Indiana Wesleyan University at a Glance

Founded: 1920

Mission Statement: Indiana Wesleyan University is a Christ-centered academic community committed to changing the world by developing students in character, scholarship and leadership.

President: David W. Wright, Ph.D.

Enrollment: With over 13,000 students, IWU has the largest student enrollment in the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities and among private institutions in the state of Indiana.

Denominational Affiliation: The Wesleyan Church

Accreditation: Higher Learning Commission (see accreditation (p. 13) for complete listing)

Diversity of Learning: IWU serves a diverse student population through traditional and adult-centered on-site and online academic programs.

Academic Units: On July 1, 2009, Indiana Wesleyan University instituted a new structure built around the following principal academic units:

The College of Arts and Sciences (CAS) serves undergraduate and graduate residential and commuter students on the home Marion campus. CAS is comprised of five schools, which offer more than 70 majors in a traditional semester format. CAS also houses the John Wesley Honors College and the Graduate Counseling Program. Approximately 2,500 students are enrolled.

World Changing Aims

Mission: Indiana Wesleyan University is a Christ-centered academic community committed to changing the world by developing students in character, scholarship, and leadership.

A World Changer is a servant leader who exhibits the following:

1. Knowledge

- a. Basics of the Christian Faith: A knowledge of the basic themes and truths of the Old and New Testaments and the basic beliefs of Christianity, an awareness of Bible-based morality and social responsibility, and a reasoned understanding of a Christian worldview and the meaning of salvation as expressed in evangelical Christianity.
- b. Liberal Arts Foundation: A solid grasp of the general studies that have been associated with a liberal arts education.
- c. Competency in a Discipline: Competency in at least one major discipline of the university curriculum.
- d. Integration of Knowledge: The integration of knowledge with the Christian faith and across academic disciplines.
- e. Leadership Understanding: Knowledge of the key components and dynamics essential to effective servant-minded leadership in any setting that leads to positive world changing outcomes.

2. Skills

- a. Creativity: Making connections between various bodies of information.
- b. Critical Thinking: Analyzing information in order to determine the validity of competing truth claims, and to solve problems.
- c. Communication Skills: Reading critically, writing clearly, and communicating effectively.
- d. Self-discipline: Demonstrating habits of correction or regulation of oneself for the sake of improvement.
- e. Leadership: Taking action to effect change by mobilizing others to accomplish a shared vision.

3. Dispositions (Beliefs and Attitudes)

- a. Commitment to Truth: A commitment to the search for Truth as revealed in the Bible and in God's created order.
- b. Lifelong Learning: A commitment to discovering and processing information in preparation for a life of learning.
- c. Human Worth: The belief that God created all life and therefore all people have worth.
- d. Inclusion: The willingness to interact with persons of different perspectives and cultures without surrendering a commitment to truth.
- e. Stewardship: The belief that the created order is a trust from God and a commitment to the wise use of all the resources of life.
- f. Life Calling: The confidence of an overriding purpose for one's life based on a relationship to God, an understanding of self, and a personal response to the needs of the world.
- g. Agents of Change: A commitment to change the world for Christ.
- h. Servanthood: A commitment to meet the needs of others before one's own self interests.

Strategic Profile

Core Values

The primary value for Indiana Wesleyan University is Christlikeness. The challenge to follow Christ compels us to pursue a personal and professional lifestyle of

1. Commitment.
2. Leadership.
3. Service.

4. Stewardship.
5. Innovation.
6. Diversity.

Mission

Indiana Wesleyan University is a Christ-centered academic community committed to changing the world by developing students in character, scholarship and leadership.

Charge for Indiana Wesleyan University

Indiana Wesleyan University will prepare each student to become a world changer. We will accomplish this by drawing students into an integrated experience of intellectual challenge, spiritual growth and leadership development. Thus we will

1. Call students to Christian character.
2. Expect academic excellence.
3. Equip them for success in their vocations.
4. Mentor them in leadership.
5. Prepare them for service.

Statement of Faith

We believe... in God the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

We believe... that Jesus Christ, the Son, suffered in our place on the cross, that He died but rose again and that He now sits at the Father's right hand until He returns to judge all men at the last day.

We believe... in the Holy Scriptures as the inspired and inerrant Word of God.

We believe... that by the grace of God, every person has the ability and responsibility to choose between right and wrong, and that those who repent of their sin and believe in the Lord Jesus Christ are justified by faith.

We believe... that God not only counts believers as righteous, but that He makes them righteous; freeing them of sin's dominion at conversion, purifying their hearts by faith and perfecting them in love at entire sanctification, and providing for their growth in grace at every stage of their spiritual life, enabling them through the presence and power of the Holy Spirit to live a victorious life.

The university is a member of NC-SARA, the National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements, and has approvals or exemptions from all states from which it enrolls online students.

Nondiscrimination in University Programs

Indiana Wesleyan University (IWU) is committed to equal opportunity in employment and education. Indiana Wesleyan admits students and employs individuals of any race, sex, color, disability or national or ethnic origin. These have access to all the rights, privileges, programs and activities generally made available to students or employees at the university. IWU does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, national or ethnic origin, disability, age or marital status in the administration of its educational policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other administered programs. Inquiries or complaints should be addressed on the appropriate form to the Office of the Provost, Indiana Wesleyan University.

Academic Freedom

Students and faculty of the academic community that forms Indiana Wesleyan University are encouraged both to explore and discuss ideas freely and fully and also to be fully responsible to the university mission, seeking to integrate all aspects of a Christian worldview under the Lordship of Jesus Christ. Faith mandates and illuminates learning; learning clarifies and expands faith.

Right Reserved to Change

The right is reserved to change any of the rules and regulations of the university at any time, including those relating to admission, instruction and graduation. The right to withdraw curricula and specific courses, alter course content, change the calendar, and impose or increase fees is similarly reserved. All such changes are effective at such times as the proper authorities determine and may apply not only to prospective students but also to those already enrolled in the university.

Disability Services

IWU is committed to providing equal access to students with disabilities. Further information related to specific processes for seeking assistance and services can be located in the student's area of study (College of Arts and Sciences, College of Adult and Professional Studies, School of Nursing, School of Health Sciences, or Wesley Seminary at Indiana Wesleyan University.)

Students who believe that they have experienced discrimination on the basis of a disability can seek resolution by following the steps as outlined in the Grievance and Appeal Policy (Non-academic).

Records, Rights and Privacy

The university complies with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 and as it appears in final form in June 1976, with subsequent amendments. This law protects the rights of students to review their own records and to challenge any of the content of the record. Students may request access to their records from the following offices:

1. Permanent grade records (transcripts) for all students are kept in the Marion Campus Registrar's Office.
2. Records are maintained by the Registrar's Office, the Office of Student Services, the Accounting Offices, and the Offices of Financial Aid.

The law also protects students from the unlawful disclosure of information about their academic performance, personal campus discipline, or financial status.

The law allows the disclosure of five classes of "directory information" as follows:

1. Name, address, telephone number, dates of attendance, and class.
2. Previous institution(s) attended, major field of study, awards, honors, degree(s) conferred, including dates.
3. Past and present participation in officially recognized sports and activities, physical factors (height and weight) of athletes, date and place of birth.
4. Schedule of classes.
5. Photograph.

A student may request in writing that one or all of the five categories of directory information be restricted from publication. In no case will grade, discipline, or financial information be disclosed except in keeping with the law.

Requests are filed with either the Registrar's Office or the Office of Student Services.

Safety Policies and Campus Crime Statistics

IWU Safety Policies can be accessed at <https://www.indwes.edu/about/student-consumer-information/safety> and includes crime statistics on certain reportable crimes, as well as policies concerning alcohol and drug use, crime reporting and prevention, sexual assault and other related matters. Anyone wishing a paper copy of the policies may contact the Office of Campus Police at 765-677-2497.

Drug Abuse Prevention

Drug abuse in the United States has become a major problem, and students at Indiana Wesleyan University are not immune. If you need assistance with a drug abuse problem, we encourage you to seek help at your local community drug abuse prevention center. To talk to someone in a strictly confidential atmosphere, please feel free to contact The Center for Student Success (765-677-2257) at our Marion campus. All conversations are private and will not affect your attendance at the university.

If you would like to talk to someone outside Indiana Wesleyan University, please feel free to call the following number, or a hospital or treatment center in your area:

1. Substance Abuse & Mental Health Services Administration, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20857, 800-662-HELP (4357), TTY, 800-487-4889 or www.findtreatment.gov.

Alcohol, Illegal Drugs, and Firearms

Alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, and firearms are not permitted on Indiana Wesleyan University premises, including rented classrooms and any building or parts of buildings owned or operated by Indiana Wesleyan University. Refusal to comply may result in dismissal from the university.

Tobacco Usage Prohibited

Students are to refrain from using tobacco products (including but not limited to cigarettes, e-cigarettes, vaping, etc.) in all Indiana Wesleyan University classrooms, including rented classrooms and any building or parts of buildings owned or operated by Indiana Wesleyan University. Refusal to comply may result in dismissal from the university.

Technology - Acceptable Use Policy

Indiana Wesleyan University (IWU) provides technology systems for the purposes of educating university students, promoting academic research, communicating with university constituents, and administering the daily business of IWU. It is the desire of IWU that technology systems provided by the university be used in a manner that reflects the goals and mission of Indiana Wesleyan. These policies have been established to promote an environment that is safe and secure for all constituents and encourage students to act in a professional and responsible manner.

Technology Equipment:

Technology equipment provided by the university is the property of IWU, and as such IWU retains the right to remove, reallocate, or change equipment at its discretion. No information residing on any computer hardware owned by IWU should be considered private and therefore is subject to review by university staff.

Reporting abuses of technology equipment is expected as it assists the university in providing functional equipment and services to the IWU community.

Computer and Network Access:

Students shall not access files or retrieve any digitally stored information unless authorized to do so. Students shall not attempt to gain access to any entity via electronic means without authorization. Examples of activities that are inappropriate include; attempting to gain unauthorized access to computers or networks owned and or operated by another person or group; and use of an account on a shared computer or network other than the one assigned to the user.

Internet Usage:

Inappropriate use of the Internet to access sites such as pornography, gambling, illegal downloads of content, and hate speech is outside of legitimate academic research and is therefore prohibited. IWU monitors and filters all internet activity conducted on university equipment and systems and will, at its discretion, use evidence gathered for disciplinary actions if necessary.

Email:

1. Email account creation / account termination

- Email accounts are created when a student enrolls for classes at IWU. The accounts are maintained while the student is actively taking classes.
- Accounts will be terminated for inappropriate use, after graduation, or termination of their enrollment.

2. Accessing email

- Email access is achieved via a university supported Web browser. These include MS Explorer, Firefox, and Safari.
- Only users for which an email account has been created are approved to use the Indiana Wesleyan University email system.
- Students are required to protect their user name and password and NEVER share this confidential information.
- Students should never allow someone else to use their email account for sending or receiving email unless under direct supervision of them. By granting access, the student assumes responsibility of any and all activities of the guest user.

3. Proper and Ethical Use of Email

- The email system exists to enhance the communication abilities of the Indiana Wesleyan University community. It should be used for purposes that enhance communication and reflect our desire to be Christ-like.
- Appropriate Content
 - At any time and without prior notice, Indiana Wesleyan University administration reserves the right to examine email, personal file directories and other information stored on Indiana Wesleyan University computers. This examination helps to ensure compliance with internal policies, supports the performance of internal investigations and assists with the management of Indiana Wesleyan University information systems. As such, the Vice President for Information Technology or any of his/her assigned representatives may monitor the content of email. Use of the email system constitutes acceptance of such monitoring.

- This policy should be read and interpreted in conjunction with all other Indiana Wesleyan University policies including but not limited to policies prohibiting harassment, discrimination, offensive conduct or inappropriate behavior. Students are expressly prohibited from using email for any unethical purposes, including but not limited to pornography, violence, gambling, racism, harassment or any illegal activity. Further, transmitting any message that may be perceived as containing derogatory, obscene, profane, lewd, harassing or inflammatory images or remarks about an individual or group's race, color religion, national origin, age, disability, gender or other protected class status is strictly prohibited, and is subject to corrective action.
 - Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to use email filtering/spam blocking technologies in an effort to minimize unsolicited bulk email. As a result, there may be instances where legitimate email may be inadvertently blocked or quarantined. In such cases, the office of Information Technology will make every effort to correct those situations.
4. Email messages cannot be considered private and may be monitored by university personnel. Such messages may be subject to disclosure to outside third parties, including the court system and law enforcement agencies, under certain circumstances. Please be aware that email messages are not encrypted and can be viewed by anyone with the intention, ability, and equipment to do so.

Copyright:

Students are responsible to comply with copyright laws and applicable licenses that apply to software, files, documents, messages and other material they wish to download or copy. Proprietary materials belonging to entities other than the student should not be transmitted on the university's email system or via the university's Internet connection. All students obtaining access to any material prepared or created by another company or individual must respect any attached copyrights and may not copy, retrieve, modify or forward such copyrighted materials, except with written permission of the lawful owner. Students receiving electronic files via the Indiana Wesleyan University's email system or Internet connection should ensure the sender is the lawful owner or has obtained the necessary license.

Use of Indiana Wesleyan University Identity:

The Indiana Wesleyan University name, seal, logo, telephone numbers or address are reserved for official university business and may not be used for any other purpose including electronically (fax, Internet, etc.) in advertising or for non-university sponsored events without explicit written permission.

Exclusive Property:

All equipment, services and technologies provided to students as part of Indiana Wesleyan University's computer system constitute the exclusive property of Indiana Wesleyan University. Similarly, all information composed, transmitted, received or stored via the IWU computer system is also considered the property of Indiana Wesleyan University. As such, all stored information is subject to disclosure to management, law enforcement and other third parties, with or without notice to the student.

Policy Remedies:

Individuals found to be in violation of any part of the policy will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal from the university. Any known or suspected violations of this or any other university policy should be reported immediately to the office of the Vice President for Student Development and the Vice President for Information Technology.

Responsible Conduct of Research

Indiana Wesleyan University is committed to the highest level of integrity and ethical behavior in the development, implementation, collection, evaluation, and dissemination of information related to research. IWU is also committed to the avoidance of research misconduct. The University follows the codes established by the Office of Research Integrity (ORI), and the Office of Human Research Protections (OHRP), and provides education to students, personnel, and research affiliates on the codes and practices of RCR and on the consequences of misconduct as per appropriate principal academic unit policies.

Non-Academic Appeal Policy

A student may seek recourse from any university non-academic program or employment-related dispute or alleged discrimination on the basis of race, national origin, color, sex, disability, or age, including alleged violation of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Educational Amendments Acts of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, or other state or federal legislation.

A student who wishes to file such an appeal must first contact the person or department concerned to resolve the dispute informally. Such contact must occur within 30 days of the incident that generates the dispute.

All non-academic grievance and appeals will be reported to the human resource department. Since the appeal process is a private university administrative process, legal counsel or representation is not appropriate.

The complainant will be notified of results throughout the process.

Honesty, Cheating, Plagiarism and Forgery

Academic dishonesty is inconsistent with scholarship and the pursuit of knowledge and Christian character. Thus, Indiana Wesleyan University expects students to be honest in all academic work and with all university records. Incidents of cheating, plagiarism, falsification of any university documents or any other dishonest action will be investigated and judged by the appropriate academic leader. It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of policies regulating academic conduct including definitions of academic dishonesty, the possible sanctions, and the appeals process.

Coursework

Students are expected to exhibit honesty in the classroom, whether onsite or online, in homework and on quizzes and tests. Each instructor should define what constitutes honest work in a specific course. Any deviation from ordinary standards, such as the permitted use of notes for an examination or an “open book” test, should be stated clearly by the instructor.

Cheating is defined as the use or attempted use of unauthorized materials or receiving unauthorized assistance or communication during any academic exercise. Examples of cheating include:

1. Submitting work for academic evaluation that is not the student’s own.
2. Copying answers from another student during an examination.
3. Using prepared notes or materials during an examination.
4. Permitting another student to copy one's work.
5. Plagiarism – see below for definition
6. Falsification.
7. Other misrepresentations of academic achievement submitted for evaluation or a grade.
8. The submission of papers or other work that one has submitted in a previous class or classes without appropriate citation and/or permission of the instructor.
9. Facilitating the academic dishonesty of others. Examples include, but are not limited to, uploading work to a tutoring website or sharing work with friends, roommates, and classmates.

The Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, (7th, 2020) indicates “Plagiarism is the act of presenting the words, ideas, or images of another as your own; it denies authors or creators of content the credit they are due, whether deliberate or unintentional, plagiarism violates ethical standards in scholarship” (p. 254). Students must not take credit for work that is not their own. Plagiarism is a moral, ethical and legal offense.

Examples of plagiarism include, but are not limited to:

1. Copying another person's actual words without the use of quotation marks, source citation, or footnotes.
2. Presenting another person's ideas or theories in your own words without citing the source.
3. Failing to acknowledge contribution and collaboration from others.
4. Using information that is not common knowledge without citing the source.

5. Submitting downloaded papers or parts of papers, "cutting and pasting," or paraphrasing or copying information from Internet sources without proper acknowledgment of a source.
6. Submitting papers acquired or purchased from another individual or organization.
7. Submitting an original paper or work completed for one course to meet the requirements for another course (self-plagiarism as per the 7th edition of the APA manual, p. 256).

Sanctions

Because the matter of cheating cumulatively leads to dismissal, faculty are required to report each case to the appropriate university administrators who in turn reports the case to the academic leader of the specific college/school. Evidence must be in hand before any action will be taken to confront and accuse a student of cheating.

Any student apprehended and charged with cheating, including plagiarism, during his or her college matriculation, shall receive the following discipline:

1. First incident of cheating: no credit (i.e., no points given) in paper, assignment, or exam.
2. Second incident of cheating: failure in the course involved.
3. Third incident of cheating: dismissal from the university.
4. Students in graduate programs or graduate courses are expected to understand clearly the nature of cheating and are subject to dismissal from the university for any egregious act of academic dishonesty or cheating, without the need to follow the steps listed above.
5. Discovery of any dishonest action for students who have been awarded an IWU degree may result in rescinding of said degree without the need to follow the steps listed above.

A student who is not satisfied with the disciplinary action may follow the grievance and appeal policies of the appropriate academic unit.

University Records: Falsifying or forging any university record or using unauthorized access to any university system is considered a dishonest action and is subject to review and possible sanctions. Incidents of such will be investigated and judged by the appropriate academic leader. It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of policies regulating academic conduct including definitions of academic dishonesty, the possible sanctions, and the appeals process.

Falsification of Academic Records or University Documents: Falsification of academic records or documents includes but is not limited to altering any documents affecting academic records; forging signatures; or falsifying information of an official document such as a grade report, ID card, financial receipt, or any other official university letter or communication. This includes information downloaded (printed) from student information available via Web (online) services.

Unauthorized Access to Computerized Academic or Administrative Records or Systems: Unauthorized access to computerized academic or administrative records or systems means viewing or altering the university's computer records without authorization; copying or modifying the university's computer programs or systems without authorization; releasing or dispensing information gained through unauthorized access; or interfering with the use or availability of computer systems information.

Students who are found to have falsified university documents or participated in unauthorized access to computerized academic or administrative records or systems are subject to the following sanctions:

Sanctions:

1. Dismissal from the university for a single incident.
2. Discovery of any dishonest action for students who have been awarded an IWU degree may result in rescinding of said degree.
3. The university may consider legal action for any individual found to have participated in these actions.

A student who is not satisfied with the disciplinary action may follow the grievance and appeal policies of the appropriate academic unit.

Transcripts

The student's official transcript is prepared by the Indiana Wesleyan University Registrar's Office and will show the course, grade, credit and dates of instruction for each course, placing them in the appropriate academic levels of undergraduate, graduate, or doctoral. Requests for transcripts of coursework at Indiana Wesleyan University must conform to the Privacy Act of 1974, which requires that all transcript requests be submitted through the ordering service with the student's signature, for protection of the student's confidentiality. A transcript is official only when it bears the university seal.

It is university policy not to release a transcript if the student has any financial holds on their record or if he or she is delinquent on any loan received through Indiana Wesleyan University. A $5 fee is charged for each transcript, with an additional $2.50 Parchment ordering fee for standard mailed or electronic delivery. Payment must be provided, along with a complete address to which the transcript is to be delivered. Please provide a current address if request is to be sent to student's home. Transcript requests can be accessed by visiting <http://www.indwes.edu/Academics/Registrar/Transcript> and submitting the request through Parchment.

Enrollment Limitations

Students may only be full-time enrolled in one IWU college due to financial and academic credit implications and may not switch back and forth between the term and non-term programs. Specific guidelines must be met prior to enrolling in courses in various colleges. Thorough review with Financial Aid and Accounting offices as well as advisors and Office of Student Services or Residential Academic Services should be made before pursuing this option. Students who plan to change from programs and degrees in one college to programs and degrees in another should carefully examine the ability to apply courses from one program to another. Please visit the Office of Student Services and Residential Academic Services for more information.

Policy on Academic Credentials and Programs

This policy applies to all academic units of the university.

Indiana Wesleyan University awards academic credentials (degrees and certificates) to students who complete defined programs of study. Each credential is defined in terms of a set of essential learning outcomes, which may include discipline-specific and general education outcomes, as well as credit hour and other specifications. Each program of study for a particular credential maps the credential learning outcomes to a series of credit-bearing courses.

As appropriate, given the learning outcomes and alignment of involved programs and courses, credits may be shared between academic credentials and sub-credentials awarded coevally, within the following boundaries.

1. The student must fulfill all of the requirements for any credential awarded.
2. Credits may be shared between a major and a minor, as long as the minor includes at least 15 unique credit hours unshared with any other major or minor.
3. Credits may be shared between two minors, as long as each minor includes at least 15 unique credit hours unshared with any other major or minor.
4. Credits may be shared between two undergraduate majors as long as there are 51 unique (unduplicated) credit hours between the two majors.
5. Credits may be shared between two graduate majors as long as two thirds of the credits in each major are unique (unduplicated).
6. Up to three credit hours may be shared between a certificate and a minor.
7. Up to six credit hours may be shared between a certificate and a major (undergraduate or graduate).
8. A major or minor may be added to a previously awarded baccalaureate degree. The student must complete all of the course requirements for the major or minor and a minimum of nine new credits hours must be earned. New general education requirements need not be met to post an additional major or minor. Students adding a major or minor are not eligible to participate in commencement ceremonies again. The additional major or minor will be posted to the transcript only on one of the conferral dates.

As appropriate, given the learning outcomes and alignment of involved programs and courses, credits applied to a previously-awarded IWU academic credential may be applied, without surrender of the prior credential, to another IWU academic credential within the following boundaries.

1. The student must fulfill all of the requirements for any credential awarded.
2. For credits from a prior IWU academic credential to be applied to a second IWU academic credential, the second academic program must be started within ten years of the awarding of the first credential. Exceptions must be approved by the dean (or equivalent) of the school sponsoring the academic program of the second credential. Individual academic programs may specify more strict credit-age limits if warranted by the discipline.
3. The credits from a previously-awarded undergraduate certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of an associate's degree or a bachelor's degree.
4. Up to 6 credits from a previously-awarded associate's degree or bachelor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of an undergraduate certificate.
5. The credits from a previously-awarded associate's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different associate's degree, as long as each credential has at least 25% unique credits.
6. The credits from a previously-awarded associate's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a bachelor's degree.
7. The credits from a previously-awarded bachelor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different bachelor's degree, as long as each credential has at least 25% unique credits.
8. The credits from a previously-awarded bachelor's degree or undergraduate certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a master's degree, limited by the provisions of the Undergraduate and Graduate Credit Crossover Policy.
9. The credits from a previously-awarded graduate certificate or post-masters certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a master's degree.
10. The credits from a previously-awarded graduate certificate or post-masters certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a doctor's degree.
11. Credits from a previously-awarded master's degree or doctor's degree may be applied to fulfill up to 1/3 of the requirements of a graduate certificate.
12. The credits from a previously-awarded master's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different master's degree, as long as each credential has at least 50% unique credits.
13. The credits from a previously-awarded master's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a doctor's degree, as long as the doctor's degree has at least 50% unique credits.
14. The credits from a previously-awarded doctor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different doctor's degree, as long as each credential has at least 50% unique credits.

Graduate Credit Transfer Policy

The policy applies to all graduate programs that accept transfer students at Indiana Wesleyan University.

Transfer of credit will be considered for graduate work completed at institutions accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (DE) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), provided the courses meet institutional requirements and are appropriate for the student's planned and approved program. Any culminating project (e.g., capstone, research, thesis, etc.), clinical, or practicum requirement associated with a graduate program must be taken at Indiana Wesleyan University.

Individual academic units may establish higher standards/conditions as is appropriate for their respective disciplines or accrediting bodies. A minimum grade of "B" may be considered for transfer. No more than 30% of the graduate degree may be satisfied by credits transferred in from other institutions. The learning outcomes must align and have been completed within the past seven years. Minimal conditions governing the transfer of earned graduate credits to other course work include:

- Each PAU shall determine the amount of time acceptable of completed work that is eligible for credit transfer.

- Only graduate courses in which a student has earned a grade of "B" or better may be considered for transfer credit.
- Hours of credit may be transferred, but grades earned in courses taken at another institution do not transfer and are not used in computing the student's graduate GPA at Indiana Wesleyan University.
- When a graduate course is taken at another university on a credit/no credit or pass/fail option, hours of "credit" or "pass" are not accepted as transferable unless approved by the appropriate academic unit.
- For graduate certificate programs, no more than 30% of the certificate can be satisfied by credits transferred in from other institutions.

Occasionally, graduate students will begin their course of study at another institution with no plans to transfer to IWU, but find themselves displaced by a closing institution and unable to complete their degree. In an effort to support displaced students IWU will allow a greater number of transfer credits for graduate programs. All courses will be evaluated by the appropriate academic department. Where applicable, transfer credits will be applied to meet IWU degree requirements. A displaced student is an actively enrolled student in a degree program offered by an institution that is closing.

Displaced graduate students will be allowed to transfer in up to 75% of program requirements. All transfer credit will be reviewed by the academic department to determine if and how it applies to degree requirements.

- For programs with 18 credit hours - Displaced transfer students will be required to take 4 credits from IWU
- For programs with 24 credit hours - Displaced transfer students will be required to take 6 credits from IWU
- For programs with 30 credit hours - Displaced transfer students will be required to take 7 credits from IWU
- For programs with 33 credit hours - Displaced transfer students will be required to take 8 credits from IWU
- For programs with 36 credit hours - Displaced transfer students will be required to take 9 credits from IWU
- For programs with 42 credit hours - Displaced transfer students will be required to take 10 credits from IWU

Doctoral Exception:

IWU will allow displaced doctoral students to transfer in up to 75% of their course work. The student must complete at least 15 graduate credit hours at IWU, plus the comprehensive exam and/or final project/dissertation, if applicable.

Undergraduate and Graduate Credit Crossover Policy

Undergraduate credits from IWU or other colleges or universities that are taken at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) (see Transfer of Credit Policy (p. 36) for current accrediting agencies), or hold appropriate international accreditation, may be used to fulfill requirements of IWU graduate programs under specified conditions. When permitted by the design of the program, undergraduate credits from upper level courses may be counted toward the requirements of a graduate degree or certificate when the undergraduate course or courses sufficiently accomplish the learning outcomes of a course in the graduate program. The course(s) must have been completed within the past five years and must reflect current knowledge and best practices. No more than 25% of the total credit requirements for the graduate degree or certificate may be completed through undergraduate credits. Undergraduate courses in which a student has earned a "B" or better may be considered for graduate credit. Dual counting of credits requires approval by the appropriate program leader, in consultation with a graduate level content expert, as well as approval by the University Registrar, and Financial Aid Office if applicable. The program leader will make the final decision as to the applicability of the course to fulfill program learning outcomes. Established limitations on the number of credits that may be transferred into the graduate program remain in effect.

Graduate level credits from IWU or other colleges or universities that are regionally accredited, accredited by the Association for Biblical Higher Education (ABHE), or hold appropriate international accreditation, may be used to fulfill requirements of IWU undergraduate programs under specified conditions. When permitted by the design of the program, graduate credits may be counted toward the requirements of an undergraduate degree or certificate when the graduate course or courses sufficiently accomplish the learning outcomes of a course in the undergraduate program. The course(s) must have been completed within the past five years and must reflect current knowledge and best practices. No more than 25% of the total credit requirements for the undergraduate major, minor, or certificate may be completed through graduate credits. Though exceptions may be approved by program directors, graduate courses in which a student has earned a "B" or better may be considered for undergraduate credit. Dual counting of credits requires approval by the appropriate program leader, in consultation with a graduate level content expert, as well as approval by the University Registrar, and Financial Aid Office if applicable. The program leader will make the final decision as to the applicability of the course to fulfill program learning outcomes. Established limitations on the number of credits that may be transferred into the undergraduate program remain in effect.

College of Arts and Sciences

Welcome to the College of Arts and Sciences. We invite you to join us as we explore the enduring questions that people have asked across time. For us, these questions begin with “Who is God calling you to be?” As you discern the answer to this question, we encourage you to discover what you are called to do, what you need to learn to live out your calling, and how you can engage the world in a way that glorifies God and promotes justice, righteousness and mercy. To pursue answers to these questions and discover your life calling, we encourage you to investigate our academic programs (p. 90), connect with our faculty members, explore how our community can nourish your Christian commitment, and learn how opportunities for leadership and service are waiting for you at IWU.

Instructional Facilities

Indiana Wesleyan has up-to-date classrooms, well-equipped laboratories, and studio spaces for academic use. The following buildings serve as academic resources:

Adult and Graduate Studies Administrative Building (AGS)

Located at the intersection of 50th Street and State Road 37, this building houses administrative offices for the College of Adult and Professional Studies and the graduate schools and programs in Nursing, Counseling and Ministry. In addition, there are four classrooms and a counseling clinic.

APS Educational Centers

The College of Adult and Professional Studies has educational centers in Marion, Fort Wayne, Kokomo, Columbus, Indianapolis, Merrillville, and Greenwood, Indiana; Florence, Lexington, and Louisville, Kentucky; and Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, and Dayton, Ohio. See Education and Service Centers (p. 7) for detailed listing.

Barnes Student Center

IWU's Barnes Student Center is the central hub of the Marion campus - bringing students, employees, and guests into an innovative facility designed intentionally to foster building community. With over 199,000 square feet, this building houses Baldwin Dining, Chick-fil-a, Mario's Pizza, Wilbur's Wings, convenience store, bookstore, McConn Coffee house, art gallery, Globe Theater, banquet rooms, Life Calling & Integrative Learning, Student Accounts, Financial Aid, Registration & Academic Services, Health Center, Post Office, and the Center for Student Success.

Beard Arts Center (BAC)

This classroom building, named after Lee and Edna Beard, houses the Division of Art, art studios, art galleries, and four classrooms.

Botany Glen

This tract of land is a designated nature preserve where biology and botany classes can explore creation in a living laboratory. Botany Glen is an experiential learning classroom and training center for the IWU community and constituents.

Burns Hall of Science and Nursing (BHSN)

This facility includes classrooms and laboratories for science, health sciences, and nursing, the state-of-the-art Nursing Simulation Lab, and Porter Auditorium.

Center Hall (CS)

This building provides classroom and studio space for students and faculty who are studying in the field of art, as well as a few general purpose classrooms and a 24-7 Study Room.

Chapel Auditorium

Built in 2010, the Chapel Auditorium is a 3,900 seat, 75,000 square feet venue used for weekly chapel services, concerts, guest speakers, academic ceremonies, and graduation services.

College Wesleyan Church (CWC)

College Wesleyan Church is an independent but cooperating agency with the university. Occasionally classrooms are scheduled in this facility located on the main campus.

Elder Hall (ELDR)

This building houses the Division of Behavioral Sciences, the Division of Modern Language and Literature, and the Division of Communication and Theatre, including audio and video studios and WIWU-FM and WIWU-TV 51.

Goodman Hall (GMN)

This classroom building houses 5 classrooms and divisional offices for the Division of Education.

Indiana Wesleyan University Canadian Campus

A 100-acre outdoor classroom on St. Joseph Island is located 40 miles east of Sault St. Marie, Ontario. The grounds include a modern log lodge with dining facilities and insulated log cabins for accommodations.

Jackson Library (JLB)

This state-of-the-art, 79,000-square-foot library is named after alumnus and benefactor Dr. Lewis A. Jackson. Dr. Jackson, a 1939 Indiana Wesleyan University (then Marion College) graduate, trained the “Tuskegee Airmen” during WWII, became a university president in 1970, and was a life-long entrepreneur. This uniquely designed library contains leading-edge technology. Student Internet connections are located conveniently throughout the library. Over 20 miles of voice and data cable were laid in the floors and walls, connecting its 700 outlets to IWU’s information network.

John Wesley Administration Building

The John Wesley Administration Building, which opened in 1894, is the only building that remains from the original campus. A major renovation of the building was completed in 2003. The building houses offices for the president and the university Advancement Department, along with a meeting room for the university’s Board of Trustees.

Maxwell Center for Business and Leadership (MAX)

The Maxwell Center is a spacious, state-of-the-art facility that meets a variety of needs. The 63,000-square-foot building contains six classrooms. It houses the Admissions Office, Business Affairs, Human Resources, Print Shop, Registrar's Office, the university Information Technology Department, and offices for the Division of Social Science, as well as the Division of Business for Residential Education students.

Noggle Christian Ministries Center (NCMC)

This classroom and faculty office building is the home office for the School of Theology and Ministry.

Ott Hall of Sciences and Nursing

This 110,000-square-foot building houses the administrative and faculty offices, as well as classrooms and labs for the School of Nursing, the School of Physical and Applied Sciences, and the School of Health Sciences. It includes research space for faculty and students, a greenhouse, cadaver lab, and other specialized learning space. Collaborative spaces encourage and facilitate inter professional development. Ott Hall and Burns Hall are connected by a three-story atrium that promotes community among faculty and students.

Outdoor Athletic Complex

The Outdoor Athletic Complex serves athletic and intramural competition. It includes an indoor sports complex, track, two baseball fields, two softball fields, and three soccer fields. The main venues are lighted. Complementing the outdoor complex is a concession/public use facility. This building also serves as an athletic training facility and officials’ changing room.

Phillippe Performing Arts Center (PPAC)

This building houses the Tom and Joan Phillippe Chapel-Auditorium, the RCA Theater, the Joan Phillippe Music Building, and the Herman Baker Recital Hall. The music wing includes teaching studios, practice rooms, a piano laboratory, and three classrooms.

Recreation and Wellness Center (RWC)

The 120,000-square-foot indoor facility includes the Robert R. Luckey Gymnasium, a natatorium, racquetball courts, recreation activity center, weight room, fitness room, elevated track, locker facilities, classrooms, a lab area, office area, and a state-of-the-art athletic training facility.

Wesley Seminary at IWU

The facility's international design and furnishings reflect its theme, “The World is my Parish” (John Wesley), and the facility tells the story of the Seminary’s values. It includes four classrooms of various sizes, office areas, a prayer room and a common gathering space. Its ellipse shape embraces an outdoor amphitheater.

Policies and General Information - College of Arts and Sciences and Pre-licensure Nursing

Students pursuing majors in the College of Arts and Sciences or in Pre-licensure Nursing are subject to all the policies and procedures as defined in this portion of the catalog. Additionally, students enrolled in the College of Arts and Sciences or the School of Nursing Pre-licensure Nursing program may have additional requirements and policies governed by those areas. Students should have conversations with the administration in those areas for further direction.

Admission

Indiana Wesleyan University welcomes applications for admission from any academically qualified person who wishes to participate in the Indiana Wesleyan University community and mission. Admission is based on the careful review of all credentials presented by an applicant, and in no case is admission unlawfully denied due to race, ethnicity, citizenship, national origin, disability, religion, or sex.

Address all application information for IWU-Marion programs (CAS and SON) to Indiana Wesleyan University, Admissions Office, 4201 South Washington Street, Marion, Indiana 46953. Call toll-free 1-866-468-6498, or direct to the Admissions Office at 765-677-6507 (English) or 765-677-4050 (Español). Email address: admissions@indwes.edu; Internet: www.indwes.edu.

Undergraduate students are admitted to the University in one of the following categories:

Regular – Based on high school grade-point average or college GPA. Students admitted in this category are eligible for academic scholarships.

Foundations – Students whose GPA is below the required levels. Students in this category may be required to take preparatory courses in reading, study skills, and writing.

All foundationally admitted students are required to enroll and complete a section of LFC 101 - Foundations for College Success in their first semester of coursework at IWU. This is a one credit course that guides, equips, and empowers students toward success.

Unclassified – Students who are taking no more than two courses and are not admitted to a program of study. Students in this category may register for up to 6 credit hours per semester. A maximum of 18 credit hours may be taken under this status. This status does not constitute admission to a university program.

Prospective students are encouraged to visit the campus. Visits should be scheduled through the Office of Admissions. Overnight, on-campus lodging for prospective students is available on select days during the academic year and may be reserved in advance through the Admissions Office. Call 1-866-468-6498 or direct to the Admissions Office at 765-677-6507 (English) or 765-677-4050 (Español); Email address: admissions@indwes.edu. Internet: www.indwes.edu.

First-year Admission

Interested students are encouraged to apply for admission at the close of their junior year in high school or early part of their senior year. Applications are accepted throughout the senior year of high school. The application and high school transcript are necessary for an admission decision. In some cases, test scores (SAT or ACT), an essay and recommendation are required. A tuition deposit is required prior to registering for classes and is fully refundable until May 1.

An admission decision may be made before the end of the student's high school career if an official high school transcript has been provided. In this event a final high school transcript or a certification of graduation will be required before the student may begin classes at IWU.

Completed applications with a high school GPA or test scores(if required) below minimum thresholds may be admitted into the Foundations program. Viable candidates for admission should have a minimum of each of the following: 8 credits in language arts (equivalent to 4 years); 6-8 credits in mathematics (equivalent to 3-4 years); 6 credits in science (equivalent to 3 years); 6 credits in social studies (equivalent to 3 years); 4 credits in foreign language (equivalent to 2 years); 2 credits in health, physical education, safety (equivalent to 1 year); and 4-6 credits from other courses offered (equivalent to 2-3 years). Applicants who do not meet the requirements for regular admission may request special consideration.

Individuals not receiving a high school diploma must take either the Test Assessing Secondary Completion (TASC) or the General Education Development Exam (GED) and achieve satisfactory scores to be considered for admission.

Transfer Student Admission

A transfer student is defined as a student who has attempted 12 or more college credit hours post-high school graduation. Transcripts of all college work must be submitted with other admission credentials at the time of application to the Indiana Wesleyan University Admissions Office. All transcripts must be sent directly from the office of the registrar at the college or university attended. Once transcripts (and other test scores and academic documents) have been received, IWU is not permitted to release copies of those documents back to the student or any other party. All undergraduate students must complete their last 30 credit hours at IWU before the IWU graduation.

Readmission

An undergraduate student who has previously been enrolled at IWU-Marion and has ended enrollment for any length of time, without an approved leave of absence, must reapply. Application for re-enrollment must be made through the Admissions Office. Re-admitted students who are not enrolled for one academic year or longer must meet the requirements of the governing academic catalog for the re-enrollment date. Any student who attended other institutions of higher learning must submit official transcripts of all work completed before a readmission decision can be made. Before the student may begin classes. All transcripts must be sent directly from the office of the registrar at the college or university attended.

Transition Student Admission

A transition student is defined as a student who begins an education through IWU-National & Global and transitions to IWU-Marion to continue a degree. Transition students must fulfill all admission requirements required of transfer applicants. IWU-National & Global will provide IWU-Marion Undergraduate Admissions with transcripts from any institution attended prior to enrollment with IWU-National & Global. If a student has attended an institution since departing IWU-National & Global, the student must submit an official college transcript from any/all institutions attended since leaving IWU-National & Global and have the Transfer Information Form completed by the last institution attended. If the last institution attended is IWU-National & Global, the Transfer Information Form is not required. Students are not required to submit an IWU transcript for consideration of admission as this coursework is accessible to the IWU-Marion Transfer Team.

International Student Admission

International/Non-English Speaking Students

Students who do not speak English as their first and primary language must take the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or The International English Language Testing System (IELTS) prior to admission to Indiana Wesleyan University (IWU).

The IWU required admission scores are listed below, unless otherwise specified by the area of study:

- TOEFL score of 79 for undergraduate, 85 for master's programs, and 95 for doctorate programs.
- IELTS score of 6.5 for undergraduate and master's programs, score of 7 for doctorate programs

Please note that schools or programs within IWU may require a higher score and/or additional requirements. Please confirm with your area of study to determine specific requirements.

IWU offers a Waiver option in place of the required TOEFL or IELTS scores.

Waiver qualifications are:

- Attended four full years at a U.S. high school.
- Attended four full years in an international educational institution where English is the principal language of instruction; institution may be required to provide verification.
- Earned an SAT Reading Test subscore of at least 27.
- Earned ACT English and Reading scores of at least 20.
- Earned a bachelor's degree or higher from a college or university accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA).

Additional Requirements for all International Students:

Before the immigration form I-20 can be sent, students from all countries must send to the University a letter of financial commitment with certified bank statements, or other official documents, indicating sufficient funds for attendance.

In addition, prior to first day of class all students from all countries must send to IWU proof of health insurance coverage in the U.S.

Please note all students must provide payment for tuition and fees and room and board (if applicable) for the student's first academically enrolled term as defined by the program's payment policy.

Re-enrollmentGraduate Programs

A graduate student in CAS who has not been enrolled for more than two semesters must re-apply through the Admissions Office. Any student who attended other institutions of higher learning must submit a Transfer Information Form completed by the last college attended and official transcripts of all work completed before a re-admission decision can be made. All transcripts must be sent directly from the office of the registrar at the college or university attended.

Wildcat Academy (High School Students/Dual Enrollment)

Qualified high school students are offered the opportunity to enroll in onsite or online courses taught through IWU Marion under the Wildcat Academy program. A student must have maintained a 3.0 average GPA on a 4.0 scale in high school classes and be recommended by a teacher, school counselor or other high school personnel to qualify. A qualified student may begin taking one 100-level course in the fall semester of his/her junior year, and up to 6 credit hours of 100-level courses per semester throughout the duration of his/her high school career. A student may take a maximum of 16 credit hours through this program. To maintain satisfactory academic progress and continue in the Wildcat Academy program, students must earn a grade of C or higher for each course completed. Students must submit an application for each term they wish to enroll in a course in the Wildcat Academy. First time applicants must submit an official high school transcript, as well as an academic letter or recommendation. Costs include an application fee and a cost per credit hour and are due prior to enrollment.

This information is located at www.indwes.edu/undergraduate/wildcat-academy. Students must be registered by the first day of classes. Note: Student qualification, enrollment and financial arrangements made with high schools/homeschool co-ops teaching courses outside of the IWU-Marion campus are outlined in the associated Memorandum of Understanding.

Unclassified Student Admission

A student who is not pursuing a university degree and wants to take individual courses for personal development may be admitted as an unclassified student. A maximum of 6 credit hours per semester and a total of 18 credit hours may be completed with this status. This does not constitute admission to a University program and the University does not maintain degree audits for this classification. Unclassified students who subsequently wish to pursue a degree program must apply for regular admission status and at that time will receive a degree audit of the chosen major. Information on degree programs is available in the Registration and Academic Services office.

Guest students from other colleges should have the approval of their home institution. By special arrangement, high school students may register with unclassified status while meeting requirements for high school graduation.

Students admitted with an unclassified status may wish to audit courses. Students must comply with all unclassified and audit requirements. Auditing does not constitute admission to a university program. Audit students who subsequently wish to pursue a degree program must apply for regular admission status. By special arrangement, high school students may register with audit status.

Professional Programs (Acceptance into Majors)

Certain majors, such as athletic training, teacher education, nursing, social work, and music or art therapy, require acceptance into the program. Admission to the University does not necessarily imply admission into these professional programs. Departments may have specific requirements that must be met at different levels of the program. Including, in limited cases,

ACT or SAT test scores. A student will be assigned a status of "pre-" added to the major until these specific requirements are met. For more information regarding acceptance into the chosen major, please see the appropriate School or Division section.

Orientation, Registration and Credit Options

New Student Orientation

All entering undergraduate students are required to participate in New Student Orientation. This orientation is designed to connect, prepare, and allow for a deeper understanding of IWU.

Entrance Examinations

New students may re-take the institutional ACT if they do not have the required minimum ACT or SAT scores to waive the reading and math competencies. Students should inquire in the Center for Student Success office for more information.

Registration Procedures for New and Returning Students

New Student Registration (NSR) occurs in the spring and summer for fall enrollment and by individual appointment for spring enrollment. Once new students are notified by the Admissions Office of their acceptance to Indiana Wesleyan University, the Admission's Office will send information about registration procedures and the appropriate time to come to the campus for advisement in the selection of courses and registration.

Returning students may register for the fall semester in the spring and summer. Registration for the spring semester and all summer sessions (including May term) occurs in the fall. All students are expected to complete their registration during the time set by the Director of Registration & Academic Services for advanced registration or at the specific time established for this purpose in the current calendar. Detailed instructions for registration will be provided on MyIWU portal at <https://myiwu.indwes.edu/RAS>. Arrangements for financial payment, in accord with one of the approved plans for university charges, must be made in advance or at the time of registration. All students must be registered by the first day of classes in any term.

Academic Advising - CAS and Pre-licensure Nursing

Every student is personally responsible to meet all requirements, including but not limited to stated competencies, grade-point indexes, specified courses, total numbers of credits in each stated area of study, and total number of credits for the degree program identified in the catalog at the time of enrollment.

A faculty advisor is assigned to each student, is available at registration periods for advisement on program requirements, and is required to approve the student's registration. Each student has access to their academic record and degree/major requirements via the Internet and portal.

Transfer Advising

The transfer advisor in Registration & Academic Services helps new transfer students with transfer credits and advising, as well as negotiating their new experience at Indiana Wesleyan University.

Schedule Changes and Withdrawals

Add/Drop

Students' class schedules are expected to be permanent.

Fall/Spring

Add:

The last date to add a course is the first Friday of classes for fall and spring terms.

For students enrolled in the graduate counseling program, the last date to add or drop a course is the second Friday after the first day of the Fall and Spring terms.

Drop:

the last date to drop a course is the second Friday after the start of classes for the fall and spring terms.

Students who need to switch a course section (such as ENG-180-82A to ENG-180-82B) during the drop period may do so with the approval of their advisor with an Add/Drop Form.

Summer term Add/Drop:

For May term and Summer I (S1) and II (S2) sessions, the last date to add or drop a course is the second day of classes.

For Summer Term (S1T) the last day to add a class is the end of the first week. The last day to drop a class for the Summer Term (S1T) is the end of the second week of classes. Any desired change in audit registrations follow the same deadlines as previously identified. All drop/add requests made thereafter require a General Academic Petition with the approval of the corresponding Academic Advisor and Division Chair.

Withdrawing from Classes

Up until the tenth week of the semester (5/7 or 71% of semester classes), students may withdraw from a course with a grade of "W." This should be done only after consultation with academic advisors, the Registration & Academic Services office, and the Financial Aid Office, as reduction of course load below 12 credits may affect eligibility for athletics, scholarships, or financial aid. After the tenth week of the semester, students may not withdraw from classes without total withdrawal from the university. Failing work at time of official withdrawal after the tenth week of the semester may be counted as "F" in grade-point average.

Withdrawing from the University

By the 13th week of classes, students desiring to voluntarily withdraw from all classes at the university must submit a Total Withdrawal form available at the Registration & Academic Services office and online at <https://myiwu.indwes.edu/RAS/Forms>. This form must be completed and filed with the Registration & Academic Services (RAS) office before the student leaves campus. No refunds will be made by the Student Account Services, CAS, until the Director of RAS certifies that the withdrawal procedure has been completed. A student failing to complete proper withdrawal remains a student and will be charged as such and receive a grade at the end of the semester. Students in university housing who fail to check out of their rooms properly will be subject to an administrative charge.

Any undergraduate student who is dismissed from the College of Arts and Sciences by Life Calling and Integrative Learning or the School of Nursing Pre-Licensure Nursing by the Associate Dean, Pre-Licensure Nursing will be administratively withdrawn from all classes.

Academic Administrative Withdrawal Policy - CAS

If a student registers for a course but does not attend any class sessions of that course by the last day to drop classes, the registration may be cancelled by the CAS Academic Executive Dean or designee and/or the Director of Registration & Academic Services or designee.

If a student, due to lack of attendance, cannot achieve passing grades in their courses, with or without applicable campus support and/or reasonable accommodation(s), the CARE Team, the Center for Student Success, and/or the Academic Standing Subcommittee of the Enrollment Management Committee may recommend to the CAS academic dean or designee and/or the Director of Registration & Academic Services that the student be administratively withdrawn from the institution during the Academic Semester and will receive a "W" in all classes. Students should be aware that this action (administrative withdrawal) may have an impact on financial aid, enrollment issues related to verification for insurance, athletic competition, and access to some IWU facilities.

Intent to Depart

Students who intend to depart from the university for the subsequent semester(s) should complete the Notification of Student Intent to Depart form. Students should inform the Registration & Academic Services office by completing and filing this form available at: <https://myiwu.indwes.edu/RAS/Forms>.

Leave of Absence

Full-time degree seeking students may request a Leave of Absence (LOA) in certain circumstances to preserve their current catalog rights and possibly provide positive implications for financial obligations such as loan repayment, and health and car insurance.

Types of Leave of Absence:

1. Medical Leave of Absence - LOA petition must be accompanied by a statement from a medical care provider verifying the need for the LOA.
2. Personal Leave of Absence - petition must include a plan for addressing personal or family issues that lead to the successful completion of the student's academic program.
3. Planned Educational Leave of Absence - petition must include plans for enriching educational goals that lead to the successful completion of the student's academic program. These plans can include participation in non IWU-supported study abroad experiences, no IWU-supported internships, or short term missions or service programs.

Leave of Absence petitions are available in the Registration & Academic Services office and must be completed and approved before the "drop" deadline for the term in which the LOA is requested. Medical and certain unplanned for LOA requests may be considered retroactively or after the "drop" deadline based on the individual circumstances. LOA appeals must be filed and approved by the Dean of the school in which the student's major is under before the end of the term for which the LOA is requested.

A Leave of Absence will not be approved for students who are subject to academic dismissal or student conduct dismissal.

Students who do not return to Indiana Wesleyan University by the end of their approved LOA will be considered to have withdrawn from IWU at the end of their last term of regular enrollment.

International students should work with the international student coordinator in the Admissions Office when contemplating a planned LOA as there are Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services regulations regarding the status of international students.

In order to maintain catalog rights under the LOA petition, students must receive prior approval from the Registration & Academic Services office for coursework taken at other institutions for transfer to IWU. Failure to do so could result in failure of the coursework to transfer, or loss of current catalog rights.

Students on LOA may not participate in or be registered for any IWU coursework during the LOA time period including incomplete courses, independent learning contracts, and online courses.

Student work positions, divisional stipends, and leadership positions are not guaranteed upon return and must be reapplied for.

It is unlikely that there will be any financial aid benefit for the student who takes LOA. All questions regarding financial aid must be discussed with the student's financial aid counselor.

Students should consult with Student Account Services, CAS and the Financial Aid Office to discuss any financial ramifications of a LOA.

Returning from a Leave of Absence:

A student may choose to return from a LOA earlier than planned but must return on the first day of classes for the semester. When students return from a LOA, either on time or early, they may request reinstatement through the Admissions Office by completing the re-enrollment form before the first day of new term. Students must notify the Registration & Academic Services office of their intent to return before the end of the term previous to the expected date of return. Undergraduate students who are on Academic or Citizenship Probation status when they take a LOA will return with the same status.

Study Abroad students who use a LOA to attend unaffiliated programs should be aware that there is no guarantee of academic credit at IWU and must apply for such under transfer policy guidelines.

Military Leave of Absence

The Higher Education Opportunity Act enacted on August 13, 2008, states that a university may not deny admission or readmission to a service member for reasons relating to that service. The service member qualifies if the school is given notice of absence for service, the cumulative length of absence does not exceed five years, and the student gives notice of his or her intent to return.

Indiana Wesleyan University complies with this act with the following:

Academic:

- Students are not required to reapply and are not charged a readmission fee upon return.
- Students are reenrolled at the same academic status (program enrollment status, number of completed credit hours, academic standing) before deployment. Students may return under the catalog that was in effect before deployment.

Students may find differences in their programs or the catalog if the programs are no longer offered, or changes have occurred due to external accrediting bodies, licensing board or other external agencies.

- Leave time does not count toward the total time required to earn the degree.
- Students will be promptly reenrolled in the next class or classes in a program, will qualify for priority/early registration, and may not be denied re-enrollment in a class based on class size.

Financial: Students are required to complete a Military Leave of Absence Request. When the request is approved, students' accounts will be adjusted as necessary.

Financial Aid: Indiana Wesleyan University is committed to assisting military students in navigating the impact that active duty will have on financial aid. It is important that each student have conversations with the Financial Aid office to ensure proper paperwork and processes are covered as it relates to a leave of absence.

Students with federal financial aid, federal loan obligations, or military tuition assistance must contact their lenders and/or the military education office to ascertain their loan repayment status or repayment of tuition assistance during the leave of absence.

Transfer of Credit Policy

To earn a degree from IWU, undergraduate students must take the last 30 semester hours of course credit needed to fulfill degree requirements at IWU. Students pursuing transfer course options toward the end of their college career should seek assistance from Registration & Academic Services to ensure they are in compliance with this policy.

Credit is granted for work with a satisfactory grade ("C" or above), in a 100 level or higher course, taken at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). Currently this includes the following accrediting agencies:

- Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing (ACEN)
- Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools (ACICS)
- Association for Biblical Higher Education (ABHE)
- Association of Advanced Rabbinical and Talmudic Schools (AARTS)
- Association of Theological Schools Commission on Accrediting (ATS)
- Distance Education Accreditation Commission (DEAC)
- Higher Learning Commission (HLC)
- Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE)
- New England Commission of Higher Education (NECHE)
- Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU)
- Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACS-COC)
- Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools (TRACS)
- Western Association of Schools and Colleges – Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges (WASC–ACCJC)
- Western Association of Schools and Colleges – Senior College and University Commission (WASC–SCUC)

Programmatic accreditation may impact transferability of specific courses into the major. If there is no applicable course at IWU or within the student's major, the credits may be applied as elective credit. Additionally, programmatic restrictions may determine how courses are equated.

Credit hours accepted in transfer are recorded as part of the student's official academic record. Once transcripts (and other test scores and academic documents) have been received, IWU is not permitted to release copies of those documents back to the student or any other party. All graded qualified coursework transferred and transcribed are used solely in the calculation of the honors GPA. Quarter credits are converted to semester credits using the two-thirds conversion ratio. The university registrar is responsible to approve the transferability of all credits.

Indiana Wesleyan University accepts official transcripts from the American Council on Education (ACE) located in Washington, D.C. ACE evaluates and provides credit recommendations for educational offerings for a significant number of corporate universities and other extra-institutional learning providers.

Credit through examination (CLEP, DSST, AP, institutional examinations) or assessed learning is not accepted in transfer from another institution's transcript. Credit through examination is awarded through Indiana Wesleyan University with official test scores from an official testing center. Credit from nontraditional learning by life experience is awarded through the IWU's assessed learning process.

Transcripts from international institutions - may need to be sent to an external agency for evaluation and determination of transferable credits, degrees, and GPA. If this external review is necessary, students are responsible for the initiation of this evaluation and for any fees incurred during the process. Applications for this service are available to the student through the university.

Policy on Academic Credentials and Programs

This policy applies to all academic units of the university. It is of interest to all faculty, academic administrators, program directors, and staff of the office of the University Registrar.

Indiana Wesleyan University awards academic credentials (degrees and certificates) to students who complete defined programs of study. Each credential is defined in terms of a set of essential learning outcomes, which may include discipline-specific and general education outcomes, as well as credit hour and other specifications. Each program of study for a particular credential maps the credential learning outcomes to a series of credit-bearing courses.

As appropriate, given the learning outcomes and alignment of involved programs and courses, credits may be shared between academic credentials and sub-credentials awarded coevally, within the following boundaries.

1. The student must fulfill all of the requirements for any credential awarded
2. Credits may be shared between a major and a minor, as long as the minor includes at least 15 unique credit hours unshared with any other major or minor.
3. Credits may be shared between two minors, as long as each minor includes at least 15 unique credit hours unshared with any other major or minor.
4. Credits may be shared between two undergraduate majors as long as there are 51 unique (unduplicated) credit hours between the two majors.
5. Credits may be shared between two graduate majors as long as two thirds of the credits in each major are unique (unduplicated).
6. Up to 3 credit hours may be shared between a certificate and a minor, or between a certificate and a concentration/specialization, or between two certificates, or between two specializations/concentrations.
7. Up to 6 credit hours may be shared between a certificate and a major (undergraduate or graduate).
8. Two distinct undergraduate degrees (associate's and/or bachelor's) may be conferred together as long as each degree includes at least 25% unique (unshared) credits.
9. Two distinct graduate degrees (master's, specialist, and/or doctoral) may be conferred together as long as each degree includes at least 50% unique (unshared) credits.
10. An undergraduate and a graduate degree may be conferred together as long as 75% of the credits of each degree are unique (unshared). See the related Undergraduate and Graduate Credit Crossover Policy.

A major, minor, or specialization/concentration may be added to a previously awarded baccalaureate or graduate degree. The student must complete all of the course requirements for the major, minor, or specialization/concentration and a minimum of nine new credits hours must be earned. New general education requirements need not be met to post an additional major, minor, or specialization/concentration to a previously awarded undergraduate degree. Students adding a major, minor, or specialization/concentration are not eligible to participate in commencement ceremonies again. The additional major, minor, or specialization/concentration will be posted to the transcript only on one of the university conferral dates.

As appropriate, given the learning outcomes and alignment of involved programs and courses, credits applied to a previously-awarded IWU academic credential may be applied, without surrender of the prior credential, to another IWU academic credential within the following boundaries.

1. The student must fulfill all of the requirements for any credential awarded.
2. For credits from a prior IWU academic credential to be applied to a second IWU academic credential, the second academic program must be started within ten years of the awarding of the first credential. Exceptions must be approved by the dean (or equivalent) of the school sponsoring the academic program of the second credential. Individual academic programs may specify more strict credit-age limits if warranted by the discipline.
3. The credits from a previously-awarded undergraduate certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of an associate's degree or a bachelor's degree.
4. Up to 3 credits from a previously-awarded undergraduate certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different undergraduate certificate.
5. Up to 6 credits from a previously-awarded associate's degree or bachelor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of an undergraduate certificate..
6. The credits from a previously-awarded associate's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different associate's degree, as long as each credential has at least 25% unique credits.
7. The credits from a previously-awarded associate's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a bachelor's degree.
8. The credits from a previously-awarded bachelor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different bachelor's degree, as long as each credential has at least 25% unique credits.
9. The credits from a previously-awarded bachelor's degree or undergraduate certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a master's degree, limited by the provisions of the Undergraduate and Graduate Credit Crossover Policy.
10. Up to 3 credits from a previously-awarded graduate certificate or post-master's certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different graduate or post-master's certificate.
11. The credits from a previously-awarded graduate certificate or post-master's certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a master's degree.
12. The credits from a previously-awarded graduate certificate or post-master's certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a specialist degree.
13. The credits from a previously-awarded graduate certificate or post-master's certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a doctor's degree.
14. Credits from a previously-awarded master's degree, specialist degree, or doctor's degree may be applied to fulfill up to 1/3 of the requirements of a graduate or post-master's certificate.
15. The credits from a previously-awarded master's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different master's degree, as long as each credential has at least 50% unique credits.
16. The credits from a previously-awarded master's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a specialist degree, as long as the specialist degree has at least 50% unique credits.
17. The credits from a previously-awarded master's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a doctor's degree, as long as the doctor's degree has at least 50% unique credits.
18. Up to 6 credits from a previously-awarded specialist degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a master's degree.
19. The credits from a previously-awarded specialist degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different specialist degree, as long as each credential has at least 50% unique credits.
20. The credits from a previously-awarded specialist degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a doctoral degree, as long as the doctoral degree has at least 50% unique credits.

21. Up to 6 credits from a previously-awarded doctor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a master's degree or specialist degree.
22. The credits from a previously-awarded doctor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different doctor's degree, as long as each credential has at least 50% unique credits.

Undergraduate and Graduate Credit Crossover Policy

Undergraduate credits from IWU or other colleges or universities that are taken at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) (see Transfer of Credit Policy (p. 36) for current accrediting agencies), or hold appropriate international accreditation, may be used to fulfill requirements of IWU graduate programs under specified conditions. When permitted by the design of the program, undergraduate credits from upper level courses may be counted toward the requirements of a graduate degree or certificate when the undergraduate course or courses sufficiently accomplish the learning outcomes of a course in the graduate program. The course(s) must have been completed within the past five years and must reflect current knowledge and best practices. No more than 25% of the total credit requirements for the graduate degree or certificate may be completed through undergraduate credits. Undergraduate courses in which a student has earned a "B" or better may be considered for graduate credit. Dual counting of credits requires approval by the appropriate program leader, in consultation with a graduate level content expert, as well as approval by the University Registrar, and Financial Aid Office if applicable. The program leader will make the final decision as to the applicability of the course to fulfill program learning outcomes. Established limitations on the number of credits that may be transferred into the graduate program remain in effect.

The course(s) must have been completed within the past five years and must reflect current knowledge and best practices. No more than 25% of the total credit requirements for the undergraduate major, minor, or certificate may be completed through graduate credits. Though exceptions may be approved by program directors, graduate courses in which a student has earned a "B" or better may be considered for undergraduate credit. Dual counting of credits requires approval by the appropriate program leader, in consultation with a graduate level content expert, as well as approval by the University Registrar, and Financial Aid Office if applicable. The program leader will make the final decision as to the applicability of the course to fulfill program learning outcomes. Established limitations on the number of credits that may be transferred into the undergraduate program remain in effect.

Graduate Credit Transfer Policy

The policy applies to all graduate programs that accept transfer students at Indiana Wesleyan University.

Transfer of credit will be considered for graduate work completed at institutions accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), provided the courses meet institutional requirements and are appropriate for the student's planned and approved program. Any culminating project (e.g., capstone, research, thesis, etc.), clinical, or practicum requirement associated with a graduate program must be taken at Indiana Wesleyan University.

Individual academic units may establish higher standards/conditions as is appropriate for their respective disciplines or accrediting bodies. A minimum grade of "B" may be considered for transfer. No more than 30% of the graduate degree may be transferred in from another institution. The learning outcomes must align and have been completed within the past seven years. Minimal conditions governing the transfer of earned graduate credits to other course work include:

- Each PAU shall determine the amount of time acceptable of completed work that is eligible for credit transfer.
- Only graduate courses in which a student has earned a grade of "B" or better may be considered for transfer credit.

- Hours of credit may be transferred, but grades earned in courses taken at another institution do not transfer and are not used in computing the student's graduate GPA at Indiana Wesleyan University.
- When a graduate course is taken at another university on a credit/no credit or pass/fail option, hours of "credit" or "pass" are not accepted as transferable unless approved by the appropriate academic unit.
- For graduate certificate programs, no more than 30% can be transferred into the certificate program.

Occasionally, graduate students will begin their course of study at another institution with no plans to transfer to IWU, but find themselves displaced by a closing institution and unable to complete their degree. In an effort to support displaced students IWU will allow a greater number of transfer credits for graduate programs. All courses will be evaluated by the appropriate academic department. Where applicable transfer credits will be applied to meet IWU degree requirements. A displaced student is an actively enrolled student in degree program offered by an institution that is closing.

Displaced graduate students will be allowed to transfer in up to 75% of program requirements. All transfer credit will be reviewed by the academic department to determine if and how it applies to degree requirements.

Doctoral Exception:

IWU will allow displaced doctoral students to transfer in up to 75% of their course work. The student must complete at least 15 graduate credit hours at IWU, plus the comprehensive exam and/or final project/dissertation, if applicable.

Credit Options

Classroom Study

The most common way to earn credit in the College of Arts and Sciences/School of Nursing is by registering in the semester programs of the university, attending classes under the instruction of a university professor, submitting the required work, and passing the required examinations.

Online

Online courses are provided to undergraduate students as a supplement to the on-site, face-to-face, classroom experience. IWU-Marion offers online course options for undergraduate students during all class terms. During the Fall and Spring semesters, full-time students are allowed to enroll in a maximum of one (1) IWU-Marion online course. Additional stipulations may apply e.g. Military / Veterans benefits, On-campus housing, international students, enrollment limitations, etc. Students should speak with their academic advisor and check the course catalog in Student Planning for a course schedule.

Transfer

Students who have attended other regionally accredited colleges or universities may transfer credit toward their education at IWU. Transcripts of all other university work must be submitted directly to the Indiana Wesleyan University Registration and Academic Services office from the office of the registrar at the college or university previously attended. Transcripts delivered by hand or received from another party are not official and cannot be used for purposes of transfer work.

Credit taken by correspondence from a regionally accredited institution may be applied toward a degree at Indiana Wesleyan University, for a maximum of 12 semester hours accepted.

Credits from unaccredited schools, colleges and universities and from schools/colleges/universities not accredited by recognized accredited agencies—such as proprietary business schools, vocational/technical schools, or other single purpose institutions may be assessed individually for possible credit. The number of credits transferable from such institutions will be limited to two years (62 semester hours).

Credits earned from international institutions will need to be evaluated by having official transcripts sent to Registration & Academic Services in English. External evaluators are the Educational Credential Evaluators (ECE) and the National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES) may be required before Registration & Academic Services can evaluate the transcript. For more information about this organization, please visit their website (<https://www.ece.org/>) or (<http://www.naces.org>).

CLEP/DSST Examinations

Credit through examination (CLEP/DANTES/Advanced Placement) may only be awarded with official test scores from an official testing center and an Indiana Wesleyan University individual assessment. The maximum number of credits awarded for all credit through various examinations (CLEP, DANTES, AP, AICE, etc.) and prior learning shall be limited to a total of 40 semester hours for the baccalaureate degrees and 18 semester hours for the associate degrees, and ordinarily will not be applied to upper-division requirements in the major (junior and senior levels). It is the responsibility of the student to obtain approval from the appropriate division for the application of credits to the majors.

Examinations can be scheduled through The Center for Student Success (CSS) after approval from the Registration & Academic Services office. A $25 per credit hour transcription fee will be assessed, in addition to the CSS testing fee. Select CLEP examinations are recognized by the university for credit; however, the College of Arts and Sciences does not accept all CLEP tests, including the College Composition CLEP test.

Advanced Placement, International Baccalaureate, AICE Cambridge

Select Advanced Placement (AP) courses are evaluated as subequivalent to university freshman-level courses and appropriate credit will be given for grades of 3 or above (see RAS website).

Incoming freshmen who, prior to their enrollment at Indiana Wesleyan University, pass the AP Spanish Language Exam with a minimum score of 4 will receive credit for SPA-237 and SPA-238. Students who pass the AP Spanish Language Exam with a minimum score of 3 will be awarded credit for SPA-117 and SPA-118. AP credit for these courses will not meet intercultural competency.

Credit may be awarded for successful completion of some courses through the International Baccalaureate (IB) programs or AICE Cambridge courses. The maximum number of credits awarded for all credit through various examinations (CLEP, DANTES, AP, AICE, etc.) and prior learning shall be limited to a total of 40 semester hours for the baccalaureate degrees and 18 semester hours for the associate degrees, and ordinarily will not be applied to upper-division requirements in the major (junior and senior levels). Scores of 5 or higher are required for such credit to be accepted for IB and a passing score for AICE Cambridge based on a course by course evaluation. Credit may only be awarded with official scores and an IWU individual assessment.

Assessment – Prior Learning/Portfolio

Credit from non-traditional learning by life experience may only be awarded with an Indiana Wesleyan University individual prior learning assessment. Credit will be determined through the assessment and approval process. Students with life experience education may have developed a body of information equivalent to university-level learning. This may be work experience, hours earned at non-accredited institutions, or other non-transcribed learning. After a student has been admitted into a major and has accumulated at least 12 classroom credits, assessment of such learning may be attempted. The maximum number of credits awarded for all credit through various examinations (CLEP, DANTES, AP, AICE, etc.) and prior learning shall be limited to a total of 40 semester hours for the baccalaureate degrees and 18 semester hours for the associate degrees, and ordinarily will not be applied to upper-division requirements in the major (junior and senior levels). Guidelines and fees information is available in the Registration and Academic Services office.

Independent Learning Contract

The academic independent learning contract will be reserved for those special studies that a student desires to pursue that are not available through any of the courses in our catalog. Independent learning contracts are a privilege extended to degree-seeking junior and senior students. The student contracts with a faculty member, who then helps construct the syllabus and who meets with the student at least once a week to make sure they are staying on track. The student pays an extra fee ($100/credit).

Undergraduate students who have earned a 3.0 cumulative GPA, have met the university writing competency requirement, have completed all course prerequisites, and have earned a minimum of 60 credit hours may apply for independent learning. Undergraduate students on academic probation may not participate in independent learning. Students who wish to take an independent learning course should work closely with the professor of the course and Registration and Academic Services to complete the specific paperwork and comply with the following:

- No more than six credit hours may be earned by independent learning during the student's academic career at IWU.
- No more than one independent learning course may be taken per semester.
- Courses with a 180 number may not be taken by independent learning.

- Students may not take an incomplete grade in an independent learning course.
- Independent learning may not be used to repeat a failing course.

All coursework is expected to be completed by the end of the semester in which the course is attempted. If medical or other extenuating circumstances arise that prevent a student from completing all coursework in that semester, a professor may, at his or her discretion, award a grade of "I" (incomplete). See full incomplete policy for additional information at <https://myiwu.indwes.edu/RAS/IncompleteGradePolicyandContract>.

Additionally, students may pursue completion of studies through the additional types of courses as follows:

- Alternative course offering are courses that are in the catalog, but that are not on the schedule because the course did not fill or was not planned for this semester. It might also be needed for a student who has two required courses that are both offered only at the same time. The student would need to present compelling justification for why they could not just wait and take the course at a later time. There would be no extra fee to the student.
- Special topics course is often a new course that a department is running as a trial to determine demand. A course number of 396 in a specific subject code, titled Special Topics in that subject, is available for students to pursue with appropriate approvals.
- Faculty/student research course. Every subject has a course number of 495 and a course title of Research in "specific subject". These are faculty/student cooperative research projects in which the faculty and student are working together.

Audit

A student who has been accepted into an Indiana Wesleyan University degree program or as an unclassified student may choose to audit specified courses as follows:

- Audit registration is allowed on a space available basis. Undergraduate students may not register under this category until after the first day of class and must have the approval of the class instructor.
- The current audit fee per credit hour must accompany the registration.
- Auditing a course gives one the right to attend the course. No credit or letter grade is given. The course will be indicated as an "AU" on the student's IWU transcript.
- The student auditing the course is not expected to participate in classroom or study group assignment or to complete homework, quizzes, or tests.
- The faculty for the course is under no obligation to grade any work an auditing student chooses to submit or to give feedback on progress.
- The materials required for the course are optional for auditing students.
- The student must meet course prerequisites or be approved by the appropriate administrator of the specific college/school.
- No change may be made from audit to credit, or credit to audit after registration closes.
- Forms for admission to audit classes are available in the Admissions Office.

Global Engagement Office

As an educational institution, Indiana Wesleyan University has been rooted locally in Marion, IN for nearly a century, but our scope also extends nationally and internationally as we seek to be a truly great Christian university serving the world.

Established on the IWU-Marion campus in 2012, the Global Engagement Office embodies IWU's mission and global vision by:

- (1) Facilitating Education Abroad Programs for Students, Faculty, and Staff;
- (2) Facilitating Education and Exchange Programs for International Students and Scholars; and (3) Facilitating Strategic Global Initiatives that Enlarge our Scope as an Academic Institution.

(1) Facilitating Education Abroad Programs for Students, Faculty, and Staff

Education Abroad programs are approved according to academic policies, procedures, and structures, and they are reviewed regularly to ensure that learning outcomes are being met appropriately. Education Abroad programs are also approved by the Risk Management Office to ensure international travel, health, and safety precautions are being followed. IWU adheres to the standards of good practice for education abroad as defined by the Forum on Education Abroad (www.forumea.org). For more specific information regarding Education Abroad programs, policies, and procedures, contact the Global Engagement Office.

Education abroad programs include:

- Travel Classes:
Courses taught by IWU faculty that take place in an international location
- Intercultural Fieldtrips:
Off-campus credit-bearing experiences led by IWU faculty as part of a semester-long course
- International Internships, Student Teaching, and Practicum Experiences:
Independent experiences that fulfill program requirements in an international location
- Global Service Learning Teams:
Opportunities to serve and learn with a team led by IWU faculty/staff in an international location (not credit-bearing, but may satisfy the “Intercultural Experience” general education requirement)
- Summer/Semester Abroad Programs:
A series of credit-bearing courses that are taken in an international location under the guidance of IWU faculty and/or affiliate program providers. The following are approved Summer/Semester Abroad Programs:
 - American Studies Program (Washington, D.C.) - www.bestsemester.com/asp
 - Australia Studies Center (Brisbane, Australia and New Zealand) - www.bestsemester.com/asc

(2) Facilitating Education and Exchange Programs for International Students and Scholars

As an emerging global Christian university, the residential campus of IWU in Marion, IN is increasingly becoming a place where international students and scholars desire to reside in order to pursue their academic goals. In an effort to support these students and scholars, the Global Engagement Office collaborates with divisions, schools, offices, and student organizations on the residential campus in a number of ways, including: international student/faculty/staff recruitment and retention efforts; international student advising; strategic partnership development with international schools; and sponsoring/advising globally focused student organizations. In addition to these strategic efforts, the Global Engagement Office also facilitates the following international student and scholar programs:

- Cultural Immersion Program:
A cultural exchange experience for international high school students that takes place on the IWU-Marion campus
- Bridge Program (www.indwes.edu/academics/cas/bridge-program):
A first year language program for international college students
- Semester Abroad @ IWU Program:
A cross-cultural learning experience for international college students on the IWU-Marion campus
- Visiting Scholars Program:
Opportunities for international educators to engage in professional development and interaction with faculty on the IWU-Marion campus

(3) Facilitating Strategic Global Initiatives that Enlarge our Scope as an Academic Institution

In addition to the programs noted above, the Global Engagement Office is also involved with global initiatives that enlarge our scope, foster a global mindset, and enable us to serve the global church.

- Lumen Research Institute:
A global collective of Christian scholars who pursue questions of social concern through collaborative and interdisciplinary research efforts (www.lumenresearchinstitute.org)
- Global Classroom Initiative:
Connecting students/faculty in Grant County high school classrooms with educational partners in classrooms around the world
- Teach Abroad China:
A cooperative effort among educational entities seeking to enhance the quality of English teaching and learning in the Chinese school system
- Global Gap Year Initiative:
A one-year education abroad experience for IWU students focused on life calling, career exploration, cultural awareness, and the development of character, scholarship, and leadership

Cooperative Programs

Indiana Wesleyan University cooperates with various business, church, educational, and social agencies in the community and beyond to make special facilities available to enrich the programs offered to students.

Taylor University and Indiana Wesleyan University cooperate by allowing certain courses (a limit of one per fall or spring semester) to be available for full time students from both institutions. Although there is no extra charge for the courses in this exchange, the students are responsible for their own transportation between campuses and for payment of any fees beyond tuition. Students make take a total of four classes through this program. Please contact the Registrar's Office for details.

LeTourneau University and Indiana Wesleyan University participate in an articulation agreement guaranteeing that students who satisfactorily complete the stated requirements at IWU will be admitted as engineering students at LeTourneau University with academic credit for their IWU courses. For additional information see the School of Physical and Applied Sciences.

Academic Policies

Academic Terms - CAS and SON Pre-licensure Nursing

The regular academic year consists of a fall semester and a spring semester. Fall and spring semesters consist of 13 weeks of schedule classes and a two hour comprehensive final exam. As a general rule, a credit hour includes a minimum of 42 hours of coursework with 1/3 being classroom or equivalent instruction and 2/3 being outside course engagement. On average a three credit hour course requires a minimum of 126 hours of work. An equivalent amount of work is required for non-classroom credits. An undergraduate student is classified as full time when enrolled for 12-17 credit hours in a semester. Graduate students are classified as full time when enrolled for 9 credit hours in a semester.

Undergraduate students who wish to register for more than 17 credit hours must meet the following criteria:

- To enroll for 18 credit hours, the student must have a 2.75 GPA.
- To enroll for 19 credit hours, the student must have a 3.0 GPA.
- To enroll for 20 hours, the student must have a 3.5 GPA.

Special sessions include:

- May Term (MA) - three weeks. May term courses are offered at discounted rates in an approximately three-week period immediately following the spring graduation. Most May courses are three credits but a maximum of four credits may be earned. Two credit hours in May is considered full time. A maximum of four credits may be earned.
- Summer Session 1 (S1) - five weeks. Three semester hours of credit is considered full time. A maximum of four credits may be earned.
- Summer Session 2 (S2) - five weeks. Three semester hours of credit is considered full time. A maximum of four credits may be earned.
- Summer1Term (S1T) - 13 weeks. Six semester hours is considered full time. A maximum of twelve credits may be earned.

Students may earn a maximum total of 17 CAS/SON credit hours during the summer terms (May, S1, S2 and S1T).

Classification

Undergraduate CAS and Pre-licensure Nursing students enrolled for 12 hours or more are considered full time. All students having met regular entrance requirements are classified by the university registrar. Classification is based on the following scale:

Freshman	0-28 Semester Hours Completed
Sophomore	29-59 Semester Hours Completed
Junior	60-89 Semester Hours Completed
Senior	90 or more Semester Hours Completed
Graduate	For semester-based graduate programs, full time is nine hours.

Grading and Evaluation - CAS and SON Pre-licensure Nursing

A letter grade is used to evaluate coursework. For the purpose of determining scholastic standing and awarding honors, grade points are granted according to the letter grades and semester hours of credit. The grade-point average (GPA) is the number of quality points earned divided by the number of credit hours attempted.

Grade	Quality Point	Definition
A	4.0	Superior
A-	3.7
B+	3.3
B	3.0	Above average
B-	2.7
C+	2.3
C	2.0	Average

D+	1.3
D	1.0
F	.0	Failure/Also given for all unofficial withdrawals
WF	.0	Failing work at time of official withdrawal after the tenth week of the semester and is counted as “F” in grade-point average

The following grades are not figured into the student’s grade-point average:

W	Passing work at time of official withdrawal
I	Incomplete
CR	Credit
NC	No Credit
AU	Audit
NA	No Audit

Dean's List

At the end of fall and spring semesters, a dean’s list for undergraduate students only in CAS and SON Pre-licensure Nursing is collected that includes all students who have passed a minimum of 12 semester hours with a grade-point average of 3.5 or higher. All 12 hours must be passed with a letter grade other than “CR.” Students are notified by the Deans for this achievement.

Incomplete Courses

All course work is expected to be completed by the end of the semester in which the course is attempted. If medical or other extenuating circumstances arise that prevent a student from completing all course work in that semester, a professor may, at his or her discretion, award a grade of "I" (incomplete).

Criteria for awarding an incomplete grade:

1. Incapacitating illness which prevents a student from attending classes for a minimum period of two weeks
2. A death in the immediate family
3. Change in work schedule as required by employer
4. Judicial obligations
5. Other emergencies deemed appropriate by the instructor

Students may be asked to supply documentation of the problem.

No more than 1/3 of the course work may be left to complete and the student must be passing the class at the time the incomplete grade is awarded. Any incomplete extended beyond the end of the next term must be approved by the Dean of the governing school. Once an incomplete grade has been awarded, the student cannot withdraw from the class. Students may not register for new courses for subsequent semesters if more than 12 hours of undergraduate or 6 hours of graduate incompletes remain on a transcript. Students who have an incomplete on file are not eligible to participate in graduation ceremonies. The entire incomplete policy is available at <https://myiwu.indwes.edu/RAS/Forms>.

Repeating Courses

A student may repeat once any course in which a grade below “C” (“C-,” “D+,” “D,” “F,” or “NC”) was previously earned. Some specific graduate level courses are identified as repeatable and can be repeated if a student earns a grade higher than “C” but below the level required for that specific course. Whenever a course is repeated, the last grade and credits earned replace the previous grade in computing the student’s grade-point average (GPA). All entries, however, remain a part of the student’s permanent academic record. Duplicate credit hours are not given for two or more passing efforts. A course taken in a classroom format may not be repeated for a grade through independent learning, credit-by-examination, by assessment of prior learning, by transfer of credit, or online or through College of Adult & Professional Studies.

If a student is retaking a course that has a corresponding lab requirement, the lab requirement must be taken.

Since a course may be repeated once, failure to achieve a satisfactory grade in a required course after two attempts may result in ineligibility to complete the major in which the course was repeated.

Grade Reporting

At the midpoint of fall and spring semester, grades for undergraduate students below “C” are reported to the Director of Registration & Academic Services. Students and their campus support system (Academic Advisor, Resident Director, Faculty, etc.) are notified. In addition this information is available to the advisors for counseling purposes. Mid-semester grades are not recorded in any way on the student’s permanent record. Final grades are posted and accessible through their IWU Portal after final grades are submitted and verified by the Director of Registration & Academic Services.

Grade Changes

A final grade cannot be changed after it has been verified by the Registration & Academic Services office unless there has been an error in calculation or assignment. Faculty may submit grade changes only in the case of faculty error within 30 days of the final grade due date. In the event a non-routine change of grade becomes necessary, a written recommendation must be submitted by the faculty member to the school Dean who will determine the validity of the recommendation.

Transcripts

The student’s official transcript is prepared by the Indiana Wesleyan University Registrar's Office and will show the course, grade, credit and dates of instruction for each course in all levels of study. Transcripts will include undergraduate and graduate work with the GPA divided into undergraduate and graduate calculations. Requests for transcripts of coursework at Indiana Wesleyan University must conform to the Privacy Act of 1974, which requires that all transcript requests be submitted with a signature by the student, for protection of the student's confidentiality. A transcript is official only when it bears the university seal or is electronically delivered with a proof of authenticity attached to the transcript.

It is university policy not to release a transcript if the student has any financial holds on their record or if he or she is delinquent on any loan received through Indiana Wesleyan University. A $5 fee is charged for each transcript, with an additional $2.50 Parchment ordering fee for standard mailed or electronic delivery. Payment must be provided, along with a complete address to which the transcript is to be delivered. Please provide a current address if request is to be sent to student's home. Transcript requests can be accessed by visiting <http://www.indwes.edu/Academics/Registrar/Transcript> and submitting the request through Parchment.

GPA Requirements

The following table indicates the cumulative grade-point averages (GPA) that will result in the application of academic sanctions. The table also indicates term grade-point averages that may result in students receiving a letter of academic warning.

Students enrolled in the School of Nursing residential programs should also review GPA requirements established in the SON portion of the catalog for further GPA requirements and established policies on academic standing.

Classification	Academic Warning	Academic Probation	Academic Suspension*	Academic Dismissal*
First semester Freshman	1.80 - 2.00	1.00 - 1.79		0.00 - 0.99
Continuing Freshman 0-28 credits	1.80 - 2.00	1.70 - 1.79	1.50 - 1.69	0.00 - 1.49
29-44 credits	<2.00 any term	1.80 - 1.89	1.70 - 1.79	0.00 - 1.69
45-89 credits	<2.00 any term	1.90 - 1.99	1.80 - 1.89	0.00 - 1.79
90 + credits	<2.00 any term			0.00 - 1.99

*Students suspended or dismissed based upon their GPA may appeal this status following directions included in their suspension or dismissal letter.

The sequence of levels of achievement is allowed in order to help students accommodate the graduation requirement of 2.0 for most programs (students should be aware that some programs require more than this minimum for graduation).

Academic Warning

Academic Warning is a courtesy notification to the student. The purpose is to make students aware that their recent term GPA, if repeated in future terms, could lead to cumulative GPA that would result in Academic Suspension, Academic Dismissal and loss of Financial Aid.

Probation

Students who fall below the minimum GPA levels indicated above and are allowed to remain at the university will be placed on "academic probation". Undergraduate students will discuss appropriate number of enrolled credit hours with Director of CSS and Director of RAS, must meet all requirements made by the Academic Standing Sub-committee, and are ineligible for most extracurricular activities. No student is entitled to more than one semester on probation. Any second semester on probation may result in academic suspension or dismissal and require the student to appeal to the Academic Standing Sub-Committee.

Students who fall below the minimum GPA levels indicated above and have been placed on "academic probation" status are ineligible to participate in campus leadership or represent the university unless such participation is connected with a credit bearing course required in the student's current major area of study. Ineligibility for participation includes, for example, cheer team, club teams, extramural teams, intercollegiate athletics, music performance groups, ministry teams, student organization officer, and theatre productions/performances. Students on academic probation are not eligible to enroll in courses offered through IWU-National & Global.

Most student leadership positions have requirements in addition to the minimum above. Please reference IWU Student Handbook at <https://myiwu.indwes.edu/directory/ResLife/Forms>.

Certain organizations have requirements in addition to the minimum above.

Suspension

Undergraduate students suspended for academic reasons may reapply through Admissions after one semester away. Readmission is not guaranteed; however, all applications will be reviewed by the Academic Standing Sub-committee. Students must complete the following to be considered for readmission:

1. Must attend a regionally accredited college.
2. Must complete 12 semester credit hours of coursework numbered at 100 or above (not developmental courses) with a "C" or above. (Note: It is recommended that, when possible, these courses not include those previously taken at IWU so that if a student is readmitted, courses with C- or below can be repeated, if appropriate, at IWU to improve the IWU GPA.)
3. Must earn a minimum of 2.2 cumulative GPA on a 4.0 scale.
4. Fulfill all other readmission requirements.

Dismissal

Undergraduate students dismissed for academic reasons may reapply through Admissions after two semesters away. Readmission is not guaranteed; however, all applications will be reviewed by the Academic Standing Sub-committee. Students must complete the following to be considered for readmission:

1. Must attend a regionally accredited college.
2. Must complete 12 semester credit hours of coursework numbered at 100 or above (not developmental courses) with a "C" or above. (Note: It is recommended that, when possible, these courses not include those previously taken at IWU so that if a student is readmitted, courses with C- or below can be repeated, if appropriate, at IWU to improve the IWU GPA.)
3. Must earn a minimum of 2.2 cumulative GPA on a 4.0 scale.
4. Fulfill all other readmission requirements.

Attendance Policy - CAS and SON Pre-licensure Nursing

Attendance is essential to the philosophy of learning, character formation, and post-college life preparation at IWU. CAS undergraduate and SON Pre-licensure students are expected to attend all sessions of classes for which they are registered. A student failing to attend classes and not withdrawing officially may receive a grade of "F."

Students may be administratively withdrawn from any registered class that is not attended by the last day to drop a class in any term. Please see Academic Administrative Withdrawal policy.

Students are not allowed to attend classes for which they are not registered.

Faculty are required to keep an accurate record of student attendance for pedagogical and legal reasons. All faculty must check class lists carefully during the first and second weeks of the semester to ensure their accuracy. All discrepancies must be reported to Registration & Academic Services (see Class Enrollment Policy, Faculty Handbook).

Individual faculty must publish their attendance policy in their syllabus and should adhere to it consistently for all students in the class. Given that some medical conditions and challenges (e.g. physical health, mental health, and disabilities) may not easily align with university-approved excused absences criteria, faculty should work with the student regarding class attendance to reach an appropriate resolution, provided the student notifies the faculty member ahead of time. (The standard practice for class attendance has been to offer excuses up to one weeks' equivalent of classes.) Beyond this recommended minimum, faculty may be as rigid or lax as they choose on this matter so long as they keep accurate attendance records.

Online Attendance Policy (IWU-Marion)

Fall/Spring Online Courses: During the fall/spring term, a student will be considered as having attended the course when they complete a requirement for the course (posting, assignment, etc.). Non-attendance is reported at the end of week one and week two of the fall and spring terms. Any student who has not completed a requirement or notified the Faculty of their intended participation will be reported as not attended. Faculty are required to report non-attendance by the last day to drop.

Policies for Absences

Students pursuing an excused absence from class should first consult with their individual professors prior to the absence to request class absences or ascertain possible penalty. Undergraduate students may pursue excused absences for limited reasons; graduate students should consult their relevant graduate program for applicable attendance policies. Students are responsible directly to the instructor for all classes missed and to see that all work is made up. Students missing more than 20% of total seat time due to lack of attendance (unexcused absence) may be administratively withdrawn from that course or fail the course due to nonattendance. The Instructor of the course may inform that a student be administratively withdrawn to the Office of Student Engagement of Life Calling and Integrative Learning. In the case the student is administratively withdrawn, the Office of Student Engagement of Life Calling and Integrative Learning will notify the student and RAS.

Tier 1: Excused Absences without Academic Penalty

1.A. Excused Absences for Personal and Family Emergencies:

University-approved excused absences may be given by the Office of Student Engagement of Life Calling and Integrative Learning in CAS and the Associate Dean of the School of Nursing, Pre-licensure Nursing for absences from classes or chapel due to emergency medical care, hospitalization, the death of a first-degree relative or primary guardian, or other emergencies. To request an excused absence for personal and family emergencies, students should submit the request form within a reasonable time frame and with appropriate supporting documentation to the Office of Student Engagement. If a personal or family emergency absence request is approved, professors will be notified. Students are not to be penalized for these approved absences. Form: Located on the Portal under "Top Forms"

Tier 2: Conditionally Excused Absences without Academic Penalty*

Tier 2.A. University Sponsored Performances and Competitions

Students who represent the university through select university-sponsored activities, such as academic performance ensembles, athletic competitions, and university-sponsored World Impact Trips, will be excused from class. Requesting faculty are responsible for generating the electronic notifications forms to distribute to other faculty, within the first two weeks of the semester. If individual faculty are not notified via e-mail within the first two weeks, faculty members will not be required to excuse these requests. Students are excused for performances or competitions only, not to attend practices or rehearsals. (See Athletic Attendance Policy for full details.)

2.B. Field Trips and On-Campus Academic Experiences

To request an excused absence for an academic field trip, class trip, or on-campus academic experience, the requesting faculty must submit electronic notification forms to individual faculty instructors within the first two weeks of the semester. The field trips/experiences must be identified in the course syllabus as required. If alternative dates for the field trip/ experience are available, students should select the optimally non-conflicting date. If individual faculty members are not notified via e-mail within the first two weeks, faculty members will not be required to excuse these requests.

When registering for classes, please note that laboratory courses may or may not be able to provide a make-up activity.

As delegated by the Academic Affairs Office*

Tier 3: Faculty-Determined Excused Absences

3.A. University Sponsored Activities and Club/Organizational Activities

Students participating in student clubs or organizations may appeal for up to one excused absence per semester for each course (evening courses excluded) in order to participate in an approved activity. Requests for the student to be excused must come from the faculty advisor of the student organization on the prescribed electronic form and include a written justification based upon the IWU mission. This request must be made at least two weeks prior to the activity and submitted electronically directly to the instructing faculty members. Faculty members may excuse these requests but are not obligated to do so.

3.B. Professional Development Days

Students in their final two semesters at IWU may receive permission from their professors to miss each class up to two times for graduate school interviews, job interviews or fairs, and other professional development opportunities that are closely aligned with supporting their immediate, post-graduation future. To receive an excused absence, a student must submit a request with supporting documentation to their individual faculty members at least two weeks in advance of the absence. Faculty members are encouraged to support these excused absence requests but are not obligated to do so.

Form: Located on the Portal under “Top Forms”

ADDITIONAL NOTE: Accommodations for Medical Conditions

Disability Services oversees “attendance accommodation” for a student facing an ongoing medical condition that is regulated by ADA (disabilities) or Title IX (pregnancy) guidelines. Disability Services is responsible for contacting the instructor to discuss the need for absences and the impact of the absences on course objectives and activities. Disability Services will draft an agreement with the faculty member and the student regarding these absences.

Final Examination Policy

A final examination is required in each course. It should be comprehensive in nature, requiring the student to use the accumulated knowledge and skills of the whole course. The two hours of final examination are scheduled as part of the total hours required in the semester. Although certain kinds of courses such as clinicals, practica, student teaching, studio instruction, and seminars may be exempted from final examinations, students must still plan to meet for instruction in the scheduled time. Alternative activities in such courses should be described in the course syllabus.

Scheduled final examination times are expected to be adhered to with rare exceptions.

In the event a student has three or more final exams scheduled on one day, arrangements can be made with the professor no less than one week prior to change the exam or exams that fall in the middle. Whenever possible, the rescheduled exam should be given at a time later than the originally scheduled period. If three or more exams fall on the final day of exams, it is then acceptable to move the middle exam(s) to one of the other final exam days. Request forms for moving an exam may be obtained from the portal on the registration page.

If a student or an entire class requires a makeup examination due to an emergency, the exam must be given at a time later than the scheduled period. This may mean that the student(s) may need to request an "Incomplete" in the course until the exam has been submitted.

If a student requires an examination be moved to an earlier time for other reasons, the student must request a written exception be issued by the appropriate Associate Dean/Dean. Under normal circumstances, students may not take final examinations early.

Honesty, Cheating, Plagiarism, and Forgery

Academic dishonesty is inconsistent with scholarship and the pursuit of knowledge and Christian character. Thus, Indiana Wesleyan University expects students to be honest in all academic work and with all university records. Incidents of cheating, plagiarism, falsification of any university documents or any other dishonest action will be investigated and judged by the appropriate academic leader. It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of policies regulating academic conduct including definitions of academic dishonesty, the possible sanctions, and the appeals process.

Coursework

Students are expected to exhibit honesty in the classroom, in homework and on quizzes and tests. Each instructor should define what constitutes honest work in a specific course. Any deviation from ordinary standards, such as the permitted use of notes for an examination or an "open book" test, should be stated clearly by the instructor.

Cheating is defined as the use or attempted use of unauthorized materials or receiving unauthorized assistance or communication during any academic exercise. Examples of cheating include:

1. Submitting work for academic evaluation that is not the student's own.
2. Copying answers from another student during an examination.
3. Using prepared notes or materials during an examination.
4. Permitting another student to copy one's work.
5. Plagiarism – see below for definition
6. Falsification.
7. Other misrepresentations of academic achievement submitted for evaluation or a grade.
8. The submission of papers or other work that one has submitted in a previous class or classes without appropriate citation and/or permission of the instructor.
9. Facilitating the academic dishonesty of others. Examples include, but are not limited to, uploading work to a tutoring website or sharing work with friends, roommates, and classmates.

The Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, (7th, 2020) indicates "Plagiarism is the act of presenting the words, ideas, or images of another as your own; it denies authors or creators of content the credit they are due, whether deliberate or unintentional, plagiarism violates ethical standards in scholarship" (p. 254). Students must not take credit for work that is not their own. Plagiarism is a moral, ethical and legal offense.

Examples of plagiarism include, but are not limited to:

1. Copying another person's actual words without the use of quotation marks, source citation, or footnotes.
2. Presenting another person's ideas or theories in your own words without citing the source.
3. Failing to acknowledge contribution and collaboration from others.
4. Using information that is not common knowledge without citing the source.
5. Submitting downloaded papers or parts of papers, "cutting and pasting," or paraphrasing or copying information from Internet sources without proper acknowledgment of a source.
6. Submitting papers acquired or purchased from another individual or organization.
7. Submitting an original paper or work completed for one course to meet the requirements for another course (self-plagiarism as per the 7th edition of the APA manual, p. 256).

Sanctions

Because the matter of cheating cumulatively leads to dismissal, faculty are required to report each case to the appropriate university administrators who in turn reports the case to the academic leader of the specific college/school. Evidence must be in hand before any action will be taken to confront and accuse a student of cheating.

Any student apprehended and charged with cheating, including plagiarism, during his or her college matriculation, shall receive the following discipline:

1. First incident of cheating: no credit (i.e., no points given) in paper, assignment, or exam.
2. Second incident of cheating: failure in the course involved.
3. Third incident of cheating: dismissal from the university.
4. Students in graduate programs or graduate courses are expected to understand clearly the nature of cheating and are subject to dismissal from the university for any egregious act of academic dishonesty or cheating, without the need to follow the steps listed above.
5. Discovery of any dishonest action for students who have been awarded an IWU degree may result in rescinding of said degree without the need to follow the steps listed above.

A student who is not satisfied with the disciplinary action may follow the grievance and appeal policies of the appropriate academic unit.

University Records: Falsifying or forging any university record or using unauthorized access to any university system is considered a dishonest action and is subject to review and possible sanctions. Incidents of such will be investigated and judged by the appropriate academic leader. It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of policies regulating academic conduct including definitions of academic dishonesty, the possible sanctions, and the appeals process.

Falsification of Academic Records or University Documents: Falsification of academic records or documents includes but is not limited to altering any documents affecting academic records; forging signatures; or falsifying information of an official document such as a grade report, ID card, financial receipt, or any other official university letter or communication. This includes information downloaded (printed) from student information available via Web (online) services.

Unauthorized Access to Computerized Academic or Administrative Records or Systems: Unauthorized access to computerized academic or administrative records or systems means viewing or altering the university's computer records without authorization; copying or modifying the university's computer programs or systems without authorization; releasing or dispensing information gained through unauthorized access; or interfering with the use or availability of computer systems information.

Students who are found to have falsified university documents or participated in unauthorized access to computerized academic or administrative records or systems are subject to the following sanctions:

Sanctions:

1. Dismissal from the university for a single incident.
2. Discovery of any dishonest action for students who have been awarded an IWU degree may result in rescinding of said degree.
3. The university may consider legal action for any individual found to have participated in these actions.

A student who is not satisfied with the disciplinary action may follow the grievance and appeal policies of the appropriate academic unit.

Petition, Appeals, and Grievances (Academic)

During a student's academic career, there may be occasion to file a petition, an appeal or a grievance.

Petition: A petition is used to request an exception to an academic policy. The exception to academic policy must be due to the situation being outside the circumstances for which the policy was intended.

Appeal: An appeal is used to either request a change in grade, dispute academic dishonesty, or appeal the decision of a petition or academic dismissal/suspension.

Grievance: A grievance is an assertion that the university has not followed published policy, has applied policy incorrectly or non-uniformly, or that the policies and/or actions of the university are unjust.

Students must begin with the awareness that the university follows generally accepted college and university practice in the development of academic policies, the operation of classrooms, and use of grading techniques. These differ widely from professor to professor and from college to college. Indiana Wesleyan University allows its instructors independence in following generally accepted practices.

A student who has an appeal or grievance related to a course grade or academic policy should follow these procedures outlined below.

Academic Petition

If a student wishes to request an exception to an academic policy, the steps for an academic petition are as follows:

1. Students must complete a General Academic Petition, available in the RAS Office in the Barnes Student Center or on the RAS portal page. This form requires the signature of the student's academic advisor as well as the Division Chair of the division that oversees the policy or course in question.
2. Students must submit the completed document to RAS who will forward the petition to the appropriate academic leader.
3. The academic leader will issue a final ruling on the petition and RAS will inform the student of the decision.

Appeal of a Petition

A student may appeal the outcome of an academic petition under limited circumstances, namely if new information that could affect the outcome has become available that was not previously available. The appeal must include additional information, appropriate justification, and/or relevant documentation that further explains why the appeal should be granted. To file an appeal, students must submit a Formal Academic Grievance / Grade Appeal form available from the Academic Affairs Office. Appeals will be reviewed by the appropriate academic leader.

Appeal of Grade

If the student feels that an instructor has not followed the published grading policy or if the student feels there was an error in grade calculation, the student is encouraged to discuss their concerns with the faculty member directly or through the facilitation of the Division Chair. This must be done within 10 business days of when the grade was made available to the student. After that conversation, if the student still feels the grade was unjust due to error or inconsistency with those grades assigned to other students, the student may file a formal appeal. The steps for a formal appeal are as follows:

1. The student must complete and submit the Formal Academic Grievance / Grade Appeal form, available in the Academic Affairs Office (AAO) in the Jackson Library. If the grade concern involves a faculty member, the student must provide evidence to request a review with the Division Chair of the academic unit that offers the course in question. If the grade concern involves the Division Chair, then appropriate academic leader from the area in which the course is offered will conduct the review. If the grade concern involves an academic leader, then another appropriate academic leader will conduct the review.
2. The appropriate academic leader will notify the faculty member of the review and seek to mediate the dispute. The appropriate academic leader will then review the details of the case with the student and faculty member (separately).
 - a. If the dispute is over a grade received on a specific project or examination, the academic leader will request a second evaluation of the specific project or examination, with the grading rubric, by two faculty members with knowledge of the academic discipline. The faculty members will submit their evaluations to the academic leader within 10 business days.
 - b. If the dispute is over a course grade, the academic leader will review the course information including but not limited to, course syllabus, grading policies and grade calculations.
3. Once the academic leader has received and reviewed all information, they will make a judgement as to whether the grade has been misevaluated by more than one full grade. If so, the grade may then be changed. If a Division Chair conducts the review, the recommendation will be forwarded to the appropriate academic leader. The decision of the academic leader will be final in all grade appeals. If the complaint involves academic leader, then another appropriate academic leader will conduct the review. All decisions on appeals will be completed within 10 business days of receipt of the faculty review.

4. A student may appeal the outcome of this process to the Executive Dean or VPAA if new information that could affect the outcome has become available that was not previously available or if the decision included institutional error or gross inconsistency. The appeal must include additional information, appropriate justification and/or relevant documentation that further explains why the additional appeal should be granted.

Academic Dishonesty Appeal

To appeal the finding of academic dishonesty:

1. Students must complete the Formal Academic Grievance / Grade appeal form available from the Academic Affairs Office, in Jackson Library.
2. The form is then submitted to the appropriate Division Chair for review (if the Division Chair is also the faculty member then the appeal is submitted to the Academic Dean). Appeal forms must be submitted within 10 business days of official notification of Academic Dishonesty.
3. The Division Chair conducts a review of the information and makes a decision on the appeal, within 10 business days of receipt of appeal. If the Division Chair overturns the appeal, the student will be notified of the decision.
4. If the Division Chair denies the appeal, it will be forwarded to the appropriate academic leader. The academic leader may choose to meet with the student and/or faculty member. The decision will be final in all appeal cases. All decisions will be completed within 10 days of receipt of denial from Division Chair.
5. A student may appeal the outcome of this process to Executive Dean or VPAA if new information that could affect the outcome has become available that was not previously available. . The appeal must include additional information, appropriate justification and/or relevant documentation that further explains why the additional appeal should be granted.

Grievance

If a student believes that the university has not followed published policies regarding academic decisions or actions of the university are unjust, the student may file a grievance. If possible, students are encouraged to first pursue the informal procedure

(Title IX Violations, sexual harassment or illegal discrimination issues have separate and particular processes for resolution Any such issue should be immediately reported using the University's Incident Reporting Form https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?IndianaWesleyanUniv&layout_id=0

A. Informal Procedure

1. The student should contact the person who has made the decision for a full explanation of the university policy, or the federal or state policy, and how the policy was followed. If the university policy has been followed, that should resolve the complaint.
2. If the complaint is not satisfactorily resolved, the student may request a meeting with the Division Chair.
3. If the complaint is not satisfactorily resolved with the Division Chair, the student may request a meeting with the school's academic leader.
4. 4. If the complaint is not satisfactorily resolved with the academic leader informally, the formal procedure may be initiated.

B. Formal Procedure

1. The informal resolution may be ended at any time and the complainant may begin the formal procedure by submitting a written grievance form within 30 days of the policy decision. Grievance forms are available in the Academic Affairs Office.
2. The student may then make a request within 15 working days for a meeting with the School Dean to review the formal grievance.
3. If the complaint is not satisfactorily resolved with the school dean, the student may then request within 15 working days a hearing with the Executive Dean or VPAA.

The decision of the Executive Dean will be made within 15 working days of such a request and will be final in all academic policy disputes.

The complainant will be notified of results at each step of the grievance process. All grievances, with all papers, recommendations, and decisions related to federal or state regulations, will be reported to the Executive Dean or VPAA in whose office all files will be kept..

Because grievance and appeal processes are private university administrative hearings, legal counsel or representation is inappropriate.

Academic Requirements

Students pursuing majors in the College of Arts and Sciences or in Pre-licensure Nursing are expected to complete all academic requirements pertaining to their major. Additional requirements may be identified by specific divisions or programs and students should contact those areas for further information.

Degrees Offered

Indiana Wesleyan University confers the following degrees in the College of Arts and Sciences and School of Nursing Pre-licensure Division:

- Associate of Arts (A.A.)
- Associate of Science (A.S.)
- Bachelor of Arts (A.B./B.A.)
- Bachelor of Science (B.S.)
- Bachelor of Fine Arts (B.F.A.)
- Bachelor of Science in Nursing (B.S.N.)
- Bachelor of Social Work (B.S.W.)
- Bachelor of Music (B.Mus.)
- Master of Arts (M.A.)
- Master of Practical Theology (M.P.T.H.)
- Master of Social Work (M.S.W.)

Degree Requirements - CAS and Pre-licensure Nursing

College of Arts and Sciences (CAS) and Pre-licensure Nursing

To earn a degree from Indiana Wesleyan University, undergraduate students must earn at least 30 semester hours of course credit needed to fulfill degree requirements at IWU, including a minimum of 18 credit hours from any major and 9 credit hours from any minor. Once students achieve senior status (90 credit hours earned), a student may transfer in no more than 8 additional credits. Students with incompletes are not eligible to participate in graduation ceremonies. The clinical experience required of medical technology majors, or a semester away in a university-approved program, is accepted as in residence.

Associate Degree

1. Completion of 62 semester hours (some majors may have additional hours to meet the requirement).
2. Cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher
3. Completion of at least 24 semester hours in the major area with a GPA of 2.0 or higher; major requirements as prescribed by each department must be met.
4. Completion of general education requirements. If a student chooses to have multiple majors, the degree designation is based upon the first major.

Bachelor's Degree

1. Completion of at least 124 semester hours (some majors may have additional hours to meet the requirement).
2. Cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher
3. Completion of the designated semester hours in the major area with a major GPA of 2.25 or higher or as required by the major. Additional requirements as prescribed by each department must also be met.
4. Completion of general education requirements. If a student chooses to have multiple majors, the degree designation is based upon the first major.

Master's Degree

Please see the Graduate School for requirements for specific majors at this degree level.

Catalog Governing Graduation

Students must fulfill all university and departmental requirements for the catalog under which he or she was enrolled.

Students may meet the graduation requirements as stated in the university catalog under which they enrolled, provided they maintain continuous enrollment and make normal progress toward a degree so that the degree may be earned within a maximum of six years. If they withdraw from Indiana Wesleyan University, the graduation requirements, as stated in the catalog under which they resume enrollment, will apply. Students moving from one principle academic unit to another must meet requirements as stated in the catalog that is current at the time they make such changes. Students may at any time change from an earlier catalog to a subsequent current catalog, but must meet all requirements for graduation of that catalog. Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to modify the curriculum as necessary.

Undergraduate Degrees and Majors Offered

Majors — A.S. and A.A. Degrees

Most programs leading to the A.S. or A.A. degree require 24 hours in the major subject. Each department offering these degrees specifies the required courses. Each major designates the degree.

Majors — B.S., B.S.N., B.Mus., B.S.W., B.F.A., and A.B./B.A. Degrees

A major will consist of at least a minimum of 40-48 hours of approved courses. Some programs may require more than 48 hours when required for accreditation standards, the Guild, or Graduate School. Each major specifies the designated course requirements.

A minimum of 12 hours in the major must be in courses above the sophomore level. A grade-point average of 2.25 or higher, or as defined in each major, must be earned in courses specified in the major. More than one major may be taken.

Students should make application for admission to the major by the end of the sophomore year in most cases.

Minors

Students may also take a minor subject as noted in each department. A minor will consist of a minimum of 18-24 hours in the subject area. Each department offering the minor may specify required courses. A grade-point average of 2.0 or higher, or as defined in each minor, must be earned in courses specified in the minor. No more than three hours may be shared between a minor and a certificate. A minor must include a minimum of 15 unduplicated hours between it and all other majors or minors.

Certificates

A certificate is a coherent collection of courses that fulfill specified learning outcomes leading to certification of mastery. A certificate must be 12 or more credit-hours. Up to 3 credit hours may be shared between a certificate and a minor, or between a certificate and a concentration/specialization, or between two certificates. Up to 6 credit hours may be shared between a certificate and a major (undergraduate or graduate).

Specialization

A specialization (or concentration) is a coherent collection of courses, totaling at least 12 credit hours, that fulfills specified learning outcomes as an optional or elective part of a degree program. Up to 3 credit hours may be shared between a concentration/specialization and a certificate, or between two specializations/concentrations.

Second Majors

A second major may be declared with Registration and Academic Services by any current student. A student must earn a minimum of 51 unique (unduplicated hours) between the two majors. No more than six hours of credit may be shared between a major and a certificate. The student may select which major is considered the first major when the degrees of those majors are different. A minor must include a minimum of 15 unduplicated hours between it and all other majors or minors.

After graduating with a baccalaureate degree, a student may add a major by completing the requirements of the major subject as listed in the current catalog. If no additional coursework in the proposed added major have been taken within 10 years of graduation, a minimum number of nine new credits in the major are required. New general education requirements will not need to be met to post an additional major. Students adding a second major are not eligible to participate in graduation again. The second major can only be posted at one of the conferral dates.

Second Degrees

If an Indiana Wesleyan University graduate wishes to return to the university to earn a second degree at the same degree level, he or she may do so if pursuing a different degree and major. All current requirements for the second degree must be met, including general education requirements, and at least 30 additional semester (IWU) hours must be taken.

To have this opportunity, a student must make application to Registration & Academic Services at the beginning of the semester in which the second major/degree will be completed.

Late declaration of a major, double majoring, or the addition of a minor may delay the date of graduation.

For transfer students who have fulfilled the Indiana Statewide Transfer General Education Core (STGEC), see the corresponding section below regarding additional IWU General Education Requirements.

General Education Requirements - Associate Degree

Preparatory Requirements (0-6 hours)

At the time students enroll at IWU, they will be informed whether it is necessary to take any of the following preparatory courses:

ENG-119 Effective Writing – Required based on SAT/ACT exam scores (SAT RW 430 or below, RSAT WL & RSAT R below 25, or ACTE 18 or below). This requirement may also be waived by a transfer course or AP score that equates to ENG 120, Research Writing.

Math Requirement – Demonstrated by one of the following: Math SAT greater than or equal to 440, or RSAT greater than or equal to 480, or Math ACT greater than or equal to 19, or earning a "C" or better in MAT-101. Students may retake the SAT in the Center for Student Success (fees apply). Students (including transfer students) must fulfill this requirement within their first 30 hours. Students who have not fulfilled this requirement within their first 30 hours will not be allowed to enroll in courses at IWU unless they are also enrolled in MAT-101.

Competency and Preparatory Requirements - Bachelor's Degree

Supporting Requirements (0-6 hours)

At the time students enroll at IWU, they will be informed whether it is necessary to take any of the following preparatory courses:

ENG-119 Effective Writing – Required based on SAT/ACT exam scores (SAT RW 430 or below, RSAT WL & RSAT R below 25, or ACTE 18 or below). This requirement may also be waived by a transfer course or AP score that equates to ENG 120, Research Writing.

Math Requirement – Demonstrated by one of the following: Math SAT greater than or equal to 440, or RSAT greater than or equal to 480, or Math ACT greater than or equal to 19, or earning a "C" or better in MAT-101. Students may retake the SAT in the Center for Student Success (fees apply). Students (including transfer students) must fulfill this requirement within their first 30 hours. Students who have not fulfilled this requirement within their first 30 hours will not be allowed to enroll in courses at IWU unless they are also enrolled in MAT-101.

Competency Requirements (0-9 hours)

Courses taken to satisfy any of the following competencies must be passed with a grade of "C" or better. Any course identified as meeting a university competency must be passed with a minimum grade of "C."

Writing Competency Requirement (0-3 hours)

Demonstrated by one of the following: Successful completion of English Composition (ENG-120) or AP Credit. Students with Advanced Standing in English (SAT RW of 670 or above, RSAT WL 36 or above, or ACTE of 29 or above) must successfully complete one of the following courses (WRI-165, WRI-234, WRI-281, WRI-282). Requirement must be met within the first 30 hours of coursework.

Communication Competency Requirement (0-3 hours)

Demonstrated by successful completion of Principles of Communication (COM-100) or when specified by the student's major, completing specific course/competency requirements. It is recommended that this requirement be met within the first 60 hours of any degree program.

Intercultural Experience (IE) Competency Requirement (0-3 hours)

Requirement may be met by taking an approved course. Some majors have designated a specific course; other majors allow the student to select from a university approved list. Some courses will involve travel. They may not be met by CLEP, AP Credit, or transfer credit. The following courses meet the General Education Intercultural Competency requirement for students in majors that allow them to select from a university approved list only: ART-476, ACC/BUS-390, BIO-325, CHI-117, CHI-118, CHI-237, CHI-238, ENG-239, GEO-202, HNR-375, HST-380, INT-124, INT-220, INT-322, INT/COM-280, LDR-265, NUR-400 with 400L, PHE-248, PHL-248, POL-232, PSY-291/ADC-291, REL-240, SOC-210, SOC-225, TSL-203, TSL-385, WRI-370, WOR-238.

In addition, the Global Engagement Office oversees many experiences which may also be approved to fulfill this requirement, including a student portfolio option for students whose upbringing or a previous course or experience may satisfy this requirement.

General Education Requirements - Bachelor's Degree

Major Requirements: 40-60+

Each major has a specified list of courses and requirements. The number of required credits ranges from 40 to the maximum of 60, unless there are strong extenuating circumstances and an exemption has been made due to outside accreditation requirements or as passed by the Academic Affairs Council. Some of the major requirements overlap with general education requirements. Students should consult the requirements for their majors before registering for any courses. Students are responsible for registering for the proper courses and should heed the advice of their advisors.

Placement Testing

Before registering for French or Spanish courses, placement testing is required for all students who have previously taken French or Spanish at the high school level.

Music Large/Small Ensembles

Students will be allowed to count up to 8 credits toward graduation from courses numbered MUS-177-MUS-179, MUS-185-MUS-188, MUS-192-MUS-199, and to take no more than one per semester.

General Education Requirements

The general education requirements provide a common experience for all students; therefore, the courses ENG-180, HST-180, MUS-180, PHL-180, and New Student Orientation (NSO)/First Year Experience (FYE) requirement must be completed at Indiana Wesleyan University and are not eligible as transfer credit once the student is enrolled. These courses target specific outcomes desired of all graduates in accordance with IWU's mission and are required of all students as a designed common experience component.

All students must complete the current complement of 180 courses (ENG-180, MUS-180, HST-180, PHL-180) within the first four semesters of their academic program.

Core Requirements

NSO/FYE Requirement

New Student Orientation and First Year Experience courses are designed to connect students to the IWU community, to prepare them for their experiences here, and to begin developing an understanding of IWU's mission and philosophies of General Education and Life Calling. In these ways, these two interconnected programs seek to foster student success and flourishing by aiding in a smooth transition to college and by guiding students into the pursuit of truth for lives of service as Christ's ambassadors of reconciliation in a broken world. All students are required to participate in NSO and FYE during their first semester.

Humanities Core (12 hours)

ENG-180	Humanities World Literature	3
HST-180	Humanities World Civilization	3
MUS-180	Humanities Fine Arts	3
PHL-180	Humanities Philosophy	3

These courses are built on the model of a basic focus on seven major historical periods: Great Age of the Greeks, Greco-Roman World, Medieval Era, Renaissance and Reformation, Rise of Modern Empire and Age of Enlightenment, Nineteenth Century, and Twentieth Century. John Wesley Honors College students may meet this requirement by taking four semesters of HNR-100.

Biblical Literature and Theology (9 hours)

Two courses in biblical literature (one from the New Testament and one from the Old Testament) and THE-101 Theology of Christian Life.

Advanced Writing or Literature (3 hours)

One course in writing (WRI) above 120 or literature (ENG) above 200 EXCEPT for ENG-140, ENG-141, ENG-170, ENG-201, ENG-241, ENG-352, ENG-383, ENG-455 and WRI-210, COM-223, WRI-360, WRI-356, WRI-475.

Health and Wellness (2 hours)

Students may take two PHE Activity courses in one semester. The courses must be taken sequentially (i.e., one must meet in the first half of the term; the other must meet in the second half of the term). Students may add the second class up until the day the class starts if there are openings in the class, and the drop/add slip is signed by the professor of the class.

Indiana Statewide Transfer General Education Core (STGEC)

Indiana Wesleyan University participates voluntarily in the Indiana STGEC program in order to serve students who begin their studies at other schools; however, we recognize significant benefit to completing general education courses at IWU, rather than elsewhere. The IWU general education curriculum is integrated with the Christian narrative of our relationship with God and his creation. It leads us to love God more fully and more deeply. "As an expression of the love of God, general education in the liberal arts has as its end the love of God, neighbor, self, and creation that leads to human flourishing and the flourishing of creation, developing students to pursue, engage, and apply God's truth ever more effectively as Christ's ambassadors of reconciliation in a broken world (2 Cor 5:17-20)." (Reconciling Truth Through Love: A Philosophy of General Education, IWU College of Arts and Sciences, 2014)

The Indiana STGEC is a block of 30 credit hours, defined individually by each participating Indiana educational institution, that fulfills six specific general education competencies. Participating schools agree to certify transferring students who have completed the core and to honor the certification of other schools regarding transfer students. A student completing the core at any participating institution is counted as having completed the core at every other participating institution, even though the courses are not identical. Completion of local STGEC requirements will be validated and documented by the institution or campus of enrollment. A full explanation is available at: http://www.in.gov/che/files/STGEC_FAQs_6.25.13.pdf

The STGEC core constitutes a portion of the entire IWU general education curriculum. Students transferring in with STGEC certification are still required to fulfill the remainder of the general education curriculum. The following table details the IWU general education courses not included in the STGEC core.

IWU General Education Requirements Beyond the STGEC Core

CAS/SON	Credits
New Student Orientation (with FYE)*	0
Intercultural Experience	0-3
Biblical Literature	6
Theology	3
Total	9-12

The combination of the STGEC courses and these additional courses must total a minimum of 42 General Education hours for CAS and SON. If that number of hours has not been achieved in the combination of the two, students may choose to take any course(s) in the IWU General Education package that they have not already taken. Transfer students should work with their academic advisors to find which course(s) would be best.

Acceptance of STGEC certification is separate from the acceptance of transfer-in courses, credits, and grades, which is governed by separate university policy as detailed in the university catalog. It is conceivable that an incoming student whose completion of the core included courses with grades below a C could bring in certification of the completed core but transfer in fewer than 30 credits of general education courses. Such students will be required to complete the appropriate additional general education requirements as listed in the table above, fulfill all requirements of their chosen major(s), and accumulate the required minimum number of credits for graduation through a combination of general education, major, and elective courses. In addition, completion of the STGEC does not add to, subtract from, or alter any other degree requirements, including major, minor, or certificate requirements. Students must, therefore, work closely with an advisor to determine what relationship, if any, exists between requirements for general education and other degree requirements.

STGEC Outcome	CAS/SON	Credits
Written communication	- ENG-120 - Advanced writing	3-6
Speaking and Listening	- COM-100 - Course(s) specified my major to fulfill COM requirement	3

Graduation Requirements and Procedures

Application for graduation must be made one year before the expected graduation date. Application forms are available in the Registration and Academic Services office and at <https://myiwu.indwes.edu/RAS/Forms>. The application form must be completed and signed by all academic advisors. A student may complete his/her requirements at midyear, in the spring, or in the summer. Commencement exercises are held in December and April. Students who have met graduation requirements before September 1 would walk in the previous April. Students who have met graduation requirements before February 1 would walk in the previous December. Students will be conferred on the conferral date after completion of all requirements and certifying of such requirements. Conferral of degrees also happens on the second Friday in October, February, June and August. Students who have been conferred on a non-graduation ceremony date may walk at the following ceremony. Notification of participation in ceremonies will need to be made to the Registration and Academic Services office at the time the graduation application is submitted.

Total Credits Needed for Graduation (124 semester hours)

- Completion of 124 semester hours; however, some majors may result in the student earning greater than 124 credit hours by graduation.
- Cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher
- Completion of the designated semester hours in the major area with a GPA of 2.25 or higher as required by the major. Additional requirements as prescribed by each department must also be met.
- Completion of all general education requirements

Attendance at graduation exercises is required. Petitions for the “in absentia” granting of degrees must be approved by the university registrar.

Students may receive one degree only per commencement. A student who is enrolled in two majors with different degrees may select which major is considered the first major so that the appropriate degree will be awarded at the ceremony. Students meeting requirements for more than one degree must apply for and participate in two different ceremonies. Any university-approved dual degree program is an exception to this policy.

Academic Honors - CAS and Pre-licensure Undergraduate Candidates

Academic Honors are awarded at commencement to baccalaureate degree candidates with the identified grade point averages listed below. Academic Honors are not awarded to associate's or master's degree students. Academic Honors are based upon the Honors grade point average (GPA). It should be noted that Honors GPA includes transfer grades and as a result may differ from a student's cumulative GPA. For students enrolled in undergraduate programs at the Marion campus, academic Honors listed in the commencement program are based on all IWU academic work completed one semester prior to the student's final semester and all transfer work. Academic Honors listed on the official transcript and diploma will reflect all applicable academic work at the time of conferral. Academic Honors are awarded based on the following criteria:

1. A minimum of 80 graded hours from a college or university accredited by a regional accrediting body or the Association for Biblical Higher Education (formerly the Accrediting Association of Bible Colleges).
2. A minimum of 40 graded hours must be from Indiana Wesleyan University.
3. The student's current Honors GPA, as listed on the student's degree audit, which includes transfer grades.

Baccalaureate degree candidates will be awarded Honors as follows:

1. GPA of 3.5 - 3.69 - "cum laude" (with honors)
2. GPA of 3.7 - 3.89 - "magna cum laude" (with high honors)
3. GPA of 3.9 - 4.0 - "summa cum laude" (with highest honors)

Diplomas - CAS, SON Pre-licensure Nursing

Diplomas are mailed approximately two to four weeks after the conferral of degrees. Diplomas indicate degree earned, date of degree, and academic honors. A student's financial account must be settled in order to receive a transcript or diploma.

Student Life and the Co-curriculum

Purpose

The Indiana Wesleyan University mission statement emphasizes the development of students in character, scholarship, and leadership. The emphasis of the Co-curriculum team is to help students achieve growth in the environment outside of the formal academic setting. We desire to walk alongside students as they discover their life calling, help to guide them on their journey, and develop skills that will help them to fulfill their calling. We recognize that curricular and co-curricular learning must be integrated for transformational learning, and we work to create experiences and an environment in which every student can grow.

Academic, Counseling, Disability and Testing Services

The Center for Student Success (CSS) offers services to guide, equip, and empower students. These services are designed around a Christ-centered student growth model to encourage student success in the classroom and in life. Academic services include training in study skills, organization, and time management. Support is also provided to discuss basic skills necessary for achieving higher levels of academic performance. These services are provided within CSS and The DEN. The DEN is located in the lower level of the Jackson Library. The DEN offers tutoring and walk-in academic support. Tutoring is available in large group or small group formats depending on the course. Walk-in support is provided in content specific areas, and general academic study skills. Tutoring services are not guaranteed in all courses. An attempt is made to provide tutoring in all general education and many specialized courses. Tutoring helps to strengthen a student's basic academic skills and course content knowledge so that he/she experiences improved academic development. Tutors are IWU students recommended by faculty, trained by professional staff, and paid to assist their fellow students. The program is beneficial for the students as well as the faculty. Individual appointments for academic study skills and executive functioning skills may be made in CSS.

Testing services in CSS include the ACT, MAT, CLEP, MCCI, testing accommodations (see "Disability Services") and counseling assessments. Tests are scheduled individually.

The CSS also houses a federally funded TRIO SSS program for Residential Campus Undergraduate and SON pre-licensure students that offers a range of services. The main goal of the program is to provide additional support services necessary to increase college retention and graduation. The program is open to first generation students, low-income students, and students with disabilities.

Counseling services focus on assisting each student in developing skills, abilities, and potential within the academic, social, spiritual, physical, and emotional climate of the campus. Counseling is provided by licensed professional counselors or supervised interns. All counseling is confidential. Personal counseling includes support for psychological and emotional issues, as well as behavioral transitions. Counseling is available for IWU Marion, SON pre-licensure, and Occupational Therapy students.

For students with disabilities who are enrolled in any IWU program the CSS works to make programs and facilities available in a non-arbitrary and beneficial manner. The Director of Accessibility and Accommodations is responsible for receiving a request for academic or physical accommodations. The director will work with the student to obtain and review the required documentation and will assign reasonable accommodation based on documentation that supports the student's request. Academic accommodations include, but are not limited to, alternative testing environments, note-taking services, recording lectures, books in alternate format, and adaptive technology.

Athletics

The Indiana Wesleyan University athletic program is an integral part of the institution's total education program, subject to the same aims, policies, and objectives as other institutional programs. The four core values of the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics are Spiritual Growth, Academic Excellence, Leadership Development, and Athletic Excellence.

The Wildcat men compete in intercollegiate football, soccer, tennis, cross-country, basketball, baseball, golf, and track and field. Memberships are held in the NAIA (National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics) and the Crossroads League. Associate membership is held in the NCCAA (National Christian College Athletic Association).

The Wildcat women compete in intercollegiate soccer, tennis, golf, cross-country, volleyball, basketball, softball, track and field, and swimming & diving. Memberships are held in the NAIA (National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics) and the Crossroads League. Associate membership is held in the NCCAA (National Christian College Athletic Association). Our co-ed competitive cheer team is also a member of the NAIA (National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics).

The physical education and intramural sports departments provide vital programs to the students as well. Lifetime sport participation is emphasized in the physical education instruction program, while the intramural sports program allows students to pursue leisure time needs and interests in an organized and competitive manner.

Life Calling & Career Development

The Life Calling & Career Development team at Indiana Wesleyan University celebrates students' God-given uniqueness by holistically developing and equipping them with the resources to make informed career decisions, ultimately enabling them to live a life of purpose and stewardship.

Our team offers innovative and intentional programming to align with students' development. Freshmen are guided in the discovery and defining of their life calling through coaching, assessments (Clifton Strengths, The Strong Interest Inventory, Myers-Briggs Type Indicator), and experiential learning (job shadowing, on-campus employment, informational interviews). We help sophomore students cultivate experiences that align with their respective passions and connects them with professional networks (internships, networking events, field trips, LinkedIn). Juniors are encouraged to pursue leadership positions in on or off campus employment, student organization, research committee, or other co-curricular involvement, as continued personal discovery and professional development. Seniors work with our employer relations personnel to navigate post-graduate plans, complete applications, and learn about additional ways that they can secure meaningful work (job fairs, employer recruitment at the Career kiosk, Handshake job board). We even offer free gently used professional apparel donated by professionals for students to keep and use for presentations and interviews.

The Life Calling & Career Development team serves students in the complex preparation of resumes, interviewing skills, professional dress, branding, and job search. To schedule a one-on-one appointment, call the Life Calling and Career office at 765-677-2520 or sign up on joinhandshake@indwes.edu.

Commuter Students

Commuter students are recognized as full members of the IWU community. Such status comes with the same privileges and responsibilities expected of all students.

Additionally, commuter students receive the same services and opportunities as other students on campus. IWU also recognizes the unique needs of this student group and there are some additional services the institution has been intentional to provide. Specifically, the Barnes Student Center has a lounge designed for commuter students with a kitchen, lockers, lounge furniture, and tables for group studying. Finally, the university has designated a staff member as a point of contact for commuter students who have questions or concerns. Questions concerning commuter students may be directed to Student Engagement Office located in Suite 290 on the second floor or the student center or by e-mail at Commuters@indwes.edu.

Student Conduct and Community Standards

As part of Student Development, the Office of Student Conduct & Community Standards aspires to guide, equip, and empower students toward the pursuit of their life calling. We desire for our students to be in the most advantageous situations to thrive during their college experience. Toward those ends, the Office of Student Conduct helps to create a conducive living and learning environment by upholding the values and standards of the IWU community and encourages students to act with character and integrity in all areas. Community Standards & University Policies, along with an outline of the Student Conduct Process can be found in the Student Handbook located on the IWU Portal.

Drug Abuse Prevention

Drug abuse in the United States has become a major problem, and students at Indiana Wesleyan University are not immune. If you need assistance with a drug abuse problem, we encourage you to seek help at your local community drug abuse prevention center. To talk to someone in a strictly confidential atmosphere, please feel free to contact The Center for Student Success (765-677-2257) at our Marion campus for a list of resources. All conversations are private and will not affect your attendance at the university.

If you would like to talk to someone outside Indiana Wesleyan University, please feel free to call one of the following numbers, or a hospital or treatment center in your area:

- National Institute on Drug Abuse, 5600 Fishers Lane, Room 10A-30, Rockville, MD 20857, 800-662-HELP, 800-662-4357.

Food

You will find a variety of campus dining options located in the Barnes Student Center. The food service contractor provides well-balance meals at reasonable cost. Dietary options are available throughout our facility. Individuals with more serious dietary restrictions may contact the food service for consultation. These students' meals are prepared to the specifications of each student's dietary needs.

A standard meal plan is automatically part of a resident student's room and board contract. Residents may dine in the Baldwin dining room, an all-you-can-eat self-serve buffet. Baldwin offers a variety of food choices for Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner. Featuring cuisines from around the world including traditional Mid-west and American, Asian, Mexican, Soup and Salad, Deli and Spread, Demonstration Made-To-Order, Grill and Pizza, Rotisserie, Desserts, Cereals and Vegan stations. Students also have the option of conversion meals honored in our Wildcat Express Food Court. The food court houses seven restaurants including Chick-fil-A, 42nd Street Deli, Brick Yard Grill, Mexican, Wild Wok, Mario's Pizza and Grinders and Wilbur's Wild Wings. The Wildcat Express also offers a single Grab-n-Go option for our busy students.

Students also have the opportunity to use their meal plan points in our Trader James Convenience store located in the Barnes Student Center. Trader James features a wide variety of food, snacks, beverages and personal items. Trader James also offer a variety of dietary sensitive item such as gluten free products.

Commuter Students are encouraged to eat their meals in Baldwin dining room or the Wildcat Express Food Court. Commuter students are able to purchase meal plans, these are located online through the IWU Housing site. Commuter students may also purchase points, which are applied as a declining balance system to their ID cards for ease of convenience. Commuter students who apply points Purchases of $100 or more will receive a bonus of 25% to their account. These points may be purchased points from the food service located in the Barnes Student Center office suite 160.

Health Services

All students are required to provide health information through the Med+Proctor website, including proof of immunity. Students will receive an invitation email from Med+Proctor in their IWU email account. All health information is to be completed and/or uploaded by July 31 for fall semester, or December 1st if beginning the spring semester. See the Wildcat Health Clinic portal page for updated list of required and recommended vaccines. Evidence of immunization is provided through one of the following options:

- Completed and signed Immunization Form by the student's medical provider (form found on Med+Proctor site)
- An immunization record from a high school, college, or university
- A copy of local health department immunization record
- An immunization record maintained by the student or parent (cannot be a baby book record)

The IWU Wildcat Health Clinic provides a full range of care and is staffed by registered nurses, a nurse practitioner, and a part-time physician. The Wildcat Health Clinic serves students on a walk-in basis by a registered nurse or by appointment with the nurse practitioner and the physician. There is a fee to see the nurse practitioner and the physician, which can be billed to the student's insurance or paid by students.

IMPORTANT: All students need to provide their own health insurance. Health insurance is strongly encouraged for all students.

Information Desk - Marion Campus

The Information Desk, located on the first floor of the Barnes Student Center, is the best location on campus to find details regarding phone numbers, campus events, and campus offices. Phone 765-677-4636 for more information.

Life Coaching

Through personalized dialogue and assessment tools, life coaches help students discover their unique God-given design, develop a sense of life calling, and become equipped with fundamental life skills for future personal and professional development. This is a free service offered to all Marion residential students. Life Coaching appointments can be made in the Life Calling and Career Office on the second floor of Barnes Student Center, suite 290, by calling 765-677-2520 or by using the Handshake app.

New Student Orientation

All entering full-time undergraduate students are required to participate in an orientation conducted at the beginning of the semester or program. This orientation is designed to acquaint students with the university programs and services available from the various offices.

Performing Arts

The Phillippe Performing Arts Center (PPAC) hosts performances by the IWU Music Division and IWU Theatre Guild. Performances are open to the campus community and the public.

This mission remains focused on a higher goal: to experience the limitless, wondrous creativity of how God is revealed to us through ministry in the arts.

Pre-Declared Student Advising

The Pre-declared classification has been established by Indiana Wesleyan University for students who enter IWU with the desire to explore academic majors and related careers before committing to a major program of study. Life Calling provides academic advising to these students.

Through individual appointments, workshops, and the Life Calling course (LFC-150), Life Calling assists Pre-declared students with the following:

1. Developing a sense of purpose and calling as a basis for making life decisions.
2. Selecting and scheduling courses.
3. Establishing and evaluating academic goals.
4. Understanding and navigating university academic policies and procedures.
5. Exploring academic majors and related careers.
6. Declaring a major.
7. Connecting with additional university programs and resources.

Publications

Staff positions on The Sojourn (the student-run campus news outlet) and GrantCOnnected.net (the student-run community news outlet) are available for students interested in writing, editing, photography, video, audio, web design, and graphic design. Paid positions are available for students.

The Sojourn and GrantCOnnected.net are published online and cover many aspects of campus and community life through accurate and investigative reporting.

The Caesura is a literary magazine published each spring that features the creative writing and visual art of students.

Recreation

The mission of the Department of Campus Recreation is to provide a wide variety of quality recreation, sports, fitness, and leisure activities that will increase the overall wellness of the campus community and to provide dynamic programming that enhances leadership and social development in an environment that is fair, safe, and Christ-centered.

All enrolled students (resident and commuters) as well as faculty, staff, administrators, and their spouses are eligible to participate in activities sponsored by the Department of Campus Recreation.

Activities include, but are not limited to: intramural sand volleyball, flag football, ultimate frisbee, racquetball, indoor soccer, outdoor soccer, volleyball, basketball, campus golf, disc golf, cornhole, pickleball, 5k fun run, and bowling.

Students, faculty, staff and administrators also have access to a state-of-the-art recreation and wellness facility.

Residential Learning

The Residential Learning program at Indiana Wesleyan University is designed to provide each resident with the opportunity to grow not only academically but also socially and spiritually. The most successful students after graduation have mastered not only their course of study but have developed other areas of their lives, becoming well-rounded and balanced. With this in mind, the residence hall becomes much more than a place to sleep and study. It is a community of learning that helps students more effectively grow into the image of Christ. Our hope is that students will find the residence halls a place where individuals will join together as a family to learn from one another.

The Residential Learning program is administered by the Dean for Residential Learning. Each residence hall or area has a trained professional resident director (RD) living in the hall. Each living unit (approximately 35 students) has a specially selected and trained undergraduate resident assistant (RA). Residents are challenged and supported through the growth process by the RA who plans regular activities and programs, including spiritual growth opportunities for residents. The Resident Hall Chaplain provides additional spiritual support and guidance for residents.

The Residential Learning program at IWU provides a developmental approach for housing students. Resident students begin their stay on campus in traditional residence halls with more support and accountability. As they grow developmentally and in their independence, upper division students may transition into more independent-style living if qualifications are met.

Traditional Halls: Housing freshman through senior students in a traditional hall-style: Beckett Hall (F), Reed Hall (F), Martin Hall (F), Evans Hall (F), South Hall (M), and Hodson Hall (M).

Upper Division Halls:

Suite Style: Open to sophomores and above, students live in suites of 4 or 8 students. Suites have private lounge space: Scripture Hall (F) and Kem Hall (M).

Apartment Style: Juniors and seniors may apply to live in apartment-style living areas, which have lounges and a kitchenette: Townhouses and Lodges.

Married Housing: University Court offers duplex apartments in a community for married students.

Prospective students interested in attending IWU and living on campus may complete an online housing application after submitting an enrollment deposit as part of the admission process. Room assignments will be made according to the date the enrollment deposit is paid.

Returning students who wish to reserve a room must complete an online Returning Student Application. Students may self-select a room online during housing selection, according to procedures outlined by the Housing Office.

Housing Exemption: Undergraduate students 16-22 years of age are required to live in University undergraduate housing unless they are married, are the legal guardian of a minor, are taking less than 9 onsite (not online) credit hours, or living with a legal guardian within 60 miles of the Marion campus of Indiana Wesleyan University. Students who meet these criteria are eligible for exemption and may complete an Off-Campus Housing Application.

A Housing Exemption Appeal process is available to students desiring to live off-campus for financial reasons, mental/physical/emotional health needs, or other extenuating personal circumstances.

Housing Eligibility: New or readmitted students enrolling in a traditional undergraduate academic program at Indiana Wesleyan University must be under the age of 25 at the time of initial enrollment to qualify to live in University undergraduate housing. New or readmitted students 25 years of age or older who are interested in living in University undergraduate housing may complete an Age Limit Exception Request to apply for eligibility. Returning students who are already living in or approved to live in University undergraduate housing at the time of their 25th birthday qualify to remain in University undergraduate housing until they graduate from IWU or separate from the University.

Continuous Graduate Housing: Students residing in University undergraduate housing may elect to extend housing eligibility if continuing in a residential graduate program the following semester. Students meeting the continuous enrollment criteria should contact the Director of Housing to inquire about availability.

Undergraduate residence halls are closed during Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Spring Break vacations. There is no food service offered during these periods. During these times students must secure their own housing and food arrangements. Residential Learning will assist students who are having difficulty securing break housing.

Safety Policies and Campus Crime Statistics

IWU Safety Policies can be accessed at <http://www.indwes.edu/safety> and includes crime statistics on certain reportable crimes, as well as policies concerning alcohol and drug use, crime reporting and prevention, sexual assault and other related matters. Anyone wishing a paper copy of the policies may contact the Office of Institutional Research at 765-677-1566.

Spiritual Life

Providing spiritual growth opportunities for students has been a hallmark of Indiana Wesleyan University from its beginning. Students are introduced to many different growth opportunities. This includes what takes place in the classroom, where faculty integrates faith and learning and have a vital interest in the spiritual life of students.

Providing community worship gatherings for students is another spiritual growth opportunity. Chapel is held Monday, Wednesday, and Friday throughout the semester and on Tuesday during special emphasis weeks. Chapel is a time for the university community to join together to explore the story of God, engage in worship, and empower one another to lead lives of spiritual vitality. Alternative student-led chapel events occur throughout the week.

All undergraduate residential students must accrue 30 Chapel Credits over the course of a single semester by attending either chapel or alternative chapel events (1 service = 1 credit). Undergraduate commuter students must accrue 15 credits over the course of a semester. Limited credit reductions are available based on work, internships, clinicals, and practicums. See the Student Handbook (<http://www.indwes.edu/Life-At-IWU/IWU-Student-Handbook>) for details and the responses for a semester without enough accrued credits

Residence halls also provide spiritual growth opportunities. Students are encouraged to develop intentional community to explore their spiritual life and practice Christian disciplines such as Bible study, Scripture memorization and prayer.

Christian service teams minister in area churches, family camps, and youth camps through music, sermons, drama, and testimonies. The University Chorale, Wind Ensemble, and music teams travel extensively, ministering through Christian music. IWU, through World Impact, also plans and promotes several short-term mission trips through the year. A student can also find opportunities to serve through local community ministry organizations, churches and on-campus student organizations.

Spiritual growth and service opportunities are offered to students to help them to grow deeper in their relationship with God and for them to have a better understanding of how they can better serve Him and humankind with their gifts and talents.

Student Center

The Barnes Student Center is the community center of the university for all members of the university family--students, faculty, administration, alumni, and guests. It represents a well-considered plan for the community life of the university.

The Barnes Student Center provides for the services, conveniences, and amenities that the members of the university family need in their daily life on campus and for getting to know and understand one another through informal association outside the classroom.

The Barnes Student Center is part of the university educational process. It provides a social and recreational program, aiming to make free time activity a cooperative factor with study in education. Its goal is the development of persons as well as intellects.

Student Engagement

The Student Engagement office works with both new and continuing students in their pursuit of a successful academic experience, especially by promoting a smooth transition to collegiate life and by coordinating support mechanisms for students. The Associate Dean for Student Engagement also coordinates the campus-wide use of Aviso to connect students to campus resources and services that will enable them to thrive.

Student Life and Activities

Student organizations and other activities provide co-curricular and extracurricular opportunities on campus in leadership and personal growth. Students are encouraged to participate in a variety of campus student organizations and activities with the intent to develop leadership skills as well as grow spiritually. The following groups and activities are designed to meet students' needs and interests:

Student Government Association

The Indiana Wesleyan University Student Government Association (SGA) represents students in matters of self-government and problems of mutual interest to the student body and the university. Student Government is comprised of an executive board (president and cabinet), representatives for academic divisions, and representatives from student organizations. The Indiana Wesleyan University Student Government Association represents both the appreciation and the concerns of the students to the university administration and selects students to sit as members on university faculty committees.

Student Activities Council

The Student Activities Council (SAC) consists of student coordinators who organize campus activities. SAC activities are designed to promote spiritual growth, develop and maintain school spirit, and provide fun and meaningful programs for students, faculty, staff, and the IWU community. Activities planned by the council range in interest, appeal, and complexity. Traditional events include Homecoming activities, dances, SAC Weekend, and the long standing tradition of the Spotted Cow Music Festival. The purpose of the Student Activities Council is to provide opportunities for students to interact socially and intellectually outside of the classroom.

Student Organizations

IWU proudly offers many opportunities for students to be involved in extracurricular activities. More than 30 student organizations are organized and run by students and are designed to meet a variety of interests. Student organizations represent interests in academic, social issues, recreation and student publications. Other student leadership opportunities exist in the New Student Orientation Program. For a listing of specific organizations, please visit Engage at <http://www.indwes.edu/engage>.

Intercultural and Global Office

As an expression of IWU-Marion's commitment to inclusive excellence and international education, the Intercultural and Global Office (IGO) dedicates itself to developing "global citizens" on campus that promote spaces of belonging, equity, and inclusion in our communities and beyond. Through academic support, student services, and co-curricular programs, we envision a vibrant and inclusive community distinguished by a culturally responsive curriculum with campus experiences that reflect our commitment to the global and multicultural Kingdom of God.

As an office, we value:

1. Curiosity—to humbly enable us to learn from others
2. Conversation—to mercifully enter relationship with others
3. Community—the fruit of justly walking alongside others

As an office, we serve the residential campus by providing:

1. Academic and co-curricular support for diversity and inclusion learning and development

The pursuit of inclusivity and inclusive excellence at IWU-Marion is an institutional commitment shaped by our Wesleyan heritage and beliefs. As such, we explore avenues for inclusive learning, understanding, and development in the classroom, and out, to all students, faculty, and staff. We provide intercultural seminars, trainings, and workshops to aid in our pursuit of inclusive excellence. We collaborate with the CAS General Education Committee by facilitating the Intercultural Effectiveness Scale (IES) online assessment for all courses and experiences that satisfy the Intercultural Experience General Education requirement and aid faculty on how to utilize the IES online assessment in their classrooms. Alongside administering the IES, some of the initiatives in this area are:

- Council for Inclusive Excellence (Administrative Group)
- The Intercultural Fellows (Faculty Group)
- The Intercultural Ambassadors (Student Group)
- Koinonia, Association of Minority Students (Student Organizations)
- Passport to Culture; The Day of Courageous Conversations; Love Revolution (Events & Programming)

2. Academic and co-curricular transition and orientation programs and services for international students and scholars

As an emerging global Christian university, the residential campus of IWU in Marion, IN is a place where international students and scholars desire to reside in order to pursue their academic goals. In an effort to support these students and scholars, the Intercultural and Global Office collaborates with divisions, schools, offices, and student organizations on the residential campus in a number of ways, including: international student/faculty/staff recruitment and retention efforts; international student advising; strategic partnership development with international schools; and sponsoring/advising globally focused student organizations. For more specific information regarding international student and scholar academic access and orientation programs, policies, and procedures, contact the Director of International Student and Scholar programs in the Intercultural & Global Office. A sample of the academic facing international/global initiatives we offer are as followed:

- Cultural Immersion Program (Academic Access Program)
- Bridge Program (Academic Access Program)
- Semester Abroad @ IWU Program (Academic Program)
- Visiting Scholars Program (Faculty Program)
- Transition to American College Living – TACL (Orientation)
- International Student Association (Student Group)

3. Administrative oversight and academic support for multicultural students and scholarships, educational access, retention, and campus climate. The pursuit of educational equity, access and desire to positively impact the success of incoming and current underrepresented groups (students of color, first generation college students, and low-income students) is an institutional distinctive at IWU. As such, initiatives in this functional area of operation include the following:

- Administrative oversight of the Campus Equity Response Team
- Administrative oversight of the Luther Lee and Multicultural Endowed Scholarships
- Participation in campus wide retention and support committees
- Ongoing research on Access and Equity for underrepresented and underserved students in higher Education

4. Administrative oversight for education/study abroad and global learning opportunities

Education Abroad programs are approved according to academic policies, procedures, and structures, and they are reviewed regularly to ensure that learning outcomes are being met appropriately. Education Abroad programs are also approved by the Risk Management Office to ensure international travel, health, and safety precautions are being followed. IWU adheres to the standards of good practice for education abroad as defined by the Forum on Education Abroad (www.forumea.org). For more specific information regarding Education Abroad programs, policies, and procedures, contact the Assistant Director of Education Abroad and Global Learning in the Intercultural & Global Office.

Education abroad programs include:

- Travel Classes (Courses taught by IWU faculty that take place in an international location)
- Intercultural Fieldtrips: (Off-campus credit-bearing experiences led by IWU faculty as part of a semester-long course)
- International Internships, Student Teaching, and Practicum Experiences: (Independent experiences that fulfill program requirements and academic credit in an international location)
- Global Service Learning Teams: (not credit-bearing, but may satisfy the “Intercultural Experience” general education requirement)

- Summer/Semester Abroad Programs: (credit-bearing courses that are taken in an international location under the guidance of IWU faculty leadership or affiliate program providers)

5. Administrative oversight for community engagement and service learning opportunities

At IWU- Marion, we seek to intentionally partner with local organizations, fostering peace and prosperity throughout Grant County and beyond in meaningful and organized ways. Our community engagement and service learning activities aim to secure the following:

- Provide service-learning and internship opportunities for students in partnership with local schools, churches, business, government agencies, and non-profit organizations.
- Provide an open-door policy with our Grant County neighbors and practice hospitality by regularly welcoming external events and guests on our campus.
- Recruit employees who actively participate in community events through volunteerism, service on boards, neighborhood association meetings, tutoring and mentoring, etc.
- Provide leadership development opportunities for community leaders and aspiring leaders in Grant County.
- Develop and implement a plan to collaboratively partner with Grant County organizations to revitalize our community, increase the flourishing of our neighbors, and improve our quality of place.

Financial Information - College of Arts and Sciences

Tuition and Fees

It has always been the intent of Indiana Wesleyan University to keep the benefits of education within the financial possibilities of all who wish to attend. This is done by charging the student less than the actual cost and by using numerous financial assistance programs.

Tuition

Tuition charges include all academic services, except those that require special fees, as listed on the Student Account Services Account Information Brochure.

Charges are based on the total number of credit hours per semester. The same rate applies to day and night classes. Special rates may apply to May term and Summer Sessions.

Students taking six or more credit hours may qualify for financial aid and should contact the Financial Aid Office.

The total cost of tuition depends on the total number of credit hours (either day or night classes) taken per semester, as follows (for the 2020/2021 school year):

Number of Credit Hours	Cost Per Semester
2	1,196
3	1,794
4	2,392
5	2,990
6	6,048
7	7,056
8	8,064
9	9,072
10	10,080
11	11,088
12 - 17	14,092

Credit hours above 17 per semester will be charged at $1,008 per credit hour.

Special fees, books, supplies, travel, and personal expenses are additional.

Payment Terms

Students enrolled in Fall Semester 2020 must have an approved payment plan in place, or pay their bill in full by July 31, 2020. Likewise, students enrolled in Spring Semester 2021 must have an approved payment plan in place, or pay their bill in full by December 15, 2020. Exceptions to these deadlines are possible only if financial aid is still pending, as long as all requested information has been submitted. If all requested documents have not been submitted to the Financial Aid Office by July 31st or December 15th, the remaining balance is due immediately.

Payment Options

You may choose one, all, or any combination of the following:

PLAN ONE: Pay net amount due by July 31st for the fall semester or by December 15th for the spring semester. Net amount due represents total charges, less any scholarships, grants, or campus-administered loans confirmed by the Financial Aid Office. IWU accepts VISA, DISCOVER, MASTERCARD and AMERICAN EXPRESS. Online payments may be paid through the secure student portal by selecting 'Pay on My Account' located in the student account information. Please note: Effective July 1, 2014 a 2.5% convenience fee will be assessed with all credit card payments.

PLAN TWO: Pay net amount using any Federal Direct Loan or Parent PLUS loan. All paperwork must be received in the Financial Aid Office by July 1 for the fall or December 15 for the spring. THIS IS VERY IMPORTANT!

PLAN THREE: Enroll in a tuition payment plan that spreads net amount due over each semester. IWU partners with Official Payments to offer the multiple tuition payment plans noted in the chart below. Spring tuition payment plans can be arranged at the same time as fall tuition payment plans or immediately prior to spring semester.

Payment Plan	Payment Plan Enrollment Dates	1st Payment Due Date
FALL
6 month plan	5/01/2020 to 6/30/2020	6/10/2020
5 month plan	5/01/2020 to 7/31/2020	7/10/2020
4 month plan	5/01/2020 to 10/01/2020	8/10/2020
SPRING
6 month plan	5/01/2020 to 1/15/2021	12/10/2020
5 month plan	5/01/2020 to 1/15/2021	12/10/2020
4 month plan	5/01/2020 to 1/15/2021	12/10/2020

Refund of Tuition

Registration is an agreement between the student and the university. If a student withdraws, a refund may be given, depending upon the period of time that has elapsed from the beginning of the semester. Refunds apply to those completely withdrawing from school, not to those who drop a course.

Notice about Withdrawal

Students must contact the Registration and Academic Services Office to withdraw from classes if they are unable to secure funding for their college expenses. The Registration and Academic Services Office must be notified before the first two weeks of the semester in order to receive 100% refund. If a student does not formally withdraw through the Registration and Academic Services Office, grades of "F" will be given for the semester. The following table reflects the percentage/amount of refund allowable to those who completely withdraw from school.

Tuition and Fee	Tuition Refund	Room Refund
During the first week	100%	75%
During the second week	100%	50%

During the third week	75%	25%
During the fourth week	50%	-0-
During the fifth week	25%	-0-

No refunds after the fifth week.

*Special fees, such as private lesson fees, are refundable according to the same percentages as tuition.

Refund of Meal Plan

Board charges are pro-rated each day based on date of total withdrawal. No board refunds will be given after December 1 for the fall semester or April 1 for the spring semester.

Scholarships and other forms of financial aid are taken into consideration when refunds are calculated and are pro-rated according to program restrictions.

Appeal Process

A written appeal may be submitted to Student Account Services. The charges being appealed will be reviewed and voted on by the Appeals Committee. Students will receive a written response once the committee has come to a decision.

Financial Policies

Students are advised of financial obligations for their degree seeking (core) program during the registration process. Students are expected to meet these obligations according to the schedule. Any questions regarding payments or problems associated with making those payments should be directed to Student Account Services.

Students who have applied for financial aid are responsible for all tuition and fees in the event it is determined they are ineligible for financial aid, decline the financial aid, or withdraw from the program prior to completing the academic award period. Students receiving military or corporate assistance who have received prior approval from the university for direct billing are required to pay their share of tuition and fees and submit appropriate assistance documents by the assigned due date. The deferral program in no way relieves the student of the financial obligation to the university and the student retains full responsibility for ensuring that all tuition and fees are paid in full and in a timely manner.

Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to suspend students from class attendance for failure to meet financial obligations.

Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to change the tuition and fee schedule at any time. There will be a fee charged for any check returned due to non-sufficient funds. If collection of tuition, book charges, and/or fees becomes necessary, all percentage-based costs of collection, court costs, and attorney fees are the responsibility of the student.

Financial Regulations for Individuals Covered by Chapter 31 or Chapter 33

For purposes of this policy, a covered individual is any individual who is entitled to educational assistance under Chapter 31, Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment, or Chapter 33, Post-9/11, benefits.

Any covered individual may enroll in or attend a course of education during the period beginning on the date on which the individual provides a Certificate of Eligibility (COE) for entitlement to educational assistance under chapter 31 or 33 (A "Statement of Benefits" obtained from the Department of Veterans' Affairs (VA) website – eBenefits, or a VA Form 28-1905 for chapter 31 authorization purposes can substitute a Certificate of Eligibility) and ending on the earlier of the following dates:

- The date on which payment from VA is made to Indiana Wesleyan University (IWU)
- 90 days after the date IWU certified tuition and fees following the receipt of the certificate of eligibility

Indiana Wesleyan University will not impose any penalty, including the assessment of late fees, the denial of access to classes, libraries, or other institutional facilities, or the requirement that a covered individual borrow additional funds, on any covered individual because of the individual's inability to meet his or her financial obligations to the institution due to the delayed disbursement funding from VA under chapter 31 or 33.

IWU requires the following actions on the part of any covered individual:

- Submit the Certificate of Eligibility (COE) for entitlement to educational assistance no later than the first day of the course of education.

- Provide any additional information necessary to the proper certification of enrollment by IWU.
- All standard financial policies apply for any amount not covered by the Certificate of Eligibility (COE) – i.e. charges not covered, or percentage of fees in excess of the COE.

Financial Aid

General Information - CAS and Pre-licensure Nursing Financial Aid

The role of financial aid at Indiana Wesleyan University is to help make a quality Christian education affordable to each and every student.

Criteria for Aid: All full-time, admitted students attending Indiana Wesleyan University Marion campus will be considered for institutional aid. Students are not required to file the FAFSA to receive academic scholarships, but are encouraged to file in order to be eligible for additional institutional, federal and state financial aid based upon financial need. For the purposes of student financial aid, “need” is defined as the difference between the total cost of education and the amount a family may be expected to contribute toward that education (as defined by the FAFSA). Federal, state, and institutional financial aid are intended to assist those students who have not already earned a first baccalaureate degree.

Types of Aid: Student financial aid can be classified under four major headings: scholarships, grants, loans, and work programs.

Scholarships and grants are both forms of aid that do not have to be repaid. The term “scholarship” usually is applied to an award that recognizes academic achievement or promise. Grants are typically based on financial need.

Loans and work programs are forms of self-help aid. Student loans often contain desirable features such as deferred payments during periods of schooling, low interest rates, interest subsidies, or provisions for working off the loan obligation through future service in a particular profession. Work assignments connected with the student aid program consist of part-time jobs which are typically on-campus.

Applying for Aid: All students desiring financial aid must submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by April 15th. It is available on the Web at fafsa.gov. After evaluation by the Financial Aid Office, this information is used to determine the kinds and amounts of need-based aid for which the student qualifies.

Calendar for Financial Aid

April 15 - Deadline for all students to file the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

August 1 - Deadline for financial aid forms, documents, and loan applications.

July 31 - Deadline to make payment arrangements.

Awarding of Aid: Once application forms begin to arrive in the Financial Aid Office, notices are sent to make applicants aware of any missing forms or to request additional information that may be required. Additional documents must be provided by the date specified in the letter. Without these documents, financial aid can be accurately awarded. All financial forms are thoroughly reviewed, and the Financial Aid Office communicates with the student or parents to resolve any significant questions. When the financial aid award has been made, the student is notified via the Financial Aid Award Letter or email notification.

The aid package offered to an applicant consists of a combination of scholarships, grants, loans, or work, depending upon the recipient’s aid eligibility. If an aid package includes certain kinds of federal assistance, the sum total of the individual need-based awards cannot exceed the student’s calculated financial need. Also, the total of awards that apply only to tuition/fees is limited to the amount of standard tuition/fee charges. While student aid awards are committed for the whole school year, just one-half the amount of each scholarship, grant, or loan is applied to the student’s account each semester.

Failure to register at the beginning of a semester, or enrollment for fewer than the required number of credit hours, automatically cancels all awards for the semester. A financial aid recipient who officially withdraws from the university or drops below the required number of credit hours during the refund period of a semester will have an adjustment made in the student aid package. Copies of the university’s Packaging Policy are available upon request.

Institutional financial aid cannot exceed a student's direct cost. This includes academic scholarships, athletic scholarships, endowed scholarships, grants, and awards.

Some forms of Indiana State Aid require students to complete 30 credit hours per year for full renewal. If you have questions please contact the Financial Aid Office.

Requirements for Receiving Aid: In order to qualify for all federal funds with the exception of a Federal Pell Grant, a student must be enrolled at least half-time. A student is classified as half-time if registration is for a minimum of six credit hours per semester or a total of six credit hours during the summer sessions. Institutional and state scholarships and grants, however, require full-time enrollment (a minimum of 12 credit hours per semester). In addition, Pell Grant, FSEOG, state aid programs, and most forms of institutional aid require that the student does not have a previous baccalaureate degree. Financial aid recipients are required to maintain satisfactory progress toward a degree in their chosen course of study. The institutional Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy outlines the specific details of this requirement. Any student receiving an institutional grant award is expected to maintain an acceptable citizenship record.

Satisfactory Academic Progress

Students must make Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) towards earning a degree as stipulated below to receive financial aid at IWU from all institutional, federal and state student aid grants, Work Study and loan programs as well as tuition waivers. Some additional grants and scholarships may also use part or all of the SAP standards as minimum criteria for funding eligibility.

REVISED effective September 2017

Undergraduate Programs

Total Hours Earned and Recognized by IWU for Degree Consideration from All institutions	1-28	29-44	45-up
Minimum Cumulative GPA	1.80	1.90	2.00
Minimum Pass Rate Percentage of Total Hours Successfully Completed (Measured as Hours Earned ÷ Hours Attempted)	67%	67%	67%
Maximum Total Credit Hours or Time Allowed to Complete Current Primary Degree Requirements	150% of the specific degree programs published length

Satisfactory Academic Progress will be measured at the end of each semester. Students who fail to meet the minimum policy standards will be placed on SAP Suspension. Aid eligibility will resume when the student raises his or her cumulative academic measurements to the required levels or has a SAP Appeal approved. SAP suspension may be appealed if unusual and/or mitigating circumstances affected academic progress. Such circumstances may include a severe illness or injury to the student or an immediate family member, the death of a student's relative, student activation into military service or other circumstances as deemed appropriate for consideration by the SAP Appeals Committee.

To appeal, the student must submit a legible letter, a completed SAP Appeal Form and supporting documentation to the IWU Financial Aid Office. These must explain in detail why the student failed to meet the minimum academic standards, what unusual and/or mitigating circumstances contributed to the failure and how his or her situation has changed to allow the student to meet SAP requirements by the next calculation. Appeals must be received by the Financial Aid Office no later than 15 business days before the end of the term for which reinstatement is desired. We highly encourage students to appeal before the term or semester begins. A committee will review the appeal and will notify the student in writing of their decision. If an appeal is approved, the student will temporarily regain financial aid eligibility. Continuation of eligibility will be contingent upon the student demonstrating improved academic merit achievement as outlined by the SAP appeals committee through their Academic Plan.

Scholarships and Grants

National Merit Finalist/Semifinalist Scholarship

National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test finalists and semifinalists are eligible to receive a National Excellence Scholarship award but are not eligible for other IWU academic scholarships. The National Excellence Scholarship is $15,000 and includes students who are National Merit Semi-Finalists or Finalists, National Achievement recipients or in the National Hispanic Recognition Program.

The student must be an entering freshman, submit a copy of the National Merit Certificate, have a 3.5 high school GPA, and enroll full-time each semester. National Merit Scholarships are renewable for up to eight consecutive semesters. To renew, students must be enrolled full-time (at least 12 credit hours fall and spring semesters) and must achieve a 3.2 minimum cumulative GPA. These credits must be completed by the end of May term each year. National Merit Scholarships are not available for enrollment in summer sessions, nor will credits earned or GPA achieved in summer sessions count toward eligibility requirements until the following fall or spring calculation. If lost, the scholarship may be reinstated following completion of the next fall or spring term. If a student loses his or her National Merit award due to academic performance, the semester in which the student did not receive the award is still counted toward the total 8 semesters of eligibility.

Academic Awards

Academic awards are available to new first-time freshmen based upon their excellence in their high school studies as shown by their standardized test scores and high school grade point average. These two measures of academic achievement combine to place students into eligibility for the following award levels.

Academic Awards 2020-2021

$14,000/yr.*	Heritage's Scholarship
$12,000/yr.*	President's Scholarship
$10,000/yr.*	Dean's Scholarship
$8,000/yr.*	Faculty Scholarship
$6,000/yr.*	Achievement Award
$4,000/yr.*	Recognition Award

*Must maintain scholarship-specific GPA requirement for renewal.

Transfer Academic Scholarship

A full-time transfer student who has attended at least one full-time semester (at least 12 credit hours) at an approved college or university may qualify with a minimum transfer GPA of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale. A GPA on transfer work from more than one college or university will be calculated using a weighted average. A student with less than 12 credit hours must meet the requirements for the freshman Academic Scholarship. It is the student's responsibility to submit the necessary transcripts and test scores at the time of application for admission to Indiana Wesleyan University.

Transfer Academic Scholarships are renewable for students who enroll full-time (at least 12 credit hours fall and spring semesters) and achieve a 3.0 minimum cumulative GPA. Credits must be completed by the end of May term each year to count towards the GPA minimum. Transfer Academic Scholarships are not available for enrollment in summer sessions, nor will credits earned or GPA achieved in summer sessions count toward eligibility requirements until the following fall or spring calculation. If lost, the scholarship may be reinstated following completion of the next fall or spring term, if eligibility requirements are met; however, recipient will have fewer semesters of eligibility remaining. Transfer Academic Scholarships are available for renewal for a total of six semesters.

GPA/GED	AMOUNT
3.700- 4.000	$10,000 Premier Scholars Scholarship (3.2 Renewal)
3.25 - 3.699	$8,000 Distinguished Scholars Scholarship (3.0 Renewal)
2.701 - 3.249	$6,000 Prominent Scholars Scholarship (3.0 Renewal)
2.700 and below	$4,000 University Scholars Scholarship (3.0 Renewal)

Grant County Leadership Scholarship

Funds for these awards are made available through a trust given to Indiana Wesleyan University in memory of Henry M. and Anna Shugart. Awards are given annually to graduates of Grant County, Indiana, high schools who have attained at least a 3.50 cumulative GPA (on a 4.00 scale) and possess positive leadership and citizenship traits. The award amount is $2,000 per year for four years to entering freshmen, full-time students only. Students must apply through the high school guidance office by the announced filing deadline. The student must maintain a 3.50 cumulative GPA to renew the scholarship.

Athletic Scholarships

Several awards are granted each year to both men and women participating in intercollegiate athletics. Awards are made upon recommendation of coaches of the individual sports.

Music Scholarship

Scholarships are available by audition to qualified full-time students majoring in music. Contact the Division of Music for additional information.

Art Scholarship

Scholarships are available to qualified full-time students majoring in art. Contact the Division of Art for additional information.

Theatre Scholarship

Scholarships are available to qualified full-time students. Contact the Division of Communication and Theatre for additional information.

Church Matching Scholarship Program

Indiana Wesleyan University will match a local church's contribution to its Matching Church Scholarship Fund up to a maximum of $1,000 per undergraduate student attending our residential campus. We will match up to $1,500 for Wesleyan churches. To qualify, the church must file an application with the Church Relations Office prior to the first day of classes each academic year.

Indiana Foundation for Home Schooling Scholarship

A $1000 award is available to a home schooled student participating in the IFHS graduation ceremony. Students must submit an application and have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 with SAT score of 1000 or an ACT score of 21. Scholarship renewable by maintaining a 3.0 cumulative GPA.

IWU Triangle Scholarship

The IWU Triangle Scholarship was developed to ensure select students from Grant, Blackford, Howard, Miami, and Wabash counties have access and added incentive to attend college locally. The amount of this award will vary based on student demographic information, financial need, and funding available. Eligible students are packaged with this award based on information received from the FAFSA and the admissions application.

Frank O'Bannon State Grant Program - Indiana Residents Only

The Commission for Higher Education (CHE) administers this grant program based on financial need. Potential recipients must submit the FAFSA and have it received at the federal processor by April 15th. Recipients must be full-time students. Awards vary and are dependent on the type of diploma received and state funding. Full renewal requires the student to complete at least 30 credit hours a year. An increased award is available for students who complete at least 39 credit hours per year.

Indiana 21st Century Scholars Program - Indiana Residents Only

Potential recipients applied in their 7th or 8th grade year to be part of the program and fulfilled a pledge of good citizenship. Recipients must submit their FAFSA and have it received at the federal processor by April 15th annually. The student must also enroll full-time in an approved Indiana institution. Full renewal requires the student to complete at least 30 credit hours each year.

Family Tuition Grant

The grant will be $1,000 toward tuition only for the younger sibling who is a full-time undergraduate student from the same family attending the residential campus (the Transition to Nursing Program does not qualify). The definition of family is meant in the traditional, not extended sense. This could be any combination of husband/wife/father/mother/unmarried dependent sons or daughters. It is intended to assist families where two or more "living under the same roof" are attending Indiana Wesleyan University on a full-time basis in traditional programs of study on our residential campus.

Pastor Dependent Grant

A recipient must be a dependent undergraduate child of a full-time ordained minister serving in a local church during the academic year in which the award is granted. The student must enroll full-time; the amount is $1,800 per academic year.

Federal PELL Grant

Any U.S. citizen who does not have a baccalaureate degree can apply for a Pell grant by completing the FAFSA. Awards are based on financial need; amounts are capped at $6,345 for the 2020-2021 academic year.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG)

These awards range from $100 to $4,000 per year, depending upon financial need and funding received by IWU. Recipients must also be eligible for the Federal Pell Grant.

Indiana Wesleyan University Grant

Funds provided by IWU available to students who file a timely FAFSA and meet eligibility criteria. Amount varies based on student's calculated need, other financial aid received, and funding available.

Shugart Grant

Funds for this award are made available through a trust given to Indiana Wesleyan University in memory of Henry M. and Anna Shugart. Recipients must reside in Indiana and file a FAFSA that is received by the federal processor by April 15th. Amount varies based on student's calculated need, other financial aid received, and funding level.

Wesleyan Student Aid

Acknowledging its Wesleyan heritage, Indiana Wesleyan University supports our relationship to The Wesleyan Church and eagerly seeks to enroll increased numbers of Wesleyan students. The following financial aid programs have been developed to assist Wesleyan students in furthering their education at Indiana Wesleyan University.

In State Wesleyan Student Award

This award of $1,000 is given to all Wesleyan students who regularly attend a Wesleyan Church in his/her home community.

Wesleyan Missionary Dependent Grant

The award amount is 75 percent of tuition for up to eight semesters. The recipient must demonstrate financial need, reside on campus, be a full-time undergraduate student, and apply for all other forms of federal and state financial aid. Parent(s) must serve full-time under direct appointment of the Global Partners or Wesleyan Native American Ministries during the academic year in which the award is received. The recipient may NOT also receive the Out-of-State Wesleyan Grant, the International Wesleyan Grant, or the Wesleyan Pastor Dependent Grant.

Out-of-State Wesleyan Grant

This award is available to full-time students who regularly attended a Wesleyan Church outside the state of Indiana immediately prior to enrolling at Indiana Wesleyan University. The award of $2,000 is given only to full-time, undergraduate, U.S. resident students.

Wesleyan Pastor Dependent Grant

A recipient must be a dependent undergraduate child of a full-time ordained minister serving in a local Wesleyan church during the academic year in which the award is granted. The student must enroll full-time; the amount is 75 percent of tuition and will be provided through the combination of all scholarships and grants from federal, state and institutional programs.

Campus Challenge/Wesleyan Bible Bowl (WBB) Scholarship

The recipient must submit the original scholarship certificates to the Financial Aid Office prior to fall enrollment. Awards earned or certificates submitted AFTER that time may be available for use in future academic years. Full-time students may use up to $1,000 per academic year (divided one-half each semester) UNLESS the current certificates held total in excess of $4,000, in which case the student may use one-fourth of the total per academic year. Recipients must also attend full-time.

John Wesley Scholarship

Accepted Wesleyan undergraduate students must submit an application prior to the deadline to the Admissions Office to be considered for this award. This award is provided by various donors to allow funding for students who may otherwise be unable to attend IWU. Award amounts vary based on funds available and the scholarship committee's determination of the student's need for the scholarship.

International Wesleyan Grant

International students attending IWU may be awarded a $3,000 grant. The grant is renewable for up to eight semesters of eligibility and student must remain enrolled full-time each semester. Eligibility for any academic merit scholarship supersedes and replaces this award. Not eligible to receive the Wesleyan Canadian Grant in addition to this award. Eligibility ends when first bachelor's degree is earned.

Wesleyan Ministerial Loan/Grant

The Wesleyan Church and Indiana Wesleyan University cooperate in providing Ministerial Loan Grants for full-time junior and senior Christian ministries students who are members of The Wesleyan Church. Indiana Wesleyan University cooperates with

The Wesleyan Church and local districts in providing funds for graduate students as well. Juniors may receive $4,000 per year, while seniors may receive $6,000 per year from the university. In addition, The Wesleyan Church provides funds per credit hour as available to assist with educational expenses. Students, including transfer students, must complete one full year at IWU before becoming eligible for the IWU portion. The funds are subject to all policies and procedures governing university financial aid. A separate application is required each semester by the announced deadline.

Conditions of eligibility for both undergraduate and graduate ministerial aid are as follows:

1. Student must regularly attend a local Wesleyan church of the North American General Conference.
2. Examination and approval as a licensed ministerial student by the District Board of Ministerial Development prior to the beginning of the semester in which the loan/grant is to be received.
3. Cumulative grade-point average of 2.0 or higher.
4. Admission to the appropriate undergraduate or graduate Christian ministries or youth ministries major (See School of Theology and Ministry).
5. Approval by the director of financial aid.

Each award is issued as a loan with separate promissory notes to be signed for repayment of the denominational and university shares. However, recipients who later serve The Wesleyan Church under district appointment have the privilege of canceling 20 percent of the total loan obligation for each year of full-time service rendered. Those who are employed otherwise will repay their loan(s) over a period of five years with an annual interest rate of 10 percent. Further information about the operation of this program can be found online at the Wesleyan headquarters Web page <http://www.wesleyan.org> or secured by writing the Department of Education and the Ministry of The Wesleyan Church, P.O. Box 50434, Indianapolis, Indiana 46250-0434.

Loans

IWU Student Loan

Awards in this institutional loan program range from $200 - $3,000 per academic year to students whose parent has been denied the Parent PLUS Loan and who demonstrate financial need. Repayment of principal and interest begins after the student is enrolled less than part-time. Interest is charged at a fixed rate of 8.75%.

Federal Direct Loan

Direct Loans are need-based and/or non-need-based loans for which a student applies through the Direct Loan Program. Repayment begins six months after the student ceases to be at least a half-time student and is typically spread over a period of up to 10 years. Deferments are available if the student meets certain conditions. Dependent freshmen may borrow up to $5,500 per academic year, sophomores may borrow up to $6,500, and juniors and seniors may borrow up to $7,500, based on financial need. The total amount of undergraduate loans may not exceed $31,000. All students must file the Free Application for Federal Student Aid to qualify for a Direct Loan.

Students with financial need may qualify for a 4.45 percent interest rate subsidized Direct Loan, which means the government is paying or subsidizing the interest while the student is in school. Students without financial need qualify for the unsubsidized Direct Loan at 4.45 percent interest, in which their interest is not paid by the government. Students may pay the interest monthly while in school, or the lender will capitalize the accrued interest each year causing the loan to increase more rapidly.

In order to help each student meet the August 15 payment expectation, the Financial Aid Office recommends that all applicable e-paperwork (Master Promissory Note, Federal Entrance Counseling and Federal Direct Loan Request) be completed and submitted prior to July 1 each year.

Federal PLUS (Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students)

Parents may borrow funds through this program to assist with their child(ren)'s educational expenses. The limit is the cost of education per child minus other financial aid. The interest rate is a fixed no more than 9%. Borrowers must be creditworthy and can begin repayment upon disbursement of the funds or request a deferment until the student is no longer enrolled full-time.

Work Programs

Federal Work-Study Program

Many student work assignments on the campus fall within the scope of the Federal Work-Study Program (FWS). Students average 10 hours per week during the academic year and from 15-40 hours per week during periods of non-enrollment. The pay rate is minimum wage for most positions on campus. A student is eligible for a FWS position if there is sufficient financial need and Work-Study is listed as one of the types of financial aid the student has been awarded. Please note that the award amount listed by financial aid is an estimate of earnings and not a guarantee. All students must find a job on campus and their earnings will be tied to hours worked and wage of position held. All student employees must complete the Immigration and Naturalization Service's I-9 Form and must be issued a Work Authorization.

Indiana Wesleyan University Employment

A limited number of campus jobs are assigned to students who do not qualify for the Federal Work-Study Program. In such cases, the institution pays all of the student's wages, and the earnings are paid directly to the student with the intent of paying the student's account. Pay rates are also at minimum wage.

Right to Know

A student has the right to know...

1. What financial assistance is available, including information on all federal, state, and institutional financial aid programs.
2. The deadlines for submitting applications for each of the financial aid programs available.
3. The cost of attending the institution and the school's refund policy.
4. The criteria used by the institution to select financial aid recipients.
5. How the school determines your financial need. This process includes how costs for tuition and fees, room and board, travel, books and supplies, personal and miscellaneous expenses, etc., are considered in your budget.
6. What resources (such as parental contribution, other financial aid, your assets, etc.) are considered in the calculation of your need.
7. How much of your financial need, as determined by the institution, has been met.
8. An explanation of the various programs in your student aid package. If you believe you have been treated unfairly, you may request reconsideration of the award that was made to you.
9. What portion of the financial aid you received must be repaid, and what portion is grant aid. If the aid is a loan, you have the right to know what the interest rate is, the total amount that must be repaid, the payback procedures, the length of the time you have to repay the loan, and when repayment is to begin.

Responsibilities

It is your responsibility to...

1. Review and consider all information about the school's program before you enroll.
2. Complete all application forms accurately and submit them on time to the right place.
3. Pay special attention to and accurately complete your application for student aid. Errors can result in long delays in your receipt of financial aid. Intentional misreporting of information on application forms for federal financial aid is a violation of law and is considered a criminal offense subject to penalties under the U.S. Criminal Code.
4. Return all additional information, verification, corrections, and/or new information requested by either the Financial Aid Office or the agency to which you submitted your application.
5. Read and understand all forms that you are asked to sign and keep copies of them.
6. Accept responsibility for all agreements you sign.
7. Notify the lender of changes in your name, address, or school status if you have a loan.
8. Perform in a satisfactory manner the work that is agreed upon in accepting a university Work Study award.
9. Know and comply with the deadlines for application or reapplication for aid.
10. Know and comply with your school's refund procedures.

Withdrawal and Impact on Financial Aid

Students who receive financial aid (federal, state, or institutional aid) and withdraw from classes during the semester are potentially subject to a review of their financial aid eligibility. The impact on a student's awards will depend on

1. When the student withdrew from a class or classes.
2. Whether the student withdrew from one or more classes, but remained enrolled or if the student completely withdrew from all classes.
3. Type of financial aid awarded.
4. Changes to the charges on the student's account.

Students need to talk with their financial aid counselor prior to withdrawing from any course(s) so that he/she can make an informed decision regarding the financial impact of the withdraw and understand how it could impact the future eligibility of some types of aid.

The following sections provide an overview of the impact of withdraws based on the type of aid received:

Federal Aid (Title IV)

Students who receive federal Title IV financial aid (Pell Grant, FSEOG, TEACH Grant, Perkins Loan, Federal Work-Study, Direct Subsidized, Unsubsidized Loans or Direct PLUS Loans) and who completely withdraw from all classes during the semester are subject to the Return of Title IV Funds calculation. This calculation does not apply to a student who withdraws from one or more classes but remains enrolled in one or more classes.

To determine the withdrawal date, the contact date is the date the student notifies the university of their intent to withdraw. This notification will be recorded by the Office of Student Services and may include verbal or written communication. If the contact date falls during a scheduled break within the term, the withdrawal date will refer back to the last date of scheduled classes before the break occurred. The withdrawal date may never fall within a scheduled break of five days or more.

For students, due to extenuating circumstances, who are unable to officially withdraw, the institution will use the last confirmed date of academically related activity (LDARA) or the mid-point of the payment period.

When a student withdraws, outstanding Title IV credit balances will be placed on hold until the R2T4 calculation has been completed. If a credit balance exists on the student's account after applying any institutional refund policies and the R2T4 calculation, the institution will disburse the credit balance to the student as soon as possible but no later than 14 days from the date the school performed the R2T4 calculation.

The calculation is based on the number of calendar days in the term compared to the number of days elapsed when the withdrawal is completed. Based on the percentage of the term completed, the student is allowed to retain a similar percentage of the federal Title IV financial aid. The remainder of the funds is to be returned to the federal programs. The school will determine how much of the federal funds are to be returned by the school and how much, if any, is to be returned by the student.

Funds will be returned in the following order if the student received money from the fund:

- Federal Unsubsidized Direct Loan
- Federal Subsidized Direct Loan
- PLUS
- Pell Grant
- FSEOG
- TEACH Grant

Title IV Funds that the school is required to return must be returned as soon as possible but no later than 45 days after determining the student withdrew.

If the funds the student must repay need to be returned to the federal grant programs, the student will only have to repay 50 percent of the required grant. Students will be given 45 days to repay any grant monies owed. After 45 days, the student will be placed in a federal grant overpayment status and will be ineligible to receive federal funds, at any school, until the grant is repaid. Loan monies owed will become subject to the loan promissory note signed by the student.

Here is an example of how a calculation might work: If there are 100 calendar days in the term (excluding any breaks of five or more days) and the student withdraws on the 25th day, 25 percent of the term has elapsed. This means that 75 percent of the federal funds must be returned. If the student received $5,000 in federal Title IV aid, the $3,750 must be returned. If the school retained all of the funds to pay for school charged expenses, then the school will return all of the funds. If some of the funds were disbursed to the student, then the student may have to repay some of the funds also.

A post-withdrawal disbursement is a disbursement that occurs after the R2T4 calculation is completed, and it is determined that a student received less federal student aid than the amount earned. The post-withdrawal disbursement of a federal grant for funds earned in excess of outstanding current (educationally related) charges must be made directly to the student within 45 days of the date of determination that the student withdrew. Students and/or parents (in the case of Direct Parent PLUS loans) will be notified in writing of eligibility for a post-withdrawal loan disbursement within 30 days of the date the school determined the student withdrew. Students and/or parents will have 14 days to respond to the post-withdrawal offer. Post-withdrawal disbursements will be applied to outstanding allowable charges on the student account first, and any resulting credit balance will be paid to the student and/or parent within 14 days of the disbursement.

Institutional Aid

The institutional aid a student receives will follow the same guidelines as provided in the federal aid section above, except that institutional aid is limited to the amount of institutional charges after any adjustments are made based on the withdraw.

Indiana State Aid

The Commission for Higher Education (CHE) has a refund period that consists of the first four weeks of each academic term. If a student withdraws from one or more classes and thus is not classified as a full-time student at the end of the CHE refund period, the student is not eligible for any of their state grant funds. If a student withdraws from one or more classes after the CHE refund period, the impact on the student's state grants will depend on any adjustment of charges made on the student's account. Completing fewer than 30 credits each year can also negatively impact future eligibility of some state grants.

Additionally, withdrawal from a course may have an impact on completion rate, which can affect SAP standing. Please contact the Financial Aid Office at 765-677-2116 if you have any questions regarding the impact of a withdrawal on your student financial aid.

Financial Information - Other

A student may not register for the next semester, term, or session or receive a transcript unless all charges are paid in full.

The university is not responsible for the loss of personal property on campus.

Students are accountable for materials and equipment issued to them. Damage to property must be paid for by those responsible.

The university does not have health insurance for students and will not be responsible for any health-related charges.

Numbering of Courses

The course number has significance in the following ways:

000-099 Preparatory Courses (Limited number applied toward graduation)

100-199 Courses ordinarily taken in the freshman year

200-299 Courses ordinarily taken in the sophomore year

300-399 Courses ordinarily taken in the junior year

400-499 Courses ordinarily taken in the senior year

500-999 Courses ordinarily taken for graduate/doctoral credit

General Studies Program

Purpose

The purpose of the program in general studies is to provide a general college education. General Studies is unique in that it is a stand-alone major but cannot have additional majors or minors. The major is General Studies. There is no departmental major, although a concentration of 30 credits must be completed in one subject area. The program in general studies is open to any student who meets general admission requirements to the university and is housed within Registration & Academic Services (RAS). In partnership with faculty from the concentration area, a RAS advisor will be assigned for the General Studies program.

John Wesley Honors College (JWHC)

The John Wesley Honors College (JWHC) is an international community of Christian liberal learning at IWU that seeks to glorify God through the creative pursuit of academic excellence and spiritual formation.

JWHC students are a select group of bright and ambitious students who take seriously Christ's command to love God with all one's heart, soul and intellect. They desire, above all, to use their gifts and talents to make a difference in the world for Christ. Such students recognize that, in whatever career they choose to enter, a rigorous liberal arts education will foster the sort of intellectual skills and virtues necessary to achieve this goal. The JWHC provides a learning environment in which such students can thrive and prepare to pursue lives well-lived in service to Church and society.

Through smaller, inquiry-based, discussion-oriented classes, JWHC students engage their studies with extraordinary self-investment and creativity. The honors curriculum's focus on depth and relevance means that JWHC students spend less time on busy work and more time engaging primary sources, learning through hands-on experiences, and grappling with the enduring significance of course material for their life and faith. JWHC students are challenged to ask tough questions, to enrich their understanding of life's complexities, and to reflect critically on the relevance of their faith to contemporary issues. The JWHC also offers numerous co-curricular opportunities, both on and off campus, that allow students to connect these learning experiences to the broader world in which they live.

Ultimately, the JWHC strives to produce graduates who can compete intellectually with the best and brightest of their peers globally. But perhaps more importantly, the JWHC aims to nurture graduates who are adept at drawing faith, learning and career into an integrated life calling.

Students participate in the JWHC either as John Wesley Scholars, Luther Lee Scholars, or Mary C. Dodd Honors Students. John Wesley and Luther Lee Scholars enter the Honors College as freshmen and pursue an Honors Humanities major (p. 99), which fulfills their general education requirements. Mary C. Dodd Honors Students join the Honors College as sophomores or juniors and pursue an Honors Humanities minor (p. 100), much of which overlaps with their University general education requirements. Students are chosen to participate in these curricular programs through a highly selective application process.

Honors Humanities - B.A.

Honors Humanities is a rigorous interdisciplinary major that satisfies the general education requirements for John Wesley and Luther Lee Scholars. By completing the Honors Humanities major, John Wesley and Luther Lee Scholars fulfill IWU's general education requirements and competency and proficiency requirements for graduation with a bachelor's degree.

The Honors Humanities major may not be taken as a stand-alone major. Honors Humanities is offered as a complementary major that provides interdisciplinary preparation for a more holistic and meaningful engagement of a particular field of study.

Admission to the Honors Humanities major is only open to students enrolled in the John Wesley or Luther Lee Scholars programs. Successful completion of the Honors Humanities major is a requirement for graduation from IWU with honors distinction as a John Wesley or Luther Lee Scholar. Students must maintain a 3.5 cumulative GPA and a 3.0 GPA in their coursework in the Honors Humanities major.

Computer course at or above CIS-110 excluding CIS-450

Writing Competency

Demonstrated by successful completion of Rhetoric and the Sacramental Imagination (HNR-185).

Communication Competency

Demonstrated by successful completion of Honors Scholarship Presentation (HNR-499).

Intercultural Competency

Demonstrated by successful completion of LLLC Seminar: Who is our Neighbor? (HNR-375).

Honors Humanities Minor

The Honors Humanities minor is an interdisciplinary engagement of the fundamental questions of human existence for the purpose of contextualizing and enriching one's studies in a particular academic discipline.

Admission to the Honors Humanities minor is limited to students who have enrolled in the Mary C. Dodd Honors program. Mary C. Dodd Honors students must complete all of the CAS general education requirements for graduation with a bachelor's degree. Many of the courses in the Honors Humanities minor may be applied toward certain CAS general education requirements. Successful completion of the Honors Humanities minor is a requirement for graduation from IWU as a Mary C. Dodd Honors Student. Students must maintain a 3.5 cumulative GPA and a 3.0 GPA in their coursework in the Honors Humanities minor.

School of Arts and Humanities

Vision: The School of Arts and Humanities is an interdisciplinary community devoted to the incarnation of Christ's truth through language and the arts. Our desire is to participate in the reconciliation of all creation to God.

The School of Arts and Humanities is an interdisciplinary community devoted to developing students in the exploration and communication of truth and beauty in God's world through language, social sciences, and the arts. The central goal of the faculty of this school is to inspire students to show their love for God with their whole heart, soul, mind and strength. The faculty of this school are integral to fulfilling the liberal learning objectives of the College of Arts and Sciences, providing for students introductions to art, modern languages, literature, history, social studies, music, theatre, and communication, as well as helping students to meet writing and public speaking competencies. The School of Arts and Humanities houses the following divisions:

Communication & Theatre (p. 115)

Modern Language & Literature (p. 128)

Music (p. 145)

Social Sciences (p. 156)

These five divisions offer 39 majors: these include 31 in the disciplines of art, design, communication, economics, English, foreign language, history, international studies, music, political science, social studies, TESOL, and theatre; six majors offered in conjunction with the School of Teacher Education; and two majors (pre-art therapy and music therapy) offered in conjunction with the Division of Behavioral Sciences.

Division of Art + Design

Purpose

We offer art students a learning environment which blends design, art making, and creativity with career development and Christ-centered social engagement.

Mission

The Division of Art + Design is a flourishing Christ-centered community of artists, designers, students, and scholars dedicated to serving others. Our art professors are devoted to working alongside students, helping them successfully develop as artists, designers, and followers of Christ.

Programs

- Design for Social Impact BFA (p. 104)
- Photography BFA (p. 105)

- Visual Communication Design BFA (p. 106)

Admission to an Art + Design Major

Declaration of an Art and Design major is made through the Residential Academic Services Office. Students are encouraged to declare their major when making application to the university or during their first semester registration. Students are accepted into an art + design major/minor on a conditional basis until successful completion of the mid-point review. A lab fee will be assessed for all Art + Design studio classes. The fee amount varies based on course requirements.

Mid-Point Review

Permission to continue a specific major(s) in the Division of Art + Design traditionally is granted during the second semester of the sophomore year (exceptions may apply for transfer students from another institution or major).

Requirements for transfer students will be considered on an individual basis. Transfer students must make arrangements through the coordinator of their major(s) for a portfolio review.

Failure to complete and pass the mid-point review may prevent students from registering for additional art courses, result in probation, or withdrawal from the Art + Design major(s).

Academic Requirements

Students must maintain a minimum GPA of 2.5 in their declared major(s) or minor(s) and complete each course required by the major(s)/minor(s) with a "C" or above. Failure to do so will require repeating the course(s) or withdrawing from the major(s)/minor(s).

Senior Exhibit

A senior art exhibit or thesis project is mandatory for all students who have been admitted into the Graphic Design, Illustration, Photography, and/or Studio Art B.A. programs. The senior exhibit is designed to give exhibition experience to the studio artist while showcasing his/her academic and creative accomplishments.

Exiting Senior Assessment

A formal assessment process is required and must be successfully completed by all graduating seniors. As a part of this process, each graduating student must submit a digital portfolio to be assessed and archived within the Division of Art + Design. Major/minor exiting requirements may be obtained from the Art office.

Design Technology Statement

The Design programs (Graphic Design, Visual Communication Design, and Design for Social Impact) of the Division of Art + Design at Indiana Wesleyan University require all enrolled (Minor, BA, and BFA) students to have a personal computer for their design studies. While the Division of Art + Design provides first-rate studios and shared learning resources, it is essential for design students to have ready access to computer technology outside of the classroom at any given moment. The ability to mobilize projects on and off campus is vital to student learning, as necessitated by the ever-changing design field, rapid changes in technology, and the need for the collaboration with other designers. Access to readily available technology naturally develops confidence and computer proficiency with every design project students complete; this is vital for the world they face.

Equipment and Supplies

Equipment, software and supply lists required for each course/program are available on the Division of Art + Design website.

Communication and Theatre Division

The Division of Communication and Theatre equips Christ-centered communicators, grounded in theory, scholarship and professional skills, who give voice to stories that impact culture. The division offers four majors: Human Communication Studies (p. 118), Multimedia Communication, Strategic Communication (p. 122) and Theatre (p. 125). Each major provides students with a strong foundation in communication theory and practice; knowledge and skills in utilizing contemporary images, methods and media; opportunities to apply knowledge and skills in hands-on, professional settings; and an understanding of how their storytelling can impact contemporary culture – all within a Christian worldview.

Communication and Theatre Organizations and Opportunities

The Division of Communication and Theatre provides a variety of opportunities and organizations to supplement its academic offerings:

1. Student Media: In conjunction with our new Multimedia Communication major, we have a combined student media organization. This organization consists of:
 - a. IWU-TV: Students work with staff professionals on local news magazine shows, live athletic events, community telethons, and IWU cultural and worship events as well as produce video for clients and all student media.
 - b. The Sojourn: Students experience the satisfaction of applying their knowledge and skills, working as a team, and collecting published work by writing for The Sojourn, IWU's award-winning campus newspaper, in print and online. The student-managed Sojourn awards stipends for all editors, business and distribution managers, and photography staff.
 - c. WIWU-FM: Student managers operate an FCC licensed radio station with the assistance of a faculty advisor. Students serve as on-air announcers as required in various radio courses. WIWU-FM (94.3, The Fortress) broadcasts to all of Marion and Grant County with contemporary Christian music and local programming.
 - d. GrantCOnnected.net is a digital news site focused on Grant County news and information. Student journalists report on stories of interest to the broader community and present their work through online platforms and in multimedia forms including photos, audio, and video.
 - e. Students involved in student media will have opportunity to participate in national student media organizations such as Indiana Collegiate Press Association and Associated College Press. The Sojourn earns numerous awards from both annually. We are also involved in College Broadcasters, Inc, Broadcast Education Association, and Indiana Broadcasters Association.
2. Theatre: The theatre program provides at least four productions each year – one faculty-directed and one student-directed production in both the fall and spring semesters. Recent productions include Freud's Last Session: Love, Marriage, and a Baby Carriage; The Pirates of Penzance; The 39 Steps; Macbeth; Trumbo; and Into the Woods.
 - a. Indiana Wesleyan Theatre Guild: Each fall, in conjunction with the theatrical productions, all IWU students are invited to interview for roles (actors, technicians, production managers) in the Guild. Guild members meet periodically to promote the theatre and aid in its advancement as well as participate in community service projects. Involvement in theatre productions does not require Guild membership.
 - b. Hoosier Shakes: An emerging professional theatre in Marion, Hoosier Shakes presents annual seasons of Shakespeare plays with acting and production apprenticeships available for IWU students, who work alongside seasoned professionals and alumni.
 - c. American Shakespeare Center Consortium: Students benefit from an extraordinary partnership with the American Shakespeare Center in Staunton, Virginia, for professional, on-campus residences, productions and workshops, training and networking on-site in Staunton, and through a variety of other ASC people and resources meant to help bridge the gap between academic study and professional work.
3. PRSSA: The fully accredited IWU Chapter of the Public Relations Student Society of America allows students to gain valuable out-of-classroom experience and knowledge in public relations and to develop relationships with working professionals and students in chapters across the country.

CCCU BestSemester Program Options

Students who wish to attend a CCCU BestSemester Program must visit the Global Studies Office and their academic advisor very early in the process of their considerations. Students approved to attend must be in good standing with Student Development, may not be on disciplinary probation, must have at least a 2.75 GPA, and must have earned a minimum of 30 credits at IWU.

American Studies Program

Communication students interested in public policy issues, advocacy, government or politics may participate in this interdisciplinary internship/seminar program based in Washington, D.C. Students develop an appreciation for how biblical faith relates to thinking critically about public policy and marketplace issues. They also experience responsible Christ-centered service in their personal and public vocations, whatever their career paths or walks of life.

Los Angeles Film Studies Center

This program, based in Hollywood, California, involves a study of the film industry from a Christian perspective and provides students with hands-on experience and internships in the entertainment business. The program is an intensive one-semester immersion into film studies during which the student may earn 16 credit hours.

Contemporary Music Center

This interdisciplinary off-campus study program in Nashville, Tennessee, provides an opportunity for young musicians, engineers and aspiring music executives. Designed as an artists' community, the program seeks to develop artists, technicians and music executives with a Christ-centered vision for music content, production and delivery.

Strategic Communication - B.A.

The Strategic Communication major addresses the broad principles of communication that apply to organizational leadership and public relations engagement. It can prepare graduates for careers in public relations firms, advertising agencies, health care organizations, educational institutions, social service organizations, retail and manufacturing, financial institutions, government agencies, lobbying, and sports and entertainment industries. Grounded in the strengths of the division's core classes, the strategic communication curriculum develops students' practical skills and perspectives through coursework in theory, technique, and application of skills in partnership with nonprofit and on-campus organizations, and local media outlets.

Concentrations:

Public Relations: This concentration prepares students in the professional practices of the public relations industry. Students gain expertise in strategic planning, writing, promotion and publicity, graphic design, and media tools and techniques.

Organizational Communication: This concentration creates opportunities to evaluate and prioritize communication with internal and external constituencies of an organization. It applies traditional interpersonal and group communication skills in an organizational, structural context.

Students must receive a "C" or higher for all courses within their major. Any grade below a "C", including "C-" must be repeated with a "C" or higher to graduate with a Communication/Theatre major.

Theatre - B.A.

The Theatre major is designed for students eager to become better theatrical performers, producers and technicians who glorify God by delivering modern parables. Building on the theoretical strengths of the division's core classes, the Theatre major further develops students with practical skills and perspectives through their coursework in writing, performance and creative production, as well as a full university production schedule of plays and musicals.

Concentrations:

Performance: Students in the performance concentration will be exposed to a wide variety of traditional and contemporary acting methods and directing practices. Artists in the performance concentration will culminate their work with a senior performance or directing assignment.

Technical: Students in the production concentration will be exposed to the fundamental principles of stage design (sets, lights, costumes, props, hair/makeup, and sound), technical production, and stage management. Artists in the production concentration will culminate their work with a senior project in either stage management, design (sets, costumes, lights, makeup/hair, or sound), or technical direction.

Students must receive a "C" or higher for all courses within their major. Any grade below a "C", including "C-" must be repeated with a "C" or higher to graduate with a Communication/Theatre major.

Foreign Language requirement - all students will be required to take 6 hours of one foreign language at the college level. (For students taking Mandarin Chinese courses, three hours of Mandarin Chinese will satisfy the Intercultural Experience requirement. However, Spanish and French courses currently do not meet the intercultural Experience requirement.) The following exceptions and guidelines will be used to implement the 6-hour foreign language requirement:

- Students for whom English is a second language will be exempt from the 6-hour foreign language requirement.
- Students who have completed four years of high school foreign language with no grade below a "C" will be exempt from the 6-hour foreign language requirement.
- Students who pass a foreign language competency test at a level equivalent to four semesters of a single language (Intermediate 2) will be exempt from the 6-hour foreign language requirement.
- Students who pass a foreign language competency test at a level equivalent to three semesters of a single language (Intermediate 1) will be exempt from 3 hours of the 6-hour foreign language requirement and will satisfy the other 3 hours by completing the Intermediate 2 course.
- Students will be allowed to transfer college credit hours to satisfy the foreign language requirement.

Modern Language and Literature Division

The Division of Modern Language and Literature is devoted to the incarnation of God's truth through language, literature, and culture. Our desire is to cultivate the study of language in all its varied forms as active participants in the reconciliation of all creation to God.

The faculty members in the division are committed to developing Christian scholars who explore all facets of the spoken and written word – strong leaders faithful to their calling to use language responsibly, creatively, effectively - and joyfully, to the glory of God.

The division offers seven majors: English (p. 128), English Education (p. 130), Spanish (p. 132), Spanish Education (p. 136), TESOL (p. 137) (Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages), TESOL Education (p. 140) and Writing (p. 141). The division also offers five minors: English (p. 130), Writing (p. 144), TESOL (p. 139), Spanish, and World Languages (p. 136) (Spanish, French, and Mandarin Chinese). Students prepare both theoretically and practically for a personal and professional life that recognizes language and literature as among God's great gifts.

The Division of Modern Language and Literature offers general education classes for all students in reading, writing, literature, language study, Spanish, French, and Mandarin Chinese. It operates both a language lab and a writing center, featuring appropriate technology and tutoring. It sponsors trips abroad open to all students, oversees the student publication, Caesura, and arranges for speakers and performers in the areas of language and literary arts. It promotes the love of language arts and the deliberate study and use of careful, powerful language in the IWU community and in God's world.

English - A.B.

The English Major provides students with a broad, liberal arts background, an in-depth study of literature and language, a developing understanding of the human condition, and proficiency in effective communication, both written and oral. The major leads to a wide variety of professional opportunities, whether the graduate looks toward higher education, business, industry, government, law, medicine, social service, publishing, or editing. It is an excellent basis for graduate studies not only in English but also in other areas, particularly when combined with a second major such as Philosophy, History or Religion. The English Education major adds further training and specific professional experience to the liberal arts major (see education section (p. 194) of the catalog).

Foreign Language Requirement (3-12 credits)

All majors will achieve language competency in a modern foreign language in one of the following ways:

1. Earn a score of 3, 4, or 5 on the College Board Advanced Placement examination: a) students who score a 3 will earn 3 credits for Beginning I and will need to take Beginning II, Intermediate I, and Intermediate II; b) students who score a 4 will earn 6 credits for Beginning I and Beginning II, and will need to take Intermediate I and Intermediate II; c) students who score a 5 will earn 9 credits for Beginning I, Beginning II, and Intermediate I, and will need to take Intermediate II.
2. Earn a score of 5, 6, or 7 on an International Baccalaureate Higher Level foreign language exam (equivalent to 12 credit hours)*

3. Take the placement test in a language previously studied (Chinese, French, or Spanish) in order to place into the highest-level language course at IWU for which the student is qualified. Students should take the placement at registration or within their first semester, and continue language study; subsequent courses will vary, depending on the level of language placement. The basic requirement is four courses in a given language through the FL 238 level or a single advanced (300-) level course (please see specific details as listed below).
4. Pass the CLEP exam in French, German, or Spanish through the Intermediate I level and take Intermediate II (238) prior to the first semester of junior year or, if completing a Spanish minor, prior to the completion of SPA 349. Students should take the placement exam prior to registering for the CLEP exam;
5. Pass the ACTFL (American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages) Oral Proficiency Interview (OPI), Writing Proficiency (WPT), Reading Proficiency (RPT) and Listening Proficiency (LTP) exams or other proficiency exam approved by the Division of Modern Language and Literature at the intermediate-mid level for languages not taught in the Foreign Language Department at Indiana Wesleyan University. Students who desire such testing must make this request via the Foreign Language Department during their first academic year at Indiana Wesleyan and take the exams on the dates listed on the exam schedule.* Students may not take the exam in a language once they have begun to study the language at the university level. (including transfer credit or study abroad). Proficiency exams may only be taken twice in a particular language. Students will be responsible for paying all fees associated with their exams.**
6. Pass the DELE Spanish proficiency exam at the B1 level (http://chicago.cervantes.es/en/diplomas_spanish/diplomas_dele_register_spanish.htm), pass the DELF French proficiency exam at the B1 level (<https://www.afchicago.org/delf-dalf>), or pass the HSK Mandarin proficiency exam Level 3 or higher (<http://www.iupui.edu/~china/courses/chinese-proficiency-test/>). Students who desire such testing must make this request via the Foreign Language Department during their first academic year at Indiana Wesleyan and take the exams on the dates listed on the official exam schedule. Students may not take the exam in a language once they have begun to study the language at the university level (including transfer credit or study abroad). Proficiency exams may only be taken twice in a particular language. Students will be responsible for paying all fees associated with their exam.**
7. Earn 12 credits in a foreign language not previously studied. Students may choose between languages currently taught at Indiana Wesleyan University Marion Campus (Chinese, French, or Spanish.);
8. Native speakers of a language other than English may fulfill the requirement by providing proof of proficiency in that language by successful completion of a proficiency exam approved by Foreign Language faculty at the B1 level (see application form). If a student is a native speaker of a language other than English, he/she will likely profit most from either beginning or continuing study of an additional language;
9. Students with a documented learning disability which affects their ability to process language may petition the Center for Student Success for alternative arrangements for preapproved Foreign Language Substitution courses which meet the Indiana Wesleyan University language requirement. Petitions must include recent documentation from a qualified learning disabilities specialist showing evidence of this language-specific disability and be submitted prior to or during the spring semester of their sophomore year.

Applied Spanish and Hispanic Culture B.A.

The Spanish major is designed to help students develop proficiency in the communication, cultures, connections and communities important to the language. Because of the large Spanish-speaking population in the United States, opportunities for multilingual professionals are increasing. The IWU Spanish major equips students to be world changers through the power of the Spanish language. The education major in Spanish is further designed to add training and specific professional experience to the liberal arts major (see education section (p. 202) of the catalog).

Requirements (42-48 credits)

Spanish Language (12-18 credits)

SPA-117	Beginning Spanish I	3
SPA-118	Beginning Spanish II	3
SPA-237	Intermediate Spanish I	3
SPA-238	Intermediate Spanish II: Spanish for the Professions	3
SPA-347	Advanced Spanish I: Conversations for the Workplace	3
SPA-349	Advanced Spanish II: Writing for Professions	3

Students are required to pass SPA-349 with a minimum grade of "C" before advancing to other 300 or 400 level upper-division classes.

The foreign language coordinator or the division chair may, however, grant some students permission to take another upper-division class at the same time that they are taking SPA-349.

Students may not elect to take SPA-117, SPA-118, SPA-237, or SPA-238 after successfully completing SPA-347, SPA-349, or any other upper-level course, but may pursue CLEP credit prior to completing SPA-349.

CLEP Policy

Students may CLEP SPA-117, SPA-118, or SPA-237 for credit. However, students must CLEP these courses prior to completing SPA-349 or with approval of the foreign language coordinator to receive credit for their major or minor.

AP Policy

Incoming freshmen who, prior to their enrollment at Indiana Wesleyan University, pass the AP Spanish Language Exam with a minimum score of 3 will receive credit for SPA-117. Students who pass the AP Spanish Language Exam with a minimum score of 4 will be awarded credit for SPA-117 and SPA-118. Students who pass the AP Spanish Language Exam with a score of 5 will be awarded credit for SPA-117, SPA-118, and SPA-237. AP credit for these courses will not meet intercultural competency.

Language and Culture Electives (12-15 credits)

SPA-462	Spanish Short Stories	3
SPA-465	Special Topics in Spanish Literature	3 to 9

Foreign Language Experience (1-3 Credit Hours)

Students may fulfill this component via practicum or internship in conjunction with their other major, or by study abroad courses. The Foreign Language Experience must be approved by the Division of Modern Languages and Literature.

Foreign Study Experience

Students may transfer a 300 or 400 level course taken abroad that focuses on the history, culture or literature of a Spanish-speaking country or the theory or practical use of the Spanish language. Courses must be taught in Spanish and be from an approved, accredited program.

If students decide not to pursue CLEP credit prior to completing SPA-349, they may need to study abroad in Seville, Spain, for one semester in order to earn the remaining credits and graduate in 4 years.

All Spanish Majors and Minors are strongly encouraged to study abroad through IWU-sponsored or IWU-approved programs during their junior year.

Students should consult with the Foreign Language Coordinator, the Global Engagement Office, as well as their faculty advisor before taking courses abroad to ensure that they are appropriate.

Prerequisite: SPA-349, junior standing, and approval from the Foreign Language Coordinator.

Foreign Language Experience (1-3 credits)

Students may fulfill this component via practicum or internship in conjunction with their other major, or by study abroad courses. The Foreign Language Experience must be approved by the Division of Modern Languages and Literature.

Senior Seminar (3 credits)

SPA-470	Spanish Capstone	3

Spanish Minor

Students desiring a Spanish Minor may choose one of three options: Spanish Language (18-21 credits), Spanish Language for Intercultural Studies (18-21 credits), or Hispanic Studies: Language and Culture (18-24 credits)

Spanish Language Option Requirements (18-21 credits)

Hispanic Studies Option Requirements (18 to 24 credits): Language and Culture (6-12 credits in Spanish Language, 6-12 credits in Culture)

SPA-117	Beginning Spanish I	3
SPA-118	Beginning Spanish II	3
SPA-237	Intermediate Spanish I	3
SPA-238	Intermediate Spanish II: Spanish for the Professions	3
SPA-347	Advanced Spanish I: Conversations for the Workplace	3
SPA-349	Advanced Spanish II: Writing for Professions	3

Students are required to pass SPA-349 with a minimum grade of "C" before advancing to other 300 or 400 level upper-division classes.

The foreign coordinator or the division chair may, however, grant some students permission to take another upper-division class at the same time that they are taking SPA-349.

Students may not elect to take SPA-117, SPA-118, SPA-237, or SPA-238 after successfully completing SPA-347, SPA-349, or any other upper-level courses, but may pursue CLEP credit prior to completing SPA-349.

CLEP Policy

Students may CLEP SPA-117, SPA-118, or SPA-237 for credit. However, students must CLEP these courses prior to completing SPA-349 or with approval of the foreign language coordinator to receive credit for their major or minor.

AP Credits Policy

Incoming freshmen who, prior to their enrollment at Indiana Wesleyan University, pass the AP Spanish Language Exam with a minimum score of 3 will receive credit for SPA-117. Students who pass the AP Spanish Language Exam with a minimum score of 4 will be awarded credit for SPA-117 and SPA-118. Students who pass the AP Spanish Language Exam with a score of 5 will be awarded credit for SPA-117, SPA-118, and SPA-237. AP credit for these courses will not meet intercultural competency.

INT-322 Prerequisite

INT-322 course is an option for Intercultural Studies majors only, because they will have completed all other prerequisites needed in order to take INT-322. In order for students to enroll in INT-322, they must have also completed SPA-347. Students will be placed in a Spanish speaking country for at least 3 weeks. Placement will be approved by the Foreign Language Coordinator and cooperating faculty member from Intercultural Studies.

Foreign Study Experience Policy

If a student decides not to pursue CLEP credit prior to completing SPA-349, he or she must study abroad in Seville, Spain, for one semester in order to earn the remaining credits and graduate in 4 years.

All Spanish Majors and Minors are strongly encouraged to study abroad through IWU-sponsored or IWU-approved programs during their junior year.

Students should consult with the Foreign Language Coordinator, the Global Engagement Office, as well as their faculty advisor before taking courses abroad to ensure that they are appropriate.

Prerequisite: SPA-349, junior standing, and approval from the Foreign Language Coordinator.

TESOL - A.B.

TESOL – Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages

The TESOL major provides specialized instruction in the theory and skills of teaching second language acquisition, equipping students to change the world in a tangible way. The TESOL curriculum includes a rigorous core that covers language/linguistics, language acquisition, TESL/TEFL theory, assessment practices, and cultural awareness and experience. Graduates with a TESOL major should be prepared to teach English to adult speakers of other languages around the world. The education major in TESOL is further designed to add training and specific experience in elementary and secondary schools (see TESOL Education (p. 204) of the catalog).

Foreign Language Requirement (3-12 credits)

All majors will achieve language competency in a modern foreign language in one of the following ways:

1. Earn a score of 3, 4, or 5 on the College Board Advanced Placement examination: a) students who score a 3 will earn 3 credits for Beginning I, and will need to take Beginning II, Intermediate I, and Intermediate II; b) students who score a 4 will earn 6 credits for Beginning I and Beginning II, and will need to take Intermediate I and Intermediate II; c) students who score of 5 will earn 9 credits for Beginning I, Beginning II, and Intermediate I, and will need to take Intermediate II.
2. Earn a score of 5, 6, or 7 on an International Baccalaureate Higher Level foreign language exam (equivalent to 12 credit hours).*
3. Take the placement test in a language previously studied (Chinese, French, or Spanish) in order to place into the highest-level language course at IWU for which the student is qualified. Students should take the placement test at registration or within the first semester², and continue language study,- subsequent courses will vary, depending on the level of language placement. The basic requirement is four courses in a given language through the FL 238 level or a single advanced (300-) level course (please see specific details as listed below).;
4. Pass the CLEP exam in French, German, or Spanish through the Intermediate I level and take an Intermediate II (238) prior to the first semester of junior year or, if completing a Spanish minor, prior to the completion of SPA 349. Students should take the placement exam prior to registering for the CLEP exam.;

5. Pass the ACTFL (American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages) Oral Proficiency Interview (OPI), Writing Proficiency (WPT), Reading Proficiency (RPT) and Listening Proficiency (LTP) exams or other proficiency exam approved by the Division of Modern Language and Literature at the intermediate-mid level for languages not taught in the Foreign Language Department at Indiana Wesleyan University. Students who desire such testing must make this request via the Foreign Language Department during their first academic year at Indiana Wesleyan and take the exams on the dates listed on the exam schedule.* Students may not take the exam in a language once they have begun to study the language at the university level (including transfer credit or study abroad). Proficiency exams may only be taken twice in a particular language. Students will be responsible for paying all fees associated with their exams.**

6. Pass the DELE Spanish proficiency exam at the B1 level (http://chicago.cervantes.es/en/diplomas_spanish/diplomas_dele_register_spanish.htm), pass the DELF French proficiency exam at the B1 level (<https://www.afchicago.org/delf-dalf>), or pass the HSK Mandarin proficiency exam Level 3 or higher (<http://www.iupui.edu/~china/courses/chinese-proficiency-test/>). Students who desire such testing must make this request via the Foreign Language Department during their first academic year at Indiana Wesleyan and take the exams on the dates listed on the official exam schedule. Students may not take the exam in a language once they have begun to study the language at the university level (including transfer credit or study abroad). Proficiency exams may only be taken twice in a particular language. Students will be responsible for paying all fees associated with their exams.**;

7. Earn 12 credits in a foreign language not previously studied. Students may choose between languages currently taught at Indiana Wesleyan University Marion Campus (Chinese, French, or Spanish);

8. Native speakers of a language other than English may fulfill the requirement by providing proof of proficiency in that language by successful completion of a proficiency exam approved by Foreign Language faculty at the B1 level (see application form). If a student is a native speaker of a language other than English, he/she will likely profit most from either beginning or continuing study of an additional language.;

9. Students with a documented learning disability which affects their ability to process language may petition the Center for Student Success for alternative arrangements for preapproved Foreign Language Substitution courses which meet the Indiana Wesleyan University language requirement. Petitions must include recent documentation from a qualified learning disabilities specialist showing evidence of this language-specific disability and be submitted prior to or during the spring semester of their sophomore year.

Writing - A.B.

The liberal arts major in Writing prepares students to become outstanding communicators with high levels of proficiency in the use of the written word. The major stresses both the artistic joy of composition and the practical application of writing skills to everyday communication challenges. Graduates may elect to pursue careers as writers, editors, or communications consultants, or may wish to apply their expertise to business, education, or the ministry. With its strong liberal arts emphasis, a Writing major is recommended as an excellent professional degree program. Majors graduate with a range of writing experience in various genres, with exposure to modern composition theory, and training in the practical application of rhetoric to life. While the program requires a comprehensive study and practice of writing, it also encourages students to discover their best voice and style.

Students may opt for a general track by choosing any combination of electives.

TESOL Certificate

The TESOL Certificate provides specialized instruction in the theory and skills of teaching English to learners for whom it is not a native language. The TESOL curriculum includes a rigorous core that covers language/linguistics, language acquisition, language pedagogy, assessment practices, and intercultural awareness and sensitivity. Graduates with a TESOL Certificate are equipped to change the world by teaching English to speakers of other languages around the world.

Requirements (17-19 credits)

The TESOL Certificate is available for current IWU undergraduates who are not TESOL majors, TESOL Education Majors, TESOL minors, or Elementary Education majors with TESOL concentration.

Earning the certificate requires completion of the following courses and internship.

Practicum Experience

TSL-260	TESOL Internship	1 to 3

Required Courses

ENG-170	Introduction to Language	3
TSL-203	Foundations of Tesol	3
TSL-305	Second Language Acquisition	3
TSL-350	TESOL Assessment and Testing	3
EDU-382TE	Methods of Teaching Sr High/Jr High/ Middle School Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages	3 to 4

EDU-382TE must be taken for 4 credits.

Writing Center

The Ink Well, the University Writing Center, seeks to assist the student body with every stage of the writing process through consultations with trained student writing consultants. It provides employment and experience in peer consultancy to many students both within and outside of our division.

The Ink Well supports IWU's mission to develop students in scholarship by providing them with tools to enhance academic excellence and by equipping them to be successful in their vocations.

Language Lab

The Language Link, the University language lab, offers tutoring help in Spanish, French and Mandarin Chinese from trained student tutors, as well as Rosetta Stone online tutorial services in both Spanish and French.

Music Division

Purpose

The Division of Music is committed to preparing men and women to be the best possible musicians who recognize that all gifts and talents are from God, to be cultivated to their highest potential for humble service to God and others. Indiana Wesleyan University is an accredited member of the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM); 11250 Roger Bacon Drive, Suite 21; Reston, Virginia 20190-5248; <http://nasm.arts-accredit.org> or 703-437-0700. Music scholarships are available for Music majors by audition. Contact the division for applications.

General Education Competencies

Students in this major meet the general education competencies by taking the approved standard courses.

Admission to the Music Major

Permission to declare a music major at IWU is neither automatic nor assumed merely because a student wants to study music. Students must demonstrate a degree of aptitude and preparedness, both academically and musically. Those conditions can be met by the following means:

1. Academic readiness can be demonstrated by completing a placement exam in music theory. If students are not prepared for the exam, equivalency can be met by taking MUS-160, Introduction to Music Theory, and earning a grade of “C” or above.
2. Performance readiness can be proven by an audition before selected music faculty or by submitting an audio or video recording of pieces showing appropriate levels of accomplishment.
3. Audition for the music faculty. Two pieces in contrasting styles must be performed in the student's applied area. One additional piece may be performed in a second applied area. No taped accompaniments; an accompanist will be provided if needed.
4. All students are required to submit three letters of reference from former music teachers, from music directors, or from other musicians who can verify the student's readiness to study music at the collegiate level.
5. Music Therapy majors are required to go through an interview process as there are a limited number of Music Therapy majors accepted in the program each year.

This policy applies to both transfer students and entering freshmen. Students living a considerable distance from Marion may be accepted as provisional majors pending an audition/interview following arrival on campus.

If an applicant fails in any of the above requirements but still wishes to be admitted as a major, the status of provisional music major will be granted. The student will be expected to re-audition and successfully complete MUS-160 at the end of the first semester of study. Upon satisfactory completion, the applicant will be classified as a music major.

Admission to Upper-divisional Studies

Admission to upper-level studies is granted by the music faculty through the Upper-divisional Hearing. This consists of a performance and written examination in which the candidate's applied and academic progress is evaluated, and the candidate is questioned regarding content of courses completed and progress toward career goals. An overall grade-point average of 2.75 is required for admission to upper-divisional studies and no grade below a “C” in any music class.

Other Requirements for All Music Majors

- MUS-200 Recital Attendance (seven semesters)
- Class Piano Requirements
- Large Ensemble Participation (participation in large ensemble each semester)
- Upper Divisional Hearing
- Young Performer Series Recital (see requirements)
- Departmental Recital Participation (varies with different programs)

Applied Music - A.B.

The major in Music with an emphasis in Applied Music prepares the student for graduate study or private studio teaching. It may be effectively combined with other majors such as Christian Ministries, Christian Worship, or Christian Education. Emphasis may be choral (C), instrumental (I), or general (G).

Social Sciences Division

The Division of Social Sciences consists of two departments, which are the Department of History and Political Science and the Department of Economics, and offers seven majors: Economics (p. 158); History (p. 160); International Relations (p. 162); Political Science (p. 165); Political Science Pre-Law (p. 167); Social Studies (p. 169); and Social Studies Education (p. 200). Minors in Economics (p. 159), History (p. 162), International Relations (p. 164), and Political Science (p. 167) are also offered.

Majors in the Division of Social Sciences are designed to enable students to develop an integrated perspective and an analytical understanding of the world and its various institutional components. Herein division majors are intended to foster discernment of present realities and trends, and greater understanding of global contemporary patterns from the perspective of biblical presuppositions and a biblical Christian worldview.

Students majoring in Division programs are encouraged to consider double-majoring, completing a second program (outside or within the Division) within a four-year period. Frequently selected combinations are noted under each major. Careful advising and course planning is necessary, in close consultation with academic advisors. In addition to meeting all requirements for both majors, students must be able to show that they meet the university requirement for a double major: a minimum of 30 credit hours of credit in each of two specific areas with a minimum of 51 unduplicated credit hours. Regarding minors, IWU requires that a minimum of 15 credit hours counting toward each minor be "unduplicated," that is, not needed to complete the student's other major(s) or minor(s).

Note that students majoring in History, Social Studies or Social Studies Education, or minoring in History, should complete HST-185 and HST-190 instead of HST-180. All other division students generally take HST-180 to meet the general education humanities history requirement. Any student may choose this substitution.

General Education Competencies

Please note that students for whom any division major is their second major will graduate with the degree designated by their first major (B.S. or A.B.) and will meet their intercultural experience and communication requirements as specified by their first major.

All other students, for whom a major in this division is their first major, are required to complete COM-100, Principles of Communication to meet their communication competency. They are also required to fulfill their intercultural experience requirement as follows: Economics majors are required to complete any approved standard course. (Note that the list of approved standard courses includes several courses offered by the division*: GEO-202, HST-280, POL-232, HST-355, HST-370, and POL-371). International Relations majors are required to complete POL-232. Political Science, Political Science Pre-Law, Social Studies Education and Social Studies majors are required to complete GEO-202.

*Course titles of the intercultural experience courses listed above are as follows: GEO-202 Political and Cultural Geography; HST-280 History of the Middle East & North Africa; POL-232 Comparative Politics; HST-370 International Cultural Studies; POL-371 International Studies.

General Education Degree Requirements

Students who have selected as their first major Economics, International Relations, Political Science or Political Science Pre-Law will graduate with a B.S. To complete their B.S., students will be required to complete four credit hours of any lab science and three credit hours in math or CIS, which also count toward their general education requirements.

Students majoring in Social Studies Education or Social Studies will graduate with a B.S. They will be required to complete four credits hours of a lab science and three additional credit hours in math, which also count toward their general education requirements. In selecting these courses, students majoring in Social Studies Education need the approval of both the Education Division and the History and Political Science Department.

NOTE: Students majoring in history (as their first major) will have the option of choosing to graduate with a B.A. or a B.S. degree. The sole difference is the language requirement. This option is a common practice at Christian colleges, as well as state schools. Students thinking seriously about graduate work in history will be advised to study a foreign language, graduating with the B.A. Those students pursuing the B.A. in history will be required to satisfy the language proficiency requirement.

Declaring and Maintaining a Political Science Pre-Law Major

Pre-Law students need to consult with the Department of History and Political Science coordinator/Pre-Law advisor and then declare a Political Science Pre-Law major in the Residential Academic Services Office. Pre-Law students are expected to maintain no less than a 3.0 GPA in the Political Science Pre-Law major to graduate with the degree.

Social Studies - B.S. and Social Studies Education - B.S.

Purpose

The Social Studies major is offered by the Department of History and Political Science. The Social Studies major serves primarily as preparation toward teaching social studies in the senior high/junior high/middle schools and also serves as preparation for research and graduate study. Students desiring certified teaching credentials need to declare a Social Studies

Education (SSE) major. (See also the Education (p. 200) section of the catalog.) A major in Social Studies Education (SSE) with a minor in Psychology is an excellent combination for those desiring to take a master's degree in counseling and guidance in order to become guidance counselors in the secondary schools. Social Studies Education (SSE) majors often earn a second major in Economics, History, International Relations, or Political Science.

The Social Studies (SOS) major may be taken without teaching requirements by students who desire a broad exposure to the different fields of social science. This major often serves as a companion double major with Economics, History, International Relations and Political Science.

General Education Competencies

Completed in consultation with the School of Teacher Education (if SSE) and in reference to the general education requirements and competencies section under the Division of Social Sciences (p. 156).

Major Requirements

The Social Studies Education (SSE) major is 51-57 credit hours and the non-teaching Social Studies (SOS) major is 48 credit hours. The major includes required and elective courses in six social science disciplines: History, Geography, Government, Economics, Psychology and Sociology. Students majoring in either of these programs must complete one year of world history survey (rather than HST 180), one year of regional history survey, and three credit hours of upper-level history electives; American Government, Comparative Politics or World Politics, and six credit hours of political science electives, at least three credit hours of which must be upper-level. Students majoring in SOS will take nine credit hours in one of the following areas: Economics, Sociology, or Psychology as listed below. In order to meet teacher certification requirements, students majoring in SSE will follow a three-discipline or four discipline plan as listed in the Education section of the catalog. SSE majors are required to take an upper-division scholarship quality elective under both the Historical Perspective requirement (or HST290 may meet this requirement) and the Government requirement. Both the HST and POL upper-division scholarship quality courses will be determined by the SSE content supervisor in coordination with the School of Teacher Education.

Declaring and Maintaining a Social Studies Major

In order to pursue a non-teaching Social Studies (SOS) major, students need to consult with the coordinator of the Department of History and Political Science and then declare a Social Studies (SOS) major in the Registrar's Office. Students majoring in Social Studies must maintain no less than a 2.25 GPA.

Declaring and Maintaining a Social Studies Education Major

Students desiring certification to teach social studies in the senior high/junior high/middle schools (grades 5-12) must take a Social Studies Education (SSE) major. In order to pursue a Social Studies Education (SSE) major, students need to consult with the coordinator of the Department of History and Political Science and with the director of secondary education in the School of Teacher Education and then declare a Social Studies Education (SSE) major in the Registrar's Office. Students majoring in Social Studies Education (SSE) must maintain no less than a 2.75 cumulative GPA and no less than a 3.00 major GPA in social studies education.

See the Education section of the catalog for a list of specific courses required for the Social Studies Education Major.

School of Professional Studies

The purpose of the School of Professional Studies is to nurture students' God-given calling to one of the disciplines represented by the divisions. This is accomplished through exploration and study of both theory and practice. The faculty are all committed Christians and highly qualified professionals in their areas of specialization, and they excel as scholars. Faculty often collaborate with students on projects and supervise students' field-related experiences. The School is comprised of the School of Teacher Education, the DeVoe Division of Business, and Graduate Counseling. Students in this school have the opportunity to work in undergraduate and graduate majors as well as undergraduate minors. They can also earn certificates and two-year associate degrees.

Graduate Counseling Division

Mission Statement

The Division of Graduate Counseling is dedicated to training high-quality professionals who are competent to work with diverse populations within their area of specialization. The faculty is dedicated to training and mentoring students within an integrated understanding of Christian faith and professional practice with emphasis on student academic, professional and cultural competence.

Program Descriptions

The Clinical Mental Health, School Counseling, and Marriage and Family Therapy/Counseling programs at Indiana Wesleyan University are accredited by the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP) (5999 Stevenson Ave., Alexandria, VA 22304, 703-823-9800). CACREP is an independent agency recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation to accredit Master's and doctoral degree programs in the counseling-related professions. The accreditation runs through October 31, 2021. The Marriage and Family Counseling/Therapy program is also accredited through the Commission on Accreditation for Marriage and Family Therapy Education (COAMFTE).

The Clinical Mental Health Counseling program requires 60 semester hours, the Marriage and Family Counseling/Therapy program requires 60 semester hours, and the School Counseling program requires 48 semester hours. Each of these majors require a supervised practicum and internships. These programs are designed to fulfill the academic requirements for licensure in all 50 states. Students are responsible to insure that their specific program of study meets the requirements for the specific state for which they plan to seek licensure.

The Division of Graduate Counseling also offers majors in Community Care (p. 175), Clinical Addictions Counseling (p. 174) and Student Development Administration (p. 180). The Master of Arts with a major in Community Care is a 36-hour, non-licensure track counseling-related degree that prepares nonprofessional people helpers to work with persons seeking assistance non-clinical life circumstance concerns, holistic wellness, and prevention within communities. The purpose and goal of the Clinical Addictions Counseling major is to educate students and returning professionals in the competency and practice of addictions sciences. This 48-hour major seeks to be a world-class program of "science to service" with a relevant Christian perspective of hope and healing. The program is accredited by the National Addiction Studies Accreditation Commission (NASAC). Upon completion of the degree, students will be eligible to take the NAADAC/IAAP exam for the national Master Addiction Counselor (MAC) and state Indiana Certified Addictions Counselor I or II (ICAC I, II) licensure.

The M.A. in Student Development Administration prepares students for careers in the student development professions in the settings of higher education. This 36-hour program uses a student-focused approach by applying skills and techniques in order to build and maintain life-impacting relationships with college students. The program follows the Professional Competency Areas for Student Affairs Practitioners established by the ACPA (College Student Educators International) and NASPA (Student Affairs Administrators in Higher Education) associations.

Students with a master's degree with a major in counseling who do not meet the requirements for Indiana state licensure may complete the academic requirements through Indiana Wesleyan University's Division of Graduate Counseling through Certificate programs or, in some cases, admission as an Unclassified student. See Certificate Programs (p. 181). Those interested in this option should call 765-677-2572 or 866-468-6498 for more information.

Admission to Graduate Studies in Counseling

The admission requirements are:

1. A baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university, or an institution accredited by the Association for Biblical Higher Education.
2. An undergraduate grade point average of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale from the baccalaureate degree-granting institution at which at least 30 hours was completed.
3. Six semester hours in undergraduate psychology of which three semester hours must be in Abnormal Psychology.
4. Six semester hours in Bible (Old and New Testament) or passage of the Bible exam administered by the Division of Graduate Counseling.
Students who lack prerequisite undergraduate coursework may be admitted on a conditional basis. All prerequisites must be completed within the first twelve hours of coursework.
5. The Graduate Record Exam (GRE) is required for those applicants with undergraduate cumulative GPAs of less than 3.25. The test must have been taken within five years of application to the program. A typewritten autobiography, philosophy of counseling, and supplemental application. Verbal (V) score of at least 146/400 (new/old scoring) is required. Successful graduate coursework may be substituted for the GRE.

6. An official transcript from each undergraduate and graduate institution attended.
7. A criminal background check.
8. Three recommendations – at least one from a professor and one from a supervisor/professional.
9. Applicants whose application documents demonstrate potential for success in the Graduate Program in Counseling will be invited to participate in a personal interview.

*The graduate admissions committee retains the right to waive an admission requirement for special circumstances.

Graduate Credit Transfer Policy

Transfer of credit will be considered for graduate work taken only at regionally accredited institutions provided the courses meet institutional requirements and are appropriate for the student's planned and approved program. Any culminating project (e.g., capstone, research, thesis, etc.), clinical, or practicum requirement associated with a graduate program must be taken at Indiana Wesleyan University.

Individual academic units may establish higher standards/conditions as is appropriate for their respective disciplines or accrediting bodies. A minimum grade of "C" may be considered for transfer. No more than 30% of the graduate degree may be transferred in from another institution. The learning outcomes must align and have been completed within the past seven years.

Minimal conditions governing the transfer of earned graduate credits to other course work include:

- Each PAU shall determine the amount of time acceptable of completed work that is eligible for credit transfer
- Only graduate courses in which a student has earned a grade of "C" or better may be considered for transfer credit.
- Hours of credit may be transferred, but grades earned in courses taken at another institution do not transfer and are not used in computing the student's graduate GPA at Indiana Wesleyan University.
- When a graduate course is taken at another university on a credit/no credit or pass/fail option, hours of "credit" or "pass" are not accepted as transferable unless approved by the appropriate academic unit.
- For graduate certificate programs no more than 30% can be transferred into the certificate program.

If it is an Ethics or Psychopathology course it must have been taken within the last five years (unless there has been a change in the DSM).

Student Progression Policy for the Division of Graduate Counseling

Students are evaluated by faculty upon completion of their initial nine hours of graduate study. This evaluation includes: current GPA, performance on specific courses and assignments in relation to stated student learning outcomes, written and communication skills, and overall style of interactions with faculty, staff, and peers within the program. In addition, students are evaluated by a core faculty member prior to the beginning of the practicum class. This evaluation includes: ability to perform a basic listening skills sequence and establishment of therapeutic relationships, appropriate responses to supervision, and basic conceptualization of clients in their caseloads. Students are evaluated again during their final internship. This evaluation includes: evaluation of the student's counseling skills including assessment, diagnosis, and treatment of clients, record keeping, information and referral, and familiarity with professional activities and resources. These evaluations are used to identify specific strengths and weaknesses and readiness to enter the counseling field. In addition, students must successfully complete comprehensive exams for the core curriculum, program, and multicultural proficiency.

To remain in good standing within the program, students are expected to maintain specific academic and professional standards. Students must maintain a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0. Furthermore, all course grades must be "C" or above. Students whose cumulative GPA falls below 3.0 will be placed on academic probation. Furthermore, students may be suspended from the program if their cumulative GPA is not 3.0 or above upon completion of the following semester.

Students may choose to not register for one semester and remain in good standing. However, if a student does not register for two or more consecutive semesters, he or she will be considered inactive. In such cases, students must seek readmission in order to resume work in the program.

Coursework, practicum and internships provide both students and faculty opportunities to determine "professional goodness-of-fit." In addition to assessing academic performance, faculty utilize these times to evaluate students' suitability for the counseling profession. Students who do not possess characteristics deemed as essential for counselors will be asked to develop, in collaboration with faculty, remedial plans of correction. Such plans might include referrals for individual counseling to address specific identified issues. In cases where remedial plans are unsuccessful or inappropriate, the student will be asked to withdraw from the program. In such cases, career services will be made available to assist such persons in finding a more appropriate vocational direction.

Students admitted to the Graduate Studies in Counseling at Indiana Wesleyan University are expected to behave in a professional and ethical manner. Failure to conform to acceptable standards of behavior in classes, practicum or internships is considered cause for disciplinary action, which may include educative advisory or warning, development and implementation of a remedial plan, or dismissal from the program. Once admitted to the program, non-academic cause for disciplinary action includes, but is not limited to:

1. Behavior that is prohibited under the ethical standards and practices of the American Counseling Association (ACA), American Mental Health Counselors Association (AMHCA), NAADAC/IAAP, American Association of Marriage and Family Therapy (AAMFT), American School Counselors Association (ASCA) National Association of Student Personnel Association (NASPA), Association of College Personnel Administrators (ACPA) and/or the Counselor Licensure laws in the state of Indiana.
2. Indecent or malicious behavior and disrespect directed toward instructors, supervisors, administrators or fellow students; use of profanity or verbal/physical intimidation toward others; failure to follow reasonable instructions; or any form of sexual harassment.
3. Use of deceit or fraud, academic or otherwise, to gain admission to or in any activity within the program.
4. Conviction of a felony (eg. offenses involving possession, sale or consumption of a controlled substance, sexual transgression).
5. Conviction for a misdemeanor offense committed during or related to the practice of any counseling procedure or activity.

Admission to Student Development Administration

The admission requirements are:*

1. A baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university, or an institution accredited by the Association for Biblical Higher Education.
2. An undergraduate grade point average of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale from the baccalaureate degree-granting institution at which at least 30 hours was completed.
3. Six semester hours in psychology of which three semester hours must be in Life Span Development or Developmental Psychology (preferred) or Abnormal Psychology.
4. Six semester hours in Bible (Old and New Testament). Students may take any of the undergraduate courses at Indiana Wesleyan University and be admitted on a conditional basis until all prerequisites are satisfactorily completed.
5. A completed application form for admission to the IWU Student Development Administration program.
6. An official transcript from each undergraduate and graduate institution attended.
7. Three recommendations – at least one from a professor and one from a supervisor/professional.
8. Applicants whose application documents demonstrate potential for success in Student Development Administration will be invited to participate in a personal interview.

*The graduate admissions committee retains the right to waive an admission requirement for special circumstances.

Certificate Programs

The Graduate Studies in Counseling programs offer certificates to persons seeking specialized academic preparation in Addictions Counseling, Student Development Administration, and Professional Coaching, but who do not desire or require degree completion at Indiana Wesleyan University.

Objectives of Certificate Programs:

1. Students will demonstrate proficiency in their selected area of specialization (e.g., School Counseling, Clinical Mental Health Counseling, Addictions Counseling, Marriage and Family Counseling/Therapy).
2. Student meets learning objectives specified in his/her plan of study.

Addictions Counseling Certificate

An Addictions Counseling Certificate is available for students presently enrolled in non-IWU graduate counseling programs and whose program does not offer sufficient coursework in addictions counseling. Such students can enroll in the Addictions Certificate Program and obtain specialized training in addictions counseling to enhance their academic training to better meet their professional goals.

Admission Requirements for Addictions Counseling Certificate include:

1. A baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university, or an institution accredited by the Association for Biblical Higher Education.
2. An undergraduate GPA of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale from the baccalaureate degree-granting institution at which at least 30 semester hours was completed.
3. A completed application form for admission to the IWU Graduate Studies in Counseling Certificate Program.
4. If graduate work has been attempted, all transcripts must be submitted, and a minimum GPA of 3.0 earned.
5. A letter clearly stating reason(s) for seeking admission into the certificate program.
6. In those cases where the applicant is seeking to fulfill requirements for any licensure/certification, identification of a specific plan of study for any license/certification process is the responsibility of the applicant.

Exit Requirements include:

1. Successful completion of all coursework identified on certificate plan of study.
2. All course grades at or above level of "C."
3. Overall cumulative GPA of 3.0.

Graduate Certificate in Student Development Administration

Mission Statement: The Certificate in Student Development Administration will provide formal curricular credentialing in the area of Student Development Administration for graduate students currently enrolled in counseling or related areas as well as working professionals who hold Masters Degrees and desire to work in higher education.

Requirements

Graduate Certificate in Student Development Administration

SDC-501	History of Higher Education	2
SDC-509	Administration and Finance in Higher Education	3
SDC-510	The College Student	3
SDC-515	Career Counseling for Student Development	3
SDC-518	Legal and Ethical Issues in Student Development	2
SDC-525	Special Topics in Student Life Administration	0 to 3
SDC-551	Supervised Internship - Student Development	3

SDC-525 must be taken for 2 credits.

Professional Coaching

Mission Statement: The Certificate in Professional Coaching is designed to equip students with positive psychology theory, skills and techniques in order to integrate individual and group coaching methods into their chosen professions. The certificate includes a well-rounded education with classes in helping skills, professional coaching ethics, coaching foundations and theory, coaching and self-development, coaching and systems (team, group, and couples coaching), and experiential coaching methods. Students may also take optional externships to gain face-to-face coaching training (towards certification at the national/international level).

Requirements (18 credits)

Professional Coaching Certificate

CNS-503	Theory and Techniques in the Helping Relationship	3
SDC-515	Career Counseling for Student Development	3
SDC-520	Foundations of Professional Coaching	3
SDC-522	Coaching and Self	3
SDC-524	Coaching and Systems	3
SDC-526	Coaching Applications - Experiential Methods	3

Post Master's Certificate

This certificate is for persons who have already attained a Master of Arts degree in a counseling-related program, but whose degree program and/or post-graduate clinical experiences do not meet specific state licensure or national certification requirements. In such cases, program faculty collaborate with the student to develop a specific program of study that seeks to fulfill the identified academic requirements. It is the responsibility of the student to provide evidence identifying the specific academic content or coursework required by the particular credentialing entity. This evidence is typically discovered through the student's consultation with the particular licensure/certification board.

Admission Requirements include:

1. A master's degree from an accredited college or university, or an institution accredited by the Association for Biblical Higher Education.
2. A graduate GPA of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale from the graduate degree-granting institution from which at least 30 semester hours were completed.
3. A completed application form and all required documents for admission to the IWU Graduate Studies in Counseling Certificate Program.
4. A letter of intent clearly stating reason(s) for seeking admission into the certificate program.
5. In those cases where the applicant is seeking to fulfill requirements for any licensure/certification, identification of a specific plan of study (typically 15-18 credit hours) for any license/certification process is the responsibility of the applicant.
6. Students seeking licensure for Clinical Mental Health Counseling, Marriage & Family Therapy/Counseling, and Addictions Counseling, need to submit an application for licensure to the Professional Licensing Agency or respective state licensing board, and provide the letter received from the board specifying content area deficiencies.
7. If clinical hours (practicum and/or internship) are needed, the student must demonstrate evidence of entry-level proficiency in the delivery of counseling services. This is accomplished by presenting a recorded sample of the applicant's direct service to a client and a reference from a qualified supervisor. This tape and reference will be reviewed by the Graduate Counseling Director of Clinical Training and be considered in the admission process.

Exit Requirements include:

1. Successful completion of all coursework identified on certificate plan of study.
2. All course grades at or above level of "C."
3. Overall cumulative GPA of 3.0.

School of Teacher Education

Purpose

The School of Teacher Education (STE), in partnership with other departments in the University, offers professional education courses and programs designed to prepare students to become teachers of excellence for elementary and senior high/junior high/middle schools in both public and private school arenas. The faculty at Indiana Wesleyan University believes teacher education is a campus-wide responsibility. As a product of this cooperative perspective, the Teacher Education Program is a collaborative partnership between general education, subject matter, and professional education programs. The IWU Teacher Education Program is accredited by the Council for Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) and is a member of the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education (AACTE).

Teacher Education Programs

Majors leading to teacher certification are available in three areas: elementary education, secondary education, and exceptional needs education. These majors include:

Elementary Education (K-6 Certification)

Elementary Education (p. 186)

Elementary Education/Exceptional Needs Education (p. 188)

Secondary Education (P-12 Certification)

Music Education: Choral

(p. 196)

Music Education: Instrumental

(p. 196)

Music Education: Choral, General, and Instrumental

(p. 196)

Spanish Education (p. 202)

Mathematics Education (p. 195)

Social Studies Education (p. 200)

Science Education (Biology/Chemistry)

(p. 198)

Visual Arts Education (p. 207)

Exceptional Needs Education

Exceptional Needs: P-12 (p. 208)

The Intense Interventions Certification course sequence may be added to either the EXN major or the ELE/EXN double major.

Teacher Education Program

The courses in the Teacher Education Program provide a social, philosophical, psychological and historical framework in which students can develop a personal philosophy of teaching. The Indiana Wesleyan University Teacher Education Program's knowledge base model, "Teacher as Decision Maker," emphasizes decision-making within five domains: (1) Learners; (2) Content and Curricular Design; (3) Instructional Practice; (4) Contextualized Decision-Making; and (5) Professional Identity.

Admission to the Teacher Education Program

Students are eligible to make application for admission to the Teacher Education Program at the completion of 29 semester hours, including the completion of EDU-130 American Education. Additional requirements:

1. Cumulative GPA of 2.75 and a 3.0 in each teaching major, including teacher education courses. All professional education courses completed with a grade of C- or less must be repeated.
2. Meet basic skills competencies required for (CAEP) Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation.
3. Formal application (available in the Teacher Education Office).

4. Dispositions, Attitudes and Proficiencies interview; reading and writing on demand assessments.

Students who are denied admission may follow the appeals process as outlined in the Teacher Education Program Handbook.

Admission to Student Teaching

The student teaching experience is a 16-week semester course in which students refine their skills gained throughout the Teacher Education Program. This capstone experience is composed of two eight-week placements or one 16-week placement in which students fully engage in teaching.

Cross-cultural Student Teaching Placements. With the approval of the Teacher Education Committee, students may opt for an eight-week experience in a local school and eight weeks in an overseas or cross-cultural placement. These student teaching placements are available, providing the pre-service teacher the opportunity for a more diverse global perspective on teaching.

Applications for student teaching must be submitted to the Teacher Education Office by November 1 of the year prior to the student teaching semester (12-15 months in advance of the student teaching experience). To qualify for the student teaching semester, the student must be fully accepted into the Teacher Education Program, have attained senior status, and have completed all courses related to the candidate's teacher certification area.

Student teaching admission requirements:

1. Cumulative GPA of 2.75 and a 3.0 in each teaching major, including teacher education courses. (NOTE: College of Arts and Sciences GPA requirements apply at program completion and graduation.)
2. Formal application (available in the Teacher Education Office). The following documents must accompany the student teaching application.
3. Revised autobiography.
4. Revised philosophy of education.
5. Current degree audit and transcript.
6. Assessment of candidate readiness.
7. Lesson plan.

Once the above qualifications are met, the candidates' names are submitted to the divisions for review and to the Vice President for Student Development. The application is then voted upon for approval. Students denied admission to the student teaching semester, may appeal the decision through a process as outlined in the Teacher Education Program Handbook.

Once admitted, the student must exhibit professional demeanor both in university courses and in clinical field placements, and remain a positive role model for both the University and the Teacher Education Program.

Teacher Certification

Content-knowledge tests are required for teacher certification in the state of Indiana. The summary pass rate for all IWU program completers in 2017-2018 was 96%.

Documents for Indiana Teacher Certification should be filed with the Office of Teacher Education as soon after graduation as possible. Necessary information on the certification process is available in the Teacher Certification Office.

Integration of Faith and Learning

The five domains of the Teacher as Decision Maker conceptual framework are integrated in the context of faith and learning as students discover the relationship between teaching and biblical principles.

The program integrates liberal arts education, content-specific coursework, and clinical field placements to provide the student with teaching situations that allow the theory presented within the University classroom to become applied knowledge within the world of the practitioner. All professors within the Teacher Education Program have had classroom experience and continue to work closely with current practicing teachers.

Field Placements

Field experiences for all education majors begin in the freshman year, with tutoring and mentoring activities in school-like settings. Sophomore-year experiences build on this foundation in area schools and classrooms. An observation and participation field experience is required of all elementary and secondary education majors in May of the freshman or sophomore year. (This experience is not a requirement of the TESOL major, the Exceptional Needs major, and the Elementary Education/Exceptional Needs double major.) Junior-year field experiences require students to teach and spend up to 180 clock hours in classrooms in area schools.

Mathematics Education (5-12 Certification)

As an alternative to the regular mathematics education course of study, students may choose a double major of mathematics + secondary education. Students who are considering post-baccalaureate work in mathematics following graduation instead of entering the teaching field immediately may want to choose this alternative. Both options — mathematics education or mathematics + teacher education — qualify the graduate for an Indiana teaching license in mathematics.

Spanish Education (P-12 Certification)

Definition and Purpose

The Spanish Education major requires a core program in Spanish of 39-51 hours with a minimum of three credit hours in a Spanish-speaking country. A prerequisite of six hours of beginning Spanish or demonstration of beginning-level proficiency by examinations required. Student will also be required to fulfill the general education requirements and the professional education requirements for a teaching degree. The Spanish Education major will equip students with the knowledge, skills and experience necessary for becoming highly qualified Spanish teachers. The program requires that all graduating seniors function at the ADVANCED level of proficiency in Spanish as defined by the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL) guidelines (intermediate – high is required by the state). The Spanish Education major will do the following: equip students with a well-rounded understanding of Spanish grammar and Hispanic literature, history and culture; prepare them to teach using the best methods and technology available for second language acquisition; and require Spanish language and cultural immersion experience in the local community and overseas. Prerequisite: SPA-117 and SPA-118 or beginning-level competency by examination.

SPA-238	Intermediate Spanish II: Spanish for the Professions	3
SPA-347	Advanced Spanish I: Conversations for the Workplace	3
SPA-349	Advanced Spanish II: Writing for Professions	3

Students are required to pass SPA-117, SPA-118, SPA-237, SPA-238, and SPA-347 with a minimum grade of "C" before advancing to the next level.

The foreign language coordinator may, however, grant some students permission to take another upper-division class at the same time that they are taking SPA-349.

CLEP Policy

Students may not elect to take SPA- 117, SPA- 118, SPA-237, or SPA-238 after successfully completing SPA-347, SPA-349, or any other upper-level course, but may pursue CLEP credit prior to completing SPA-349 or with the approval of the foreign language coordinator.

Students may CLEP SPA 117, SPA 118, or SPA 237 for credit. However, students must CLEP these courses prior to completing SPA 349 or with the approval of the foreign language coordinator to receive credit for their major or minor.

AP Policy

Incoming freshmen who, prior to their enrollment at Indiana Wesleyan University, pass the AP Spanish Language Exam with a minimum score of 4 will receive credit for SPA-237 and SPA-238. Students who pass the AP Spanish Language Exam with a minimum score of 3 will be awarded credit for SPA-117 and SPA-118. AP credit for these courses will not meet intercultural competency.

All Spanish Education majors must do the following prior to taking advanced level classes:

- Have a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.75 and a minimum GPA of 3.0 in the major.
- Take and pass the basic skills competency exam.
- Successfully complete the DAP interview.
- Successfully complete a "reading on demand" and "writing on demand" in Spanish.

Foreign Study Experience

Students may transfer a 300 or 400 level course taken abroad that focuses on the history, culture or literature of a Spanish-speaking country or the theory or practical use of the Spanish language for credit. Must be taught in Spanish and must be from an approved, accredited program.

If a student decides not to pursue CLEP credit prior to completing SPA 349, he or she must study abroad in Seville, Spain, for one semester in order to earn the remaining credits and graduate in 4 years. Students are highly encouraged to study abroad.

All Spanish Majors and Minors are strongly encouraged to study abroad through IWU-sponsored or IWU -approved programs during their junior year.

Students should consult with the Foreign Language Coordinator, the Global Engagement Office, as well as their faculty advisor before taking courses abroad to ensure that they are appropriate.

TESOL Education (P-12 Certification)

The TESOL Education major combines professional training with specialized instruction in the latest theoretical foundations for second-language acquisition, including methods and materials training and practicum experience designed specifically for the TESOL student. Students completing this program will meet all certification standards for public instruction in the state of Indiana (English as a New Language standards), and will acquire the theoretical foundations and skills necessary for effective second-language instruction for non-English speaking individuals around the world.

DeVoe Division of BusinessMission

The DeVoe Division of Business is a Christ-centered academic community that provides students the opportunity for personal, professional and spiritual development in preparation for a life of service, applying sound business principles with wisdom and creativity.

Vision

The vision of the DeVoe Division of Business is to prepare business professionals who are resilient and committed to meeting the needs of others in a Christ-like manner.

Curriculum

The curriculum combines theory and practice, is built upon a Christian liberal arts foundation, and emphasizes the need to apply Christian principles to the workplace. Business students graduate with the knowledge and skills they need to succeed.

The DeVoe Division of Business is committed to excellence and as such strives to continually enhance the quality of the student's education experience and development. The DeVoe Division of Business is accredited by ACBSP Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs

Degrees Available

Bachelor of Arts

The four-year Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) degree is available in six majors: Accounting (p. 211), Business Administration (p. 213), Entrepreneurship (p. 214), Finance (p. 214), Management (p. 215) and Marketing (p. 216).

The Bachelor of Arts degree offered by the DeVoe Division of Business includes a foreign language requirement. All students will be required to take 6 hours of a foreign language at the college level. The following exceptions and guidelines will be used to implement the 6-hour foreign language requirement:

- Students for whom English is a second language will be exempt from the 6-hour foreign language requirement.
- Students who have completed four years of a high school foreign language with no grade below a "C" will be exempt from the 6-hour foreign language requirement.
- Students who pass a foreign language competency test at a level equivalent to four semesters of a single language (Intermediate 2) will be exempt from the 6-hour foreign language requirement.
- Students who pass a foreign language competency test at a level equivalent to three semesters of a single language (Intermediate 1) will be exempt from 3 hours of the 6-hour foreign language requirement and will satisfy the other 3 hours by completing the Intermediate 2 course.
- Students will be allowed to transfer college credit hours to satisfy the foreign language requirement.

Only students who do not have a major in the DeVoe Division of Business may select a minor in Accounting or Business Administration.

Associate of Science

The two-year Associate of Science (A.S.) degree is available in Accounting (p. 212) and Business Administration (p. 213). The two-year degree is not available in Entrepreneurship, Finance, Management or Marketing.

Double Majors

A student may double major in any two of the six majors by completing the specific requirements of each major. Students with double majors within the DeVoe Division of Business must complete a minimum of 66 unique DeVoe Division of Business credit hours (75 unique credit hours if one of the two majors is Accounting). Outside of the 36-hour core, no course can be used to satisfy a requirement in both majors.

Other double majors are possible by combining the study of one of the six divisional majors with any major, such as (but not limited to) Art, Communications, Computer Information Systems, Criminal Justice, Economics, English, History, Leadership, Mathematics, Music, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology, or Sports Management.

If the student combines the Business Administration major with a major outside the DeVoe Division of Business, the requirement to have 12 hours of 300-400 level courses within the DeVoe Division of Business will be satisfied by 12 hours of 300-400 level courses from the other major. This provision applies only if the Business Administration major is the only major the student has within the DeVoe Division of Business.

Admission to Division Guidelines and Criteria

Admission to the division is required before students are allowed to take 300-400 level courses within the DeVoe Division of Business. (An exception is made for Accounting majors who may take 300 level accounting courses before they have been admitted to the division.)

Admission to the division is neither automatic nor assumed simply because a student wants to study in the division. To be admitted to the division, students must demonstrate a degree of knowledge and preparedness. Students must satisfy the following criteria before applying to the division:

1. Complete 40 total credit hours.
2. Complete all of the following courses:
 - BUS-100 Foundations of Business

- ACC-201 Accounting Principles I
 - ACC-202 Accounting Principles II
 - ECO-212 Microeconomics
 - ECO-213 Macroeconomics
 - MNG-210 Management Principles
 - MKG-210 Marketing Principles
3. Have a 2.5 overall GPA and a 2.5 GPA within the DeVoe Division of Business.
 4. Have a minimum grade of "C" in all courses required for a major and minor degree.
 5. Satisfy the General Education Requirements for writing competency, mathematics and communication.
 6. Submit a portfolio (work from the courses listed above to include a résumé and at least one showcase piece of work or project from a course listed above).
 7. Submit an individual admission essay (an essay prompt is provided by the division).
 8. Complete a division interview.

Students who satisfy the above criteria must complete an Application for Admission to the Division and submit it to the business faculty advisor. If the above requirements have been met, the application will be approved unless there is a problem that needs to be discussed with the Division Chair. The DeVoe Division of Business faculty reserves the right to deny admission to the major to any student who fails to satisfy the behavioral expectations outlined in the student handbook.

Transfer students who satisfy substantially all of the above criteria may petition the DeVoe Division of Business to be admitted to the division. The same holds true for IWU students with a major outside the DeVoe Division of Business who add or change their major to one that is offered in the division.

To continue in the DeVoe Division of Business, students must maintain an overall 2.5 GPA and a 2.5 GPA in the division. Students must also have a minimum grade of "C" in all courses required for a major and minor degree. Failure to do so may necessitate repeating courses (university policy allows a course to be repeated once) or withdrawal from the division. Note: If a student has questions regarding action taken by the DeVoe Division of Business he or she has the right to appeal the action through established procedure in the IWU Catalog.

Transfer Credit

Credit for all courses in the major transferred from other schools must be approved by the DeVoe Division of Business. Students currently enrolled as majors in the division may not transfer any courses into the division for credit without prior written approval from the division. Following are the guidelines for transfer credit:

1. The DeVoe Division of Business will accept 100-200 level courses taken at other institutions for IWU 100-200 level courses, so long as the courses have been approved by the instructor in the discipline.
2. The DeVoe Division of Business will not accept 100-200 level courses taken at other institutions to satisfy IWU DeVoe Division of Business upper level course requirements.
3. The DeVoe Division of Business will waive BUS-100 for any transfer student, who transfers in at least 12 hours of business courses, but the division will not waive the credits — the student will substitute the 3 hours of credits with a course recommended by the advisor or Division Chair.
4. Transfer students pursuing the B.A. degree in one of the six majors in the DeVoe Division of Business must complete a minimum of 18 credit hours from the IWU DeVoe Division of Business. Transfer students pursuing the A.S. degree or minor in Business Administration must complete a minimum of 9 credit hours from the IWU DeVoe Division of Business.

General Education Competencies

Students in the DeVoe Division of Business must meet the general education competencies by taking the approved standard courses. In regards to courses offered in the DeVoe Division of Business, the intercultural experience requirement may be met by successfully completing either ACC-390 or BUS-390.

School of Physical and Applied Sciences

The School of Physical and Applied Sciences is a blend of disciplines producing students prepared to enter roles as teachers, researchers, administrators, health care providers, and valuable members of society in a broad variety of modalities. The titles of the three divisions demonstrate the spectrum of fields represented within SPAS:

Health and Human Performance Division (p. 228)

Mathematics and Computer Information Sciences Division (p. 249)

Each of these divisions contains a number of specialized departments or majors that allow students to prepare for careers serving God by serving those He created. Our focus on equipping students for life-long learning means that the time spent within SPAS results in the laying of a solid foundation on which all future learning can be built. The outstanding success of our graduates reflects the quality of the learning that has occurred during their time here.

Behavioral Sciences Division

The Behavioral Sciences Division offers the following majors and minors. Some majors require criminal background checks. The fees for these checks are the responsibility of the student.

Addictions Counseling - B.S.

Purpose

The addictions counseling program mission is to develop professionals who understand the bio-psycho-social-spiritual correlates of substance use disorders and are capable of facilitating appropriate interventions with affected individuals, families and communities. The courses are intended to establish a solid understanding of the dynamics of addiction as well as the evidence-based clinical practices used to treat these disorders. Students will become knowledgeable of the current scientific literature and the diverse perspectives on the nature and treatment of addictions. The program seeks to balance didactic and experiential learning opportunities. The program also partners with other majors for helping professionals. Students majoring in Psychology, Criminal Justice, Social Work, Sociology, Nursing, or Education will likely find addictions courses helpful in preparing to meet the needs of the populations that they will encounter in their professional endeavors. The program prepares students to meet licensure requirements for alcohol and drug counselors in Indiana and many other states as well as meeting nationally established standards. Students should review their specific state requirements and guidelines.

The addictions counseling program seeks to emphasize Christian commitment and compassionate service in a manner that resonates with the "heart" of the University and our world-changing focus. The addictions counseling major promotes development in the areas of Christian character, critical thinking, oral/written communication, analytical reasoning, scholarship, and the awareness of diversity issues. Successful graduates will evidence a comprehensive understanding of addictive behavior, the capacity to facilitate effective client interventions, and a commitment to ethical standards, cultural sensitivity, and a Christian worldview.

Admission to the Major

Students should apply to the major before taking any course above the ADC 200 level and must have completed or be currently enrolled in ADC-210 and ADC-212. Admission to the major requires completion of an application, and a formal interview with the Addictions Counseling Committee. The Addictions Counseling Committee reserves the right to deny any student admission to the major who fails to demonstrate adequate academic, personal, or pre-professional effectiveness.

Continuation of the Major

Students should maintain a 2.5 cumulative GPA and a 3.0 GPA in Addictions. Failure to do so may necessitate repeating courses or withdraw from the Addictions major. Students must also demonstrate appropriate pre-professional readiness before being placed in a field practicum placement.

Requirements

The addictions counseling major consists of 30 hours in addictions, 12 hours in psychology and 3 hours in sociology for a total of 45 credit hours. Students in this major meet the general education competencies by taking the approved standard courses.

Addictions Studies - A.S.

Associate Degree in Addiction Studies

This degree is intended for those who plan to pursue pre-professional and support positions in the addictions field. It is anticipated that these individuals will work under the supervision of physicians, nurses, psychologists, and social workers. The academic requirements of this degree are commensurate with the Addictions Studies Minor (p. 218). A bachelor's degree is strongly recommended for those who wish to become counselors.

Criminal Justice - B.S.

Purpose

The curriculum of the Criminal Justice major is designed to prepare students for positions in law enforcement, probation and other court services, corrections, or one of the many other agencies connected with the criminal justice system.

The Criminal Justice major helps students understand of three areas that comprise the criminal justice system: law enforcement, the courts, and corrections. A major objective of the program is to provide a biblical Christian response to three basic questions: What conduct is (or should be) prohibited by law? How is it determined that a person is guilty of such conduct? What is (or should be) done with those who are found guilty?

A required practicum gives senior students on-site experience through placement with one of many agencies, including police and sheriff departments, probation departments, prosecutor's office, and other agencies.

The Criminal Justice major can be combined with other coursework to prepare students for law school or graduate studies in criminal justice. The major is often combined with another discipline, allowing a student to graduate with a double major. Sociology, political science, psychology, addictions counseling, business, history, and Spanish are excellent combinations with criminal justice.

Psychology - B.S.

Purpose

Psychology courses are designed to give students a solid foundation in the discipline, and broad exposure to several areas of psychology in an effort to provide students with many career options. Students may choose to pursue careers in mental health, school guidance, clinical psychology, teaching, human resources, or further graduate study. A strong emphasis is made on integrating principles of Christianity and psychology and promoting their practical applications.

General Education Competencies

Students in Psychology meet the general education competencies by taking the approved standard courses, including options of COM-352 and MAT-305.

Admission to the Psychology Major

Admission to the Psychology major requires a formal screening process separate from initial declaration of intent to major in Psychology. The process includes successfully passing PSY-290, completion of an application and an interview after completion of at least seven hours of lower-level psychology courses.

Continuation in the Psychology Major

Students must maintain a 2.5 cumulative GPA and a 2.5 GPA in their Psychology coursework. Failure to do so may necessitate repeating courses or withdrawal from the Psychology major.

Personal Qualities

Students must evidence virtuous character representative of the Christian principles on which Indiana Wesleyan University is established.

The Psychology Department faculty reserves the right to deny any admission to the major who in its judgment fails to demonstrate adequate academic, personal, or pre-professional effectiveness.

Social Work - B.S.W.

Mission Statement

The mission of the Social Work program is to prepare social work students for generalist entry-level practice and provide opportunities for students to become world changers who have a desire to integrate personal faith and learning to maximize one's ability to be of service to one's fellow human beings.

Core Competencies

Upon completion of the Social Work program at Indiana Wesleyan University, students will be able to demonstrate the following core competencies within the framework of the generalist model of social work practice:

- Provide opportunities for the integration of Christian principles within the context of professional social work values and ethics.
- Demonstrate ethical and professional behavior.
- Engage in diversity and difference in social practice.
- Advance human rights and social, economic, and environmental justice.
- Engage in practice-informed research and research-informed practice.
- Engage in policy practice.

- Engage, Assess, Intervene, Evaluate with individuals, families, groups and organizations.

Students wishing to continue graduate education may be eligible for advanced standing at many graduate schools of social work. Graduates of the Social Work program are eligible to become full members of the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) and National Association of Christian Social Workers (NACSW). Indiana Wesleyan University's Social Work program is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE); phone 703-683-8080.

Throughout the curriculum, theory and practice are integrated through a variety of classroom experiences and agency settings. Students are required to become active within the community in a variety of capacities throughout the program. Students are required to complete 90 volunteer hours prior to field placement. The senior field placement involves working 32 hours per week in a social service agency under the supervision of a professional social worker. According to CSWE the field placement is the signature pedagogy of Social Work program professional development.

Admission to the Social Work Program

Student admission to the Social Work program is a formal process separate from the initial declaration of Social Work as a major. The process includes successful completion of the Introduction to Social Work course and completion of 45 credit hours with a cumulative grade-point average of 2.5 at the time of application to the program. The student will then be interviewed by the Social Work Admissions Committee made up of Social Work Faculty and Community Advisory Board members. Based on the interview, letters of reference, and other application materials, the committee decides whether to grant admission into the program. Any unfavorable decision may be appealed by following the grievance procedures on file in the department and student handbook.

General Education Competencies

Students in this major meet the general education competencies by taking the approved standard courses.

MAT-305: Counts as general education math course for Social Work majors with a grade of "C" or above.

BIO-106, ECO-211, POL-200, PSY-150, SOC-150 and SOC-152: Counts as required general education courses for Social Work majors with a grade of "C" or above.

BIO-111: Students with a double major in Psychology are encouraged to choose this option.

Entrance Requirements

Along with submission of an application and SAT or ACT scores to the director of admissions, the student must declare social work as his or her choice of major. High school courses which provide a good foundation for the study of social work include social studies, sociology, psychology, American government, economics, English, writing, and communications.

Admission to the Social Work Program

The admission of students to the Social Work program is a formal process separate from the initial declaration of Social Work as a major. The process includes successful completion of the Introduction to Social Work course and completion of 45 credit hours with a cumulative grade-point average of 2.5 at the time of application to the program. The student will then be interviewed by the Social Work Admissions Committee made up of Social Work Faculty and Community Advisory Board members. Based on the interview, letters of reference, and other application materials, the committee decides whether to grant admission into the program. Any unfavorable decision may be appealed by following the grievance procedures on file in the department and student handbook.

Admission to Field Placement Internships

During the second semester of the junior year, each student is required to complete a Social Work Field Practicum Application. Students will be interviewed by the Director of Field Instruction and committee. Students are required to complete 90 hours of volunteer experience prior to being accepted into the Field Placement experience. This documentation is submitted along with the Field Practicum Application. Field Placement options are discussed and a tentative plan is created for Field Placement based on the student's interest and needs.

Continuation in the Social Work Program

The social work faculty reserves the right to request the withdrawal of any student whose performance make it inadvisable to continue in the program. All decisions regarding continuation in the program are based on the recommendations of the Social Work Admissions Committee.

Students who receive a grade of less than a "C" in any course required for the social work major must repeat the course. Students must maintain an overall grade-point average of 2.5 and a 2.7 in the major. A senior must present a grade-point average of 2.7 in the field placement experience and a cumulative grade-point average of 2.5 in order to graduate. Juniors or seniors who fall below this grade-point average will be placed on probation for the following semester. Failure to raise the grade-point average to 2.5 could then result in dismissal from the program.

In order to graduate, students must pass their final portfolio presentation given their spring semester of their senior year.

Social Work - M.S.W.

MSW Program Description

The IWU MSW Program is a residential hybrid course of study that offers a personal, professional and innovative experience for all learners seeking to practice social work at the advanced practice level. Students will receive an integrative practice approach to the social work profession while learning to draw on individual and community strengths to work toward social justice in their respective communities. Advanced Practice social workers employ a range of problem-solving processes and clinical and research-based theories while using the skills of assessment, planning, contracting, implementation, evaluation and termination as they work with various client systems to enhance functioning and improve well-being.

The MSW program provides a biblical perspective on social and economic justice and the intrinsic worth of all people. The foundation year provides generalist social work theory, practice, policy, and research perspectives. The advanced practice year provides theory, practice, policy, and research in advanced social work practice with an emphasis on clinical skills.

Students may enter the program in the Standard Track if they do not have an undergraduate social work degree from an accredited program. The program provides shorter term or longer-term enrollment options. Advanced standing may be granted to students who have a BSW degree from an accredited social work program and have achieved a GPA of 3.0 or higher in the last seven years.

All course work in the residential hybrid program is taken in sequence as part of a cohort group. Courses follow the traditional semester-based format. Four courses are taken in the fall semester. Two courses are taken in the spring semester along with 6 credits of field placement. Students walk in graduation during the April ceremony, however, they do not receive their diploma until they complete 6 additional credits of field placement during summer term.

The Mission

The mission of the MSW Program is to prepare social work students for advanced social work practice with an emphasis on clinical skills and provide opportunities for students to become world changers who have a desire to integrate personal faith and learning to maximize their ability to serve their fellow human beings. The program is committed to creating a personal, professional and innovative experience in the online environment.

Child Advocacy Studies Certificate

Program Description

The Child Advocacy Studies certificate is designed as a supplemental certificate program sponsored within the Behavioral Sciences Division to provide students with education specifically focused on developing knowledge to respond to child maltreatment. The certificate focuses on developing students' understanding of the numerous factors that lead to child maltreatment, and of existing responses to incidents of child maltreatment, in order that they may work more effectively within systems and institutions that respond to these incidents. The certificate will prepare students studying to become social workers, law enforcement professionals, nurses, educators, pastors, and youth leaders who work with maltreated children to understand and respond with knowledge to the issues surrounding child maltreatment. The systematic training will also support and enhance the education that is required for these various professionals. This interdisciplinary, ethical, and culturally sensitive content provides "professionals in training" working with children a common knowledge base for responding to child maltreatment. This certificate will also become a resume enhancement as students enter the helping professions.

Purpose

The Health and Human Performance Division at Indiana Wesleyan University prepares students to meet the ever increasing demands of society for professionally trained people in the areas of education, sports, fitness, health, recreation, management and athletics. Areas of development such as neuromuscular skill, organic fitness, intellectual awareness, social concern, emotional release, and spiritual formations will be emphasized. God created man as an integrated whole being, and the professionals in this division are afforded a great opportunity to reach all aspects of the whole person. Each individual will be challenged to develop professionally and in turn be prepared to serve others upon completion of the degree.

Admission to Majors

Admission to majors in the Health and Human Performance Division follow the procedures established for the university. Majors seeking Physical and Health Education teaching certification must apply for admission to teacher education through the Department of Education. Also see the Exercise Science department for application process.

General Education Requirements (45-51 credits)

Most majors within the Health and Human Performance Division follow the traditional general education requirements. Recommended courses for specific areas are below. If this differs, the courses are identified under the specific major.

Health Promotion and Wellness Minor

Requirements (24 credits)

Required Courses

BIO-111	Anatomy and Physiology I	4

Masters of Science in Athletic Training (Beginning Fall, 2022)

Based on new requirements by the Strategic Alliance and the CAATE, the BS Athletic Training Program will transition to a professional master's degree program beginning Fall 2022. We encourage undergraduate students who wish to become athletic trainers to explore our Exercise Science program.

Exercise Science - B.S.

This program, mediated by CoAES (Committee on Accreditation for the Exercise Sciences) and accredited by CAAHEP (Commission on Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs), is designed to prepare students for post-graduate academic pursuits in exercise science and specifically exercise physiology, cardiac/pulmonary/cancer rehabilitation, biomechanics, or fitness leadership. Students interested in continuing their graduate education in athletic training, physical or occupational therapy or becoming a physician's assistant would benefit from this undergraduate exercise science program as well. The final purpose of this program design is to prepare students for certifications by professional organizations relative to exercise science, specifically the Certified Exercise Physiologist (EP-C) and other certifications by the American College of Sports Medicine (ACSM) or National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA). The Exercise Science major received re-accreditation for 10 years by CAAHEP on March 16, 2018.

Admission requirements to Exercise Science Program:

1. First time freshman
 - a. Complete PHE 170, BIO 111/111L, BIO 112/112L, PHE 101
 - b. Achieve sophomore status
 - c. Minimum major GPA 2.50, cumulative GPA 2.50
2. Transfer and all other students
 - a. Enroll and complete 7 credits in IWU exercise science major
 - b. Achieve sophomore status
 - c. Minimum major GPA 2.75, cumulative GPA 2.50

Once a student is admitted to the Exercise Science Program a $300 program fee will be assessed in PHE-374L.

Continuation in Exercise Science Program:

1. Transfer students and students new to the major: Students must complete at least 50% (half) of their major courses at IWU.
2. Maximum number of semesters as a pre-exercise science major is 4 semesters.
3. Major GPA requirements: 2.75 in the major and 2.50 cumulative.

Exercise Science majors must take PHE-134 as their General Education activity course before PHE-379.

Pre-Occupational/Physical Therapy Programs

The Health and Human Performance (HHP) division is one entry point for those students interested in graduate study within the fields of Occupational Therapy and Physical Therapy. The Pre-OT and PT programs consist of a combination of courses taken in conjunction with the course requirements for any other university major. Common major choices include Exercise Science, Biology and Psychology. These programs are designed to prepare students for application to a professional graduate program. It should be noted that these pre-programs do not meet all requirements for all graduate OT and PT programs. Some schools may require different coursework; therefore as a student narrows their choice of graduate programs, it is imperative that the students identify the appropriate prerequisite requirements necessary. Students should work with their academic advisors to ensure they have met all of the necessary admissions requirements. The coursework for these two pre-professional programs is listed below.

Admission

Due to the high academic achievement that is required for admission to professional schools, there is an admission process for entry into these programs. Upon completion of the sophomore year, students interested in the Pre-Occupational/Physical Therapy programs must have a minimum GPA of 3.0 and interview with the Pre-Occupational/Physical Therapy advisor (this individual is usually the student's academic major advisor). It is essential that the GPA be maintained. Should a student's GPA fall below the 3.0 requirement, the student will be put on probation from the program and be given one semester to increase his or her GPA back into the acceptable range. If the GPA is not increased to a 3.0 or above, the Pre-OT/PT designation will be dropped from the degree audit. If the student is graduating in that semester, the Pre-OT/PT designation will be dropped from the degree audit and the diploma.

Reinstatement Back into the Program

If at a later date both of the GPAs are raised to the required level, the student can request reinstatement to the program by submitting a written request to the Pre-OT/PT Committee.

Transfer Students

Transfer students wishing to enter the Pre-OT/PT program will need to demonstrate that they meet the GPA requirements in core courses and overall completed courses based on applicable classes at previous accredited institutions. All subsequent decisions as to retention in the Pre-OT/PT program will be based on IWU courses only.

Requirements Pre-Occupational Therapy Core (*39-40 credits)

PHE-352	Sport Law and Risk Management	3
PHE-385	Psychology of Motor Learning	3
PHE-423	Adapted Physical Activity	3
PHE or PSY	PHE or PSY 224 Psychology of Sport and Exercise	3

General Physical Activity Courses

Courses PHE-101 – PHE-139 fulfill general education requirements. Course PHE-101, Concepts of Health and Wellness, is required. One other course must be selected to fulfill the requirement. Individuals with severely limited physical capabilities or working adult students may arrange with the Physical Education coordinator to take the Adult Fitness course. While only two courses are required, students may take up to a total of eight one-hour activity classes that can count toward their graduation hours.

PHE-101	Concepts of Health and Wellness	1

A study of the values, components, development, and maintenance of fitness. Required of all students.

PHE-102	Adult Fitness	1

A physical education course for those with limited physical capabilities or working adult students. By permission of instructor.

PHE-114, PHE-116, PHE-120, and PHE-131: fee required

PHE-117: may be repeated once in a second sport, course may only be taken during his or her sport's primary season of competition.

ROTC - U.S. Army Reserve Officers' Training Corps Program

Purpose

ROTC is offered on the IWU campus for those who sense a calling to serve our country in the military. The Department of Military Science offers qualified undergraduate and graduate students an opportunity to obtain a commission as a second lieutenant in the United States Army and to serve with the Active Army, Army National Guard or Army Reserves. Additionally, Military Science offers immersive learning experiences focused on preparing future leaders for the United States Army and managers for the corporate environment. Subjects offered in this program include the study of current military leadership, doctrine, rappelling, marksmanship, counseling, problem solving, managing resources, military history, and public speaking. All IWU students interested in studying military leadership may enroll in 100-level and 200-level classes without any obligation to enroll in the ROTC program.

Requirements (22 credits)Required Courses

MSC-101	Introduction to Military Science	1
MSC-102	Introduction to Leadership	1
MSC-201	Leadership/Military Tactics	2
MSC-202	Leadership/Team Development	2
MSC-301	Military Leadership and Operations 1	3
MSC-302	Military Leadership and Operations 2	3
MSC-401	Leadership Challenges and Goal Setting	3
MSC-402	Transition to Lieutenant	3
MSC-499	Independent Study in Military Science	1 to 3

The 100-level meet once a week for one hour. The 200-level meets twice a week for two hours. The 300-level and 400-level classes meet twice a week for three hours each session. Two days are dedicated to classroom lecture and a combined lab meets 10 times each semester. The lab and field training exercises involve all contracted cadets and apply classroom lectures into hands-on leadership training scenarios.

Military Leadership Minor

The Military Leadership minor will enhance the principles of the U.S. Army's ROTC program by enabling students to expand their capabilities by providing them with the most effective tools for critical thinking, ethical and logical reasoning, an enhanced understanding of cross-cultural diversity, better communication skills, effective self-assessment and reflection techniques. Additionally, it will integrate specific theory and methodologies to help students understand leadership from a servant-leader paradigm that will give them a better perspective of the causes of world and national events and their implications on the military and society in general. This minor is open only to ROTC students.

Biology Programs

The curricula of the Biology Department support the efforts of a wide range of career opportunities. In addition to providing general background for minors in Biology and developing scientific competence in its own majors, the Biology Department provides curricula for the pre-med program and support courses for other divisional majors with science requirements. We seek to prepare students who major in Biology for (1) graduate studies in biology; (2) entrance into related professional schools of medicine, dentistry, optometry, pharmacy, physical therapy, etc.; and (3) entry-level positions in related fields as laboratory assistants or technicians. The complete biology curricular outline is available upon request.

Related Curricula

The pre-medical program curricula and the nursing curricula may be found in the Natural Sciences and School of Nursing sections, respectively. In addition to the curriculum for majors, pre-meds, and pre-nursing students, the Biology Department provides science curriculum to prepare students in other majors like science education, careers in business, or other careers that may demand a knowledge of scientific information. The Biology Department also offers a four-year medical technology program in cooperation with affiliated hospitals.

Science Education majors will complete certain courses within the Biology major as one of the possible content areas leading toward teacher certification. Professionalization of this certification occurs in the Division of Education curricula with the choice of either the single field Biology major or the dual field Biology/Chemistry major. Other campus divisions of study will advise students into service courses that meet their needs for science training related to other career paths.

Biology - B.S.

Mission

The Biology Department at Indiana Wesleyan University is committed to the belief that all truth is God's truth. To that end, we endeavor to instill students with biological knowledge, technical skill, and a Judeo-Christian disposition, empowering them to positively impact the world around them.

Requirements for the Biology major (B.S.)

A major in Biology requires 52 hours of coursework (42 hours in biology and 10 hours in chemistry). Only courses numbered 125 and above may be applied toward the major or a minor in biology. All prerequisite courses require a grade of "C" or better. Students are not allowed to register for classes with numbers > 300 if their GPA is below 2.5.

To begin taking classes toward the Biology major, students must be eligible to take ENG-120 and have achieved the following:

Math SAT 480 or above (or MAT-120)
 ACT Math score of 21 or above (or MAT-120)

Standards Required to Enter the Gateway Courses:

BIO-125 and CHE-125 are the first courses taken in the major. The standards required to take each of these courses are as follows:

BIO-125 - Completion of BIO-100 with a grade of "C" or better OR Math SAT 480 or above; OR CHE-110 with a grade of "C" or better.

CHE-125 - Completion of CHE-110 with a grade of "C" or better OR one year of high school chemistry and one of the following acceptable scores: Math SAT (480 or above) or RSAT Math (510 or above); or ACT Math (21 or above).

Biology Courses at Au Sable Institute

Indiana Wesleyan University is a participating university affiliated with Au Sable Institute for Environmental Studies near Mancelona, Michigan. The institute is located in the north woods country of Michigan's Lower Peninsula. Its property fronts on a 215-acre oligotrophic lake and is surrounded on three sides by thousands of acres of state forests. The human and natural resources available to students through the Institute's programs in teaching and research are extensive and outstanding. Students interested in an outdoor/environmental emphasis in their major should ask their advisor about planning for this opportunity.

Indiana Wesleyan University students enrolling in these courses are eligible for fellowships and grants-in-aid when recommended by the Indiana Wesleyan/Au Sable Institute faculty representative.

Students registering at IWU for courses offered at Au Sable will use the current corresponding Au Sable course numbers. Complete, up-to-date course listings are available online. For more information: <http://www.ausable.org>.

Biology - A.S.

Associate of Science

The Associate of Science degree requirements are the same as the Biology minor (p. 240).

Biochemistry Major

The Indiana Wesleyan University Chemistry Department offers a Bachelor of Science degree in Biochemistry (p. 242).

Biology Education Major

See the education section of the catalog for specific requirements for the Biology Education (p. 198) major.

Medical Technology - B.S.

Purpose

The Indiana Wesleyan University Biology Department offers a four-year Bachelor of Science Medical Technology (MTE) program. The student is prepared to perform medical laboratory tests that reveal the presence or absence of abnormalities of the blood and other body fluids.

Program graduates are eligible to take the appropriate national registry examination and are qualified for employment in hospital laboratories, government medical laboratories, medical research laboratories, clinics, and health care centers.

General Education Competencies

Students in this major meet the general education competencies by taking the approved standard courses.

Standards Required to Enter the Gateway Courses:

BIO-125 and CHE-125 are the first courses taken in the major. The standards required to take each of these courses are as follows:

BIO-125 - Completion of BIO-100 with a grade of "C" or better OR Math SAT 480 or above; OR CHE-110 with a grade of "C" or better.

CHE-125 - Completion of CHE-110 with a grade of "C" or better OR one year of high school chemistry and one of the following acceptable scores: Math SAT (480 or above) or RSAT Math (510 or above); or ACT Math (21 or above).

Requirements

A Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Medical Technology (MTE) requires a minimum of three years of university study and a full year of clinical experience in an approved hospital. Indiana Wesleyan University will accept 12 months of clinical experience successfully completed in a hospital-based medical technology program or clinical laboratory science program that is accredited by NAACLS (National Association of Accreditation for Clinical Laboratory Sciences). This 12-month clinical experience is taken instead of the senior year at Indiana Wesleyan University and is considered equivalent to 32 semester hours of work in the major area of concentration. (It is the student's responsibility to gain admission to this hospital-based program. Said hospital may have health and program requirements that must be met at the student's own cost and expense.) When all specific requirements for the degree are met, including the 12 months of hospital experience, candidates will be awarded the Bachelor of Science degree and will be eligible to take the national registry examination of the ASCP (American Society of Clinical Pathologists) and/or the NCA (National Certification Agency).

Chemistry Programs

Purpose

The Chemistry major is designed to provide the student with a general background in chemistry and to develop skills so that one is prepared for (1) graduate studies in chemistry; (2) entrance into professional schools such as medicine, dentistry, optometry, pharmacy, or veterinary medicine; (3) entry-level positions in chemical research laboratories or environmental control laboratories; and (4) chemistry teaching positions.

General Education Competencies

The general education speech and intercultural requirements can be met by enrolling in COM-100, Principles of Communication, and any intercultural activity approved by the general education committee. For chemistry majors/minors, a grade of "C" is required in all chemistry and required cognate courses. Non-majors must obtain a grade of "C" in all prerequisite coursework. Only courses numbered 125 or higher will be counted toward the major or minor.

Biochemistry - B.S.

Purpose

Biochemistry is an exciting, cutting-edge field which directly works with the biomolecules needed for life's processes. The Biochemistry major is designed to integrate the Christian perspective into a rigorous background and training in biochemistry and to develop skills so that the student is well prepared for a wide variety of options in chemistry and the life sciences. The primary options include (1) entrance into graduate school to obtain a master's or Ph.D. degree in biology, biochemistry, chemistry, molecular biology, pharmacology, or the biomedical sciences — an option that prepares the student for a research and/or teaching career; (2) entrance into professional schools such as medicine, dentistry, optometry, pharmacy, or veterinary medicine; (3) entry-level positions in biochemical and related discipline research laboratories in academia or the pharmaceutical industry; and (4) entrance into a combined degree program such as an M.D.-Ph.D. program — an option that prepares the student for a clinical research and/or teaching career.

For students wishing to complete the Biochemistry major as part of a Pre-Med program curriculum, it is advised that they have extremely strong aptitudes in math and chemistry. Students choosing this path must successfully complete the rigorous Biochemistry core plus complete key electives from the Biology major offerings in order to prepare for the professional school admission tests. These key electives typically include BIO-311, BIO-312, BIO-412, BIO-213, and BIO-440. As a result, completing the Biochemistry major with a competitive GPA for professional school admission requires exceptional abilities. Medical and other health care professions schools do not look upon a Biochemistry degree with more favor than a Biology or Chemistry degree. Instead, nationally standardized admissions test scores (e.g., the MCAT, DAT, and GRE) and GPA are given priority in admission decisions. These factors should be considered very carefully before pursuing the Biochemistry major/Pre-Med program path.

Bachelor of Science Requirements

A Bachelor of Science degree in Biochemistry requires 68 hours of coursework in the Division of Natural Sciences and the Division of Mathematics and Computer Information Sciences. A grade of "C" or better is required for all courses. The following courses must be included in the major:

Physics Programs

Physics Major - B.S.

The B.S. degree in Physics is intended for those entering graduate or professional schools in engineering and medicine. It is also excellent preparation for entry-level careers in physics, engineering and other allied fields. The Physics Major program will prepare students for employment in a wide variety of jobs in the field of STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math). The program gives students a broad and deep level of physical insight, critical and analytical thinking, mathematical and computational facility, and experimental ability. This major may be combined with other programs such as Pre-Med or education for those students intending on a career in the medical profession or teaching.

B.S. Degree Requirements: A total of 58 credit hours of physics, mathematics, and chemistry are required. A minimum of 38 credit hours must be in physics. In addition, 20 credit hours are required in selected mathematics and chemistry courses. At the discretion of the Physics Department, a student's four-year plan of study may include taking upper level physics coursework in conjunction with Taylor University classes. Access to these courses will be available either through internet-based technology or personal transportation. Taylor University is approximately 20 minutes away by car. Due to differences in academic calendars between IWU and Taylor University, fall semester courses will be preferentially (but not exclusively) selected and will require physics majors to start Taylor courses approximately one week earlier than their corresponding IWU courses. Taylor U. courses will not be transcribed as transfer courses but as IWU courses at Taylor U.; therefore, these courses will not represent a challenge to the policy requiring the last 30 hours must be taken at IWU. Students are responsible for any additional fees and/or transportation costs to and from Taylor U.

Physics Minor

A Physics minor provides an in-depth study of several major areas of physics, enabling students in different disciplines to understand and apply underlying principles. The problem-solving skills developed through the study of physics are as important as the conceptual understanding of the nature of physical quality.

A minor in Physics requires satisfactory completion ("C" or better) of at least 24 credit hours taken from the courses listed below.

Pre-Engineering Program

See the Mathematics section of the catalog for specific information regarding the Pre-Engineering Program (p. 256).

Pre-Medical Science Programs

- Pre-Chiropractic Medicine*
- Pre-Dentistry
- Pre-Medicine (Allopath/Osteopath)
- Pre-Occupational Therapy*
- Pre-Optometry
- Pre-Pharmacy
- Pre-Physician Assisting
- Pre-Podiatry
- Pre-Public Health
- Pre-Speech Pathology/Audiology
- Pre-Veterinary Medicine

A program in Pre-Medical Science consists of a combination of the Pre-Medical Science core courses AND the courses required for any other official university major. The Pre-Medical Science program leads to a Bachelor of Science degree and is designed to prepare the student for application to non-nursing health professional schools. Some professional schools may require additional coursework and/or observation experiences. Therefore, it is imperative that the students obtain the appropriate prerequisite requirements and related information from potential professional schools in a timely manner to allow them to work with their advisors to include these in their schedule. Also important to understand is that some types of professional schools (e.g. occupational therapy, physical therapy, physician assistant, and public health schools) do not require all of the pre-medical science core courses that IWU requires to meet the Pre-Med Program designation on IWU degree audits and diplomas. However, the IWU pre-medical core meets the rigorous standards of nearly all medical, dental, and veterinary medical schools in the United States.

* Students can pursue Pre-Chiropractic Medicine as Exercise Science or as Athletic Training majors. A formalized Pre-Occupational Therapy program is also available through the Exercise Science as well as Psychology majors at IWU. Similarly a Pre-Physical Therapy program exists in conjunction with the Exercise Science as well as Biology majors. Information regarding these Pre-Physical Therapy and Pre-Occupational Therapy programs is available from the Division of Health and Human Performance. Not indicated on the list of medical science programs is IWU's Medical Technology Program. More information regarding that program is housed in the Biology Programs section.

Program Requirements

Because high academic achievement is required for admission to health professional schools, the Division of Natural Sciences has developed minimum criteria for the Pre-Med Program designation on IWU degree audits and diplomas. Upon completion of the freshman year, students interested in maintaining the Pre-Med designation must achieve a minimum Pre-Med Core course GPA of 3.2 and a cumulative GPA of 3.2, complete a prescribed essay, and interview with the Pre-Med Committee. The essay and interview are administered as part of the PMD-110 course (Preparing the Christian Health Professional, completed by the student in the spring of his or her freshman year). Students whose Pre-Med Core course or cumulative GPA drops below 3.2 are encouraged to investigate, with the help of their academic advisor, alternative career paths. If the student does not eventually achieve the minimum Pre-Med Core course as well as the cumulative GPAs, the Residential Academic Services Office will drop the Pre-Med designation from the degree audit and diploma on graduation.

Transfer Students

Transfer students wishing to have the Pre-Med Program designation on their degree audit and diploma will need to demonstrate that they meet the GPA requirements in core courses and overall completed courses based on applicable classes at previous accredited institutions. All subsequent decisions as to retention in the Pre-Med Program will be based on IWU courses only. These students should enroll in PMD-110 at their earliest opportunity.

General Education Requirements

Students in this major meet the general education competencies by taking the approved standard courses.

- Computer Science – A.S., B.S. (p. 251)

It is an exciting time to pursue the study of computers! It is difficult today to conceive of fields of human endeavor that have not been profoundly impacted by the growing use of computers throughout society. The computer's ability to store and process information has brought about amazing change in our daily lives and this will certainly continue in the coming years. The discipline of computing sciences itself has come of age. Beginning five decades ago as a specialization within mathematics or electrical engineering, computing has grown in scope and depth, having matured as a fully independent discipline in academics, with multiple fields of study and countless areas of emphases. Today, most projections reveal a future need for more computer oriented professionals than today's colleges and universities are supplying on a nationwide basis.

Here at IWU several programs of study in the computing sciences are offered to meet the career interests and God-given natural inclinations of different students. These are offered as two majors, Computer Science (CSC) and Computer Information Systems (CIS). Information systems are more on the applied side of the discipline, and a professional career in this field evokes an image of one whose work entails working with and around computers, but not necessarily centered in the business of computing. Computer science, by contrast, is more theoretical and lends itself to preparing for a career working directly in the computer industry. All computer majors consist of a common computing core, major specific requirements, an elective requirement within the topic of computing, and a senior year sequence. All of these majors prepare students to be problem solvers, helping to create and maintain software systems for the betterment of society.

Since Computer Information Systems (CIS) majors purpose to work in an industry or area of commerce that is not computer specific, CIS majors take a sequence of courses in an area of specialization. Students may elect to complete one of the approved course sequences in the disciplines of Business, Communications, Computer Graphics, or Internet Development, or to develop a personalized emphasis track in another discipline. Computer Science (CSC) majors complete a more demanding supporting course sequence in math and physics, and pursue computing theory to a greater depth.

Upper division courses specific to each major are available as electives to students majoring in other computing fields, along with other courses offered purely on an elective basis. All the majors develop an understanding of systematic problem-solving techniques and the systems approach to the design of solutions. Intentional focus is placed upon education, the training of the mind, rather than mere repetition of previously applied techniques. To that end, all computing majors are exposed to a variety of high level computer programming languages. All required courses require a grade of "C" or better, and all prerequisite courses must be passed with a grade of "C" or better to qualify for following courses. No student may take two majors or a major and a minor within the Computer and Information Sciences Department.

The senior year experience course sequence gives students firsthand experience in creating an entire system from start to finish, and also points the way forward for further scientific inquiry and self-guided learning. IWU computing alumni have consistently rated this experience as extremely beneficial in finalizing their preparation for a professional career.

Programming for class assignments is done on a variety computer equipment as well as through software freely available for installation on personally-owned machines. All of the computer classrooms and laboratories are served by both the wired campus computer network, and wireless network service. Additionally, each dormitory room has full connectivity to the campus network.

Recognizing that so much learning takes place outside of the classroom, faculty strive to develop personal relationships with the students and create scenarios that foster student interactions among themselves. These include social events, a student chapter of the professional society Association of Computing Machinery, and other opportunities to dialog with students in other majors across campus, as well as computing majors at other institutions. Across the curricula, students are encouraged towards professionalism, a view of their future not so much as one of employment, but as a career in computing, serving Jesus Christ by changing their world through technology.

General Education Competencies

Students in this major meet the general education competencies by taking the approved standard courses.

Computer Information Systems - B.S.

Requirements for CIS

The CIS major is designed as an applied major. Each student majoring in CIS takes a core of common courses, plus approved elective courses. Additionally, each student selects and completes a companion track in a complementary discipline. At present, designated tracks include business, communications, computer graphics, and Internet development. Additionally, a student may elect an independent track in another appropriate discipline and work with an academic advisor from that department to design a set of supporting courses in support of a CIS major.

Requirements (51-56 credits)

Required Courses (33-35 credits)

CIS-125	Introduction to Computer Sciences I	4
CIS-126	Introduction to Computer Sciences II	4
CIS-221	Data Structures	4
CIS-222	Object Oriented Programming	4
CIS-225	Systems Analysis	3

CIS-250	Internet Programming	3
CIS-440	Advanced Internet Concepts	3
DES-201	DC3: User Experience Design	3
DES-305	Interface Design	3

Working with an advisor from another academic department, the student may design an appropriate set of courses from another discipline.

Computer Science - B.S.

Requirements for CSC

The CSC major is designed as an advanced major. Each student majoring in CSC takes a core of common courses, plus approved elective courses. Additionally, each student completes supporting courses in mathematics. The CSC major requires a greater depth of mathematics skill for the entering student.

Requirements (60 credits)

Required Core Courses (38 credits)

CIS-125	Introduction to Computer Sciences I	4
CIS-126	Introduction to Computer Sciences II	4
CIS-221	Data Structures	4
CIS-222	Object Oriented Programming	4
CIS-320	Introduction to Software Engineering	3

Computer Science - A.S.

Two-year Associate Degree

The requirements for an associate degree in Computer Science are the same as those listed for the Computer Science Minor (p. 251).

Mathematics Programs

Mathematics Education Major

See the education section of the catalog for specific requirements for the Mathematics Education (p. 195) major.

Mathematics - Interdisciplinary - B.S.

Purpose

The math-interdisciplinary major is designed for students planning to work in a non-teaching career. This flexible major is prompted by high demand for mathematicians able to solve challenging, ill-defined, large-scale and cross-disciplinary problems.

General Education Competencies

Students in this major meet the general education competencies by taking the approved standard courses.

Requirements

A mathematics-interdisciplinary major requires core math courses, electives, and supporting courses. Students are required to complete a major or minor in a related area and to do a practicum/internship (an independent learning course may be substituted if the student is unable to find a practicum placement).

Requirements (51-55 credits)

Required courses (37 credits)

MAT-204	Applied Statistics I	3
MAT-223	Introduction to Mathematics Via Discrete Processes	3
MAT-253	Calculus I	4
MAT-254	Calculus II	4
MAT-255	Calculus III	4
MAT-280	Linear Algebra	3
MAT-282	Transition to Advanced Mathematics	4
MAT-322	Mathematical Modeling I	3
MAT-353	Differential Equations	3

MAT-363	Mathematical Statistics I	4
MAT-490	Math Senior Seminar	2

Choose one of the following: (3 credits)

MAT-344	Modern Abstract Algebra	3
MAT-456	Elementary Real Analysis	3

Choose one of the following: Practicum/ Internship recommended (1-3 credits)

MAT-475	Independent Learning-Mathematics	1 to 3
MAT-485	Mathematics Internship	1 to 3
MAT-495	Research in Mathematics	1 to 4
	Practicum in area of minor	1-3

Choose one additional MAT elective above MAT-315 from the following: (3-4 credits)

MAT-324	Mathematical Modeling II	4
MAT-333	Modern Geometry	3
MAT-344	Modern Abstract Algebra	3
MAT-351	Financial Mathematics I	3
MAT-364	Mathematical Statistics II	3
MAT-373	Numerical Analysis	3
MAT-396	Advanced Studies in Mathematics	1 to 3
MAT-404	Introduction to Statistical Learning With R	3
MAT-444	Advanced Algebra	3
MAT-446	Advanced Calculus	3
MAT-455	Point Set Topology	3
MAT-456	Elementary Real Analysis	3
MAT-457	Complex Variables	3

Required Supporting Courses (7-8 credits)

CIS-121	Introduction to Programming or	3
CIS-125	Introduction to Computer Sciences I	4
PHY-221	University Physics I	4

PHY-221: meets lab science requirement

Additional Requirement

Students are also required to complete either a second major (in any area) or a minor in one of the following areas:

Accounting
Actuarial Science
Biology
Business Administration
Chemistry
Computer Science Economics
Physics
Statistics

Mathematics - B.S.Purpose

The major in Mathematics is intended to provide students a solid foundation for pursuing further study in mathematics or equipping students for careers in education, industry, or government. It also is flexible enough to be combined with a wide variety of other majors, thus enhancing career choices, or used as preparation for fields such as engineering, medicine, or industrial mathematics.

General Education Competencies

Students in this major meet the general education competencies by taking the approved standard courses.

Requirements (55-57 credits)

Required Courses (40 credits)

Mathematics Minor

Requirements

As many professionals use mathematical concepts in their work, a minor in Mathematics combined with other majors is an excellent preparation for future careers or graduate studies in such areas as statistics, computer science, economics, or business.

Courses (23-25 credits)

Core Courses (17 credits)

MAT-223	Introduction to Mathematics Via Discrete Processes	3
MAT-253	Calculus I	4
MAT-254	Calculus II	4
MAT-280	Linear Algebra	3
MAT-322	Mathematical Modeling I	3

Electives (6-8 credits)

Two MAT courses numbered 204 or above 253

Actuarial Science Minor

Requirements

Due to the necessary mathematics background, the minor in Actuarial Science is intended for students completing a Mathematics or Mathematics-Interdisciplinary major. Students may count only four hours of the MAT courses in the core below as electives toward their Mathematics or Mathematics-Interdisciplinary major. Students from other majors would first need to take prerequisite mathematics courses in order to complete this minor.

Courses (20-28 credits)

Core Courses (8-10 credits)

MAT-351	Financial Mathematics I	3
MAT-363	Mathematical Statistics I	4
MAT-485	Mathematics Internship	1 to 3

Electives (12-18 credits)

Choose four electives from the following:

ACC-201	Accounting Principles I	3
ECO-212	Microeconomics	3
ECO-213	Macroeconomics	3
FIN-210	Managerial Finance	3
MAT-204	Applied Statistics I	3
MAT-304	Applied Statistics II	3
MAT-404	Introduction to Statistical Learning With R	3
MAT-364	Mathematical Statistics II	3
MAT-404	Introduction to Statistical Learning With R	3

Prerequisites for FIN-210 are BUS-100 and ACC-201.

Statistics Minor

A statistics minor combined with other majors is excellent preparation for careers or graduate studies in a variety of fields including actuarial science; economics and business; the life, physical, and computing sciences; medicine; and the social sciences. Nearly all these fields have an increasing amount of data being collected, and a developed ability to analyze and solve problems is valued in any discipline. The number of required classes for this minor is kept low to allow students to choose electives most helpful in their own major.

Requirements

A minor in Statistics requires the following courses.

Courses (21-24 credits)

Choose one of the following: (3 credits)

BUS-320	Business Statistics	3
MAT-204	Applied Statistics I	3
MAT-305	Statistics for Social Sciences	3
	or
PSY-354	Statistics for Social Sciences	3
	or
SWK-354	Statistics for Social Sciences	3

Choose one of the following: (3 credits)

ECO-322	Research Design and Methods in Political Science and Economics	3
	or
POL-322	Research Design and Methods in Political Science and Economics	3
PSY-355	Research Methods for the Behavioral Sciences	3
	or
SOC-355	Research Methods for the Behavioral Sciences	3
MAT-370	Statistical Research Design I	3
MAT-404	Introduction to Statistical Learning With R	3

Choose one of the following tracks:Mathematics Major Track: (10-11 credits)

MAT-363	Mathematical Statistics I	4
MAT-364	Mathematical Statistics II	3

Choose one of the following electives:

CIS-126	Introduction to Computer Sciences II	4
ECO-212	Microeconomics	3
ECO-213	Macroeconomics	3
FIN-210	Managerial Finance	3
MAT-324	Mathematical Modeling II	4

Non-mathematics Major Track: (9-12 credits)Choose one of the following: (3-4 credits)

CIS-121	Introduction to Programming	3
CIS-125	Introduction to Computer Sciences I	4

Choose one of the following: (3-4 credits)

MAT-130	Applied Calculus	3
MAT-253	Calculus I	4

Choose one of the following: (3-4 credits)

CIS-126	Introduction to Computer Sciences II	4
MAT-223	Introduction to Mathematics Via Discrete Processes	3

Core Courses (6 credits)

MAT-304	Applied Statistics II	3
MAT-322	Mathematical Modeling I	3

Pre-engineering Program

The pre-engineering program is a prescribed set of coursework completed in two years at Indiana Wesleyan University with the expectation that the student will subsequently transfer to an engineering school to finish a bachelor's degree in at most three more years.

Students who complete the IWU pre-engineering program have the option of applying for admission as a transfer student to another engineering school, or they may remain at IWU to complete a bachelor's degree in a related area such as mathematics, chemistry, or computer science. Students should consult carefully with their pre-engineering advisor to ensure they enroll in the proper courses. The pre-engineering program includes concentrated coursework in mathematics, chemistry, physics, writing, and speaking, as well as general education courses.

School of Theology and Ministry

The School of Theology and Ministry seeks to provide an environment that allows each student to discover and begin to carry out God's calling for his or her life. Here one finds a faculty second to none. All are committed Christ-followers who live under the authority of God's Word, have a high respect for the Church, and love students. Combined, they bring over two centuries of practical church and para-church experience to the classroom. Our students, who represent over 40 denominations, can choose from any of our 16 majors and 16 minors, even combining them in very useful ways. Our classes are biblically and theological solid, and very practical. We offer many courses and many perspectives. You will love IWU's state-of-the-art facilities, and your classroom experience will be enriched by the many on- and off-campus activities offered by the School of Theology and Ministry. You will even have the opportunity to spend a summer or a semester studying abroad.

School of Theology and Ministry Programs

We provide programs of preparation for a variety of ministerial and academic careers. Ministerial programs include Children's Ministries (p. 264), Christian Education (p. 265), Christian Ministries (p. 267), Worship Arts (p. 276), Worship Studies-Music Ministry (p. 279), Worship Ministries (p. 278), Global Ministries (p. 272), Pastoral Counseling and Care (p. 273), Community Development (p. 269), Sports Ministries (p. 231), Pastoral Ministries (p. 263), Bible (p. 287), and Youth Ministries (p. 280). Programs in religious studies include Biblical and Theological Studies (p. 284), Biblical Literature (p. 286), Intercultural Studies (p. 289), and Philosophy and Theology (p. 292). Minors are also available in Adolescent Ministries, Biblical History and Geography (p. 287), Biblical Languages (p. 288), Bible (p. 287), Children's Ministries (p. 265), Christian Education (p. 266), Christian Ministries (p. 269), Christian Foundations (p. 288), Worship Studies (p. 280), Global Ministries (p. 273), Community Development (p. 271), Intercultural Studies (p. 291), Philosophy (p. 293), Theology (p. 293), Urban Ministries (p. 276) and Youth Ministries Minor (p. 281). Special programs include the Kern Ministry Program (p. 259) which offers both a bachelor's and a master's degree in Christian Ministries in five years, the Summer in Israel Program (p. 288) and other off-campus programs (see academic information section for a partial listing).

General Education Requirements

Students in these majors meet the general education competencies by taking the approved standard courses or meeting competencies except as otherwise noted.

Admission to Professional Majors

Admission to the majors within the Division of Practical Theology may require a formal screening process separate from the initial declaration of intent. The process includes the successful completion of the prescribed courses designated by each major. Students need to have a GPA of 2.25 cumulative and 2.5 in the coursework required for the major. Students must also file application forms including a written essay and references. In some cases a personal interview with school faculty may also be required. Enrollment in some advanced courses in the division is restricted to those admitted to these majors. A student needs to start the application to the major process by the end of their sophomore year (60 credit hours) and after the successful completion of the designated courses in his or her respective majors. Delay on this process will prohibit students from enrolling in advanced courses in their professional major.

Continuation in Professional Majors

Students must maintain a cumulative 2.25 GPA and a 2.50 academic GPA in coursework required for the major. Failure to do so may necessitate repeating courses or withdrawal from the major. The School of Theology and Ministry faculty reserves the right to request the withdrawal of any student who in its judgment fails to satisfy the standards of Christian character, moral integrity, and social fitness required for a professional minister.

Wesleyan Students

Students anticipating future service in The Wesleyan Church should include Wesleyan Church History/Discipline (REL-431) among their elective courses. The Christian Ministries and Pastoral Ministries majors are specifically designed to meet all the academic requirements for ordination in The Wesleyan Church. Any deviation from the course requirements should be approved in writing by both the Dean and the Executive Director of Education and Clergy Development for The Wesleyan Church. Students who are members of The Wesleyan Church should be in contact with their District Board of Ministerial Development (DBMD) prior to applying for admission to the professional majors.

Graduate Credits-in-Escrow

A senior who is currently enrolled at Indiana Wesleyan University and who is within the last semester of completing course requirements for the baccalaureate degree may, with the approval of the appropriate dean register for a maximum of two graduate courses per semester. Such students who desire to take additional graduate courses after earning the baccalaureate degree must follow the regular admission procedure.

Graduate courses may not be counted at Indiana Wesleyan University for both graduate and undergraduate requirements.

Advanced Standing with Credit

Graduates of undergraduate programs with relevant theological courses in Bible, theology, church history, and practical theology, and who enroll in the relevant graduate programs of the School of Theology and Ministry may receive advanced standing with credit on the basis of competence achieved in certain undergraduate courses. Advanced standing with credit may not exceed 25% of the total hours in the program. Advanced credit may be granted for the courses listed below under the following conditions:

1. The courses were taken at a regionally accredited or ABHE accredited institution. The School of Theology and Ministry reserves the right to determine whether or not courses are equivalent.
2. A student has received at least a "B" in the specific courses as indicated with at least one course on the 300 or 400 level and no course below the 200 level, and
3. The student successfully demonstrates competency of the required graduate course outcomes through either an oral or written assessment performed by a designated academic representative of the School of Theology and Ministry.

Kern Mentoring Program - B.S./A.B. to MPTh/MA

The Kern Mentoring Program is designed to better equip persons for a lifetime of ministry.

- Graduate with two degrees in five years, and to do so with less debt.
- Participate in programs and events designed for spiritual formation and leadership development.
- Receive additional coaching and mentoring in regards to your church placement and your 1st year in ministry.

Approved undergraduate programs for the Kern Mentoring Program include the following majors/combination of majors:

Christian Ministries - B.S.

Purpose

The major in Christian Ministries is the degree that contains the courses designed to prepare persons for pastoral ministry in the church. This is one of four majors which meet requirements for ordination in The Wesleyan Church; moreover, it is the primary major taken by students seeking ordination in other denominations. The major can be applied to either a Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Arts degree. The requirements for both degrees are quite similar. Additional courses in ancient languages are required for the Bachelor of Arts degree. Students anticipating further education beyond the baccalaureate degree are encouraged to consider the Bachelor of Arts degree as the preferred option.

Community Development - B.S.

Purpose

This major seeks to prepare students spiritually and with intellectual breadth to serve God and humanity as true world changers by equipping them with professional knowledge and skills for careers and graduate studies in community development (CDV).

The curriculum presents CDV in alignment with the generally accepted understanding of the field and primes students for graduate studies and employments in national and international relief and development agencies as well as in local church-based and community development organizations.

The basic premise of this major is that context determines content, thus worldviews shape the manner in which God's created resources are acknowledged, tended and utilized. This principle guides the way in which development programs approach the analysis and critique of the stewardship responsibilities of God's created resources in the local, national and global communities. Our students are therefore prompted to the biblical understanding of the world as God's creation and the role of the church in fulfilling the scriptural call for justice, peace and prosperity for all humanity. Students who plan to seek ordination in The Wesleyan Church or who plan to enroll in the MPTh must double major in Pastoral Ministries.

General Education Requirements

Students in this major meet the general education requirements when taking REL-240. Other general education requirements may be met depending on the student's specialization. Students should consult with an academic advisor for further information.

Pastoral Counseling and Care - B.S.

The Pastoral Counseling and Care program increases student awareness of human need and potential means of care in the context of the local church and/or chaplaincy programs. Pastoral counseling and care theories and practices are introduced and engaged, along with biblical, theological, and professional frameworks for ministry. Students who complete the program will be prepared to enter pastoral ministry and will be equipped to pursue graduate degrees in related fields. This major is not a pre-licensure program. Students who plan to seek ordination in The Wesleyan Church or who plan to enroll in the MPTh must double major in Pastoral Ministries.

Worship Arts - B.S.

Purpose

The Worship Arts major consists of a program of 47 credit hours. The core set of courses (31 credit hours) is taken in the School of Theology and Ministry; the remaining courses (16 credit hours) are taken within the division related to the student's area of emphasis. This program is designed to prepare a student to serve in a local church or other para-church ministry in worship leadership; it is also an excellent second major to enhance a student's training for other ministries. Students who plan to enroll in the MPTh Christian Ministries must take the Worship Ministries + Pastoral Ministries double majors.

General Education Requirements

Students in the Worship Arts major meet the general education requirements by taking WOR-238. The Worship Arts major fulfills general education by taking PSY-150 or 250, REL-365, REL-366 and REL-366P.

College of Adult and Professional Studies (CAPS)

CAPS was created to serve the adult population with a variety of programs designed to meet the educational needs of specific adult audiences. It is Indiana Wesleyan University's desire to understand the special requirements of adults who are interested in earning an Associate, Bachelor's, Master's, Education Specialist, or doctoral degree, but who must also continue meeting their professional and personal commitments. The programs in the college are designed for working adults by combining theory with practical experience. CAPS is made up of the following: DeVoe School of Business (p. 331), Division of Liberal Arts (p. 399), School of Educational Leadership (p. 494), and School of Service and Leadership (p. 436).

College of Adult and Professional Studies at a Glance

Mission

For wisdom will enter your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul. Proverbs 2:10.

The College of Adult and Professional Studies of Indiana Wesleyan University is a Christ-centered academic community committed to changing the world by developing adult students in character, scholarship, and leadership.

Objectives

The College of Adult and Professional Studies will engage in its mission by:

- Providing educational opportunities in professional areas within the liberal arts tradition.
- Aiding students in extending the range and nature of careers available to them.
- Challenging students to develop leadership abilities.
- Encouraging students to develop in character.
- Providing students with a comprehensive yet practical education through an intensive curriculum that draws on resources, theories, and knowledge from various disciplines.
- Leading students in acquiring the skills required for effective critical thinking.
- Extending educational opportunities to people whose occupations, family responsibilities, or personal preferences do not permit them to spend major blocks of time "in residence" on campus.
- Helping students understand the importance of the application of Christian principles in a professional environment.
- Cultivating an appreciation for scholarship among students and faculty.

Foundations

Adult Learning Theory

CAPS programs offer a challenging educational experience for adult learners. The curricular format is often accelerated, interaction among participants is emphasized, and teams play an important role in the learning process. Instructors bring a combination of academic training and professional experience into the classroom. As working adults, CAPS students have significant skills and experience to draw from and to share.

To make the most of these unique programs, those enrolled should be aware of the foundational beliefs concerning the education of adult learners that administrators and the faculty of CAPS believe are crucial to the learning experience. The following elements make the CAPS programs work:

Adult students are motivated to learn. Adults who return to school after spending time in the work force are typically ready to give the effort needed to learn. Because of this, learning proceeds much more quickly, and faculty do not have to spend time urging students to attend to their work. Indeed, accustomed to excellence at work, adults often labor to reach that same level of quality in their academic pursuits.

Adults have learned self-discipline. As a result of being in the work force and managing the complexities of both professional and personal responsibilities, adults have developed a sense of discipline that serves them well in the CAPS Programs. Assignments can be completed-and completed well-within narrow time frames despite busy schedules and varied work, family, church, and community responsibilities.

Adults have broad life experiences. Learning theory indicates that students learn by relating abstractions to memories of past experiences. For this reason, a person who has experienced a work environment is better able to absorb theoretical concepts. Drawing on a broad background of experiential knowledge allows adults to quickly grasp ideas.

Adults desire relevance. If students relate to a current task or contemporary problem, their ears “perk up” and brains “switch to high gear.” Because working adults encounter situations where their learning may be applied daily, they are more motivated and better able to learn.

Adults have developed skill in independent learning. To succeed in life, adults, by necessity, have learned to gather information on their own and process it independently. Thus, CAPS can rely on them to grasp more knowledge and skills on their own in the context of structured group and independent activities without having to rely on an instructor as a “fountain” from which all information flows.

Adults learn best when they are personally involved. The more active people are in their own learning, the better the learning. If students are only called upon to passively listen to instructors, little learning occurs. When students interact in small groups, engage in role play, solve problems, prepare projects, and apply techniques in the workplace, their learning is deep and retention is long. For this reason, CAPS seeks to create situations for active learning.

Adults have many insights of their own. As individuals go through life, they gain new perspectives and insights based on the events which have occurred around them. When a group of adults with varied backgrounds and work experiences come together, the accumulated knowledge and wisdom can be overwhelming. To rely solely on one instructor’s thoughts for the content of a course would impoverish the educational experience. For this reason, discussion is highly valued in CAPS classes.

Adults can direct their learning to fill in gaps in their knowledge. Reading and research outside the classroom allow students to close the gaps between their current knowledge and the knowledge necessary to meet CAPS course objectives. Adults are able to recognize when there is still much to learn, and have the discipline and learning skills to focus on those areas where they need to concentrate most.

Adults learn well in groups. Group learning is widely recognized as an effective learning process. Peers tutor each other, there is emotional support, and friendships develop in groups, all of which results in a positive climate for learning. Ideas and learning that would not have occurred individually occur in groups, resulting in the creation of synergy. Weaknesses in one student are offset by the strengths of others. Teamwork, cooperation, and leadership skills are fostered within groups.

Faculty

Indiana Wesleyan University is a community of Christian scholars whose mission is to integrate faith into every aspect of life. Therefore, in selecting candidates, the institution seeks academically qualified professionals who enjoy a vital personal relationship with Jesus Christ, and who are excited by the prospect of integrating faith and learning. Four primary criteria are considered in the screening of candidates: Christian mission congruence, academic qualification, professional experience, and the ability to facilitate adult learning.

CAPS recruits, trains, and schedules Christian professionals whose academic qualifications and workplace experiences equip them to provide adult learners with a stimulating classroom environment. In doing so, CAPS maintains a quality faculty for all its programs.

CAPS employs a core of full-time faculty who are responsible for instruction and curriculum development in core discipline areas. These individuals also mentor and develop adjunct faculty in their fields of study.

All adjunct faculty candidates are screened through a rigorous hiring process which includes a series of interviews and an assessment session. Once approved, faculty are assigned to a mentor and attend orientation workshops.

CAPS provides opportunities for its full-time and adjunct faculty to regularly network with one another through faculty meetings, development workshops, and focus groups.

CAPS - Policies and Regulations

The right is reserved to change any of the rules and regulations of the university at any time, including those relating to admission, instruction, and graduation. The right to withdraw curricula and specific courses, alter course content, change the calendar, and impose or increase fees similarly is reserved. All such changes are effective at such times as the proper authorities determine and may apply not only to prospective students but also to those already enrolled in the university.

Academic - CAPS

Academic Calendar - Courses in the College of Adult and Professional Studies are offered under the semester hour system but in a non-traditional academic calendar and through a variety of innovative modalities. Each program consists of specific courses that are taught in a modular format. Online classes meet in an asynchronous environment through the university's learning management system.

Catalog Governing Graduation - Students must meet the graduation requirements as stated in the university catalog under which they enrolled.

- Students who maintain continuous enrollment, who make normal progress toward a degree, and who earn their degree within a maximum of six years from the date of enrollment may meet the graduation requirements as stated in the catalog under which they enrolled.
- Students who withdraw from Indiana Wesleyan University for more than six months will meet the graduation requirements as stated in the catalog under which they resume enrollment.
- Students changing majors or programs must meet requirements as stated in the catalog that is current at the time they make such changes. The same holds true for students moving between schools and colleges.
- Students may at any time change from an earlier catalog to a subsequent current catalog, but must meet all requirements for graduation of that catalog. Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to modify the curriculum as necessary.

Program Requirements -

- Students can only be enrolled in one program at a time.
- Students are required to complete the first course of the core program with a passing grade in order to maintain enrollment. Each school determines the passing grade required for the specific programs within that school.
- Certain programs allow transfer credits. Undergraduate programs require a minimum of 30 credit hours of core courses to be met at Indiana Wesleyan University.

Academic Advising

The purpose of academic advising is to support students from enrollment to completion of degree requirements. Advisors help students understand all degree requirements and options to meet those requirements. Advisors also assist students in understanding policies and procedures, and communicating with departments such as Financial Aid and Accounting.

An academic advising team is assigned to each individual student and advises that student throughout the duration of his or her academic program. Advisors are available to meet one-on-one with students face to face, through email, by phone, or via video conference.

It is important that students maintain contact with their academic advising team in order to ensure timely progression toward degree completion as well as appropriate scheduling for maximum financial aid benefit.

Academic Standing

Academic Probation - Students enrolled in a CAPS program will be placed on probation if their core GPA at any time falls below:

- 2.00 for the associate programs
- 2.25-2.75 for baccalaureate programs (see specific program for required GPA)
- 3.00 for graduate programs
- 3.25 for doctoral programs

Students will be placed on probation if their cumulative GPA at any time falls below:

- 2.00 for the associate
- 2.00-2.75 for baccalaureate programs (see specific program for required GPA)
- 3.00 for graduate programs
- 3.25 for the doctoral program

Students are given two consecutive courses to satisfactorily raise their GPA. The GPA is reviewed after the second course, and if it has been successfully raised, the probationary status is removed. Academic suspension will result if the student's GPA is not successfully raised.

Academic Suspension - Academic suspension will result if:

- A student fails to clear the academic probationary status within the probationary period of two consecutive courses.
- A student has taken a core course twice and failed to achieve a satisfactory grade. When this occurs, the student is ineligible to reapply for admission into the program in which the course was repeated. (Exception: students may take ENG-140 and ENG-141 as many times as necessary to achieve a passing grade.)

In all cases, the suspension will occur once the grades have been recorded in the Registrar's Office. Students will be notified of the academic suspension in writing. Application for readmission may be made after six months. The application must be made in writing to the Dean of the specific school.

Doctoral students may have additional academic standing requirements for their specific program. Doctoral students should be sure and check for specific program requirements.

Academic Dismissal - Upon a second academic suspension in the same program, a student is dismissed from the university, and no longer eligible to earn a degree at that level. Students dismissed from an IWU associate's program may be admitted to IWU bachelor programs or higher at a later date if they meet the published admissions requirements. Students dismissed from an undergraduate program at IWU may be admitted to IWU graduate programs or higher at a later date if they meet the published admissions requirements. Students dismissed from a graduate program at IWU may be admitted to IWU doctoral programs at a later date if they meet the published admissions requirements. Students dismissed due to violation of the University Honesty, Cheating, Plagiarism, and Forgery Policy will not be admitted to any other IWU programs.

Admission and Registration

Indiana Wesleyan University welcomes applications for admission from any academically qualified person whose motivation is in keeping with the university's purposes. Admission is based on the careful review of all credentials presented by an applicant, but in no case is admission denied due to race, color, national origin, disability, religion, or sex.

Admission decisions are made without regard to disabilities. All prospective students are expected to present academic credentials that meet or exceed the minimum requirements for admissions. Prospective students with disabilities are not required to identify themselves to Admissions or Disability Services. However, those interested in receiving academic accommodations are encouraged to connect with Disability Services at 765-677-2257 or ADARrequest@indwes.edu as early as possible to allow for a review of documentation and the formulation of an accommodation plan.

Students are admitted in one of the following categories:

- Regular - Students who satisfactorily meet all requirements will be granted standard admission with no restrictions.
- Probation - A graduate student whose entering grade point average (GPA) falls below the minimum required by the program may be accepted on probation. Probationary status will be removed after the student has completed the first three courses of the core with a satisfactory GPA (3.0 for graduate students and 3.25 for doctoral students). In case of extended probation, the number of courses to be completed in order to change status will be determined by the Dean/Chair of the specific school/division. Any student failing to remove the probationary status will be academically suspended from the program.
- Provisional - Students whose files are incomplete may be accepted provisionally at the discretion of the Vice President for Student Services if it appears from the available documentation that eligibility for the program has been met. The student is given until the end of the first course to submit the required materials. Failure to meet the required deadline will result in the student being dropped from the roster and not being allowed to continue.
- Unclassified - Students not pursuing a university degree who want to take certain courses for special reasons may be accepted for a maximum of 18 hours of undergraduate work or 12 hours of graduate work. Students receiving an unclassified status must reapply for regular admission if they desire later to pursue a degree program.

International/Non-English Speaking Students - Students who do not speak English as their first and primary language must take the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or The International English Language Testing System (IELTS) prior to admission to Indiana Wesleyan University (IWU).

The IWU required admission scores are listed below, unless otherwise specified by the area of study:

- TOEFL score of 79 for undergraduate, 85 for master's programs, and 95 for doctorate programs.
- IELTS score of 6.5 for undergraduate and master's programs, score of 7 for doctorate programs.

Please note that schools or programs within IWU may require a higher score and/or additional requirements. Please confirm with your area of study to determine specific requirements.

IWU offers a Waiver option in place of the required TOEFL or IELTS scores.

Waiver qualifications are:

- Attended four full years at a U.S. high school.
- Attended four full years in an international educational institution where English is the principal language of instruction; institution may be required to provide verification.
- Earned an SAT Reading Test subscore of at least a 27.
- Earned ACT English and Reading scores of at least 20.
- Earned a bachelor's degree or higher from a college or university accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA).

Additional Requirements for all International Students:

Before the immigration form I-20 can be sent, students from all countries must send to the University a letter of financial commitment with certified bank statements, or other official documents, indicating sufficient funds for attendance.

In addition, prior to first day of class all students from all countries must send to IWU proof of health insurance coverage in the U.S.

Please note all students must provide payment for tuition and fees and room and board (if applicable) for the student's first academically enrolled term as defined by the program's payment policy.

Registration - Registration occurs at the beginning of the student's program. At this point, students are registered for all courses within the program. Therefore, if a student needs to miss an individual course/intensive visit, official withdrawal must be made through the Office of Student Services. Staff will work with the student to make arrangements to retake this class at a time that will minimize the impact on the student academic progress.

A student who has failed to make arrangements for the payment of tuition for a course will have registration in that course cancelled.

Alcohol, Illegal Drugs, and Firearms

Alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, and firearms are not permitted on Indiana Wesleyan University premises, including rented classrooms and any building or parts of buildings owned or operated by Indiana Wesleyan University. Refusal to comply may result in dismissal from the university.

Audit of Courses

A student who has been accepted into an Indiana Wesleyan University degree program or as an unclassified student may choose to audit specified courses within a core program or electives as follows:

- Audit registration is allowed on a space available basis.
- The current audit fee ($25 per credit hour) and the technology fee ($85 per course) must accompany the registration.
- Auditing a course gives one the right to attend the course. No credit or letter grade is given. The course will be indicated as an "AU" on the student's IWU transcript.
- The student auditing the course is not expected to participate in classroom or project team assignments, or to complete homework, quizzes, or tests.
- The faculty member is under no obligation to grade any work an auditing student chooses to submit or to give feedback on progress.
- The materials required for the course are not provided. Students desiring textbooks must purchase them on their own.
- The student must meet course pre-requisites or be approved by the appropriate administrator of the specific college/school.
- No change may be made from audit to credit, or credit to audit, after registration closes.

Changing Programs or Majors

Students desiring to change programs or majors may do so by completing the change of program form found on the student portal (myiwu.indwes.edu). Change of programs will be processed under the following requirements:

- The student must be accepted into the new desired program.
- There must not be any current financial holds on the student's record.
- The requirements as stated in the current catalog will apply to the student's new program.

Computer Requirements

Students are expected to possess a computer throughout the duration of their program. Student computers must be able to run a supported browser and handle additional plug-ins as identified by the Learning Management System (LMS) company. Students should be able to produce, send, and receive documents that are compatible within the two most recent offerings of Microsoft Office to complete most of the assignments. IWU will offer support to students on only these two offerings of office software. Computer and Internet connection may need to be fast enough in some courses to watch streaming videos, participate in live meetings, upload large files, install software, and listen to audio lectures. In addition to these minimum expectations, participation in a CAPS course or program may entail additional computing and/or technology requirements.

Degree Requirements

Associate Degree

- Completion of foundational requirements, specified general education requirements, and core requirements.
- Cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher.

Baccalaureate Degree

- Completion of 120 semester hours.
- Cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher (2.5 for Social Work, 2.75 Early Childhood).
- Completion of core requirements with a GPA of 2.25 or higher (2.50 for Biblical Studies, 2.50 for Addictions Counseling, 2.70 for Social Work, 2.75 Early Childhood).
- Completion of 30 hours of general education requirements as specified.
 - Undergraduate programs require a minimum of 30 credit hours of core courses to be met at Indiana Wesleyan University.

Graduate Degree

- Completion of core requirements.
- Cumulative graduate GPA of 3.0 or higher.
- A grade of "C" or higher in each course. Some programs require a grade higher than a "C."

Doctorate Degree

- Completion of core requirements.
- Successful completion of the dissertation.
- Cumulative GPA of 3.25 or higher.
- A grade of "B-" or higher in each course.

See each program listing for individual program requirements.

In addition to the above, all degree candidates must settle all financial obligations in order to receive their diploma.

General Education Requirements - In addition to the regular core curriculum (major), a 30-credit general education core is required of all bachelor undergraduate students. Bachelor core courses that fall into general education categories may not be used to fulfill both the core requirement and the general education requirement.

Minors - Bachelor degree students may take a minor subject as noted in each department. Most minor programs require at least 18-24 hours in the subject area. Each department offering the minor may specify required courses. A grade point average of 2.0 or higher, or as defined in each minor, must be earned in courses specified in the minor. No more than three hours of credit may be shared between a minor and a certificate. A maximum of six hours of credit may be shared between a minor and a major if permitted by the programs of study.

Second Majors - A second major may be declared with the Office of Student Services by any current student. A student must earn a minimum of 51 unique (unduplicated hours) between the two majors. No more than six hours of credit may be shared between a major and a certificate. A maximum of six hours of credit may be shared between a minor and a major if permitted by the programs of study.

After graduating with a baccalaureate degree, a student may add a major by completing the requirements of the major subject as listed in the current catalog. If no additional coursework in the proposed added major have been taken within 10 years of graduation, a minimum number of nine new credits in the major are required. New general education requirements will not need to be met to post an additional major. Students adding a second major are not eligible to participate in graduation again.

Graduate students may add a second major by completing the requirements of the major subject as listed in the current catalog and completing a minimum of 15 additional credit hours past the first major. Students adding a second major are not eligible to participate in graduation again.

Second Degrees - If an Indiana Wesleyan University graduate wishes to return to the university to earn a second degree at the same degree level, he or she may do so if pursuing a different degree and major. All current requirements for the second degree must be met, including general education requirements, and at least 30 additional semester hours must be taken.

Engagement Policy

Because of the delivery method of adult and graduate programs, engagement is required and monitored. Student engagement is monitored by activity in the learning management system (Brightspace). Engagement is defined as:

- Posting in a discussion
- Submission of an assignment
- Completion of a test or quiz

Students who have not engaged (as defined above) in a class for 21 consecutive days will be withdrawn from the class. Students will be withdrawn from the entire program if the program is a lock-step program, the 21-day non-engagement course is a prerequisite to other courses, or upon the second consecutive withdrawal for non-engagement.

Students who must miss a course due to unavoidable circumstances must arrange for a withdrawal with the Office of Student Services prior to the beginning of the course. Students needing to withdraw while in a course may do so by arrangement with the Office of Student Services prior to the end of the course, but the regular refund and academic withdrawal policies apply.

Faculty members reserve the right to factor lateness, early departures, and class engagement into a student's grade, as long as it is addressed in the syllabus.

See the Department of Leadership Studies (p. 480) for the specific attendance requirements of the Ph.D. program.

Expectations for Personal and Professional Conduct

Indiana Wesleyan University is a Christian university of higher education that upholds high standards of personal and professional conduct. Such standards include a classroom environment that promotes a positive learning environment and a professional instructional climate.

Students are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner with respect for the rights of both students and faculty. The university or its representatives reserve the right to act in situations where student behavior violates established policy or detracts from the ability of students or faculty to function effectively in the classroom. Such action may include disciplinary procedures issued by the faculty, suspension from the program, or expulsion from the University. (NOTE: All discussion room and live chat postings for online courses are recorded and can be reviewed at the discretion of the university.)

Only regularly enrolled students may attend class unless granted permission by an administrator and arrangements are made with the instructor.

Former Student Re-Enrollment

Students who have previously withdrawn from a program and have not attended classes for six months or more must complete an application for readmission from the Office of Student Services. Receipt of the application will initiate a review of the student's academic file to determine remaining requirements. A student who was academically suspended from an adult and graduate program may make application for readmission after six months. Students dismissed due to violation of the University Honesty, Cheating, Plagiarism, and Forgery Policy will not be admitted to any other IWU programs. All students returning after six months or more will be required to meet the graduation requirements as stated in the catalog under which they resume enrollment.

Former Indiana Wesleyan University students from the traditional programs who wish to apply to a program must go through the regular adult program admission procedure. Students who were academically suspended from the traditional campus and wish to apply to an adult program must meet the following criteria:

- All other program admission criteria met.
- At least two years have passed since the suspension OR the student has successfully completed 12 hours elsewhere.

- There are no other holds on the student's record.

General Education Requirements (AS Integrative Studies) and Student Learning Outcomes

General Education Requirements - For all concentrations within the Integrated Studies associate degree program, a 30-credit general education core is required which includes:

- Three semester credits in Biblical Studies.
- Six semester credits in English Written Communication.
- Three semester credits in English Oral Communication.
- Six semester credits in Social or Behavioral Sciences.
- Three semester credits in Mathematics.
- Three semester credits in Natural Sciences.
- Six semester credits in Arts and Humanities.

General Education Learning Outcomes

- Christian Faith and Character – Students can demonstrate character by expressing knowledge of Christian faith.
- Written Communication – Students can write clearly and effectively using language that is context and audience appropriate.
- Oral Communication – Students can communicate orally through well-prepared, purposeful presentations and interactions.
- Quantitative Literacy – Students can solve quantitative problems from a variety of authentic contexts presented in a variety of formats.
- Critical Thinking – Students can comprehensively analyze issues, ideas, artifacts, and events before accepting or formulating an opinion or conclusion.
- Teamwork – Students can collaboratively direct value-adding behaviors toward team objectives and tasks.
- Digital Literacy – Students can apply credible information from digital resources to answer questions, solve problems, and make decisions.
- Scientific Ways of Knowing – Students can apply scientific ways of knowing through observation and explanation using logical arguments and empirical standards.
- Social, Behavioral, and Historical Ways of Knowing – Students can apply social, behavioral, or historical ways of knowing to shape personal, civic, and global responsibilities.
- Humanistic and Artistic Ways of Knowing – Students can apply humanistic and artistic ways of knowing to analyze creative thought and forms of expression.

Indiana Statewide Transfer General Education Core (STGEC)

Indiana Wesleyan University participates voluntarily in the Indiana STGEC program in order to serve students who begin their studies at other schools. The Indiana STGEC is a block of 30 credit hours, defined individually by each participating Indiana educational institution, that fulfills six specific general education competencies. Participating schools agree to certify transferring students who have completed the core and to honor the certification of other schools regarding transfer students. A student completing the core at any participating institution is counted as having completed the core at every other participating institution, even though the courses are not identical.

Students presenting a transcript with completion of STGEC noted will meet all of the general education requirements stated above with the exception of three semester credits in Biblical Studies. A Bible course must be accepted in transfer or taken at Indiana Wesleyan University in order to fulfill this requirement.

General Education Requirements (AS) and Student Learning Outcomes

General Education Requirements - In addition to the regular core curriculum (major), a 24-credit general education core is required of associate students enrolled in IWU-National and Global education programs. This 24-credit general education core includes:

- Three semester credits in Biblical Studies.
- Six semester credits in English Written Communication.
- Three semester credits in English Oral Communication.
- Three semester credits in Social or Behavioral Sciences.
- Three semester credits in Mathematics.

Grade Appeal and Academic Policy Grievance

Indiana Wesleyan University follows generally accepted college and university practice in the development of academic policies, the operation of classrooms, and use of grading techniques. The university allows its instructors independence in following generally accepted practices. A student who wishes to appeal a course grade or an academic policy decision (including one believed to be discriminatory based on race, national origin, color, sex, disability, or age, including Title VI, Title IX, and Section 504), must abide by the procedures that follow.

Each stated time frame will be the ordinary process. More time may be necessary in the event of a lengthy investigation, hearing, illness, or other unforeseen circumstances. All grievances, with all documents, recommendations, and decisions, will be reported to the Vice President of Regional Education and External Relations. Because the appeal process is a private university administrative process, legal counsel or representation is inappropriate.

Grade Appeal

A grade appeal involves only those situations in which a student believes that an instructor (a) has not followed fair grading practice or (b) has not followed his or her published grading policy. A student who wishes to appeal a grade based on one or both of these reasons must follow these procedures:

- The student must first contact the instructor for a full explanation of the grade given and the basis for making the grade.
- If there is no resolution, then the student may file a grade appeal request form, which can be obtained from the Regional Dean/Program Director or Chair. If a properly completed grade appeal request form is not received by the university within 30 days of the date the student's grade was sent, then the student will forfeit any further right to appeal.
- After the university receives the grade appeal request form, it will be forwarded to the instructor along with a faculty grade appeal response form.
- If the instructor agrees that the grade should be changed, the university will change the grade and notify the student.
- If the instructor does not agree that the grade should be changed, the university will notify the student and send a form that may be used by the student to request a review by the Academic Appeals Committee. If the university does not receive the form from the student within 15 days of the date the form was sent, then the student will forfeit any further right to appeal.
- Upon receipt of the request for committee review from the student, the matter will be brought to the next regularly scheduled Academic Appeals Committee meeting. (NOTE: The committee reserves the right to seek clarification from the student or the instructor). If the matter involves a member of the committee, then that individual will recuse himself/herself from deciding the appeal. The committee will notify the student of its decision, which will be final.

Academic Policy Grievance

An academic policy grievance involves those situations in which a student believes that the university has not followed published policies regarding an academic decision or discrimination based on race, national origin, color, sex, disability, or age, including Title VI, Title IX, and Section 504. A student who wishes to file an academic policy grievance must follow these procedures:

- Level 1 - The student must first contact the person who has made the decision for a full explanation of the policy and how the policy was followed. If the policy has been followed, then the student has no further recourse.

- Level 2 - If the policy was not followed or the student disputes the way in which the policy was applied, then the student may request that the matter be reviewed by the Regional Dean/Program Director or Chair by filing a form requesting such a review. This form may be obtained from the Regional Dean/Program Director or Chair. If the complaint involves the Regional Dean/Program Director or Chair, the student may request that the Dean of the relevant school review the matter. If a properly completed form is not received by the university within 30 days of the date on which the event that gave rise to the complaint occurs, then the student will forfeit any further right to appeal. The Regional Dean/Program Director or Chair (or, if applicable, the Dean of the relevant school) will notify the student of the decision.
- Level 3 - If the matter is not satisfactorily resolved, then the student may request that the Academic Appeals Committee review the matter by filing a form requesting a committee review. This form may be obtained from the Associate Vice President/Deputy Title IX Officer - IWU-National and Global. If the university does not receive a properly completed form within 15 days of the date on which the decision notice in level two was sent, then the student will forfeit any further right to appeal. The Academic Appeals Committee will notify the student of its decision, which will be final.

A student may seek recourse from any university nonacademic program or employment-related dispute, alleged discrimination on the basis of race, national origin, color, sex, disability, or age, including alleged violation of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Educational Amendments Acts of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, or other state or federal legislation. Further direction for this process can be found at Non-Academic Appeal Process (p. 18).

Grading and Evaluation

A letter grade is used in evaluating the work for a course. For the purpose of determining scholastic standing and awarding honors, grade points are granted according to the letter grades and semester hours of credit. The grade point average (GPA) is the number of quality points earned at IWU divided by the number of credit hours attempted at IWU.

Grade	Quality Points (per credit)
A	4.0
A-	3.7
B+	3.3
B	3.0
B-	2.7
C+	2.3
C	2.0
C-	1.7
D+	1.3
D	1.0
F	.0

The following grades are not figured into the GPA:

W

Repeated Courses -A student may repeat once any undergraduate course in which a grade below "C" ("C-," "D+," "D," or "F") was previously earned. CAPS graduate students with a cumulative GPA below the minimum required by their program for graduation, may retake once, at their option, any class in which they earned below a "B-."

Whenever a course is repeated, the last grade and credits earned replace the previous grade in computing the student's grade point average (GPA). All entries, however, remain a part of the student's permanent academic record. Duplicate credit hours are not given for two or more passing efforts. Since a course may be repeated once, failure to achieve a satisfactory grade in a course after two attempts will result in academic suspension and ineligibility to complete the major in which the course was repeated.

Incomplete Grades - Students are expected to complete the course requirements by the last class session. There may be instances when crisis circumstances or events prevent the student from completing the course requirements in a timely manner. However, the issuance of an incomplete cannot be given if the student fails to meet the engagement requirements. In these rare situations, a grade of "I" (incomplete) may be issued but only after completing the following process:

- The student must request an "I" from the instructor.
- The instructor must obtain approval from the appropriate Regional Dean/Program Director/Program Chair/Division Chair.

Because "incompletes" are granted only for extenuating circumstances, the student's grade will not be penalized.

A student who receives an "incomplete" has 10 weeks from the ending date of the course to complete course requirements and turn them in to the instructor. If, at the end of the 10-week extension, the student has failed to complete the course requirements in order to receive a passing grade, the "incomplete" will become an "F." A student with more than one incomplete on record is subject to academic suspension. (Some programs have different incomplete requirements; see specific program page for detailed information.)

Grade Reports - At the end of each course, the instructor submits grades for each student. Grade reports are available online to the student and indicate courses taken, credits received, and grades assigned.

Transcripts - The student's official transcript is prepared by the Indiana Wesleyan University Registrar's Office and will show the course, grade, credit, and dates of instruction for each course. Transcripts will include undergraduate and graduate work with the GPA divided into undergraduate and graduate calculations. Requests for transcripts of coursework at Indiana Wesleyan University must conform with the Privacy Act of 1974, which requires that all transcript requests be submitted in writing and signed by the student, for protection of the student's confidentiality. A transcript is official only when it bears the university seal.

It is university policy not to release a transcript if the student has any financial holds on their record or if he or she is delinquent on any loan received through Indiana Wesleyan University. A $5 fee is charged for each transcript, with an additional $2.50 Parchment ordering fee. Payment must be provided, along with a complete address to which the transcript is to be delivered. Please provide a current address if request is to be sent to student's home. Transcript requests can be accessed by visiting <http://www.indwes.edu/Academics/Registrar/Transcript> and submitting the request through the ordering service.

Graduation

Graduation Ceremonies - IWU graduation ceremonies are held two times a year in April and December. Degrees are conferred and posted to the student's transcript on these dates. Four additional conferral dates in February, June, August, and October are available in between the graduation ceremonies in which degrees may be conferred and posted to the student's transcript should all requirements be completed.

Eligible students are notified by the Office of Student Services of procedures and requirements concerning graduation. Students who have met graduation requirements before February 1 would walk in the previous December. Students who have met graduation requirements before September 1 would walk in the previous April.

Each student must complete an "Application for Graduation" provided by the Office of Student Services. This application indicates the student's intent to graduate and initiates the final evaluation of the student's academic record.

Students are also asked to inform the university as to whether they will be attending the ceremony. This allows the university to determine the number of tickets available for students who are attending. If a student cannot attend graduation due to unforeseen circumstances, the degree is still conferred.

Graduation Requirements - All requirements must be met and transcribed by the date established by the Office of Student Services (at least one week prior to the desired conferral date). Students taking internal or external coursework need to make sure that transcripts, grades, and scores can be received and transcribed by the deadline date.

Students may receive one degree only per conferral. Any university-approved dual degree program is an exception to this policy.

Students who have received a degree from IWU and have returned to meet requirements for an additional major at the same degree level will have the second major posted to their existing degree. The second major can only be posted at one of the six conferral dates, and students receiving the second major are not eligible to participate in another graduation ceremony.

Academic Honors (Baccalaureate Candidates) - Academic Honors are recognized at graduation ceremony to baccalaureate degree candidates with the identified grade point averages listed below. Academic Honors are not awarded to associate's or master's degree students. Academic Honors are based upon the student's grade point average (GPA). It should be noted that the Honors GPA includes transfer grades and as a result may differ from a student's cumulative GPA. Academic Honors listed in the graduation ceremony program are based on all IWU academic work and all transfer work completed at the time the ceremony program is printed. Academic Honors listed on the official transcript and diploma will reflect all applicable academic work at the time of conferral. Academic Honors are awarded based on the following criteria:

- A minimum of 80 graded hours from a college or university accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (USDE) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA).
 - NOTE: Credit from Sophia, Straighterline, military, foreign institutions, testing, PLA and any other types of assessed learning does not count toward this requirement.
- A minimum of 40 graded hours must be from Indiana Wesleyan University.
- For transfer students, all graded hours transferred and transcribed are counted.
- For students with transfer work, the Indiana Wesleyan University GPA will appear on the transcript and the Grade Report; the Honors GPA, which will include grades from transferred courses, will appear on the Grade Report under Honors Information.

Baccalaureate degree candidates will be awarded Honors as follows if the above criteria is met:

- Honors GPA of 3.5 or higher - "cum laude" (with honors).
- Honors GPA of 3.7 or higher - "magna cum laude" (with high honors).
- Honors GPA of 3.9 or higher - "summa cum laude" (with highest honors).

Diplomas - Diplomas are mailed after the conferment of degrees. Diplomas indicate degree earned, date of degree, and honors (bachelor's only). A student's financial account must be settled to receive a diploma.

Honesty, Cheating, Plagiarism and Forgery

Academic dishonesty is inconsistent with scholarship and the pursuit of knowledge and Christian character. Thus, Indiana Wesleyan University expects students to be honest in all academic work and with all university records. Incidents of cheating, plagiarism, falsification of any university documents or any other dishonest action will be investigated and judged by the appropriate academic leader. It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of policies regulating academic conduct including definitions of academic dishonesty, the possible sanctions, and the appeals process.

Coursework

Students are expected to exhibit honesty in the classroom, in homework and on quizzes and tests. Each instructor should define what constitutes honest work in a specific course. Any deviation from ordinary standards, such as the permitted use of notes for an examination or an "open book" test, should be stated clearly by the instructor.

Cheating is defined as the use or attempted use of unauthorized materials or receiving unauthorized assistance or communication during any academic exercise. Examples of cheating include:

1. Submitting work for academic evaluation that is not the student's own.
2. Copying answers from another student during an examination.
3. Using prepared notes or materials during an examination.
4. Permitting another student to copy one's work.
5. Plagiarism – see below for definition
6. Falsification.

7. Other misrepresentations of academic achievement submitted for evaluation or a grade.
8. The submission of papers or other work that one has submitted in a previous class or classes without appropriate citation and/or permission of the instructor.
9. Facilitating the academic dishonesty of others. Examples include, but are not limited to, uploading work to a tutoring website or sharing work with friends, roommates, and classmates.

The Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, (7th, 2020) indicates “Plagiarism is the act of presenting the words, ideas, or images of another as your own; it denies authors or creators of content the credit they are due, whether deliberate or unintentional, plagiarism violates ethical standards in scholarship” (p. 254). Students must not take credit for work that is not their own. Plagiarism is a moral, ethical and legal offense.

Examples of plagiarism include:

1. Copying another person's actual words without the use of quotation marks, source citation, or footnotes.
2. Presenting another person's ideas or theories in your own words without citing the source.
3. Failing to acknowledge contribution and collaboration from others.
4. Using information that is not common knowledge without citing the source.
5. Submitting downloaded papers or parts of papers, "cutting and pasting," or paraphrasing or copying information from Internet sources without proper acknowledgment of a source.
6. Submitting papers acquired or purchased from another individual or organization.
7. Submitting an original paper or work completed for one course to meet the requirements for another course (self-plagiarism as per the 7th edition of the APA manual, p. 256).

Sanctions

Because the matter of cheating cumulatively leads to dismissal, faculty are required to report each case to the appropriate university administrators who in turn reports the case to the academic leader of the specific college/school. Evidence must be in hand before any action will be taken to confront and accuse a student of cheating.

Any student apprehended and charged with cheating, including plagiarism, during his or her college matriculation, shall receive the following discipline:

1. First incident of cheating: no credit (i.e., no points given) in paper, assignment, or exam.
2. Second incident of cheating: failure in the course involved.
3. Third incident of cheating: dismissal from the university.
4. Students in graduate programs or graduate courses are expected to understand clearly the nature of cheating and are subject to dismissal from the university for any egregious act of academic dishonesty or cheating, without the need to follow the steps listed above.
5. Discovery of any dishonest action for students who have been awarded an IWU degree may result in rescinding of said degree without the need to follow the steps listed above.

A student who is not satisfied with the disciplinary action may follow the grievance and appeal policies of the appropriate academic unit.

University Records: Falsifying or forging any university record or using unauthorized access to any university system is considered a dishonest action and is subject to review and possible sanctions. Incidents of such will be investigated and judged by the appropriate academic leader. It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of policies regulating academic conduct including definitions of academic dishonesty, the possible sanctions, and the appeals process.

Falsification of Academic Records or University Documents: Falsification of academic records or documents includes but is not limited to altering any documents affecting academic records; forging signatures; or falsifying information of an official document such as a grade report, ID card, financial receipt, or any other official university letter or communication. This includes information downloaded (printed) from student information available via Web (online) services.

Unauthorized Access to Computerized Academic or Administrative Records or Systems: Unauthorized access to computerized academic or administrative records or systems means viewing or altering the university's computer records without authorization; copying or modifying the university's computer programs or systems without authorization; releasing or dispensing information gained through unauthorized access; or interfering with the use or availability of computer systems information.

Students who are found to have falsified university documents or participated in unauthorized access to computerized academic or administrative records or systems are subject to the following sanctions:

Sanctions:

1. Dismissal from the university for a single incident.
2. Discovery of any dishonest action for students who have been awarded an IWU degree may result in rescinding of said degree.
3. The university may consider legal action for any individual found to have participated in these actions.

A student who is not satisfied with the disciplinary action may follow the grievance and appeal policies of the appropriate academic unit.

Inclement Weather Procedures

The university is reluctant to postpone or cancel classes because the schedule is already very compressed and it is difficult to schedule make-up classes when needed. In order to make the most informed decisions possible, the university gathers information from the National Weather Service, State Police agencies, and Regional Deans and personnel (when appropriate). Unfortunately, the university cannot make the decision based on an individual student's geographical situation and the driving distance to and from class. Students should be aware, however, that they are expected to use discretion and not to take unreasonable risks. If students choose not to attend class, they should notify their instructor and make appropriate arrangements for make-up work. Decisions to postpone or cancel classes will be announced by the university. Regional locations will be judged by the Regional Deans. In the event it becomes necessary for a Regional Dean to recommend to the Chancellor for IWU-National and Global campus a weather related or emergency closing or postponement for onsite classes, affected faculty and students will make up the missed class session through an online alternative class session.

Instructors will contact students on the date class is cancelled with requirements for making up the cancelled class session through an online alternative.

In the event an onsite class session is cancelled that is deemed significant to the specific program (e.g., program orientation, the first class session of a program, the last class session of a program, etc.), the Regional Dean will petition the appropriate academic leaders to arrange a new date to make up the cancelled class session prior to the next scheduled class session.

To satisfy engagement requirements and earn discussion points (if applicable), all assignments associated with the cancelled class session must be submitted prior to the start of the next scheduled class session.

Postponement decisions for evening classes will be made by approximately 3:00 p.m. on the day of class. Decisions about Saturday classes will be made the evening before, when possible, but may be made during the early morning hours on the Saturday of class if necessary. No notification will be made unless classes are postponed or cancelled; information about postponements and/or cancellations will be announced on the university's Web site at <http://www.indwes.edu>. Announcements will also be posted on the student portal at <http://myIWU.indwes.edu> and on the class information phone line at 1-800-621-8667 ext. 2022.

Leave of Absence Policy

Indiana Wesleyan University understands there are life events that may require a student to modify class enrollment and schedules. The leave of absence policy is designed to allow students flexibility in their program enrollment to adjust to these life events. The leave of absence policy also extends to students the ability to make up any courses missed during the approved leave.

A student on an approved leave of absence will be considered enrolled at IWU and eligible for an in-school deferment for student aid loans. Federal financial aid and in-school deferment may be negatively impacted if a student fails to apply for the leave of absence or if the application is denied. This impacts students who receive Title IV federal financial aid (Federal Pell Grants, Federal Supplemental Grants, Federal Stafford Subsidized or Unsubsidized Loans, Federal Parent Loans) or who want to have a federal student loan deferred from payment while in school.

Students who will be out of class for a period of 29 days but no more than 180 should request a leave of absence. Students out of class for less than 29 days are not eligible for a leave of absence, and a recalculation on current financial aid will be done. Students who are not on federal financial aid programs or who do not have a federal loan in deferment are not required to request a leave of absence.

Students needing to make a change in their schedule need to contact the Office of Student Services to process the registration change. Schedule changes need to be completed before submitting the Leave of Absence Application. The Leave of Absence Application can be downloaded by going to the following link:

<https://myiwu.indwes.edu/directory/student-services/registration-changes/pages/default.aspx>. Students must request the leave within 21 days of initiating the registration change. The request for a leave of absence should be made prior to the date the leave is to start. The start date of the leave is the day after the last date of attendance in class.

An approved leave of absence must meet the following criteria: in the academic year the student has to be in attendance 2 weeks prior to applying for a leave, the request must be received within 21 days of the registration change; the request must be made prior to the start of the leave (first day of class); the reason for the request must be one approved by IWU's Leave of Absence Committee (military, medical, jury duty, loss of job, family emergency, employment emergency, transfer of coursework, passing pre-requisite requirement, changing programs, administrative cancellation of core classes, or other reasons as approved by the Leave of Absence Committee).

The leave of absence together with any additional leaves of absence must not exceed a total of 180 days in any 12-month period. Time in excess of 180 days will not be approved. A student may request an extension to a leave providing the request is made before the end of the leave, there are unforeseen circumstances which prevent the return from the leave, and the total number of days of approved leave do not exceed 180 in a 12-month period. A maximum of two leaves of absence are allowed during a 12-month period. Documentation is required for an extension on a leave. Documentation for each circumstance will vary; the student is required to provide whatever paperwork from a third party will attest to the circumstance outlined on the application form. Examples would include physicians' statements, letters from employers, letters from pastors or counselors, court documents, etc. Documentation is also required if a request is submitted after the 21 day deadline, and needs to address the reason for the delay in the submission of the request.

Failure to return from an approved leave of absence nullifies the approved leave and may have an impact on student loan repayment terms as well as the grace period. The first day of the leave will be reported as the beginning of the grace period for loan deferment. Students may return early from an approved leave of absence prior to the leave end date. The leave will be shortened according to the student's return date.

Students will not receive disbursements of Title IV student loan financial aid funds during the leave. Students are not deferred from making regularly scheduled payments to the Accounting Office for normal fees incurred. Any change in registration can impact current financial aid regardless of approval or denial of the leave of absence request. Questions about impact on current financial aid should be directed to the Financial Aid Office at 800-621-8667 ext. 2516. Students on an approved leave of absence will be reported as such and will be eligible for in-school deferment of previous loans. Students whose request for a leave of absence is denied will be reported as withdrawn and the grace period for loan repayment will go into effect.

Military Leave of Absence Policy

The Higher Education Opportunity Act enacted on August 13, 2008, states that a university may not deny admission or readmission to a service member for reasons relating to that service. The service member qualifies if the school is given notice of absence for service, the cumulative length of absence does not exceed five years, and the student gives notice of his or her intent to return.

Indiana Wesleyan University complies with this act with the following:

Academic:

- Students are not required to reapply and are not charged a readmission fee upon return.
- Students are readmitted at the same academic status (program enrollment status, number of completed credit hours, academic standing) before deployment. Students may return under the catalog that was in effect before deployment. Student may find differences in their programs or the catalog if the programs are no longer offered, or changes have occurred due to external accrediting bodies, licensing board or other external agencies.
- Leave time does not count toward the total time required to earn the degree.
- Students will be promptly readmitted in the next class or classes in a program, will qualify for priority/early registration, and may not be denied re-enrollment in a class based on class size.

Financial:

Students are required to complete a Military Leave of Absence Request. When the request is approved, students' accounts will be adjusted as necessary.

Financial Aid:

Indiana Wesleyan University is committed to assisting military students in navigating the impact that active duty will have on financial aid. It is important that each student have conversation with the Financial Aid office to ensure proper paperwork and processes are covered as it relates to a leave of absence.

Students with federal financial aid, federal loan obligations, or military tuition assistance must contact their lenders and/or the military education office to ascertain their loan repayment status or repayment of tuition assistance during the leave of absence.

Student Address/Email Information

Students should notify the Office of Student Services of any change of address, telephone number, or name so that proper records can be maintained. Name change requests require submission of appropriate documentation.

IWU Student Email Accounts - Upon acceptance, students are given an IWU student e-mail account. This is the only account used by IWU for communication with the student. It is extremely important that the student checks this account on a regular basis as important academic and financial information as well as university announcements will be shared in this way.

Team Work

Global competition and accelerating change have challenged traditional notions of the corporate pyramid. Organizations seeking to improve quality and agility have replaced entire levels of management with self-managing work teams. For this reason, the skills needed for teamwork are at a premium in the workplace.

A team is a small number of people with complementary skills, who are committed to a common purpose, a set of performance goals, and an approach to solving problems for which they hold themselves mutually accountable. But, a team is more than just a collection of individuals. A true team develops an almost organic quality. The synergy produced through interaction involving a common goal should exceed what a group of individuals might achieve working independently. Thus, there is a significant difference between the product of a well-functioning team and the product of a work group where a piece of the problem is assigned to each individual.

Indiana Wesleyan University utilizes teams and team projects in the curriculum because team process can enhance learning, especially in adult professionals. Students working in teams are able to take on larger projects than they would be able to individually. This enables the university to present courses in a compressed format. Not only is learning enhanced through this method, but students also have the opportunity to develop teamwork skills. We believe teams are a vital component to the education our students receive.

Teams of three or more individuals meet as needed for class assignment preparation, team projects, and team presentations are utilized throughout the curriculum.

Individuals who work effectively in teams are characterized by the following abilities:

- Able to take responsibility for the success of the entire team and not just their own success.
- Able to hold both themselves and the team accountable for mutually agreed-upon goals.
- Able to negotiate goals and ideas in a team setting.
- Skilled at listening.
- Skilled at building on the ideas of others in a creative fashion.
- Able to give constructive feedback and express emotions to others without damaging relationships.
- Able to trust others and foster trusted relationships.
- Value team process.
- Understand the dynamics of team process and team product in pursuit of collective goals.

Transfer of Credit Policy

Credit is granted for work with a satisfactory grade taken at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). Currently this includes the following accrediting agencies:

- Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing (ACEN)
- Association for Biblical Higher Education (ABHE)
- Association of Advanced Rabbinical and Talmudic Schools (AARTS)
- Association of Theological Schools Commission on Accrediting (ATS)
- Distance Education Accreditation Commission (DEAC)
- Higher Learning Commission (HLC)
- Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE)
- New England Commission of Higher Education (NECHE)
- Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU)
- Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACS-COC)
- Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools (TRACS)
- Western Association of Schools and Colleges – Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges (WASC–ACCJC)
- Western Association of Schools and Colleges – Senior College and University Commission (WASC–SCUC)

The University Registrar is responsible for approving the transferability of all credits. Credit hours accepted in transfer are recorded, but quality points and grades are omitted and used only for the determination of graduating with honors at the Bachelor level. Once transcripts (and other test scores and academic documents) have been received, IWU is not permitted to release copies of those documents back to the student or any other party. All credits are accepted as semester credits. Quarter credits are converted to semester credits using the two-thirds conversion ratio.

Undergraduate Credit Transfer Policy

Credit is granted for work with a satisfactory grade ("C" or above), in a 100 level or higher course, provided the courses are applicable to the curriculum the student wishes to pursue at Indiana Wesleyan University. The following are exceptions to the transfer policy and credits earned are not counted toward the honors GPA:

- Indiana Wesleyan University accepts official transcripts from the American Council on Education (ACE) and the National College Credit Recommendation Service (NCCRS). ACE and NCCRS evaluate and provide credit recommendations for educational offerings for a significant number of corporate universities and other extra-institutional learning providers.
- Courses from non-accredited colleges and universities and from schools/colleges/universities not accredited at the same level, such as proprietary business schools, vocational/technical schools, or other single purpose institutions may be presented through the evaluation of assessed learning process. A maximum of 40 hours may be accepted through assessed learning, ACE, and/or NCCRS credit.

Credit through examination (CLEP, DSST, AP, institutional examinations) or assessed learning is not accepted in transfer from another institution's transcript. Credit through examination is awarded through Indiana Wesleyan University with official test scores from an official testing center. Credit from nontraditional learning by life experience is awarded through the IWU's assessed learning process. The Vice President of Student Services is responsible for the assessment of all nontraditional learning, and the University Registrar is responsible for approving the transcription of any credits that result.

Graduate Credit Transfer Policy

Transfer of credit will be considered for graduate work completed at institutions accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), provided the courses meet institutional requirements and are appropriate for the student's planned and approved program. Any culminating project (e.g., capstone, research, thesis, etc.), clinical, or practicum requirement associated with a graduate program must be taken at Indiana Wesleyan University.

Individual academic units may establish higher standards/conditions as is appropriate for their respective disciplines or accrediting bodies. A minimum grade of "B" may be considered for transfer. No more than 30% of the graduate degree may be transferred in from another institution. The learning outcomes must align and have been completed within the past seven years. Minimal conditions governing the transfer of earned graduate credits to other course work include:

- Each PAU shall determine the amount of time acceptable of completed work that is eligible for credit transfer.
- Only graduate courses in which a student has earned a grade of "B" or better may be considered for transfer credit.
- Hours of credit may be transferred, but grades earned in courses taken at another institution do not transfer and are not used in computing the student's graduate GPA at Indiana Wesleyan University.
- When a graduate course is taken at another university on a credit/no credit or pass/fail option, hours of "credit" or "pass" are not accepted as transferable unless approved by the appropriate academic unit.
- For graduate certificate programs, no more than 30% can be transferred into the certificate program.

Credit hours accepted in transfer are recorded as part of the student's official academic record. Once transcripts (and other test scores and academic documents) have been received, IWU is not permitted to release copies of those documents back to the student or any other party.

Occasionally, graduate students will begin their course of study at another institution with no plans to transfer to IWU, but find themselves displaced by a closing institution and unable to complete their degree. In an effort to support displaced students IWU will allow a greater number of transfer credits for graduate programs. All courses will be evaluated by the appropriate academic department. Where applicable transfer credits will be applied to meet IWU degree requirements. A displaced student is an actively enrolled student in degree program offered by an institution that is closing.

For displaced graduate students we will allow them to transfer in up to 75% of program requirements. In effect, that substantially reduces the residency requirement.

- For programs with 18 credit hours - students will be required to take 4 credits from IWU
- For programs with 24 credit hours - students will be required to take 6 credits from IWU
- For programs with 30 credit hours - students will be required to take 7 credits from IWU
- For program with 33 credit hours - students will be required to take 8 credits from IWU
- For programs with 36 credit hours - students will be required to take 9 credits from IWU
- For programs with 42 credit hours - students will be required to take 10 credits from IWU

Doctoral Exception:

IWU will allow doctoral students displaced by a closing institution to transfer in up to 75% of their course work - an effective residency of 15 credit hours plus the comprehensive final. IWU will not permit students to transfer in if they only need to complete their dissertation.

Credit hours accepted in transfer are recorded as part of the student's official academic record. Once transcripts (and other test scores and academic documents) have been received, IWU is not permitted to release copies of those documents back to the student or any other party.

Transcripts from International Institutions

Transcripts from international institutions may need to be sent to an outside agency for evaluation and determination of transferable credits, degrees, and GPA. If this outside review is necessary, students are responsible for the initiation of this evaluation and for any fees incurred during the process.

Withdrawal/Change in Status

A student who finds it necessary to withdraw from the program or to take a temporary leave of absence is required to contact the Registration Change Counselor in the Office of Student Services to complete this process (registration.change@indwes.edu). Students must request the withdrawal from the Registration Change Counselor before the last class workshop. Failure to initiate an official withdrawal will result in a "No Credit" or an "F" grade for the student in those related courses.

A student who is temporarily withdrawing may request an individual leave of absence up to 180 days in a 12 month period. A student cannot request more than two leaves during a 12 month period, and the total number of days on leave may not exceed 180 days within a 12 month period. All leaves must be requested through the Office of Student Services.

If a student officially withdraws after a course has started, a grade of "W" will be assigned. A student who violates the attendance policy with the last workshop of a course will receive an "F" for the course.

Administrative withdrawals assigning a grade of "W" will also happen as follows:

- A student who violates the attendance policy prior to the last workshop of a course will be administratively withdrawn from the course.
- A student who never attends a course will be administratively withdrawn from not only that course but all subsequent courses.

Students withdrawing from the first course of a core program must withdraw from the entire program.

If, at a later time the student wishes to re-enter the program, a re-entry form must be submitted to the Office of Student Services. Students sitting out of a core program for more than 90 days are subject to a tuition increase upon returning. Students re-entering a core program after six months or more are subject to any changes in curriculum upon returning.

Any change in registration may have an impact on the student's financial aid. Students should always check with the financial aid office before initiating a registration change.

Policy on Academic Credentials and Programs

This policy applies to all academic units of the university.

Indiana Wesleyan University awards academic credentials (degrees and certificates) to students who complete defined programs of study. Each credential is defined in terms of a set of essential learning outcomes, which may include discipline-specific and general education outcomes, as well as credit hour and other specifications. Each program of study for a particular credential maps the credential learning outcomes to a series of credit-bearing courses.

As appropriate, given the learning outcomes and alignment of involved programs and courses, credits may be shared between academic credentials and sub-credentials awarded coevally, within the following boundaries.

1. The student must fulfill all of the requirements for any credential awarded.
2. Credits may be shared between a major and a minor, as long as the minor includes at least 15 unique credit hours unshared with any other major or minor.
3. Credits may be shared between two minors, as long as each minor includes at least 15 unique credit hours unshared with any other major or minor.

4. Credits may be shared between two undergraduate majors as long as there are 51 unique (unduplicated) credit hours between the two majors.
5. Credits may be shared between two graduate majors as long as two thirds of the credits in each major are unique (unduplicated).
6. Up to three credit hours may be shared between a certificate and a minor.
7. Up to six credit hours may be shared between a certificate and a major (undergraduate or graduate).
8. A major or minor may be added to a previously awarded baccalaureate degree. The student must complete all of the course requirements for the major or minor and a minimum of nine new credits hours must be earned. New general education requirements need not be met to post an additional major or minor. Students adding a major or minor are not eligible to participate in commencement ceremonies again. The additional major or minor will be posted to the transcript only on one of the conferral dates.

As appropriate, given the learning outcomes and alignment of involved programs and courses, credits applied to a previously-awarded IWU academic credential may be applied, without surrender of the prior credential, to another IWU academic credential within the following boundaries.

1. The student must fulfill all of the requirements for any credential awarded.
2. For credits from a prior IWU academic credential to be applied to a second IWU academic credential, the second academic program must be started within ten years of the awarding of the first credential. Exceptions must be approved by the dean (or equivalent) of the school sponsoring the academic program of the second credential. Individual academic programs may specify more strict credit-age limits if warranted by the discipline.
3. The credits from a previously-awarded undergraduate certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of an associate's degree or a bachelor's degree.
4. Up to 6 credits from a previously-awarded associate's degree or bachelor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of an undergraduate certificate.
5. The credits from a previously-awarded associate's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different associate's degree, as long as each credential has at least 25% unique credits.
6. The credits from a previously-awarded associate's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a bachelor's degree.
7. The credits from a previously-awarded bachelor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different bachelor's degree, as long as each credential has at least 25% unique credits.
8. The credits from a previously-awarded bachelor's degree or undergraduate certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a master's degree, limited by the provisions of the Undergraduate and Graduate Credit Crossover Policy.
9. The credits from a previously-awarded graduate certificate or post-masters certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a master's degree.
10. The credits from a previously-awarded graduate certificate or post-masters certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a doctor's degree.
11. Credits from a previously-awarded master's degree or doctor's degree may be applied to fulfill up to 1/3 of the requirements of a graduate certificate.
12. The credits from a previously-awarded master's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different master's degree, as long as each credential has at least 50% unique credits.
13. The credits from a previously-awarded master's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a doctor's degree, as long as the doctor's degree has at least 50% unique credits.
14. The credits from a previously-awarded doctor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different doctor's degree, as long as each credential has at least 50% unique credits.

Ways to Earn University Credit toward a Degree

Students have several options for completing general education/elective requirements for a baccalaureate degree.

CLEP/DSST Examinations

Indiana Wesleyan University offers CLEP and DSST tests as an option for students needing to fulfill general education and elective credits for a baccalaureate degree. The CLEP (College Level Examination Program) examinations are offered by The College Board, a nonprofit membership organization that provides tests and other educational services for students, schools, and colleges. CLEP is the most widely accepted credit-by-examination program in the country. The DSST (DANTES Subject Standardized Tests) examinations, originally developed for military personnel, are offered by Prometric.

Students may take both CLEP and DSST examinations at Indiana Wesleyan University at all regional education centers. Upon receipt of the official test scores, Indiana Wesleyan University will award credit based on The American Council on Education recommendations.

Students desiring to take an examination will pay a registration fee to IWU and test fee to the company sponsoring the test. In addition, students who choose to take CLEP or DSST tests are assessed an IWU transcription fee of $25 per credit hour satisfactorily completed. This applies to all CLEP/DSST credits which are placed on Indiana Wesleyan University records whether taken at Indiana Wesleyan University or accepted in transfer. Credit is not placed on the academic record until payment for the credits and the official transcript are received. Before taking a CLEP/DSST test, students should check with an academic advisor to ensure the test will apply toward degree completion plans.

The maximum number of credits awarded for all credit through various examinations (CLEP, DANTES, AP, AICE, etc.) and prior learning shall be limited to a total of 40 semester hours for the baccalaureate degrees and 18 semester hours for the associate degrees, and ordinarily will not be applied to upper-division requirements in the major (junior and senior levels). It is the responsibility of the student to obtain approval from the appropriate division for the application of credits to the majors.

Undergraduate Elective Offerings

The undergraduate elective program enables students to complete the credit requirements they may need for graduation. These electives include classes that satisfy general education requirements as well as elective credit. The elective classes are offered in key locations and in an online format and are scheduled to match the credit needs of our students. Most elective classes are “enrollment driven,” which means there must be at least six students registered for the class to meet.

A complete listing of undergraduate electives is published twice yearly (normally in November and May). See the Undergraduate Electives listing for additional information or <http://www.indwes.edu/Adult-Graduate/Undergraduate-Electives/>.

Prior Learning Assessment

Indiana Wesleyan University provides options for obtaining credit through experiences where college level learning has taken place, but was gained outside of the college/university credit bearing courses.

This credit will be awarded through faculty and/or subject matter expert review and credit recommendations. No grades are assigned; only credit is awarded.

- Prior Learning Assessment (PLA) includes an evaluation of a student’s prior learning experiences. IWU relies on industry best practices established by organizations like the Council for Adult and Experiential Learning (CAEL) who has served as a leader in the development and implementation of assessment for experiential learning and corporate training since 1974. Students are required to submit appropriate documentation which clearly articulates academically relevant learning through the student portal.
- Assessed learning credit is reviewed through a curriculum evaluation process that assesses training programs for alignment with university level learning and IWU curriculum.

Undergraduate students accepted to or enrolled in any of the IWU-National and Global associate or baccalaureate degree programs are eligible to request PLA credit. Credit hours awarded may be counted toward general education, elective, or select core requirements as applicable to the undergraduate degree. Students in the MBA in Certified Financial Planning and Project Management may apply for PLA credit for specific predefined courses.

The maximum number of credits awarded for all credit through various examinations (CLEP, DSST, AP, AICE, etc.) and prior learning shall be limited to a total of 40 semester hours for the baccalaureate degrees and 18 semester hours for the associate degrees.

The Indiana Wesleyan University Honesty, Cheating, Plagiarism, and Forgery Policy (p. 18) also apply to all Prior Learning Assessment request and submissions.

All PLA requests and documentation are reviewed only by those who have an official reason for doing so: the PLA staff, faculty evaluators, and accrediting association members. Any data received from the PLA process that may be made public will be anonymized and will in no way be attributed to an individual unless the student provides a signed authorization. Students should not include any materials in the PLA request that violate the legal and moral rights to privacy of other individuals.

Credit by Transfer

Students may transfer credit from another university to fulfill general education and elective requirements for applicable degrees. Credit can only be transferred from a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) and for courses in which a grade of "C" or higher was earned. All credits are accepted as semester credits. Quarter credits are converted to semester credits using the two-thirds conversion ratio. Students should check with an academic advisor before planning to fulfill requirements in this way. See "Transfer of Credit Policy (p. 314)" for limitations on transfer work.

Undergraduate and Graduate Credit Crossover Policy

Undergraduate credits from IWU or taken at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) (see Transfer of Credit Policy (p. 314) for current accrediting agencies), or hold appropriate international accreditation, may be used to fulfill requirements of IWU graduate programs under specified conditions. When permitted by the design of the program, undergraduate credits from upper level courses may be counted toward the requirements of a graduate degree or certificate when the undergraduate course or courses sufficiently accomplish the learning outcomes of a course in the graduate program. The course(s) must have been completed within the past five years and must reflect current knowledge and best practices. No more than 25% of the total credit requirements for the graduate degree or certificate may be completed through undergraduate credits. Undergraduate courses in which a student has earned a "B" or better may be considered for graduate credit. Dual counting of credits requires approval by the appropriate program leader, in consultation with a graduate level content expert, as well as approval by the University Registrar, and Financial Aid Office if applicable. The program leader will make the final decision as to the applicability of the course to fulfill program learning outcomes. Established limitations on the number of credits that may be transferred into the graduate program remain in effect.

Graduate level credits from IWU or taken at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), or hold appropriate international accreditation, may be used to fulfill requirements of IWU undergraduate programs under specified conditions. When permitted by the design of the program, graduate credits may be counted toward the requirements of an undergraduate degree or certificate when the graduate course or courses sufficiently accomplish the learning outcomes of a course in the undergraduate program. The course(s) must have been completed within the past five years and must reflect current knowledge and best practices. No more than 25% of the total credit requirements for the undergraduate major, minor, or certificate may be completed through graduate credits. Though exceptions may be approved by program directors, graduate courses in which a student has earned a "B" or better may be considered for undergraduate credit. Dual counting of credits requires approval by the appropriate program leader, in consultation with a graduate level content expert, as well as approval by the University Registrar, and Financial Aid Office if applicable. The program leader will make the final decision as to the applicability of the course to fulfill program learning outcomes. Established limitations on the number of credits that may be transferred into the undergraduate program remain in effect.

Financial Policies - CAPS

Financial Policies

Students are advised of financial obligations for their degree seeking (core) program during the registration process. Students are expected to meet these obligations according to the schedule. Any questions regarding payments or problems associated with making those payments should be directed to Student Account Services.

Students who have applied for financial aid are responsible for all tuition and fees in the event it is determined they are ineligible for financial aid, decline the financial aid, or withdraw from the program prior to completing the academic award period. Students receiving military or corporate assistance who have received prior approval from the university for direct billing are required to pay their share of tuition and fees and submit appropriate assistance documents by the assigned due date. The deferral program in no way relieves the student of the financial obligation to the university and the student retains full responsibility for ensuring that all tuition and fees are paid in full and in a timely manner.

Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to suspend students from class attendance for failure to meet financial obligations.

Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to change the tuition and fee schedule at any time. Students who remain registered making satisfactory academic progress shall have their tuition and fees guaranteed. Book fees and embedded resource fees are subject to change throughout a student's program. A $50 late fee is charged each time a payment is received after the due date. There will be a fee charged for any check returned due to non-sufficient funds. If collection of tuition, book charges, and/or fees becomes necessary, all percentage-based costs of collection, court costs, and attorney fees are the responsibility of the student.

Financial Regulations for Individuals Covered by Chapter 31 or Chapter 33

For purposes of this policy, a covered individual is any individual who is entitled to educational assistance under Chapter 31, Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment, or Chapter 33, Post-9/11 benefits.

Any covered individual may enroll in or attend a course of education during the period beginning on the date on which the individual provides a Certificate of Eligibility (COE) for entitlement to educational assistance under chapter 31 or 33 (A "Statement of Benefits" obtained from the Department of Veterans' Affairs (VA) website – eBenefits, or a VA Form 28-1905 for chapter 31 authorization purposes can substitute a Certificate of Eligibility) and ending on the earlier of the following dates:

- The date on which payment from VA is made to Indiana Wesleyan University (IWU)
- 90 days after the date IWU certified tuition and fees following the receipt of the certificate of eligibility

Indiana Wesleyan University will not impose any penalty, including the assessment of late fees, the denial of access to classes, libraries, or other institutional facilities, or the requirement that a covered individual borrow additional funds, on any covered individual because of the individual's inability to meet his or her financial obligations to the institution due to the delayed disbursement of funding from VA under chapter 31 or 33.

IWU requires the following actions on the part of any covered individual:

- Submit the Certificate of Eligibility (COE) for entitlement to educational assistance no later than the first day of the course of education.
- Provide any additional information necessary to the proper certification of enrollment by IWU.
- All standard financial policies apply for any amount not covered by the Certificate of Eligibility (COE) – i.e. charges not covered, or percentage of fees in excess of the COE.

Refund Policies

Tuition and Technology Fee

Upon withdrawal from a course, tuition and the technology fee are prorated based on the date that the student requested the withdrawal as follows:

For courses consisting of 4-6 workshops

- If a student requests withdrawal during the first week of the course, all charges are forgiven except books and embedded resources.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 2nd week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 75%.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 3rd week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 50%.
- If the student requests withdrawal after the 3rd week, there is no refund.

For courses consisting of at least 7 workshops

- If a student requests withdrawal during the first week of the course, all charges are forgiven except books and embedded resources.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 2nd week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 90%.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 3rd week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 75%.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 4th week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 50%.

- If the student requests withdrawal after the 4th week, there is no refund.

Changes to a student's schedule may affect their financial aid. Call the Financial Aid Office for information.

Other Fees

Once attendance has been established in a course, any other fees associated with that course (not tuition or technology fee) are non-refundable.

Textbooks Shipped by Tree of Life

Refunds for textbook charges are issued at the sole discretion of Tree of Life, according to their established refund policies. To avoid unnecessary charges, students should return each rental textbook at the completion of each class

- When a student withdraws from a course, Tree of Life will supply the student with a prepaid label to return related materials as long as the student contacts Tree of Life Customer Support within 14 days of the course start date, ships the item within 5 business days of the contact, and the enrollment files reflect that the customer is no longer enrolled in this course (within 14 days of the start date). Upon receipt of the item, Tree of Life will refund the amount billed for the item minus shipping fees.
- Promptly contact Tree of Life for a Return Authorization for Credit for a course from which you have withdrawn.
- Refunds issued by Tree of Life will be applied as a credit to the student account.

Indiana Wesleyan University is not responsible for issuing refunds for Rentals not Returned, books not received, or books for withdrawn courses. All textbook issues should be immediately addressed with Customer Care at Tree of Life in order to receive the appropriate credit.

Digital items fall outside normal return and refund policies, as publishers have different policies on digital resources. We recommend contacting Customer Support at Tree of Life as soon as possible if you think you will need to return a digital item. If you have been billed for a digital resource, then withdraw before starting the course, please contact Customer Support at Tree of Life immediately upon withdrawal.

Regulations and Policies

In compliance with federal regulations for the student who has received financial aid, any amount due will be returned to the appropriate aid sources.

Students who are unable to complete a course or who receive an unsatisfactory grade for their specific program will be allowed to repeat that course with another group of students if arrangements are made with the Registration Change Counselor. Tuition and fees will be charged for repeating the course.

Decisions regarding refunds are made by Student Account Services, and in isolated cases, by the Financial Appeals Committee.

Indiana Wesleyan University will comply with any state mandated refund policies that govern refunds for students matriculating within the state in question. For a detailed listing of state-specific refund policies, please visit <http://www.indwes.edu/About/Student-Consumer-Information/State-Specific-Refund-Policies>.

Student Account Appeals

A written appeal may be submitted to Student Account Services. If the disputed charge cannot be reconciled with the accounting office, a written appeal can be submitted to studentaccountappeals@indwes.edu with all supporting documentation.

- All pertinent information will be obtained and compiled by the Appeals Committee.
- The disputed charge will be reviewed by the Appeals Committee.
- If necessary, an appeal may be reviewed by the Program Director.
- Appeals must be submitted within 6 months of the last date of attendance for the course in question.

All appeals will receive a response within 15 days after the written appeal has been received.

Financial Aid - CAPS

General Eligibility Requirements

In order to receive federal and/or state student financial aid, students must meet the following criteria:

- Must have completed the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) including signing all certifying statements.
- Must be a U.S. citizen or eligible noncitizen.
- Must have a valid Social Security number (with the exception of students from the Republic of the Marshall Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, or the Republic of Palau).
- Must be registered with Selective Service, if required.
- Must not be in default on a Title IV loan or owe a Title IV grant or loan overpayment.
- Must not have borrowed in excess of annual or aggregate Title IV loan limits.
- Must certify that they will use Title IV aid only to pay educational costs.
- Must not have enrolled in multiple institutions solely to obtain Title IV credit balance funds to pay expenses not educationally related.
- Must not have a disqualifying drug conviction.
- Must be enrolled as a regular student (cannot be unclassified) in an eligible degree or certificate program.
- Must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) as outlined in IWU's SAP Policy.
- Must show qualification to obtain a college education by having a high school diploma, GED certificate, or a high school education in a homeschool setting approved under state law.
- Must maintain enrollment in classes.

Per federal regulations, incarcerated students are not eligible for federal student financial aid. Incarcerated students or students who become incarcerated after receiving federal student financial aid funds should contact the Financial Aid Office.

Types of Student Financial Aid Available

The following types of student financial aid are available to persons enrolled as degree-seeking students who meet the eligibility criteria for the aid type. Complete fund profiles may be found online at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/types-of-aid>.

Federal Pell Grant – is a federal need-based grant that does not require repayment. The Pell Grant is available only to undergraduate students who have not earned a bachelor's nor professional degree and who have not met their maximum lifetime eligibility, which is the equivalent of six school years. Recipients must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and show financial need. The award amount is based on the Expected Family Contribution found on the Student Aid Report, a student's enrollment status, at the beginning of each term, and the cost of attendance. The maximum award amount for the 2020-2021 award year is $6,345.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG) – is a federal grant that does not require repayment and is available to undergraduate students who have not earned a bachelor's nor professional degree. Eligibility is determined by answers provided on the FAFSA form with priority to Federal Pell Grant recipients. The maximum award amount for the 2020-2021 award year is $400. Awards are made to eligible recipients until all funds have been exhausted.

Federal TEACH (Teacher Education Assistance for College and Higher Education) Grant – is a federal grant that, when all service obligations are met, does not have to be repaid. The grant provides up to $3,774 per academic year to students in one of IWU's Masters of Education programs who intend to teach in a high-need field at a public or private elementary or secondary school that serves students from low-income families. Grant recipients must teach for at least four academic years within eight calendar years of completing the program of study for which the grant was received. For students who fail to complete the service obligation, all amounts of TEACH grant funds received are converted to an unsubsidized Federal Direct Loan that must be repaid. Interest is charged from the date the grant(s) disbursed.

Indiana State Grant Aid – primarily consists of the Frank O'Bannon Grant, the 21st Century Scholarship, and the Adult Student Grant. Indiana grant recipients may take courses that meet at a site located within Indiana or online. Tuition reimbursement that a student receives may affect the amount of the state grant award. For the Frank O'Bannon Award, eligible students must be Indiana residents in an undergraduate program and attending full-time, eligible for federal student financial aid, whose FAFSA was received by the federal processor on or before the state filing deadline, and who demonstrate financial need as defined by the Indiana Commission for Higher Education, Division of Student Financial Aid. The Frank O'Bannon award is a tuition- and fee- only grant. More details are available on the state website at <https://www.in.gov/che/4506.htm>.

For the 21st Century Scholarship, please refer to the state website at <https://learnmoreindiana.org/scholars> for the eligibility requirements and other details.

For the Adult Student Grant, please refer to the state website at <https://www.in.gov/che/4509.htm> for eligibility requirements and other details.

Students receiving Indiana grant awards are required to meet certain credit completion requirements to renew Indiana grant awards for subsequent years.

- For Frank O'Bannon Grant maximum award renewal, students must successfully complete (receive passing grades for) at least 30 credit hours during each state academic year ("on-time" renewal). Frank O'Bannon Grant students who successfully complete at least 24 credit hours each state academic year ("full-time" renewal) will remain eligible for the grant but will receive a lesser amount than a student who completes 30 credit hours.
- For 21st Century Scholarship renewal, students must successfully complete at least 30 credit hours each state academic year to renew eligibility for subsequent years.
- For Adult Student Grant renewal, students must successfully complete 18 credit hours in the state academic year to renew eligibility for subsequent years.

Kentucky State Grant Aid –consists of the Kentucky Tuition Grant (KTG) and the College Access Program (CAP) Grant. Students must be Kentucky residents in an undergraduate program and eligible for federal student financial aid. Students whose FAFSA was received by the federal processor on or before the March 15 state filing deadline are given priority consideration for the KTG. Eligible students must be enrolled in 12 credit hours between July 1 and December 31 (fall term) and/or January 1 and June 30 (spring term). Students whose FAFSA was received by the federal processor on or before the March 15 state filing deadline and who demonstrate financial need as defined by the Commonwealth of Kentucky are given priority consideration for the CAP grant. Eligible students must be enrolled in 6-12 credit hours between July 1 and December 31 (fall term) and/or January 1 and June 30 (spring term). Students must be enrolled in at least 6 credit hours of courses for the term taken at a site located within Kentucky in order for online courses to count toward the credit hour requirement. Tuition reimbursement that a student receives may affect the amount of the state grant award.

Ohio State Grant Aid – is the Ohio College Opportunity Grant Program (OCOG). This program provides need-based tuition assistance to Ohio students from low to moderate-income families. Students must be Ohio residents in an eligible undergraduate program, eligible for federal student financial aid, and whose FAFSA was received by the federal processor on or before the October 1 state filing deadline. Eligible students must be enrolled in 12 credit hours between July 1 and December 31 (fall term) and/or January 1 and June 30 (spring term). The OCOG is a tuition only grant. Tuition reimbursement that a student receives may affect the amount of the state grant award.

William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan – is available to students who file the FAFSA and all other required student financial aid forms and who meet all federal criteria for eligibility. The maximum annual loan amounts for dependent students are $5,500 for freshmen, $6,500 for sophomores and $7,500 for juniors and seniors. The maximum annual loan amounts for independent students are $9,500 for freshmen, $10,500 for sophomores, $12,500 for juniors and seniors, and $20,500 for graduate students. Lifetime maximum borrowing limits are $57,500 for undergraduate programs and $138,500 for graduate programs (including undergraduate borrowing). For undergraduate students who demonstrate financial need and who have not met their lifetime maximum borrowing limits, the federal government subsidizes loan interest for a portion of the total annual loan amount while the student is enrolled in school. Interest rates are set on July 1 each year and are fixed rates. For July 1, 2020, through June 30, 2021, the interest rate is 2.75% for subsidized and unsubsidized Direct Loans for undergraduate students. The interest rate is 4.30% for unsubsidized Direct Loans for graduate students.

A student's total financial assistance, including loans, may not exceed the calculated cost of attendance for the program. Students with unsubsidized loans may elect to make monthly interest payments to the lender or allow the accumulated interest to accrue until repayment, which begins six months after the student ceases to be enrolled as at least a half-time student. Upon graduation or termination of studies, the student is given a six-month grace period during which no interest or principal payments are due on subsidized loans and during which only interest accrues on the unsubsidized loans. The standard minimum monthly payment is $50, but the amount varies based on the total amount of the outstanding loans upon which the student is paying and the type of repayment plan the student has chosen.

Undergraduate PLUS Federal Direct Loan – is a federal loan with a fixed 5.30% interest rate available to parents of dependent undergraduate students who have remaining cost of attendance not met by subsidized/unsubsidized William D. Ford Federal Direct Loans. This is a credit-based federal loan.

Graduate PLUS Federal Direct Loan – is a federal loan with a fixed 5.30% interest rate available to graduate students who have remaining cost of attendance not met by an unsubsidized William D. Ford Federal Direct Loans. This is a credit-based federal loan.

Military Preferred Tuition Discount – is a tuition discount to all active duty military personnel, National Guard, Reserves, retirees, veterans, spouses, surviving spouses, dependents with educational benefits, and DoD employees. Students must submit a discount application, available online at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/Military-Preferred-Tuition-Application-2020-2021.pdf>.

Educational Partner Discount – is a tuition discount given to students employed by one of IWU's educational partners. Students must submit a discount application, available from your program representative or by emailing N&Gdiscounts@indwes.edu.

Pastoral Discount – is a tuition discount offered to pastors who are taking courses in one of the approved ministry programs. Students must submit a discount application, available from your program representative. More information may be found online at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/pastoral-discounts>.

Yellow Ribbon Award – is an award that does not have to be repaid and is available to eligible students who receive Chapter 33 benefits. The amount eligible students receive reflects 50% of the tuition expenses that exceed the highest public in-state undergraduate tuition rate. The VA matches that contribution to cover fully the tuition costs.

Ministerial Student Aid Program – is a loan program administered by The Wesleyan Church through the Department of Education & The Ministry and is available to undergraduate and graduate students in an approved ministry program. The loan becomes a grant as the recipient serves The Wesleyan Church under a qualifying appointment. Applicants should understand that in requesting aid from this program they are applying for a loan, which must be either repaid or canceled through service. General eligibility requirements include, but are not limited to: local church membership, district approval, and enrollment form submission. For each year (September 1 through August 31) of full-time district appointment in The Wesleyan Church following studies, 20% of the loan is canceled once the service is rendered and reported. Cancellation cannot be given in the same church year that one receives loan-grant funds. Loan amounts for the 2020-2021 award year are $60 per semester hour for junior and senior years of undergraduate study. More information may be found online at <https://www.wesleyan.org/ecd/loan-grant>.

How to Apply for Student Financial Aid

Students who wish to be considered for federal and/or state student financial aid must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Links to the application process online are provided at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/apply-for-aid>:

- When completing the FAFSA (direct link is <https://studentaid.gov/h/apply-for-aid/fafsa>) you must list IWU's Title IV Code, 001822, or IWU will not receive your FAFSA information from the federal processor.
- You must disclose any additional funding you will receive from employer reimbursement, vocational rehabilitation, or private scholarships to help pay for your education. To facilitate this requirement, complete the Other Aid Source Disclosure Form.
- If loans are desired, students must complete the Loan Entrance Counseling Session and William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan Master Promissory Note online (direct link is <https://studentaid.gov>). You must have an established Federal Student Aid (FSA) ID and password in order to complete these items. It may be necessary to wait three days from the time you first create your FSA ID before trying to sign in to this website. For each item, you must enter "Indiana" in the School State field even if you attend classes in another state or online.
 - Entrance Counseling Session: Log in using your FSA ID and password. Hover over COMPLETE AID PROCESS in the navigation bar and select Complete Entrance Counseling. Add IWU as a School to Notify and select the appropriate Student Type for your current degree pursuit—undergraduate or graduate.
 - Master Promissory Note: Log in using your FSA ID and password. Hover over COMPLETE AID PROCESS in the navigation bar and select Subsidized/Unsubsidized Loan MPN.
 - The Financial Aid Office's standard practice is to originate federal student loans for the amount of a student's maximum eligibility. If you wish to have a lesser loan amount awarded than your maximum eligibility, complete the Reduced Loan Request form.

Once the above steps have been completed, be certain to:

- Quickly respond to requests for additional information from the Financial Aid Office. You may be asked, as required by federal regulations, to provide items for review in a process called Verification. Some items that may be requested are: a completed Verification Worksheet, a completed and notarized Identity and Statement of Educational Purpose Form, and a signed copy of your Federal Income Tax Return (and your spouse's or parents' as appropriate).
- Fully complete all forms. Forms filled out incorrectly or submitted to the wrong office or location could complicate your approval to begin classes or delay your student financial aid awards package.

How Eligibility is Determined and Student Financial Aid is Awarded

- An estimated federal awards package typically is available within a week of submitting the FAFSA. In general, award amounts are based on a student's Expected Family Contribution found on the Student Aid Report, a student's enrollment status, the cost of attendance, and other estimated financial assistance. The Financial Aid Office will award a student for his or her maximum eligibility in scholarship, grant, and loan funds unless otherwise instructed in writing. Complete the Reduced Loan Request form to request a loan amount less than the maximum.
- Students in term-based programs (those that began 7/1/19 and after) must be enrolled at least half-time for the term for federal loan funds to be disbursed. Students in non-term programs must be scheduled for a full academic year, according to the academic year definition for the program in which the student is enrolled, or to degree completion for student financial aid to be awarded. Any changes to planned enrollment may affect the amount and/or disbursement date(s) of aid for which the student may qualify.
- The Financial Aid Office will email notification to the IWU student email account that student financial aid has been awarded and is available for review online via the student portal at <https://myiwu.indwes.edu>. This secure website will indicate the types and amounts of aid for which the student qualifies. To decline all or a portion of the awarded aid, the student must submit a written request to the Financial Aid Office or all awarded aid will disburse to the IWU student account, as appropriate. Complete the Reduced Loan Request form to request a loan amount less than the maximum. The student does not need to contact the Financial Aid Office to accept an awards package.

How and When Student Financial Aid is Disbursed

Federal Pell Grant is disbursed as a credit to the IWU student account in one payment per term/award period.

Federal SEOG is disbursed as a credit to the IWU student account in one payment per term/award period.

Federal TEACH Grant is disbursed as a credit to the IWU student account in one payment per term/award period.

Federal Direct Loans are disbursed as a credit to the IWU student account, generally in one payment per term/award period. For students in a term-based program format, the disbursement occurs approximately 10 days after the start of the first class attended in the term. For students in a non-term program format, the disbursement occurs 14-21 days after the start of the award period.

Indiana State Grant Aid is disbursed as a credit to the IWU student account in one payment per state term. For students in a term-based program format, there are three or four state terms in the state academic year. The first state term begins in the first term where a student is enrolled full-time. For students in a non-term program format, there are two state terms in the state academic year. For the Frank O'Bannon Grant and the 21st Century Scholarship, the first state term begins in the first 6-month timeframe where a student is enrolled full-time (at least 12 credit hours). The second 6-month state grant term begins immediately after the first. Regardless of the program format, for students enrolled full-time on the 28th day of the state grant term, the earliest date state grant funds will be disbursed is on the 29th day of that term. For students not enrolled full-time on the 28th day of the state grant term but who later become enrolled full-time within that term, the earliest date state grant funds will be disbursed is on the last day of the course in which the student completes full-time enrollment for the term.

Kentucky State Grant Aid is disbursed as a credit to the IWU student account in one payment per state term.

Ohio State Grant Aid is disbursed as a credit to the IWU student account in one payment per state term.

Ministerial Student Aid is disbursed in the form of a check to the student three times a year (January, June, and September) from Wesleyan Headquarters for courses completed during the prior period.

All other types of aid are awarded and disbursement dates set as the necessary paperwork is received.

Applying for student financial aid does not remove responsibility for payment. If the funding is not received, the student must pay all outstanding balances immediately.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)

Students are expected to maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress toward the completion of their course of study. This includes:

- Enrolling in and attending class as well as completing assignments and projects.
- Earning at least the minimum GPA required to maintain good academic standing in the student's primary degree or certificate program.
- Earning passing grades in a minimum of 67% of all credit hours attempted.
- For undergraduate students, completing the program within 150% of the credit hours normally required to complete the course of study (e.g., if the program requires 120 credit hours to complete, then the student may attempt no more than 180 credit hours) or, for graduate students, within the maximum time allowed by the academic department to complete the degree.

Academic progress is reviewed after the end of each term/award period. Students who fail to make satisfactory academic progress will be placed onto SAP Warning or Suspension, as appropriate, per the policy requirements. Students with mitigating circumstances (which may include, but is not limited to, death in the family or grave illness of the student or close family member) may appeal termination of federal student financial aid eligibility due to failure to make academic progress by submitting a SAP Appeal Form, written explanation, and supporting documentation to the SAP Appeals Committee through the Financial Aid Office. The entire SAP Policy is available for review online at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/resources>.

Leaves of Absence, Withdrawals, and Return of Funds

A student may request leaves of absence through the Office of Student Services for breaks in attendance 180 days or less in any 12-month period. In the case there is an approved break between classes, a leave of absence will be reported to the lender, but no loan repayment will be required. If additional circumstances arise that prohibit the student from returning to class as scheduled, the student should contact the Financial Aid Office to discuss options. For a break between classes of more than 180 days in any 12-month period, the university is required to report non-enrollment information to the lender, and the student will be required to begin repayment of any student loans (see your loan promissory note for further information).

If a student finds it necessary to withdraw from the program, withdraw from a course or courses without an approved leave of absence, or take leaves of absence that exceed 180 days in a 12-month period, a federal student financial aid Return of Funds calculation will be performed. This calculation determines how much federal student financial aid has been earned and is based on the number of days attended during the term/payment period when the student withdraws. The amount of federal student financial aid funds to be returned by IWU to the funding source is based on the amount of those funds that the Return of Funds calculation determined were not earned by the student.

For courses that use Brightspace (LMS), Indiana Wesleyan will use the student's last date of engagement as the withdrawal date in the Return of Funds calculation. For courses that do not use Brightspace, Indiana Wesleyan will use the later of the notification of the intent to withdraw or the documented LDARA. The official notification of intent to withdrawal will be recorded by the Office of Student Services and may include verbal or written communication. If the withdrawal date falls during a scheduled break within the term, the withdrawal date will refer back to the last date before the scheduled break began. The withdrawal date may never fall within a scheduled break of five days or more.

Due to extenuating circumstances, for students who are unable to officially withdraw, the institution will use the last confirmed date of academic engagement as determined in Brightspace. For courses that do not use Brightspace, faculty will be contacted to determine LDARA.

When a student withdraws, outstanding Title IV credit balances will be placed on hold until the R2T4 calculation has been completed. If a credit balance exists on the student's account after applying any institutional refund policies and the R2T4 calculation, the institution will disburse the credit balance to the student as soon as possible but no later than 14 days from the date the school performed the R2T4 calculation.

The following are examples of the Return of Funds calculations for programs offered in standard terms, nonstandard terms, and nonterm academic calendars:

Standard Term:

- R2T4 calculations will be performed on a payment period basis. The payment period is the term.
- The student begins class on August 30, and the term/payment period runs until December 15.
- The student withdraws from the program on October 4.
- The term/payment period has 103 calendar days in it (not including break periods), and the student completed 36 days which is 35.0% of the payment period.
- The amount of the funds to be returned will be 65.0% of the federal student financial aid funds received.
- The portion of the federal student financial aid funds that the school must return is equal to the lesser of:
 - The institutional charges multiplied by the unearned percentage of your funds, or
 - The entire amount of excess funds

Nonstandard term:

- R2T4 calculations will be performed on a payment period basis. The payment period is the term.
- The student begins class on March 2 and the term/payment period runs until May 24.
- The student withdraws from the program on March 20.
- The term/payment period has 84 calendar days in it (not including break periods) and the student completed 19 days which is 22.6% of the payment period.
- The amount of the funds to be returned will be 77.4% of the federal student financial aid funds received.
- The portion of the federal student financial aid funds that the school must return is equal to the lesser of:
 - The institutional charges multiplied by the unearned percentage of your funds, or
 - The entire amount of excess funds.

Nonterm:

- R2T4 calculations will be performed on a payment period basis.
- The student begins class on June 1 and the term/payment period runs until November 16.

- The student withdraws from the program on September 2.
- The term/payment period has 168 calendar days in it (not including break periods) and the student completed 93 days which is 55.4% of the payment period.
- The amount of the funds to be returned will be 44.6% of the federal student financial aid funds received.
- The portion of the federal student financial aid funds that the school must return is equal to the lesser of:
 - The institutional charges multiplied by the unearned percentage of your funds, or
 - The entire amount of excess funds.

The Financial Aid Office will determine the amount of the return of funds that is owed by IWU and the amount, if any, that is owed by the student. For any loan funds that are owed by the student, the student (or the parent for a Direct PLUS Loan) repays in accordance with the terms of the promissory note (e.g., scheduled payments are to be made to the holder of the loan over a period of time). A letter will be sent to the student indicating the results of the Return of Funds calculation and the amount of the return of funds, if any. The student will earn 100% of the federal student financial aid funds received for the term/payment period if the return of funds calculation shows the student completed 60% or more of the term/payment period. Additionally, state grant awards may be recalculated if the student drops below the minimum amount of credits and/or if tuition and fee charges must be revised as a result of the schedule change.

Funds will be returned to the federal student financial aid programs in the following order: unsubsidized Federal Direct Loan, subsidized Federal Direct Loan, Federal Perkins Loan, Federal Direct PLUS Loans, Federal Pell Grant, Federal SEOG, Federal TEACH Grant and other Title IV grants. The student will have 45 days to contact the Financial Aid Office to make arrangements to repay any federal grants that are owed by the student. Failure to make arrangements or to pay back the federal grants will mean the student is no longer eligible to receive federal student financial aid at any institution until full repayment.

Title IV Funds that the school is required to return must be returned as soon as possible but no later than 45 days after determining the student withdrew.

A post-withdrawal disbursement is a disbursement that occurs after the R2T4 calculation is completed, and it is determined that a student received less federal student aid than the amount earned. The post-withdrawal disbursement of a federal grant for funds earned in excess of outstanding current (educationally related) charges must be made directly to the student within 45 days of the date of determination that the student withdrew. Students and/or parents (in the case of Direct Parent PLUS loans) will be notified in writing of eligibility for a post-withdrawal loan disbursement within 30 days of the date the school determined the student withdrew. Students and/or parents will have 14 days to respond to the post-withdrawal offer. Post-withdrawal disbursements will be applied to outstanding allowable charges on the student account first and any resulting credit balance will be paid to the student and/or parent within 14 days of the disbursement.

The requirements for Title IV program funds when a student withdraws are separate from IWU's refund policy. Therefore, a student may still owe funds to the school to cover unpaid institutional charges. A student who requests the credit balance from his or her IWU student account and then makes registration changes may be required to repay funds to the university and/or to the student financial aid programs.

Student's Rights and Responsibilities

As a student, you have the right to know:

- What financial assistance is available, including information on all federal and state programs.
- The deadlines for submitting application for each of the student financial aid programs available.
- The cost of attending the school's programs and the school's refund policy.
- The criteria used by the institution to select financial aid recipients.
- How the school determines your financial need. This process includes how costs for tuition, fees, books, and living expenses are considered in your budget.
- What resources (such as employer reimbursement, other financial aid, etc.) are considered in the calculation of your need.
- How much of your financial need, as determined by the institution, has been met.
- An explanation of the various programs in your student financial aid package. If you believe you have been treated unfairly, you may request reconsideration of the award that was made to you.

- What portion of the student financial aid you received must be repaid, and what portion is grant aid. If the aid is a loan, you have the right to know the loan interest rate, the total amount that must be repaid, the payback procedures, the length of time you have to repay the loan, and when the repayment is to begin.

As a student, you are responsible to:

- Review and consider all information about the school's program before you enroll.
- Complete all required forms accurately and submit them in a timely manner to the correct address.
- Pay special attention to, and accurately complete, your FAFSA. Errors can result in delay of receipt of your student financial aid funds. Intentional misreporting of information on application forms for federal student financial aid is a violation of law and is considered a criminal offense subject to penalties under the U.S. Criminal Code.
- Return all additional information, verification, corrections, and/or new information requested by either the Financial Aid Office or the FAFSA central processor.
- Read and understand all the forms that you are asked to sign and keep copies of them.
- Accept responsibility for all agreements you sign.
- If you have a loan, notify the lender of changes in your name, address, or school status.
- Know and comply with the deadline for application or reapplication for aid.
- Know and comply with the school's leave of absence or withdrawal policy/procedures.
- Repay student loans in agreement with the loan promissory note.

CAPS - Services for Students

Academic Advising

The purpose of academic advising is to support students from enrollment to completion of academic programs. Advisors help students understand all degree requirements and options to meet those requirements. Advisors also assist students in understanding policies and procedures, and communicating with departments such as Financial Aid and Accounting.

An academic advising team is assigned to each individual student and advises that student throughout the duration of his or her academic program. Advisors are available to meet one-on-one with students face to face, through email, by phone, or via video conference.

It is important that students maintain contact with their academic advising team in order to ensure timely progression toward degree completion as well as appropriate scheduling for maximum financial aid benefit.

Books and Materials

Indiana Wesleyan University's IWU-National and Global programming has been, in part, designed to serve the needs of busy, working, adult students. With this in mind, the required resource materials for our students are included with the program and are supplied through IWU's chosen supplier and distributor, Tree of Life Bookstores. Some of these required resources are in digital form and can be accessed directly in the learning management system upon individual student registrations. Any non-digital resources will be shipped directly to students prior to each course. For any non-customized print materials that are not part of the first course of a program, students wishing to obtain these specific materials on their own, may contact the Tree of Life Bookstores for further information.

Please note: Any attempted return of materials are subject to policies and procedures as applied by Tree of Life Bookstores. Please contact Tree of Life Bookstores for details related to any possible return of materials.

Should it become necessary for a student to withdraw from a course, any course not completed before the specified time remaining on their access to the digital materials, additional charges may be applied. Hard copy resource materials should be returned immediately, if eligible, to avoid additional charges if/when the course is taken at a later date. If materials are not returned, and/or course is not completed, and course materials change in the time between withdrawal and re-entry, the student will be charged for new materials.

More information can be obtained by contacting Tree of Life Bookstores at 888-392-2930, 765-674-9530 ext. 1, or <http://www.treeoflifebooks.com/customerservices/>.

Chaplaincy Program

Spiritcare, the Chaplaincy Program for IWU National & Global Campus, is a ministry that seeks to care for the spiritual needs of adult students by providing Christ-centered support, resources, and services. This is done primarily through online and onsite classroom visits, structured devotionals, direct emails, and Portal content. The goal is to provide supportive opportunities for the growth of the complete person. On-site and online students have direct contact with a caring pastor shepherd. Spiritcare offers help, hope, and healing for students in crises. Chaplains can provide the following:

- Confidential and caring support for student and family members as requested.
- Spiritual guidance and prayer support.
- Intervention and support during life crises and emergencies.
- Referrals to Biblical, private counsel and support groups for special needs.
- An opportunity to be referred to a local pastor and a local church congregation for students seeking to grow in their faith.

Students may obtain additional information about the Spiritcare Chaplaincy Program through the student portal at myiwu.indwes.edu/Chaplaincy or by contacting the Office of Student Services at 800-621-8667 ext. 2359.

Note: Out of Christian love and concern for IWU National & Global students, IWU chaplains may be notified regarding student issues and needs in order to offer extra care. Chaplains may thus initiate contact with students to ascertain further needs.

Library Services

Off Campus Library Services (OCLS) provides online and onsite access to resources and services specifically for adult students. The Jackson Library in Marion, Indiana, has thousands of materials available in many databases, print and online journals, streaming media (videos), print and ebooks, and microform. Users can search all of these materials through Jackson Library's online catalog and OCLS' secure online databases. Remote access is also available to all databases through the university login.

Small library collections are available at IWU's Regional Education Centers in Louisville, Kentucky; Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, and Dayton, Ohio; and Greenwood, Indianapolis (two locations), and Merrillville, Indiana. These small libraries offer reference books and full access to the library catalog and online databases.

Students can schedule Research Appointments with OCLS librarians for personalized assistance at the Cincinnati, Cleveland, Indianapolis, Louisville, and Marion education centers. Librarians assist with general paper editing, answer APA and Chicago Style questions, and create Personalized Search Plans customized to students' research needs. OCLS can help troubleshoot basic Microsoft Word and PowerPoint issues.

IWU National and Global online and distance students can contact OCLS via e-mail, by phone at 1-800-521-1848, or through the chat service on the OCLS home page, <https://ocls.indwes.edu/>.

The library is part of a consortium, the Academic Libraries of Indiana, which allows Indiana students to use many other Indiana college and university libraries. Kentucky and Ohio students may reach out to their OCLS librarian to learn about access to other libraries in their areas.

Services for Students with Disabilities

IWU Disability Services

The goal of disability services at Indiana Wesleyan University is to work cooperatively with students to help them reach their maximum academic, social, and personal potential. This is accomplished by integrating legal expectations, Indiana Wesleyan's standards of service, and Christ-like principles. The Director of Accessibility and Accommodations is a trained professional, responsible for determining accommodation eligibility and for coordinating office services for students with disabilities. The director works with the students, faculty, and staff to design and implement a plan of reasonable accommodations that allows for equal access to all areas of university life.

Equal Access

Indiana Wesleyan University is committed to inclusion and equal access of individuals with disabilities. Individuals will not be discriminated against on the basis of disability or be denied equal access and appropriate accommodation to the educational opportunities available at IWU.

“No otherwise qualified person with a disability in the United States shall, solely on the basis of disability, be denied access to, or the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity in any institution receiving federal financial assistance.” –Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

Admissions

Admission decisions are made without regard to disabilities. All prospective students are expected to present academic credentials that meet or exceed the minimum requirements for admissions.

Prospective students with disabilities are not required to identify themselves to the Admissions Office or the Director of Accessibility and Accommodations. However, those interested in receiving academic accommodations are encouraged to meet with, or contact, the Director of Accessibility and Accommodations as early as possible to allow for a review of documentation and the formulation of an accommodation plan.

Student Address/Email Information

Students should notify the Office of Student Services of any change of address, telephone number, or name so that proper records can be maintained. Name change requests require submission of appropriate documentation.

IWU Student Email Accounts - Upon acceptance, students are given an IWU student e-mail account. This is the only account used by IWU for communication with the student. It is extremely important that the student checks this account on a regular basis as important academic and financial information as well as university announcements will be shared in this way.

DeVoe School of Business

The DeVoe School of Business supports the university mission to be a Christ-centered institution of higher education and challenges our students to develop character, strengthen their scholarship, and enhance their leadership abilities. The School offers dynamic programs that adapt to the changing nature of knowledge, such as the impact of globalization and technology on the business field. Through extensive curriculum development and program assessment processes, our intensive curriculum builds on the knowledge our students bring to the classroom and helps shape them into lifelong learners. The School provides degree-oriented education opportunities to working adults when occupation and family responsibilities make it difficult to spend major blocks of time in residence on campus. With many of our alumni choosing to continue to reside in the communities we serve, our programs and graduates are a key component in workforce development.

The Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Program (ACBSP) is the largest voluntary business program accreditation organization in the world and promotes continuous quality improvement in business, teaching excellence, and determining student learning outcomes. ACBSP accredits business, accounting, and business-related programs at the associate, baccalaureate, master, and doctorate degree levels. The DeVoe School of Business received initial ACBSP accreditation for its business and accounting programs in November 2018. ACBSP requires all programs to be in existence for two years and have graduates before granting this higher level program accreditation.

Bachelor Degree Programs

BS - Accounting

The Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Accounting is an academic program designed for working professionals employed in public or private organizations who are interested in completing a baccalaureate degree focusing on accounting theory, taxation, and auditing.

Upon completion of the program, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate an understanding of decision making from a Christian worldview.
- Demonstrate knowledge of current accounting principles, tax law, current auditing standards, and the use of accounting information by management.
- Develop critical thinking, problem solving, and communication skills.
- Apply accounting theory in a practical manner.
- Demonstrate technology skills necessary to solve accounting problems.

The first two courses, ACC-201 (Accounting Principles I) and ACC-202 (Accounting Principles II), are provided to those who wish to meet minimum credit hour entrance requirements and as optional refresher courses for those entering the program. The core program focuses on accounting theory emphasizing analytical skills, practical application, and problem solving. Accounting, taxation, and auditing issues faced by managers in a variety of business organizations are also addressed. The accounting curriculum is designed to provide working business professionals with the skills and knowledge necessary to transition into or advance within the general field of accounting.

The curriculum will be completed in the order established by Indiana Wesleyan University. Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to modify the curriculum as necessary.

Note: This degree provides an excellent foundation for students who anticipate pursuing their CPA certification. The courses offered in this program give broad coverage of all the major areas of competency needed to sit for the CPA exam. However, students will need to check with their state licensing board of accountancy for the specific requirements needed to make application to take the CPA examination. States require different application credentials and specifications, and Indiana Wesleyan University makes no promises, express or implied, that this degree alone will qualify graduates to sit for the CPA examination in any state.

Additionally, students will likely need to take a CPA review course (at their own expense) once they have completed the degree at Indiana Wesleyan University. Students cannot realistically expect to complete this degree at Indiana Wesleyan and immediately pass the CPA examination without first taking a CPA review course that prepares them for the intricate and specific questions that might appear on the CPA exam. It is up to each student to make arrangements to enroll in a CPA review course provided by the state in which the student plans to sit for the CPA examination. Indiana Wesleyan does not provide a CPA review course (or any licensing or continuing education courses) as part of the BS - Accounting program.

A minor in Accounting is available to a bachelor degree seeking student in the College of Adult and Professional Studies.

BS - Business Information Systems

The Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Business Information Systems program is designed for working professionals who are employed in businesses or public organizations. The curriculum enables graduates to assist and lead in the planning, development, and operation of information systems. Such systems are used to streamline and automate processes, solve problems, and provide communication channels. The program stresses skill development in the areas of analytical thinking, communication, object-oriented programming, database management systems, networking, security, and Web development, with an emphasis on developing the skills necessary for successfully implementing and supporting computer and information systems. The program also helps develop the skills necessary to serve as a liaison between management and information technology departments.

Upon completion of the program, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate an understanding of decision making from a Christian worldview.
- Demonstrate knowledge of a broad set of technical skills used in business information systems.
- Develop critical thinking, problem solving, and communication skills.

Also, it is strongly recommended that students have a working knowledge of the Windows operating system as well as word processing and spreadsheet applications.

The curriculum will be completed in the order established by Indiana Wesleyan University. Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to modify the curriculum as necessary.

A minor in Information Technology is available to a bachelor degree seeking student in the College of Adult and Professional Studies.

Dual Degrees

MBA/MS - Dual Degree - MBA Major in Project Management, MS Major in Management and Specialization in Information Technology Management

The Master of Business Administration with a major in Project Management and Master of Science with a major in Management and specialization in Information Technology Management is a dual degree program designed to further develop business leaders with strong business, management, project management, and information technology knowledge and skills. Students will learn to make ethical decisions while creating solutions to complex business problems. In addition, creating appropriate communications strategies to achieve organizational goals will be addressed. Applying project management theories and skills and appraising information systems infrastructures will be emphasized. The integration of a biblical framework that guides interactions within the business environment and workplace will be incorporated throughout the program of study.

Note: Students with a current Project Management Professional (PMP) certification will not need to take PROJ-610, PROJ-620, PROJ-630, PROJ-640, and PROJ-660.

Upon completion of the program, students will be able to:

- Evaluate personal leadership and management capabilities.
- Design a plan for self-improvement and continual growth.
- Synthesize ethical standards in decision-making and strategy development.
- Create appropriate communication strategies to achieve organizational goals.
- Design solutions and strategies for complex internal and external business problems.
- Integrate critical thinking and analysis with business administration and management disciplines to ensure mission success.
- Appraise information systems infrastructure, as well as security, legal and compliance requirements to address organizational technology problems.
- Demonstrate competency in project management theory and practice.
- Integrate a biblical framework that guides interactions within the business environment.

The curriculum will be completed in the order established by Indiana Wesleyan University. Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to modify the curriculum and locations offered as necessary.

Admission Requirements

Requirements for admission to the dual Master of Business Administration and Master of Science degree program are as follows:

- A baccalaureate or graduate degree from a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) verified on original transcripts sent by the institution directly to Indiana Wesleyan University.
- An undergraduate grade point average (GPA) of 2.5 or higher from the baccalaureate degree granting institution at which at least a minimum of 30 hours was completed. MBA/MSN - Dual Degree - MBA Major in Business Administration, MSN Major in Nursing Administration

The MSN/MBA is a dual degree resulting in Master of Science in Nursing (with a major in Nursing Administration) and a Master of Business Administration. This degree is designed to meet the worldwide need for principle centered nursing leaders with strong fiscal knowledge and skill. The 60-credit hours include 30 credits from Nursing and 30 credits coming from Business.

This major is designed to develop transformational leaders with strong fiscal knowledge and skill who are effective stewards of health care resources. This is accomplished by developing students through an integrated experience of advanced intellectual challenge, evidence-based professional growth, and maturation of servant leadership. Graduates will be prepared to assume leadership roles within a variety of healthcare settings.

Upon completion of the program, the graduate should be able to:

- Integrate transformational and servant leadership concepts into the role of a nurse administrator.
- Create an evidence-based approach to health care management and leadership.
- Utilize effective stewardship of human and financial resources in health care administration.
- Integrate nursing and business skills to create effective, efficient, and innovative health care systems.
- Design operational and strategic plans for health care systems based on sound finance, accounting, and economic principles.

Admission Requirements

Admission to all Masters Nursing majors begins with submission of required application forms, letters of recommendation, and official transcripts of previous college and university studies. Acceptance into any Masters Nursing program will remain valid for a period of 18 months.

- Proof that all nursing licenses – whether current or inactive – are unencumbered. Potential students with encumbered nursing licenses will not be considered eligible for enrollment at Indiana Wesleyan University.
- All applicants must provide three letters of professional reference. References should be from faculty members, professional colleagues, work supervisors or a pastor who can evaluate the applicant's potential for success in a graduate program. Recommendations from family members are NOT appropriate. These letters should be solicited from professionals who can address the applicant's qualifications for the MSN or doctoral programs.
- Original transcript from the undergraduate degree granting institution and institution where graduate courses have been taken.
- A criminal history background check (at the student's expense) must be completed before registration for any track of the Masters Nursing program. Letters of acceptance from the Division of Masters Nursing will include instructions for completing the criminal background check. The criminal background check must be completed no earlier than two weeks before the beginning of the first course.

To assist in the decision-making process, the Division of Masters Nursing reserves the right to require the applicant to:

- Interview; and/or
- Take the GRE.

Criteria for regular admission are:

- B.S.N. or B.S. degree with a major in nursing from a college or university accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). Registered Nurse applicants who have a non-nursing bachelor's degree and a minimum of ten years of recent experience in nursing practice may also be considered for admission by Portfolio. These candidates may submit a Portfolio which includes a current CV/resume including evidence of accomplishments in nursing based on The Essentials of Baccalaureate Education for Professional Nursing Practice
- Undergraduate grade-point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale from the baccalaureate degree granting institution at which at least a minimum of 30 hours was completed.
- For MSN and Nursing Education and Nursing Administration tracks a 3.0 on a 4.0 scale.
- For Nurse Practitioner's tracks a 3.25 on a 4.0 scale.

Or

- Graduate grade-point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale from a college or university accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) where at least 9 credit were completed.

Criteria for conditional admission are:

Applicants who do not meet the GPA listed in the criteria for regular admission and have at least a 2.75 undergraduate GPA may be conditionally admitted and allowed to take 9- credit hours of masters nursing courses to establish a graduate GPA.

- Students who have earned a 3.0 GPA by the completion of 9-credit hours in master nursing courses, will meet the criteria for regular admission.
- An unsatisfactory grade (C- or lower in any GNUR course) while conditionally admitted will result in administrative withdrawal from the program and denial of regular admission.
- Students who do not earn a 3.0 GPA by the completion of 9-credit hours in master nursing courses will be denied regular admission.

Program Requirements

- All courses must be successfully completed in the sequence prescribed by the program's requirements. Failure to successfully complete any Nursing course will result in an administrative withdrawal from the program.
- Any student found to have falsified clinical/practicum hours will be immediately dismissed and not allowed to re-enter any Masters Nursing program at IWU.
- Students must meet all practicum agency requirements.
- Students who maintain continuous enrollment, who make normal progress toward a degree, and who earn their degree within the major program's maximum time from the date of enrollment may meet the graduation requirements as stated in the catalog under which they enrolled.
- Students must maintain an RN license that is active and unencumbered at all times during enrollment in the program. Students must have a valid unencumbered RN license in the state(s) of the practicum sites. If students have multiple state licenses, all must be unencumbered. It is the student's responsibility to notify the School of Nursing if the status of his or her RN license changes. Students will be administratively withdrawn from the program at any point if this status is not maintained.

Graduation Requirements

To graduate, students must meet the following requirements:

- All Business courses must be completed with a grade of "C" or higher.

- GNUR-501, GNUR-510, and GNUR-530 must be completed with a grade of "C" or higher.
- NRA-513, NRA-671, NRA-672, NRA-673, NRA-675, NRA-676, NRA-678, and NRA-693 must be completed with a grade of "B" or higher.
- Cumulative GPA of 3.0.
- The dual MSN/MBA degree program must be completed within a maximum of five years from the date of enrollment.
- Payment of all tuition and fees is required to receive a diploma.

MBA - Dual Degree and Major Program - MBA and MSN

The MSN/MBA is a dual degree resulting in Master of Science in Nursing (with a major in Nursing Administration) and a Master of Business Administration. This degree is designed to meet the worldwide need for principle centered nursing leaders with strong fiscal knowledge and skill. The 60-credit hours include 30 credits from Nursing and 30 credits coming from Business.

This major is designed to develop transformational leaders with strong fiscal knowledge and skill who are effective stewards of health care resources. This is accomplished by developing students through an integrated experience of advanced intellectual challenge, evidence-based professional growth, and maturation of servant leadership. Graduates will be prepared to assume leadership roles within a variety of healthcare settings.

Upon completion of the program, the graduate should be able to:

- Integrate transformational and servant leadership concepts into the role of a nurse administrator.
- Create an evidence-based approach to health care management and leadership.
- Utilize effective stewardship of human and financial resources in health care administration.
- Integrate nursing and business skills to create effective, efficient, and innovative health care systems.
- Design operational and strategic plans for health care systems based on sound finance, accounting, and economic principles.

Admission Requirements

Admission to all Masters Nursing majors begins with submission of required application forms, letters of recommendation, and official transcripts of previous college and university studies. Acceptance into any Masters Nursing program will remain valid for a period of 18 months.

- Proof that all nursing licenses – whether current or inactive – are unencumbered. Potential students with encumbered nursing licenses will not be considered eligible for enrollment at Indiana Wesleyan University.
- All applicants must provide three letters of professional reference. References should be from faculty members, professional colleagues, work supervisors or a pastor who can evaluate the applicant's potential for success in a graduate program. Recommendations from family members are NOT appropriate. These letters should be solicited from professionals who can address the applicant's qualifications for the MSN or doctoral programs.
- Original transcript from the undergraduate degree granting institution and institution where graduate courses have been taken.
- A criminal history background check (at the student's expense) must be completed before registration for any track of the Masters Nursing program. Letters of acceptance from the Division of Masters Nursing will include instructions for completing the criminal background check. The criminal background check must be completed no earlier than two weeks before the beginning of the first course.

To assist in the decision-making process, the Division of Masters Nursing reserves the right to require the applicant to:

- Interview; and/or
- Take the GRE.

Criteria for regular admission are:

- B.S.N. or B.S. degree with a major in nursing from a college or university accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). Registered Nurse applicants who have a non-nursing bachelor's degree and a minimum of ten years of recent experience in nursing practice may also be considered for admission by Portfolio. These candidates may submit a Portfolio which includes a current CV/resume including evidence of accomplishments in nursing based on The Essentials of Baccalaureate Education for Professional Nursing Practice

- Undergraduate grade-point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale from the baccalaureate degree granting institution at which at least a minimum of 30 hours was completed.
- For MSN and Nursing Education and Nursing Administration tracks a 3.0 on a 4.0 scale.
- For Nurse Practitioner's tracks a 3.25 on a 4.0 scale.

Or

- Graduate grade-point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale from a college or university accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) where at least 9 credit were completed.

Criteria for conditional admission are:

Applicants who do not meet the GPA listed in the criteria for regular admission and have at least a 2.75 undergraduate GPA may be conditionally admitted and allowed to take 9- credit hours of masters nursing courses to establish a graduate GPA.

- Students who have earned a 3.0 GPA by the completion of 9-credit hours in master nursing courses, will meet the criteria for regular admission.
- An unsatisfactory grade (C- or lower in any GNUR course) while conditionally admitted will result in administrative withdrawal from the program and denial of regular admission.
- Students who do not earn a 3.0 GPA by the completion of 9-credit hours in master nursing courses will be denied regular admission.

Program Requirements

- All courses must be successfully completed in the sequence prescribed by the program's requirements. Failure to successfully complete any Nursing course will result in an administrative withdrawal from the program.
- Any student found to have falsified clinical/practicum hours will be immediately dismissed and not allowed to re-enter any Masters Nursing program at IWU.
- Students must meet all practicum agency requirements.
- Students who maintain continuous enrollment, who make normal progress toward a degree, and who earn their degree within the major program's maximum time from the date of enrollment may meet the graduation requirements as stated in the catalog under which they enrolled.
- Students must maintain an RN license that is active and unencumbered at all times during enrollment in the program. Students must have a valid unencumbered RN license in the state(s) of the practicum sites. If students have multiple state licenses, all must be unencumbered. It is the student's responsibility to notify the School of Nursing if the status of his or her RN license changes. Students will be administratively withdrawn from the program at any point if this status is not maintained.

Graduation Requirements

To graduate, students must meet the following requirements:

- All Business courses must be completed with a grade of "C" or higher.
- GNUR-501, GNUR-510, and GNUR-530 must be completed with a grade of "C" or higher.
- NRA-513, NRA-671, NRA-672, NRA-673, NRA-675, NRA-676, NRA-678, and NRA-693 must be completed with a grade of "B" or higher.
- Cumulative GPA of 3.0.
- The dual MSN/MBA degree program must be completed within a maximum of five years from the date of enrollment.
- Payment of all tuition and fees is required to receive a diploma.

DBA - Information Systems Specialization

The Doctor in Business Administration with a specialization in Information Systems prepares students for careers in business education, consulting, and business leadership within the Information Systems world. Students will create new knowledge and skills for application in the global workplace leading to advanced ethical change management solutions and strategies for complex business problems. Students will integrate forward-thinking virtuous leadership into the global team-based business practice and a virtuous worldview into their personal and professional lives. Students will evaluate solutions to real-world information system problems using new applications of theory or changes in present practice. The Virtuous Business Model is integrated throughout the program.

Graduates of the program will be able to:

- Integrate forward-thinking virtuous leadership into the global team-based business practice.
- Create advanced ethical change management solutions and strategies for complex business problems.
- Synthesize advanced research in business education, consulting, or business leadership into their doctoral practice.
- Create new knowledge for application in the global workplace.
- Integrate a virtuous worldview into both their personal and professional lives.
- Evaluate solutions to real-world information system problems using new applications of theory or changes in present practice.

Admission Requirements

Requirements for admission to the Doctor in Business Administration with a specialization in Information Systems are as follows:

- A Master's degree in Information Technology, Information Management, Information Systems or related discipline from a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) verified on original transcripts sent by the institution directly to Indiana Wesleyan University.

- A graduate grade point average (GPA) of 3.25 or higher from the graduate degree granting institution with at least five years' work experience in information systems or technology.. If an applicant's GPA is below 3.25, the student may be admitted on a probationary basis, as established by the guidelines of the DeVoe School of Business.

MGMT-501 is a pre-requisite for the Doctor of Business Administration Bridge Program. Students must complete this pre-requisite course with at least a grade of "B" by the end of the first semester of the program. However, this requirement is waived for students who have a Bachelor's or Master's in business, business administration, accounting, finance, marketing, management, or other related discipline from a college or university accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA).

Graduation Requirements

- Complete all credit-hours required in the curriculum sequence with a minimum GPA of 3.25 and a minimum grade of "B" in each course. A grade of "B-" or below will require the course to be repeated.
- Successful completion and defense of the doctoral project.
- Payment of all tuition and fees is required to receive a diploma.

Certificate Programs - GraduateGraduate Certificate - Biology

The Graduate Biology Certificate is an 18 hour concentration designed for those seeking the credentials required by regional accrediting bodies in order to be able to teach advanced placement, concurrent, and community college Biology courses. The courses provide broad understanding of the field of biological science while strengthening scientific communication and analysis. As this program is taught and practiced in a Christian environment, all courses connect aspects of biology to Christian faith.

Upon completion of this program, students should be able to:

- Synthesize scientific knowledge in biology effectively. (Scientific Knowledge)
- Demonstrate critical thinking skill by evaluating and explaining biological scientific information accurately. (Critical Thinking Skills)
- Develop skills for solving quantitative biological problems that can be modeled mathematically. (Quantitative Skills)
- Formulate a biblical worldview utilizing the attained scientific knowledge in biology

Admission Requirements

The admission requirements for the Graduate Certificate in Biology are as follows:

- A baccalaureate or graduate degree from a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) verified on original transcripts sent by the institution directly to Indiana Wesleyan University.
- A bachelor's degree with a Biology major or must be state certified (in any state) to teach Biology at a secondary school level.
- An undergraduate GPA of 2.75 or higher from the baccalaureate degree granting institution at which at least of minimum of 30 hours was completed.

Completion Requirements

To complete the Certificate in Biology candidates must show evidence of the following:

- Successful completion of the Graduate Biology Certificate curriculum.
- Cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above in all graduate work and a minimum grade of "B-" in each course.
- Payment of all tuition and fees is required to receive a certificate.

Associate Degree Programs

AS - Creative Digital Media

The Associate of Science degree with a major in Creative Digital Media provides students with the practical skills and knowledge necessary to create digital media solutions based on effective communication strategies. Students will use industry-standard software and tools to engage in real-world, hands-on experiences with still images, motion video, social media, and web design. Throughout the program, students will develop professional portfolios that demonstrate their understanding and application of communication principles and implementation of digital media solutions. Skill-based courses in the program are designed to meet the needs of students who have no prior experience with digital media, as well as students who have some experience. Upon successful completion of the program, students are prepared to earn industry certifications and seek entry-level careers in marketing, advertising, product development, web design and development, public relations, video production, and visual communication. Additionally, the skills and knowledge acquired through this program provide an excellent foundation for students desiring to continue their education at IWU to complete a bachelor's degree in any discipline, especially degrees with majors in Communication and Marketing.

Admission Requirements

The admission requirements for the associate degree programs offered through the College of Adult and Professional Studies are as follows:

- Proof of standard high school diploma or GED certification.
- Submission of all required items for the admissions process as outlined in the "application procedures" section of the application packet.

Required Materials

- Subscription to Adobe Creative Cloud for students for the entirety of the program.

- DSLR camera capable of manual exposure settings for use in capturing still images.
- Digital video camera with ability for manual setting of focus, white balance, and exposure, as well as an external audio input option (XLR or 3.5mm mini-jack).
- External microphone (XLR or 3.5mm mini-jack) that will work with the selected camera.
- A minimum of three, color-temperature matched, lights (practical lights are acceptable, but a dimmable option is preferred).
- Two external 500Gb hard drives (one primary, one backup).

Anytime access to a computer capable of audio/video display and the Adobe software's minimum requirements.

Graduation Requirements

To graduate with an associate degree with a major in Creative Digital Media from the College of Adult and Professional Studies at Indiana Wesleyan University, the following requirements must be met:

- Completion of 60 semester hours
- Completion of foundational, major, and completion of 24 hours of general education requirements as specified (General Education Requirements (p. 304)).
- Completion of the core requirements with a GPA of 2.0 or higher.
- Cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher.
- Payment of all tuition and fees is required in order to receive a diploma.

AS - Integrative Studies - Business

The Associate of Science degree with a major in Integrative Studies is a customizable degree providing adult students the freedom to create their own path of study based on career goals, unique passions, and life calling. The program is designed to develop students' abilities to integrate learning across courses, over time, and between academic and life experiences.

The curriculum consists of 60 credits, including both general education requirements and a concentration in one academic area or a self-designed, customized combination of coursework.

The program begins with an introduction to integrative learning and liberal arts, in which students will explore their plan of study. It concludes with a capstone experience, in which students are able to reflect upon and communicate their integrative learning from a Christian worldview.

The Integrative Studies major may not be taken as an additional major and is not available for students who are completing other IWU Associate degree programs.

Students graduating from Indiana Wesleyan University with an Associate of Science degree with a major in Integrative Studies should be able to:

- Illustrate connections between life experiences and fields of study.
- Describe connections between examples, facts, or theories from more than one field of study or perspective.
- Explain problems or issues by applying acquired skills and knowledge to new situations.
- Communicate in oral, written, or visual ways that explicitly connect content and form with an awareness of purpose and audience.
- Evaluate changes in one's own learning over time to envision a future self.
- Integrate Christian faith, ethics, and character with knowledge and skills from fields of study and the liberal arts.

Admission Requirements

The admission requirements for the associate degree programs are as follows:

- Proof of standard high school diploma or GED certification.

Graduation Requirements

To graduate with an associate degree the following requirements must be met:

- Completion of 60 semester hours; 15 hours must be taken at IWU.
- Completion of 15 semester hours in the concentration; nine hours must be taken at IWU.

The Associate of Science degree with a major in Integrative Studies is a customizable degree providing adult students the freedom to create their own path of study based on career goals, unique passions, and life calling. The program is designed to develop students' abilities to integrate learning across courses, over time, and between academic and life experiences.

The curriculum consists of 60 credits, including both general education requirements and a concentration in one academic area or a self-designed, customized combination of coursework.

The program begins with an introduction to integrative learning and liberal arts, in which students will explore their plan of study. It concludes with a capstone experience, in which students are able to reflect upon and communicate their integrative learning from a Christian worldview.

The Integrative Studies major may not be taken as an additional major and is not available for students who are completing other IWU Associate degree programs.

Students graduating from Indiana Wesleyan University with an Associate of Science degree with a major in Integrative Studies should be able to:

- Illustrate connections between life experiences and fields of study.
- Describe connections between examples, facts, or theories from more than one field of study or perspective.
- Explain problems or issues by applying acquired skills and knowledge to new situations.

- Communicate in oral, written, or visual ways that explicitly connect content and form with an awareness of purpose and audience.
- Evaluate changes in one's own learning over time to envision a future self.
- Integrate Christian faith, ethics, and character with knowledge and skills from fields of study and the liberal arts.

Admission Requirements

The admission requirements for the associate degree programs are as follows:

- Proof of standard high school diploma or GED certification.

School of Service and Leadership

The School of Service and Leadership offers a variety of adult education programs to help students meet their personal and professional goals. Our faculty and staff model a posture of humility and service in the spirit of Luke 22:26 "...he who is greatest among you, let him be as the younger, and he who governs as he who serves." The school vision captures our heart and desire:

Motivated by a profound love for God and the mind of Christ the School of Service and Leadership team intentionally seeks opportunities to serve others within and beyond the university by equipping students to lead.

We are a school that serves adult students where they are and equips them for where they want to go. Our online, blended, and onsite programs are specifically designed to meet the needs of our students. Our diverse and accomplished faculty passionately lead students to excellence in their fields, and model the humility necessary to put the needs of others before their own.

Associate Degree Programs

AS - Criminal Justice

AS - Criminal Justice

The Associate of Science degree with a major in Criminal Justice includes both criminal justice and liberal arts curricula.

This degree is designed specifically to prepare working adults to enter or to advance in the fields of criminal justice and homeland security.

The courses in the program relate theory to practice. Each course is a required component of the program.

The curriculum will be completed in the order established by Indiana Wesleyan University. Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to modify the curriculum as necessary.

Courses offered both in the classroom setting and online.

The Criminal Justice Program prepares students for an entry-level position or increased responsibility in law enforcement, court services, corrections, or private security. In addition, the program will prepare students wishing to pursue a bachelor degree in criminal justice.

Students graduating from Indiana Wesleyan University with an Associate of Science degree with a major in Criminal Justice degree should be able to:

- Apply appropriate communication skills across settings, purposes, and audiences of the American Criminal Justice System, including law enforcement, corrections and courts.
- Apply theories, principles and practices of criminal justice, including constitutional principles, judicial and correctional processes, legal institutions, and law enforcement.
- Apply criminal law, juvenile law, constitutional law, and procedural law as it relates to a person's involvement with the Criminal Justice System from first contact until sentence completion in a manner consistent with ethical and biblical standards.
- Critique criminal justice research and use those findings to support arguments and decisions within the criminal justice context.
- Critically engage ethical issues in criminal justice, particularly questions of social responsibility, professional decision-making and the impact of cultural diversity on the Criminal Justice system.
- Integrate biblical perspectives into the decision-making process as it relates to issues involving the Criminal Justice System.

This program provides a fundamental basis for students desiring to continue their education at IWU to complete a bachelor's degree in this discipline. The courses contained in this associate program will satisfy 24 hours out of the 30 general education hours required at the bachelor level and will also apply toward the 120 hour degree requirement.

Admission Requirements

The admission requirements for the associate degree programs are as follows:

- Proof of standard high school diploma or GED certification.

Graduation Requirements

To graduate with an associate degree the following requirements must be met:

- Completion of 60 semester hours.
- Completion of the core requirements with a GPA of 2.0 or higher.
- Cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher.
- Completion of 24 hours of general education requirements as specified (General Education Requirements).
- Payment of all tuition and fees in order to receive a diploma.

Bachelor Degree Programs

BS - Addictions Counseling

BS - Addictions Counseling

The Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Addictions Counseling program is a 22-month course of study that provides an in-depth education from a Christian perspective for persons who desire to understand and/or serve addicted persons and their families. Most coursework is completed online with onsite practicums offered at mutually agreed-upon sites.

Graduates from this major should be able to:

- Explain the biopsychosocial-spiritual dimension of addictions.
- Demonstrate an understanding of sin and God's transformative power and grace using helpers and helping systems across the biopsychosocial and spiritual dimensions of addiction/recovery.
- Synthesize assessment and enhancement of client motivation within a broader context of assessment, treatment planning, and client/system change.
- Differentiate among and evaluate the theories underlying addictions counseling and apply them in practice.
- Discuss the pharmacological properties of major drugs and their impact on the brain and behavior.
- Demonstrate an understanding of ethical practice with diverse populations.
- Facilitate group therapy for addicted individuals effectively.

Admission Requirements

The admission requirements for this program are as follows:

- Proof of high school graduation or GED certification.
- Original transcripts from all previous college or university study at college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA).
- Prior completion of at least 60 transferable credit hours is required before the student is eligible to start a bachelor core program.

Transfer Credit Policy

Transfer credit for core curriculum requirements for undergraduate programs within the School of Service and Leadership may be granted as follows:

- Credit must have been earned at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) with a minimum grade of "C".
- Students may transfer in up to 15 hours of credit for the following core courses: ADC-210, SOC-210, PSY-250, ADC-310, ADC-320, PSY-370, and PSY-366.
- Students must complete at least 30 hours of the core curriculum at Indiana Wesleyan University.

Practicum Requirements

As part of the Bachelor of Science degree with a major Addictions Counseling program at IWU, each student will be required to complete a practicum experience whereby students will engage in on-site learning via an agency or center focused on the practice of addictions counseling. Sites are secured through a collaborative effort between the Coordinator of Practicums and Field Experiences and each individual student. Students will be required to complete a total of 350 hours of practicum experience over the span of 20 weeks. These hours will coincide with the final four courses of the program (ADC-471, ADC-472, ADC-473 and ADC-474). This averages out to about 17.5 hours each week where students will participate in a practicum experience. This practicum is key to the student's learning experience as it provides opportunity for students to receive constructive feedback and continual supervision while gaining experience in a professional counseling setting.

Graduation Requirements

To graduate with a baccalaureate degree with a major in Addictions Counseling from the College of Adult and Professional Studies at Indiana Wesleyan University, the following requirements must be met:

- Completion of 120 semester hours.
- Cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher.
- Completion of the required core courses with a GPA of 2.50 or higher.
- Completion of 30 hours of general education as specified (General Education Requirements (p. 305)).

The mission of the Social Work program is to prepare social work students for generalist entry-level practice and provide opportunities for students to become world changers who have a desire to integrate personal faith and learning to maximize one's ability to be of service to one's fellow human beings.

The BSW at Indiana Wesleyan University prepares students to achieve the following goals:

- To prepare culturally competent students for entry-level social work practice with a variety of client systems.
- To prepare students for graduate level education.
- To provide opportunities for the integration of Christian principles within the context of professional social work values and ethics.

Upon completion of the Social Work program at Indiana Wesleyan University, students will be able to demonstrate the following core competencies within the framework of the generalist model of social work practice:

- Demonstrate ethical and professional behavior
- Engage in diversity and difference in practice
- Advance human rights and social, economic, and environmental justice
- Engage in practice-informed research and research-informed practice
- Engage in policy practice
- Engage with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities
- Assess individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities
- Intervene with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities
- Evaluate practice with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities

In addition, the program integrates the IWU Institutional Learning Outcomes.

The IWU Social Work program is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE). Students wishing to continue graduate education may be eligible for advanced standing at many graduate schools of Social Work. Graduates of the Social Work program are eligible to become full members of the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) and North American Association of Christians in Social Work (NACSW).

Throughout the curriculum, theory and practice are integrated through a variety of educational experiences. Students become active within their community in a variety of capacities as they complete major course assignments. When all major course work is complete students enter the field education component of the program. A minimum of 400 hours in the field are required, averaging 17 hours per week over a 24 week period. According to CSWE, the field placement is the signature pedagogy of Social Work education.

Admission Requirements

Requirements for admission to the BSW program are as follows:

Proof of high school graduation or GED certification.

- Original transcripts from all previous college or university study at college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA).

Prior completion of at least 45 transferable credit hours is required before the student is eligible to start a bachelor core program.

ADMISSION TO THE SOCIAL WORK PROGRAM

The admission of students to the Social Work program is a formal process separate from the initial declaration of social work as a major. The process includes successful completion of the SWK-170 Introduction to Social Work course and completion of 45 credit hours with a cumulative grade point average of 2.5. Admission is granted after students successfully complete an application, compile three reference letters, and complete a department interview. Any unfavorable decision may be appealed by following the grievance procedures on file in the department and student handbook.

Transfer Policy

Students may transfer in credit for the following core courses: PSY-150, SOC-150, SOC-152, SOC-210, ECO-205, POL-200, BIO-106, BIO-106L, MAT-305, SWK-170, SWK-342, SWK-343, SWK-335, SWK-336, and SOC-482.

- Only courses in which a "C" was earned will transfer.
- The student must complete at least 30 semester hours of the core courses through IWU.
- The Social Work program does not grant social work course credit for life experience or previous work experience.

Field Placement

After all major coursework is complete, each student is required to complete a Field Placement in a social service agency. This placement site will be arranged by the Director of Field Experience in collaboration with each student, aiming to align with the student's professional goals and development needs. As such, each student will complete a Social Work Field Placement Application along with an updated resume and personal statement. Students will submit their field placement application to the Director of Field Experience. Field Placement options are discussed and a tentative plan is created for Field Placement based on the student's interest and needs.

There are two Field Experience courses, SWK-366 and SWK-466, which are taken concurrently with two Field Seminar courses, SWK-370 and SWK-470. Students are to complete all foundational and core courses as pre-requisites to taking SWK-366 and SWK-370, which are pre-requisites to SWK-466 and SWK-470. While there are two field experience courses, they are completed in one agency setting over a period of approximately six months.

Program Requirements

Continuation in the Social Work Major

The social work faculty reserves the right to request the withdrawal of any student whose academic performance, social fitness, and mental or physical health make it inadvisable to continue in the program. All decisions regarding continuation in the program are based on the recommendations of the Social Work full-time faculty.

Students who receive a grade of less than a "C" in any course required for the social work major must repeat the course. Students must maintain an overall grade point average of 2.5 and a 2.7 in the major. To graduate, a student must maintain a grade point average of 2.7 in the major and a cumulative grade point average of 2.5. Students who fall below this grade-point average will be placed on probation per the CAPS catalog. Failure to raise the grade point average to 2.5 overall and 2.7 in the major could then result in dismissal from the program.

- A minimum grade of "C" is required in all Social Work courses.
- Students must successfully complete SWK-170 (Introduction to Social Work) and be enrolled in SWK-342 (Human Behavior and Social Environment I) before being admitted into the Social Work Program and continuing on with taking Social Work core courses. Students who fail to earn a "C" or better in a Social Work core course may not continue in the Social Work program until that course is successfully repeated.
- All courses required for the Social Work major (BSW degree) must be completed before students can take Field Placement I and II (SWK-366 and SWK-466) and Field Seminar I and II (SWK-370 and SWK-470).
- All Social Work courses must be successfully completed in the sequence prescribed by the program's requirements. Failure to successfully complete a course will result in an administrative withdrawal from the program.

Incomplete Grades

Students are expected to complete the course requirements by the last class session. There may be instances when crisis circumstances or events prevent the student from completing the course requirements in a timely manner. However, the issuance of an incomplete cannot be given if the student fails to meet the attendance requirements. In these rare situations, a grade of "I" (incomplete) may be issued but only after completing the following process:

- The student must request an "I" from the instructor.

- The instructor must obtain approval from the appropriate Regional Dean/Program Director/Program Chair/Division Chair. The issuance of an incomplete; however, cannot be given if the student fails to meet the attendance requirements. Because an "incomplete" is granted only for extenuating circumstances, the student's grade will not be penalized.

Extenuating Circumstances for Incomplete Grade Request

- Incapacitating illness which prevents a student from attending classes for a minimum period of two weeks
- A death in the immediate family
- Judicial obligations
- Other verifiable emergencies deemed appropriate by the instructor

Procedure for Requesting an Incomplete

- Request for a grade of incomplete must be initiated by the student.
- The faculty member retains the right to make the final decision on accepting a student's request for an incomplete grade even though the student may meet eligibility requirements for an incomplete.
- Valid reasons for not completing the work within a course must be presented in writing to the professor before the last day of that course.
- Request for Incomplete Form will be submitted to the BSW Program Director for approval.
- If approved, written arrangements for completion of course work must be provided by the granting faculty member to the student along with this policy document at the time the incomplete grade is submitted (see Plan for Completion of Course Work).
- The student must have the ability to pass the class at the time of the request.
- No more than 1/3 of the work for the course may be left to be completed.
- Grades of "I" may only be awarded at the end of a course.
- Incomplete grades will not be computed into GPA.
- Incomplete grades may have an impact on Financial Aid and Scholarships.
- It is the responsibility of the student to complete and submit the remaining course work before the assigned deadline.
- Coursework must be completed and a grade submitted no later than 6 weeks from end of course.
- Any student not fulfilling the contract obligations of the Incomplete will receive a grade of "F".
- Students who receive converted grades of "F" may appeal disputed grades as outlined in the university catalog.
- Students who receive converted grades of "F" will not be able to continue in their existing schedule or register for new courses until that course is repeated according to BSW Policy.

Exception to an Incomplete

A student with more than one incomplete on record is subject to academic suspension.

Graduation Requirements

To graduate with the BSW from the College of Adult and Professional Studies at Indiana Wesleyan University, the following requirements must be met:

- Completion of 120 semester hours.

Cumulative GPA of 2.5.

- Completion of all major courses with a cumulative GPA of 2.7 or higher.

- Completion of a total of 400 supervised hours of field education.

- Completion of 30 hours of general education as specified General Education Requirements.
- Payment of all tuition and fees is required to receive a diploma.

Master Degree Programs

Master of Arts - Psychology

The Master of Arts with a major in Psychology and specializations in Life Coaching and Positive Psychology and Industrial and Organizational Psychology, is designed to train students in the history, theory and research methods of psychology from a Christian faith perspective. Our program promotes not only development as a competent and ethical professional, but also encourages students to grow in all aspects of their lives, including work, health and relationships.

This is a 30-credit hour, online program that can be completed in about a year. The MA with a major in Psychology is appropriate both for students with a limited background in psychology and those who hold an undergraduate degree in the field. The program prepares students for work in a variety of professional settings, including government, business, non-profits, and the church. Some students also use the program to clarify their interest in professional psychology; others use it as a first step toward doctoral studies. While graduates can continue on with further study to become licensed mental health workers, this program is not intended to qualify students for independent practice as a licensed professional psychologist.

Students should be aware that demonstrated ability for research or analysis is a critical requisite skill for this program. A research course or preparatory module may be advised if students do not satisfy preliminary standards.

Graduates of this program should be able to:

- Articulate the development of the field of psychology over time.
- Demonstrate a professional identity through acts of service based upon current research in a specialization of psychology.
- Integrate theoretical models of human bio-psychosocial and spiritual development with the concepts of flourishing.
- Describe the spectrum of mental health and well-being from both a traditional psychopathology and positive psychology perspectives.
- Create a theoretical model of personality development and social interaction.
- Apply the principles of positive psychology to promote human flourishing.

Specialization in Life Coaching and Positive Psychology

- Articulate an ability to reflect on how positive psychology can enhance spiritual development.
- Apply principles of positive psychology to the process of life coaching.

Specialization in Industrial and Organizational Psychology

- Apply ethical principles to organizational processes.
- Apply theories of motivation to help employees develop their strengths in the workplace.

Capstone in Life Coaching and Positive Psychology or Industrial and Organizational Psychology

- Within a specialization of psychology, synthesize the principles, theories and practices in a culminating project that improves the lives of others.

Admission Requirements

The Master of Arts with a major in Psychology program is designed for individuals from a variety of backgrounds and requires no specific prerequisite courses. However, for admission to the program, it is necessary to meet the following requirements and submit relevant documentation.

- A baccalaureate degree from a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), verified on official transcripts sent by the institution directly to Indiana Wesleyan University.
- The bachelor's degree may be in any field and there are no pre-requisite courses that must be completed prior to starting the program.
- An undergraduate grade point average (GPA) of 2.5 or higher from the baccalaureate degree granting institution at which at least a minimum of 30 hours was completed. If an applicant's GPA is below 2.25, the student may be admitted on a probationary basis, as established by the guidelines of the college.

- Two recommendations from individuals familiar with the applicant's academic and professional competencies. Recent college graduates should have at least one academic recommendation.
- Applicants who have been out of college more than three years should submit professional recommendations.

Transfer of Credit

Credit may be allowed for courses equivalent in content, credit hours, and course title, except for the Capstone course. Only coursework completed at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) with a minimum of "C" or higher is acceptable for transfer credit. A maximum of six credit hours of equivalent coursework may be transferred in to meet program requirements.

Graduation Requirements

- Completion of the 30 hour program with an overall GPA of at least 3.0 and a minimum grade of "C" in all IWU graduate work. A grade of "C-" or below will require the course to be repeated.
- Payment of tuition and fees is required to receive a diploma.

Master of Social Work

The Indiana Wesleyan University (IWU) Master of Social Work (MSW) Program is an online course of study that offers a personal, professional, and innovative experience for all learners seeking advanced social work practice with a clinical emphasis. Clinical skills are built upon a foundational integrative generalist practice approach to the social work profession that draws on individual and community strengths to work toward social justice in their respective communities. The IWU MSW program provides a biblical perspective on social, economic, and environmental justice and the intrinsic worth of all people.

Graduates of this program should be able to:

- Demonstrate ethical and professional behavior within advanced clinical practice.
- Engage diversity and difference in practice.
- Advance human rights and social, economic, and environmental justice.
- Engage in practice-informed research and research-informed practice.
- Engage in policy practice.
- Engage with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities.
- Assess individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities.
- Intervene with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities.
- Evaluate practice with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities.

Enrollment for the MSW program is offered annually for January, May, and August admissions. There are three cohort tracks that are available to students that are further described under Admission Requirements. These cohort tracks are:

- Standard Track – 24 Months
- Standard Track – 33 Months
- Advanced Standing – 16 Months

Admission Requirements

Requirements for admission to the MSW program are as follows:

- A baccalaureate or graduate degree from a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) verified on original transcripts sent by the institution directly to IWU.
- Two Letters of Recommendations are required for all applications. These should be completed by persons who have worked directly with you and can vouch for your work ethic, skills, competence, and character and/or by a university professor who can attest to your ability to perform basic social work skills and demonstrate professional identity as a social worker.
- Standard Track applicants must have a minimum grade point average (GPA) of 2.7 or higher from a baccalaureate degree granting institution at which at least a minimum of 30 hours was completed. Applicants who do not meet the minimum GPA requirement for the Standard Track may be accepted on a probationary basis.
- Advanced Standing is awarded only to graduates holding degrees from baccalaureate social work programs accredited by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE), recognized through its International Social Work Degree Recognition and Evaluation Services, or covered under a memorandum of understanding with international social work accreditors. Regular admission requirements for Advanced Standing are:
 - Must have a minimum GPA of 3.0.
 - Degree must be conferred within the last seven years.
 - Complete a Personal Statement.
- Applicants who do not have a 3.0 GPA but otherwise meet admission requirements for Advanced Standing can be accepted as a probationary admission as long as their GPA is greater than 2.5. Applicants who do not meet the requirement for when their degree was conferred but meet all other requirements for Advanced Standing can be accepted as a probationary admission.

All application decisions will be made by the MSW Admissions Committee. The student is then notified of one of the following responses by letter sent by the MSW Program Director:

- Regular Admission - Students who satisfactorily meet all requirements will be granted standard admission with no restrictions.

- Probationary Admission – A student whose entering GPA falls below the minimum required by the MSW program may be accepted on probation. Probationary status will be removed after the student has completed the first three courses with a satisfactory GPA of 3.0. In the case of extended probation, the number of courses to be completed to change status will be determined by the Associate Dean of the School of Service and Leadership. Any student failing to remove the probationary status will be academically suspended from the program.
- Provisional Admission – MSW applicants whose files are incomplete may be accepted provisionally at the discretion of the Vice President for Student Services if it appears from the available documentation that eligibility for the program has been met. The student must submit the required materials before the start of the first course. Failure to meet the required deadline will result in the student being dropped from the roster and not being allowed to continue.
- Denial of Admission – Students who do not meet criteria for admission to the program. Any baccalaureate graduate who applies to the IWU MSW Program, regardless of the degree, is not accepted to the MSW Program if their overall GPA is below 2.5.

Transfer Policy

The IWU MSW program policy regarding transfer of credits allows students previously enrolled in a CSWE accredited program to transfer up to 12 hours of degree credit into the IWU MSW Standard Track program and 6 hours of degree credit into the Advanced Track program. Hours of credit may be transferred, but grades earned in courses taken at another institution do not transfer and are not used in computing the student's graduate GPA at IWU. To submit courses for transfer, students must submit a list of the courses they would like to transfer, along with the course descriptions and syllabi to the MSW Program Director. The MSW Program Director evaluates the courses for equivalency with the course content and learning outcomes of the IWU MSW program.

To transfer a course, students must have;

- earned a minimum of a "B" in the course
- taken the course at a regionally accredited university
- taken the course within the last seven years
- the course must have been completed in an MSW program accredited by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE), recognized through its International Social Work Degree Recognition and Evaluation Services, or covered under a memorandum of understanding with international social work accreditors.

In accordance with CSWE standards, it is the policy of the IWU MSW program that students are not given credit for life experience or previous work experience.

Student with Special Needs

IWU recognizes and fulfills its obligations under the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and similar state laws. IWU is committed to providing reasonable accommodations to qualified disabled learners in university programs and activities as are required by applicable law. See Services for Disabled Students. (p. 748)

Program Requirements

Academic Standing

Students whose GPA falls below 3.0 will be placed on academic probation and are given two consecutive courses to satisfactorily raise their GPA. The GPA is reviewed after the second course, and if it has been successfully raised, the probationary status is removed. Academic suspension will result if the student's GPA is not successfully raised.

Academic suspension will result if a student fails to clear the academic probationary status within the probationary period of two consecutive courses. The suspension will occur once the grades have been recorded in the Registrar's Office. Students will be notified of the academic suspension in writing. Application for readmission may be made after six months. The application must be made in writing to the MSW Program Director.

Upon a second academic suspension in the MSW program, a student is dismissed from the university, and no longer eligible to earn the MSW degree.

Incomplete Grades

Students are expected to complete the course requirements by the last class session. There may be instances when crisis circumstances or events prevent the student from completing the course requirements in a timely manner. In these rare situations, a grade of "I" (incomplete) may be issued but only after completing the following process:

- The student must request an "I" from the instructor.
- The instructor must obtain approval from the appropriate Regional Dean/Program Director/Program Chair/Division Chair.

However, the issuance of an incomplete cannot be given if the student fails to meet the attendance requirements. Because "incompletes" are granted only for extenuating circumstances, the student's grade will not be penalized.

Extenuating Circumstances for Incomplete Grade Request

- Incapacitating illness which prevents a student from attending classes for a minimum period of two weeks
- A death in the immediate family
- Judicial obligations
- Other circumstances deemed emergencies by the instructor and approved by Program Director.

Procedure

- The request for a grade of incomplete must be initiated by the student. (see Request for Incomplete Grade form)
- The faculty member retains the right to make the final decision on accepting a student's request for an incomplete grade even though the student may meet eligibility requirements for an incomplete.
- Valid reasons for not completing the work within a course must be presented in writing to the professor before the last day of that course. (See Request for Incomplete Form).
- Request for Incomplete Form will be submitted to the MSW Program Director for approval.
- If approved, written arrangements for completion of course work must be provided by the granting faculty member to the student along with this policy document at the time the incomplete grade is submitted (see Plan for Completion of Course Work).
- The student must have the ability to pass the class at the time of the request.
- No more than 1/3 of the work for the course may be left to be completed.
- Grades of "I" may only be awarded at the end of a course.
- Incomplete grades will not be computed into GPA.
- Incomplete grades may have an impact on Financial Aid.
- It is the responsibility of the student to complete and submit the remaining course work before the assigned deadline.
- Coursework must be completed and a grade submitted no later than 8 weeks from end of course.
- Any student not fulfilling the contract obligations of the Incomplete, the grade will default to the grade earned in the course if the remaining work is graded as a zero
- Students who receive a converted grades that is unsatisfactory, may appeal disputed grades as outlined in the university catalog.
- Students who receive a converted grade that is unsatisfactory, will not be able to continue in their existing schedule or register for new courses until that course is repeated according to MSW Policy.

Exception

A student with more than one incomplete on record is subject to academic suspension.

Gatekeeping and Performance Review

Gatekeeping and professional performance review in the MSW program occurs throughout the program. While each part of the curriculum is designed to evaluate knowledge, skills, values and behaviors there are several points at which particular focused evaluation occurs.

Review Points:

- Social Work Field Education Application for each practicum year (Foundation year and Advanced year) is initiated by the Director of Field Experiences approximately three months prior to each field experience. Successful completion of this application process gives the student permission to continue into that field placement. The student must demonstrate competency in their field experience in all courses in order to graduate with the MSW degree. Competency is measured by the Agency Field Instructor Evaluation and the projects completed as part of the Field Education Seminars. The student must pass their Field Evaluation to pass Seminar.
- The MSW program faculty continually evaluates student's professional performance throughout the program through interactions with, and between, students, faculty, and others throughout the program. Professional performance is monitored by faculty through coursework submissions, such as weekly discussion boards and assignment responses, and through emails or other forms of communication with or about students. The following items indicate when a student fails to meet professional performance criteria as listed in the MSW Student Handbook:
 - Fails to meet generally accepted standards of professional conduct, personal integrity or emotional stability required for professional practice;
 - Fails to demonstrate the effective interpersonal skills necessary to perform professional helping relationships;
 - Fails to adhere to the NASW Code of Ethics;
 - Has been found guilty of criminal misconduct that affects the student's ability to be licensed as a social worker; or
 - Displays inappropriate or disruptive behavior toward clients, other students, faculty, or staff which interferes with professional judgment or jeopardizes the best interest of those to whom the Social Work student has a professional responsibility. Formal evaluation of professional performance occurs when a professional performance issue has been identified and brought to the MSW program faculty. The faculty use a Rubric for Assessing Professional Behavior that operationalizes the following twelve professional performance behaviors: attendance; punctuality; respect; self-awareness; diversity awareness; collegiality; oral communication; written communication; initiative; reliability; responsiveness to feedback; compliance with professional requirements of the program, and; compliance with NASW Code of Ethics.

The following Student Professional Performance Policy and Procedures has been included in the MSW Student Handbook to inform students of the criteria for evaluating their professional performance.

Student Professional Performance Policy and Procedures

Students who violate ethical standards of practice established by NASW in the Code of Ethics, whose professional performance affects their ability to be licensed as a social worker, and/or who do not meet the practice behaviors established by CSWE, may be recommended for a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) to offer the opportunity to correct the identified behaviors. Students who do not meet goals as detailed in a Performance Improvement Plan will be terminated from the Social Work Program.

Performance concerns may include, but are not limited to the following:

- Fails to meet generally accepted standards of professional conduct, personal integrity or emotional stability required for professional practice;
- Fails to demonstrate the effective interpersonal skills necessary to perform professional helping relationships;
- Fails to adhere to the NASW Code of Ethics;
- Has been found guilty of criminal misconduct that affects the student's ability to be licensed as a social worker; or
- Displays inappropriate or disruptive behavior toward clients, other students, faculty, or staff which interferes with professional judgment or jeopardizes the best interest of those to whom the Social Work student has a professional responsibility.

Procedures for Student Performance Improvement

- Faculty should submit a written report that delineates the reasons (evidence) based on one or more academic and/or nonacademic violation(s) to the Performance Review Committee (PRC). The Performance Evaluation Tool should accompany the report.
- The Performance Review Committee will include the social work faculty member bringing forth the evidence, the Program Director (or surrogate), the Field Director, academic advising, and full-time social work faculty. Other committee members may include representation from the registrar, disability services, financial aid, and program administrators (i.e. Chair and Dean).

- The Committee will review the evidence and discuss recommendations, including any performance outcomes deemed necessary to correct the behavior(s) and continue in the program. Once the discussion is concluded, the Director will call for a decision vote.
- The Program Director will contact the student to invite a meeting to discuss the evidence and decision of the PRC. During this meeting, the student will have an opportunity to present any additional information relevant to the performance concerns.
 - If a Performance Improvement Plan was recommended by the PRC, this will be presented and discussed with the student.
 - If the PRC decision is suspension from the Program, the Academic Advisor will explore and facilitate alternative schedules with the student.
- The Program Director will notify the student in writing a summary of the meeting with the student. This letter will include the following: the performance concern(s); the PRC decision; a date for the PIP Review (if applicable); the re-entry plan for a student being suspended; and the date of exit from the program for a student terminated from the MSW program. Students will also be provided the information for filing a grievance should they contest the PRC decision, including the link to the Grievance Policy.

Continuation in and Policy for Termination from the Social Work Program

To remain in the MSW program, students must maintain a 3.0 GPA, must pass all courses with a minimum of a "C," successfully pass all the seminar courses, complete required field hours and pass the field performance evaluation based on required established scores indicated in the manual for field education. If a student withdraws from or receives below a "C" in a course he or she may re-take the course but may not move on in the program until successfully passing the course.

It is the desire of the MSW faculty that students admitted to the program will continue in the program and graduate. However, there are circumstances that could lead to dismissal from the MSW program. Some violations may include but are not limited to:

- Failure to meet or maintain academic grade point requirement as established by the University (3.0 overall) and a minimum of a "C" in all courses.
- Failure to pass any of the gatekeeping and performance review points.
- Behavior judged to be in violation of the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) Code of Ethics.
- Behavior judged to be in violation of University Expectations of Professional Conduct (p. 302).
- Academic cheating, lying or plagiarism (see Honesty, Cheating, Plagiarism, and Forgery (p. 18)).
- Unresolved personal issues that, in the professional judgment of the social work faculty, could impair the effective quality provision of services to future clients.
- Evidence of chemical dependency documented as occurring during the course of study.
- Recurring or habitual absenteeism.
- Inappropriate behavior and/or an inability to develop the appropriate interpersonal skills necessary for effective social work practice.
- Repeated failure to demonstrate professional work habits and professional behavior.

In the event of any of the above violations, the MSW Program Director in consultation with Social Work faculty may require outside evaluations and/or opinions of professionals as is deemed necessary to determine the most appropriate course of actions. Each situation is treated individually, and the student may appeal any decision that is made.

Academic Grievance Procedures

Students may contest academic and professional review decisions through the grievance process. The purpose of the grievance procedure is to ensure that students are being treated fairly and that their rights have not been violated. In accordance with the academic grievance policies outlined in the University Catalog and established by the University and College of Adult and Professional Studies (CAPS), within which the MSW program is housed, students may use the following appeal and grievance procedures if they feel their rights have been violated: Grade Appeal and Academic Policy Grievance (p. 306).

MSW Program Grievance Policy Internal Grievance Steps

Within the MSW program, students may also report a grievance of any kind according to the following process.

- When appropriate, and or possible, the student shall attempt a satisfactory reconciliation directly with the MSW faculty member involved.
- In situations of unsatisfactory resolution or incidences not directly involving a faculty member, the student may petition the IWU MSW Program Director in writing. The Director will then hold a conference with the student within ten working days of the request.
- If a student is not satisfied with the outcome of the above meeting, he or she may submit a written request for a hearing with the Chair of the Behavioral Sciences Department. The hearing shall be held no later than ten days after the student's written request for a hearing in keeping with the University grievance process as stated in the Catalog.
- Direct request for further hearing or petition may be made to the Academic Dean per University Academic Grievance policy described above.

Field Practicum

Field education is an educationally directed and supervised planned learning experience which gives the student the opportunity to apply and refine knowledge, values, and skills learned in Human Behavior and the Social Environment, Social Welfare Policy and Services, Social Research, and Social Work Practice courses. Field is the key integrative component towards which all other sequenced learning is directed and from which classroom learning is assessed and refined. Through field experience, students will have the following opportunities:

- To learn by “doing”. To assume professional social work practice roles in the provision of direct and indirect services to a variety of client systems.
- To correlate and integrate classroom learning with actual practice.
- To test out, apply, and refine concepts, principles, theories, and values taught in the classroom.
- To learn additional or specialized knowledge, skills, insights, and role modeling. Experience will be sought and student growth will also be evaluated in field practicums in the following areas, as they apply to systems of all sizes.
- Knowledge and Understanding of Placement Agency
- Social Work Values and Ethics
- Professional Learning and Development
- Work Performance
 - Professional Growth
 - Supervision
- Social Work Skills and Process
 - Communication
 - Assessment
 - Selection of Intervention Plan
 - Implementation of Intervention Plan
 - Termination and Evaluation

Field Practicum at Indiana Wesleyan University is a vital component of the student's MSW program. According to the CSWE Educational Policy 2.2, field education is the signature pedagogy of Social Work professional program development. “The intent of field education is to integrate the theoretical and conceptual contribution of the classroom with the practical world of the practice setting” (CSWE, 2015 Educational Policy and Accreditation Standards). Students under appropriate supervision and consultation can apply the skills, knowledge, and values of the profession to real life situations in social service agencies working with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities in their local community. Students have the opportunity to apply the generalist model in the foundation year (for standard track students) and advanced practice skills in the advanced year in assessing, planning, contracting, implementing, evaluating, and terminating various client systems.

The IWU MSW program provides goal-directed education with specifically designed curriculum content and outcomes, to facilitate conceptualization and stimulation of the student's cognitive processes. It is therefore a logical sequence for the field experience to come after significant coursework developing social work knowledge, skills, values, cognitive, and affective processes is completed. Placements assist students in experiencing a variety of delivery systems as well as models and methods for delivery. The student is given the opportunity to conceptualize the "whole" person-in-situation. The student will review and experience agency policies, the larger social welfare system, and social work practice as a possible focus of change. The integration of the class and field experience, the signature pedagogy, provides the venue for students to begin the process of developing into social work practitioners who are capable of entry level and advanced clinical social work practice.

Due to the importance of assessing readiness for field practicum, students are required to complete the Social Work Field Education Application and be accepted for moving forward into the Field Experience component for both the foundation and advanced practice years. Applications are due three months prior to the beginning of the first field seminar. The purpose of the Field Education Application is to identify practical information and set professional and academic goals. The MSW Director of Field Experiences will contact each student prior to the field placement to initiate the process of application and placement. Field placement options are identified and a tentative plan is created for Field Placement based on student interest and needs. While student desires are considered, the final approval of a placement is the responsibility of the Director of Field Experiences.

Students in the foundation year complete a minimum of 400 hours of field education (average of 12.5 hours per week) in a generalist social work practice setting. Field practicum hours are completed in conjunction with four seminar courses, each lasting eight weeks. Courses include SWK-560, SWK-561, SWK-562, and SWK-563. The placement is in one agency and is complete when 32 weeks and 400 hours are completed. Students must complete 100 hours during each eight-week field seminar to continue in their practicum.

Students in the advanced practice specialization year complete a minimum of 500 hours of field education (average of 15.5 hours per week) in a social work practice setting. Field practicum hours are completed in conjunction with four advanced field placement and seminar courses, each lasting eight weeks. Courses include SWK-666, SWK-667, SWK-668, and SWK-669. The placement is in one agency and is complete when 32 weeks and 500 hours are completed. Students must complete 125 hours during each eight-week field seminar to continue in their practicum.

Each field seminar course in the Foundation and Advanced practice year also contains a pass/fail component that the student must pass to continue in the program including evaluations of professional behavior and evaluations of competency at mid-point and end of field placement.

Readmission

Policy

Determination of re-entry to the MSW Program will be reviewed by the MSW Program Team for decision to approve or deny re-entry request.

Procedure

Overview: Students applying to re-enter the MSW Program will complete a re-entry form and submit it to the Office of Student Services. The Academic Enrollment Services (AES) – Re-Entry team will provide the student with the MSW Program Re-Entry Petition Guidelines. Once the student completes the written petition following the guidelines, they will submit the document to the MSW Program Director. The petition will be reviewed by a team of MSW faculty for discussion and vote. The student will be notified in writing of the re-admission decision by the MSW Program Director. The notification will be copied to Academic Advising at SocialWorkAdvising@indwes.edu and Re-Entry at AES_ReEntry@indwes.edu for processing. All approvals will be conditional upon the student abiding by a Performance Improvement Plan that outlines the commitments made in the Petition and recommended by MSW team.

Steps:

- Submit any re-entry request to AES Re-Entry as per CAPS policy.
- Upon receiving the request, the Re-Entry team will give the MSW Re-Entry Petition Form to the student. Nothing further is done by Re-Entry until MSW team makes a determination of action.

- Student sends completed petition directly to MSW Program Director.
- A team of MSW faculty will discuss the petition and the student's history and vote on a decision to either approve with a Performance Improvement Plan, or deny the request re-admission.
 - All approvals will be conditional upon following a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP).
 - The PIP will be sent to the student by the MSW Program Director along with the decision letter.
- Student is notified via email of the decision to approve or deny by MSW Program. Academic Advising SocialWorkAdvising@indwes.edu is copied as well as Re-Entry AES_ReEntry@indwes.edu for processing.
 - If Approved, the Re-Entry team will begin their clearance processes, with the end goal being rescheduling and working with advising as necessary.
 - If Denied, student and Re-Entry team are notified and no further Re-Entry action done.
- Student record is updated and the MSW Program Director and MSW Field Director are notified via email of approved new schedule when created.

BS - Christian Ministry Leadership

The Bachelor of Science with a Major in Christian Ministry Leadership prepares students for advancing-level ministry leadership in Christian churches and para-church organizations. Laypersons in local churches will gain greater spiritual development, greater awareness of ministry leadership roles and issues, and enhance their current local church service. This degree seeks to provide bachelors' level academic foundations for ministry leadership health and fruitfulness. This degree seeks to aid students in fulfilling many requirements for District License and Ordination in The Wesleyan Church and other churches. Additionally, it prepares the student for Masters level work in Christian Ministry or Divinity. This program includes an optional, elective Experiential Learning Ministry Lab.

Students may also meet the requirements of this program by completing the Associate of Science degree with a major in Christian Ministry Leadership (p. 471).

Christian Ministry Leadership graduates will:

- Employ sound interpretive and exegetical methods in order to use the Bible effectively for leadership, preaching, and teaching.
- Articulate theology in clear, understandable ways that relate to life and mission and result in Christian transformation.
- Demonstrate the values and traits necessary to equip ministry leaders who demonstrate prayerfulness, spiritual maturity, creativity, inspiration, trust building, and collaborative spirit.
- Apply relevant aspects of historical Christianity to inform ministry and the life of the church today.

- Demonstrate an ability to equip leaders who can organize, lead and multiply small groups for discipleship and membership classes.
- Demonstrate the ability to lead people to share a strategic vision with concrete goals, enabling a team or congregation to move forward.
- Develop a contextual and transformative method of ministry that engages local constituencies, including persons of different generations, ethnicities, genders, and cultures.
- Demonstrate the capacity to model and equip others to establish and sustain redemptive relationships that lead persons to Christ and engage them in discipleship.
- Demonstrate sound leadership and management practices including strategic planning, communicating, organizing, delegating, and managing finances.
- Explain the biblical and theological bases and practical functions of the various elements of worship (such as use of scripture, sacraments, prayer, preaching, music, offering, baptism, communion, being a bearer of the word, contemplation, creed, drama, weddings, funerals, and other important rites & rituals).
- Describe basic counseling skills including awareness of when to refer counselees to other professionals.

Master of Public Administration - Criminal Justice Specialization

The Master of Public Administration (MPA) is a 36 credit hour program consisting of a 24 credit hour common core plus a 12 credit hour Criminal Justice specialization. (IWU reserves the right to move students to another start date if less than eight students are registered for any specialization.)

With a strong emphasis on social responsibility and civic engagement, the MPA program at Indiana Wesleyan University gives students the skills necessary to effectively and compassionately confront the challenges of today's metropolitan environment and its diverse populations. It prepares students to assume leadership and management roles in local, state, and federal levels of government, and similar roles in community based non-profit organizations. The curriculum emphasizes the skills necessary for ethical and efficient public management – including planning, policy analysis, and decision-making – that best represents and promotes the public interest.

Credit may be transferred in from a regionally accredited institution (maximum of six hours) for any core or specialization course except for POL-587. The curriculum will be completed in the order established by Indiana Wesleyan University. Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to modify the curriculum as necessary.

Upon completion of the MPA program at Indiana Wesleyan University, students will be able to:

- Lead and manage in public governance
- Participate in and contribute to the policy process

- Analyze, synthesize, think critically, solve problems and make decisions
- Articulate and apply a public service perspective
- Communicate and interact productively with a diverse and changing workforce and citizenry
- Integrate biblical perspectives into the analysis of and decision-making process involved in today's public sector organizations.

Admission Requirements

The admission requirements for the master's degree program are as follows:

Doctoral Programs

Ph.D. - Organizational Leadership

The Doctor of Philosophy degree with a major in Organizational Leadership (Ph.D.) provides an advanced graduate education for students seeking academic positions in research and teaching at leading universities, and for those seeking leadership opportunities in corporations, entrepreneurial businesses, health care, faith-based institutions, government, and non-profit organizations. This program is designed for working adults who have the intellectual capacity for advanced study, who thrive on the challenge of self-directed learning, and who desire to master the discipline of organizational leadership.

The doctoral degree in organizational leadership offers the dynamic combination of an integrated and seamless lock-step curriculum and technologically advanced facilities. At the very heart of these resources are the faculty and coursework grounded in theory and practice of leading organizational learning, change, and innovation. Our graduate faculty are committed to critical inquiry, excellent teaching, and responsiveness to students. The curriculum reflects current knowledge and best practice and enables the students to meet the rigorous challenges of doctoral studies in a Christ-centered culture.

The desire of the faculty and administration of the College of Adult and Professional Studies in general and the faculty of the Department of Leadership Studies in particular is to present a Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) degree program that pursues the broader university mission by preparing students to be Christian Leaders in their world and to initiate significant change for Christ. The faculty value the integration of Christian principles of faith and practice into both academic and work settings. For that reason, all classes include a component of faith integration, either through the basic nature of the course or via specific course objectives. It is our hope that this curricular exposure to faith integration promotes the personal growth and spiritual development by each student in the program.

Mission

The mission of the program is to provide a Christ-centered, challenging, and research-based doctoral program enabling organizational leadership students to become accomplished in current knowledge, theory-in-use, research, self-directed learning, and as facilitators of organizational learning.

The curriculum is designed to contribute to a student's development as a servant leader, who has demonstrated competence in domains of knowledge represented in the conceptual model that guides the program design. These domains include personal authenticity and ethics, organizational development, global and multicultural perspectives, organizational transformation, strategic planning and implementation, and organizational theory. A foundational core is based on wisdom, followership, and stewardship, which in turn are exhibited through research, teaching, and practice. Finally, the model is surrounded by spiritual formation, which is based on spiritual virtues.

Admission Requirements

The Ph.D. in Organizational Leadership is a selective program, and admittance is not guaranteed even though applicants meet all the admissions requirements. The requirements for admission to the program include:*

- A master's degree from a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) verified on original transcripts sent by the institution directly to Indiana Wesleyan University.
- A graduate grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 or higher from the master's degree granting institution at which at least a minimum of 24 hours was completed.
- A minimum of five years of leadership experience in the workplace, volunteer organizations, or the classroom.
- Submission of all documents required by the Admissions Selection Committee and approval by the committee for admission into the program.

*The Admissions Selection Committee retains the right to waive admission requirements for special circumstances.

Application Process

The goal is to admit highly qualified students, with clear career objectives, who choose to enter the doctoral program after obtaining a master's degree. To apply for admission to the doctoral program, the applicant must complete the following steps:

- Submit a formal application.
- Send a current resume that includes a career objective, previous undergraduate and graduate work, work experience, and special recognition or awards. The resume should make clear the number of employees the applicant has supervised in all leadership positions.
- Send at least three recommendation forms including one from the applicant's current manager (this may be the chairman of the board of directors or a peer at another organization for CEOs), one from an academic in higher education, and one from someone that can speak to the spiritual character of the applicant.
- Prepare and submit a five to six page scholarly essay following the requirements and outline in the application packet.
- Arrange to have your graduate transcript sent from the accredited institution granting the degree. Transcripts should be supplied from all institutions the applicant has attended subsequent to the completion of the bachelor's degree.

Formal Application Essay

This essay is an essential aspect of the admission process and will be carefully assessed in order to make an informed decision regarding your acceptance into the Ph.D. program. Please follow the guidelines carefully addressing each component of the essay. The essay should be written to American Psychology Association (APA) Seventh Edition standards:

- Title page -typed, double-spaced, and numbered with a minimum of five pages and maximum of six pages.
- Clear and convincing response to the questions.
- Organization and presentation (i.e., readability and formatting).

- Evidence of critical thinking that supports the point and perspectives of the essay.
- Use of appropriate vocabulary and grammar.
- Evidence of scholarly (academic) writing skills that demonstrates an ability to analyze and integrate literature from the leadership field.

Admissions Selection Process

The admissions selection process is as follows:

- Submit completed application and required documents to Adult Enrollment Services.
- The completed Application Files will be reviewed and evaluated by the Admissions Selection Committee.
- A letter of accepted or denied admission will be sent to the student.
- Students will then confirm their intent to commence the program and send a $200 deposit (which will be applied to tuition and fees) that can hold a position in the program for the student.

Program Requirements

Transfer Credit Policy

Students may transfer up to nine hours of post-master's credit from a college or university accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) provided a grade of "B" or higher was earned in a post-masters course meeting the following criteria of the transcript audit:

- The course is clearly comparable to one of the Ph.D. program course offerings.
- The course is at the 600 or higher numbering system and was not part of the master's degree requirements.
- The course has been completed within the past five years.
- The course reflects current knowledge-base and best practice.
- The course reflects higher order thinking, study, and assessment requirements of the scholarship of discovery.
- The course has been evaluated by IWU faculty and approved to meet program requirements.

Advanced Degree Appeals for Transferring Additional Hours

Students who have obtained a professional graduate degree requiring 60 credit hours or more may petition to have appropriate coursework transferred into the doctoral program.

Graduate students having earned a doctoral degree or a professional degree requiring 90 or more credit hours may appeal in writing, to the Chair, Department of Leadership Studies, for a transcript audit to transfer up to nine additional hours (18 maximum). The letter of appeal, requesting more than nine hours of transfer credit, should clearly explain and justify the request. The letter of appeal should be supported with a dossier showing clear and convincing alignment between the courses of study and demonstrating that the transfer of credit policy criteria (above) have been met.

Attendance Policy

All doctoral courses are a blend of live and interactive online discussions. Students are expected to attend all live sessions and substantively engage in all interactive online discussions, tests, quizzes, and prescribed learning activities.

- Synchronous Class Sessions - Synchronous classes are held on Saturdays from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm and meet on the second, fourth, and eighth Saturdays of the September, January, and April terms. Students are expected to be in attendance when class begins, and remain the entire session. A student may be allowed one absence per course. An allowed absence only is to be used when absolutely necessary and requires approval from the faculty member teaching the course. Students need to contact the faculty member regarding make-up work, if allowed by the faculty member. The criteria for full participation attendance points will be determined by the faculty member.
- Online Attendance - Attendance is determined by participating in weekly discussions. Failure to participate in the weekly discussion forum(s) will constitute an absence for that week. Participating in discussion does not guarantee full participation attendance points. The criteria for full substantive participation points will be determined by the course professor. A student may be allowed one participation absence per course. Students need to contact the faculty member regarding make-up work, if allowed.

- Excessive Absences - A student is allowed only one absence per course, whether it is a synchronous Saturday or online participation absence (not one of each). If a student exceeds the allowed absences and does not contact the Office of Student Services to officially withdraw before the last class session, the professor is directed to issue the grade of "F." A student accruing excessive absences in the final week of the course will be issued the grade of "F."
- Students are expected to take courses in the predetermined sequence. Students who are unable to participate in a course due to unavoidable circumstances must arrange for a temporary leave of absence with the Office of Student Services prior to the beginning of the course. Students needing to withdraw while in a course may do so with permission of the Department Chair and by arrangement with the Office of Student Services prior to the end of the course, but the regular refund and academic withdrawal policies apply.

Residency

Residency for the doctoral program is satisfied by attending on campus during three Summer Institutes. These institutes begin on a Saturday (except for first year students, who begin on Friday) and go through the following Friday. Students are expected to be in attendance every day of each Institute and are not allowed an absence from required workshops, events, or class sessions that are scheduled during the Institute. The Summer Institutes are normally attended during three consecutive years. However, in unusual circumstances a student may be given permission by the Department Chair to skip a year and attend the Institute another year. Students are expected to follow the community lifestyle statement of the university while living on campus.

Withdrawal from a Course

A student that withdraws from a course will need to get permission from the Department Chair to continue in the program and will need to follow the plan of study prescribed by the Department Chair.

Students needing to officially withdraw from a course will be required to contact the Office of Student Services. Tuition will be reimbursed according to the following schedule:

- 100% of the tuition fee if withdrawing within the first seven days of the course,
- 90% of the tuition fee if withdrawing between the 8th and by the 14th day of the course,
- 50% of the tuition fee if withdrawing between the 15th and by the 21st day of the course, and
- No refund after the 21st day from the start date of the course.

A student withdrawing from the summer residency less than 10 days from the start of the summer term will be assessed a fee to cover the costs of room and meals. Residency fees are non-refundable.

Academic Standing

Students enrolled in the Ph.D. program are regarded as members of the academic community of Indiana Wesleyan University and are held responsible for conducting themselves in conformity with the standards of conduct for adult learners. Continued enrollment in the program is at all times subject to review of the student's academic record and of the student's actions with regard to observance of university rules and regulations.

Academic Probation - Students enrolled in the Ph.D. program will be placed on probation if their cumulative GPA at any time falls below the required 3.25 GPA for graduation

Students are given six months to satisfactorily raise their GPA. The GPA is reviewed after the six month probationary period, and if it has been successfully raised, the probationary status is removed. Academic suspension will result if the student's GPA is not successfully raised.

Academic Suspension - Academic suspension of six months will result if:

- A student fails to clear the academic probationary status within the six month probationary period.
- A student has taken a course twice and failed to achieve a satisfactory grade.

In all cases, the suspension will occur once the grades have been recorded in the Registrar's Office. Students will be notified of the academic suspension in writing. A student will be eligible to reapply for admission on a provisional basis after six months, but only upon the recommendation of the Dean of the School of Service and Leadership.

Academic Dismissal - Upon a second academic suspension in the Ph.D. program, a student is not eligible to reapply to Indiana Wesleyan University.

Students who do not follow the courses in the designated sequence, or who withdraw from a course, must undergo advising (by the Department Chair) before being allowed to register for another course.

Academic Load

Students may enroll in no more than 6 credit hours per term. Overload requests may be submitted in writing to the Department of Leadership Studies and reviewed through the academic petition process.

Comprehensive Examination

After the completion of all coursework (DOL courses numbered DOL-915 and lower), a comprehensive examination will be administered to each student in the Ph.D. program. This exam will be designed to:

- Determine the student's grasp of leadership understanding across the curriculum;
- Assess the student's ability to adapt and integrate leadership theory and current best practice across the curriculum, including the integration of faith and practice;
- Give the student the opportunity to demonstrate higher order thinking with reference to Organizational Leadership theory and practice.

The exam will be constructed to cover the major domains of the program and will be administered by a committee of full-time faculty in the Department of Leadership Studies. The Comprehensive Examination Manual is published annually. Students are required to follow all policies, procedures, and guidelines contained in the most recent guide.

The Dissertation

The dissertation will be a research-based, practice-centered inquiry that attests to the student's understanding of the field and ability to conduct scholarly inquiry about an issue related to leadership practices and performance in organizations from which other leaders can benefit. In addition, the research must provide a unique contribution to the understanding of organizational leadership.

Students may conduct qualitative, quantitative, mixed methods, or any other type of research that meets the approval of their Dissertation Committee. The dissertation is expected to meet the highest standards of scholarship and inquiry, and should demonstrate doctoral level composition and format. The student should identify the problem and its significance, outline the background and literature that informs the problem, and collect and analyze data. The process should result in a written document detailing findings, implications, and recommendations for future policy, governance, and/or practice.

Dissertation Requirements

For the Ph.D. in Organizational Leadership major, coursework comprises 48 credit hours. Then, the dissertation includes a minimum of an additional 12 hours. Three credit-hours of a Dissertation Seminar (DOL-915) and nine credit hours of dissertation credit after DOL-915 are required to reach the 12 credit-hour dissertation threshold. The coursework (48 hours) and dissertation (12 hours) combine to make the Organizational Leadership major a 60-credit hour program.

Every Organizational Leadership student will be required to write and defend a dissertation. The Organizational Leadership course of study emphasizes the development of theory-in-use research and skills with a practitioner focus. A doctoral research study addresses a problem of practice, where the focus is upon the integration of knowledge or its application. A dissertation generates or confirms knowledge and expanded capacity while linking theory-in-use to current best practice. The process of scholarship, research, and leadership utilizes a variety of research methods, including empirical, interpretive, or critical. All doctoral research studies and dissertations will result in a substantial written document.

A Dissertation Manual will be released annually by the Department of Leadership Studies. Students are required to follow all policies, procedures, and guidelines contained in the most recent manual. Students should consult their Dissertation Chair regarding specific questions related to the requirements of the Dissertation Manual.

Degree Completion Limits

Many students require 5 – 7 years to complete the doctoral degree. The coursework of the Ph.D. program is designed as a lock-step curriculum, which is to be completed in 33-36 months (depending on whether the program is started in July or January).

Following the coursework and comprehensive exam, the student begins the dissertation which must be completed within six years from the point of completing the DOL-915 course. Request for exceptions to this policy must be made in writing to the CAPS Academic Appeals Committee.

Dissertation Continuation

Doctoral students not completing the dissertation by the end of the 12 hours of dissertation courses will be required to maintain continuous enrollment. They will be required to enroll in a one-hour Dissertation Continuation course (DOL-922) with the university each successive term until the dissertation is successfully defended. Students will pay the one hour tuition fee per term to maintain continuous enrollment.

Candidate Status

Doctoral students will attain candidacy status upon successful:

- Completion of all coursework.
- Completion of the comprehensive exam.
- Completion and committee approval of the dissertation proposal (Chapters 1-3).

Graduation Requirements

- Minimum grade of "B-" in each course.
- Cumulative GPA of 3.25.
- Successful completion of all required coursework and the comprehensive exam.
- Successful defense of dissertation.
- Completion of dissertation publication review process with OCLS.
- Payment of tuition and fees is required to receive a diploma.

Academic Policies - School of Educational Leadership

Matriculation

The School of Educational Leadership requires that all candidates admitted to certificate and degree programs complete prescribed course work per the program catalog.

Some programs in the School of Educational Leadership are designed as a lock-step curriculum, which is to be completed in the order specified by the program.

All candidates in programs in the School of Educational Leadership are expected to complete program requirements associated with their certificate or degree in four years from the point of admission. Any exceptions to this policy must be made via a written petition presented, approved, and filed by the Dean of the School or his/her designee.

Any candidate who withdraws from the program for a period of six consecutive months must be readmitted under the most current university catalog and is subject to adhering to program requirements as listed in the catalog at the time of readmission.

Program Readmission Requirement

Candidates who have previously withdrawn from a program of study in the School of Educational Leadership and who wish to be readmitted to the program are welcome to return. The following conditions for readmission will be applied by the School:

- Program administrators reserve the right to require that candidates audit or repeat some courses that may have already been completed if the administrator determines that the material is significantly different than when the candidate first took the course.
- In the event the candidate has been withdrawn for a period of six months or more, the candidate must satisfy all program admission and clinical experience requirements as published in the IWU catalog at the time of their readmission to the program.
 - Courses more than five years old will need to be repeated unless waived by the program administrator through academic petition.
 - Candidates need to also be aware of any changes in state licensure requirements and reciprocity.

Program Gateways Requirement

All certificate and degree programs in the School of Educational Leadership are part of a larger Educator Preparation Provider/Program within the University that is accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) and other Specialized Professional Associations. Subsequently, all programs must adhere to the requirements established by the University's Educator Preparation Provider/Program.

The Educator Preparation Provider/Program requires that candidate data be collected, evaluated, and reported at three program gateways. These gateways are as follows:

- Admission
- Mid-Program Review
- Program Completion

Candidates are required to satisfactorily pass the admission, mid-program review, and program completion gateways based upon established criteria set forth by each certificate and/or degree program. Program gateway requirements and decision rules determining successful program gateway completion are published as a part of the candidate's program materials and are referenced throughout the program.

Candidates will be evaluated by admission requirements, mid-program review, and program completion gateways set forth by School faculty and staff. In the event a candidate fails mid-program review or program completion gateways, the appropriate program administrator will petition to have the candidate administratively withdrawn from all remaining course work. Candidates will not be able to reenroll in their program until such time as a formal remediation plan (CIP) is successfully completed and the appropriate program administrator issues a second petition to reinstate the candidate.

Associate Degree Programs

AS - Early Childhood Education

Indiana Wesleyan University's A.S. in Early Childhood Education program is a sixty (60) credit hour undergraduate program emphasizing the knowledge, skills, and dispositions of an early childhood educator working with children from birth through age eight. This program does not lead to teacher licensure.

Upon completion of the program, candidates should be able to:

- Exhibit the School of Educational Leadership's professional dispositions by demonstrating moral decision-making, upholding ethical standards with all stakeholders, and reflecting Christ-like behavior as the foundation of work with families, young children, and communities.
- Actively support child development and developmentally appropriate learning experiences for all children in childcare, classroom, home, and community settings.
- Collaborate to establish safe, healthy, respectful, supportive, and challenging learning environments, where young children have access to quality learning opportunities that inspire and set the stage for growth across the developmental domains.
- Exhibit knowledge and understanding of the dynamics of diverse family and community characteristics; honoring diverse cultural values, language, and norms by encouraging a child's learning connectedness to home.

- Initiate and think professionally in a timely manner to support predetermined management policies and procedures; act professionally in regards to unforeseen management issues and concerns.
- Assist to deliver developmentally appropriate content-rich purposeful curriculum emphasizing the integration of topics and disciplines; support the integration of academic standards and child development impacting contextual factors and individual/group interests, needs, and learning styles.
- Exhibit the knowledge and understanding needed to support positive, respectful, and reciprocal relationship-based interactions as a foundation to support, empower, and engage young children and families.
- Apply constructivist (Vygotsky) theoretical framework into practice throughout academic disciplines to support inquiry-based, play-based, open-ended, project-based, and problem-based learning experiences.
- Participate in informed advocacy for young children, families, and the early childhood profession through multiple types of advocacy (citizen, issue-based, self, group, peer, statutory, family, and friend).
- Demonstrate proficiency in executing a wide range of developmentally appropriate effective approaches, tools, resources, and strategies to meet the unique needs of all learners including technology, inquiry-based, project-based, problem-based, UDL, RTI, and differentiation practices.
- Demonstrate skills in systematic and responsible assessment skills including observing, documenting, and analyzing to support early learning.
- Practice servant leadership philosophy and principles in approach to clinical and service experiences by serving to put the needs of others first, sharing power, aspiring to lead after trust and relations are earned and built, and helping young children, families, and communities develop and perform as highly as possible.

This program provides a fundamental basis for students desiring to continue their education at IWU to complete a bachelor's degree in this discipline. The courses contained in this associate program will satisfy 24 hours out of the 30 general education hours required at the bachelor level and will also apply toward the 120 hour degree requirement.

Admission Requirements

All applicants must have:

- Proof of standard high school diploma or GED certification.
- Submit a signed FERPA Release Form.
- Applicants who do not hold a valid license in the field of education will be required to submit a criminal history background check conducted at the applicant's expense. Admission to and/or progression in designated programs will be based upon criteria set in the School of Educational Leadership's Criminal History Background Check Admissions Policy.

Program Requirements

The AS in Early Childhood Program is a lock-step program. Students who are unable to complete an ECED course or who receive an unsatisfactory grade for their specific program will be allowed to repeat that course with another group of students if arrangements are made with the Registration Change Counselor and the School of Educational Leadership. Tuition and fees will be charged for repeating the course.

Graduation Requirements

To graduate with an associate degree with a major in Early Childhood Education, the following requirements must be met:

- Completion of 60 semester hours.
- Completion of the core requirements with a GPA of 2.0 or higher.
- Cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher.
- A minimum of "C" must be achieved in ECED-101, ECED-105, ECED-120, ECED-125, ECED-130, and ECED-135 or their equivalent courses.
- Completion of 24 hours of general education requirements as specified (General Education Requirements).
- Payment of all tuition and fees in order to receive a diploma.

- The BS-Early Childhood Licensure Program is a lock-step program. Students who are unable to complete an ECED course or who receive an unsatisfactory grade for their specific program will be allowed to repeat that course with another group of students if arrangements are made with the Registration Change Counselor and the School of Educational Leadership. Tuition and fees will be charged for repeating the course.

Completion Requirements

Upon completion of the BS Early Childhood Education Licensure Program, candidates will be recommended for P-3 Educator Licensure in the state of Indiana. Candidates seeking licensure in states other than Indiana must first obtain their Indiana educator license and then seek licensure, in their state of choice, through possible reciprocity agreements.

Graduation Requirements

To graduate from Indiana Wesleyan University with a Bachelor's degree with a major in Early Childhood Education, the following requirements must be met:

- Completion of 120 credit hours.
- Completion of the required prerequisite and core courses with a minimum grade of "C" and a minimum GPA of 2.75.
- Cumulative GPA of 2.75 or higher.
- Completion of 30 hours of general education requirements as specified (General Education Requirements (p. 305)).
- Successfully pass the admission, mid-program review, and program completion gateways (p. 496).

Student Teaching

- All candidates must complete fourteen weeks of full-time student teaching in a P-3 setting.
- All core course work prior to the required 14-week student teaching must be completed with a minimum grade of no less than "C" in each core course to be eligible to student teach.
- All placements for student teaching will be made by the Office of Clinical Experiences. Candidates are not to contact any school or attempt to secure their own student teaching assignment at any time.
- Removal from a student teaching experience may result in the candidate being permanently withdrawn from the program. A grade of "No Credit" will be issued for the student teaching course.

BS - Early Childhood Education (Non-Licensure Track)

Indiana Wesleyan University's Bachelor of Science Early Childhood Education (Non-Licensure Track) program is an undergraduate lock-step program emphasizing the knowledge, skills, and dispositions of an early childhood educator. This program also includes a minor in Reading. The B.S. in Early Childhood Education program prepares adults to meet the physical, social, emotional, and cognitive needs of children from birth through age eight. Upon completion of the program, candidates will demonstrate the abilities and responsibilities associated with leadership in the early childhood profession; working with children, families, communities, and organizations by:

- Observing, documenting, assessing, and supporting young children.
- Using content knowledge to build meaningful curriculum.
- Promoting child development and learning.
- Building family and community relationships.
- Using developmentally effective approaches.

- Demonstrating the knowledge, skills and dispositions of an early childhood professional.

Although this program prepares candidates to work in various Early Childhood settings, it does not lead to recommendation for licensure. Candidates will participate in multiple field experiences throughout this program. Field experiences occur in a variety of early learning environments and include increasingly interactive experiences in serving learning, volunteering, and teaching. Through field experiences, candidates gain real-world experience working with children, families, and communities.

Admission Requirements

All applicants to the non-licensure track must have:

- Proof of high school graduation or GED certification.

Submit a signed FERPA Release Form.

- Applicants who do not hold a valid license in the field of education will be required to submit a criminal history background check conducted at the applicant's expense. Admission to and/or progression in designated programs will be based upon criteria set in the SoEL Criminal History Background Check Admissions Policy.
- Original transcripts from all previous college or university study at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA).
- Prior completion of at least 48 transferable credit hours is required before the candidate is eligible to start a bachelor core program.

Program Requirements

- All BS Early Childhood Non-Licensure Program students desiring to move to the Licensure Track must meet all admission requirements from the Licensure Track and must contact the Advising Team to have this requirement verified and completed by the end of their ECED-325 course. Candidates not completing this requirement by the end of ECED-325 will not have the option to move to the Licensure Track at a later date.
- The BS-Early Childhood Non-Licensure Program is a lock-step program. Students who are unable to complete an ECED course or who receive an unsatisfactory grade for their specific program will be allowed to repeat that course with another group of students if arrangements are made with the Registration Change Counselor and the School of Educational Leadership. Tuition and fees will be charged for repeating the course.

Graduation Requirements

To graduate from Indiana Wesleyan University with a Bachelor degree in Early Childhood Education, the following requirements must be met:

Graduate Certificate Programs

English as a New Language Certificate Program

English as a New Language Certificate (Licensure)

The certificate in English as a New Language (ENL) is designed for licensed teachers who have a bachelor's degree and at least one year of teaching experience, and seek Indiana certification in English as a New Language (P-12).

The 18 credit-hour certificate in ENL identifies knowledge and skills based on current TESOL standards and develops candidates to engage in inquiry, research, dialogue, team learning, reflection, problem-based learning, collaboration, and standards-based assessment from a comprehensive P-12 perspective. The certificate satisfies Indiana's program of study for an ENL endorsement, P-12. One or more courses may be used for inclusion in the Indiana EL Teacher of Record rubric. Clinical or field experiences are required.

This program is a pathway for training for those who need to take the Indiana ENL assessment. In addition, this program is open to candidates from all states and countries; these candidates are responsible for determining how the Indiana endorsement could be applied to a license issued by another state or jurisdiction. This could include teachers and leaders in the following schools: International schools, ACSI schools both stateside and overseas, charter, and private schools.

Candidates who have completed this program should be able to:

- Articulate the progress of language acquisition and development and the role this process plays in students' educational experience.
- Recognize that students' primary culture plays a crucial role in their adaptation to school.
- Facilitate instruction by creating a supportive environment and implementing the appropriate activities that promote learning for English language learners.
- Analyze formal assessments and informal assessment strategies that include methods to promote learner development.
- Build partnerships and serve as experts to support students, colleagues, and other stakeholders to benefit CLD/ENL students.
- Analyze classroom research of teaching and learning to improve their instruction and assessment practices for CLD/ENL students.
- Apply Christ-like leadership by modeling personal integrity, communication skills, cultural responsiveness, and ethical/legal decision-making.

Admission Requirements

- A baccalaureate or graduate degree from a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) verified on original transcripts sent by the institution directly to Indiana Wesleyan University. Transcripts from foreign institutions may need to be sent to an outside agency for evaluation and determination of transferable credits, degrees, and GPA. If this outside review is necessary, students are responsible for the initiation of this evaluation and for any fees incurred during the process.
- An undergraduate GPA of 2.75 or higher from the baccalaureate degree granting institution at which at least a minimum of 30 hours was completed.
- Candidates need:
 - A valid (but not necessarily current) state teacher's license. The following state licenses/permits are not accepted: Emergency, Provisional, Transition to Teaching, Career Specialist, Substitute, Temporary, or Workplace Specialist.

- At least one year (i.e., a minimum of one semester and one day) of teaching experience from an approved and accredited public, private, or parochial P-12 school in the United States or abroad.
- Supporting documentation demonstrating access to a P-12 classroom.

Clinical Experience Requirements

Clinical or field experiences are required. Candidates may complete field experience within their own classroom or school.

Testing

Candidates who wish to be recommended for the Indiana license endorsement for English as a New Language must satisfy all completion requirements and receive a passing score on the required Indiana state English Learner assessment.

Completion Requirements

To complete the English as a New Language certificate, candidates must:

- Successfully complete the program requirements.
- Possess a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above in all graduate work and a minimum grade of "B-" in each course.
- Provide evidence of a passing score for the required Indiana licensure exam.
- Payment of all tuition and fees is required to receive a certificate.

English as a New Language Certificate (Non-licensure)

The certificate in English as a New Language (ENL) (Non-Licensure) is designed for licensed teachers who have a bachelor's degree and at least one year of teaching experience, and seek training in working with English learners that is equivalent to that required for Indiana certification in English as a New Language (P12), but without a tie to licensure.

The 18 credit-hour certificate in ENL (Non-Licensure) identifies knowledge and skills based on current TESOL standards and develops candidates to engage in inquiry, research, dialogue, team learning, reflection, problem-based learning, collaboration, and standards-based assessment from a comprehensive P-12 perspective. The certificate satisfies Indiana's program of study for an ENL endorsement, P-12 but does not require proof of successful testing as a certificate completion requirement. Clinical or field experiences are required.

This certificate can be a pathway to licensure for those who need the training to take the Indiana ENL licensure test. In addition, this program is open to candidates from all states and countries. This could include teachers and leaders in the following schools: International schools, ACSI schools both stateside and overseas, Charter, and Private schools. The certificate may also appeal to traditional public school teachers who only want license renewal or refresh or continuing education, but have no interest in additional licensure.

This program is open to candidates from all states and countries; these candidates are responsible for determining how the certificate could be applied towards professional development, or teaching license advancement, renewal, or refresh without the addition of an endorsement. This could include teachers and leaders in the following schools: International schools, ACSI schools both stateside and overseas, charter, and private schools. This program may also appeal to traditional public-school teachers who want ENL training, but have no interest in additional licensure.

School Administration Certificate Program

The School Administration Program is the pathway to a building-level administrator's license for candidates who already completed a master's degree. It is a post-master's, non-degree licensure program leading to a building level administrator's license (P-12 in Indiana or PK-6, 4-9, or 5-12 in Ohio). The program identifies outcomes and expectations based on current school leadership principles and practices and enables interns to engage in inquiry, research, dialogue, team learning, reflection, problem-based learning, collaboration, and standards-based assessment from a comprehensive P-12 perspective. The program aligns to the National Educational Leadership Preparation (NELP) program recognition standards. For Indiana candidates, the program is aligned to the Rules for Educator Preparation and Accountability (REPA) for building administrators. For Ohio candidates, the program is aligned to Ohio Standards for Principals. Candidates will develop and demonstrate proficiency through a variety of field experience activities and performance assessments. The program curriculum is 18 credit hours.

The School Administration Program provides a clinical, school-based learning experience for aspiring school leaders. Candidates are encouraged, empowered, and equipped to become visionary servant-leaders who model Christ-likeness.

School Administration Program (Indiana Licensure)

Indiana Wesleyan University's School Administration (Indiana Licensure) Program is a post-master's, licensure program. It is designed for alternatively licensed teachers who have a master's degree and have at least two years of teaching experience.

The 18 credit-hour certificate in School Administration identifies outcomes and expectations based on current school leadership principles and practices and enables interns to engage in inquiry, research, dialogue, team learning, reflection, problem-based learning, collaboration, and standards-based assessment from a comprehensive P-12 perspective. It aligns to the National Educational Leadership Preparation (NELP) program recognition standards on which our accreditation is based.

This program is open to candidates from all states and countries, but is tied to state licensure in Indiana.

Candidates who have completed this program should be able to:

- Understand and be able to apply Christ-like leadership principles that build the spiritual foundation critical to the success of a world-changer.
- Demonstrate competency in the following School of Educational Leadership's dispositional domains: Communication, Critical Thinking, Human Interaction, Leadership, and Professionalism.
- Demonstrate the ability to facilitate collaborative vision, mission, values, goals, and a culture of continuous improvement in the buildings they will lead to change the world.
- Demonstrate instructional leadership by understanding and promoting best practices in teaching, with an acute focus on student learning and academic success.
- Demonstrate the ability to leverage school operations, manage resources, and provide a safe learning environment to ensure the success of all students.

- Demonstrate the ability to build diverse relationships that engage parents and the community in the learning process and share resources for student success and for the benefit of all stakeholders.
- Model personal integrity, fairness, accountability, cultural responsiveness, and ethical/legal decision-making, and expect the same from staff and students.

Admission Requirements

The admission requirements for the School Administration Certificate (Indiana Licensure) program are as follows:

- Have completed a master's degree from a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). The degree must be verified on official transcripts and sent directly to Indiana Wesleyan University.
- Cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above in graduate level courses.
- Be currently employed in or have access to a P-12 public or non-public school in which the principal is willing to serve as a mentor for the internship phase of the program. Submission of a completed internship agreement with a building principal will be required prior to the start of the internship phase.
- Hold an initial, standard, provisional, proficient, or accomplished practitioner Instructional or School Counselor license.
- At least two years of teaching experience on one of the licenses listed above in an approved and accredited public, private, or parochial elementary, secondary, or postsecondary school in the United States or abroad.
*Please note that in keeping with Indiana Department of Education licensure policy, experience gained by a teacher holding only an Emergency Permit, Provisional Permit, Transition to Teaching Permit, Career Specialist Permit, Charter School License, Substitute Permit, or Workplace Specialist II license is not acceptable as licenses of these types do not meet the prerequisite license requirements.
- Obtain recommendations from two school leaders (superintendent, principal, or assistant principal) who are qualified to judge the applicant's knowledge, skills, and dispositions in relation to pursuing the Building Level Administrator's license.
- Submit a signed FERPA Release Form.

Field Experience Requirements

All candidates must complete a six-credit-hour internship spanning six months in accordance with NELP requirements.

Completion Requirements

To complete the School Administration (Indiana Licensure) Program candidates must:

- Successfully complete the SA curriculum.
- Possess a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above in all graduate work and a minimum grade of "B-" in each course.
- Satisfy admission, mid-program review, and program completion gateways (p. 496).
- Provide evidence of a passing score for the Indiana licensure exam for Building-level Administration.
- Payment of all tuition and fees is required to receive a certificate.

It aligns to the National Educational Leadership Preparation (NELP) program recognition standards on which our accreditation is based.

This program is open to candidates from all states and countries, and is not tied to state licensure. This is an alternative pathway to school leadership for those who need the training, but not the licensure. This could include teachers and leaders in the following schools: International schools, ACSI schools both stateside and overseas, Charter, and Private schools. This program may also appeal to traditional public school teachers who only want a school leadership certificate, school leadership training, or continuing education, but have no interest in principal licensure.

Candidates who have completed this program should be able to:

- Understand and be able to apply Christ-like leadership principles that build the spiritual foundation critical to the success of a world-changer.
- Demonstrate competency in the following School of Educational Leadership's dispositional domains: Communication, Critical Thinking, Human Interaction, Leadership, and Professionalism.
- Demonstrate the ability to facilitate collaborative vision, mission, values, goals, and a culture of continuous improvement in the buildings they will lead to change the world.
- Demonstrate instructional leadership by understanding and promoting best practices in teaching, with an acute focus on student learning and academic success.

- Demonstrate the ability to leverage school operations, manage resources, and provide a safe learning environment to ensure the success of all students.
- Demonstrate the ability to build diverse relationships that engage parents and the community in the learning process and share resources for student success and for the benefit of all stakeholders.
- Model personal integrity, fairness, accountability, cultural responsiveness, and ethical/legal decision-making, and expect the same from staff and students.

Admission Requirements

The admissions requirements for the School Administration Certificate (Non-licensure) program are:

- Have completed a master's degree from a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). The degree must be verified on official transcripts and sent directly to Indiana Wesleyan University.
- Cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above in graduate level courses.
- Be currently employed in or have access to a P-12 public or non-public school or international school.
- Hold a teacher or school counselor license (private, state, international, ACSI, or charter).
- Have at least two years of teaching experience in one of the settings listed above.
- Obtain recommendations from two school, church, or mission leaders who are qualified to judge the applicant's knowledge, skills, and dispositions in relation to school leadership.
- Submit a signed FERPA Release Form.

Field Experience Requirements

All candidates must complete a six-credit-hour internship spanning six months in accordance with NELP requirements.

Transition to Teaching Certificate Program

Indiana Wesleyan University's Transition to Teaching program is a lock-step, graduate level, non-degree initial licensure program structured to help adults who are motivated to take their life and work experience into the classroom to mold the minds of Indiana's future leaders. Candidates provide the content knowledge - Indiana Wesleyan University will provide the teaching theory and techniques to facilitate their growth in becoming a world-changing teacher.

There are three major areas of the Transition to Teaching program:

- Subject Knowledge: The basic premise behind this program is that adults with a baccalaureate degree and work experience in a particular field possess sufficient knowledge on the subject they want to teach. Therefore, the TTT program contains no courses where content knowledge on a subject will be taught. The state of licensure will require TTT candidates to take the applicable state licensure content exams to determine if they possess the requisite content knowledge to teach their subject.
- Education Theory and Methods: The Transition to Teaching courses will cover a wide array of teaching strategies, theories, techniques, and methods to prepare the candidate for the classroom. Course instructors are university professors or currently practicing school administrators or teachers with years of experience in the classroom using real life applications of teaching principles.
- Student Teaching: Candidates will be in a P-12 classroom in their area of licensure for a full time student teaching experience. The length of the full time student teaching experience is determined by the state in which licensure is sought. The university will arrange appropriate student teaching placements based on the area of licensure and geographical preference.

Transition to Teaching - Early Childhood

The TTT-Early Childhood program is a lock-step, graduate level, non-degree initial licensure certificate program structured to prepare candidates to apply subject matter expertise, assessment knowledge, and developmentally appropriate instructional practices to early learning environments in order to support the healthy development of young children (birth-age 8) and their families.

This program contains all the course requirements needed to become a licensed teacher in Indiana. Candidates seeking licensure in states other than Indiana must first obtain their Indiana educator license and then seek licensure, in their state of choice, through possible reciprocity agreements. It is the candidate's responsibility to contact the residency state's licensing agency for requirements.

Upon completion of this program, candidates should be able to:

- Exhibit SoEL professional dispositions, demonstrate moral decision-making, uphold ethical standards with all stakeholders; reflect Christ-like behavior as the foundation of work with families, young children, and communities.
- Actively promote child development and developmentally appropriate learning experiences for all children in child care, classroom, home, and community settings.
- Create safe, healthy, respectful, supportive, and challenging learning environments, where young children have access to quality learning opportunities that inspire and set the stage for growth across the developmental domains.
- Exhibit knowledge and understanding of the dynamics of diverse family and community characteristics; honor diverse cultural values, language, and norms by encouraging a child's learning connectedness to home.

- Consider contextual factors, learning cycle choices, development, and environment to proactively determine appropriate setting and behavior management procedures and practices; Initiate and think professionally in a timely manner to address management concerns.
- Design developmentally appropriate content-rich purposeful curriculum emphasizing the integration of topics and disciplines; Integrate academic standards, child development, impacting contextual factors and individual/group interests, needs, and learning styles.
- Facilitate positive, respectful, and reciprocal relationship-based interactions as a foundation to support, empower, and engage young children and families.
- Apply constructivist (Vygotsky) theoretical framework into practice throughout academic disciplines to design and support inquiry-based, play-based, open-ended, project-based, and problem-based learning experiences.
- Participate in informed advocacy for young children, families, and the early childhood profession through multiple types of advocacy (citizen, issue-based, self group, peer, statutory, family & friend).
- Evaluate and implement developmentally appropriate effective approaches when selecting a wide variety of tools, resources, and strategies to meet the unique needs of all learners including: technology, inquiry-based, project-based, problem-based, UDL, RTI, and differentiation practices.
- Demonstrate skills in systematic and responsible observing, documenting, assessing, analyzing, and reporting data to support early learning.
- Practice servant leadership philosophy and principles in approach to clinical and service experiences, serve by putting the needs of others first, sharing power, aspire to lead after trust and relations are earned and built, helping young children, families, and communities develop and perform as highly as possible.

The Master of Science degree programs are designed for practicing classroom teachers seeking advanced teacher preparation with a graduate degree.

The curriculum will be completed in the order established by Indiana Wesleyan University. Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to modify the curriculum as necessary.

The mission of the Master of Science programs is to prepare teacher leaders to provide advanced knowledge that translates into effective teaching performances and dispositions, all of which are focused on improving P-12 student learning.

The purpose of the Master of Science programs is to provide advanced study beyond the baccalaureate degree to meet the professional needs of practicing teachers to help them touch heaven and change earth.

Graduates of the Master of Science programs should be able to:

- Demonstrate the ability to use research with an understanding of qualitative, quantitative and/or mixed methods research methodologies.
- Demonstrate ethical, Christ-like attitudes, values, and biblical worldview that encompass professional dispositions, laws and policies, codes of ethics and professional standards appropriate to classroom teaching in their professional behaviors.
- Apply advanced knowledge of student learning suitable for any student.
- Apply data literacy to develop or sustain supportive school environments.
- Apply self-reflection and data analysis to improve their own teaching.
- Demonstrate the ability to lead and participate in collaborative activities with others, such as peers, colleagues, teachers, administrators, community organizations, and parents.
- Apply technology appropriate for their field of specialization.
- Demonstrate cultural knowledge and culturally responsive teaching that promotes student and school success.

- Apply content knowledge and skills that the courses and other experiences of this advanced preparation emphasize.
- Integrate global philosophies into their own educational practices.

M.S. - Biology in Education Major

The Master of Science (M.S.) degree with a major in Biology in Education is designed for practicing secondary school teachers who wish to become qualified to instruct advanced placement, dual enrollment, or early college courses, as well as deepen their understanding of Biology, Life Science, and advanced educational classroom practice. Candidates will complete a 33-credit hour program consisting of 18 hours in graduate biology and 15 in graduate education. Candidates must already be credentialed for teaching Life Science or Biology in P-12 schools and/or community colleges, as this degree will not lead to initial or advanced state licensure in those areas.

The 18 credit hours of courses in Biology provide a broad understanding of the field, strengthening scientific knowledge, critical thinking, and quantitative skills in fundamental domains along with a biblical worldview.

The 15 credit hours of courses in Education are designed to provide participants with methods and materials to deepen their teaching ability and help their own students learn, including culturally responsive teaching, ethics and faith, and research and technology tools. It aligns to the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation's advanced-level program standards. Course instruction is designed to model best practices and procedures in the classroom.

Candidates who have completed this program should be able to:

- Analyze then synthesize scientific knowledge in biology effectively.
- Demonstrate critical thinking skill by evaluating and explaining biological scientific information accurately.
- Develop quantitative skills for evaluating and solving quantitative biological problems that can be modeled mathematically.
- Formulate a biblical worldview utilizing the attained scientific knowledge in biology.
- Candidates will demonstrate the ability to use research with an understanding of qualitative, quantitative and/or mixed methods research methodologies.
- Candidates will demonstrate ethical, Christ-like attitudes, values, and biblical worldview that encompass professional dispositions, laws and policies, codes of ethics and professional standards appropriate to classroom teaching in their professional behaviors.
- Candidates will apply advanced knowledge of student learning suitable for any student.
- Candidates will apply data literacy to develop or sustain supportive school environments.
- Candidates will apply self-reflection and data analysis to improve their own teaching.
- Candidates will demonstrate the ability to lead and participate in collaborative activities with others, such as peers, colleagues, teachers, administrators, community organizations, and parents.
- Candidates will apply technology appropriate for their field of specialization.
- Candidates will demonstrate cultural knowledge and culturally responsive teaching that promotes student and school success.
- Candidates will apply content knowledge and skills that the courses and other experiences of this advanced preparation emphasize.
- Candidates will integrate global philosophies into their own educational practices.

This program is available to candidates from all states or internationally, and does not lead to P-12 licensure.

M.S. - Christian School Education Major

The Master of Science (M.S.) program with a major in Christian School Education is designed to provide an advanced degree in Christian Education to educators who teach in Christian schools or aspire to careers in Christian school teaching and administration, either internationally or domestically. Candidates will complete a 36-credit hour program (12 courses) that brings a more purposeful and distinct Christian faith-integration to timeless aspects of educator development such as worldview, curriculum, assessment, instruction, administration, and learning environments across the P-12 spectrum. Courses are designed to provide participants with an essential mix of theory and practice in these areas, and allow them to deepen their understanding in areas such as differentiation, culturally responsive teaching and social justice, ethics and faith, technology integration, and current topics and research. Courses are offered online in English, or under pre-arranged circumstances may be offered in a hybrid format (onsite and online) in a native language such as Spanish or French. Limited field experiences within one's own classroom or school are required in some courses.

This program will not lead to teacher or administrative licensure in any state, country, or other jurisdiction. Candidates will be responsible to determine the extent to which the program suits any required or desired professional development, or other career goals.

Admission Requirements

The admission requirements for the M.S. program with a major in Christian School Education are as follows:

- A baccalaureate or graduate degree from a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) verified on original transcripts sent by the institution directly to Indiana Wesleyan University. Transcripts from foreign institutions may need to be sent to an outside agency for evaluation and determination of transferable credits, degrees, and GPA. If this outside review is necessary, students are responsible for the initiation of this evaluation and for any fees incurred during the process.
- An undergraduate GPA of 2.75 or higher from the baccalaureate degree granting institution at which at least a minimum of 30 hours was completed.
- A letter of Christian testimony.

International students, please see requirements for International Student Admission. Contact the Admissions Office for specific admissions procedures.

Access to a classroom or school is important in some courses

Graduation Requirements

To graduate, from the M.S. program, candidates must have completed the following:

- Successful completion of the M.S. curriculum.
- Cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above in all graduate work and a minimum grade of "B-" in each course.
- Payment of all tuition and fees is required to receive a diploma.

- Actively promote child development and developmentally appropriate learning experiences for all children in childcare, classroom, home, and community settings.
- Create safe, healthy, respectful, supportive, and challenging learning environments, where young children have access to quality learning opportunities that inspire and set the stage for growth across the developmental domains.
- Exhibit knowledge and understanding of the dynamics of diverse family and community characteristics; honor diverse cultural values, language, and norms by encouraging a child's learning connectedness to home.
- Consider contextual factors, learning cycle choices, development, and environment to proactively determine appropriate setting and behavior management procedures and practices; Initiate and think professionally in a timely manner to address management concerns.
- Design developmentally appropriate content-rich purposeful curriculum emphasizing the integration of topics and disciplines; Integrate academic standards, child development, impacting contextual factors and individual/group interests, needs, and learning styles.
- Facilitate positive, respectful, and reciprocal relationship-based interactions as a foundation to support, empower, and engage young children and families.
- Apply constructivist (Vygotsky) theoretical framework into practice throughout academic disciplines to design and support inquiry-based, play-based, open-ended, project-based, and problem-based learning experiences.

- Participate in informed advocacy for young children, families, and the early childhood profession through multiple types of advocacy (citizen, issue-based, self group, peer, statutory, family and friend).
- Evaluate and implement developmentally appropriate effective approaches when selecting a wide variety of tools, resources, and strategies to meet the unique needs of all learners including: technology, inquiry-based, project-based, problem-based, UDL, RTI, and differentiation practices.
- Demonstrate skills in systematic and responsible observing, documenting, assessing, analyzing, and reporting data to support early learning.
- Practice servant leadership philosophy and principles in approach to clinical and service experiences, serve by putting the needs of others first, sharing power, aspire to lead after trust and relations are earned and built, helping young children, families, and communities develop and perform as highly as possible.

Field Experiences required.

M.S. - Early Childhood Teaching Major

The Master Science (M.S) program with a major in Early Childhood Teaching is designed to provide an advanced degree in early childhood teaching to teachers who were awarded a Transition to Teaching Early Childhood Education Certificate within ten years and became practicing classroom teachers. Candidates will complete a 33-credit hour program by adding 18 hours of advanced preparation courses to 15 hours that may be transferred in from the TTT Early Childhood Education program coursework. The 18 credit hours are designed to provide participants with methods and materials to deepen their teaching ability and help their own students learn, including working with special needs children and accompanying law and policies, culturally responsive teaching, ethics and faith, and research and technology tools. They build on prior TTT coursework and teaching experience and align to the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation's advanced-level program standards. Course instruction is designed to model best practices and procedures in the classroom.

This program is open to any candidate who was awarded a Transition to Teaching Early Childhood Certificate within ten years and received an initial Early Childhood Education teaching license. In order to enter the degree program, candidates must have at least one year of successful teaching experience as a teacher of record; this may preclude some TTT Early Childhood Education completers from entering this degree program immediately. This program does not lead to additional subject area licensure. Prior to applying, an applicant is responsible for knowing whether or not this program will satisfy regulatory requirements for the state or country in which he or she may be seeking advanced standing.

Upon completion of the additional courses, candidates should be able to:

- Demonstrate the ability to use research with an understanding of qualitative, quantitative and/or mixed methods research methodologies.
- Demonstrate ethical, Christ-like attitudes, values, and biblical worldview that encompass professional dispositions, laws and policies, codes of ethics and professional standards appropriate to classroom teaching in their professional behaviors.
- Apply advanced knowledge of student learning suitable for any student.
- Apply data literacy to develop or sustain supportive school environments.
- Apply self-reflection and data analysis to improve their own teaching.
- Demonstrate the ability to lead and participate in collaborative activities with others, such as peers, colleagues, teachers, administrators, community organizations, and parents.
- Apply technology appropriate for their field of specialization.
- Demonstrate cultural knowledge and culturally responsive teaching that promotes student and school success.
- Apply content knowledge and skills that the courses and other experiences of this advanced preparation emphasize.
- Integrate global philosophies into their own educational practices.

Admission Requirements

M.S. - English as a New Language Major (Licensure)

The Master of Science (M.S.) degree with a major in English as a New Language is designed for licensed teachers who have a bachelor's degree and at least one year of teaching experience, and seek Indiana certification in English as a New Language (P-12). Candidates will complete a 33-credit hour program that is aligned to the TESOL Association's professional standards and the Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education's advanced-level program standards. Field or clinical experiences are required.

The 18 credit-hour major in English as a New Language (ENL) identifies knowledge and skills based on current TESOL standards and develops candidates to engage in inquiry, research, dialogue, team learning, reflection, problem-based learning, collaboration, and standards-based assessment from a comprehensive P-12 perspective. The major satisfies Indiana's program of study for an ENL endorsement, P-12. The 15 credit hours of core Education courses are designed to provide participants with methods and materials to deepen their teaching ability and help their own students learn, including culturally responsive teaching, ethics and faith, and research and technology tools. It aligns to the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation's advanced-level program standards. Course instruction is designed to model best practices and procedures in the classroom.

This program is a pathway for training for those who need to take the Indiana ENL assessment. In addition, this program is open to candidates from all states and countries; these candidates are responsible for determining how the Indiana endorsement could be applied to a license issued by another state or jurisdiction. This could include teachers and leaders in the following schools: International schools, ACSI schools both stateside and overseas, charter, and private schools.

Candidates who have completed this program should be able to:

- Articulate the progress of language acquisition and development and the role this process plays in students' educational experience.
- Recognize that students' primary culture plays a crucial role in their adaptation to school.
- Facilitate instruction by creating a supportive environment and implementing the appropriate activities that promote learning for English language learners.
- Use formal assessments and informal assessment strategies that include methods to promote learner development.
- Build partnerships and serve as experts to support students, colleagues, and other stakeholders to benefit CLD/ENL students.
- Use classroom research of teaching and learning to improve their instruction and assessment practices for CLD/ENL students.
- Apply Christ-like leadership by modeling personal integrity, communication skills, cultural responsiveness, and ethical/legal decision-making.
- Demonstrate the ability to use research with an understanding of qualitative, quantitative and/or mixed methods research methodologies.
- Demonstrate ethical, Christ-like attitudes, values, and biblical worldview that encompass professional dispositions, laws and policies, codes of ethics and professional standards appropriate to classroom teaching in their professional behaviors.
- Apply advanced knowledge of student learning suitable for any student.
- Apply data literacy to develop or sustain supportive school environments.
- Apply self-reflection and data analysis to improve their own teaching.
- Demonstrate the ability to lead and participate in collaborative activities with others, such as peers, colleagues, teachers, administrators, community organizations, and parents.
- Apply technology appropriate for their field of specialization.
- Demonstrate cultural knowledge and culturally responsive teaching that promotes student and school success.
- Apply content knowledge and skills that the courses and other experiences of this advanced preparation emphasize.
- Integrate global philosophies into their own educational practices.

Admission Requirements

The admission requirements for the M.S. program with a major in English as a New Language, are as follows:

- A baccalaureate or graduate degree from a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) verified on original transcripts sent by the institution directly to Indiana Wesleyan University. Transcripts from foreign institutions may need to be sent to an outside agency for evaluation and determination of transferable credits, degrees, and GPA. If this outside review is necessary, students are responsible for the initiation of this evaluation and for any fees incurred during the process
- An undergraduate GPA of 2.75 or higher from the baccalaureate degree granting institution at which at least a minimum of 30 hours was completed..
- Candidates need:
 - A valid (but not necessarily current) state teacher's license. The following state licenses/permits are not accepted: Emergency, Provisional, Transition to Teaching, Career Specialist, Substitute, Temporary, or Workplace Specialist

- At least one year (i.e., a minimum of one semester and one day) of teaching experience from an approved and accredited public, private, or parochial P-12 school in the United States or abroad. Supporting documentation demonstrating access to a P-12 classroom.

Clinical Experience Requirements

Field or clinical experiences are required. Candidates may complete field experience within their own classroom or school.

Testing

Candidates who wish to be recommended for the Indiana license endorsement for English as a New Language must satisfy all completion requirements and receive a passing score on the required Indiana state English Learner assessment.

Graduation Requirements

To graduate from the M.S. program, candidates must have completed the following:

- Successful completion of the M.S. curriculum.
- Possess a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above in all graduate work and a minimum grade of "B-" in each course.
- Provide evidence of a passing score for the Indiana licensure exam (019) English Learners.

Candidates will complete a 33-credit hour program that is aligned to the TESOL Association's professional standards and the Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education's advanced-level program standards. Field or clinical experiences are required.

The 18 credit-hour major in English as a New Language (ENL) identifies knowledge and skills based on current TESOL standards and develops candidates to engage in inquiry, research, dialogue, team learning, reflection, problem-based learning, collaboration, and standards-based assessment from a comprehensive P-12 perspective. The major satisfies Indiana's program of study for an ENL endorsement, P-12, but does not require proof of successful testing as a degree graduation requirement. The 15 credit hours of core Education courses are designed to provide participants with methods and materials to deepen their teaching ability and help their own students learn, including culturally responsive teaching, ethics and faith, and research and technology tools. It aligns to the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation's (CAEP) advanced-level program standards. Course instruction is designed to model best practices and procedures in the classroom.

This program is open to candidates from all states and countries; these candidates are responsible for determining how the degree could be applied towards professional development, or teaching license advancement, renewal, or refresh without the addition of an endorsement. This could include teachers and leaders in the following schools: International schools, ACSI schools both stateside and overseas, charter, and private schools. This program may also appeal to traditional public-school teachers who only want a master's degree or continuing education, but have no interest in additional licensure.

Candidates who have completed this program should be able to:

- Articulate the progress of language acquisition and development and the role this process plays in students' educational experience.
- Recognize that students' primary culture plays a crucial role in their adaptation to school.
- Facilitate instruction by creating a supportive environment and implementing the appropriate activities that promote learning for English language learners.
- Use formal assessments and informal assessment strategies that include methods to promote learner development.
- Build partnerships and serve as experts to support students, colleagues, and other stakeholders to benefit CLD/ENL students.
- Use classroom research of teaching and learning to improve their instruction and assessment practices for CLD/ENL students.
- Apply Christ-like leadership by modeling personal integrity, communication skills, cultural responsiveness, and ethical/legal decision-making.
- Demonstrate the ability to use research with an understanding of qualitative, quantitative and/or mixed methods research methodologies.
- Demonstrate ethical, Christ-like attitudes, values, and biblical worldview that encompass professional dispositions, laws and policies, codes of ethics and professional standards appropriate to classroom teaching in their professional behaviors.
- Apply advanced knowledge of student learning suitable for any student.
- Apply data literacy to develop or sustain supportive school environments.
- Apply self-reflection and data analysis to improve their own teaching.
- Demonstrate the ability to lead and participate in collaborative activities with others, such as peers, colleagues, teachers, administrators, community organizations, and parents.
- Apply technology appropriate for their field of specialization.
- Demonstrate cultural knowledge and culturally responsive teaching that promotes student and school success.
- Apply content knowledge and skills that the courses and other experiences of this advanced preparation emphasize.
- Integrate global philosophies into their own educational practices.

Admission Requirements

The admission requirements for the M.S. program with a major in English as a New Language, are as follows:

- A baccalaureate or graduate degree from a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) verified on original transcripts sent by the institution directly to Indiana Wesleyan University. Transcripts from foreign institutions may need to be sent to an outside agency for evaluation and determination of transferable credits, degrees, and GPA. If this outside review is necessary, students are responsible for the initiation of this evaluation and for any fees incurred during the process
- An undergraduate GPA of 2.75 or higher from the baccalaureate degree granting institution at which at least a minimum of 30 hours was completed..

- Candidates need:
 - A valid (but not necessarily current) state teacher's license, or a valid (but not necessarily current) temporary, standard, or professional teaching license/certificate from another recognized accreditation body (e.g., Association of Christian Schools International), or an official letter from a school administrator confirming employment as a teacher of record.
 - At least one year (i.e., a minimum of one semester and one day) of teaching experience from an approved and accredited public, private, or parochial P-12 school in the United States or abroad. Supporting documentation demonstrating access to a P-12 classroom.

Clinical Experience Requirements

Field or clinical experiences are required. Candidates may complete field experience within their own classroom or school.

Graduation Requirements

To graduate from the M.S. program, candidates must have completed the following:

- Successful completion of the M.S. curriculum.
- Possess a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above in all graduate work and a minimum grade of "B-" in each course.
- Payment of all tuition and fees is required to receive a diploma.

M.S. - Mathematics in Education Major

The Master of Science (M.S.) degree with a major in Mathematics in Education is designed for practicing secondary school teachers who wish to become qualified to instruct advanced placement, dual enrollment, or early college courses, as well as deepen their understanding of mathematics and advanced educational classroom practice. Candidates will complete a 33-credit hour program consisting of 18 hours in graduate mathematics and 15 in graduate education. Candidates must already be credentialed for teaching Mathematics in P-12 schools and/or community colleges, as this degree will not lead to initial or advanced state licensure in those areas.

The 18 credit hours of courses in Mathematics provide a broad understanding of the field, strengthening mathematical knowledge and accuracy, critical thinking, modeling and quantitative skills in fundamental domains along with a biblical worldview.

The 15 credit hours of courses in Education are designed to provide participants with methods and materials to deepen their teaching ability and help their own students learn, including culturally responsive teaching, ethics and faith, and research and technology tools. It aligns to the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation's advanced-level program standards. Course instruction is designed to model best practices and procedures in the classroom.

Candidates who have completed this program should be able to:

- Interpret a breadth of mathematical knowledge effectively.
- Evaluate mathematical information accurately.
- Synthesize critical thinking and quantitative skills to analyze problems that can be modeled mathematically.
- Synthesize biblical knowledge with the attained quantitative knowledge.
- Candidates will demonstrate the ability to use research with an understanding of qualitative, quantitative and/or mixed methods research methodologies.
- Candidates will demonstrate ethical, Christ-like attitudes, values, and biblical worldview that encompass professional dispositions, laws and policies, codes of ethics and professional standards appropriate to classroom teaching in their professional behaviors.
- Candidates will apply advanced knowledge of student learning suitable for any student.
- Candidates will apply data literacy to develop or sustain supportive school environments.
- Candidates will apply self-reflection and data analysis to improve their own teaching.
- Candidates will demonstrate the ability to lead and participate in collaborative activities with others, such as peers, colleagues, teachers, administrators, community organizations, and parents.
- Candidates will apply technology appropriate for their field of specialization.
- Candidates will demonstrate cultural knowledge and culturally responsive teaching that promotes student and school success.
- Candidates will apply content knowledge and skills that the courses and other experiences of this advanced preparation emphasize.
- Candidates will integrate global philosophies into their own educational practices.

This program is available to candidates from all states or internationally, and does not lead to P-12 licensure.

Admission Requirements

M.S. - School Administration Major (Indiana Licensure)

The Master of Science (M.S.) degree with a major in School Administration is designed for practicing classroom teachers seeking an advanced degree in education to earn their Indiana building level administrator's license. Candidates will complete a 33-credit hour program. The 18-credit hour concentration in School Administration identifies outcomes and expectations based on current school leadership principles and practices and enables interns to engage in inquiry, research, dialogue, team learning, reflection, problem-based learning, collaboration, and standards-based assessment from a comprehensive P-12 perspective. It aligns to the National Educational Leadership Preparation (NELP) standards and the Indiana Department of Education's (IDOE's) School Leader -- Building Level standards. The school administration major satisfies Indiana's required program of study for a building level administrator's license. The 15 credit hours of courses in Education are designed to provide participants with methods and materials to deepen their teaching ability and help their own students learn, including culturally responsive teaching, ethics and faith, and research and technology tools. It aligns to the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation's advanced-level program standards. Course instruction is designed to model best practices and procedures in the classroom.

Candidates who have completed this program should be able to:

- Understand and be able to apply Christ-like leadership principles that build the spiritual foundation critical to the success of a world-changer.
- Demonstrate competency in the following School of Educational Leadership's dispositional domains: Communication, Critical Thinking, Human Interaction, Leadership, and Professionalism.
- Demonstrate the ability to facilitate collaborative vision, mission, values, goals, and a culture of continuous improvement in the buildings they will lead to change the world.
- Demonstrate instructional leadership by understanding and promoting best practices in teaching, with an acute focus on student learning and academic success.
- Demonstrate the ability to leverage school operations, manage resources, and provide a safe learning environment to ensure the success of all students.
- Demonstrate the ability to build diverse relationships that engage parents and the community in the learning process and share resources for student success and for the benefit of all stakeholders.
- Model personal integrity, fairness, accountability, cultural responsiveness, and ethical/legal decision-making, and expect the same from staff and students.

Admission Requirements

The admission requirements for the M.S. program with a major in School Administration are as follows:

- A baccalaureate or graduate degree from a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) verified on original transcripts sent by the institution directly to Indiana Wesleyan University. Transcripts from foreign institutions may need to be sent to an outside agency for evaluation and determination of transferable credits, degrees, and GPA. If this outside review is necessary, students are responsible for the initiation of this evaluation and for any fees incurred during the process.
- A GPA of 2.75 or above from the degree granting institution at which at least of minimum of 30 hours was completed
- Be currently employed in or have access to a P-12 public or non-public school in which the principal is willing to serve as a mentor for the internship phase of the program. Submission of a completed internship agreement with a building principal will be required prior to the start of the internship phase.
- Hold an initial, standard, provisional, proficient, or accomplished practitioner Instructional or School Counselor license.
- At least two years of teaching experience on one of the licenses listed above in an approved and accredited public, private, or parochial elementary, secondary, or postsecondary school in the United States or abroad.
*Please note that in keeping with Indiana Department of Education licensure policy, experience gained by a teacher holding only an Emergency Permit, Provisional Permit, Transition to Teaching Permit, Career Specialist Permit, Charter School

License, Substitute Permit, or Workplace Specialist II license is not acceptable as licenses of these types do not meet the prerequisite license requirements.

- Obtain recommendations from two school leaders (superintendent, principal, or assistant principal) who are qualified to judge the applicant's knowledge, skills, and dispositions in relation to pursuing the Building Level Administrator's license.
- Submit a signed FERPA Release Form.

Clinical Experience Requirements

- All candidates must complete two Internships (three credit hours each over a six-month period).
- All candidates must secure a Principal-Mentor at the school in which they are currently teaching.
- The Principal-Mentor will work with the candidates throughout the course of the Internships.

Graduation Requirements

To graduate from the M.S. program, candidates must meet the following:

- Successfully complete the M.S. curriculum.
- Possess a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above in all graduate work and a minimum grade of "B-" in each course.
- Satisfy admission, mid-program review, and program completion gateways (p. 496).
- Provide evidence of a passing score for the Indiana licensure exam for Building-level Administration.
- Payment of all tuition and fees is required to receive a diploma.

Indiana Candidates -- Successful completion of the M.S. – School Administration program meets the academic requirements for recommendation for licensure. Additionally, candidates must complete other requirements of the Indiana Department of Education before a principal's license will be issued, including receiving a passing score on the related state assessment test, evidence of at least two years teaching or work experience as a teacher or school counselor on one of the following license types: initial, standard, provisional, proficient, or accomplished practitioner instructional or School Counselor license.

Other Candidates – Applicants who seek administrative licensure in states other than Indiana bear the responsibility to determine whether completion of the IWU M.S. – School Administration program will meet the academic and assessment requirements of the state in which licensure is sought.

M.S. - School Administration Major (Ohio Licensure)

The Master of Science (M.S.) degree with a major in School Administration is designed for practicing classroom teachers seeking an advanced degree in education to earn their Ohio building level administrator's license. Candidates will complete a 33-credit hour program. The 18-credit hour concentration in School Administration identifies outcomes and expectations based on current school leadership principles and practices, and enables interns to engage in inquiry, research, dialogue, team learning, reflection, problem-based learning, collaboration, and standards-based assessment from a comprehensive P-12 perspective. It aligns to the National Educational Leadership Preparation (NELP) standards and the Ohio Department of Education's (ODOE's) Standards for Principals. The school administration major satisfies Ohio's required program of study for a professional administrator's license. The 15 credit hours of courses in Education are designed to provide participants with methods and materials to deepen their teaching ability and help their own students learn, including areas such as culturally responsive teaching, ethics and faith, and research and technology tools. It aligns to the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation's advanced-level program standards. Course instruction is designed to model best practices and procedures in the classroom.

Candidates who have completed this program should be able to:

- Understand and be able to apply Christ-like leadership principles that build the spiritual foundation critical to the success of a world-changer.

M.S. - School Administration Major (Non-licensure)

Indiana Wesleyan University's Master of Science in School Administration (Non-licensure) Program is a master's degree, non-licensure program. It is designed for alternatively licensed teachers who have a bachelor's degree and have at least two years of teaching experience.

Candidates will complete a 33-credit hour program which includes a 15-credit-hour Core and an 18 credit-hour concentration in School Administration. This concentration identifies outcomes and expectations based on current school leadership principles and practices and enables interns to engage in inquiry, research, dialogue, team learning, reflection, problem-based learning, collaboration, and standards-based assessment from a comprehensive P-12 perspective. It aligns to the National Educational Leadership Preparation (NELP) program recognition standards on which our accreditation is based. The 15 credit hours of Core courses in Education are designed to provide participants with methods and materials to deepen their teaching ability and help their own students learn, including culturally responsive teaching, ethics and faith, and research and technology tools. Course instruction is designed to model best practices and procedures in the classroom.

This program is open to candidates from all states and countries, and is not tied to state licensure. This is an alternative pathway to school leadership for those who need the training, but not the licensure. This could include teachers and leaders in the following schools: International schools, ACSI schools both stateside and overseas, Charter, and Private schools. This program may also appeal to traditional public school teachers who only want a master's degree or continuing education, but have no interest in principal licensure.

Candidates who have completed this program should be able to:

- Understand and be able to apply Christ-like leadership principles that build the spiritual foundation critical to the success of a world-changer.
- Demonstrate competency in the following School of Educational Leadership's dispositional domains: Communication, Critical Thinking, Human Interaction, Leadership, and Professionalism.
- Demonstrate the ability to facilitate collaborative vision, mission, values, goals, and a culture of continuous improvement in the buildings they will lead to change the world.
- Demonstrate instructional leadership by understanding and promoting best practices in teaching, with an acute focus on student learning and academic success.
- Demonstrate the ability to leverage school operations, manage resources, and provide a safe learning environment to ensure the success of all students.
- Demonstrate the ability to build diverse relationships that engage parents and the community in the learning process and share resources for student success and for the benefit of all stakeholders.
- Model personal integrity, fairness, accountability, cultural responsiveness, and ethical/legal decision-making, and expect the same from staff and students.

Admission Requirements

To meet the admission requirements for this program, candidates must:

- A baccalaureate or graduate degree from a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) verified on original transcripts sent by the institution directly to Indiana Wesleyan University. Transcripts from foreign institutions may need to be sent to an outside agency for evaluation and determination of transferable credits, degrees, and GPA. If this outside review is necessary, students are responsible for the initiation of this evaluation and for any fees incurred during the process.
- An undergraduate GPA of 2.75 or above from the baccalaureate degree granting institution at which at least of minimum of 30 hours was completed.
- Be currently employed in or have access to a P-12 public or non-public school or international school.
- Hold a teacher or school counselor license (private, state, international, ACSI, or charter).
- Have at least two years of teaching experience in one of the settings listed above.
- Obtain recommendations from two school, church, or mission leaders who are qualified to judge the applicant's knowledge, skills, and dispositions in relation to school leadership.
- Submit a signed FERPA Release Form.

Clinical Experience Requirements

All candidates must complete a six-credit-hour internship spanning six months in accordance with NELP requirements.

Graduation Requirements

To graduate from the M.S. program, candidates must have completed the following:

- Successful completion of the M.S. curriculum
- Possess a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above in all graduate work and a minimum grade of "B-" in each course.
- Satisfy admission, mid-program review, and program completion gateways (p. 496).

Candidates must pay all tuition and fees to receive a certificate or degree.

M.S. - Secondary Teaching Major

The Master of Science (M.S) program with a major in Secondary Teaching is designed to provide an advanced degree in secondary teaching to teachers who were awarded a Transition to Teaching Secondary Certificate within ten years and became practicing classroom teachers. Candidates will complete a 33-credit hour program by adding 18 hours of advanced preparation courses to 15 hours that may be transferred in from the TTT Secondary program coursework. The 18 credit hours are designed to provide participants with methods and materials to deepen their teaching ability and help their own students learn, including working with special needs children and accompanying law and policies, culturally responsive teaching, ethics and faith, and research and technology tools. They build on prior TTT coursework and teaching experience and align to the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation's advanced-level program standards. Course instruction is designed to model best practices and procedures in the classroom.

This program is open to any candidate who was awarded a Transition to Teaching Secondary Certificate within ten years and received an initial Secondary or P-12 initial teaching license. In order to enter the degree program, candidates must have at least one year of successful teaching experience as a teacher of record; this may preclude some TTT Secondary completers from entering this degree program immediately. This program does not lead to additional subject area licensure. Prior to applying, an applicant is responsible for knowing whether or not this program will satisfy regulatory requirements for the state or country in which he or she may be seeking advanced standing.

Upon completion of additional courses, candidates should be able to:

Office of Professional Development and Educational Licensing

The Office of Professional Development and Educational Licensing offers graduate level coursework designed to provide educational opportunities for teachers, administrators, and school services personnel.

Graduate courses offered through this office are designed to strengthen the professional competencies of P-12 practitioners. These courses address contemporary educational challenges by employing a theory-to-practice approach to adult learning. Credit for these courses may be applied toward renewal of the Indiana state teaching, administrative, and school services license.

IWU partners with other associates to provide a broad array of professional development courses that will fulfill the requirements of licensure renewal. The courses are offered as credit for license renewal and are not eligible to apply toward any degree or professional preparation program at IWU. These courses, offered by Performance Learning Systems and 3rd Learning (PLS 3rd Learning) are not applicable toward the completion requirements of any School of Educational Leadership degree or professional preparation program. Courses are offered through the year in an online format and during the summer in both online and on-site classroom locations across the state of Indiana.

Interested candidates may register for courses through the PLS 3rd Learning website at <http://plsclasses.com/our-classes/>. Candidates will also need to have a transcript sent directly to IWU verifying a baccalaureate or graduate degree from a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA).

Educators employed by school districts in states outside Indiana are welcome but are strongly advised to consult with their own state licensure office prior to registering. Students registering in courses bear the full responsibility for ensuring the applicability of IWU graduate courses for license renewal in their state.

Registration in coursework offered through the Office of Professional Development and Educational Licensing does not constitute admission to an IWU graduate degree program. If a non-degree seeking student decides at any time to apply for admission to an IWU graduate degree program, the student must complete the full and regular admission process.

Applicants to any program within the School of Educational Leadership will be required to sign a disclosure of information waiver giving any prior institutions the applicant may have attended permission to supply IWU representatives all information relevant to the applicant's fitness for teacher training or licensure recommendation, including but not limited to his/her conduct, standing, or reputation while attending said institutions. Any information obtained may be considered by IWU in its decision whether or not to admit an applicant, to permit his or her continuance in a program, or to recommend him/her for licensure.

Educational Licensing

The Office of Professional Development and Educational Licensing offers the following options:

Initial Licensure

The IWU Graduate School and the School of Educational Leadership provide several programs and opportunities for candidates to obtain their initial state educator license. Programs are designed to provide the necessary training and skills needed to be a proficient teacher, administrator, or school counselor. Initial licensure programs include:

- Bachelor of Science Degree in Early Childhood Education (Indiana)
- Transition-to-Teaching Certificate programs in Elementary or Secondary Education (Indiana)
- Master of Science Degree and Certificate program in School Administration (Indiana and Ohio)
- Education Specialist Degree in District Level Leadership (Indiana)
- Master of Arts Degree in School Counseling (Indiana and Ohio)

Licensure Renewal

Courses offered through the School of Educational Leadership and PLS 3rd Learning are designed to further develop the skills of teachers, administrators, and school services personnel. Theory-to-practice approaches to educational challenges are major goals of the program.

All courses have been approved through a rigorous IWU approval process and may be used to renew an Indiana instructional, administrative, or school services license. Renewal requires the accumulation of ninety (90) Professional Growth Points and submission of a Professional Growth Plan for verification. Professional Growth Points must be earned between the point when the license is issued and the point when renewal of the license takes place. These points can be earned through a variety of means, including the completion of coursework from an accredited institution with each semester hour equaling fifteen Professional Growth Points.

Professional Licensure

The requirements for professionalizing an educator license vary according to academic discipline. All professionalization applications, regardless of academic discipline, will require completion of an advanced degree (i.e. Master's degree or higher). Applicants seeking to professionalize an instructional license will also be required to provide proof of two years of teaching experience in accredited schools as well as have held a Proficient Practitioner/Standard/Provisional license for five years.

Applicants seeking a professional administrator license will be required to provide proof of completing sixty hours of graduate coursework from accredited institutions in Administration and related areas (advanced degree work can count towards these hours), and five years of administrative experience in an accredited school.

Those seeking professional licensure in School Counseling will be required to prove two years of experience as a school counselor in an accredited school and hold a Proficient Practitioner/Standard/Provisional license for five years.

Licensure Additions

Several licensure programs offered through the School of Educational Leadership offer opportunities for teachers, administrators, and school services personnel to advance their careers. These programs will allow an educator to add a new licensure content area to their existing Indiana or Ohio educator license. Programs include:

- Early Childhood Education (P-3) - Indiana
- Elementary Education (K-6) - Indiana
- Secondary Education (5-12) – Indiana
- Secondary Education (P-12) - Indiana
- Mild Intervention (P-12) – Indiana
- Mild/Moderate Intervention Specialist (K-12) – Ohio
- Building-Level Administrator (P-12) – Indiana
- Principal Licensure Program (K-6) (5-9) (5-12) – Ohio
- District-Level Superintendent (P-12) – Indiana
- English as a New Language (P-12) – Indiana

Most content area licenses offered through the Indiana Department of Education can be added to a valid instructional license by simply passing the corresponding Indiana CORE Assessment content exam. However, select content areas cannot be added by testing alone; candidates must complete an approved licensing program before adding the area. Programs that cannot be added by testing alone include:

- Early Childhood Education
- Elementary Education
- Select P-12 Education areas:
 - High Ability
 - Visual Arts
 - Theater Arts
 - Music – Vocal
 - Music – Instrumental
 - English as a New Language
 - School Counseling
- Special Education
- School Administration – Building-Level and District-Level

Licensure Renewal Requirements

Applicants must have a valid Proficient Practitioner/Standard/Provisional license from the State of Indiana. Applicants must have obtained ninety Professional Growth Points and received verification of a completed Professional Growth Plan from a School Administrator (if employed in a school system) or Department of Education (if not employed in a school system).

Applicants must complete the online application for renewal of their Indiana Instructional, Administration, or School Services License. Instructions for this process are provided on the Indiana Department of Education's web site.

The Indiana Department of Education advises license holders to NOT begin a renewal process until forty-five (45) days prior to the license expiration date.

If renewal requirements are not completed prior to the expiration of the license, there is no penalty imposed by the Indiana Department of Education; however, the license will not be renewed until the requirements have been met.

All licensure renewals for the state of Ohio are conducted directly through the Ohio Department of Education.

School of Nursing (SON)

The IWU School of Nursing has a great history in nursing education, graduating the first class in 1975. The baccalaureate, master's degree, and Doctor of Nursing Practice programs in nursing at Indiana Wesleyan University are accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education, (<http://www.ccnaccreditation.org>). Membership is held in the American Association of Colleges of Nursing. Eta Chi Chapter of Sigma Theta Tau International (Honor Society of Nursing) is chartered at Indiana Wesleyan University.

The School of Nursing has four divisions.

Division of Pre-licensure Nursing, which offers:

- BSN degree for post-high school students (p. 576). The Pre-licensure BSN (undergraduate program) is focused on the discipline of nursing and is supported by courses from the humanities and the natural and social sciences. Post high school students are admitted to the university and apply for admission to the nursing major during the second semester of their freshman year. Students are admitted to the nursing major as first semester sophomores. It is a traditional four-year program of study.
- BSN degree for students with a previous bachelor's degree in an area other than nursing (p. 577). The Transition to Nursing program, a Pre-licensure program, is designed as a 14-month accelerated, second-degree program. It was developed to provide an expedited method for second career seekers to become nurses.

Upon graduation, Pre-licensure students are eligible to take the National Council Licensure Examination for Registered Nurses (NCLEX-RN).

Division of Post-licensure Nursing, which offers:

- BSN - Post-licensure (RNBSN) (p. 579). The Post-licensure (RNBSN) program is for the practicing Registered Nurse. The program operates year round and classes are offered in the day or evening, on-site or blended, or completely online, to permit enrollment of working students. The Pre-licensure and Post-licensure programs are aligned in mission, philosophy, outcomes, and curriculum.

Division of Masters Nursing, which offers:

- MSN degree (p. 628). The Masters Nursing division offers majors in Nursing Administration, Nursing Education, and Primary Care Nursing with a specialization in Family Nurse Practitioner or Psychiatric Mental Health Nurse Practitioner. Nursing Administration and Nursing Education programs are also available to students with an Associates of Science in Nursing through the ASN-MSN program. Also offered is a dual degree/major of MSN/MBA Nursing Administration/Business Administration. The graduate program operates year around. Classes are offered online to accommodate working professionals. Family Nurse Practitioner students will have one onsite evening course. Psychiatric Mental Health Nurse Practitioner students will have one onsite evening course and two required residencies.
- Post Masters Certificates (p. 648). The School of Nursing offers certificate programs in Nursing Administration, Nursing Education, Family Nurse Practitioner, and Psychiatric Mental Health Nurse Practitioner for students who have a Master's degree in Nursing from a regionally accredited university with national nursing accreditation (CCNE, ACEN).

Division of Doctoral Nursing, which offers:

- DNP (Doctor of Nursing Practice) (p. 669). The Doctor of Nursing Practice program offers the doctoral student an extensive focus on developing leadership skills within healthcare systems and includes a two-week global academic experience. The 71-week program is delivered using the cohort model, offering the convenience of online learning and the cultivation of genuine relationship building through week-long residencies at three intervals during the program of study.
- BDNP (Bachelor to Doctor of Nursing Practice (p. 672)). The BSN-DNP direct entry DNP/FP or DNP/PMHNP programs provide graduates of Baccalaureate Nursing Programs entry into a Doctoral Program focused on the Family Nurse Practitioner or Psychiatric Mental Health Nurse Practitioner and systems and organizational leadership. Graduates are eligible to take the FNP or PMHNP Certification exams from the appropriate credentialing body after completing this four year program.

School of Nursing at a Glance

Mission

Nursing education at IWU prepares each student to become a world-changing nurse. This is accomplished by drawing students into an integrated experience of intellectual challenge, professional growth, and leadership development.

Therefore we will:

- Call students to Christian character.
- Expect academic excellence.
- Equip students for success in the profession.
- Mentor students in leadership.
- Prepare students for service.

Graduates of the IWU School of Nursing will be able to:

- Apply Christ-like attitudes and values to nursing practice.
- Deliver holistic nursing care to diverse populations.
- Integrate leadership principles and processes to deliver quality care across the healthcare continuum.
- Collaborate with interprofessional teams to improve client outcomes.
- Demonstrate professional development as a lifelong learner.

SON - Petitions, Appeals, and Grievances

During a student's academic career, there may be occasion to file a petition, an appeal or a grievance.

- A petition is a request for an exception to an academic policy. A petition must be submitted in writing to the appropriate academic leader.
- A student may appeal an academic policy decision or for a grade change.
- An academic grievance involves those situations in which a student believes that the university has not followed published policies regarding an academic policy decision or a request for a grade change or the student believes the policies and/or actions of School of Nursing personnel are unjust. Students taking courses outside of the School of Nursing are expected to follow the guidelines established by the Principal Academic Unit (School of Nursing, College of Arts and Sciences, College of Adult and Professional Studies, School of Health Sciences, Wesley Seminary) from which the course is taken for matters pertaining to courses/classes/policies.

Indiana Wesleyan University follows generally accepted college and university practice in the development of academic policies, the operation of classrooms, and use of grading techniques. The university allows its instructors independence in following generally accepted practices. A student who wishes to submit an appeal or grievance must abide by the procedures listed below.

Each stated time frame will be the ordinary process. More time may be necessary in the event of a lengthy investigation, hearing, illness, or other unforeseen circumstances. Depending on the situation, the timeline may be expedited. Because the appeal and grievance process is a private university administrative process, if legal council is retained, IWU must be notified immediately and the process will be turned over to the Office of Risk Management and Compliance.

Issues related to discrimination based on race, national origin, color, sex, disability, or age, including Title VI, Title IX, and Section 504 are handled according to university policy.

Grade Appeal

A grade appeal involves only those situations in which a student believes an instructor (a) has not followed fair grading practice or (b) has not followed his or her published grading policy in didactic or clinical courses.

Informal Process

Level 1

- The student should request the rationale from the professor for the grade given and discuss the key learning points within 10 university business days of the posting of the grade.
- The informal process may be ended at any time and the student may begin the formal procedure by submitting a written grade appeal form within 20 university business days of the posting of the grade. Grade appeal forms are available from the Office of the Dean.

Formal Process

Level 2

- If there is no resolution during the informal process, the student may file a grade appeal request form, which can be obtained from the Office of the Dean (Grade Appeal Request Form). If a properly completed grade appeal request form is not received by the university within 20 university business days of the date the student's grade was posted, then the student will forfeit any further right to appeal.
- If the matter involves the Dean as faculty, the student may request that the Associate Vice President (AVP) for the School of Nursing (or designee) review the matter.

- After the university receives the grade appeal request form, it will be forwarded to the instructor along with a faculty grade appeal response form. The Dean will notify the faculty member of the appeal and its nature and seek to mediate the dispute through the following steps.
 - Discussion of the facts of the case seeking resolution within 10 university business days.
 - If the faculty member's stated policy for calculating the grade has not been followed, the Dean or AVP will insist that it be followed. The role of the administrator is not to re-grade the assignment(s).
- If the instructor agrees, the grade will be changed, and the student academic record will be updated.

Level 3

- If the instructor does not agree that the grade should be changed, the Dean will request a second grading of the specific assignment or examination by two faculty members with knowledge in the academic discipline. They will submit their completed rubrics or evaluations to the Dean within 10 university business days.
- The grade appeal form, faculty response form, and the evaluation of the specific assignment or examination will be submitted to the School of Nursing Student Life Council.
- Upon receipt of the request for council review from the student, the matter will be brought to the next regularly scheduled School of Nursing Student Life Council meeting. (NOTE: The Council reserves the right to seek clarification from the student, additional graders, or the instructor). If the matter involves a member of the council, the Student Life Council Chair will require the individual to recuse himself/herself from the appeal process.
- A formal notification of the decision will be provided to the student by the council chair. This will complete the appeals process. The decision made at the Student Life Council is final for the appeal process.
- All documents related to the appeal will be filed electronically. Printed documents will be shredded.
- The student will be notified of results at each step of the grade appeal process.

Appeal of Academic Policy Decision

An academic policy appeal involves only those situations in which a student is seeking recourse from a university academic policy decision.

Examples of academic policies include but are not limited to admission criteria, readmission criteria, etc.

Informal Process

Level 1

- The student must first contact the person or the department responsible for the policy decision to resolve the question informally. Such contact must occur within 10 university business days of the incident that generates the request for exception.
- The informal process may be ended at any time and the student may begin the formal procedure by submitting an appeal form within 20 university business days of the decision. Appeal forms are available from the Office of the Dean.

Formal Process

Level 2

- If the matter is not satisfactorily resolved at level one, the student may submit a written request within 20 university business days of the date of the decision that prompted the appeal to the Dean for a review. The student should include thorough documentation supporting the student's claims.
- If the matter involves the Dean as faculty, the student may request that the Associate Vice President (AVP) for the School of Nursing (or designee) review the matter.
- If the published policy was not followed, the Dean or AVP will insist that it be followed.

Level 3

- If there is no resolution at level two, the Dean will forward the documentation for a review by the Student Life Council.
- Upon receipt of the request for council review from the student, the matter will be brought to the next regularly scheduled School of Nursing Student Life Council meeting. (NOTE: The Council reserves the right to seek clarification from the student and those involved in the policy decision.) If the matter involves a member of the Council, the Student Life Council Chair will require the individual to recuse himself/herself from the appeal process.

- A formal notification of the decision will be provided to the student by the Dean. This will complete the appeals process. The decision made at the Student Life Council is final for the appeal process.
- All documents related to the appeal will be filed electronically. Printed documents will be shredded.

Academic Grievance

An academic grievance involves those situations in which a student believes that the university has not followed published policies regarding an academic decision or a request for a grade change or the student believes the policies and/or actions of School of Nursing personnel are unjust.

Informal Process

Level 1

- If the student believes the published policies were not followed or he/she believes the policies and/or actions of School of Nursing personnel were not just, the student must first contact the Dean within 10 university business days for a full explanation of the policy and how the policy was followed. This is not a second hearing of an appeal.
- Due to the implications of a grievance, the student must submit a written grievance form at this step of the process. The grievance form may be obtained from the Office of the Dean. If a properly completed form is not received by the university within 10 university business days of the date on which the event that gave rise to the complaint occurred, the student will forfeit any further right to grieve.
- If the complaint involves the Dean, the student may request that the AVP for the School of Nursing (or designee) review the matter.
- The informal process may be ended at any time and the student may begin the formal procedure.

Formal Process

Level 2

- If the matter is not satisfactorily resolved at level one, the student may request that the AVP review the matter by requesting such a review.
- If the complaint involves the AVP, the student may request that the Vice President for Academic Affairs (VPAA) for the School of Nursing (or designee) review the matter.
- A formal notification of the decision will be provided to the student by the AVP.

Level 3

- If the matter is not satisfactorily resolved at level two, the student may request a review of the matter by the VPAA by forwarding the grievance form. If the university does not receive a request for a level three review within 10 university business days of the level two decision, the student will forfeit any further right to grieve.
- A formal notification of the decision will be provided to the student by the VPAA. This will complete the grievance process.
- All documents related to the grievance will be filed electronically. Printed documents will be shredded.

Division of Pre-licensure Nursing

Pre-licensure Nursing programs lead to a Bachelor of Science Nursing (B.S.N.) degree. There are two programs of study available to students: nursing traditional format (four year) and Transition to Nursing (accelerated second degree). The undergraduate program prepares men and women for professional nursing practice and provides a foundation for advanced study in nursing. Following successful completion of the curriculum, students are eligible to take the National Council

Licensure Examination for Registered Nurses (NCLEX-RN) in Indiana or other states subject to that state's guidelines and regulations.

The baccalaureate degree program in nursing at Indiana Wesleyan University is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (<http://www.ccnaccreditation.org>). The Pre-licensure Nursing program are also accredited by the Indiana State board of Nursing.

The Pre-licensure Nursing programs are committed to educating professional nurses prepared to change their world of influence through nursing practices grounded in the Christian ethos. The mission of the division is to provide quality nursing education within a Christian liberal arts university that equips professional nurse generalists for practice in diverse environments.

The nurse is perceived as a purposeful, self-directed individual who assumes responsibility and accountability to God, society, self, and clients who, made in the image of God, have intrinsic worth and value. Modeling the example of Jesus Christ, nurses are to protect and promote health, especially for people lacking access to health care, through the just allocation of health resources and services throughout the world.

General Education Competencies

Students in this major meet the general education competencies by taking the approved courses.

Outcomes of the Pre-licensure Nursing Program

The outcomes of the Pre-licensure Nursing program are to:

1. Call students to Christian character.
2. Expect students to develop academic excellence.
3. Equip students for success in the profession.
4. Mentor students in leadership.
5. Prepare students for service.

Pre-licensure Nursing Entrance Requirements

High school courses that provide a foundation for nursing are biology, chemistry, English, mathematics, speech, algebra, social studies, and writing. Students should submit the university application to the director of admissions at Indiana Wesleyan University. Acceptance will be in accordance with the established admission policies. Students are advised to declare pre-nursing as the choice of major when applying for admission.

Admission and Progression in the Pre-licensure Nursing Major

The Admission and Progression Committee approves admission to the Pre-licensure Nursing major. The following criteria must be met for admission to the major at the sophomore level:

1. Completion of 29 credits.
2. Minimum GPA of 2.75.
3. Minimum grade of "C" in all supporting courses, (A & P I, A & P II, IOBC, Micro; wet labs required, speech communications, and psychology).
4. Completion of health clearance form.
5. CPR certification.
6. Certified criminal background check.
7. Minimum grade of "C or better" in MAT-107 or higher (prefer MAT-113)
8. Minimum grade of "C" or better in NUR-145 Foundations of Nursing.
9. The TEAS Test is required for all students applying for acceptance into the Pre-licensure Nursing Program. The benchmark for passing the TEAS is 65% comprehensive. If the student receives a score of 65% or higher, they have satisfactorily completed the TEAS section of the application process. If the student does not meet the benchmark for the TEAS of 65% comprehensive, they will be required to do remediation. The Freshman Level Coordinator will determine the remediation depending on the Student's area of weakness. Once remediation is completed, the student will have satisfactorily completed the TEAS component of the application process.

Application forms for admission to the nursing major may be obtained from the office of the Division of Pre-licensure Nursing. All admission requirements must be completed by May 31 for September admission into the nursing major or December 22 for January admission.

Once a student is admitted to the nursing program, he or she must complete all coursework within 4 1/2 years (9 semesters). Progression through the major requires a minimum cumulative and major GPA of 2.75, a minimum grade of "C" in all nursing courses, health clearance, and current CPR certification. Progression is monitored by the Admission and Progression Committee.

Guaranteed Acceptance Pathway (GAP)

Select High School students are eligible to apply for the Guaranteed Acceptance Pathway (GAP) in the IWU School of Nursing (SON).

Guaranteed Admission – we save your spot so that when you are done with prerequisites as outlined below you can jump right in to clinical nursing.

Streamlined pathway into nursing clinical coursework

No requirement to apply to the clinical nursing program as all other students do between the Freshman and Sophomore years.

Eligibility for GAP

1. High School Seniors with a cumulative GPA of 3.5 on a 4.0 scale
2. Fully accepted at Indiana Wesleyan University (not available to transfer students) as a fulltime, first-time Freshman
3. An ACT score of 22 or higher, of RSAT of 1110 or higher
4. High School course work that includes 4 years of English, 3 years of Math including Algebra, Natural Sciences including one chemistry and one biology course.

Maintaining eligibility during the Freshman year

Students who are granted GAP admission must:

1. Transcript 29 course credit hours during the Freshman Year
2. Maintain a 2.75 or higher GPA
3. Complete four supporting science courses:
 - Anatomy and Physiology I and II
 - Introduction to Organic and Biological Chemistry,
 - Microbiology
4. Must earn a minimum grade of C in all prerequisite courses
5. Complete Foundations of Nursing (NUR 145) with a minimum grade of C.
6. Complete the university Math requirement (one math course at or above MAT 107 – MAT 113 is preferred) with a minimum grade of C.
7. Complete the Test of Essential Academic Skills (TEAS) assessment with a composite score of 65%

Students who do not meet the requirements for GAP are eligible to apply for admission to clinical nursing courses following the traditional process and will be given full consideration for admission. Not meeting those requirements may delay admission to Pre-licensure clinical nursing.

Fees

There is a one-time assessment testing fees and program fee. Clinical and lab fees will be assessed every semester.

Probation

Probation in the Division of Pre-licensure Nursing applies to students having a cumulative and/or major GPA less than 2.75 and/or who are repeating a nursing course. See details in the Pre-licensure Nursing Student Handbook.

Advanced Standing in Nursing

Transfer Students

Admission with prior credit is granted to those who meet the university requirements and who have a cumulative GPA of 2.75 on a 4.0 scale from the transferring institution. It is recommended that transfer into the program be made no later than the first semester of the sophomore year. Students contemplating transfer into the program from another college or university must contact the School of Nursing for the transfer policy and:

1. Be admitted to the university.
2. Must have their nursing course syllabi and science course syllabi approved by the School of Nursing and the Division of Natural Sciences and Mathematics (wet labs required).
3. To be considered for full admission into the nursing major, all admission criteria and credit transfers must be completed by May 31 for September admission, or December 22 for January admission.
4. Must complete three semesters of clinical nursing courses in the IWU School of Nursing program (minimum of 1 1/2 years residency requirement).
5. Transfer of clinical courses requires successful completion of appropriate skills proficiency exams. See Orientation, Registration and Credit Options (p. 33).
6. For students accepted into the Pre-licensure Nursing Program (traditional track) at IWU, previously completed college nursing courses (C or higher from regionally accredited colleges/universities) will be evaluated for IWU course equivalency as long as they are no more than five years old from the time of completion to the time of starting the nursing program at IWU. If the time limit criterion is met, course syllabi and course calendar from the transfer institution will be evaluated for IWU course equivalency.

All criteria for acceptance will be successfully completed before any nursing coursework is attempted.

College of Arts and Sciences (p. 30)

Students pursuing majors in Pre-licensure Nursing are also subject to all the pertinent policies and procedures as defined in the College of Arts and Sciences. Below are links to the academic policies and procedures for the College of Arts and Sciences:

Academic Requirements

MINIMUM NURSING ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS

A student may progress through the Pre-licensure Division Nursing Program when meeting all three of the following requirements:

1. Achieving a C or higher in all NUR courses.
2. Maintaining a nursing GPA of 2.75 or higher (NUR courses only).

3. Maintaining a cumulative GPA of 2.75 or higher (all IWU courses).

A student who does not meet one or more of these minimum requirements will be placed on nursing academic probation.

DEFINITION OF NURSING ACADEMIC PROBATION

Nursing academic probation is a status resulting from failure to meet the minimum requirements of the Pre-Licensure Division of the School of Nursing. Course grades and/or GPA earned during any term may result in a student being placed on nursing academic probation for the following semester. One probationary period is equal to one full semester.

PROBATION CRITERIA

An admitted nursing student will be placed on nursing probationary status when one or more of the criteria occur within a semester/term:

- Criteria 1: C- or lower in one or two NUR course/s (considered course failure).
- Criteria 2: NUR GPA of less than 2.75.
- Criteria 3: CUM GPA of less than 2.75.

Two probationary periods are permitted during entire enrollment in Pre-Licensure nursing.

DEFINITION OF ACADEMIC DISMISSAL

Academic dismissal is the removal of a student from enrollment in the Pre-licensure Division of the School of Nursing due to one or more of the dismissal criteria below. Academic dismissal means a student can no longer register for NUR clinical courses leading to a BSN degree.

DISMISSAL CRITERIA

A student will be dismissed from Pre-Licensure nursing if one or more of the following criteria occur:

- Criteria 1: Failure (C- or lower) of three NUR courses (in one or more semesters/terms).
- Criteria 2: Failure (C- or lower) of the same NUR course twice.
- Criteria 3: Failure to meet the requirements to be removed from probation by the end of the second probationary period.

READMISSION

After dismissal, a student may be eligible to apply for readmission to the Pre-licensure Division of the School of Nursing (SON) after ALL of the following criteria have been met:

- Criteria 1: Three years have passed since dismissal
- Criteria 2: All sciences completed within 5 years of readmission or work in a field utilizing the sciences
- Criteria 3: Completion of twelve credit hours from an accredited college/university with a GPA of 2.75 prior to readmission
- Criteria 4: Interview with the SON Dean of the Pre-licensure Division of Nursing or a designee
- Criteria 5: May be required to audit or repeat courses according to IWU's Repeating Course Policy
- Criteria 6: All other Pre-licensure admission requirements

REQUIREMENTS DURING PROBATION

A student on probationary status due to Probation Criteria 1 (C- or lower in one or two NUR course/s) must do the following:

FIRST PROBATION

- Register for the EQUIP (NUR 211) course, unless previously completed.
- Register for the NUR course/s for which the student has obtained a C- or lower.
- Meet with an advisor within the first two weeks of the semester and at midterm
 - Complete or follow up on the Plan for Academic Student Success (PASS).

- Meet regularly with the Nursing Educational Resource Specialist (NERS).
- Attain a passing grade in the repeated NUR course.
- Complete 2 credit hours of Professional Transitions (NUR 476) during the last year of study prior to graduation.

SECOND PROBATION

- Meet regularly with an assigned faculty mentor.
- Attain a passing grade in the repeated NUR course.

A student on probationary status due to Probation Criteria 2 (NUR GPA of less than 2.75) must do the following:

FIRST PROBATION

- Register for the EQUIP (NUR 211) course, unless previously completed
- Continue in NUR courses
- Meet with an advisor within the first two weeks of the semester and at midterm.
 - Complete or follow up on the Plan for Academic Student Success (PASS).
- Meet regularly with the Nursing Educational Resource Specialist (NERS).
- Raise NUR GPA to at least 2.75 by the end of the probationary semester.
- Complete 2 credit hours of Professional Transitions (NUR 476) during the last year of study prior to graduation.

SECOND PROBATION

- Meet regularly with an assigned faculty mentor.
- Must raise NUR GPA to 2.75 or above by the end of the probationary semester.

A student on probationary status due to Probation Criteria 3 (CUM GPA of less than 2.75) must do the following:

FIRST PROBATION

- Register for the EQUIP (NUR 211) course, unless previously completed
- Continue in NUR courses, as desired.
- Meet with an advisor within the first two weeks of the semester and at midterm.
 - Complete or follow up on the Plan for Academic Student Success (PASS).
- Meet regularly with the Nursing Educational Resource Specialist (NERS).
- Raise CUM GPA to at least 2.75 by the end of the probationary semester.
- Complete 2 credit hours of Professional Transitions (NUR 476) during the last year of study prior to graduation.

SECOND PROBATION

- Meet regularly with an assigned faculty mentor.
- Must raise CUM GPA to 2.75 or above by the end of the probationary semester.

REMOVAL OF PROBATIONARY STATUS

A student will be removed from probationary status for the next semester/term after all requirements are met as stated above and all other minimum academic requirements are maintained.

Nursing Student Drug Screening Policy

Purpose: To provide a safe working environment, area hospitals and other institutions are requiring individuals who provide care to patients to undergo drug testing. For this reason, students in the School of Pre-Licensure Nursing will undergo similar testing to meet the criteria of clinical agencies. All students in the nursing programs will undergo drug testing as a condition of admission into the program. Those admitted prior to the May 1, 2017 policy implementation will be screened prior to the Fall 2017 semester in order to allow continued participation in the nursing program.

Policy: Indiana Wesleyan University School of Pre-Licensure Nursing enforces a zero tolerance for impairment due to alcohol and/or drug use while on campus or in clinical affiliation experiences. Infringement of this policy will cancel the offer of admission, and for those admitted to the nursing programs, be subject to disciplinary action up to and including academic dismissal.

1. Student admission to the nursing program is contingent upon a drug screening test result indicating no evidence of drug use. A drug screening result indicating dilution of the sample will require a repeat drug test.
2. The student is responsible for the cost of the drug screening which is part of the background check conducted for admission and the screening must be completed within 30 days prior to starting clinical.
3. In the event of a drug screening result indicating use of an illegal drug or controlled substance without a legal prescription, student admission to the nursing program will be denied. Results will be submitted to the program director or designee.
Duty to Report: if the student is a license/registered health professional, a report will be made to the Attorney General and Indiana Professional Licensing Agency (or in the state(s) in which the applicant holds a license).
4. Students may be permitted to take legally prescribed and/or over-the-counter medications consistent with appropriate medical treatment plans while on duty. However, when such prescribed or over-the-counter medications affect clinical judgement, the student's safety or the safety of others, the student will be removed from clinical. The program Director will be consulted to determine if the student is capable of continuing to participate in academic and clinical programs. The Student Life Council may be consulted.
5. If at any time faculty or an administrator suspect a student is impaired due to drug or alcohol use while in the clinical, the student will be removed from the area and required to undergo immediate testing for drug and alcohol use at the student's expense. Impaired students will not be permitted to drive and must bear the cost of transportation. The student will be suspended from all clinical activities until the investigation into the situation is complete.
6. In the event of medication administration/handling discrepancy (i.e., in the case of the improper documentation of narcotics) or in the event of a medical error, accident or injury, testing will be conducted according to the policy of the clinical agency.
7. Referrals for evaluation and counseling for drug and/or alcohol use will be a part of a plan for a student with a positive screening or incident related to drug or alcohol use.
8. In the event of a positive drug screening of a student currently enrolled in the nursing program, the student will be dismissed from the program. Duty to Report: If the student is a licensed/registered health professional, a report will be made to the Attorney General and Indiana Professional Licensing Agency (or in the state(s) in which the applicant holds a license).
9. Random drug testing (ex. annually) or drug testing based on reasonable suspicion can be implemented at any time and without prior notice. Students who do not comply will be dismissed from the program.

Petitions, Appeals, and Grievances

See the Petitions, Appeals, and Grievances (p. 565) section in the School of Nursing for Pre-licensure Nursing Division policies.

Honesty, Cheating, Plagiarism, and Forgery

Academic dishonesty is inconsistent with scholarship and the pursuit of knowledge and Christian character. Thus, Indiana Wesleyan University expects students to be honest in all academic work.

Coursework

Students are expected to exhibit honesty in the classroom, in homework and on quizzes and tests. Each instructor should define what constitutes honest work in a specific course. Any deviation from ordinary standards, such as the permitted use of notes for an examination or an "open book" test, should be stated clearly by the instructor.

Cheating is defined as the use or attempted use of unauthorized materials or receiving unauthorized assistance or communication during any academic exercise. Examples of cheating include:

1. Submitting work for academic evaluation that is not the student's own.
2. Copying answers from another student during an examination.
3. Using prepared notes or materials during an examination.
4. Permitting another student to copy one's work.

5. Plagiarism.
6. Falsification.
7. Other misrepresentations of academic achievement submitted for evaluation or a grade.
8. The submission of papers or other work that one has submitted in a previous class or classes without appropriate citation and/or permission of the instructor.
9. Facilitating the academic dishonesty of others. Examples include, but are not limited to, uploading work to a tutoring website or sharing work with friends, roommates, and classmates.

Plagiarism is defined as "the false assumption of authorship; the wrongful act of taking the product of another person's mind and presenting it as one's own" (A. Lindey, 2006, Plagiarism and Originality). The Prentice Hall Reference Guide (2006) indicates, "To plagiarize is to include someone else's writing, information, or idea in a paper and fail to acknowledge what you took by indicating whose work it is" (p. 292). In other words, it is not giving credit where credit is due. Plagiarism is both a moral and ethical offense and sometimes a legal one.

Examples of plagiarism include:

1. Copying another person's actual words without the use of quotation marks, source citation, or footnotes.
2. Presenting another person's ideas or theories in your own words without citing the source.
3. Failing to acknowledge contribution and collaboration from others.
4. Using information that is not common knowledge without citing the source.
5. Submitting downloaded papers or parts of papers, "cutting and pasting," or paraphrasing or copying information from Internet sources without proper acknowledgment of a source.

Sanctions

It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of policies regulating academic conduct including definitions of academic dishonesty, the possible sanctions, and the appeals process.

Any undergraduate student apprehended and charged with cheating, including plagiarism, during his or her college matriculation, shall receive the following discipline:

1. First incident of cheating: no credit (i.e., no points given) in paper, assignment, or exam.
2. Second incident of cheating: failure in the course involved.
3. Third incident of cheating: dismissal from the university.

In addition to the above, a graduate student is expected to understand clearly the nature of cheating and is subject to dismissal from the university for any egregious act of academic dishonesty or cheating, without the need to follow the steps listed above. Incidents of cheating and/or plagiarism will be investigated and judged by the appropriate academic leader.

Because the matter of cheating cumulatively leads to dismissal, faculty are required to report each case to the appropriate university administrators who in turn reports the case to the academic leader of the specific college/school. Unquestionable evidence must be in hand before any action will be taken to confront and accuse a student of cheating.

A student who is not satisfied with the disciplinary action may follow the grievance and appeal policies of the appropriate academic unit.

Falsification of Academic Records or University Documents: Falsification of academic records or documents includes but is not limited to altering any documents affecting academic records; forging signatures; or falsifying information of an official document such as a grade report, ID card, financial receipt, or any other official university letter or communication. This includes information downloaded (printed) from student information available via Web (online) services.

Unauthorized Access to Computerized Academic or Administrative Records or Systems: Unauthorized access to computerized academic or administrative records or systems means viewing or altering the university's computer records without authorization; copying or modifying the university's computer programs or systems without authorization; releasing or dispensing information gained through unauthorized access; or interfering with the use or availability of computer systems information.

Students who are found to have falsified university documents or participated in unauthorized access to computerized academic or administrative records or systems are subject to dismissal from the university for a single incident. The university may consider legal action for any individual found to have participated in these actions.

Pre-licensure Nursing Programs

Nursing - B.S.N.

The minimum requirements for the Bachelor of Science in Nursing are 124 credit hours. The required nursing courses include the following.

Nursing - B.S.N. – Program of Study

Required Courses (61 hours)

NUR-145	Foundations of Nursing	3
NUR-221	Principles of Intervention	1 to 2
NUR-221L	Principles of Intervention - Lab	0

Electives (16 hours)

Students must take at least 7 credit hours from 3 different subject codes. Students may take any courses for the remaining credit hours needed.

A student pursuing an additional major, minor, or certificate may utilize those courses to complete this elective section as overlap policies are not meant to apply to this section for students pursuing more than one major.

Transition to Nursing - B.S.N.

If you currently hold a bachelor's degree in another field from any accredited institution of higher learning and are interested in becoming a nurse, this is the program for you. Transition to Nursing offers you the opportunity to become a nurse in 14 months. This full time program requires 63 credit hours of nursing coursework and leads to a BSN degree in nursing. The coursework is designed to provide a sound foundation in nursing skills and dispositions, and includes leadership and nursing research in the clinical setting. Following successful completion of the curriculum, students are eligible to take the National Council Licensure Examination for Registered Nurses (NCLEX-RN) in Indiana or other states subject to that state's guidelines and regulations. This program also provides the foundation for the pursuit of graduate education.

The Transition to Nursing program takes advantage of your academic track record and builds upon your past experiences. It provides a realistic transition to the nursing profession in an expedited manner. Due to the rigorous nature of the program, students are strongly encouraged not to have outside employment during the program.

For students accepted into the Transition to Nursing (TTN) program, previously completed college courses (C or higher from regionally accredited colleges/universities) in Nutrition, Pharmacology, Pathophysiology, and/or Research will be evaluated for IWU course equivalency as long as they are no more than five years old from the time of starting the TTN program. If the time limit criterion is met, course syllabi and course calendar from the transfer institution will be evaluated for IWU courses equivalency.

Fees

There is a one-time assessment testing fees and program fee. Clinical and lab fees will be assessed every semester.

Prerequisites

1. Previous baccalaureate degree with GPA of 2.75 or above.
2. Anatomy and Physiology I.
3. Anatomy and Physiology II.
4. Microbiology.
5. Chemistry.
6. CPR Certification.
7. Health clearance.
8. Certified criminal background check.
9. University math requirement met - MAT-107 or higher (prefer MAT113).
10. Test of Essential Academic Skills with a score of 65% or higher.

Certificate - Human Trafficking Studies

The Certificate in Human Trafficking Studies will provide the learner with a foundational knowledge of human trafficking principles, policies and approaches. This groundwork is applicable to all disciplines. The knowledge gained will enhance the learner's ability to engage in the anti-human trafficking arena in their respective disciplines and broaden individual knowledge base.

Upon completion of this certificate program, students should be able to:

- Evaluate the multiple components of human trafficking.
- Effectively engage with other professions involved in anti-trafficking efforts.
- Integrate principles of scholarship, leadership, and service to the arena of human trafficking.
- Evaluate self as a change agent in the human trafficking arena.
- Explore the realities of human trafficking.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

- Original college or university transcripts of 60 or more credit hours.

PROGRESSION REQUIREMENTS

- Successful completion of first two courses (with at least a C) before IPE/NUR 421 and IPE/NUR 422.

COMPLETION REQUIREMENTS

- Minimum grade of "C" for all courses.

Division of Post-licensure Nursing

The School of Nursing offers a Post-licensure (RNBSN) Program leading to a Bachelor of Science in Nursing (B.S.N.). The undergraduate program prepares men and women for professional nursing practice and provides a foundation for advanced study in nursing.

Policies and Regulations - Division of Post-licensure Nursing

The right is reserved to change any of the rules and regulations of the university at any time, including those relating to admission, instruction, and graduation. The right to withdraw curricula and specific courses, alter course content, change the calendar, and to impose or increase fees similarly is reserved. All such changes are effective at such times as the proper authorities determine and may apply not only to prospective students but also to those already enrolled in the university.

Academic Information

Academic Calendar - Courses in IWU-National and Global programs are offered under the semester hour system but in a non-traditional academic calendar. Each program consists of specific courses that are taught in a modular format and taken sequentially. Online classes meet in an asynchronous environment through the university's learning management system. Certain programs require students to complete project team assignments. Practice experiences are an essential component of all School of Nursing programs and take place in the student's community.

Catalog Governing Graduation - Students must meet the graduation requirements as stated in the university catalog under which they enrolled. Students who maintain continuous enrollment, who make normal progress toward a degree, and who earn their degree within a maximum of six years from the date of enrollment may meet the graduation requirements as stated in the catalog under which they enrolled. Students who withdraw from Indiana Wesleyan University for more than six months will meet the graduation requirements as stated in the catalog under which they resume enrollment. Students changing majors or programs must meet requirements as stated in the catalog that is current at the time they make such changes. The same holds true for students moving between schools and colleges. Students may at any time change from an earlier catalog to a subsequent current catalog, but must meet all requirements for graduation of that catalog. Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to modify the curriculum as necessary.

Core Requirements - The integrity of the IWU-National and Global programs requires that the core courses be met at Indiana Wesleyan University. Due to the nature of the programs, students can only be enrolled in one program at a time. Students are required to complete the first course of the core program with a passing grade in order to maintain enrollment. In general, no waivers are allowed for courses taken at other colleges/universities.

RNBSN Students may complete the core nursing courses by following the recommended fast-track schedule. It is not recommended that students take more than two core courses at a time. Students who wish to take more than two core courses should contact their academic advisor to determine the potential impact of such a decision.

Academic Advising

The purpose of academic advising is to support students from enrollment to completion of degree requirements. Advisors help students understand all degree requirements and options to meet those requirements. Advisors also assist students in understanding policies and procedures, and communicating with departments such as Financial Aid and Accounting.

An academic advising team is assigned to each individual student and advises that student throughout the duration of his or her academic program. Advisors are available to meet one-on-one with students face to face, through email, by phone, or via video conference.

It is important that students maintain contact with their academic advising team in order to ensure timely progression toward degree completion as well as appropriate scheduling for maximum financial aid benefit.

Admission and Registration

Indiana Wesleyan University welcomes applications for admission from any academically qualified person whose motivation is in keeping with the university's purposes. Admission is based on the careful review of all credentials presented by an applicant, but in no case is admission denied due to race, color, national origin, disability, religion, or sex.

Admission decisions are made without regard to disabilities. All prospective students are expected to present academic credentials that meet or exceed the minimum requirements for admissions. Prospective students with disabilities are not required to identify themselves to Admissions or Disability Services. However, those interested in receiving academic accommodations are encouraged to connect with Disability Services at 765-677-2257 or ADARrequest@indwes.edu as early as possible to allow for a review of documentation and the formulation of an accommodation plan.

Students are admitted in one of the following categories:

- Regular - Students who satisfactorily meet all requirements will be granted standard admission with no restrictions.
- Probation - Students whose entering grade point average (GPA) falls below the minimum required by the program (2.0) or whose previously accrued IWU institutional GPA is below the minimum required for progression in the program (2.75) may be accepted on probation. Probationary status will be removed after the student has completed the first three courses of the core with a satisfactory IWU cumulative GPA (2.75). In case of extended probation, the number of courses to be completed in order to change status will be determined by the VPAA for the School of Nursing. Any student failing to remove the probationary status will be academically suspended from the program.
- Provisional - Students whose files are incomplete may be accepted provisionally at the discretion of the Associate Vice President for Student Services if it appears from the available documentation that eligibility for the program has been met. The student is given until the end of the first course to submit the required materials. Failure to meet the required deadline will result in the student being dropped from the roster and not being allowed to continue.
- Conditional - Students currently enrolled in an associate degree in nursing program (AAS or ADN) at a regionally accredited institution may be conditionally accepted when they can show prior completion of at least 12 transferable hours and evidence of acceptance into an associate level nursing program. Full, unconditional admission to the RNBSN Program will be granted when the student meets the criteria for RNBSN Program admission.
- Unclassified - Students not pursuing a university degree who want to take certain courses for special reasons may be accepted for a maximum of 18 hours. Students receiving an unclassified status must reapply for regular admission if they desire later to pursue a degree program. Unclassified students are not eligible for financial aid.

International/Non-English Speaking Students - Students who do not speak English as their first and primary language must submit satisfactory scores from one of the following prior to admission to the university:

- Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). For undergraduate students, a score of at least 550 (paper-based), 213 (computer-based), or 79 (Internet-based) is required for regular academic admission.
- International English Language Testing System (IELTS). For undergraduate students a score of at least 6.0 is required for regular academic admission.

Registration - Registration occurs at the beginning of the student's core program. At this point, students are registered for all courses within the major. Therefore, if a student needs to miss an individual course, official withdrawal must be made through the Office of Student Services. Staff will work with the student to make arrangements to retake this class with another core group at a time that will minimize the impact on the student's financial aid. Students need to be aware that temporary withdrawals could impact their eligibility to receive financial aid based on the standards outlined in IWU's Satisfactory Academic Progress.

Students in programs that require additional credits outside the major are responsible to meet with their advisor to facilitate registration in these courses.

A student who has failed to make arrangements for the payment of tuition for a course will have registration in that course cancelled.

Alcohol, Illegal Drugs, and Firearms

Alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, and firearms are not permitted on Indiana Wesleyan University premises, including rented classrooms and any building or parts of buildings owned or operated by Indiana Wesleyan University. Refusal to comply may result in dismissal from the university.

Audit of Courses

A student who has been accepted into an Indiana Wesleyan University degree program or as an unclassified student may choose to audit specified courses within a core program or electives as follows:

- Audit registration is allowed on a space available basis.
- The current audit fee ($25 per credit hour) must accompany the registration.
- Auditing a course gives one the right to attend the course. No credit or letter grade is given. The course will be indicated as an "AU" on the student's IWU transcript.
- The student auditing the course is not expected to participate in classroom or study group assignments, or to complete homework, quizzes, or tests.
- The faculty member is under no obligation to grade any work an auditing student chooses to submit or to give feedback on progress.
- The materials required for the course are optional for auditing students. If one wishes to purchase materials, the fees must accompany the registration.
- The student must meet course pre-requisites or be approved by the appropriate administrator of the specific college/school.
- No change may be made from audit to credit, or credit to audit, after registration closes.

Computer Requirements

Students are expected to possess a computer throughout the duration of their program. Student computers must be able to run a supported browser and handle additional plug-ins as identified by the Learning Management System (LMS) Company. Students should be able to produce, send, and receive documents that are compatible within the two most recent offerings of Microsoft Office to complete most of their assignments. IWU will offer support to students on only these two offerings of Microsoft Office software. Computer and Internet connection may need to be fast enough in some courses to watch streaming videos, participate in live meetings, upload large files, install software, and listen to audio lectures.

Engagement Policy

Because of the delivery method of adult and graduate programs, engagement is required and monitored. Student engagement is monitored by activity in the learning management system (Brightspace). Engagement is defined as:

- Posting in a discussion
- Submission of an assignment
- Completion of a test or quiz

Students who have not engaged (as defined above) in a class for 21 consecutive days will be withdrawn from the class. Students will be withdrawn from the entire program if the program is a lock-step program, the 21-day non-engagement course is a prerequisite to other courses, or upon the second consecutive withdrawal for non-engagement.

Students who must miss a course due to unavoidable circumstances must arrange for a withdrawal with the Office of Student Services prior to the beginning of the course. Students needing to withdraw while in a course may do so by arrangement with the Office of Student Services prior to the end of the course, but the regular refund and academic withdrawal policies apply.

Faculty members reserve the right to factor lateness, early departures, and class engagement into a student's grade, as long as it is addressed in the syllabus.

See the Department of Leadership Studies (p. 480) for the specific attendance requirements of the Ph.D. program.

Expectations for Personal and Professional Conduct

Indiana Wesleyan University is a Christian university of higher education that upholds high standards of personal and professional conduct. Such standards include a classroom environment that promotes a positive learning environment and a professional instructional climate.

Students are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner with respect for the rights of both students and faculty. The university or its representatives reserve the right to act in situations where student behavior violates established policy or detracts from the ability of students or faculty to function effectively in the classroom. Such action may include disciplinary procedures issued by the faculty, suspension from the program, or expulsion from the University. (NOTE: All discussion room and live chat postings for online courses are recorded and can be reviewed at the discretion of the university.)

Only regularly enrolled students may attend class unless granted permission by an administrator and arrangements are made with the instructor.

Former Student Re-Enrollment

Students who have previously withdrawn from a program and have not attended classes for six months or more must complete an application for readmission from the Office of Student Services. Receipt of the application will initiate a review of the student's academic file to determine remaining requirements. A student who was academically suspended from a IWU-National and Global program may make application for readmission after six months. All students returning after six months or more will meet the graduation requirements as stated in the catalog under which they resume enrollment.

Former Indiana Wesleyan University students from the traditional programs who wish to apply to a program must go through the regular adult program admission procedure. Students who were academically suspended from the traditional campus and wish to apply to an adult program must meet the following criteria:

- All other program admission criteria met.
- At least two years have passed since the suspension OR the student has successfully completed 12 hours elsewhere.
- There are no other holds on the student's record.

Readmission After More Than Six Years by Portfolio

Students who began the Post-licensure (RNBSN) program more than six years prior to a request for readmission will be required to demonstrate competency under the current Essentials of Baccalaureate Education for Professional Nursing Practice and BSN program outcomes.

- Reentering students will be required to demonstrate competency by completing those portions of a portfolio addressing the courses they have already taken. Upon satisfactory review of the portfolio these students will be allowed to reenter the program to complete the BSN degree. (Portions to be completed will be selected by Post-licensure leadership.)
- Course substitutions are available for nearly all of the old curriculum. If the student needs more than two substitutions or a course for which a substitution is not available, they are counseled to reenter and complete under the current catalog.
- If no course substitution is available, or the student needs to substitute more than two courses, they are counseled to reenter and complete under the current catalog.

General Education Requirements and Student Learning Outcomes

General Education Requirements - In addition to the regular core curriculum (major), a 30-credit general education core is required of all undergraduate students enrolled in an adult program. This 30-credit general education core includes:

- Three semester credits in Biblical Studies.
- Three semester credits in Biblical Studies/Philosophy/Religion.
- Six semester credits in English Written Communication.
- Three semester credits in English Oral Communication.
- Six semester credits in Social or Behavioral Sciences.
- Three semester credits in Mathematics.
- Three semester credits in Natural Sciences.

- Three semester credits in Arts and Humanities.

Bachelor core courses that fall into general education categories may not be used to fulfill both the core requirement and the general education requirement.

General Education Learning Outcomes -

- Christian knowledge and integration: Students can utilize a Christ-centered, biblical worldview to inform their vision for and mission in life.
- Global Awareness: Students can relate the diversity and universality in global history, culture, and society to God's divine design.
- Critical Thinking: Students can think creatively and effectively as part of making informed solutions.
- Quantitative skills: Students can apply theoretical frameworks to real world applications.
- Communication: Students can convey ideas and facts in ways that demonstrate their development as leaders and world changers.
- Information Literacy: Students can apply proficiencies needed by citizens of an information abundant society.

Grading and Evaluation

A letter grade is used in evaluating the work for a course. For the purpose of determining scholastic standing and awarding honors, grade points are granted according to the letter grades and semester hours of credit. The grade point average (GPA) is the number of quality points earned at IWU divided by the number of credit hours attempted at IWU.

Grade	Quality Points per Credit
A	4.0
A-	3.7
B+	3.3
B	3.0
B-	2.7

The following grades are not figured into the GPA:

AU

Repeated Courses - A student may repeat once any course in which a grade below "C" ("C-," "D+," "D," or "F") was previously earned.

Whenever a course is repeated, the last grade and credits earned replace the previous grade in computing the student's grade point average (GPA). All entries, however, remain a part of the student's permanent academic record. Duplicate credit hours are not given for two or more passing efforts. A course taken in a classroom format may not be repeated for a grade through independent learning.

Since a course may be repeated once, failure to achieve a satisfactory grade in a course after two attempts will result in academic suspension and ineligibility to complete the major in which the course was repeated.

Incomplete Grades - Students are expected to complete the course requirements by the last class session. There may be instances when crisis circumstances or events prevent the student from completing the course requirements in a timely manner. In these rare situations, a grade of “I” (incomplete) may be issued after completing the following process:

- The student must request an “I” from the instructor via email.
- The student must have completed at least 75% of the coursework.
- The instructor must obtain approval via email from the Program Leader.

A grade of "incomplete" may be granted only for extenuating circumstances. The length of time a student has to complete and submit the requirements to the faculty is determined by the faculty member for the course and may not exceed 10 weeks. If, at the end of the extension, the student has failed to complete the course requirements, the faculty will enter the grade the student earned. An incomplete cannot be issued if the student fails to meet the attendance requirements.

Grade Reports - At the end of each course, the instructor submits grades for each student. Grade reports are available online to the student and indicate courses taken, credits received, and grades assigned.

Transcripts - The student’s official transcript is prepared by the Indiana Wesleyan University Registrar's Office and will show the course, grade, credit, and dates of instruction for each course. Transcripts will include undergraduate and graduate work with the GPA divided into undergraduate and graduate calculations. Requests for transcripts of coursework at Indiana Wesleyan University must conform with the Privacy Act of 1974, which requires that all transcript requests be submitted in writing and signed by the student, for protection of the student's confidentiality. A transcript is official only when it bears the university seal.

It is university policy not to release a transcript if the student has any financial holds on their record or if he or she is delinquent on any loan received through Indiana Wesleyan University. A $5 fee is charged for each transcript, with an additional $2.50 Parchment ordering fee. Payment must be provided, along with a complete address to which the transcript is to be delivered. Please provide a current address if request is to be sent to student's home. Transcript requests can be accessed by visiting <http://www.indwes.edu/Academics/Registrar/Transcript> and submitting the request through the ordering service.

Graduation

Graduation Ceremonies - IWU graduation ceremonies are held two times a year. Degrees are conferred and posted to the student's transcript on these dates. Four additional conferral dates are available in between the graduation ceremonies in which degrees may be conferred and posted to the student’s transcript should all requirements be completed.

Eligible students are notified by the Office of Student Services of procedures and requirements concerning graduation.

Each student must complete an “Application for Graduation” provided by the Office of Student Services. This application indicates the student’s intent to graduate and initiates the final evaluation of the student’s academic record.

Students are also asked to inform the university as to whether they will be attending the ceremony. This allows the university to determine the number of tickets available for students who are attending. If a student cannot attend graduation due to unforeseen circumstances, the degree is still conferred; however, attendance at a future graduation is not an option.

Graduation Requirements - All requirements must be met and transcribed by the date established by the Office of Student Services prior to the degree conferral date. Students taking internal or external coursework need to make sure that transcripts, grades, and scores can be received and transcribed by the deadline date.

Students may receive one degree only per commencement. Students meeting requirements for more than one degree must apply for and participate in two different ceremonies. Any university-approved dual degree program is an exception to this policy.

Students who have received a degree from IWU and have returned to meet requirements for an additional major at the same degree level will have the second major posted to their existing degree. The second major can only be posted at one of the six conferral dates, and students receiving the second major are not eligible to participate in another graduation ceremony.

Academic Honors (Baccalaureate Candidates) -

Academic Honors (Baccalaureate Candidates) - Academic Honors are awarded at commencement to baccalaureate degree candidates with the identified grade point averages listed below. Academic Honors are not awarded to associate's or master's degree students. Academic Honors are based upon the Honors grade point average (GPA). It should be noted that the Honors GPA includes transfer grades and as a result may differ from a student's cumulative GPA. For student enrolled in undergraduate programs at the Marion campus, Academic Honors listed in the commencement program are based on all IWU academic work completed one semester prior to the student's final semester and all transfer work. Academic Honors listed on the official transcript and diploma will reflect all applicable academic work at the time of conferral. Academic Honors are awarded based on the following criteria:

- A minimum of 80 graded hours from a college or university accredited by a regional accrediting body or the Association for Biblical Higher Education (formerly the Accrediting Association of Bible Colleges).
- A minimum of 40 graded hours must be from Indiana Wesleyan University.
- The student's current Honors GPA, as listed on the student's degree audit, which includes transfer grades.

Baccalaureate degree candidates will be awarded Honors as follows:

- GPA of 3.5 or higher - "cum laude" (with honors).
- GPA of 3.7 or higher - "magna cum laude" (with high honors).
- GPA of 3.9 or higher - "summa cum laude" (with highest honors).

Diplomas - Diplomas are mailed after the conferment of degrees. Diplomas indicate degree earned, date of degree, and honors (bachelor's only). A student's financial account must be settled to receive a diploma.

Inclement Weather Procedures

The university is reluctant to postpone or cancel classes because the schedule is already very compressed and it is difficult to schedule make-up classes when needed. In order to make the most informed decisions possible, the university gathers information from the National Weather Service, State Police agencies, and Regional Deans and personnel (when appropriate). Unfortunately, the university cannot make the decision based on an individual student's geographical situation and the driving distance to and from class. Students should be aware, however, that they are expected to use discretion and not to take unreasonable risks. If students choose not to attend class, they should notify their instructor and make appropriate arrangements for make-up work. Decisions to postpone or cancel classes will be announced by the university. Regional locations will be judged by the Regional Deans. In the event it becomes necessary for a Regional Dean to recommend to the Chancellor for IWU-National and Global campus a weather related or emergency closing or postponement for onsite classes, affected faculty and students will make up the missed class session through an online alternative class session.

Instructors will contact students on the date class is cancelled with requirements for making up the cancelled class session through an online alternative.

In the event an onsite class session is cancelled that is deemed significant to the specific program (e.g., program orientation, the first class session of a program, the last class session of a program, etc.), the Regional Dean will petition the appropriate academic leaders to arrange a new date to make up the cancelled class session prior to the next scheduled class session.

To satisfy engagement requirements and earn discussion points (if applicable), all assignments associated with the cancelled class session must be submitted prior to the start of the next scheduled class session.

Postponement decisions for evening classes will be made by approximately 3:00 p.m. on the day of class. Decisions about Saturday classes will be made the evening before, when possible, but may be made during the early morning hours on the Saturday of class if necessary. No notification will be made unless classes are postponed or cancelled; information about postponements and/or cancellations will be announced on the university's Web site at <http://www.indwes.edu>. Announcements will also be posted on the student portal at <http://myIWU.indwes.edu> and on the class information phone line at 1-800-621-8667 ext. 2022.

Leave of Absence Policy

Indiana Wesleyan University understands there are life events that may require a student to modify class enrollment and schedules. The leave of absence policy is designed to allow students flexibility in their program enrollment to adjust to these life events. The leave of absence policy also extends to students the ability to make up any courses missed during the approved leave.

A student on an approved leave of absence will be considered enrolled at IWU and eligible for an in-school deferment for student aid loans. Federal financial aid and in-school deferment may be negatively impacted if a student fails to apply for the leave of absence or if the application is denied. This impacts students who receive Title IV federal financial aid (Federal Pell Grants, Federal Supplemental Grants, Federal Stafford Subsidized or Unsubsidized Loans, Federal Parent Loans) or who want to have a federal student loan deferred from payment while in school.

Students who will be out of attendance for a period of 29 days or more should request a leave of absence. Students out of class for less than 29 days are not eligible for a leave of absence, and a recalculation on current financial aid will be done. Students who are not on federal financial aid programs or who do not have a federal loan in deferment are not required to request a leave of absence.

Students needing to make a change in their schedule need to contact the Office of Student Services to process the registration change. At that time, the leave of absence request form will be emailed to the student. The Leave of Absence Application can be downloaded by going to the following link:

<https://myiwu.indwes.edu/directory/student-services/registration-changes/pages/default.aspx>. Students must request the leave within 21 days of initiating the registration change. The request for a leave of absence should be made prior to the date the leave is to start. The start date of the leave is the first date of the class or, if the class has already started, the date the registration change is initiated.

An approved leave of absence must meet the following criteria: in the academic year the student has to be in attendance 2 weeks prior to applying for a leave, the request must be received within 21 days of the registration change; the request must be made prior to the start of the leave (first day of class); the reason for the request must be one approved by IWU's Leave of Absence Committee (military, medical, jury duty, loss of job, family emergency, employment emergency, transfer of coursework, passing pre-requisite requirement, changing programs, administrative cancellation of core classes, or other reasons as approved by the Leave of Absence Committee).

The leave of absence together with any additional leaves of absence must not exceed a total of 180 days in any 12-month period. Time in excess of 180 days will not be approved. A student may request an extension to a leave providing the request is made before the end of the leave, there are unforeseen circumstances which prevent the return from the leave, and the total number of days of approved leave do not exceed 180 in a 12-month period. A maximum of two leaves of absence are allowed during a 12-month period. Documentation is required for an extension on a leave. Documentation for each circumstance will vary; the student is required to provide whatever paperwork from a third party will attest to the circumstance outlined on the application form. Examples would include physicians' statements, letters from employers, letters from pastors or counselors, court documents, etc. Documentation is also required if a request is submitted after the 21 day deadline, and needs to address the reason for the delay in the submission of the request.

Failure to return from an approved leave of absence nullifies the approved leave and may have an impact on student loan repayment terms as well as the grace period. The first day of the leave will be reported as the beginning of the grace period for loan deferment. Students may return early from an approved leave of absence prior to the leave end date. The leave will be shortened according to the student's return date.

Students will not receive disbursements of Title IV student loan financial aid funds during the leave. Students are not deferred from making regularly scheduled payments to the Accounting Office for normal fees incurred. Any change in registration can impact current financial aid regardless of approval or denial of the leave of absence request. Questions about impact on current financial aid should be directed to the Financial Aid Office at 800-621-8667 ext. 2516. Students on an approved leave of absence will be reported as such and will be eligible for in-school deferment of previous loans. Students whose request for a leave of absence is denied will be reported as withdrawn and the grace period for loan repayment will go into effect.

Military Leave of Absence Policy

The Higher Education Opportunity Act enacted on August 13, 2008, states that a university may not deny admission or readmission to a service member for reasons relating to that service. The service member qualifies if the school is given notice of absence for service, the cumulative length of absence does not exceed five years, and the student gives notice of his or her intent to return.

Indiana Wesleyan University complies with this act with the following:

Academic:

- Students are not required to reapply and are not charged a readmission fee upon return.
- Students are readmitted at the same academic status (program enrollment status, number of completed credit hours, academic standing) before deployment. Students may return under the catalog that was in effect before deployment. Student may find differences in their programs or the catalog if the programs are no longer offered, or changes have occurred due to external accrediting bodies, licensing board or other external agencies.

- Leave time does not count toward the total time required to earn the degree.
- Students will be promptly readmitted in the next class or classes in a program, will qualify for priority/early registration, and may not be denied re-enrollment in a class based on class size.

Financial:

Students are required to complete a Military Leave of Absence Request. When the request is approved, students' accounts will be adjusted as necessary.

Financial Aid

Indiana Wesleyan University is committed to assisting military students in navigating the impact that active duty will have on financial aid. It is important that each student have conversation with the Financial Aid office to ensure proper paperwork and processes are covered as it relates to a leave of absence.

Students with federal financial aid, federal loan obligations, or military tuition assistance must contact their lenders and/or the military education office to ascertain their loan repayment status or repayment of tuition assistance during the leave of absence.

Low Enrollment in Onsite Classes

Should the total number of students enrolled in an onsite class fall below six students for any reason, the University will seek alternative options for the remaining students to complete their degree. To ensure high academic quality, the possibility of combining classes or offering the option of completing the program online will be investigated.

In general, students will be given an opportunity to recruit students to join the class. If students are nearing completion, this fact will be taken into consideration before any decision is made.

Policy on Academic Credentials and Programs

This policy applies to all academic units of the university.

Indiana Wesleyan University awards academic credentials (degrees and certificates) to students who complete defined programs of study. Each credential is defined in terms of a set of essential learning outcomes, which may include discipline-specific and general education outcomes, as well as credit hour and other specifications. Each program of study for a particular credential maps the credential learning outcomes to a series of credit-bearing courses.

As appropriate, given the learning outcomes and alignment of involved programs and courses, credits may be shared between academic credentials and sub-credentials awarded coevally, within the following boundaries.

1. The student must fulfill all of the requirements for any credential awarded.
2. Credits may be shared between a major and a minor, as long as the minor includes at least 15 unique credit hours unshared with any other major or minor.
3. Credits may be shared between two minors, as long as each minor includes at least 15 unique credit hours unshared with any other major or minor.
4. Credits may be shared between two undergraduate majors as long as there are 51 unique (unduplicated) credit hours between the two majors.
5. Credits may be shared between two graduate majors as long as two thirds of the credits in each major are unique (unduplicated).
6. Up to three credit hours may be shared between a certificate and a minor.
7. Up to six credit hours may be shared between a certificate and a major (undergraduate or graduate).
8. A major or minor may be added to a previously awarded baccalaureate degree. The student must complete all of the course requirements for the major or minor and a minimum of nine new credits hours must be earned. New general education requirements need not be met to post an additional major or minor. Students adding a major or minor are not eligible to participate in commencement ceremonies again. The additional major or minor will be posted to the transcript only on one of the conferral dates.

As appropriate, given the learning outcomes and alignment of involved programs and courses, credits applied to a previously-awarded IWU academic credential may be applied, without surrender of the prior credential, to another IWU academic credential within the following boundaries.

1. The student must fulfill all of the requirements for any credential awarded.
2. For credits from a prior IWU academic credential to be applied to a second IWU academic credential, the second academic program must be started within ten years of the awarding of the first credential. Exceptions must be approved by the dean (or equivalent) of the school sponsoring the academic program of the second credential. Individual academic programs may specify more strict credit-age limits if warranted by the discipline.
3. The credits from a previously-awarded undergraduate certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of an associate's degree or a bachelor's degree.
4. Up to 6 credits from a previously-awarded associate's degree or bachelor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of an undergraduate certificate.
5. The credits from a previously-awarded associate's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different associate's degree, as long as each credential has at least 25% unique credits.
6. The credits from a previously-awarded associate's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a bachelor's degree.
7. The credits from a previously-awarded bachelor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different bachelor's degree, as long as each credential has at least 25% unique credits.
8. The credits from a previously-awarded bachelor's degree or undergraduate certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a master's degree, limited by the provisions of the Undergraduate and Graduate Credit Crossover Policy.
9. The credits from a previously-awarded graduate certificate or post-masters certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a master's degree.
10. The credits from a previously-awarded graduate certificate or post-masters certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a doctor's degree.
11. Credits from a previously-awarded master's degree or doctor's degree may be applied to fulfill up to 1/3 of the requirements of a graduate certificate.
12. The credits from a previously-awarded master's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different master's degree, as long as each credential has at least 50% unique credits.
13. The credits from a previously-awarded master's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a doctor's degree, as long as the doctor's degree has at least 50% unique credits.
14. The credits from a previously-awarded doctor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different doctor's degree, as long as each credential has at least 50% unique credits.

Satisfactory Academic Progress and Academic Standing

Students enrolled in a SON National & Global program are regarded as members of the academic community of Indiana Wesleyan University. Students are responsible for conforming to the standards of conduct for adult learners. Continued enrollment in the program is subject at all times to review of the student's academic record and actions with regard to observance of university policies and regulations. Policies and regulations can be found in the IWU catalog and the School of Nursing Student Handbook.

Placement on Probation - Students enrolled in a Post-licensure program will be placed on probation if their core GPA or their cumulative GPA at any time falls below 2.75.

Students are given two consecutive courses to satisfactorily raise their GPA. The GPA is reviewed after the second course, and if it has been successfully raised, the probationary status is removed. Academic suspension will result if the student's GPA is not successfully raised.

Academic Suspension - Academic suspension will result if:

- A student fails to clear the academic probationary status within the probationary period of two consecutive courses.
- A student has taken a course twice and failed to achieve a satisfactory grade. When this occurs, the student is ineligible to reapply for admission into the program in which the course was repeated.

In all cases, the suspension will occur once the grades have been recorded in the Registrar's Office. Students will be notified of the academic suspension in writing. Application for readmission may be made after six months. The application must be made in writing to the AVP for the School of Nursing.

Academic Dismissal - Upon a second academic suspension in the same program, a student is not eligible to reapply to Indiana Wesleyan University.

Student Professional Performance Policy

Students are expected to maintain the ethical standards of practice established by American Nurses Association (ANA) Code of Ethics for Nurses with Interpretive Statements. Students whose professional performance affects their ability to be licensed as a registered nurse or advanced practice registered nurse, and/or who do not meet the ethical standards established by ANA, may be recommended for a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) or other sanction up to and including dismissal from the School of Nursing.

It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of policies regulating academic and professional conduct found in the IWU Catalog, student handbooks, and clinical guidelines, possible sanctions, and the appeals process.

Progressive discipline: The School of Nursing promotes a policy of progressive or corrective discipline, however serious infractions may warrant immediate removal from clinical or academic setting, imposition of a written reprimand, suspension, or dismissal.

Performance concerns may include, but are not limited to the following:

- Fails to meet generally accepted standards of patient safety, professional conduct, personal integrity, or emotional stability required for professional practice;
- Fails to demonstrate the effective interpersonal skills necessary to perform professional helping relationships;
- Fails to adhere to the ANA Code of Ethics;
- Has been found guilty of criminal misconduct that affects the student's ability to be licensed as a registered nurse (RN) or advanced practice registered nurse (APRN); or
- Displays inappropriate or disruptive behavior toward clients, other students, faculty, or staff, which interferes with professional judgment or jeopardizes the best interest of those to whom the student has a professional responsibility.

Transfer of Credit Policy

Credit is granted for work with a satisfactory grade ("C" or above), in a 100 level or higher course, provided the courses are applicable to the curriculum the student wishes to pursue at Indiana Wesleyan University. The credit must be taken at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). Currently this includes the following accrediting agencies:

- Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing (ACEN)
- Association for Biblical Higher Education (ABHE)
- Association of Advanced Rabbinical and Talmudic Schools (AARTS)
- Association of Theological Schools Commission on Accrediting (ATS)
- Distance Education Accreditation Commission (DEAC)
- Higher Learning Commission (HLC)
- Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE)
- New England Commission of Higher Education (NECHE)
- Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU)
- Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACS-COC)
- Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools (TRACS)
- Western Association of Schools and Colleges – Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges (WASC–ACCJC)

- Western Association of Schools and Colleges – Senior College and University Commission (WASC–SCUC)

The following are exceptions to the transfer policy and credits earned are not counted toward the honors GPA:

- Indiana Wesleyan University accepts official transcripts from the American Council on Education (ACE) and national College Credit Recommendation Service (NCCRS). ACE and NCCRS evaluate and provide credit recommendations for educational offerings for a significant number of corporate universities and other extra-institutional learning providers.
- Courses from non-accredited colleges and universities, and from schools/colleges/universities not accredited at the same level, such as proprietary business schools, vocational/technical schools, or other single purpose institutions may be presented through the evaluation of assessed learning process. A maximum of 40 hours may be accepted through assessed learning, ACE, and/or NCCRS credit.
- The following pertain to applicants to the Division of Post-licensure Nursing:
 - Applicants with a diploma from a State Board of Nursing accredited hospital school of nursing may be eligible to apply for credit through the diploma evaluation process. A maximum of 40 semester hours may be awarded through this process.
 - Applicants who have earned an A.S. in Nursing or equivalent degree at a proprietary school which holds a national accreditation are eligible to apply per the Indiana Wesleyan admission policy. Supporting science courses and core nursing courses may transfer up to a maximum of 40 semester hours.

The University Registrar is responsible for approving the transferability of all credits. Credit hours accepted in transfer are recorded, but quality points and grades are omitted and used only for the determination of graduating with honors. Once transcripts (and other test scores and academic documents) have been received, IWU is not permitted to release copies of those documents back to the student or any other party. All credits are accepted as semester credits. Quarter credits are converted to semester credits using the two-thirds conversion ratio.

Credit through examination (CLEP, DSST, AP, institutional examinations) or assessed learning is not accepted in transfer from another institution's transcript. Credit through examination is awarded through Indiana Wesleyan University with official test scores from an official testing center. Credit from nontraditional learning by life experience is awarded through the IWU's assessed learning process. The Associate Vice President of Student Services is responsible for the assessment of all nontraditional learning, and the University Registrar is responsible for approving the transcription of any credits that result.

Transcripts from foreign institutions - may need to be sent to an outside agency for evaluation and determination of transferable credits, degrees, and GPA. If this outside review is necessary, students are responsible for the initiation of this evaluation and for any fees incurred during the process.

Undergraduate and Graduate Credit Crossover Policy

Undergraduate credits from IWU or taken at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), or hold appropriate international accreditation, may be used to fulfill requirements of IWU graduate programs under specified conditions. When permitted by the design of the program, undergraduate credits from upper level courses may be counted toward the requirements of a graduate degree or certificate when the undergraduate course or courses sufficiently accomplish the learning outcomes of a course in the graduate program. The course(s) must have been completed within the past five years and must reflect current knowledge and best practices. No more than 25% of the total credit requirements for the graduate degree or certificate may be completed through undergraduate credits. Undergraduate courses in which a student has earned a "B" or better may be considered for graduate credit. Dual counting of credits requires approval by the appropriate program leader, in consultation with a graduate level content expert, as well as approval by the University Registrar, and Financial Aid Office if applicable. The program leader will make the final decision as to the applicability of the course to fulfill program learning outcomes. Established limitations on the number of credits that may be transferred into the graduate program remain in effect.

Graduate level credits from IWU or taken at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), or hold appropriate international accreditation, may be used to fulfill requirements of IWU undergraduate programs under specified conditions. When permitted by the design of the program, graduate credits may be counted toward the requirements of an undergraduate degree or certificate when the graduate course or courses sufficiently accomplish the learning outcomes of a course in the undergraduate program. The course(s) must have been completed within the past five years and must reflect current knowledge and best practices. No more than 25% of the total credit requirements for the undergraduate major, minor, or certificate may be completed through graduate credits. Though exceptions may be approved by program directors, graduate courses in which a student has earned a "B" or better may be considered for undergraduate credit. Dual counting of credits requires approval by the appropriate program leader, in consultation with a graduate level content expert, as well as approval by the University Registrar, and Financial Aid Office if applicable. The program leader will make the final decision as to the applicability of the course to fulfill program learning outcomes. Established limitations on the number of credits that may be transferred into the undergraduate program remain in effect.

Withdrawal/Change in Status

A student who finds it necessary to withdraw from the program or to take a temporary leave of absence is required to contact the Registration Change Counselor in the Office of Student Services to complete this process (registration.change@indwes.edu). Students in an onsite course must request the withdrawal from the Registration Change Counselor before the last class workshop. Students in an online course must request the withdrawal prior to the first day (Day One) of the last workshop. Failure to initiate an official withdrawal will result in a "No Credit" or an "F" grade for the student in those related courses.

A student who is temporarily withdrawing may request an individual leave of absence up to 180 days in a 12 month period. A student cannot request more than two leaves during a 12 month period, and the total number of days on leave may not exceed 180 days within a 12 month period. All leaves must be requested through the Office of Student Services.

If a student officially withdraws after a course has started, a grade of "W" will be assigned. A student who violates the attendance policy with the last workshop of a course will receive an "F" for the course.

Administrative withdrawals assigning a grade of "W" will also happen as follows:

- A student who violates the attendance policy prior to the last workshop of a course will be administratively withdrawn from the course.
- A student who never attends a course will be administratively withdrawn from not only that course but all subsequent courses.

Students withdrawing from the first course of a core program must withdraw from the entire program.

If, at a later time the student wishes to re-enter the program, a re-entry form must be submitted to the Office of Student Services. Students sitting out of a core program for more than 90 days are subject to a tuition increase upon returning. Students re-entering a core program after six months or more are subject to any changes in curriculum upon returning. Students who take longer than six years to complete the program must petition to continue in the program.

Any change in registration may have an impact on the student's financial aid. Students should always check with the financial aid office before initiating a registration change.

Ways to Earn University Credit toward a Degree

Students have several options for completing general education/elective requirements for a baccalaureate degree.

CLEP/DSST Examinations

Indiana Wesleyan University offers CLEP and DSST tests as an option for students needing to fulfill general education and elective credits for a baccalaureate degree. The CLEP (College Level Examination Program) examinations are offered by The College Board, a nonprofit membership organization that provides tests and other educational services for students, schools, and colleges. CLEP is the most widely accepted credit-by-examination program in the country. The DSST (DANTES Subject Standardized Tests) examinations, originally developed for military personnel, are offered by Prometric.

Students may take both CLEP and DSST examinations at Indiana Wesleyan University at all regional education centers. Upon receipt of the official test scores, Indiana Wesleyan University will award credit based on The American Council on Education recommendations.

Students desiring to take an examination will pay a registration fee to IWU and test fee to the company sponsoring the test. In addition, students who choose to take CLEP or DSST tests are assessed an IWU transcription fee of $25 per credit hour satisfactorily completed. This applies to all CLEP/DSST credits which are placed on Indiana Wesleyan University records whether taken at Indiana Wesleyan University or accepted in transfer. Credit is not placed on the academic record until payment for the credits and the official transcript are received. Before taking a CLEP/DSST test, students should check with an academic advisor to ensure the test will apply toward degree completion plans.

The maximum number of credits awarded for all credit through various examinations (CLEP, DANTES, AP, AICE, etc.) and prior learning shall be limited to a total of 40 semester hours for the baccalaureate degrees and 18 semester hours for the associate degrees, and ordinarily will not be applied to upper-division requirements in the major (junior and senior levels). It is the responsibility of the student to obtain approval from the appropriate division for the application of credits to the majors.

Undergraduate Elective Offerings

The undergraduate elective program enables students to complete the credit requirements they may need for graduation. These electives include classes that satisfy general education requirements as well as elective credit. The elective classes are offered in key locations and in an online format and are scheduled to match the credit needs of our students. Most elective classes are “enrollment driven,” which means there must be at least six students registered for the class to meet.

A complete listing of undergraduate electives is published twice yearly (normally in November and May). See the Undergraduate Electives listing for additional information or <http://www.indwes.edu/Adult-Graduate/Undergraduate-Electives/>.
Prior Learning Assessment

Indiana Wesleyan University provides options for obtaining credit through experiences where college level learning has taken place, but was gained outside of the college/university credit bearing courses.

This credit will be awarded through faculty and/or subject matter expert review and credit recommendations. No grades are assigned; only credit is awarded.

- Prior Learning Assessment (PLA) includes an evaluation of a student’s prior learning experiences. IWU relies on industry best practices established by organizations like the Council for Adult and Experiential Learning (CAEL) who has served as a leader in the development and implementation of assessment for experiential learning and corporate training since 1974. Students are required to submit appropriate documentation which clearly articulates academically relevant learning through the student portal.
- Assessed learning credit is reviewed through a curriculum evaluation process that assesses training programs for alignment with university level learning and IWU curriculum.

Undergraduate students accepted to or enrolled in any of the IWU-National and Global associate or baccalaureate degree programs are eligible to request PLA credit. Credit hours awarded may be counted toward general education, elective, or select core requirements as applicable to the undergraduate degree. Students in the MBA in Certified Financial Planning and Project Management may apply for PLA credit for specific predefined courses.

The maximum number of credits awarded for all credit through various examinations (CLEP, DSST, AP, AICE, etc.) and prior learning shall be limited to a total of 40 semester hours for the baccalaureate degrees and 18 semester hours for the associate degrees.

The Indiana Wesleyan University Honesty, Cheating, Plagiarism, and Forgery Policy (p. 18) also apply to all Prior Learning Assessment request and submissions.

All PLA requests and documentation are reviewed only by those who have an official reason for doing so: the PLA staff, faculty evaluators, and accrediting association members. Any data received from the PLA process that may be made public will be anonymized and will in no way be attributed to an individual unless the student provides a signed authorization. Students should not include any materials in the PLA request that violate the legal and moral rights to privacy of other individuals.

Credit by Transfer

Students may transfer credit from another university to fulfill general education and elective requirements for applicable degrees. Credit can only be transferred from a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) and for courses in which a grade of "C" or higher was earned. All credits are accepted as semester credits. Quarter credits are converted to semester credits using the two-thirds conversion ratio. Students should check with an academic advisor before planning to fulfill requirements in this way. See “Transfer of Credit Policy (p. 314)” for limitations on transfer work.

Financial Information

Financial Policies

Students are advised of financial obligations for their degree seeking (core) program during the registration process. Students are expected to meet these obligations according to the schedule. Any questions regarding payments or problems associated with making those payments should be directed to Student Account Services.

Students who have applied for financial aid are responsible for all tuition and fees in the event it is determined they are ineligible for financial aid, decline the financial aid, or withdraw from the program prior to completing the academic award period. Students receiving military or corporate assistance who have received prior approval from the university for direct billing are required to pay their share of tuition and fees and submit appropriate assistance documents by the assigned due date.

The deferral program in no way relieves the student of the financial obligation to the university and the student retains full responsibility for ensuring that all tuition and fees are paid in full and in a timely manner.

Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to suspend students from class attendance for failure to meet financial obligations.

Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to change the tuition and fee schedule at any time. Students who remain registered making satisfactory academic progress shall have their tuition and fees guaranteed. Book fees and embedded resource fees are subject to change throughout a student's program. A $50 late fee is charged each time a payment is received after the due date. There will be a fee charged for any check returned due to non-sufficient funds. If collection of tuition, book charges, and/or fees becomes necessary, all percentage-based costs of collection, court costs, and attorney fees are the responsibility of the student.

Financial Regulations for Individuals Covered by Chapter 31 or Chapter 33

For purposes of this policy, a covered individual is any individual who is entitled to educational assistance under Chapter 31, Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment, or Chapter 33, Post-9/11 benefits.

Any covered individual may enroll in or attend a course of education during the period beginning on the date on which the individual provides a Certificate of Eligibility (COE) for entitlement to educational assistance under chapter 31 or 33 (A "Statement of Benefits" obtained from the Department of Veterans' Affairs (VA) website – eBenefits, or a VA Form 28-1905 for chapter 31 authorization purposes can substitute a Certificate of Eligibility) and ending on the earlier of the following dates:

- The date on which payment from VA is made to Indiana Wesleyan University (IWU)
- 90 days after the date IWU certified tuition and fees following the receipt of the certificate of eligibility

Indiana Wesleyan University will not impose any penalty, including the assessment of late fees, the denial of access to classes, libraries, or other institutional facilities, or the requirement that a covered individual borrow additional funds, on any covered individual because of the individual's inability to meet his or her financial obligations to the institution due to the delayed disbursement of funding from VA under chapter 31 or 33.

IWU requires the following actions on the part of any covered individual:

- Submit the Certificate of Eligibility (COE) for entitlement to educational assistance no later than the first day of the course of education.
- Provide any additional information necessary to the proper certification of enrollment by IWU.
- All standard financial policies apply for any amount not covered by the Certificate of Eligibility (COE) – i.e. charges not covered, or percentage of fees in excess of the COE.

Practice Experience Costs

All Indiana Wesleyan University, IWU-National and Global Nursing programs include practicum/clinical/practice experiences that require placement in a clinical facility or with a preceptor. Any cost for clinical placement is the responsibility of the student. The financial obligation incurred to facilitate placement will be subject to the policies in the Financial Information section of the University Catalog.

Refund Policies

Tuition and Technology Fee

Upon withdrawal from a course, tuition and the technology fee are prorated based on the date that the student requested the withdrawal as follows:

For courses consisting of 4-6 workshops

- If a student requests withdrawal during the first week of the course, all charges are forgiven except books and embedded resources.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 2nd week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 75%.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 3rd week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 50%.
- If the student requests withdrawal after the 3rd week, there is no refund.

For courses consisting of at least 7 workshops

- If a student requests withdrawal during the first week of the course, all charges are forgiven except books and embedded resources.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 2nd week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 90%.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 3rd week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 75%.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 4th week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 50%.
- If the student requests withdrawal after the 4th week, there is no refund.

Changes to a student's schedule may affect their financial aid. Call the Financial Aid Office for information.

Other Fees

Once attendance has been established in a course, any other fees associated with that course (not tuition or technology fee) are non-refundable.

Textbooks Shipped by Tree of Life

Refunds for textbook charges are issued at the sole discretion of Tree of Life, according to their established refund policies. To avoid unnecessary charges, students should return each rental textbook at the completion of each class

- When a student withdraws from a course, Tree of Life will supply the student with a prepaid label to return related materials as long as the student contacts Tree of Life Customer Support within 14 days of the course start date, ships the item within 5 business days of the contact, and the enrollment files reflect that the customer is no longer enrolled in this course (within 14 days of the start date). Upon receipt of the item, Tree of Life will refund the amount billed for the item minus shipping fees.
- Promptly contact Tree of Life for a Return Authorization for Credit for a course from which you have withdrawn.
- Refunds issued by Tree of Life will be applied as a credit to the student account.

Indiana Wesleyan University is not responsible for issuing refunds for Rentals not Returned, books not received, or books for withdrawn courses. All textbook issues should be immediately addressed with Customer Care at Tree of Life in order to receive the appropriate credit.

Digital items fall outside normal return and refund policies, as publishers have different policies on digital resources. We recommend contacting Customer Support at Tree of Life as soon as possible if you think you will need to return a digital item. If you have been billed for a digital resource, then withdraw before starting the course, please contact Customer Support at Tree of Life immediately upon withdrawal.

Regulations and Policies

In compliance with federal regulations for the student who has received financial aid, any amount due will be returned to the appropriate aid sources.

Students who are unable to complete a course or who receive an unsatisfactory grade for their specific program will be allowed to repeat that course with another group of students if arrangements are made with the Registration Change Counselor. Tuition and fees will be charged for repeating the course.

Decisions regarding refunds are made by Student Account Services, and in isolated cases, by the Financial Appeals Committee.

Indiana Wesleyan University will comply with any state mandated refund policies that govern refunds for students matriculating within the state in question. For a detailed listing of state-specific refund policies, please visit <http://www.indwes.edu/About/Student-Consumer-Information/State-Specific-Refund-Policies>.

Student Account Appeals

A written appeal may be submitted to Student Account Services. If the disputed charge cannot be reconciled with the accounting office, a written appeal can be submitted to studentaccountappeals@indwes.edu with all supporting documentation.

- All pertinent information will be obtained and compiled by the Appeals Committee.
- The disputed charge will be reviewed by the Appeals Committee.
- If necessary, an appeal may be reviewed by the Program Director.

- Appeals must be submitted within 6 months of the last date of attendance for the course in question.

All appeals will receive a response within 15 days after the written appeal has been received.

Financial Aid Information

Types of Student Financial Aid Available

The following types of student financial aid are available to persons enrolled as degree-seeking students who meet the eligibility criteria for the aid type. Complete fund profiles may be found online at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/types-of-aid>.

Federal Pell Grant – is a federal need-based grant that does not require repayment. The Pell Grant is available only to undergraduate students who have not earned a bachelor's nor professional degree and who have not met their maximum lifetime eligibility, which is the equivalent of six school years. Recipients must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and show financial need. The award amount is based on the Expected Family Contribution found on the Student Aid Report, a student's enrollment status at the beginning of each term, and the cost of attendance. The maximum award amount for the 2020-2021 award year is $6,345.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG) – is a federal grant that does not require repayment and is available to undergraduate students who have not earned a bachelor's nor professional degree. Eligibility is determined by answers provided on the FAFSA form with priority to Federal Pell Grant recipients. The maximum award amount for the 2020-2021 award year is $400. Awards are made to eligible recipients until all funds have been exhausted.

Indiana State Grant Aid – primarily consists of the Frank O'Bannon Grant, the 21st Century Scholarship, and the Adult Student Grant. Indiana grant recipients may take courses that meet at a site located within Indiana or online. Tuition reimbursement that a student receives may affect the amount of the state grant award. For the Frank O'Bannon Award, eligible students must be Indiana residents in an undergraduate program and attending full-time, eligible for federal student financial aid, whose FAFSA was received by the federal processor on or before the state filing deadline, and who demonstrate financial need as defined by the Indiana Commission for Higher Education, Division of Student Financial Aid. Students may take courses that meet at a site located within Indiana or online. The Frank O'Bannon award is a tuition- and fee- only grant. More details are available on the state website at <https://www.in.gov/cche/4506.htm>.

For the 21st Century Scholarship, please refer to the state website at <https://learnmoreindiana.org/scholars> for the eligibility requirements and other details.

For the Adult Student Grant, please refer to the state website at <https://www.in.gov/cche/4509.htm> for eligibility requirements and other details.

How Frank O'Bannon Grant and 21st Century Scholarship funds are awarded and disbursed: There are two state terms in the state academic year. Funds are awarded in one payment per state term. For the Frank O'Bannon Grant and the 21st Century Scholarship, the first state term begins in the first 6-month timeframe where a student is enrolled full-time (at least 12 credit hours). The second 6-month state grant term begins immediately after the first. For students enrolled full-time on the 28th day of the state grant term, the earliest date state grant funds will be disbursed is on the 29th day of that term. For students not enrolled full-time on the 28th day of the state grant term but who later become enrolled full-time within that term, the earliest date state grant funds will be disbursed is on the last day of the course in which the student completes full-time enrollment for the term. The state grant term dates that IWU reports to the Indiana Commission for Higher Education are specific to each student's enrollment pattern. These dates may be viewed on the student's account at the ScholarTrack website.

Credit completion requirements: Students receiving Indiana grant awards are required to meet certain credit completion requirements to renew Indiana grant awards for subsequent years.

- For Frank O'Bannon Grant maximum award renewal, students must successfully complete (receive passing grades for) at least 30 credit hours during each state academic year ("on-time" renewal). Frank O'Bannon Grant students who successfully complete at least 24 credit hours each state academic year ("full-time" renewal) will remain eligible for the grant but will receive a lesser amount than a student who completes 30 credit hours.
- For 21st Century Scholarship renewal, students must successfully complete at least 30 credit hours each state academic year to renew eligibility for subsequent years.
- For Adult Student Grant renewal, students must successfully complete 18 credit hours in the state academic year to renew eligibility for subsequent years.

Kentucky State Grant Aid – consists of the Kentucky Tuition Grant (KTG) and the College Access Program (CAP) Grant. Students must be Kentucky residents in an undergraduate program and eligible for federal student financial aid. Students whose FAFSA was received by the federal processor on or before the March 15 state filing deadline are given priority consideration for the KTG. Eligible students must be enrolled in 12 credit hours between July 1 and December 31 (fall term) and/or January 1 and June 30 (spring term). Students whose FAFSA was received by the federal processor on or before the March 15 state filing deadline and who demonstrate financial need as defined by the Commonwealth of Kentucky are given priority consideration for the CAP grant. Eligible students must be enrolled in 6-12 credit hours between July 1 and December 31 (fall term) and/or January 1 and June 30 (spring term). Students must be enrolled in at least 6 credit hours of courses for the term taken at a site located within Kentucky in order for online courses to count toward the credit hour requirement. Tuition reimbursement that a student receives may affect the amount of the state grant award.

Ohio State Aid – is the Ohio College Opportunity Grant Program (OCOG). This program provides need-based tuition assistance to Ohio students from low to moderate-income families. Students must be Ohio residents in an undergraduate program, eligible for federal student financial aid, and whose FAFSA was received by the federal processor on or before the October 1 state filing deadline. Eligible students must be enrolled in 12 credit hours between July 1 and December 31 (fall term) and/or January 1 and June 30 (spring term). The OCOG is a tuition only grant. Tuition reimbursement that a student receives may affect the amount of the state grant award.

William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan – is available to students who file the FAFSA and all other required student financial aid forms and who meet all federal criteria for eligibility. The maximum annual loan amounts for dependent students are $5,500 for freshmen, $6,500 for sophomores and $7,500 for juniors and seniors. The maximum annual loan amounts for independent students are $9,500 for freshmen, $10,500 for sophomores, and $12,500 for juniors and seniors. Lifetime maximum borrowing limit is $57,500 for undergraduate programs. For undergraduate students who demonstrate financial need and who have not met their lifetime maximum borrowing limits, the federal government subsidizes loan interest for a portion of the total annual loan amount while the student is enrolled in school. Interest rates are set on July 1 each year and are fixed rates. For July 1, 2020, through June 30, 2021, the interest rate is 2.75% for subsidized and unsubsidized Direct Loans for undergraduate students.

A student's total financial assistance, including loans, may not exceed the calculated cost of attendance for the program. Students with unsubsidized loans may elect to make monthly interest payments to the lender or allow the accumulated interest to accrue until repayment, which begins six months after the student ceases to be enrolled as at least a half-time student. Upon graduation or termination of studies, the student is given a six-month grace period during which no interest or principal payments are due on subsidized loans and during which only interest accrues on the unsubsidized loans. The standard minimum monthly payment is $50, but the amount varies based on the total amount of the outstanding loans upon which the student is paying and the type of repayment plan the student has chosen.

Undergraduate PLUS Federal Direct Loan – is a federal loan with a fixed 7.595% interest rate available to parents of dependent undergraduate students who have remaining cost of attendance not met by subsidized/unsubsidized William D. Ford Federal Direct Loans. This is a credit-based federal loan.

Military Preferred Tuition Discount – is a tuition discount to all active duty military personnel, National Guard, Reserves, retirees, veterans, spouses, surviving spouses, dependents with educational benefits, and DoD employees. Students must submit a discount application, available online at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/Military-Preferred-Tuition-Application-2020-2021.pdf>.

Educational Partner Discount – is a tuition discount given to students employed by one of IWU's educational partners. Students must submit a discount application, available from your program representative or by emailing N&Gdiscounts@indwes.edu.

Yellow Ribbon Award – is an award that does not have to be repaid and is available to eligible students who receive Chapter 33 benefits. The amount eligible students receive reflects 50% of the tuition expenses that exceed the highest public in-state undergraduate tuition rate. The VA matches that contribution to cover fully the tuition costs.

General Eligibility Requirements

In order to receive federal and/or state student financial aid, students must meet the following criteria:

- Must have completed the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) including signing all certifying statements.
- Must be a U.S. citizen or eligible noncitizen.
- Must have a valid Social Security number (with the exception of students from the Republic of the Marshall Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, or the Republic of Palau).

- Must be registered with Selective Service, if required.
- Must not be in default on a Title IV loan or owe a Title IV grant or loan overpayment.
- Must not have borrowed in excess of annual or aggregate Title IV loan limits.
- Must certify that they will use Title IV aid only to pay educational costs.
- Must not have enrolled in multiple institutions solely to obtain Title IV credit balance funds to pay expenses not educationally related.
- Must not have a disqualifying drug conviction.
- Must be enrolled as a regular student (cannot be unclassified) in an eligible degree or certificate program.
- Must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) as outlined in IWU's SAP Policy.
- Must show qualification to obtain a college education by having a high school diploma, GED certificate, or a high school education in a homeschool setting approved under state law.
- Must maintain enrollment in classes.

Per federal regulations, incarcerated students are not eligible for federal student financial aid. Incarcerated students or students who become incarcerated after receiving federal student financial aid funds should contact the Financial Aid Office.

How to Apply for Student Financial Aid

Students who wish to be considered for federal and/or state student financial aid must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Links to the application process online are provided at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/apply-for-aid>:

- When completing the FAFSA (direct link is <https://studentaid.gov/h/apply-for-aid/fafsa>) you must list IWU's Title IV Code, 001822, or IWU will not receive your FAFSA information from the federal processor.
- You must disclose any additional funding you will receive from employer reimbursement, vocational rehabilitation, or private scholarships to help pay for your education. To facilitate this requirement, complete the Other Aid Source Disclosure Form.
- If loans are desired, students must complete the Loan Entrance Counseling Session and William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan Master Promissory Note online (direct link is <https://studentaid.gov>). You must have an established Federal Student Aid (FSA) ID and password in order to complete these items. It may be necessary to wait three days from the time you first create your FSA ID before trying to sign in to this website. For each item, you must enter "Indiana" in the School State field even if you attend classes in another state or online.

- Entrance Counseling Session: Log in using your FSA ID and password. Hover over COMPLETE AID PROCESS in the navigation bar and select Complete Entrance Counseling. Add IWU as a School to Notify and select the appropriate Student Type for your current degree pursuit—undergraduate or graduate.
- Master Promissory Note: Log in using your FSA ID and password. Hover over COMPLETE AID PROCESS in the navigation bar and select Subsidized/Unsubsidized Loan MPN.
- The Financial Aid Office's standard practice is to originate federal student loans for the amount of a student's maximum eligibility. If you wish to have a lesser loan amount awarded than your maximum eligibility, complete the Reduced Loan Request form.

Once the above steps have been completed, be certain to:

- Quickly respond to requests for additional information from the Financial Aid Office. You may be asked, as required by federal regulations, to provide items for review in a process called Verification. Some items that may be requested are: a completed Verification Worksheet, a completed and notarized Identity and Statement of Educational Purpose Form, and a signed copy of your Federal Income Tax Return (and your spouse's or parents' as appropriate).
- Fully complete all forms. Forms filled out incorrectly or submitted to the wrong office or location could complicate your approval to begin classes or delay your student financial aid awards package.

How and When Student Financial Aid is Disbursed

Federal Pell Grant is disbursed as a credit to the IWU student account in one payment per term/award period.

Federal SEOG is disbursed as a credit to the IWU student account in one payment per term/award period.

Federal Direct Loans are disbursed as a credit to the IWU student account, generally in one payment per term/award period. For students in a term-based program format, the disbursement occurs approximately 10 days after the start of the first class attended in the term. For students in a non-term program format, the disbursement occurs 14-21 days after the start of the award period.

Indiana State Grant Aid is disbursed as a credit to the IWU student account in one payment per state term. For students in a term-based program format, there are three or four state terms in the state academic year. The first state term begins in the first term where a student is enrolled full-time. For students in a non-term program format, there are two state terms in the state academic year. For the Frank O'Bannon Grant and the 21st Century Scholarship, the first state term begins in the first 6-month timeframe where a student is enrolled full-time (at least 12 credit hours). The second 6-month state grant term begins immediately after the first. Regardless of the program format, for students enrolled full-time on the 28th day of the state grant term, the earliest date state grant funds will be disbursed is on the 29th day of that term. For students not enrolled full-time on the 28th day of the state grant term but who later become enrolled full-time within that term, the earliest date state grant funds will be disbursed is on the last day of the course in which the student completes full-time enrollment for the term.

Kentucky State Grant Aid is disbursed as a credit to the IWU student account in one payment per state term.

Ohio State Grant Aid is disbursed as a credit to the IWU student account in one payment per state term.

All other types of aid are awarded and disbursement dates set as the necessary paperwork is received.

Applying for student financial aid does not remove responsibility for payment. If the funding is not received, the student must pay all outstanding balances immediately.

How Eligibility is Determined and Student Financial Aid is Awarded

- An estimated federal awards package typically is available within a week of submitting the FAFSA. In general, award amounts are based on a student's Expected Family Contribution found on the Student Aid Report, a student's enrollment status, the cost of attendance, and other estimated financial assistance. The Financial Aid Office will award a student for his or her maximum eligibility in scholarship, grant, and loan funds unless otherwise instructed in writing. Complete the Reduced Loan Request form to request a loan amount less than the maximum.
- Students in term-based programs (those that began 7/1/19 and after) must be enrolled at least half-time for the term for federal loan funds to be disbursed. Students in non-term programs must be scheduled for a full academic year, according to the academic year definition for the program in which the student is enrolled, or to degree completion for student financial aid to be awarded. Any changes to planned enrollment may affect the amount and/or disbursement date(s) of aid for which the student may qualify.

- The Financial Aid Office will email notification to the IWU student email account that student financial aid has been awarded and is available for review online via the student portal at <https://myiwu.indwes.edu>. This secure website will indicate the types and amounts of aid for which the student qualifies. To decline all or a portion of the awarded aid, the student must submit a written request to the Financial Aid Office or all awarded aid will disburse to the IWU student account, as appropriate. Complete the Reduced Loan Request form to request a loan amount less than the maximum. The student does not need to contact the Financial Aid Office to accept an awards package.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)

Students are expected to maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress toward the completion of their course of study. This includes:

- Enrolling in and attending class as well as completing assignments and projects.
- Earning at least the minimum GPA required to maintain good academic standing in the student's primary degree or certificate program.
- Earning passing grades in a minimum of 67% of all credit hours attempted.
- For undergraduate students, completing the program within 150% of the credit hours normally required to complete the course of study (e.g., if the program requires 120 credit hours to complete, then the student may attempt no more than 180 credit hours) or, for graduate students, within the maximum time allowed by the academic department to complete the degree.

Academic progress is reviewed after the end of each term/award period. Students who fail to make satisfactory academic progress will be placed onto SAP Warning or Suspension, as appropriate, per the policy requirements. Students with mitigating circumstances (which may include, but is not limited to, death in the family or grave illness of the student or close family member) may appeal termination of federal student financial aid eligibility due to failure to make academic progress by submitting a SAP Appeal Form, written explanation, and supporting documentation to the SAP Appeals Committee through the Financial Aid Office. The entire SAP Policy is available for review online at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/resources>.

Leaves of Absence, Withdrawals, and Return of Funds

A student may request leaves of absence through the Office of Student Services for breaks in attendance 180 days or less in any 12-month period. In the case there is an approved break between classes, a leave of absence will be reported to the lender, but no loan repayment will be required. If additional circumstances arise that prohibit the student from returning to class as scheduled, the student should contact the Financial Aid Office to discuss options. For a break between classes of more than 180 days in any 12-month period, the university is required to report non-enrollment information to the lender, and the student will be required to begin repayment of any student loans (see your loan promissory note for further information).

If a student finds it necessary to withdraw from the program, withdraw from a course or courses without an approved leave of absence, or take leaves of absence that exceed 180 days in a 12-month period, a federal student financial aid Return of Funds calculation will be performed. This calculation determines how much federal student financial aid has been earned and is based on the number of days attended during the term/payment period when the student withdraws. The amount of federal student financial aid funds to be returned by IWU to the funding source is based on the amount of those funds that the Return of Funds calculation determined were not earned by the student.

For courses that use Brightspace (LMS), Indiana Wesleyan will use the student's last date of engagement as the withdrawal date in the Return of Funds calculation. For courses that do not use Brightspace, Indiana Wesleyan will use the later of the notification of the intent to withdraw or the documented LDARA. The official notification of intent to withdraw will be recorded by the Office of Student Services and may include verbal or written communication. If the withdrawal date falls during a scheduled break within the term, the withdrawal date will refer back to the last date before the scheduled break began. The withdrawal date may never fall within a scheduled break of five days or more.

Due to extenuating circumstances, for students who are unable to officially withdraw, the institution will use the last confirmed date of academic engagement as determined in Brightspace. For courses that do not use Brightspace, faculty will be contacted to determine LDARA.

When a student withdraws, outstanding Title IV credit balances will be placed on hold until the R2T4 calculation has been completed. If a credit balance exists on the student's account after applying any institutional refund policies and the R2T4 calculation, the institution will disburse the credit balance to the student as soon as possible but no later than 14 days from the date the school performed the R2T4 calculation.

The following are examples of the Return of Funds calculations for programs offered in standard terms, nonstandard terms, and nonterm academic calendars:

Standard Term:

- R2T4 calculations will be performed on a payment period basis. The payment period is the term.
- The student begins class on August 30, and the term/payment period runs until December 15.
- The student withdraws from the program on October 4.
- The term/payment period has 103 calendar days in it (not including break periods), and the student completed 36 days which is 35.0% of the payment period.
- The amount of the funds to be returned will be 65.0% of the federal student financial aid funds received.
- The portion of the federal student financial aid funds that the school must return is equal to the lesser of:
 - The institutional charges multiplied by the unearned percentage of your funds, or
 - The entire amount of excess funds

Nonstandard term:

- R2T4 calculations will be performed on a payment period basis. The payment period is the term.
- The student begins class on March 2 and the term/payment period runs until May 24.
- The student withdraws from the program on March 20.
- The term/payment period has 84 calendar days in it (not including break periods) and the student completed 19 days which is 22.6% of the payment period.
- The amount of the funds to be returned will be 77.4% of the federal student financial aid funds received.
- The portion of the federal student financial aid funds that the school must return is equal to the lesser of:
 - The institutional charges multiplied by the unearned percentage of your funds, or
 - The entire amount of excess funds.

Nonterm:

- R2T4 calculations will be performed on a payment period basis.
- The student begins class on June 1 and the term/payment period runs until November 16.
- The student withdraws from the program on September 2.
- The term/payment period has 168 calendar days in it (not including break periods) and the student completed 93 days which is 55.4% of the payment period.
- The amount of the funds to be returned will be 44.6% of the federal student financial aid funds received.
- The portion of the federal student financial aid funds that the school must return is equal to the lesser of:
 - The institutional charges multiplied by the unearned percentage of your funds, or
 - The entire amount of excess funds.

The Financial Aid Office will determine the amount of the return of funds that is owed by IWU and the amount, if any, that is owed by the student. For any loan funds that are owed by the student, the student (or the parent for a Direct PLUS Loan) repays in accordance with the terms of the promissory note (e.g., scheduled payments are to be made to the holder of the loan over a period of time). A letter will be sent to the student indicating the results of the Return of Funds calculation and the amount of the return of funds, if any. The student will earn 100% of the federal student financial aid funds received for the term/payment period if the return of funds calculation shows the student completed 60% or more of the term/payment period. Additionally, state grant awards may be recalculated if the student drops below the minimum amount of credits and/or if tuition and fee charges must be revised as a result of the schedule change.

Funds will be returned to the federal student financial aid programs in the following order: unsubsidized Federal Direct Loan, subsidized Federal Direct Loan, Federal Perkins Loan, Federal Direct PLUS Loans, Federal Pell Grant, Federal SEOG, Federal TEACH Grant and other Title IV grants. The student will have 45 days to contact the Financial Aid Office to make arrangements to repay any federal grants that are owed by the student. Failure to make arrangements or to pay back the federal grants will mean the student is no longer eligible to receive federal student financial aid at any institution until full repayment.

Title IV Funds that the school is required to return must be returned as soon as possible but no later than 45 days after determining the student withdrew.

A post-withdrawal disbursement is a disbursement that occurs after the R2T4 calculation is completed, and it is determined that a student received less federal student aid than the amount earned. The post-withdrawal disbursement of a federal grant for funds earned in excess of outstanding current (educationally related) charges must be made directly to the student within 45 days of the date of determination that the student withdrew. Students and/or parents (in the case of Direct Parent PLUS loans) will be notified in writing of eligibility for a post-withdrawal loan disbursement within 30 days of the date the school determined the student withdrew. Students and/or parents will have 14 days to respond to the post-withdrawal offer. Post-withdrawal disbursements will be applied to outstanding allowable charges on the student account first and any resulting credit balance will be paid to the student and/or parent within 14 days of the disbursement.

The requirements for Title IV program funds when a student withdraws are separate from IWU's refund policy. Therefore, a student may still owe funds to the school to cover unpaid institutional charges. A student who requests the credit balance from his or her IWU student account and then makes registration changes may be required to repay funds to the university and/or to the student financial aid programs.

Student's Rights and Responsibilities

As a student, you have the right to know:

- What financial assistance is available, including information on all federal and state programs.
- The deadlines for submitting application for each of the student financial aid programs available.
- The cost of attending the school's programs and the school's refund policy.
- The criteria used by the institution to select financial aid recipients.
- How the school determines your financial need. This process includes how costs for tuition, fees, books, and living expenses are considered in your budget.
- What resources (such as employer reimbursement, other financial aid, etc.) are considered in the calculation of your need.
- How much of your financial need, as determined by the institution, has been met.
- An explanation of the various programs in your student financial aid package. If you believe you have been treated unfairly, you may request reconsideration of the award that was made to you.
- What portion of the student financial aid you received must be repaid, and what portion is grant aid. If the aid is a loan, you have the right to know the loan interest rate, the total amount that must be repaid, the payback procedures, the length of time you have to repay the loan, and when the repayment is to begin.

As a student, you are responsible to:

- Review and consider all information about the school's program before you enroll.
- Complete all required forms accurately and submit them in a timely manner to the correct address.
- Pay special attention to, and accurately complete, your FAFSA. Errors can result in delay of receipt of your student financial aid funds. Intentional misreporting of information on application forms for federal student financial aid is a violation of law and is considered a criminal offense subject to penalties under the U.S. Criminal Code.
- Return all additional information, verification, corrections, and/or new information requested by either the Financial Aid Office or the FAFSA central processor.
- Read and understand all the forms that you are asked to sign and keep copies of them.
- Accept responsibility for all agreements you sign.
- If you have a loan, notify the lender of changes in your name, address, or school status.

- Know and comply with the deadline for application or reapplication for aid.
- Know and comply with the school's leave of absence or withdrawal policy/procedures.
- Repay student loans in agreement with the loan promissory note.

Further Information

The Financial Aid Office staff is here to assist in any way possible. Services for Students - Division of Post-licensure Nursing

Academic Advising

The purpose of academic advising is to support students from enrollment to completion of degree requirements. Advisors help students understand all degree requirements and options to meet those requirements. Advisors also assist students in understanding policies and procedures, and communicating with departments such as Financial Aid and Accounting.

An academic advising team is assigned to each individual student and advises that student throughout the duration of his or her academic program. Advisors are available to meet one-on-one with students face to face, through email, by phone, or via video conference.

It is important that students maintain contact with their academic advising team in order to ensure timely progression toward degree completion as well as appropriate scheduling for maximum financial aid benefit.

Chaplaincy Program

Spiritcare, the Chaplaincy Program for IWU National & Global Campus, is a ministry that seeks to care for the spiritual needs of adult students by providing Christ-centered support, resources, and services. This is done primarily through online and onsite classroom visits, structured devotionals, direct emails, and Portal content. The goal is to provide supportive opportunities for the growth of the complete person. On-site and online students have direct contact with a caring pastor shepherd. Spiritcare offers help, hope, and healing for students in crises. Chaplains can provide the following:

- Confidential and caring support for student and family members as requested.
- Spiritual guidance and prayer support.
- Intervention and support during life crises and emergencies.
- Referrals to Biblical, private counsel and support groups for special needs.
- An opportunity to be referred to a local pastor and a local church congregation for students seeking to grow in their faith.

Students may obtain additional information about the Spiritcare Chaplaincy Program through the student portal at myiwu.indwes.edu/Chaplaincy or by contacting the Office of Student Services at 800-621-8667 ext. 2359.

Books and Materials

Indiana Wesleyan University's IWU-National and Global programming has been, in part, designed to serve the needs of busy, working, adult students. With this in mind, the required resource materials for our students are included with the program and are supplied through IWU's chosen supplier and distributor, Tree of Life Bookstores. Some of these required resources are in digital form and can be accessed directly in the learning management system or through a online digital resource library upon individual student registrations. Any non-digital resources will be shipped directly to students prior to each course. For any non-customized print materials that are not part of the first course of a program, students wishing to obtain these specific materials on their own, may contact the Tree of Life Bookstores for further information.

Please note: Any attempted return of materials are subject to policies and procedures as applied by Tree of Life Bookstores. Please contact Tree of Live Bookstores for details related to any possible return of materials.

Should it become necessary for a student to withdraw from a course, any course not completed before the specified time remaining on their access to the digital materials, additional charges may be applied. Hard copy resource materials should be returned immediately, if eligible, to avoid additional charges if/when the course is taken at a later date. If materials are not returned, and/or course is not completed, and course materials change in the time between withdrawal and re-entry, the student will be charged for new materials.

More information can be obtained by contacting Tree of Life Bookstores at 888-392-2930, 765-674-9530 ext. 1, or <http://www.treeoflifebooks.com/customerservices/>.

Library Services

Off Campus Library Services provides both mediated and direct access to resources and services designed specifically for the adult student. The Jackson Library in Marion has thousands of materials via searchable databases, including both print and online journals; streaming media titles; print books and ebooks; and various formats of microform. These are all searchable via the secured Jackson Library databases. Small library collections are available at the Louisville campus, Ohio campuses at Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, and Dayton, as well as the Indiana campuses at Greenwood, Indianapolis (two locations), and Merrillville, and include some reference books and full access to the library catalog and subscription-based journal and book indexes. Remote access is also available to all databases through the university login. Students can get personalized assistance from OCLS librarians at Cincinnati, Cleveland, Indianapolis, Louisville, Marion, and Merrillville campuses. Librarians assist with general paper editing especially as it pertains to use of the writing style of their degree program. OCLS can also help troubleshoot basic word processing and PowerPoint challenges.

The Wesley Seminary student or distance student can contact OCLS via e-mail, 800 telephone, or chat service. Online access to the Library Resource Guide is available from the OCLS Web page; OCLS Tools. All provided services are further described in this document. One on one or group instruction about the services and databases of OCLS or a writing style is available by special appointment.

The library is part of a consortium, Academic Libraries of Indiana, which includes access to most library collections of Indiana higher education institutions. If attending classes in Kentucky or Ohio, the regional OCLS librarian can inform students about opportunities in their area.

Low Enrollment in Onsite Cohorts

Should the total number of students enrolled in a cohort fall below six students for any reason, the University will seek alternative options for the remaining students to complete their degree. To ensure high academic quality, the possibility of combining cohorts or offering the option of completing the program online will be investigated.

In general, students will be given an opportunity to recruit students to join the cohort. If a cohort is nearing completion, this fact will be taken into consideration before any decision is made.

Services for Disabled Students

IWU Disability Services

The goal of disability services at Indiana Wesleyan University is to work cooperatively with students to help them reach their maximum academic, social, and personal potential. This is accomplished by integrating legal expectations, Indiana Wesleyan's standards of service, and Christ-like principles. The Director of Accessibility and Accommodations is a trained professional, responsible for determining accommodation eligibility and for coordinating office services for students with disabilities. The director works with the students, faculty, and staff to design and implement a plan of reasonable accommodations that allows for equal access to all areas of university life.

Equal Access

Indiana Wesleyan University is committed to inclusion and equal access of individuals with disabilities. Individuals will not be discriminated against on the basis of disability or be denied equal access and appropriate accommodation to the educational opportunities available at IWU.

"No otherwise qualified person with a disability in the United States shall, solely on the basis of disability, be denied access to, or the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity in any institution receiving federal financial assistance." –Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

Admissions

Admission decisions are made without regard to disabilities. All prospective students are expected to present academic credentials that meet or exceed the minimum requirements for admissions.

Prospective students with disabilities are not required to identify themselves to the Admissions Office or the Director of Accessibility and Accommodations. However, those interested in receiving academic accommodations are encouraged to meet with, or contact, the Director of Accessibility and Accommodations as early as possible to allow for a review of documentation and the formulation of an accommodation plan.

Student Address/Email Information

Students should notify the Office of Student Services of any change of address, telephone number, or name so that proper records can be maintained. Name change requests require submission of appropriate documentation.

IWU Student Email Accounts - Upon acceptance, students are given an IWU student e-mail account. This is the only account used by IWU for communication with the student. It is extremely important that the student checks this account on a regular basis as important academic and financial information as well as university announcements will be shared in this way.

Programs Offered - Division of Post-licensure Nursing

The Division of Post-licensure Nursing offers:

- A Certificate in Human Trafficking Studies which provides the learner with a foundational knowledge of human trafficking principles, policies, and approaches.
- A Post-licensure (RNBSN) Program leading to a Bachelor of Science in Nursing (B.S.N.). The undergraduate program prepares men and women for professional nursing practice and provides a foundation for advanced study in nursing.

Certificate Program

Certificate - Human Trafficking Studies

The Certificate in Human Trafficking Studies will provide the learner with a foundational knowledge of human trafficking principles, policies and approaches. This groundwork is applicable to all disciplines. The knowledge gained will enhance the learner's ability to engage in the anti-human trafficking arena in their respective disciplines and broaden individual knowledge base.

Upon completion of this certificate program, students should be able to:

- Evaluate the multiple components of human trafficking.
- Effectively engage with other professions involved in anti-trafficking efforts.
- Integrate principles of scholarship, leadership, and service to the arena of human trafficking.
- Evaluate self as a change agent in the human trafficking arena.
- Explore the realities of human trafficking.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

- Accepted as a regular degree seeking student or as an unclassified student.
- Official college or university transcripts showing completion of 60 or more credit hours.

PROGRESSION REQUIREMENTS

- First two courses NUR-321 and NUR-322 (or alternatives) must be completed with a grade of "C" or higher to progress in program.

COMPLETION REQUIREMENTS

- 12 credit hours from the selected courses in the specified certificate area.

- Grade of "C" or higher in all certificate courses.

BSN - Post-licensure (RNBSN)

The School of Nursing Post-licensure (RNBSN) Program is accredited by The Higher Learning Commission (<http://www.ncahigherlearningcommission.org/>) and Indiana Wesleyan University is a member of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. The program is also accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) (202-887-6791). Memberships include the American Association of Colleges of Nursing and the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities.

Throughout the Post-licensure (RNBSN) Program, the nurse is a purposeful, self-directed individual who assumes responsibility and accountability to God, society, self, and clients who, made in the image of God, have intrinsic worth and value. Modeling the example of Jesus Christ, nurses are to protect and promote health, especially for people lacking access to health care, through the just allocation of health resources and services throughout the world.

The Post-licensure (RNBSN) Program is planned within the philosophy and conceptual framework of the baccalaureate program. (Adult learners want to take charge of their own learning and can be mutually responsible for the education process in partnership with faculty.) Small project teams and other strategies appropriate for adult education contribute to mastery of learning outcomes.

The curriculum will be completed in the order established by Indiana Wesleyan University. Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to modify the curriculum as necessary.

The same courses offered in the classroom setting are also offered via the Internet.

Outcomes of the Baccalaureate Nursing Programs

At the completion of the baccalaureate nursing program at Indiana Wesleyan University the graduate will be prepared to:

- Apply leadership skills to professional nursing practice.
- Integrate nursing knowledge and evidence-based practice while providing culturally competent care.
- Employ effective communication and interprofessional collaboration for the improvement of client outcomes.
- Demonstrate spiritual values and professional ethics from a Christian worldview when providing nursing care.

Admission Requirements

The admission requirements for the Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree offered through the School of Nursing's Division of Post-licensure Nursing are as follows:

- Proof of high school graduation or GED certification.
- Original transcripts from all previous college or university study at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA).
- Associate degree with a major in Nursing.
- Prior completion of at least 60 transferable credit hours is required before the student is eligible to start a bachelor core program.
- A maximum of 40 hours of credit may be earned through the assessed learning process toward the required 60.
- Applicants from a state board of nursing approved school of nursing (diploma or proprietary school of nursing) who have passed the NCLEX-RN exam may be eligible to apply for credit through the evaluation process. A maximum of 40 credit hours awarded may be counted toward the required 60. This applies only to students applying to the Nursing program.
- Proof of current unencumbered RN licensure;
- An overall grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 from all previous study. If an applicant's GPA is below 2.0, the student may be admitted on a probationary basis, as established by the guidelines of the college.
- Conditional Acceptance: Students currently enrolled in an associate degree in nursing program (i.e. AAS or ADN) at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) may be conditionally accepted when they can show:
 - Prior completion of at least 12 transferable credit hours
 - Evidence of acceptance into an associate level nursing program. Full, unconditional admission to the RNBSN Program will be granted when the student meets the criteria for RNBSN Program admission.

Graduation Requirements

To graduate with a baccalaureate degree in nursing from the School of Nursing at Indiana Wesleyan University, the following requirements must be met:

- Completion of 120 semester hours.
- Completion of the required core courses with a GPA of 2.75 or higher.
- Cumulative GPA of 2.75 or higher.
- All individual core courses must be completed with a grade of "C" or better.
- Completion of 30 hours of general education as specified (General Education Requirements (p. 582)).
- Payment of all tuition and fees is required to receive a diploma.

Program Requirements

- Students must complete each individual core course with a grade of "C" or higher.
- To progress in the major, RNBSN students must have obtained a core GPA of 2.75 by the end of the third course.
- Students must have an RN license that is active and unencumbered at all times during enrollment in the program. Students must have a valid unencumbered RN license in the state(s) of the practicum sites. If students have multi-state licenses, all must be unencumbered. Students may be administratively withdrawn from the program at any point if this status is not maintained.
- A criminal history background check, drug testing, and immunization tracking will be conducted at the student's expense. Practice sites may have additional requirements, e.g., health physical, which will be conducted at the student's expense. Instructions for the criminal background check, drug screening, and immunization tracking will be sent to students by the Division of Post-licensure Nursing. Progression in the program will depend on compliance with and/or the results of these checks.

- RNBSN students may complete the core nursing courses by following the recommended fast-track schedule. It is not recommended that students take more than two core courses at a time. Students who wish to take more than two core courses should contact their academic advisor to determine the potential impact of such a decision.
- Students who take longer than six years to complete the program must petition to continue in the program.
- Students must complete all core courses before taking NUR-495.

Division of Masters Nursing

Policies and Regulations - Masters Nursing

The right is reserved to change any of the rules and regulations of the university at any time, including those relating to admission, instruction, and graduation. The right to withdraw curricula and specific courses, alter course content, change the calendar, and to impose or increase fees similarly is reserved. All such changes are effective at such times as the proper authorities determine and may apply not only to prospective students but also to those already enrolled in the university.

Academic Information - Masters Nursing

Academic Calendar - Masters Nursing courses are offered under the semester credit hour system but in a non-traditional academic calendar. Each major consists of required courses which are taught in an accelerated, modular format, and taken sequentially. Each major has an online component. The Nursing Administration and Nursing Education majors are 100 percent online. The Primary Care major has a significant online component, but also includes on-site classes in specified courses. On-site classes meet for four hours on a weeknight or as a residency. All online classes meet in an asynchronous environment. Practice experiences are an essential component of all School of Nursing programs and take place in the student's community.

Catalog Governing Graduation - Students must meet the graduation requirements as stated in the university catalog under which they enrolled. Students who maintain continuous enrollment, who make normal progress toward a degree, and who earn their degree within the maximum number of years from the date of enrollment may meet the graduation requirements as stated in the catalog under which they enrolled. Students who withdraw from Indiana Wesleyan University for more than six months will meet the graduation requirements as stated in the catalog under which they resume enrollment. Students changing majors or programs must meet requirements as stated in the catalog that is current at the time they make such changes. The same holds true for students moving between schools and colleges. Students may at any time change from an earlier catalog to a subsequent current catalog, but must meet all requirements for graduation of that catalog. Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to modify the curriculum as necessary.

Core Requirements - The integrity of the IWU-National and Global programs requires that the core courses be met at Indiana Wesleyan University. Students are required to complete the first course (or the first block of courses) in the core program with a passing grade in order to maintain enrollment. In general, no waivers are allowed for courses taken at other colleges/universities.

Final class dates as established by the calendar will be the final date for completion of the core curriculum.

Alcohol, Illegal Drugs, and Firearms

Alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, and firearms are not permitted on Indiana Wesleyan University premises, including rented classrooms and any building or parts of buildings owned or operated by Indiana Wesleyan University. Refusal to comply may result in dismissal from the university.

Admission and Registration

Indiana Wesleyan University welcomes applications for admission from any academically qualified person whose motivation is in keeping with the university's purposes. Admission is based on the careful review of all credentials presented by an applicant, but in no case is admission denied due to race, color, national origin, disability, religion, or sex.

Admission decisions are made without regard to disabilities. All prospective students are expected to present academic credentials that meet or exceed the minimum requirements for admissions. Prospective students with disabilities are not required to identify themselves to Admissions or Disability Services. However, those interested in receiving academic accommodations are encouraged to connect with Disability Services at 765-677-2257 or ADARquest@indwes.edu as early as possible to allow for a review of documentation and the formulation of an accommodation plan.

Students are admitted in one of the following categories:

- Regular - Students who satisfactorily meet all requirements will be granted standard admission with no restrictions.
- Probation - Students with an entering grade point average (GPA) which falls below the minimum required by the program may be accepted on probation. Probationary status will be removed after the student has completed the first three courses of the core with a satisfactory GPA (3.0). In case of extended probation, the number of courses to be completed in order to change status will be determined jointly by the VPAA for the School of Nursing and the Student Life Council. Any student failing to remove the probationary status will be academically suspended from the program.
- Unclassified - Students not pursuing a university degree who want to take certain courses (e.g., elective) for special reasons may be accepted for a maximum of 12 hours. Students receiving an unclassified status must reapply for regular admission if they desire later to pursue a degree program. Unclassified students are not eligible for financial aid.

International/Non-English Speaking Students - Students who do not speak English as their first and primary language must submit satisfactory scores from one of the following prior to admission to the university:

- Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). For graduate students, a score of at least 600 (paper-based), 250 (computer-based), or 100 (Internet-based) is required for regular academic admission.

- International English Language Testing System (IELTS). For graduate students a score of at least 6.5 is required for regular academic admission.

Registration - Registration occurs at the beginning of the student's core program. At this point, students are registered for all courses within the major. Therefore, if a student needs to miss an individual course, official withdrawal must be made through the Office of Student Services. Staff will work with the Division Dean and the student to make arrangements to retake this class at a time that will minimize the impact on the student's financial aid. Students need to be aware that temporary withdrawals could impact their eligibility to receive financial aid based on the standards outlined in IWU's Satisfactory Academic Progress. Additionally, placement in a cohort may be delayed for a returning student due to enrollment limitations.

A student who has failed to arrange for the payment of tuition for a course will have registration in that course cancelled.

Audit of Courses

A student accepted into an Indiana Wesleyan University degree program or as an unclassified student may choose to audit specified courses within a core program or electives as follows:

- Audit registration is allowed on a space available basis.
- The current audit fee ($25 per credit hour) must accompany the registration.
- Auditing a course gives one the right to attend the course. No credit or letter grade is given. The course will be indicated as an "AU" on the student's IWU transcript.
- The student auditing the course is not expected to participate in classroom or study group assignments, or to complete homework, quizzes, or tests.
- The faculty member is under no obligation to grade any work an auditing student chooses to submit or to give feedback on progress.
- The materials required for the course are optional for auditing students. If one wishes to purchase materials, the fees must accompany the registration.
- The student must meet course pre-requisites or be approved by the appropriate administrator of the specific college/school.
- No change may be made from audit to credit, or credit to audit, after registration closes.

Engagement Policy

Because of the delivery method of adult and graduate programs, engagement is required and monitored. Student engagement is monitored by activity in the learning management system (Brightspace). Engagement is defined as:

- Posting in a discussion
- Submission of an assignment
- Completion of a test or quiz

Students who have not engaged (as defined above) in a class for 21 consecutive days will be withdrawn from the class.

Students will be withdrawn from the entire program if the program is a lock-step program, the 21-day non-engagement course is a prerequisite to other courses, or upon the second consecutive withdrawal for non-engagement.

Students who must miss a course due to unavoidable circumstances must arrange for a withdrawal with the Office of Student Services prior to the beginning of the course. Students needing to withdraw while in a course may do so by arrangement with the Office of Student Services prior to the end of the course, but the regular refund and academic withdrawal policies apply.

Faculty members reserve the right to factor lateness, early departures, and class engagement into a student's grade, as long as it is addressed in the syllabus.

See the Department of Leadership Studies (p. 480) for the specific attendance requirements of the Ph.D. program.

Grading and Evaluation

A letter grade is used in evaluating the work for a course. For the purpose of determining scholastic standing and awarding honors, grade points are granted according to the letter grades and semester hours of credit. The grade point average (GPA) is the number of quality points earned at IWU divided by the number of credit hours attempted at IWU.

Grade

Quality Points

	(per credit)
A	4.0
A-	3.7
B+	3.3
B	3.0
B-	2.7
C+	2.3
C	2.0
C-	1.7
D+	1.3
D	1.0
F	.0

The following grades are not figured into the GPA:

W

CR

AU

Repeated Courses - A student may repeat any course once in which a grade below “C” (“C-,” “D+,” “D,” or “F”) was previously earned. Some specific graduate level courses are identified as repeatable and can be repeated if a student earns a grade higher than “C” but below the level required for that specific course. Unless otherwise noted a course may be repeated once.

Whenever a course is repeated, the last grade and credits earned replace the previous grade in computing the student’s grade point average (GPA). All entries, however, remain a part of the student’s permanent academic record. Duplicate credit hours are not given for two or more passing efforts. A course taken in a classroom/online format may not be repeated for a grade through independent learning/study.

Since a course may be repeated once, failure to achieve a satisfactory grade in a course after two attempts will result in academic suspension and ineligibility to complete the major in which the course was repeated.

Incomplete Grades - Students are expected to complete the course requirements by the last class session. There may be instances when crisis circumstances or events prevent the student from completing the course requirements in a timely manner. In these rare situations, a grade of “I” (incomplete) may be issued after completing the following process:

- The student must request an “I” from the instructor via email.
- The student must have completed at least 75% of the coursework.
- The instructor must obtain approval via email from the Program Leader.

A grade of "incomplete" may be granted only for extenuating circumstances. The length of time a student has to complete and submit the requirements to the faculty is determined by the faculty member for the course and may not exceed 10 weeks. If, at the end of the extension, the student has failed to complete the course requirements, the faculty will enter the grade the student earned. An incomplete cannot be issued if the student fails to meet the attendance requirements.

Probationary Status - Students enrolled in a graduate nursing program will be placed on probation if their GPA falls below 3.0.

Students are given the opportunity to satisfactorily raise their GPA by the completion of two consecutive courses or six consecutive credit hours, whichever is greater. The GPA is reviewed after the set timeframe, and if it has been successfully raised, the probationary status is removed. Academic suspension will result if the student's GPA is not successfully raised.

Grade Reports - At the end of each course, the instructor submits grades for each student. Grade reports are available online to the student and indicate courses taken, credits received, and grades assigned.

Transcripts - The student's official transcript is prepared by the Indiana Wesleyan University Registrar's Office and will show the course, grade, credit, and dates of instruction for each course. Transcripts will include undergraduate and graduate work with the GPA divided into undergraduate and graduate calculations. Requests for transcripts of coursework at Indiana Wesleyan University must conform with the Privacy Act of 1974, which requires that all transcript requests be submitted in writing and signed by the student, for protection of the student's confidentiality. A transcript is official only when it bears the university seal.

It is university policy not to release a transcript if the student has any financial holds on their record or if he or she is delinquent on any loan received through Indiana Wesleyan University. A $5 fee is charged for each transcript, with an additional $2.50 Parchment ordering fee. Payment must be provided, along with a complete address to which the transcript is to be delivered. Please provide a current address if request is to be sent to student's home. Transcript requests can be accessed by visiting <http://www.indwes.edu/Academics/Registrar/Transcript> and submitting the request through the ordering service.

Graduation

Graduation Ceremonies - IWU graduation ceremonies are held two times a year. Degrees are conferred and posted to the student's transcript on these dates. Four additional conferral dates are available in between the graduation ceremonies in which degrees may be conferred and posted to the student's transcript should all requirements be completed. Eligible students are notified by the Office of Student Services of procedures and requirements concerning graduation.

Each student must complete an "Application for Graduation" provided by the Office of Student Services. This application indicates the student's intent to graduate and initiates the final evaluation of the student's academic record.

Students are also asked to inform the university as to whether they will be attending the ceremony. This allows the university to determine the number of tickets available for students who are attending. If a student cannot attend graduation due to unforeseen circumstances, the degree is still conferred; however, attendance at a future graduation is not an option.

Graduation Requirements - All requirements must be met and transcribed by the date established by the Office of Student Services prior to the degree conferral date. Students taking internal or external coursework need to make sure that transcripts, grades, and scores can be received and transcribed by the deadline date. PYC students must complete a minimum of 700 hours of supervised practicum with no less than 525 patient encounters. Out of the total 525 encounters students must complete a minimum of 300 adult patient encounters, (40 of these related to women's health), and 150 Pediatric encounters.

Students may receive one degree only per commencement. Students meeting requirements for more than one degree must apply for and participate in two different ceremonies. Any university-approved dual degree program is an exception to this policy.

Students who have received a degree from IWU and have returned to meet requirements for an additional major at the same degree level will have the second major posted to their existing degree. The second major can only be posted at one of the six conferral dates, and students receiving the second major are not eligible to participate in another graduation ceremony.

Diplomas - Diplomas are mailed after the conferment of degrees. Diplomas indicate degree earned and date of degree. A student's financial account must be settled to receive a diploma.

Leave of Absence Policy

Indiana Wesleyan University understands there are life events that may require a student to modify class enrollment and schedules. The leave of absence policy is designed to allow students flexibility in their program enrollment to adjust to these life events. The leave of absence policy also extends to students the ability to make up any courses missed during the approved leave.

A student on an approved leave of absence will be considered enrolled at IWU and eligible for an in-school deferment for student aid loans. Federal financial aid and in-school deferment may be negatively impacted if a student fails to apply for the leave of absence or if the application is denied. This impacts students who receive Title IV federal financial aid (Federal Pell Grants, Federal Supplemental Grants, Federal Stafford Subsidized or Unsubsidized Loans, Federal Parent Loans) or who want to have a federal student loan deferred from payment while in school.

Students who will be out of attendance for a period of 29 days or more should request a leave of absence. Students out of class for less than 29 days are not eligible for a leave of absence, and a recalculation on current financial aid will be done. Students who are not on federal financial aid programs or who do not have a federal loan in deferment are not required to request a leave of absence.

Students needing to make a change in their schedule need to contact the Office of Student Services to process the registration change. At that time, the leave of absence request form will be emailed to the student. The Leave of Absence Application can be downloaded by going to the following link:

<https://myiwu.indwes.edu/directory/student-services/registration-changes/pages/default.aspx>. Students must request the leave within 21 days of initiating the registration change. The request for a leave of absence should be made prior to the date the leave is to start. The start date of the leave is the first date of the class or, if the class has already started, the date the registration change is initiated.

An approved leave of absence must meet the following criteria: in the academic year the student has to be in attendance 2 weeks prior to applying for a leave, the request must be received within 21 days of the registration change; the request must be made prior to the start of the leave (first day of class); the reason for the request must be one approved by IWU's Leave of Absence Committee (military, medical, jury duty, loss of job, family emergency, employment emergency, transfer of coursework, passing pre-requisite requirement, changing programs, administrative cancellation of core classes, or other reasons as approved by the Leave of Absence Committee).

The leave of absence together with any additional leaves of absence must not exceed a total of 180 days in any 12-month period. Time in excess of 180 days will not be approved. A student may request an extension to a leave providing the request is made before the end of the leave, there are unforeseen circumstances which prevent the return from the leave, and the total number of days of approved leave do not exceed 180 in a 12-month period. A maximum of two leaves of absence are allowed during a 12-month period. Documentation is required for an extension on a leave. Documentation for each circumstance will vary; the student is required to provide whatever paperwork from a third party will attest to the circumstance outlined on the application form. Examples would include physicians' statements, letters from employers, letters from pastors or counselors, court documents, etc. Documentation is also required if a request is submitted after the 21 day deadline, and needs to address the reason for the delay in the submission of the request.

Failure to return from an approved leave of absence nullifies the approved leave and may have an impact on student loan repayment terms as well as the grace period. The first day of the leave will be reported as the beginning of the grace period for loan deferment. Students may return early from an approved leave of absence prior to the leave end date. The leave will be shortened according to the student's return date.

Students will not receive disbursements of Title IV student loan financial aid funds during the leave. Students are not deferred from making regularly scheduled payments to the Accounting Office for normal fees incurred. Any change in registration can impact current financial aid regardless of approval or denial of the leave of absence request. Questions about impact on current financial aid should be directed to the Financial Aid Office at 800-621-8667 ext. 2516. Students on an approved leave of absence will be reported as such and will be eligible for in-school deferment of previous loans. Students whose request for a leave of absence is denied will be reported as withdrawn and the grace period for loan repayment will go into effect.

Military Leave of Absence Policy

The Higher Education Opportunity Act enacted on August 13, 2008, states that a university may not deny admission or readmission to a service member for reasons relating to that service. The service member qualifies if the school is given notice of absence for service, the cumulative length of absence does not exceed five years, and the student gives notice of his or her intent to return.

Indiana Wesleyan University complies with this act with the following:

Academic:

- Students are not required to reapply and are not charged a readmission fee upon return.
- Students are readmitted at the same academic status (program enrollment status, number of completed credit hours, academic standing) before deployment. Students may return under the catalog that was in effect before deployment. Student may find differences in their programs or the catalog if the programs are no longer offered, or changes have occurred due to external accrediting bodies, licensing board or other external agencies.
- Leave time does not count toward the total time required to earn the degree.

- Students will be promptly readmitted in the next class or classes in a program, will qualify for priority/early registration, and may not be denied re-enrollment in a class based on class size.

Financial:

Students are required to complete a Military Leave of Absence Request. When the request is approved, students' accounts will be adjusted as necessary.

Financial Aid

Indiana Wesleyan University is committed to assisting military students in navigating the impact that active duty will have on financial aid. It is important that each student have conversation with the Financial Aid office to ensure proper paperwork and processes are covered as it relates to a leave of absence.

Students with federal financial aid, federal loan obligations, or military tuition assistance must contact their lenders and/or the military education office to ascertain their loan repayment status or repayment of tuition assistance during the leave of absence.

Policy on Academic Credentials and Programs

This policy applies to all academic units of the university.

Indiana Wesleyan University awards academic credentials (degrees and certificates) to students who complete defined programs of study. Each credential is defined in terms of a set of essential learning outcomes, which may include discipline-specific and general education outcomes, as well as credit hour and other specifications. Each program of study for a particular credential maps the credential learning outcomes to a series of credit-bearing courses.

As appropriate, given the learning outcomes and alignment of involved programs and courses, credits may be shared between academic credentials and sub-credentials awarded coevally, within the following boundaries.

1. The student must fulfill all of the requirements for any credential awarded.
2. Credits may be shared between a major and a minor, as long as the minor includes at least 15 unique credit hours unshared with any other major or minor.
3. Credits may be shared between two minors, as long as each minor includes at least 15 unique credit hours unshared with any other major or minor.
4. Credits may be shared between two undergraduate majors as long as there are 51 unique (unduplicated) credit hours between the two majors.
5. Credits may be shared between two graduate majors as long as two thirds of the credits in each major are unique (unduplicated).
6. Up to three credit hours may be shared between a certificate and a minor.
7. Up to six credit hours may be shared between a certificate and a major (undergraduate or graduate).
8. A major or minor may be added to a previously awarded baccalaureate degree. The student must complete all of the course requirements for the major or minor and a minimum of nine new credits hours must be earned. New general education requirements need not be met to post an additional major or minor. Students adding a major or minor are not eligible to participate in commencement ceremonies again. The additional major or minor will be posted to the transcript only on one of the conferral dates.

As appropriate, given the learning outcomes and alignment of involved programs and courses, credits applied to a previously-awarded IWU academic credential may be applied, without surrender of the prior credential, to another IWU academic credential within the following boundaries.

1. The student must fulfill all of the requirements for any credential awarded.
2. For credits from a prior IWU academic credential to be applied to a second IWU academic credential, the second academic program must be started within ten years of the awarding of the first credential. Exceptions must be approved by the dean (or equivalent) of the school sponsoring the academic program of the second credential. Individual academic programs may specify more strict credit-age limits if warranted by the discipline.
3. The credits from a previously-awarded undergraduate certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of an associate's degree or a bachelor's degree.

4. Up to 6 credits from a previously-awarded associate's degree or bachelor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of an undergraduate certificate.
5. The credits from a previously-awarded associate's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different associate's degree, as long as each credential has at least 25% unique credits.
6. The credits from a previously-awarded associate's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a bachelor's degree.
7. The credits from a previously-awarded bachelor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different bachelor's degree, as long as each credential has at least 25% unique credits.
8. The credits from a previously-awarded bachelor's degree or undergraduate certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a master's degree, limited by the provisions of the Undergraduate and Graduate Credit Crossover Policy.
9. The credits from a previously-awarded graduate certificate or post-masters certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a master's degree.
10. The credits from a previously-awarded graduate certificate or post-masters certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a doctor's degree.
11. Credits from a previously-awarded master's degree or doctor's degree may be applied to fulfill up to 1/3 of the requirements of a graduate certificate.
12. The credits from a previously-awarded master's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different master's degree, as long as each credential has at least 50% unique credits.
13. The credits from a previously-awarded master's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a doctor's degree, as long as the doctor's degree has at least 50% unique credits.
14. The credits from a previously-awarded doctor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different doctor's degree, as long as each credential has at least 50% unique credits.

Satisfactory Academic Progress and Academic Standing

Students enrolled in a SON National & Global program are regarded as members of the academic community of Indiana Wesleyan University. Students are responsible for conforming to the standards of conduct for adult learners. Continued enrollment in the program is subject at all times to review of the student's academic record and actions with regard to observance of university policies and regulations. Policies and regulations can be found in the IWU catalog and the School of Nursing Student Handbook.

Placement on Probation - Students enrolled in a graduate nursing program will be placed on probation if their GPA falls below 3.0.

Students are given two consecutive courses or six credit hours, whichever is greater, to satisfactorily raise their GPA. The GPA is reviewed after the second course, and if it has been successfully raised, the probationary status is removed. Academic suspension will result if the student's GPA is not successfully raised.

Academic Suspension - Academic suspension will result if:

- A student fails to clear the academic probationary status within the probationary period of two consecutive courses or six credit hours, whichever is greater.
- A student has taken a course twice and failed to achieve a satisfactory grade. When this occurs, the student is ineligible to reapply for admission into the program in which the course was repeated.

In all cases, the suspension will occur once the grades have been recorded in the Registrar's Office. Students will be notified of the academic suspension in writing. Application for readmission may be made after six months. The application must be made in writing to the VPAA for the School of Nursing.

Academic Dismissal - Upon a second academic suspension in the same program, a student is not eligible to reapply to Indiana Wesleyan University. In addition, students enrolled in any Nurse Practitioner program or the doctoral program will be academically dismissed upon receipt of a second unsatisfactory grade.

Student Professional Performance Policy

Students are expected to maintain the ethical standards of practice established by American Nurses Association (ANA) Code of Ethics for Nurses with Interpretive Statements. Students whose professional performance affects their ability to be licensed as a registered nurse or advanced practice registered nurse, and/or who do not meet the ethical standards established by ANA, may be recommended for a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) or other sanction up to and including dismissal from the School of Nursing.

It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of policies regulating academic and professional conduct found in the IWU Catalog, student handbooks, and clinical guidelines, possible sanctions, and the appeals process.

Progressive discipline: The School of Nursing promotes a policy of progressive or corrective discipline, however serious infractions may warrant immediate removal from clinical or academic setting, imposition of a written reprimand, suspension, or dismissal.

Performance concerns may include, but are not limited to the following:

- Fails to meet generally accepted standards of patient safety, professional conduct, personal integrity, or emotional stability required for professional practice;
- Fails to demonstrate the effective interpersonal skills necessary to perform professional helping relationships;
- Fails to adhere to the ANA Code of Ethics;
- Has been found guilty of criminal misconduct that affects the student's ability to be licensed as a registered nurse (RN) or advanced practice registered nurse (APRN); or
- Displays inappropriate or disruptive behavior toward clients, other students, faculty, or staff, which interferes with professional judgment or jeopardizes the best interest of those to whom the student has a professional responsibility.

Transfer between Majors

It is assumed that students applying for/enrolling in graduate level programs have a higher level of maturity and decision-making ability. The selection of a graduate major should be approached with prayerful deliberation after acquiring the knowledge necessary to make the decision.

The Masters Nursing majors are designed around an accelerated cohort model, intended to foster a group dynamic and support system conducive for adult learning. Continued disruption of this model – as well as the curriculum schedule – inhibits the effectiveness of this design. In addition, the amount of time necessary to create a tailored plan of study for each transfer student adds an excessive amount of work to current faculty and staff.

Students who wish to change majors must submit a change of program request and meet all admission requirements for the requested major. Transfer approval will be subject to review of the student's academic progress, catalog requirements, and availability of space in the requested major. The university cannot guarantee transfer requests will be approved.

Please be advised that any transfer/change in program may impact financial aid. Students will not be eligible for deferment or the 'scheduled break' option under this policy, and may have to begin loan payments until they are re-enrolled in their newly-selected major. In addition, the change may lead to a significant delay in the time it takes to complete MSN degree requirements.

Transfer of Credit Policy

Graduate Credit Transfer Policy

Transfer of credit will be considered for graduate work provided the courses meet institutional requirements and are appropriate for the student's planned and approved program. Any culminating project (e.g., capstone, research, thesis, etc.), clinical, or practicum requirement associated with a graduate program must be taken at Indiana Wesleyan University. The credit must be taken at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). Currently this includes the following accrediting agencies:

- Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing (ACEN)
- Association for Biblical Higher Education (ABHE)
- Association of Advanced Rabbinical and Talmudic Schools (AARTS)
- Association of Theological Schools Commission on Accrediting (ATS)
- Distance Education Accreditation Commission (DEAC)
- Higher Learning Commission (HLC)

- Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE)
- New England Commission of Higher Education (NECHE)
- Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU)
- Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACS-COC)
- Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools (TRACS)
- Western Association of Schools and Colleges – Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges (WASC–ACCJC)
- Western Association of Schools and Colleges – Senior College and University Commission (WASC–SCUC)

Individual academic units may establish higher standards/conditions as is appropriate for their respective disciplines or accrediting bodies. A minimum grade of "C" may be considered for transfer. No more than 30% of the graduate degree may be transferred in from another institution. The learning outcomes must align and have been completed within the past seven years. Minimal conditions governing the transfer of earned graduate credits to other course work include:

- Each PAU shall determine the amount of time acceptable of completed work that is eligible for credit transfer.
- Only graduate courses in which a student has earned a grade of "C" or better may be considered for transfer credit.
- Hours of credit may be transferred, but grades earned in courses taken at another institution do not transfer and are not used in computing the student's graduate GPA at Indiana Wesleyan University.
- When a graduate course is taken at another university on a credit/no credit or pass/fail option, hours of "credit" or "pass" are not accepted as transferable unless approved by the appropriate academic unit.
- For graduate certificate programs, no more than 30% can be transferred into the certificate program.

Credit hours accepted in transfer are recorded as part of the student's official academic record. Once transcripts (and other test scores and academic documents) have been received, IWU is not permitted to release copies of those documents back to the student or any other party. Transfer of credit will be determined by the Dean of the Division of Masters Nursing or designee.

Transcripts from International Institutions

Transcripts from International Institutions may need to be sent to an outside agency for evaluation and determination of transferable credits, degrees, and GPA. If this outside review is necessary, students are responsible for the initiation of this evaluation and for any fees incurred during the process.

Undergraduate and Graduate Credit Crossover Policy

Undergraduate credits from IWU or taken at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), or hold appropriate international accreditation, may be used to fulfill requirements of IWU graduate programs under specified conditions. When permitted by the design of the program, undergraduate credits from upper level courses may be counted toward the requirements of a graduate degree or certificate when the undergraduate course or courses sufficiently accomplish the learning outcomes of a course in the graduate program. The course(s) must have been completed within the past five years and must reflect current knowledge and best practices. No more than 25% of the total credit requirements for the graduate degree or certificate may be completed through undergraduate credits. Undergraduate courses in which a student has earned a "B" or better may be considered for graduate credit. Dual counting of credits requires approval by the appropriate program leader, in consultation with a graduate level content expert, as well as approval by the University Registrar, and Financial Aid Office if applicable. The program leader will make the final decision as to the applicability of the course to fulfill program learning outcomes. Established limitations on the number of credits that may be transferred into the graduate program remain in effect.

Withdrawal/Change in Status

A student who finds it necessary to withdraw from the program or to take a temporary leave of absence is required to contact the Registration Change Counselor in the Office of Student Services to complete this process (registration.change@indwes.edu). Students in an onsite course must request the withdrawal from the Registration Change Counselor before the last class workshop. Students in an online course must request the withdrawal prior to the beginning of the last workshop. Failure to initiate an official withdrawal will result in a "No Credit" or an "F" grade for the student in those related courses.

A student who is temporarily withdrawing may request an individual leave of absence up to 180 days in a 12 month period. A student cannot request more than two leaves during a 12 month period, and the total number of days on leave may not exceed 180 days within a 12 month period. All leaves must be requested through the Office of Student Services.

If a student officially withdraws after a course has started, a grade of "W" will be assigned. A student who violates the attendance policy with the last workshop of a course will receive an "F" for the course.

Administrative withdrawals assigning a grade of "W" will also happen as follows:

- A student who violates the attendance policy prior to the last workshop of a course will be administratively withdrawn from the course.
- A student who never attends a course will be administratively withdrawn from not only that course but all subsequent courses.

Students withdrawing from the first course of a core program must withdraw from the entire program.

Students who are unable to complete a course or who receive an unsatisfactory grade for their specific program will be allowed to repeat that course with another group of students if arrangements are made with the Registration Change Counselor and the Division of Masters Nursing. Tuition and fees will be charged for repeating the course.

Students withdrawing from the first course of a core program must withdraw from the entire program.

If, at a later time the student wishes to re-enter the program, a re-entry form must be submitted to the Office of Student Services. Receipt of the signed application will initiate a review of the student's academic file to determine remaining requirements. A student who was academically suspended from the Masters Nursing program may request by email to the Vice President of Academic Affairs for the School of Nursing for readmission after six months. Students sitting out of a core program for more than 90 days are subject to a tuition increase upon returning. Students re-entering a core program after six months are subject to any changes in curriculum upon returning.

A student may re-enroll in the Division of Masters Nursing a maximum of two times without an appeal. A request for a third re-enrollment must be accompanied by a petition to the Dean of the Division of Masters Nursing. Re-enrollment will be dependent upon the decision of the Division Dean or the SON Student Life Council if the Chair determines a higher level of appeal is required.

Any change in registration may have an impact on the student's financial aid. Students should always check with the financial aid office before initiating a registration change.

Financial - Masters Nursing

Practice Experience Costs

All Indiana Wesleyan University, IWU-National and Global Nursing programs include practicum/clinical/practice experiences that require placement in a clinical facility or with a preceptor. Any cost for clinical placement is the responsibility of the student. The financial obligation incurred to facilitate placement will be subject to the policies in the Financial Information section of the University Catalog.

Financial Policies

Students are advised of financial obligations for their degree seeking (core) program during the registration process. Students are expected to meet these obligations according to the schedule. Any questions regarding payments or problems associated with making those payments should be directed to Student Account Services.

Students who have applied for financial aid are responsible for all tuition and fees in the event it is determined they are ineligible for financial aid, decline the financial aid, or withdraw from the program prior to completing the academic award period. Students receiving military or corporate assistance who have received prior approval from the university for direct billing are required to pay their share of tuition and fees and submit appropriate assistance documents by the assigned due date. The deferral program in no way relieves the student of the financial obligation to the university and the student retains full responsibility for ensuring that all tuition and fees are paid in full and in a timely manner.

Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to suspend students from class attendance for failure to meet financial obligations.

Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to change the tuition and fee schedule at any time. Students who remain registered making satisfactory academic progress shall have their tuition and fees guaranteed. Book fees and embedded resource fees are subject to change throughout a student's program. A $50 late fee is charged each time a payment is received after the due date. There will be a fee charged for any check returned due to non-sufficient funds. If collection of tuition, book charges, and/or fees becomes necessary, all percentage-based costs of collection, court costs, and attorney fees are the responsibility of the student.

Financial Regulations for Individuals Covered by Chapter 31 or Chapter 33

For purposes of this policy, a covered individual is any individual who is entitled to educational assistance under Chapter 31, Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment, or Chapter 33, Post-9/11 benefits.

Any covered individual may enroll in or attend a course of education during the period beginning on the date on which the individual provides a Certificate of Eligibility (COE) for entitlement to educational assistance under chapter 31 or 33 (A "Statement of Benefits" obtained from the Department of Veterans' Affairs (VA) website – eBenefits, or a VA Form 28-1905 for chapter 31 authorization purposes can substitute a Certificate of Eligibility) and ending on the earlier of the following dates:

- The date on which payment from VA is made to Indiana Wesleyan University (IWU)
- 90 days after the date IWU certified tuition and fees following the receipt of the certificate of eligibility

Indiana Wesleyan University will not impose any penalty, including the assessment of late fees, the denial of access to classes, libraries, or other institutional facilities, or the requirement that a covered individual borrow additional funds, on any covered individual because of the individual's inability to meet his or her financial obligations to the institution due to the delayed disbursement of funding from VA under chapter 31 or 33.

IWU requires the following actions on the part of any covered individual:

- Submit the Certificate of Eligibility (COE) for entitlement to educational assistance no later than the first day of the course of education.
- Provide any additional information necessary to the proper certification of enrollment by IWU.
- All standard financial policies apply for any amount not covered by the Certificate of Eligibility (COE) – i.e. charges not covered, or percentage of fees in excess of the COE.

Refund Policy - Degree Programs

For courses consisting of 4-6 workshops:

- If a student requests withdrawal during the first week of the course, all charges are forgiven except books and embedded resources.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 2nd week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 75%.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 3rd week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 50%.
- If the student requests withdrawal after the 3rd week, there is no refund.

For courses consisting of at least 7 workshops:

- If a student requests withdrawal during the first week of the course, all charges are forgiven except books and embedded resources.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 2nd week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 90%.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 3rd week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 75%.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 4th week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 50%.
- If the student requests withdrawal after the 4th week, there is no refund.

For courses that are one week in length, tuition and technology fee are refunded according to the following schedule:

- Withdrawal requested within the first onsite day (2nd day on the course calendar) – 100% tuition and tech fee refund.
- Withdrawal requested after the first onsite day – no tuition or tech fee refund.

Changes to a student's schedule may affect their financial aid. Call the Financial Aid Office for information.

Textbook Returns

Other Fees

Once attendance has been established in a course, any other fees associated with that course (not tuition or technology fee) are non-refundable.

Textbooks Shipped by Tree of Life

Refunds for textbook charges are issued at the sole discretion of Tree of Life, according to their established refund policies. To avoid unnecessary charges, students should return each rental textbook at the completion of each class.

- When a student withdraws from a course, Tree of Life will supply the student with a prepaid label to return related materials as long as the student contacts Tree of Life Customer Support within 14 days of the course start date, ships the item within 5 business days of the contact, and the enrollment files reflect that the customer is no longer enrolled in this course (within 14 days of the start date). Upon receipt of the item, Tree of Life will refund the amount billed for the item minus shipping fees.
- Promptly contact Tree of Life for a Return Authorization for Credit for a course from which you have withdrawn.
- Refunds issued by Tree of Life will be applied as a credit to the student account.

Indiana Wesleyan University is not responsible for issuing refunds for Rentals not Returned, books not received, or books for withdrawn courses. All textbook issues should be immediately addressed with Customer Care at Tree of Life in order to receive the appropriate credit.

Digital items fall outside normal return and refund policies, as publishers have different policies on digital resources. We recommend contacting Customer Support at Tree of Life as soon as possible if you think you will need to return a digital item. If you have been billed for a digital resource, then withdraw before starting the course, please contact Customer Support at Tree of Life immediately upon withdrawal.

Regulations and Policies

In compliance with federal regulations for the student who has received financial aid, any amount due will be returned to the appropriate aid sources.

Students who are unable to complete a course or who receive an unsatisfactory grade for their specific program will be allowed to repeat that course with another group of students if arrangements are made with the Registration Change Counselor. Tuition and fees will be charged for repeating the course.

Decisions regarding refunds are made by Student Account Services, and in isolated cases, by the Financial Appeals Committee.

Indiana Wesleyan University will comply with any state mandated refund policies that govern refunds for students matriculating within the state in question. For a detailed listing of state-specific refund policies, please visit <http://www.indwes.edu/About/Student-Consumer-Information/State-Specific-Refund-Policies>.

Student Account Appeals

A written appeal may be submitted to Student Account Services. If the disputed charge cannot be reconciled with the accounting office, a written appeal can be submitted to studentaccountappeals@indwes.edu with all supporting documentation.

- All pertinent information will be obtained and compiled by the Appeals Committee.
- The disputed charge will be reviewed by the Appeals Committee.
- If necessary, an appeal may be reviewed by the Program Director.
- Appeals must be submitted within 6 months of the last date of attendance for the course in question.

All appeals will receive a response within 15 days after the written appeal has been received.

Financial Aid - Masters Nursing

Types of Student Financial Aid Available

The following types of student financial aid are available to persons enrolled as degree-seeking students who meet the eligibility criteria for the aid type. Complete fund profiles may be found online at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/types-of-aid>.

Nurse Faculty Loan Program (NFLP) - is a loan program administered through the Health Resources and Services Administration to provide loan funds to students enrolled in an eligible advanced degree program in nursing (for IWU students, the Master of Science in Nursing Education and the Doctor of Nursing Practice degree programs) and who intend to teach full-time upon graduation. After graduation, loan recipients may cancel up to 85% of the NFLP loan over a consecutive four-year period while serving as full-time nurse faculty at a school of nursing. Loan funds are given to cover costs of tuition, books, and eligible fees. Funds are limited and are offered on a first come, first served basis. The student must complete an application each year NFLP funds are requested. As the grant requires submission of data to the government on its use, recipients must agree to follow-up information requests for reporting purposes. Students who appear to meet the eligibility requirements will receive information explaining the application process.

William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan – is available to students who file the FAFSA and all other required student financial aid forms and who meet all federal criteria for eligibility. The maximum annual loan amount is $20,500 for graduate students. Lifetime maximum borrowing limit for graduate programs is $138,500 (including undergraduate borrowing). Interest rates are set on July 1 each year and are fixed rates. For July 1, 2020, through June 30, 2021, the interest rate is 4.30% for unsubsidized Federal Direct Loans for graduate students.

A student's total financial assistance, including loans, may not exceed the calculated cost of attendance for the program. Students with unsubsidized loans may elect to make monthly interest payments to the lender or allow the accumulated interest to accrue until repayment, which begins six months after the student ceases to be enrolled as at least a half-time student. Upon graduation or termination of studies, the student is given a six-month grace period during which no interest or principal payments are due on subsidized loans and during which only interest accrues on the unsubsidized loans. The standard minimum monthly payment is $50, but the amount varies based on the total amount of the outstanding loans upon which the student is paying and the type of repayment plan the student has chosen.

Graduate PLUS Federal Direct Loan – is a federal loan with a fixed 5.30% interest rate available to graduate students who have remaining cost of attendance not met by an unsubsidized William D. Ford Federal Direct Loans. This is a credit-based federal loan.

Military Preferred Tuition Discount – is a tuition discount to all active duty military personnel, National Guard, Reserves, retirees, veterans, spouses, surviving spouses, dependents with educational benefits, and DoD employees. Students must submit a discount application, available online at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/Military-Preferred-Tuition-Application-2020-2021>.

Educational Partner Discount – is a tuition discount given to students employed by one of IWU's educational partners. Students must submit a discount application, available from your program representative or by emailing N&Gdiscounts@indwes.edu.

Yellow Ribbon Award – is an award that does not have to be repaid and is available to eligible students who receive Chapter 33 benefits. The amount eligible students receive reflects 50% of the tuition expenses that exceed the highest public in-state undergraduate tuition rate. The VA matches that contribution to fully cover the tuition costs.

General Eligibility Requirements

In order to receive federal and/or state student financial aid, students must meet the following criteria:

- Must have completed the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) including signing all certifying statements.
- Must be a U.S. citizen or eligible noncitizen.
- Must have a valid Social Security number (with the exception of students from the Republic of the Marshall Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, or the Republic of Palau).
- Must be registered with Selective Service, if required.
- Must not be in default on a Title IV loan or owe a Title IV grant or loan overpayment.
- Must not have borrowed in excess of annual or aggregate Title IV loan limits.
- Must certify that they will use Title IV aid only to pay educational costs.
- Must not have enrolled in multiple institutions solely to obtain Title IV credit balance funds to pay expenses not educationally related.
- Must not have a disqualifying drug conviction.
- Must be enrolled as a regular student (cannot be unclassified) in an eligible degree or certificate program.
- Must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) as outlined in IWU's SAP Policy.
- Must show qualification to obtain a college education by having a high school diploma, GED certificate, or a high school education in a homeschool setting approved under state law.
- Must maintain enrollment in classes.

Per federal regulations, incarcerated students are not eligible for federal student financial aid. Incarcerated students or students who become incarcerated after receiving federal student financial aid funds should contact the Financial Aid Office.

How to Apply for Student Financial Aid

Students who wish to be considered for federal and/or state student financial aid must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Links to the application process online are provided at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/apply-for-aid>:

- When completing the FAFSA (direct link is <https://studentaid.gov/h/apply-for-aid/fafsa>) you must list IWU's Title IV Code, 001822, or IWU will not receive your FAFSA information from the federal processor.
- You must disclose any additional funding you will receive from employer reimbursement, vocational rehabilitation, or private scholarships to help pay for your education. To facilitate this requirement, complete the Other Aid Source Disclosure Form.
- If loans are desired, students must complete the Loan Entrance Counseling Session and William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan Master Promissory Note online (direct link is <https://studentaid.gov>). You must have an established Federal Student Aid (FSA) ID and password in order to complete these items. It may be necessary to wait three days from the time you first create your FSA ID before trying to sign in to this website. For each item, you must enter "Indiana" in the School State field even if you attend classes in another state or online.
 - Entrance Counseling Session: Log in using your FSA ID and password. Hover over COMPLETE AID PROCESS in the navigation bar and select Complete Entrance Counseling. Add IWU as a School to Notify and select the appropriate Student Type for your current degree pursuit—undergraduate or graduate.
 - Master Promissory Note: Log in using your FSA ID and password. Hover over COMPLETE AID PROCESS in the navigation bar and select Subsidized/Unsubsidized Loan MPN.
 - The Financial Aid Office's standard practice is to originate federal student loans for the amount of a student's maximum eligibility. If you wish to have a lesser loan amount awarded than your maximum eligibility, complete the Reduced Loan Request form.

Once the above steps have been completed, be certain to:

- Quickly respond to requests for additional information from the Financial Aid Office. You may be asked, as required by federal regulations, to provide items for review in a process called Verification. Some items that may be requested are: a completed Verification Worksheet, a completed and notarized Identity and Statement of Educational Purpose Form, and a signed copy of your Federal Income Tax Return (and your spouse's or parents' as appropriate).
- Fully complete all forms. Forms filled out incorrectly or submitted to the wrong office or location could complicate your approval to begin classes or delay your student financial aid awards package.

How and When Student Financial Aid is Disbursed

Nurse Faculty Loan Program (NFLP) funds are awarded upon receipt of all application materials. The funds are applied as a credit to the IWU student account, generally in one payment per term.

Federal Direct Loans are disbursed as a credit to the IWU student account, generally in one payment per term with that disbursement occurring approximately 10 days after the start of the first class attended in the term.

All other types of aid are awarded and disbursement dates set as the necessary paperwork is received.

Applying for student financial aid does not remove responsibility for payment. If the funding is not received, the student must pay all outstanding balances immediately.

How Eligibility is Determined and Student Financial Aid is Awarded

- An estimated federal awards package typically is available within a week of submitting the FAFSA. In general, award amounts are based on a student's Expected Family Contribution found on the Student Aid Report, a student's enrollment status, the cost of attendance, and other estimated financial assistance. The Financial Aid Office will award a student for his or her maximum eligibility in scholarship, grant, and loan funds unless otherwise instructed in writing. Complete the Reduced Loan Request form to request a loan amount less than the maximum.
- Students must be enrolled at least half-time for the term for federal loan funds to be disbursed. Any changes to planned enrollment may affect the amount and/or disbursement date(s) of aid for which the student may qualify.
- The Financial Aid Office will email notification to the IWU student email account that student financial aid has been awarded and is available for review online via the student portal at <https://myiwu.indwes.edu>. This secure website will indicate the types and amounts of aid for which the student qualifies. To decline all or a portion of the awarded aid, the student must submit a written request to the Financial Aid Office or all awarded aid will disburse to the IWU student account, as appropriate. Complete the Reduced Loan Request form to request a loan amount less than the maximum. The student does not need to contact the Financial Aid Office to accept an awards package.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)

Students are expected to maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress toward the completion of their course of study. This includes:

- Enrolling in and attending class as well as completing assignments and projects.
- Earning at least the minimum GPA required to maintain good academic standing in the student's primary degree or certificate program.
- Earning passing grades in a minimum of 67% of all credit hours attempted.
- For undergraduate students, completing the program within 150% of the credit hours normally required to complete the course of study (e.g., if the program requires 120 credit hours to complete, then the student may attempt no more than 180 credit hours) or, for graduate students, within the maximum time allowed by the academic department to complete the degree.

Academic progress is reviewed after the end of each term/award period. Students who fail to make satisfactory academic progress will be placed onto SAP Warning or Suspension, as appropriate, per the policy requirements. Students with mitigating circumstances (which may include, but is not limited to, death in the family or grave illness of the student or close family member) may appeal termination of federal student financial aid eligibility due to failure to make academic progress by submitting a SAP Appeal Form, written explanation, and supporting documentation to the SAP Appeals Committee through the Financial Aid Office. The entire SAP Policy is available for review online at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/resources>.

Leaves of Absence, Withdrawals, and Return of Funds

A student may request leaves of absence through the Office of Student Services for breaks in attendance 180 days or less in any 12-month period. In the case there is an approved break between classes, a leave of absence will be reported to the lender, but no loan repayment will be required. If additional circumstances arise that prohibit the student from returning to class as scheduled, the student should contact the Financial Aid Office to discuss options. For a break between classes of more than 180 days in any 12-month period, the university is required to report non-enrollment information to the lender, and the student will be required to begin repayment of any student loans (see your loan promissory note for further information).

If a student finds it necessary to withdraw from the program, withdraw from a course or courses without an approved leave of absence, or take leaves of absence that exceed 180 days in a 12-month period, a federal student financial aid Return of Funds calculation will be performed. This calculation determines how much federal student financial aid has been earned and is based on the number of days attended during the term/payment period when the student withdraws. The amount of federal student financial aid funds to be returned by IWU to the funding source is based on the amount of those funds that the Return of Funds calculation determined were not earned by the student.

For courses that use Brightspace (LMS), Indiana Wesleyan will use the student's last date of engagement as the withdrawal date in the Return of Funds calculation. For courses that do not use Brightspace, Indiana Wesleyan will use the later of the notification of the intent to withdraw or the documented LDARA. The official notification of intent to withdrawal will be recorded by the Office of Student Services and may include verbal or written communication. If the withdrawal date falls during a scheduled break within the term, the withdrawal date will refer back to the last date before the scheduled break began. The withdrawal date may never fall within a scheduled break of five days or more.

Due to extenuating circumstances, for students who are unable to officially withdraw, the institution will use the last confirmed date of academic engagement as determined in Brightspace. For courses that do not use Brightspace, faculty will be contacted to determine LDARA.

When a student withdraws, outstanding Title IV credit balances will be placed on hold until the R2T4 calculation has been completed. If a credit balance exists on the student's account after applying any institutional refund policies and the R2T4 calculation, the institution will disburse the credit balance to the student as soon as possible but no later than 14 days from the date the school performed the R2T4 calculation.

The following are examples of the Return of Funds calculations for programs offered in standard terms, nonstandard terms, and nonterm academic calendars:

Standard Term:

- R2T4 calculations will be performed on a payment period basis. The payment period is the term.
- The student begins class on August 30, and the term/payment period runs until December 15.

- The student withdraws from the program on October 4.
- The term/payment period has 103 calendar days in it (not including break periods), and the student completed 36 days which is 35.0% of the payment period.
- The amount of the funds to be returned will be 65.0% of the federal student financial aid funds received.
- The portion of the federal student financial aid funds that the school must return is equal to the lesser of:
 - The institutional charges multiplied by the unearned percentage of your funds, or
 - The entire amount of excess funds

Nonstandard term:

- R2T4 calculations will be performed on a payment period basis. The payment period is the term.
- The student begins class on March 2 and the term/payment period runs until May 24.
- The student withdraws from the program on March 20.
- The term/payment period has 84 calendar days in it (not including break periods) and the student completed 19 days which is 22.6% of the payment period.
- The amount of the funds to be returned will be 77.4% of the federal student financial aid funds received.
- The portion of the federal student financial aid funds that the school must return is equal to the lesser of:
 - The institutional charges multiplied by the unearned percentage of your funds, or
 - The entire amount of excess funds.

Nonterm:

- R2T4 calculations will be performed on a payment period basis.
- The student begins class on June 1 and the term/payment period runs until November 16.
- The student withdraws from the program on September 2.
- The term/payment period has 168 calendar days in it (not including break periods) and the student completed 93 days which is 55.4% of the payment period.
- The amount of the funds to be returned will be 44.6% of the federal student financial aid funds received.
- The portion of the federal student financial aid funds that the school must return is equal to the lesser of:
 - The institutional charges multiplied by the unearned percentage of your funds, or
 - The entire amount of excess funds.

The Financial Aid Office will determine the amount of the return of funds that is owed by IWU and the amount, if any, that is owed by the student. For any loan funds that are owed by the student, the student (or the parent for a Direct PLUS Loan) repays in accordance with the terms of the promissory note (e.g., scheduled payments are to be made to the holder of the loan over a period of time). A letter will be sent to the student indicating the results of the Return of Funds calculation and the amount of the return of funds, if any. The student will earn 100% of the federal student financial aid funds received for the term/payment period if the return of funds calculation shows the student completed 60% or more of the term/payment period. Additionally, state grant awards may be recalculated if the student drops below the minimum amount of credits and/or if tuition and fee charges must be revised as a result of the schedule change.

Funds will be returned to the federal student financial aid programs in the following order: unsubsidized Federal Direct Loan, subsidized Federal Direct Loan, Federal Perkins Loan, Federal Direct PLUS Loans, Federal Pell Grant, Federal SEOG, Federal TEACH Grant and other Title IV grants. The student will have 45 days to contact the Financial Aid Office to make arrangements to repay any federal grants that are owed by the student. Failure to make arrangements or to pay back the federal grants will mean the student is no longer eligible to receive federal student financial aid at any institution until full repayment.

Title IV Funds that the school is required to return must be returned as soon as possible but no later than 45 days after determining the student withdrew.

A post-withdrawal disbursement is a disbursement that occurs after the R2T4 calculation is completed, and it is determined that a student received less federal student aid than the amount earned. The post-withdrawal disbursement of a federal grant for funds earned in excess of outstanding current (educationally related) charges must be made directly to the student within 45 days of the date of determination that the student withdrew. Students and/or parents (in the case of Direct Parent PLUS loans) will be notified in writing of eligibility for a post-withdrawal loan disbursement within 30 days of the date the school determined the student withdrew. Students and/or parents will have 14 days to respond to the post-withdrawal offer. Post-withdrawal disbursements will be applied to outstanding allowable charges on the student account first and any resulting credit balance will be paid to the student and/or parent within 14 days of the disbursement.

The requirements for Title IV program funds when a student withdraws are separate from IWU's refund policy. Therefore, a student may still owe funds to the school to cover unpaid institutional charges. A student who requests the credit balance from his or her IWU student account and then makes registration changes may be required to repay funds to the university and/or to the student financial aid programs.

Student's Rights and Responsibilities

As a student, you have the right to know:

- What financial assistance is available, including information on all federal and state programs.
- The deadlines for submitting application for each of the student financial aid programs available.
- The cost of attending the school's programs and the school's refund policy.
- The criteria used by the institution to select financial aid recipients.
- How the school determines your financial need. This process includes how costs for tuition, fees, books, and living expenses are considered in your budget.
- What resources (such as employer reimbursement, other financial aid, etc.) are considered in the calculation of your need.
- How much of your financial need, as determined by the institution, has been met.
- An explanation of the various programs in your student financial aid package. If you believe you have been treated unfairly, you may request reconsideration of the award that was made to you.
- What portion of the student financial aid you received must be repaid, and what portion is grant aid. If the aid is a loan, you have the right to know the loan interest rate, the total amount that must be repaid, the payback procedures, the length of time you have to repay the loan, and when the repayment is to begin.

As a student, you are responsible to:

- Review and consider all information about the school's program before you enroll.
- Complete all required forms accurately and submit them in a timely manner to the correct address.
- Pay special attention to, and accurately complete, your FAFSA. Errors can result in delay of receipt of your student financial aid funds. Intentional misreporting of information on application forms for federal student financial aid is a violation of law and is considered a criminal offense subject to penalties under the U.S. Criminal Code.
- Return all additional information, verification, corrections, and/or new information requested by either the Financial Aid Office or the FAFSA central processor.
- Read and understand all the forms that you are asked to sign and keep copies of them.
- Accept responsibility for all agreements you sign.
- If you have a loan, notify the lender of changes in your name, address, or school status.
- Know and comply with the deadline for application or reapplication for aid.
- Know and comply with the school's leave of absence or withdrawal policy/procedures.
- Repay student loans in agreement with the loan promissory note.

Services for Students - Masters Nursing

Academic Advising

The purpose of academic advising is to support students from enrollment to completion of degree requirements. Advisors help students understand all degree requirements and options to meet those requirements. Advisors also assist students in understanding policies and procedures, and communicating with departments such as Financial Aid and Accounting.

An academic advising team is assigned to each individual student and advises that student throughout the duration of his or her academic program. Advisors are available to meet one-on-one with students face to face, through email, by phone, or via video conference.

It is important that students maintain contact with their academic advising team in order to ensure timely progression toward degree completion as well as appropriate scheduling for maximum financial aid benefit.

Books and Materials

Indiana Wesleyan University's IWU-National and Global programming has been, in part, designed to serve the needs of busy, working, adult students. With this in mind, the required resource materials for our students are included with the program and are supplied through IWU's chosen supplier and distributor, Tree of Life Bookstores. Some of these required resources are in digital form and can be accessed directly in the learning management system or through a online digital resource library upon individual student registrations. Any non-digital resources will be shipped directly to students prior to each course. For any non-customized print materials that are not part of the first course of a program, students wishing to obtain these specific materials on their own, may contact the Tree of Life Bookstores for further information.

Please note: Any attempted return of materials are subject to policies and procedures as applied by Tree of Life Bookstores. Please contact Tree of Live Bookstores for details related to any possible return of materials.

Should it become necessary for a student to withdraw from a course, any course not completed before the specified time remaining on their access to the digital materials, additional charges may be applied. Hard copy resource materials should be returned immediately, if eligible, to avoid additional charges if/when the course is taken at a later date. If materials are not returned, and/or course is not completed, and course materials change in the time between withdrawal and re-entry, the student will be charged for new materials.

More information can be obtained by contacting Tree of Life Bookstores at 888-392-2930, 765-674-9530 ext. 1, or <http://www.treeoflifebooks.com/customerservices/>.

Chaplaincy Program

Spiritcare, the Chaplaincy Program for IWU National & Global Campus, is a ministry that seeks to care for the spiritual needs of adult students by providing Christ-centered support, resources, and services. This is done primarily through online and onsite classroom visits, structured devotionals, direct emails, and Portal content. The goal is to provide supportive opportunities for the growth of the complete person. On-site and online students have direct contact with a caring pastor shepherd. Spiritcare offers help, hope, and healing for students in crises. Chaplains can provide the

- Confidential and caring support for student and family members as requested.
- Spiritual guidance and prayer support.
- Intervention and support during life crises and emergencies.
- Referrals to Biblical, private counsel and support groups for special needs.
- An opportunity to be referred to a local pastor and a local church congregation for students seeking to grow in their faith.

Students may obtain additional information about the Spiritcare Chaplaincy Program through the student portal at myiwu.indwes.edu/Chaplaincy or by contacting the Office of Student Services at 800-621-8667 ext. 2359.

Library Services

Off Campus Library Services provides both mediated and direct access to resources and services designed specifically for the adult student. The Jackson Library in Marion has thousands of materials via searchable databases, including both print and online journals; streaming media titles; print books and ebooks; and various formats of microform. These are all searchable via the secured Jackson Library databases. Small library collections are available at the Louisville campus, Ohio campuses at Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, and Dayton, as well as the Indiana campuses at Greenwood, Indianapolis (two locations), and Merrillville, and include some reference books and full access to the library catalog and subscription-based journal and book indexes. Remote access is also available to all databases through the university login. Students can get personalized assistance from OCLS librarians at Cincinnati, Cleveland, Indianapolis, Louisville, Marion, and Merrillville campuses. Librarians assist with general paper editing especially as it pertains to use of the writing style of their degree program. OCLS can also help troubleshoot basic word processing and PowerPoint challenges.

The Wesley Seminary student or distance student can contact OCLS via e-mail, 800 telephone, or chat service. Online access to the Library Resource Guide is available from the OCLS Web page; OCLS Tools. All provided services are further described in this document. One on one or group instruction about the services and databases of OCLS or a writing style is available by special appointment.

The library is part of a consortium, Academic Libraries of Indiana, which includes access to most library collections of Indiana higher education institutions. If attending classes in Kentucky or Ohio, the regional OCLS librarian can inform students about opportunities in their area.

Services for Disabled Students

IWU Disability Services

The goal of disability services at Indiana Wesleyan University is to work cooperatively with students to help them reach their maximum academic, social, and personal potential. This is accomplished by integrating legal expectations, Indiana Wesleyan's standards of service, and Christ-like principles. The Director of Accessibility and Accommodations is a trained professional, responsible for determining accommodation eligibility and for coordinating office services for students with disabilities. The director works with the students, faculty, and staff to design and implement a plan of reasonable accommodations that allows for equal access to all areas of university life.

Equal Access

Indiana Wesleyan University is committed to inclusion and equal access of individuals with disabilities. Individuals will not be discriminated against on the basis of disability or be denied equal access and appropriate accommodation to the educational opportunities available at IWU.

"No otherwise qualified person with a disability in the United States shall, solely on the basis of disability, be denied access to, or the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity in any institution receiving federal financial assistance." –Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

Admissions

Admission decisions are made without regard to disabilities. All prospective students are expected to present academic credentials that meet or exceed the minimum requirements for admissions.

Prospective students with disabilities are not required to identify themselves to the Admissions Office or the Director of Accessibility and Accommodations. However, those interested in receiving academic accommodations are encouraged to meet with, or contact, the Director of Accessibility and Accommodations as early as possible to allow for a review of documentation and the formulation of an accommodation plan.

Expectations for Personal and Professional Conduct

Indiana Wesleyan University is a Christian university of higher education that upholds high standards of personal and professional conduct. Such standards include a classroom environment that promotes a positive learning environment and a professional instructional climate.

Students are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner with respect for the rights of both students and faculty. The university or its representatives reserve the right to act in situations where student behavior violates established policy or detracts from the ability of students or faculty to function effectively in the classroom. Such action may include disciplinary procedures issued by the faculty, suspension from the program, or expulsion from the University. (NOTE: All discussion room and live chat postings for online courses are recorded and can be reviewed at the discretion of the university.)

Only regularly enrolled students may attend class unless granted permission by an administrator and arrangements are made with the instructor.

Inclement Weather Procedures

The university is reluctant to postpone or cancel classes because the schedule is already very compressed and it is difficult to schedule make-up classes when needed. In order to make the most informed decisions possible, the university gathers information from the National Weather Service, State Police agencies, and Regional Deans and personnel (when appropriate). Unfortunately, the university cannot make the decision based on an individual student's geographical situation and the driving distance to and from class. Students should be aware, however, that they are expected to use discretion and not to take unreasonable risks. If students choose not to attend class, they should notify their instructor and make appropriate arrangements for make-up work. Decisions to postpone or cancel classes will be announced by the university. Regional locations will be judged by the Regional Deans. In the event it becomes necessary for a Regional Dean to recommend to the Chancellor for IWU-National and Global campus a weather related or emergency closing or postponement for onsite classes, affected faculty and students will make up the missed class session through an online alternative class session.

Instructors will contact students on the date class is cancelled with requirements for making up the cancelled class session through an online alternative.

In the event an onsite class session is cancelled that is deemed significant to the specific program (e.g., program orientation, the first class session of a program, the last class session of a program, etc.), the Regional Dean will petition the appropriate academic leaders to arrange a new date to make up the cancelled class session prior to the next scheduled class session.

To satisfy engagement requirements and earn discussion points (if applicable), all assignments associated with the cancelled class session must be submitted prior to the start of the next scheduled class session.

Postponement decisions for evening classes will be made by approximately 3:00 p.m. on the day of class. Decisions about Saturday classes will be made the evening before, when possible, but may be made during the early morning hours on the Saturday of class if necessary. No notification will be made unless classes are postponed or cancelled; information about postponements and/or cancellations will be announced on the university's Web site at <http://www.indwes.edu>. Announcements will also be posted on the student portal at <http://myIWU.indwes.edu> and on the class information phone line at 1-800-621-8667 ext. 2022.

Student Address/Email Information

Students should notify the Office of Student Services of any change of address, telephone number, or name so that proper records can be maintained. Name change requests require submission of appropriate documentation.

IWU Student Email Accounts - Upon acceptance, students are given an IWU student e-mail account. This is the only account used by IWU for communication with the student. It is extremely important that the student checks this account on a regular basis as important academic and financial information as well as university announcements will be shared in this way.

Programs Offered - Masters Nursing

MSN Degree Programs

The Division of Masters Nursing offers the Master of Science in Nursing degree with majors in Nursing Administration, Nursing Education, and Primary Care Nursing with a specialization in Family Nurse Practitioner or Psychiatric Mental Health Nurse Practitioner. (Nursing Education and Nursing Administration programs are also available to students with an Associate of Science in Nursing through the ASN-MSN program). Also offered are dual degree/major of MSN/MBA Nursing Administration/Business Administration and a joint MSN/MPH Nursing Education/Master of Public Health which awards both an MSN and MPH degrees, and an abbreviated MSN in Nursing Administration for registered nurses who have already earned an MBA.

ASN-MSN

Admission Requirements

Admission to all Masters Nursing majors begins with submission of required application forms, letters of recommendation, and official transcripts of previous college and university studies. Acceptance into any Masters Nursing program will remain valid for a period of 18 months.

To assist in the decision-making process, the Division of Masters Nursing reserves the right to require the applicant to:

- Interview; and/or
- Take the GRE.

Criteria for regular admission are:

- Associate Degree in Nursing from a college or university accredited by an agency recognized by both the ED and CHEA and national nursing programmatic accreditation (CCNE, ACEN, CNEA)
- A grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 from the Associate Degree granting college or university.
- Proof that all nursing licenses – whether current or inactive – are unencumbered. Potential students with encumbered nursing licenses will not be considered eligible for enrollment at Indiana Wesleyan University.
- All applicants must provide three letters of professional reference. References should be from faculty members, professional colleagues, work supervisors, or a pastor who can evaluate the applicant's potential for success in a graduate program. Recommendations from family members are NOT appropriate. These letters should be solicited from professionals who can address the applicant's qualifications for the MSN programs.
- Original transcript from the degree granting institution.
- At least one year of professional practice.
- A criminal history background check (at the student's expense) must be completed before registration for any track of the Masters Nursing program. Letters of acceptance from the Division of Masters Nursing will include instructions for completing the criminal background check. The criminal background check must be completed no earlier than two weeks before the beginning of the first course.

Program Requirements

Progression Policy:

- Successful completion of all undergraduate courses with a minimum grade of "C" and a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0
- Successful completion of all MSN core courses with a minimum grade of "C" and a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0.
- Successful completion of all major specific courses, with a minimum grade of "B" and cumulative GPA of at least 3.0.
- All courses must be completed in lock-step progressions. Failure to do so will result in immediate administrative withdraw.
- Any student found to have falsified clinical/practicum hours will be immediately dismissed and not allowed to re-enter any nursing program at IWU.
- Students must fulfill all requirements as stipulated by practicum sites. Students must be licensed in the state in which they are completing practicum course experiences.

MSN - Nursing Administration

The Master of Science in Nursing Degree - Nursing Administration Major provides a Christian academic environment to prepare students to be world changers. It is designed to develop transformational leaders who are effective stewards of healthcare resources. This is accomplished by developing students through an integrated experience of advanced intellectual challenge, evidence-based professional growth, and maturation of servant leadership. Graduates will be prepared to assume leadership roles within a variety of healthcare settings.

Upon completion of the program, the graduate should be able to:

- Integrate transformational and servant leadership concepts into the role of a nurse administrator.
- Create an evidence-based approach to healthcare management and leadership.
- Utilize effective stewardship of human and financial resources in healthcare administration.
- Design effective, efficient, and innovative healthcare systems.

Admission Requirements

Admission to all Masters Nursing majors begins with submission of required application forms, letters of recommendation, and official transcripts of previous college and university studies. Acceptance into any Masters Nursing program will remain valid for a period of 18 months.

- Proof that all nursing licenses – whether current or inactive – are unencumbered. Potential students with encumbered nursing licenses will not be considered eligible for enrollment at Indiana Wesleyan University.
- All applicants must provide three letters of professional reference. References should be from faculty members, professional colleagues, work supervisors or a pastor who can evaluate the applicant's potential for success in a graduate program. Recommendations from family members are NOT appropriate. These letters should be solicited from professionals who can address the applicant's qualifications for the MSN or doctoral programs.
- Original transcript from the undergraduate degree granting institution and institution where graduate courses have been taken.
- A criminal history background check (at the student's expense) must be completed before registration for any track of the Masters Nursing program. Letters of acceptance from the Division of Masters Nursing will include instructions for completing the criminal background check. The criminal background check must be completed no earlier than two weeks before the beginning of the first course.

To assist in the decision-making process, the Division of Masters Nursing reserves the right to require the applicant to:

- Interview; and/or
- Take the GRE.

Criteria for regular admission are:

- B.S.N. or B.S. degree with a major in nursing from a college or university accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). Registered Nurse applicants who have a non-nursing bachelor's degree and a minimum of ten years of recent experience in nursing practice may also be considered for admission by Portfolio. These candidates may submit a Portfolio which includes a current CV/resume including evidence of accomplishments in nursing based on The Essentials of Baccalaureate Education for Professional Nursing Practice

- Undergraduate grade-point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale from the baccalaureate degree granting institution at which at least a minimum of 30 hours was completed.

Or

- Graduate grade-point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale from a college or university accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) where at least 9 credit were completed.

Criteria for conditional admission are:

Applicants who do not meet the GPA listed in the criteria for regular admission and have at least a 2.75 undergraduate GPA may be conditionally admitted and allowed to take 9- credit hours of masters nursing courses to establish a graduate GPA.

- Students who have earned a 3.0 GPA by the completion of 9-credit hours in master nursing courses, will meet the criteria for regular admission.
- An unsatisfactory grade (C- or lower in any GNUR course) while conditionally admitted will result in administrative withdrawal from the program and denial of regular admission.
- Students who do not earn a 3.0 GPA by the completion of 9-credit hours in master nursing courses will be denied regular admission.

Program Requirements

- All courses must be successfully completed in the sequence prescribed by the program's requirements. Failure to successfully complete a course will result in an administrative withdrawal from the program.
- Any student found to have falsified clinical/practicum hours will be immediately dismissed and not allowed to re-enter any Masters Nursing program at IWU.
- Students must meet all practicum agency requirements.
- Nursing Administration students may be required to provide health clearance and proof of immunization.
- Students who maintain continuous enrollment, who make normal progress toward a degree, and who earn their degree within the major program's maximum time from the date of enrollment may meet the graduation requirements as stated in the catalog under which they enrolled.
- Students must maintain an RN license that is active and unencumbered at all times during enrollment in the program. Students must have a valid unencumbered RN license in the state(s) of the practicum sites. If students have multiple state licenses, all must be unencumbered. It is the student's responsibility to notify the School of Nursing if the status of his or her RN license changes. Students will be administratively withdrawn from the program at any point if this status is not maintained.
- Students must meet all practicum agency requirements.

Graduation Requirements

To graduate, students must meet the following requirements:

- Satisfactory completion of all core, major, and clinical requirements for the specific program.
- Minimum grade of "C" in each core (GNUR prefix) course and "B" in each major (NRA prefix) course.
- Cumulative GPA of 3.00.
- The MSN degree programs must be completed within a maximum of four years from the date of enrollment.
- Payment of all tuition and fees is required to receive a diploma.

MSN - Nursing Education

The Nursing Education major is designed to provide a solid theoretical foundation in the art and principles of effective education. It includes a student teaching component as well as courses in curriculum design, adult education and program evaluation. Graduates will become part of the solution to the current nursing shortage as they take jobs in schools and divisions of nursing. However, they will also be prepared to take on educational leadership positions within hospitals, communities and other areas where their skills are needed.

Upon completion of the program, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate successful integration of knowledge to function in the nurse educator role.
- Use an evidence based approach to guide professional practice as a nurse educator.
- Apply stewardship principles to resources in the educational environment.
- Evaluate nursing curricula for scope and effectiveness in preparing nurses to meet local and global needs.
- Apply a biblical worldview to academic decision making as a nurse educator.

MSN - Primary Care Nursing (Family Nurse Practitioner)

The Master of Science in Nursing degree with a major in Primary Care Nursing and a specialization in Family Nurse Practitioner prepares registered nurses as Family Nurse Practitioners (FNP). The focus of Primary Care is the interrelationship of theory, research, and evidence-based practice. Opportunities for development of critical thinking and clinical problem-solving skills are provided throughout the program. Graduates of the program are eligible to apply for family nurse practitioner certification by the appropriate credentialing body.

The Primary Care Nursing (FNP) program at Indiana Wesleyan University is committed to transforming students to be world changers through an integrated experience of advanced intellectual challenge, evidence-based professional growth, and servant leadership development.

Upon completion of the program, students will be able to:

- Provide primary care to diverse populations across the lifespan.
- Initiate an evidence-based approach to improve primary care practice.
- Collaborate with multiple professions to provide care for individuals, families, and communities with complex health needs.
- Integrate a Christian perspective in providing primary care.
- Influence healthcare policy, organization, and finance in primary care practice.

Admission Requirements

Admission to all Masters Nursing majors begins with submission of required application forms, letters of recommendation, and official transcripts of previous college and university studies. Acceptance into any Masters Nursing program will remain valid for a period of 18 months.

MSN/MBA - Dual Degree (Nursing Administration/Business Administration)

The MSN/MBA is a dual degree resulting in Master of Science in Nursing (with a major in Nursing Administration) and a Master of Business Administration. This degree is designed to meet the worldwide need for principle centered nursing leaders with strong fiscal knowledge and skill. The 60-credit hours include 30 credits from Nursing and 30 credits coming from Business.

This major is designed to develop transformational leaders with strong fiscal knowledge and skill who are effective stewards of health care resources. This is accomplished by developing students through an integrated experience of advanced intellectual challenge, evidence-based professional growth, and maturation of servant leadership. Graduates will be prepared to assume leadership roles within a variety of healthcare settings.

Upon completion of the program, the graduate should be able to:

- Integrate transformational and servant leadership concepts into the role of a nurse administrator.
- Create an evidence-based approach to healthcare management and leadership.
- Utilize effective stewardship of human and financial resources in healthcare administration.
- Integrate nursing and business skills to create effective, efficient, and innovative healthcare systems.
- Design operational and strategic plans for healthcare systems based on sound finance, accounting, and economic principles.

Admission Requirements

Admission to all Masters Nursing majors begins with submission of required application forms, letters of recommendation, and official transcripts of previous college and university studies. Acceptance into any Masters Nursing program will remain valid for a period of 18 months.

- Proof that all nursing licenses – whether current or inactive – are unencumbered. Potential students with encumbered nursing licenses will not be considered eligible for enrollment at Indiana Wesleyan University.
- All applicants must provide three letters of professional reference. References should be from faculty members, professional colleagues, work supervisors or a pastor who can evaluate the applicant's potential for success in a graduate program. Recommendations from family members are NOT appropriate. These letters should be solicited from professionals who can address the applicant's qualifications for the MSN or doctoral programs.
- Original transcript from the undergraduate degree granting institution and institution where graduate courses have been taken.
- A criminal history background check (at the student's expense) must be completed before registration for any track of the Masters Nursing program. Letters of acceptance from the Division of Masters Nursing will include instructions for completing the criminal background check. The criminal background check must be completed no earlier than two weeks before the beginning of the first course.

To assist in the decision-making process, the Division of Masters Nursing reserves the right to require the applicant to:

- Interview; and/or
- Take the GRE.

Criteria for regular admission are:

- B.S.N. or B.S. degree with a major in nursing from a college or university accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). Registered Nurse applicants who have a non-nursing bachelor's degree and a minimum of ten years of recent experience in nursing practice may also be considered for admission by Portfolio. These candidates may submit a Portfolio which includes a current CV/resume including evidence of accomplishments in nursing based on The Essentials of Baccalaureate Education for Professional Nursing Practice
- Undergraduate grade-point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale from the baccalaureate degree granting institution at which at least a minimum of 30 hours was completed.
- For MSN and Nursing Education and Nursing Administration tracks a 3.0 on a 4.0 scale.
- For Nurse Practitioner's tracks a 3.25 on a 4.0 scale.

Or

- Graduate grade-point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale from a college or university accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) where at least 9 credit were completed.

Criteria for conditional admission are:

Applicants who do not meet the GPA listed in the criteria for regular admission and have at least a 2.75 undergraduate GPA may be conditionally admitted and allowed to take 9- credit hours of masters nursing courses to establish a graduate GPA.

- Students who have earned a 3.0 GPA by the completion of 9-credit hours in master nursing courses, will meet the criteria for regular admission.
- An unsatisfactory grade (C- or lower in any GNUR course) while conditionally admitted will result in administrative withdrawal from the program and denial of regular admission.
- Students who do not earn a 3.0 GPA by the completion of 9-credit hours in master nursing courses will be denied regular admission.

Program Requirements

- All courses must be successfully completed in the sequence prescribed by the program's requirements. Failure to successfully complete any Nursing course will result in an administrative withdrawal from the program.
- Any student found to have falsified clinical/practicum hours will be immediately dismissed and not allowed to re-enter any Masters Nursing program at IWU.
- Students must meet all practicum agency requirements.
- Students who maintain continuous enrollment, who make normal progress toward a degree, and who earn their degree within the major program's maximum time from the date of enrollment may meet the graduation requirements as stated in the catalog under which they enrolled.
- Students must maintain an RN license that is active and unencumbered at all times during enrollment in the program. Students must have a valid unencumbered RN license in the state(s) of the practicum sites. If students have multiple state licenses, all must be unencumbered. It is the student's responsibility to notify the School of Nursing if the status of his or her RN license changes. Students will be administratively withdrawn from the program at any point if this status is not maintained.

Graduation Requirements

To graduate, students must meet the following requirements:

- All Business courses must be completed with a grade of "C" or higher.
- GNUR-501, GNUR-510, and GNUR-530 must be completed with a grade of "C" or higher.
- NRA-513, NRA-671, NRA-672, NRA-673, NRA-675, NRA-676, NRA-678, and NRA-693 must be completed with a grade of "B" or higher.
- Cumulative GPA of 3.0.
- The dual MSN/MBA degree program must be completed within a maximum of five years from the date of enrollment.
- Payment of all tuition and fees is required to receive a diploma.

Dual Degree (MSN/MBA) - Program of Study

All courses must be completed with a satisfactory grade in order to continue in the program.

MSN/MPH - Dual Degree (Master of Science in Nursing/Master of Public Health)

The Master of Science in Nursing/Master of Public Health (MSN/MPH) joint program resulting in dual degrees offers the bachelors-prepared nurse an opportunity to gain both advanced skills in nursing and public health. By pursuing the MSN along with the MPH, students are prepared to work in leadership roles in healthcare agencies addressing population health matters in various local, national, and global settings. The MSN/MPH joint degree equips graduates with an advanced mastery of nursing theory and practice, with public health knowledge and skills to work in population-based scenarios and an interprofessional team perspective.

Upon completion of the program, the graduate should be able to:

- Demonstrate the successful integration of knowledge to function in the nurse educator role.
- Synthesize evidence-based knowledge of social, biological, and environmental determinants to address disease and health conditions.
- Employ appropriate methods of design, analysis, and synthesis to address population-based health problems in urban, rural, and global environments.
- Promote diversity and cultural understanding in public health education, evaluation, research, and practice.
- Exhibit effective interprofessional leadership for building partnerships, advocating for public health policy, planning community interventions, and promoting financial stewardship.
- Evaluate curricula for scope and effectiveness in preparing nurses to meet local and global health needs.
- Apply a Christian worldview to various nursing education and public health settings.

Admission Requirements

Admission to the MSN/MPH program begins with the submission of required application forms, recommendations, and official transcripts of previous college and university studies.

Criteria for regular admission are:

- Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Nursing from a college or university accredited by an agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) and national nursing programmatic accreditation (CCNE, ACEN, CNEA) -OR- Registered Nurses (RNs) who have a baccalaureate degree in a discipline other than nursing may also apply by meeting the following additional criteria:
 - A minimum of 10 years of experience in nursing practice.
 - Submit a portfolio with evidence of accomplishments in nursing based on The Essentials of Baccalaureate Education for Professional Nursing Practice. There will be a $200 (non-refundable) portfolio review fee.
- Undergraduate grade point average (GPA) of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale from the baccalaureate degree-granting institution at which a minimum of 30 credit hours was completed -OR- graduate-level grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale from an accredited program where at least nine credit hours were completed.

GPA for conditional admission are:

Applicants who do not meet the GPA listed in the criteria for regular admission and have at least a 2.75 undergraduate GPA may be conditionally admitted and allowed to take the first three courses to establish a graduate GPA.

- Students who have earned a 3.0 GPA by the completion of the first three credit-bearing courses of the joint degree program, will meet the criteria for regular admission.
- An unsatisfactory grade (C- or lower in any GNUR course) while conditionally admitted will result in administrative withdrawal from the program and denial of regular admission.
- Students who do not earn a 3.0 GPA by the completion of the first three credit-bearing courses will be denied regular admission.

Proof that all nursing licenses, whether current or inactive, are unencumbered. Potential students with encumbered nursing licenses will not be considered eligible for enrollment with Indiana Wesleyan University's nursing program.

- Three letters of professional reference from faculty members, professional colleagues, work supervisors, or a pastor who can evaluate the applicant's potential for success in a graduate program. Recommendations from family members are NOT appropriate.
- Original transcript from the undergraduate degree-granting institution and institution where graduate courses have been taken.
- A criminal history background check will be conducted on all applicants upon admission to the program, at the student's expense.
- Students who do not speak English as their first and primary language must submit satisfactory scores from one of the following prior to admission to the university:
 - Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). For graduate students, a score of at least 550 (paper-based), 213 (computer-based), or 79 (internet-based) is required for regular academic admission.
 - International English Language Testing System (IELTS). For undergraduate students, a score of at least 6.0 is required; for graduate students, a score of at least 6.5 is required; for doctoral students, a score of at least 7.0 is required for regular admission.
- A video conference interview; applicants to the MSN/MPH joint degree must participate in an interview with program faculty. The conference will provide the opportunity for the student to ask questions regarding the joint degree program expectations.

NOTE: Students in any nursing major may be required to undergo drug testing in order to successfully complete practicum requirements.

Graduate Credit Transfer Policy

Transfer of credit will be considered for graduate work provided the courses meet institutional requirements and are appropriate for the student's planned and approved program. Any culminating project (e.g., capstone, research, thesis, etc.), clinical, or practicum requirement associated with a graduate program must be taken at Indiana Wesleyan University. The credit must be taken at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). Individual academic units (MSN & MPH) may establish higher standards/conditions as is appropriate for their respective disciplines or accrediting bodies. A minimum grade of "B" may be considered for transfer. No more than 30% of the graduate degree may be transferred in from another institution. The learning outcomes must align and have been completed within the past seven years. Minimal conditions governing the transfer of earned graduate credits to other course work include:

- MSN & MPH will determine the amount of time acceptable of completed work that is eligible for credit transfer.
- Only graduate courses in which a student has earned a grade of "B" or better may be considered for transfer credit.
- Hours of credit may be transferred, but grades earned in courses taken at another institution do not transfer and are not used in computing the student's graduate GPA at Indiana Wesleyan University.
- When a graduate course is taken at another university on a credit/no credit or pass/fail option, hours of "credit" or "pass" are not accepted as transferable unless approved by the School of Nursing and School of Health Sciences.

Credit hours accepted in transfer are recorded as part of the student's official academic record. Once transcripts (and other test scores and academic documents) have been received, IWU is not permitted to release copies of those documents back to the student or any other party. Transfer of credit will be determined by the program officials of the MSN and MPH divisions or designee.

Transcripts from International Institutions

Transcripts from International Institutions may need to be sent to an outside agency for evaluation and determination of transferable credits, degrees, and GPA. If this outside review is necessary, students are responsible for the initiation of this evaluation and for any fees incurred during the process.

Undergraduate and Graduate Credit Crossover Policy

Undergraduate credits from IWU or taken at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), or hold appropriate international accreditation, may be used to fulfill requirements of IWU graduate programs under specified conditions. When permitted by the design of the program, undergraduate credits from upper-level courses may be counted toward the requirements of a graduate degree or certificate when the undergraduate course or courses sufficiently accomplish the learning outcomes of a course in the graduate program. The course(s) must have been completed within the past five years and must reflect current knowledge and best practices. No more than 25% of the total credit requirements for the graduate degree or certificate may be completed through undergraduate credits. Undergraduate courses in which a student has earned a "B" or better may be considered for graduate credit. Dual counting of credits requires approval by the appropriate program leader, in consultation with a graduate level content expert, as well as approval by the University Registrar, and Financial Aid Office if applicable. The program leader will make the final decision as to the applicability of the course to fulfill program learning outcomes. Established limitations on the number of credits that may be transferred into the graduate program remain in effect.

Graduate-level credits from IWU or taken at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), or hold an appropriate international accreditation, may be used to fulfill requirements of IWU undergraduate programs under specified conditions. When permitted by the design of the program, graduate credits may be counted toward the requirements of an undergraduate degree or certificate when the graduate course or courses sufficiently accomplish the learning outcomes of a course in the undergraduate program. The course(s) must have been completed within the past five years and must reflect current knowledge and best practices. No more than 25% of the total credit requirements for the undergraduate major, minor, or certificate may be completed through graduate credits. Though exceptions may be approved by program directors, graduate courses in which a student has earned a "B" or better may be considered for undergraduate credit. Dual counting of credits requires approval by the appropriate program leader, in consultation with a graduate level content expert, as well as approval by the University Registrar, and Financial Aid Office if applicable. The program leader will make the final decision as to the applicability of the course to fulfill program learning outcomes. Established limitations on the number of credits that may be transferred into the undergraduate program remain in effect.

Program Requirements

- All courses must be successfully completed in the sequence prescribed by the program's requirements. Failure to successfully complete a course will result in an administrative withdrawal from the program.
- Students must maintain a GPA of 3.0 or higher and a minimum grade of "C" in each core (GNUR) course, "B" in each MSN major course, and a minimum of a "B-" in each MPH course.

- Students must meet all practicum courses requirements as they offer students the opportunity to develop and integrate the knowledge and skills necessary for evidence-based advanced practice.
- Students must meet all practicum agency requirements. Students may be required to provide health clearance and proof of immunization prior to starting practicum experiences. If required by the facility, the cost for placement is the responsibility of the student.
- Students must maintain an RN license that is active and unencumbered at all times during enrollment in the program. Students must have a valid unencumbered RN license in the state(s) of the practicum sites. If students have multiple state licenses, all must be unencumbered. It is the student's responsibility to notify the School of Nursing if the status of his or her RN license changes. Students will be administratively withdrawn from the program at any point if this status is not maintained.
- Any student found to have falsified clinical/practicum hours will be immediately dismissed and not allowed to re-enter any Nursing program or the MPH at IWU.
- Students who maintain continuous enrollment in the MSN/MPH joint program, who make normal progress toward the MSN and MPH degrees, and who earn their degrees within the program's maximum time from the date of enrollment may meet the graduation requirements as stated in the catalog under which they enrolled.

Graduation Requirements

To graduate, MSN/MPH joint program degree students must have completed the following:

- All credits required in the course of studies with a minimum GPA of 3.0.
- Minimum grade of "C" in each core (GNUR) course, "B" in each MSN major course, and a minimum of a "B-" in each MPH course.
- Satisfactory fulfillment of all practicum requirements, including 235 hours of supervised practicum hours.
- Program must be completed within five (5) years.
- Payment of all tuition and fees is required to receive a diploma.

Dual Degree (MSN/MPH) - Program of Study

All courses must be completed with a satisfactory grade in order to continue in the program.

Post Master's Degree Certificate Programs

The School of Nursing offers certificate programs in Nursing Administration, Nursing Education, Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP), and Psychiatric Mental Health Nurse Practitioner (PMHNP) for students who have a Master's degree in Nursing from a regionally accredited university with national nursing accreditation (CCNE, ACEN).

Post Masters Certificate - Nursing Administration

Upon completion of this program, students should be able to:

- Integrate transformational and servant leadership concepts into the role of a nurse administrator.
- Create an evidence-based approach to health care management and leadership.
- Utilize effective stewardship of human and financial resources in health care administration.
- Design effective, efficient, and innovative health care systems.

Admission Requirements

An individual with a Masters or Doctoral degree in Nursing from a college or university accredited by an agency recognized by both the ED and CHEA and national nursing programmatic accreditation (CCNE, ACEN, CNEA):

- May apply to complete a post graduate certificate in a Masters Nursing major for which they do not already hold a degree.
- Must meet Masters Nursing admission requirements (p. 631) for the major program.
- Must submit an official transcript showing completion of a masters or doctoral degree in Nursing.

To assist in the decision-making process, the Division of Masters Nursing reserves the right to require the applicant to:

- Interview; and/or
- Take the GRE.

Acceptance into any Masters Nursing program will remain valid for a period of 18 months.

Program Requirements

- Students must maintain an RN license that is active and unencumbered at all times during enrollment in the program. Students must have a valid unencumbered RN license in the state(s) of the practicum sites. If students have multiple state licenses, all must be unencumbered. It is the student's responsibility to notify the School of Nursing if the status of his or her RN license changes. Students will be administratively withdrawn from the program at any point if this status is not maintained.
- Students must meet all practicum agency requirements.

Completion Requirements

To complete the Post-master's certificates, students show evidence of the following:

- Successful completion of the specific curriculum as described below.
- Cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above in all graduate work and a minimum grade of "B" in each course.
- Payment of all tuition and fees is required to receive a certificate.

Division of Doctoral Nursing

Doctorate of Nursing Practice graduates are prepared to lead healthcare organizational and nursing practice at the highest level.

Graduates of DNP programs will be able to:

- Apply principles of organizational leadership for evidence based quality improvement and systems thinking.
- Influence healthcare practice at local, state, and/or federal levels.
- Integrate character, scholarship, and leadership principles into the doctoral level of nursing practice.
- Apply principles and attitudes of cultural competence to advanced global nursing leadership.

Policies and Regulations - Doctoral Nursing

The right is reserved to change any of the rules and regulations of the university at any time, including those relating to admission, instruction, and graduation. The right to withdraw curricula and specific courses, alter course content, change the calendar, and to impose or increase fees similarly is reserved. All such changes are effective at such times as the proper authorities determine and may apply not only to prospective students but also to those already enrolled in the university.

Academic Information

Academic Calendar - DNP courses are offered under the semester credit hour system but in a non-traditional academic calendar. Each major consists of required courses which are taught in an accelerated, modular format, and taken sequentially. All online classes meet in an asynchronous environment.

Catalog Governing Graduation - Students must meet the graduation requirements as stated in the university catalog under which they enrolled. Students who maintain continuous enrollment, who make normal progress toward a degree, and who earn their degree within the maximum number of years from the date of enrollment may meet the graduation requirements as stated in the catalog under which they enrolled. Students who withdraw from Indiana Wesleyan University for more than six months will meet the graduation requirements as stated in the catalog under which they resume enrollment. Students changing majors or programs must meet requirements as stated in the catalog that is current at the time they make such changes. The same holds true for students moving between schools and colleges. Students may at any time change from an earlier catalog to a subsequent current catalog, but must meet all requirements for graduation of that catalog. Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to modify the curriculum as necessary.

Core Requirements - The integrity of the IWU-National and Global programs requires that the core courses be met at Indiana Wesleyan University. Students are required to complete the first course (or the first block of courses) in the core program with a passing grade in order to maintain enrollment. In general, no waivers are allowed for courses taken at other colleges/universities.

Final class dates as established by the calendar will be the final date for completion of the core curriculum.

Admission

Admission decisions are made without regard to disabilities. All prospective students are expected to present academic credentials that meet or exceed the minimum requirements for admissions. Prospective students with disabilities are not required to identify themselves to Admissions or Disability Services. However, those interested in receiving academic accommodations are encouraged to connect with Disability Services at 765-677-2257 or ADARquest@indwes.edu as early as possible to allow for a review of documentation and the formulation of an accommodation plan.

See each section for admission requirements specific to the doctoral programs.

Alcohol, Illegal Drugs, and Firearms

Alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, and firearms are not permitted on Indiana Wesleyan University premises, including rented classrooms and any building or parts of buildings owned or operated by Indiana Wesleyan University. Refusal to comply may result in dismissal from the university.

Satisfactory Academic Progress and Academic Standing

Students enrolled in a SON National & Global program are regarded as members of the academic community of Indiana Wesleyan University. Students are responsible for conforming to the standards of conduct for adult learners. Continued enrollment in the program is subject at all times to review of the student's academic record and actions with regard to observance of university policies and regulations. Policies and regulations can be found in the IWU catalog and the School of Nursing Student Handbook.

Probationary Status - Students enrolled in the DNP program will be placed on probation if their GPA falls below 3.25.

Students on probation are given the opportunity to raise their GPA by the completion of two consecutive courses or six consecutive credit hours, whichever is greater. The GPA is reviewed after the set timeframe, and if it has been successfully raised, the probationary status is removed. Academic suspension will result if the student's GPA is not successfully raised.

Academic Suspension - Academic suspension will result if:

- A student fails to remove the academic probationary status within the probation period.
- A student with more than one incomplete on record is subject to academic suspension.

In all cases, the suspension will occur once the grades have been recorded in the Registrar's Office. Students will be notified of the academic suspension in writing. Application for readmission may be made after six months. The application must be made in writing to the Vice President of Academic Affairs for the School of Nursing.

Academic Dismissal

- Upon a second academic suspension in the same program, students will be dismissed and are not eligible to reapply to Indiana Wesleyan University.
- Upon a second unsatisfactory grade, students will be academically dismissed and ineligible to reapply for admission into the DNP program.
- Students dismissed due to academic dishonesty are ineligible for readmission to the program.
- Students who fail to complete the program within four years for the DNP program or six years for the BSN to DNP programs will be administratively withdrawn.

Attendance Policy

The doctoral program is a blend of onsite residencies and interactive online workshops. Students are required to attend all onsite residencies and course workshops, and substantively engage in all required learning activities.

- Residency Attendance - Residency requirements for the doctoral program are satisfied by attending three onsite sessions on the Marion, Indiana campus. Students are expected to attend throughout the residency and are not allowed an absence from required workshops, events, or class sessions that are scheduled during that time. If a student needs to withdraw from a residency, and the withdrawal date is after fees have been spent (DNP-801, DNP-803, DNP-805), residency fees are non-refundable. Students are expected to follow the community lifestyle statement of the university while on campus. This includes refraining from the use of alcohol, tobacco, illegal drugs, use of firearms, and unethical or illegal activities. Residency dates will be posted in advance. Transportation to and from campus is at the student's expense.

- Residency I – Orientation to the DNP Program and DNP Project requirements
- Residency II – DNP Project proposal presentation
- Residency III –DNP Project presentation
- Online Attendance - Attendance is determined by activity during a workshop. A student is reported absent for a workshop if there is not at least one assignment submission. A student may be allowed one online absence per course.
- Excessive Absences - If a student exceeds the allowed absences and does not contact the Office of Student Services to officially withdraw before the first day of the last workshop, the professor is directed to issue the grade of "F" and the student will be withdrawn from the program.
- Leave of Absence - Students are expected to take courses in the predetermined sequence. Students who are unable to participate in a course due to unavoidable circumstances must arrange for a temporary leave of absence with the Office of Student Services prior to the beginning of the course and/or block. Students who withdraw while in a course may do so with permission of the Dean of SON Doctoral Programs or designated academic leader and by arrangement with the Office of Student Services prior to the start of the first day of the last workshop of the course. Refund and academic withdrawal policies apply.

Grading and Evaluation

A letter grade is used in evaluating the work for a course. For the purpose of determining scholastic standing and awarding honors, grade points are granted according to the letter grades and semester hours of credit. The grade point average (GPA) is the number of quality points earned at IWU divided by the number of credit hours attempted at IWU.

Grade	Quality Points (per credit)
A	4.0
A-	3.7
B+	3.3
B	3.0
B-	2.7
C+	2.3
C	2.0
C-	1.7
D+	1.3
D	1.0
F	.0

The following grades are not figured into the GPA:

W
CR
AU

Repeated Courses - By university policy, a student may repeat once any course in which a grade below "C" ("C-," "D+," "D," or "F") was previously earned. Some specific graduate level courses are identified as repeatable and can be repeated if a student earns a grade higher than "C" but below the level required for that specific course. Unless otherwise noted a course may be repeated once. However, the passing grade for DNP students is a “B” and thus students may repeat once any course in which a grade lower than a B (B-, C+, etc) was earned.

Whenever a course is repeated, the last grade and credits earned replace the previous grade in computing the student’s grade point average (GPA). All entries, however, remain a part of the student’s permanent academic record. Duplicate credit hours are not given for two or more passing efforts. A course taken in a classroom/online format may not be repeated for a grade through independent learning/study.

Since a course may be repeated once, failure to achieve a satisfactory grade in a course after two attempts will result in academic suspension and ineligibility to complete the major in which the course was repeated.

Incomplete Grades - Students are expected to complete the course requirements by the last class session. There may be instances when crisis circumstances or events prevent the student from completing the course requirements in a timely manner. In these rare situations, a grade of “I” (incomplete) may be issued after completing the following process:

- The student must request an “I” from the instructor via email.
- The student must have completed at least 75% of the coursework.
- The instructor must obtain approval via email from the Program Leader.

A grade of "incomplete" may be granted only for extenuating circumstances. The length of time a student has to complete and submit the requirements to the faculty is determined by the faculty member for the course and may not exceed 10 weeks. If, at the end of the extension, the student has failed to complete the course requirements, the faculty will enter the grade the student earned. An incomplete cannot be issued if the student fails to meet the attendance requirements.

Grade Reports - At the end of each course, the instructor submits grades for each student. Grade reports are available online to the student and indicate courses taken, credits received, and grades assigned.

Transcripts - The student’s official transcript is prepared by the Indiana Wesleyan University Registrar's Office and will show the course, grade, credit, and dates of instruction for each course. Transcripts will include undergraduate and graduate work with the GPA divided into undergraduate and graduate calculations. Requests for transcripts of coursework at Indiana Wesleyan University must conform with the Privacy Act of 1974, which requires that all transcript requests be submitted in writing and signed by the student, for protection of the student's confidentiality. A transcript is official only when it bears the university seal.

It is university policy not to release a transcript if the student has any financial holds on their record or if he or she is delinquent on any loan received through Indiana Wesleyan University. A $5 fee is charged for each transcript, with an additional $2.50 Parchment ordering fee. Payment must be provided, along with a complete address to which the transcript is to be delivered. Please provide a current address if request is to be sent to student's home. Transcript requests can be accessed by visiting <http://www.indwes.edu/Academics/Registrar/Transcript> and submitting the request through the ordering service.

Graduation

Graduation Ceremonies - IWU graduation ceremonies are held two times a year. Degrees are conferred and posted to the student's transcript on these dates. Four additional conferral dates are available in between the graduation ceremonies in which degrees may be conferred and posted to the student’s transcript should all requirements be completed. Eligible students are notified by the Office of Student Services of procedures and requirements concerning graduation.

Each student must complete an “Application for Graduation” provided by the Office of Student Services. This application indicates the student’s intent to graduate and initiates the final evaluation of the student’s academic record.

Students are also asked to inform the university as to whether they will be attending the ceremony. This allows the university to determine the number of tickets available for students who are attending. If a student cannot attend graduation due to unforeseen circumstances, the degree is still conferred; however, attendance at a future graduation is not an option.

Graduation Requirements - All requirements must be met and transcribed by the date established by the Office of Student Services prior to the degree conferral date. Students taking internal or external coursework need to make sure that transcripts, grades, and scores can be received and transcribed by the deadline date.

Students may receive one degree only per commencement. Students meeting requirements for more than one degree must apply for and participate in two different ceremonies. Any university-approved dual degree program is an exception to this policy.

Students who have received a degree from IWU and have returned to meet requirements for an additional major at the same degree level will have the second major posted to their existing degree. The second major can only be posted at one of the six conferral dates, and students receiving the second major are not eligible to participate in another graduation ceremony.

Diplomas - Diplomas are mailed after the conferment of degrees. Diplomas indicate degree earned and date of degree. A student's financial account must be settled to receive a diploma.

Practicum Hours

A minimum of 1000 graduate level practicum hours are required to be eligible for graduation. Practicum hours may be a culmination of practicum hours completed during a nursing master's degree program and the DNP program. A maximum of 500 practicum hours may be transferred from a master's level practicum experience. Applicants who cannot provide documentation of practicum hours completed at the MSN level may provide proof of APRN certification, which verifies having acquired a minimum of 500 practicum hours. In this circumstance, 500 practicum hours will be accepted. Other validated exceptions may be considered on an individual basis.

Practicum hours may be accrued by completion of work or projects as approved by the course faculty or Dean of the SON Doctoral Programs, or designated academic leader. Further explanation of practicum hours can be found in the DNP Project Manual.

Transfer of Credit Policy

Students may transfer up to three hours of post-masters credit taken at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) provided:

- The course is clearly comparable to one of the DNP course offerings based on course description and learning outcomes.
- The course is at the 600 or higher numbering system and was not part of the master's degree requirements.
- A grade of "B" or higher was earned in the course.
- The course was completed within the past five years.
- The course reflects current knowledge and best practice.
- The course reflects higher order thinking, study, and assessment requirements of the scholarship of discovery.
- Courses containing clinical content may not be met by transfer (Advanced Healthcare Policy, Global Healthcare, and all DNP Professional Project courses).

Credit hours accepted in transfer are recorded as part of the student's official academic record. Once transcripts (and other test scores and academic documents) have been received, IWU is not permitted to release copies of those documents back to the student or any other party.

Policy on Academic Credentials and Programs

This policy applies to all academic units of the university.

Indiana Wesleyan University awards academic credentials (degrees and certificates) to students who complete defined programs of study. Each credential is defined in terms of a set of essential learning outcomes, which may include discipline-specific and general education outcomes, as well as credit hour and other specifications. Each program of study for a particular credential maps the credential learning outcomes to a series of credit-bearing courses.

As appropriate, given the learning outcomes and alignment of involved programs and courses, credits may be shared between academic credentials and sub-credentials awarded coevally, within the following boundaries.

1. The student must fulfill all of the requirements for any credential awarded.
2. Credits may be shared between a major and a minor, as long as the minor includes at least 15 unique credit hours unshared with any other major or minor.
3. Credits may be shared between two minors, as long as each minor includes at least 15 unique credit hours unshared with any other major or minor.
4. Credits may be shared between two undergraduate majors as long as there are 51 unique (unduplicated) credit hours between the two majors.

5. Credits may be shared between two graduate majors as long as two thirds of the credits in each major are unique (unduplicated).
6. Up to three credit hours may be shared between a certificate and a minor.
7. Up to six credit hours may be shared between a certificate and a major (undergraduate or graduate).
8. A major or minor may be added to a previously awarded baccalaureate degree. The student must complete all of the course requirements for the major or minor and a minimum of nine new credits hours must be earned. New general education requirements need not be met to post an additional major or minor. Students adding a major or minor are not eligible to participate in commencement ceremonies again. The additional major or minor will be posted to the transcript only on one of the conferral dates.

As appropriate, given the learning outcomes and alignment of involved programs and courses, credits applied to a previously-awarded IWU academic credential may be applied, without surrender of the prior credential, to another IWU academic credential within the following boundaries.

1. The student must fulfill all of the requirements for any credential awarded.
2. For credits from a prior IWU academic credential to be applied to a second IWU academic credential, the second academic program must be started within ten years of the awarding of the first credential. Exceptions must be approved by the dean (or equivalent) of the school sponsoring the academic program of the second credential. Individual academic programs may specify more strict credit-age limits if warranted by the discipline.
3. The credits from a previously-awarded undergraduate certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of an associate's degree or a bachelor's degree.
4. Up to 6 credits from a previously-awarded associate's degree or bachelor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of an undergraduate certificate.
5. The credits from a previously-awarded associate's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different associate's degree, as long as each credential has at least 25% unique credits.
6. The credits from a previously-awarded associate's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a bachelor's degree.
7. The credits from a previously-awarded bachelor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different bachelor's degree, as long as each credential has at least 25% unique credits.
8. The credits from a previously-awarded bachelor's degree or undergraduate certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a master's degree, limited by the provisions of the Undergraduate and Graduate Credit Crossover Policy.
9. The credits from a previously-awarded graduate certificate or post-masters certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a master's degree.
10. The credits from a previously-awarded graduate certificate or post-masters certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a doctor's degree.
11. Credits from a previously-awarded master's degree or doctor's degree may be applied to fulfill up to 1/3 of the requirements of a graduate certificate.
12. The credits from a previously-awarded master's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different master's degree, as long as each credential has at least 50% unique credits.
13. The credits from a previously-awarded master's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a doctor's degree, as long as the doctor's degree has at least 50% unique credits.
14. The credits from a previously-awarded doctor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different doctor's degree, as long as each credential has at least 50% unique credits.

Financial -Doctoral Nursing

Practice Experience Costs

All Indiana Wesleyan University, IWU-National and Global Nursing programs include practicum/clinical/practice experiences that require placement in a clinical facility or with a preceptor. Any cost for clinical placement is the responsibility of the student. The financial obligation incurred to facilitate placement will be subject to the policies in the Financial Information section of the University Catalog.

Financial Policies

Students are advised of financial obligations for their degree seeking (core) program during the registration process. Students are expected to meet these obligations according to the schedule. Any questions regarding payments or problems associated with making those payments should be directed to Student Account Services.

Students who have applied for financial aid are responsible for all tuition and fees in the event it is determined they are ineligible for financial aid, decline the financial aid, or withdraw from the program prior to completing the academic award period. Students receiving military or corporate assistance who have received prior approval from the university for direct billing are required to pay their share of tuition and fees and submit appropriate assistance documents by the assigned due date. The deferral program in no way relieves the student of the financial obligation to the university and the student retains full responsibility for ensuring that all tuition and fees are paid in full and in a timely manner.

Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to suspend students from class attendance for failure to meet financial obligations.

Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to change the tuition and fee schedule at any time. Students who remain registered making satisfactory academic progress shall have their tuition and fees guaranteed. Book fees and embedded resource fees are subject to change throughout a student's program. A $50 late fee is charged each time a payment is received after the due date. There will be a fee charged for any check returned due to non-sufficient funds. If collection of tuition, book charges, and/or fees becomes necessary, all percentage-based costs of collection, court costs, and attorney fees are the responsibility of the student.

Financial Regulations for Individuals Covered by Chapter 31 or Chapter 33

For purposes of this policy, a covered individual is any individual who is entitled to educational assistance under Chapter 31, Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment, or Chapter 33, Post-9/11 benefits.

Any covered individual may enroll in or attend a course of education during the period beginning on the date on which the individual provides a Certificate of Eligibility (COE) for entitlement to educational assistance under chapter 31 or 33 (A "Statement of Benefits" obtained from the Department of Veterans' Affairs (VA) website – eBenefits, or a VA Form 28-1905 for chapter 31 authorization purposes can substitute a Certificate of Eligibility) and ending on the earlier of the following dates:

- The date on which payment from VA is made to Indiana Wesleyan University (IWU)
- 90 days after the date IWU certified tuition and fees following the receipt of the certificate of eligibility

Indiana Wesleyan University will not impose any penalty, including the assessment of late fees, the denial of access to classes, libraries, or other institutional facilities, or the requirement that a covered individual borrow additional funds, on any covered individual because of the individual's inability to meet his or her financial obligations to the institution due to the delayed disbursement of funding from VA under chapter 31 or 33.

IWU requires the following actions on the part of any covered individual:

- Submit the Certificate of Eligibility (COE) for entitlement to educational assistance no later than the first day of the course of education.
- Provide any additional information necessary to the proper certification of enrollment by IWU.
- All standard financial policies apply for any amount not covered by the Certificate of Eligibility (COE) – i.e. charges not covered, or percentage of fees in excess of the COE.

Refund Policy - Degree Programs

For courses consisting of 4-6 workshops:

- If a student requests withdrawal during the first week of the course, all charges are forgiven except books and embedded resources.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 2nd week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 75%.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 3rd week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 50%.
- If the student requests withdrawal after the 3rd week, there is no refund.

For courses consisting of at least 7 workshops:

- If a student requests withdrawal during the first week of the course, all charges are forgiven except books and embedded resources.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 2nd week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 90%.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 3rd week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 75%.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 4th week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 50%.
- If the student requests withdrawal after the 4th week, there is no refund.

For courses that are one week in length, tuition and technology fee are refunded according to the following schedule:

- Withdrawal requested within the first onsite day (2nd day on the course calendar) – 100% tuition and tech fee refund.
- Withdrawal requested after the first onsite day – no tuition or tech fee refund.

Changes to a student's schedule may affect their financial aid. Call the Financial Aid Office for information.

Textbook Returns

Other Fees

Once attendance has been established in a course, any other fees associated with that course (not tuition or technology fee) are non-refundable.

Textbooks Shipped by Tree of Life

Refunds for textbook charges are issued at the sole discretion of Tree of Life, according to their established refund policies. To avoid unnecessary charges, students should return each rental textbook at the completion of each class.

- When a student withdraws from a course, Tree of Life will supply the student with a prepaid label to return related materials as long as the student contacts Tree of Life Customer Support within 14 days of the course start date, ships the item within 5 business days of the contact, and the enrollment files reflect that the customer is no longer enrolled in this course (within 14 days of the start date). Upon receipt of the item, Tree of Life will refund the amount billed for the item minus shipping fees.
- Promptly contact Tree of Life for a Return Authorization for Credit for a course from which you have withdrawn.
- Refunds issued by Tree of Life will be applied as a credit to the student account.

Indiana Wesleyan University is not responsible for issuing refunds for Rentals not Returned, books not received, or books for withdrawn courses. All textbook issues should be immediately addressed with Customer Care at Tree of Life in order to receive the appropriate credit.

Digital items fall outside normal return and refund policies, as publishers have different policies on digital resources. We recommend contacting Customer Support at Tree of Life as soon as possible if you think you will need to return a digital item. If you have been billed for a digital resource, then withdraw before starting the course, please contact Customer Support at Tree of Life immediately upon withdrawal.

Regulations and Policies

In compliance with federal regulations for the student who has received financial aid, any amount due will be returned to the appropriate aid sources.

Students who are unable to complete a course or who receive an unsatisfactory grade for their specific program will be allowed to repeat that course with another group of students if arrangements are made with the Registration Change Counselor. Tuition and fees will be charged for repeating the course.

Decisions regarding refunds are made by Student Account Services, and in isolated cases, by the Financial Appeals Committee.

Indiana Wesleyan University will comply with any state mandated refund policies that govern refunds for students matriculating within the state in question. For a detailed listing of state-specific refund policies, please visit <http://www.indwes.edu/About/Student-Consumer-Information/State-Specific-Refund-Policies>.

Student Account Appeals

A written appeal may be submitted to Student Account Services. If the disputed charge cannot be reconciled with the accounting office, a written appeal can be submitted to studentaccountappeals@indwes.edu with all supporting documentation.

- All pertinent information will be obtained and compiled by the Appeals Committee.
- The disputed charge will be reviewed by the Appeals Committee.
- If necessary, an appeal may be reviewed by the Program Director.
- Appeals must be submitted within 6 months of the last date of attendance for the course in question.

All appeals will receive a response within 15 days after the written appeal has been received.

Financial Aid - Doctoral Nursing

Types of Student Financial Aid Available

The following types of student financial aid are available to persons enrolled as degree-seeking students who meet the eligibility criteria for the aid type. Complete fund profiles may be found online at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/types-of-aid>.

Nurse Faculty Loan Program (NFLP) - is a loan program administered through the Health Resources and Services Administration to provide loan funds to students enrolled in an eligible advanced degree program in nursing (for IWU students, the Master of Science in Nursing Education and the Doctor of Nursing Practice degree programs) and who intend to teach full-time upon graduation. After graduation, loan recipients may cancel up to 85% of the NFLP loan over a consecutive four-year period while serving as full-time nurse faculty at a school of nursing. Loan funds are given to cover costs of tuition, books, and eligible fees. Funds are limited and are offered on a first come, first served basis. The student must complete an application each year NFLP funds are requested. As the grant requires submission of data to the government on its use, recipients must agree to follow-up information requests for reporting purposes. Students who appear to meet the eligibility requirements will receive information explaining the application process.

William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan – is available to students who file the FAFSA and all other required student financial aid forms and who meet all federal criteria for eligibility. The maximum annual loan amount is $20,500 for graduate students. Lifetime maximum borrowing limit for graduate programs is $138,500 (including undergraduate borrowing). Interest rates are set on July 1 each year and are fixed rates. For July 1, 2020, through June 30, 2021, the interest rate is 4.30% for unsubsidized Federal Direct Loans for graduate students.

A student's total financial assistance, including loans, may not exceed the calculated cost of attendance for the program. Students with unsubsidized loans may elect to make monthly interest payments to the lender or allow the accumulated interest to accrue until repayment, which begins six months after the student ceases to be enrolled as at least a half-time student. Upon graduation or termination of studies, the student is given a six-month grace period during which no interest or principal payments are due on subsidized loans and during which only interest accrues on the unsubsidized loans. The standard minimum monthly payment is $50, but the amount varies based on the total amount of the outstanding loans upon which the student is paying and the type of repayment plan the student has chosen.

Graduate PLUS Federal Direct Loan – is a federal loan with a fixed 5.30% interest rate available to graduate students who have remaining cost of attendance not met by an unsubsidized William D. Ford Federal Direct Loans. This is a credit-based federal loan.

Educational Partner Discount – is a tuition discount given to students employed by one of IWU's educational partners. Students must submit a discount application, available from your program representative or by emailing N&Gdiscounts@indwes.edu.

Yellow Ribbon Award – is an award that does not have to be repaid and is available to eligible students who receive Chapter 33 benefits. The amount eligible students receive reflects 50% of the tuition expenses that exceed the highest public in-state undergraduate tuition rate. The VA matches that contribution to cover fully the tuition costs.

General Eligibility Requirements

In order to receive federal and/or state student financial aid, students must meet the following criteria:

- Must have completed the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) including signing all certifying statements.

- Must be a U.S. citizen or eligible noncitizen.
- Must have a valid Social Security number (with the exception of students from the Republic of the Marshall Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, or the Republic of Palau).
- Must be registered with Selective Service, if required.
- Must not be in default on a Title IV loan or owe a Title IV grant or loan overpayment.
- Must not have borrowed in excess of annual or aggregate Title IV loan limits.
- Must certify that they will use Title IV aid only to pay educational costs.
- Must not have enrolled in multiple institutions solely to obtain Title IV credit balance funds to pay expenses not educationally related.
- Must not have a disqualifying drug conviction.
- Must be enrolled as a regular student (cannot be unclassified) in an eligible degree or certificate program.
- Must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) as outlined in IWU's SAP Policy.
- Must show qualification to obtain a college education by having a high school diploma, GED certificate, or a high school education in a homeschool setting approved under state law.
- Must maintain enrollment in classes.

Per federal regulations, incarcerated students are not eligible for federal student financial aid. Incarcerated students or students who become incarcerated after receiving federal student financial aid funds should contact the Financial Aid Office.

Loan Repayment Chart

The following chart shows estimated monthly payment amounts based on a standard 10 year repayment plan. Learn more about current interest rates or other repayment plans online at www.studentaid.gov or www.finaid.org.

How to Apply for Student Financial Aid

Students who wish to be considered for federal and/or state student financial aid must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Links to the application process online are provided at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/apply-for-aid>:

- When completing the FAFSA (direct link is <https://studentaid.gov/h/apply-for-aid/fafsa>) you must list IWU's Title IV Code, 001822, or IWU will not receive your FAFSA information from the federal processor.
- You must disclose any additional funding you will receive from employer reimbursement, vocational rehabilitation, or private scholarships to help pay for your education. To facilitate this requirement, complete the Other Aid Source Disclosure Form.

- If loans are desired, students must complete the Loan Entrance Counseling Session and William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan Master Promissory Note online (direct link is <https://studentaid.gov>). You must have an established Federal Student Aid (FSA) ID and password in order to complete these items. It may be necessary to wait three days from the time you first create your FSA ID before trying to sign in to this website. For each item, you must enter "Indiana" in the School State field even if you attend classes in another state or online.
- Entrance Counseling Session: Log in using your FSA ID and password. Hover over COMPLETE AID PROCESS in the navigation bar and select Complete Entrance Counseling. Add IWU as a School to Notify and select the appropriate Student Type for your current degree pursuit—undergraduate or graduate.
- Master Promissory Note: Log in using your FSA ID and password. Hover over COMPLETE AID PROCESS in the navigation bar and select Subsidized/Unsubsidized Loan MPN.
- The Financial Aid Office's standard practice is to originate federal student loans for the amount of a student's maximum eligibility. If you wish to have a lesser loan amount awarded than your maximum eligibility, complete the Reduced Loan Request form.

Once the above steps have been completed, be certain to:

- Quickly respond to requests for additional information from the Financial Aid Office. You may be asked, as required by federal regulations, to provide items for review in a process called Verification. Some items that may be requested are: a completed Verification Worksheet, a completed and notarized Identity and Statement of Educational Purpose Form, and a signed copy of your Federal Income Tax Return (and your spouse's or parents' as appropriate).
- Fully complete all forms. Forms filled out incorrectly or submitted to the wrong office or location could complicate your approval to begin classes or delay your student financial aid awards package.

How and When Student Financial Aid is Disbursed

Nurse Faculty Loan Program (NFLP) funds are awarded upon receipt of all application materials. The funds are disbursed as a credit to the IWU student account, generally in one payment per term.

Federal Direct Loans are disbursed as a credit to the IWU student account, generally in one payment per term with that disbursement occurring approximately 10 days after the start of the first class attended in the term.

All other types of aid are awarded and disbursement dates set as the necessary paperwork is received.

Applying for student financial aid does not remove responsibility for payment. If the funding is not received, the student must pay all outstanding balances immediately.

How Eligibility is Determined and Student Financial Aid is Awarded

- An estimated federal awards package typically is available within a week of submitting the FAFSA. In general, award amounts are based on a student's Expected Family Contribution found on the Student Aid Report, a student's enrollment status, the cost of attendance, and other estimated financial assistance. The Financial Aid Office will award a student for his or her maximum eligibility in scholarship, grant, and loan funds unless otherwise instructed in writing. Complete the Reduced Loan Request form to request a loan amount less than the maximum.
- Students must be enrolled at least half-time for the term for federal loan funds to be disbursed. Any changes to planned enrollment may affect the amount and/or disbursement date(s) of aid for which the student may qualify.
- The Financial Aid Office will email notification to the IWU student email account that student financial aid has been awarded and is available for review online via the student portal at <https://myiwu.indwes.edu>. This secure website will indicate the types and amounts of aid for which the student qualifies. To decline all or a portion of the awarded aid, the student must submit a written request to the Financial Aid Office or all awarded aid will disburse to the IWU student account, as appropriate. Complete the Reduced Loan Request form to request a loan amount less than the maximum. The student does not need to contact the Financial Aid Office to accept an awards package.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)

Students are expected to maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress toward the completion of their course of study. This includes:

- Enrolling in and attending class as well as completing assignments and projects.

- Earning at least the minimum GPA required to maintain good academic standing in the student's primary degree or certificate program.
- Earning passing grades in a minimum of 67% of all credit hours attempted.
- For undergraduate students, completing the program within 150% of the credit hours normally required to complete the course of study (e.g., if the program requires 120 credit hours to complete, then the student may attempt no more than 180 credit hours) or, for graduate students, within the maximum time allowed by the academic department to complete the degree.

Academic progress is reviewed after the end of each term/award period. Students who fail to make satisfactory academic progress will be placed onto SAP Warning or Suspension, as appropriate, per the policy requirements. Students with mitigating circumstances (which may include, but is not limited to, death in the family or grave illness of the student or close family member) may appeal termination of federal student financial aid eligibility due to failure to make academic progress by submitting a SAP Appeal Form, written explanation, and supporting documentation to the SAP Appeals Committee through the Financial Aid Office. The entire SAP Policy is available for review online at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/resources>.

Leaves of Absence, Withdrawals, and Return of Funds

A student may request leaves of absence through the Office of Student Services for breaks in attendance 180 days or less in any 12-month period. In the case there is an approved break between classes, a leave of absence will be reported to the lender, but no loan repayment will be required. If additional circumstances arise that prohibit the student from returning to class as scheduled, the student should contact the Financial Aid Office to discuss options. For a break between classes of more than 180 days in any 12-month period, the university is required to report non-enrollment information to the lender, and the student will be required to begin repayment of any student loans (see your loan promissory note for further information).

If a student finds it necessary to withdraw from the program, withdraw from a course or courses without an approved leave of absence, or take leaves of absence that exceed 180 days in a 12-month period, a federal student financial aid Return of Funds calculation will be performed. This calculation determines how much federal student financial aid has been earned and is based on the number of days attended during the term/payment period when the student withdraws. The amount of federal student financial aid funds to be returned by IWU to the funding source is based on the amount of those funds that the Return of Funds calculation determined were not earned by the student.

For courses that use Brightspace (LMS), Indiana Wesleyan will use the student's last date of engagement as the withdrawal date in the Return of Funds calculation. For courses that do not use Brightspace, Indiana Wesleyan will use the later of the notification of the intent to withdraw or the documented LDARA. The official notification of intent to withdrawal will be recorded by the Office of Student Services and may include verbal or written communication. If the withdrawal date falls during a scheduled break within the term, the withdrawal date will refer back to the last date before the scheduled break began. The withdrawal date may never fall within a scheduled break of five days or more.

Due to extenuating circumstances, for students who are unable to officially withdraw, the institution will use the last confirmed date of academic engagement as determined in Brightspace. For courses that do not use Brightspace, faculty will be contacted to determine LDARA.

When a student withdraws, outstanding Title IV credit balances will be placed on hold until the R2T4 calculation has been completed. If a credit balance exists on the student's account after applying any institutional refund policies and the R2T4 calculation, the institution will disburse the credit balance to the student as soon as possible but no later than 14 days from the date the school performed the R2T4 calculation.

The following are examples of the Return of Funds calculations for programs offered in standard terms, nonstandard terms, and nonterm academic calendars:

Standard Term:

- R2T4 calculations will be performed on a payment period basis. The payment period is the term.
- The student begins class on August 30, and the term/payment period runs until December 15.
- The student withdraws from the program on October 4.
- The term/payment period has 103 calendar days in it (not including break periods), and the student completed 36 days which is 35.0% of the payment period.
- The amount of the funds to be returned will be 65.0% of the federal student financial aid funds received.

- The portion of the federal student financial aid funds that the school must return is equal to the lesser of:
 - The institutional charges multiplied by the unearned percentage of your funds, or
 - The entire amount of excess funds

Nonstandard term:

- R2T4 calculations will be performed on a payment period basis. The payment period is the term.
- The student begins class on March 2 and the term/payment period runs until May 24.
- The student withdraws from the program on March 20.
- The term/payment period has 84 calendar days in it (not including break periods) and the student completed 19 days which is 22.6% of the payment period.
- The amount of the funds to be returned will be 77.4% of the federal student financial aid funds received.
- The portion of the federal student financial aid funds that the school must return is equal to the lesser of:
 - The institutional charges multiplied by the unearned percentage of your funds, or
 - The entire amount of excess funds.

Nonterm:

- R2T4 calculations will be performed on a payment period basis.
- The student begins class on June 1 and the term/payment period runs until November 16.
- The student withdraws from the program on September 2.
- The term/payment period has 168 calendar days in it (not including break periods) and the student completed 93 days which is 55.4% of the payment period.
- The amount of the funds to be returned will be 44.6% of the federal student financial aid funds received.
- The portion of the federal student financial aid funds that the school must return is equal to the lesser of:
 - The institutional charges multiplied by the unearned percentage of your funds, or
 - The entire amount of excess funds.

The Financial Aid Office will determine the amount of the return of funds that is owed by IWU and the amount, if any, that is owed by the student. For any loan funds that are owed by the student, the student (or the parent for a Direct PLUS Loan) repays in accordance with the terms of the promissory note (e.g., scheduled payments are to be made to the holder of the loan over a period of time). A letter will be sent to the student indicating the results of the Return of Funds calculation and the amount of the return of funds, if any. The student will earn 100% of the federal student financial aid funds received for the term/payment period if the return of funds calculation shows the student completed 60% or more of the term/payment period. Additionally, state grant awards may be recalculated if the student drops below the minimum amount of credits and/or if tuition and fee charges must be revised as a result of the schedule change.

Funds will be returned to the federal student financial aid programs in the following order: unsubsidized Federal Direct Loan, subsidized Federal Direct Loan, Federal Perkins Loan, Federal Direct PLUS Loans, Federal Pell Grant, Federal SEOG, Federal TEACH Grant and other Title IV grants. The student will have 45 days to contact the Financial Aid Office to make arrangements to repay any federal grants that are owed by the student. Failure to make arrangements or to pay back the federal grants will mean the student is no longer eligible to receive federal student financial aid at any institution until full repayment.

Title IV Funds that the school is required to return must be returned as soon as possible but no later than 45 days after determining the student withdrew.

A post-withdrawal disbursement is a disbursement that occurs after the R2T4 calculation is completed, and it is determined that a student received less federal student aid than the amount earned. The post-withdrawal disbursement of a federal grant for funds earned in excess of outstanding current (educationally related) charges must be made directly to the student within 45 days of the date of determination that the student withdrew. Students and/or parents (in the case of Direct Parent PLUS loans) will be notified in writing of eligibility for a post-withdrawal loan disbursement within 30 days of the date the school determined the student withdrew. Students and/or parents will have 14 days to respond to the post-withdrawal offer. Post-withdrawal disbursements will be applied to outstanding allowable charges on the student account first and any resulting credit balance will be paid to the student and/or parent within 14 days of the disbursement.

The requirements for Title IV program funds when a student withdraws are separate from IWU's refund policy. Therefore, a student may still owe funds to the school to cover unpaid institutional charges. A student who requests the credit balance from his or her IWU student account and then makes registration changes may be required to repay funds to the university and/or to the student financial aid programs.

Student's Rights and Responsibilities

As a student, you have the right to know:

- What financial assistance is available, including information on all federal and state programs.
- The deadlines for submitting application for each of the student financial aid programs available.
- The cost of attending the school's programs and the school's refund policy.
- The criteria used by the institution to select financial aid recipients.
- How the school determines your financial need. This process includes how costs for tuition, fees, books, and living expenses are considered in your budget.
- What resources (such as employer reimbursement, other financial aid, etc.) are considered in the calculation of your need.
- How much of your financial need, as determined by the institution, has been met.
- An explanation of the various programs in your student financial aid package. If you believe you have been treated unfairly, you may request reconsideration of the award that was made to you.
- What portion of the student financial aid you received must be repaid, and what portion is grant aid. If the aid is a loan, you have the right to know the loan interest rate, the total amount that must be repaid, the payback procedures, the length of time you have to repay the loan, and when the repayment is to begin.

As a student, you are responsible to:

- Review and consider all information about the school's program before you enroll.
- Complete all required forms accurately and submit them in a timely manner to the correct address.
- Pay special attention to, and accurately complete, your FAFSA. Errors can result in delay of receipt of your student financial aid funds. Intentional misreporting of information on application forms for federal student financial aid is a violation of law and is considered a criminal offense subject to penalties under the U.S. Criminal Code.
- Return all additional information, verification, corrections, and/or new information requested by either the Financial Aid Office or the FAFSA central processor.
- Read and understand all the forms that you are asked to sign and keep copies of them.
- Accept responsibility for all agreements you sign.
- If you have a loan, notify the lender of changes in your name, address, or school status.
- Know and comply with the deadline for application or reapplication for aid.
- Know and comply with the school's leave of absence or withdrawal policy/procedures.
- Repay student loans in agreement with the loan promissory note.

Services for Students - Doctoral Nursing

Academic Advising

The purpose of academic advising is to support students from enrollment to completion of degree requirements. Advisors help students understand all degree requirements and options to meet those requirements. Advisors also assist students in understanding policies and procedures, and communicating with departments such as Financial Aid and Accounting.

An academic advising team is assigned to each individual student and advises that student throughout the duration of his or her academic program. Advisors are available to meet one-on-one with students face to face, through email, by phone, or via video conference.

It is important that students maintain contact with their academic advising team in order to ensure timely progression toward degree completion as well as appropriate scheduling for maximum financial aid benefit.

Chaplaincy Program

Spiritcare, the Chaplaincy Program for IWU National & Global Campus, is a ministry that seeks to care for the spiritual needs of adult students by providing Christ-centered support, resources, and services. This is done primarily through online and onsite classroom visits, structured devotionals, direct emails, and Portal content. The goal is to provide supportive opportunities for the growth of the complete person. On-site and online students have direct contact with a caring pastor shepherd. Spiritcare offers help, hope, and healing for students in crises. Chaplains can provide the following:

- Confidential and caring support for student and family members as requested.
- Spiritual guidance and prayer support.
- Intervention and support during life crises and emergencies.
- Referrals to Biblical, private counsel and support groups for special needs.
- An opportunity to be referred to a local pastor and a local church congregation for students seeking to grow in their faith.

Students may obtain additional information about the Spiritcare Chaplaincy Program through the student portal at myiwu.indwes.edu/Chaplaincy or by contacting the Office of Student Services at 800-621-8667 ext. 2359.

Library Services

Off Campus Library Services provides both mediated and direct access to resources and services designed specifically for the adult student. The Jackson Library in Marion has thousands of materials via searchable databases, including both print and online journals; streaming media titles; print books and ebooks; and various formats of microform. These are all searchable via the secured Jackson Library databases. Small library collections are available at the Louisville campus, Ohio campuses at Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, and Dayton, as well as the Indiana campuses at Greenwood, Indianapolis (two locations), and Merrillville, and include some reference books and full access to the library catalog and subscription-based journal and book indexes. Remote access is also available to all databases through the university login. Students can get personalized assistance from OCLS librarians at Cincinnati, Cleveland, Indianapolis, Louisville, Marion, and Merrillville campuses. Librarians assist with general paper editing especially as it pertains to use of the writing style of their degree program. OCLS can also help troubleshoot basic word processing and PowerPoint challenges.

The Wesley Seminary student or distance student can contact OCLS via e-mail, 800 telephone, or chat service. Online access to the Library Resource Guide is available from the OCLS Web page; OCLS Tools. All provided services are further described in this document. One on one or group instruction about the services and databases of OCLS or a writing style is available by special appointment.

The library is part of a consortium, Academic Libraries of Indiana, which includes access to most library collections of Indiana higher education institutions. If attending classes in Kentucky or Ohio, the regional OCLS librarian can inform students about opportunities in their area.

Services for Disabled Students

IWU Disability Services

The goal of disability services at Indiana Wesleyan University is to work cooperatively with students to help them reach their maximum academic, social, and personal potential. This is accomplished by integrating legal expectations, Indiana Wesleyan's standards of service, and Christ-like principles. The Director of Accessibility and Accommodations is a trained professional, responsible for determining accommodation eligibility and for coordinating office services for students with disabilities. The director works with the students, faculty, and staff to design and implement a plan of reasonable accommodations that allows for equal access to all areas of university life.

Equal Access

Indiana Wesleyan University is committed to inclusion and equal access of individuals with disabilities. Individuals will not be discriminated against on the basis of disability or be denied equal access and appropriate accommodation to the educational opportunities available at IWU.

“No otherwise qualified person with a disability in the United States shall, solely on the basis of disability, be denied access to, or the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity in any institution receiving federal financial assistance.” –Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

Admissions

Admission decisions are made without regard to disabilities. All prospective students are expected to present academic credentials that meet or exceed the minimum requirements for admissions.

Prospective students with disabilities are not required to identify themselves to the Admissions Office or the Director of Accessibility and Accommodations. However, those interested in receiving academic accommodations are encouraged to meet with, or contact, the Director of Accessibility and Accommodations as early as possible to allow for a review of documentation and the formulation of an accommodation plan.

Expectations for Personal and Professional Conduct

Indiana Wesleyan University is a Christian university of higher education that upholds high standards of personal and professional conduct. Such standards include a classroom environment that promotes a positive learning environment and a professional instructional climate.

Students are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner with respect for the rights of both students and faculty. The university or its representatives reserve the right to act in situations where student behavior violates established policy or detracts from the ability of students or faculty to function effectively in the classroom. Such action may include disciplinary procedures issued by the faculty, suspension from the program, or expulsion from the University. (NOTE: All discussion room and live chat postings for online courses are recorded and can be reviewed at the discretion of the university.)

Only regularly enrolled students may attend class unless granted permission by an administrator and arrangements are made with the instructor.

Inclement Weather Procedures

The university is reluctant to postpone or cancel classes because the schedule is already very compressed and it is difficult to schedule make-up classes when needed. In order to make the most informed decisions possible, the university gathers information from the National Weather Service, State Police agencies, and Regional Deans and personnel (when appropriate). Unfortunately, the university cannot make the decision based on an individual student's geographical situation and the driving distance to and from class. Students should be aware, however, that they are expected to use discretion and not to take unreasonable risks. If students choose not to attend class, they should notify their instructor and make appropriate arrangements for make-up work. Decisions to postpone or cancel classes will be announced by the university. Regional locations will be judged by the Regional Deans. In the event it becomes necessary for a Regional Dean to recommend to the Chancellor for IWU-National and Global campus a weather related or emergency closing or postponement for onsite classes, affected faculty and students will make up the missed class session through an online alternative class session.

Instructors will contact students on the date class is cancelled with requirements for making up the cancelled class session through an online alternative.

In the event an onsite class session is cancelled that is deemed significant to the specific program (e.g., program orientation, the first class session of a program, the last class session of a program, etc.), the Regional Dean will petition the appropriate academic leaders to arrange a new date to make up the cancelled class session prior to the next scheduled class session.

To satisfy engagement requirements and earn discussion points (if applicable), all assignments associated with the cancelled class session must be submitted prior to the start of the next scheduled class session.

Postponement decisions for evening classes will be made by approximately 3:00 p.m. on the day of class. Decisions about Saturday classes will be made the evening before, when possible, but may be made during the early morning hours on the Saturday of class if necessary. No notification will be made unless classes are postponed or cancelled; information about postponements and/or cancellations will be announced on the university's Web site at <http://www.indwes.edu>. Announcements will also be posted on the student portal at <http://myIWU.indwes.edu> and on the class information phone line at 1-800-621-8667 ext. 2022.

Student Address/Email Information

Students should notify the Office of Student Services of any change of address, telephone number, or name so that proper records can be maintained. Name change requests require submission of appropriate documentation.

IWU Student Email Accounts - Upon acceptance, students are given an IWU student e-mail account. This is the only account used by IWU for communication with the student. It is extremely important that the student checks this account on a regular basis as important academic and financial information as well as university announcements will be shared in this way.

Programs Offered - Doctoral Nursing

Doctoral Degrees

DNP - Doctor of Nursing Practice

The Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP) prepares nurses at the highest level of leadership, scholarship, and character to be world changers in global healthcare systems. The program is based on the understanding that nurses provide services, which include the direct care of individual clients, management of care for populations, administration of nursing systems, and development and implementation of health policy.

The Doctor of Nursing Practice program will prepare graduates to:

- Apply principles of organizational leadership for evidence based quality improvement and systems thinking.
- Influence healthcare policy at local, state, and/or federal levels.
- Integrate character, scholarship, and leadership into the doctoral levels of nursing practice.
- Apply principles of cultural competence to advanced global nursing leadership.

Admission Requirements

Applicants are required to meet the following criteria in order to be considered for admission:

Academic Requirements:

- Submission of transcript for a completed master's degree in nursing from a college or university accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA).
- Earned graduate GPA of 3.25 based on a 4.0 scale or the equivalent.
- GPA for conditional admission:
 - Applicants who do not meet the GPA listed in the criteria for regular admission and have at least a 3.0 undergraduate GPA if applying to the bachelor to DNP or graduate GPA if applying to the DNP may be conditionally admitted and allowed to take 9- credit hours of doctoral nursing courses to establish a graduate GPA.
 - Students who have earned a 3.0 GPA by the completion of 9-credit hours in doctoral nursing courses, will meet the criteria for regular admission.
 - An unsatisfactory grade (B- or lower in any DNP course) while conditionally admitted will result in administrative withdrawal from the program and denial of regular admission.
 - Students who do not earn a 3.0 GPA by the completion of 9-credit hours in doctoral nursing courses will be denied regular admission.

Application:

- Submit the Indiana Wesleyan University (IWU) Division of Doctoral Nursing application for the DNP program.

- $100 application fee. (Applicants will not be charged the application fee if they have previously paid the fee for enrollment at IWU.)
- Criminal background check.
- International/Non-English Speaking Students - Students who do not speak English as their first and primary language must submit satisfactory scores from one of the following prior to admission to the university:
 - Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). For graduate students, a score of at least 600 (paper-based), 250 (computer-based), or 100 (Internet-based) is required for regular academic admission.
 - International English Language Testing System (IELTS). For graduate students a score of at least 6.5 is required for regular academic admission.

Professional Requirements:

- Submit proof of a current unencumbered RN license.
- Submit proof of a current unencumbered APRN license (if applicable).
- Submit resume/curriculum vitae.
- Submit three professional reference letters. These letters should be solicited from professionals who can address the applicant's qualifications for the doctoral programs.
- Submit a 2-3 page narrative describing practice experience and professional goals.
- Submit a 1-2 page summary of a practice related issue that will serve as the focus of the DNP Scholarly Project; include the significance and impact of the project to nursing and health care.

General Information Regarding Admission:

- An interview is required with applicants once all the admission criteria listed above have been met.
- The number of applicants admitted to the DNP program will be limited. Meeting the minimum admission criteria does not ensure that an applicant will be admitted to the program.
- Computer literacy is imperative and proficiency in Microsoft Word, Excel and Power Point is expected.
- International travel is required.
- Once an application for the DNP program has been submitted, it will remain valid for 12 months.

Program Requirements

- Students must maintain an RN license that is active and unencumbered at all times during enrollment in the program. Students must have a valid unencumbered RN license in the state(s) of all practicum sites. If students have multiple state licenses, all must be unencumbered. It is the student's responsibility to notify the School of Nursing if the status of his or her RN license changes. Students will be administratively withdrawn from the program at any point if this status is not maintained.
- Students must meet all practicum agency requirements.
- Continued enrollment in the program is subject at all times to review of the student's academic record and actions with regard to observance of university policies and regulations. Policies and regulations can be found in the School of Nursing Student Handbook (located within each course).
- All courses must be satisfactorily completed with a grade of "B" or above to proceed to the next course.
- Upon earning a second unsatisfactory grade, students will be academically dismissed and ineligible to reapply for admission into the DNP program.
- Degree Completion Limits - The DNP program is designed as a lock-step curriculum to be completed in approximately 26 months. Program completion must be accomplished within four years of starting the program. Students who do not maintain continuous enrollment with their original cohort and curriculum will be required to join a new cohort as space is available, adapt to all subsequent curricular and DNP Project Manual changes, and incur any changes in program Tuition costs or fees. Any exceptions to this policy must be requested in writing to the Dean of SON Doctoral Programs or designated academic leader with the final decision resting with the Student Life Council.

- DNP Project Continuation - Doctoral students not completing the DNP Project by the end of the second year will be required to maintain continuous enrollment. Students will enroll in a one-hour DNP Project Continuation course (DNP-900) continuously until for up to seven credits or the DNP Project is successfully defended. Students will pay the one-credit-hour course tuition and any required fees to maintain continuous enrollment. Each continuation course will be ten weeks in length.
- Re-enrollment - A student who wishes to re-enroll in the DNP program must first contact the appropriate advisor to complete a Request for Re-enrollment form and forward to the Dean of SON Doctoral Programs or designated academic leader for approval. Following approval, the student may re-enroll in the program through the Office of Student Services and will agree to follow the prescribed plan of study. Students sitting out of a core program for more than 90 days are subject to current tuition rates upon returning. Students re-entering after six months are subject to any changes made in curriculum in the intervening time as well as current catalog policy.
- Student Professional Performance Policy - Students are expected to maintain the ethical standards of practice established by American Nurses Association (ANA) Code of Ethics for Nurses with Interpretive Statements. Students whose professional performance affects their ability to be licensed as a registered nurse or advanced practice registered nurse, and/or who do not meet the ethical standards established by ANA, may be recommended for a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) or other sanction up to and including dismissal from the School of Nursing. It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of policies regulating academic and professional conduct found in the IWU Catalog, student handbooks, and clinical guidelines, possible sanctions, and the appeals process.
- Progressive discipline: The School of Nursing promotes a policy of progressive or corrective discipline; however, serious infractions may warrant immediate removal from clinical or academics setting, imposition of a written reprimand, suspension, or dismissal. Performance concerns may include, but are not limited to the following:
 - Fails to meet generally accepted standards of patient safety, professional conduct, personal integrity, or emotional stability required for professional practice;
 - Fails to demonstrate the effective interpersonal skills necessary to perform professional helping relationships;
 - Fails to adhere to the ANA Code of Ethics;
 - Has been found guilty of criminal misconduct that affects the student's ability to be licensed as a registered nurse (RN) or advanced practice registered nurse (APRN); or
 - Displays inappropriate or disruptive behavior toward clients, other students, faculty, or staff, which interferes with professional judgment or jeopardizes the best interest of those to whom the student has a professional responsibility.

Graduation Requirements

To fulfill graduation requirements students must have completed all of the following:

- All credits required in the program with a minimum GPA of 3.25.
- All courses passed with a grade of "B". B- is not a passing grade.
- A minimum of 1000 practicum hours.
- Successful completion, defense, and submission of the DNP Project.
- All degree requirements within four years of matriculation.
- All financial obligations must be settled in order to receive a diploma.

BSN to DNP - Doctor of Nursing Practice - FNP Specialization

The Post-Baccalaureate Doctor of Nursing Practice program prepares nurses with a baccalaureate degree in nursing (BS or BSN) to achieve a doctoral degree. The program is designed to equip advanced practice nurses (APRNs) to practice at the highest level of leadership, scholarship, and character to be world changers in global healthcare systems. The focus of primary care is the interrelationship of theory, research, and evidence-based practice. Graduates of the program are eligible to apply for family nurse practitioner certification by the appropriate credentialing body.

The Doctor of Nursing Practice program with the specialization of Family Nurse Practitioner will prepare graduates to:

- Synthesize contemporary issues in relation to organizations.
- Apply an evidence-based approach in advanced practice across the lifespan.
- Collaborate with interprofessional teams to improve health outcomes in individuals, families, and diverse populations.
- Synthesize principles of leadership in the evaluation and resolution of ethical and legal issues within healthcare systems.
- Integrate character, scholarship, and leadership in advanced nursing practice.
- Develop an innovative approach to evidence-based practice.
- Provide culturally relevant health care from a biblical perspective.

Admission Requirements

Applicants are required to meet the following criteria in order to be considered for admission:

Application:

- Submission of the Indiana Wesleyan University (IWU) Division of Doctoral Nursing application for the Bachelor to DNP - FNP program.
- International/Non-English Speaking Students - Students who do not speak English as their first and primary language must submit satisfactory scores from one of the following prior to admission to the university:
 - Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). For graduate students, a score of at least 600 (paper-based), 250 (computer-based), or 100 (Internet-based) is required for regular academic admission.
 - International English Language Testing System (IELTS). For graduate students a score of at least 6.5 is required for regular academic admission.

Academic Requirements:

- Submission of transcript for a completed baccalaureate degree in nursing from a college or university accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA).
- Undergraduate GPA of 3.25 based on a 4.0 scale from the baccalaureate degree granting institution at which at least a minimum of 30 hours were completed.
- GPA for conditional admission:

- Applicants who do not meet the GPA listed in the criteria for regular admission and have at least a 3.0 undergraduate GPA if applying to the bachelor to DNP or graduate GPA if applying to the DNP may be conditionally admitted and allowed to take 9- credit hours of doctoral nursing courses to establish a graduate GPA.
- Students who have earned a 3.0 GPA by the completion of 9-credit hours in doctoral nursing courses, will meet the criteria for regular admission.
- An unsatisfactory grade (B- or lower in any DNP course) while conditionally admitted will result in administrative withdrawal from the program and denial of regular admission.
- Students who do not earn a 3.0 GPA by the completion of 9-credit hours in doctoral nursing courses will be denied regular admission.

Professional Requirements:

- Submission of current unencumbered RN license. Proof that all nursing licenses – whether current or inactive – are unencumbered. Potential students with encumbered nursing licenses will not be considered eligible for enrollment at Indiana Wesleyan University.
- Submission of resume/curriculum vitae.
- All applicants must provide three letters of professional reference. References should be from faculty members, professional colleagues, work supervisors, or a pastor who can evaluate the applicant's potential for success in a graduate program. These letters should be solicited from professionals who can address the applicant's qualifications for the doctoral program.
- Submission of a 2-3 page narrative describing practice experience and professional goals.
- A criminal history background check (at the student's expense) must be completed upon admission to the program and will be repeated prior to the NP practicum courses.

General Information Regarding Admission:

- The Division of Doctoral Nursing may request an interview with an applicant once all the admission criteria listed above have been met.
- The number of applicants admitted to the Bachelor to DNP - FNP program will be limited. Meeting the minimum admission criteria does not ensure that an applicant will be admitted to the program.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Word, Excel, and Power Point is expected.
- Once an application for the Bachelor to DNP - FNP program has been submitted, it will remain valid for 12 months.

Program Requirements

Transfer Credits

Students may transfer up to nine hours of post-baccalaureate credit from a regionally accredited college or university provided that:

- The course is clearly comparable to one of the BDNP course offerings based on course description and learning outcomes.
- The course is at the 500 or higher numbering system (600 or higher for any doctoral level courses) and was not part of the baccalaureate degree requirements.
- A grade of "B" or higher was earned in the course.
- The course was completed within the past five years.
- The course reflects current knowledge and best practice.
- The course reflects higher order thinking, study, and assessment requirements of the scholarship of discovery.
- Courses containing practicum requirements may not be met by transfer course (NP practicum courses, graduate level health assessment, graduate level healthcare policy, cultural healthcare and all DNP project courses). All DNP project work must be original and accomplished exclusively during IWU DNP enrollment.

Attendance Policy

The doctoral program is a blend of onsite residencies, onsite workshops, and interactive online workshops. Students are required to attend all onsite residencies and substantively engage in all interactive, online and prescribed learning activities.

- Residency Attendance - Three residencies are held on the Marion campus during the program. Residency dates will be posted in advance. Attendance at all residency sessions is mandatory. Transportation to and from campus is at the student's expense.
- Nurse Practitioner Practicum Courses Attendance - The Nurse Practitioner Practicum courses combine onsite and online workshops within a single course. Students enrolled in these courses are held to a more stringent attendance standard due to the nature of the knowledge presented and its relevance to safe advanced nursing practice. Missing more than one onsite or online workshop during a practicum course will result in a grade of "F" for the course.
- Online Attendance - Attendance is determined by activity during a workshop, either through discussions or assignments. A student is reported absent for a workshop if there is not at least one submission (or posting of an assignment or in a discussion forum assigned during that workshop. A student may be allowed one online absence per course.
 - Excessive Absences - If a student exceeds the allowed absences and does not contact the Office of Student Services to officially withdraw before the first day of the last workshop, the professor is directed to issue the grade of "F" and the student will be withdrawn from the program.
 - Leave of Absence - Students are expected to take courses in the predetermined sequence. Students who are unable to participate in a course due to unavoidable circumstances must arrange for a temporary leave of absence with the Office of Student Services prior to the beginning of the course and/or block. Students who withdraw while in a course may do so with permission of the Associate Director of Doctoral Programs or designated academic leader and by arrangement with the Office of Student Services prior to the start of the first day of the last workshop of the course, but the regular refund and academic withdrawal policies apply.

Residency

Residency for the Bachelor to DNP - FNP program is satisfied by attending three onsite residencies. Students are expected to be in attendance throughout the residency and are not allowed an absence from required workshops, events, or class sessions that are scheduled during the residency. If a student does need to withdraw from a residency, and the withdrawal date is after fees have been spent, residency fees are non-refundable. Business casual is the expected attire. Students are expected to follow the community lifestyle statement of the university while on campus. This includes refraining from the use of alcohol, tobacco, illegal drugs, use of firearms, and unethical or illegal activities.

Progression Requirements

- All courses must be successfully completed in the sequence prescribed by the program's requirements. Failure to successfully complete a course will result in an administrative withdrawal from the program.
- Each course must be satisfactorily completed with a grade of "B" or above before progressing into the next course.
- Doctoral Nursing Students will be academically dismissed upon receipt of a second unsatisfactory grade.
- Students must maintain an RN license that is active and unencumbered at all times during enrollment in the program. Students must have a valid unencumbered RN license in the state(s) of the practicum sites. If students have multiple state licenses, all must be unencumbered. It is the student's responsibility to notify the School of Nursing if the status of his or her RN license changes. Students will be administratively withdrawn from the program at any point if this status is not maintained.
- A transcultural healthcare experience is required.
- Students must meet all practicum agency requirements. Nurse Practitioner students must have health clearance and documentation of TB, Rubella, and Hepatitis B status; and meet any other requirements of the practicum site before any client contact. A second criminal background check and drug screen (at the student's expense) will be required for all Nurse Practitioner students prior to the first practicum course. Progression in the program is dependent on the results of the reports.
- Any student found to have falsified practicum hours will be immediately dismissed and not allowed to re-enter any graduate nursing program at IWU.
- Students who maintain continuous enrollment, who make normal progress toward a degree, and who earn their degree within the major program's maximum time from the date of enrollment may meet the graduation requirements as stated in the catalog under which they enrolled.

Reenrollment

A student who wishes to re-enroll in the Bachelor to DNP - FNP program must first contact the appropriate advisor to complete a Request for Re-enrollment form and forward to the Dean for Doctoral Programs or designated academic leader for approval. Following approval, the student may re-enroll in the program through the Office of Student Services and will agree to follow the prescribed plan of study. Students sitting out of a core program for more than 90 days are subject to current tuition rates upon returning. Students re-entering after six months are subject to any changes made in curriculum in the intervening time as well as current catalog policy.

A student may re-enroll in the Division of Doctoral Nursing a maximum of two times without an appeal. A request for a third re-enrollment must be accompanied by a petition to the Dean of Doctoral Programs. Re-enrollment will be dependent upon the decision of the Dean of Doctoral Programs or the SON Student Life Council if the Dean determines a higher level of appeal is required.

Re-enrollment Policy for Nurse Practitioner Specialization

Any Nurse Practitioner student who is out of class for more than six months must meet the following criteria to continue in the program:

- If a student is out of a nurse practitioner specialization for more than six months, the student must take and achieve an 87% on the track specific competency exam(s) for advanced pharmacology, pathophysiology, and physical assessment.
- The Advanced Physical Assessment exam is only offered onsite. The student will be required to conduct a complete history and physical on a client, including written documentation.
- If the student does not pass the appropriate competency exam(s) with a minimum score of 87%, s/he will be required to audit the pertinent course(s) and satisfactorily pass the appropriate competency exam(s) before being allowed to re-enroll in the graduate nursing program.
- The student requesting re-enrollment is responsible for payment of each competency exam and course audit.

Satisfactory Academic Progress

Students enrolled in the Bachelor to DNP - FNP program are regarded as members of the academic community of Indiana Wesleyan University. Students are responsible for conforming to the standards of conduct for adult learners. Continued enrollment in the program is subject at all times to review of the student's academic record and actions with regard to observance of university policies and regulations. Policies and regulations can be found in the DNP Student Handbook (located within each course).

Incomplete Grades - Students are expected to complete the course requirements by the last day of the final workshop. There may be instances when crisis circumstances or events prevent the student from completing requirements in a timely manner. In these rare situations, a grade of "I" (incomplete) may be issued after completing the following process:

- The student must request an "I" from the instructor via email.
- The instructor must obtain approval via email from the program leader.
- The student must have completed at least 75% of the course.

A grade of "incomplete" may be granted only for extenuating circumstances. A student who receives an "incomplete" has ten weeks from the final meeting date of the course to complete course requirements and turn them in to the instructor. If, at the end of the ten-week extension, the student has failed to complete the course requirements the "incomplete" will become an "F." An incomplete cannot be issued if the student fails to meet the attendance requirements.

Probationary Status - Students enrolled in the Bachelor to DNP - FNP program will be placed on probation if their GPA falls below 3.25.

Students are given the opportunity to satisfactorily raise their GPA by the completion of two consecutive courses or six consecutive credit hours, whichever is greater. The GPA is reviewed after the set time frame, and if it has been successfully raised, the probationary status is removed. Academic suspension will result if the student's GPA is not successfully raised.

Academic Suspension - Academic suspension will result if:

- A student fails to clear the academic probationary status within the probationary period of two consecutive courses or six consecutive credit hours, whichever is greater.
- A student with more than one incomplete on record is subject to academic suspension.

In all cases, the suspension will occur once the grades have been recorded in the Registrar's Office. Students will be notified of the academic suspension in writing. Application for readmission may be made after six months. The application must be made in writing to the Vice President of Academic Affairs for the School of Nursing.

Academic Dismissal

- Upon a second academic suspension in the same program, students are not eligible to reapply to Indiana Wesleyan University.
- Upon a second unsatisfactory grade, students will be academically dismissed and ineligible to reapply for admission into the DNP program.
- Students dismissed due to academic dishonesty are ineligible for readmission to the program.
- Students who fail to complete the program within six years will be administratively withdrawn.

Practicum Hours

A minimum of 1000 graduate level practicum hours are required to be eligible for graduation. Practicum hours will be a culmination of practicum hours completed during the Bachelor to DNP - FNP.

Practicum hours may be accrued by completion of work or projects as approved by the course faculty or the Dean of Doctoral Programs or designated academic leader. Further explanation of practicum hours can be found in the DNP Project Manual and NP Clinical Guidelines.

Degree Completion Limits

The Bachelor to DNP - FNP program is designed as a lock-step curriculum to be completed in approximately 51 months. Students who do not maintain continuous enrollment will be required to reenroll (as space is available), meet all catalog requirements, DNP Scholarly Project Manual changes, NP Clinical Guideline changes, and incur any changes in program charge or cost. Any exceptions to this policy must be requested in writing to the Dean of Doctoral Programs or designated academic leader.

DNP Project Continuation

Doctoral students who do not complete the DNP Scholarly Project by the end of program course work, will be required to enroll in a one-hour DNP Scholarly Project Continuation course continuously until the DNP Scholarly Project is successfully defended. Students will pay the one-credit-hour course tuition, $500 additional DNP Scholarly Project Advisor fee, and any other required fees to maintain continuous enrollment. Each continuation course will be ten weeks in length. The maximum number of continuation courses will be seven.

Student Professional Performance Policy

Students are expected to maintain the ethical standards of practice established by American Nurses Association (ANA) Code of Ethics for Nurses with Interpretive Statements. Students whose professional performance affects their ability to be licensed as a registered nurse or advanced practice registered nurse, and/or who do not meet the ethical standards established by ANA, may be recommended for a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) or other sanction up to and including dismissal from the School of Nursing. It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of policies regulating academic and professional conduct found in the IWU Catalog, student handbooks, and clinical guidelines, possible sanctions, and the appeals process.

Progressive discipline: The School of Nursing promotes a policy of progressive or corrective discipline; however, serious infractions may warrant immediate removal from clinical or academics setting, imposition of a written reprimand, suspension, or dismissal. Performance concerns may include, but are not limited to the following:

- Fails to meet generally accepted standards of patient safety, professional conduct, personal integrity, or emotional stability required for professional practice; □
- Fails to demonstrate the effective interpersonal skills necessary to perform professional helping relationships;
- Fails to adhere to the ANA Code of Ethics;
- Has been found guilty of criminal misconduct that affects the student's ability to be licensed as a registered nurse (RN)or advanced practice registered nurse (APRN); or □
- Displays inappropriate or disruptive behavior toward clients, other students, faculty, or staff, which interferes with professional judgment or jeopardizes the best interest of those to whom the student has a professional responsibility.

Graduation Requirements

Graduation Requirements

To fulfill graduation requirements students must have completed all of the following:

- All credits required in the program with a minimum GPA of 3.25.
- No grade less than a "B" in any given course.
- Fulfillment of at least 1000 practicum hours.
- Successful completion, defense, and submission of the DNP Scholarly Project.
- Degree requirements must be completed within 78 months of matriculation.
- All financial obligations must be settled in order to receive a diploma.

BSN to DNP - Doctor of Nursing Practice - PMHNP Specialization

The Post-Baccalaureate Doctor of Nursing Practice Psychiatric Mental Health NP program prepares nurses with a baccalaureate degree in nursing (BS or BSN) to achieve a doctoral degree. The program is designed to prepare nurses for advanced practice (APRN) in the mental health field at the highest level of leadership, scholarship, and character. The focus of the program is the interrelationship of theory, research, and evidence-based psychiatric mental health practice. Graduates of the program are eligible to take the PMH nurse practitioner certification exam from the appropriate credentialing body.

The Doctor of Nursing Practice program with the Psychiatric Mental Health specialization will prepare graduates to:

- Apply principles of organizational leadership for evidence based quality improvement in Psychiatric Mental Health systems.
- Serve as an advocate for vulnerable psychiatric populations.
- Influence psychiatric health care policy at local, state, and/or federal levels.
- Integrate organizational, client-centered, and culturally appropriate concepts into the planning, delivery, management, and evaluation of services to psychiatric populations.

Admission Requirements

Applicants are required to meet the following criteria in order to be considered for admission:

Application:

- Submission of the Indiana Wesleyan University (IWU) Division of Doctoral Nursing application for the Bachelor to DNP - PMHNP program.
- International/Non-English Speaking Students - Students who do not speak English as their first and primary language must submit satisfactory scores from one of the following prior to admission to the university:
 - Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). For graduate students, a score of at least 600 (paper-based), 250 (computer-based), or 100 (Internet-based) is required for regular academic admission.
 - International English Language Testing System (IELTS). For graduate students a score of at least 6.5 is required for regular academic admission.

Academic Requirements:

- Submission of transcript for a completed baccalaureate degree in nursing from a college or university accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA).
- Official transcripts from all post-high school educational experiences.
- Undergraduate GPA of 3.25 based on a 4.0 scale from the baccalaureate degree granting institution at which at least a minimum of 30 hours were completed.
- GPA for conditional admission:
 - Applicants who do not meet the GPA listed in the criteria for regular admission and have at least a 3.0 undergraduate GPA if applying to the bachelor to DNP or graduate GPA if applying to the DNP may be conditionally admitted and allowed to take 9- credit hours of doctoral nursing courses to establish a graduate GPA.
 - Students who have earned a 3.0 GPA by the completion of 9-credit hours in doctoral nursing courses, will meet the criteria for regular admission.
 - An unsatisfactory grade (B- or lower in any DNP course) while conditionally admitted will result in administrative withdrawal from the program and denial of regular admission.
 - Students who do not earn a 3.0 GPA by the completion of 9-credit hours in doctoral nursing courses will be denied regular admission.

Professional Requirements:

- Submission of current unencumbered RN license. Proof that all nursing licenses –whether current or inactive – are unencumbered. Potential students with encumbered nursing licenses will not be considered eligible for enrollment at Indiana Wesleyan University.
- Submission of resume/curriculum vitae.
- All applicants must provide three letters of professional reference. References should be from faculty members, professional colleagues, work supervisors, or a pastor who can evaluate the applicant's potential for success in a graduate program.

Recommendations from family members are NOT appropriate. These letters should be solicited from professionals who can address the applicant's qualifications for the doctoral program.

- Submission of a 2-3 page narrative describing practice experience and professional goals.
- A criminal history background check (at the student's expense) must be completed upon admission to the program and will be repeated prior to the NP practicum courses.

General Information Regarding Admission:

- The Division of Doctoral Nursing may request an interview with an applicant once all the admission criteria listed above have been met.
 - The number of applicants admitted to the Bachelor to DNP - PMHNP program will be limited. Meeting the minimum admission criteria does not ensure that an applicant will be admitted to the program.
 - Proficiency in Microsoft Word, Excel, and Power Point is expected.

In these rare situations, a grade of "I" (incomplete) may be issued after completing the following process:

- The student must request an "I" from the instructor via email.
- The instructor must obtain approval via email from the program leader.
- The student must have completed at least 75% of the course.
- The faculty member and the Dean must both agree to the incomplete grade.

A grade of "incomplete" may be granted only for extenuating circumstances. A student who receives an "incomplete" has ten weeks from the final meeting date of the course to complete course requirements and turn them in to the instructor. If, at the end of the ten-week extension, the student has failed to complete the course requirements the "incomplete" will become an "F." An incomplete cannot be issued if the student fails to meet the attendance requirements.

Probationary Status - Students enrolled in a DNP program will be placed on probation if their GPA falls below 3.25.

Students will be given the opportunity to satisfactorily raise their GPA by the completion of two consecutive courses or six consecutive credit hours, whichever is greater. Degree Completion Limits

The Bachelor to DNP - PMHNP program is designed as a lock-step curriculum to be completed in approximately 51 months. Students who do not maintain continuous enrollment will be required to reenroll (as space is available), meet all catalog requirements, DNP Scholarly Project Manual changes, NP Clinical Guideline changes, and incur any changes in program charge or cost. Any exceptions to this policy must be requested in writing to the Dean of Doctoral Nursing or designated academic leader.

DNP Scholarly Project Continuation

Doctoral students who do not complete the DNP Scholarly Project by the end of program course work, will be required to enroll in a one-hour DNP Scholarly Project Continuation course continuously until the DNP Scholarly Project is successfully defended. Students will pay the one-credit-hour course tuition, $500 additional DNP Scholarly Project Advisor fee, and any other required fees to maintain continuous enrollment. Student Professional Performance Policy

Students are expected to maintain the ethical standards of practice established by American Nurses Association (ANA) Code of Ethics for Nurses with Interpretive Statements. Students whose professional performance affects their ability to be licensed as a registered nurse or advanced practice registered nurse, and/or who do not meet the ethical standards established by ANA, may be recommended for a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) or other sanction up to and including dismissal from the School of Nursing. It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of policies regulating academic and professional conduct found in the IWU Catalog, student handbooks, and clinical guidelines, possible sanctions, and the appeals process.

Progressive discipline: The School of Nursing promotes a policy of progressive or corrective discipline; however, serious infractions may warrant immediate removal from clinical or academics setting, imposition of a written reprimand, suspension, or dismissal. Performance concerns may include, but are not limited to the following:

- Fails to meet generally accepted standards of patient safety, professional conduct, personal integrity, or emotional stability required for professional practice; □
- Fails to demonstrate the effective interpersonal skills necessary to perform professional helping relationships;
- Fails to adhere to the ANA Code of Ethics;
- Has been found guilty of criminal misconduct that affects the student's ability to be licensed as a registered nurse (RN) or advanced practice registered nurse (APRN); or □
- Displays inappropriate or disruptive behavior toward clients, other students, faculty, or staff, which interferes with professional judgment or jeopardizes the best interest of those to whom the student has a professional responsibility.

School of Health Sciences

The School of Health Sciences is devoted to teaching, scholarship, research, and clinical practice. We seek to improve health and quality of life for people through a Christ-centered ministry of healing by providing learner centered education, clinical care and community engagement for underrepresented communities. With a commitment to excellence, the school serves local, state, national, and international citizens.

School of Health Sciences at a Glance

Mission and Vision

The IWU School of Health Sciences is committed to developing compassionate graduates that are clinically, professionally, and culturally competent for careers in Public Health, Athletic Training, Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapy, and related health professions.

The Indiana Wesleyan University School of Health Sciences seeks to become an influential provider of clinical, inter-professional, and culturally competent health and human service professionals at the local, state, national, and global levels from a Christian worldview.

School of Health Sciences - Policies and Regulations

Academic -School of Health Sciences

Academic Calendar - Courses are offered under the semester hour system. Each major consists of required courses taught in various formats, including but not limited to onsite, online, and blended learning modalities, taken sequentially within a non-traditional academic calendar.

Catalog Governing Graduation - Students must meet the graduation requirements as stated in the university catalog under which they enrolled. Students who maintain continuous enrollment, who make normal progress toward a degree, and who earn their degree within the time frame established by the School of Health Sciences must meet the graduation requirements as stated in the catalog under which they enrolled. Students who withdraw from Indiana Wesleyan University for more than six months will meet the graduation requirements as stated in the catalog under which they resume enrollment.

Core Requirements - The integrity of the programs requires that the core courses be met at Indiana Wesleyan University. Students are required to complete all core program courses with a passing grade in order to maintain enrollment with their cohort. In general, no waivers are allowed for courses taken at other colleges/universities.

Final class dates as established by the calendar will be the final date for completion of the core curriculum.

Academic Advising

Every student is personally responsible to meet all requirements, including but not limited to stated competencies, grade-point indexes, specified courses, total numbers of credits in each stated area of study, and total number of credits for the degree program identified in the catalog at the time of enrollment.

An advisor is assigned to each student and is available to discuss academic program requirements and other program information. Each student has access to their academic record and degree/major requirements via the Internet and portal.

Academic Standing

Students enrolled in the programs in the School of Health Sciences are regarded as members of the academic community of Indiana Wesleyan University and are responsible for conforming to the standards of conduct as outlined in the student handbook of the student's respective program. Continued enrollment in these programs is at all times subject to review of the student's academic record and of the student's actions with regard to observance of university policies and regulations. Policies and regulations can be found in the student handbook of the student's respective program and/or IWU Catalog.

Placement on Probation - Students enrolled in a School of Health Sciences undergraduate program will be placed on probation if their GPA falls below the minimum standard defined by the program's student handbook in which the student is enrolled. Students enrolled in a School of Health Sciences graduate program will be placed on probation if their GPA falls below 3.0.

Students are given two consecutive terms to satisfactorily raise their GPA. The GPA is reviewed after the second term and if it has been successfully raised, the probationary status is removed. Academic suspension will result if the student's GPA is not successfully raised.

Academic Suspension - Academic suspension will result if:

- A student fails to clear the academic probationary status within the probationary period of two consecutive terms.
- A student has taken a course twice and failed to achieve a satisfactory grade. When this occurs, the student is ineligible to reapply for admission into the program in which the course was repeated.

In all cases, the suspension will occur once the grades have been recorded in the Registrar's Office. Students will be notified of the academic suspension in writing. Application for readmission may be made after six months; however, re-enrollment will depend on the course offerings and could be twelve months following the suspension. The application must be made in writing to the Dean of the School of Health Sciences.

Academic Dismissal - Upon a second academic suspension in the same program, a student is not eligible to reapply to Indiana Wesleyan University.

Admission and Registration

Indiana Wesleyan University welcomes applications for admission from any academically qualified person whose motivation is in keeping with the university's purposes. Admission is based on the careful review of all credentials presented by an applicant, but in no case is admission denied due to race, color, national origin, disability, religion, or sex.

Admission decisions are made without regard to disabilities. All prospective students are expected to present academic credentials that meet or exceed the minimum requirements for admissions. Prospective students with disabilities are not required to identify themselves to Admissions or Disability Services. However, those interested in receiving academic accommodations are encouraged to connect with Disability Services at 765-677-2257 or ADARquest@indwes.edu as early as possible to allow for a review of documentation and the formulation of an accommodation plan.

Students are admitted in one of the following categories:

- Regular - Students who satisfactorily meet all requirements will be granted standard admission with no restrictions.
- Probation - Students with an entering grade point average (GPA) which falls below the minimum required by the program may be accepted on probation. Probationary status will be removed after the student has completed the first term of the core with a satisfactory GPA (3.0). In case of extended probation, the number of courses to be completed in order to change status will be determined by the Dean of the School of Health Sciences. Any student failing to remove the probationary status will be academically suspended from the program.

International/Non-English Speaking Students - Students who do not speak English as their first and primary language must submit satisfactory scores from one of the following prior to admission to the university:

- Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). For undergraduate students, a score of at least 550 (paper-based), 213 (computer-based), or 79 (Internet-based) is required for regular academic admission. For graduate students, a score of at least 600 (paper-based), 250 (computer-based), or 100 (Internet-based) is required for regular academic admission.
- International English Language Testing System (IELTS). For undergraduate students a score of at least 6.0 is required; for graduate students a score of at least 6.5 is required; for doctoral students a score of at least 7.0 is required for regular academic admission.

Registration - Registration occurs at the beginning of the student's program. When students submit their intent to enroll form, they are registered for all courses within the program. Therefore, if a student needs to miss an individual course, official withdrawal must be made through the Office of Student Services. Staff will work with the Program Director/Academic Coordinator and the student to make arrangements to retake this class with another cohort at a time that will minimize the impact on the student's financial aid. Students need to be aware that temporary withdrawals could impact their eligibility to receive financial aid based on the standards outlined in IWU's Satisfactory Academic Progress.

A student who has failed to make arrangements for the payment of tuition for a course will have registration in that course cancelled.

Alcohol, Illegal Drugs, and Firearms

Alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, and firearms are not permitted on Indiana Wesleyan University premises, including rented classrooms and any building or parts of buildings owned or operated by Indiana Wesleyan University. Refusal to comply may result in dismissal from the university.

Attendance Policy

Students enrolled in the School of Health Sciences are expected to attend all sessions of classes for which they are registered. Official excuses may be given by the Dean of the School of Health Sciences for absences due to university-sponsored activities, for illness requiring hospitalization, death of a first-degree relative, or other emergencies. Faculty may not give a penalty for a university-approved absence. The student is responsible directly to the instructor for all classes missed and to see that all work is made up. A student failing to attend classes and not withdrawing officially will receive a grade of "F."

Students may be administratively withdrawn from any registered class that is not attended by the last day to drop a class in any term.

Grading and Evaluation

A letter grade is used in evaluating the work for a course. For the purpose of determining scholastic standing and awarding honors, grade points are granted according to the letter grades and semester hours of credit. The grade point average (GPA) is the number of quality points earned at IWU divided by the number of credit hours attempted at IWU.

Grade	Quality Points (per credit)
A	4.0
A-	3.7
B+	3.3
B	3.0
B-	2.7
C+	2.3
C	2.0
C-	1.7
D+	1.3
D	1.0
F	.0

The following grades are not figured into the GPA:

W

CR

AU

Repeated Courses - A student may repeat any course once in which a grade below "C" ("C-," "D+," "D," or "F") was previously earned. Some specific graduate level courses are identified as repeatable and can be repeated if a student earns a grade higher than "C" but below the level required for that specific course. The course may be repeated once.

Whenever a course is repeated, the last grade and credits earned replace the previous grade in computing the student's grade point average (GPA). All entries, however, remain a part of the student's permanent academic record. Duplicate credit hours are not given for two or more passing efforts. A course taken in a classroom format may not be repeated for a grade through independent learning.

Since a course may be repeated once, failure to achieve a satisfactory grade in a course after two attempts will result in academic suspension and ineligibility to complete the major in which the course was repeated.

Incomplete Grades - Students are to complete the course requirements by the last class session. However, extenuating circumstances may prevent the student from completing the course requirements in a timely manner. In these rare situations, to prevent grade penalization, a student may request an incomplete grade ("I") if he/she has met the course attendance requirements and completes the following process:

- Via email communication, the student must request an "I" from the instructor.
- The instructor must obtain approval from the appropriate Program Director.

A student who receives an "I" has until the end of the subsequent term to complete and submit course requirements to the instructor issuing the "I" grade. If the student fails to complete the course requirements in the allotted time, the "I" will automatically become an "F."

Grade Reports - At the end of each course, the instructor submits grades for each student. Grade reports are available online to the student and indicate courses taken, credits received, and grades assigned.

Transcripts - The student's official transcript is prepared by the Indiana Wesleyan University Registrar's Office and will show the course, grade, credit, and dates of instruction for each course. Transcripts will include undergraduate and graduate work with the GPA divided into undergraduate and graduate calculations. Requests for transcripts of coursework at Indiana Wesleyan University must conform with the Privacy Act of 1974, which requires that all transcript requests be submitted in writing and signed by the student, for protection of the student's confidentiality. A transcript is official only when it bears the university seal.

It is university policy not to release a transcript if the student has any financial holds on their record or if he or she is delinquent on any loan received through Indiana Wesleyan University. A $5 fee is charged for each transcript, with an additional $2.50 Parchment ordering fee. Payment must be provided, along with a complete address to which the transcript is to be delivered. Please provide a current address if request is to be sent to student's home. Transcript requests can be accessed by visiting <http://www.indwes.edu/Academics/Registrar/Transcript> and submitting the request through the ordering service.

Graduation

Graduation Ceremonies - IWU graduation ceremonies (Commencement) are held two times a year. Degrees are conferred and posted to the student's transcript on these dates. Four additional conferral dates are available in between the graduation ceremonies in which degrees may be conferred and posted to the student's transcript should all requirements be completed.

Students eligible for graduation (Commencement) are notified by the Office of Student Services of procedures and requirements for participation.

Each student must complete an "Application for Graduation" provided by the Office of Student Services. This application indicates the student's intent to graduate and initiates the final evaluation of the student's academic record.

Students are also asked to inform the university as to whether they will be attending the ceremony. This allows the university to determine the number of tickets available for students who are attending. If a student cannot attend graduation due to unforeseen circumstances, the degree is still conferred; however, attendance at a future graduation for that degree is not an option.

Graduation Requirements - All graduation requirements must be met and transcribed by Office of Student Services' established deadline. Students taking internal or external coursework need to ensure that transcripts, grades, and scores are received and transcribed by the deadline date.

Students may only receive one degree per commencement. Students meeting graduation requirements for multiple degrees need to apply for participation in one ceremony per degree. University-approved dual degree programs are an exception to this policy.

Students who have received a degree from IWU and have returned to meet requirements for an additional major at the same degree level will have the second major posted to their existing degree. The second major can only be posted at one of the six conferral dates. Such students are not eligible to participate in a graduation ceremony for the completion second major.

Diplomas - Diplomas are mailed after the conferment of degrees. Diplomas indicate degree earned and date of degree. A student's financial account must be settled to receive a diploma.

Leave of Absence Policy

Indiana Wesleyan University understands there are life events that may require a student to modify class enrollment and schedules. The leave of absence policy is designed to allow students flexibility in their program enrollment to adjust to these life events. The leave of absence policy also extends to students the ability to make up any courses missed during the approved leave.

A student on an approved leave of absence will be considered enrolled at IWU and eligible for an in-school deferment for student aid loans. Federal financial aid and in-school deferment may be negatively impacted if a student fails to apply for the leave of absence or if the application is denied. This impacts students who receive Title IV federal financial aid (Federal Pell Grants, Federal Supplemental Grants, Federal Stafford Subsidized or Unsubsidized Loans, Federal Parent Loans) or who want to have a federal student loan deferred from payment while in school.

Students who will be out of attendance for a period of 29 days or more should request a leave of absence. Students out of class for less than 29 days are not eligible for a leave of absence, and a recalculation on current financial aid will be done. Students who are not on federal financial aid programs or who do not have a federal loan in deferment are not required to request a leave of absence.

Students needing to make a change in their schedule need to contact the Office of Student Services to process the registration change. At that time, the leave of absence request form will be emailed to the student. Students must request the leave within 21 days of initiating the registration change. The request for a leave of absence should be made prior to the date the leave is to start. The start date of the leave is the first date of the class or, if the class has already started, the date the registration change is initiated.

An approved leave of absence must meet the following criteria: in the academic year the student has to be in attendance 2 weeks prior to applying for a leave, the request must be received within 21 days of the registration change; the request must be made prior to the start of the leave (first day of class); the reason for the request must be one approved by IWU's Leave of Absence Committee (military, medical, jury duty, loss of job, family emergency, employment emergency, transfer of coursework, passing pre-requisite requirement, changing programs, administrative cancellation of core classes, or other reasons as approved by the Leave of Absence Committee).

The leave of absence together with any additional leaves of absence must not exceed a total of 180 days in any 12-month period. Time in excess of 180 days will not be approved. A student may request an extension to a leave providing the request is made before the end of the leave, there are unforeseen circumstances which prevent the return from the leave, and the total number of days of approved leave do not exceed 180 in a 12-month period. A maximum of two leaves of absence are allowed during a 12-month period. Documentation is required for an extension on a leave. Documentation for each circumstance will vary; the student is required to provide whatever paperwork from a third party will attest to the circumstance outlined on the application form. Examples would include physicians' statements, letters from employers, letters from pastors or counselors, court documents, etc. Documentation is also required if a request is submitted after the 21 day deadline, and needs to address the reason for the delay in the submission of the request.

Failure to return from an approved leave of absence nullifies the approved leave and may have an impact on student loan repayment terms as well as the grace period. The first day of the leave will be reported as the beginning of the grace period for loan deferment. Students may return early from an approved leave of absence prior to the leave end date. The leave will be shortened according to the student's return date.

Students will not receive disbursements of Title IV student loan financial aid funds during the leave. Students are not deferred from making regularly scheduled payments to the Accounting Office for normal fees incurred. Any change in registration can impact current financial aid regardless of approval or denial of the leave of absence request. Questions about impact on current financial aid should be directed to the Financial Aid Office at 800-621-8667 ext. 2516. Students on an approved leave of absence will be reported as such and will be eligible for in-school deferment of previous loans. Students whose request for a leave of absence is denied will be reported as withdrawn and the grace period for loan repayment will go into effect.

Military Leave of Absence Policy

The Higher Education Opportunity Act enacted on August 13, 2008, states that a university may not deny admission or readmission to a service member for reasons relating to that service. The service member qualifies if the school is given notice of absence for service, the cumulative length of absence does not exceed five years, and the student gives notice of his or her intent to return.

Indiana Wesleyan University complies with this act with the following:

Academic:

- Students are not required to reapply and are not charged a readmission fee upon return.
- Students are readmitted at the same academic status (program enrollment status, number of completed credit hours, academic standing) before deployment. Students may return under the catalog that was in effect before deployment. Student may find differences in their programs or the catalog if the programs are no longer offered, or changes have occurred due to external accrediting bodies, licensing board or other external agencies.
- Leave time does not count toward the total time required to earn the degree.
- Students will be promptly readmitted in the next class or classes in a program, will qualify for priority/early registration, and may not be denied re-enrollment in a class based on class size.

Financial:

Students are required to complete a Military Leave of Absence Request. When the request is approved, students' accounts will be adjusted as necessary.

Financial Aid:

Indiana Wesleyan University is committed to assisting military students in navigating the impact that active duty will have on financial aid. It is important that each student have conversation with the Financial Aid office to ensure proper paperwork and processes are covered as it relates to a leave of absence.

Students with federal financial aid, federal loan obligations, or military tuition assistance must contact their lenders and/or the military education office to ascertain their loan repayment status or repayment of tuition assistance during the leave of absence.

Petitions, Appeals, Grievances

During a student's academic career, there may be occasion to file a petition, an appeal or a grievance.

- A petition is used to request an exception to an academic policy.
- An appeal is used either to request a change in grade or to appeal the decision of a petition.
- An academic policy and non-academic policy grievance involves those situations in which a student believes that the university has not followed published policies regarding an academic or non-academic decision or discrimination based on race, national origin, color, sex, disability, or age, including Title VI, Title IX, and Section 504.

Students taking courses outside of the School of Health Sciences are expected to follow the guidelines established by the Principal Academic Unit (e.g., School of Nursing, College of Arts and Sciences, College of Adult and Professional Studies) from which the course is taken for matters pertaining to courses/classes/policies.

Grade Appeal - School of Health Sciences

Indiana Wesleyan University follows generally accepted college and university practice in the development of academic policies, the operation of classrooms, and use of grading techniques. The university allows its instructors independence in following generally accepted practices. A student who wishes to appeal a course grade must abide by the procedures that follow.

Time frames referenced within are based on the ordinary grade appeal process. More time may be necessary in the event of a lengthy investigation, hearing, illness, university breaks, or other unforeseen circumstances. All grade appeals, including documentation, recommendations, and decisions, are reported to the School of Health Sciences Dean's office. Because the appeal process is a private university administrative process, legal counsel or representation is inappropriate.

Grade Appeal

A grade appeal involves only those situations in which a student believes that an instructor (a) has not followed fair grading practice or (b) has not followed his or her published grading policy. A student who wishes to appeal a grade based on one or both of these reasons must follow these procedures:

Informal Process:

- The student should contact the professor for a full explanation of the grade given and the basis for making the grade within 10 days of the posting of the grade.
- The informal process may end at any time and the complainant may begin the formal process as described below.

Formal Process:

Step 1

- If there is no resolution during the informal process, the student may file a grade appeal request form, which can be obtained from the School of Health Sciences' Dean's office. If a properly completed grade appeal request form is not received by the Program Director* within 20 days of the grade posting date, the student forfeits further right to appeal.
- After the university receives the grade appeal request form, the director will notify the instructor on the nature of the appeal, provide the faculty grade appeal response form to the instructor, and seek to mediate the dispute through the following steps:
 - Discussion of the facts of the case seeking resolution within 10 days.

- If the faculty member's stated policy for calculating the grade has not been followed, the Program Director will insist that it be followed. The role of the Program Director or Dean is not to re-grade the assignment(s).

Step 2

- If the instructor agrees that the grade should be changed, the instructor will change the grade and the academic record will be updated.
- If the instructor does not agree that the grade should be changed, the Program Director will request a second reading of the specific paper or examination by two faculty members with knowledge in the academic discipline. They will submit their completed rubrics or evaluations to the Program Director within 10 days.
- The grade appeal form, faculty grade appeal response form, and the evaluation of the specific paper or examination will be submitted to the School of Health Sciences Student Development Council.
- Upon receipt of the request for council review from the student, the matter will be brought to the next regularly scheduled School of Health Sciences Student Life Development meeting. (NOTE: The Council reserves the right to seek clarification from the student, additional graders, or the instructor). If the matter involves a member of the council, then that individual will recuse himself/herself from deciding the appeal.
- The Council will notify the student of its decision, which will be final.
- The complainant will be notified of results at each step of the grade appeal process by the chair of the School of Health Sciences Student Development Council.
- All grade appeals, including documentation, recommendations, and decisions related to federal or state regulations, will be reported to the Dean of the School of Health Sciences.
- Depending on the situation, the timeline may be expedited.

*If the matter involves the Program Director as the instructor, the Dean of the School of Health Sciences will assume the role of the Program Director for the purpose of this process.

Academic Policy Appeal - School of Health Sciences

An academic policy appeal involves only those situations in which a student is seeking recourse from (a) a university academic petition decision; or (b) alleged discrimination on the basis of race, national origin, color, sex, disability, or age, including alleged violation of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Educational Amendments Acts of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the American with Disabilities Act of 1990, or other state or federal legislation.

Time frames referenced within are based on the ordinary academic policy appeal process. More time may be necessary in the event of a lengthy investigation, hearing, illness, university breaks, or other unforeseen circumstances.

Academic Policy Grievance - School of Health Sciences

An academic policy grievance involves those situations in which a student believes that the university has not followed published policies regarding an academic decision or discrimination based on race, national origin, color, sex, disability, or age, including Title VI, Title IX, and Section 504. Examples of academic policies include but are not limited to admission criteria, readmission criteria, etc.

All academic policy grievances will be reported to the Dean of the School of Health Science. Because the grievance process is a private university administrative process, legal counsel or representation is inappropriate.

A student who wishes to file an academic policy grievance must follow these procedures:

- Level 1 - The student must first contact the person whom the student believes did not follow published policies, within 10 business days for a full explanation of the policy and how the policy was or was not followed.
- Level 2 - If the policy was not followed or the student disputes the way in which the policy was applied, then the student may obtain an Indiana Wesleyan University School of Health Sciences Academic Grievance and Appeal Form from the School of Health Sciences' Dean's office requesting such a review. If a properly completed form is not received by the SHS Dean's office within 10 business days of the date on which the event that gave rise to the complaint occurs, then the student will forfeit any further right to appeal. If this is the case then the Dean will notify the student of the decision, otherwise the matter will move to Level 3.

- Level 3 - If the matter is not satisfactorily resolved and the Dean's office receives a properly completed form within the stated time frame as outlined in Level 2, then the Dean will charge the School of Health Sciences Student Appeals Committee to review the matter. The School of Health Sciences Student Appeals Committee will notify the student of its decision, which will be final.

Withdrawal/Change in Status

A student who finds it necessary to withdraw from the program or to take a temporary leave of absence is required to contact the Office of Student Services to complete this process. Students in an online course must request the withdrawal prior to the beginning of the last workshop. Failure to initiate an official withdrawal will result in a "No Credit" or an "F" grade for the student in those related courses.

A student who is temporarily withdrawing may request an individual leave of absence up to 180 days in a 12 month period. A student cannot request more than two leaves during a 12 month period, and the total number of days on leave may not exceed 180 days within a 12 month period. All leaves must be requested through the Office of Student Services.

If a student officially withdraws after a course has started, a grade of "W" will be assigned. An "F" will be assigned to a student who stops attending but does not officially withdraw. Students who never attend a class and do not withdraw will be administratively withdrawn from the course and from all subsequent courses. Students must then go through the normal readmittance process to return to class.

Students who are unable to complete a course or who receive an unsatisfactory grade for their specific program will be allowed to repeat that course with another group of students if arrangements are made with the Office of Student Services and the School of Health Sciences. Tuition and fees will be charged for repeating the course.

Students withdrawing from the first term of a core program must withdraw from the entire program and re-enter with another cohort..

If, at a later time the student wishes to re-enter the program, a re-entry form must be submitted to the Office of Student Services. Receipt of the signed application will initiate a review of the student's academic file to determine remaining requirements. A student who was academically suspended from any of the School of Health Sciences programs may make application to the Dean of the School of Health Sciences for readmission after six months. Students re-entering a core program after six months or more are subject to any changes in curriculum upon returning.

Any change in registration may have an impact on the student's financial aid. Students should always check with the financial aid office before initiating a registration change.

Policy on Academic Credentials and Programs

This policy applies to all academic units of the university.

Indiana Wesleyan University awards academic credentials (degrees and certificates) to students who complete defined programs of study. Each credential is defined in terms of a set of essential learning outcomes, which may include discipline-specific and general education outcomes, as well as credit hour and other specifications. Each program of study for a particular credential maps the credential learning outcomes to a series of credit-bearing courses.

As appropriate, given the learning outcomes and alignment of involved programs and courses, credits may be shared between academic credentials and sub-credentials awarded coevally, within the following boundaries.

1. The student must fulfill all of the requirements for any credential awarded.
2. Credits may be shared between a major and a minor, as long as the minor includes at least 15 unique credit hours unshared with any other major or minor.
3. Credits may be shared between two minors, as long as each minor includes at least 15 unique credit hours unshared with any other major or minor.
4. Credits may be shared between two undergraduate majors as long as there are 51 unique (unduplicated) credit hours between the two majors.
5. Credits may be shared between two graduate majors as long as two thirds of the credits in each major are unique (unduplicated).
6. Up to three credit hours may be shared between a certificate and a minor.

7. Up to six credit hours may be shared between a certificate and a major (undergraduate or graduate).
8. A major or minor may be added to a previously awarded baccalaureate degree. The student must complete all of the course requirements for the major or minor and a minimum of nine new credits hours must be earned. New general education requirements need not be met to post an additional major or minor. Students adding a major or minor are not eligible to participate in commencement ceremonies again. The additional major or minor will be posted to the transcript only on one of the conferral dates.

As appropriate, given the learning outcomes and alignment of involved programs and courses, credits applied to a previously-awarded IWU academic credential may be applied, without surrender of the prior credential, to another IWU academic credential within the following boundaries.

1. The student must fulfill all of the requirements for any credential awarded.
2. For credits from a prior IWU academic credential to be applied to a second IWU academic credential, the second academic program must be started within ten years of the awarding of the first credential. Exceptions must be approved by the dean (or equivalent) of the school sponsoring the academic program of the second credential. Individual academic programs may specify more strict credit-age limits if warranted by the discipline.
3. The credits from a previously-awarded undergraduate certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of an associate's degree or a bachelor's degree.
4. Up to 6 credits from a previously-awarded associate's degree or bachelor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of an undergraduate certificate.
5. The credits from a previously-awarded associate's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different associate's degree, as long as each credential has at least 25% unique credits.
6. The credits from a previously-awarded associate's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a bachelor's degree.
7. The credits from a previously-awarded bachelor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different bachelor's degree, as long as each credential has at least 25% unique credits.
8. The credits from a previously-awarded bachelor's degree or undergraduate certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a master's degree, limited by the provisions of the Undergraduate and Graduate Credit Crossover Policy.
9. The credits from a previously-awarded graduate certificate or post-masters certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a master's degree.
10. The credits from a previously-awarded graduate certificate or post-masters certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a doctor's degree.
11. Credits from a previously-awarded master's degree or doctor's degree may be applied to fulfill up to 1/3 of the requirements of a graduate certificate.
12. The credits from a previously-awarded master's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different master's degree, as long as each credential has at least 50% unique credits.
13. The credits from a previously-awarded master's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a doctor's degree, as long as the doctor's degree has at least 50% unique credits.
14. The credits from a previously-awarded doctor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different doctor's degree, as long as each credential has at least 50% unique credits.

Tuition and Fees

The total cost of the program, including tuition and any fees, will be determined prior to the student's enrollment.

Refund Policy - Degree Programs

For courses consisting of 4-6 workshops:

- If a student requests withdrawal during the first week of the course, all charges are forgiven except books and embedded resources.

- If a student requests withdrawal during the 2nd week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 75%.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 3rd week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 50%.
- If the student requests withdrawal after the 3rd week, there is no refund.

For courses consisting of at least 7 workshops:

- If a student requests withdrawal during the first week of the course, all charges are forgiven except books and embedded resources.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 2nd week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 90%.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 3rd week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 75%.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 4th week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 50%.
- If the student requests withdrawal after the 4th week, there is no refund.

For courses that are one week in length, tuition and technology fee are refunded according to the following schedule:

- Withdrawal requested within the first onsite day (2nd day on the course calendar) – 100% tuition and tech fee refund.
- Withdrawal requested after the first onsite day – no tuition or tech fee refund.

Changes to a student's schedule may affect their financial aid. Call the Financial Aid Office for information.

Financial Aid - School of Health Sciences

Types of Student Financial Aid Available

The following types of student financial aid are available to persons enrolled as degree-seeking students who meet the eligibility criteria for the aid type. Complete fund profiles may be found online at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/types-of-aid>.

Federal Pell Grant – is a federal need-based grant that does not require repayment. The Pell Grant is available only to undergraduate students (OTA program) who have not earned a bachelor's nor professional degree and who have not met their maximum lifetime eligibility, which is the equivalent of six school years. Recipients must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and show financial need. The award amount is based on the Expected Family Contribution found on the Student Aid Report, a student's enrollment status at the beginning of each term, and the cost of attendance. The maximum award amount for the 2020-2021 award year is $6,345.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG) – is a federal grant that does not require repayment and is available to undergraduate students (OTA program) who have not earned a bachelor's nor professional degree. Eligibility is determined by answers provided on the FAFSA form with priority to Federal Pell Grant recipients. The maximum award amount for the 2020-2021 award year is $400. Awards are made to eligible recipients until all funds have been exhausted.

Indiana State Grant Aid – primarily consists of the Frank O'Bannon Grant, the 21st Century Scholarship, and the Adult Student Grant. Indiana grant recipients may take courses that meet at a site located within Indiana or online. Tuition reimbursement that a student receives may affect the amount of the state grant award. For the Frank O'Bannon Award, eligible students must be Indiana residents in an undergraduate program (OTA program) and attending full-time, eligible for federal student financial aid, whose FAFSA was received by the federal processor on or before the state filing deadline, and who demonstrate financial need as defined by the Indiana Commission for Higher Education, Division of Student Financial Aid. The Frank O'Bannon award is a tuition- and fee-only grant. More details are available on the state website at <https://www.in.gov/che/4506.htm>.

For the 21st Century Scholarship, please refer to the state website at <https://learnmoreindiana.org/scholars> for the eligibility requirements and other details.

For the Adult Student Grant, please refer to the state website at <https://www.in.gov/che/4509.htm> for eligibility requirements and other details.

Students receiving Indiana grant awards are required to meet certain credit completion requirements to renew Indiana grant awards for subsequent years.

- For Frank O'Bannon Grant maximum award renewal, students must successfully complete (receive passing grades for) at least 30 credit hours during each state academic year ("on-time" renewal). Frank O'Bannon Grant students who successfully complete at least 24 credit hours each state academic year ("full-time" renewal) will remain eligible for the grant but will receive a lesser amount than a student who completes 30 credit hours.
- For 21st Century Scholarship renewal, students must successfully complete at least 30 credit hours each state academic year to renew eligibility for subsequent years.
- For Adult Student Grant renewal, students must successfully complete 18 credit hours in the state academic year to renew eligibility for subsequent years.

William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan – is available to students who file the FAFSA and all other required student financial aid forms and who meet all federal criteria for eligibility. The maximum annual loan amounts for dependent students are $5,500 for freshmen, $6,500 for sophomores and $7,500 for juniors and seniors. The maximum annual loan amounts for independent students are $9,500 for freshmen, $10,500 for sophomores, $12,500 for juniors and seniors, and $20,500 for graduate students. Lifetime maximum borrowing limits are $57,500 for undergraduate programs and $138,500 for graduate programs (including undergraduate borrowing). For undergraduate students who demonstrate financial need and who have not met their lifetime maximum borrowing limits, the federal government subsidizes loan interest for a portion of the total annual loan amount while the student is enrolled in school. Interest rates are set on July 1 each year and are fixed rates. For July 1, 2020, through June 30, 2021, the interest rate is 2.75% for subsidized and unsubsidized Direct Loans for undergraduate students. The interest rate is 4.30% for unsubsidized Direct Loans for graduate students.

A student's total financial assistance, including loans, may not exceed the calculated cost of attendance for the program. Students with unsubsidized loans may elect to make monthly interest payments to the lender or allow the accumulated interest to accrue until repayment, which begins six months after the student ceases to be enrolled as at least a half-time student. Upon graduation or termination of studies, the student is given a six-month grace period during which no interest or principal payments are due on subsidized loans and during which only interest accrues on the unsubsidized loans. The standard minimum monthly payment is $50, but the amount varies based on the total amount of the outstanding loans upon which the student is paying and the type of repayment plan the student has chosen.

Undergraduate PLUS Federal Direct Loan – is a federal loan with a fixed 5.30% interest rate available to parents of dependent undergraduate students (OTA program) who have remaining cost of attendance not met by subsidized/unsubsidized William D. Ford Federal Direct Loans. This is a credit-based federal loan.

Graduate PLUS Federal Direct Loan – is a federal loan with a fixed 5.30% interest rate available to graduate students who have remaining cost of attendance not met by an unsubsidized William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan. This is a credit-based federal loan.

Military Preferred Tuition Discount – is a tuition discount to all active duty military personnel, National Guard, Reserves, retirees, veterans, spouses, surviving spouses, dependents with educational benefits, and DoD employees. Students must submit a discount application, available online at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/Military-Preferred-Tuition-Application-2020-2021.pdf>.

Educational Partner Discount – is a tuition discount given to students employed by one of IWU's educational partners. Students must submit a discount application, available from your program representative or by emailing N&Gdiscounts@indwes.edu.

Yellow Ribbon Award – is an award that does not have to be repaid and is available to eligible students who receive Chapter 33 benefits. The amount eligible students receive reflects 50% of the tuition expenses that exceed the highest public in-state undergraduate tuition rate. The VA matches that contribution to cover fully the tuition costs.

General Eligibility Requirements

In order to receive federal and/or state student financial aid, students must meet the following criteria:

- Must have completed the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) including signing all certifying statements.
- Must be a U.S. citizen or eligible noncitizen.

- Must have a valid Social Security number (with the exception of students from the Republic of the Marshall Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, or the Republic of Palau).
- Must be registered with Selective Service, if required.
- Must not be in default on a Title IV loan or owe a Title IV grant or loan overpayment.
- Must not have borrowed in excess of annual or aggregate Title IV loan limits.
- Must certify that they will use Title IV aid only to pay educational costs.
- Must not have enrolled in multiple institutions solely to obtain Title IV credit balance funds to pay expenses not educationally related.
- Must not have a disqualifying drug conviction.
- Must be enrolled as a regular student (cannot be unclassified) in an eligible degree or certificate program.
- Must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) as outlined in IWU's SAP Policy.
- Must show qualification to obtain a college education by having a high school diploma, GED certificate, or a high school education in a homeschool setting approved under state law.
- Must maintain enrollment in classes.

Per federal regulations, incarcerated students are not eligible for federal student financial aid. Incarcerated students or students who become incarcerated after receiving federal student financial aid funds should contact the Financial Aid Office.

How to Apply for Student Financial Aid

Students who wish to be considered for federal and/or state student financial aid must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Links to the application process online are provided at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/apply-for-aid>:

- When completing the FAFSA (direct link is <https://studentaid.gov/h/apply-for-aid/fafsa>) you must list IWU's Title IV Code, 001822, or IWU will not receive your FAFSA information from the federal processor.
- You must disclose any additional funding you will receive from employer reimbursement, vocational rehabilitation, or private scholarships to help pay for your education. To facilitate this requirement, complete the Other Aid Source Disclosure Form.

- If loans are desired, students must complete the Loan Entrance Counseling Session and William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan Master Promissory Note online (direct link is <https://studentaid.gov>). You must have an established Federal Student Aid (FSA) ID and password in order to complete these items. It may be necessary to wait three days from the time you first create your FSA ID before trying to sign in to this website. For each item, you must enter "Indiana" in the School State field even if you attend classes in another state or online.
- Entrance Counseling Session: Log in using your FSA ID and password. Hover over COMPLETE AID PROCESS in the navigation bar and select Complete Entrance Counseling. Add IWU as a School to Notify and select the appropriate Student Type for your current degree pursuit—undergraduate or graduate.
- Master Promissory Note: Log in using your FSA ID and password. Hover over COMPLETE AID PROCESS in the navigation bar and select Subsidized/Unsubsidized Loan MPN.
- The Financial Aid Office's standard practice is to originate federal student loans for the amount of a student's maximum eligibility. If you wish to have a lesser loan amount awarded than your maximum eligibility, complete the Reduced Loan Request form.

Once the above steps have been completed, be certain to:

- Quickly respond to requests for additional information from the Financial Aid Office. You may be asked, as required by federal regulations, to provide items for review in a process called Verification. Some items that may be requested are: a completed Verification Worksheet, a completed and notarized Identity and Statement of Educational Purpose Form, and a signed copy of your Federal Income Tax Return (and your spouse's or parents' as appropriate).
- Fully complete all forms. Forms filled out incorrectly or submitted to the wrong office or location could complicate your approval to begin classes or delay your student financial aid awards package.

How and When Student Financial Aid is Disbursed

Federal Pell Grant is disbursed as a credit to the IWU student account in one payment per term.

Federal SEOG is disbursed as a credit to the IWU student account in one payment per term.

Indiana State Grant Aid is disbursed as a credit to the IWU student account in one payment per state term. There are three or four state terms in the state academic year. The first state term begins in the first term where a student is enrolled full-time. For students enrolled full-time on the 28th day of the state grant term, the earliest date state grant funds will be disbursed is on the 29th day of that term. For students not enrolled full-time on the 28th day of the state grant term but who later become enrolled full-time within that term, the earliest date state grant funds will be disbursed is on the last day of the course in which the student completes full-time enrollment for the term.

Federal Direct Loans are disbursed as a credit to the IWU student account, generally in one payment per term with that disbursement occurring approximately 10 days after the start of the first class attended in the term.

All other types of aid are awarded and disbursement dates set as the necessary paperwork is received.

Applying for student financial aid does not remove responsibility for payment. If the funding is not received, the student must pay all outstanding balances immediately.

How Eligibility is Determined and Student Financial Aid is Awarded

- An estimated federal awards package typically is available within a week of submitting the FAFSA. In general, award amounts are based on a student's Expected Family Contribution found on the Student Aid Report, a student's enrollment status, the cost of attendance, and other estimated financial assistance. The Financial Aid Office will award a student for his or her maximum eligibility in scholarship, grant, and loan funds unless otherwise instructed in writing. Complete the Reduced Loan Request form to request a loan amount less than the maximum.
- Students must be enrolled at least half-time for the term for federal loan funds to be disbursed. Any changes to planned enrollment may affect the amount and/or disbursement date(s) of aid for which the student may qualify.
- The Financial Aid Office will email notification to the IWU student email account that student financial aid has been awarded and is available for review online via the student portal at <https://myiwu.indwes.edu>. This secure website will indicate the types and amounts of aid for which the student qualifies. To decline all or a portion of the awarded aid, the student must submit a written request to the Financial Aid Office or all awarded aid will disburse to the IWU student account, as appropriate. Complete the Reduced Loan Request form to request a loan amount less than the maximum. The student does not need to contact the Financial Aid Office to accept an awards package.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)

Students are expected to maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress toward the completion of their course of study. This includes:

- Enrolling in and attending class as well as completing assignments and projects.
- Earning at least the minimum GPA required to maintain good academic standing in the student's primary degree or certificate program.
- Earning passing grades in a minimum of 67% of all credit hours attempted.
- For undergraduate students, completing the program within 150% of the credit hours normally required to complete the course of study (e.g., if the program requires 120 credit hours to complete, then the student may attempt no more than 180 credit hours) or, for graduate students, within the maximum time allowed by the academic department to complete the degree.

Academic progress is reviewed after the end of each term/award period. Students who fail to make satisfactory academic progress will be placed onto SAP Warning or Suspension, as appropriate, per the policy requirements. Students with mitigating circumstances (which may include, but is not limited to, death in the family or grave illness of the student or close family member) may appeal termination of federal student financial aid eligibility due to failure to make academic progress by submitting a SAP Appeal Form, written explanation, and supporting documentation to the SAP Appeals Committee through the Financial Aid Office. The entire SAP Policy is available for review online at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/resources>.

Leaves of Absence, Withdrawals, and Return of Funds

A student may request leaves of absence through the Office of Student Services for breaks in attendance 180 days or less in any 12-month period. In the case there is an approved break between classes, a leave of absence will be reported to the lender, but no loan repayment will be required. If additional circumstances arise that prohibit the student from returning to class as scheduled, the student should contact the Financial Aid Office to discuss options. For a break between classes of more than 180 days in any 12-month period, the university is required to report non-enrollment information to the lender, and the student will be required to begin repayment of any student loans (see your loan promissory note for further information).

If a student finds it necessary to withdraw from the program, withdraw from a course or courses without an approved leave of absence, or take leaves of absence that exceed 180 days in a 12-month period, a federal student financial aid Return of Funds calculation will be performed. This calculation determines how much federal student financial aid has been earned and is based on the number of days attended during the term/payment period when the student withdraws. The amount of federal student financial aid funds to be returned by IWU to the funding source is based on the amount of those funds that the Return of Funds calculation determined were not earned by the student.

For courses that use Brightspace (LMS), Indiana Wesleyan will use the student's last date of engagement as the withdrawal date in the Return of Funds calculation. For courses that do not use Brightspace, Indiana Wesleyan will use the later of the notification of the intent to withdraw or the documented LDARA. The official notification of intent to withdrawal will be recorded by the Office of Student Services and may include verbal or written communication. If the withdrawal date falls during a scheduled break within the term, the withdrawal date will refer back to the last date before the scheduled break began. The withdrawal date may never fall within a scheduled break of five days or more.

Due to extenuating circumstances, for students who are unable to officially withdraw, the institution will use the last confirmed date of academic engagement as determined in Brightspace. For courses that do not use Brightspace, faculty will be contacted to determine LDARA.

When a student withdraws, outstanding Title IV credit balances will be placed on hold until the R2T4 calculation has been completed. If a credit balance exists on the student's account after applying any institutional refund policies and the R2T4 calculation, the institution will disburse the credit balance to the student as soon as possible but no later than 14 days from the date the school performed the R2T4 calculation.

The following are examples of the Return of Funds calculations for programs offered in standard terms, nonstandard terms, and nonterm academic calendars:

Standard Term:

- R2T4 calculations will be performed on a payment period basis. The payment period is the term.
- The student begins class on August 30, and the term/payment period runs until December 15.
- The student withdraws from the program on October 4.
- The term/payment period has 103 calendar days in it (not including break periods), and the student completed 36 days which is 35.0% of the payment period.
- The amount of the funds to be returned will be 65.0% of the federal student financial aid funds received.
- The portion of the federal student financial aid funds that the school must return is equal to the lesser of:
 - The institutional charges multiplied by the unearned percentage of your funds, or
 - The entire amount of excess funds

Nonstandard term:

- R2T4 calculations will be performed on a payment period basis. The payment period is the term.
- The student begins class on March 2 and the term/payment period runs until May 24.
- The student withdraws from the program on March 20.
- The term/payment period has 84 calendar days in it (not including break periods) and the student completed 19 days which is 22.6% of the payment period.
- The amount of the funds to be returned will be 77.4% of the federal student financial aid funds received.
- The portion of the federal student financial aid funds that the school must return is equal to the lesser of:
 - The institutional charges multiplied by the unearned percentage of your funds, or
 - The entire amount of excess funds.

Nonterm:

- R2T4 calculations will be performed on a payment period basis.
- The student begins class on June 1 and the term/payment period runs until November 16.
- The student withdraws from the program on September 2.
- The term/payment period has 168 calendar days in it (not including break periods) and the student completed 93 days which is 55.4% of the payment period.
- The amount of the funds to be returned will be 44.6% of the federal student financial aid funds received.
- The portion of the federal student financial aid funds that the school must return is equal to the lesser of:
 - The institutional charges multiplied by the unearned percentage of your funds, or
 - The entire amount of excess funds.

The Financial Aid Office will determine the amount of the return of funds that is owed by IWU and the amount, if any, that is owed by the student. For any loan funds that are owed by the student, the student (or the parent for a Direct PLUS Loan) repays in accordance with the terms of the promissory note (e.g., scheduled payments are to be made to the holder of the loan over a period of time). A letter will be sent to the student indicating the results of the Return of Funds calculation and the amount of the return of funds, if any. The student will earn 100% of the federal student financial aid funds received for the term/payment period if the return of funds calculation shows the student completed 60% or more of the term/payment period. Additionally, state grant awards may be recalculated if the student drops below the minimum amount of credits and/or if tuition and fee charges must be revised as a result of the schedule change.

Funds will be returned to the federal student financial aid programs in the following order: unsubsidized Federal Direct Loan, subsidized Federal Direct Loan, Federal Perkins Loan, Federal Direct PLUS Loans, Federal Pell Grant, Federal SEOG, Federal TEACH Grant and other Title IV grants. The student will have 45 days to contact the Financial Aid Office to make arrangements to repay any federal grants that are owed by the student. Failure to make arrangements or to pay back the federal grants will mean the student is no longer eligible to receive federal student financial aid at any institution until full repayment.

Title IV Funds that the school is required to return must be returned as soon as possible but no later than 45 days after determining the student withdrew.

A post-withdrawal disbursement is a disbursement that occurs after the R2T4 calculation is completed, and it is determined that a student received less federal student aid than the amount earned. The post-withdrawal disbursement of a federal grant for funds earned in excess of outstanding current (educationally related) charges must be made directly to the student within 45 days of the date of determination that the student withdrew. Students and/or parents (in the case of Direct Parent PLUS loans) will be notified in writing of eligibility for a post-withdrawal loan disbursement within 30 days of the date the school determined the student withdrew. Students and/or parents will have 14 days to respond to the post-withdrawal offer. Post-withdrawal disbursements will be applied to outstanding allowable charges on the student account first and any resulting credit balance will be paid to the student and/or parent within 14 days of the disbursement.

The requirements for Title IV program funds when a student withdraws are separate from IWU's refund policy. Therefore, a student may still owe funds to the school to cover unpaid institutional charges. A student who requests the credit balance from his or her IWU student account and then makes registration changes may be required to repay funds to the university and/or to the student financial aid programs.

Student's Rights and Responsibilities

As a student, you have the right to know:

- What financial assistance is available, including information on all federal and state programs.
- The deadlines for submitting application for each of the student financial aid programs available.
- The cost of attending the school's programs and the school's refund policy.
- The criteria used by the institution to select financial aid recipients.
- How the school determines your financial need. This process includes how costs for tuition, fees, books, and living expenses are considered in your budget.
- What resources (such as employer reimbursement, other financial aid, etc.) are considered in the calculation of your need.
- How much of your financial need, as determined by the institution, has been met.
- An explanation of the various programs in your student financial aid package. If you believe you have been treated unfairly, you may request reconsideration of the award that was made to you.
- What portion of the student financial aid you received must be repaid, and what portion is grant aid. If the aid is a loan, you have the right to know the loan interest rate, the total amount that must be repaid, the payback procedures, the length of time you have to repay the loan, and when the repayment is to begin.

As a student, you are responsible to:

- Review and consider all information about the school's program before you enroll.
- Complete all required forms accurately and submit them in a timely manner to the correct address.
- Pay special attention to, and accurately complete, your FAFSA. Errors can result in delay of receipt of your student financial aid funds. Intentional misreporting of information on application forms for federal student financial aid is a violation of law and is considered a criminal offense subject to penalties under the U.S. Criminal Code.
- Return all additional information, verification, corrections, and/or new information requested by either the Financial Aid Office or the FAFSA central processor.
- Read and understand all the forms that you are asked to sign and keep copies of them.
- Accept responsibility for all agreements you sign.
- If you have a loan, notify the lender of changes in your name, address, or school status.
- Know and comply with the deadline for application or reapplication for aid.
- Know and comply with the school's leave of absence or withdrawal policy/procedures.

- Repay student loans in agreement with the loan promissory note.

Services for Students - School of Health Sciences

Academic Advising

The purpose of academic advising is to support students from enrollment to completion of degree requirements. Advisors help students understand all degree requirements and options to meet those requirements. Advisors also assist students in understanding policies and procedures, and communicating with departments such as Financial Aid and Accounting.

An academic advising team is assigned to each individual student and advises that student throughout the duration of his or her academic program. Advisors are available to meet one-on-one with students face to face, through email, by phone, or via video conference.

It is important that students maintain contact with their academic advising team in order to ensure timely progression toward degree completion as well as appropriate scheduling for maximum financial aid benefit.

Athletics

The Indiana Wesleyan University athletic program is an integral part of the institution's total education program, subject to the same aims, policies, and objectives as other institutional programs. The four core values of the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics are Spiritual Growth, Academic Excellence, Leadership Development, and Athletic Excellence.

The Wildcat men compete in intercollegiate soccer, tennis, cross-country, basketball, baseball, golf, and track and field. Memberships are held in the NAIA (National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics), the NCCAA (National Christian College Athletic Association), and the MCC (Mid-Central Conference).

The Wildcat women compete in intercollegiate soccer, tennis, golf, cross-country, volleyball, basketball, softball, and track and field. Memberships are held in the NAIA (National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics), the NCCAA (National Christian College Athletic Association), and the MCC (Mid-Central Conference). Our co-ed competitive cheer team competes in NCA National Competitions as well as cheering at all home basketball games.

The physical education and intramural sports departments provide vital programs to the students as well. Lifetime sport participation is emphasized in the physical education instruction program, while the intramural sports program allows students to pursue leisure time needs and interests in an organized and competitive manner.

Chaplaincy Program

Spiritcare, the Chaplaincy Program for IWU National & Global Campus, is a ministry that seeks to care for the spiritual needs of adult students by providing Christ-centered support, resources, and services. This is done primarily through online and onsite classroom visits, structured devotionals, direct emails, and Portal content. The goal is to provide supportive opportunities for the growth of the complete person. On-site and online students have direct contact with a caring pastor shepherd. Spiritcare offers help, hope, and healing for students in crises. Chaplains can provide the following:

- Confidential and caring support for student and family members as requested.
- Spiritual guidance and prayer support.
- Intervention and support during life crises and emergencies.
- Referrals to Biblical, private counsel and support groups for special needs.
- An opportunity to be referred to a local pastor and a local church congregation for students seeking to grow in their faith.

Students may obtain additional information about the Spiritcare Chaplaincy Program through the student portal at myiwu.indwes.edu/Chaplaincy or by contacting the Office of Student Services at 800-621-8667 ext. 2359.

Community Standards

Indiana Wesleyan University is a Christian university of higher education that upholds high standards of personal and professional conduct. Such standards include a classroom environment that promotes a positive learning environment and a professional instructional climate.

Students are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner with respect for the rights of both students and faculty. The university or its representatives reserve the right to act in situations where student behavior violates established policy or detracts from the ability of students or faculty to function effectively in the classroom. Such action may include disciplinary procedures issued by the faculty or suspension from the program. (NOTE: All discussion room and live chat postings for online courses are recorded and can be reviewed at the discretion of the university.)

Only regularly enrolled students may attend class unless granted permission by an administrator and arrangements are made with the instructor.

Drug Abuse Prevention

Drug abuse in the United States has become a major problem, and students at Indiana Wesleyan University are not immune. If you need assistance with a drug abuse problem, we encourage you to seek help at your local community drug abuse prevention center. To talk to someone in a strictly confidential atmosphere, please feel free to contact The Center for Student Success (800-332-6901) at our Marion campus. All conversations are private and will not affect your attendance at the university.

If you would like to talk to someone outside Indiana Wesleyan University, please feel free to call one of the following numbers, or a hospital or treatment center in your area:

Expectations for Personal and Professional Conduct

Indiana Wesleyan University is a Christian university of higher education that upholds high standards of personal and professional conduct. Such standards include a classroom environment that promotes a positive learning environment and a professional instructional climate.

Students are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner with respect for the rights of both students and faculty. The university or its representatives reserve the right to act in situations where student behavior violates established policy or detracts from the ability of students or faculty to function effectively in the classroom. Such action may include disciplinary procedures issued by the faculty, suspension from the program, or expulsion from the University. (NOTE: All discussion room and live chat postings for online courses are recorded and can be reviewed at the discretion of the university.)

Only regularly enrolled students may attend class unless granted permission by an administrator and arrangements are made with the instructor.

Food

Within the Barnes Student Center there are a variety of campus dining options. The food service contractor provides well-balanced meals at reasonable cost.

Commuter students are encouraged to eat their meals in the Baldwin dining room or the Wildcat Express. Commuter students may purchase points through Pioneer services that are applied to their ID card and used on a declining balance system.

Health Services

Students must submit a health history with required immunizations and insurance information as part of the admissions process to Indiana Wesleyan University. For those accessible to the IWU-Marion campus, the university Health Center is staffed by registered nurses, a nurse practitioner, and a part-time physician and serves students as well as faculty/staff. Students may be seen on a walk-in basis by a registered nurse or by appointment with the nurse practitioner and the physician. There is a fee to see the nurse practitioner and the physician, which can be billed to the student's insurance or paid by students. The Health Center has some prescription medications, including antibiotics, for a fee.

IMPORTANT: All students need to provide for their own health insurance. Health insurance is strongly encouraged for all students. The university has available a student health insurance plan for students that are not covered through parents, guardian, or employee. For information regarding student health insurance, contact the Health Center at healthcenter@indwes.edu.

Inclement Weather Procedures

The university is reluctant to postpone or cancel classes because the schedule is already very compressed and it is difficult to schedule make-up classes when needed. In order to make the most informed decisions possible, the university gathers information from the National Weather Service, State Police agencies, and Regional Deans and personnel (when appropriate). Unfortunately, the university cannot make the decision based on an individual student's geographical situation and the driving distance to and from class. Students should be aware, however, that they are expected to use discretion and not to take unreasonable risks. If students choose not to attend class, they should notify their instructor and make appropriate arrangements for make-up work. Decisions to postpone or cancel classes will be announced by the university. Regional locations will be judged by the Regional Deans. In the event it becomes necessary for a Regional Dean to recommend to the Chancellor for IWU-National and Global campus a weather related or emergency closing or postponement for onsite classes, affected faculty and students will make up the missed class session through an online alternative class session.

Instructors will contact students on the date class is cancelled with requirements for making up the cancelled class session through an online alternative.

In the event an onsite class session is cancelled that is deemed significant to the specific program (e.g., program orientation, the first class session of a program, the last class session of a program, etc.), the Regional Dean will petition the appropriate academic leaders to arrange a new date to make up the cancelled class session prior to the next scheduled class session.

To satisfy engagement requirements and earn discussion points (if applicable), all assignments associated with the cancelled class session must be submitted prior to the start of the next scheduled class session.

Postponement decisions for evening classes will be made by approximately 3:00 p.m. on the day of class. Decisions about Saturday classes will be made the evening before, when possible, but may be made during the early morning hours on the Saturday of class if necessary. No notification will be made unless classes are postponed or cancelled; information about postponements and/or cancellations will be announced on the university's Web site at <http://www.indwes.edu>. Announcements will also be posted on the student portal at <http://myIWU.indwes.edu> and on the class information phone line at 1-800-621-8667 ext. 2022.

Information Desk - Marion Campus

The Information Desk, located on the first floor of the Barnes Student Center, is the best location on campus to find details regarding phone numbers, campus events, and campus offices. Phone 765-677-4636 for more information.

Library Services

Off Campus Library Services provides both mediated and direct access to resources and services designed specifically for the adult student. The Jackson Library in Marion has thousands of materials via searchable databases, including both print and online journals; streaming media titles; print books and ebooks; and various formats of microform. These are all searchable via the secured Jackson Library databases. Small library collections are available at the Louisville campus, Ohio campuses at Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, and Dayton, as well as the Indiana campuses at Greenwood, Indianapolis (two locations), and Merrillville, and include some reference books and full access to the library catalog and subscription-based journal and book indexes. Remote access is also available to all databases through the university login. Students can get personalized assistance from OCLS librarians at Cincinnati, Cleveland, Indianapolis, Louisville, Marion, and Merrillville campuses. Librarians assist with general paper editing especially as it pertains to use of the writing style of their degree program. OCLS can also help troubleshoot basic word processing and PowerPoint challenges.

The Wesley Seminary student or distance student can contact OCLS via e-mail, 800 telephone, or chat service. Online access to the Library Resource Guide is available from the OCLS Web page; OCLS Tools. All provided services are further described in this document. One on one or group instruction about the services and databases of OCLS or a writing style is available by special appointment.

The library is part of a consortium, Academic Libraries of Indiana, which includes access to most library collections of Indiana higher education institutions. If attending classes in Kentucky or Ohio, the regional OCLS librarian can inform students about opportunities in their area.

Performing Arts

The Phillippe Performing Arts Center hosts performances by the IWU Music Division and IWU Theatre Guild. Performances are open to the campus community and the public.

This mission remains focused on a higher goal: to experience the limitless, wondrous creativity of how God is revealed to us through ministry in the arts.

Publications

Staff positions on the Sojourn (the student newspaper) are available for students interested in writing, photography, layout, and editing for print media. Paid positions are available for students.

The Sojourn is usually published every other week and made available to students. The newspaper covers many aspects of campus life through accurate and investigative reporting.

The Caesura is a literary magazine published each spring that features the creative writing and visual art of students.

Recreation

The mission of the Department of Campus Recreation is to provide a wide variety of quality recreation, sports, fitness, and leisure activities that will increase the overall wellness of the campus community and to provide dynamic programming that enhances leadership and social development in an environment that is fair, safe, and Christ-centered.

All enrolled students (resident and commuters) as well as faculty, staff, administrators, and their spouses are eligible to participate in activities sponsored by the Department of Campus Recreation.

Activities include, but are not limited to: intramural sand volleyball, flag football, softball, racquetball, tennis, wallyball, soccer, volleyball, basketball, golf, ultimate Frisbee, bowling, table tennis, and billiards.

Students, faculty, staff and administrators also have access to a state-of-the-art recreation and wellness facility.

Safety Policies and Campus Crime Statistics

IWU Safety Policies can be accessed at <http://www.indwes.edu/safety> and include crime statistics on certain reportable crimes, as well as policies concerning alcohol and drug use, crime reporting and prevention, sexual assault and other related matters. Anyone wishing a paper copy of the policies may contact the Office of Institutional Research at 765-677-1566.

Services for Disabled Students

IWU Disability Services

The goal of disability services at Indiana Wesleyan University is to work cooperatively with students to help them reach their maximum academic, social, and personal potential. This is accomplished by integrating legal expectations, Indiana Wesleyan's standards of service, and Christ-like principles. The Director of Accessibility and Accommodations is a trained professional, responsible for determining accommodation eligibility and for coordinating office services for students with disabilities. The director works with the students, faculty, and staff to design and implement a plan of reasonable accommodations that allows for equal access to all areas of university life.

Equal Access

Indiana Wesleyan University is committed to inclusion and equal access of individuals with disabilities. Individuals will not be discriminated against on the basis of disability or be denied equal access and appropriate accommodation to the educational opportunities available at IWU.

"No otherwise qualified person with a disability in the United States shall, solely on the basis of disability, be denied access to, or the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity in any institution receiving federal financial assistance." –Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

Admissions

Admission decisions are made without regard to disabilities. All prospective students are expected to present academic credentials that meet or exceed the minimum requirements for admissions.

Prospective students with disabilities are not required to identify themselves to the Admissions Office or the Director of Accessibility and Accommodations. However, those interested in receiving academic accommodations are encouraged to meet with, or contact, the Director of Accessibility and Accommodations as early as possible to allow for a review of documentation and the formulation of an accommodation plan.

Student Center

The Barnes Student Center is the community center of the university for all members of the university family — students, faculty, administration, alumni and guests. It represents a well-considered plan for the community life of the university.

The Barnes Student Center provides for the services, conveniences, and amenities that the members of the university family need in their daily life on campus and for getting to know and understand one another through informal association outside the classroom.

The Barnes Student Center is part of the university educational process. It provides a social and recreational program, aiming to make free time activity a cooperative factor with study in education. Its goal is the development of persons as well as intellects.

Student Address/Email Information

Students should notify the Office of Student Services of any change of address, telephone number, or name so that proper records can be maintained. Name change requests require submission of appropriate documentation.

IWU Student Email Accounts - Upon acceptance, students are given an IWU student e-mail account. This is the only account used by IWU for communication with the student. It is extremely important that the student checks this account on a regular basis as important academic and financial information as well as university announcements will be shared in this way.

Academic Programs - School of Health Sciences

The School of Health Sciences currently includes an Associate of Science with a major in Occupational Therapy Assistant (OTA) (p. 705) -offered at the Greenwood Education Center, a Post Professional Master of Science with a major in Athletic Training (MS AT) (p. 708), a Master of Public Health (MPH) (p. 711), and an Occupational Therapy doctoral degree (OTD) (p. 724). The School of Health Sciences is also planning to offer a doctoral degree in Physical Therapy in the near future at the IWU-Marion campus. All of the programs in the School are committed to continuing and building upon the strong foundation of interprofessional education that is present at Indiana Wesleyan University.

Associate of Science - Occupational Therapy Assistant

The Occupational Therapy Assistant (OTA) program is a comprehensive 75 credit-hour program designed to prepare entry-level OTA practitioners and will culminate in an Associate of Science degree. The development of this program in the School of Health Sciences (SHS) university setting follows not only the evolution of the profession to foster greater scholarship, but that of cultivating development alongside the Indiana Wesleyan University Entry-Level Doctor of Occupational Therapy (OTD) program. The School of Health Sciences includes Public Health, Athletic Training, and is developing a Doctor of Physical Therapy Program. The conscious inclusion of intraprofessional/interprofessional experiences throughout the OTA program is a direct response to both Accreditation Council for Occupational Therapy Education (ACOTE) accreditation recommendations and the movement within health professions education to best prepare healthcare practitioners for teamwork and successful collaboration in their eventual employment settings.

The OTA program's primary guiding model is the Person-Environment-Occupation-Performance (PEOP). The concepts and terminology are taken from the PEOP, the Occupational Therapy Practice Framework (OTPF), and the American Council on Occupational Therapy Education (ACOTE) standards.

The PEOP model is the foundation of the Division of Occupational Therapy, as a whole, of both the OTD and the OTA programs. The model was chosen, based on the focus on "occupation" as the core construct of the occupational therapy profession leading to interventions based in purposeful engagement in occupations that are necessary and meaningful to the client. The PEOP model definition of the "client" encompasses individuals, organizations, and populations. This provides the holistic framework for education guiding the OTA student, in not only understanding, the self as an occupational being, but translates to organizations, to communities, and to populations.

Upon completion of the IWU Occupational Therapy Assistant Program, students will be able to demonstrate:

- Christ-like character: view self as a reflective occupational being with need for balance in personal health/wellness/spiritual character, creativity, and professional knowledge and skills that lead to therapeutic use of self with diverse clients/populations/communities.
- Engagement in intraprofessional/interprofessional collaborative evidence-based practice: through critical thinking and collaboration, demonstrate clinical reasoning and carry out scientific evidence-based client centered interventions that enable performance and engagement in meaningful occupations supporting health, well-being, and participation in life.
- Commitment to serving as an “agent of change” in the Community: recognize, meet, and advocate for the diverse occupational needs of clients/populations in their communities there-by demonstrating servant leadership, contributing to meeting changing world needs and promoting health, well-being, inclusion, and quality of life.
- Professional commitment: communicate effectively and ethically, demonstrate scholarship preparing for life-long learning in current and emerging practice areas, demonstrate support for professional organizations, and actively advocate for individual clients, organizations, and population needs.

Mission

Provide a Christ-centered experiential occupational therapy assistant curriculum that fosters evidence-based practice and lifelong intraprofessional/interprofessional collaboration, development, and servant leadership in providing ethical client-centered, occupation-based care, responsive to changing world needs in everyday living.

Vision

Prepare entry-level Occupational Therapy Assistant practitioners who embrace the art and science of occupational therapy, committed to life-long Christ-like character in serving as culturally sensitive and innovative agents of change in their communities facilitating health, well-being, and participation in activities/occupations across the lifespan.

Accreditation

The occupational therapy assistant program has applied for accreditation and has been granted Candidacy Status by the Accreditation Council for Occupational Therapy Education (ACOTE) of the American Occupational Therapy Association (AOTA), located at 6116 Executive Boulevard, Suite 200 North Bethesda, MD 20852-4929. ACOTE's telephone number c/o AOTA is (301) 652-6611 and its Web address is www.acoteonline.org. The program must have a preaccreditation review, complete an on-site evaluation, and be granted Accreditation Status before its graduates will be eligible to sit for the national certification examination for the occupational therapy assistant administered by the National Board for Certification in Occupational Therapy (NBCOT). After successful completion of this exam, the individual will be a Certified Occupational Therapy Assistant (COTA). In addition, all states require licensure in order to practice; however, state licenses are usually based on the results of the NBCOT Certification Examination. Note that a felony conviction may affect a graduate's ability to sit for the NBCOT certification examination or attain state licensure.

Admission Requirements

The Occupational Therapy Assistant Program is a Selective Admissions Program, which means not every student in the applicant pool may be accepted. Admission to the Occupational Therapy Assistant Program is competitive and enrollment in the program is limited because of available faculty, financial, and fieldwork resources. Requirements for admission to the program include:

- Attend an information session, which outlines the education, examination, and licensure process for successful completion of the OTA program and career development.
- Proof of high school graduation or GED certification. Official transcripts.
- Official transcripts of all previous college work.
- Preference given for students who demonstrate a “C” or better in high school science courses and/or college-level science courses.
- Preference given to students with other degrees.

- Admission/Retention in the OTA Program is conditional, pending successful completion, with a “B-” or better grade in all courses (exception: BIO111/112, “C” or better), maintenance of 2.7 GPA or better each semester, and obtainment of an overall GPA of 2.7 or better to graduate.
- Interview and writing sample (arranged by invitation following receipt and review of all other application materials).
- Upon establishment of the qualified applicant pool; the top 30 candidates will be determined from the established point system for selection into the OTA Program.

Program Requirements

The OTA program is a lock-step program. All courses are carefully planned to provide for foundational learning, then build on previous learning and provide for skill development in preparation for the National Board for Certification in Occupational Therapy (NBCOT) exam and to practice as a licensed practitioner. All courses must be successfully completed in the sequence prescribed by the program's requirements. Failure to successfully complete a course will result in an administrative withdrawal from the program. Students who are unable to complete a course or who receive an unsatisfactory grade will be allowed to repeat that course with the next cohort provided the student follows through with a petition for re-enrollment process. Tuition and fees will be charged for repeating the course. OTA students will be academically dismissed upon receipt of a second unsatisfactory grade.

- Students must earn a minimum grade of “B-” or “CR” in each course in the OTA program (exception: BIO-111 (p. Error! Bookmark not defined.)/BIO-112 (p. Error! Bookmark not defined.), “C” or higher).
- Students must maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.7.
- Students who do not earn the required grade or maintain a 2.7 will be administratively withdrawn from the OTA program at the end of the term and will not be able to continue with the next term.
- Students who have been administratively withdrawn may petition to re-enroll with the next cohort the following year and may be asked to audit courses to prepare for re-entry.
- Students with two unsatisfactory grades (including the same courses, repeated) will be academically dismissed from the program and ineligible to return.

Students must complete all graduation and fieldwork requirements in a timely manner. All Level II fieldwork must be completed within 18 months following completion of the didactic portion of the program.

Graduation Requirements

To fulfill graduation requirements students must have completed all of the following:

- All credits required in the course of studies with a minimum overall GPA 2.7.
- Minimum grade of "B-" or higher all courses. Any course with a grade below "B-" must be repeated (exception: BIO-111/BIO-112 (p. Error! Bookmark not defined.), "C" or higher).
- Payment of tuition and fees is required to receive a diploma.

Post-Professional Master of Science with a Major in Athletic Training

The Post Professional Master of Science degree with a major in Athletic Training (MS AT) is a 33-credit program which provides graduate students with the knowledge, values, skills, and clinical education to enhance their practice as certified athletic trainers. The program is designed for students who have completed an undergraduate degree in Athletic Training accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Athletic Training Education (CAATE) standards.

Upon successful completion of the MS AT program students should be able to:

- Constructively self-evaluate regarding your strengths and weaknesses as an athletic training clinician.
- Critique prior learning experiences and develop a personal clinical philosophy.
- Effectively implement advanced clinical skills into your clinical practice.
- Make clinical decisions based on current evidence.
- Constructively evaluate scientific literature using critical thinking skills.
- Produce concise, accurately referenced, scientific writing.
- Demonstrate personal and professional growth, service, and leadership qualities.
- Organize and disseminate information for adult learners using active and effective pedagogical methods.
- Articulate a Christian worldview through health care practice with various patients.

Mission

The mission of the MS AT program is to provide high quality evidence-based educational opportunities for students to achieve intellectual, professional, and personal growth in the field of athletic training to service the healthcare needs of Indiana and beyond.

In achieving the mission of Indiana Wesleyan University and that of the MS AT program we will provide:

- A Christ-centered learning culture that promotes and assists in developing professional behaviors that incorporate the values and attitudes of excellence, caring, honesty, and respect that are consistent with the Code of Ethics by the National Athletic Trainers' Association and Standards of Professional Practice from the Board of Certification, Inc.
- A student-centered curriculum that critically studies the scope and practice of athletic training and builds upon the students' Post Professional athletic training foundational knowledge, increases their understanding of issues related to athletic health care through an evidence based curriculum, and prepares them to better engage and serve a diverse patient population.
- Didactic, laboratory, and online experiences that provide exposure to a broad range of traditional and emerging healthcare and human service delivery models.

Admission Requirements

A carefully completed application for admission should be submitted to the IWU School of Health Sciences MS AT program. Admission to the MS AT program is based on qualifications and space availability. This is a competitive program and application alone does not guarantee admittance. Admission is awarded without regard to sex, race, color, age, religion, national origin, or disability.

Applicants are required to meet the following criteria for consideration for admission:

- Applicants to the MS AT degree program must have a baccalaureate degree in Athletic Training from a regionally accredited college or university. The minimum grade point average (GPA) is 3.0 on a 4.0 scale.
- Applicants must be currently certified by the Board of Certification (BOC).
- Applicants with a GPA of less than 3.0 must take the Graduate Record Exam (GRE). If required, a GRE score of 146 on the verbal and 146 on the quantitative sections is recommended. GRE exams taken prior to August 1, 2011, require a minimum score of 1000 on the combined verbal and quantitative sections, with a verbal score of at least 400 and a quantitative score of at least 550. Exception to the GRE minimum score may be granted under extenuating circumstances.
- Application Form and Fee: Submit a completed School of Health Sciences graduate application form with a $50.00 non-refundable application fee. Checks should be made out to Indiana Wesleyan University.
- Official Transcripts: Submit official transcripts from all universities and/or colleges attended. Official transcripts from all post-high school educational experiences are to be included. Transfer students from a college or university abroad are also responsible for having their transcripts evaluated by a credential evaluation service such as World Education Services (WES) or Educational Credential Evaluators (ECE) for an official course-by-course credential evaluation (document-by-document evaluations will not suffice). Transcripts from international programs will be individually reviewed.

- Criminal History: background check will be conducted at the applicant's expense. Clinical sites may have additional requirements, e.g., immunizations, a second background check and/or drug screen at the student's expense. Admission to and/or progression in the program may depend on compliance and/or the results of these checks.
- International/Non-English Speaking Students - Students who do not speak English as their first and primary language must submit satisfactory scores from one of the following prior to admission to the university:
 - Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). For graduate students, a score of at least 600 (paper-based), 250 (computer-based), or 100 (Internet-based) is required for regular academic admission.
 - International English Language Testing System (IELTS). For graduate students a score of at least 6.5 is required for regular academic admission.
- References: Three references are required. At least one of the references must be from an athletic training practitioner and another from a previous faculty member who can speak to the applicant's capacity to do graduate level work.
- Writing Sample: In a double-spaced typed essay of 500 to 750 words, applicants should explain their interest in the program, what they hope to achieve by completing the program, and how their personal or professional background relates to their interests or goals. The essay's content and the clarity of writing will be assessed as part of the admissions process.
- Curriculum Vitae: Other aspects of an applicant's record, such as educational achievement, professional experience, and clarity of career goals should be reflected in a curriculum vitae in determining admissibility. Generally, admission decisions are based on an overall assessment of the adequacy of an applicant's preparation and desire for the successful completion of a graduate course of study in Athletic Training.
- Deadline for Application: IWU has an early decision deadline of November 1/April 1 for all application materials including the interview with the faculty. Those applying after November 1/April 1 will be considered on a seat available basis. Decisions regarding the acceptability of applicants for the MS AT program will be made by the admissions committee after evaluation of all pertinent application materials. Applications cannot be accurately reviewed until all application materials are received and requirements have been met. New applications are required for those who defer a year or miss the cutoff date for admissions.

General Information Regarding Admission

An interview will be requested of the applicant to the program.

- The number of applicants admitted to the MS AT program will be limited. Meeting the minimum admission criteria does not ensure that an applicant will be admitted to the program.
- Students are expected to possess a computer throughout the duration of their program. Student computers must be able to run a supported browser for IWU's learning management system.
- In order to complete assignments, students should be able to produce, send, and receive documents that are compatible within the two most recent versions of Microsoft Office, as only the two most recent versions are supported by IWU technology. Computer and Internet connection may need to be fast enough in some courses to watch streaming videos, participate in live meetings, upload large files, install software, and listen to audio lectures.

Transfer Credits

Students may have graduate courses taken at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) considered for transfer into the MS AT. No more than six credits may be accepted as transfer credit. The MS AT Program Director will make the final decision as to the compatibility of the course to meet curricular standards. The following are minimal standards for review:

- The course is clearly comparable to one of the MS AT course offerings based on course description and learning outcomes.
- The course is at the 500 or higher numbering system.
- A grade of "B" or higher was earned in the course.
- The course has been completed within the past five years.
- The course reflects current knowledge-base and best practice.
- The course reflects higher order thinking, study, and assessment requirements of the scholarship of discovery.

Graduation Requirements

To fulfill graduation requirements students must have completed all of the following:

- All credits required in the course of studies with a minimum overall GPA of 3.00.
- Minimum grade of "B-" required for all courses within the MS AT program.
- Payment of tuition and fees is required to receive a diploma.

Master of Public Health

The Indiana Wesleyan University (IWU) Master of Public Health (MPH) is a 42-credit-hour generalist degree designed to provide students with a thorough understanding of foundational public health knowledge including Biostatistics, Epidemiology, Environmental Health, Health Services Administration, and Social and Behavioral Health. The MPH program is designed to prepare students for a career where they can influence public health on a local, state, national and/or global level. Provided from a distinctly faith-based foundation through an online learning model, students will value, understand, and apply the interrelated social-behavioral theories and contextual factors needed to address the complex health problems of 21st-century households, communities, and organizations.

IWU's MPH program is an online degree offered through a well-recognized instruction modality. Students will take one eight-week course at a time allowing them to earn a degree while maintaining their personal and professional commitments. Students will also engage in a hands-on, mentored experience in a public health setting that is arranged to coincide conveniently with one's work and life.

Upon satisfactory completion of the MPH program, students should be able to:

- Apply evidence-based knowledge of social, biological, and environmental determinants to disease and health conditions.
- Employ appropriate methods of design, analysis, and synthesis to address population-based health problems in urban, rural and global environments.
- Synthesize the interrelationships among the organization, delivery, and financing of health services.
- Communicate public health principles and concepts through various strategies across multiple sectors of the community.

- Promote diversity and cultural understanding in public health education, research, and practice.
- Demonstrate public health knowledge and skills in practice settings.
- Demonstrate effective leadership competencies for building partnerships in advocating for public health programs and policies.
- Articulate a Christian worldview toward various public health issues.

Accreditation

This degree program offered through Indiana Wesleyan University is seeking national accreditation with the Council on Education in Public Health (CEPH).

Mission

We are committed to prepare students to improve the health of populations locally and globally through strengthening health systems, building stronger communities, and facilitating healthy behavior from a faith-based foundation.

Admission Requirements

A carefully completed application for admission should be submitted to the Indiana Wesleyan University (IWU) School of Health Sciences Master of Public Health (MPH) program. Admission to this degree program is based on qualifications and space availability. This is a competitive program and application alone does not guarantee admission. Admission is awarded without regard to sex, race, color, age, religion, national origin, or disability.

- Applicants to the Master of Public Health (MPH) degree program must have a baccalaureate degree or higher from a regionally accredited college or university. The minimum grade point average (GPA) is 3.0 on a 4.0 scale for any completed undergraduate and graduate degree programs. Applicants with a GPA of 3.0 or below must take the Graduate Record Exam (GRE).
- Application Form: Submit a completed School of Health Sciences graduate application form.
- Official Transcript: Submit official transcripts from all universities and colleges attended. Official transcripts from all post-high school educational experiences are to be included. Transfer students from a college or university abroad are also responsible for having their transcripts evaluated by a credential evaluation service such as World Education Services (WES) or Educational Credential Evaluators (ECE) for an official course-by-course credential evaluation (document-by-document evaluations will not suffice). Transcripts from international programs will be individually reviewed.
- International/Non-English Speaking Students: A student who is living in the United States but is not a United States citizen must submit a copy of a visa or permanent resident status during the process of application. Students who do not speak English as their first and primary language must submit satisfactory scores from one of the following before admission to the university:
 - Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). For graduate students, a score of at least 600 (paper-based), 250 (computer-based), or 100 (Internet-based) is required for regular academic admission.
 - International English Language Testing System (IELTS). For graduate students, a score of at least 6.5 is required for regular academic admission.
- References: Submit three professional references. At least one of the references should be from a previous faculty member who can speak to your capacity to do graduate level work.
- Writing Sample: In a double-spaced typed essay of 500 to 750 words, explain your interest in the program, what you hope to achieve by completing the program, and how your personal or professional background relates to your interests or goals. The essay's content and the clarity of writing will be assessed as part of the admissions process.
- Prerequisite Courses: Students are required to have a grade of "B" or better in 200-level math (i.e. college algebra) or statistics course as a foundation for success in professional level graduate work in the MPH program.
- Resume: Other aspects of an applicant's record, such as educational achievement, professional experience and clarity of career goals should be reflected in a resume. Admissions decisions are based on an overall assessment of the adequacy of an applicant's preparation and desire for the successful completion of a graduate course of study in Public Health.
- In-person/Video Conference Interview: Applicants to the Master of Public Health (MPH) degree program must participate in an interview conference with the program faculty. The interview conference will provide the opportunity to assess the applicant's understanding of public health and suitability for the academic rigors of the program.

- Deadline for Application: A July 1st deadline exists for the review of all the applicant's materials and applicant in-person/video conference with the faculty.

The Admission Committee decides the acceptability of applicants for the MPH program after evaluation of all required applications materials. Applications will not be reviewed until all applications materials are received and requirements are met. New or updated applications are required for those applicants who defer entrance after a year or who re-apply after initially declining an offer of acceptance.

- Probationary and Provisional Acceptance

- Probation - A graduate student whose entering grade point average (GPA) falls below the minimum required by the program may be accepted on probation. Probationary status will be removed after the student has completed the first two courses of the core with a satisfactory GPA (3.0). In case of extended probation, the number of courses to be completed in order to change status will be determined by the Program Director and MPH faculty. Any student failing to remove the probationary status will be academically suspended from the program.
- Provisional - Students whose files are incomplete may be accepted provisionally at the discretion of the Vice President for Student Services if it appears from the available documentation that eligibility for the program has been met. The student is given until the end of the first course to submit the required materials. Failure to meet the required deadline will result in the student being dropped from the roster and not being allowed to continue.

Transfer Credit

The Indiana Wesleyan University Master in Public Health (IWU-MPH) program policy regarding transfer of credits allows students previously enrolled in a public health program from a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) to transfer up to nine (9) hours of degree credit into the IWU MPH program curriculum. Hours of credit may be transferred, but grades earned in courses taken at another institution are not used in computing the student's graduate GPA at IWU.

No more than 30% of the graduate degree may be transferred in from another regionally-accredited institutions. To submit courses for transfer, students must submit a list of the courses (an official transcript) they would like to transfer, along with the course descriptions and syllabi to the IWU MPH faculty. The MPH faculty evaluates the courses for equivalency with the course content and learning outcomes of the IWU MPH program. Any culminating project (e.g., capstone) or practicum requirement associated with the IWU MPH program must be taken at IWU.

Minimal conditions governing the transfer of earned graduate credits to the IWU MPH program, include:

- Earned a minimum of a "B-" in the course to be considered for transfer credit.
- The student must have taken the course within the past seven years. When graduate course is taken at another university on a credit/no credit or pass/fail option, hours of "credit" or "pass" are not accepted in computing the student's graduate GPA at Indiana Wesleyan University.
- Taken the course within the past seven years.

Program Requirements

- A background check and/or drug screen at progression in the program may depend on your compliance and/or the results of these checks. Capstone/Clinical sites may have additional requirements (e.g., immunizations, background checks, and/or drug screen).
- Progression in the MPH program depends on a minimum grade of "B-" or higher in all MPH courses. Any MPH course with a grade below B- must be repeated. All courses must be successfully completed in the sequence prescribed by the program.
- It is anticipated that the student will be able to complete the MPH degree in 28 months. If the student needs further time to complete the program requirements, then by program policy the MPH degree must be completed within 4-years of matriculation. Students who maintain continuous enrollment, who make normal progress toward a degree, and who earn their degree within the program's maximum time from the date of enrollment may meet the graduation requirements as stated in the catalog under which they enrolled.

Graduation Requirements

To fulfill graduation requirements students must have completed all of the following:

- All credits required in the course of studies with a minimum overall GPA of 3.0.
- Minimum grade of "B-" or higher all MPH courses.
- Payment of tuition and fees is required to receive a diploma.

MPH-645	Healthcare to Diverse Populations	3
IPE-555	Bioethics Decision-Making	3
MPH-615	Health Policy	3
MPH-690	Master of Public Health Capstone	3

The practicum experience (MPH-610) consists of 200 hours of active involvement in a Public Health setting.

The capstone (MPH-690) is a scholarly project to demonstrate competency attainment in public health practice. The student will synthesize and integrate knowledge acquired in the MPH coursework and other learning experience; and apply theory and principles to public health professional practice. The capstone project addresses a tangible public health problem.

MSN/MPH - Dual Degree (Master of Science in Nursing/Master of Public Health)

The Master of Science in Nursing/Master of Public Health (MSN/MPH) joint program resulting in dual degrees offers the bachelors-prepared nurse an opportunity to gain both advanced skills in nursing and public health. By pursuing the MSN along with the MPH, students are prepared to work in leadership roles in healthcare agencies addressing population health matters in various local, national, and global settings. The MSN/MPH joint degree equips graduates with an advanced mastery of nursing theory and practice, with public health knowledge and skills to work in population-based scenarios and an interprofessional team perspective.

Upon completion of the program, the graduate should be able to:

- Demonstrate the successful integration of knowledge to function in the nurse educator role.
- Synthesize evidence-based knowledge of social, biological, and environmental determinants to address disease and health conditions.
- Employ appropriate methods of design, analysis, and synthesis to address population-based health problems in urban, rural, and global environments.
- Promote diversity and cultural understanding in public health education, evaluation, research, and practice.

- Exhibit effective interprofessional leadership for building partnerships, advocating for public health policy, planning community interventions, and promoting financial stewardship.
- Evaluate curricula for scope and effectiveness in preparing nurses to meet local and global health needs.
- Apply a Christian worldview to various nursing education and public health settings.

Admission Requirements

Admission to the MSN/MPH program begins with the submission of required application forms, recommendations, and official transcripts of previous college and university studies.

Criteria for regular admission are:

- Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Nursing from a college or university accredited by an agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) and national nursing programmatic accreditation (CCNE, ACEN, CNEA). -OR- Registered Nurses (RNs) who have a baccalaureate degree in a discipline other than nursing may also apply by meeting the following additional criteria:
 - A minimum of 10 years of experience in nursing practice.
 - Submit a portfolio with evidence of accomplishments in nursing based on The Essentials of Baccalaureate Education for Professional Nursing Practice. There will be a $200 (non-refundable) portfolio review fee.
- Undergraduate grade point average (GPA) of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale from the baccalaureate degree-granting institution at which a minimum of 30 credit hours was completed -OR- graduate-level grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale from an accredited program where at least nine credit hours were completed.

GPA for conditional admission are:

Applicants who do not meet the GPA listed in the criteria for regular admission and have at least a 2.75 undergraduate GPA may be conditionally admitted and allowed to take the first three courses to establish a graduate GPA.

- Students who have earned a 3.0 GPA by the completion of the first three credit-bearing courses of the joint degree program, will meet the criteria for regular admission.
- An unsatisfactory grade (C- or lower in any GNUR course) while conditionally admitted will result in administrative withdrawal from the program and denial of regular admission.
- Students who do not earn a 3.0 GPA by the completion of the first three credit-bearing courses will be denied regular admission.

Proof that all nursing licenses, whether current or inactive, are unencumbered. Potential students with encumbered nursing licenses will not be considered eligible for enrollment with Indiana Wesleyan University's nursing program.

- Three letters of professional reference from faculty members, professional colleagues, work supervisors, or a pastor who can evaluate the applicant's potential for success in a graduate program. Recommendations from family members are NOT appropriate.
- Original transcript from the undergraduate degree-granting institution and institution where graduate courses have been taken.
- A criminal history background check will be conducted on all applicants upon admission to the program, at the student's expense.
- Students who do not speak English as their first and primary language must submit satisfactory scores from one of the following prior to admission to the university:
 - Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL). For graduate students, a score of at least 550 (paper-based), 213 (computer-based), or 79 (internet-based) is required for regular academic admission.
 - International English Language Testing System (IELTS). For undergraduate students, a score of at least 6.0 is required; for graduate students, a score of at least 6.5 is required; for doctoral students, a score of at least 7.0 is required for regular admission.
- A video conference interview; applicants to the MSN/MPH joint degree must participate in an interview with program faculty. The conference will provide the opportunity for the student to ask questions regarding the joint degree program expectations.

NOTE: Students in any nursing major may be required to undergo drug testing in order to successfully complete practicum requirements.

Graduate Credit Transfer Policy

Transfer of credit will be considered for graduate work provided the courses meet institutional requirements and are appropriate for the student's planned and approved program. Any culminating project (e.g., capstone, research, thesis, etc.), clinical, or practicum requirement associated with a graduate program must be taken at Indiana Wesleyan University. The credit must be taken at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). Individual academic units (MSN & MPH) may establish higher standards/conditions as is appropriate for their respective disciplines or accrediting bodies. A minimum grade of "B" may be considered for transfer. No more than 30% of the graduate degree may be transferred in from another institution. The learning outcomes must align and have been completed within the past seven years. Minimal conditions governing the transfer of earned graduate credits to other course work include:

- MSN & MPH will determine the amount of time acceptable of completed work that is eligible for credit transfer.
- Only graduate courses in which a student has earned a grade of "B" or better may be considered for transfer credit.
- Hours of credit may be transferred, but grades earned in courses taken at another institution do not transfer and are not used in computing the student's graduate GPA at Indiana Wesleyan University.
- When a graduate course is taken at another university on a credit/no credit or pass/fail option, hours of "credit" or "pass" are not accepted as transferable unless approved by the School of Nursing and School of Health Sciences.

Credit hours accepted in transfer are recorded as part of the student's official academic record. Once transcripts (and other test scores and academic documents) have been received, IWU is not permitted to release copies of those documents back to the student or any other party. Transfer of credit will be determined by the program officials of the MSN and MPH divisions or designee.

Transcripts from International Institutions

Transcripts from International Institutions may need to be sent to an outside agency for evaluation and determination of transferable credits, degrees, and GPA. If this outside review is necessary, students are responsible for the initiation of this evaluation and for any fees incurred during the process.

Undergraduate and Graduate Credit Crossover Policy

Undergraduate credits from IWU or taken at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), or hold appropriate international accreditation, may be used to fulfill requirements of IWU graduate programs under specified conditions. When permitted by the design of the program, undergraduate credits from upper-level courses may be counted toward the requirements of a graduate degree or certificate when the undergraduate course or courses sufficiently accomplish the learning outcomes of a course in the graduate program. The course(s) must have been completed within the past five years and must reflect current knowledge and best practices. No more than 25% of the total credit requirements for the graduate degree or certificate may be completed through undergraduate credits. Undergraduate courses in which a student has earned a "B" or better may be considered for graduate credit. Dual counting of credits requires approval by the appropriate program leader, in consultation with a graduate level content expert, as well as approval by the University Registrar, and Financial Aid Office if applicable. The program leader will make the final decision as to the applicability of the course to fulfill program learning outcomes. Established limitations on the number of credits that may be transferred into the graduate program remain in effect.

Graduate-level credits from IWU or taken at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), or hold an appropriate international accreditation, may be used to fulfill requirements of IWU undergraduate programs under specified conditions. When permitted by the design of the program, graduate credits may be counted toward the requirements of an undergraduate degree or certificate when the graduate course or courses sufficiently accomplish the learning outcomes of a course in the undergraduate program. The course(s) must have been completed within the past five years and must reflect current knowledge and best practices. No more than 25% of the total credit requirements for the undergraduate major, minor, or certificate may be completed through graduate credits. Though exceptions may be approved by program directors, graduate courses in which a student has earned a "B" or better may be considered for undergraduate credit. Dual counting of credits requires approval by the appropriate program leader, in consultation with a graduate level content expert, as well as approval by the University Registrar, and Financial Aid Office if applicable. The program leader will make the final decision as to the applicability of the course to fulfill program learning outcomes. Established limitations on the number of credits that may be transferred into the undergraduate program remain in effect.

Program Requirements

- All courses must be successfully completed in the sequence prescribed by the program's requirements. Failure to successfully complete a course will result in an administrative withdrawal from the program.
- Students must maintain a GPA of 3.0 or higher and a minimum grade of "C" in each core (GNUR) course, "B" in each MSN major course, and a minimum of a "B-" in each MPH course.
- Students must meet all practicum courses requirements as they offer students the opportunity to develop and integrate the knowledge and skills necessary for evidence-based advanced practice.
- Students must meet all practicum agency requirements. Students may be required to provide health clearance and proof of immunization prior to starting practicum experiences. If required by the facility, the cost for placement is the responsibility of the student.
- Students must maintain an RN license that is active and unencumbered at all times during enrollment in the program. Students must have a valid unencumbered RN license in the state(s) of the practicum sites. If students have multiple state licenses, all must be unencumbered. It is the student's responsibility to notify the School of Nursing if the status of his or her RN license changes. Students will be administratively withdrawn from the program at any point if this status is not maintained.
- Any student found to have falsified clinical/practicum hours will be immediately dismissed and not allowed to re-enter any Nursing program or the MPH at IWU.
- Students who maintain continuous enrollment in the MSN/MPH joint program, who make normal progress toward the MSN and MPH degrees, and who earn their degrees within the program's maximum time from the date of enrollment may meet the graduation requirements as stated in the catalog under which they enrolled.

Graduation Requirements

To graduate, MSN/MPH joint program degree students must have completed the following:

- All credits required in the course of studies with a minimum GPA of 3.0.
- Minimum grade of "C" in each core (GNUR) course, "B" in each MSN major course, and a minimum of a "B-" in each MPH course.
- Satisfactory fulfillment of all practicum requirements, including 235 hours of supervised practicum hours.
- Program must be completed within five (5) years.
- Payment of all tuition and fees is required to receive a diploma.

Dual Degree (MSN/MPH) - Program of Study

All courses must be completed with a satisfactory grade in order to continue in the program.

Doctor of Physical Therapy

The Department of Physical Therapy is dedicated to the development of an autonomous practitioner, motivated through faith, who can effect change in healthy outcomes for the individual, and the local, regional, national, and global community through service, leadership, advocacy, and exemplary, evidence-based clinical practice.

As an integral part of the healthcare team in a variety of settings, physical therapists are instrumental in assessing and treating conditions that impede movement as desired and necessary for a fulfilling life. Physical therapists facilitate recovery or development of functional movement as well as advocate for and educate on prevention and wellness measures for healthy living.

The process of becoming a physical therapist through Indiana Wesleyan University's Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT) program is life transforming. The program's faculty and staff are dedicated to student success through their commitment of time, energy, talent, expertise, and resources necessary for student spiritual, emotional, and professional growth to graduate from the rigorous academic program. The use of early and frequent patient experiences and active learning serves to facilitate lasting learning that provides building blocks for exemplary clinical practice. Faculty advisor/mentor "families", composed of a faculty member and students from each of the three cohorts, foster a supportive community providing spiritual, emotional, and professional guidance and accountability throughout a student's time in the program. An international interprofessional trip with Occupational Therapy doctoral (OTD) students will facilitate a global community perspective. The program's curriculum, activities, and clinical experiences are strategically designed to facilitate student development into a meaningful life calling as a Doctor of Physical Therapy.

Vision and Mission

The vision of the Doctor of Physical Therapy program will provide transformational experiences to foster spiritual, emotional, and professional growth in our students to empower them to be effective leaders who influence health disparities and the future of health care and physical therapy through selfless advocacy and optimal physical therapy outcomes.

The mission of the Doctor of Physical Therapy program at Indiana Wesleyan University (IWU) will be a leader in developing graduates who are equipped to deliver exemplary clinical practice and research to advance the profession of physical therapy while serving their local, national, and global community to improve health and glorify Christ.

DPT Program Learning Outcomes

Student Curricular Goals and Performance Indicators (PI) have been determined through a coordinated, Christ-centered lens that encompasses the mission and vision of the University, the School of Health Sciences, the Department of Physical Therapy and the ethical principles delineated by the American Physical Therapy Association (APTA). Therefore, upon completion of the DPT program, the graduate will demonstrate proficiency in the following areas:

- Servant Leadership/Advocacy: Graduates of the DPT program will be adept at advocating for their patients' needs and the profession's behalf through servant leadership within their community, the profession and the interprofessional healthcare team.
- Integrity and Moral Character: Graduates of the DPT program will reflect a Christ-likeness in their relationships with patients, families, colleagues, students, research participants, other healthcare providers, and the public with pervasive veracity of moral character.
- Trustworthy, Compassionate, and Respectful Care: Graduates of the DPT program will provide holistic care to patients and others that incorporate cultural, spiritual, and individual differences with effective and sensitive verbal, non-verbal, and written communication skills.
- Evidence-Based Innovative Practice with Sound, Reflective Professional Judgments: Graduates of the DPT program will provide exemplary clinical practice based on responsible, life-long assimilation of professional standards and evidence, expertise, patient values, and resources. Graduates will work collaboratively within an interprofessional team for optimal patient outcomes and health.
- Scholarship and Research: Graduates of the DPT program will advance the body of knowledge for best clinical practice through collaborative research and critical analysis of current evidence.
- Global Perspective: Graduates of the DPT program will embrace global initiatives that address healthcare needs of worldwide communities, and advocate and serve on their behalf.
- Responsible Practice Management: Graduates of the DPT program will execute their professional duty, while being fiscally responsible stewards to benefit patients and society.

Admission Requirements

The Doctor of Physical Therapy Program is a Selective Admissions Program, which means not every student in the applicant pool may be accepted. Admission to the Doctor of Physical Therapy Program is competitive and enrollment in the program is limited because of available faculty, space, financial, and clinical resources. Requirements for admission to the program include:

- A baccalaureate degree from a college or university accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) with a minimum GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale documented with official transcripts. The degree need not be completed at time of application but must be completed prior to program matriculation.
- Completion of the following prerequisite coursework from an accredited institution with a grade of "C" or better, prior to the start of DPT coursework.
 - Sciences – Science GPA must be > 3.0 on a 4.0 scale. Courses may not be > 5 years old. Two-thirds of Science prerequisites (approximately 21 credit hours – see prerequisite table below) must be completed to be considered for the application process. Only completed and transcribed courses will be considered. Therefore, fall semester courses from the year of application will not be considered in the application. Courses must be one year (two semesters or three quarters) each with a laboratory component for the following:
 - Anatomy and Physiology – one semester each or a combined two semester series. (Human preferred; mammalian acceptable. Exercise Physiology does not count toward this requirement.)
 - Physics (either algebra/trigonometry based or calculus based.)
 - Chemistry (general, organic, biochemistry all acceptable.)
 - Biology (Botany excluded.)
 - Humanities and Social Sciences - one course in each of the following areas:
 - Psychology
 - Sociology
 - Statistics – one course
- Completion of at least 80 verifiable clinical observation hours completed with a licensed physical therapist. At least 20 hours each are required to be in an in-patient setting and in an outpatient setting.

- Completion of the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) < 5 years prior to application. Since admission is a competitive process, combined verbal/quantitative scores above 300 are recommended as well as an analytical score of 4 or above.
- Three Letters of Recommendation from
 - A professor who is qualified to assess your academic performance.
 - A licensed physical therapist.
 - A non-family member. A pastoral reference is highly recommended.

Top applicants will be invited for an interview followed by applicant ranking determined by:

• Overall GPA	15%
• Science GPA	15%
• GRE Verbal	10%
• GRE Quantitative	10%
• GRE Analytical	20%
• Interview	25%
• Letters of Recommendation	5%

IWU Undergraduate Student Admission Criteria and Process:

- Must have completed at least 50% of their credit hours at IWU with baccalaureate degree conferred by IWU.
- IWU course work must be completed within 2 years of application deadline.
- In addition, if all general admission criteria are met, IWU applicants will receive an automatic invitation to the interview process and will not be ranked to determine interview eligibility.

Progression Requirements

Program Matriculation Requirements

Prior to matriculation in the program, newly accepted students must fulfill the following requirements at their own cost:

- Acceptance of the Essential Functions document indicating his/her capacity to perform the duties of a physical therapist in the realms of abilities, skills, and behaviors.
- Completion of a designated non-credit bearing on-line Medical Terminology course.
- If GRE analytical writing scores are < 4.0, successful completion of an on-line IWU writing course for graduate students.
- Criminal background check. (Some felony convictions may disqualify a person from completing the clinical education component.)
- Physical and Immunizations within the past 12 months.
- Proof of Medical Insurance.

Program Requirements

The DPT program is a cohort-based, full-time, graduate program. Students in the DPT program must maintain a 3.25/4.0 overall GPA in their graduate/professional coursework and earn a minimum grade of “B-” or a credit in credit/no credit courses in all program courses in order to progress in the program.

Grading Scale

The following grading scale is used for all DPT courses that are not credit/no credit:

A	92-100	C+	77-79
A-	90-91	C	73-76
B+	88-89	C-	70-72
B	82-87	D	60-69
B-	80-81	F	0-59

Unsuccessful Grade

Grades below a “B-“ are considered “unsuccessful”. Grades below “B-“ are listed only as a means of assessing the student’s relative level of understanding of course material.

Departmental Probation

Students with a term GPA < 3.25 will be placed on “Departmental Probation”, issued an Academic Warning Letter, and may be required to perform remediation activities as determined by the faculty to improve their GPA. A student who is in this category for more than one term may be subject to dismissal if it becomes mathematically impossible to achieve a 3.25 cumulative GPA prior to completion of didactic coursework. A 3.25 GPA is required to begin Terminal Clinical Experiences and for Graduation.

Criteria for Academic Dismissal

The student may be dismissed from the DPT program for any of the following:

- The student earns a cumulative GPA > 3.0 and < 3.25 and is mathematically not able to reach a GPA of 3.25 by completion of didactic coursework.
- The student earns less than a “B-“ in a DPT course.
- The student does not adhere to Professional Behaviors as outlined.
- The student can no longer meet Essential Functions as outlined with or without accommodations.

Appeal Process/ Application for Re-enrollment

It is the responsibility of the DPT faculty to exercise their professional judgment in determining a student’s competence to continue in the program. The student’s academic standing as well as his/her demonstration of professional behaviors is considered. Acceptable academic performance is only one indicator of a student’s ability to perform as a physical therapist. A student who achieves acceptable academic standing but does not demonstrate acceptable professional behavior may not be allowed to continue in the program, may not be allowed to begin clinical education experiences, and/or may be dismissed from the DPT program.

When a student is dismissed from the DPT program, he/she may not register for classes for the upcoming term until and unless his/her appeal is granted. If classes have already been pre-registered, they must be canceled. Additionally, dismissed students must meet with their faculty advisor for academic counseling and completion of appropriate forms. An exit interview with the DPT Chairperson and/or the academic advisor is required.

If a student has been dismissed from the program, he/she may petition the faculty for re-enrollment one (1) time. Faculty, at their discretion, may grant the appeal and determine appropriate remediation strategies. A student dismissed and reinstated once cannot appeal a subsequent dismissal that may be triggered by the above criteria. The steps of the appeal are as follows:

- After receiving notification of dismissal, the student is required to schedule a meeting with his/her academic advisor to discuss whether he/she wish to apply for re-enrollment. If the student wishes to apply for re-enrollment, the advisor will review the criteria and requirements as outlined below.
 - The student must write a formal letter to the faculty requesting re-enrollment, discussing the reasons or circumstances that led to dismissal as well as the steps that the student plans to take to improve his/her performance should he/she be re-enrolled.
 - DPT faculty members will be given a copy of the student's letter and will meet confidentially to discuss whether the student will be re-enrolled.
- Re-enrollment Policies
 - If a DPT student is granted re-enrolled as a result of a failing grade (< "B-"), the student will re-take the course the next time it is offered and must develop a remediation plan with their advisor and course instructor to insure academic success. The student cannot continue with their original cohort.
 - If a DPT student is re-enrolled as a result of deficient Professional Behaviors, the student must develop an action plan to improve his/her professional behaviors to an adequate level which may include meeting with counselors in Student Health Services. The student will have one (1) additional trimester to fulfill the requirements of the developed action plan.
- Once a decision is made, the student's academic advisor and/or the DPT Chairperson will inform the student in person or telephone and with an emailed official letter of the faculty decision.

Graduation Requirements

To fulfill graduation requirements students must have completed all of the following:

- All credits required in the course of study with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.25.
- Minimum grade in each course of "B-" or higher or a "credit" in credit/no credit courses.
- Successful completion of all Clinical Education components to include site assessment documentation.
- Payment of all program tuition and fees required to receive a diploma and certificate of graduation completion needed for licensure testing.

Occupational Therapy Doctorate

The entry-level Doctor of Occupational Therapy Degree (OTD) is a comprehensive 105 credit-hour program designed to prepare graduates with the requisite knowledge and skills for practice as professional occupational therapists. The program is designed for students who have successfully earned a baccalaureate degree (or higher) in any field of study, and have also completed the required nine prerequisite courses necessary to prepare them for the OTD program's curricular content. The conscious inclusion of interprofessional learning experiences in the curriculum is a direct response to both ACOTE accreditation recommendations and the movement within health professions education to better prepare healthcare practitioners for teamwork and successful collaboration in their eventual employment settings.

The OTD program utilizes the Person-Environment-Occupation-Performance (PEOP) framework as a primary guiding model, while also incorporating concepts and language from the Occupational Therapy Practice Framework (OTPF). The PEOP model was selected for several reasons. First, the model is attractive for its focus on "occupation" as the core construct of the occupational therapy profession. The centrality of occupation in the model naturally leads to interventions based upon purposeful engagement in occupations that are necessary and meaningful to the client. Another feature of the PEOP model which makes it attractive to our program is the importance placed on client-centered care, including the definition of "client," which encompasses individuals, organizations, and communities. The focus of the model on occupational performance and participation helps students to see the link between the curricular design and the OTPF, which also stresses occupational performance and participation. Another important construct of the PEOP model which fits well into the curricular design at IWU is the emphasis on interprofessional teamwork in healthcare. And finally, the PEOP is appealing to Indiana Wesleyan University and our OTD program as it validates the importance of spirituality in the everyday lives of occupational therapy clients.

Vision and Mission

The vision of the Indiana Wesleyan University Occupational Therapy Program is to glorify God by changing the world of healthcare through the preparation of students who fully embrace the art and science of the occupational therapy, thus enabling graduates to provide compassionate, creative, ethical, and evidence-based services in an increasingly diverse and technologically advanced world.

The mission of the Occupational Therapy Program is to provide a Christ-centered curriculum to educate practitioners who will collaborate interprofessionally to promote client-centered, occupation-based practice and provide servant leadership within their communities. We value an active learning environment that fosters the holistic personal and professional development of students, faculty, and community members.

OTD Program Learning Outcomes

The learning outcomes of the proposed program mirror outcomes developed by the Accreditation Council for Occupational Therapy Education (ACOTE), and the desired outcomes of Indiana Wesleyan University (IWU) graduate education. Upon completion of the OTD program, graduates are expected to demonstrate competence in the following areas:

- Servant Leadership/Advocacy: Graduates of the OTD program will advocate, on behalf of consumers and the profession, as servant leaders who are actively involved in professional and community organizations.
- Moral Character: Graduates of the OTD program will promote occupational justice as people of moral character who apply Christ-like attitudes and ethical values.
- Scholarship/Research: Graduates of the OTD program will increase the body of knowledge in occupational therapy through scholarship and research in preparation for practice and life-long learning.
- Global Perspective: Graduates of the OTD program will address global and diverse occupational needs from a global perspective.
- Evidence-Based Practice: Graduates of the OTD program will apply occupational therapy scientific knowledge to create evidence-based intervention programs and/or protocols that are culturally responsive and client-centered.
- Occupational Therapy Theory: Graduates of the OTD program will apply theoretical models and practice frameworks when developing systems for the delivery of occupational therapy services.

- Residency Project: Graduates of the OTD program will demonstrate advanced practice competency in a chosen residency area.

Admission Requirements

The requirements for admission to the program include:

- A baccalaureate or graduate degree from a college or university accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) verified on original transcripts sent by the institution directly to Indiana Wesleyan University. Degree may be pending completion at the time of application.
- Baccalaureate overall GPA of 3.0 or better preferred.
- GPA of 3.0 or better in prerequisite courses (listed below).
- Completed documentation of volunteer/paid experience showing at least 10 hours of volunteer, work, or shadowing experience in at least two (2) OT practice environments.
- A competitive Graduate Record Exam (GRE) taken within the last five years, including the analytical writing component. Preferred candidates will score 145 or higher on both verbal and quantitative sections of the GRE, and a 4 or higher on analytical writing. (waived for applicants with graduate degrees)
- Interview (arranged by invitation when all other application materials have been received and reviewed).
- The following prerequisite courses or the equivalent must be completed with a grade of "B" or better. Unless specified, the courses below should have at least 3 credits to be considered as a prerequisite course. Students may complete up to two prerequisites in the summer session after acceptance into the program but before beginning the graduate level of study:
 - Human anatomy & physiology I (with lab)
 - Human anatomy & physiology II (with lab)
 - Abnormal Psychology or Psychopathology
 - Any lifespan human development course (covering the entire lifespan, birth through aging)
 - General/Introduction to Psychology
 - Any statistics course (math or psychology)
 - Any sociology or anthropology course with a multicultural theme
 - Any medical terminology course (1-3 credits accepted)

Progression Requirements

Academic advisors will review students' progression in the OTD program at the end of each term, as needed. A student is progressed to the next term of the OTD program upon earning a minimum grade of "B-" or "CR" (pass) in all courses taken within a term while maintaining a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher. If a grade of "C+" or lower is earned, the student will be placed on Departmental Academic Probation and must repeat that course.

Due to the cohort nature of the curriculum, students who do not pass all courses in a given term will be required to withdraw from the program and petition for enrollment into the next cohort of students. If a student falls below the required 3.0 cumulative GPA or earns a grade of "C+" or lower, the student may be dismissed from the program. In such cases, students will not be automatically re-enrolled in the course the following year, but may re-apply for admission into the next class cohort. Students who fail to earn a passing grade on two or more courses (including the same course, repeated) will not be eligible to continue in the program and will be permanently dismissed from the program.

Graduation Requirements

To fulfill graduation requirements students must have completed all of the following:

- All credits required in the course of study with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.25.
- Minimum grade of "B-" or higher in each course
- The successful completion of all Fieldwork assignments to include site assessment documentation.

- Payment of all program tuition and fees is required to receive a diploma.
- All required coursework for the OTD Program must be completed at Indiana Wesleyan University. Indiana Wesleyan University does not accept nor transfer credits from any other institution in substitution for any course, fieldwork component, or residency component of the OTD Program.

Wesley Seminary - Policies and Regulations

The right is reserved to change any of the rules and regulations of the university at any time, including those relating to admission, instruction, and graduation. The right to withdraw curricula and specific courses, alter course content, change the calendar, and to impose or increase fees similarly is reserved. All such changes are effective at such times as the proper authorities determine and may apply not only to prospective students but also to those already enrolled in the university.

Academic - Wesley Seminary

Academic Calendar - Courses in the Seminary programs are offered under the semester hour system in two terms per calendar year. Each program consists of specific courses that are taught in a modular format and may be taken onsite or online. Online classes utilize IWU's learning management system.

Catalog Governing Graduation - Students must meet the graduation requirements as stated in the university catalog under which they enrolled. Students who maintain continuous enrollment, who make normal progress toward a degree, and who earn their degree within a maximum of six years from the date of enrollment may meet the graduation requirements as stated in the catalog under which they enrolled. Students who withdraw from Indiana Wesleyan University for more than six months will meet the graduation requirements as stated in the catalog under which they resume enrollment. Students changing majors or programs must meet requirements as stated in the catalog that is current at the time they make such changes. The same holds true for students moving between schools and colleges. Students may at any time change from an earlier catalog to a subsequent current catalog, but must meet all requirements for graduation of that catalog. Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to modify the curriculum as necessary.

Core Requirements - Due to the nature of the programs, students can only be enrolled in one program at a time. Students are required to complete the first course of the core program with a passing grade in order to maintain enrollment.

Academic Standing

Academic Probation - Students enrolled in a Master's program at Wesley Seminary will be placed on probation if their grade point average (GPA) falls below 2.5.

Students enrolled in a Doctoral program at Wesley Seminary will be placed on probation if their grade point average (GPA) falls below 3.0.

Students are given two consecutive courses to satisfactorily raise their GPA. The GPA is reviewed periodically. After the second course, if it has been successfully raised, the probationary status is removed. Academic suspension will result if the student's GPA is not successfully raised.

Academic Suspension - Academic suspension will result if:

- A student fails to clear the academic probationary status within the probationary period of two consecutive courses.
- A student has taken a course twice and failed to achieve a satisfactory grade.

In all cases, the suspension will occur once the grades have been recorded in the Registrar's Office. Students will be notified of the academic suspension in writing. Application for readmission may be made after six months. The application must be made in writing to the Academic Dean of Wesley Seminary.

Academic Dismissal - Upon a second academic suspension in the same program, a student is not eligible to reapply to Indiana Wesleyan University.

Academic Advising

The purpose of academic advising is to support students from enrollment to completion of degree requirements. Advisors help students understand all degree requirements and options to meet those requirements. Advisors also assist students in understanding policies and procedures, and communicating with departments such as Financial Aid and Accounting.

Wesley Seminary's student success team includes advisors who guide and advise each student throughout the duration of his or her academic program. Advisors are available to meet one-on-one with students face to face, through email, by phone, or via video conference.

It is important that students maintain contact with the student success team in order to ensure timely progression toward degree completion as well as appropriate scheduling for maximum financial aid benefit.

Admission and Registration

Wesley Seminary welcomes applications for admission from any academically qualified person whose motivation is in keeping with the university's purposes. Admission is based on the careful review of all credentials presented by an applicant, but in no case is admission denied due to race, color, national origin, disability, religion, or sex.

Admission decisions are made without regard to disabilities. All prospective students are expected to present academic credentials that meet or exceed the minimum requirements for admissions. Prospective students with disabilities are not required to identify themselves to Admissions or Disability Services. However, those interested in receiving academic accommodations are encouraged to connect with Disability Services at 765-677-2257 or ADARquest@indwes.edu as early as possible to allow for a review of documentation and the formulation of an accommodation plan.

Students are admitted in one of the following categories:

1. Regular - Students who satisfactorily meet all requirements will be granted standard admission with no restrictions.
2. Probation - Students whose entering grade point average (GPA) falls below the minimum required by the program may be accepted on probation. Probationary status will be removed after the student has completed the first three courses of the core with a satisfactory GPA (2.50). In case of extended probation, the number of courses to be completed in order to change status will be determined by the Dean of the Seminary. Any student failing to remove the probationary status will be academically suspended from the program.
3. Provisional - Students whose files are incomplete may be accepted provisionally if it appears from the available documentation that eligibility for the program has been met. The student is given until the end of the first course to submit the required materials. Failure to meet the required deadline will result in the student being dropped from the roster and not being allowed to continue.

4. Unclassified - Unclassified admission may be granted to students who do not wish or plan to become candidates for the master's degree from Wesley Seminary, or who do not meet the above requirements. Such students must complete the unclassified application form (contact a Program Representative) and submit a copy of a transcript showing the conferred undergraduate baccalaureate degree. A maximum of 15 credit hours can be earned as an unclassified student. Students wishing to change from unclassified to regular status must follow normal admission procedures and meet all stated admission requirements.

Admission of Students Without a Baccalaureate Degree

Students without an undergraduate degree may apply for admission if they meet the following conditions:

- A minimum of at least 15 years of extensive life, ministry, and/or business experience, or a bachelor's degree from an unaccredited institution.
- A high school diploma or equivalent.
- Completion of a college-level composition or writing course with a minimum grade of 3.0 or equivalent. If not completed at time of application, s/he must take such a writing course and submit the score prior to final committee review.
- At least 60 credit hours of undergraduate academic work (in the semester system or equivalent in another system) or an associate degree, with a cumulative GPA average of 2.5 or equivalent.

Optional Qualifications

- GRE: The Seminary Admissions Review Committee may at any point in the process require the applicant to complete the GRE. Minimum scores are 400 Verbal, 400 Quantitative, and 4 in Analytical Writing.

To apply for this form of admission, a student must:

- Write a 2-4 page essay in which you:
 - Describe the life experiences which have prepared you to pursue graduate education.
 - Indicate why you have decided to pursue a seminary education at this stage in your life.
 - Indicate your long term goals after the degree and how you think the degree will help equip you to achieve them.
 - Provide an extensive portfolio detailing ministry, life, and work experience and artifacts demonstrating this experience.
- Provide a 5 page sample of your writing ability.

Applications will be reviewed by the Seminary Admissions Review Committee which will include appropriate faculty representation. The Seminary Admissions Review Committee may request additional information and/or documentation as part of the review process. All "Accredited Degree Exemption" students will be accepted on probation.

Admission of Students Without an Accredited Degree

Students whose undergraduate degree is from an unaccredited institution may apply for admission if they meet the following conditions:

- Completion of the equivalent of a bachelor-level college degree with a cumulative GPA average of 2.5 or equivalent.
- A high school diploma or equivalent.
- Completion of a college-level composition or writing course with a minimum grade of 3.0 or equivalent. If not completed at time of application, s/he must take such a writing course and submit score prior to final committee review.

Optional Qualifications

- GRE: The Admissions Committee may at any point in the process require the applicant to complete the GRE. Minimum scores are 400 Verbal, 400 Quantitative, and 4 in Analytical Writing.

To apply for this form of admission, a student must:

- Write a 2-4 page essay in which you:
 - Describe the academic strengths of the institution you attended for your undergraduate education.

- Indicate why you have decided to pursue a seminary education at this stage in your life.
- Indicate your long term goals after the degree and how you think the degree will help equip you to achieve them.
- Provide a 5 page sample of your writing ability.

Applications will be reviewed by the Seminary Admissions Review Committee which will include appropriate faculty representation. The Seminary Admissions Review Committee may request additional information and/or documentation as part of the review process. All “Accredited Degree Exemption” students will be accepted on probation.

Dual Undergraduate/Graduate Enrollment

A senior who is currently enrolled at Indiana Wesleyan University and who is within the last semester of completing course requirements for the baccalaureate degree may register for a maximum of two graduate courses per semester. Such students who desire to take additional graduate courses after earning the baccalaureate degree must follow the regular admission procedure.

Graduate courses may not be counted both for graduate and undergraduate requirements.

International/Non-English Speaking Students

Except for those in the Spanish Language academic programs, students who do not speak English as their first and primary language must submit satisfactory scores from one of the following prior to admission to the university or provide other means of proving English proficiency:

- Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) score of 85 for master’s programs, and 95 for doctorate programs.
- International English Language Testing System (IELTS) score of 6.5 for master’s programs, score of 7 for doctorate programs is required for regular academic admission.

Registration

Registration occurs at the beginning of the student's core program. At this point, students are registered for all courses within the major. Therefore, if a student needs to miss an individual course, official withdrawal must be made through the Office of Student Success. Staff will work with the student to make arrangements to retake this class at a time that will minimize the impact on the student's financial aid. Students need to be aware that temporary withdrawals could impact their eligibility to receive financial aid based on the standards outlined in IWU's Satisfactory Academic Progress.

Students in programs that require additional credits outside the major are responsible to meet with a Student Success Coordinator to facilitate registration in these courses.

A student who has failed to make arrangements for the payment of tuition for a course will have registration in that course cancelled.

Advanced Standing With Credit

Graduates of undergraduate programs with relevant theological courses in Bible, theology, church history, and cultural contexts, and who enroll in the Seminary may receive advanced standing with credit on the basis of competence achieved in certain undergraduate courses. Advanced standing with credit (up to twelve semester hours toward the MDiv degree and up to six semester hours toward the MA degree) may be granted for the courses listed below under the following conditions:

- The courses were taken at a regionally accredited, ABHE accredited, or ICETE affiliated accredited institution. The Seminary reserves the right to determine whether or not courses are equivalent.
- A student has received at least a "B" in the specific courses as indicated with at least one course on the 300 level and no course below the 200 level, and
- The student successfully demonstrates competency of the required graduate course outcomes through either an oral or written assessment performed by a designated academic representative of the seminary.
- A student wishing to receive advanced standing with credit for BIBL-500, THEO-500, CHST-500, and MISS-500 must submit the application eight weeks prior to the first day of the month in which the course is offered in the student's schedule. The student will be notified of the designated faculty member's decision by the first day of the following month. Students who do not submit by this deadline will not be eligible for advanced standing with credit.

- BIBL-500 The Bible as Christian Scripture - credit may be granted for this course if the student has successfully completed a hermeneutics/exegetical method course and at least one upper level Bible course.
- THEO-500 Introduction to Christian Theology - credit may be granted for this course if the student has successfully completed at least two theology courses that together cover the primary topics of systematic theology.
- CHST-500 Global Christian History - credit may be granted for this course if the student has successfully completed at least two church history courses that together cover Christian history from the early church to the present.
- MISS-500 Cultural Contexts of Ministry - credit may be granted for this course if the student has successfully completed at least two courses that cover at least two of the following topics: cultural anthropology, urban ministry, cross-cultural ministry, or denominational history.

Alcohol, Illegal Drugs, and Firearms

Alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, and firearms are not permitted on Indiana Wesleyan University premises, including rented classrooms and any building or parts of buildings owned or operated by Indiana Wesleyan University. Refusal to comply may result in dismissal from the university.

Engagement Policy

For online classes, IWU monitors “engagement” rather than “attendance.” In order to promote meaningful student learning and success, the expectation is that students will engage on a regular basis in their courses. Engagement is defined as submission of an assignment, posting in a discussion forum, or completion of a test or quiz. Students will receive a reminder after 14 consecutive days of no engagement and will be asked if they plan to complete the course. After 21 consecutive days of no engagement, students will be administratively withdrawn from the course. Withdrawals can have a negative impact on student financial aid and billing.

For onsite/face-to-face classes, absences are allowed as follows: Under emergency circumstances, a student may be allowed up to one day of absence from a one week intensive. Absence beyond this point constitutes failure to complete the course. Students need to contact the faculty member regarding make up work.

If a student exceeds the allowed absences and does not contact the Office of Student Success to withdraw officially before the last class session, the instructor is directed to issue the grade of “F”.

Faculty members reserve the right to factor lateness, early departures, and class attendance into a student’s grade, as long as it is addressed in the syllabus.

For onsite and face-to-face classes, students are expected to be present when class begins, and remain the entire session. To be counted present, a student must attend a total of three hours or more of a class that is four hours in length, four-and-a-half hours or more of classes that are six hours in length, and six hours for classes that are eight hours in length. Tardiness is recorded, and if a student accumulates two tardies during a course, it results in an absence on the student’s attendance record.

Students who must miss a course due to unavoidable circumstances must arrange for a temporary leave of absence with the Office of Student Success prior to the beginning of the course. Students needing to withdraw while in a course may do so by arrangement with the Office of Student Success prior to the end of the course, but the regular refund and academic withdrawal policies apply.

Audit of Courses

A student who has been accepted into an Indiana Wesleyan University degree program or as an unclassified student may choose to audit specified courses within a core program or electives as follows:

- Audit registration is allowed on a space available basis as determined by the professor.
- The current audit fee ($50 per credit hour) must accompany the registration.
- Auditing a course gives one the right to attend the course. No credit or letter grade is given. The course will be indicated as an "AU" on the student's IWU transcript.
- The student auditing the course is not expected to participate in classroom or study group assignments, or to complete homework, quizzes, or tests.
- The professor is under no obligation to grade any work an auditing student chooses to submit or to give feedback on progress.

- The student must meet course pre-requisites or be approved by the Academic Dean of the Seminary.
- No change may be made from audit to credit, or credit to audit, after registration closes.

Expectations for Personal and Professional Conduct

Indiana Wesleyan University is a Christian university of higher education that upholds high standards of personal and professional conduct. Such standards include a classroom environment that promotes a positive learning environment and a professional instructional climate. It is expected that all students will abide by the Wesley Seminary ethos statement.

Students are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner with respect for the rights of both students and faculty. The university or its representatives reserve the right to act in situations where student behavior violates established policy or detracts from the ability of students or faculty to function effectively in the classroom. Such action may include disciplinary procedures issued by the faculty or suspension from the program. (NOTE: All discussion room and live chat postings for online courses are recorded and can be reviewed at the discretion of the university.)

Only regularly enrolled students may attend class unless granted permission by an administrator and arrangements are made with the instructor.

Former Student Re-Enrollment

Students who have previously withdrawn from a program and have not attended classes for six months or more must complete an application for readmission from the student success team. Receipt of the signed application will initiate a review of the student's academic file to determine remaining requirements. A student who was academically suspended from Wesley Seminary may make application for readmission after six months. All students returning after six months or more will meet the graduation requirements as stated in the catalog under which they resume enrollment.

Grade Appeal and Academic Policy Grievance

Wesley Seminary follows Indiana Wesleyan University's generally accepted college and university practice in the development of academic policies, the operation of classrooms, and use of grading techniques. The university allows its instructors independence in following generally accepted practices. A student who wishes to appeal a course grade or an academic policy decision (including one believed to be discriminatory based on race, national origin, color, sex, disability, or age, including Title VI, Title IX, and Section 504), must abide by the procedures that follow.

Each stated time frame will be the ordinary process. More time may be necessary in the event of a lengthy investigation, hearing, illness, or other unforeseen circumstances. All grievances, with all documents, recommendations, and decisions, will be reported to the Academic Dean of Wesley Seminary. Because the appeal process is a private university administrative process, legal counsel or representation is inappropriate.

Grade Appeal

A grade appeal involves only those situations in which a student believes that an instructor (a) has not followed fair grading practice or (b) has not followed his/her published grading policy. A student who wishes to appeal a grade based on one or both of these reasons must follow these procedures:

1. The student must first contact the instructor for a full explanation of the grade given and the basis for making the grade.
2. If there is no resolution, then the student may file a grade appeal request form, which can be obtained from the administrative office of Wesley Seminary. If a properly completed grade appeal request form is not received by the Seminary within 30 days of the date the student's grade was sent, then the student will forfeit any further right to appeal.
3. After the Seminary receives the grade appeal request form, it will be forwarded to the instructor along with a faculty grade appeal response form.
4. If the instructor agrees that the grade should be changed, the university will change the grade and notify the student.
5. If the instructor does not agree that the grade should be changed, the university will notify the student and send a form that may be used by the student to request a review by the Wesley Seminary Academic Appeals Committee. If the Seminary does not receive the form from the student within 15 days of the date the form was sent, then the student will forfeit any further right to appeal.
6. Upon receipt of the request for committee review from the student, the matter will be brought to the next regularly scheduled Wesley Seminary Academic Appeals Committee meeting. (NOTE: The committee reserves the right to seek clarification from the student or the instructor). If the matter involves a member of the committee, then that individual will recuse himself/herself from deciding the appeal. The committee will notify the student of its decision, which will be final.

Academic Policy Grievance

An academic policy grievance involves those situations in which a student believes that the university has not followed published policies regarding an academic decision or discrimination based on race, national origin, color, sex, disability, or age, including Title VI, Title IX, and Section 504. A student who wishes to file an academic policy grievance must follow these procedures:

1. Level 1 - The student must first contact the person who has made the decision for a full explanation of the policy and how the policy was followed. If the policy has been followed, then the student has no further recourse.
2. Level 2 - If the policy was not followed or the student disputes the way in which the policy was applied, then the student may request that the matter be reviewed by the Academic Dean of Wesley Seminary by filing a form requesting such a review. This form may be obtained from the Academic Dean. If a properly completed form is not received by the university within 30 days of the date on which the event that gave rise to the complaint occurs, then the student will forfeit any further right to appeal. The Academic Dean will notify the student of the decision.
3. Level 3 - If the matter is not satisfactorily resolved or if the Academic Dean is the individual responsible for the policy decision, then the student may request that Wesley Seminary Academic Appeals Committee review the matter by filing a form requesting a committee review. This form may be obtained from the Academic Dean of Wesley Seminary. If the university does not receive a properly completed form within 15 days of the date on which the decision notice in level 2 was sent, then the student will forfeit any further right to appeal. Wesley Seminary Academic Appeals Committee will notify the student of its decision, which will be final.

Wesley Seminary will comply with any state mandated grievance policy that governs grievance process for students matriculating within the state in question. For a detailed listing of state-specific grievance policies, please visit the state-specific grievance policies.

A student may seek recourse from any university nonacademic program or employment-related dispute, alleged discrimination on the basis of race, national origin, color, sex, disability, or age, including alleged violation of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Educational Amendments Acts of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, or other state or federal legislation. Further information can be found at Non-Academic Appeal (p. 18).

Grading and Evaluation

A letter grade is used in evaluating the work for a course. For the purpose of determining scholastic standing and awarding honors, grade points are granted according to the letter grades and semester hours of credit. The grade point average (GPA) is the number of quality points earned at IWU divided by the number of credit hours attempted at IWU.

Grade	Quality Points per Credit
A	4.0
A-	3.7
B+	3.3
B	3.0
B-	2.7
C+	2.3
C	2.0
C-	1.7
D+	1.3
F	0

The following grades are not figured into the GPA:

W

CR

AU

Repeated Courses - A student may repeat once any course in which a grade below “C” (“C-,” “D+,” “D,” or “F”) was previously earned. Some specific graduate level courses are identified as repeatable and can be repeated if a student earns a grade higher than “C” but below the level required for that specific course. The course may be repeated once.

Whenever a course is repeated, the last grade and credits earned replace the previous grade in computing the student’s grade point average (GPA). All entries, however, remain a part of the student’s permanent academic record. Duplicate credit hours are not given for two or more passing efforts. A course taken in a classroom format may not be repeated for a grade through independent learning.

Since a course may be repeated once, failure to achieve a satisfactory grade in a course after two attempts will result in academic suspension and ineligibility to complete the major in which the course was repeated.

Incomplete Grades - All course work is expected to be completed by the end of the term in which the course is attempted. If medical or other extenuating circumstances arise that prevent a student from completing all course work in that semester, a professor may, at his or her discretion, award a grade of “I” (incomplete).

Criteria for awarding an incomplete grade:

- Incapacitating illness which prevents a student from attending classes for a minimum period of two weeks
- A death in the immediate family
- Change in work schedule as required by employer
- Judicial obligations
- Other emergencies deemed appropriate by the instruction instructor

Students may be asked to supply documentation of the problem.

The student must have completed at least 75% of the coursework and must be passing the class at the time the incomplete grade is awarded. The faculty must obtain approval from the Dean before submitting a grade of “I” (incomplete). The length of time a student has to complete and submit the requirements to the faculty is determined by the faculty member for the course and may not exceed 10 weeks. If at the end of the extension, the student has failed to complete the course requirements the faculty will enter the grade the student earned. Once an incomplete grade has been awarded, the student can not withdraw from the class. An incomplete cannot be issued if the student fails to meet the attendance requirements. An incomplete cannot be issued for gateway courses and sequential courses. Students who have an incomplete on file are not eligible to participate in graduation ceremonies. The entire incomplete policy is available at: Request for Incomplete Grade Form.

Grade Reports - At the end of each course, the instructor submits grades for each student. Grade reports are available online to the student and indicate courses taken, credits received, and grades assigned.

Transcripts - The student’s official transcript is prepared by the Indiana Wesleyan University Registrar's Office and will show the course, grade, credit, and dates of instruction for each course. Transcripts will include undergraduate and graduate work with the GPA divided into undergraduate and graduate calculations. Requests for transcripts of coursework at Indiana Wesleyan University must conform with the Privacy Act of 1974, which requires that all transcript requests be submitted in writing and signed by the student, for protection of the student's confidentiality. A transcript is official only when it bears the university seal.

It is university policy not to release a transcript if the student has any financial holds on their record or if he or she is delinquent on any loan received through Indiana Wesleyan University. A $5 fee is charged for each transcript, with an additional $2.50 Parchment ordering free. Payment must be provided, along with a complete address to which the transcript is to be delivered. Please provide a current address if request is to be sent to student's home. Transcript requests can be accessed by visiting <http://www.indwes.edu/Academics/Registrar/Transcript> and submitting the request through the ordering service.

Graduation

Graduation Ceremonies - IWU graduation ceremonies are held two times a year. Four additional conferral dates are available in between the graduation ceremonies in which degrees may be conferred and posted to the student's transcript should all requirements be completed.

Eligible students are notified by the Office of Student Success of procedures and requirements concerning graduation.

Each student must complete an "Application for Graduation" provided by the Office of Student Success. This application indicates the student's intent to graduate and initiates the final evaluation of the student's academic record.

Students are also asked to inform the university as to whether they will be attending the ceremony. This allows the university to determine the number of tickets available for students who are attending. If a student cannot attend graduation due to unforeseen circumstances, the degree is still conferred; however, attendance at a future graduation is not an option.

Graduation Requirements - All requirements must be met and transcribed by the date established by the Office of Student Success prior to the degree conferral date. Students taking internal or external coursework need to make sure that transcripts, grades, and scores can be received and transcribed by the deadline date.

Students may receive one degree only per conferral date. Students meeting requirements for more than one degree must apply for two different conferral dates and participate in two different ceremonies. Any university-approved dual degree program is an exception to this policy.

Students who have received a degree from IWU and have returned to meet requirements for an additional major at the same degree level will have the second major posted to their existing degree. The second major can only be posted at one of the six conferral dates, and students receiving the second major are not eligible to participate in another graduation ceremony.

Diplomas - Diplomas are mailed after the conferment of degrees. Diplomas indicate degree earned and date of degree. A student's financial account must be settled to receive a diploma.

Leave of Absence Policy

Indiana Wesleyan University understands there are life events that may require a student to modify class enrollment and schedules. The leave of absence policy is designed to allow students flexibility in their program enrollment to adjust to these life events. The leave of absence policy also extends to students the ability to make up any courses missed during the approved leave.

A student on an approved leave of absence will be considered enrolled at IWU and eligible for an in-school deferment for student aid loans. Federal financial aid and in-school deferment may be negatively impacted if a student fails to apply for the leave of absence or if the application is denied. This impacts students who receive Title IV federal financial aid (Federal Pell Grants, Federal Supplemental Grants, Federal Stafford Subsidized or Unsubsidized Loans, Federal Parent Loans) or who want to have a federal student loan deferred from payment while in school.

Students who will be out of attendance for a period of 29 days or more should request a leave of absence. Students out of class for less than 29 days are not eligible for a leave of absence, and a recalculation on current financial aid will be done. Students who are not on federal financial aid programs or who do not have a federal loan in deferment are not required to request a leave of absence.

Students needing to make a change in their schedule need to contact the Office of Student Success to process the registration change. At that time, the leave of absence request form will be emailed to the student. Students must request the leave within 21 days of initiating the registration change. The request for a leave of absence should be made prior to the date the leave is to start. The start date of the leave is the first date of the class or, if the class has already started, the date the registration change is initiated.

An approved leave of absence must meet the following criteria: in the academic year the student has to be in attendance 2 weeks prior to applying for a leave, the request must be received within 21 days of the registration change; the request must be made prior to the start of the leave (first day of class); the reason for the request must be one approved by IWU's Leave of Absence Committee (military, medical, jury duty, loss of job, family emergency, employment emergency, transfer of coursework, passing pre-requisite requirement, changing programs, administrative cancellation of core classes, or other reasons as approved by the Leave of Absence Committee).

The leave of absence together with any additional leaves of absence must not exceed a total of 180 days in any 12-month period. Time in excess of 180 days will not be approved. A student may request an extension to a leave providing the request is made before the end of the leave, there are unforeseen circumstances which prevent the return from the leave, and the total number of days of approved leave do not exceed 180 in a 12-month period. A maximum of two leaves of absence are allowed during a 12-month period. Documentation is required for an extension on a leave. Documentation for each circumstance will vary; the student is required to provide whatever paperwork from a third party will attest to the circumstance outlined on the application form. Examples would include physicians' statements, letters from employers, letters from pastors or counselors, court documents, etc. Documentation is also required if a request is submitted after the 21 day deadline, and needs to address the reason for the delay in the submission of the request.

Failure to return from an approved leave of absence nullifies the approved leave and may have an impact on student loan repayment terms as well as the grace period. The first day of the leave will be reported as the beginning of the grace period for loan deferment. Students may return early from an approved leave of absence prior to the leave end date. The leave will be shortened according to the student's return date.

Students will not receive disbursements of Title IV student loan financial aid funds during the leave. Students are not deferred from making regularly scheduled payments to the Accounting Office for normal fees incurred. Any change in registration can impact current financial aid regardless of approval or denial of the leave of absence request. Questions about impact on current financial aid should be directed to the Financial Aid Office at 800-621-8667 ext. 2516. Students on an approved leave of absence will be reported as such and will be eligible for in-school deferment of previous loans. Students whose request for a leave of absence is denied will be reported as withdrawn and the grace period for loan repayment will go into effect.

Military Leave of Absence Policy

The Higher Education Opportunity Act enacted on August 13, 2008, states that a university may not deny admission or readmission to a service member for reasons relating to that service. The service member qualifies if the school is given notice of absence for service, the cumulative length of absence does not exceed five years, and the student gives notice of his or her intent to return.

Indiana Wesleyan University complies with this act with the following:

Academic:

- Students are not required to reapply and are not charged a readmission fee upon return.
- Students are readmitted at the same academic status (program enrollment status, number of completed credit hours, academic standing) before deployment. Students may return under the catalog that was in effect before deployment. Student may find differences in their programs or the catalog if the programs are no longer offered, or changes have occurred due to external accrediting bodies, licensing board or other external agencies.
- Leave time does not count toward the total time required to earn the degree.
- Students will be promptly readmitted in the next class or classes in a program, will qualify for priority/early registration, and may not be denied re-enrollment in a class based on class size.

Financial:

Students are required to complete a Military Leave of Absence Request. When the request is approved, students' accounts will be adjusted as necessary.

Financial Aid

Indiana Wesleyan University is committed to assisting military students in navigating the impact that active duty will have on financial aid. It is important that each student have conversation with the Financial Aid office to ensure proper paperwork and processes are covered as it relates to a leave of absence.

Students with federal financial aid, federal loan obligations, or military tuition assistance must contact their lenders and/or the military education office to ascertain their loan repayment status or repayment of tuition assistance during the leave of absence.

Policy on Academic Credentials and Programs

This policy applies to all academic units of the university.

Indiana Wesleyan University awards academic credentials (degrees and certificates) to students who complete defined programs of study. Each credential is defined in terms of a set of essential learning outcomes, which may include discipline-specific and general education outcomes, as well as credit hour and other specifications. Each program of study for a particular credential maps the credential learning outcomes to a series of credit-bearing courses.

As appropriate, given the learning outcomes and alignment of involved programs and courses, credits may be shared between academic credentials and sub-credentials awarded coevally, within the following boundaries.

1. The student must fulfill all of the requirements for any credential awarded.
2. Credits may be shared between a major and a minor, as long as the minor includes at least 15 unique credit hours unshared with any other major or minor.
3. Credits may be shared between two minors, as long as each minor includes at least 15 unique credit hours unshared with any other major or minor.
4. Credits may be shared between two undergraduate majors as long as there are 51 unique (unduplicated) credit hours between the two majors.
5. Credits may be shared between two graduate majors as long as two thirds of the credits in each major are unique (unduplicated).
6. Up to three credit hours may be shared between a certificate and a minor.
7. Up to six credit hours may be shared between a certificate and a major (undergraduate or graduate).
8. A major or minor may be added to a previously awarded baccalaureate degree. The student must complete all of the course requirements for the major or minor and a minimum of nine new credits hours must be earned. New general education requirements need not be met to post an additional major or minor. Students adding a major or minor are not eligible to participate in commencement ceremonies again. The additional major or minor will be posted to the transcript only on one of the conferral dates.

As appropriate, given the learning outcomes and alignment of involved programs and courses, credits applied to a previously-awarded IWU academic credential may be applied, without surrender of the prior credential, to another IWU academic credential within the following boundaries.

1. The student must fulfill all of the requirements for any credential awarded.
2. For credits from a prior IWU academic credential to be applied to a second IWU academic credential, the second academic program must be started within ten years of the awarding of the first credential. Exceptions must be approved by the dean (or equivalent) of the school sponsoring the academic program of the second credential. Individual academic programs may specify more strict credit-age limits if warranted by the discipline.
3. The credits from a previously-awarded undergraduate certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of an associate's degree or a bachelor's degree.
4. Up to 6 credits from a previously-awarded associate's degree or bachelor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of an undergraduate certificate.
5. The credits from a previously-awarded associate's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different associate's degree, as long as each credential has at least 25% unique credits.
6. The credits from a previously-awarded associate's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a bachelor's degree.
7. The credits from a previously-awarded bachelor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different bachelor's degree, as long as each credential has at least 25% unique credits.
8. The credits from a previously-awarded bachelor's degree or undergraduate certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a master's degree, limited by the provisions of the Undergraduate and Graduate Credit Crossover Policy.
9. The credits from a previously-awarded graduate certificate or post-masters certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a master's degree.
10. The credits from a previously-awarded graduate certificate or post-masters certificate may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a doctor's degree.
11. Credits from a previously-awarded master's degree or doctor's degree may be applied to fulfill up to 1/3 of the requirements of a graduate certificate.
12. The credits from a previously-awarded master's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different master's degree, as long as each credential has at least 50% unique credits.

13. The credits from a previously-awarded master's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a doctor's degree, as long as the doctor's degree has at least 50% unique credits.

14. The credits from a previously-awarded doctor's degree may be applied to fulfill the requirements of a different doctor's degree, as long as each credential has at least 50% unique credits.

Transfer of Credit Policy

Wesley Seminary may allow a maximum of nine credits in transfer to the Master of Arts programs and a maximum of 27 hours into the Master of Divinity program provided the transfer work falls within seven years prior to admission. Transfer of credit will be determined by the Academic Dean of Wesley Seminary.

Credit is granted for work with a satisfactory grade ("C" or above) taken at an approved college or university accredited at the same level, provided the courses are applicable to the curriculum the student wishes to pursue at Indiana Wesleyan University. An "approved college or university" generally refers to those institutions that are accredited by a regional accrediting body, the Association for Biblical Higher Education, or international theological accrediting associations affiliated with the International Council for Evangelical Theological Education.

The University Registrar is responsible for approving the transferability of all credits. Credit hours accepted in transfer are recorded, but quality points and grades are omitted. Once transcripts (and other test scores and academic documents) have been received, IWU is not permitted to release copies of those documents back to the student or any other party. All credits are accepted as semester credits. Quarter credits are converted to semester credits using the two-thirds conversion ratio.

Transcripts from international institutions - may need to be sent to an outside agency for evaluation and determination of transferable credits, degrees, and GPA. If this outside review is necessary, students are responsible for the initiation of this evaluation and for any fees incurred during the process.

Withdrawal/Change in Status

A student who finds it necessary to withdraw from the program or to take a temporary leave of absence is required to contact Wesley Seminary's student success coordinators to complete this process (SeminaryAdvising@indwes.edu). Students must request the withdrawal before the last class workshop. Failure to initiate an official withdrawal will result in a "No Credit" or an "F" grade for the student in those related courses.

A student who is temporarily withdrawing may request an individual leave of absence up to 180 days in a 12 month period. A student cannot request more than two leaves during a 12 month period, and the total number of days on leave may not exceed 180 days within a 12 month period. All leaves must be requested through the Office of Student Success.

If a student officially withdraws after a course has started, a grade of "W" will be assigned. A student who violates the attendance policy with the last workshop of a course will receive an "F" for the course.

Administrative withdrawals assigning a grade of "W" will also happen as follows:

- A student who violates the attendance policy prior to the last workshop of a course will be administratively withdrawn from the course.
- A student who never attends a course will be administratively withdrawn from not only that course but all subsequent courses.

Students withdrawing from the first course of a core program must withdraw from the entire program and restart the program.

If, at a later time the student wishes to re-enter the program, a re-entry form must be submitted to the Office of Student Success. Students sitting out of a core program for more than 90 days are subject to a tuition increase upon returning. Students re-entering a core program after six months or more are subject to any changes in curriculum upon returning.

Any change in registration may have an impact on the student's financial aid. Students should always check with the financial aid office before initiating a registration change.

Inclement Weather Procedures

The university is reluctant to postpone or cancel classes because the schedule is already very compressed and it is difficult to schedule make-up classes when needed. In order to make the most informed decisions possible, the university gathers information from the National Weather Service, State Police agencies, and Regional Deans and personnel (when appropriate). Unfortunately, the university cannot make the decision based on an individual student's geographical situation and the driving distance to and from class. Students should be aware, however, that they are expected to use discretion and not to take unreasonable risks. If students choose not to attend class, they should notify their instructor and make appropriate arrangements for make-up work. Decisions to postpone or cancel classes will be announced by the university. Regional locations will be judged by the Regional Deans. In the event it becomes necessary for a Regional Dean to recommend to the Chancellor for IWU-National and Global campus a weather related or emergency closing or postponement for onsite classes, affected faculty and students will make up the missed class session through an online alternative class session.

Instructors will contact students on the date class is cancelled with requirements for making up the cancelled class session through an online alternative.

In the event an onsite class session is cancelled that is deemed significant to the specific program (e.g., program orientation, the first class session of a program, the last class session of a program, etc.), the Regional Dean will petition the appropriate academic leaders to arrange a new date to make up the cancelled class session prior to the next scheduled class session.

To satisfy engagement requirements and earn discussion points (if applicable), all assignments associated with the cancelled class session must be submitted prior to the start of the next scheduled class session.

Postponement decisions for evening classes will be made by approximately 3:00 p.m. on the day of class. Decisions about Saturday classes will be made the evening before, when possible, but may be made during the early morning hours on the Saturday of class if necessary. No notification will be made unless classes are postponed or cancelled; information about postponements and/or cancellations will be announced on the university's Web site at <http://www.indwes.edu>. Announcements will also be posted on the student portal at <http://myIWU.indwes.edu> and on the class information phone line at 1-800-621-8667 ext. 2022.

Undergraduate and Graduate Credit Crossover Policy

Undergraduate credits from IWU or other colleges or universities that are taken at a college or university that is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by both the U.S. Department of Education (ED) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) (see Transfer of Credit Policy (p. 739) for current accrediting agencies), or hold appropriate international accreditation, may be used to fulfill requirements of IWU graduate programs under specified conditions. When permitted by the design of the program, undergraduate credits from upper level courses may be counted toward the requirements of a graduate degree or certificate when the undergraduate course or courses sufficiently accomplish the learning outcomes of a course in the graduate program. The course(s) must have been completed within the past five years and must reflect current knowledge and best practices. No more than 25% of the total credit requirements for the graduate degree or certificate may be completed through undergraduate credits. Undergraduate courses in which a student has earned a "B" or better may be considered for graduate credit. Dual counting of credits requires approval by the appropriate program leader, in consultation with a graduate level content expert, as well as approval by the University Registrar, and Financial Aid Office if applicable. The program leader will make the final decision as to the applicability of the course to fulfill program learning outcomes. Established limitations on the number of credits that may be transferred into the graduate program remain in effect.

Graduate level credits from IWU or other colleges or universities that are regionally accredited, accredited by the Association for Biblical Higher Education (ABHE), or hold appropriate international accreditation, may be used to fulfill requirements of IWU undergraduate programs under specified conditions. When permitted by the design of the program, graduate credits may be counted toward the requirements of an undergraduate degree or certificate when the graduate course or courses sufficiently accomplish the learning outcomes of a course in the undergraduate program. The course(s) must have been completed within the past five years and must reflect current knowledge and best practices. No more than 25% of the total credit requirements for the undergraduate major, minor, or certificate may be completed through graduate credits. Though exceptions may be approved by program directors, graduate courses in which a student has earned a "B" or better may be considered for undergraduate credit. Dual counting of credits requires approval by the appropriate program leader, in consultation with a graduate level content expert, as well as approval by the University Registrar, and Financial Aid Office if applicable. The program leader will make the final decision as to the applicability of the course to fulfill program learning outcomes. Established limitations on the number of credits that may be transferred into the undergraduate program remain in effect.

Financial - Wesley Seminary

Financial Policies

Students are advised of financial obligations for their degree seeking (core) program during the registration process. Students are expected to meet these obligations according to the schedule. Any questions regarding payments or problems associated with making those payments should be directed to Student Account Services.

Students who have applied for financial aid are responsible for all tuition and fees in the event it is determined they are ineligible for financial aid, decline the financial aid, or withdraw from the program prior to completing the academic award period. Students receiving military or corporate assistance who have received prior approval from the university for direct billing are required to pay their share of tuition and fees and submit appropriate assistance documents by the assigned due date. The deferral program in no way relieves the student of the financial obligation to the university and the student retains full responsibility for ensuring that all tuition and fees are paid in full and in a timely manner.

Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to suspend students from class attendance for failure to meet financial obligations.

Indiana Wesleyan University reserves the right to change the tuition and fee schedule at any time. Students who remain registered making satisfactory academic progress shall have their tuition and fees guaranteed. Book fees and embedded resource fees are subject to change throughout a student's program. A $50 late fee is charged each time a payment is received after the due date. There will be a fee charged for any check returned due to non-sufficient funds. If collection of tuition, book charges, and/or fees becomes necessary, all percentage-based costs of collection, court costs, and attorney fees are the responsibility of the student.

Financial Regulations for Individuals Covered by Chapter 31 or Chapter 33

For purposes of this policy, a covered individual is any individual who is entitled to educational assistance under Chapter 31, Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment, or Chapter 33, Post-9/11 benefits.

Any covered individual may enroll in or attend a course of education during the period beginning on the date on which the individual provides a Certificate of Eligibility (COE) for entitlement to educational assistance under chapter 31 or 33 (A "Statement of Benefits" obtained from the Department of Veterans' Affairs (VA) website – eBenefits, or a VA Form 28-1905 for chapter 31 authorization purposes can substitute a Certificate of Eligibility) and ending on the earlier of the following dates:

- The date on which payment from VA is made to Indiana Wesleyan University (IWU)
- 90 days after the date IWU certified tuition and fees following the receipt of the certificate of eligibility

Indiana Wesleyan University will not impose any penalty, including the assessment of late fees, the denial of access to classes, libraries, or other institutional facilities, or the requirement that a covered individual borrow additional funds, on any covered individual because of the individual's inability to meet his or her financial obligations to the institution due to the delayed disbursement of funding from VA under chapter 31 or 33.

IWU requires the following actions on the part of any covered individual:

- Submit the Certificate of Eligibility (COE) for entitlement to educational assistance no later than the first day of the course of education.
- Provide any additional information necessary to the proper certification of enrollment by IWU.
- All standard financial policies apply for any amount not covered by the Certificate of Eligibility (COE) – i.e. charges not covered, or percentage of fees in excess of the COE.

Refund Policy

For courses consisting of 4-6 workshops:

- If a student requests withdrawal during the first week of the course, all charges are forgiven except books and embedded resources.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 2nd week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 75%.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 3rd week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 50%.

- If the student requests withdrawal after the 3rd week, there is no refund.

For courses consisting of at least 7 workshops:

- If a student requests withdrawal during the first week of the course, all charges are forgiven except books and embedded resources.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 2nd week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 90%.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 3rd week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 75%.
- If a student requests withdrawal during the 4th week of the course, tuition and tech fee are refunded 50%.
- If the student requests withdrawal after the 4th week, there is no refund.

For courses that are one week in length, tuition and technology fee are refunded according to the following schedule:

- Withdrawal requested within the first onsite day (2nd day on the course calendar) – 100% tuition and tech fee refund.
- Withdrawal requested after the first onsite day – no tuition or tech fee refund.

Changes to a student's schedule may affect their financial aid. Call the Financial Aid Office for information.

Other Fees

Once attendance has been established in a course, any other fees associated with that course (not tuition or technology fee) are non-refundable.

Regulations and Policies

In compliance with federal regulations for the student who has received financial aid, any amount due will be returned to the appropriate aid sources.

Students who are unable to complete a course or who receive an unsatisfactory grade for their specific program will be allowed to repeat that course with another group of students if arrangements are made with the Registration Change Counselor. Tuition and fees will be charged for repeating the course.

Decisions regarding refunds are made by Student Account Services, and in isolated cases, by the Financial Appeals Committee.

Indiana Wesleyan University will comply with any state mandated refund policies that govern refunds for students matriculating within the state in question. For a detailed listing of state-specific refund policies, please visit <http://www.indwes.edu/About/Student-Consumer-Information/State-Specific-Refund-Policies>.

Student Account Appeals

A written appeal may be submitted to Student Account Services. If the disputed charge cannot be reconciled with the accounting office, a written appeal can be submitted to studentaccountappeals@indwes.edu with all supporting documentation.

- All pertinent information will be obtained and compiled by the Appeals Committee.
- The disputed charge will be reviewed by the Appeals Committee.
- If necessary, an appeal may be reviewed by the Program Director.
- Appeals must be submitted within 6 months of the last date of attendance for the course in question.

All appeals will receive a response within 15 days after the written appeal has been received.

Financial Aid - Wesley Seminary

General Eligibility Requirements

In order to receive federal and/or state student financial aid, students must meet the following criteria:

- Must have completed the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) including signing all certifying statements.
- Must be a U.S. citizen or eligible noncitizen.

- Must have a valid Social Security number (with the exception of students from the Republic of the Marshall Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, or the Republic of Palau).
- Must be registered with Selective Service, if required.
- Must not be in default on a Title IV loan or owe a Title IV grant or loan overpayment.
- Must not have borrowed in excess of annual or aggregate Title IV loan limits.
- Must certify that they will use Title IV aid only to pay educational costs.
- Must not have enrolled in multiple institutions solely to obtain Title IV credit balance funds to pay expenses not educationally related.
- Must not have a disqualifying drug conviction.
- Must be enrolled as a regular student (cannot be unclassified) in an eligible degree or certificate program.
- Must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) as outlined in IWU's SAP Policy.
- Must show qualification to obtain a college education by having a high school diploma, GED certificate, or a high school education in a homeschool setting approved under state law.
- Must maintain enrollment in classes.

Per federal regulations, incarcerated students are not eligible for federal student financial aid. Incarcerated students or students who become incarcerated after receiving federal student financial aid funds should contact the Financial Aid Office.

Types of Student Financial Aid Available

The following types of student financial aid are available to persons enrolled as degree-seeking students who meet the eligibility criteria for the aid type. Complete fund profiles may be found online at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/types-of-aid><https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/types-of-aid>.

Ministerial Student Aid Program – is a loan program administered by The Wesleyan Church through the Department of Education & Clergy Development and is available to undergraduate and graduate students in an approved ministry program. The loan becomes a grant as the recipient serves The Wesleyan Church under a qualifying appointment. Applicants should understand that in requesting aid from this program they are applying for a loan, which must be either repaid or canceled through service. General eligibility requirements include, but are not limited to: local church membership, district approval, and enrollment form submission. For each year (September 1 through August 30) of full-time district appointment in The Wesleyan Church following studies, 20% of the loan is canceled once the service is rendered and reported. Cancellation cannot be given in the same church year that one receives loan-grant funds. Loan amounts for the 2020-2021 award year are $80 per semester hour for Masters in Ministry programs and $100 per semester hour for Masters of Divinity classes. More information may be found online at <https://www.wesleyan.org/ecc/loan-grant>.

William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan – is available to students who file the FAFSA and all other required student financial aid forms and who meet all federal criteria for eligibility. The maximum annual loan amount is $20,500 for graduate students. The lifetime maximum borrowing limit for graduate programs is $138,500 (including undergraduate borrowing). Interest rates are set on July 1 each year and are fixed rates. For July 1, 2020, through June 30, 2021, the interest rate is 4.30% for unsubsidized Federal Direct Loans for graduate students.

A student's total financial assistance, including loans, may not exceed the calculated cost of attendance for the program. Students with unsubsidized loans may elect to make monthly interest payments to the lender or allow the accumulated interest to accrue until repayment, which begins six months after the student ceases to be enrolled as at least a half-time student. Upon graduation or termination of studies, the student is given a six-month grace period during which no interest or principal payments are due on subsidized loans and during which only interest accrues on the unsubsidized loans. The standard minimum monthly payment is $50, but the amount varies based on the total amount of the outstanding loans upon which the student is paying and the type of repayment plan the student has chosen.

Graduate PLUS Federal Direct Loan – is a federal loan with a fixed 5.30% interest rate available to graduate students who have remaining cost of attendance not met by an unsubsidized William D. Ford Federal Direct Loans. This is a credit-based federal loan.

Pastoral Discount – is a tuition discount offered to pastors who are taking courses in one of the approved ministry programs. Students must submit a discount application, available from your program representative. More information may be found online at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/pastoral-discounts>.

Military Preferred Tuition Discount – is a tuition discount to all active duty military personnel, National Guard, Reserves, retirees, veterans, spouses, surviving spouses, dependents with educational benefits, and DoD employees. Students must submit a discount application, available online at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/Military-Preferred-Tuition-Application-2020-2021.pdf>.

Yellow Ribbon Award – is an award that does not have to be repaid and is available to eligible students who receive Chapter 33 benefits. The amount eligible students receive reflects 50% of the tuition expenses that exceed the highest public in-state undergraduate tuition rate. The VA matches that contribution to cover fully the tuition costs.

How to Apply for Student Financial Aid

Students who wish to be considered for federal and/or state student financial aid must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Links to the application process online are provided at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/apply-for-aid>:

- When completing the FAFSA (direct link is <https://studentaid.gov/h/apply-for-aid/fafsa>) you must list IWU's Title IV Code, 001822, or IWU will not receive your FAFSA information from the federal processor.
- You must disclose any additional funding you will receive from employer reimbursement, vocational rehabilitation, or private scholarships to help pay for your education. To facilitate this requirement, complete the Other Aid Source Disclosure Form.
- If loans are desired, students must complete the Loan Entrance Counseling Session and William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan Master Promissory Note online (direct link is <https://studentaid.gov>). You must have an established Federal Student Aid (FSA) ID and password in order to complete these items. It may be necessary to wait three days from the time you first create your FSA ID before trying to sign in to this website. For each item, you must enter "Indiana" in the School State field even if you attend classes in another state or online.
 - Entrance Counseling Session: Log in using your FSA ID and password. Hover over COMPLETE AID PROCESS in the navigation bar and select Complete Entrance Counseling. Add IWU as a School to Notify and select the appropriate Student Type for your current degree pursuit—undergraduate or graduate.
 - Master Promissory Note: Log in using your FSA ID and password. Hover over COMPLETE AID PROCESS in the navigation bar and select Subsidized/Unsubsidized Loan MPN.

- The Financial Aid Office's standard practice is to originate federal student loans for the amount of a student's maximum eligibility. If you wish to have a lesser loan amount awarded than your maximum eligibility, complete the Reduced Loan Request form.

Once the above steps have been completed, be certain to:

- Quickly respond to requests for additional information from the Financial Aid Office. You may be asked, as required by federal regulations, to provide items for review in a process called Verification. Some items that may be requested are: a completed Verification Worksheet, a completed and notarized Identity and Statement of Educational Purpose Form, and a signed copy of your Federal Income Tax Return (and your spouse's or parents' as appropriate).
- Fully complete all forms. Forms filled out incorrectly or submitted to the wrong office or location could complicate your approval to begin classes or delay your student financial aid awards package.

How Eligibility is Determined and Student Financial Aid is Awarded

- An estimated federal awards package typically is available within a week of submitting the FAFSA. In general, award amounts are based on a student's Expected Family Contribution found on the Student Aid Report, a student's enrollment status, the cost of attendance, and other estimated financial assistance. The Financial Aid Office will award a student for his or her maximum eligibility in scholarship, grant, and loan funds unless otherwise instructed in writing. Complete the Reduced Loan Request form to request a loan amount less than the maximum.
- Students must be enrolled at least half-time for the term for federal loan funds to be disbursed. Any changes to planned enrollment may affect the amount and/or disbursement date(s) of aid for which the student may qualify.
- The Financial Aid Office will email notification to the IWU student email account that student financial aid has been awarded and is available for review online via the student portal at <https://myiwu.indwes.edu>. This secure website will indicate the types and amounts of aid for which the student qualifies. To decline all or a portion of the awarded aid, the student must submit a written request to the Financial Aid Office or all awarded aid will disburse to the IWU student account, as appropriate. Complete the Reduced Loan Request form to request a loan amount less than the maximum. The student does not need to contact the Financial Aid Office to accept an awards package.

How and When Student Financial Aid is Disbursed

Federal Direct Loans are disbursed as a credit to the IWU student account, generally in one payment per term with that disbursement occurring approximately 10 days after the start of the first class attended in the term.

Ministerial Student Aid is disbursed in the form of a check to the student four times a year (January, February, July, and October) from Wesleyan Headquarters for courses completed during the prior period.

All other types of aid are awarded and disbursement dates set as the necessary paperwork is received.

Applying for student financial aid does not remove responsibility for payment. If the funding is not received, the student must pay all outstanding balances immediately.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)

Students are expected to maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress toward the completion of their course of study. This includes:

- Enrolling in and attending class as well as completing assignments and projects.
- Earning at least the minimum GPA required to maintain good academic standing in the student's primary degree or certificate program.
- Earning passing grades in a minimum of 67% of all credit hours attempted.
- For undergraduate students, completing the program within 150% of the credit hours normally required to complete the course of study (e.g., if the program requires 120 credit hours to complete, then the student may attempt no more than 180 credit hours) or, for graduate students, within the maximum time allowed by the academic department to complete the degree.

Academic progress is reviewed after the end of each term/award period. Students who fail to make satisfactory academic progress will be placed onto SAP Warning or Suspension, as appropriate, per the policy requirements. Students with mitigating circumstances (which may include, but is not limited to, death in the family or grave illness of the student or close family member) may appeal termination of federal student financial aid eligibility due to failure to make academic progress by submitting a SAP Appeal Form, written explanation, and supporting documentation to the SAP Appeals Committee through the Financial Aid Office. The entire SAP Policy is available for review online at <https://www.indwes.edu/adult-graduate/financial-aid/resources>.

Leaves of Absence, Withdrawals, and Return of Funds

A student may request leaves of absence through the Office of Student Success for breaks in attendance 180 days or less in any 12-month period. In the case there is an approved break between classes, a leave of absence will be reported to the lender, but no loan repayment will be required. If additional circumstances arise that prohibit the student from returning to class as scheduled, the student should contact the Financial Aid Office to discuss options. For a break between classes of more than 180 days in any 12-month period, the university is required to report non-enrollment information to the lender, and the student will be required to begin repayment of any student loans (see your loan promissory note for further information).

If a student finds it necessary to withdraw from the program, withdraw from a course or courses without an approved leave of absence, or take leaves of absence that exceed 180 days in a 12-month period, a federal student financial aid Return of Funds calculation will be performed. This calculation determines how much federal student financial aid has been earned and is based on the number of days attended during the term/payment period when the student withdraws. The amount of federal student financial aid funds to be returned by IWU to the funding source is based on the amount of those funds that the Return of Funds calculation determined were not earned by the student. The following is an example of the Return of Funds calculation:

- The student begins class on June 28 and the term/payment period runs until January 17.
- The student withdraws from the program on October 4.
- The term/payment period has 152 calendar days in it (not including break periods) and the student completed 86 days which is 56.6% of the payment period.
- The amount of the funds to be returned will be 43.4% of the federal student financial aid funds received.
- The portion of the federal student financial aid funds that the school must return is equal to the lesser of:
 - The institutional charges multiplied by the unearned percentage of your funds, or
 - The entire amount of excess funds.

The Financial Aid Office will determine the amount of the return of funds that is owed by IWU and the amount, if any, that is owed by the student. For any loan funds that are owed by the student, the student (or the parent for a Direct PLUS Loan) repays in accordance with the terms of the promissory note (e.g., scheduled payments are to be made to the holder of the loan over a period of time). A letter will be sent to the student indicating the results of the Return of Funds calculation and the amount of the return of funds, if any. The student will earn 100% of the federal student financial aid funds received for the term/payment period if the return of funds calculation shows the student completed 60% or more of the term/payment period. Additionally, state grant awards may be recalculated if the student drops below the minimum amount of credits and/or if tuition and fee charges must be revised as a result of the schedule change.

Funds will be returned to the federal student financial aid programs in the following order: unsubsidized Federal Direct Loan, subsidized Federal Direct Loan, Federal Perkins Loan, Federal Direct PLUS Loans, Federal Pell Grant, Federal SEOG, Federal TEACH Grant and other Title IV grants. The student will have 45 days to contact the Financial Aid Office to make arrangements to repay any federal grants that are owed by the student. Failure to make arrangements or to pay back the federal grants will mean the student is no longer eligible to receive federal student financial aid at any institution until full repayment.

The requirements for Title IV program funds when a student withdraws are separate from IWU's refund policy. Therefore, a student may still owe funds to the school to cover unpaid institutional charges. A student who requests the credit balance from his or her IWU student account and then makes registration changes may be required to repay funds to the university and/or to the student financial aid programs.

Student's Rights and Responsibilities

As a student, you have the right to know:

- What financial assistance is available, including information on all federal and state programs.
- The deadlines for submitting application for each of the student financial aid programs available.

- The cost of attending the school's programs and the school's refund policy.
- The criteria used by the institution to select financial aid recipients.
- How the school determines your financial need. This process includes how costs for tuition, fees, books, and living expenses are considered in your budget.
- What resources (such as employer reimbursement, other financial aid, etc.) are considered in the calculation of your need.
- How much of your financial need, as determined by the institution, has been met.
- An explanation of the various programs in your student financial aid package. If you believe you have been treated unfairly, you may request reconsideration of the award that was made to you.
- What portion of the student financial aid you received must be repaid, and what portion is grant aid. If the aid is a loan, you have the right to know the loan interest rate, the total amount that must be repaid, the payback procedures, the length of time you have to repay the loan, and when the repayment is to begin.

As a student, you are responsible to:

- Review and consider all information about the school's program before you enroll.
- Complete all required forms accurately and submit them in a timely manner to the correct address.
- Pay special attention to, and accurately complete, your FAFSA. Errors can result in delay of receipt of your student financial aid funds. Intentional misreporting of information on application forms for federal student financial aid is a violation of law and is considered a criminal offense subject to penalties under the U.S. Criminal Code.
- Return all additional information, verification, corrections, and/or new information requested by either the Financial Aid Office or the FAFSA central processor.
- Read and understand all the forms that you are asked to sign and keep copies of them.
- Accept responsibility for all agreements you sign.
- If you have a loan, notify the lender of changes in your name, address, or school status.
- Know and comply with the deadline for application or reapplication for aid.
- Know and comply with the school's leave of absence or withdrawal policy/procedures.
- Repay student loans in agreement with the loan promissory note.

Further Information

The Financial Aid Office staff is here to assist in any way possible. If you have questions about any information pertaining to student financial aid, please contact: Financial Aid Office, IWU -National and Global, Indiana Wesleyan University, 1900 West 50th Street, Marion, IN 46953-9393. Services for Students - Wesley Seminary

Student Success

The purpose of the Office of Student Success is to support students from enrollment to completion of academic programs. Student Success Coordinators help students understand all degree requirements and options to meet those requirements. Student Success Coordinators also assist students in understanding policies and procedures, and communicating with departments such as Financial Aid and Accounting.

Student Success Coordinators advise each student throughout the duration of his or her academic program and are available to meet one-on-one with students face to face, through email, by phone, or via video conference.

It is important that students maintain contact with their Student Success team in order to ensure timely progression toward degree completion as well as appropriate scheduling for maximum financial aid benefit.

Library Services

Off Campus Library Services provides both mediated and direct access to resources and services designed specifically for the adult student. The Jackson Library in Marion has thousands of materials via searchable databases, including both print and online journals; streaming media titles; print books and ebooks; and various formats of microform. These are all searchable via the secured Jackson Library databases. Small library collections are available at the Louisville campus, Ohio campuses at Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, and Dayton, as well as the Indiana campuses at Greenwood, Indianapolis (two locations), and Merrillville, and include some reference books and full access to the library catalog and subscription-based journal and book indexes. Remote access is also available to all databases through the university login. Students can get personalized assistance from OCLS librarians at Cincinnati, Cleveland, Indianapolis, Louisville, Marion, and Merrillville campuses. Librarians assist with general paper editing especially as it pertains to use of the writing style of their degree program. OCLS can also help troubleshoot basic word processing and PowerPoint challenges.

The Wesley Seminary student or distance student can contact OCLS via e-mail, 800 telephone, or chat service. Online access to the Library Resource Guide is available from the OCLS Web page; OCLS Tools. All provided services are further described in this document. One on one or group instruction about the services and databases of OCLS or a writing style is available by special appointment.

The library is part of a consortium, Academic Libraries of Indiana, which includes access to most library collections of Indiana higher education institutions. If attending classes in Kentucky or Ohio, the regional OCLS librarian can inform students about opportunities in their area.

Services for Disabled Students

IWU Disability Services

The goal of disability services at Indiana Wesleyan University is to work cooperatively with students to help them reach their maximum academic, social, and personal potential. This is accomplished by integrating legal expectations, Indiana Wesleyan's standards of service, and Christ-like principles. The Director of Accessibility and Accommodations is a trained professional, responsible for determining accommodation eligibility and for coordinating office services for students with disabilities. The director works with the students, faculty, and staff to design and implement a plan of reasonable accommodations that allows for equal access to all areas of university life.

Equal Access

Indiana Wesleyan University is committed to inclusion and equal access of individuals with disabilities. Individuals will not be discriminated against on the basis of disability or be denied equal access and appropriate accommodation to the educational opportunities available at IWU.

"No otherwise qualified person with a disability in the United States shall, solely on the basis of disability, be denied access to, or the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity in any institution receiving federal financial assistance." –Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

Admissions

Admission decisions are made without regard to disabilities. All prospective students are expected to present academic credentials that meet or exceed the minimum requirements for admissions.

Prospective students with disabilities are not required to identify themselves to the Admissions Office or the Director of Accessibility and Accommodations. However, those interested in receiving academic accommodations are encouraged to meet with, or contact, the Director of Accessibility and Accommodations as early as possible to allow for a review of documentation and the formulation of an accommodation plan.

Student Address/Email Information

Students should notify the Registrar's Office of any change of address, telephone number, or name so that proper records can be maintained. Name change requests require submission of appropriate documentation.

IWU Student Email Accounts - Upon acceptance, students are given an IWU student e-mail account. This is the only account used by IWU for communication with the student. It is extremely important that the student checks this account on a regular basis as important academic and financial information as well as university announcements will be shared in this way.

Master of Arts - Ministry (36 Hours)

Wesley Seminary offers a 36 hour Master of Arts degree with specializations in several areas that provides graduate-level training for working ministry practitioners.

Wesley Seminary strives to promote the following key learning outcomes in the MA program. A student who has completed the MA degree with a major in Ministry should, with graduate-level competency, be able to:

- Integrate Christian History, Scripture, and Theology in the practice of ministry.
- Contextualize the gospel for the purpose of advancing the Kingdom.
- Personalize spiritual formation for sustainable ministry.

Master of Arts - Ministry - Specialization in Biblical Studies

A specialization in Biblical Studies prepares students to interpret the Scriptures faithfully using various hermeneutical tools and methods, and to contextualize the Biblical message for contemporary application and theological formation. Students will choose (1) course each representing the (4) domains of Biblical Theology, Biblical Exegesis, the Bible in Community, and Biblical Languages, for a total of (12) hours.

In addition to the MA in Ministry learning outcomes, students with a specialization in Biblical Studies should, with graduate-level competency, be able to:

- Interpret the Scriptures faithfully using various hermeneutical tools and methods.
- Contextualize the Biblical message for contemporary application and theological formation.

Admission Requirements

Admission to the Ministry major begins with completing application forms and submitting them with official transcripts and two personal recommendations. The Wesley Seminary shall determine admission status from the completed forms and student file and notify the applicant in writing of the admission status granted. Regular admission to the seminary constitutes admission to candidacy for the master's degree. The basic criteria for regular admission to the MA program within the seminary are as follows:

- A baccalaureate or master's degree from an institution accredited by a regional accrediting body, the Association for Biblical Higher Education, or international theological accrediting associations affiliated with the International Council for Evangelical Theological Education.

- A minimum grade-point average (GPA) of at least 2.5 from the degree granting institution.
- An official transcript from the degree granting institution.
- Two recommendations including:
 - One from a pastor or denominational supervisor.
 - A general recommendation.
- A three to four page autobiography and statement of ministry purpose. The statement of purpose should reflect one's sense of God's direction in relation to Christian ministry or service.
- A signed Ministry Context form.

Program Requirements

- Students must have completed all required courses before enrolling in the MA Capstone course (MIN-691). Registration in the MA Capstone will be cancelled for any students who fail to satisfactorily complete all required MA courses.
- All requirements for the degree must be completed within ten years of enrollment

Transfer Credit

- A maximum of nine hours may be transferred from another accredited master's program, provided it falls within seven years prior to admission.
- Students who have taken equivalent courses in their undergraduate program to BIBL-500 The Bible as Christian Scripture, THEO-500 Introduction to Christian Theology, and CHST-500 Global Christian History will be allowed/encouraged to substitute an advanced Bible, theology, or church history elective.

Graduation Requirements

- Completion of core requirements.
- Minimum grade of "C" in each core and elective course.
- Cumulative grade point average of 2.5.
- Successful completion of the Bible Content Exam with a 70% or higher.
- All requirements for the degree must be completed within six years of enrollment.
- Payment of all tuition and fees is required to receive a diploma.

Master of Arts - Ministry - Specialization in Intercultural Studies

The MA in Ministry with a specialization in Intercultural Studies is a practical and context-driven program. The curriculum is specifically designed to equip those who are called to intercultural ministry whether globally or among diaspora populations in the North American context. The coursework enables Christian leaders to demonstrate cultural competency and appreciation for the other and to engage other cultures in meaningful ways. The coursework also equips students to develop and lead Christian ministries in ways appropriate for their culture and ministry context. Through the problem-based learning approach, students immediately use skills learned in class to address issues in their ministry context. Peer-learning discussions allow students to benefit from each other's varied global experiences as they learn together.

The Intercultural Studies specialization consists of 12-hours of coursework, with at least 6 hours in Intercultural Theory and at least 6 hours in Intercultural Ministry.

In addition to the MA in Ministry learning outcomes, students with a specialization in Intercultural Studies should, with graduate-level competency, be able to:

- Minister effectively in contexts of diversity exhibiting sensitivity to other religions and cultures.
- Integrate leadership and intercultural theories learned in class with experiential learning for successful contextual ministry.

Admission Requirements

Admission to the Ministry major begins with completing application forms and submitting them with official transcripts and two personal recommendations. The Wesley Seminary shall determine admission status from the completed forms and student file and notify the applicant in writing of the admission status granted. - A minimum grade-point average (GPA) of at least 2.5 from the degree granting institution.
- An official transcript from the degree granting institution.
- Two recommendations including:
 - One from a pastor or denominational supervisor.

- A general recommendation.
- A three to four page autobiography and statement of ministry purpose. The statement of purpose should reflect one's sense of God's direction in relation to Christian ministry or service.
- A signed Ministry Context form.

Master of Arts - Ministry - Specialization in Spiritual Formation

The Spiritual Formation specialization prepares students to interpret current and emerging spiritual trends and practices in light of Christian theologies of spiritual formation. Students will also formulate strategies for embodied Christian spiritual practices.

Students may fulfill the requirements of this 12-hour specialization by taking the (3) required core courses and any (1) of the list of core electives.

In addition to the MA in Ministry learning outcomes, students with a specialization in Spiritual Formation should, with graduate-level competency, be able to:

- Interpret current and emerging spiritual trends and practices in light of Christian theologies of spiritual formation.
- Formulate strategies for embodied Christian spiritual practices.

Admission Requirements

Admission to the Ministry major begins with completing application forms and submitting them with official transcripts and two personal recommendations. The Wesley Seminary shall determine admission status from the completed forms and student file and notify the applicant in writing of the admission status granted. Regular admission to the seminary constitutes admission to candidacy for the master's degree. The basic criteria for regular admission to the MA program within the seminary are as follows:

- A baccalaureate or master's degree from an institution accredited by a regional accrediting body, the Association for Biblical Higher Education, or international theological accrediting associations affiliated with the International Council for Evangelical Theological Education.
- A minimum grade-point average (GPA) of at least 2.5 from the degree granting institution.
- An official transcript from the degree granting institution.
- Two recommendations including:
 - One from a pastor or denominational supervisor.
 - A general recommendation.
- A three to four page autobiography and statement of ministry purpose. The statement of purpose should reflect one's sense of God's direction in relation to Christian ministry or service.
- A signed Ministry Context form.

Program Requirements

- Students must have completed all required courses before enrolling in the MA Capstone course (MIN-691).

- Registration in the MA Capstone will be cancelled for any students who fail to satisfactorily complete all required MA courses. All requirements for the degree must be completed within ten years of enrollment.

Transfer Credit

- A maximum of nine hours may be transferred from another accredited master's program, provided it falls within seven years prior to admission.
- Students who have taken equivalent courses in their undergraduate program to BIBL-500 The Bible as Christian Scripture, THEO-500 Introduction to Christian Theology, and CHST-500 Global Christian History will be allowed/encouraged to substitute an advanced Bible, theology, or church history elective.

Graduation Requirements

- Completion of core requirements.
- Minimum grade of "C" in each core and elective course.
- Cumulative grade point average of 2.5.
- Successful completion of the Bible Content Exam with a 70% or higher.
- All requirements for the degree must be completed within six years of enrollment.
- Payment of all tuition and fees is required to receive a diploma.

Master of Practical Theology

The Master of Practical Theology (MPTh) is a 36 hour (2 year) master's degree that can be taken subsequent to a student's completion of at least 30 graduate level credit hours (such as a completed MA). This MPTh would create "Master of Divinity (MDiv) equivalence" for students who have completed another master's degree or part of another master's degree. Upon completion of the MPTh, a student would be eligible to apply to a Doctor of Ministry program.

Students completing the MPTh should be able to:

- Demonstrate a solid biblical, theological, historical, and contextual foundation for ministry.
- Integrate the Bible, Christian theology, and church history with selected areas of the practice of ministry.
- Effectively apply a theoretical knowledge to the practice of ministry in selected areas of the practice of ministry.

Master of Practical Theology

Admission Requirements

- A baccalaureate or master's degree from an institution accredited by a regional accrediting body, the Association for Biblical Higher Education, or international theological accrediting associations affiliated with the International Council for Evangelical Theological Education.
- A minimum cumulative undergraduate grade-point average (GPA) of at least 2.5 from the baccalaureate degree granting institution.
- An official transcript from the degree granting institution.
- Two references, including
 - One from a pastor or denominational supervisor.

- A general recommendation.
- A three to four page autobiography and statement of ministry purpose. The statement of purpose should reflect one's sense of God's direction in relation to Christian ministry or service.
- Applicants must currently be involved in an appropriate ministry or be willing to be placed in such a ministry throughout the program (see application for details).
- A signed Ministry Context form .

Program Requirements

- Students are required annually in August to submit an updated signed Ministry Context Form in order to continue in the MPTH degree program.
- Students must have completed all required courses before enrolling in the Integration Capstone course MIN-695.
- Registration in the Capstone MIN-695 will be cancelled for any students who fail to satisfactorily complete all required courses. All requirements for the degree must be completed within ten years of enrollment.

Graduation Requirements

- Completion of core requirements.
- Minimum grade of "C" in each core and elective course.
- Cumulative grade point average of 2.5.
- The MPTH degree must be completed in no less than two years and within six years.
- Payment of all tuition and fees is required to receive a diploma. (p. 749)

Master of Divinity

The MDiv is a 75-hour program that provides high quality, accessible, and economical ministerial training for pastors and leaders involved in local church ministry. To enroll in the degree, a person must have earned a bachelor's degree, be officially engaged in ministry with a local church, and have an appropriate ministry context including access to a local body of Christian believers with whom they can successfully complete the required "in-ministry" assignments of the program. Students take required courses (60 hours) in a carefully sequenced format, but also have 15 hours of elective work (which may, if the student chooses, be devoted to the fulfillment of a specialization in one of several areas).

Wesley Seminary strives to promote the following key learning outcomes in the MDiv program. A student who has completed the Master of Divinity should, with graduate-level competency, be able to:

- Integrate Christian History, Scripture, and Theology in the practice of ministry.
- Contextualize the gospel for the purpose of advancing the Kingdom.
- Personalize spiritual formation for sustainable ministry.
- Lead the church in the practice of ministry.
- Equip others for the work of ministry.

Master of Divinity

The core of the MDiv curriculum consists of six, six-hour praxis courses of 16 weeks each, offered in the Fall and Spring. Each praxis course is further accompanied by a one-hour spiritual formation course. In addition, students take three-hour foundational courses in Bible, theology, church history, and ministry context in an intensive, one week format, along with a three-hour orientation and then capstone intensive courses. An additional 15 hours of elective credits are then needed to complete the 75 hour degree requirement.

Admission Requirements

- A baccalaureate or master's degree from an institution accredited by a regional accrediting body, the Association for Biblical Higher Education, or international theological accrediting associations affiliated with the International Council for Evangelical Theological Education.
- A minimum cumulative grade-point average (GPA) of 2.5 from the degree granting institution.
- An official transcript from the degree granting institution.
- Two recommendations including
 - One from a pastor or denominational supervisor.
 - A general recommendation.
- An endorsement from their local church board or appropriate church body.
- A three to four page autobiography and statement of ministry purpose. The statement of purpose should reflect one's sense of God's direction in relation to Christian ministry or service.

Transfer Credit

- A maximum of 27 hours may be transferred from another accredited master's program, provided it falls within seven years prior to admission.
- Students who have taken equivalent courses in their undergraduate program to BIBL-500 The Bible as Christian Scripture, THEO-500 Introduction to Christian Theology, and CHST-500 Global Christian History will be allowed/encouraged to substitute an advanced Bible, theology, or church history elective.

Program Requirements

- Courses taken at IWU more than seven years prior to admission or readmission to the Seminary cannot be used to fulfill the requirements for this degree.
- Students must have completed all required courses before enrolling in the Capstone Course MIN-695. Registration in the Capstone MIN-695 will be cancelled for any students who fail to satisfactorily complete all required courses. All requirements for the degree must be completed within ten years of enrollment.

Graduation Requirements

- Completion of core requirements.
- Minimum grade of "C" in each core and elective course.
- Cumulative grade point average of 2.5.
- Successful completion of the Bible Content exam with a 70% or higher.

- All requirements for the degree must be completed within ten years.
- Payment of all tuition and fees is required to receive a diploma.

Master of Divinity - Specialization in Intercultural Studies

The MDiv with a specialization in Intercultural Studies is a practical and context-driven program. The curriculum is specifically designed to equip those who are called to intercultural ministry whether globally or among diaspora populations in the North American context. The coursework enables Christian leaders to demonstrate cultural competency and appreciation for the other and to engage other cultures in meaningful ways. The coursework also equips students to develop and lead Christian ministries in ways appropriate for their culture and ministry context. Through the problem-based learning approach, students immediately use skills learned in class to address issues in their ministry context. Peer-learning discussions allow students to benefit from each other's varied global experiences as they learn together.

The Intercultural Studies specialization consists of 12-hours of coursework, with at least 6 hours in Intercultural Theory and at least 6 hours in Intercultural Ministry.

In addition to the Master of Divinity learning outcomes, students with a specialization in Intercultural Studies should, with graduate-level competency, be able to:

- Minister effectively in contexts of diversity exhibiting sensitivity to other religions and cultures.
- Integrate leadership and intercultural theories learned in class with experiential learning for successful contextual ministry.

Admission Requirements

- A baccalaureate or master's degree from an institution accredited by a regional accrediting body, the Association for Biblical Higher Education, or international theological accrediting associations affiliated with the International Council for Evangelical Theological Education.

Doctor of Ministry

The Doctor of Ministry (DMin) degree is a 38 semester credit hour degree that provides advanced knowledge and research skills in relation to an area of ministry practice. The program is structured around two one-week intensives a year for three years under the supervision of a faculty mentor, supplemented by online courses that prepare a student for work on an individual Research Project. At the end of the first three years, the student is assigned a Project Advisor, who will work with the student in the fourth and any subsequent year through the proposal, implementation, and completion phases of the Project.

A student who has successfully completed the degree should be able to:

- Demonstrate doctoral-level competency in the knowledge and skills related to an area of ministry practice, including the implementation of that practice in varying cultural contexts.
- Conduct self-directed research on an area of ministry practice, culminating in a doctoral-level project that presents a research-based solution to a ministry problem and makes a contribution to scholarship and research in that area.
- Apply biblical, theological, and historical insights to the practice of ministry with advanced understanding.
- Demonstrate spiritual, personal, and professional growth in conjunction with growth in the knowledge and skills related to an area of ministry practice.

Doctor of Ministry - Specialization in Spiritual Formation

Admission Requirements

- A Master of Divinity degree or MDiv equivalence, defined as 72 semester credit hours of relevant graduate course work, with at least a 3.0 GPA.
- Students who only have 60 credit hours of graduate work may be provisionally admitted to the DMin, with the understanding that they must satisfactorily complete those 12 hours before final admission to the program and matriculation into a cohort.
- At least three years of full-time ministry experience after receiving an MDiv degree or its equivalence. Up to 20% of students in the DMin program may be admitted without meeting the three year requirement.
- For students whose first language is not English and have not earned a Bachelor degree taught in English in the US, UK, Australia, New Zealand, or Canada, the TOEFL is required. Students must receive at least a score of 95. A score of 7.0 on the IELTS for regular academic admission.
- Official transcript from degree granting institution(s).
- Three letters of reference (one pastoral, one academic, one from a lay person who has been under their ministry).
- A sample of academic writing (10 to 20 page work).

Program Requirements

- Intensives - A student takes two weeks of intensive courses per year for the first three years (it is also possible that some of these courses might be taken online). Each intensive course is 5 semester credit hours, making up 30 of the 38 degree hours. These intensives would involve extensive pre- and post-course work. In some cases, a Faculty Mentor may wish to do one of the “intensive” courses online, but no more than 50% of any cohort design will involve purely online courses.
- Absence from Intensives - In the case of a major emergency, with the permission of the Faculty Mentor, a student may miss one intensive session (one week) in the degree program. In such cases it is up to the Mentor to determine an appropriate way for the student to make up for the lost learning. If a student misses more than one intensive session, however, the student will have to withdraw from the program and reapply to a subsequent cohort.

If a student withdraws from a DMin cohort and then is readmitted to a subsequent DMin cohort, the student may be required to audit seminars for which they have already received credit.

- Withdrawals - If a student withdraws from a DMin cohort and then is readmitted to a subsequent DMin cohort, the student may be required to audit seminars for which they have already received credit.
- Project - Students will be assigned a Project Advisor near the end of the initial three years. An External Reader will also be chosen. Students will continue to register for MIN-802 Project Continuation (one credit hour) until project completion. The substance of the student's work will be in dialog with the Project Advisor. The oral defense will include the student, the Project Advisor, the Faculty Mentor (if different from Project Advisor), and an External Reader.

Graduation Requirements

- Successful completion of 38 hours of coursework with at least 3.00 GPA.
- A minimum grade "B" in each course.
- Successful oral defense of a submitted project.
- All requirements for the degree must be completed within seven years of enrollment in the DMin.

- Payment of all tuition and fees is required to receive a diploma. (p. 749)
