applied to major once. Designed to meet the needs of individual students under the direction of a particular faculty sponsor. The course may involve independent readings, tutorials, work as an advising assistant or peer counselor, field placement, an individual research project, or participation in ongoing faculty research, any of these culminating in a written report.

*prereq: PSYCH 10000 and any other 3 cr PSYCH course, perm dept.

*prereq or coreq: ENGL 12000

3 hrs 3 cr.

PSYCH 30600 - Seminar in Psychological Services I (A)

Open to declared majors only. An integration of personality and abnormal psychology, the helping process and the role of the helper. Seminar and one day per week placement in mental health/community service setting.

PSYCH 24800 and 24900 or 25000, one semester of an acceptable science sequence, ENGL 12000 and declaration of a psychology major are the minimum prerequisite for all courses above PSYCH 25000. (Students falling under the previous curriculum need not fulfill the science prerequisite.)

*prereq: ENGL 12000, PSYCH 2200 or 32300, PSYCH 24900 or 25000, perm instr.

8 hrs 4 cr.

PSYCH 30700 - Seminar in Psychological Services II (A)

Integration of personality and abnormal psychology. Seminar and one day per week placement in mental health/community service setting.

PSYCH 24800 and 24900 or 25000, one semester of an acceptable science sequence, ENGL 12000 and declaration of a psychology major are the minimum prerequisite for all courses above PSYCH 25000. (Students falling under the previous curriculum need not fulfill the science prerequisite.)

*prereq: ENGL 12000, PSYCH 30600, perm instr.

3 hrs 3 cr.

PSYCH 39500 - Independent Research in Psychology

May be applied to the major once. Designed to meet the needs and interests of individual students under the direction of a particular instructor at a more advanced level than PSYCH 20100. Such study may involve independent reading, tutorials, independent research projects, or participation in ongoing faculty research, any of these culminating in an APA-style research report or literature review. Field Placements (internships) cannot be granted credit as PSYC 39500; however, supervised field Placement taken in conjunction with PSYCH 36100 - Psychological Tests (A) will be granted credit as PSYC 395.

*prereq: ENGL 12000. PSYCH 24900 or 25000, perm instr.

3 hrs 3 cr.

-or-

PSYCH 39600 - Honors in Psychology

Independent, sponsored, empirical research and seminar. Students are expected to attend the regularly scheduled seminar. An APA-style research report or its equivalent (to be filed in the department) is a requirement of this course. To graduate with departmental honors, the student must receive a grade of A in PSYCH 39600. Honors in Psychology is typically a one-semester course; however, when a PSYCH 39600 research project extends beyond a single semester, the student may (with permission) register for a second semester as PSYCH 39800. If taken, the student must receive a grade of A in both PSYCH 39600 and 39800 to graduate with departmental honors.

*prereq: ENGL 12000. PSYCH 24900 or 25000; 3.5 major GPA; 3.00 cumulative GPA; perm instr.

3 hrs 3 cr.
Declaration of Major

To declare a psychology major, the student must have completed Introduction to Psychology PSYCH 10000 and any other 100-level psychology course with a minimum grade of B, a required mathematics course with a minimum grade of C or CR and have a minimum GPA of 2.00. The mathematics requirement may be satisfied by the following, or by earning exemption from the mathematics requirement. The major must be declared in person with an undergraduate psychology adviser. (Refer to website http://hunter.cuny.edu/psychology for schedule.) The student must bring his/her Hunter transcript (and where relevant, transcripts from all other colleges attended) when meeting with the adviser to declare a psychology major.

STAT 11300 - Elementary Probability and Statistics

GER 1/B
Not open to students who have completed STAT 21300 or PSYCH 24800. Not credited for majors in statistics or mathematics unless minor is elementary education. An introduction to applied statistics and statistical computing. Hands-on data analysis. Graphical inference. The five number summary, box plots, scatterplots, normal probability plots. Elementary probability. Statistical estimation and hypothesis testing. Linear regression. Students are expected to analyze real data sets and write reports. Students who have taken calculus or place into calculus by the placement exam should take STAT 21300 instead of STAT 11300.

prereq: A grade of C or better in MATH 10100 or appropriate score on placement exam
prereq or coreq: ENGL 12000
3 hrs 3 cr.

-or-

MATH 12500 - Precalculus

GER 1/B
Functions and their graphs: polynomial, rational, exponential, logarithmic and trigonometric functions; conic sections; topics in trigonometry; graphical and analytical solutions to systems of equations and inequalities. Not credited to students who have completed MATH 15000 or its equivalent.

prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 10100 or appropriate score on placement exam
4 hrs 4 cr.

Psychology Major

The major consists of 26 credits in psychology above the 100 level, including PSYCH 24800 - Statistical Methods in Psychological Research and PSYCH 24900 - Experimental Psychology: Social or PSYCH 25000 - Experimental Psychology: General. The major also requires at least one course in each of the following content areas:

- applications of psychology;
- biopsychology;
- cognitive processes;
- and developmental/social psychology.

(If a course meets requirements for more than one content area, the student may apply the course to only one of them.) All of the content-area courses must be at or above the 200 level and at least 2 of the content-area courses must be at or above the 300 level. Two additional (elective) courses in psychology, at the 200 level or higher, must be completed. Two semesters of laboratory science must also be completed. (See the Science Requirement for Graduation below.)
Qualified undergraduates in their last semester may register for graduate-level psychology courses with the permission of the instructor and the graduate adviser. Most psychology majors intending to attend graduate school take more than the minimum 26 credits in psychology and design their course of study in close consultation with a faculty mentor. Students should obtain a copy of “Psychology Major Requirements and Policies” from the undergraduate advising office as soon as they declare the major for up-to-date information on department resources, activities and faculty research interests.

Beginning in the spring 1998 semester, psychology courses taken on a Credit/No Credit basis may not be applied toward the major; PSYCH 24800, PSYCH 24900, PSYCH 25000 may not be taken on a Credit/No Credit basis.

Courses Taken on Permit and Courses Transferred into Hunter

Once the psychology major is declared, students may not take any psychology course that they wish to count toward the major on permit at another college. In contrast, psychology courses that were taken before the student enrolled at Hunter and that are deemed equivalent to a Hunter College course may count toward the major. The assessment of course equivalency is made by the Office of Admissions and by the undergraduate psychology advising office.

Prerequisites

Course prerequisites are strictly enforced. Students are responsible for meeting all course prerequisites, including satisfactory completion of courses in progress at the time of enrollment. Students enrolling in courses without necessary prerequisites will be dropped from the class by the registrar. The department screens for prerequisites and students may be dropped after the course begins. (See specific prerequisites for each course in Course Listings section.)

Prerequisites for PSYCH 24800 - Statistical Methods in Psychological Research. All students must have received at least a C or CR in STAT 11300 or MATH 12500 or earned mathematics exemption and must have declared psychology as their major in the Psychology Department Advising Office at Hunter.

Prerequisites for PSYCH 24900 - Experimental Psychology: Social and PSYCH 25000 - Experimental Psychology: General. All students must be declared Psychology majors and have passed ENGL 12000 with C or higher, STAT 11300 or MATH 12500 with C or higher (or earned mathematics exemption), PSYC 24800 with C or higher, and 1 semester of laboratory science (see Science Requirement for Graduation, below).

As of fall 2011, only PSYCH 25000 will be offered

Science Requirement for Graduation

In order to graduate, psychology majors must have completed two semesters in laboratory science that were approved by the department. Students must take at least one semester of laboratory science before taking PSYCH 24900 or PSYCH 25000. Students may complete the laboratory science courses at any point in their studies, and the courses need not be taken in sequence. The science requirement may be met by any of the following courses, all of which meet the General Education Requirement Stage 2/E, Laboratory Science, requirement:

ANTHP 10100 - Human Evolution

GER 2/E
The study of human origins and adaptation, through an understanding of evolutionary mechanisms, genetics, comparative primate biology, the fossil record, and modern human variation.

6 hrs (3 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab) 4 cr.
offered every sem.
ANTHP 10200 - Human Variation

GER 2/E
Description and analysis of biological variation in living human populations. Both genetic and phenotypic variation will be examined. Lab experiments and demonstrations.
6 hrs (3 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab) 4 cr.
offered every sem.

ASTRO 10100 - Basic Concepts of Astronomy with Laboratory Exercises

GER 2/E with lab
An introductory, one-semester astronomy course designed for non-science majors. Topics include: basic observational features of the night sky, and their explanations; Kepler’s laws of planetary motion; Newton's laws of motion and gravitation. Properties of light, and how it reveals the nature of its source. Origin, properties, and evolution of our solar system. The origin and evolution of stars, including giants, dwarfs, supernovae, neutron stars, and black holes. Structure of The Milky Way and other type of galaxies. Cosmology, Hubble's Law and the expanding universe, from the Big Bang to the present; future scenarios.

The lab consists of traditional hardware experiments and virtual online experiments. Students taking this course will be required to submit online and hard-copy laboratory reports.

5 hrs 4 cr.

BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I

GER 2/E PD/C or D
The chemical basis of life; basic structure and function of pro- and eucaryotic cells; bioenergetics; Mendelian and molecular genetics; development and mechanisms of control of gene expression at all levels; population genetics and evolution.

Material Fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equivalent
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

BIOL 10200 - Principles of Biology II

GER 2/E PD/C or D
Taxonomy; homeostasis; internal transport and gas exchange in plants and animals; plant hormones; osmoregulation; mechanisms of action in the muscular, nervous and neuroendocrine systems; the senses, behavior; ecology.

Material fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
prereq: BIOL 10000 or perm instr, MATH 10100 or equiv.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
spring only

BIOL 12000 - Anatomy and Physiology I
Cell structure and function; histology; nervous, muscular and skeletal systems; integument. Required for admission to the nursing program.

Not accepted for credit toward the biology major.

prereq: CHEM 10000, 10100
coreq: CHEM 12000, 12100
6 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab) 4.5 cr.
fall only

BIOL 12200 - Anatomy and Physiology II

Structure and function of circulatory, digestive, excretory, endocrine and reproductive systems. Basic concepts of metabolism, embryology. Required for admission to the nursing program.

Not accepted for credit toward the biology major.

prereq: BIOL 12000 or equiv.
6 (3 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab) 4.5 cr.
spring only

BIOL 12500 - Human Biology

GER 2/E with lab
An introductory lecture/laboratory course for non-biology majors. BIOL 12500 explores the biology that underlies current health and disease topics (including diabetes, cancer, heart disease, sexually transmitted diseases, and nutrition). Using this topics approach, the course provides a survey of human anatomy and physiological function, along with the biological principles of genetics and cellular interactions that comprise our current understanding of the human organism. Laboratory exercises will introduce students to a scientific approach in studying human disease and physiology.

6 hrs 4.5 cr.

CHEM 10000 - Essentials of General Chemistry Lecture

GER 2/E
Essential facts, laws, and theories of general chemistry.
Note: Core credit awarded only if CHEM 10000 and CHEM 10100 are completed. Primarily for nursing, nutrition and food science and community health education students.
4 hrs (3 lec, 1 rec) 3 cr.

CHEM 10100 - Essentials of General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate fundamental laws and techniques of general chemistry.
Primarily for nursing, nutrition and food science and community health students.
prereq or coreq: CHEM 10000
3 hrs 1.5 cr.

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.
Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.
CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.
Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10500 - General Chemistry Laboratory II

GER 2/E
Laboratory experiments illustrating and applying theory of solutions to qualitative analysis.
Offered for transfer students who have completed only one semester of General Chemistry Laboratory.
prereq: One semester of General Chemistry Laboratory. prereq or coreq: CHEM 10400
3 hrs 1.5 cr.

CHEM 11100 - Chemical Principles

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to chemical principles including measurement, stoichiometric calculations, inorganic nomenclature, gas laws, equilibrium, acids, bases and buffers. Emphasis is placed on problem-solving, oral presentations, and collaborative work. Laboratory and coursework emphasize analysis and evaluation of data.
Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equiv, MATH 12600
9 hrs (4 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab, 2 hrs workshop) 5.5
offered fall

CHEM 11200 - Thermodynamics and Solution Chemistry

GER 2/E
The study of quantum theory, atomic structure, periodic properties of the elements, kinetics, electrochemistry, and thermodynamics.
Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 11100
9 hrs (4 hrs lec, 3 hrs lab, 2 hrs workshop) 5.5
offered spring

CHEM 12000 - Essentials of Organic Chemistry Lecture

GER 2/E
Course presents essential facts, laws and theories of organic chemistry.
Core credit awarded only if CHEM 12000 and CHEM 12100 are completed. Primarily for nursing, nutrition and food science and community health education students.
prereq: CHEM 10000
4 hrs (3 lec, 1 rec) 3 cr.

CHEM 12100 - Essentials of Organic Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate fundamental laws and techniques of organic chemistry.
Core credit awarded only if CHEM 12000 and CHEM 12100 are completed. Primarily for nursing, nutrition and food science and community health students.

prereq: CHEM 10100 prereq or coreq: CHEM 12000
3 hrs (3 lab) 1.5 cr.

GEOL 10100 - Fundamentals of Geology

GER 2/E
Describes the earth and the forces that shape it. Topics of discussion will be the formation of the earth, plate tectonics, earth materials and geologic time. The goals of the course include introducing students to geology, "systems thinking", the methods of scientific inquiry. Lab: study of minerals, rocks, maps. Field trips may be required; transportation fee.
6 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab) 4.5 cr.
Offered fall and spring.

GEOL 10200 - Plate Tectonics and the Earth’s Evolution

GER 2/E
The second course in geology offered to non-geology majors. It is designed to familiarize students with the main concepts used in deciphering and interpreting earth’s evolution from the spatial and temporal perspective. Topics to be covered include: geologic time; geological principles; earth materials as recorders of past geologic processes; depositional environments and sedimentary rock record; igneous and metamorphic geologic environments and their rock records; evolution of the solar system; plate tectonics and life on earth; origin of the universe; life on earth and the fossil record; Precambrian, Paleozoic, Mesozoic, and Cenozoic life, history and tectonics. Field trips may be required; transportation fee.
prereq: GEOL 10100
5 hrs (3 lec, 2 lab) 4 cr.
Offered fall.

PGEOG 13000 - Weather and Climate

GER 2/E
Offers a basic understanding of how weather systems form, why certain regions have particular types of weather patterns, and what is known about climatic fluctuations across the globe. This includes an understanding of the basic physical principals that determine: how hot or cold a particular location is; how seasonal cycles vary in different parts of the world; and the types and amounts of precipitation. Students learn to analyze several types of weather maps and acquire a basic understanding of central issues related to global climate change, one of the most significant environmental issues of our time.
Material Fee: $ 5
5 hrs (3 lec, 2 lab) 4 cr.
Offered in the Fall and Spring

PGEOG 23100 - Physical Geography II: Principles of Geomorphology

See GEOL 23100

PHYS 11000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
First semester of two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.
prereq: MATH 12500; pre-calculus or equiv. By math dept. exam.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.
PHYS 12000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics

GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11000, a two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.
prereq: PHYS 11000 or 11100
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.

Additional Information

For transfer students, the laboratory science requirement may be met by courses taken at previous institutions only if they have been assigned the Hunter College course numbers in the above list. Transfer students should check with the psychology adviser after their courses have been formally evaluated by Hunter College to determine whether the science requirement has been met.

Note: Students who declared a psychology major before January 1, 1998 are exempt from the science requirement within the Department of Psychology.

Minor

As of the spring of 2009, Hunter no longer requires that students have a minor. Those students wishing to do a minor should go directly to the department in which they are interested in doing a minor and declare it with that department.

Minor in Psychology

Declaring a Minor in Psychology

The minor in psychology is designed to expose students to a variety of content areas in the field of psychology and to provide the student with the ability to evaluate psychological research as a consumer.

To declare a psychology minor, the student must have completed PSYCH 10000 and any other 100-level psychology course with a minimum grade of C and a required mathematics course with a minimum grade of C or CR. The mathematics requirement may be satisfied by STAT 11300 or MATH 12500, or by an appropriate score on the mathematics placement test.

The minor in Psychology consists of 15 credits in Psychology as follows:

PSYCH 10000 - Introduction to Psychology

GER 2/B
An introduction to the problems, methods and concepts of psychology, covering a range of topics which characterize the discipline, including history, methodology and professional ethics, biological foundations, perception, motivation and emotion, learning, memory and thinking, individual differences, intelligence, personality, behavior disorders and their treatment, group processes.
3 hrs 3 cr.

PSYCH 21500 - Introduction to Research Methods in Psychology (W)
GER 3/B
Evaluation of published research; research principles and the concepts which underlie them; how to evaluate and select research strategies.

*prereq: PSYCH 10000 and any other 3 cr PSYCH course
*prereq or coreq: ENGL 12000
3 hrs 3 cr.

Concentration

- Psychology: Concentration in Behavioral Neuroscience

Psychology: Concentration in Behavioral Neuroscience

Purpose

The Behavioral Neuroscience Concentration within Psychology provides interdisciplinary training for students preparing for academic or professional careers in neuroscience-related areas. The concentration brings together students from Psychology and Biology in a set of core courses and offers mentored research experience in faculty laboratories, opportunities for student research presentations and talks by distinguished visiting neuroscientists. The neuroscience concentration is a particularly good option for students who plan to do graduate study in neuroscience or neurosciencerelated fields or attend medical school for neurology, neurosurgery, or psychiatry specialties. Because of the large number of required courses in the concentration, it is very important that interested students meet with the concentration adviser as early in their college career as possible-no later than the start of their Sophomore year. The concentration adviser is Prof. Philip Zeigler, ((212) 772-5363; Room 626 Hunter North).

Admission Requirements

Admission is by application at the end of the sophomore year. Applicants will need to have completed or be currently taking the following courses with a minimum GPA overall of 3.0 and of 3.5 in the major. Selection will be based upon a combination of grades and an interview, and the identification of a faculty sponsor in whose laboratory the student’s research will be carried out. Application forms and names of faculty contacts may be obtained from the Psychology adviser’s office.

BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I

GER 2/E PD/C or D
The chemical basis of life; basic structure and function of pro- and eucaryotic cells; bioenergetics; Mendelian and molecular genetics; development and mechanisms of control of gene expression at all levels; population genetics and evolution.
*Material Fee: $5

*PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
*prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equivalent
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

BIOL 10200 - Principles of Biology II
GER 2/E PD/C or C

Taxonomy; homeostasis; internal transport and gas exchange in plants and animals; plant hormones; osmoregulation; mechanisms of action in the muscular, nervous and neuroendocrine systems; the senses, behavior; ecology.

Material fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.

prereq: BIOL 10000 or perm instr, MATH 10100 or equiv.

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.

spring only

CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E

In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.

Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.

5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E

In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.

Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.

prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair

5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

PSYCH 10000 - Introduction to Psychology

GER 2/B

An introduction to the problems, methods and concepts of psychology, covering a range of topics which characterize the discipline, including history, methodology and professional ethics, biological foundations, perception, motivation and emotion, learning, memory and thinking, individual differences, intelligence, personality, behavior disorders and their treatment, group processes.

3 hrs 3 cr.

PSYCH 18000 - Brain and Behavior

GER 2/B

Brain structure, function and relation to behavior. Topics include the neural basis of perception, learning and memory, consciousness, motivation, emotion.

prereq: PSYC 10000

3 hrs 3 cr.

PSYCH 24800 - Statistical Methods in Psychological Research

GER 3/B

Open to declared majors only. Analysis and interpretation of quantified data. Descriptive and inferential statistics applied to psychological research.

PSYC 24800 and 24900 or 25000, one semester of an acceptable science sequence, ENGL 12000 and declaration of a psychology major are the minimum prerequisite for all courses above PSYCH 25000. (Students falling under the previous curriculum need not fulfill the science prerequisite.)

prereq: PSYCH 10000 and any other 3 cr PSYCH course, MATH 12500 or STAT 11300 with a C or or appropriate score on math placement exam
coreq: Writing Intensive prereq or coreq: ENGL 12000
4 hrs 4 cr.

Course Requirements for the Undergraduate Concentration in Behavioral Neuroscience

In addition to completion of the psychology major and the introductory sequences in chemistry and biology, students in the concentration will take the introductory course in calculus, additional courses in biology and chemistry and an interdisciplinary Behavioral Neuroscience Seminar. A year of laboratory research is required and an undergraduate thesis based on this research will be eligible for consideration for Departmental Honors. Completion of the concentration meets the requirements for the minor in Biology. For continuation in the concentration, students must maintain the GPA required for entry.

Required Courses/Credits

PSYCH 10000 - Introduction to Psychology

GER 2/B
An introduction to the problems, methods and concepts of psychology, covering a range of topics which characterize the discipline, including history, methodology and professional ethics, biological foundations, perception, motivation and emotion, learning, memory and thinking, individual differences, intelligence, personality, behavior disorders and their treatment, group processes.

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
prereq: BIOL 10000 or perm instr, MATH 10100 or equiv.
CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding. Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv.
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium. Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors.
prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair
5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr.

CHEM 10500 - General Chemistry Laboratory II

GER 2/E
Laboratory experiments illustrating and applying theory of solutions to qualitative analysis. Offered for transfer students who have completed only one semester of General Chemistry Laboratory.
prereq: One semester of General Chemistry Laboratory. prereq or coreq: CHEM 10400
3 hrs 1.5 cr.

MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

GER 1/B
Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
4 hrs 4 cr.

PSYCH 18000 - Brain and Behavior

GER 2/B
Brain structure, function and relation to behavior. Topics include the neural basis of perception, learning and memory, consciousness, motivation, emotion.
prereq: PSYC 10000
3 hrs 3 cr.

CHEM 22200 - Organic Chemistry Lecture I

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.
prereq: CHEM 10400
5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr.

PSYCH 24800 - Statistical Methods in Psychological Research
GER 3/B
Open to declared majors only. Analysis and interpretation of quantified data. Descriptive and inferential statistics applied to psychological research.

PSYC 24800 and 24900 or 25000, one semester of an acceptable science sequence, ENGL 12000 and declaration of a psychology major are the minimum prerequisite for all courses above PSYC 25000. (Students falling under the previous curriculum need not fulfill the science prerequisite.)

prereq: PSYCH 10000 and any other 3 cr PSYCH course, MATH 12500 or STAT 11300 with a C or an appropriate score on math placement exam

4 hrs 4 cr.

PSYCH 25000 - Experimental Psychology: General

GER 3/B
Open to declared majors only. Research and general experimental techniques in study of behavior. Introduction to the principles of research methodology and experimental techniques. Required research reports involve a variety of laboratory exercises related to the study of basic behavioral processes. (Students may take either PSYC 24900 or 25000, but not both.)

PSYC 24800 and 24900 or 25000, one semester of an acceptable science sequence, ENGL 12000 and declaration of a psychology major are the minimum prerequisite for all courses above PSYC 25000. (Students falling under the previous curriculum need not fulfill the science prerequisite.)
prereq: ENGL 12000 with a minimum grade of C; one sem. acceptable lab science sequence with a passing grade; PSYC 24800 with a minimum grade of C prerequisite or coreq: Writing Intensive
6 hrs (2 lec, 4 lab) 4 cr.

BIOL 30200 - Molecular Genetics

GER 3/B
A comparison of viral, procaryotic and eukaryotic systems; review of classical Mendelian principles; bacterial DNA replication, transcription and their control; mechanisms of gene mutation, repair, recombination and transposition; applications of recombinant DNA technology; organization of nucleic acid into chromosomes; control of gene expression, the cell cycle and cell development in eucaryotes.
Material Fee: $10
prereq: BIOL 30000
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
spring only

PSYCH 39600 - Honors in Psychology

Independent, sponsored, empirical research and seminar. Students are expected to attend the regularly scheduled seminar. An APA-style research report or its equivalent (to be filed in the department) is a requirement of this course. To graduate with departmental honors, the student must receive a grade of A in PSYCH 39600. Honors in Psychology is typically a one-semester course; however, when a PSYCH 39600 research project extends beyond a single semester, the student may (with permission) register for a second semester as PSYCH 39800. If taken, the student must receive a grade of A in both PSYCH 39600 and 39800 to graduate with departmental honors.
prereq: ENGL 12000. PSYC 24900 or 25000; 3.5 major GPA; 3.00 cumulative GPA; perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

PSYCH 39800 - Honors in Psychology
Independent sponsored research and seminar. Attendance at regularly scheduled seminar and research report required. If taken, the student must receive a grade of A in both PSYCH 39600 and 39800 to graduate with departmental honors.

prereq: PSYCH 39600, perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

BIOL 47100 - Special Topics in Biology

GER 3/B
Specific area of contemporary interest in biology. Topics change from term to term. An oral presentation and a written paper are required.
prereq: BIOL 300
3 hrs (lec) 3 cr. per sem.

Electives

(9 credits, at least 3 of which must be Biology)

PSYCH 30000 - Physiological Psychology (B)

GER 3/B
Neural and endocrine mechanisms involved in learning, emotion, perception and other psychological processes. PSYCH 24800 and 24900 or 25000, one semester of an acceptable science sequence, ENGL 12000 and declaration of a psychology major are the minimum prerequisite for all courses above PSYCH 25000. (Students falling under the previous curriculum need not fulfill the science prerequisite.) prereq: ENGL 12000. PSYCH 24900 or 25000
3 hrs 3 cr.

PSYCH 30100 - Sensation and Perception (B; C)

GER 3/B
Open to declared majors only. Methods, theories and empirical data relating to stimulus detection, encoding and perception as a function of variables including current stimuli and past history.

PSYCH 24800 and 24900 or 25000, one semester of an acceptable science sequence, ENGL 12000 and declaration of a psychology major are the minimum prerequisite for all courses above PSYCH 25000. (Students falling under the previous curriculum need not fulfill the science prerequisite.)
prereq: ENGL 12000. PSYCH 24900 or 25000
3 hrs 3 cr.

PSYCH 30900 - Sex and Behavior (B; D/S)

GER 3/B PD/C
Research and attitudes about sex-related behavior in human and nonhuman animals emphasizing evolutionary and neuroendoinological processes and social-psychological processes; male-female differences and similarities, therapeutic strategy in sex-behavior pathology and sexual behavior and the law.

GER 3/B
A comprehensive introduction to neuroscience. Topics include how nerve cells (neurons) transmit electrical impulses, how neurons communicate with each other through synapses and how nerve pathways and networks determine many functions of the brain. The last portion of the course shall explore how developing neurons seek out targets and establish synapses.

prereq: BIOL 30000 or perm instr.
4 hrs (lec) 4 cr.
spring only

BIOL 37600 - Endocrinology
GER 3/B
Cellular organization of the endocrine system; molecular mechanisms of hormone action; hormonal physiology of metabolism and reproduction; integration of endocrine responses by the central nervous system.

prereq: BIOL 20200 or perm instr.
3 hrs (lec) 3 cr.
spring only

BIOL 38000 - Molecular Neurobiology
GER 3/B
Molecular components and molecular mechanisms involved in the cell biology of neurons and glia, neuronal signaling, neuronal development, learning, memory and diseases of the nervous system.

prereq: BIOL 30000 or perm instr.

3 lec hrs 3 cr.

fall alternate years

Public Policy

About the Program

The Program in Public Policy is an 18-credit undergraduate minor open to students in all disciplines. Students also have an option to pursue 9 additional credits (for a total of 27 credits) to receive a Certificate in Public Policy upon graduation. The Roosevelt House program is based on the understanding that the preparation of informed citizens is essential to a healthy democracy and an important aspect of a liberal arts education. Unlike most graduate programs in public policy that are designed to prepare people for careers in the public and nonprofit sectors, the undergraduate program at Roosevelt House provides students with knowledge and skills that enable them to be active participants in a democratic society. Many of its graduates will undoubtedly go on to careers in the public and nonprofit sectors. Capable citizenship, however, is required in all walks of life; therefore the program can benefit all students regardless of their stated major, career goals, or personal objectives. To enroll in the public policy minor (18 credits) or certificate (27 credits), a student must have completed at least 45 credits of undergraduate study, with a minimum G.P.A. of 3.0.

Minor in Public Policy

An 18-credit undergraduate minor in public policy is open to students in all disciplines.

Core Requirements

PUPOL 10000 - Introduction to Public Policy

An interdisciplinary introduction to public policy utilizing the literature and tools of a variety of social science disciplines. This course introduces students to basic concepts and approaches in public policy. It will acquaint students with public policy as a field of study, the basic elements of the policy making process, and distinct modes for analyzing public policy and its outcomes. It will be team-taught by faculty from at least two related social science disciplines. Writing Requirements: This course will require 20 to 25 pages of writing in the form of two take home essay examinations (4-5 pages each), a proposal for a final paper (3-5), and a final paper (8-10 pages).

Open only to students enrolled in the program. Cannot be used to fulfill any other requirements.

prereq: declaration of a minor/certificate in Public Policy and a minimum GPA requirement of 3.0

3 hrs 3 cr.

PUPOL 40000 - Capstone Seminar

This writing intensive course is the culminating experience in the Public Policy minor/certificate. It provides students with an opportunity to apply the knowledge and skills acquired in their other courses to a specific policy problem. An interdisciplinary course, it will require students to make an inquiry into a specific policy problem. The project will be overseen jointly by a faculty adviser who specializes in the substantive area of public policy chosen and another faculty adviser in the program by writing a formal paper. Each student will write an appropriately revised 5-7 page research proposal and a 20-25 page research paper involving primary research.

These courses are only open to students enrolled in the program. They cannot be used to fulfill any other requirements.

prereq: Students must have completed 45 credits, have a declared major, and a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher.

Substantive Policy Specialization
For the Public Policy Certificate each student will take the 6 core courses (18 credits) and will be required to declare a substantive area of specialization comprised of 3 courses (9 credits) of additional course work. These may be grounded in a particular discipline or disciplines. Or a student may use the substantive specialization to take advantage of clusters of expertise that exist across several Hunter departments. Examples of the latter include (but are not limited to) immigration, health, aging, gender studies, macroeconomics, public finance, economic development, race and ethnicity, public law, human rights, ethics, international relations, international trade, education, urban affairs, environmental studies, employment, and social services. Courses designated for the substantive specialization need approval by the faculty advisor.

Additional Opportunities

Hunter College offers other unique opportunities to its students. These options are designed to enrich the student experience in policy curriculum.

Generic Policy Courses

Advanced courses which build on the knowledge and skills acquired in the core courses and are applicable to students in a wide range of substantive specializations.

Internships

Undergraduate internship programs currently exist in a number of academic departments which are designed to give students a chance to work in a policy-related institutional setting outside the university, either in a government agency, nonprofit, think tank, or advocacy group. Some carry compensation, others are voluntary.

Policy Colloquia

A colloquium series will be launched at Roosevelt House that will allow students and faculty to come together several times a semester to discuss public policy issues. Guest speakers, including scholars and practitioners, with relevant expertise will be invited to discuss topics of the day either individually or in panels.

Religion

About the Program

In the program in Religion, students examine the nature of religion and the forms its various expressions have taken. Religion is studied as an academic discipline and the program’s approach reflects no doctrinal bias. The purposes of the program are to introduce the field of religion in general; to present the thoughts, documents and history of major religious traditions (both Eastern and Western, ancient and modern, missionary and tribal); and to give students insight into specific religious issues and thinkers.

The program in Religion consists of a series of core courses taught by specialists in the field, augmented by other religion courses offered by faculty in 8 participating departments or divisions: Anthropology, Africana and Puerto Rican/Latino Studies, Chinese, Classics, Hebrew, History, Philosophy and Sociology.

The program is divided into four categories of courses: Introduction to the field of religion (basic introductory courses); Theoretical studies in religion (courses focusing on different methodological approaches to the study of religion); Issues in religion (courses dealing with religious experience, faith, ethics, religion and the arts); and Religious traditions (courses in major religious traditions).
Minor in Religion

The Minor in Religion consists of four courses for a total of 12 credits.

- The following two courses are required:
  - REL 11000 - Nature of Religion (W)
  - REL 11100 - Approaches to Religion (W)
- Also required for the Minor in Religion:
  a) one course to be chosen from those listed under the category “Religious Traditions”; and
  b) one course from the category “Issues in Religion” reflecting a theme central to the religious tradition in which the student has chosen to focus, to be selected in consultation with a Religion Program adviser.

At least one course presented in satisfaction of the minor must be a 300-level course.
All 24 credits are to be taken from courses listed under Categories I-IV. Both introductory courses (REL 11000, REL 11100) must be taken, followed by at least one course in theoretical studies, at least one course in religious issues, and at least one in religious traditions.

I. Introduction to the field of religion;

II. Theoretical studies in religion;

III. Issues in religion; and

IV. Religious traditions.

Courses listed under Category V are recommended as electives, but cannot count towards the 24 credits required for the major.

V. Related courses.

On becoming a major the student, in consultation with the director, will select one member of the program in Religion staff as his or her major adviser. Each religion major is required to consult with this adviser at least twice a year.

Romance Languages

About the Department

The Department of Romance Languages at Hunter College offers language, culture and literature courses in French, Italian, Spanish, as well as literature and culture courses in English. Our degrees include the undergraduate major and master's degrees in French, Italian and Spanish. We also offer a Romance Languages major that combines knowledge and understanding of two Romance literatures and cultures. Besides these offerings, the department has recently added a major concentration in Spanish-English/English-Spanish Translation and Interpretation, an expansion of its vision of providing professional training within the context of traditional liberal arts.

In addition, the department is committed to equipping students for professional life: it has continued Hunter’s tradition in teacher preparation, and, in conjunction with the School of Education, it sponsors TEP (Teacher Education Program), a selective scholarship-cum-practicum program leading to an MA in Spanish/Education.

Most students majoring in one or two Romance languages pursue careers in education. Others enter careers in the fields of commerce, tourism, interpretation and translation and international affairs, among others.

The Comprehensive Examination may be taken twice. Students may request a third attempt by sending a letter of appeal to the Graduate Faculty Committee.

Foreign Language Requirement

The college foreign language requirement may be fulfilled by completion of French, Italian or Spanish 202, 203 or 208 or by demonstrating equivalent proficiency through a departmental examination. Students with prior knowledge of one of the languages should take a placement examination before registering for courses. Students who have a high school diploma in a language other than English or who have studied a foreign language in high school for four years have fulfilled the language requirement. Students should consult a departmental adviser to resolve all matters regarding placement, registration and course offerings.

1. Students pursuing a new language will fulfill the language requirement in four college semesters by completing one of the following sequences:
   a. French: FREN 10100-FREN 10200 or FREN 10300 and FREN 20100-FREN 20200, or FREN 20300;
   b. Italian: ITAL 10100-ITAL 10200, or ITAL 10300 and ITAL 20100-ITAL 20200, or ITAL 20300;
   c. Spanish: SPAN 10100-SPAN 10200, or SPAN 10300, or SPAN 10500-SPAN 10600 and SPAN 20100-SPAN 20200, or SPAN 20300, or SPAN 20700 and SPAN 20800.

2. Students continuing a language studied for one year in high school need three additional college semesters:
   a. French: FREN 10200, FREN 20100 and FREN 20200 or FREN 20100 and FREN 20300;
   b. Italian: ITAL 10200, ITAL 20100 and ITAL 20200; ITAL 10200 and ITAL 20300;
   c. Spanish: SPAN 10200, SPAN 20100 and SPAN 20200; SPAN 10200 and SPAN 20300; SPAN 10600, SPAN 20700 and SPAN 20800.
3. Students continuing a language studied for two years in high school need two additional college semesters:
   a. French: FREN 20100 and FREN 20200 or FREN 20300;
   b. Italian: ITAL 20100 and ITAL 20200 or ITAL 20300;
   c. Spanish: SPAN 20100 and SPAN 20200 or SPAN 20300 or SPAN 20700 and SPAN 20800.

4. Students continuing a language studied for three years in high school need one additional college semester:
   a. French: FREN 20200 or FREN 20800;
   b. Italian: ITAL 20200;
   c. Spanish: SPAN 20200 or SPAN 20800

Honors
Students qualified to graduate with departmental honors must take an honors course or equivalent approved by the departmental advisers. Departmental honors will be conferred upon a recommendation from the appropriate departmental committee. Candidates must present a paper of at least 7,000 typewritten words in the language of specialization. Consult the department for further information.

Graduate Study

Qualified seniors with a minimum GPA of 3.5 in their discipline may be admitted to graduate level courses. Permission must be secured from the chair and then forwarded to the dean. Consult the graduate catalog for requirements and regulations.

Major

The French major provides two concentrations:

a. French Literature (30 cr)

b. French Language and Civilization (30 cr)

Preparation for Teaching French, Spanish or Italian Adolescent Education (grades 7-12)

Students pursuing adolescent education must complete the 30 or 36 credit major in one of these languages and, in addition, complete the course in second language acquisition (3 cr). The 23-credit pedagogical sequence in adolescent education will serve as the minor. See the School of Education section of the catalog for further information.

Study Abroad

All study abroad programs are open to students from Hunter College and other accredited institutions. Majors and minors in the Department of Romance Languages are strongly encouraged to participate in study abroad programs (see adviser for GPA requirements).

Qualified students can apply for financial aid and STOCS grants.

The New York/Paris Exchange Program is open to students who wish to study a semester or a year at a French university in Paris. For the requirements and more details, contact Professor J. Przybos at (212) 772-5097. French in France is offered during June, July and August at Pau and Bayonne.

Minor in French (15 credits)

Major concentration in Spanish-English/English-Spanish translation and interpretation (36 cr)

This program prepares students for careers in the growing translation field. Students take courses in Spanish language, literature and civilization in conjunction with specialized courses in translation/interpretation theory and practice. Allied courses in English and related fields of study are required and must be approved by the program adviser. Sufficient flexibility is built into the program so that students may tailor certain requirements to fit their individual needs and interests. An intensive internship in translation and/or interpretation serves as the student’s capstone experience and preparation for future professional settings. Please see the department of Romance Languages for more details regarding this new and innovative program of study.

Sociology

About the Department

A major in sociology provides the undergraduate with the opportunity to gain a distinct intellectual perspective and a method of inquiry. By continually testing conventional wisdom against evidence, the study of sociology encourages the development of critical judgment. By routinely considering the matrix of social and cultural facts, such study can lead students to an understanding of the conditions under which social facts emerge, and the consequences they have for individuals, groups, societies and social institutions. It can also help students better understand their own roles in the array of social institutions in which they are entwined.

Our courses provide a foundation for the student who desires to pursue advanced graduate studies in sociology leading to teaching positions. The department offers a wide range of specialties offering students flexibility in their choice of PhD programs. A major in sociology also helps to prepare students for many careers: social research, marketing, media, and other fields in the private sectors, as well as law, civil service and public policy, social work, the health professions, personnel work and other human-service areas.

Majors are encouraged to develop skills in observation, interviewing, and other data-collection techniques; data processing; statistical and content analysis; and trend analysis — all marketable skills in many career lines.

as well as one additional course on the 200-level and one recommended on the 300-level

Special Programs

The COR Program

The departments of psychology, anthropology, and sociology jointly offer a program called COR (Career Opportunities in Research and Education). This interdisciplinary research training program for talented minority juniors and seniors is funded by the National Institute of Mental Health. Participants receive a monthly stipend, tuition and fee remittance; they take a special curriculum, and get individualized research training in a variety of areas under the supervision of a faculty mentor. The program has several levels of participation, and all minority students - especially freshmen and sophomores - intending to pursue a research-related career in the participating disciplines are urged to register with the program. Additional details and descriptive literature are available from the COR program adviser.

Independent Study

Students may pursue independent study through

SOC 37101 - Independent Study

GER 3/B
Completion of reading list and written assignment as proposed by student in consultation with full-time faculty sponsor.
prereq: SOC 10100, perm instr.

Additional Information

These options allow students to initiate and carry out a course of study of their own choosing under the guidance of a full-time faculty sponsor. Students must have a written proposal and a general plan of study to submit to the potential faculty mentor.

Honors

In order to graduate with departmental honors in sociology, students must have a 3.0 GPA overall and a 3.5 GPA in sociology; at least 21 of the credits toward the major should have been courses taken at Hunter College.

Students must complete either an Honors Seminar

SOC 47300 - Honors Seminar

SOC 42500 - Seminar in Selected Problems of Sociology

GER 3/B
Advanced seminar: reading, discussion, and papers on significant problems in sociology and in applied social research; in most cases cross-listed with graduate social research course or seminar.

 prerequisites: SOC 10100, perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr

Additional Information

Students whose GPAs are within this range are urged to consult their adviser before planning senior year programs of study, since honors seminars are generally offered only once per year, usually in the fall semester. In addition, students qualifying for departmental honors are eligible for membership in Alpha Kappa Delta, the International Sociology Honor Society. See adviser for more information.

Internships

Provided students secure approval of a full-time faculty member, internships can be carried out for 3 to 6 credits in the areas of marketing, media, and politics, with other areas provided faculty supervision can be secured. Interested students must meet the requirements listed under the SOC 49800 entry.

Awards

The Department of Sociology offers two prestigious awards to outstanding students in sociology and applied social research. The Norman Hecht Award of up to $300 is provided on an irregular basis for the best research concept developed by an undergraduate or graduate student studying applied social research. It can be granted to an individual student or a group of students. Once a year at the end of the spring term the Benjamin Ringer Award, carrying a cash stipend of $100, is granted for the best undergraduate paper in the areas of ethnic and race relations. The endowed Rosalyn Tough Award is granted with a cash stipend to outstanding sociology or social research students. Two Suzanne Keller Awards with a stipend of $250 each are granted at the end of the academic year. One goes to the graduating sociology major with the best academic record. The second Keller award is given to the best BA/MS graduate entering the field of applied social research. The annual Chicago Award with a $100 stipend is given to a work-study student or research assistant whose contribution to a faculty member’s work is acknowledged in the faculty member’s publication. For more information about the awards contact the departmental advisers.

Career Opportunities

Applied Social Research

Students interested in careers in research-related fields such as media and marketing research, policy analysis and evaluation, advertising, consumer behavior, and public opinion polling, as well as students who are contemplating graduate studies in sociology, are encouraged to gain research experience through selected coursework and independent research carried out under faculty supervision.

In addition to the following, which are required for the major,

SOC 24000 - Introduction to Research Methods

GER 3/B
Discussion of various research techniques and strategies including the survey method, field research, experiments, and content analysis. Firsthand involvement in the collection of quantitative data.

*prereq: SOC 10100
3 hrs 3 cr.*

SOC 24100 - Social Statistics

GER 3/B
Application of elementary statistical techniques. Introduction to statistical inference and sampling theory.

*prereq: SOC 10100

SOC 44100 - Advanced Research Methods

GER 3/B
Evaluates strategies and instruments available to sociologists such as socio-geographic mapping.
prereq: SOC 24000, 24100
3 hrs 3 cr.

Additional Information

The department has also participated in a number of programs that place qualified minority students in summer research internships at leading universities. See advisers for more information.

Social Work

Students interested in careers in social work or other human services are strongly encouraged to consult the pre-social work adviser (Prof. Poppendieck, Room 1603 Hunter West, (212) 772-5583, jpoppend@hunter.cuny.edu). The presocial work advising office offers information about graduate study in social work as well as help with program planning.

Pre-social work

Pre-social work students without work experience in the human services should plan to take the following courses that provide supervised field experience.
SOC 33100 - Field Placement in Social Work Agencies

GER 3/B
Supervised work in social service agency, weekly seminar, preparation of weekly assignments and term paper.
prereq: SOC 10100, perm instr.
8 hrs per week 3 cr.

SOC 33200 - Advanced Field Placement in Social Work Agencies hrs TBA 3-6 cr.

Sociology/Social Research - Accelerated BA/MS

Five-Year BA/MS Program

For a limited number of qualified students, the department offers an accelerated five-year program leading to a BA in sociology and an MS in social research. The program requires a total of 145 credits of college work (100 undergraduate, 45 graduate), a three month full-time supervised research internship in a non-academic setting (or part-time for six months), and a research paper. In order to be admitted to the program, students must complete their basic requirements, pass an honors course (independent study or honors seminar), and meet the requirements of the MS program as outlined in the graduate catalog except for the GRE examination. Undergraduate students are typically admitted to the program toward the end of their junior year when they have completed 100 credits and they begin their graduate work at the beginning of their senior year. Interested students should consult the program’s adviser at the earliest possible date.

Theatre

About the Department

The Department of Theatre studies stage production, the history and theory of theatre and drama, and the relationship among text, theory and performance. Theatre courses include acting, playwriting, directing, history, theory, design, production, creative drama and interdisciplinary performance. The curriculum was developed with an emphasis on professional standards within a liberal arts context.

The theatre major requires courses in practical hands-on work, as well as study of theoretical, critical, and historical approaches to theatre. Interdisciplinary courses include acting, lighting and design for theatre, film and television, adaptation for theatre and film, and comparative aesthetics. Students pursuing a major in theatre must work on theatre productions as part of their requirements for graduation. Advanced undergraduate playwrights may have their work produced by Hunter Playwrights.

Many students who graduate from the theatre program work as actors, directors, stage managers, and designers. Some of our students continue their creative study in conservatory or MFA programs. Others continue their education in history and theory as MA or PhD students.

The department maintains associations with major theatre institutions. Students have opportunities for placement as interns and apprentices with various professional groups.

Minor
Theatre majors may select a minor from any department or program in the college that offers a program of study leading to a BA degree. Students should consult the departmental adviser regarding appropriate minor choices.

Minor in Theatre

A Minor in Theatre requires a minimum of 12 credits in the Department of Theatre at the 200-level or higher of which at least 3 credits must be at the 300-level (these are usually at least 3 credits). Minors are encouraged to participate in departmental and student productions. Interested students must meet with the undergraduate advisor in the Department of Theatre to declare a minor and to define their course of study.

Thomas Hunter Honors Program

The interdisciplinary Thomas Hunter Honors Program provides some outstanding undergraduate students with a course of study suited to their individual needs and interests. Students selected for the Thomas Hunter Honors Program must show evidence of high academic potential, interdisciplinary interests and intellectual curiosity, as well as the willingness to explore unfamiliar fields and to accept challenges.

Students may apply for admission to the program on their own or they may be invited to participate in recognition of their outstanding academic records. Many graduates of the Thomas Hunter Honors Program go on to PhD programs in the various arts and sciences, or to law, medical and other professional schools. Others choose careers in a wide variety of professional, artistic and business fields.

College Requirements

The Thomas Hunter Honors Program requires that students maintain breadth in their programs, create a significant pattern of courses in at least two academic areas of investigation (Humanities and Arts, Social Sciences, Sciences and Mathematics), including at least one laboratory science course. All programs must be approved every semester by a Council adviser.

Students must also fulfill the following graduation requirements: ENGL 120; Pluralism and Diversity; and, for those entering Hunter in fall 2001 or later, the Foreign Language Requirement. Note that all colloquia in the 200 or 300 series are “W” courses.

Courses

Courses in Thomas Hunter Honors Program

Administration and Faculty

Program Coordinator:
Students in the Thomas Hunter Honors Program who wish to design an interdisciplinary major for themselves may do so in consultation with the appropriate Council adviser. The final transcript of such students designates the major as “Special Honors Curriculum.” Most students in the Thomas Hunter Honors Program, however, elect to fulfill the requirements for one or more specific departmental majors. These students abide by departmental criteria for the major, and are expected to pursue departmental honors in their major. Their final transcript records the major as Special Honors Curriculum/Specific Department. Whatever their major concentration, all students in the Program must also successfully complete three special interdisciplinary honors colloquia (see further on) and maintain a cumulative grade point average of 3.5 or better until their final certification into the Program. Certification usually occurs in the student’s junior year, when the Council, ruling on each case individually, decides that the student’s continuing academic distinction, commitment to interdisciplinary work, and promise of future productivity warrant permanent membership in the Thomas Hunter Honors Program.

Thomas Hunter Honors Program students meet regularly in 200-level and 300-level colloquia, led by members of the Council on Honors and by other invited members of the faculty. Students take a minimum of three colloquia, one of which must be at the 200-level, and one of which must be at the 300-level. While the specific content of these courses varies from semester to semester, the underlying principles remain the same.

The 200-level colloquium is taught by one professor, often a member of the Council on Honors, who studies a specific theme using the materials and methodologies of at least two disciplines. Students may take more than one of these colloquia if they so desire, but at least one must be taken during their first year in the Program. The 300-level honors colloquia are special seminars, usually conducted by two professors, devoted to topics lending themselves to broad interdisciplinary investigation.

The colloquia offer breadth of exposure, but, even more importantly, they seek to demonstrate how knowledge gained from a variety of disciplines can be related and integrated in an effort to understand complex processes and phenomena. In all colloquia, students write at least one major paper, in which they apply the methodology of the course to material of particular interest to them.

Upon completion of 90 credits, Thomas Hunter Honors students may also be admitted by the Council to Advanced Interdisciplinary Studies, with the opportunity of engaging in advanced independent study under the Council’s supervision. A thesis or other appropriate report of the results of the student’s research is presented to the Council.
Urban Affairs and Planning

About the Department

Hunter College Urban Affairs and Planning (UAP) is a department within the School of Arts & Sciences at Hunter College. The department is home to the undergraduate Urban Studies major which prepares students for higher education and careers in public service. UAP offers two graduate degrees, an accredited Master in Urban Planning and a Master of Sciences in Urban Affairs.

Since its creation by advocacy planner Paul Davidoff in 1965, the department has consistently upheld a vision of urban affairs and planning as a multi-disciplinary field. In keeping with this vision, the department's faculty members represent a wide range of disciplines including architecture, economics, political science, public policy, social work, urban planning, and public health. They collectively bring a wealth of academic and professional expertise to their teaching. The program also benefits greatly from a distinguished part-time faculty who bring practical experience and knowledge in both public and non-profit sectors into the classroom.

Urban Studies Major

Because 75 percent of the nation’s population is classified as urban, cities are important and relevant subjects for study and investigation. Urban studies courses do just that as they examine the forces that shape the institutions and quality of life in American metropolitan regions. Building on an understanding of economic, social, spatial, and political trends, urban studies provides a means to address current urban policy/planning issues and the diverse needs of the people who live in cities. The urban studies curriculum includes courses that develop qualitative and quantitative methods. Included into the curriculum are field-work experiences, an internship and studio class, which take students into the real world to test what is learned in the classroom. Because New York City is a vast urban laboratory, it is a powerful learning tool useful in the development of studio classes and the teaching of urban studies in general.

Preparation for Graduate Training and Employment

A substantial number of majors in urban studies pursue professional graduate study in urban planning, law, social work, public administration, architecture, and related fields. Students should discuss their professional goals with the adviser in their junior year in order to plan their programs accordingly. Others who graduate with an urban studies bachelor’s degree have found jobs with non-profits, government, and the private sector.

Public Service Scholars

The Public Service Scholar Program seeks to improve our cities and the lives of people by preparing talented students particularly women, minorities and immigrants for public service careers through internships with elected officials, government, and nonprofit organizations. The program runs for a full academic year and combines internship placements in the offices of senior officials and administrators with intensive seminars on public policy issues, social change, government and nonprofit organizations. The program is open to any Hunter College student, regardless of major, who has a minimum 3.0 GPA and who is within 45 credits of graduation at the beginning of the program in the fall semester. Admission of up to 24 students is competitive. Applications are accepted starting in November with a deadline of March 15th. Students accepted as Public Service Scholars receive 12 academic credits and a $6,000 stipend. Because women, minorities and immigrants have been traditionally underrepresented in public policy making and leadership positions, special efforts are taken to encourage them to apply for the program. Interested students should contact the Public Service Scholar Program, Room 1643 Hunter West, (212) 772-5599 or email ewalsh@hunter.cuny.edu.

Urban Studies - BA

The urban studies curriculum includes courses that develop qualitative and quantitative methods. Included into the curriculum are field-work experiences, an internship and studio class, which take students into the real world to test what is learned in the classroom. Because New York City is a vast urban laboratory, it is a powerful learning tool. Urban studies faculty use it to make discussions about affordable housing, transit, and recycling come alive and useful to students.

The curriculum is enriched by its location in the Department of Urban Affairs and Planning, which also includes graduate curricula in urban planning and urban affairs. The sharing of faculty and facilities, the interchange among advanced and beginning students, and the cooperation of other social science departments at Hunter create a synergy for comprehensive examination of “urban” concerns in a major city. After graduating, urban studies alumni have pursued public or private sector careers in urban planning, social work, municipal budgeting, public administration, real estate, community economic development, law, business, and journalism.

Major (30 credits)

The Urban Studies major provides a strong background in the study of urban issues, institutions, and policies. In addition, the major includes a methodology component, an internship experience, and appropriate courses selected from closely related social science disciplines. Completion of the major gives students a fuller understanding of contemporary cities from a variety of perspectives: social, physical, political, and economic. The major consists of components A, B, C, and D as listed below. Courses not listed may be selected to complete the major, given the approval from the urban studies program adviser.

A. Urban Studies Core 12 cr

URBS 10100 - Urban Life: Personal and Observational View (W)

GER 2/B
Introduction to urban studies allowing students to translate personal knowledge and experience of New York City to more theoretical understanding of urbanism. Includes four projects dealing with mapping, immigration, census data analysis, and local development issues.

3 hrs 3 cr.

URBS 10200 - Structure of Urban Region (W)

GER 2/B
Introduction to forces shaping institutions and life of contemporary American urban regions. Focus on evolving metropolitan economic, social, demographic, spatial, and political systems, and their relevance to current policy.

Prereq: URBS 10100 or relevant intro course (e.g., ECO 10000 or 20100-20200; GEOG 10100, PLSC 11100, SOC 10100) or perm instr.

3 hrs 3 cr.

URBS 20100 - Urban Plans and Policies

GER 2/B
Includes the study of the policy making process, major plans/policies (e.g. War on Poverty, urban renewal, neighborhood rezoning), “politics/power,” the role of non-profits in urban planning and policy making.

Prereq: URBS 10200 or 6 cr. intro social science courses or perm instr.

3 hrs 3 cr.

URBS 31000 - Methods of Urban Research and Policy Analysis

GER 3/B
Survey of research skills necessary for analysis of contemporary urban issues. Includes review of data sources, methods of forecasting, use of computer, and methods of information presentation.

Prereq: URBS 10200 or perm instr.

3 hrs 3 cr.

URBS 31100 - Quantitative Approaches to Urban Analysis

GER 3/B
A survey of quantitative methods used to analyze urban policy and plans. Students are taught about demography, data analysis, and benefits cost analysis.

Prereq: Open only urban studies majors who have completed the URBS 10100/10200 sequence or perm instr.

3 hrs 3 cr.
B. Urban Studies Electives 6 cr

Select two from:

URBS 40100 - Managing Urban Physical Environment

GER 3/B
Advanced study of the physical structure of cities which includes an analysis of zoning, land use, transportation, and the location of housing. The role of public and private agencies at local, state, and national levels in the planning and management of the physical environment is also considered.

prereq: URBS 20100 or perm instr.

3 hrs 3 cr.

-or-

URBS 40200 - Urban Social and Economic Development

GER 3/B
Detailed review of social and economic concerns confronting urban communities, focusing on major problem areas: poverty, health, crime, economic development, unemployment, and racial discrimination.

prereq: URBS 20100 or perm instr.

3 hrs 3 cr.

Additional Information

Component B can also be met by another 400-level URBS course approved by adviser.

C. Fieldwork Component 3 cr

Select one from:

D. Basic Social Science Component 6 cr

Select two from:

AFPRL 30400 - Leaders and Movements of Black Urban Communities (W)

GER 3/B PD/B
Personalities and movements that have influenced Black communities of U.S.; focuses mainly on 20th century.

prereq: AFPRL 20300 or 20400 or 20500

3 hrs 3 cr.

ASIAN 39001 - International Migration

PD/B
This interdisciplinary course examines the origins and processes of migration and settlement, past and present. Includes a series of lectures by leading scholars from a variety of academic fields and immigrant communities. Topics include: immigration and labor, race and gender, social and cultural identity, immigration policy and political action, and the trans-nationalization of education and family life.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ECO 33000 - Economic Development

GER 3/B PD/A
Critical variables explaining the diversity of growth and economic and development outcomes across developing countries. Theories, case studies, measurement and policies.
prereq: ECO 20000
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOG 22100 - Economic Geography

GER 2/B
An introduction to the sub-discipline of economic geography, which will include an exploration of the history of both economics and geography, and a rigorous global approach to the subjects. Students will come to understand the history of the development of economic thought, leading up to, and transformed, by today’s crisis, as well as the particularly geographical nature of economic phenomena and processes, and the immense contributions geographers have made to the understanding of economics. Course focus is on the dominant form of global economic activity today, which is capitalistic, and the way this economic structure plays out through different geographies at different historical moments in time.
Not open to freshmen
prereq: GEOG 10100 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.
Offered fall and spring

GEOG 32100 - Transportation Geography

GER 3/B
A geographic study and modeling of transportation routes and their influences on the location of economic activity.
prereq: GEOG 221 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.
not offered 2011

GEOG 34100 - Urban Geography

GER 3/B
Open to Jr/Sr only. Spatial analysis of functions of metropolitan areas. Social and economic characteristics of cities and suburbs. Land use and transportation patterns.
prereq: GEOG 101 or GEOG 150 or perm instr, Jr/Sr only
3 hrs 3 cr.

GEOG 35700 - Geography of New York City and Vicinity

GER 3/B
Informed immersion in NYC is the main objective of this course. Students will learn by exploration and observation more than by media. The city is the laboratory to complement readings, lectures and discussion. Students will emerge from this class with an enhanced appreciation of the entire city. Study assignments include keeping a journal of walking assignments as well as readings. Field work will focus on the five boroughs of New York City. (Students with difficulties in walking or using public transportation or who have phobias regarding unfamiliar neighborhoods should consider this before registering.)
Open to Jr/Sr only.

prereq: GEOG 10100
3 hrs 3 cr.
Offered fall.

GEOG 37000 - Geography of Sustainable Development in Developing Countries

GER 3/B PD/A
Reviews the theories and approaches of international development. Themes include development theory, availability and distribution of resources, population growth, food production, water supply and forestry. The course will also highlight the development and environmental problems that challenge the achievement of sustainable development such as population growth, food and world economic crises, increasing number of the poor and climate change. The course will provide students with theory, methods, problems and analysis of factors that influence sustainable development in developing countries.

prereq: one of the following: GEOG 10100, 15000, 27000, 27100, 27500, 27700 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

HIST 31700 - History of the American City

URBP 702 The Structure of the Urban Region

In addition to these two courses, there are cross-listed classes, offered each semester, that are open to undergraduate students.

Women and Gender Studies

About the Program

The Hunter College Women and Gender Studies Program is an interdisciplinary academic program that seeks to preserve, expand and share knowledge about women and gender. The Program reexamines the historical record to make visible women’s contributions to the world’s knowledge and cultures. The Women and Gender Studies Program seeks to create an understanding of the ways in which gender intersects with race, religion, class, ethnicity, ability and sexual orientation to shape all human experience, including the pursuit of learning.

The Women and Gender Studies Program includes a broad community of faculty, affiliated faculty, students, and staff and is administered by a director and a policy committee of elected faculty and student representatives. Most courses in the program are cross-listed in an academic department. These have been developed through the initiative of Women and Gender Studies-affiliated faculty throughout the college.

The Women and Gender Studies Program draws on the commitment and expertise of feminist scholars in more than 15 academic departments for our wide range of course offerings. The Women and Gender Studies major is useful, directly and indirectly, in all fields involving an analysis of society and social interaction. Women and Gender Studies graduates may seek employment in any field, including such areas as health care, counseling, advertising, market research, publishing, teaching, public service, advocacy, or administrative work. The major is an appropriate preparation for professional schools and for postgraduate work in Women and Gender Studies or in one of the many disciplines from which the major draws its curriculum.

Minor in Women and Gender Studies

The Minor in Women and Gender Studies requires students to take 12 credits: Introduction to Gender and Sexuality Studies (WGS 10000), Classics in Feminist Thought (WGS 20100), Transnational Feminisms (WGS 24400) and one elective course from one of the six areas of concentration.

WGS 10000 - Introduction to Gender and Sexuality Studies, must be completed before WGS 20100 - Classics in Feminist Thought (W) and WGS 24400 - Transnational Feminisms.

Women and Gender Studies - BA

Major
The Women and Gender Studies Program offers a 27-credit major. The 27 required credits are distributed as follows:

Core 12 cr

A. 3 Credits

WGS 10000 - Introduction to Gender and Sexuality Studies

GER 2/B PD/C
The course will introduce students to the political and theoretical debates in the discipline of gender and sexuality. We will cover historical struggles for the women’s enfranchisement, the abolitionist movements, sex wars, and the queer rights movement. The course introduces students to feminist contribution to the debate that considers sex as biology and gender as culture, critical race theory, and queer theory. In addition the course will also deal with structural and institutional forms of disenfranchisement by examining the relationship between gender and the state, colonialism, law and capital.
3 hrs 3 cr.

B. 3 Credits

WGS 20100 - Classics in Feminist Thought (W)

GER 3/A or B PD/C
The course covers the historical debates within the ‘women’s movement’ in the United States by examining some of the ‘classical’ texts by Mary Wollstonecraft, John Adams, and Sojourner Truth. The course also covers the political and intellectual contribution by women of color to the discipline by reading Gloria Anzuldua, bell hooks, Audre Lorde, Patricia Williams, Kimberley Crenshaw among others. ‘Foundational’ texts by Gayle Rubin, Judith Butler, and Adrienne Rich offer a deeper understanding of queer theory’s influence to the discipline. Even as the course reads ‘classic’ texts of the discipline, we will critically examine the formation of a cannon.

prereq: WGS 10000, ENGL 12000 or equiv.
3 hrs 3 cr.

C. 3 credits

WGS 24400 - Transnational Feminisms

GER 3/A or B PD/C
Exploring the gender dynamics of racial, ethnic, and economic relations of power in domestic, international, and transnational settings. We will examine feminist scholarship produced by and about American women of color, Third World women, and other social and political actors whose experiences and thinking have shaped contemporary ideas about gender in different parts of the world.

prereq: WGS 10000, ENGL 12000
3 hrs 3 cr.

D. 3 credits
WGS 31000 - Research Seminar: Feminist Theory and Methodology

Open to Jr/Sr only. Study of the theoretical models that feminist scholars create to guide their work and application of feminist methodology to a research project. To graduate with honors in Women's Studies, majors must enroll in this seminar.

Note: Students may take WGS 31000 or 32000 to satisfy the Senior Seminar requirement in the major; students may also opt to take both courses. Since both classes are not taught every semester, students are urged to consult the program director in advance to plan their senior seminar prereq: WGS 10000, 20100, at least one other WGS course at 200-level or higher

3 hrs 3 cr.

spring semester

AREA OF CONCENTRATION- 9 Credits

Students will choose one from among the 6 areas of concentration listed as follows:

Please go to the WGS website schedule of classes (http://www.hunter.cuny.edu/wgsprogram/schedule-of-classes) for a complete list of cross-listed courses that fulfill each of the 6 areas of concentration.

I. Women and Gender Studies: Feminist Thought and Theory

II. Women and Gender Studies: Sexualities

III. Women and Gender Studies: Gender & Public Policy

IV. Women and Gender Studies: Gender, Literature and the Arts

V. Women and Gender Studies: Labor, Migration and Globalization

VI. Women and Gender Studies: Women in Culture and Society

Electives - 6 credits

Students will be required to take two elective classes (6 credits). One (3 credits) of the two elective classes MUST be in an alternative Area of Concentration than their primary one. At least one of the classes in the student's Area of Concentration or elective must be 300 level or above.

Minor in Women and Gender Studies - 12 credits

The Minor in Women and Gender Studies requires students to take 12 credits: Introduction to Gender and Sexuality Studies (WGS 10000), Classics in Feminist Thought (WGS 20100), Transnational Feminisms (WGS 24400) and one elective course from one of the six areas of concentration.

WGS 10000 - Introduction to Gender and Sexuality Studies, must be completed before WGS 20100 - Classics in Feminist Thought (W) and WGS 24400 - Transnational Feminisms.

Internships

Majors may satisfy the Senior Seminar requirement by interning in organizations that relate to the needs or concerns of women, and by simultaneously enrolling in WGSP 32000 Internship Seminar, where their internship experiences and assigned readings will be discussed. Majors may also take the research seminar at the same time. The internship option is available to minors as well as majors. Interested students should consult with the program director before registering. for the internship seminar. Students who wish to undertake an independently arranged internship outside of the formal internship seminar may enroll in WGSI 29800 with the permission of the program director.

Research Seminar

Majors may satisfy the Senior Seminar requirement of the major by enrolling in the Research Seminar (WGS 31000), a capstone course in which they will apply feminist theory and methodology to a significant research project resulting in a substantial paper. Students who wish to qualify for honors in Women and Gender Studies must enroll in the research seminar.

Honors

In order to graduate with honors in Women and Gender Studies, a student must have a 3.5 GPA in the Women and Gender Studies major and a college-wide cumulative index of at least 3.0. Students should submit a 18-20 page paper written for any Women and Gender Studies 300 level class including but not limited to the Research Seminar (WGS 31000). The student must submit the paper by March 15 (for June graduation) and October 15 (for December graduation) to be considered for program honors. The papers will be read by a faculty committee to judge whether it merits honors.

School of Education

About the School of Education

All students who take the education sequence at Hunter must major in a liberal arts or sciences subject. In other words, students who take any program in education do so in addition to fulfilling both the general education requirement and the requirements for a liberal arts or sciences major.

A student who completes an undergraduate education program approved by the New York State Education Department fulfills the academic requirements for New York State Initial Certification. (See section below on New York State certification for more information.)

The Office of Educational Services - Room 1000 West

This office provides support services to students enrolled in classes offered by the three teacher education departments of the School of Education. The areas of services provided include: coordination of admissions, advisement and registration; teacher certification; and various other student services such as permits, course equivalencies and leaves of absence. The Office of Educational Services maintains regular office hours, staying open until 6 PM Monday through Thursday and to 4 PM on Fridays to provide advisement for working and evening session students. Student teaching and field placement applications and information are available on the School of Education web site http://www.hunter.cuny.edu/education.

New York State Certification
The undergraduate sequences in education described below have been approved by the New York State Education Department to lead to initial certification for teaching in New York State. To earn this certificate the student must successfully complete the approved program of study, obtain the BA or BA/MA degree, submit fingerprints for clearance and pass the required New York State Teacher Certification Examinations (NYSTCE) including the LAST, ATS-W and CST. The Office of Educational Services recommends the certification applications of students who complete an approved program for certification. The initial certificate permits the holder to teach for five years. At the end of that time with three years of full-time teaching in the certificate title and a master's degree, the individual will be able to obtain professional certification. New York State certification is reciprocally accepted by many other states upon application. Students with questions about certification should consult the School of Education website http://www.hunter.cuny.edu/education.

Admission to Teacher Education Programs

Students must apply for admission to the School of Education. Applicants for adolescent education programs must demonstrate satisfactory performance in courses in the major. Undergraduate teacher education programs require a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.8. Students are advised to submit their completed application for admission in April for the fall semester and November for the spring semester. Applicants must attach a student copy of transcripts of previous college study to their application. Applicants must demonstrate satisfactory performance in a group interview and an on-site writing sample. No courses with credit/noncredit grades are accepted.

Nondegree and Second-Degree Students

The School of Education does not accept nondegree or second-degree students.

Hunter College Campus Schools

The Campus Schools are located at Park Avenue and 94th Street in Manhattan. They serve as a laboratory for observation, demonstration, research, curriculum design and other projects involving their students, all of whom score in the range of the gifted on intelligence and achievement tests. Students are admitted to the publicly supported schools on the basis of competitive testing. Efforts continue to identify gifted children from diverse backgrounds who meet the schools’ rigorous standards for admission to kindergarten and grade 7 (the two levels at which students are admitted).

Hunter College Elementary School

Children must be five years of age to attend the kindergarten. Only Manhattan residents are eligible to apply. The age of an applicant is calculated according to the academic year. While some students continue on to the high school from the elementary school, high-achieving students from the five boroughs are invited to take a competitive examination in order to enter Hunter High School at the 7th grade.

Hunter College High School

The Hunter College High School is a six-year junior-senior high school. The academic program stresses both acceleration and enrichment and provides students with a rigorous education. Research focuses on the development of curriculum, teaching strategies and other educational practices that maintain and advance a “state of the art” approach to the education of intellectually gifted students.

Manhattan/Hunter College Science High School
The Manhattan/Hunter Science High School, located on Amsterdam Avenue at 66th Street, provides instruction for grades 9 through 12. This science high school is grounded in the belief that individuals are better prepared to face life’s challenges when given the proper tools. Science offers the lens through which we may see, explore and meet the future. The New York City Department of Education and Hunter College have joined to create a school that provides an enriched, comprehensive college preparatory curriculum with a focus on science and the integration of science and the scientific method into all subject areas.

Special Education
Adolescent Biology, Grades 7-12 - BA

The BA and BA/MA programs in Adolescent Biology lead to initial certification as a teacher. These programs include fieldwork in New York City Public schools. Students must take a specified sequence of education courses in addition to fulfilling the General Education Requirement (GER) and the requirements of their major.

Adolescent education is a 26-credit course of study that students usually complete over four semesters. Students major in the subject they plan to teach and minor in adolescent education.

Admission Information

Admission to the School of Education is not automatic with admission to Hunter College. There is a separate admission process that involves an online application, a writing sample and an interview.

Students must apply by November 1 for the spring term and April 1 for the fall term. Applications are available online only: Application for Admission - Undergraduate Programs in Adolescent Education.

Admission Requirements

1. Minimum of at least 65 credits but no more than 90 credits.
2. A Hunter College Grade Point Average (GPA) of 2.8 or better.
3. Receive a grade of B or better in ENGL 12000.
4. Have no more than 6 cr. of CR/NC grades.
5. Formal declaration of a major in biology.
6. Transfer students will have to complete 12 credits of coursework at Hunter College before applying. However, transfer students with 60 or more credits and a GPA of 3.3 or better may be immediately considered for admission.

Liberal Arts and Science Major Requirements

37 credits in Biology plus 33.5-36.5 credits in required additional science and math courses (total 70.5 to 73.5 credits).
(see Biological Sciences Major I for details of course requirements)

Required Liberal Arts & Sciences General Core
Other State Certification Requirements

- Students must pass the Liberal Arts and Sciences Test (LAST) and the Assessment of Teaching Skills-Written (ATS-W) Secondary of the New York state teacher certification exam prior to student teaching.
- Fingerprints must be cleared prior to student teaching.

Course of Study

SEDF 20300 - Social Foundations of Education, Grades 7-12 (W)

Students explore different sociological, historical, philosophical, anthropological, and political concepts and theories related to urban schooling. Emphasis on issues such as tracking, parentschool-community relations, inclusion of students with disabilities, the teaching of English language learners, and other diverse populations. Students will learn to analyze these concepts and theories and apply them to current classroom practices.

3 hrs 3 cr.

SEDF 20400 - Adolescent Development

The process of cognitive, social/emotional, personality and language development among youth who vary by gender, race and ethnicity, English proficiency and varying levels of abilities.

2 hrs per week plus 36 hrs fieldwork 2 cr.

SEDF 20500 - Educational Psychology: Applications in Grades 7-12

Basic educational psychology covering the characteristics of the learner, applications of learning theories and the instruction process as applied to the secondary setting, grades 7-12.

prereq: SEDF 20300, 20400

2 hrs per week plus 36 hrs fieldwork 2 cr.

SEDF 20600 - Assessment of the Teaching and Learning Process in Grades 7-12

The principles and practices for the assessment of learning and teaching in the classroom, grades 7-12. Includes instructional objectives, test construction, descriptive statistics, interpretation of standardized test scores, performance outcome measures and alternative forms of assessment.

prereq: SEDF 20500, SEDC 21000

2 per week plus lab 2 cr.

SEDC 21000 - Building the Foundations of Literacy in Grades 7-12

Supporting the development of literacy across the curriculum, with a focus on under-prepared students, students with special education needs, and students who are English language learners; implications for working toward standards.

3 hrs 3 cr.

SEDC 21300 - Methods I: Classroom Organization, Management and Instruction in Mathematics and Science, Grades 7-12

Candidates will identify the impact of various classroom organization patterns, rules and routines. Candidates will be able to design, implement and evaluate lessons in the context of state and city standards for learning in grades 7-12.
prereq or coreq: SEDF 20300, 20400
3 hrs 3 cr.

SEDC 22000 - Adolescent Health and Safety

Health issues that are relevant to the health promotion and wellness of adolescents and their families from diverse backgrounds, abilities, and sexual orientations. Specific content areas will include nutrition, fitness, drug education, child abuse and neglect, fire prevention and safety, and violence prevention and intervention.
prereq: SEDF 20300, 20400
1 hr 1 cr.

SEDC 32400 - Methods II: Teaching Diverse Learners Science, Grades 7-12

Familiarizes prospective middle and high school teachers, grades 7-12, with pedagogical approaches and innovative teaching techniques needed to convey to a diverse population current state and professional standards-based curriculum in science. Innovative uses of technology, development of instructional units, individualizing for students with special needs, and strategies for managing problem behavior will be emphasized throughout the course.

prereq: SEDC 21300 prereq or coreq: SEDF 20500, SEDC 21000
2 hrs per week plus 36 hrs fieldwork 2 cr.

SEDC 45410 - Student Teaching in Biology, Grades 7-12

Teacher candidates complete 30 days of student teaching at grades 7-9 and 30 days at grades 10-12 under the supervision of a Hunter College faculty member and a certified biology teacher in a New York City school selected by the college. Students will further develop their skills in the delivery of instruction. Student teachers will assume significant responsibility for classroom instruction and management.

prereq: SEDC 32400
prereq or coreq: SEDF 20600
2 hrs per week, 60 days student teaching plus workshops and conferences 5 cr.

Adolescent Education Programs, Grades 7-12 and Dance Education, Grades Pre K-12

List of Programs

- Adolescent Biology, Grades 7-12 - BA
- Adolescent Biology, Grades 7-12 - BA/MA
- Adolescent Chemistry, Grades 7-12 - BA
- Adolescent Chemistry, Grades 7-12 - BA/MA
- Adolescent Earth Science, Grades 7-12 - BA/MA
- Adolescent English, Grades 7-12 - BA
- Adolescent Mathematics, Grades 7-12 - BA
- Adolescent Mathematics, Grades 7-12 - BA/MA
- Adolescent Physics, Grades 7-12 - BA
- Adolescent Physics, Grades 7-12 - BA/MA
- Adolescent Social Studies, Grades 7-12 - BA
- Dance Pre-K - 12 - BA
- Dance Pre-K - 12 - BA/MA

Progress Standards

1. Students must maintain a minimum overall GPA of 2.8 and an education sequence index of 2.8.

2. Any student who receives a grade of B-, C+, C or D in student teaching must apply to the department chairperson for permission to reregister for that course, which may be repeated only once.

3. Any student who receives a grade of D+ or D in a course in the education sequence will be required to repeat that course. Students are permitted to repeat a course only once.

4. Any student who receives a grade of F in any course in the pedagogical sequence (including student teaching) will not be permitted to continue in the program.
5. Any student who has more than two grades of IN will be permitted to register for only one course the following semester. Students will be permitted to register for the second methods course in their subject area only after having met the following requirements:

1. Completion of 18 credits of study in the major subject area;
2. Approval of the major department adviser; and
3. Maintenance of an overall GPA of 2.8 and an education sequence index of 2.8.

Students should register to take the Liberal Arts and Sciences Test (LAST) of the New York State Teacher Certification Examinations during their junior year. Students will not be allowed to enroll in student teaching until their scores on the LAST have been received by the School of Education. Students who do not pass the LAST at least partly because of low scores on subtest 4 and/or 5 must enroll in a college writing course before being allowed to register for any additional courses.

Admission Process

1. Students interested in applying to the Adolescent Education program should apply at the beginning of the semester prior to the semester in which they plan to enroll.
2. Students must participate in a group interview with several other students and School of Education faculty members.
3. Students must complete an on-site writing sample that the School of Education faculty will use to assess written English skills.

Admission Requirements

Students who wish to enter the adolescent education sequence must meet all the criteria given below.

1. Minimum of 65 credits but no more than 90 credits;
2. GPA of at least 2.8. If a student has more than 6 credits of CR/NR grades, the excess of these grades will be calculated as C or F in determining whether the student meets the minimum GPA;
3. A grade of at least B in ENGL 12000 (or a 200- or 300-level writing course such as ENGL 201);
4. Formal declaration of a major in a subject area appropriate for certification: English, Languages Other than English (Chinese, French, German, Hebrew, Italian, Russian, Spanish), Mathematics, Biology, Chemistry, Physics, Social Studies (Geography Option 2), Dance; and
5. Submission of an application for admission to the sequence (the application is available in the Office of Educational Services, Room 1000 Hunter West).

Program Overview

Students who major in an academic subject may also wish to complete a sequence of courses in education that will enable them to pursue a career teaching students in grades 7-12. The undergraduate programs in adolescent education are designed to prepare prospective teachers to serve as high-quality educators for students in urban secondary schools.
Programs in adolescent education at Hunter College prepare prospective teachers to serve as highly effective educators in urban middle and high schools. Through rigorous course work, fieldwork and student teaching experiences in New York City schools, students learn how to provide an academically rigorous education to students of diverse backgrounds, abilities and interests.

Content Knowledge

Courses in the academic discipline offered by the School of Arts & Sciences will deepen teacher candidates' subject knowledge. They will learn how to use knowledge of their subject to design and implement classroom instruction that reflects State and professional standards.

Professional Knowledge

Teacher candidates will learn the theory and practice of effective pedagogy in their subject area. They will gain a grounding in the history, philosophy, psychology and sociology of education that will inform their teaching. They will study research-based theories and methods of teaching their subject to students with special needs, including special education students and English language learners.

Skills

Teacher candidates will learn to design lessons and units of work for students and to adapt their instruction to students’ prior knowledge and level of skill. They will gain expertise in analyzing and using assessments of student achievement to guide and inform their instruction. They will master the use of technology as a tool for teaching their subject. They will learn to manage their classrooms to provide effective instruction for all students. They will practice ways to assess and reflect on their teaching practice in order to strengthen their work with students and grow as professionals.

Creating Community

Teacher candidates will learn to create humane and ethical learning communities in their classrooms and schools in which all students receive the support they need to achieve academically. They will learn to communicate effectively with parents, families, community members and other members of the school faculty and staff in order to provide this support.

Programs

The Hunter College School of Education offers the following undergraduate programs leading to initial certification in adolescent education (grades 7-12): biology, chemistry, Chinese, English, French, German, Hebrew, Italian, mathematics, physics, Russian, social studies and Spanish. Hunter also offers an undergraduate program leading to initial certification in dance (pre-K-12). In addition, BA/MA programs in biology, chemistry, earth science, mathematics, music and physics are offered. These programs lead to initial and professional certification.

The program of study for the baccalaureate degree at Hunter College requires a minimum of 120 credits. This is a daytime program that includes fieldwork in New York City public schools designated by the Hunter College School of Education. Students who wish to pursue initial certification in one of the above areas must take a specified sequence of education courses, in addition to fulfilling the college’s General Education Requirement (GER) and the requirements of their liberal arts or sciences major. All relevant departments accept the adolescent education sequence as a minor.
Transfer Students

The program will conditionally admit transfer students with 60 or more credits who have a GPA of at least 3.3 without requiring that they complete 12 credits at Hunter College. However, they must establish a minimum GPA of 2.8 at Hunter College to continue in the program after the first semester. Any transfer student who has a GPA of 2.8-3.29 must complete 12 credits at Hunter College with a cumulative GPA of at least 2.8 before being admitted to the program in adolescent education.

Adolescent English, Grades 7-12 - BA

The BA program in Adolescent English leads to initial certification as a teacher. This program includes fieldwork in New York City Public schools. Students must take a specified sequence of education courses in addition to fulfilling the General Education Requirement (GER) and the requirements of their major.

Adolescent education is a 26-credit course of study that students usually complete over four semesters. Students major in the subject they plan to teach and minor in adolescent education.

Admission Information

Admission to the School of Education is not automatic with admission to Hunter College. There is a separate admission process that involves an online application, a writing sample and an interview.

Students must apply by November 1 for the spring term and April 1 for the fall term. Applications are available online only: Application for Admission - Undergraduate Programs in Adolescent Education.

Admission Requirements

1. Minimum of at least 65 credits but no more than 90 credits.
2. A Hunter College Grade Point Average (GPA) of 2.8 or better.
3. Receive a grade of B or better in ENGL 12000.
4. Have no more than 6 cr. of CR/NC grades.
5. Formal declaration of a major in English.
6. Transfer students will have to complete 12 credits of coursework at Hunter College before applying. However, transfer students with 60 or more credits and a GPA of 3.3 or better may be immediately considered for admission.

Liberal Arts and Science Major Requirements

BA Concentration in English: Preparation for Secondary School Teaching (30 cr) : 30 credits in English including:

- 18 credits in literature courses
- 6 credits in writing courses
- 3 credits in language courses
- 3 credits in elective

Required Liberal Arts & Sciences General Core
The courses listed below are required for BA Adolescent English students. Some of these courses may be used towards the GER:

- English ENGL 12000 and ENGL 22000
- Two courses selected from: HIST 15100/HIST 15200/GEOG 10100
- STAT 11300
- 9 credits in math, science or technology with at least one science course with a lab component
- 6 credits in the arts
- One course that focuses on communication (see program adviser for acceptable courses)
- 12 credits of study in a language other than English (or exemption on basis of equivalency)

Other State Certification Requirements

- Students must pass the Liberal Arts and Sciences Test (LAST) and the Assessment of Teaching Skills-Written (ATS-W) Secondary of the New York state teacher certification exam prior to student teaching.
- Fingerprints must be cleared prior to student teaching.

Course of Study

SEDF 20300 - Social Foundations of Education, Grades 7-12 (W)

Students explore different sociological, historical, philosophical, anthropological, and political concepts and theories related to urban schooling. Emphasis on issues such as tracking, parents-school-community relations, inclusion of students with disabilities, the teaching of English language learners, and other diverse populations. Students will learn to analyze these concepts and theories and apply them to current classroom practices.

3 hrs 3 cr.

SEDF 20400 - Adolescent Development

The process of cognitive, social/emotional, personality and language development among youth who vary by gender, race and ethnicity, English proficiency and varying levels of abilities.

2 hrs per week plus 36 hrs fieldwork 2 cr.

SEDF 20500 - Educational Psychology: Applications in Grades 7-12

Basic educational psychology covering the characteristics of the learner, applications of learning theories and the instruction process as applied to the secondary setting, grades 7-12.

prereq: SEDF 20300, 20400
2 hrs per week plus 36 hrs fieldwork 2 cr.

SEDF 20600 - Assessment of the Teaching and Learning Process in Grades 7-12

The principles and practices for the assessment of learning and teaching in the classroom, grades 7-12. Includes instructional objectives, test construction, descriptive statistics, interpretation of standardized test scores, performance outcome measures and alternative forms of assessment.

prereq: SEDF 20500, SEDC 21000
2 per week plus lab 2 cr.

SEDC 21000 - Building the Foundations of Literacy in Grades 7-12
Supporting the development of literacy across the curriculum, with a focus on under-prepared students, students with special education needs, and students who are English language learners; implications for working toward standards.
3 hrs 3 cr.

SEDC 21100 - Young Adult Literature in Our Diverse Society

Familiarizes prospective teachers with a wide variety of literature for or about young adults. Books discussed and dramatized during each session reflect diverse cultures, varying learning styles, and special needs of young adults. The English language arts standards are addressed as delineated in city and state regulations. Literacy and comprehension skills are explored as well.
prereq or coreq: SEDF 20300, 20400
3 hrs 3 cr.

SEDC 22000 - Adolescent Health and Safety

Health issues that are relevant to the health promotion and wellness of adolescents and their families from diverse backgrounds, abilities, and sexual orientations. Specific content areas will include nutrition, fitness, drug education, child abuse and neglect, fire prevention and safety, and violence prevention and intervention.
prereq: SEDF 20300, 20400
1 hr 1 cr.

SEDC 32100 - Teaching English Methods to a Diverse Population in Grades 7-12

Methodology that facilitates the learning of English language arts for a diverse population in secondary schools. Teacher candidates will engage in ways of teaching adolescents the skills of reading, responding to literature, writing (creative and expository), listening, speaking, and applying grammar conventions. They will write lesson and unit plans and experiment with classroom management and assessment techniques as they present lessons to the class for peer and instructor criticisms. State and city teaching standards will be applied throughout the course.
prereq: SEDC 21100
prereq or coreq: SEDF 20500, SEDC 21000
2 hrs per week plus 36 hrs fieldwork 2 cr.

SEDC 45100 - Student Teaching in English, Grades 7-12

Teacher candidates complete 30 days of student teaching at grades 7-9 and 30 days at grades 10-12 under the supervision of a Hunter College faculty member and a certified English teacher in a New York City school selected by the college. Students will further develop their skills in the delivery of instruction. Student teachers will assume significant responsibility for classroom instruction and management.
prereq: SEDC 32100 prereq or coreq: SEDF 20600
2 hrs per week, 60 days student teaching plus workshops and conferences 5 cr.

SPED 30800 - Teaching Students with Special Needs in Inclusive Settings

3 Technology assessments are required of all students.

Adolescent Mathematics, Grades 7-12 - BA
The BA and BA/MA programs in Adolescent Mathematics lead to initial certification as a teacher. These programs include fieldwork in New York City Public schools. Adolescent Social Studies, Grades 7-12 - BA
The BA program in Adolescent Social Studies leads to initial certification as a teacher. This program includes fieldwork in New York City Public schools. Students must take a specified sequence of education courses in addition to fulfilling the General Education Requirement (GER) and the requirements of their major.

Adolescent education is a 26-credit course of study that students usually complete over four semesters. Students major in the subject they plan to teach and minor in adolescent education.

Admission Information

Admission to the School of Education is not automatic with admission to Hunter College. There is a separate admission process that involves an online application, a writing sample and an interview.

Students must apply by November 1 for the spring term and April 1 for the fall term. Applications are available online only: Application for Admission - Undergraduate Programs in Adolescent Education.

Admission Requirements

1. Minimum of at least 65 credits but no more than 90 credits.
2. A Hunter College Grade Point Average (GPA) of 2.8 or better.
3. Receive a grade of B or better in ENGL 12000.
4. Have no more than 6 cr. of CR/NC grades.
5. Formal declaration of a major in history or geography.
6. Transfer students will have to complete 12 credits of coursework at Hunter College before applying. However, transfer students with 60 or more credits and a GPA of 3.3 or better may be immediately considered for admission.

Liberal Arts and Science Major Requirements

A geography or history major for adolescent teachers. (see Option in Social Studies within the Geography Major for Adolescent Education Teachers or History for Adolescent Education (Social Studies))

Required Liberal Arts & Sciences General Core

The courses listed below are required for BA Adolescent Social Studies students. Some of these courses may be used towards the GER:

- ENGL 12000 and ENGL 22000
- Two courses selected from: HIST 15100/HIST 15200/GEOG 10100
- STAT 11300
- 9 credits in math, science or technology with at least one science course with a lab component
- 6 credits in the arts
- One course that focuses on communication
- 12 credits of study in a language other than English (or exemption on basis of equivalency)

Other State Certification Requirements

- Students must pass the Liberal Arts and Sciences Test (LAST) and the Assessment of Teaching Skills-Written (ATS-W) Secondary of the New York state teacher certification exam prior to student teaching.

Childhood Education (QUEST) Grades 1-6 - BA

1000 Hunter West; (212) 772-4624

- QUEST Six-Semester Sequence for Students Who Enter the Program with 30 - 40 credits
- QUEST Four-Semester Sequence for Students Entering the Program with More than 40 credits

QUEST Program Overview

The Quality Urban Elementary School Teacher (QUEST) program is an undergraduate childhood teacher education program that prepares students to become New York State certified teachers of childhood education grades 1-6.

QUEST is a 30-credit program completed over either four or six semesters that includes extensive field experiences attached to courses. The six-semester sequence is designed for students who enter Hunter College as freshmen. The four-semester sequence is designed for transfer students and other students who do not apply to QUEST until they have completed 40 or more credits.

QUEST is committed to the preparation of urban elementary school teachers who can deal effectively with the wide range of diverse learning needs found among the City’s students. QUEST collaborates closely with New York City public schools to provide outstanding field experiences for students.

The program of study for the BA degree at Hunter College consists of a minimum of 120 credits. All students must major in one of the following liberal arts or sciences subjects: English Language Arts, English, History, Geography, Social Studies (available as a major in the geography department), Mathematics, Biology or Chemistry. QUEST serves as a collateral major in addition to a student’s major in Hunter’s School of Arts and Sciences. Students must also complete The General Education Requirements, which consists of a core and graduation requirements in writing, pluralism and diversity and in a foreign language.

Required Coursework in Liberal Arts and Sciences

Teachers in elementary schools

Teachers in elementary schools are required to teach all subject areas in the curriculum and thus need a broad liberal arts background in addition to specialized knowledge of teaching. Therefore, students will be required to complete the following liberal arts and sciences courses, or their equivalent (most of these courses can be taken within the college’s General Education Requirement). These courses require a grade of C or better.

ENGL 12000 - Expository Writing

GER 1/A
Required of all students unless exempt; trains students to analyze, develop and evaluate ideas and to express themselves clearly and effectively. Introduction to documented research.
prereq: successful completion of developmental courses, if required
3 hrs + conf 3 cr.

ENGL 22000 - Introduction to Writing about Literature (W)

GER 2/A
Analytical writing and close reading in British and American fiction, drama, poetry, and literary criticism, with an emphasis on further development of critical writing and research skills. Students gain a deeper understanding and appreciation of literature as well as more extensive experience with academic writing.
prereq: ENGL 12000
3 hrs + one additional conference hour 3 cr.

GEOG 10100 - People and Their Environment

GER 2/B
A broad overview of subjects and ideas in geography, possibly the most internally diverse of the social sciences. Covers the geographical aspects of topics including weather and climate, landforms, religions, food, cities, economics, culture, politics and much more. While students will be expected to understand the basics of each of the topics covered, the overarching emphasis will be on understanding the relationships among them. As such, the course builds from one topic to the next, ultimately stressing the sheer geographical complexity and wonder of modern life. Interact with it. Contemporary economic, political and social patterns and problems are discussed.

3 hrs 3 cr.
offered fall and spring.

HIST 15100 - The United States from the Colonial Era to the Civil War (W)

GER 1/C or 2/B
American political, social and cultural history from the time of the European settlements to the Civil War. Courses at the 300-level and above not offered to freshmen.
prereq or coreq: ENGL 12000
3 hrs 3 cr.

HIST 15200 - The United States from the Civil War Era to the Present (W)

GER 1/C or 2/B
American political, social and cultural history from the Civil War to the present. Courses at the 300-level and above not offered to freshmen.
prereq or coreq: ENGL 12000
3 hrs 3 cr.

MATH 10400 - Mathematics for Elementary Education I

GER 1/B
Fundamental and relevant mathematics as recommended by the NCTM for prospective elementary school teachers, including problem solving, sets, logic, numeration, computation, integers and number theory. Required of students planning to teach in elementary schools. Not open to other students.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 10100 or appropriate score on the placement exam
3 hrs 3 cr.

MATH 10500 - Mathematics for Elementary Education II

GER 1/B
Continuation of MATH 10400. Continuation of the content of the mathematics recommended by the NCTM for prospective elementary school teachers, including probability, statistics, plane and transformational geometry, congruence and similarity.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 10400
3 hrs 3 cr.
- Two semesters of science, at least one of which is a laboratory science,*
- 6 credits in the arts (courses in ARTCR, ARTH, FILM, MUSHL, THEA),
- At least 6 credits in the study of a language other than English (The Hunter College GER/foreign language requirement is 12 credits or the equivalent.)

Students in the childhood education program

Two additional courses that are required for students in the childhood education program are

HED 31400 - Health Education for the Classroom Teacher

The preparation of the elementary educator to assist children in grades 1-6 in making decisions for optimum health and wellness, including nutrition education and fitness; mental/emotional health and conflict resolution; drug education; stress management; safety education including fire safety; family living/sex education including HIV/AIDS education and orientation issues; personal safety and the role of the classroom teacher as a mandated reporter of child abuse and neglect; environmental health; and violence prevention.

*prereq: QSTB 20200, QSTF 30100, prereq or coreq: QSTF 30200

3 hrs 3 cr.

SPED 30800 - Teaching Students with Special Needs in Inclusive Settings

3

Note(s)

* Computer Science does not count as a science course in meeting this requirement.

 Courses in FILMP, MEDIA, and MEDP do not meet the arts requirements.

Students are required to complete the technology assessments prior to graduation.

Admissions Requirements

For applicants applying to both six and four-semester sequence

1. 30 credits in liberal arts and sciences

2. Minimum GPA of 2.8

3. Prerequisite for MATH 10400: either a score high enough on the CUNY COMPASS to be placed in MATH 10400 or completion of MATH 10100

4. ENGL 12000 (or a 200- or 300-level writing course), with a grade of B or better

5. Declaration of an appropriate liberal arts and sciences major: biology, chemistry, English, English language arts, geography, history, social studies (an option within the geography major), or mathematics

6. Transfer students may enter the program with 40 to 72 credits. (Students with more than 72 credits should complete their liberal arts and sciences major and apply to the master’s degree program in childhood education.)

7. Transfer students with 60 or more credits, a GPA of 3.3 or better and a grade of B or better in ENGL 12000 do not have to present Hunter College grades. Transfer students with GPAs between 2.75 and 3.29 will have to complete 12 credits of coursework at Hunter College with a GPA of at least 2.8 before a final decision will be made on their application to QUEST.

Note(s)

 Students may apply to QUEST if the total of their completed credits plus credits in which they are currently enrolled is at least 30 credits.

Progress Standards

Students must receive grades of C or better in required coursework in liberal arts and sciences and in QUEST courses that do not include fieldwork. QUEST fieldwork courses require a grade of B or better. All QUEST courses are repeatable once by students who have received a grade of C-, D+ or D in a non-fieldwork course or a grade below B in a fieldwork course. Students must officially reregister for these courses. Students who receive an F in any course or a D+ or D in fieldwork may not continue in the program. Students must also maintain a GPA of at least 2.8 throughout the QUEST program.

In order to register for QSTA 40600 - Mathematics Teaching and Learning in Elementary School, students must have completed MATH 10400 and MATH 10500. With the approval of the program coordinator, transfer students may be allowed to enroll in QSTA 40600 after completing MATH 10400 and registering for MATH 10500 if their progress through the QUEST program would be delayed by the requirement for MATH 105 as a prerequisite.

In order to register for QSTA 41400 - Teaching Science in Elementary Schools, students must have completed two courses in science, at least one of which must be a laboratory science.

In order to register for QSTA 41200 - Teaching Social Studies through Literature, the Arts, and Technology in Elementary Schools, students must have completed HIST 15100 and HIST 15200, or one of these courses plus GEOG 10100.

Students should register to take the Liberal Arts and Sciences Test (LAST) and the Assessment of Teaching Skills – Written (ATS-W) of the New York State Teacher Certification Examinations during their junior year. Students who do not pass the LAST must enroll in the School’s Reading and Writing Workshop for Teachers before being allowed to register for any additional courses.

Dance Pre-K - 12 - BA

The BA and BA/MA programs in Dance lead to initial certification as a teacher. Graduates from the BA/MA program in Dance are eligible for professional certification after three years of teaching experience. These programs include fieldwork in New York City public schools. Students must take a specified sequence of education courses in addition to fulfilling the General Education Requirement (GER) and the requirements of their major. BA/MA students also take additional graduate credits in Dance.

The Education minor is a 26-credit course of study that students usually complete over four semesters. Students major in the subject they plan to teach and minor in Education.

Admission Information
Admission to the School of Education is not automatic with admission to Hunter College. There is a separate admission process that involves a paper application, a writing sample and an interview. Students must apply by November 1 for the spring term and April 1 for the fall term. Applications are available online only: Application for Admission - Undergraduate Programs in Adolescent Education.

Students must take a specified sequence of education courses in addition to fulfilling the General Education Requirement (GER) and the requirements of their major.

Adolescent education is a 26-credit course of study that students usually complete over four semesters. Students major in the subject they plan to teach and minor in adolescent education.

Admission Information

Admission to the School of Education is not automatic with admission to Hunter College. There is a separate admission process that involves an online application, a writing sample and an interview.

Students must apply by November 1 for the spring term and April 1 for the fall term. Applications are available online only: Application for Admission - Undergraduate Programs in Adolescent Education.

Admission Requirements

1. Minimum of at least 65 credits but no more than 90 credits.
2. A Hunter College Grade Point Average (GPA) of 2.8 or better.
3. Receive a grade of B or better in ENGL 120.
4. Have no more than 6 cr. of CR/NC grades.
5. Formal declaration of a major in dance.
6. Transfer students will have to complete 12 credits of coursework at Hunter College before applying. However, transfer students with 60 or more credits and a GPA of 3.3 or better may be immediately considered for admission.

Liberal Arts and Science Major Requirements

34-credits in the dance major plus 20 additional graduate credits including the following courses - DAN 740, DAN 742, DAN 746, DAN 701, DAN 705, DAN 730, DAN 735.

Required Liberal Arts & Sciences General Core

The courses listed below are required for BA Dance Education students. Some of these courses may be used towards the GER:

QUEST Four-Semester Sequence for Students Entering the Program with More than 40 credits

Semester I

QSTA 40000 - The Art of Effective Teaching

This course is designed to orient elementary school teacher candidates to the world of urban education and their roles as quality educators. An introduction to the basic pedagogical practices of teaching, the connection between theory and practice as it relates to the role of teachers, instructional methods for teaching diverse student populations, effective classroom management practices, organizational strategies, motivation techniques and methods of assessment. 3 hrs 3 cr.

QSTB 20200 - Child Growth and Development

The biological, cognitive, emotional, linguistic, moral, physical and social aspects of development will be addressed with respect to their role in children's experiences in school. The critical application of developmental theories and research to diverse populations will be emphasized. Contextual influences on children's development, including family, peers and the media will be included.

coreq: QSTA 40100, QSTAB 30000
QSTA 40100 - Developmental Reading

Theoretical and practical aspects of literacy with particular emphasis on teaching literacy to diverse populations. In addition, the role of family and community involvement and the use of technology for literacy development will be stressed.

coreq: QSTB 20200, QSTAB 30000 prereq or coreq: QSTA 40000, CSCI 11500
2 hrs 2 cr.

QSTAB 30000 - Fieldwork I: Fieldwork for Child Development and Developmental Reading

Supervised experiences in classroom applications of QSTA 40100: Developmental Reading and QSTB 20200: Child Growth and Development. Students will complete 6 per week of fieldwork for a minimum of 75 contact per semester. Students will develop guided observation skills, acquire practical knowledge of the design and management of instruction and the classroom environment, and work effectively with individual students and small work groups. Students receiving a grade of C in fieldwork must apply to the chairperson for permission to re register for the course. Fieldwork may be repeated only once. Students who receive a grade lower than C may not repeat the course and may not continue in the program.

coreq: QSTA 40100, QSTB 20200 prereq or coreq: QSTA 40000, CSCI 11500
75 hrs 1 cr.

HED 31400 - Health Education for the Classroom Teacher

The preparation of the elementary educator to assist children in grades 1-6 in making decisions for optimum health and wellness, including nutrition education and fitness; mental/emotional health and conflict resolution; drug education; stress management; safety education including fire safety; family living/sex education including HIV/AIDS education and orientation issues; personal safety and the role of the classroom teacher as a mandated reporter of child abuse and neglect; environmental health; and violence prevention.

prereq: QSTB 20200, QSTF 30100 prereq or coreq: QSTF 30200
3 hrs 3 cr.

Total ED Credits 8

Fieldwork 75 hours

Semester II

QSTA 41000 - Literacy Across the Content Areas

Theoretical, methodological, practical, and technological aspects of teaching literacy to elementary school students with an emphasis on meeting the literacy needs of diverse student populations.

prereq: QSTA 40100, QSTB 20200, QSTAB 30000, CSCI 11500 coreq: QSTA 41200, QSTAB 30100
2 hrs 2 cr.
QSTA 41200 - Teaching Social Studies through Literature, the Arts, and Technology in Elementary Schools

Teaching social studies through literature, the arts, and technology in grades 1-6. Literature selections will include original documents, essays, historical fiction, novels, diaries, journals, poetry, drama and folktales. Instructional strategies will include interdisciplinary curriculum and differentiated learning, teaching, and assessment strategies for English language learners and students with disabilities. Diverse activities will include utilizing the community, particularly museums, as a laboratory for student learning.

prereq: QSTA 40100, QSTB 20200, QSTAB 30000 coreq: QSTA 41000, QSTAB 30100
2 hrs 2 cr.

QSTAB 30100 - Fieldwork II: Fieldwork for Literacy Across the Content Areas and Teaching Social Studies through Literature, the Arts, and Technology in Elementary Schools

Supervised experiences in classroom applications of QSTA 41000 - Literacy Across the Content Areas and QSTA 41200 - Teaching Social Studies through Literature, the Arts, and Technology in Elementary Schools. Students will complete 6 of fieldwork per week for a minimum of 75 contact per semester. Students will develop the ability to apply theoretical concepts and deliver instruction to individuals and small groups of children. Students will design or adapt curriculum that meet the needs of diverse learners, including children with special needs and English language learners.

prereq: QSTA 40100, QSTB 20200, QSTAB 30000 coreq: QSTA 41000, 41200

School of Health Sciences

School of Health Sciences

About the School of Health Sciences

Hunter’s Institute of Health Sciences, dedicated to the educational preparation of a range of health care professionals, opened its doors on East 106th Street in 1968. Six years later, the Institute became the School of Health Sciences and moved downtown to the Brookdale Health Science Center at East 25th Street, located in close proximity to many of New York’s major health care facilities. The Hunter College School of Health Sciences offers an undergraduate program in Medical Laboratory Sciences and a graduate program in Communication Sciences (Speech-Language Pathology). The health professions complex provides students with fully equipped laboratories, computer and media facilities, a speech and hearing clinic and a library, as well as recreational facilities, a cafeteria and an on-site dormitory. Hunter’s School of Health Sciences prepares liberal arts educated professionals to enter and advance in health-related careers. These professionals will provide evaluation and clinical management of health-related conditions. The school’s programs of study provide unique educational, research, and clinical and community service oriented opportunities to students.
The undergraduate programs offered at the Hunter College School of Health Sciences are:

Medical Laboratory Sciences: Clinical Science BS
Medical Laboratory Sciences: Biomedical Science BS

See Medical Laboratory Sciences - BS for an overview of the programs

Hunter-Bellevue School of Nursing

Hunter-Bellevue School of Nursing
About the School

Nursing education began at Hunter in 1943, when courses for registered nurses were added to its curriculum. In 1955, a four-year collegiate program that was a pioneer for its time — the Hunter College Program in Nursing — was launched. When the Bellevue School of Nursing closed in 1969, Hunter absorbed it to create the Hunter-Bellevue School of Nursing, now located at the college’s Brookdale Health Science Center at 425 East 25th Street in Manhattan, near Bellevue Hospital.

The Hunter-Bellevue School of Nursing is one of the largest and most prestigious nursing schools in the country. Recognized by the National League for Nursing (NLN) as a Center of Excellence in Nursing Education, the school’s programs combine liberal and professional education with a humanistic and comprehensive approach to health care.

Programs

The School of Nursing offers four pathways leading to the Bachelor of Science (nursing) degree: the Generic Pathway, for those students who do not have an RN license; the RN Pathway, for those students who have completed a nursing program and have received or are about to receive a current RN license to practice professional nursing in New York State; the joint/dual degree program with Queensborough Community College see: http://www.qcc.cuny.edu/nursing/dualJoint-hunterBellevue.html; and the Accelerated 2nd Degree Pathway, for those students who have already achieved a baccalaureate degree in another field of study and wish to transition into a nursing profession. Information on applying to all of our programs is available on our website at http://www.hunter.cuny.edu/nursing.

In earning the bachelor of science (nursing) degree, students in all pathways complete lower division (general education) and upper division (professional education) curriculum requirements. See Pathway pages below for specific program requirements.

Nursing Accelerated 2nd Degree Pathway

Nursing RN Pathway

Nursing Dual/Joint Degree

Nursing Course Listing

Courses for Hunter-Bellevue School of Nursing

Admission Requirements (all Programs)

Students are considered for admission to the Generic Pathway Program and Accelerated 2nd Degree Pathway Program for the fall semester only, and only after completing lower division courses. RN Pathway students are admitted for the fall semester. An overall college GPA of 3.0 in addition to other requirements is the minimum requirement for consideration of an application. Admission to the School of Nursing is competitive. A minimum grade of “C” must be maintained for all required science, mathematics, and nursing courses. Generic Pathway and Accelerated 2nd Degree Pathway students must attend during the day on a full-time basis. Only matriculated Hunter College students can apply to the Generic Pathway Program. RN Pathway students may attend during the day or evening (depending on scheduling of courses) on a full- or a part-time basis.

Students are admitted to the dual-degree HBSON-Queensborough Community College (QCC) program after completing their first semester of study at QCC with a grade of B or better in Nu 101 and a GPA of 3.0 or better.

Licensing and Accreditation

The Hunter-Bellevue School of Nursing is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) through June 2020. Hunter-Bellevue graduates are prepared to give first-level professional nursing care in all areas of nursing practice. Graduates from the Generic and Accelerated 2nd Degree Pathway are eligible to take the National Council Licensing Examination for Registered Nurses. A student who has been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor will have to undergo investigation by the Office of Professional Discipline, which might result in licensure being withheld. The program also provides a foundation for graduate study at the master’s level, which is also offered at the School of Nursing.

About CUNY School of Public Health

Hunter College is a consortial partner and the lead institution in the CUNY School of Public Health (SPH). The CUNY SPH is comprised of public health degree programs at Brooklyn College, Hunter College, Lehman College and the Graduate School and University Center (Graduate Center) of CUNY. Within the CUNY SPH, teaching, research and service are focused on four broad inter-related goals that reflect major health challenges in the current era:

1) creating healthier cities
2) promoting healthy aging through the lifespan
3) preventing chronic diseases and improving their management
4) promoting health equity

The programs at the CUNY SPH at Hunter College educate students to contribute to improved urban health by addressing such problems as HIV, substance abuse, asthma, obesity, undernutrition, violence, heart disease and cancer. Students are prepared to work with the diverse populations living in cities, and to serve in a variety of settings in government, public and private agencies, hospitals, schools, community organizations and businesses. Many students go on to enroll in graduate programs after they earn the bachelor’s degree and qualified undergraduates can take selected graduate courses in Urban Public Health in their senior year.

CUNY SPH at Hunter College offers undergraduate degrees in Community Health - BS and Nutrition and Food Science - BS, an Accelerated BS/MS in Nutrition (DPD), a master of public health (MPH) degree, with specializations in community health education (COMHE), environmental and occupational health sciences (EOHS-MPH), epidemiology and biostatistics (EPI-BIOS), public health policy and management (HPM) and nutrition (NUTR-MPH). It also offers a Master of Science (MS) degree, with specializations in environmental and occupational sciences (EOHS-MS) and Nutrition (NUTR-MS). The MS degree in Nutrition (NUTR-MS) is an accredited didactic program in dietetics (DPD), and is designed for individuals seeking to become eligible to sit for the national registration examination in dietetics to become credentialed as a Registered Dietitian (RD). With the Hunter-Bellevue School of Nursing, it also offers an MSN/MPH degree in community health nursing. (Please see the Graduate catalog catalog.hunter.cuny.edu/content.php).

With the Graduate Center, the CUNY SPH at Hunter College offers a doctor of public health (DPH) degree, with specializations in community society and health, epidemiology, environmental and occupational health and public health policy and management. The DPH degree program can be found at the CUNY Graduate Center website www.gc.cuny.edu/.

Community Health - BS Completion of 60 credits; combined grade point average of all postsecondary institutions attended of 2.5; one semester of biology with lab; one semester of statistics.

Nutrition and Food Science - BS Completion of 60 credits, including the following prerequisites: two semesters of anatomy and physiology with lab; one semester of general chemistry with lab; one semester of organic chemistry with lab; one semester of microbiology with lab; one semester of introductory food science; one semester of introductory nutrition. The introductory food science and nutrition courses may be completed in the summer session preceding entrance to the program. A grade of C or better must be earned in all prerequisites. The introductory food science and nutrition courses may be completed in the summer session preceding entrance to the program. An overall GPA of 2.8 is required for consideration. Owing to the competitive nature of the program, however, the actual GPA required for admission may be higher. Students who have completed 30 credits at Hunter College or at another City University institution at the time of the application will be given priority in the selection process. Students can attend on a full- or part-time basis during the day.

Accelerated BS/MS in Nutrition (DPD)
This pathway is for third year NFS majors who are interested in completing their degree and then continuing at Hunter to obtain a master’s degree and verification statement (students will be provisionally accepted into the program in their junior year but must maintain grade requirements to matriculate into the MS-DPD program).

This accelerated pathway provides the opportunity for undergraduate students to remain at Hunter for their graduate coursework providing students the opportunity for academic acceleration to a graduate degree.

Since the MS-Nutrition curriculum meets the didactic program in dietetics (DPD) requirements established by the Commission on Accreditation for Dietetics Education (CADE), the credentialing arm of the American Dietetic Association (ADA), it will qualify students from this BS/MS accelerated track to apply for Dietetic Internships and continue their professional preparation for the Registered Dietitian (RD) credential.

Absence of Instructor

Return to Academic Regulations

If a class finds that the instructor is still absent after 10 minutes of the period has elapsed, a representative should be sent to the appropriate department office for instructions. The class should remain until the representative returns.

Academic Calendar and Sessions

Return to Academic Regulations

The fall semester starts approximately August 26, the spring semester starts approximately January 27 and two summer sessions of six weeks begin in June and mid-July. Consult the Schedule of Classes or the Registrar’s Web site at http://registrar.hunter.cuny.edu for specific starting dates.
Courses are offered from early morning to late evening each semester and in the summer. Students are expected to attend both the fall and spring semesters; students who do not must apply for readmission.

Attendance in the summer program is optional. Students who receive financial aid under the New York State Tuition Assistance Program (TAP) should realize that these awards are available for no more than a total of eight semesters (ten for SEEK). TAP assistance for a summer session will count as one-half a semester; the other half may be used only in a subsequent summer session.

Academic Honors

Return to Academic Programs and Policies

Dean's List At the end of each fall and spring semester the Dean of Students recognizes matriculated students with excellent academic records. The criteria for inclusion on the Dean’s List are: a grade point average of 3.5 or higher with traditional letter grades (A, B or C) in courses other than ESL basic skills courses in reading and writing. If ESL basic skills courses are taken, those grades will be excluded. No grades of D, F, NC, IN or WU are allowed in any course completed or attempted. Full-time students must complete 12 credits or more in one semester; part-time students must complete 6-11½ credits in two consecutive semesters.

Graduation with General College Honors A student who has completed 60 credits of traditional letter grades at Hunter College may be considered for graduation honors. Students with a cumulative GPA of 3.900 or higher will be graduated Summa Cum Laude. Students with a GPA from 3.750 to 3.899 will be graduated Magna Cum Laude. Students with a GPA from 3.500 to 3.749 will be graduated Cum Laude.

Graduation with Departmental Honors On recommendation of any department or interdepartmental field, students with at least 24 credits in the department or field may be graduated “With Honors” in that department or field, provided they graduate in the term for which they file for honors. Of these credits, 21 (or, in exceptional cases, 18) must be taken at Hunter. Students who participate in the Study Abroad Program or the Exchange Program within the United States may be considered for departmental honors even if they have earned fewer than 18 credits at Hunter in courses approved for the major. Students are eligible for departmental honors if their GPA in the major or field is not less than 3.5. The student must also elect at least 2 credits (but no more than 6 credits) in honors courses offered in that department and present to the department’s Committee on Honors a piece of independent work. Honors courses include seminar, laboratory, reading and tutorial courses and independent study projects established for the instruction of honors students.

- Academic Regulations
Academic Regulations

Students are expected to be familiar with the various requirements and procedures as given in this catalog and to follow them.

The Hunter College Senate, with authority granted to it by the CUNY Board of Trustees, determines all academic rules and regulations and approves all curricula. The Senate publishes the Senate News Bulletin to announce changes in rules and regulations. Students should also consult the Office of the Registrar’s Web site for any changes in regulations at http://registrar.hunter.cuny.edu. Students who believe that their individual circumstances warrant a variance from the rules and regulations listed in this catalog must proceed to obtain permission from the appropriate college authority. Only through the procedures listed below are such variations permitted.

Students should obtain written documentation for any such variations. Students should be wary of informal advice or undocumented claims that they can be exempt from any college rules.

1. Inquiries concerning college regulations in general should be directed to the Office of Advising Services, Room 1119 East Building. Appeals for administrative exceptions to academic rules and regulations (for example, exceptions to approved academic program loads) are heard in the Office of Advising Services.

2. Inquiries concerning the major should be directed to the departmental adviser in the major department or program and inquiries concerning a minor should be directed to the adviser in the minor department or program.

3. Inquiries concerning the GER Core Requirement and the Foreign Language Requirement should be addressed to the appropriate departmental adviser or an adviser in the Office of Advising Services, Room 1119 East Building. (Note: Students who matriculated prior to fall 2001 and follow the regulations for the Distribution Requirement should also see a departmental adviser or an adviser in the Office of Advising Services.) Students who entered Hunter under the Distribution Requirement and have been absent for 10 years or more must follow the GER or contact Advising Services, Room 1119 East Building, for information on appealing to follow Distribution.

4. Authorization for substitutions for specific Pluralism & Diversity course requirements must be made by the Senate’s GER Appeals Committee. Students should consult the procedure for appeals outlined below and go to the Office of the Hunter College Senate, Room 1018 East Building, to obtain the proper forms for filing an appeal.

5. The procedure for Grade Appeals appears below.

6. Every student is obliged to determine that all requirements for the degree have been met before the date of graduation. No changes may be made to the student record transcript after the graduation date. Graduates who wish to take additional courses at Hunter should see the Office of Undergraduate Admissions room 203 Hunter North, to open a new record. Any “STOPS” not cleared by the graduation date will result in the withholding of diploma and transcripts. Incomplete (IN) grades received in the final semester must be completed by the graduation date. If not, an application to graduate for the following semester must be filed with the Degree Audit unit of the Office of the Registrar, room 217 North Building. Additional information on the degree audit for graduation can be found at registrar.hunter.cuny.edu/forms/Degreeaudit/undergrad.htm. Students who are uncertain about the interpretation of any matter may learn under whose authority the matter rests by inquiring in the Office of Advising Services, Room 1119 East Building. This catalog covers the general academic... requirements consonant with earning a degree at Hunter College when this catalog went to press in 2012. Students are responsible for knowing all current regulations.

Reading/Writing Center

416 Thomas Hunter
(212) 772-4212
http://rwc.hunter.cuny.edu

The Hunter College Reading/Writing Center is a comprehensive service designed to provide tutorial assistance and academic advisement to students as well as technical support and development to faculty, staff, and alumni. Located on the fourth floor of the Thomas Hunter Building, the RWC offers services to all registered students at the college – undergraduate and graduate – and maintains a comprehensive Web site that includes an extensive library of online handout materials and resource links in the areas of research information and techniques, writing tools and references, evaluating information sources, ESL and literary resources, and instructional resources regarding teaching and learning. Students can utilize the RWC’s services by registering for individualized and paired tutoring sessions by appointment, receive assistance on a drop-in basis during scheduled hours of operation, or attend the center’s on-site workshop series. Tutors help to develop a reading-writing process that students can use to improve their skills and to negotiate the requirements of academic reading and writing. In addition to the RWC’s online resource file, students have direct access to the center’s on-site library of textbooks and print materials. The center also administers an on-site and online program at Hunter’s Silberman School of Social Work that provides tutorial assistance to SSW graduate students, located as part of the Information Commons in the Library at the East Harlem campus.

Writing Across the Curriculum

The Writing Across the Curriculum (WAC) Program at Hunter includes consultation on writing pedagogy provided by experts in the field; the CUNY WAC Fellows Program, a collaboration between fellows from the CUNY Graduate Center and Hunter faculty in the effort to address issues of writing in the disciplines; and the services of the Reading/Writing Center, which offers tutoring in academic writing across the curriculum to students and consultation with faculty on student writing. The Writing Across the Curriculum Program is founded on the principle that students learn by writing: they learn to write by engaging in a variety of academic writing activities, and they learn subject matter by writing about it. For more information about the program, contact the coordinators at (212) 772-4014 or (212) 772-5742, or go to the program Web site: http://rwc.hunter.cuny.edu/wac/index.html.

The Mary P. Dolciani Mathematics Learning Center

300 HN
(212) 772-5371
http://xena.hunter.cuny.edu/dolciani

The Mary P. Dolciani Mathematics Learning Center is a multipurpose resource center, providing group tutoring, computer-assisted tutorials, and multi-media materials for students enrolled in most mathematics and statistics courses, as well as for students who need to brush up on their math/stat skills for other courses. It also provides workshops on a variety of topics to assist students in the learning of mathematics, including a specifically designed multimedia workshop to prepare students for success in MATH 101 as well as study skills needed in mathematics. The center is open days, evenings and Saturdays, with no appointment necessary. Specific hours of operation and additional information are posted outside the center and can be found on our Web site.

The Leona and Marcy Chanin Language Center

209 HW
(212) 772-5700
http://www.hunter.cuny.edu/chanin

The Chanin Language Center is a state-of-the-art multi-media foreign language learning facility. The Center consists of two independent study labs equipped with 66 multi-media workstations in addition to The Cecile Insdorf Foreign Language Screening Room. Students can supplement their foreign language skills from the elementary to the advanced level by working with computer applications such as CD-ROMs and digitized audio-video programs based on textbooks and/or lab manuals. The Center provides Internet access to dictionaries and other writing and research tools. The Center also houses an extensive collection of foreign language films and video programs on both VHS and DVD. An audio CD home borrowing program is available to students enrolled in a foreign language course. Through the support of the SEEK Department, Spanish, French and Italian tutoring assistance is available to SEEK status students. A 30-minute orientation session is required for all first time users. Hours and additional information can be found on our Web site.

Physical Sciences Learning Center

B122 Main Library HE (212) 396-6458, (212) 650-3707, (212) 650-3986

The Physical Sciences Learning Center provides individual tutoring, on a walk-in basis, for students enrolled in physics, chemistry and organic chemistry courses. Workshops and group tutoring sessions are also offered for selected topics. State-of-the-art computers with Internet service and appropriate programs are readily accessible. A library containing a variety of physical science textbooks and problem solutions is available. The Learning Center encourages students to learn and work with their peers.
The Physical Sciences Learning Center is open Mondays through Fridays during the day and evening. At the beginning of each semester, the specific hours and tutoring schedules are posted.

The Social Sciences Computing Laboratory

606 HW
(212) 772-5605

The Social Sciences Computing Laboratory is located in Hunter East, Room B118, (enter through the Main Library) and facilitates computer-based teaching and research among the social science departments. The lab itself is used primarily as a computer classroom for social science departments, but is open to all Hunter students for walk-in hours when available. Exact hours vary from week to week. The current and following week’s walk-in hours are posted on the door and on the lab Web site.

The Hunter College Libraries

http://library.hunter.cuny.edu

The Hunter College Libraries – comprised of the Jacqueline Grennan Wexler Library and the Zabar Art Library at 68th Street, the Health Professions Library at the Brookdale Campus and the Schools of Social Work and Public Health Library at 119th Street - have open stack collections and hold over 800,000 volumes, over 1,200 print periodical subscriptions and approximately 100,000 electronic periodicals, over 13,000 sound recordings, videocassettes and DVDs, 250,000 art slides and 50,000+ digital images. All Hunter Libraries provide access to the CUNY+ online catalog of university-wide holdings and Internet access to remote online databases and full-text periodical articles.

The entrance to the 9-floor main library is on the 3rd floor.

Appeals - Rules and Regulations

- Rules and Regulations: Appeals for administrative exceptions to academic rules and regulations — including such matters as exceptions to approved program loads, variation of the General Education Requirements: Core Requirement and the Foreign Language Requirement and other academic situations involving classwork — are heard in the Office of Advising Services, Rm 1119 East Building; appeals of the GER: Pluralism and Diversity Requirement are heard by the Senate Offices.

- General Education Requirement: Any student wishing to formulate an appeal for substitutions or exemptions from a specific General Education Requirement (i.e., Core Requirement, Foreign Language Requirement or Pluralism and Diversity Requirement) as described below should do so through the General Education Requirement Appeals Committee of the Hunter College Senate, Room 1018E. (Note: Students who matriculated prior to fall 2001 and follow the regulations for the Distribution Requirement may also appeal to this committee.) The student must present clear evidence that:
1. it is impossible for him/her to complete the requirement as specified in the catalog and
2. he/she can offer an adequate substitute that meets the academic objectives of the requirement; such as:
   - The student must demonstrate that a “special topics” course he/she has taken fulfills the academic objectives of the requirement, though it has not yet been approved by the Hunter College Senate as fulfilling the requirement;
   - or –
   - The student must demonstrate that a course transferred from another college or university adequately fulfills the academic objectives of the requirement.

• Grades When a student considers a final course grade unsatisfactory, the student should first confer with the instructor regarding the accuracy of the grade received. This conference should be held within the first three weeks of the semester following receipt of the grade. At this time, errors may be corrected. If the grade is not an error, the student and instructor must together review all class material pertinent to the grade. If the student is not satisfied or if the instructor does not confer with the student within the first three weeks of the semester, the student should promptly contact the department chair by submitting a written appeal, consisting of a statement giving the factual reasons and basis for the complaint. The student has the right to request in writing that the chair appoint a student as a member of the department/school Grade Appeals Committee. This appeal at the department/school level must be submitted within the first five weeks of the semester following receipt of the grade, in accordance with the “College-wide Grade Appeals Procedures” adopted by the Senate in fall 1985. Copies of this procedure may be obtained in the Senate Office, the Office of Advising Services or academic departmental offices. Students appealing grades to the School of Nursing or the School of Health Sciences should direct their appeal to the director of the school. Students appealing grades to the School of Social Work should direct the appeal to the dean of the school, who shall carry out the responsibilities of the department chair.

Application Procedure

Return to Financial Aid

The fastest and easiest way to apply for financial aid is by completing the application online. FAFSA on the Web is available at www.fafsa.ed.gov. When the student completes the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid), Hunter College should be included among the colleges to which the application information is reported. When the FAFSA is processed, CUNY will receive an electronic record of the student’s application information. The student may be required to provide additional documentation to the Office of Financial Aid to verify the application information or to clarify any discrepancies in the application.

New York State resident students can apply for both federal and New York State aid during a single on-line session. After completing FAFSA on the Web, New York State residents are able to link to the TAP on the Web Form, which is pre-filled with their FAFSA data.

In order to request a Federal Direct Loan at Hunter College, the student must complete the FAFSA and complete an on-line Federal Direct Loan Request on the Hunter College Office of Financial Aid Web site at www.hunter.cuny.edu/finaid.

Arabic Programs and Courses

Minor in Arabic and Minor in Arabic Studies

Return to Classical and Oriental Studies

Two minors are offered by the Arabic Language, Literature, and Culture Division of the Department of Classical and Oriental Studies: Arabic and Arabic Studies.

Minor in Arabic

The minor in Arabic requires the successful completion of

ARB 20100 - Intermediate Arabic I

Emphasis placed on reading materials from Arabic media, and expanding vocabulary and grammar skills.
prereq: ARB 10200 or equiv.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ARB 20200 - Intermediate Arabic II

Continuation of ARB 20100.
prereq: ARB 20100 or equiv.
3 hrs 3 cr.

ARB 30100 - Advanced Arabic I
Emphasis on increased proficiency in reading, speaking and writing Arabic

prereq: ARB 20200 or equiv.

3 hrs 3 cr.

ARB 30200 - Advanced Arabic II

Continuation of ARB 30100

prereq: ARB 30100 or equiv.

3 hrs 3 cr.

or their equivalent as determined by the Arabic Program Head.

ARB 14900 - Spoken Egyptian Arabic

The goal of this course is to teach students oral communication in the Egyptian dialect, as well as to impart cultural knowledge relevant to a student living in or visiting Egypt. This course is closed to native speakers of Arabic.

prereq: ARB 10200 and permission of instructor

3 hours 3 credits

can be taken in lieu of ARB 30200

The prerequisite for the minor is successful completion of ARB 10100 and 10200 (8 credits).

Arabic Studies Minor

The Arabic Studies Minor requires the successful completion of 4 ARB courses on cultural or literary topics taught in English or in Arabic. Up to 2 Arabic language courses may be used to fulfill the minor requirements in lieu of two culture or literature courses.

The prerequisite for the minor is successful completion of ARB 10100 and ARB 10200 (8 credits).

Arabic Courses

ARB 10100 - Beginning Arabic I

The goal of this course is to begin developing reading, speaking, listening, writing, and cultural skills in Arabic. The course stresses communication using both formal and informal Arabic. Emphasis is also placed on reading authentic texts from Arabic media, listening to and watching audio and video materials, and developing students’ understanding of Arab culture. Preparation for class is an essential component of course, allowing us to devote in-class time to communicating in the language rather than talking “about” the language. Students will be evaluated on attendance and class participation, daily homework assignments, quizzes, skits, a final oral interview and a final examination.

10100 not credited without 10200. This class is not for native speakers.

4 hrs 4 cr.

ARB 10200 - Beginning Arabic II

Continuation of ARB 10100. The goal of this course sequence (ARB 10100/10200) is to begin developing reading, speaking, listening, writing, and cultural skills in Arabic. Article XV - Students

Return to Bylaws of the Board of Trustees

SECTION 15.0. PREAMBLE.

Academic institutions exist for the transmission of knowledge, the pursuit of truth, the development of students, and the general well-being of society. Student participation, responsibility, academic freedom, and due process are essential to the operation of the academic enterprise. As members of the academic community, students should be encouraged to develop the capacity for critical judgment and to engage in a sustained and independent search for truth. Freedom to learn and to explore major social, political, and economic issues are necessary adjuncts to student academic freedom, as is freedom from discrimination, as set forth in the university's non-discrimination policy.

Freedom to learn and freedom to teach are inseparable facets of academic freedom. The concomitant of this freedom is responsibility. If members of the academic community are to develop positively in their freedom; if these rights are to be secure, then students should exercise their freedom with responsibility.

SECTION 15.1. CONDUCT STANDARD DEFINED.
Each student enrolled or in attendance in any college, school or unit under the control of the board and every student organization, association, publication, club or chapter shall obey (1) the laws of the city, state and nation; (2) the bylaws and resolutions of the board, including the rules and regulations for the maintenance of public order pursuant to article 129-a of the education law ("Henderson rules"); and (3) the governance plan, policies, regulations, and orders of the college. Such laws, bylaws, resolutions, policies, rules, regulations and orders shall, of course, be limited by the right of students to the freedoms of speech, press, assembly and petition as construed by the courts.

SECTION 15.2. STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS.

a. Any group of students may form an organization, association, club or chapter by filing with the duly elected student government organization of the college or school at which they are enrolled or in attendance and with an officer to be designated by the chief student affairs officer of the college or school at which they are enrolled or in attendance (1) the name and purposes of the organization, association, club or chapter, (2) the names and addresses of its president and secretary or other officers corresponding in function to president and secretary.

b. Extra-curricular activities at each college or school shall be regulated by the duly elected student government organization to insure the effective conduct of such college or school as an institution of higher learning and for the prevention of activities which are hereafter proscribed or which violate the standards of conduct of the character set forth in bylaw 15.1. Such powers shall include:

1. The power to charter or otherwise authorize teams (excluding intercollegiate athletics), publications, organizations, associations, clubs or chapters, and, when appropriate in the exercise of such regulatory power, the power to refuse, suspend or revoke any charter or other authorization for cause after hearing on notice.

2. The power to delegate responsibility for the effective implementation of its regulatory functions hereunder to any officer or committee which it may appoint.

c. 1. Any person or organization affiliated with the college may file a complaint with the chief student affairs officer if there is reason to believe that a student organization has violated any of the standards of conduct set forth in section 15.1 above. The chief student affairs officer shall promptly investigate any complaint and report the results of that investigation along with a recommendation for appropriate action to the student government which shall take action as it deems appropriate.

2. The complainant or any student organization adversely affected by the action of the student government pursuant to subparagraph c (1) above may appeal to the president. The president may take such action as he or she deems appropriate and such action shall be final.

d. Each college shall establish a student elections review committee in consultation with the various student governments. The student elections review committee shall approve the election procedures and certify the results of elections for student governments, and student body referenda. Decisions of the student elections review committee may be appealed to the college president, whose decision shall be final. An appeal from the decision of the student elections review committee must be made in writing to the President within ten calendar days of the decision. The President shall consult with the student elections review committee and render a decision as expeditiously as possible which may affirm, reverse, or modify the decision of the student elections review committee.

e. Student government elections shall be scheduled and conducted, and newly elected student governments shall take office, in accordance with policies of the board, and implementing regulations.

SECTION 15.3. STUDENT DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES.

Complaint Procedures:
a. Any charge, accusation, or allegation which is to be presented against a student, and, which if proved, may subject a student to disciplinary action, must be submitted in writing in complete detail to the office of the chief student affairs officer promptly by the individual, organization or department making the charge.

b. The chief student affairs officer of the college or his or her designee will conduct a preliminary investigation in order to determine whether disciplinary charges should be preferred. The chief student affairs officer or his or her designee will advise the student of the allegation against him or her, consult with other parties who may be involved or who have information regarding the incident, and review other relevant evidence. Following this preliminary investigation, which shall be concluded within thirty (30) calendar days of the filing of the complaint, the chief student affairs officer or designee shall take one of the following actions:

(i) Dismiss the matter if there is no basis for the allegation(s) or the allegation(s) does not warrant disciplinary actions. The individuals involved shall be notified that the complaint has been dismissed;

(ii) Refer the matter to mediation; or

(iii) Prefer formal disciplinary charges.

c. In the event that a student withdraws from the college after a charge, accusation or allegation against the student has been made, and the college prefers formal disciplinary charges, the withdrawn student is required to participate in the disciplinary hearing or otherwise to resolve the pending charges and will be barred from attending any other unit of the university until a decision on the charges is made or the charges are otherwise resolved. If the withdrawn student fails to so participate in the disciplinary process without good cause, the college may proceed with the disciplinary hearing in absentia and any decision and sanction will be binding.

Mediation Conference:

d. The mediation conference shall be conducted by a qualified staff or faculty member designated by the chief student affairs officer. The following procedures shall be in effect at this conference: I. An effort will be made to resolve the matter by mutual agreement.

2. If an agreement is reached, the faculty or staff member conducting the conference shall report his/her recommendation to the chief student affairs officer for approval and, if approved, the complainant shall be notified, and a written memorandum shall be created memorializing the resolution and any consequences for non-compliance.

3. If no agreement is reached, or if the student fails to appear, the faculty or staff member conducting the conference shall refer the matter back to the chief student affairs officer who may prefer disciplinary charges.

4. The faculty or staff member conducting the mediation conference is precluded from testifying in a college hearing regarding information received during the mediation conference.

Notice of Hearing and Charges:

e. Notice of the charge(s) and of the time and place of the hearing shall be personally delivered or sent by the chief student affairs officer of the college to the student at the address appearing on the records of the college, by certified or overnight mail and by regular mail and e-mail to students who have a college e-mail address. The chief student affairs officer is also encouraged to send the notice of charges to any other e-mail address that he or she may have for the student. The hearing shall be scheduled within a reasonable time following the filing of the charges or the mediation conference. Notice of at least five business days shall be given to the student in advance of the hearing unless the student consents to an earlier hearing.

f. The notice shall contain the following:

1. A complete and itemized statement of the charge(s) being brought against the student including the rule, bylaw or regulation he/she is charged with violating, and the possible penalties for such violation.
2. A statement that the student has the following rights:
(i) to present his/her side of the story;
(ii) to present witnesses and evidence on his/her behalf;
(iii) to cross-examine witnesses presenting evidence against the student; (iv) to remain silent without assumption of guilt; and
(v) to be represented by legal counsel or an advisor at the student's expense.

3. A warning that anything the student says may be used against him/her at a non-college hearing.

Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee Procedures:

g. The following procedures shall apply at the hearing before the faculty-student disciplinary committee:

1. The chairperson shall preside at the hearing. The chairperson shall inform the student of the charges, the hearing procedures and his or her rights.

2. After informing the student of the charges, the hearing procedures, and his or her rights, the chairperson shall ask the student charged to respond. If the student admits the conduct charged, the student shall be given an opportunity to explain his/her actions before the committee and the college shall be given an opportunity to respond. If the student denies the conduct charged, the college shall present its case. At the conclusion of the college's case, the student may move to dismiss the charges. If the motion is denied by the committee the student shall be given an opportunity to present his or her defense.

3. Prior to accepting testimony at the hearing, the chairperson shall rule on any motions questioning the impartiality of any committee member or the adequacy of the notice of the charge(s). Subsequent thereto, the chairperson may only rule on the sufficiency of the evidence and may exclude irrelevant, immaterial or unduly repetitive evidence. However, if either party wishes to question the impartiality of a committee member on the basis of evidence which was not previously available at the inception of the hearing, the chairperson may rule on such a motion. The chairperson shall exclude all persons who are to appear as witnesses, except the accused student.

4. The college shall make a record of each fact-finding hearing by some means such as a stenographic transcript, a tape recording or the equivalent. A student who has been disciplined is entitled upon request to a copy of such a record without cost.

5. The student is entitled to a closed hearing but has the right to request an open public hearing. However, the chairperson has the right to hold a closed hearing when an open public hearing would adversely affect and be disruptive of the committee's normal operations.

6. The college bears the burden of proving the charge(s) by a preponderance of the evidence.

7. The role of the faculty-student disciplinary committee is to listen to the testimony, ask questions of the witnesses, review the testimony and evidence presented at the hearing and the papers filed by the parties and render a determination as to guilt or innocence. In the event the student is found to have committed the conduct charged, the committee shall then determine the penalty to be imposed.

8. At the end of the presentations by both sides, the student may introduce additional records, such as character references. The college may introduce a copy of the student's previous disciplinary record, where applicable, provided the student was shown a copy of the record prior to the commencement of the hearing. The disciplinary record shall be submitted to the committee in a sealed envelope and shall not be opened until after the committee has made its findings of fact. In the event the student has been determined to have committed the conduct alleged in the charge or charges the records and documents introduced by the student and the college shall be opened and used by the committee for dispositional purposes, i.e., to determine an appropriate penalty if the charges are sustained.

9. The committee shall deliberate in closed session. The committee shall issue a written decision, which shall be based solely on the testimony and evidence presented at the hearing and the papers filed by the parties.

10. The student shall be sent a copy of the faculty-student disciplinary committee's decision within five days of the conclusion of the hearing, by regular mail and e-mail for students who have a college e-mail address. The chief student affairs officer is also encouraged to send the decision to any other e-mail address that he or she may have for the student. The decision shall be final subject to the student's right of appeal.

11. Where a student is represented by legal counsel the president of the college or his or her designee may request that a lawyer from the general counsel's office appear at the hearing to present the college's case.

12. When a disciplinary hearing results in a penalty of dismissal or suspension for one term or more, the decision is a university-wide penalty and the student will be barred from admission to any other unit of the university while the penalty is being served.

13. Disciplinary penalties shall be placed on a student's transcript and shall remain there unless the committee's decision, the decision on any appeal under section 15.4 below, or a mediation agreement expressly indicates otherwise.

SECTION 15.4. APPEALS.

An appeal from the decision of the faculty-student disciplinary committee may be made to the president who may confirm or decrease the penalty but not increase it. His/her decision shall be final except in the case of dismissals or suspension for one term or more. An appeal from a decision of dismissal or suspension for one term or more may be made to the board committee on student affairs and special programs. Any appeal under this section shall be made in writing within fifteen days after the delivery of the decision appealed from. This requirement may be waived in a particular case for good cause by the president or board committees as the case may be. If the president is a party to the dispute, his/her functions with respect to an appeal shall be discharged by an official of the university to be appointed by the chancellor or his or her designee.

SECTION 15.5. COMMITTEE STRUCTURE.

a. Each faculty-student disciplinary committee shall consist of two faculty members and two student members and a chairperson, who shall be a faculty member. A quorum shall consist of the chair and any two members, one of whom must be a student. Hearings shall be scheduled promptly (including during the summers) at a convenient time and efforts shall be made to insure full student and faculty representation.

b. The president shall select in consultation with the head of the appropriate campus governance body or where the president is the head of the governance body, its executive committee, three (3) members of the instructional staff of that college to receive training and to serve in rotation as chair of the disciplinary committee. If none of the chairpersons appointed from the campus can serve, the president, at his/her discretion, may request that a chairperson be selected by lottery from the entire group of chairpersons appointed by other colleges. The chairperson shall preside at all meetings of the faculty-student disciplinary committee and decide and make all rulings for the committee. He/she shall not be a voting member of the committee but shall vote in the event of a tie.

c. The faculty members shall be selected by lot from a panel of six elected biennially by the appropriate faculty body from among the persons having faculty rank or faculty status. The student members shall be selected by lot from a panel of six elected annually in an election in which all students registered at the college shall be eligible to vote. In the event that the student or faculty panel or both are not elected, or if more panel members are needed, the president shall have the duty to select the panel or panels which have not been elected. No individuals on the panel shall serve on the panel for more than two consecutive years.
d. In the event that the chairperson cannot continue, the president shall appoint another chairperson. In the event that a student or faculty seat becomes vacant and it is necessary to fill the seat to continue the hearing, the seat shall be filled from the respective faculty or student panel by lottery.

e. Persons who are to be participants in the hearings as witnesses or have been involved in preferring the charges or who may participate in the appeals procedures or any other person having a direct interest in the outcome of the hearing shall be disqualified from serving on the committee.

SECTION 15.6. SUSPENSION OR DISMISSAL.

The board reserves full power to dismiss or suspend a student, or suspend a student organization for conduct which impedes, obstructs, or interferes with the orderly and continuous administration and operation of any college, school, or unit of the university in the use of its facilities or in the achievement of its purposes as an educational institution.

The chancellor or his/her designee or a president or his/her designee may in emergency or extraordinary circumstances, temporarily suspend a student, or temporarily suspend the privileges of a student organization or group for cause, pending an early hearing as provided in bylaw section 15.3. to take place within not more than ten (10) business days. Prior to the commencement of a temporary suspension of a student, the college shall give such student oral or written notice of the charges against him/her and, if he/she denies them, the college shall forthwith give such student an informal oral explanation of the evidence supporting the charges and the student may present informally his/her explanation or theory of the matter. When a student's presence poses a continuing danger to person or property or an ongoing threat of disrupting the academic process, notice and opportunity for denial and explanation may follow suspension, but shall be given as soon as feasible thereafter.

SECTION 15.7. THE UNIVERSITY STUDENT SENATE.

There shall be a university student senate responsible, subject to the board, for the formulation of university-wide student policy relating to the academic status, role, rights and freedoms of the student. The authority and duties of the university student senate shall not extend to areas of interest which fall exclusively within the domain of the student governments of the constituent units of the university. Consistent with the authority of the board of trustees in accordance with the education law and the bylaws of the board of trustees, the university student senate shall make its own bylaws providing for the election of its own officers, the establishment of its own rules and procedures, for its internal administration and for such other matters as is necessary for its existence. The university student senate shall have the full rights and responsibilities accorded student organizations as provided in these bylaws. The delegates and alternate delegates to the university student senate shall be elected by their respective constituencies, or by their student governments from the elected members of the respective student governments.

SECTION 15.8. COLLEGE GOVERNANCE PLANS.

The provisions in a duly adopted college governance plan shall not be inconsistent with the provisions contained in this article.

Adopted by the CUNY Board of Trustees

November 28, 2011
Article XVI - Student Activity Fees and Auxiliary Enterprises

Return to Bylaws of the Board of Trustees

Section 16.1 Student Activity Fee

The student activity fee is the total of the fees for student government and other student activities. Student activity fees, including student government fees collected by a college of the university shall be deposited in a college central depository and, except where earmarked by the board, allocated by a college association budget committee subject to review by the college association as required in these bylaws.

Section 16.2 Student Activity Fees Use — Expenditure Categories

Student activity fee funds shall be allocated and expended only for the following purposes:

1. Extracurricular educational programs;
2. Cultural and social activities;
3. Recreational and athletic programs;
4. Student government;
5. Publications and other media;
6. Assistance to registered student organizations;
7. Community service programs;
8. Enhancement of the college and university environment;
9. Transportation, administration and insurance related to the implementation of these activities;
10. Student services to supplement or add to those provided by the university;
11. Stipends to student leaders.

Section 16.3 Student Government Fee
The student government fee is that portion of the student activity fee levied by resolution of the board which has been established for the support of student government activities. The existing student government fees now in effect shall continue until changed. Student government fees shall be allocated by the duly elected student government, or each student government where more than one duly elected student government exists, for its own use and for the use of student organizations, as specified in section 15.2. of these bylaws, provided, however, that the allocation is based on a budget approved by the duly elected student government after notice and hearing, subject to the review of the college association.

Where more than one duly elected student government exists, the college association shall apportion the student government fees to each student government in direct proportion to the amount collected from members of each student government.

Section 16.4 Student Government Activity Denied

A student government activity is any activity operated by and for the students enrolled at any unit of the university provided, (1) such activity is for the direct benefit of students enrolled at the college, (2) that participation in the activity and the benefit thereof is available to all students enrolled in the unit or student government thereof, and (3) that the activity does not contravene the laws of the city, state or nation, or the published rules, regulations, and orders of the university or the duly established college authorities.

Section 16.5. College Association

a. The college association shall have responsibility for the supervision and review over college student activity fee supported budgets. All budgets of college student activity fees, except where earmarked by the board to be allocated by another body, should be developed by a college association budget committee and recommended to the college association for review by the college association prior to expenditure. The college association shall review all college student activity fee, including student government fee allocations and expenditures for conformance with the expenditure categories defined in Section 16.2. of this article and the college association shall disapprove any allocation or expenditure it finds does not so conform, or is inappropriate, improper, or inequitable.

b. A college association shall be considered approved for purposes of this article if it consists of thirteen (13) members, its governing documents are approved by the college president and the following requirements are met:

1. The governing board of the college association is composed of:

   i. The college president or his/her designee as chair.

   ii. Three administrative members appointed by the college president.

   iii. Three faculty members appointed by the college president from a panel whose size is twice the number of seats to be filled and the panel is elected by the appropriate college faculty governance body.

   iv. Six student members comprised of the student government president(s) and other elected students with the student seats allocated on a basis which will provide representation to each government, where more than one exists, as nearly as practicable in proportion to the student activity fees provided by the students from the respective constituencies.

2. The college association structure provides a budget committee composed of members of the governing board, at least a majority of whom are students selected in accordance with section
16.5.(b) (1)(iv) of these bylaws. The budget committee shall be empowered to receive and review student activity fee budget requests and to develop a budget subject to the review of the college association. The college association may choose to not approve the budget or portions of the budget if in their opinion such items are inappropriate, improper, or inequitable. The budget shall be returned to the budget committee with the specific concerns of the college association noted for further deliberation by the budget committee and subsequent resubmittal to the college association. If the budget is not approved within thirty (30) days those portions of the budget voted upon and approved by the college association board will be allocated. The remainder shall be held until the college association and the budget committee agree.

3. The governing documents of the college association have been reviewed by the board’s general counsel and approved by the board.

Section 16.6 Management and Disbursement of Funds

The college and all student activity fee allocating bodies shall employ generally accepted accounting and investment procedures in the management of all funds. All funds for the support of student activities are to be disbursed only in accordance with approved budgets and be based on written documentation. A requisition for disbursement of funds must contain two signatures; one, the signature of a person with responsibility for the program; the other, the signature of an approved representative of the allocating body.

Section 16.7 Revenues

All revenues generated by student activities funded through student activity fees shall be placed in a college central depository subject to the control of the allocating body. The application of such revenues to the account of the income generating organization shall require the specific authorization of the allocating body.

Section 16.8 Fiscal Accountability Handbook

The chancellor or his/her designee shall promulgate regulations in a fiscal accountability handbook, to regulate all aspects of the collection, deposit, financial disclosure, accounting procedures, financial payments, documentation, contracts, travel vouchers, investments and surpluses of student activity fees and all other procedural and documentary aspects necessary, as determined by the chancellor or his/her designee to protect the integrity and accountability of all student activity fee funds.

Section 16.9 College Purposes Fund

A college purposes fund may be established at each college and shall be allocated by the college president. This fund may have up to twenty-five (25) percent of the unearmarked portion of the student activity fee earmarked to it by resolution of the board, upon the presentation to the board of a list of activities that may be properly funded by student activity fees that are deemed essential by the college president.

Expenditures from the college purposes fund shall be subject to full disclosure under section 16.13. of these bylaws.

Referenda of the student body with respect to the use and amount of the college purposes fund shall be permitted under the procedures and requirements of section 16.12. of these bylaws.

Section 16.10 Auxiliary Enterprise Board
a. The auxiliary enterprise board shall have responsibility for the oversight, supervision and review over college auxiliary enterprises. All budgets of auxiliary enterprise funds and all contracts for auxiliary enterprises shall be developed by the auxiliary enterprise budget and contract committee and reviewed by the auxiliary enterprise board prior to expenditure or execution.

b. The auxiliary enterprise board shall be considered approved for the purposes of this article if it consists of at least eleven (11) members, its governing documents are approved by the college president and the following requirements are met:

1. The governing board is composed of the college president or his/her designee as chair, plus an equal number of students and the combined total of faculty and administrative members.

2. The administrative members are appointed by the college president.

3. The faculty members are appointed by the college president from a panel whose size is twice the number of seats to be filled and the panel is elected by the appropriate college faculty governance body.

4. The student members are the student government president(s) and other elected students and the student seats are allocated on a basis which will provide representation to each government, where more than one exists, as nearly as practicable, in proportion to the student enrollment by headcount from the respective constituencies.

5. The auxiliary enterprise board structure provides for a budget and contract committee composed of a combined total of faculty and administrative members that is one more than the number of student members. The budget and contract committee shall be empowered to develop all contract and budget allocation proposals subject to the review and approval of the auxiliary enterprise board.

6. The governing documents of the auxiliary enterprise board have been reviewed by the board’s general counsel and approved by the board.

Section 16.11 The Review Authority of College Presidents Overt Student Activity Fee Allocating Bodies and Auxiliary Enterprise Boards

a. The president of the college shall have the authority to disapprove any student activity fee, including student government fee, or auxiliary enterprise allocation or expenditure, which in his or her opinion contravenes the laws of the city, state, or nation or any bylaw or policy of the university or any policy, regulation, or order of the college. If the college president chooses to disapprove an allocation or expenditure, he or she shall consult with the general counsel and vice chancellor for legal affairs and thereafter communicate his/her decision to the allocating body or auxiliary enterprise board.

b. The president of the college shall have the authority to suspend and send back for further review any student activity fee, including student government fee, allocation or expenditure which in his or her opinion is not within the expenditure categories defined in section 16.2. of this article. The college association shall, within ten (10) days of receiving a proposed allocation or expenditure for further review, study it and make a recommendation to the president with respect to it. The college president shall thereafter consider the recommendation, shall consult with the general counsel and vice chancellor for legal affairs, and thereafter communicate his/her final decision to the allocating body as to whether the allocation or expenditure is disapproved.
c. The chancellor or his/her designee shall have the same review authority with respect to university student activity fees that the college president has with respect to college student activity fees.

d. All disapprovals exercised under this section shall be filed with the general counsel and vice chancellor for legal affairs.

e. Recipients of extramural student activity fees shall present an annual report to the chancellor for the appropriate board committee detailing the activities, benefits and finances of the extramural body as they pertain to the colleges where students are paying an extramural fee.

Section 16.12 Referenda

A referendum proposing changes in the student activity fee shall be initiated by a petition of at least ten (10) percent of the appropriate student body and voted upon in conjunction with student government elections.

a. Where a referendum seeks to earmark student activity fees for a specific purpose or organization without changing the total student activity fee, the results of the referendum shall be sent to the college association for implementation.

b. Where a referendum seeks to earmark student activity fees for a specific purpose or organization by changing the total student activity fee, the results of such referendum shall be sent to the board by the president of the college together with his/her recommendation.

c. At the initiation of a petition of at least ten (10) percent of the appropriate student body, the college president may schedule a student referendum at a convenient time other than in conjunction with student government elections.

d. Where the referendum seeks to affect the use or amount of student activity fees in the college purposes fund, the results of the referendum shall be sent to the board by the college president together with his/her recommendation.

Section 16.13 Disclosure

a. The college president shall be responsible for the full disclosure to each of the student governments of the college of all financial information with respect to student activity fees.

b. The student governments shall be responsible for the full disclosure to their constituents of all financial information with respect to student government fees.

c. The student activity fee allocating bodies shall be responsible for the full disclosure of all financial information to its membership, to the college and to the student governments with respect to all of its activities.

d. The auxiliary enterprise board shall be responsible for the full disclosure of all financial information to its membership, to the college and to the student governments with respect to auxiliary enterprises.

e. For purposes of the foregoing paragraphs, full disclosure shall mean the presentation each semester of written financial statements which shall include, but need not be limited to, the source of all fee income by constituency, income from other sources creditable to student activity fee accounts, disbursements, transfers, past reserves, surplus accounts, contingency and stabilization funds. Certified independent audits performed by a public auditing firm shall be conducted at least once each year.
Section 16.14 Stipends.

The payment of stipends to student leaders is permitted only within those time limits and amounts authorized by the board.

Athletic Program Participation Notice

Return to Public Safety, College Regulations and Policies

The college files an annual report with the US secretary of education on intercollegiate athletics which includes information on the participation of males and females on its teams and the expenditures and revenues of those teams. Copies of the annual report on intercollegiate athletics are available at the reference desk of the library.

Attendance Policies

Return to Academic Regulations

All students must report to classes during the first week of classes. Students will lose their place in some classes if they do not attend the first class meeting. (See, for example, the “Notes” for biology and chemistry in the Schedule of Classes.)
The instructor has the right to set attendance requirements for the course, to keep attendance records, and to consider attendance in the calculation of final grades. Such attendance policies will be listed in the course syllabus. Students may not use absence from class as an excuse for not fulfilling all course requirements.

Students who have earned fewer than 15 credits of college-level work are limited in the number of cuts they may take in a course without risking a lower grade, as follows:

- 1-cr course - 2 hrs of cuts
- 2-cr course - 4 hrs of cuts
- 3-cr course - 6 hrs of cuts
- 4-cr course - 6 hrs of cuts (equal to 1 lab period and 1 lecture)

College Calendar: Schedule of Final Examinations A final examination is required in each course at the college during the examination period scheduled by the registrar, except in those courses in which the department has ruled that no examination shall be given. Since the final examination week is part of the semester hour requirement as mandated by the State Education Department, the period scheduled for final examinations should be used either for the final examination in the course or as an instructional period.

Students in an examination room may not have in their possession or within their reach any books or papers except those permitted by the instructor for use in the examination. Notes normally carried in pockets or handbags should be placed completely out of reach.

Students taking a drawing examination should bring their own implements. Students are not to possess an examination book at any time except during the examination period. Students should carefully fill out all information asked for on the front cover of every examination book used. If scratch paper is needed, students should use the back pages of the examination book; no other paper of any kind is to be used. All matter that is not intended to be read and marked by the examiner should be crossed out (but not torn out) before the examination book is handed in. No pages are to be torn from examination books.

The student is responsible for making sure that the instructor receives the examination book. Students may leave the examination room as soon as they finish. Quiet should be maintained in passing through the halls.

Students obliged to withdraw from an examination because of illness will be counted as absent from the examination and are permitted to take an absentee examination, as explained in the section on Incomplete Work in Course, above.

For information on absence from final examination for other reasons, see section on Incomplete Work in Course, above.

Suspension of Classes Announcements concerning emergency suspension of classes will be made on the following radio stations:

- WFAS 1230 AM and 104 FM
- WINS 1010 AM
- WADO 1280 AM (Spanish-speaking)
- WCBS 880 AM and 101.1 FM
- WBLS 107.5 FM
Additionally, announcements will be posted on the Hunter College Web site at http://www.hunter.cuny.edu.

Access to College Files The Federal Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. These rights include the right to inspect the student’s education records; the right to request the amendment of the student’s education records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading; the right to consent to disclosure of personally identifiable information contained in the student’s education records; and the right to request that certain information not be released without his or her prior written consent by filing a letter with the Office of the Registrar. (see: Hunter College Students’ Rights Concerning Education Records)

Withdrawal from Part of Program The Board of Trustees has ruled that students have until the end of the third week of classes (or during the summer session, the end of the first week of classes) to drop a course without penalty. This period coincides with the refund period. The course will not appear on the student’s record. A student may withdraw officially, with a grade of “W,” between the end of the third week of classes and the first day of the tenth week of classes. (During the summer session a student may withdraw officially between the second week of classes and the first day of the fifth week of classes.) To do so, a student should obtain a withdrawal form from the OASIS, Room 217 HN. After the deadline, official withdrawals will be considered for approval by the Office of Advising Services. Approval will be granted only when it is clear that the student has good and sufficient reason for withdrawing. Students should be aware that withdrawal from classes may have an impact on their financial aid. A student should make an appointment with an adviser in the Office of Advising Services, Room 1119 East Building, before proceeding with the withdrawal process. The problem often has other solutions.

Unofficial Withdrawal When a student ceases to participate in a course but has not withdrawn officially, the student shall be deemed to have withdrawn unofficially. Evidence of unofficial withdrawal shall include all of the following: failure to attend class for at least four weeks consecutively (or during the summer session, two weeks consecutively) through the end of the semester (the last day of classes); failure to attend the final exam; and failure over this period to meet any other course requirements (e.g., to submit paper assignments and take examinations). The unofficial withdrawal (“WU”) by university regulations is equivalent to a grade of F. Cessation of attendance or unofficial withdrawal may also have negative financial aid consequences.

Withdrawal from College Students who become ill or who experience personal difficulties or a lack of interest that prevents their concentrating on college work, are encouraged to withdraw completely from college. Failure under such conditions can only make an eventual return to college more difficult. Deadlines for such withdrawals are the same as for withdrawals from part of the program (see above).

Such students should make an appointment to see a counselor in the Office of Advising Services, Room 1119 East Building. Students must return books to the library and all college equipment to the department to which it belongs. Students who are unable to return to Hunter to withdraw in person should write or have someone else write to the Office of Advising Services. The letter should contain (1) the name under which the student is registered at Hunter; (2) the Social Security number; (3) the return address and telephone number; (4) the reason for withdrawal, with appropriate documentation (medical, psychological or employee) and the last date of attendance; and (5) a copy of the Bursar’s receipt.

Students who stop attending without following the above procedures are considered to have withdrawn unofficially and will receive WUs, which are equivalent to Fs in computing the GPA.

Students whose GPA at the time of withdrawal is below the minimum required for continued matriculation shall be considered as having been dropped for poor scholarship. Students who have withdrawn from the college, officially or unofficially, must apply for readmission in the Office of Admissions, Room 203 HN, at least three months prior to the semester in which they wish to re-enter.

Auditing
• Currently enrolled degree and non-degree students: Students register for the course online at their CUNY Portal account and then provide a letter on letterhead stationery, signed by the Chairperson of the academic department offering the course and approving the audit. This letter must be delivered to the OASIS, Room 217 North Building before the last day of the first week of classes during posted office hours. See "http://registrar.hunter.cuny.edu/subpages/officehours.shtml for office hours. This option is only available through the first week of classes for each semester or session. Audit status will not be posted for students after the last day of the first week of classes. Audit grade status cannot be reversed once posted.

• Senior Citizens: Students classified as Senior Citizens by the college may register as auditors only.

• Newly admitted and/or readmitted degree and non-degree students: Consult with the Office of Advising Services, Room 1119 East.

• Auditors pay required tuition and fees. No credit or grade will be given for audited classes.

Brookdale Center on Healthy Aging and Longevity

2180 3rd Ave @ 119th Street, NYC 8th Floor
New York, NY 10035
(212) 396-7835
http://www.brookdale.org/
Executive Director: Jean Callahan, JD, MSW
jean.callahan@hunter.cuny.edu

Brookdale Center on Healthy Aging and Longevity at Hunter College advances successful aging and longevity through research, education, and evaluation of evidence-based models of practice and policy. In July 2011, Brookdale Center moved into its new home in East Harlem, NYC at the corner of Third Avenue and 119th Street. Brookdale Center shares this new state-of-the-art campus with both the Silberman School of Social Work at Hunter College (formerly the Hunter College School of Social Work) and the CUNY School of Public Health at Hunter College (formerly the Hunter School of Public Health). Brookdale Center takes a leading role in the development of evidence based “best practices” to advance the health and wellbeing of a new generation. Brookdale is breaking new ground in aging services by connecting and integrating the applied fields of gerontology with health policy. Brookdale Center serves as a critical bridge between gerontological education, research, policy, practice and advocacy, and is recognized nationally today as a major center of excellence.
Center on Community and Urban Health

425 E. 25th Street, West Building, 8th Floor
New York, NY 10010

Executive Director: Beatrice J. Krauss
bkrauss@hunter.cuny.edu

Center for Community and Urban Health at Hunter College works with service providers and communities to design and evaluate health interventions that will improve the lives of underserved populations. The Hunter College Center for Community and Urban Health (formerly the Hunter College Center on AIDS, Drugs and Community Health) was founded in 1988 to respond to the growing public health crises that were devastating New York City’s low-income communities, especially AIDS (the advanced stage of HIV infection) and problematic substance use. However, many members of our client population, or their immediate family and/or friends, have multiple co-occurring conditions, of which the above are only two. In fact, in 2004, the New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene published a policy paper, “Take Care New York: A Policy for a Healthier New York City,” which identified ten priority areas for health interventions. Therefore, in 2005, the Center changed its name in order to reflect these health realities, with the expectation that still other health conditions are likely to emerge in the future as community concerns.

Center for Occupational and Environmental Health

David Kotelchuck
dkotelch@hunter.cuny.edu

The Hunter College Center for Occupational and Environmental Health was established in 1986 to improve workplace and environmental health by assisting worker and community efforts to understand and ameliorate hazardous conditions. The center conducts training classes to assist labor unions, government agencies and other groups to strengthen their capacity to respond to workplace hazards; assists communities in addressing urban environmental concerns; and sponsors graduate student internships in occupational and environmental health.

Current areas of interest and study include asbestos, lead poisoning, hazardous waste and materials, asthma, air pollution, ergonomics and public health policy. The Center for Occupational and Environmental Health is funded by federal and state grants, labor unions and private foundations.

The Center for Study of Gene Structure and Function

315 Hunter North; http://genecenter.hunter.cuny.edu/
(212) 650-3957

The Center for Study of Gene Structure and Function (Gene Center) was established in 1985. It is a consortium comprised of 53 research faculty who are biologists, chemists, psychologists, physicists as well as a bio-anthropologist and an urban public health scientist. The Gene Center now has a designated cohort of 19 biomedical researchers who focus on increasing the translational/clinical potential of their research in cancer, mental health, and community engagement to help reduce health disparities. The remaining members pursue broader biomedical research goals. The Gene Center is a founding partner with the Clinical and Translational Science Center, a multi-institutional research consortium headquartered at Weill Cornell Medical College. The Gene Center is supported by a major grant from the Research Centers in Minority Institutions Program of the National Institute on Minority Health and Health Disparities (formerly from the National Center for Research Resources), an agency of the National Institutes of Health. The City University of New York and Hunter College provide institutional support to the Gene Center.

The Gene Center primarily supports research in the following three core areas:

- Cancer, including detection and therapeutics innovation in treatment for prostate and breast cancers
- Neurobiology/behavior, including addiction and neuroprotection as well as diagnosis of stress disorders
- Disease Prevention using telehealth e-platforms to serve the underserved

State-of-the-art core research facilities include:

- Digital Bioimaging with Confocal Microscopy
- Internet2 Videocollaboration
- Nanoscale Analytical
- Nuclear Magnetic Resonance

The Gene Center contributes to research advances in diseases that disproportionately affect minority populations - such as stroke, drug addiction, cancer and AIDS. Gene Center scientists have received distinguished awards such as the Ameritech Prize for Paralysis Research and the Presidential Early Career Award for Scientists and Engineers for their outstanding research in these areas. A major goal is to develop outstanding faculty, postdoctoral fellows, and summer undergraduate research fellows from underrepresented groups.

The Center for Puerto Rican Studies

(Centro de Estudios Puertorriqueños)
Administrative Office: 1429 Hunter East; (212) 772-5688
Director: Edwin Meléndez, Ph.D.
http://www.centropr.hunter.cuny.edu

The Centro de Estudios Puertorriqueños/Center for Puerto Rican Studies (Centro) is a university-based research institute whose mission consists of two components. One is to collect, preserve and provide access to archival and library resources documenting the history and culture of Puerto Ricans. The other is to produce, facilitate and disseminate interdisciplinary research about the diasporic experiences of Puerto Ricans and to link this scholarly inquiry to social action and policy debates. The other is to collect, preserve and provide access to archival and library resources documenting the history and culture of Puerto Ricans. To complement these core activities, Centro sponsors a year round program of educational and cultural activities.

History Founded in 1973 by a coalition of faculty, students and community leaders, Centro seeks to achieve its mission by working closely with a network of education, research, archival, advocacy and community-based partners. Centro has been housed at Hunter College since 1983; however, it is a CUNY-wide research center. Centro staff guide and mentor Latino and other students, assist and advise community organizations and other research institutions and serve on local, national and international committees concerned with issues of social, economic, educational and cultural policy. In addition, CUNY faculty and staff with interests in Puerto Rican and Latino studies are invited to affiliate with Centro, where they utilize its extensive resources. Centro has been a founding member of the Inter-University Program for Latino Research (IUPLR) since 1989. The IUPLR, currently composed of 23 affiliate centers, is the most extensive consortium of Latino research centers in the United States.

Research Program As a university-based Puerto Rican research center, Centro staff and researchers are interested in a comprehensive understanding of the Puerto Rican diasporic experience in the U.S. and in relevant socioeconomic and historical aspects regarding Puerto Rico. Given its history and role within CUNY, the Centro is particularly interested in New York’s Puerto Rican and ethnic communities. The following are research areas of current interest and attention in the Centro: history and political economy, migration, race, class, gender and sexuality, education, community development, political and human rights, public policy and political participation and cultural and literary studies. This list reflects the current combination of staff strengths and expertise, as well as the academic, community and policy networks the Centro has developed. Given the changing needs in Puerto Rican communities, in academia and in the Centro’s staff, the areas of current interest are reviewed periodically.

The Centro Research Exchange program promotes institutional, faculty and student intellectual and scientific exchange with stateside academic institutions and in Puerto Rico and the Caribbean. Since its inception the program has focused on strengthening institutional links between the City University of New York and stateside higher education and research institutions through academic and cultural exchanges and scholarly collaboration. Centro has sponsored numerous resident scholars, including theses and dissertation, post-doctoral and junior faculty fellows. The Centro research Exchange programs have facilitated research and other academic/cultural activities for more than three hundred faculty and students.

Library and Archives The Centro Library and Archives is devoted to collecting, preserving and providing access to resources documenting the history and culture of Puerto Ricans. Now in its new facilities at the Lois V. and Samuel J. Silberman Building in East Harlem (119th and 3rd Ave.), the collections include books, newspapers, periodicals, audio and video tapes, manuscripts, photographs, prints and recorded music. The library and archives provides services and programs to the scholarly community as well as the general public. The library and archives facilitates access to its holdings through mail and telephone services, City University’s online public catalog CUNY+, participation in national computerized databases and through the publication of finding aids. The library and archives promote the study of Puerto Rican history and culture through exhibitions and other public programs.

The Centro Library and Archives collects, preserves and makes available for research unique primary materials that document the history and culture of the Puerto Rican diaspora with a concentration on New York City. The holdings include personal papers, records of organizations and institutions, photographic collections, broadsides, programs and ephemera. Among the collections are the records of civil rights organizations, the papers of activists, writers, artists, scholars, educators and elected officials. A highlight of the holdings is the extensive records of the offices of the Government of Puerto Rico in the U.S. Special features of the Archives include its photographic holdings, art prints/posters by artists from New York and Puerto Rico and sound recordings of Puerto Rican popular music. Finding aids and guides are available for processed collections and are online on the Centro Web site.

Publications Founded in 1987, the CENTRO journal is one of the Centro’s most important links to the public. A multidisciplinary, bilingual, refereed publication that welcomes scholarly articles in the humanities and the social and natural sciences, as well as interpretive essays, interviews, fiction, reviews and art, CENTRO reflects developments in the field of Puerto Rican studies. Although primarily an academic publication directed at disseminating the body of scholarship on Puerto Rico and Puerto Ricans, the journal retains elements of its earlier incarnation, publishing work in a variety of formats. The journal encourages a dialogue that compares Puerto Ricans with other ethnic groups, particularly other Latinos and African Americans. CENTRO is available by subscription or, as with all of our publications, directly from our offices.

Voices is the electronic magazine of the Center for Puerto Rican Studies. Voices is a web-based platform to disseminate scholarly contributions about the Puerto Rican experiences in the United States to a general public. It encourages interactions among academics and between academics and our community and the general public. The magazine is asynchronous and updated regularly. centropr.hunter.cuny.edu/voices-e-magazinefront

Events Centro sponsors cultural and educational activities that contribute to the study and interpretation of the Puerto Rican experience in the United States. We give priority to activities that support teaching and learning Puerto Rican Studies, develop and promote our archival collections, and that are useful to those in community organizations, public policy, and academia. Our speaker forums focus on scholarship in the social sciences, humanities, and performance arts.

College Governance

Return to Hunter College of The City University of New York

Hunter College has several governing assemblies, most of which provide for student participation.

The Hunter College Senate

Room 1018 Hunter East

The Hunter College Senate, chartered in 1970, is the principal governance body of the college and the only such body that holds a Governance Charter with the CUNY Board of Trustees. The Senate has authority to determine college policy in matters related to:

1. Curriculum
2. Academic requirements and standards
3. Instruction and the evaluation of teaching
4. College development, including master plan
5. Computing and technology

Representatives of the faculty, student body and administration constitute the voting membership of the Senate and serve for a term of two years. The elected officers of the Senate include the chairperson, vice-chairperson, secretary and the chairperson of the Evening Council, who constitute the Senate Administrative Committee. There are 18 standing committees and a varying number of special and ad-hoc committees. These committees accomplish much of the work of the Senate. Reports and Resolutions from these committees are discussed and voted on at Senate meetings. Membership on committees is representative and open to all faculty and students by election of the full Senate from a slate recommended by the Nominating Committee and by member nominations from the Senate floor.

Regular meetings of the Senate are planned for two hours and are held twice a month. Additional monthly meetings may be called as needed.

Election of faculty and student membership to the Senate occurs during the spring semester.
Faculty members and students are encouraged to become involved in the meetings of the Hunter College Senate and its committees.

Further information may be obtained by visiting the Senate Office.

The Faculty Delegate Assembly

Room 1414 Hunter East

All Hunter faculty, full and part-time, are members of the Faculty Delegate Assembly, which serves to address faculty concerns regarding teaching, research, and the quality of professional life at Hunter and CUNY. We provide a forum for free and open consideration of significant issues at monthly general meetings. Each academic department in the college elects two members to attend these events, which are also open to all other members and usually include invited speakers from both inside and outside of the college. The FDA also hosts a coffee service in the faculty lounge at the 68th Street campus on most afternoons, organizes social events each semester, publishes a newsletter, The Faculty Voice, and is responsible for periodic updates of the Faculty Handbook.

The Student Governments

Undergraduate Room 121 Hunter North

Graduate Room 218 Thomas Hunter

These elected student groups have an essential role in the life of the college by allocating the Student Activity Fee, as well as facilitating the chartering of student organizations. All of the elected officers serve as student representatives on campus-wide committees concerning matters of college policy. A few are Senators in the Hunter College Senate, while others are elected to serve as delegates and alternates at the University Student Senate (USS) meetings.

The objective of these student officers is to lead by example in fostering diversity and supporting the exchange of peaceful dialogue among the varied constituents on Hunter’s many campuses.

Hunter College Ombudsman

Room 1016 Hunter East

The ombudsman is empowered by the Hunter College Governance Charter to investigate complaints and grievances by any member of the college community (student, faculty, staff, or administration) about a problem or condition in the college. When requested and where possible, the anonymity of a complainant will be protected and names will not be used in any reports the ombudsman may make.

When someone feels unfairly treated or unjustly disadvantaged, the ombudsman can advise the person of the available appeals procedures, recommend corrective action to be taken by the appropriate college officers, or recommend changes in college procedures or regulations that would eliminate such injustices in the future.

The ombudsman may be reached at (212) 772-4203.

Faculty Personnel and Budget Committee (FP&B)

Composed of the president, the provost and the chairs of departments, FP&B is concerned with appointment, reappointment, promotion and other faculty personnel matters.
Departmental Committees

Each department has bylaws approved by the Senate. These bylaws provide for a number of committees, most of which are open to student members. Further information is available in the appropriate departmental office.

College Name

The official name of the college, which must be used in correspondence and on application forms for employment, admission to graduate school and transfer to other institutions, is “Hunter College of The City University of New York.” Merely referring to “The City University of New York” or “CUNY” will result in the correspondence or application being sent to the Board of Trustees, thereby causing delay in processing.

College Regulations

Students should be aware of the following regulations:

- Students may not have personal or business mail or telegrams addressed to them at the college.
- The college cannot deliver messages to students except in cases of grave emergency.
- If a student has a visitor, a visitor’s pass from the Office of Student Services is required.
- Students are required to present proper identification (Hunter ID Card) upon the request of any college official.
- The college does not provide a check-cashing service.
- No student or outsider may use any part of the college buildings (including bulletin boards) for soliciting or selling any merchandise without written permission from the dean of students.
- No student may be a self-appointed representative of the college.
- No pets or animals (except seeing-eye dogs) may be brought into college buildings.
- The use, possession and/or distribution of hallucinogenic drugs, barbiturates, amphetamines, narcotics and other dangerous drugs is prohibited by law and therefore by college regulations.
- Only wine and beer may be served at student sponsored functions. A representative of the sponsoring group must be present at the bar to assure compliance with the minimum drinking age.

Courses in Human Rights

Human Rights

About the Program
The Human Rights Program examines the theory and practice of human rights, combining academic training with hands-on experience. By exploring the philosophical foundations and legal framework of human rights, as well as addressing current political, social and economic realities, the program seeks to give students the tools necessary to engage intelligently with contemporary human rights problems. Among the thorny issues students may examine are indigenous peoples’ rights to natural resources, the limits of freedom of expression, the problem of corporate complicity in rights violations, the legitimacy of humanitarian intervention, and the problem of enforceability (both of economic, social, and cultural rights, and of civil and political rights).

An interdisciplinary program, the Human Rights Program offers courses in political science, anthropology, sociology and history, among other fields of study. Students may follow either of two academic tracks: a 15-credit minor in human rights, or 24-credit certificate. A key element of both tracks is the human rights internship, which gives students direct experience with the researchers, advocates, lawyers and analysts who make up the human rights movement.

Both the minor and certificate in human rights are good preparation for a career in government, at a nongovernmental organization, or in a regional or international agency. Many students may choose to go on to law school, journalism school or a graduate program. Whatever their career choice, their knowledge of human rights will make them more thoughtful and informed citizens.

HR 20000 - Introduction to Human Rights: History, Discourse, Practice (W)

GER 3/B PD/D
An introduction to the study of human rights. It explores the historical, philosophical, and legal roots of human rights as a political idea and institutionalized practice. It also addressed the contested nature of human rights as an idea and practice in contemporary societies. In addition to providing an introduction to the subject, the course is a requirement for students minoring in Human Rights or pursuing a Human Rights Certificate.
In order to pursue a Human Rights minor or Certificate, a student must receive at least a B (3.0) in this course. Students should take this introductory course in their sophomore year but must take it no later than the first semester of their junior year.

This is a writing intensive course.

prereq: ENGL 12000 or equivalent; one course in ethics, political philosophy, political theory, sociological theory, or permission from the instructors.

3 hrs 3 cr.

fall and spring

HR 25000 - Human Rights Internship

This is a practicum course. It involves students participating in an organization that identifies its mission as the promotion of human rights. The aim of the course is to educate students in the practical dimension of translating human rights discourse and law into practice. The course is required for students seeking a Human Rights Certificate or a minor in Human Rights.

prereq: ENGL 12000 or equivalent; HR 20000 or equivalent

3 hrs 3 cr.

HR 26000 - Human Rights Internship Seminar (W)

This course critically evaluates the role of human rights organizations and human rights practices in determining the meaning and value of human rights.

prereq: ENGL 12000 and HR 20000

prereq or coreq: HR 25000

3 hrs 3 cr.

Offered spring 2012; not offered fall 2011

HR 35000 - Human Rights Capstone Seminar (W)

This course involves the theoretical examination of constitutive problems in the discourse and practice of human rights, especially as they would inform the composition of a human rights academic research project. It requires participating students to present their research projects in the seminar and to compose a 20-25 page research paper on a human rights topic.

This course is specifically designed for students who are pursuing a Certificate in Human Rights.

This is a writing intensive course.

prereq or coreq: HR 26000

Offered spring 2012; not offered fall 2011

Courses in Nursing

Hunter-Bellevue School of Nursing

About the School
Nursing education began at Hunter in 1943, when courses for registered nurses were added to its curriculum. In 1955, a four-year collegiate program that was a pioneer for its time — the Hunter College Program in Nursing — was launched. When the Bellevue School of Nursing closed in 1969, Hunter absorbed it to create the Hunter-Bellevue School of Nursing, now located at the college’s Brookdale Health Science Center at 425 East 25th Street in Manhattan, near Bellevue Hospital.

The Hunter-Bellevue School of Nursing is one of the largest and most prestigious nursing schools in the country. Recognized by the National League for Nursing (NLN) as a Center of Excellence in Nursing Education, the school’s programs combine liberal and professional education with a humanistic and comprehensive approach to health care.

Programs

The School of Nursing offers four pathways leading to the Bachelor of Science (nursing) degree: the Generic Pathway, for those students who do not have an RN license; the RN Pathway, for those students who have completed a nursing program and have received or are about to receive a current RN license to practice professional nursing in New York State; the joint/dual degree program with Queensborough Community College see: http://www.qcc.cuny.edu/nursing/daulJoint-hunterBellevue.html; and the Accelerated 2nd Degree Pathway, for those students who have already achieved a baccalaureate degree in another field of study and wish to transition into a nursing profession. Information on applying to all of our programs is available on our website at http://www.hunter.cuny.edu/nursing.

In earning the bachelor of science (nursing) degree, students in all pathways complete lower division (general education) and upper division (professional education) curriculum requirements. See Pathway pages below for specific program requirements.

Pathways

Nursing Generic Pathway

Nursing Accelerated 2nd Degree Pathway

Nursing RN Pathway

Nursing Dual/Joint Degree

Nursing Course Listing

Courses for Hunter-Bellevue School of Nursing

Admission Requirements (all Programs)

Students are considered for admission to the Generic Pathway Program and Accelerated 2nd Degree Pathway Program for the fall semester only, and only after completing lower division courses. RN Pathway students are admitted for the fall semester. An overall college GPA of 3.0 in addition to other requirements is the minimum requirement for consideration of an application. Admission to the School of Nursing is competitive. A minimum grade of “C” must be maintained for all required science, mathematics, and nursing courses. Generic Pathway and Accelerated 2nd Degree Pathway students must attend during the day on a full-time basis. Only matriculated Hunter College students can apply to the Generic Pathway Program. RN Pathway students may attend during the day or evening (depending on scheduling of courses) on a full- or a part-time basis.
Students are admitted to the dual-degree HBSON-Queensborough Community College (QCC) program after completing their first semester of study at QCC with a grade of B or better in Nu 101 and a GPA of 3.0 or better.

Licensing and Accreditation

The Hunter-Bellevue School of Nursing is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) through June 2020. Hunter-Bellevue graduates are prepared to give first-level professional nursing care in all areas of nursing practice. Graduates from the Generic and Accelerated 2nd Degree Pathway are eligible to take the National Council Licensing Examination for Registered Nurses. A student who has been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor will have to undergo investigation by the Office of Professional Discipline, which might result in licensure being withheld. The program also provides a foundation for graduate study at the master’s level, which is also offered at the School of Nursing.

Provides essential knowledge base for implementing the nursing process in the care of clients across the lifespan, with specific emphasis on the childbearing family. Principles of service-learning are applied.

Material Fee: $50

prereq: completion of lower-division sequence
coreq: NURS 20000
18 hrs (4 lec, 14 lab) 8 cr.
offered fall

NURS 31200 - Nursing II

Provides knowledge base for effective nursing care of clients from childhood through young adulthood. Community engagement learning experiences supporting the principles of service-learning are included.

Material Fee: $50

prereq: NURS 20000, 31000, 33100
18 hrs (4 lec, 14 lab) 8 cr.
offered spring

NURS 33100 - Essentials of Pharmacology

Presents essential pharmacological information for nursing care of clients of all ages.

prereq: completion of lower-division sequence
3 hrs 3 cr.

NURS 33200 - Normal and Therapeutic Nutrition in the Nursing Process

Presents principles of normal and therapeutic nutrition throughout the developmental life cycle.

prereq: lower division sequence, NURS 20000, 31000
3 hrs 3 cr.

NURS 34000 - Women's Health

PD/C
Designed to identify and analyze those factors which impact on the health status of women: biological, sociological, psychological, environmental, political.
3 hrs 3 cr.

NURS 34200 - Ethical Issues in Nursing Practice

Open to RN Pathway and senior Generic Pathway students only. Examines ethical issues which arise from the practice of nursing in an interpersonal, professional, institutional and social context of diverse and competing values.
3 hrs 3 cr.

NURS 34300 - Patterns of Biological Disruptions

Emphasizes biological disruptions that are pathobiological and their influence on levels of wellness across the life span. Strongly recommended for Generic Pathway seniors.

prereq or coreq:
3 hrs 3 cr.
NURS 34500 - HIV/AIDS: An Interdisciplinary Perspective for Health Care Providers

Examines the impact of the HIV epidemic on the biological, psychological and social dimensions of persons affected by HIV/AIDS.
3 hrs 3 cr.

NURS 34600 - Death and Dying

P/D B
Provides an overview of current theories, concepts, and practices associated with death, dying and end-of-life care.
3 hrs 3 cr.

NURS 35000 - Independent Study in Nursing

An opportunity to explore a topic relevant to nursing which is of individual interest.
1-3 hrs 1-3 cr.

NURS 35100 - Gender, Science and Technology

PD/C
Explores the complex relationship between women and the sciences.
cross-listed WGSS 35100
3 hrs 3 cr.

NURS 37900 - Nursing and Societal Forces in the Health Care Delivery System

Open to RN Pathway students only. This is the first course in the RN Pathway curriculum and must be taken prior to or in conjunction with other required nursing courses depending on the pre/co requisites of the courses. Exploration of health care dilemmas through the integration of knowledge from nursing, social sciences and public health. Principles of service-learning are introduced.
3 hrs 3 cr.

NURS 38000 - Nursing Research and Theory

Introduction to theory development and research in nursing. for Generic Pathway: NURS 20000, 31000 prereq: for RN Pathway: NURS 37900, STAT 11300
3 hrs 3 cr.

NURS 38100 - Health Assessment Throughout the Lifespan

Open to RN Pathway students only. Analysis of normal patterns of wellness for individual clients with emphasis on development of assessment skills.
Material Fee: $45
prereq: CHEM 100-101 prereq or coreq: NURS 379
6 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab) 4.5 cr.

NURS 38400 - Nursing Culturally Diverse Families
Open to RN Pathway students only. Explores the interrelationships between sociocultural factors and health care practices of families from diverse cultures as a basis for nursing practice. Principles of service-learning are reflected in the culturally competent interventions.

3 hrs 3 cr.

NURS 39998 - Urban Disaster Response and the Health Care Team

Provides the student with an understanding of the causes, prevention, and mitigation of disasters and insight into the disaster management system nationally and locally. The course will include content relevant to all disciplines in the disaster care continuum and focus on each individual health care member's role and responsibilities within these systems.

3 hrs 3 cr.

NURS 41000 - Nursing III

Provides a knowledge base for effective nursing care of middle-aged clients. Concepts and principles of service-learning are discussed and integrated into a professional practice paradigm.

Material Fee: $50

prereq: NURS 20000, 31000, 31200, 33100, 33200

18 hrs (4 lec, 14 lab) 8

offered fall

NURS 41200 - Nursing IV

Provides knowledge base for effective nursing care of elderly clients. Principles of service-learning are integrated into selected community experiences to promote civic engagement.

prereq: NURS 41000

18 hrs (4 lec, 14 lab) 8

offered spring

NURS 41900 - Nursing Management and Leadership in the Health Care System

Study of principles of nursing management, leadership, and research processes in health care system.

prereq: NURS 20000, 31000, 31200, 33100, 33200

2 hrs 2

offered spring

NURS 42000 - Nursing Leadership and Management (A2DP)

Open to Accelerated 2nd Degree students only. Study of principles of nursing management, leadership and roles in health care systems.

About the Program

The Program in Public Policy is an 18-credit undergraduate minor open to students in all disciplines. Students also have an option to pursue 9 additional credits (for a total of 27 credits) to receive a Certificate in Public Policy upon graduation. The Roosevelt House program is based on the understanding that the preparation of informed citizens is essential to a healthy democracy and an important aspect of a liberal arts education. Unlike most graduate programs in public policy that are designed to prepare people for careers in the public and nonprofit sectors, the undergraduate program at Roosevelt House provides students with knowledge and skills that enable them to be active participants in a democratic society. Many of its graduates will undoubtedly go on to careers in the public and nonprofit sectors. Capable citizenship, however, is required in all walks of life; therefore the program can benefit all students regardless of their stated major, career goals, or personal objectives. To enroll in the public policy minor (18 credits) or certificate (27 credits), a student must have completed at least 45 credits of undergraduate study, with a minimum G.P.A. of 3.0.

Minor in Public Policy

An 18-credit undergraduate minor in public policy is open to students in all disciplines.

Core Requirements

PUPOL 10000 - Introduction to Public Policy

An interdisciplinary introduction to public policy utilizing the literature and tools of a variety of social science disciplines. This course introduces students to basic concepts and approaches in public policy. It will acquaint students with public policy as a field of study, the basic elements of the policy making process, and distinct modes for analyzing public policy and its outcomes. It will be team-taught by faculty from at least two related social science disciplines.

Writing Requirements: This course will require 20 to 25 pages of writing in the form of two take home essay examinations (4-5 pages each), a proposal for a final paper (3-5), and a final paper (8-10 pages).

Open only to students enrolled in the program. Cannot be used to fulfill any other requirements.

This course is taken at the state of the art Roosevelt House.

prereq: declaration of a minor/certificate in Public Policy and a minimum GPA requirement of 3.0
3 hrs 3 cr.

PUPOL 40000 - Capstone Seminar

This writing intensive course is the culminating experience in the Public Policy minor/certificate. It provides students with an opportunity to apply the knowledge and skills acquired in their other courses to a specific policy problem. An interdisciplinary course, it will require students to make an inquiry into a specific policy problem. The project will be overseen jointly by a faculty adviser who specializes in the substantive area of public policy chosen and another faculty adviser in the program by writing a formal paper.

Each student will write an appropriately revised 5-7 page research proposal and a 20-25 page research paper involving primary research.

These courses are only open to students enrolled in the program. They cannot be used to fulfill any other requirements.

This course is taken at the state of the art Roosevelt House.

prereq: Students must have completed 45 credits, have a declared major, and a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher.
3 hours 3 credits

Introduction to American Government and Politics

POLSC 11000 - American Government: A Historical Introduction (W)

GER 1/C or 2/B

Overview of the American political system from a historical perspective, with emphasis on the Constitution and its enduring influence, development of party systems and citizen participation and evolving role of Congress, presidency and courts. Not open to students who have taken POLSC 11100.
prereq or coreq: ENGL 12000 or its equivalent
3 hrs 3 cr.

One Course in Economic Analysis

ECO 20000 - Principles of Microeconomics

GER 2/B
May be taken prior to or concurrently with ECO 20100. Determination of prices and quantities of goods and services, including labor and other resources; competitive and imperfect markets; public policy implications.

prereq: MATH 10100 or exemption from the course
3 hrs 3 cr.

One Course in Quantitative Analysis

ECO 22100 - Economic Statistics

GER 1/B
Probability and statistics in the context of economics, business and public policy; data analysis, probability distributions, and hypothesis testing.

prereq: MATH 12500 or exemption from the course
3 hrs 3 cr.

POLSC 20600 - Research Design in Political Science (W)

GER 3/B
Public opinion surveys, content analysis, legislative roll-call analysis, census data, election returns. Introduction to statistics. Uses Social Science Data Lab.

prereq: passing college proficiency exam in math or perm instr; ENGL 12000 or its equivalent
3 hrs 3 cr.

SOC 24000 - Introduction to Research Methods

GER 3/B
Discussion of various research techniques and strategies including the survey method, field research, experiments, and content analysis. Firsthand involvement in the collection of quantitative data.

prereq: SOC 10100
3 hrs 3 cr.

STAT 21300 - Introduction to Applied Statistics

GER 1/B

prereq: MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
3 hrs 3 cr.

One Course in Normative, Ethical, and Value Analysis. Such courses include but are not limited to:
PHILO 10600 - Philosophy, Politics and Society

GER 2/C PD/D
Introduction to social and political philosophy.
3 hrs 3 cr.
offered each semester

PHILO 24400 - Moral Philosophy (W)

GER 3/A
Study of selected problems in philosophical ethics and moral psychology.
prereq: ENGL 12000 and one previous course in philosophy.
3 hrs 3 cr.

PHILO 10400 - Introduction to Ethics

GER 2/C
Examination of standards of right conduct and the good life through study of selected philosophical classics.
3 hrs 3 cr.
offered each semester

SOC 21800 - Social Inequality

GER 3/B
Examination of social inequality in contemporary society from various empirical and theoretical perspectives focusing on class, ethnic, gender, and other determinants of stratification.
prereq: SOC 10100
3 hrs 3 cr.

POLSC 31100 - Utopian Theory (W)

GER 3/B
Political theorists often imagine ideal worlds, both to explore ideals and to criticize political realities. This course will explore utopias and dystopias as theories that explore political possibilities and challenge existing realities.
prereq: ENGL 12000 or its equivalent; one course in political theory or perm dept.
3 hrs 3 cr.

POLSC 30500 - Democratic Theory (W)

GER 3/B
A critical survey of different conceptions of democracy: issues include democracy as a political order, democracy and 'non-political' forms of life (e.g., business, family, religion), toleration, political representation, democracy and justice.
prereq or coreq: ENGL 12000 or its equivalent; one course in political theory or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

Substantive Policy Specialization

For the Public Policy Certificate each student will take the 6 core courses (18 credits) and will be required to declare a substantive area of specialization comprised of 3 courses (9 credits) of additional course work. These may be grounded in a particular discipline or disciplines. Or a student may use the substantive specialization to take advantage of clusters of expertise that exist across several Hunter departments. Examples of the latter include (but are not limited to) immigration, health, aging, gender studies, macroeconomics, public finance, economic development, race and ethnicity, public law, human rights, ethics, international relations, international trade, education, urban affairs, environmental studies, employment, and social services. Courses designated for the substantive specialization need approval by the faculty advisor.

Additional Opportunities

Hunter College offers other unique opportunities to its students. These options are designed to enrich the student experience in policy curriculum.

Generic Policy Courses

Advanced courses which build on the knowledge and skills acquired in the core courses and are applicable to students in a wide range of substantive specializations.

Internships

Undergraduate internship programs currently exist in a number of academic departments which are designed to give students a chance to work in a policy-related institutional setting outside the university, either in a government agency, nonprofit, think tank, or advocacy group. Some carry compensation, others are voluntary.

Policy Colloquia

A colloquium series will be launched at Roosevelt House that will allow students and faculty to come together several times a semester to discuss public policy issues. Guest speakers, including scholars and practitioners, with relevant expertise will be invited to discuss topics of the day either individually or in panels.

Courses in Thomas Hunter Honors Program

Thomas Hunter Honors Program

The interdisciplinary Thomas Hunter Honors Program provides some outstanding undergraduate students with a course of study suited to their individual needs and interests. Students selected for the Thomas Hunter Honors Program must show evidence of high academic potential, interdisciplinary interests and intellectual curiosity, as well as the willingness to explore unfamiliar fields and to accept challenges.

Students may apply for admission to the program on their own or they may be invited to participate in recognition of their outstanding academic records. Many graduates of the Thomas Hunter Honors Program go on to PhD programs in the various arts and sciences, or to law, medical and other professional schools. Others choose careers in a wide variety of professional, artistic and business fields.

College Requirements

The Thomas Hunter Honors Program requires that students maintain breadth in their programs, create a significant pattern of courses in at least two academic areas of investigation (Humanities and Arts, Social Sciences, Sciences and Mathematics), including at least one laboratory science course. All programs must be approved every semester by a Council adviser.

Students must also fulfill the following graduation requirements: ENGL 120; Pluralism and Diversity; and, for those entering Hunter in fall 2001 or later, the Foreign Language Requirement. Note that all colloquia in the 200 or 300 series are “W” courses.

Major

Students in the Thomas Hunter Honors Program who wish to design an interdisciplinary major for themselves may do so in consultation with the appropriate Council adviser. The final transcript of such students designates the major as “Special Honors Curriculum.” Most students in the Thomas Hunter Honors Program, however, elect to fulfill the requirements for one or more specific departmental majors. These students abide by departmental criteria for the major, and are expected to pursue departmental honors in their major. Their final transcript records the major as Special Honors Curriculum/Specific Department. Whatever their major concentration, all students in the Program must also successfully complete three special interdisciplinary honors colloquia (see further on) and maintain a cumulative grade point average of 3.5 or better until their final certification into the Program. Certification usually occurs in the student’s junior year, when the Council, ruling on each case individually, decides that the student’s continuing academic distinction, commitment to interdisciplinary work, and promise of future productivity warrant permanent membership in the Thomas Hunter Honors Program.

Thomas Hunter Honors Program students meet regularly in 200-level and 300-level colloquia, led by members of the Council on Honors and by other invited members of the faculty. Students take a minimum of three colloquia, one of which must be at the 200-level, and one of which must be at the 300-level. While the specific content of these courses varies from semester to semester, the underlying principles remain the same.

The 200-level colloquium is taught by one professor, often a member of the Council on Honors, who studies a specific theme using the materials and methodologies of at least two disciplines. Students may take more than one of these colloquia if they so desire, but at least one must be taken during their first year in the Program. The 300-level honors colloquia are special seminars, usually conducted by two professors, devoted to topics lending themselves to broad interdisciplinary investigation.

The colloquia offer breadth of exposure, but, even more importantly, they seek to demonstrate how knowledge gained from a variety of disciplines can be related and integrated in an effort to understand complex processes and phenomena. In all colloquia, students write at least one major paper, in which they apply the methodology of the course to material of particular interest to them.
Upon completion of 90 credits, Thomas Hunter Honors students may also be admitted by the Council to Advanced Interdisciplinary Studies, with the opportunity of engaging in advanced independent study under the Council’s supervision. A thesis or other appropriate report of the results of the student’s research is presented to the Council.

CUNY Policy on Academic Integrity

CUNY POLICY ON ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Academic Dishonesty is prohibited in The City University of New York and is punishable by penalties, including failing grades, suspension, and expulsion, as provided herein.

I. Definitions and Examples of Academic Dishonesty

Cheating is the unauthorized use or attempted use of material, information, notes, study aids, devices or communication during an academic exercise.

The following are some examples of cheating, but by no means is it an exhaustive list:

- Copying from another student during an examination or allowing another to copy your work.
- Unauthorized collaboration on a take home assignment or examination.
- Using notes during a closed book examination.
- Taking an examination for another student, or asking or allowing another student to take an examination for you.
- Changing a graded exam and returning it for more credit.
- Submitting substantial portions of the same paper to more than one course without consulting with each instructor.
- Preparing answers or writing notes in a blue book (exam booklet) before an examination.
- Allowing others to research and write assigned papers or do assigned projects, including use of commercial term paper services.
- Giving assistance to acts of academic misconduct/ dishonesty.
- Fabricating data (all or in part).
- Submitting someone else’s work as your own.
- Unauthorized use during an examination of any electronic devices such as cell phones, palm pilots, computers or other technologies to retrieve or send information.

Plagiarism is the act of presenting another person’s ideas, research or writings as your own.

The following are some examples of plagiarism, but by no means is it an exhaustive list:

- Copying another person’s actual words without the use of quotation marks and footnotes attributing the words to their source.
- Presenting another person’s ideas or theories in your own words without acknowledging the source.
- Using information that is not common knowledge without acknowledging the source.
- Failing to acknowledge collaborators on homework and laboratory assignments.

Internet plagiarism includes submitting downloaded term papers or parts of term papers, paraphrasing or copying information from the internet without citing the source, and “cutting & pasting” from various sources without proper attribution.

Obtaining Unfair Advantage is any activity that intentionally or unintentionally gives a student an unfair advantage in his/her academic work over another student.

The following are some examples of obtaining an unfair advantage, but by no means it is an exhaustive list:
• Stealing, reproducing, circulating or otherwise gaining advance access to examination materials.
• Depriving other students of access to library materials by stealing, destroying, defacing, or concealing them.
• Retaining, using or circulating examination materials which clearly indicate that they should be returned at the end of the exam.
• Intentionally obstructing or interfering with another student’s work.

Falsification of Records and Official Documents
The following are some examples of falsification, but by no means is it an exhaustive list:
• Forging signatures of authorization.
• Falsifying information on an official academic record.
• Falsifying information on an official document such as a grade report, letter of permission, drop/add form, ID card or other college document.

Adapted with permission from Baruch College: A Faculty Guide to Student Academic Integrity. The Baruch College document includes excerpts from University of California’s web page entitled “The Academic Dishonesty Question: A Guide to an Answer through Education, Prevention, Adjudication and Obligation” by Prof. Harry Nelson.

II. METHODS FOR PROMOTING ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

• Orientation sessions for all new faculty (full and part-time) and students should incorporate a discussion of academic integrity. Packets containing information explaining the policy, the procedures that are in place, and examples of infractions should be distributed. These packets should be readily available, throughout the academic year, in the appropriate offices of the college and the locations of those offices should be widely publicized.

• All college catalogs, student handbooks, and college websites should include the CUNY and college academic integrity policy and the consequences of not adhering to it. The Policy on Academic Integrity, as adopted by the Board, shall be distributed to all students. All syllabi and schedules of classes should make reference to the CUNY and college’s academic integrity policy and where they are published in full.

• A “Faculty Report” form should be used throughout the University to report incidents of suspected academic dishonesty. (Sample attached) It is strongly recommended that the faculty member should report all such incidents by completing and submitting the form to the chief student affairs officer, the Academic Integrity Committee if the college has established one (see recommendation below), or other appropriate academic integrity official whom the college may designate (collectively referred to hereinafter as the “Academic Integrity Official”). A follow-up form should be submitted to the student’s academic integrity file by the adjudicating person or body once the suspected incident has been resolved pursuant to one of the methods described below. Although forms need not be uniform across the university, they need to be uniform within each college. The form should provide at least minimal information such as the name of the instructor and student, course name and number, date of incident, explanation of incident and the instructor’s telephone/email contact information; it should be easy to use and process. Except as otherwise provided in the The CUNY Procedures, the Academic Integrity Official of each college should retain the forms for the purposes of identifying repeat offenders, gathering data, and assessing and reviewing policies.

• CUNY will develop a website on Academic Integrity. This website will include suggestions for faculty, students and administrators to reduce cheating or plagiarism, resources on academic integrity and links to relevant sites. Future plans also include the development of an online training program to raise awareness about academic integrity.

- The Committee recommends that this CUNY Policy on Academic Integrity, dated Spring 2004, be adopted by the Board of Trustees.
- Colleges should adopt the “PEN” (Pending) grade to facilitate the implementation of the Procedures for Imposition of Sanctions. This grade already exists in the university’s Glossary of Grades.
- Colleges may wish to consider issuing a Student Guide to Academic Integrity. An excellent example is a document that students at Baruch College developed called “Student Guide to Academic Integrity at Baruch College”. The Guide is in its final stages of approval.
- Each college should consider joining the Center for Academic Integrity.
- Colleges should consider subscribing to an electronic plagiarism detection service. Any college that does subscribe must notify every student each semester of the fact that such a service is available for use by the faculty.
- Colleges should consider establishing an Academic Integrity Committee, to serve in lieu of grade appeals committees in cases of academic dishonesty, which would hear and decide contested grade reductions that faculty members award because of students’ violations of the Academic Integrity Policy and collect and maintain files of Faculty Report forms of suspected and adjudicated violations of the Academic Integrity Policy.
- Establish a mechanism for preventing students from dropping a class in order to avoid an investigation and/or imposition of a sanction for a violation of academic integrity.

III. PROCEDURES FOR IMPOSITION OF SANCTIONS FOR VIOLATIONS OF CUNY POLICY ON ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

A. Introduction
As a legal matter, in disciplining students for violations of policies of academic integrity, CUNY, as a public institution, must conform to the principles of due process mandated by the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution -- generally speaking, to provide notice of the charges and some opportunity to be heard. In the context of court-litigated violations, questions as to how much and what kind of process was “due” turn on the courts’ judgment whether the decision on culpability was “disciplinary” (a question of fact) or “academic” (a question of the instructor’s expert judgment). This distinction has proved difficult to apply on campus. Accordingly, these procedures provide for alternative approaches depending on the severity of the sanction(s) being sought. If the instructor desires solely an “academic” sanction, that is, a grade reduction, less process is due than if a “disciplinary” sanction, such as suspension or expulsion, is sought.

A faculty member who suspects that a student has committed a violation of the CUNY or the college Academic Integrity Policy shall review with the student the facts and circumstances of the suspected violation whenever possible. The decision whether to seek an academic sanction only, rather than a disciplinary sanction or both types of sanctions, will rest with the faculty member in the first instance, but the college retains the right to bring disciplinary charges against the student. Among the factors the college should consider in determining whether to seek a disciplinary sanction are whether the student has committed one or more prior violations of the Academic Integrity Policy and mitigating circumstances if any. It is strongly recommended that every instance of suspected violation should be reported to the Academic Integrity Official on a form provided by the college as described in the third Recommendation for Promoting Academic Integrity, above. Among other things, this reporting will allow the college to determine whether it wishes to seek a disciplinary sanction even where the instructor may not wish to do so.

B. Procedures In Cases Where The Instructor Seeks An Academic Sanction Only

1. Student Accepts Guilt And Does Not Contest The Academic Sanction

If the faculty member wishes to seek only an academic sanction (i.e., a reduced grade only), and the student does not contest either his/her guilt or the particular reduced grade the faculty member has chosen, then the student shall be given the reduced grade, unless the college decides to seek a disciplinary sanction, see Section I above and IV below. The reduced grade may apply to the particular assignment as to which the violation occurred or to the course grade, at the faculty member’s discretion.

2. Student Denies Guilt And/Or Contests The Academic Sanction

If the student denies guilt or contests the particular grade awarded by the faculty member, then the matter shall be handled using the college’s grade appeals process, including departmental grading committees where applicable, or the Academic Integrity Committee. In either case, the process must, at a minimum, provide the student with an opportunity to be heard and to present evidence.

C. Procedures In Cases Where A Disciplinary Sanction Is Sought

1. A reduced grade can be an “F,” a “D-,” or another grade that is lower than the grade that would have been given but for the violation.

If a faculty member suspects a violation and seeks a disciplinary sanction, the faculty member shall refer the matter to the college’s Academic Integrity Official using the Faculty Report form, as described in the third Recommendation for Promoting Academic Integrity above, to be adjudicated by the college’s Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee under Article 15 of the CUNY Bylaws. As provided for therein, the Faculty-Student Disciplinary may, among other things, investigate, conciliate, or hear evidence on cases in which disciplinary charges are brought. Under certain circumstances, college officials other than the Academic Integrity Official may seek disciplinary sanctions following the procedures outlined above. For the reasons discussed in Item IV below, if a reduced grade is also at issue, then that grade should be held in abeyance, pending the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee’s action.

D. Procedures In Cases In Which Both A Disciplinary And An Academic Sanction Are Sought

If a faculty member or the college seeks to have both a disciplinary and an academic sanction imposed, it is not advisable to proceed on both fronts simultaneously lest inconsistent results ensue. Thus, it is best to begin with the disciplinary proceeding seeking imposition of a disciplinary sanction and await its outcome before addressing the academic sanction. If the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee finds that the alleged violation occurred, then the faculty member may reflect that finding in the student’s grade. If the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee finds that the alleged violation did not occur, then no sanction of any kind may be imposed. The decision whether to pursue both types of sanctions will ordinarily rest with the faculty member.

E. Reporting Requirements

1. By The Faculty Member To The Academic Integrity Official

In cases where a violation of academic integrity has been found to have occurred (whether by admission or a fact-finding process), the faculty member should promptly file with the Academic Integrity Official a report of the adjudication in writing on a Faculty Report form (see sample attached) provided by the college as described above. The Academic Integrity Official shall maintain a confidential file for each student about whom a suspected or adjudicated violation is reported.
If either the grade appeals process or the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee finds that no violation occurred, the Academic Integrity Official shall remove and destroy all material relating to that incident from the student’s confidential academic integrity file. Before determining what sanction(s) to seek, the faculty member or the Academic Integrity Official may consult the student’s confidential academic integrity file, if any, to determine whether the student has been found to have previously committed a violation of the Academic Integrity Policy, the nature of the infraction, and the sanction imposed or action taken.
2. By the Academic Integrity Official To the Faculty Member Where a matter proceeds to the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee, the Academic Integrity Official shall promptly report its resolution to the faculty member and file a record of the resolution in the student’s confidential academic integrity file, unless, as indicated above, the suspected violation was held to be unfounded, in which case all reporting forms concerning that suspected violation shall be destroyed.

Public Safety and Emergencies

In order to provide a safe and secure environment, the Hunter College campuses are monitored 24 hours a day by members of the Department of Public Safety. Public Safety personnel are available to provide assistance with public safety, security and health emergencies at all times. In the event of an emergency, Public Safety can be reached in the following manner:

Emergencies: Located throughout the main campus and Brookdale are silver wall mounted boxes marked “Emergency.” These boxes are known as “Talk Alerts” and pushing the call button on the box will connect you directly to the public safety desk. You may also dial 4444 from any interior campus telephone, or dial (212) 772-4444 from your cellular telephone.

Please remember to please state your emergency and your location on campus. Below are emergency and non-emergency phone numbers for specific campus sites. Note: The new Lois V. and Samuel Silberman School of Social Work/CUNY School of Public Health at Hunter College building is located at 2180 Third Avenue New York, N.Y.

Disclaimers and Statement of Rights

Return to General Information

Notice of Possible Changes

The Board of Trustees of The City University of New York reserves the right to make changes of any nature in the academic programs and requirements of The City University of New York and its constituent colleges. All programs, requirements, and courses are subject to termination or change without advance notice. Tuition and fees set forth in this publication are similarly subject to change by the Board of Trustees of The City University of New York.

The course descriptions in this catalog summarize the full, official descriptions authorized by the Hunter College Senate. Full descriptions are available in the appropriate school and department offices. Hunter College reserves the right to change rules, policies, fees, and curricula without advance notice.
STATEMENT OF NONDISCRIMINATION Hunter College is an Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action Institution. The college does not discriminate on the basis of age, sex, sexual orientation, transgender, religion, race, color, alienage, citizenship status, national or ethnic origin, physical or mental disability, genetic predisposition or carrier status, veteran or marital status in its student admissions, employment, access to programs, and administration of educational policies.

Dean John T. Rose is the college officer responsible for affirmative action matters. He is also the coordinator for Title IX, which prohibits sex discrimination in federally assisted education programs. His office is located in the Office of the President, 1706 Hunter East, (212) 772-4242.

Professor Tamara Green is the college Section 504 Coordinator for the Handicapped. Her office is located in 1425A Hunter West, (212) 772-5061.

Freedom of Information Law

Request to inspect public records at the college should be made to the Records Access Officer, Gail Aidinoff Scovell, Special Counsel to the President, who is located at the Hunter College Legal Office, 695 Park Avenue, 1705 Hunter East, (212) 772-4220. Public records are available for inspection and copying by appointment only at a location to be designated. You have a right to appeal a denial of a request for access to records to the CUNY Senior Vice Chancellor for Legal Affairs and General Counsel. Copies of the CUNY Procedures for Public Access to Public Records Pursuant to Article 6 of the Public Officers Law and the appeal form are available at the reference desk of the library and on the college website.

Drug-Free Schools and Campuses, Public Law 101-226

Return to Public Safety, College Regulations and Policies

Hunter College is in compliance with the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989 (Public Law 101-226).

The New York State minimum drinking age (21 years) is observed at all campus functions. Proof of age is required to consume alcoholic beverages and no individual appearing to be under the influence of alcohol will be served.

All Hunter College organizations sponsoring events must, in advance of the event, agree to the following conditions:

1. No person shall sell or provide an alcoholic beverage to a person under the age of 21. Where documentation of age is unavailable or not reasonably certain, the law requires denial of an alcoholic beverage to that person.
2. No person shall sell or provide an alcoholic beverage to a person actually or apparently under the influence of alcohol.
3. No person shall sell or provide an alcoholic beverage to a person known to be a habitual excessive drinker.
4. All advertising, promotion, publicity, invitations, etc. stating the availability of alcoholic beverages at an event, must include the following statement:

The unlawful possession, use or distribution of drugs is prohibited on the campus. Violators will be subject to penalties ranging from reprimand and warning for a first infraction, to separation from the college for a subsequent offense.

Legal sanctions against students alleged to be in violation of Public Law 101-226 will be determined according to Article 15 Section 3 of the CUNY Board of Trustees Bylaws. Sanctions for members of the instructional staff and non-instructional staff will be governed by Article VII of the CUNY Board of Trustees Bylaws and Article XIV, respectively.

Assistance is available by calling:
The Hunter College Smoking Policy

Hunter College is a non-smoking environment (facility) pursuant to New York City Law.

Enrollment Requirements

Health Requirements

Prior to registration, the following health requirements must be met:

Immunizations for Measles, Mumps and Rubella Public Health Law 2165 requires college students to present a complete record of two live immunizations against measles and a single immunization against mumps and rubella. Students born on/or after January 1, 1957 must submit a complete immunization record signed by a health practitioner. Further information regarding health standards may be found in the Student Rights and Regulations section of this catalog.

Meningococcal Disease Public Health Law 2167 requires institutions, including colleges and universities, to distribute information about meningococcal disease and vaccination to all students meeting the enrollment criteria, whether they live on or off campus. Hunter College of the City University of New York is required to maintain a record of the following for each student: a) response to receipt of meningococcal disease and vaccine information signed by the student; b) record of meningococcal meningitis immunization within the past 10 years; or c) acknowledgment of meningococcal disease risks and refusal of meningococcal meningitis immunization signed by the student.

Please note that students will not be allowed to continue at Hunter if they are not compliant (have not handed in their Response Form) within 30 days from the first scheduled day of classes. To learn more about meningitis and the vaccine, please consult your physician. You can also find information about the disease at http://www.cdc.gov.

For more information and to download/print the Immunization Requirement Form please visit the forms and documents section of the Hunter College registrar’s web page at http://registrar.hunter.cuny.edu. The form must be returned to the Office of Health Services, Room 307 Hunter North. For updated office hours call (212) 772-4800.
Equal Employment Opportunity

Hunter College is committed to a policy of equal access and equal employment opportunity with regard to recruitment, hiring, and promotion. This policy requires that personnel decisions be made on the basis of employment qualifications without discrimination as to race, color, sex, age, religion, national origin, ancestry, lifestyle, sexual orientation, disability, or veteran status.

Title IX

Hunter College is committed to maintaining a fair and equal environment for both its employees and student body, consistent with the requirements of Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972, which state that:

No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or be subjected to, discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance…

Any individual who believes he or she has been discriminated against on the basis of gender in any area outside the purview of the Sexual Harassment Panel may direct all inquiries, concerns and complaints to Dean John T. Rose, Hunter’s Title IX Coordinator.

* These criteria are based on guidelines issued by the Office of Civil Rights, Department of Education.

Financial Aid

The Office of Financial Aid helps matriculated undergraduate students to gain access to funds in order to pay for their educational expenses at Hunter College. Federal and state aid funds are available to help pay for these expenses.

Financial Need

Return to Financial Aid

All funds from federal financial aid programs administered by the Office of Financial Aid are awarded on the basis of financial need, with the exception of the Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan and the Federal Direct PLUS (Parent) Loan.

When the student applies for federal student aid, the information that is reported on the FAFSA is used in a formula, established by the U. S. Dept. of Education and approved by the U.S. Congress, that calculates the Expected Family Contribution (EFC), the amount that the student and the student’s family are expected to contribute toward the student’s education.

There is not a maximum EFC that defines eligibility for the other financial aid programs. Instead, the EFC is used in an equation to determine financial need:

\[
\text{Cost of Attendance} - \text{Expected Family Contribution (EFC)} = \text{Financial Need}
\]

The Financial Aid Office subtracts the Expected Family Contribution (EFC) from the Cost of Attendance. The remainder is the student’s financial need. In determining the student’s need for aid from the federal financial aid programs, the Financial Aid Office must first consider other aid the student is expected to receive.

Finding Out About Hunter

Return to Admission to the College

The Admissions Office at Hunter College encourages all prospective students to meet with an admissions counselor to discuss their educational goals and opportunities at Hunter. Prospective students are also invited to visit the campus. Campus tours originate from the College Welcome Center, room 100 Hunter North. Please visit our Web site (www.hunter.cuny.edu and click on students) or call (212) 772-4490 for tour information.
Students who apply to Hunter College must file the CUNY undergraduate application, which is available online at www.cuny.edu. Applicants are notified by CUNY’s University Application Processing Center (UAPC) if additional information is necessary for the college to make an admission decision.

Freshmen and transfer students are encouraged to apply by February 1 for the fall semester and September 15 for the spring semester. There is no official closing deadline for applications. Applications are accepted and qualified applicants are offered admission throughout the year, space permitting. However, applicants who have had all or part of their education outside the United States should have a completed application on file by the aforementioned deadlines. All students should apply as early as possible to guarantee full consideration for admission and scholarship aid.

Fire Safety Plan

Return to Public Safety, College Regulations and Policies

No person should ever use an elevator in a fire unless so directed by Fire Department personnel. Using an elevator in a fire is extremely dangerous. The college has been informed by the Fire Department that the use of elevators in a fire has, in many cases, resulted in many unfortunate and unnecessary deaths.

The New York City Fire Department has informed Hunter College that the Fire Department has the primary responsibility to determine if elevators can be used to transport disabled persons during fire emergencies. Fire Department officials also state that they are responsible for relocating disabled persons to a safe location if such relocation is necessary.

The New York City Fire Department considers transporting disabled persons in an emergency a highly risky procedure. The relocation process may subject disabled persons and other persons to accidents and injuries. However, if it is necessary to relocate disabled persons during an emergency, the Fire Department will handle the relocation of disabled persons, using safe procedures and experienced Fire Department personnel.

If elevators can be used during a fire alarm the Fire Department considers use of the elevators to be the best method of relocation because it is practical, safe and efficient. This explains the Fire Department’s position of advocating emergency assembly areas for disabled persons. (The Fire Department often refers to this type of assembly area as a refuge area.)

When there is a report of a fire alarm in the building (note: The alarm may be a false alarm or the fire may be in a small section of the building) if disabled persons are not in any danger from the fire or its smoke, the Fire Department does not automatically recommend the relocation of disabled persons. In most cases, the Fire Department would not recommend that such persons be removed from the building. Instead, the Fire Department would recommend that such persons be moved to a safe location within the building.

Note: It is extremely important that the Hunter College community understand the procedure of the New York City Fire Department for evacuating a building that is experiencing a fire. Everyone in the building should not automatically be evacuated to the street. Nor should everyone be relocated within the building. This is the policy for ambulatory persons as well as non-ambulatory persons.

If you have any questions regarding the standards used to determine the need for evacuating the buildings, call the Director of Public Safety and Security at (212) 772-4521.

For Your Safety

The Hunter West Building is equipped with Fire Emergency notification devices. It is the responsibility of everyone to become familiar with their location and their use. These Fire Emergency notification devices consist of the following:

Fire Alarm
The Fire Alarm Pull Stations are small, red boxes. They are wall mounted and located next to a fire exit. Printed on these pull stations is PULL HERE IN CASE OF FIRE.

To activate the Fire Alarm Pull Station, follow these steps:

1. Pull down the RED lever on the Fire Alarm Pull Station box. This will cause the fire alarm to sound on the fire door and on the floor above. In addition, it will send a signal to the Fire Command Station. The Fire Safety Director at the Fire Command Station will carry out the fire emergency procedures. Make yourself familiar with them now, so that in an emergency you will know what to do.

2. During a fire alarm, Fire Wardens, Fire Searchers and Public Safety Officers have been directed to communicate the number, the location and the status of all disabled persons via Fire Warden phones to the Fire Command Station. The Fire Safety Director will notify members of the New York City Fire Department regarding the status of all disabled persons in the building as soon as the Fire Department arrives on campus.

Note: It is extremely important that the college community understand the protocol of the New York City Fire Department for evacuation of a building that is experiencing a fire. Everyone in the building should not automatically be evacuated to the outside, or, for that matter, be relocated within the building. This is the policy for ambulatory persons as well as non-ambulatory persons.

Instructions for Fire Reporting and Evacuation Procedure

A. If you see a fire, do the following:

1. Call the Fire Department (911), or
2. Call the Public Safety Emergency Number (Security) (212) 772-4444, or
3. Pull the fire alarm.
4. Then, follow the procedures below:

B. Procedures

1. Evacuate your area.
2. Close, but do not lock, doors.
3. Follow instructions transmitted over the public address system.
4. Proceed to evacuate the building through designated exits.
5. Evacuate to street if not directed otherwise over the public address system.
6. Before entering any stairwell, touch the door with the palm of your hand. If it is warm or hot, do not enter the stairwell. Proceed to the next stairwell.
7. When leaving the building keep your head turned to the center of the stairway.
9. It is dangerous to use elevators during an evacuation. Only use elevators when authorized to do so by fire emergency personnel.
10. When using the down escalators, make long and wide turns going from one escalator to the next escalator in order to prevent congestion.
11. When you are outside the building, move away from the entrance approximately 200 feet.
12. Wait for the all-clear signal before re-entering the building.

Fire Safety Plan for the Disabled

When there is a fire alarm in one of the college’s buildings disabled persons who are unable to walk down steps should assemble at one of the Disabled Persons Fire Emergency Assembly Areas (DPFEAA).

These areas are located on every floor of Hunter’s four buildings in the immediate vicinity of each building’s elevators. They are near the two stairwells closest to the elevators. The areas are identified by wall signs that identify the area as a Disabled Persons Fire Emergency Assembly Area.

During a fire alarm, fire wardens, fire searchers and security personnel have been directed to communicate the number, the location and the status of all disabled persons via Fire Warden Phones or through security personnel to Hunter College’s Fire Command Station. The public safety person at the Fire Command Station will notify members of the New York City Fire Department of the status of all disabled persons in the building as soon as the firefighters arrive on the campus.

When Public Safety Offices Will Relocate Disabled Persons if, for any reason, a disabled person is in imminent danger due to fire, smoke or similar circumstances on campus and members of the Fire Department are not present to relocate the disabled person, Public Safety Officers and other members of the College Fire Brigade will assume the responsibility of relocating that person to a safe location.

Public Safety Officers and members of the Fire Brigade operating under the direction of the Fire Safety Director will take command and make immediate arrangements to have the appropriate disabled person(s) moved to a safe location if necessary.

Note: The Public Safety Officer in charge of the evacuation process will determine the number of carriers needed to relocate a disabled person. Factors to be considered when making these assignments will be the weight of the disabled person, the weight of the wheelchair, the width of the staircase and any other factors that are deemed necessary to successfully carry out these functions without accidents.

This Fire Safety Plan for the Disabled is established to provide for the safety of the disabled members of the Hunter College community and disabled visitors to the college in the event of a fire or other life-threatening emergency. The plan will be implemented in any situation in which there may be a need to relocate disabled persons to a safe location.

The Fire Safety Plan for the Disabled identifies the New York City Fire Department as the agency having the primary responsibility for relocating any disabled person from an endangered floor to a safe location. However, if the Fire Department or other New York City emergency agency response is not exercised in a timely fashion and the situation requires immediate removal of disabled persons, Public Safety and Security Personnel will transport such individual or individuals to a safe location.

The Fire Safety Plan for the Disabled is a part of the Hunter College Fire Safety Plan. All faculty, staff and students are advised to read and be fully familiar with the entire Fire Safety Plan.

Orientation

1. Orientation to the Fire Safety Plan, including the relocation procedures, will be provided for disabled faculty, students and staff yearly under the auspices of the 504 Committee.
2. Orientation for new disabled students will be included in the orientation program for entering freshmen.
3. Instructions regarding the Fire Safety Plan and Relocation Procedures will be included in the regularly conducted fire drills.

Disabled Person Precautions

1. Remain calm. Your safety and the security of others depend on the absence of panic.
2. Before entering any stairwell, touch the door leading into the stairwell. If the door is warm or hot, do not open or enter the stairwell. Proceed to the next stairwell.
3. If you cannot reach a stairwell near an elevator and you are in an office or classroom and have access to a phone, call Security at 772-4444. Disabled persons and persons who are trapped are the only persons who should call Public Safety during a fire emergency.
4. If you are in an area with a door and cannot reach an exit near the elevators, seal the crack around the door with rags or clothing.
5. Public Safety and Security has a chart indicating all the special rooms in the library designed for use by the disabled. These rooms will be checked during a fire emergency.

What Emergency Personnel Will Do

1. The person who searches the floor will report your location to the fire command station. The fire command station will inform the Fire Department of your location.
2. If you are in need of relocation and the Fire Department is not available to relocate you, a member of the Public Safety and Security Department will relocate you to a safe location.
3. If necessary, you will be relocated to a safe floor or taken out of the building.
Locating Disabled Persons

1. Public Safety maintains class schedules for disabled students and work schedules for disabled faculty and staff. These schedules will be used to assist emergency personnel to locate disabled persons in an emergency.

2. Students are responsible for reporting their class schedules, their work schedules and schedule changes to the Coordinator for Disabled Student Services (Room 1100 Hunter East).

3. Disabled faculty and staff are responsible for reporting their work schedules and schedule changes to the director of personnel (Room 1502A Hunter East).

Special Instructions for the handling of Disabled Persons

Person Who Is Visually Impaired

A disabled person who is visually impaired and has to be relocated, but is able to walk downstairs, will be personally escorted to a safe location by a Public Safety Officer, a Fire Warden, a Fire Searcher, or a member of the college Fire Brigade.

Person Who Has a Hearing Impairment

A person who has a hearing impairment will be alerted to a fire alarm by a Public Safety Officer, a Fire Warden, a Fire Searcher, or a member of the College Fire Brigade. Those disabled persons will be escorted to a safe location if necessary.

Special Caution on Lifting and Carrying Disabled Persons

Before lifting any disabled person, carriers will, if possible, ask the disabled person how they should be lifted. Disabled persons know better than anyone else how they should be lifted or carried in order to avoid any unnecessary injuries to the disabled person.

Hunter North-Special Instructions

1. In Hunter North, go to the area near the Fire Tower. The entrance to the Fire Tower is located at the north end of the west corridor (the corridor parallel to Park Avenue).

2. Do not enter the Fire Tower stairwell unless the major portion of the college community has completed its descent.

Responsibility for Implementation

The director of the Department of Public Safety is responsible for the implementation of the Fire Safety Plan.

Distribution

The Fire Safety Plan for Disabled Persons will be distributed to all faculty, students and staff who have identified themselves as disabled. The Fire Safety Plan for the Disabled will be distributed with the Hunter College Fire Safety Plan.

If you have any questions regarding the various parameters used to evaluate the necessity of evacuation, please consult with the fire safety director at Ext. 4521.

Freshman Admission

Return to Admission to the College
Freshman admission to Hunter College is competitive. Applicants are considered for admission on the basis of the overall strength of their academic preparation, which includes SAT/ACT scores, high school academic average, the number of academic subjects and the distribution of those courses. A diploma from an accredited high school, an equivalency diploma or a United States Armed Forces diploma is also required for entrance to the college. Neither a high school certificate nor an IEP diploma is acceptable.

Academic Preparation

The best preparation for success at Hunter College is a full program of college-preparatory courses. The college recommends four years of English, four years of social studies, three years of mathematics, two years of foreign language, two years of laboratory science and one year of performing or visual arts.

In addition to providing a strong foundation for college-level coursework, the program recommended above fulfills the 16 units of high school work in academic courses required for admission to a CUNY senior college under the College Preparatory Initiative (CPI). High school students should check with guidance counselors to determine which courses are considered to be academically within the English, mathematics, science, social science, foreign language and fine and performing arts curricula.

Advanced Placement and College-Level Courses

Students who have had an Advanced Placement (AP) course in secondary school and who pass the Advanced Placement Tests of the College Entrance Examination Board with grades of 5 or 4 (high honors or honors) are in most cases exempt from taking a corresponding course or equivalent requirement at Hunter. Those who are similarly prepared but whose scores are 3 (creditable) may also be exempt from a corresponding course at Hunter, provided the appropriate Hunter department so recommends.

A maximum of 30 credits can be awarded by examination through the following programs: College Entrance Examination Board Advanced Placement (AP), College-level Examination Program (CLEP) and Regents College Examinations (RCE). Certain academic departments may have restrictions on the award of credits by examination. Check with the department and see the Office of Admissions Web site for additional information.

Students who have completed college-level coursework offered by an accredited senior or community college while in high school will receive credit for courses in which grades of C or better are earned. Official college transcripts must be submitted to the Office of Admissions for credit to be awarded.

Health Care Preparation Program

Post-Baccalaureate Certificate Program in Health Careers Preparation

Admission Criteria

We encourage prospective students who meet the admission criteria to apply to our certificate program. All applicants must:

- Hold a baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution with a minimum overall GPA of 3.00 (students with undergraduate degrees in progress are not eligible to apply).
- Apply for admission to City University of New York (CUNY), Hunter College.
- Submit a completed Post-Baccalaureate Certificate Program supplemental application.
- Demonstrate their commitment to a career in the health professions through paid or volunteer experience.

Application Procedures

Admission to the program is limited to the fall semester. Application to the program is a two-step process. Applicants must refer to the CUNY Application Portal (https://portal.cuny.edu/id/cuny/documents/informationpage/006373.htm) to apply for admission using an undergraduate application to CUNY, Hunter College. All students in the Post-Baccalaureate Certificate Program must apply as transfer students. The 4-digit code for Hunter's Post-Baccalaureate Certificate Program is 0339, and this must be selected in order for the student to be considered for the program. All students must submit their official transcripts directly to CUNY through the CUNY Application Portal. High school transcripts are NOT required. For the second step of the process, prospective students must also submit a supplemental application directly to the Pre-Health Advising Office at Hunter College. The supplemental application is completed electronically and is available on the Pre-Health website in mid-fall.

The Admissions Committee may also request an interview and/or letters of recommendation from applicants sometime after the supplemental application has been submitted. For detailed, step-by-step instructions for completing the application procedures, please refer to the Prospective Post-Baccalaureate Student section of the Pre-Health Website at http://www.hunter.cuny.edu/prehealth/prospective-post-baccalaureate-students/information-for-prospective-post-baccalaureate-students

Deadlines

Both CUNY and supplemental applications must be received (by CUNY and the Hunter College Pre-Health Office) by December 1 of each year to be considered for admission to the Program in the fall. Applications received after December 1 will not be considered.

Program Requirements

To complete the Program, all Post-Baccalaureate Certificate students starting in fall 2010 and after must:

- Complete one year of college-level English. This requirement can be fulfilled by undergraduate transfer credit and/or by taking courses at Hunter College.
- Complete one year of college-level mathematics beyond pre-calculus. This requirement can also be fulfilled by undergraduate transfer credit and/or by taking courses at Hunter. There are two ways to fulfill this requirement at Hunter:
  1. MATH 15000 (calculus) and MATH 15500 (calculus II)
  2. MATH 15000 (calculus) and STAT 21300 (STAT 113 does not fulfill this requirement)

- Complete 38 credits in science (biology, chemistry or physics) at Hunter College.
- Maintain a 3.3 GPA for every semester in the program with no individual course grade below B-.
- Provide 56 hours of service to the Hunter College Community during their time in the program. Tutoring in science courses, mentoring undergraduate students, and assisting with activities sponsored by the Pre-Health Advising Office are examples of activities that fulfill the service commitment requirements.
- Obtain a committee letter from the Pre-Health Advisory Committee at Hunter College.

Courses and Requirements

The exact titles and sequence of courses for Post-Baccalaureate students depend on their individual academic needs and availability of courses at Hunter College each semester. Students typically take 9–12 credits of mathematics/science per semester but individual students' course loads can vary depending on their schedules of extracurricular activities and other factors.

In addition to the mathematics and English requirements stated above, typical course work for pre-health students includes the following:

- One year of general biology with lab: BIOL 10000 and BIOL 10200 (4.5 credits each, including lab) offered in fall and spring semesters, respectively.
- One year of general chemistry with lab: CHEM 10200 and CHEM 10400 (lecture, 3 credits each) and CHEM 10600 (lab, 3 credits). CHEM 10400, which serves as a pre-requisite to CHEM 10600 may be taken concurrently to satisfy requirements.
- One year of Organic Chemistry lectures: CHEM 22200 and CHEM 22400 (4 credits each); and one year of Organic Chemistry labs: CHEM 22300 and CHEM 22500 (2.5 credits each).
- One year of general physics with lab: PHYS 11100 and PHYS 12000 (4.5 credits each, including lab).
Additional Courses

Students may use classes from the following list of upper division biology and chemistry courses to fulfill the requirements for the program:

Courses

BIOL 30000 - Biological Chemistry

GER 3/B
Molecular aspects of cellular function; properties of biomolecules, their biosynthesis and breakdown; structure and function of proteins and enzymes, metabolites, membranes and nucleic acids; cellular mechanisms of energy transduction; integration and control of cell metabolism. Experiments cover a variety of modern techniques in molecular biology.

Material Fee: $10

prereq: BIOL 20200, CHEM 22200, 22300 coreq: CHEM 22400

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.

fall only

BIOL 30200 - Molecular Genetics

GER 3/B
A comparison of viral, procaryotic and eukaryotic systems; review of classical Mendelian principles; bacterial DNA replication, transcription and their control; mechanisms of gene mutation, repair, recombination and transposition; applications of recombinant DNA technology; organization of nucleic acid into chromosomes; control of gene expression, the cell cycle and cell development in eucaryotes.

Material Fee: $10

prereq: BIOL 30000

7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.

spring only

BIOL 30600 - Developmental Biology

GER 3/B
Major topics include molecular and cellular mechanisms of early embryonic development in amphibians, mammals and model organisms such as Drosophila, as well as the related subjects of vertebrate organ system development, biology of stem cells and animal cloning. Emphasis is placed on seminal and current research in cell-cell communication, signal transduction and differential gene regulation in developmental processes.

prereq: BIOL 30000

3 hrs (lec) 3 cr.

fall only

BIOL 35000 - The Biology of Cancer

GER 3/B
When a normal cell becomes a cancer cell there are genetic changes that occur that alter the biology of the cell such that it behaves independent of its neighbors. This course will investigate the altered biology of cancer cells that lead to uncontrolled proliferation and cancer. Topics include: cell culture, the cell cycle, hormones, receptors, intracellular signal transduction, oncogenes, tumor suppressor genes, apoptosis, metastasis, and the etiology of human cancer.

prereq: BIOL 20000, 30000, or perm instr.
BIOL 36000 - Cellular and Molecular Immunology

GER 3/B
Study of the immune system from a molecular perspective. Molecular genetics of antibody and T cell receptor diversity, hematopoiesis and lymphocyte development, humoral and cellular immunity, histocompatibility.

prereq or coreq: BIOL 30000, perm instr.
4 hrs (3 lec, 1 disc) 3.5 cr.
fall only

BIOL 37000 - Physiology of the Nervous System

GER 3/B
A comprehensive introduction to neuroscience. Topics include how nerve cells (neurons) transmit electrical impulses, how neurons communicate with each other through synapses and how nerve pathways and networks determine many functions of the brain. The last portion of the course shall explore how developing neurons seek out targets and establish synapses.

prereq: BIOL 30000 or perm instr.
4 hrs (lec) 4 cr.
spring only

BIOL 37500 - Molecular Systematics

GER 3/B
An overview of the various methods and kinds of data used in systematics, the study of organism diversity and biological relationships. Emphasis is on modern molecular and genetic approaches to identification of individual species and strains and full phylogenetic analyses of suites of species to determine their evolutionary history. The knowledge base is provided for experimental investigation of questions of current interest in phylogeny and population biology.

prereq: BIOL 30000 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.

BIOL 37600 - Endocrinology

GER 3/B
Cellular organization of the endocrine system; molecular mechanisms of hormone action; hormonal physiology of metabolism and reproduction; integration of endocrine responses by the central nervous system.

prereq: BIOL 20200 or perm instr.
3 hrs (lec) 3 cr.
spring only

BIOL 38000 - Molecular Neurobiology

GER 3/B
Molecular components and molecular mechanisms involved in the cell biology of neurons and glia, neuronal signaling, neuronal development, learning, memory and diseases of the nervous system.

prereq: BIOL 30000 or perm instr.
3 lec hrs 3 cr.
fall alternate years
CHEM 37600 - Biochemistry I

GER 3/B
Chemical aspects of protein structure and function, fundamentals of bioenergetics, biochemical mechanisms of gene replication and expression.

prereq: CHEM 22400
4 hrs (3 lec, 1 rec) 3 cr.
offered fall

CHEM 37700 - Biochemistry II

GER 3/B
Biosynthesis of lipids, amino acids, carbohydrates. Muscle contraction, hormones, immune response, DNA sequencing.

prereq: CHEM 37600 or BIOL 30000 or perm instr.
3 hrs 3 cr.
offered spring

CHEM 37800 - Biochemistry Laboratory

GER 3/B
A set of laboratory experiments, performed by individual students, covering important areas of biochemistry such as protein analysis, enzyme purification, enzymatic assays, recombinant DNA and the polymerase chain reaction.

prereq: CHEM 22300 and CHEM 37600 or CHEM 64000
5 hrs (4 lab, 1 rec) 3 cr.

List of Minimum Pre-Health Course Requirements (with prerequisites)

One year of English (6 credits)

MATH 12500 - Precalculus

GER 1/B
Functions and their graphs: polynomial, rational, exponential, logarithmic and trigonometric functions; conic sections; topics in trigonometry; graphical and analytical solutions to systems of equations and inequalities. Not credited to students who have completed MATH 15000 or its equivalent.

prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 10100 or appropriate score on placement exam
4 hrs 4 cr.

(Placement testing and transfer credit will determine if you need this course or if you need to take another math course prior to pre-calculus)

One year of mathematics beyond precalculus, for example:

MATH 15000 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry I

GER 1/B
Limits, continuity, differentiation and integration of elementary functions and trigonometric functions, applications.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
4 hrs 4 cr.

-MATH 15500 - Calculus with Analytic Geometry II-

GER 1/B
Differentiation and integration of transcendental functions, integration techniques, infinite sequences and series, improper integrals, polar coordinates.
prereq: grade of C or better in MATH 15000
4 hrs 4 cr.

-STAT 21300 - Introduction to Applied Statistics-

GER 1/B

prereq: MATH 12500 or appropriate score on placement exam.
3 hrs 3 cr.

-BIOL 10000 - Principles of Biology I-

GER 2/E PD/C or D
The chemical basis of life; basic structure and function of pro- and eucaryotic cells; bioenergetics; Mendelian and molecular genetics; development and mechanisms of control of gene expression at all levels; population genetics and evolution.
Material Fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
prereq or coreq: MATH 12500 or equivalent
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.
fall only

-BIOL 10200 - Principles of Biology II-

GER 2/E PD/C or D
Taxonomy; homeostasis; internal transport and gas exchange in plants and animals; plant hormones; osmoregulation; mechanisms of action in the muscular, nervous and neuroendocrine systems; the senses, behavior; ecology.
Material fee: $5

PD credit awarded only upon completion of BIOL 10000 and 10200.
prereq: BIOL 10000 or perm instr, MATH 10100 or equiv.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 disc) 4.5 cr.

-CHEM 10200 - General Chemistry I-
GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to stoichiometric calculations, atomic and molecular structure and chemical bonding.
_Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors._
_prereq or coreq: MATH 12500, 12600 or equiv._
_5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr._

CHEM 10400 - General Chemistry II

GER 2/E
In-depth introduction to thermodynamics, redox reactions, electrochemistry and chemical equilibrium.
_Primarily for premed, medical laboratory sciences and science majors._
_prereq: CHEM 10200 or CHEM 10000 with perm chair_
_5 hrs (4 lec, 1 rec) 4 cr._

CHEM 10600 - General Chemistry Laboratory

GER 2/E
Experiments designed to illustrate the fundamental laws of chemistry. The course is equivalent one year of general chemistry laboratory.
_Credit not given for CHEM 10600 and CHEM 10300 or CHEM 10500. Primarily for pre-med, medical laboratory sciences and science majors._
_prereq: CHEM 10200_
_coreq: CHEM 10400_
_6 hrs 3 cr._

CHEM 22200 - Organic Chemistry Lecture I

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.
_prereq: CHEM 10400_
_5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr._

CHEM 22300 - Organic Chemistry Laboratory I

GER 3/B
Various organic syntheses, Distillation, distillation, extraction, chromatography, qualitative analysis, spectroscopy.
_prereq: CHEM 10500_
_prereq or coreq: CHEM 22200_
_5 hrs 2.5 cr._

CHEM 22400 - Organic Chemistry Lecture II

GER 3/B
Structure, bonding, and reactions of organic molecules. Synthesis, stereochemistry, spectroscopy, reaction mechanisms.
_prereq: prerequisites for CHEM 22400: CHEM 22200_
_5-6 hrs (4 lec, 1-2 recitation/workshop) 4 cr._

CHEM 22500 - Organic Chemistry Laboratory II
GER 3/B
Continuation of CHEM 22300.

prereq: CHEM 22200, 22300
prereq or coreq: CHEM 22400
5 hrs 2.5 cr

PHYS 11000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Mechanics, Heat, and Sound

GER 2/E
First semester of two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.
prereq: MATH 12500; pre-calculus or equiv. By math dept. exam.
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.

PHYS 12000 - General Physics: Introductory Course in Electricity and Magnetism, Light, and Atomic Physics

GER 2/E
Second semester of PHYS 11000, a two-semester introductory physics course using algebra.
prereq: PHYS 11000 or 11100
7 hrs (3 lec, 3 lab, 1 rec) 4.5 cr.

Note
Please refer to the Pre-Health Office website and publications for information regarding the specific coursework and extracurricular activities required by the individual health professional schools.

Time to Completion
Students must complete all of the required courses within 36 months in order to receive the certificate. A typical post-baccalaureate student completes the minimum coursework required to take standardized tests such as the MCAT or DAT within two years. However, many students go on to take additional upper division courses recommended by many health professional schools during the third (application) year. Decisions about professional school admissions are usually made one year after applications are submitted so most students apply to these schools after completing their second year in the Post-Baccalaureate Certificate Program, with the intention of matriculating a year later.

Health Regulations

Return to Public Safety, College Regulations and Policies

Health Standards The following are the general health standards for admission, readmission and continuing attendance at Hunter College:

1. The student’s health status shall not constitute a danger to any individual or group at Hunter College.
2. The health condition shall not be such that it may be aggravated or intensified by the demands of attendance at the college.
3. Any limitations of activity necessitated by a health problem shall be such that program adjustments will still enable the student to conform to the college’s academic requirements.

4. A student’s health status shall be such that the student may be expected to continue his or her college work, taking a reasonable number of hours on a continuing basis.

Immunizations Public Health Law 2165 requires college students to present a complete record of two live immunizations against measles and single immunization against mumps and rubella. Students born on or after January 1, 1957 must submit a complete immunization record signed by a health practitioner. Noncompliance will prohibit a student from registering for classes.

Meningococcal Disease Public Health Law 2167 requires institutions, including colleges and universities, to distribute information about meningococcal disease to all students meeting the enrollment criteria, whether they live on or off campus. Hunter College, CUNY, is required to maintain a record of the following for each student:

- A response to receipt of meningococcal disease and vaccine information signed by the student or student’s parent or guardian. This must include information on the availability and cost of meningococcal meningitis vaccine (Menomune).
  -and either-
  - A record of meningococcal meningitis immunization within the past 10 years.
  -or-
  - An acknowledgement of meningococcal disease risks and refusal of meningococcal meningitis immunization signed by the student or student’s parent or guardian.

Medical Records and Examinations Matriculated students (including transfer students) are required to submit a medical report by a recognized physician upon admission into certain programs. If a student’s medical report or other factors indicate a health problem, the college may require from the student’s physician a report from a medical specialist in the area of the student’s disability.

Student Physical Activity Cards Permission forms for physical education and recreational activities are obtained in the Office of Health Services, 307 Hunter North. As noted above, the prerequisite for issuance of approved cards is a completed medical report on file. These cards are valid for two years; then they must be renewed.

Degree, Certificate and Diploma Programs

The following undergraduate degree, graduate degree, advanced certificate and combined undergraduate/graduate degree programs are offered.

These programs have been approved by the New York State Education Department and are listed in the Inventory of Registered Programs http://www.nysed.gov/heds/irpsf1.html. The Higher Education General Information Survey (HEGIS) code numbers appear next to the appropriate program.

Students are advised that enrollment in other than registered or otherwise approved programs may jeopardize their eligibility for certain student aid awards.
For specific information on a particular undergraduate program – including faculty, admission and degree requirements and course descriptions – consult the appropriate section of this catalog.

Return to Admission to the College

Students at New York City public high schools may acquaint themselves with undergraduate life by participating in Hunter College Now. Activities range from workshops for sharpening writing or mathematics skills to college-level courses across the arts and sciences. Each summer, Hunter College Now focuses on the sciences and mathematics by hosting high-performing students at the Summer Institute for accelerated coursework that is complemented by tutoring, college guidance and co-curricular activities. Admission to college-level courses offered through College Now is competitive. To qualify for college-level coursework, including the Summer Institute, a student must demonstrate mastery of basic mathematics and/or verbal skills, depending on the discipline, as measured by the SAT, PSAT and English language arts and mathematics Regents exams. College Now offerings, including credit-bearing courses, are provided at no cost.
Apart from College Now, high school students from non-public and public high schools in New York City and elsewhere may register as nondegree students under Hunter’s current tuition and fee schedule with the written approval of a high school principal. High school students must meet CUNY proficiency standards in basic skills. Interested high school students are encouraged to speak with a pre-admissions counselor in the Welcome Center, Room 100 Hunter North.

Honor Societies

Two kinds of honor societies are recognized at Hunter College: academic and professional. In general the requirements for nomination are: for academic societies, a cumulative GPA of 3.0 and a departmental GPA prescribed by the department concerned, although in no case less than 3.0; for professional societies, a cumulative GPA of 2.8 and a departmental GPA and professional qualifications that meet departmental requirements. All honor societies except Phi Beta Kappa and Sigma Xi are subject to the rules and regulations established by a committee of the Hunter College Senate. Students may qualify for the following honor societies:

- Alpha Kappa Delta - Sociology
- Omicron Delta Epsilon - Economics
- Dobro Slovo - Slavic Language and Literature
- Phi Alpha Theta - History
- Eta Beta Rho - Hebrew
- Pi Mu Epsilon - Mathematics
- Eta Sigma Phi - Latin and/or Greek
- Pi Sigma Alpha - Political Science
- Gamma Kappa Alpha - Italian
- Psi Chi - Psychology
- Gamma Theta Upsilon - Geography
- Sigma Delta Pi - Spanish
- Kappa Delta Pi - Education
- Sigma Epsilon Phi - German
- Kappa Pi - Art
- Sigma Pi Sigma - Physics
- Kappa Omicron Nu - Food Science
- Sigma Theta Tau - Nursing

and Human Nutrition

Phi Beta Kappa is the oldest undergraduate honors organization in the United States. Students do not apply for membership; they are elected on the basis of academic excellence. Eligibility is calculated on the basis of liberal arts courses under Phi Beta Kappa rules, which differ from those used in awarding other honors at Hunter College.

Sigma Xi The Scientific Research Society honors those who have made noteworthy contributions in research. Its purpose is “to encourage original investigation in science, to foster companionship and cooperation among scientists, and to maintain honor, integrity and honesty in all scientific activities.” It has nearly 65,000 active members, scientists and engineers, whose goal is to improve the human condition. The Hunter College Chapter was installed in 1969.

Honors Programs

Hunter College provides a range of honors programs for students with strong academic records and the desire for stimulating courses and a host of special opportunities.

Macaulay Honors College at Hunter College Graduating high school seniors and others who have not yet attended college may apply to the Macaulay Honors College at Hunter College. The mission of this highly competitive program is to inspire and prepare outstanding leaders to confront and solve the social, economic, cultural, and scientific challenges of New York City and the world. Accepted students take a series of interdisciplinary seminars focused on New York City, and work closely with Honors Advisors in order to learn about and access the diverse resources of CUNY. Generous financial support is provided, allowing students to concentrate on their studies and carefully selected co-curricular activities. For further information, call the Macaulay Honors College office at (212) 650-3556 or see the website: http://www.hunter.cuny.edu/honorscollege.

Thomas Hunter Honors Program (Special Honors Curriculum) This program provides superior students who are pursuing a Hunter BA degree with a course of study suited to their individual needs and interests. Open to students who have demonstrated academic excellence and an interest in interdisciplinary studies and who desire to be intellectually challenged, it permits them to replace some of the college’s GER requirements with a special curriculum under the supervision of the Council on Honors. The program also offers its participants the chance to study with faculty members committed to working with outstanding undergraduates who wish to pursue interdisciplinary studies. For details, see the Thomas Hunter Honors Program description in the Arts and Sciences section of the catalog.

Scimon Network

BP-ENDURE

The BP-ENDURE program is designed to identify exceptionally talented undergraduates and prepare them to obtain doctoral degrees in neuroscience-related fields of study. The program offers specialized neuroscience courses, summer research experiences, and mentoring from senior faculty. For additional information, please visit www.bpendure.org.

CATALYST

The Catalyst Scholarship program provides financial assistance and academic enrichment to students who demonstrate academic excellence in Earth Science, Computer Science, Mathematics, Statistics or Physics. For additional information, please visit www.hunter.cuny.edu/catalyst.

HHMI

Howard Hughes Medical Institute offers economically disadvantaged undergraduate biology majors the opportunity to work in a faculty member's research lab at Hunter College as Hunter/HHMI Undergraduate Scholars.

Hunter/HHMI also offers two summer research internships for undergraduate biology majors: the Marine Biological Laboratory in Woods Hole, MA and the Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory on Long Island. For more information please contact Dan Kleinman at kleinman@genectr.hunter.cuny.edu and/or visit http://www.hunterhhmi.com.

IGERT
In partnership with the Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center, the IGERT adds a radiochemistry component to students’ doctoral training. The program features include a sub-discipline concentration in nanotechnology, organic, inorganic, analytical, physical, and biochemistry. For additional information, please visit www.hunter.cuny.edu/chemistry/igert.

LSAMP

The Louis Stokes Alliance for Minority Participation is an alliance of 17 CUNY colleges and the CUNY Graduate Center. Students participate in faculty research and receive mentoring from senior faculty. For additional information, please contact Angela Padilla at npadilla@hunter.cuny.edu and/or visit nyc.amp.cuny.edu.

MARC

The MARC program trains talented students in biomedical research and encourages them to pursue Ph.D.s in this field. Students are offered a short introductory course in biomedical research, the opportunity to participate in faculty research, and the opportunity to present at the Annual Biomedical Research Conference for Minority Students. For additional information, please visit marcmbrs.hunter.cuny.edu.

MBRS-RISE

The MBRS-RISE program offers research experience and academic and financial support for undergraduate and graduate students interested in biomedical research. For additional information, please visit marcmbrs.hunter.cuny.edu.

McNAIR

The Ronald E. McNair program prepares eligible undergraduates for doctoral studies through involvement in research and scholarly activity. Participants acquire the skills and knowledge required for admission to graduate school and the successful completion of graduate studies. For additional information, please visit www.hunter.cuny.edu/mcnair.

McNulty

At the core of the McNulty Scholars program is the determination to create challenging learning environments that will inspire ambitious young people to reach the top ranks of science and math professions. The McNulty Scholars program aims to encourage students who are motivated in science and math to aspire to leadership positions across industry and academia. The McNulty Scholars program endeavors to support students who have a commitment to the advancement of women in math and science. For more information please visit www.hunter.cuny.edu/scimon/mcnulty.

MIDARP

Through educational enrichment and research experience, the Minority Institutions’ Drug Abuse Research Development program encourages minority students to pursue careers in drug abuse research. Students work in the laboratory of a MIDARP investigator. For additional information, please visit www.hunter.cuny.edu/psychology/undergraduate-studies/copy_of_special-undergraduate-research-programs or contact Vanya Quinones-Jenab at vanya.quinones@hunter.cuny.edu.

MIND ALLIANCE

The primary goal of the MIND Alliance is to increase the quality and quantity of students with disabilities from racial and ethnic minority backgrounds receiving associate and baccalaureate degrees in STEM disciplines and entering the STEM workforce or graduate school. For additional information, please contact Deborah Brinkley at dbrinkle@hunter.cuny.edu and/or visit www.mystem.org/home/index.aspx.

MMUF

The objective of MMUF is to increase the number of minority students pursuing Ph.D.s in the arts and sciences, particularly in humanities. Fellows receive mentoring from senior faculty and collaborate with faculty on research projects. For additional information, please visit www.hunter.cuny.edu/mmuf.
NOYCE

The Noyce program provides tuition and stipends for Biology, Chemistry, Earth Science, Physics or Mathematics majors who intend to teach in middle schools or high schools in New York City. For additional information, please visit www.hunter.cuny.edu/noyce or email noyce@hunter.cuny.edu.

QUBI

QUBI gives students majoring in Biology, Chemistry, Computer Science, Mathematics or Statistics the opportunity to add a bioinformatics concentration to their major. Students receive training and mentoring by a multidisciplinary team of research scientists and have access to competitive scholarships, national bioinformatics workshops, and internships at CUNY and neighboring institutions. For additional information, please visit http://www.hunter.cuny.edu/qubi.

RCMI/SPUR (Available to students not attending Hunter)

The Summer Program for Undergraduate Research (SPUR) of the Center for Study of Gene Structure & Function gives undergraduates hands-on experience in one of 50 research laboratories at Hunter College. The goal of the program is to train and encourage undergraduate students to pursue graduate study in biomedical research. For additional information, please visit genecenter.hunter.cuny.edu/index.php/programs/summer-program/how-to-apply.

Human Rights Courses

Human Rights

About the Program
The Human Rights Program examines the theory and practice of human rights, combining academic training with hands-on experience. By exploring the philosophical foundations and legal framework of human rights, as well as addressing current political, social and economic realities, the program seeks to give students the tools necessary to engage intelligently with contemporary human rights problems. Among the thorny issues students may examine are indigenous peoples’ rights to natural resources, the limits of freedom of expression, the problem of corporate complicity in rights violations, the legitimacy of humanitarian intervention, and the problem of enforceability (both of economic, social, and cultural rights, and of civil and political rights).

An interdisciplinary program, the Human Rights Program offers courses in political science, anthropology, sociology and history, among other fields of study. Students may follow either of two academic tracks: a 15-credit minor in human rights, or 24-credit certificate. A key element of both tracks is the human rights internship, which gives students direct experience with the researchers, advocates, lawyers and analysts who make up the human rights movement.

Both the minor and certificate in human rights are good preparation for a career in government, at a nongovernmental organization, or in a regional or international agency. Many students may choose to go on to law school, journalism school or a graduate program. Whatever their career choice, their knowledge of human rights will make them more thoughtful and informed citizens.

HR 20000 - Introduction to Human Rights: History, Discourse, Practice (W)

GER 3/B PD/D
An introduction to the study of human rights. It explores the historical, philosophical, and legal roots of human rights as a political idea and institutionalized practice. It also addressed the contested nature of human rights as an idea and practice in contemporary societies. In addition to providing an introduction to the subject, the course is a requirement for students minoring in Human Rights or pursuing a Human Rights Certificate.
In order to pursue a Human Rights minor or Certificate, a student must receive at least a B (3.0) in this course. Students should take this introductory course in their sophomore year but must take it no later than the first semester of their junior year.

This is a writing intensive course.

prereq: ENGL 12000 or equivalent; one course in ethics, political philosophy, political theory, sociological theory, or permission from the instructors.

3 hrs 3 cr.
fall and spring

HR 25000 - Human Rights Internship

This is a practicum course. It involves students participating in an organization that identifies its mission as the promotion of human rights. The aim of the course is to educate students in the practical dimension of translating human rights discourse and law into practice. The course is required for students seeking a Human Rights Certificate or a minor in Human Rights.

prereq: ENGL 12000 or equivalent; HR 20000 or equivalent

3 hrs 3 cr.

HR 26000 - Human Rights Internship Seminar (W)

This course critically evaluates the role of human rights organizations and human rights practices in determining the meaning and value of human rights.

prereq: ENGL 12000 and HR 20000

prereq or coreq: HR 25000

3 hrs 3 cr.

Offered spring 2012; not offered fall 2011

HR 35000 - Human Rights Capstone Seminar (W)

This course involves the theoretical examination of constitutive problems in the discourse and practice of human rights, especially as they would inform the composition of a human rights academic research project. It requires participating students to present their research projects in the seminar and to compose a 20-25 page research paper on a human rights topic.

This course is specifically designed for students who are pursuing a Certificate in Human Rights.

This is a writing intensive course.

prereq or coreq: HR 26000

Offered spring 2012; not offered fall 2011

Hunter College Mission Statement

Return to Hunter College of The City University of New York

Hunter College of the City University of New York, a distinguished public university, values learning in the liberal arts and sciences as a cornerstone of individual development and a vital foundation for a more just and inclusive society. Continuing our long tradition of expanding opportunity, we welcome students from all backgrounds to engage in a rigorous educational experience that prepares them to become leaders and innovators in their communities and in the world. Hunter also contributes to intellectual discourse by supporting excellent scholarship and creative activity by its accomplished faculty.

Hunter undergraduate, graduate, and professional curricula challenge students to think critically – to approach problems from multiple perspectives, distinguish the questions each raises, and recognize the kinds of evidence each values. The college’s academic programs stress the significance of human diversity, emphasize research and artistic creation, and invite students to extend their education beyond campus. We cultivate the qualities our graduates need to thrive in their chosen careers and make a difference as active citizens.

We embrace our setting at the heart of New York City – we seek to draw on its energy, capitalize on its remarkable resources, weave it into the fabric of our teaching, research, and creative expression, and give back to it through our service and citizenship.

Hunter College Students' Rights Concerning Education Records

- Student Regulations and Rights

The Federal Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. They are:

I. The right to inspect and review the student’s education records.

   Students should submit to the registrar, the dean of students, or other appropriate college official, written requests that identify the record(s) they wish to inspect. If the records are not maintained by the college official to whom the request was submitted, that official shall advise the student of the correct official to whom the request should be addressed.

   All requests shall be granted or denied in writing within 45 days of receipt. If the request is granted, the student will be provided with copies of the requested records or notified of the time and place where the records may be inspected. Students will be charged a fee for copies of requested records. If the request is denied or not responded to within 45 days, the student may appeal to the college’s FERPA appeals officer. Additional information regarding the appeal procedures will be provided by the college’s FERPA appeals officer: Office of Legal Affairs, Hunter College, Room 1705 HE, 695 Park Avenue, New York, NY 10065.

II. The right to request the amendment of the student’s education records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading.

   Students may ask the college to amend a record that they believe is inaccurate or misleading. They should write to the registrar, the dean of students, or other appropriate college official, clearly identify the part of the record they want changed and specify why it is inaccurate or misleading. If the college decides not to amend the record as requested by the student, the college will notify the student of the decision and advise the student of his or her right to a hearing before the college’s FERPA appeals officer regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.

III. The right to consent to disclosure of personally identifiable information contained in the student’s education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent.

One exception which permits disclosure without consent is disclosure to college officials with legitimate educational interests. A college official is a person employed by the university in an administrative, supervisory, academic or research, or support staff position; a person or company with whom the university has contracted; a person serving on the Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another college official in performing his or her tasks.
A college official has a legitimate educational interest if access is reasonably necessary in order to perform his/her instructional, research, administrative or other duties and responsibilities. Upon request, the college discloses education records without consent to officials of another college or school in which a student seeks or intends to enroll.

IV. You may appeal the alleged denial of FERPA rights to the: General Counsel and Vice Chancellor for Legal Affairs, The City University of New York, 535 East 80th Street, New York, NY 10065.

V. The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the college to comply with the requirements of FERPA.

The name and address of the office that administers FERPA are: Family Policy Compliance Office, U.S.

VI. The college will make the following “directory information” concerning current and former students available to those parties having a legitimate interest in the information: a student’s name, attendance dates, telephone listing, home address, present address, e-mail address, major and minor fields of study, degrees and awards received, date of birth, place of birth, level of education and the most recent previous educational institution attended. By filing a form with the Registrar’s Office, a student or former student may request that any or all of the above information not be released without his or her prior written consent.

This form may be completed, withdrawn, or modified at any time.

This policy shall be effective as of September 2000 and shall supersede prior policy on this issue.

Students Regulations and Rights

Statement on the Rights of Students

The Hunter College Senate voted endorsement of the following statement on September 24, 1974:

Preamble

“Academic institutions exist for the transmission of knowledge, the pursuit of truth, the development of students and the general well-being of society. Free inquiry and free expression are indispensable to the attainment of these goals....Freedom to teach and freedom to learn are inseparable facets of academic freedom.”

Students “have a distinctive role…which qualifies them to share in the responsible authority on campus; the exercise of the authority is part of their education....
Joint efforts among all groups in the institution—students, faculty, administration and governing board—is a prerequisite of sound academic government...Joint effort, to be effective, must be rooted in the concept of shared authority. The exercise of shared authority in college and university government, like the protection of (student and faculty) academic freedom, requires tolerance, respect and a sense of community.”

“The responsibility to secure and respect general conditions conducive to the freedom to learn is shared by all members of the academic community.”

Students’ rights are not limited by what is enumerated in this statement. The purpose of the statement is to outline some basic principles and guidelines, many of which are now met. Specific implementation will have to be continuously adjusted as conditions at the college change.

I. Academic and Personal Files

1. Improper disclosure, even within the college, of academic, personal and disciplinary records is a serious invasion of privacy. To minimize the risk of improper disclosure, academic, personal and disciplinary records should be kept in separate files.

2. All files may be made available only to specially authorized college staff. Express consent of the student involved is otherwise required.

3. Academic records and transcripts should contain only information about scholastic achievement.

4. No records should be kept which reflect the political and off-campus activities or beliefs of students.

5. Non-current medical and disciplinary records should be periodically destroyed.

6. Students have the right to periodically review their academic, medical and disciplinary records and to appeal for removal of items improperly included. If the appeal fails the student has the right to append a written rebuttal to the record.

II. Classroom, Grades, etc.

1. Students have the right, within the limits of available facilities, to pursue any course of study for which they are eligible according to college standards.

2. In order to permit eligible students unhindered access to courses, the costs of required materials should be kept within reasonable limits.

3. Students have the right to know, at the start of each course of study, the basis to be used by the instructor in determining grades.

4. Students’ grades should be based solely on academic criteria, not on opinions or conduct in matters unrelated to academic standards.

5. Students should have the opportunity to take reasoned exception to facts or points of view offered in any course of study, but they are responsible for meeting the academic standards of any course of study for which they are enrolled.

6. Students should have the protection through formally established procedures against prejudiced or capricious academic standards or evaluations.

III. Participation in Academic Affairs
1. Students have the right, individually and collectively, to express their views on matters of general interest to the student body, including institutional policy, curriculum and personnel decisions.

2. Students have the right to participate in the formulation and application of institutional policy affecting academic and student affairs.

3. Students should share in the formation of policies regarding degree requirements, courses and curriculum, academic grading systems, standards of academic standing and calendar arrangements.

4. Students should have the opportunity, individually and collectively, to assess the value of a course and to express their views on the form and conduct of a class which they have taken.

5. The results of an institutional mechanism used for students to assess courses and faculty, such as evaluation questionnaires, should be accessible to all members of the college community and should be weighed in all decisions affecting faculty status and curriculum.

IV. Extracurricular Activities

1. Students should be free to form and join associations to promote their common interests.

2. Students have the right to express their opinions, individually and collectively and to support causes in a manner that does not disrupt the orderly operation of the college.

V. Standards of Conduct

1. Students should participate in the formulation of standards of behavior which are considered essential to the educational mission and community responsibilities of the college.

2. The code of conduct, as a set of regulations and procedures, should be clearly stated and published in a handbook or other generally available set of institutional regulations.

3. In all cases, disciplinary procedures should protect the student from capricious and prejudicial application of the rules of conduct. Such procedures should also satisfy the requirements of procedural due process, including written notice with details of charges, sufficient time to prepare a defense, right to assistance in the defense, right to cross-examine witnesses and to present evidence and the right to appeal the decision.

RESOLVED, That these rules and regulations be incorporated in each college bulletin.

Adopted by the Board of Trustees of The City University of New York on June 23, 1969 and amended on October 27, 1980 and May 22, 1989

Rules and Regulations for Students Pursuant to Article 224A of the NYS Education Law

1. No person shall be expelled from or be refused admission as a student to an institution of higher education for the reason that he or she is unable, because of his or her religious beliefs, to register or attend classes or to participate in any examination, study or work requirements on a particular day or days.

2. Any student in an institution of higher education who is unable, because of his or her religious beliefs, to attend classes on a particular day or days shall, because of such absence on the particular day or days, be excused from any examination or any study or work requirements.
3. It shall be the responsibility of the faculty and of the administrative officials of each institution of higher education to make available to each student who is absent from school, because of his or her religious beliefs, an equivalent opportunity to register for classes or make up any examination, study or work requirements which he or she may have missed because of such absence on any particular day or days. No fees of any kind shall be charged by the institution for making available to the said student such equivalent opportunity.

4. If registration, classes, examinations, study or work requirements are held on Friday after four o’clock post meridian or on Saturday, similar or makeup classes, examinations, study or work requirements or opportunity to register shall be made available on other days, where it is possible and practicable to do so. No special fees shall be charged to the student for these classes, examinations, study or work requirements or registration held on other days.

5. In effectuating the provisions of this section, it shall be the duty of the faculty and of the administrative officials of each institution of higher education to exercise the fullest measure of good faith. No adverse or prejudicial effects shall result to any student because of his or her availing himself or herself of the provisions of this section.

6. Any student who is aggrieved by the alleged failure of any faculty or administrative officials to comply in good faith with the provisions of this section, shall be entitled to maintain an action or proceeding in the supreme court of the county in which such institution of higher education is located for the enforcement of his or her rights under this section.

   a. It shall be the responsibility of the administrative officials of each institution of higher education to give written notice to students of their rights under this section, informing them that each student who is absent from school, because of his or her religious beliefs, must be given an equivalent opportunity to register for classes or make up any examination, study or work requirements which he or she may have missed because of such absence on any particular day or days. No fees of any kind shall be charged by the institution for making available to such student such equivalent opportunity.

7. As used in this section, the term “institution of higher education” shall mean any institution of higher education, recognized and approved by the regents of the university of the state of New York, which provides a course of study leading to the granting of a post-secondary degree or diploma. Such term shall not include any institution which is operated, supervised or controlled by a church or by a religious or denominational organization whose educational programs are principally designed for the purpose of training ministers or other religious functionaries or for the purpose of propagating religious doctrines.

8. As used in this section, the term “religious belief” shall mean beliefs associated with any corporation organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes, which is not disqualified for tax exemption under section 501 of the United States code.

Equal Opportunity Programs

Hunter College is an Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action Institution. The college does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, transgender, marital status, disability, genetic predisposition or carrier status, alienage or citizenship, military or veteran status, or status as victim of domestic violence in its student admissions, employment, access to programs and administration of educational policies.

Rules and Regulations for the Maintenance of Public Order
Pursuant to Article 129A of the NYS Education Law
The tradition of the university as a sanctuary of academic freedom and center of informed discussion is an honored one, to be guarded vigilantly. The basic significance of that sanctuary lies in the protection of intellectual freedoms: the rights of professors to teach, of scholars to engage in the advancement of knowledge, of students to learn and to express their views, free from external pressures or interference. These freedoms can flourish only in an atmosphere of mutual respect, civility and trust among teachers and students, only when members of the university community are willing to accept self-restraint and reciprocity as the condition upon which they share in its intellectual autonomy.

Academic freedom and the sanctuary of the university campus extend to all who share these aims and responsibilities. They cannot be invoked by those who would subordinate intellectual freedom to political ends, or who violate the norms of conduct established to protect that freedom. Against such offenders the university has the right and indeed the obligation, to defend itself. We accordingly announce the following rules and regulations to be in effect at each of our colleges which are to be administered in accordance with the requirements of due process as provided in the Bylaws of the Board of Higher Education.

With respect to enforcement of these rules and regulations we note that the Bylaws of the Board of Higher Education provide that:

“THE PRESIDENT. The president, with respect to his educational unit, shall:

a. Have the affirmative responsibility of conserving and enhancing the educational standards of the college and schools under his jurisdiction;
b. Be the adviser and executive agent of the Board and of his respective College Committee and as such shall have the immediate supervision with full discretionary power in carrying into effect the bylaws, resolutions and policies of the Board, the lawful resolutions of any of its committees and the policies, programs and lawful resolutions of the several faculties;
c. Exercise general superintendence over the concerns, officers, employees and students of his educational unit....”

I. Rules

1. A member of the academic community shall not intentionally obstruct and/or forcibly prevent others from the exercise of their rights. Nor shall he interfere with the institution’s educational processes or facilities, or the rights of those who wish to avail themselves of any of the institution’s instructional, personal, administrative, recreational and community services.

2. Individuals are liable for failure to comply with lawful directions issued by representatives of the university/college when they are acting in their official capacities. Members of the academic community are required to show their identification cards when requested to do so by an official of the college.

3. Unauthorized occupancy of university/college facilities or blocking access to and from such areas is prohibited. Permission from appropriate college authorities must be obtained for removal, relocation and use of university/college equipment and/or supplies.

4. Theft from or damage to university/college premises or property, or theft of or damage to property of any person on university/college premises is prohibited.

5. Each member of the academic community or an invited guest has the right to advocate his position without having to fear abuse, physical, verbal, or otherwise from others supporting conflicting points of view. Members of the academic community and other persons on the college grounds shall not use language or take actions reasonably likely to provoke or encourage physical violence by demonstrators, those demonstrated against, or spectators.

6. Action may be taken against any and all persons who have no legitimate reason for their presence on campus within the university/college, or whose presence on any such campus obstructs and/or forcibly prevents others from the exercise of their rights or interferes with the institution’s educational processes or facilities, or the rights of those who wish to avail themselves of any of the institution’s instructional, personal, administrative, recreational and community services.

7. Disorderly or indecent conduct on university/college-owned or controlled property is prohibited.

8. No individual shall have in his possession a rifle, shotgun, or firearm or knowingly have in his possession any other dangerous instrument or material that can be used to inflict bodily harm on an individual or damage upon a building or the grounds of the university/college without the written authorization of such educational institution. Nor shall any individual have in his possession any other instrument or material which can be used or is intended to inflict bodily harm on an individual or damage upon a building or the grounds of the university/college.

9. Any action or situation which recklessly or intentionally endangers mental or physical health or involves the forced consumption of liquor or drugs for the purpose of initiation into or affiliation with any organization is prohibited.

10. The unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession, or use of illegal drugs or other controlled substances by University students or employees on University/college premises, or as part of any University/college activities is prohibited. Employees of the University must also notify the College Personnel Director of any criminal drug statute conviction for a violation occurring in the workplace not later than five (5) days after such conviction.

11. The unlawful possession, use, or distribution of alcohol by students or employees on university/college premises or as part of any university/college activities is prohibited.

II. Penalties

1. Any student engaging in any manner in conduct prohibited under substantive Rules 1-11 shall be subject to the following range of sanctions as hereafter defined in the attached Appendix: admonition, warning, censure, disciplinary probation, restitution, suspension, expulsion, ejection and/or arrest by the civil authorities.

2. Any tenured or non-tenured faculty member, or other member of the instructional staff, or member of the classified staff engaging in any manner in conduct prohibited under substantive Rules 1-11 shall be subject to the following range of penalties: warning, censure, restitution, fine not exceeding those permitted by law or by the Bylaws of The City University of New York, or suspension with/without pay pending a hearing before an appropriate college authority, dismissal after a hearing, ejection and/or arrest by the civil authorities and for engaging in any manner in conduct prohibited under substantive Rule 10, may, in the alternative, be required to participate satisfactorily in an appropriately licensed drug treatment or rehabilitation program. A tenured or non-tenured faculty member or other member of the instructional staff, or member of the classified staff charged with engaging in any manner in conduct prohibited under substantive Rules 1-11 he or she shall be entitled to be treated in accordance with applicable provisions of the Education Law, or the Civil Service Law, or the applicable collective bargaining agreement, or the Bylaws or written policies of The City University of New York.

3. Any visitor, licensee, or invitee engaging in any manner in conduct prohibited under substantive Rules 1-11 shall be subject to ejection and/or arrest by the civil authorities.
4. Any organization which authorized the conduct prohibited under substantive Rules 1-11 shall have its permission to operate on campus rescinded. Penalties 1-4 shall be in addition to any other penalty provided by law or The City University Trustees.

Sanctions Defined:

A. ADMONITION An oral statement to the offender that he/she has violated university rules.

B. WARNING Notice to the offender, orally or in writing, that continuation or repetition of the wrongful conduct, within a period of time stated in the warning, may be cause for more severe disciplinary action.

C. CENSURE Written reprimand for violation of specified regulation, including the possibility of more severe disciplinary sanction in the event of conviction for the violation of any university regulation within a period stated in the letter of reprimand.

D. DISCIPLINARY PROBATION Exclusion from participation in privileges or extracurricular university activities as set forth in the notice of disciplinary probation for a specified period of time.

E. RESTITUTION Reimbursement for damage to or misappropriation of property. Reimbursement may take the form of appropriate service to repair or otherwise compensate for damages.

F. SUSPENSION Exclusion from classes and other privileges or activities as set forth in the notice of suspension for a definite period of time.

G. EXPULSION Termination of student status for an indefinite period. The conditions for readmission, if any is permitted, shall be stated in the order of expulsion.

H. COMPLAINT TO CIVIL AUTHORITIES

I. EJECTION

504/ADA Grievance Procedures

Hunter College encourages the prompt and equitable settlement of all complaints and grievances of discrimination in college programs under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended (29 U.S.C. Section 706) and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 as amended (42 U.S.C. Section 12101-02). Toward that end, both informal and formal grievance procedures are established for the college.

These procedures are available to any student of the college who alleges any action relating to handicap which is prohibited by Section 504, the ADA, or the rules and regulations implementing those laws. No other issues may be raised in these proceedings.

The resolution of a grievance may pass through several steps. Initially, students are encouraged to discuss a complaint with the supervisor of the office involved. Often, this conversation will lead to steps that will alleviate the difficulty. If this discussion does not lead to a result that is satisfactory to the student, he or she should then begin an informal complaint process with the director of the Office for Access and Accommodations. If the informal complaint process does not yield results satisfactory to the student, a written formal complaint may be filed with the Vice President for Student Affairs.
Students may obtain a written explanation of the entire grievance procedure and the accompanying form from Office for Access and Accommodations, Room 1124 Hunter East. The Section 504 and ADA Coordinator at Hunter College, Professor Tamara Green, is responsible for policies related to the disabled. She can be contacted in Room 1425A Hunter West; (212) 772-5061.

Hunter College's Policy on Academic Integrity

Procedures for Reporting Academic Integrity Violations

To initiate the procedure for addressing an allegation of academic dishonesty, faculty members must complete the online Academic Integrity Form indicating the recommended academic sanction, which involves a grade penalty (i.e., a reduced grade). Disciplinary sanctions may only be pursued by the Dean of Students if the case merits them.

I. Procedure for Academic Sanctions

A. When the faculty member suspects academic dishonesty and wants an academic sanction, the professor should first confer with the student. If the student admits to the violation, the instructor should inform the student of the grade penalty and report the action taken on the online Academic Integrity Form and upload all supporting documentation [pdf]. The faculty should sign the online form and submit within 30 days of discovery of the academic dishonesty. The Office of Student Conduct will contact the student once we receive a completed online form. Faculty members must submit the online form within 30 days of discovery of the academic dishonesty.

B. If the student admits to academic dishonesty but believes the grade penalty is too severe, the instructor should select the appropriate option on the online Academic Integrity Form, upload supporting documentation and submit it online. The Dean of Students shall submit a placeholder grade of "PEN" if occurrence is during the middle of the semester. The instructor shall submit a placeholder grade of "UI" if occurrence is towards the end of the semester and will submit the final grade at the end of the semester. At that point, the student may contest the grade sanction by appealing the course grade through the College's grade appeal procedure. Once the student has admitted the violation, s/he may contest only the severity of the grade sanction, not the dishonesty allegation itself. If the student appeals the grade, the departmental and Senate grade appeals committees should send copies of their findings to the Hunter College Academic Integrity Official.

C. If the student denies the allegation of academic dishonesty, the faculty member will report that this is the student's position on the online Academic Integrity Form. The matter will first be reviewed by the Academic Integrity Official who will conduct a fact finding investigation and attempt to resolve the matter. If the matter cannot be resolved then Mediation will be proposed between both parties with a third party member. If the case is not resolved through Mediation then it will be moved to an official hearing before the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee who will render judgment upon conclusion of the hearing. The student has the right to appeal the Committee's judgment by appealing with the President's Office.

D. Students who either admit to an act of academic dishonesty or are found to have committed one by the Academic Integrity Official will receive a letter from Hunter College's Academic Integrity Official notifying them that this matter has been reported to the Dean of Students Office. When an academic integrity accusation is resolved by the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee, the student and faculty member will be notified of the findings.

II. Procedure for Disciplinary Sanctions

A. The Dean of Students has the right to pursue disciplinary sanctions against any student should the case deem appropriate, which includes substantial violations, if the student has prior violations or when academic sanctions were not executed because the student withdrew from the course.

III. Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee

The purpose of the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee is to review evidence when an academic sanction is being sought and when the allegations of academic dishonesty are still in dispute after meetings with the Academic Integrity Official and Mediator have occurred. The Committee will proceed in the following manner:

1. If the charge of academic dishonesty is denied by the student, the faculty member will advise the student that the matter has been referred to the Hunter College Academic Integrity Official, who will initiate the fact-finding process.

2. A panel of three Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee members will be selected and convened by Hunter College Academic Integrity Official to review the evidence for each case.

3. The faculty member and student will be invited to present their case at a formal hearing, which will be conducted within 30 days of receipt of the online Academic Integrity Form.

4. The committee will deliberate in closed session (i.e., with neither student nor instructor present) and submit its findings, in writing, to the Hunter College Academic Integrity Official, who will then notify the faculty member and student. Although faculty members reserve the right to submit grades whenever they deem appropriate, they are encouraged not to submit grades for the disputed work or a final course grade until they have been notified of the committee's findings. Students may appeal the final course grade through the College's grade appeal process.

Committee Structure

The Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee will be appointed by the College President. Each year the President will nominate six faculty and six students to serve on this committee.

Each faculty-student disciplinary committee shall consist of two faculty members and two student members and a chairperson, who shall be a faculty member. A quorum shall consist of the chair and any two members, one of whom must be a student. A panel of three, consisting of two faculty members and one student selected from the twelve committee members, will be convened by the Hunter College Academic Integrity Official for each hearing. Faculty members and graduate students affiliated with the department, and undergraduate students majoring in the department's programs, will not be selected to serve on that particular panel.

IV. Clarification of the Process

All questions regarding these procedures or the College's disciplinary process should be referred to the Office of Student Conduct in the Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students office (Room 1103 East, phone 212.772.4534/212.396.6484 or email at academic.integrity@hunter.cuny.edu).
ACADEMIC SANCTIONS

- Reduced or "F" grade on academic exercise
- Reduced or "F" grade in course

CUNY Examples of substantial violations

These include but are not limited to:

Implementation of Policies and Procedures Concerning Sexual Assault and Other Forms of Violence Against Students

Return to CUNY Sexual Assault Policy

The President and Vice President for Student Affairs/Student Development of each college shall be responsible for implementing this policy in accordance with the most up-to-date information and resources pertaining to sexual assault, stalking and domestic/intimate partner violence education and prevention, and victim assistance. The following steps must be taken to implement this policy:

1. Publication: A copy of this policy shall be easily accessible on the CUNY website and on the website administered by each College. A summary shall also be incorporated into every college student handbook. In addition, copies of the policy and procedures shall be made available in student centers, residence halls, student affairs/student development offices, women’s/men’s centers, counseling centers, health clinics and public safety departments, and shall be distributed to all new students during orientations.

2. Prevention/Risk Reduction Education: Each college shall develop materials and programs to educate its students, faculty and staff on the nature, dynamics, common circumstances and effects of sexual assault, domestic/intimate partner violence and stalking, and the means to reduce their occurrence and prevent them. Prevention education should provide up-to-date and relevant information, such as education pertaining to bystander intervention, the importance of peer networks and the significance of fostering a community of responsibility.

Prevention education materials and programs shall be incorporated into campus orientation activities for all incoming undergraduate and graduate students (including transfers), and shall be made available to all student activity groups, clubs and athletic teams. In addition, all residence halls shall have a mandatory orientation on sexual assault, stalking and domestic/intimate partner violence prevention. Colleges are encouraged to assist in the organization of peer education groups and to provide resources to such groups so that the groups can provide training and outreach to other students throughout the academic year. Since the abuse of alcohol is frequently involved in occurrences of sexual assault and other forms of violence, it is important that the education program include education about the deleterious effects of alcohol abuse.

3. Professional Training: Each college shall provide periodic training relating to the prevention and handling of sexual assaults, stalking and domestic/intimate partner violence for all relevant personnel, including public safety officers, counselors, student affairs staff and residence hall assistants by experts trained in the field. Education and training shall also be made available to any interested faculty and staff member. Each campus must have at least one qualified staff or faculty member serve as a designated liaison and trainer.

4. Oversight by CUNY Central Administration: The University Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs shall monitor compliance with this policy at all of the campuses, shall review the policies and procedures on an annual basis, and shall make recommendations in the event that updates to prevention and education information are necessitated. In addition, the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs shall provide educational materials that may be needed to ensure full implementation of this policy on every campus. Liaisons will be identified from each campus who will receive standardized training in order to fulfill their responsibilities on their campuses. The policies, procedures and outreach materials and programs will be subject to a periodic process of assessment in order to maintain efficacy.

International Students

Return to Admission to the College

Admission of international students is based on three factors: academic record, English proficiency and the guarantee of sufficient financial resources to meet the cost of attendance. For purposes of admission, an international student is defined as an applicant who currently holds a student (F-1) or exchange visitor (J-1) visa or seeks such visa status upon enrollment. The United States Immigration and Naturalization Service requires documentation of financial support before approving the issuance of a visa.

International applicants whose primary language is not English must demonstrate a firm command of the English language by scoring a minimum of 500 on the TOEFL. No provisional admission is offered whereby a student may come to the college and spend a semester or year learning English.

Applicants are responsible for the payment of all tuition and fees at the time of registration. Hunter College does not provide financial assistance to international students; they must be in a position to finance tuition, fees, room and board, insurance, books and incidental expenses. The estimated cost is $25,000 per year and is subject to change. Hunter College does not make housing arrangements for students; it is essential that students be prepared to make their own housing arrangements upon arrival.

For more information, contact the International Students Office, Hunter College, 695 Park Avenue, Room 1109 Hunter East, New York, NY 10065; telephone: (212) 772-4864; e-mail: intlss@hunter.cuny.edu. Policies governing the Office of Admissions and the International Students Office are based on policies and practices recommended by NAFSA, AACRAO and other educational organizations.

Introduction

Return to CUNY Medical Withdrawal & Re-Entry Policy & Procedure Governing Dangerous Student Behavior

The City University of New York (“CUNY”) is committed to the academic success and personal growth of its students. As part of that commitment, CUNY and its constituent campuses are responsible for providing a safe learning and working environment for students, faculty, staff and other members of the university community. Some students may, because of a medical condition, engage in behavior that presents a direct threat of harm to themselves or to others, or substantially disrupts the learning or working environment of others. In such situations, the safety and security of the campus community, including the individual student, is paramount. This policy does not replace or supersede reasonable and appropriate security and health and safety measures, such as calling 911 or taking other immediate action in case of imminent threat to life or limb.
In addition to taking action to protect the security and safety of the campus community, a college may address the student’s conduct to determine if action under this policy or under the student disciplinary process is appropriate. When a student’s conduct that directly threatens or substantially disrupts the learning or working environment of others appears to relate to a medical condition, the campus may, at its option, address the student’s conduct either in accordance with this policy, or through the student disciplinary process. If the student’s conduct constitutes a threat solely to him or herself, it should be addressed under this policy rather than the disciplinary process.

Major Field of Study

Return to Academic Programs and Policies

Major Field of Study (Major and Minor)

The total number of credits for the bachelor’s degree is 120. In order to earn a bachelor’s degree at Hunter College, a student must fulfill not only The General Education Requirements but also must select a major field of study (major). A major is a concentration of courses in a particular subject area. A major for a BA usually consists of 24 to 30 credits, a major for a BS is approximately 60 credits.

All majors offered by Hunter College have been authorized by the New York State Education Department. See HEGIS Code List.

Requirements for a Major

All matriculated students must declare a major no later than the semester in which the combination of credits earned and credits for which they are currently registered totals 60 or greater. Transfer students entering with 60 credits or more must declare their major before the end of their first semester of attendance at Hunter. Students may find that some courses and career opportunities are available to them only if they have declared a major. In addition, under New York State guidelines, students who have not yet declared a major by the 60-credit point are ineligible for TAP financial aid. To declare or change a major, a student should print a major declaration form at registrar.hunter.cuny.edu/subpages/forms.shtml and confer with an adviser in the major department.

For students who are nearing the 60-credit point and remain undecided about their choice of major, there are a number of avenues of assistance. Designated faculty in each academic department advise prospective majors about the undergraduate programs and related career possibilities. Also, the counselors in the Office of Student Services and Career Development Services offer assistance in choosing a major. The college is concerned that students select their major with careful consideration and with good knowledge of the range of options.

To earn a Hunter degree, students must complete at least half of their major credits at Hunter.

Double Major

It is possible to have a double major in the BA degree. The student must complete all of the General Education Requirement, satisfy the sequence of study for both majors and file a major declaration form for each approved major. The double major must consist of courses taken in liberal arts departments or programs.

The Minor

A minor is a secondary concentration usually related to the student’s educational or career goals. A minor program consists of a set of courses that are defined as a minor by an academic department or program. A minor encompasses at least 12 and at most 18 credits. Fulfilling the requirements for a minor is an option for students who want to document abilities in an academic field in addition to their major. It is left to the decision of individual departments or programs whether they offer a set of courses leading to a minor. Interdisciplinary minors may be established between two or more departments. See Programs of Study for a list of currently available minors.

A student has the option of declaring up to two minors.

To declare or change a minor, a student should print a Minor Declaration Approval form at registrar.hunter.cuny.edu/subpages/forms.shtml and confer with an adviser in the minor department.
In order to graduate with a minor in a specific field, a student must maintain a grade point average of at least 2.0 in the courses taken in that field. Minors require that at least one half of the credits be taken at Hunter College. Courses from the minor may be used without limit to satisfy Stages 1, 2 and 3 of the GER Core, Writing and the Pluralism & Diversity Requirement. Although this does not lessen the number of credits required for the degree, it frees those credits to be used in an elective area.

Adolescent Education

Students who want to become teachers in secondary schools must complete the adolescent education sequence of 23 credits and may also have to take some liberal arts courses beyond those required for the General Education Requirement. In order to be admitted to this program, students must apply to the School of Education. See School of Education for the admission process. The adolescent education program leads to initial NYS certification.

The Major and the GER

Students may apply up to two courses from their major to satisfy Stage 1 and Stage 2 of the Core; only one of these is permitted to fulfill a Stage 1 requirement and only one a Stage 2 requirement. Courses from the first major cannot be used to satisfy Stages 3A and 3B.

Students who have declared two or more majors can use up to two courses from one of those majors to satisfy Stage 1 and Stage 2 of the Core. Only one of these is permitted to fulfill a Stage 1 requirement and only one a Stage 2 requirement. Courses from the minors and any additional majors may be used without limit to satisfy Stages 1, 2 and 3 of the GER Core, Foreign Language, Writing and Pluralism & Diversity Requirements.

Departmental Majors

BA Degree These are majors concentrated within one department. The major for a BA usually consists of 24 to 30 credits. In order to graduate, a student must have a minimum GPA of 2.0 in the courses designated for the major. Major departments may have higher requirements. Each student should consult the major department for details and also check the department’s description of the major in the catalog.

The following are departments and/or programs that offer majors leading to the BA degree.

- Africana and Puerto Rican/Latino Studies
- Anthropology
- Art
- Biology

BS, BFA and BMus Degrees These programs, each requiring approximately 60 credits in the area of specialization, lead to the BS, BFA or BMus degree.* The following programs are available. For details and names of advisers, see the listing in the departmental section of this catalog.

- Accounting BS (Economics Department)
- Community Health BS
- Medical Laboratory Sciences BS
- Studio Art BFA
- Music BMus
- Nursing BS
- Nutrition and Food Science BS

*As of summer 2009 BS majors may declare up to two BA minors. See the minor department.

Accelerated Bachelor’s/Master’s Degrees

These programs enable highly qualified students to earn the bachelor’s and master’s degrees in a shorter period of time than is required for taking the degrees separately. The following programs are available.

- Adolescent Biology, Grades 7-12 - BA/MA
- Adolescent Chemistry, Grades 7-12 - BA/MA
- Adolescent Earth Science, Grades 7-12 - BA/MA
- Adolescent Mathematics, Grades 7-12 - BA/MA
- Adolescent Physics, Grades 7-12 - BA/MA
- Anthropology - BA/MA
- Biological Sciences with Specialization in Biotechnology - Accelerated BA/MA
- Biological Sciences/Environmental and Occupational Health Sciences - Accelerated BA/MS
- Dance Pre-K - 12 - BA/MA
- Economics - Accelerated BA/MA
• Five-Year BA/MA Program in Environmental Studies and Adolescent Education: Earth Science (Grade 7-12)
• Mathematics or Statistics and Applied Mathematics - BA/MA
• Mathematics Preparation for Adolescent Education (Grades 7-12) - BA/MA
• Music - BA/MA
• Music/Music Teacher Education Pre-K-12 - BA/MA
• Physics - BA/MA
• Biological Sciences/Environmental and Occupational Health Sciences - Accelerated BA/MS
• Medical Laboratory Sciences with Specialization in Biotechnology - Accelerated BS/MA
• Accelerated BS/MS in Nutrition (DPD)
• Sociology/Social Research - Accelerated BA/MS

Departmental Advising

Each department has advisers to help students with such matters as course content, when a course is expected to be given, how a course is conducted (lecture, discussion) and the textbook(s) to be used. Students may want to discuss majoring in a subject before they make their official decision or to inquire about graduate schools. Majors should see the department advisers frequently to discuss their interests.

Elective (or Optional) Credits

These are credits needed to complete the degree beyond those taken to fulfill the General Education Requirement and the major and minor. Students may choose as electives any courses for which they have the necessary prerequisites. They may take more courses in their major or minor, study another foreign language they will need for graduate work or explore new horizons. The choice is the student’s. No course may be repeated unless it is so stated in the course description in the catalog.

Note: First semester foreign language courses taken without completing the second semester course in the same language will be deducted for credits and grade during the degree audit for graduation.

Undergraduates Taking Graduate Courses

Upon the recommendation of the student’s undergraduate major or program adviser and with the approval of the adviser of the graduate program offering the course, highly qualified undergraduate degree students may take graduate level courses for credit toward the bachelor’s degree. Both the undergraduate and graduate degree adviser must approve the course and provide the student with a letter on department stationary stating that the student may register for the graduate course and the semester being approved. The student then brings the letter signed by the department chairperson or deputy chairperson to the Oasis, Room 217 HN. If it is determined that the courses were not used for the bachelor’s degree and the graduate transfer is acceptable, then the student will be charged the difference between the undergraduate and graduate tuition rates at the time the student took the course. No course may be applied to both the undergraduate degree and the graduate degree.

Note: Written permission to use specific graduate level courses toward undergraduate requirement must be submitted by the major and/or minor academic department chairperson or deputy chairperson to the Office of the Registrar, Room 217 HN.

Music Bachelor's Degrees

Music

About the Department

The Department of Music offers a wide variety of courses and degree programs tailored to the needs of students with different personal and professional objectives. Course offerings include a large selection of topics for both majors and non-majors covering many areas of music performance, theory, history, and literature. The BA degree can be completed evenings or days. In addition, the department sponsors numerous extracurricular events, including concerts, lectures, and master classes.

Private lessons in instruments and voice are provided to all performance majors and many other music majors by a distinguished roster of performance teachers. Financial aid is available to qualified performance majors and other majors who need to study with private teachers not on the staff.

Graduates of the department are active in classical and popular performance fields as singers, instrumentalists, and conductors. Concentration in music theory and composition can lead to career opportunities in orchestrating, choral or commercial arranging, film scoring, and music composing in contemporary and popular idioms. Concentration in music history paves the way for career opportunities in college teaching and musical scholarship, including such work as music journalism and criticism; lecturing; writing program and music-liner notes; editing, translating, and cataloging musical materials; and serving as a consultant to concert societies, opera houses, and publishers. Graduates of the BA/MA Degree in Education program are qualified to teach in the public elementary and high schools of New York State.

Graduate Study

Seniors of high academic standing who are recommended by the department may be permitted to take graduate courses for undergraduate credit. Seniors within 9 credits of graduation may apply to the Admissions Office for permission to take graduate courses creditable toward the MA degree.

Minor in Music

The music minor consists of 15 credits in music: MUSTH 10100; MUSHL 10100 or MUSHL 10700; one course with an MUSHL prefix at the 200-level; and 6 credits of music electives, 3 of which must be at the 200-level or higher. Prospective minors who have already mastered the material taught in the required 100-level courses (MUSTH 10100 and/or MUSHL 10100 or 10700) may be exempted from these courses by passing the same entrance examination that is required of prospective music majors (see Music 25-Credit Major (BA)). Music minors must substitute more advanced courses in any area of music study, which may include private lessons and ensembles, for the courses from which they are exempt. PLEASE NOTE: Music minors who wish to take private lessons for credit (MUSPF 40100) must first pass both the performance audition and music theory portions of the entrance examination.

Music - BA/MA

4-Year Dual BA/MA Degree

The department offers unusually gifted students the opportunity to obtain a master’s degree in four years with a minimum of 120 credits. Requirements are the same as those for the 42-credit BA plus those for the MA in music (30 credits at the graduate level; see graduate catalog). Students may be admitted to this program only after they have completed at least 60 credits of college work, including at least 29 credits in music (three semesters of music history, four semesters of music theory, and four semesters of musicianship). At least 12 credits (including six in music) must have been taken at Hunter College, and students must have a cumulative GPA of at least 3.5 with no grade of less than B in any music course. At that time, they must fulfill all requirements for entry into the MA program except completion of the BA degree. The graduate adviser must be consulted about the MA requirements.

Music - BMus

60-Credit Major

This degree is designed for students planning to pursue careers as professional performers of music or as teachers of music performance. It provides intensive instruction in the student’s instrument or voice; solid training in music history and theory; and a broad, liberal arts education. Admission to this program is conditional on passing an audition (preferably before the student enters college) demonstrating a high level of skill in performance. Requirements are:

Major Programs

The Department of Music offers three undergraduate and two BA/MA major programs to fit individual interests and requirements. Students must take three examinations before declaring a music major:

1. Music notation, rudimentary theory, and basic musicianship skills. This examination is prerequisite to MUSTH 22000 (Music Theory I).

   Students who do not pass it must take MUSTH 10100 (Music Theory Fundamentals) or learn the material on their own, then repeat the examination.

2. Elementary music history and literature. This examination is prerequisite to MUSHL 20500 (Music History I). Students who do not pass it must take MUSHL 10100 (Introduction to Music) or learn the material on their own, then repeat the examination.

3. Performance audition on an instrument or voice. This examination is prerequisite to MUSPF 40100 (Private Instruction in Instrument or Voice). Students whose performance skills fall below New York State School Music Association (NYSSMA) level 2, equivalent to about one year of study, must take MUSPF 21100-MUSPF 21200 (Voice I-II), MUSPF 21300-MUSPF 21400 (Piano III), or private lessons at their own expense (without credit), then repeat the examination. Students with no experience in performance may defer the audition until the end of their first semester of study.

   Prospective majors should consult the Music Department’s undergraduate adviser as soon as possible to discuss these examinations and any prerequisite courses they may need before beginning the major.

Piano Proficiency Requirement

All music majors must demonstrate elementary proficiency at the piano. Students should plan to fulfill this requirement during their first year of study. A passing grade on the piano proficiency examination is a prerequisite for the third semester of study in music theory (MUSTH 32000). Students entering Hunter with limited keyboard background may take MUSPF 21300-MUSPF 21400 (Piano I and II) for elective credit or private lessons in piano at their own expense. The Music Department office has a list of recommended piano teachers.

Minor in Music
The music minor consists of 15 credits in music:

MUSTH 10100 - Music Theory Fundamentals

GER 2/D
For non-majors. Introduction to music theory, sight singing, and ear training.

3 hrs 3 cr.

MUSHL 10100 - Introduction to Music

GER 2/D PD/D
For non-majors. Selected compositions primarily from the European tradition studied with aim to develop perceptive listening.

3 hrs 3 cr.

-or-

MUSHL 10700 - The World of Music

GER 2/D PD/A
For non-majors. Introduction to music from a spectrum of world cultures, including Africa, Asia, and the Caribbean.

3 hrs 3 cr.

- one course with an MUSHL prefix at the 200-level; and 6 credits of music electives, 3 of which must be at the 200-level or higher.

Prospective minors who have already mastered the material taught in the required 100-level courses MUSTH 10100 and/or MUSHL 10100 or MUSHL 10700) may be exempted from these courses by passing the same entrance examination that is required of prospective music majors (see above). Music minors may substitute more advanced courses in any area of music study, including private lessons (subject to availability) and ensembles, for the courses from which they are exempt. PLEASE NOTE: Music minors who wish to take private lessons for credit (MUSPF 40100) must first pass both the performance audition and music theory portions of the entrance examination.

Grading Policies

Students must have grades of C or better in all prerequisite courses in order to take courses that are required for the major. The grade of CR may not be elected in major courses. In accordance with Hunter College policy, a course may not be taken more than twice without permission of the department.

Honors

To qualify for departmental honors in music, a student must have a 3.5 grade point average in major courses and complete an honors project, taken under the following course number. The project, which must be approved in advance by the Policy Committee, may be a research paper on a historical, theoretical, or other topic; an original composition; or a recital. All projects should demonstrate an advanced level, a broad scope, and a high quality, and must be done under the supervision of a faculty member of the Music Department.

MUSTH 49100 - Honors Project
Upper Jr/Sr only. Individual project of large scope in music history, theory, composition, or performance.

prereq: minimum music GPA of 3.5, perm undergrad adviser

1 sem 3 cr.

MUSTH 49200 - Honors Project

prereq: MUSTH 49100

1 sem 3 cr.

Graduate Study

Seniors of high academic standing who are recommended by the department may be permitted to take graduate courses for undergraduate credit. Seniors within 9 credits of graduation may apply to the Admissions Office for permission to take graduate courses creditable toward the MA degree.

Music/Music Teacher Education Pre-K-12 - BA/MA

Major Programs

The Department of Music offers three undergraduate and two BA/MA major programs to fit individual interests and requirements. Students must take three examinations before declaring a music major:

1. Music notation, rudimentary theory, and basic aural skills. This examination is prerequisite to MUSTH 22000 (Music Theory I).

   Students who do not pass it must take MUSTH 10100 (Basic Musicianship) or learn the material on their own, then repeat the examination.

2. Elementary music history and literature. This examination is prerequisite to MUSHL 20500 (Music History I). Students who do not pass it must take MUSHL 10100 (Introduction to Music) or learn the material on their own, then repeat the examination.

3. Performance audition on an instrument or voice. This examination is prerequisite to MUSPF 40100 (Private Instruction in Instrument or Voice). Students whose performance skills fall below New York State School Music Association (NYSSMA) level 2, equivalent to about one year of study, must take MUSPF 21100-MUSPF 21200 (Voice I-II), MUSPF 21300-MUSPF 21400 (Piano III), or private lessons at their own expense (without credit), then repeat the examination. Students with no experience in performance may defer the audition until the end of their first semester of study.

   Prospective majors should consult the Music Department’s undergraduate adviser as soon as possible to discuss these examinations and any prerequisite courses they may need before beginning the major.

Piano Proficiency Requirement

All music majors must demonstrate elementary proficiency at the piano. Students should plan to fulfill this requirement during their first year of study. A passing grade on the piano proficiency examination is a prerequisite for the second year of study in music theory (MUSTH 32000 and MUSTH 32100). Students entering Hunter with limited keyboard background may take MUSPF 21300-MUSPF 21400 (Piano I and II) for elective credit or private lessons in piano at their own expense. The Music Department office has a list of recommended piano teachers.

5- to 6-Year Dual BA/MA Degree in Teacher Education
Exceptionally qualified students may obtain a master’s degree in teacher education in 5-6 years with a minimum of 140 credits. Requirements are the same as those for the 42-credit BA plus requirements for the MA degree in music teacher education (see graduate catalog). Students may be admitted to this program only after they have completed at least 60 credits of college work, including at least 29 credits in music (three semesters of music history, four semesters of music theory, and four semesters of musicianship). At least 12 credits (including six in music) must have been taken at Hunter College, and students must have a cumulative GPA of at least 3.5 with no grade of less than B in any music course. They must have passed the Music Department’s piano proficiency examination and an audition-interview demonstrating reasonable mastery of an instrument or voice. In addition, they must either have passed the LAST (Liberal Arts and Sciences Test) or fulfilled the following requirements of the School of Education:

a. Completion of developmental courses;

b. Grade of B- or better in ENGL 12000 or a 200-level English course;

c. Application, on-site essay, and interview with the School of Education;

d. Proof of negative result on TB test;

e. Maximum of 6 credits taken with CR/NC grades, or else calculation of those grades as C/F for computation of grade-point average.

Admission requires the consent of both the Music Department and the School of Education. See the School of Education section of both the undergraduate and graduate catalogs for more information.

Minor

For 25-credit music majors, the minor consists of 12 credits in a field of study leading to a BA degree and approved by the Music Department adviser. Double-majors and students in other music major programs are exempt from the minor requirement. Minor courses can be used without limit to satisfy stages 1, 2, and 3 of the GER.

Minor for non-Majors

For students minoring in music, the requirements are determined by the student’s major department. See your major adviser. The Music Department recommends the following courses. Because 300-level courses are intended primarily for music majors and have extensive prerequisites, students whose major departments require a 300-level course in the minor may, with permission of their adviser, substitute a 200-level course in the music minor.

MUSTH 10100 - Music Theory Fundamentals

GER 2/D
For non-majors. Introduction to music theory, sight singing, and ear training.
3 hrs 3 cr.
or

Hunter College Scholarships, Awards, Prizes and Other Financial Assistance for Marticulated Students

Hunter College recognizes academic merit and need through a growing number of scholarship and fellowship programs. In general, these fall into two categories: scholarships and fellowships for incoming students; and scholarships, fellowships, awards and prizes for continuing students.

Incoming Students

There are several four-year scholarship opportunities for incoming first-year, full-time students, including the CUNY Macaulay Honors College financial package, Teacher Academy, Athena Scholarship, Dormitory Scholars Awards and Scholars Awards.
Continuing Students

Scholarship opportunities, awards and prizes for currently enrolled students are generally based on need, merit and, in some cases, area of study. The Office of Student Services publishes The Grants Guide, a resource listing of scholarship opportunities, which is available in the Office of Student Services, 1119 Hunter East and online at http://www.studentsevices.hunter.cuny.edu/grant/.

Incoming and continuing students who wish to be considered for awards from scholarship funds administered through the college should submit a Hunter College Scholarship application, available online at the following websites:

http://studentservices.hunter.cuny.edu;

http://www.hunter.cuny.edu/finad;

For more information, contact the coordinator of scholarship opportunities in the Office of Financial Aid (212) 650-3550.

Other Sources of Financial Assistance Hunter College is committed to providing its students with the maximum amount of financial assistance available from government grants, loans and work-study opportunities. Information and assistance in obtaining financial aid is available from the Office of Financial Aid, Hunter North Room 241 or by logging onto www.hunter.cuny.edu/finad.

Hunter College Foundation

Established in 1991, the Hunter College Foundation is dedicated to ensuring continued access to the highest quality public higher education and to helping Hunter maintain its longstanding reputation for academic distinction. Undergraduate scholarships and graduate fellowships may be set up in the Hunter College Foundation.

The Scholarship and Welfare Fund

The Scholarship and Welfare Fund of the Alumni Association, a not-for-profit group established in 1949, administers a number of funds to provide scholarships to students who otherwise might not be able to complete their education. For over fifty years, the Scholarship and Welfare Fund has contributed substantially to the education of Hunter College students. Contributions from alumni, friends, chapters and classes have provided the funds needed for this support.

Many endowed scholarships have been established through funds donated in the names of individuals, classes and chapters of the Alumni Association to provide assistance to students on the basis of both scholarship and financial need. They include college-wide awards and awards to graduating seniors.

New York State Financial Aid Programs

Return to Financial Aid

Tuition Assistance Program (TAP)
This grant is awarded to New York State residents who are enrolled full-time in a degree-granting program and meet the income criteria. To be eligible for a TAP award, each semester students must register for 12 credits which are directly attributable to their degree.

Students should consult with an adviser in the Office of Advising Services or their major department when planning their programs to ensure continued TAP eligibility. SEEK students should consult with their SEEK counselor.

Awards ranging from $200 to $5,000 are made to dependent students and independent students with dependents whose New York State taxable income is $80,000 or less or to independent students with no dependents if the taxable income is $10,000 or less. Students may receive awards for eight semesters; SEEK students may receive awards for ten semesters. A student with a disability that prevents attendance on a full-time basis may be eligible to receive TAP while attending on a part-time basis.

CUNY Student Tuition Assistance (CUSTA)

Students who are otherwise eligible for a maximum TAP award but whose award is reduced because they have received four semesters of payment may be eligible for a CUSTA award up to $100 a semester.

Aid for Part-Time Study (APTS)

This award provides assistance to students who attend less than full time, have accrued a minimum of 6 credits (not equated) and have not exhausted their TAP eligibility. In order to be eligible, a student must be a New York State resident and enrolled for at least 6 credits.

The legislature established the Aid for Part-time Study (APTS) program in 1984 in a new section 666 of the Education Law. Aid for Part-time Study is a different program from Part-time TAP (established in 2006) with different requirements. One difference is that there is no prior study (prior earned credits) requirement for APTS.

The program is campus-based: that is, individual campuses that decide to participate in the program select recipients and determine award amounts after HESC allocates funds based on an institution’s prior year part-time degree credit enrollment. APTS is not an entitlement program and not all potentially eligible students will necessarily receive an award. Institutions have the discretion to determine policy for administering the program, to make the decisions, and to provide awards to students who demonstrate the greatest financial need until the institution’s allotted funds are exhausted. Statute does not define need of specify how the need is to be determined.

New York State World Trade Center Memorial Scholarships

The World Trade Center Memorial Scholarship Program for study at the City University of New York is intended for victims, spouses and children of the victims who died or were severely disabled as a result of the September 11 terrorist attacks. The program also provides scholarships to the spouses and children of those who died or were severely disabled during ongoing rescue and recovery efforts, including firefighters, police officers, peace officers and emergency medical service workers.

The scholarships cover the cost of tuition, fees, books, supplies, transportation and room and board, if applicable, for four years of full-time undergraduate study or for five academic years of a program of academic study as defined by the Commissioner of Education.

The scholarships were established by Governor George Pataki’s Executive Order 113 and related legislation to establish such a program, along with a CUNY Board of Trustees resolution.
Applications are available online at: http://www.hesc.com/Forms/WTC_scholarship_inst.html

Veterans Tuition Award Program

Eligible students are those who are New York State residents and discharged under honorable conditions from the U.S. Armed forces and who are:

- Persian Gulf Veterans who served in the Persian Gulf on or after August 2, 1990.
- Afghanistan Veterans who served in Afghanistan during hostilities on or after September 11, 2001.
- Veterans of the armed forces of the United States who served in hostilities that occurred after February 28, 1961 as evidenced by receipt of an Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, Navy Expeditionary Medal or a Marine Corps Expeditionary Medal.

They must satisfy all other eligibility requirements including filing for TAP and Federal Pell Grants. Students must demonstrate good academic standing and meet college guidelines for pursuit of this awards program. Awards cannot exceed the cost of tuition. After the initial year eligibility is established, students must re-file a supplement yearly.

Supplements are available on request from New York State Higher Education Services Corporation (HESC) at (888) 697-4372. All applications must be completed by June 30th of the academic year for which an award is sought.

For more information see the HESC Web site at: http://www.hesc.com/bulletin.nsf/

Army Reserve National Guard-Army Continuing Education System (ARNG-ACES)

The New York State Army Reserve National Guard offers tuition assistance through two programs for full- and part-time students. All current and future members of the New York Army Reserve National Guard (ARNG) are eligible except for members serving on active or full-time duty and those on Active Guard Reserve status. ARNG members who also receive veterans’ benefits are not eligible. For full time students, the program is limited to tuition costs, instructional fees in lieu of tuition and laboratory or shop fees specifically required as a condition of enrollment in a course. Part-time students must be enrolled half-time (7 or fewer credits).

Commissioned officers must agree to remain in the ARNG for four years after the last course for which tuition assistance has been provided is completed. For more information on these programs, contact the Civilian Education Office at (518) 786-4500.

State Aid to Native Americans

Enrolled members of a New York State tribe and their children who are attending, or planning to attend, a college in New York State and are New York residents. Awards are made to all eligible applicants. There is no qualifying examination. Awards are available for two-, four- or five-year programs.

Eligible and/or certified American Indian students are eligible to receive grant awards of up to $2,000 per year for up to four years of full-time study (five years for specific programs requiring five years to complete degree requirements).

If funding is available, eligible students may receive aid for summer course work. Any aid a student receives for summer school study is deducted from the student’s maximum entitlement for four years of full-time college study.

Prorated amounts are available for students taking fewer than 12 credits. Contact Native American Education Unit, New York State Education Department, Room 374 Education Building, Albany, NY 12234. Call (518) 474-0537 for information. The deadlines are July 15 for the fall semester, December 31 for the spring semester and May 20 for the summer semester.

Congressional Teacher Scholarship

Congressional Teacher Scholarships are available to undergraduate students who agree to teach in areas in which there is a critical shortage of teachers. Recipients must agree to teach two years in the U.S. for each annual payment received. The service obligation must be fulfilled within 10 years of completing the undergraduate education program. Recipients who fail to meet these requirements must repay all or part of the award plus accrued interest.

Applicants must be or have placed in the top 10 percent of their high school graduating class and be New York State residents who are or will be enrolled in a specific program during the upcoming academic year. Winners receive up to $5,000 a year for a period of no more than four years of full-time undergraduate study. For more information or for an application, contact the Bureau of Higher and Professional Education Testing, Albany, NY 12230; (518) 474-6394.

Child of Veteran Award

Students, whose parent(s) served in the U.S. Armed Forces during specified periods of war or national emergency and, as a result of service, died or suffered a 40% or more disability, is classified as missing in action or was a prisoner of war, may be eligible for this award from New York State. The veteran must currently be a New York State resident or have been a New York State resident at the time of death, if death occurred during or as a result of service.

A recipient of a Child of Veteran Award can receive $450 a year for four years of undergraduate study without consideration of income or tuition costs. However, the combined Child of Veteran Award and TAP award may not exceed the amount of tuition charges. Students must initially establish eligibility by submitting a Child Of Veteran Award Supplement form with the New York State Higher Education Services Corporation (HESC) before applying for payment. For more information see the HESC Web site at: http://www.hesc.com/bulletin.nsf/

Memorial Scholarships for Families of Deceased Firefighters, Volunteer Firefighters, Police Officers, Peace Officers and Emergency Medical Service Workers

This award provides financial aid to children, spouses and financial dependents of deceased firefighters, volunteer firefighters, police officers, peace officers and emergency medical service workers who have died in the line of duty in service to the State of New York.

Memorial Scholarships provide funds to help meet the cost of attending college. The award covers up to four years of full-time undergraduate study (or five years in an approved five-year bachelor’s degree program).

Students must establish eligibility by submitting a Memorial Scholarship Supplement, which is available from the New York State Higher Education Services Corporation (HESC). Once eligibility has been established, the student must submit an application for payment by May 1 of the academic year for which payment of the scholarship is sought.

To apply for payment, the student must complete the FAFSA and apply for TAP. For more information see the HESC Web site at: http://www.hesc.com/bulletin.nsf/
Professional Opportunity Scholarships

Professional Opportunity Scholarships (for approved professional programs, e.g., accounting, architecture, engineering, nursing, occupational therapy, ophthalmic dispensing, pharmacy, physical therapy, dental hygiene, landscape architecture, physician’s assistant, law, podiatry, optometry, psychology, social work, veterinary medicine, speech/language pathology/audiology) are available to U.S. citizens and permanent New York State residents. Students must be enrolled full-time (matriculated) in an approved program of study in New York State. Students must agree to practice in New York State for one year in their chosen profession for each annual payment received. Students must demonstrate good academic standing and meet college guidelines for pursuit of the program.

Recipients must be chosen in the following order of priority:

1. Economically disadvantaged (prescribed criteria) and a minority group member historically underrepresented in the profession.

2. Minority group member underrepresented in the profession.

3. Candidate who is enrolled in or is a graduate of College Discovery (CD), Search for Education, Elevation and Knowledge (SEEK), Educational Opportunity Program (EOP), Higher Educational Opportunity Programs (HEOP).

Awards range from $1,000 to $5,000 a year for up to four or five years in certain programs. TAP and some other benefits may supplement this award. Contact the college Financial Aid Office or the New York State Education Dept., Bureau of Post secondary Grants Administration, Cultural Education Center, Room 5B68, Albany, NY 12230, (518) 474-5705. Applications must be submitted each year. The deadline each year is May 1 of the award year. (Example: The deadline for 2012-2013 is May 1, 2013.)

Search for Education, Elevation and Knowledge (SEEK)

The SEEK Program provides financial aid and support services (concentrated counseling, remedial instruction, and tutoring) to educationally and economically disadvantaged students attending a senior or technical college. Applicants must be residents of New York State; have received a New York State high school diploma or equivalency; be ineligible for admission under normal standards, but demonstrate potential for completing a college program; and meet family income guidelines as determined by the state.

Students apply for entry to the SEEK program through CUNY Admissions. Students must file a FAFSA and provide the Financial Aid Office with supporting documentation to have their eligibility confirmed.

Nondegree Students

Return to Admission to the College

Students who are not interested in earning a degree but wish to enroll in college credit bearing courses relating to career advancement, preparation for graduate school or other special interests may be admitted as nondegree students. All students wishing to enroll at Hunter in a nondegree status must obtain an application for nondegree admission from the Hunter College website www.hunter.cuny.edu or the College Welcome Center, Room 100 Hunter North. This application, along with verification of at least a high school diploma or 24 earned college credits, must be submitted to the Office of Admissions. Neither a high school certification nor an IEP diploma is acceptable (see the nondegree application for further information.) A nondegree admission fee of $65 will be charged at the student’s first registration. Nondegree students may register for any course for which space is available at the time of registration, provided they have met the prerequisites and have taken and passed applicable placement exams. (Check with the appropriate departments for more information concerning prerequisites and placement exams.) Such students: (1) are permitted to attempt up to 12 credit hours before they are required to take the CUNY Skills Assessment Test(s) and, providing they pass all parts of the test(s), must (2) either matriculate or leave the college when they have attempted 24 credits. Courses in which the student receives a grade of “W” do not count toward the 12- or 24-credit limitations. Students are permitted to take the CUNY Skills Assessment Test(s) at any time before the 12-credit limit. Generally, all parts of the Skills Assessment Test(s) must be taken, with the understanding that failing any part of the test(s) means the student cannot register for any further courses at Hunter College until all parts are successfully completed. (For student options in this case, see below.)

Baccalaureate, master’s or doctoral degree holders (from a college or university accredited by a regional U.S. accrediting association) are exempt from testing and the 24-credit limit, provided proof of the degree is submitted along with their application for admission.

For students who have failed any part of the CUNY Skills Assessment Tests and consequently cannot enroll at Hunter in a nondegree or matriculated status, remediation is available at CUNY community colleges. Generally, students must matriculate at these colleges before they can take the appropriate remedial courses. Upon completing the relevant courses, students may apply for readmission to Hunter.

Credits earned at Hunter College as a non-degree student are automatically transferred into a degree program upon matriculation at Hunter. Those credits earned at Hunter will be accepted as residency credits.

Applications for all categories of nondegree students must be filed by April 1st for summer, May 1st for fall, October 1st for winter and November 1st for spring.

Return to Public Safety, College Regulations and Policies

The college Advisory Committee on Campus Safety will provide upon request all campus crime statistics as reported to the U.S. Department of Education, as well as the annual campus security report. The campus security report includes:

1. the campus crime statistics for the most recent calendar year and the two preceding calendar years;
2. campus policies regarding procedures and facilities to report criminal actions or other emergencies on campus;
3. policies concerning the security of and access to campus facilities;
4. policies on campus law enforcement;
5. a description of campus programs to inform students and employees about campus security procedures and practices and to encourage students and employees to be responsible for their own security and the security of others;
6. campus crime prevention programs;

7. policy concerning the monitoring through the police of criminal activity at off-campus locations of student organizations officially recognized by the college;

8. policies on illegal drugs, alcohol and underage drinking;

9. where information provided by the State on registered sex offenders may be obtained (also see below); and

10. policies on campus sexual assault programs aimed at the prevention of sex offenses and procedures to be followed when a sex offense occurs. This information is maintained pursuant to the federal Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act.

The campus crime statistics and the annual campus security report are available at the reference desk of the library and the college Web site at http://publicsafety.hunter.cuny.edu/subpages/annualcrimereport.shtml. If you wish to be mailed copies of the campus crime statistics and the annual campus security report, you should contact Louis Mader, Director of Public Safety and Security at (212) 772-4521 and copies will be mailed to you within 10 days. The U.S. Department of Education’s Web site address for campus crime statistics is http://www.ed.gov/security/InstDetail.asp (then input the name of the school).

In accordance with the federal Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act, registered sex offenders now are required to register the name and address of any college at which he or she is a student or employee. The New York State Division of Criminal Justice maintains a registry of convicted sex offenders and informs the college’s chief security (public safety) officer of the presence on campus of a registered sex offender as a student or employee. You may contact the college’s chief security officer, Louis Mader, Director of Public Safety and Security, B122 West, (212) 772-4521 to obtain information about Level 2 or Level 3 registered sex offenders on campus. To obtain information about Level 3 offenders, you may contact the Division’s registry Web site at http://www.criminaljustice.state.ny.us/nsor/sor_about.htm and then click on “Search for Level 3 Sex Offenders” or access the directory at the college’s public safety department or police precinct. To obtain information about Level 2 offenders, you need to contact the public safety department, local police precinct in which the offender resides or attends college, or the Division’s sex offender registry at 800-262-3257.
